

First Strong 1121

Chapter 1121 - It's a bully.

Mu Tianhai was caught.

What makes him hold back is not the cultivation of a young age, but the rationality of judging the situation!

The other two people, originally enough to contain him, and his people want to attack the hostages and failed, no help.

More importantly, from the point of view, he saw the other side's unscrupulous means!

If you deal with a few weaker than them, you can cooperate with two people, let alone deal with him?

He can almost be sure that if he wants to directly sway with Shen Lang, let alone the Qiu Lin Jian Zong these relatively distant, in front of them two will unite to kill him!

To this point, what he can do is to continue to recognize it... Because just that, it is equal to giving him the warning of the next Mawei.

"I have already said that I am not malicious to you, but I want to ask you to confront me and admire him." In swallowing grievances, Mu Tianhai can only emphasize it.

Shen Lang pointed to a few people in Mutian Songyun: "You are not malicious, but when they want to do it, you will not stop. If they catch a group of my friends, maybe your attitude will not be here. Is it the same?"

"..." Mu Tianhai has nothing to say, and this is the case.

However, if the king is defeated, since there is no success, then there is no egg meaning.

"Okay, don't talk nonsense. Hurry and compensate!"

Mu Tianqi was almost vomiting blood.

Doesn't it mean that Shen Lang is a young wizard who is not a world?

In the group, the teenager who spoke to the heroes of the world is not a fairy bone?

Now this swell is exactly like a bully!

Also said that my grandson is Zheng De, compared with him, is simply a baby! Is Zhengde dare to extort a strong person who represents the big family?

Depressed and depressed, the reality still makes him have to bow.

Mu Tianhai was a little angry and took out a storage bag and opened it directly in front of Shen Lang, showing him what was inside.

"I never lie! There are really not so many spiritual stones!"

"Get out and take a look."

This is the magic weapon of Mutianhaihai. Although it was shared with him, it is only Mutianhaihai who can take it out unless the strength is very different.

Mu Tianyu snorted and took the things out directly.

Originally out of the house, he has limited body and no rare items, so he is not afraid to take it out.

After ingesting it, he also looked at Shen Lang with a special look. He just let Shen Lang see the situation inside, that is to prove that he can take it out in full.

Shen Lang roughly calculated that the fine stone of the last class is only five or six hundred, and it can only be one person up to five, but there is no lying.

He waved his hand and rolled all the fine spirits and flew out to the back.

Of course, the Earth's heroes also want to face, and they won't fight for it, but everyone will catch it, and then subdivide after things have passed.

"Can you?" Mu Tianhai said coldly to Shen Lang: "Would you like to search for them? I can guarantee that you have nothing to gain!"

Shen Lang did not pay attention to him, but took the same items that were still in stock.

These spiritual stones, Mu Tianhai, are estimated to be used as money. In case of encounters such as purchases, this is the currency. Other things, some bottles and cans, are estimated to be detoxification and other medicine bottles.

In addition, there are some herbs that have not been dried, and the one that Shen Lang sees is the same, three jade peaches.

Seeing that the jade peach arrived in the hands of Shen Lang, Mu Tianyu sank his face.

"How? You are so arrogant, in Tangcheng, in the Kingdom of China are well-known figures, but also get the attention of Qiu Lin Jianzong, actually want to eat words? This will also grab my other items?"

Mu Tianhai first took the big hat and buckled it on the head of Shen Lang, so that he could not come to the fame for his reputation.

However, the earth group sounds like it is secretly surprised.

Shen Lang last time here, it will be a month or two, actually has already left such a name?

Tangcheng and Han Guo, Shen Lang have spread to them, knowing that this is the collective name of this huge territory, and Tangcheng is the largest core city.

How did Shen Lang at that time be able to make a name for himself?

Wherever the Wizards go, they can create miracles!

“Growing words?” Shen Lang sneered: “Have you just listened carefully? Lingshi is to compensate these friends, because you offended them, this is an apology compensation. But me?”

“You, what do you want to do?” Mu Tianhai was almost rude. When he said it, he did not emphasize it. He thought it was a calculation.

“Mu Tianzheng defied me. I simply took him something. The weak one, I don’t know who is not guilty, it doesn’t matter. You old things, but have a head and face, know my situation completely, and must offend me. I don’t have Take all your things and take them symbolically. It’s already very interesting!”

Before we heard the negotiations between Shen Lang and Wei Qingcheng, I know that this guy still has a set. At that time, because he was a little angry, he betrayed everyone. Now think about it, it is really eloquent.

“The Pope, don’t be polite!” Shen Lang also invited the next pope.

The Pope is to face, or the rest of the medicinal herbs he can not see, just shook his head faintly.

This makes Mu Tianhai very moved, in the end, the older people, is more particular about it! The young people now are simply!

Then he quickly took everything up to so as not to be taken away by this kid.

“You are more than us now, and stronger! I have to bear it! But the truth is to make it clear, I have not offended you, I am very polite, I am not doing it to you, you are doing it to us!”

Mu Tianhai’s one yard of code is clear, he still has to take advantage of it.

“They just want to attack us, I will replace everyone. This is not offensive? You are... are you going to draw a line with them?”

Shen Lang smiled and smiled at the other nine people: “If you want to draw a line with them, then I am welcome!”

Mu Tianhai secretly smiled, met this devil, it is hard and soft, do not eat dripping.

“I was wrong. I don’t draw a line with them. I didn’t bind them. It’s not that you grab me. It’s my compensation to you.”

I was afraid that Shen Lang would make a fuss about the nine people, and Mu Tianhai endured the depression and quickly bowed to Shen Lang.

“The attitude is good, take them away!”

Shen Lang waved and sent them away.

Mu Tianyu took a deep breath and turned the big ship in the gutter today, making him feel that his life is a shame.

This hatred is not a non-gentleman!

“Since you are not willing to follow me, then I have to wait for me to go back to Yangcheng. I welcome you to have time to come to Yangcheng to be a guest. He has a chance and we will visit Tangcheng!”

This scene has just been said, and Shen Lang has taken a step forward.

Mu Tianhai was shocked, afraid that the devil turned his face on the spot, and quickly rolled up other people, and flew away!

Chapter 1122 - Message

Looking at them after they left, everyone immediately came over, and the combination of Shen Lang and the Pope once again pushed down the enemy, giving everyone a greater sense of unity.

The number of people is now nearly two-thirds less than before, and most of them have been together last time, and they are more intimate.

Now the strength of Shen Lang and the Pope's dual core has been fully highlighted, so that everyone has a cohesive force.

Seeing that they have just caught the Lingshi to bring the Lingshi back, Shen Lang said directly: "I am not taking you as an excuse to rip off the bamboo. These are really for you. You have to divide it yourself!"

"How interesting is that?"

"Yeah, we have nothing to do."

"Master Shen, we will be a symbolic one."

Visual inspection everyone can be divided into five or so, already a lot. Because of the large base relationship, the compensation that had previously forced the Yuxianmen peace talks was not excessively divided into three.

It is also because most people are missing. If you follow the previous scale, one person can get two or so.

But they really didn't do anything, so it's a little embarrassing to take five. Even if people don't care, they don't accept it, and they have to give up.

"They came here because of me. I met a few young people that day. I was not in a good position. I learned a little about it. I thought we didn't have a fixed place, we wouldn't meet again, we didn't kill people, we didn't expect them to be so fast. I found it."

Shen Lang simply said it, but he didn't need to explain to him, but the Pope took Paul back to the Golden Mile and gave him a little more consideration.

The Pope should have chased the former King of the Dragon and guessed that he had benefited from it, and it was directly related to the king's beast. So I want to go back and see if I can get a wave.

If he finds and meets the king, he may already know the things of the spirit!

After all, the king is very wise. Since he can't take it back from Shen Lang's hands, he doesn't mind letting others make trouble for Shen Lang. Perhaps the meaning was revealed to the Pope.

The value of Lingmai is much larger than that of Yuanling Stone. It is the biggest gain of this trip. If you don't, others will not be greedy.

But originally he would be against the Pope, knowing that it doesn't matter.

Now talking about the things of Mutian Zhengde, just don't want more people to guess. The more people there are, the more difficult it is to prevent. It is necessary to prevent a person from being very tired. To prevent more than one hundred people, it will be very energy-intensive.

"You are fine, I am very pleased, otherwise it is really embarrassing. So, I have to get compensation for everyone just now! And everyone is so supportive, I am very touched."

After that, Shen Lang indicated that everyone had divided the Lingshi.

Originally, everyone also wanted Lingshi, five superior Lingshi, they are not very useful, and bringing back is a good resource. After Shen Lang gave them steps, they were welcome.

When everyone splits the stone, Shen Lang is a hand, and the three jade peaches that have just been received are sent to the Pope.

"The Pope is just in time for your timely support. Otherwise, it will really be a big fight. This is my personal grievance, so this is my gratitude!"

Before Shen Lang's negotiations in Yuxianmen and Weiqingcheng, everyone heard it. He must be self-interested, and the benefits would be a first-come one.

This time, everyone also saw it with their own eyes. All the gains were also made, and they all came out. It really made the Pope a little surprised.

Shen Lang smiled: "Reassured, I will not have any attempt. I don't need to tie anyone, right? I am grateful for your help!"

He is not hypocritical, it is true. This time, the Pope's timely support has directly changed the situation of the war, which is more effective than the support of the other hundred.

The two of them are not friends, they are competing with each other, and they are also prepared for prevention and suspicion. At the crucial time, it is quite gratifying to be able to have a consistent gun.

This is a heartfelt thanks.

Of course, in the end, the generous is still rich!

I wanted to get a jade peach in Qiangjialing. I was reluctant to use it. I kept it, I hope I can have a miraculous effect at a crucial time.

But now his realm is very strong and does not need to rely on. There are more resources, and the jade peach is not so precious.

I also got five from Weiqingcheng before, and combined with a lot of Nedan, it is more than enough for them to practice. It's not a big deal to send these three out.

Having said that, the Pope is obviously still a little prepared and has no feeling of gratitude.

"Everyone is a partner who comes together. It will be the same decision if you change to me. I have not done anything."

After that, the Pope reached for a jade peach. “This is a reward, I have accepted it.”

Shen Lang smiled and daggered: “Oh, then I am not too polite to you.”

Everyone is already in the valley now, so there is no need to go back to the previous peak. Anyway, they have to leave.

The process of splitting the stone is very fast. Everyone is a person with a head and a face. It is really not enough to divide one or two and there will be no quarrel.

Then everyone put all their attention on Shen Lang and the Pope.

They are the core of everyone, and it is up to them to decide where to leave. Among them, Shen Lang is the main one. The Pope has only strength, and he has no advantage in geography.

Especially when the words of Mu Tianhai are just combined with the attitude of Weiqing Qingcheng, let everyone have a little more understanding of the influence of Shen Lang on this side, and also think that he is more mysterious and powerful. .

“I believe that everyone should consider the future in these days, but before the discussion, I have one thing to explain to you.”

Everyone has a certain understanding of Shen Lang. Knowing that he can be so formal, it is not a trivial matter, and he listens very seriously.

“There is a situation, maybe everyone is not paying attention, but I have always been concerned about it, that is, the area where there is no return to hell!”

At the beginning, let everyone feel a little sinking, a little bad feeling.

“When I went back this time, I paid special attention to it. I will send you back and come back, and then compare them carefully. I found that there is a difference. Of course, the difference is not big, it may be an error.”

“But compared to when I was looking for you in that area, there were already obvious differences. When compared to the first time, the gap was even greater.”

When everyone is waiting for the answer, Shen Lang has no appetite: “It’s getting smaller!”

In fact, it doesn’t matter with the first time. It is only half a year after the rescue of them.

However, Shen Lang is not prepared to tell them about the sea, it is simply a matter of time.

This conclusion, even if everyone is prepared, still feels a bit heavy.

“Isn’t that been there for a few hundred years? How can it get smaller and smaller in less than a year?”

“Is it because of the impact of our entry and exit?”

“No, it will not be just a batch of hundreds of years ago, but there will be people entering, more than us.”

Chapter 1123 - leader

Since they did not want them to know about the sea, Shen Lang only gave the data inference of the change, and did not give reasons.

However, everyone talked a lot, and soon from this time and the difference in history, I found a rationalized conclusion because I went back.

There has been no change in the past few hundred years because history has been one-way and no one has ever gone back.

They used to go back together with hundreds of people, and this time Shen Lang also went back with a group of people.

The mysterious fog of the chaotic space is to make everyone feel at ease. Perhaps it is the process of going back, letting these mysterious substances affect the cracks in that space and causing changes.

“Master Shen Lang, what do you think is the cause?” When there is no correct answer, everyone asks Shen Lang, he will be the most authoritative answer.

Shen Lang shrugged “I just paid attention to the change. As for the reason, it is not so important. It has already appeared. We should have no way to stop or change.”

Everyone is a bit frustrated. For those who have no return to hell, they have never understood each other. They all know that there is no place to go back, and there will be a saying that there is no return to hell.

Just because Shen Lang brought everyone back, let everyone think that this is a sustainable development channel, and ignited infinite hope. Everyone feels that they will be the characters who influence the historical process.

Now this basin is cold, so everyone is helpless.

Shen Lang said yes, why did it appear in the beginning, no one knows. It will shrink or even disappear now, and it will not be manpower.

“From time to time, I estimate that it will eventually disappear, it may be about two and a half years. It is estimated that it appeared at the beginning, and today’s scale is not sudden, but slowly expanded.”

“If it is because of the impact of our return, it can only reduce the entry and exit, but not outside the final time limit.”

The words of Shen Lang have been recognized by everyone.

There is still a variable to calculate, and the number of times to go back is hard to say. If you go back, you can’t come again.

But you can't hold it, as long as you don't go back, you won't change, you can still go back.

The conclusion is very obvious. This time, everyone can't just take a ticket and leave, and be prepared for a long battle.

But this long time is also at most two and a half years. Considering the error, it is best to go back within two years.

"It's not the end of the world. I thought we were the first time we came, but we don't know how to go back. We are already lucky too much compared to the ancestors hundreds of years ago."

Shen Lang smiled and said something.

"For us, we can go back, we can come back, it's already good."

"Even if we have to disappear one day, we still have two years, and two years can still do a lot."

"The last time the cough could only be counted by Master Shen, we became a prisoner in the middle of the culprit, and there was no place to go. There was nothing to gain, and Shen Master saved her to save us."

For centuries, those ancestors who could no longer go back, everyone is not downcast.

Especially when I think of nothing last time, I lost a lot of people this time, and everyone started to realize that we should cherish time and cherish life.

These days, they all have a variety of totals, consultations and imaginations.

But that is based on the fact that you can go back at any time and come back at any time. Now you have to think carefully.

“Shen brother, you are our boss, it is our core, don’t be modest, let us be a clear way for us. A long-term plan that can develop two years.”

Qiao Yuxian directly called it. This is an open opportunity for the “Boss” status of Shen Lang, and it is also an opportunity for everyone.

There can be no more than two leaders, at least the primary and secondary should be clear, or it is easy to delay things. Compared to the Pope, who has a very high prestige in the West, he certainly admires Shen Lang.

Abandoning can be called brothers and brothers, at least Chinese people, can take care of more. So he took the initiative to bring this head.

When I said this, I immediately got everyone’s enthusiastic support. The first is the acquaintances of Nanliuchuan and Liu Yuchang, and then the herd effect immediately became prominent, so that everyone can follow the waves.

The Pope is very influential, but it is also hierarchical. The greater the influence at the grassroots level, the stronger the influence of the stronger people.

Shen Lang is not the same. For the majority of the big brothers, Shen Lang has had two life-saving graces. Regardless of whether they were in Yuxianmen that day or just faced with them, he showed the influence and responsibility of a leader.

Not to mention that he is here, for two months, it has already formed a great influence. In which way, it is the best candidate for the core boss.

The Pope next to Shen Lang did not show any emotions. Of course, it does not directly show dissatisfaction and dissatisfaction, and his status is different, and he does not support the other waves with others.

But like the Archbishop of Paul, it is a bit embarrassing.

The last time he could consider not competing and supporting the waves, but this time it was different. The Pope was his boss.

However, the current situation has prevented him from publicly supporting the Pope. Including some followers, and only a few of them are obedient to the majority.

Shen Lang had never thought of becoming the leader of everyone But now this situation is not a resignation from his resignation.

At this point, he can't leave everyone running.

Fortunately for two years, it is still very long, and there are many things that can be done.

"Everyone is recommending me. It is a bit embarrassing. Because I am the youngest one, I am not qualified to lead everyone. But everyone did not say anything wrong. My experience here is a little more than you. It is a guide. People"

Shen Langqian's words have just been finished, and Nanliuchuan immediately cooperated with the momentum.

"Master Shen, you should not be humble and slang, saying that you are not high in the year, and that you can be long. Your strength, everyone is obvious to all, and together with the Pope, is the strongest among the people on the scene. Plus your relief on this side, two circles The advantage of going back and forth, you are our leader"

In order to show respect, he did not call the Shen brother, but the master of Shen.

They all saw that the Pope had not expressed anything at all, so he also specifically mentioned two people at this time.

"Well, when it comes to strength and experience, if I refrain from resigning, it will be a little hypocritical. I will be the leader of everyone. I have just mentioned the Pope, and the prestige and strength of the Pope are more than me. Right, just lack of experience here. I propose that Pope Constantine V is the substitute leader. When I am not there, I will decide."

"Good" this time, not only South, Joe and others, but the West is also enthusiastic support and support.

After all, the status and strength of the Pope is there, and it is reasonable to carry it to the second. The deputy is also the leader.

Chapter 1124 - Attack plan

Shen Lang was arched as the leader, and he agreed to make it difficult. The Pope is going to be his deputy, but it is even more embarrassing.

However, in the current situation, he is also very clear that it is impossible to suppress the waves. Unless Shen Lang is based on the principle of “respecting the old”, let him be the leader and be willing to be a deputy.

However, since Shen Lang has promised, naturally he will be the boss.

But he must also swallow it. If he doesn't agree, it seems to be unintentional. And most people support Shen Lang. Is he still a small group of people to leave?

Just as he will decisively support Shen Lang today, that is the best decision.

Shen Lang is the leader, not to press the heads of these worlds, but for the monks who come to the earth, everyone can unite, so that the dragons have no first sand.

After determining the structure of the two leaders, they are the first to decide the direction.

These big monks, on their own sites, have always done this. The general specific affairs are long gone, and they are responsible for the development policy of the family and the sects.

But now it's not up to them to decide, because they don't know anything about the situation and need to sink to the helm.

“We were originally a short-term goal, so after the stage victory of Yuxianmen, I transferred to the Golden Mile, but now I have a medium- and long-term goal.”

In fact, Shen Lang does not have a comprehensive plan. It can only be adjusted while doing one side.

“Two years, it is very abundant and very tense. We have only one goal – resources, as many resources as possible!”

“The last time I went to Yuxianmen, of course, everyone has the idea of revenge, but it also proves one thing. That is, the sects here, even ordinary martial art, are much stronger than we think!”

This is a bit harsh, but everyone is also deeply convinced that this is the case.

According to Shen Lang, Yuxianmen is not a particularly powerful martial art, but also a martial art that is placed in a remote side. Today, the Yangcheng Mutian family, just come out and “find the grandson”, there is the power to suppress them more than a hundred people, it can be seen how powerful the forces here.

“This aspect requires us to be more united. This is why I am willing to be the leader of all of you. We must change the dragons without heads to avoid a loose sand.”

“On the other hand, it also warned us. It is impossible to get resources quickly by looting local sects.”

“The conclusion is: we must take risks and get more resources in areas like Jinjiu Valley! In the second half, when we have sufficient resources, I will take everyone to the biggest Tangcheng here. ”

“In Tangcheng, we can use some resources to exchange for better magic weapons, remedies, secrets, etc. These are also the comprehensive resources that we will bring back to the earth!”

Shen Lang’s speech is very simple and the subject matter is clear.

Everyone said that they would follow Shen Lang’s decision and let him give a clear arrangement.

“I think our first destination should still be in the Golden Mile area!”

Say, Shen Lang took out the map given by Wei Qingcheng and showed it in the air so that everyone could see the map.

Then he followed the map and drew it on the ground.

“The place where we landed before is probably here. In fact, we are probably exploring this one...”

Shen Lang has a larger map on the ground and made a general annotation, so that everyone has a general understanding of the Golden Valley area.

“There was no such thing as ignoring the sea. His grandson was disrespectful to our party, and I also forced him to ask for information about Kim Min-gu, because Wei Qingcheng gave us too simple.”

“Basically, this large area belongs to the core Jinbu Valley area, and the area outside to this side is the extensive area outside the Golden Mile.”

Shen Lang combined with the ground to portray the information of the Golden Valley, and shared with you.

“So now you should understand what I mean, not letting everyone go back and provoke the thousands of beasts. But instead of going to other angles, tempting from the outside, not provoke the herd, not provoke the king’s beasts. Let’s get as many resources as possible!”

It must be said that those who have been chased by thousands of beasts have a little psychological shadow except the Pope.

If they want to go back to the Golden Valley, there is no enthusiasm even if there is no way to go back.

Now the information that Shen Lang monopolizes is shared with them, letting them know that the large-scale Jinjiu Valley is so vast and reassuring.

It is impossible to have so many beasts in every place, and the number of people is now sharply reduced. The average strength is much stronger. As long as you are vigilant, you will not necessarily make such a big move.

“There is one more point that must be emphasized. From the core area starting from here, there may be many kings and beasts in this large area! In this core area, there may even be beasts!”

Everyone couldn't help but take a breath, the beast!

Although I don't quite understand the meaning of the beast, but from the name, I can guess a general, and from the contrast, this is a much more powerful existence than the king's beast, is the real hegemon of this forbidden land!

“So, our experience a few days ago should be strictly kept in mind. Try not to go deep into only on the edge of the core area. Go along!”

Shen Lang is using a sword to draw a line on the map, and everyone will pass it naturally. The quality of peripheral resources is limited, the deeper the quality, the better, but the more dangerous, so at the core edge, it is a balance point.

The entire Golden Mile Valley is so huge that it has been around the core edge for a large circle, which is enough for everyone to earn.

Watching everyone ignite the desire, already eager to try, Shen Lang smiled: “The last thing, I will work hard in the future. Just like I just came back, the ship of Yuxianmen, it is related to us going back, can not be a daily traffic The tool is consumed.”

Everyone understands this, and then waits for the waves to guide the way.

It's five hundred miles away from the Golden Mile, and it's a lateral angle with Yuxianmen. So if you go to the outer edge of the Golden Mile, you'll be a thousand miles away from the last landing. .

Under the leadership of Shen Lang and the Pope, more than a hundred strong planets are marching in the direction of Jin Haogu in another direction!

There is a sacred armor to refer to the positioning according to the previous trajectory. Even if it is a wide range of walking thousands of miles, Shenlang will not take the wrong way, and it can adjust the deviation in time. Will not go further and further, and will not be biased back to the previous place.

In the process of rushing, Shen Lang thoughts did not stop for a moment. In fact, he also has a clear goal. Since the king of the dragon is a dragon, you can occupy a thread, which means that there are certainly many threads in the core area!

If you have the opportunity, then of course, you can make a few more, which will be of great benefit to his future practice, or to future generations.

But he also has a problem that is a bit tangled.

Chapter 1125 - Distribution detector

Like last time, everyone's rush to grab resources is definitely not acceptable. The goal is big, the movement is concentrated in one place, and it is very easy to alarm the beast.

However, if we completely separate everyone, if the territory is extremely vast, there is no long-distance contact, and there is no direction to refer to it, it is easy to break away.

It is also very dangerous to get rid of it. If it is not good, it will be swallowed one by one.

There is no way for Shen Lang to use the technology of the river basin as a sacred armor of the micro-intelligent combat readiness system. There are also many attachments. For example, the mini-detector was quietly placed on Lu Feng last time.

Although used here, the functionality is limited and can't give them too good. But at least it can guarantee that Shen Lang can take the overall situation. Once anyone is in danger, he can go to the rescue. When he is gone, he can also find it one by one.

What makes him tangled is that this will expose the technological items he owns to a certain extent!

However, when it came to the periphery of the Golden Mile, Shen Lang made a decision. All he has to think about is the life of everyone, but it is impossible to follow them like a babysitter, or to give a little technical product.

Many of these are old people who are nearly a hundred years old. Even if you know the current technological development of the earth, you can't understand the latest situation, as long as it is prepared on the earth.

"Everyone, we have reached the edge of the Golden Mile Mountains."

Everyone is very excited. The difference between here and a few days ago is very obvious. Naturally, they should be far apart. This time is a long-term plan. Everyone feels that there is a choice. Resources with insufficient levels are not needed.

"We had some lessons to absorb last time..."

Shen Lang said his opinion and everyone has reviewed it.

"... This time, I am going to let everyone disperse. The whole team is divided into ten teams. Everyone knows how to team up and try to average them. I recommend a small captain." Shen Lang said that he nodded to one, two, three or four. They also joined.

This is not difficult. When I was resting on the top of the mountain before, and forced into the valley, everyone was familiar with each other.

"I am doing this, just to make everyone more flexible, do not need to compete with each other, the scope is bigger, the overall will not be so conspicuous. I know that your concerns are scattered and difficult to find."

"This is what I prepared before I came. I have the nano-quantum pulse. Anyway, it is the latest high-tech. It does not require satellites. It can also transmit signals. The scope of testing is very large. Of course, it is impossible to reach thousands of miles away. ""

Shen Lang has a few nouns, and these old men will not know more than him.

He said that he was prepared before coming. Everyone actually didn't believe it. He thought he should have prepared it after he last went back!

In fact, some of them are also preparing for it, but a lot of things found here can not be used.

“Basically, I can find you based on the general positioning. If you are in danger, call for help. I can also hear it. – Don't worry, you can set keywords. I usually don't listen when you talk. You can rest assured. Behind me is bad.”

This joke will also ease the atmosphere, and all of them are old, and in the precious time of treasure hunt, naturally, there will be no boring behind the boring words of Shen Lang.

“There is no specific line at the edge of the core area. You need to make your own judgments and decisions. I and the Pope may go deeper and let everyone do their best! The ugly words are in the front. If you insist on going deep into the core area, you will be provoked by the king. Blame me for not saving you, is the fastest speed I can fight for, and I can't come soon!”

Shen Lang also gave the Pope a WeChat detector. As long as the Pope will not close it and shield the signal, it will not matter.

“If there is no unexpected situation, everyone will meet again in a month. As long as you keep this communicator not lost, I will find everyone one by one.”

In the end, Shen Lang confirmed a direction. In fact, there is no suspense. If you go back to the other side, you will return to the area in the previous few days.

In this way, everyone began to distract themselves.

Since they are sub-squads, they certainly hope that with the familiar relationship, Shen Lang will be with them, so that they will not have more resources, at least security is guaranteed.

However, they also noticed that one, two, three, and four were also teamed up with others, and they died.

They can only be regarded as friends, but four of them are servants, and Shen Lang has not brought them. Naturally, as he said, he has to go to a more core area to explore.

This is also a no-brainer. If they have the strength of the Pope, they will naturally be qualified to go deep into the team.

Because the area is big enough, the ten teams are scattered and will soon be far apart.

Shen Lang also passes the Holy Grail and can confirm the position of everyone in their place at any time. As he said, he filters keywords through the Holy Grail, or it takes too much time.

And as he suspected, the signal of the Pope's detector soon disappeared. It is his income into the storage space, which naturally isolates the signal.

Shen Lang does not have to worry about him. If the Pope needs to ask for help, then the enemy must be a headache for him.

Everyone can start from the periphery and collect the elixir gradually. The Shenlang goes directly to the core area. In order to save time, he uses the sacred armor to speed up.

Spiritual, this is what he wants.

But where is the thing that can be found, he has no clue. Just like everyone, after entering the core area, you can only use the most stupid way – carpet search.

The last time I knew that I entered the core area because I was alarmed by countless fierce beasts, but I found that the king was a dragon, but because of Lu Feng's relationship, he might have ignored the pond directly.

More importantly, the one they landed in is the place where the king is.

This time may not be so lucky, the scope of a king's beasts may reach a thousand miles, or even thousands of miles, not necessarily directly hitting.

However, sufficient time has been prepared, initially one month, at his speed, enough to search for a large range.

The landing began to search, Shen Lang also saw a lot of high-grade flowers and flowers, although he personally does not need, but some are also picking. Whether it is to give the canoe, the wind without the Ji, or to give people, to replace the items, it is also possible, anyway, he does not lack spare space.

This is a dozen days!

There are no traces of the spirits or the king's beasts in a dozen days, and the other ten teams are also getting more and more scattered. A month of confluence, when you need less time, he is not allowed to be busy.

Chapter 1126 - Mi Gu bluff

Through the carpet search, Shen Lang has harvested a lot of medicinal herbs along the way, but that's it. Did not encounter something that surprised him, this is also helpless.

However, the last half day can meet the king of the dragon, and finally smashed Lu Feng's leak, it is also a rare lucky, not every day.

Shen Lang is still calm, but I have to admit that he is now getting deeper and deeper, and there is already a long way from the peripheral area.

These days are naturally inevitable for the beasts. However, he had won a large number of Nedans last time, and he was not very interested in non-king beasts.

As long as he didn't come to him for trouble, he could avoid it and avoid it. With his strength, plus the mysterious stone, he could basically do it with ease.

If there is a beast on his front side, he will be killed directly and bluntly to avoid alarming more beasts.

In case of a beastly beast, he has no problem. Other earth buddies will be hit if they are not good.

On this day, Shen Lang came to a canyon, and he could see the shape of the “one-line sky” from far away.

Such an environment, although not in the grass, is generally not a place where plants are abundant. He does not want to find flowers and plants, but to see if he can find minerals.

In this world, Lingshi is very rich in reserves. It is not a rare mineral deposit in mainland China or in major overseas cities.

If you can find a source of Lingshi mine, it is really made, and carrying countless Lingshi leaves is also a huge gain.

This “first-line sky” is very high, and the width of the cliffs on both sides is one or two meters wide. In the cold weapon war era, it is the throat of the husband who is a husband.

There is no purpose for Shen Lang, and it doesn't matter which way you go. I will come here and I want to see if I will pass through here and discover the mineral deposits.

However, near the “first-line sky”, there was a situation that surprised him.

It was covered by an enchantment!

It seems that there is nothing unusual at first, but when it is near, there is an invisible barrier that prevents it from entering the narrow passage not far away.

If other people encounter this situation, they will feel annoyed and then take the other path.

But Shen Lang is a burst of excitement!

This is obviously not natural. Since someone has set up an enchantment, there should be similar above. Even if it is from the side of the mountain wall, this line will still be shielded.

Since it is artificial, it will engage in this trick, and naturally it is something that is worthy of conspiracy.

Of course, it may not be a human being, but a fierce beast at the level of the king. Anyway, for Shen Lang, I finally saw the abnormality that made him feel itchy.

If this is the case, then there is nothing behind it, and it is now protected and guarded.

If it is hard, and whether it can be won or not, it will not be passed through the first-line days, it will be known to the inside people, and then it can be ambushed, transferred, etc.

If you want to pass safely, it is not difficult for Shen Lang. If you need your mind, you should not be alarmed, so you must be extra careful.

After a period of observation and analysis, this is a simple shield enchantment, it should be temporary, not a super large array, which is much easier to handle.

If it is a super-large array, such as the billions of ring arrays, it is interlocking, one level and then one level, one is not broken, not only the past, but will be attacked, and the movement will be great. There are also like the South, which is a direct integration of the square.

Temporary arrangements, for terrain, etc., will not be too full, just serve as a temporary barrier.

This is a piece of cake for Shen Lang. It didn't take long for the work to be solved, and it was confident that it would not alarm the people behind the line.

After getting it, Shen Lang held the mysterious stone, concealed his own trace, and slowly passed the narrow passage of the first line of the sky.

He came here this way, is a canyon, and when he arrived, he was blocked by the "first-line" cliff, and he could not see the situation behind. Now passing from the bottom, it is a huge and open!

This is the end of the canyon. There is no road ahead. It is like a round pot in the mountains, and the range is much larger than the front canyon.

However, Shenlang is of course not a geographical environment, and naturally it is a person inside.

Because he was as careful as possible to hide in, when he first appeared, the people inside did not find him and gave him some time to observe.

This “cauldron” is relative to the surrounding cliffs. From the first-line channel, it is flat, and the middle is a piece of yellow sand.

Around the Huangsha, there are many people gathered in twos and threes, the number is dozens, and the number of camps is no less than ten.

Everyone’s focus is on the yellow sand in the middle.

But if you can come here, it will not be an ordinary monk. Even if it is not a semi-precious world, it will basically follow the semi-fair realm.

Therefore, even if Shen Lang carefully entered the battle, hiding the breath with mysterious stones, but he appeared for a while, but it was immediately discovered!

“who?”

With the whispering of the opposite person, let the people around Huangsha see all the sights, and carefully look at the waves.

At this time, of course, when it was not weak, Shen Lang took up the stone and slowly walked over and did not speak. He went straight to the edge of Huangsha.

All dozens of people stared at him, but no one left to stop him, and Shen Lang could see that they were still distracted mostly on the yellow sand.

This yellow sand is bound to be different!

Shen Lang simply deliberately did not look at them, and fixed his eyes on the yellow sand.

His own strength, everyone is faintly able to feel, and this is not flustered calm, so that they are also not allowed to his identity.

In particular, he was staring at the attitude of Huangsha, so that other people also turned their attention back to the yellow sand, seemingly afraid of missing something.

In this way, relying on the calming bluff, Shen Lang went from the first-line channel to the edge of the yellow sand, and no one came up to stop him.

Although the distance is not far away, it is really a step by step, maintaining a high degree of alert, and may be besieged by dozens of people at any time!

A little more time, Shen Lang seems to be staring at the yellow sand, and actually secretly looked at everyone.

These three, three, two, two together, naturally one, from the same sect or family, so there are more than a dozen forces on the scene.

At least one of them is equivalent to the semi-fairy realm, and the other people who are carrying it are basically the masters of the peak of the gods.

However, the Han Dynasty is so vast. These people should come from different places, so they may not be familiar with each other. This gives the opportunity for Shen Lang to bluff.

Chapter 1127 - Plunging into the yellow sand

Just a quick and rough understanding of the environment, people, especially the yellow sand that seems to be the focus, need to pay attention.

With the step by step, Shen Lang has more time to observe each small team.

The result is that one is unexpected!

There are three people on the side, which is also one of the forces. But they are the only ones who bow their heads and do not pay attention to the side of Shen Lang.

Now through the detailed observation of the gods and the holy armor, it turned out to be the three people of the Mutian family!

The one that takes the lead is Mu Tianhai, and one is Mutian Songyun, and the other does not know the name.

The two of them almost reached the peak of the gods. The last time Shen Lang was also a small punishment, and he did not hurt them. Naturally, it has already recovered, and there are no signs of being struck by lightning.

Shen Lang came in to observe so many things and neglected them. When dozens of people looked at Shen Lang, they recognized it.

I don't know because of the frustrated relationship on that day, there are still other concerns, let them avoid the waves and don't want to be discovered.

“What do you call? Where do you come from?”

Shen Lang looked at the past and saw that this person was on guard, but he could not say that he was full of malice, just a kind of vigilance against strangers in a special environment.

After seeing this, Shen Lang smiled at him and nodded. Then he continued to look at the yellow sand and did not say anything.

This is a polite response, and the smile at least indicates no hostility. But the overall feeling is still a bit unpredictable.

The crowds of other people around them exchange their eyes, or have a voice exchange, want to see if other people know their identity.

Judging from the appearance of Shen Lang, so young, there is such a strength, no matter where it is, it should be the name of a genius, even if it is not up to the name of Han, there should be a certain range of communication.

However, no one knows the communication between different forces, or shaking their heads slightly, or telling them.

Among them, there are a few people who admire the sea and the sea, and they still look down and look like they don't want to provoke the waves.

They are so, Shen Lang naturally does not bother to say hello to them, is not a friend, no need for hypocrisy.

His bluffing and pretentiousness are all focused on the large yellow sand in front of him, and now he is also staring at it.

Others are unsuccessful in his origins, and no one wants to tempt him thousands of times, especially when Shen Lang is so focused, and they are all focused on it, for fear of missing any details.

God knows that Shen Lang simply doesn't know what they are watching!

This is an hour of watching...

Shen Lang is very helpless, everyone is very good at raising qi, so it is so boring and boring, and can always stare at it.

But they are purposeful, have an attempt, and at least know what to wait to see.

He doesn't know anything, so it's really like a fool.

Unfortunately, no one is familiar with it, and can't ask. When you ask someone, you know that he is coming in and is not qualified to be like them.

It can only be consumed like them now.

It doesn't matter for an hour, five hours, ten hours don't matter.

The most feared thing about Shen Lang is that they are ten days and a half months, even months!

When I got to the dilemma, let's go, it took so long, there was no news, and naturally I was not willing to give up. Go ahead, don't know how long it will last, and then meet other people.

After considering it, Shen Lang set himself a stop loss time, continued to spend half a day here, and waited until there was no movement in the evening, then left. Or directly ask them about the inquiry – anyway, they have to go, not afraid to find that it is mixed in.

After a long time, they admire the world, and they can't hide by leaning their heads sideways. Shen Lang must have discovered them. Since they pretend not to know, they pretend not to know.

Continue to look at it, probably after another hour, Shen Lang is boring to want to yawn.

At this time, a yellow sand in the middle finally reacted!

Because this is the bottom of the valley, there is no more direction ahead, plus the whole is a pot-shaped, the above is not blowing. Unless it is a tornado, there is a ban on the forbidden land, and naturally no large tornado will be formed.

It is the front line of the sky, the wind blowing from the front canyon is only to the passage of the passage, the inside is closed, and there is no big convection.

Therefore, Shen Lang watched the two-hour yellow sand, which was very calm.

But now it is not the same, the large piece of yellow sand in the middle, began to have no wind automatically!

Seeing that the yellow sand has changed, everyone is obviously excited by the spirit, and then they are staring carefully.

Shen Lang is relieved, so many people can remember, it must be a good thing, he may not be able to get it. But no matter what, there is always a hope, and it is better than dry.

At the beginning, the yellow sand was flowing slowly, as if it were a big hand.

After a while, the yellow sand flowed faster and faster, and then some began to fly from the ground, flew a few feet, and the same flow in the air.

Almost all of them, after Huang Sha Teng rose, retreated one or two steps back and maintained greater vigilance.

Shen Lang is also like them keeps a little more distance.

He is the one with the least information in the scene. In order to get more information, he secretly uses the full reconnaissance of the holy armor to show all aspects of the angle.

However, these yellow sands are still not visible.

In the case of a high concentration of mental energy, time seems to be flying fast, but because of the comprehensive analysis and grasp of every second, it seems to be very slow.

About a minute or so in the actual time, flying a few feet of yellow sand, suddenly came to an expansion!

Between the time, as if all the yellow sand on the ground had leapt, it was only a few feet, and it was pulled up to a few feet high, and it spread a few feet to the surrounding.

This is precisely why everyone will step back one or two steps, that is, to avoid being caught off guard by the yellow sand of this scene.

At this moment, Shen Lang paid attention to dozens of people on the scene, and they were ready to try. When the yellow sand expanded, they all swiftly flew into the yellow sand flowing in the air. !

The opportunity is fleeting!

Although Shen Lang doesn't know what they are going to do, but since dozens of people are waiting for this scene, even for fear of missing any details, no one distracted to ask him about this stranger who rushed in, which shows that it is important and shows that It's fleeting.

Therefore, Shen Lang did not care so much, maintaining the whole body defense, the speed of the fast after the first arrival, and everyone almost simultaneously joined the yellow sand.

Chapter 1128 - Area?

As soon as he joined, Shen Lang immediately understood the clues!

The yellow sand that has just expanded and changed is just a superficial representation. In fact, this is a similar opening of the array!

All of them are waiting for this moment. When this yellow sand changes, it is the moment when the formation is opened, and when it comes in, it enters the entrance of the array.

There are similar situations in various places and in all ages. The ruins of the ruins of the King of the Kings, which were arranged by Zheng Man, were as large as the remains of the thousands of caves in the ancient battlefield.

After entering it now, Shen Lang is on the one hand keeping an absolute alert and alerting to possible dangers, including attacks by others. On the other hand, it is also calm and as much as possible to observe the surrounding situation.

After a few moments, dozens of people who entered them almost simultaneously were transferred to one place at about the same time.

After down to earth, Shen Lang found it to be a closed room.

However, he is concerned about the reaction of other people. These dozens of people have not looked at each other, let alone panic. Obviously, they have not had experience, that is, they have done their homework in advance, knowing that it will be such a situation.

Of course, Shen Lang is also quiet, ready to follow the crowd.

From the point of view that everyone just rushed to the point of view, no one wants to fall behind, they want to get the top spot, and naturally they will not let him go first.

Sure enough, but just confirmed the environment, there are a few figures immediately, quickly rushed to a big door.

This is to surprise Shen Lang!

Because when he had just settled down, he observed it in all directions, confirming that it was a closed room, because it was like a wall, they seemed to fall from the ceiling, and there were no doors and windows.

Now there is a door, and even he is not aware of how it appears.

When he was secretly stunned, other people flocked to the past. He naturally also played the “Phantom Meteor Step” lightly. He did not fall to the front and did not squeeze to the front. He was naturally sandwiched in the middle and followed the door.

The first few people to the door, the strength is comparable to the semi-fair realm, they do not know what preparations, at this moment is the joint push to open the door.

Immediately there is a chilly gas blowing in the face!

However, the few who opened the door immediately went out, and the people behind them followed closely, for fear of slowing down and closing the door.

The deep waves that are sandwiched in the middle are naturally going out together. At this time, if he does not leave, he will be pushed out.

After coming out, the first feeling of Shen Lang is the same as Qiangjialing!

However, if you look closely, there are obvious differences.

Qiangjialing is like a dilute version of the chaotic space, but also full of fog, making it difficult to identify the direction, and it is difficult to detect the distance.

Misty?

Shen Lang's heart moved.

Because the chaotic space entered from the no-failed sea, and it was much more serious, it was not linked to the Qianglang Ridge before Shen Lang.

The feeling here now reminds him of the Qiangjialing, and then thinks about the characteristics of the Qiangjialing. It seems to be somewhat similar to the chaotic space.

Think carefully, is it really related?

The aura of Qiangjialing is also much stronger than the earth, but there is a gap between the chaotic space and it seems to be directly proportional to the thick and thin fog.

Is it that there is a place in the Qiangjialing that leads to the chaotic space, causing the aura and the fog inside to be infused. After thousands of years, it has formed the appearance of the thousands of caves that the descendants now see.

After all, the scope of Qiangjialing is certainly not comparable to the Earth's world, so it is not diluted.

However, Shen Lang immediately shook his head and expelled these thoughts.

Even if it is, what is the point?

Can you still find the way to the Qiangjialing from the chaotic space?

Even if you can find it, after more than two years, no return to the sea prison will be closed, can not enter the chaotic space, what is the use?

Still waiting for more than a hundred years, the Thousand Grottoes will be reopened, and there is still a chance to find the entrance to the chaotic space over there.

It is too far away and has no practical meaning.

Now he needs to be fully responsive to the situation at hand.

While he was thinking about the Qiangjialing and the chaotic space, he observed the situation of entering the space now.

There is no fog here, everything is clearly visible, but the whole is still a feeling of darkness, not bright with the edge, just like the sky when the clouds cover the top, but also the obvious chilly feeling.

“Welcome to the meditation!”

Someone screamed with excitement.

The meditation area?

This is the first time Shen Lang has got a little bit of information about it from their mouth.

“Let’s take care! See you later in seven days!”

“I want to take care, I hope to see you.”

“Hey! You are an old ghost, I will definitely come back safely, you will stay here to be a guest!”

Although there are some unfamiliar ones in the overall situation, they are familiar, and at this moment they are joking and saying goodbye to each other. Then someone immediately took a few of his own partners and chose to fly in one direction.

Of course, others will not be outdone, and will quickly leave in different directions. After a few seconds, I have left most of the time.

Shen Lang is still observing the surrounding situation The door that they just came out, just like not knowing how to appear, I don't know how to disappear. Did not see a closed house, no yellow sand, no canyons.

It seems that it is a portal that can be pushed open, and when they cross, everything disappears.

The place where I am now is a wilderness. The speed at which those people leave is very fast. After a while, they have not seen the traces.

Goodbye after seven days?

It means that after seven days, can you still go back from here?

For example, the artificially controlled Death Valley, like the Tomb of the King and the Qianglang Ridge, which have already been set up, have opening times and can be left in the opening time.

This should not always be open, so they have to hurry up and come in, but this means that it should be opened after seven days, and everyone has the opportunity to go out.

Shen Lang naturally let the holy armor remarks to the specific time to minute and second, and then wait here to wait.

In those days, he was pitted by the Chu family and missed the opportunity to leave from Death Valley. At that time, his strength was low, and there were no resources. He had an understanding of the posture of the law. He knew that there was no way to leave, bitter. After a year and a half, I met them and loved them.

This time, there are bound to be many good resources for everyone to be so interested. But the resources are good, and it is still safe first. He can't let himself be trapped here.

At this time, the rest of the small group of people also left, and finally only the three people of the Mutian family stayed nearby.

Then they came over to Shen Lang.

Chapter 1129 - Pulling cooperation

Shen Lang smiled faintly: "How? I want to slap me down and kill me here? I made a mistake. I should unite with people you know."

Mu Tianhai maintains a distance of a few meters, and his expression looks a bit complicated and looks at Shen Lang. Mu Tian Song Yun is not talking.

He and Shen Lang are about one level, plus two low-level two helpers, to win the Shen Lang, still have confidence. But the problem is that winning is not equal to killing!

If you want to kill each other, you will still lose both sides. Even if he is better, the other two will be very dangerous.

This is exactly what Shen Lang said. If you want to kill him in this meditation, you should just contact several forces together. It is not enough to rely on the three people of their family.

"Shen Lang, you can know the specific time when the meditation domain is open. I don't feel strange, but you, this person, seems to want to eat a single food. Or... the person who supported you before, is like you, and you are not at heart. "

Mu Tianhai took a look at Shen Lang's appearance.

He knows that Shen Lang is the guest of the Qiu Lin Jianzong. Naturally, this is the information obtained from Qiu Lin Jianzong. Otherwise, it will not be so timely to rush to the time, to know that they are waiting for many days in advance!

Yes, he came with a group of masters, of course not to find the baby grandson, but to open this time.

“It’s good to eat a single food, and it’s a matter of separation. What do you have to do with you?”

Shen Lang frowned. “Let me think about it... oh... From your attitude half a month ago, you should know the current affairs. If you don’t unite more people, you won’t fight me. In order to fight with me, of course, it is not to make friends with me, then there is only a deal left.”

Mutian is helpless, and it is impossible to engage in war. If both lose, it will miss the opportunity of this meditation. This is also the reason why he avoided the deep waves before, and he was afraid to fight first in the valley.

make friends? Who can hurt his grandson, hurt his family, and blackmail his big stone?
Can you make friends?

“Let’s say! Time is precious, if you have nothing to say, I am leaving!”

Shen Lang was a little impatient to urge, so that Mu Tianhai also put down the cockroach.

“Yes! I want to make a deal with you.”

Shen Lang pointed to the finger and signaled that he had something to say, and he was too lazy to return to him.

“You are a genius, but you don’t have a helping hand. You are alone. You can’t live in the meditation for seven days. So, working with us is your best choice!”

“carry on.”

“Working with us, we can protect your life, and you can get some resources, and you will not lose money.”

“What about you?”

“Of course, I will not do it. As you can see, our strength lies in everyone, that is, ordinary. If you are more than one, then our strength is in the middle! This time will have more gains. ”

Shen Lang nodded and said: “It is really a win-win situation.”

“Yes! Win-win, you can ensure safety, we can get more. Otherwise, we just have a little less, you may not go out.” Mu Tianhai continued to inspire.

Shen Lang spread his hands and said helplessly: “But you just said, I like to eat alone, then how can I work with people with peace of mind? I am also arrogant, I feel that I am very bullish, not afraid of fear.”

This is very obvious, and I don’t want to cooperate with them!

When you admire the sea, you will be anxious: “Shen Lang! You can think about it! This time everyone in the world, only we know you, you can cooperate with you. Others don’t say cooperation, seeing each other will definitely kill you, grab the light your things!”

“Don’t say bad things about people, it’s rude.”

“...” Mu Tianyu sea almost vomited blood, when is this, also polite!

“You can’t solve the problem with your family! This time we can trade and cooperate. The previous unpleasantness, I can never be awkward. This is a good thing for you!”

Shen Lang’s eyes widened: “Yeah! I’m not guilty? I’m still prepared to take revenge for me. I’m so brave, I dare to work with you? Don’t you sell me back?”

Mu Tianhai did not say good things: “You are good! There are Qiu Lin Jianzong to give you a head, who dares to sell you?”

“That’s not necessarily, this is in the meditation area, it is Mo Feiliu Shentong, and I can’t detect it here.”

Shen Lang did not say that the cold autumn, after all, for everyone, are historical figures, Mo Feiliu is already a legendary figure, many people think that long ago is gone.

But I don’t know why I am listening to my heart!

Shen Lang actually called the name of Mo Feiliu directly!

Qiu Lin Jianzong’s mouth is called the ancestor, the lord and the like, other outsiders, will also be the respected title “Mo old predecessor” “Mo Xianshi”, a young man in his district, actually called Mo Feiliu directly!

Listening to the tone, it seems to be very familiar with Mo Feiliu, is it that Mo Feiliu actually treats him as a friend?

Originally came to find Shenlang cooperation, it is the decision of Mu Tianhai to consider for a long time, and I thought about it when Huangsha has not changed.

Because Shen Lang has only one person, it can be drawn. And in the process of cooperation, he can use as much as possible to deal with the danger, and it will not be guilty.

But now the attitude of Shen Lang, it is obvious that does not care about danger, and it seems that the relationship with the old master of Qiu Lin Jianzong Mo Feiliu is not ordinary.

Could it be... He got a lot of shortcuts from Qiu Lin Jianzong

This makes Mu Tian stunned at the same time, but also a little more heart.

If Shen Lang can really have the secret information of Qiu Lin Jianzong, it must be better than their preparation. If you work together, it is not just the use of Shen Lang’s military value, but also more rare information.

In front of him is a helpless choice, but now is very much want to promote the cooperation of Shen Lang.

“Okay, you don’t want to be arrogant. As for your enthusiasm, my old bones are not pitted by you. It is very good. I want to say that we both have no life and hatred, since they have come to the meditation, That is of course the benefit first!”

“This is a meditation area with rich treasures! Not only is there a single thing to grab, you just saw it, everyone is polite to each other. Because everyone will not become an inevitable competitor, beware of the time of calculation, you can get more good stuff.”

“I, Mu Tianhai put down the grievances of the day. As long as you put down your prejudice, we will be able to get more resources than we alone!”

Shen Lang thought for a moment, then slowly said: “I want you to confirm that you will not lie to me, tell the information about the meditation domain that you know about the meditation domain, first say it once and for all, try to be as detailed as possible!”

Chapter 1130 - Context information

Shen Lang knows nothing about the situation in this meditation area. It is the name of the meditation domain, and it has just been heard. If you want him to go away, you may actually encounter many unknown dangers.

But it is impossible to wait for seven days here. It is rare to encounter such an opportunity and you can miss it.

Therefore, the cooperation requirements of Mutianhaihai, Shenlang is very happy!

However, this thing, who is the active side, who lost the initiative, he will naturally raise the position at this time in order to get more information.

Mu Tianhai heard that Shen Lang had promised to agree. He was already relieved. As for not believing him, it was natural. He did not believe in Shen Lang.

Therefore, before he wants to ask more information from Qiu Lin Jianzong from Shen Lang, Shen Lang has to test his sincerity. He has no doubts.

If they don't have any information resources, others can't cooperate with you!

Because of the time relationship, he did not hesitate, and quickly said a long story, and introduced the situation of the meditation domain.

The meditation domain is similar to a small world in which one exists independently. It can enter from the Golden Valley, but it is not an entrance and exit of light. In many other forbidden places, there are also passages.

It's just that the passage of the meditation is not free to enter and exit, often only once in a few decades.

This time, it coincided with the opening time of Jinzhonggu, so many of them came over in advance.

Mu Tianyu Haidai team had more than a dozen people in the Mutian family. Originally like Mu Tianzheng, he was asked to follow him on the periphery. I didn't expect this kid to sneak out and sneak in. The result was a smashing of them.

There was still time at that time, and Mu Tianhai looked for the trouble of Shen Lang. After the defeat, he can only leave in vain, and then rushed here.

Now, in addition to the three of them, others are still in a more peripheral area.

The other dozen or so forces are from different places.

However, the entrance to the Golden Valley Valley has been opened. On the one hand, some sects may not know. On the other hand, because this is not unique, there are some forces that are too far away, but they are not here.

Otherwise, it is certainly more than these dozens of forces.

The information specific to the meditation domain, as the name suggests, will be named as the meditation domain, which is said to be a place of death, a place where the undead are rampant. Human beings should not live here for a long time, and the opening time of this entrance and exit is a cycle of about seven days.

If you missed the opening after seven days, stay here and you may have to wait a few decades to open.

Of course, in other forbidden areas, there are also passages through the meditation domain. In theory, there are places to open every few years (which is why people don't pay much attention to it). As long as you can find other entrances and exits, you can also go out from other places.

It is only necessary to be able to survive first. Secondly, it is possible to find an entrance and exit within a huge territory, and it is just a matter of time.

There are so many difficulties, so basically everyone has a consensus – once it is impossible to evacuate on time, it is very likely to be finished!

Huge risks are always accompanied by huge gains.

Otherwise, the ancient ancestors did not have to think hard to create such a transmission channel in each forbidden place.

The resource advantage of the meditation domain is not a variety of flowers and plants. The environment here is not suitable for growth, and the world outside is not lacking such resources. Everyone can't get here.

According to past experience, there are mainly three types of resources here.

One type is mineral deposits, because no one is involved, and there is no mining. It is not uncommon for a statue like Yuan Ling.

The second category is monuments. The meditation domain also has its own dominance. Before it was long, it was able to be opened by the human predecessors. Naturally, because the human strongman succeeded in encroaching on this side, otherwise, the meditation creatures invaded the outside world.

Of course, in the story of Mu Tianhai, it was in ancient times that the meditation creatures invaded humans in large numbers, were expelled back to the meditation by human ancestors, and finally recovered to the meditation domain several times before they had long-term peace and harmony.

These entrances and exits are sealed, and they can be opened once in a long time. The purpose is also that after a long time, there will be a rise of the creatures of the universe and then enter the human world.

They are all set up in the forbidden land, and these forbidden places have air bans. In fact, they are also the backhands of the war with the meditation.

In the ancient battlefield, there may be some legacy of weapons like weapons. In the ancient battlefield of the Terran world, nature has long been opened for thousands of years.

However, in the ancient battlefield of the meditation domain, a large number of them were not opened because of the opening time.

Many people who enter the meditation domain want to find the ancient battlefield. If they can get the magical soldiers of the ancient gods, they will not be able to dominate the world, at least they can cross each other.

The third category is an alternative harvest. This includes some uncommon and bizarre things, such as shackles, undead, and the like. If you can tame for yourself, it is also a great harvest.

Those who come here today have their own information, and according to the information they have prepared, try to get the time as much as possible and find more areas.

Although the Mutian family is fully prepared for this time, it does not have much confidence. So put the hope on the body of Shen Lang, if Shen Lang knows more favorable information from Qiu Lin Jianzong, it may be able to gain more.

Qiu Lin Jianzong is famous in Tangcheng and even in the Han Dynasty, but in fact, the name of the high-cold autumn and Lin Biao's hits, the history of these hundreds of years, for the ancient information of the Nakajima 6 native, can know how much ?

However, looking at the jealousy and fascination of Qiu Tianhai in the Qiu Lin Jianzong, they should be in the cold and autumn, and they will be the origin of the house after the founding of the sectarians. There is a process of deification.

Just like many cities on the earth When talking about history, they all climbed to the pre-Qin to prove that they have a long history.

Yang Luchan, who studied art from Chenjiagou, wanted to teach the banner aristocrats in the capital, and changed the name of the "cannon" that appeared to be a crop to the "thirteen potentials" and changed it to the higher name of "Taiji."

The ancestors also attached to Wang Zongyue, and later they were transferred to Zhang Sanfeng. After all aspects of processing, Zhang Sanfeng's founder also had one from the Ming Dynasty and the Song and Yuan Dynasties, and then became the old  from Song to the Ming Dynasty...

Many ancient documents are named after the pre-Qin giants and even the Yellow Emperor.

They are understanding this, of course, including the ones who came here, and other people who have settled down here will definitely use this way to raise their martial art and hide everyone from outside. The history is to better integrate into the world and to maintain peace for a long time.
