

First Strong 1101

Chapter 1101 - Training

When they returned to the landing point, they had gathered a lot of earth monks on the scene.

Everyone has made arrangements in an organized way. In the commanding heights in different directions, or in the mountains, or in the big trees, there are people who are far away.

On the ground is also a hundred meters away, there is a whistle, it should be rotated, and most other people are waiting in the middle of rest.

Now that the sky has begun to dim, everyone is still vigilant.

Seeing that Shen Lang and his party came back, everyone immediately surrounded them.

“What is the situation now?” Shen Lang raised his hand to signal that everyone should not talk, let people tell some.

When he came over, he quickly scanned the lap and confirmed that the Nanliuchuan brothers, Qiao Yuxian brothers, and Liu Yuchang and other acquaintances did not hang up, so they were relieved.

One, two, three, and a few of them, they all returned to the road, and now they are coming.

However, as a whole, there are still a lot of people who have been damaged. Before that, the total number of people was about three hundred. Now it is nearly one-third of the damage, plus ten of them, and there are two hundred.

Archbishop Paul took the initiative to report to Shen Lang, he has completed the statistics.

They used to encounter the beasts in different places, so the security was different. For example, the one who besieged the beast in the rear basically survived.

Because they met at the latest, and it was originally a small team of temporary combination, just defeated a fierce beast, there is momentum and cooperation, and there is no chaos.

The sooner other encounters, the more dangerous it is. On the other hand, the lower the strength, the more dangerous it is.

According to the statistics included, seventy-eight did not return, but less than one third. Basically, the following subordinates, whether it is the peak of the real situation or the later stage, are hung up, and some of them are also in the early days of the realm.

This is unsuccessful. When encountering such a beastly army, the stronger the strength, the longer it can be supported, and the faster it can be, the naturalness that falls behind is finished.

Whether it is the Eastern or Western monks, Shen Lang is not familiar with them, and does not have much feeling.

However, this number is very large, and the appearance on the surface still needs to be installed.

“Everyone! Today is a very bad day for us. However, you have no time to be sad or sad!”

After Shen Lang said in a heavy tone, he immediately raised his tone.

“this is the truth!”

Originally, everyone is still somewhat dissatisfied. I feel that so many people have died. If you lead the way, don't say that you are responsible, at least you should represent the collective memorial.

But when I heard this, it was a shock.

“When you are on earth, you are a strong man, a master of high hands, including those who died today. But since you have come here, please forget your past glory and lower your mentality.”

“You, don’t say ordinary, at least here is not with the top strong, and recognize the reality!”

“Here, people like Yuxianmen will encounter a huge number of beasts, and there may be other kinds of encounters. All of this requires us to face!”

“If you still maintain a high mentality, it is not good to say, even if you are alive now, you may be in danger later!”

The words of Shen Lang are very harsh, but they are very realistic, so that they feel that the face is ignited, but it is the top of the pot.

Seeing that he finished, one person sighed: “Master Shen, if you just arrived here, you said to us, maybe everyone will be more cautious and valued, and there may be less loss of people.”

Shen Lang looked at him and responded seriously.

“I think you shouldn’t complain, it doesn’t necessarily blame me. But I still want to ask you, I really didn’t say it? Don’t go through the danger, can you really listen?”

The complaints are definitely a lot of people. Those who have their own death will even sneak into the waves. But when you hear this, you are speechless!

Yes, Shen Lang’s sigh is over, so it’s time to ask him to be a guide before coming here.

In the eyes of everyone, it’s all that after seeing Shen Lang’s return from here, the speculation must have great benefits. Everyone is full of interest.

In addition to the few people who went there, most of them went back. No one felt that they would be the unlucky one-tenth. They all felt that the odds were huge.

At that time, the mentality felt that Shen Lang wanted to be alone in this secret, and he was unwilling to share it with everyone, thus surpassing everyone.

When I first arrived here today, everyone was stunned by the “gold all over the place”, and they were all busy with “gold rushing”, and they still heard the words of frustration.

Only after eating this now can you hear it. And I just can't hear it. It's hard to say if I can grow up.

However, after Shen Lang said so much, everyone's mood has obviously stabilized a lot.

More than a quarter of the people who died before, except for a few unlucky ones, are basically the weakest ones, so most of them are affected.

It is already these giants who have not cultivated the gas on the head of the sinking waves.

This is the end of the matter, everyone can only be bearish. In any case, the risks must be recognized. The last time they were without the waves, the risks were huge.

Although it is now on the periphery, everyone still maintains a high degree of vigilance and does not want to stay here.

Seeing that it was dark, Shen Lang did not say anything more, and opened the ship's magic weapon, let everyone leave here first.

Before because of the shadows and losses, everyone wants to leave here as soon as possible. But now I really have to leave, and I am not willing.

Although there are many gains, most of the strengths are lost except for the forces. More benefits must be earned to balance this loss.

But if you are not willing to do it, you have to go. No one has the confidence to go deep into it.

“Master Shen! I heard that when I encountered the chaos, I went to You killed dozens of hundreds of beasts, and the Pope also killed a lot.”

When boarding the ship, someone asked Shen Lang.

“Yes. What happened?”

At that time, Shen Lang opened the spaceship to save them. It was just that time was too late. Everyone was running straight. Even so, they still slammed a part, at least let them pressure a little.

For this, Shen Lang has nothing to admit, do they still want to be divided into Nei Dan?

“I mean... can you be headed by the Pope and you will work together and we will kill it again!”

“Yeah, before everyone was busy looking for resources, they were attacked by these beasts. If we are united, it is a soldier who can be invincible!”

That person’s suggestion was immediately approved by many people.

Chapter 1102 - check

Don’t say that he is willing or not, you see the Pope willing or not!

This is to let them two of the strongest to take the lead, the other two hundred people to cooperate. Who wants to do it?

If the other two hundred people are their own people and gatekeepers, it does not matter, it is necessary to act as this leader.

For example, Shen Lang led a person from the Tianshan Jianzong. He would do this; for example, the Pope led the people of the Holy See, he should be willing.

But what about other irrelevant forces?

They have to deal with dozens of beasts, and when they finally allocate resources, can they take dozens of times?

Besides, if you just get some more common resources, even if they are divided into dozens of times, it is of little significance, but it is a bit of a place.

They should also be fancy this, send the hat of the first tie big brother, let them work hard.

“I don’t know what the Pope’s meaning is. I don’t dare to go any more. Why don’t you talk to the Pope?”

With his strength, saying “Don’t dare to go” is naturally unwilling.

They all laughed and said nothing.

This matter must be combined with the two strongest people of the Pope. Just like in the former Yuxianmen, the lack of one, the effect is greatly reduced, it does not make much sense.

“And the beasts are coming!”

A man who was still on the mountain whistled, and then did not dare to stay there, and quickly rushed over to the spaceship.

Just as everyone has boarded the ship, it has already gone up to the majority. These are still on the top of the treetops, and they still have their responsibilities, waiting for the final boarding.

Now I find that there are fierce beasts in the distance, there are shadows, and I dare to stay there.

They are far away from the whistle. If they don’t have time to return to the crowd, they will only be eaten.

“There is a big one! Like a dragon! Flying fast!”

The man did not forget to report, and while flying down, he said what he saw.

The Shenlang gods sensed the past along the reaction, and immediately became clear that it was the king who had chased the dragon!

After all, this band is the site of others. The beasts also have ethnic talents that humans can't match, let alone this is the king's level.

When they were flying at supersonic speeds before, they were inductive, but after they landed here, they were locked, so they wanted to catch up with the spirits before they left.

“That is the beast of the king's level! You still have ten seconds to board the ship!”

The words of Shen Lang quickly spread to the surrounding area, and at the same time began to drive the spacecraft to start rising.

These words shocked the monks who had been slow to board the ship, and immediately rushed to the fastest speed, and the front was almost blocked.

They are hesitant to go on board not so fast, they are unwilling, and they want to let Shen Lang and the Pope take everyone else to vote.

Now I heard that the beasts of the king's level have been chased, and Shen Lang has started to launch the spacecraft magic weapon, and there are still thoughts.

Those who are on the whistle, especially from the top of the mountain, are the most nervous. They are farther away from the spacecraft. It is difficult to arrive in a few seconds.

When the spacecraft has risen by a few tens of meters, basically people have already boarded the ship, and they have not yet had time to enter the stern of the bow. They also saw that the king's dragon was not far away and was nervous. stand up.

“Go all in! Don't block!”

Naturally, people such as the canoe have already come in. At this moment, some of them are still crowded, and the wind is no longer standing out and drinking, so that they will not affect the waves.

At this time, Shen Lang stayed on the ground, his body flashed rapidly, and grabbed the few people who were out of reach, and took them one by one.

“Thank you, thank you Master Shen!”

After a few of them came up, they were almost a little soft, because they came down from the top of the mountain and the treetops, and they delayed a little time. When they came here, the spacecraft had risen and almost thought they would become abandoned.

Fortunately, the wind was squandered, so that the monks who had just squeezed in and wanted to see the king's beasts went in and let a little seat.

Everyone came up, and Shen Lang immediately drove the spacecraft to accelerate, and as high as possible.

In the deeper area, whether it is in the plain jungle or on the top of the mountain, there is only about 100 meters of airspace, but there is no limit here, you can fly high.

Although Wang Zhelong has not seen this spacecraft magic weapon, it is still clear that Shen Lang is there. He will catch up with a little bit of sight. Immediately, Zhangkou spurts out numerous water arrows and turns into a powerful ice cone, which directly attacks the spacecraft!

Its speed is also played to the extreme!

Zhangkou made a deafening long scorpion!

Even if the sound is inside the cabin of the spacecraft, it feels very loud, and the momentum also makes them feel the mood. This momentum seems to be even stronger than the Pope!

I also suggested that the ones that led Shen Lang and the Pope should not say it at this time. There are such beasts in this level. It can only be how far away!

Lu Feng, who has just left, is actually a bit unwilling, and has not used the magic weapon to stay away.

At this moment, I heard the sound of the king's dragon soon. I couldn't help but feel that I didn't have to think about it. It must have caught up with the waves!

This time, he did not look for help in the past, because even if he passed, he could not help too much, and maybe he would delay the waves. At the speed of Shen Lang magic, you should still be able to escape.

It is even more dangerous to think about himself. If the Shen Lang escapes, it is not good for the king's beast to find him to vent his anger. This made him dare not stop, and quickly cast a magic weapon to leave.

In the swell of the bow, directly stepping in the air, Bai Hong directly shoots the eyes of the king's dragon, regardless of how it evades, chasing its head to illuminate, and shooting it to other places, it will also have an effect.

The monk near the bow saw this scene, and the voice announced the fact to the inside.

"Master Shen went out and delayed the time!"

Hearing this several people, such as the canoe, couldn't help it, and others couldn't stop it, let them get to the bow.

"Several beautiful women, don't know if Master Shen has... Give this magic weapon to you to control?"

"Yes, yes! Master Shen is so powerful, even if you can't kill the king's beast, you will be able to catch up with us safely, but the spacecraft can't have an accident."

Some people started asking what they care most about.

The spacecraft really wants to fall. They are actually no problem. They basically can keep their own safety. It's just that this height is nothing.

But the problem is that the beasts at the level of the king are already close. Once the spacecraft is gone, everyone will be chased again and escaped!

This is a dragon, it will fly! Even if they can fly personally, or have magic weapons, the speed and distance are limited.

Chapter 1103 - Double-help

A few of them, except for the wind, glanced at them, and they did not respond. They all looked nervously at the front.

Before the case of the king, Xiaolang had already told them that they didn't have a good deal, so they are very nervous now.

It's just that on the spacecraft, perhaps only the Pope can help. With their realm, staying can also help, but the problem is that Shen Lang will inevitably protect them and prevent them from being injured. As a result, they become cumbersome.

They did not respond, the promise was already clear, and some people began to talk about how long the spacecraft could go. If Shen Lang can't come back in time, once he leaves a little further, he will surely fall and fall.

Although everyone does not know the control principle of this spacecraft magic weapon, but it is roughly the same. They are all controlled by the connection of the gods. Now the spacecraft is in a state of rapid flight. Once it leaves the range that Shenlang God can control, it will also fail.

On the other hand, Shen Lang is now facing the attack of the king's beast, can he be distracted to control it?

These are everyone's concerns and worries, but no one dares to stand up to help Shen Lang, and no one has suggested that the Pope and Shen Lang should be together and everyone should be besieged.

After all, this is the king of the beasts, and there is no interest in their eyes to drive them.

When it was said that it was too late, in fact, everyone's reaction was in a few seconds. At this time, Shen Lang had already fought with the king's dragon.

The threat of Bai Hong's perseverance can only be under a certain distance. Once it is approached, it is bound to bind the feet.

However, under the magic weapon, Shen Lang is facing the dragon with Liu Yejian.

One person and one dragon swim rapidly in the air. There is no air ban here. You can fly to a higher space without the interference of trees on the ground.

After several rounds of fighting, Shen Lang did not have a positive battle with the dragon, so that in its heart, this human being is not weak, but it is no different.

But now the two people are playing faster and faster, but they are getting scared by the moon!

Because both sides are vying for control of the field, the results are offset each other, and finally everyone can maintain a fast speed without being controlled by the other party.

But in addition to a wide range of fields, each of Shen Lang's swords has a small field, and when approaching the target, with a sturdy force.

To put it simply, when his sword is about to hit, if it can't be spread faster and faster, when it is already close, it will be pulled. It is only a little delayed, but it can be several times. Increase the hit rate!

In the course of their fighting, Xiaolong became more and more shocked and reassessed the strength of Shen Lang.

But in the eyes of everyone on the spaceship, whether it is the girls at the bow or the other monks who are squatting at the stern, they feel that the waves are very dangerous!

After all, there is a huge gap between the two bodies. When a dragon bites, it can bite people and engulf them. The claws can also catch people, and the tail is more powerful. They don't need to personally experience it, they can already feel that one is strong.

And this dragon is very fast and very flexible, just like a snake is always more flexible than an elephant.

Others are nervous, and a few of them are even more worried about the comfort of Shen Lang.

Now the flying ship is leaving for a while, and if they are a little further away, they will be too late to help!

"I am going!" When Dorothy spoke, people had already flew away!

"I am strong and will not have anything!"

When she left, the next sentence came.

"I'll go as well!"

Falling in the canoe and falling rain, and immediately turned back to look at the wind and no Ji, I want to marry her. Because the strength of the wind is not the weakest, in the past can not help, they can still help.

But the wind is no better, but it is more decisive to reach out and grab both of them!

“Don’t be impulsive! They used to be able to play a role in the past. The key is to look at the waves. You will go over, there is something in the event, he can take care of it!”

“We don’t need him to take care of it, as long as we can make a contribution...”

After the rain fell, I didn’t finish it. The wind didn’t stop it. “You can help him in desperation. Can he look at it? Listen to me! What he needs at this time is behind you, little dream. And Dorothy has already gone out, it’s too late to stop it. If you go again, it’s really messy.”

The eyes of Feng Jiji are very sincere.

Although they are not very familiar with her, Shen Lang can give her everything to her, which shows her trust in her. Moreover, the wind has no proof that her ability, in addition to repairing a lower point, the other side is the ice palace can not be the same as the identity of the ice palace.

At this moment, they can see that she is not afraid of death, but also worried about the safety of Shen Lang, but she is more rational.

On the age, she is a little bigger than the canoe, so at this time, we must stand up and stabilize the military.

The canoe was helpless and nodded, and it also caught the rain.

Because in the simple exchange of these words, the spacecraft flew a little further, it is a little too late.

As for the other monks, they did not feel ashamed because their girls rushed to help the waves. They were Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan, and they did not come out in the cabin.

They are a bit shy, about identity and friendship, and it is a bit unreasonable to not help. But the king’s beasts are legendary beings on earth, and they have not seen them in their nearly a hundred years of life.

They will not be opponents at all, and they will not be able to help. In order to avoid embarrassment, it will not come out.

The fast-paced Dorothy arrived directly after joining the battle group. She chose the tactics before Shen Lang, directly attached to the dragon's body, and then grabbed the scales, not Let yourself fall off and wait for an opportunity to attack.

Then a little bit of Zheng Yumeng, when it was flying out, it has already switched to the bleak master!

As the cultivation is getting higher and higher, their two gods can be better equipped. When switching to the bleak "on the line", Zheng Yumeng shared his past with his own memories, letting Shuliang understand how it is, and it will not be embarrassing.

The appearance of bleakness directly changed the temperament of "Zheng Yumeng", and the young and cute girl showed the momentum of the cold swordsman.

All the time, when Zheng Yumeng couldn't beat, she was letting her out to fight. However, she can only improve Zheng Yumeng's combat effectiveness. It relies on experience and technology. Her own strength is limited by her body and she is completely unable to play it out.

Now Zheng Yumeng's realm is getting higher and higher, and there have been earth-shaking changes in the early years. The bleakness of fighting with the sword again can finally play the strongest one!

Chapter 1104 - 1 sword amazing

For Zheng Yumeng, all the earth monks on the scene are aware of it.

Because at first they all investigated the information of Shen Lang, although she did not know her specific information, but when Shen Lang was in Pingxi City, she had appeared, and later followed by Shen Lang.

At that time in Qingchuan, she did not cover up and took her directly to let everyone know that she was a woman of Shen Lang.

There are more and more beautiful women appearing one after another, including those who have been investigated as students of Shenlang Middle School, and no one feels that there is a problem. After all, male unmarried women are not married, and such a young and powerful genius, it is so strange to have a few women.

The big men have already passed this period long ago, which has diminished the feelings of men and women. Now higher realms and longer lives are what they pursue.

Regardless of the information of previous investigations or the facts of this time, Zheng Yumeng did not have much sense of existence for them, but it was just a young and beautiful girl.

Including the rain, the wind, the glory, and even the canoe, in their eyes, they are just young beauty, if not because of the relationship between the waves, they will not pay attention.

Only Dorothy is more aware of the vampire relationship.

This time, everyone has found that their realm is not low, not even most of them are strong. But after all, they didn't see the shots themselves, like they didn't shoot at Yuxianmen.

Whether you look at the back of the stern or pay attention to it through the gods, you can see the scene that shocked them.

I saw Zheng Yumeng, who was not close, and there was a sword in her hand. Then, as she approached quickly, in an instant, she saw the sword of Wandao!

From their point of view, it is simply a large number of swords that she has drawn out, and it is time to completely wrap the dragon's long figure, including Dorothy and Dorothy's Dorothy.

In everyone's opinion, even if she is fast, it is impossible to have thousands of swords in a flash. The only thing that can be explained is that she has displayed a very high-spirited sword style, which is a combination of virtual and real sword nets!

If you are a great master of kendo, it will not be strange to display such a domineering sword.

Even the enchanting genius of Shen Lang can be displayed, and everyone will not be surprised, but Zheng Yumeng, a young girl, can do it, and everyone is really surprised.

Zheng Yumeng does not have many magical origins. Her promotion is undoubtedly followed by Shen Lang and piled up by the resources of Shen Lang.

Therefore, everyone feels that this is undoubtedly Shen Lang taught her!

As for how Shen Lang came, everyone will not take care of it because he has created too many miracles. And like he did the Master League, he got a lot of secrets. The last time I went back from here to make a big move, there must be huge gains. Maybe it is the secret that I got here.

With such a thought, the people who came last time were all hot.

The last time they left Yuxianmen, they waited until Shen Lang rescued them from the underwater world, which is about two months.

In just two months, in this vast world, the territory and experience that Shen Lang can walk is limited, but it can be so rewarded, even pointing to the woman around him can achieve such an achievement!

How much gain he has!

How amazing the world is!

Who knows that this is the soul of a former female sword fairy who controls Zheng Yumeng's body!

It's also a secret praise from the sword that is chilling out, not to mention them.

Now Zheng Yumeng's physical state is still not as good as him, but the tens of thousands of Jianguang that he has made in the gloom are wrapping him all!

Of course, the specific one for him is a virtual sword, but if it is a real enemy, it can also be attacked by him.

When the desolation of the Wan Jian Qi Fei, Shen Lang's Liu Yejian is also close, Wan Jian became his cover, to defend against the chilly offensive dragon, and the opportunity to be caught by the sword of Shen Lang!

In fact, the king is still very confident, even if it is the real Wandao Jianguang, it is not in the eyes, the only need to protect, that is, the eye is only harmful.

But Dorothy, who fell on its back, did not give him the slightest threat. This woman who had a strong sword in the first place made him feel a threat.

Therefore, it seems to evade the sword, in fact, it is welcoming, trying to directly catch the bleak!

The Qiu Shui sword in the sullen hand is not seen in the eyes at all. After all, Liu Yejian can't pierce its claws before.

But the distraction, let it be slightly delayed by a little bit when the dodging wave contains the sword of the field, was hit by the willow sword!

But the place that hits is the scales. It doesn't care at all, and the attack is still bleak.

It is this self-confidence, just underestimating the waves.

Shen Lang has already had a few fights with it, and he will not know the hardness of its scales?

In the process of just playing, he has already zoomed in on the naked eye, the gods and the close-up of the sacred armor, and studied the scales of it!

Now this sword is not directly pierced into the scales. Instead, when the scales are stabbed, the sword is bent immediately, and then slides, along the edge of the scales, obliquely inserted into the scales, and then a strong one. A shock!

When the king Xiaolong felt the pain, Shen Lang was already in the weak place along the scales, inserted in it, and shocked a piece of scales!

Dorothy and so on are this moment!

When Dorothy arrived, it was found that the back of the broken scale was injured, but Shen Lang's voice made her not move there. The stagnant water is too amazing, even the scales can be melted quickly, I don't know how much residue If you **** blood from that place, inhale the residual dead water, it is dangerous!

Now picking up a scale, it is a pain to the king, but it is not a big injury, but it will irritate it, so the key is to create opportunities for Dorothy.

This is the tacit understanding of the three people joining hands to create opportunities and seize each other's opportunities.

Dorothy is still hanging on it, and then ***** blood directly from the wound that cuts the scales!

Desolation can be more than just creating opportunities for Shen Lang. When she comes out, she discovers the strength of this king's beast, so she basically puts the strength that this body can play now to the upper limit.

Just the tens of thousands of Jianguang, although most of them are virtual shadows, there are indeed many swords and swords that hit the dragon. It's just a solid scale that protects it well and there are no obvious injuries.

For it directly caught the paw in front of her, her body quickly leaped backwards, and then spiraled forward again!

Chapter 1105 - Don't force me to kill you.

The bleak retreat, whether it is watching from a distance, or the king of the attacking dragon, thinks that she is going to dodge.

No one thought that this was a retreat!

And the way of spiraling is quite new. For her personal, the speed of the spiral may be a little slower than the direct, but the attack power is multiplied!

And there is also the advantage that it is less easy to capture than a fixed straight line.

However, this is not worth mentioning in the eyes of the king. The skill of small things can be swept under its absolute physique and strength.

It just underestimates the coolness of the bleak!

Although its claws swiftly swept, it can interrupt the chilly rhythm. As soon as it is caught by it, it is likely to be finished.

But the bleakness has been incorporated into the spiral. It can even be said that in the process, she formed a field that belongs to her sword-like fusion.

Therefore, the king of the dragon now wants to grab her body, as if the person reached out to grab a piece of fallen leaves in the whirlpool, it seems easy, in fact, suddenly east and west often fall.

And their distance is not far away, the speed of the dragon is fast, there is only one or two chances to re-appear, then the bleak offensive has arrived!

She seems to target the dragon's claws, but actually it is spiraling upwards and hitting the dragon's abdomen!

Not only the spiral field bonus, but in the moment of the attack, she is flying out of the nine swords, a sword stacked with a sword, reaching a stack of swords!

Before the use of the willow blade sword, it was only a tingling and did not scratch the dragon's abdomen, although he did not use all his strength at that time. But in contrast, it can also be seen that the power of this sword is desolated.

The stacking of her nine swords naturally cannot be completely dissipated, and the overlap is less than nine times. However, because of the short speed and short distance, and the special sword style and the guidance of the sword, the utilization rate is still extremely high, so that the swords of her nine swords are stacked, reaching a level of seven times!

It is precisely because of this that it is possible to break the belly of the dragon. At this moment, the lethality of Jianqi has surpassed the Qiu Shui sword itself.

Of course, the king of the dragon is still overbearing, even if the abdomen is weaker, it is not enough to open it. After all, the current bleakness is not her peak level, but the ultimate limit of Zheng Yumeng's body.

So the torn wound is not that big.

However, this is all within the bleak calculations, followed by the autumn water sword, after tearing a little bit, directly cut into it!

“court death!”

With the roar of the king's dragon, its meaning was sensed by several of them.

In fact, just in addition to the bleak attack, Dorothy is also in a crazy blood-sucking, Shen Lang is not idle, squatting with the dragon is affected by their influence, and immediately spread the power of the field!

At this time, the king of the dragon, as if he had become a veteran cow caught in a quagmire, was entangled and difficult to play. In addition to being pierced in the abdomen, the back seems to have been bitten by a grasshopper...

When a person is bitten by a grasshopper, it will be very tight, and he has to get it down. In fact, the light is the head of the grasshopper, even if it can absorb several times the blood of the body, it is not too big. But who would be afraid that it would go inside the blood vessel?

The king of the dragon is now in such a mood, Dorothy can quickly absorb a strong human, including powerful beasts, but it is high in level and large in size, and it can be fully supported.

But if you don't hurry up, you can't hold a long time to ***** blood. In case this ghost thing enters the body and ***** blood along the rupture, it is a lot of trouble.

But Dorothy is now biting like a grasshopper. How does it struggle and beat it with her tail? She doesn't fall.

At this time, the king who was tumbling in the air suddenly gave a low voice.

Although it is low-lying, the shock wave of tremor is much larger than the roar. I don't know what frequency it is, and I directly fell Dorothy. And I continued to want to use the Qiu Shui sword to break the abdomen of the abdomen. It was a little dizzy and I could hardly stand it.

It was Shen Lang, and it was shocked by the smashing. The people on the spacecraft that have been separated far apart are still shocked, and the weaker ones are even uncomfortable.

"Go back! Don't force me to kill you!"

Shen Lang also passed his meaning to the king, and at the same time, others have fallen on the back of the dragon.

Now he has successfully controlled the field. Although the level of the king is not as big as the average beast, it is also a certain restraint. It is much easier to want other attacks.

When it fell on the back of the dragon, the willow blade of Shenlang had already penetrated into the corrosion of the dead water. When it was finished, it had already cut through the wound, and quickly picked several scales out.

Then his hand gave the sword a tremor, which directly gave the king a warning!

For the front of Shen Lang, the king of the dragon is of course impossible to receive, but feels a piece of scales flying, especially the change of the sword behind the injury, let it shock.

After several rounds of fighting, it has already understood that the strength of Shen Lang is not under it. Whoever loses and wins will see who can fight more. But now there are two helpers on the side of Shen Lang, and the helpers have already attacked the effect, and the speed is consuming its energy.

More importantly, the corrosion of the stagnant water made it proud of its scales defense and a loophole appeared. Shen Lang has just been along the broken place, it is easy to pick the scales.

In the same way, if his sword is not a scale, but a full blow to the corrosion wounds ... it is not only to increase the pain of the wound, but to directly attack the bones!

Losing scales and even flesh, for the dragon, although very uncomfortable, but still can be received. If the bones are damaged, it is really heavy.

It is the king's level beast but it is not the bloodline. Once it is hit hard, even if Shenlang and his party let it go, it will be provoked by the powerful beast who just listened to it.

One end can bear with both ends, and the number is more than one, and it is replaced by encroachment.

And... these humans are now letting it go, don't want to die, if you really succeed in breaking it, might you let it go?

Most of the beasts are driven by instinct, but some are also intelligent. The beasts and spirit beasts that can evolve and cultivate are naturally lacking in wisdom. The beast of the king's level is not inferior to the human race.

All of this is just a matter of thinking between the thoughts. Although the King of the Dragon is extremely uncomfortable, but considering it comprehensively, he still has to succumb to the suggestion of Shen Lang. Otherwise, he can only fight for your life and death. The best result is that both lose.

But let it see the enemies who have captured its pulse, so go, really not reconciled!

The consequence of a slight hesitation is that there are several scales flying away from the body. Next, Shen Lang is likely to kill the next!

Chapter 1106 - Nightingale

The king of the dragon gave a roar and conveyed its meaning to Shen Lang.

This sentence is basically equivalent to accepting the proposal of receiving Shen Lang. It's just that after all, its territory, it also has identity, it is impossible to directly admit defeat.

When it came to this, it had stopped struggling.

Shen Lang immediately let Dorothy and Desolation leave first, and his sword still pokes at the wound. If the king does not believe in the words, he can continue to check and balance.

Desolation and Dorothy are all helping Shen Lang. Since he has already controlled the situation and does not want to lose both, they will not stick to it.

Desolation shares the memory of Zheng Yumeng, knows the purpose of their trip, and knows the status quo.

In the distant spacecraft magic weapon, there are more than two hundred strong planets, including the Pope's unfathomable big man.

Now everyone can respect Shen Lang, in addition to saving them before, and the role of the guide, but also because he is personally powerful!

If his strength is low, then it is not to be flattened by others. For example, the Pope, he may not be directly affected by the waves.

Therefore, it is a completely correct choice not to fight the king with the dragon.

Otherwise, even if they add up to kill the king, they will definitely be injured. Even if they do not move them personally, the Pope can completely “help” at the last minute, and then the benefits of Nei Dan, you can easily pick peaches.

Desolation is rich in combat experience, but also very cautious, so quickly exited nearly 100 meters to the back.

Dorothy is a bit reluctant...

This is the king's level of dragons, and it is alive and fresh blood, although the number is not as much as before, but the quality is not comparable to those who are beasts.

However, since Shen Lang said that she was still sipping a **** mouth, she also flew to the side of the bleak, waiting for the waves. If anything is wrong, they can join the battle group right away.

Their departure, the king of the dragon is also a little relieved. These two little things, one to break its belly, the other to **** its blood, are extremely unhappy.

Shen Lang saw that he obeyed his will, and did not take the opportunity to attack both of them. He also pulled out the Liu Yejian as if he was about to fly away, and stopped in the air with both of them.

The king of the dragon was very reluctant to swim in the air for a while before turning back to the area of the Golden Mile.

“Let's go! Let's go back!”

Shen Lang smiled at them, and nodded to the bleak, and voted for approval. The rumors of her swordsmanship are really not worth picking.

The spacecraft magic weapon has stopped in the air in the distance, because the farther away from the deep wave, the weaker his control is. In order to avoid malfunction, he is not allowed to drift away when he is sure of the king. It is a pause and waiting.

Looking at the three people coming back, the bow and the stern all remembered the applause, everyone is welcoming his triumph.

Going back to the cabin, everyone is not good at it. After all, they didn't know the festivals of Shen Lang and Wang Xiaolong. They thought that they were chasing them and wanted to eat them more than two hundred people. The Shen Lang alone left to confront and must admit that it was a heroic act.

Not only Shen Lang, Dorothy and "Zheng Yumeng" are also very admired. Just under such circumstances, the pope who had the strength to stand out did not stand up. Most of them were really unsure.

Re-distracted to fly the spacecraft magic weapon to fly forward, the sky has also darkened, Shen Lang asked everyone's opinion.

Today, it is a very long day for them to retreat in peacetime. However, they are not familiar with all aspects of the world. Before that, the memory is limited to Yuxianmen.

No, Yuxianmen is not counted, only limited to the imperial cage "Mengyuan".

Today is a great way to broaden their horizons, but the situation in this world is still only the best understanding of Shen Lang.

So it is no accident that everyone still handed over the decision-making power to Shen Lang and asked him to decide what to do.

Shen Lang is also a bit helpless. Originally, everyone wanted to attack Yuxianmen and replace it with it. Later, I found that there are at least two strong people who are comparable to the semi-fairy realm, and there are a large number of masters, which are hard bones that are difficult to kneel down.

It's his decision to come to Kim Jong-Gu, who thought that everyone could harvest one, and the result was seven or eighty.

So he said that he would first find a place to settle down for one night. Everyone thinks about it and decides tomorrow.

From the area of the Golden Valley, of course, you can no longer return to Yuxianmen. Now they are losing their troops. When others are prepared, they are more likely to take a break from them.

But it can't be too close in Jincha Valley, and everyone won't feel at ease.

Anyway, he did not have detailed information and maps for the Han Dynasty. Tangcheng saw very simple, after all, the scope was too big. Now, no matter where you fly, you can expand his own map.

The vast and sparsely populated Han Dynasty is not lacking in mountains and rivers, and basically there are no people.

According to the expectation, Shen Lang stopped at a mountain 500 meters away, letting everyone rest at the top of the mountain for one night.

Stopping at the top of the mountain is for safety reasons. However, during the daytime, they have become cautious, and their respective gods know as much as possible to see if there are any vicious beasts nearby.

Shen Lang is reassuring with a few of them. They are separated from each other by one or two. They are also separated from each other by Shen Lang and other people. If there is anything small that needs to be sent, they can do it.

Shen Lang is not worried, because he and the canoe have gone for a long time before going to Yuxianmen, and then they went with Xu Haoyue and Count Dracula for a long time before they came to Tangcheng and finally returned from Tangcheng. .

So long journeys, I have seen countless mountains and rivers, basically no one animal beasts are naturally quite a lot, that is, there are also beasts and beasts, but the level is very low, not enough to threaten them. level.

This time, I learned more, and the high-level beasts and beasts are gathered in various “forbidden places.”

This may be before the early days, the orcs and the human race formed some restrictions. The power of the human race, they are kept in a fixed area, and they are not allowed to go out for chaos.

As a condition, it is a region with excellent environment, and the Terran cannot invade on a large scale, and everyone forms an ecological balance.

Being able to balance, the key is still enough resources, both sides can get along very well before there is no big man with strong strength and ambition. As for the Terran to the forbidden land exploration, it is a small scope, and if it is trampled to death, it will not form a war.

In the same way, perhaps there should also be places where the beasts ran out of the human race, were hunted, and no one could blame.

“Everyone, you have gained a lot compared to today, but they may not all be their favorite. Maybe you can trade each other.” Shen Lang suddenly gave a proposal.

Chapter 1107 - Have what you want

Everyone checked it and confirmed that there were no powerful beasts nearby. Instead, they landed and let many weak orcs flee.

However, on the whole, everyone’s mood is not high. After all, most people have the same door.

There is no difference between sitting in the sky and flying on the cabin, so Shen Lang made a suggestion.

He is not the harvest of everyone, but the situation at the time, everyone is robbing!

See what is good, and rush to the past, whether it is suitable for you. – The Lord who is afraid of the poor!

As a result, a large part of the food is a chicken rib. It is a good thing, but it is a pity that it is not at home.

Go back to nature to collect, or trade. But why not trade here first?

It is not easy to meet so many people after going back. And everyone will also take their own prices. Now, here, everything is simple, anyway, it's half-day, and there may be more gains in the future.

These are all awkward, and when they say it, they will let them know it.

It's better to have a comprehension like Huaxia. There are some small countries that come out and it's not so easy to trade with others. It is of course the best to be able to exchange things that are satisfactory now.

In fact, because of the previous trend of the animal, everyone has not carefully counted the harvest.

However, in addition to the loss of personnel, they have not lost anything. Because the basics of death are the weakest ones, in order to be able to keep the harvest, to avoid being robbed by people, and to harvest things, they are in the strongest hands.

“Reassure, I am not taking a fancy to you. Just watching everyone do not need to sleep, active atmosphere. It should come out from the previous state, we will be on the road tomorrow.”

Shen Lang smiled and then took out one thing: “In addition, I have something to exchange.”

The words of Shen Lang made everyone feel excited, and they wanted to see what he was going to shoot. Some people immediately took out the equipment they brought.

The status of this trip is unknown. In addition to food and other reserves, some people have prepared some utensils. For example, the battery light, now many people take it out and illuminate the top of the mountain.

What Shen Lan took out is a scale!

Everyone has seen it clearly, and also knows the origin of this thing, is it from the former king of the dragon?

When we encountered Lingcao elixir, everyone was rushing to harvest, and Shen Lang did not start. In everyone's opinion, he must have harvested more and better things, so he can't see it.

Behind the herd, the entire area was affected and many were trampled. Shen Lang estimates that there is no gain, although killing a large number of beasts, but according to someone who has escaped from the herd, they have been stalked by the beasts that have arrived. .

Therefore, Shen Lang said that he did not look at their gains. They believed in it and did not think about what Shen Lang would be able to come up with.

However, I did not expect that he had just pulled the scales on the dragon!

Before they got farther and farther apart, they saw a rough idea. Now I want to come, Shen Lang three people can push the king to the dragon, it must be that the guy is suffering.

Everyone is very interested in the scales of the dragons of the king level.

From the previous Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng, countless swords are difficult to open, which shows that the solidity of this thing can be obtained by cleverly picking it up, otherwise it may not be able to get it when it is alive.

This is definitely a good material for refining the magic weapon. Even if you don't need to refine it, you can put it on your body and you can have a good defense effect. You can save your life at a critical time.

Far away can be brought back to spread the descendants, you can use it yourself, such things, naturally hang up everyone's appetite.

Someone started to talk immediately, asking Shen Lang what to exchange, or what kind of price.

"Don't worry, let's take a look at it and use it to make a deal that you think is of little use. Let's choose each other!"

Shen Lang's answer made the worried person a little disappointed. But I don't feel surprised. After all, there are few things, and I don't know if he got a few pieces. He will definitely not change it out.

Then everyone counted it, and some people didn't need this step. For example, they lost their boats, and they have already counted them in the space of Tianshu. One, two, three, four, they were not chased by the beasts, and after returning to the gathering point, they also counted.

And like the Pope, I am sure that these things are not in his eyes, I don't know if I have any good things. However, even if he got a good thing, he will definitely not come out and trade.

Shen Lang did not report much of the expected value. The original proposal was to activate the atmosphere and let everyone cheer up. Also, let them see if they have something interesting.

However, he will not be reluctant to trade, because it is a scale, and it does not have much value to him. And he is taking out one now, but just made a lot of films.

After some inventory, everyone took out the items that felt like chicken ribs.

Because there are basically two or so forces in each force, one looks at the “station” and the other goes to the booth of another family. Before you want to rush to someone else, exchange what you want, the smaller the better.

Shen Lang did not “set up the booth”, that is, they took a look at them. If there is something satisfactory, just exchange it with the scales.

Those who are coveted with scales are concerned about their hobbies. If the prepared chicken ribs are not what they like, they can adjust the other ones.

However, the canoe, the rain, the wind and the wind have not harvested a lot, they are also embarrassed to let Shen Lang use the scales to trade. In fact, for them, there are many are chicken, but now with Go back and say.

“Dear Master Shen Lang, I have what you need here.”

When they were slowly watching, they were greeted in advance.

Shen Lang looked at it, a Western monk who had no impression.

“Accurately, it is what Miss Dorothy needs, you can understand, don’t dare to lie to you.” The man continued his sincere invitation.

Shen Lang looked at Dorothy, and Dorothy was inexplicable. What she needed was strong blood. Did he want to sell blood? It’s not enough to look at his own!

Although a bit puzzled, but there was no purpose in the Shenlang, they took them away.

I was expecting to be able to trade with Shenlang, and I was a bit uncomfortable when I was skipped by other people. I looked at the past and wanted to see if this guy couldn’t get anything to say, waiting to be smashed.

Chapter 1108 - Scrolls

When they saw Shen Lang, they came over. The Westerners were very gentlemen who saluted them, and of course they respected the habits of the East. They would not be like kisses.

Then he immediately placed a sound enclosure around him, limited to a few of them to hear.

“Dear Master Shen, I dare not deceive you. Dear Mr. Dorothy, my name is Ferdinand, and our family has been a member of the Bat Society for generations.”

He self-reported the door, letting the doubts of Shen Lang and Dorothy unravel.

It turned out to be a member of the Bat Society, and it would be impossible to know the information about the vampire family.

“Please say.” Shen Lang nodded.

Ferdinand also knows that Shen Lang and former bat club president Scott’s grievances, including Dorothy, have no sense of belonging to the bats, so after indicating their identity, they did not mention much.

“This is the case. In our family, there is a piece of information left from the Middle Ages, which contains information about the vampire family. It is useless and has a great effect. Only Dorothy can understand it.”

Speaking of the rumors of the ancestral rumors, Ferdinand was a little proud, a look that “my family has been too wide.”

Shen Lang does not know them very well, but the vicissitudes of life can be very different in hundreds of years. It’s not a big family now, maybe it’s really amazing.

For example, the Rockefeller family, the Morgan family, and the Rothschild family, which was deified by novelists, used to be wider than they are now (then the ratio).

“Mr. Ferdinand, I believe that your family used to be very glorious. I certainly believe in you.”

Shen Lang took the scales directly and put them in front of him.

Although soundproof, but everyone is still concerned about their situation here, seeing that Shen Lang is willing to trade the scales and Ferdinand, are a little envious.

Ferdinand didn't dare to pick it up, but said a little embarrassed: "Master Shen, I... As I just said, this is left by the ancestors. So I can't sell it..."

Shen Lang is silent for a while, don't sell what you told me to do? Call me? Still sitting on the ground?

"No, no, don't misunderstand. I mean... there is a lot of information, and I can only sell the part that is useful to Miss Dorothy. And because this is left by the ancestors, it is not convenient to sell the manuscript. I can only read Miss Dorothy, or copy it."

Ferdinand is still very afraid of the waves, and quickly explained it.

Then he took it out, it was a sheepskin roll, and it looked like it was at least a hundred years old.

Shen Lang thought for a moment, this is acceptable, after all, this is the heirloom of others. A scale in your district has been changed, how do people confess to their ancestors and their descendants?

Anyway, he is not a favorite, no plaintiff is needed, as long as the content inside is useful for Dorothy.

"I can accept." Shen Lang directly agreed, and then put the scales into his arms, indicating that he rolled the sheepskin to Dorothy inspection.

"Thank you, thank you. But I have a small condition..."

Ferdinand showed a pleasing look, for fear that the waves would get angry, he could not afford it.

“In fact, the scales of the king’s dragons are not the most important to me. I hope that Master Shen can promise me. When necessary, I can save my life and take me safely.”

Obviously, what happened today made him have a strong desire for survival, and he was afraid that he could not go back, so he wanted a promise of Shen Lang.

“Of course, I dare not ask Master Shen to be my bodyguard. I will try my best to save my life if I have encountered it and the conditions permit. Try to be as good as possible...”

He was still very guilty. Although he bluntly said this condition, he added it immediately.

Shen Lang is a little admired by him, this guy is much more savvy than others!

Because Shen Lang did not think of what he wanted, so other people who want to change their scales are just taking chances. Ferdinand thought of starting from the woman around him, as long as it is useful for Dorothy, even if the value is not big, the price is not high, will be willing.

Compared with the defensive ability of the scales, a promise of Shen Lang will be more effective.

The scales are strong and hard, and they are dead. You block the trunk and protect your head. I can protect my head and I can’t protect my hands and feet. A fierce beast like the king of the dragon, bite directly, and the scales are spit out like bones.

If Shen Lang promised to save him, he didn’t need to protect him at all times. Like hundreds of people in danger today, he could save him alone, that is, one more life!

“No, I think it should be useless, and I may not be able to understand the ancient text...”

Dorothy even did not analyze so much, and felt that this person has not confirmed what information, the price is too large.

Upon listening to her words, Ferdinand could not help but rush, and quickly turned the prepared sheepskin roll to the relevant page and presented it to Dorothy’s hands.

“Miss Dorothy, you have to look over, I believe it must be very important, otherwise my ancestors will not be recorded seriously. Perhaps, perhaps, can fill in the information that your family does not have...”

When he spoke, he began to stutter and suddenly realized a very serious problem!

If Dorothy saw it, it would be really useful, she can also remember it silently. Then it is not unusual to say that this family has a more detailed circulation, so he is passive.

But now he and Shen Lang are different from each other. Talking about trading is a passive party, and can only hope that Shen Lang has a conscience.

Dorothy is a bit awkward. Regardless of whether she recognizes it or not, this is a bat alliance. Now it is equal to asking her to buy it.

“are these all?”

“Yes, these two pages.”

Ferdinand saw Shen Lang pick up a little relieved. However, after all, it is related to the things of his family, and I don’t want to look at them one by one. Although Shen Lang may not understand, it may not be of interest.

Shen Lang really does not understand, but see Dorothy has been seriously watching, knowing that she should be able to understand.

Other people, such as the canoe, did not understand, and did not say anything, just watching it on the side.

Shen Lang also took a serious look at it, and then took the two pages that were opened on the left and right, took a high-definition photo with the sacred armor, and then used the brain to form a memory. In the process of Dorothy still watching, this memory was injected into her. In the brain.

In this way, she does not need to remember, it is directly printed in her mind.

Although Dorothy was a little surprised, it happened to Shen Lang's body, and everything was not surprising.

"You, you... Miss Dorothy, you don't see it?"

Looked at her and put the sheepskin roll back to him, Ferdinand nervous, thought it was not.

Chapter 1109 - 2 choices

"Thank you, although it doesn't necessarily have anything to do with me, but you haven't made a fake, it's really our message."

Dorothy does not lie, honestly said that she has seen the content.

As for whether there is any gain, it still takes time to digest, and even if there is, it will not directly tell him.

Upon hearing this, Ferdinand took a sigh of relief and then looked at the waves and wanted to see what he meant.

"Do not worry, I promised you." Shen Lang indicated that he could accept the scales, and promised to save his life in case of danger.

"thanks, thanks!"

Ferdinand was very excited. This time he was gambling. Sure enough, Shen Lang cares about the feelings of his woman. Even if the price is not high, he will agree.

"Thank you Miss Dorothy." He did not forget to thank Dorothy.

Shen Lang is ready to tease him: “You have this sheepskin roll, there are other things, do you want to trade with me too? I have a scale!”

He took out another scale.

Ferdinand immediately got up.

A commitment to scales and Shen Lang, he pays more attention to the latter. And now I have got a scale, and one more piece is of course good, at least the front and back body, but he can not exchange things with the ancestors left.

Before trading with Dorothy, the key part is indeed the information of the recorded vampire.

“Okay, kidding, you don’t have to be embarrassed, I won’t force you to hand over the secret.”

Shen Lang smiled and shook hands with him, and it was a successful completion of the transaction.

Ferdinand finally breathed a sigh of relief, or he really worried that Shen Lang was forced to disguise him.

In fact, Shen Lang is not only playing with him, but also with others.

Just what they traded here, although others did not hear the content, but they can also see it.

The envy of other people, Shen Lang is of course also felt, just thinking that he only has a scale, but Ferdinand grabbed it.

Now he shows it again, just to appease others.

Now his mind has changed a bit. Although they have nothing to gain from here, he can’t see anything, but what you bring with you may have any value!

This is what he has always emphasized, discovering treasures from the ribs of others!

If there is a treasure on the bright side, no one will ever take it out. Only by making him feel like a chicken rib, and there is not much meaning to keep it, is it really willing to come out and trade.

For a family, things are limited. Even if it is hundreds of thousands of years, the accumulated chicken ribs may not be of interest to him.

But now the base is magnified a hundred times, and the scope is expanded to almost the entire world of comprehension. That chance is mostly!

For example, this Ferdinand family, normal Shen Lang will not notice him, nor did he think that his ancestors actually have information about vampires, and this can be useful for Dorothy.

Scales, is his bait!

After trading in Ferdinand, Shen Lang continued to watch other vendors' vendors and wanted to see if there was any gain.

Ferdinand's initiative, he quickly got the scales, and it seems that there are unexpected gains, which has inspired others.

There is no stipulation that it must be the harvest of the transaction here, just let the people not use the trade to go out!

So they also took the initiative and began to search for something that could move the waves.

Shen Lang doesn't mind visiting one by one. After all, these are big bangs on the earth, and this time it is expected to be able to go back safely, much more than the first time.

However, it is a pity that even if everyone takes out the inventory and puts out the inventory, there is nothing to satisfy Shen Lang.

There are two who even take all of them out and let him pick them. It's not just chicken ribs, it's really all. So sincere, let Shen Lang a little embarrassed, just pick a little change the scales.

He just harvested a lot of scales, but it is impossible for everyone to take care of them.

So when he came back, he simply sent the remaining scales to the Nanliuchuan brothers and the Qiaoyuxian brothers, and furthered their personal feelings. The last time because of Qiao Yuxian, he had the opportunity to come, and the South is to let him know a back door to the outside world city.

The last piece was given to Liu Yuchang, which was a thank-you for the loss of the boat. The last time because of his care, he had a chance to come over.

They are a bit awkward, but they are a little proud of the envy of everyone. People's feelings, friendship or not, at least in front of everyone has a face!

The scales of Shenlang have been completely released, and others will not have to remember, and the peace of mind of their respective transactions can also better choose the things that suit them.

After a few transactions, the atmosphere was a lot more lively. It was very exciting to change to the items that I needed. No change, no regrets, after all, there is no loss.

Although it is a long day today, it is not really important for sleep for those of us who are not young.

The sinking of the waves is also because there is no clear goal and we need to discuss it.

Now that the atmosphere is better, everyone will start to express their opinions.

Some feel that this is awkward, the harvest is not small, the loss is not small, it is better to go back. If you go to other places, if you encounter a strong enemy attack, then you will lose 70 or 80, and it will be very miserable.

This proposal has received support from dozens of people and is basically the weakest batch.

They all felt a grievance, a grievance that had not been seen for at least 20 or 30 years!

When they were on earth, they were all amnesty, and it was not an exaggeration to say that one party was overlord. The strong person of the realm of the gods is really disdainful, when comes out, everyone is the attitude of worshipping the old gods.

Now among the group of people who have gathered at the peak of the world, they are all awkward. That's it, so everyone is the strongest elite on the planet.

But here, from the Imperial Palace of the Terran, to the group of fierce beasts, they can do a lot of them, not to mention the sense of existence, a careless old life is gone!

It is better to return!

Before coming to , they all burned up the fighting spirit that had not been seen for many years, quite a bit of youthful glow.

But after a day, it was hit by reality.

Just like people from small places to big cities, they feel the difficulties, feel their own smallness, miss the harmony of small cities, and slowly moisturize the days.

The other batch, of course, said that we should continue to sway, and go back on such a day, I just can't see Jiangdong's father! After going back to the same place, Guangzong Yaozu's return.

Going back to a small place, you can go with your relatives and family, there is no big change, and there are days of peace and comfort.

Staying in a big city to fight hard, starting from scratch or even living on the ground is very difficult, and probably nothing can be done in the end. But there is also a broader day, more experience, and more possibilities.

Shen Lang is also hard to say anything, right or wrong, both are choices.

Chapter 1110 - Fire for the earth

After a long discussion, the results are naturally self-evident, and those who are weaker can only listen to the words of the stronger monks.

Those who have turned to the initial level of the gods want to go back to Earth earlier. And if you reach the middle or above level, you still want to continue to do so.

The weaker ones are not too strong, and that is the question of the right to speak.

Looking at their helpless look, Shen Lang is a little bit pity, these are all strong ones, but now it is such helpless, one or two down, and dozens of looks are a bit uncomfortable.

“Everyone, I have a suggestion...”

Originally, everyone basically confirmed it, but when I heard that Shen Lang said that there was a suggestion, everyone would immediately be quiet and would not dare to despise his words.

Today has proved that he is not only the consultants that everyone begged, but one of the strongest two on the scene.

“I originally promised everyone, I want to send you back and forth.”

The opening remarks of Shen Lang made everyone a bit surprised.

“But the accident that occurred today has caused seven or eighty people to never go back.”

As soon as this statement came out, everyone was silent and the atmosphere was once again heavy.

“The rest of the other people, I hope to send it back safely!” Shen Langhuan pointed out all the people on the scene.

“I dare not say that I have the responsibility and ability to take care of everyone, but I can still do it if I send you back.”

“Elder brothers on the scene, obviously have two opinions, just seemingly unified, but nothing more than some of them give in.”

“My suggestion is very simple. If you want to go back, you will go back first. If you don’t want to go back, you will stay here. There is nothing wrong with it. It is not a weak retreat. Everyone has gained a lot and should bring it back. Only bring it back. It is ours – the resources of the earth!”

Those who were weaker than the previous ones were forced to press harder and said that they were cowards. Now that Shen Lang has helped them to get around, everyone is very grateful.

Listen to this meaning, is willing to send them a batch back!

This has already made them very grateful, and they have found a reasonable excuse for them, so that they do not need to be ashamed of guilt, of course, even more grateful.

“I, let’s just take a trip. It’s not a big deal. Please rest assured that other friends will send you back. I will come back to join you and won’t let you stay here forever.”

Shen Lang smiled and comforted.

There are more than one hundred people who want to stay on the scene. They are all strong ones. They really doubt it!

If Shen Lang takes them away and goes back to Earth, they will not come back, then they will be pitted here. It is not easy for them to stand on here. The better way is to go back to Earth to practice after earning more resources.

Besides, their strongest group stayed here. If the Shenlang is not coming back, the next batch of pits will be returned on the road. When you go back to Earth, Shenlang can really be regarded as the world's strongest and can become The king of the earth!

Of course, these words can only be thought of and are not convenient to say.

After Shen Lang said the words of comfort, some of them laughed and said that they fully believed him.

“How do you feel?” After Shen Lang finished, ask for your opinions.

After all, even if he is willing to run this leg, others must agree.

Those who want to go back are of course very happy, but they are not good at making a statement, otherwise they will be regarded as pressure by others.

“Go back! I am the Pope and I are also in favor of Master Shen.”

When the Archbishop of Paul spoke, everyone was able to focus on him, and those who wanted to go were spirited.

“What is lost today is the elite of our world. It is a great loss for the entire world of the earth! I don't know what will happen next. There are a group of people going back first and returning with resources. This is to keep more fire for the earth! ”

Archbishop Paul praised sincerely: “Master Shen Lang has a big picture of the future of the whole planet. This is what we admire. In order to prevent the hard work of Master Shen Lang, we are willing to pay another toll on the next time we go back. To express gratitude!”

Shen Lang is actually a little pity for these big men, but it is very great for him to interpret this for the sake of leaving more fires on the earth.

The last sentence is a bit of a chicken thief. Obviously, he is also afraid that the waves will not come, so he will take the initiative to indicate that he will pay the “road fee” next time.

Everyone else is also an old fox. They are very good at going to the road. They immediately followed suit and expressed their willingness to pay another toll.

Originally, they asked Shen Lang to come, and they didn't pay much. Shen Lang didn't want resources such as Lingshi. What he wanted was something that satisfied him. Just like the transaction just now, it makes him like it, not expensive.

So pay again, they are also willing. After all, buy an insurance to lure Shen Lang back. Besides, the resources here are really easy to get, so that they can wait a little more generously.

And these people who want to go back now are not a martial art. Basically, they are all owned by many sects, and they are not a disadvantage.

Shen Lang also pretended not to understand the deep meaning behind it, and the simple guest set a few words.

Since Paul has expressed his position on behalf of the Pope, others are certainly not in violation of the situation. This is the strongest will of the scene.

The back is everyone to discuss how to go.

Those who were strong before, do not want them to go back, even if they are home, staying can increase their strength and get more resources.

Now everyone says that going back and keeping the fire for the earth is a tall one, but leaving more resources for their family and teachers is their own wish.

So basically they turned all the resources into the weaker hands, and he took them back.

Including Qiao Yuxian, I also decided to let Qiao Zhantian return with the resources harvested today; Nanliushui also shoulders the same mission.

After such a commercial inventory, the result is more than the number of people proposed before, almost 100 people!

When everyone was busy, Archbishop Paul also represented the strong those who stayed and talked privately with Shen Lang.

Including Shen Lang from here, can not accurately find the crack in that space; and they all stay there and so on.

Shen Lang confuses him, saying that he has completely remembered all the routes, and basically there will be no problems, including the voyage in the fog.

As for how it is done, of course, he will not tell him. Paul is also interested, not going to ask the end, this is the secret of others, how can you tell him.

Convergence location, Shen Lang suggested that it was here, before it was changed from a different angle, did not return to the direction of Yuxianmen, which is equivalent to walking five hundred miles, straight line away from Yuxianmen, or there will be nearly a thousand miles, will not Was attacked.

Although this is an ordinary mountain, the aura is not as good as the imperial door. But this world is far better than the earth. Any place is stronger than the best mountain of the earth, Dachuan, and everyone can cultivate.
