Chapter 1181 - Bulk sale

The street that the buddy said was very good to look for. Shen Lang searched for their memories and had been there before.

As they walked over, they found that people coming and going were amazing, far better than the other places they came in. This street is also significantly more spacious than the other streets.

The buildings on both sides of the street are luxurious and luxurious. No one has a large area, and there is also a deep inside, and several floors.

In contrast to Shen Lang's observations in Tangcheng, these are similar to the "specialty stores" like Tingfeng. It's not a grade with the market vendors that Tangcheng saw.

Of course, Tangcheng itself has many large-scale different resource stores, and perhaps there are also streets that are concentrated together. The market that Shenlang went to the last time was a special trading market for the group.

The group will be aimed at young monks, and must take into account the level of consumption. The entry threshold will be much lower and more grounded.

Here is a business center that communicates with the guests from the south to the north. It can stand on the center of this center. There are big backers behind it. The profits of the years are amazing and support the luxurious door.

Qiao Yuxian and others, the previous impression of the world, in addition to the misery of the pastoral garden, is the experience of Jin Haogu for a month, just looking at it all the way is very curious, now I see the state of this market, even more admired .

"Let's separate! Let's see more of us when we first come."

Shen Lang sent a word in a word, except that one and two three four insisted on following him, and other people left alone in twos and threes.

They used to be a small team, and the harvested things were equally divided, and there was nothing to keep secret.

Shen Lang has a lot of gains, although some will not come out to trade, but do not want to let too many people know, so as not to be embarrassed.

After walking for a while, Shen Lang's heart has already counted.

These stores are basically divided according to the category, for example, some are like the tough front, they are the magic weapon of the experience weapon props; some are the raw materials for the management of Lingcao; some are the experience of the finished medicine; and some of the miscellaneous items of.

But no one can do monopoly, there are many different shops of the same category. Among them, there are many shops, which are obviously raw material medicinal materials stores, followed by finished medicinal pharmacies. After all, these are consumables.

All the way to the front, but also encountered the monks of the earth, basically the dispersion of twos and threes.

When everyone meets the same planet, they basically nod their heads and say hello. However, if they encounter Shen Lang, they should not be too perfunctory. They all stop and ask for a few words.

This makes Shen Lang also a little helpless. Originally, I wanted to keep a low profile, but I have my own people wherever I go.

In this case, he did not care so much, and went directly to a medicinal store next door. The scale here is not bad, there is a backstage behind it, and there is no need to carefully select it.

Watching them five people come in, and immediately there are guys to come and say hello.

However, the business here has also long ago summed up various experiences, and will not be too enthusiastic, so as not to disgust the guests. It's just a simple introduction to the layout of the store, and then to greet other guests.

The first floor is divided into two parts, the largest piece, of course, the area where the herbs are sold. According to the quality of different categories, there are a lot of counters, and the samples are also packed very well.

There is also an area that is specifically designed to recycle herbs.

The first floor is mainly for individual customers, and the second floor is for large customers. If there is any heavy treasure, you can go directly to the third floor.

Shen Lang is now trying to get some good things, and of course he will not sell on the third floor. However, he now has a large number of them. After all, he took over the harvest of the Mutian family, the Huangfu family, the Qingyun school and the Yungong in the Golden Mile.

With the long retreat of their canoe, the strength will increase. At that time, these elixir will not be used, and the disciples of the Tianshan Jianzong and the Ice Palace can leave a little more, and it is impossible to take care of them for generations.

So his current thinking is to replace these with Lingshi, then scouring things, or waiting for the auction to see if there are any good treasures.

After a simple stroll on the first floor, Shen Lang went straight to the second floor.

If you can come up to the second floor, whether it is to buy or sell, the purpose is more clear, and not just strolling, so the reception staff is always greeted and waiting to be sent.

Shen Lang directly indicated that he was going to sell a batch of medicinal materials and let them arrange for people to evaluate.

The situation on the second floor is just the opposite of the first floor. Small areas are for sale, and large areas are acquired.

There are no samples of various medicinal materials displayed here. If you want to buy them in large quantities, you can directly ask for the medicinal materials and what color, and you can directly negotiate the price. In this big store, it is impossible to adulterate the process of loading.

On the other hand, in terms of acquisitions, in large quantities, more people need to be carefully examined.

When they came up, no one came to sell the medicines except the ones who negotiated to buy on the second floor.

So the buddy immediately took them to the counter and asked him how many medicinal herbs he had to sell.

There is not much nonsense in Shenlang, and the prepared medicines are all taken together.

Suddenly a bunch of medicinal herbs made everyone shine.

Seeing that this is a big customer, the store is also very enthusiastic, and there are no other guests, so the multiple counters are separated and valued.

The folks also asked Shen Lang to sit down and serve tea.

In fact, the specific amount of Shen Lang himself is not clear, anyway, it is a bit of a price, he does not matter, only one-time exchange.

However, he does not care. One or two of them, they feel that they have to fulfill the responsibility of a follower, so they did not sit down to drink tea, but in the past different counters to supervise the inspection, so as not to be pitted.

Shen Lang's drinking tea was also polite, and he did not use his knowledge to investigate the transaction on the third floor.

Because he, these are basically just picked from the Golden Dragon Valley, but within a month, without a better packaging treatment, the pharmacists here need to be carefully identified.

Although the pharmacists do this work every day, they are not cheap. If they miss the mistake, they will not only have to pay for their own compensation, but they may also smash the signboard of the store. Therefore, they are all cautious and the process is not going to get up.

After a while, a group of people came up and went directly to the acquisition counter. It seems that there are also herbs to sell.

Immediately, the buddy greeted the hospitality, and the one who was the leader did not pay much attention to it. After a glance, he immediately saw the situation.

One, two, three, four uniforms, respectively, at different counters, it seems to be the supervision of the guardian's work, it will naturally not be the owner of the transaction, plus Shen Lang is obviously being served by the guys drinking tea.

“These breaks are yours? One person has occupied all four counters. How old are you?”

The man actually came straight to the sinking waves!

Chapter 1182 - Accidental attack

Shen Lang feels inexplicable lying gun.

When he came, there were no other guests, and the pharmacists at several counters were busy together because of the heavy workload and idleness. According to this person, it seems that he is a strong and overbearing person who has occupied a number of positions.

He wants to be low-key, and does not take the initiative to provoke others. If the group is eager to sell, it is to let a pharmacist at the counter handle it, and Shen Lang will not care.

But now the other party looked uncomfortable, and did not say anything to the store, but to suffocate him, which made him unhappy.

“Turn off your ass?” Shen Lang certainly did not breathe a sentence back: “The old man’s these are broken, are you bringing garbage?”

After welcoming the buddies of Shen Lang, and then entertaining the buddies of the group of people, when they saw the conflict between the two groups of guests, they arranged for people to ask for management. This is not what they can reconcile.

At a glance, there is a situation here. One, two, three, four have already gathered together quickly, blocking the group of people, not letting them close to the waves.

There are a total of seven people in this group. The ones who are provocative are the middle-aged men who lead them and look like more than forty.

Shen Lang sees his strength, it should be the level of the peak of the realm of the gods, from the surface age, they are a little younger than Mu Tiansongyun, and naturally better.

The other six, more than 20 years old, there are also three or forty, the strength is in the early to mid-term of the realm.

With such a group of people, why should they provoke him? Shen Lang is a bit puzzled.

In fact, the other person, the same is not at the moment. What is this young man coming to, and why dare to challenge him?

When he came over, he noticed that they had one or two of them. They knew that they were not at the level of the early days of the gods. They did not need him to shoot, and even these followers were not as good.

The depth of Shen Lang, of course, he can’t see clearly, and he didn’t see much. When he looked at the age of Shen Lang, he felt that it should be similar to those few.

And Shen Yi, they are all old men, and they can do the follow-up of Shen Lang. In their view, it must be because of the family background. This is a son.

So he unknowingly spoke a few words directly, but did not expect that Shen Lang directly reversed his lips.

“I don’t respect the predecessors, I will educate you for your elders today!” the man said coldly.

Whether it is Shen Lang, or one, two, three, four, they think that the other party is to let a few followers go forward.

Therefore, Shen Lang did not personally take the shot, but let one two three four show.

With his strength, his own shot is easier to solve. However, since he followed him in 1234, there are not many opportunities for shooting. If they do not show them loyalty, they will be more or less.

One two three four is also decisively stopped in front, not letting the other party offend to the waves.

“A group of garbage!” Shen Lang said that he came with garbage, obviously making this person unhappy, so he now directly called one two three four four.

But everyone did not expect that he would directly shoot himself!

Including the entourage around him, he is also ready to shoot.

This is too unexpected, just like Shen Lang’s day against Mu Tianzheng, they will not squat. The difference in strength is very different. If there is no deep hatred, it is a big bully.

One, two, three, and four, they were in front of Shen Lang and the man, and the distance from that person was very close. I was originally expected to have a simple conflict with the other party’s followers, and then the store owner will rush to stop it, after all, they will not let them release a big fight here.

I did not expect this person not only to shoot, but also the shot is not merciless!

When everyone reacted, one, two, three, four, they slowly fell to the back.

At that moment, the man shot directly, at a fast speed, smashed his palms on the heads of the four people, and directly smashed his head!

The distance between the two sides is too close, and the strength is disparity. No one even thought that he would personally take the shot. The three aspects added up, so that the reaction of the 1 2, 3, 4 did not have time to react; let Shen Lang find it too late to save people!

The gap between the three parties is like adults, teenagers and children. Adults play young people, and young people have no problem playing children. It is easy for adults to prevent young people from hitting children.

But when everyone thought that it would be a group of children fighting, the young people suddenly attacked the children, which was the more powerful and faster adults, and they could not stop it.

When other people reacted, Shen Lang has quickly put four people down and put them down.

Their condition made Shen Lang's look cold immediately.

The sneak attack by the three high-level people, the four of them can not face, at this moment, although not yet hung up, the last breath is left.

They have been unable to speak, watching the eyes of Shen Lang, but at the same time, with a hint of gratification.

It can be seen that they also understand their own arrogant identity, saying that they are doing the straits, but basically can't help, and more depends on the care of Shen Lang.

Now this time, it is not helpful, but they are counted as deaths, and it is considered to be a good place to stay in the wave of can make you happy.

It's a pity that you don't have to say it. There is still a bright future. In the Jinjiu Valley, there is no animal injury, but it's inexplicable here.

As soon as I saw the human life, there was another guy who dared not stop again, and quickly ran to urge the management to come over. Customers who come to buy medicines have come to see the fun. The pharmacists who were identified were busy working and did not notice the situation here.

The leader was slightly frowning at this moment, staring at the back of Shen Lang.

Just after Shen Lang put the four of them slowly falling down, the reaction and speed made him a little surprised. This was a careful observation of the Shen Lang, but it was impossible to see through. Can only estimate this young man, it is estimated that he is not under him!

He found himself looking a little wrong...

At first I saw four old men followed by a young man, instinctively thinking which family is the son of the son. Since he has rebelled against his face, he certainly has to learn the lesson and must be heavier. It is not convenient to directly kill the dead wood son, which may cause unnecessary trouble.

So he personally took the shot and killed them directly.

In his view, this kind of obedience, which was cultivated at such a young age, will be killed if it is killed. It is not a big deal.

But now it seems that this young man is far stronger than he had guessed before, and that the family will not be able to find trouble, and there may be no goodness in front of him.

Since he is not under him, then he can’t be told  him. It is not difficult to go anywhere.

Chapter 1183 - angry

Shen Lang has no deep feelings for the four of them. If they were not begged to stay in the past, there would be no impression in the nearly one hundred people, just like the monks of many other countries, which are not familiar now.

In the second half of the year, they were also practicing in Tianshan Jianzong's peace of mind. There was not much contact. When they came here, the strength of Shenlang was different from the original. They couldn't help anything, but they were a little tired.

However, Shen Lang is a close friend. The Tianshan Jianzong is strictly counted. It is also a high number of people who are away from you. Others have no impression, but he recognizes the martial art and thinks about giving them benefits every time he goes back.

Those are his doormen, the descendants of his great elders.

One, two, three, four is also a person who is also a big man, can beg forgive, can give up his name, in the servant's attitude, with Shen Yi, Shen Er, Shen San, Shen Si's identity to follow the waves.

This sincerity of light, Shen Lang will not abandon them, nor will they really regard them as cumbersome. Although it is impossible to go to the level of Zheng Yumeng, Luozhou, etc., it will definitely be the elders of Tianshan Jianzong.

Shen Lang still has five jade peaches. If they have a need for breakthrough, they will be taken to them without any politeness.

It is precisely because they value them that they will consider their feelings. Like the provocations just like this, let them stay in front and do their best to follow.

Unexpectedly, a miscalculation, actually will be black hands, let them directly kill this!

At the beginning, the three spirit beads given by the Hai people were served with the effect of returning to life. They were dragged to the shackles of their waists, and they were almost exhausted. After taking a Lingzhu, they also revived their vitality.

Although they are not so important in one, two, three, four, if they can be saved, Shen Lang will not regret it. If they are given two spiritual beads, they can save two or two.

It is a pity that their situation is different from that of the priests. They are not the same as the high sacred priests. They are still hanging a life, and they are intentionally tortured by the lord.

And now they are four, the other side is intentionally killed, the brain is collapsed, and the rest of the life is calculated in seconds.

To put it simply, even if Lingzhu is given to them, it is just that they have just entered the throat, and they will die if they start to absorb the effects.

So, what Shen Lang can do now is just watching them through the last few seconds.

“Sorry! I didn’t get any benefit with me, but because of my negligence, I was robbed of this. Rest assured, I will avenge you!”

Shen Lang is about to explode at this moment, but still bear the temperament, accompany them to spend the last few seconds, the tone is also moderated as much as possible.

The four of them are no longer able to speak, but from the eyes, the narrow waves can be left alone in the final voice: they do not blame the waves are not protected, on the contrary, if they did not save the life, they have already been tortured to death. The pastoral garden.

I have been able to live for so long, and I can re-successfully return to Yuxianmen, forcing Yuxianmen peace talks, and to the world, they are already eye-catching.

It’s such a look, it’s costing their last glimmer of energy, and all four are dying!

It was called the little head, and did not take people to leave, but still a little retreat a few steps, ready to defend the enemy. Since he is this attitude, his six followers, of course, are ready for the enemy.

At their level, of course, they can’t see the strength of Shen Lang, but the other party has killed four people. If you are desperate, you should be very careful.

“Everyone, everyone... calm and calm, have something to say...”

When a voice came over, people followed.

It was a fat, short, fat man with a smile on his face. He came over and immediately shook hands.

“Hey! It turned out to be the head of Chaotianmen Zhou Shao...”

The buddy faces a variety of guests every day, and does not remember that much, but this short-sighted person recognizes the identity of the other person. When he greeted him, his gaze also looked at Shen Lang.

Undoubtedly, I also saw four people who had just died on the ground, which made him secretly headache.

“This little friend... don’t know how to call it?”

Shen Lang has stood up and turned back to look at the other person. From the short man, he has already searched for memories quickly. There is indeed a name called Chaotianmen. The head is called Zhou, like a family, and the position of the head is passed down from generation to generation.

This person is called the little head, it should be the son of the contemporary head Zhou Wei. However, Moran and Li Tianqing have not heard of the name of Zhou Wei’s son.

Shen Lang immediately looked at the short fat man.

The short fat man doing business, of course, is very interesting, and he introduced himself with a good attitude and good self: “My surname is Luo, it is the general manager of the store in Tiandu. Because of fat, everyone calls me Luo fat, friends can call me Luo fat.”

In this way, the introduction of the physical features from the black style is generally more able to win the favor of others, but also to activate the atmosphere.

Of course, there are only familiar friends who will really call Luo Fatzi. The guests who have just met, others are self-deprecating, and they still have to call a general manager.

Listen to what he meant, their shop is still there in other places, and in Tiandu, his general manager is the highest person in charge.

It is estimated that there is no human life, the general dispute, and it is not for labor to go out.

Shen Lang can also see that Luo Fatzi does not look like a landlord, but actually has a realm of half a fairy.

For such a big shop with a major business and trade center, the resources for daily circulation are huge. Even if there is a big backing, there is a need for people with strength to sit down.

“This animal is killing people in your store. You are not responsible for killing him?” When Shen Lang opened his mouth, he asked a difficult question.

Shen Lang didn't have time to stop drinking tea at the scene. Of course, Luo Fatzi was too late. He is coming over now, that is, he wants to avoid bigger problems.

“This... I believe that Zhou Shao's head is also unintentional. It is better for us to change the way. Can we negotiate with compensation?...” Luo Fatzi explained it with a smile, and then looked at Zhou Shao's head. See if he can accept it.

There is no such statement in this week's head. One of his followers can't help but angered: “Who do you say animals? Put your mouth clean!”

This is not because he does not know how to live or die, or does not know the occasion, but a habit. When you encounter some problems on a daily basis, it is definitely that they open their mouths and drink.

So just after they had less heads and were smashed into beasts, he instinctively swore.

“You will not be responsible, I can understand. This also explains your attitude, then I am killing them here, you should have nothing to say.” The anger of Shen Lang was soaring, but still suppressed, and did not erupt, Speaking is still peaceful.

Chapter 1184 - See you

“Calm, calm, small friends still look calm. These friends have already happened, I am also very sad, but even if things are too big, they can not be resurrected, it is better...”

Luo Fatzi is still unclear what identity is Shenlang, but the other party knows. If the heads of Chaotianmen and a group of disciples have three short and two shorts here, it will be a trouble.

For him, you have to fight to kill, go out! As long as I am not in my shop, shut me down!

However, as a famous big shop in Tiandu City, they must have a certain responsibility. If they can't do things, they will be clear, but they must solve the problem. This is not just their family, but the big shop in this street, which has this unwritten rule.

Just as the tough front of Tangcheng never allowed someone to clash and kill in the inside, or else the tough front will directly intervene.

This street can be described as the representative of Tiandu City, and the guests who come and go include all parts of the country. If any conflicting store owners don't care, just ask people to go out and fight, it will inevitably lead to a lot of weak meat and strong food.

Conflicts are commonplace for them. So just not right, the man immediately went to the letter. Normally, there will be a second-floor management to mediate. If it is not possible, Luo Fatzi will personally come forward.

But today, the incident suddenly occurred. Zhou Shao's head shot directly and killed four people, which everyone did not expect. Therefore, Luo Fatzi can only mediate in the aftermath of reconciliation. As long as the Tiantianmen side is willing to pay compensation, and Shen Lang can accept this, this will be over.

“Ross general manager!” That week, the head of the small opening.

“The problem of having your store in your store is that you have to make a bunch of broken and occupy all the counters. This is what you need to review!”

“Yes, yes, you are right, we really have to review it.”

Even if Luo Fatzi doesn't understand the situation, he will not argue with it at this time.

“But my affairs with him don't need to be summoned by General Manager Luo. This is disrespectful to me. I killed him a few followers. It is a small punishment and let him know that there are people outside the world.”

When he said this, he sneered with a trace of disdain.

“My work by Zhou Shaojun will not be embarrassing. It can be both ruined here and it can't be hanged on the face of the family. There is a downfall at the end of the street, and there is courage to compete with Laozi in the past!”

He is not making up an excuse to get away. According to the inn of the inn, there is indeed a big downfall at the end of the street. The purpose of the establishment is that there are parties that are irreconcilable and contradictory, and they can be defeated on the stage and witnessed a fair confrontation with witnesses.

But generally come here to do business, less will get that level, more often, the collapse of the station has become a place for publicity activities.

For example, some people want to collect some kind of resources, they can't find them in many stores, and they don't have the patience to search through the entire Tiandu City, or in order to save time, they will openly collect in the ring and spread their conditions and other news. Go out.

Hearing that he said, Luo fat man's brows were slightly wrinkled, and then looked at Shen Lang, after all, did not say anything, still revealed a smile.

“The two are young heroes, and they are still out of the house. Everyone is still angry with the money. Even if it is really on the downfall, it should be done so far, don't make the problem bigger.”

Obviously, he can see that the strength of Shen Lang is far above Zhou Shaojun. His sentence is the last to persuade Shen Lang, hope that Shen Lang will stop.

However, in Zhou Shaojun, they heard that this is that Luo Fatzi is pleading for the other party, hoping that they will not kill this person, or else it will not be good.

“Mr. Luo, please rest assured, we are principled!” I am disrespectful to me, I am killing chickens and monkeys, the other party is not refusing, I will still leave him a dog, but will let him know what is the bottom of the frog, what is the rice grain Beads!”

Shen Lang looked cold and watched them not talking.

Luo Fatzi sighed helplessly, and then smiled hard: “Friends please rest assured that in Tiandu, everyone is still keeping promises. Since they have said that they are on the stage, they will definitely not run. Please move on.” These friends, we will guard the good, do not know the points. If necessary, you can also help arrange the aftermath.”

Shen Lang glanced at them, just as the bodies of the real people in Fuyang did not take away, and their four bodies would not be carried. Besides, the earth is not their hometown, and it is not a return to the roots.

He immediately packed up all of their belongings and then delivered them directly to the counter in the Golden Valley.

“There is a Lauro general manager to arrange for them to be buried. The medicines I sell here are still being counted, and the cost will be deducted at the same time.”

“You can rest assured that there will be burial here. There will be no mistakes in the medicinal materials. We are reputable.” Luo Fatzi immediately agreed.

The behavior of Shen Lang just fell in the eyes of Zhou Shaojun.

This time, don’t forget to accept their belongings, and casually deal with the body, it is really just a less important follower. And those medicinal materials are much worse than those that are being counted, which means that the level is not good Originally he still has some scruples, but it is a lot easier. – He is not afraid of Shen Lang, but the background of Shen Lang's origin!

However, after negotiations, Shen Lang did not carry out the home, plus the style of these small family, it is not the door to send out.

He can be safely shot!

Choosing a public release in Fujian and Taiwan, in addition to inconvenience in this store, it is a chance to make a name forever!

The daily travel vendors in Tiandu are all resources for business and generally do not fight with others. It is more difficult to be famous here, and it is even harder to be famous by making a lot of money at the auction. There are more martial arts in the world.

So today, for him, it is a very rare opportunity, he decided to take good care of it.

“Follow it! Grandpa is waiting for you in the ring, is a man, don't be a tortoise!” After Zhou Shaojun finished, he left with other people.

Luo Fatzi suppressed a little voice on Shen Lang: “This little friend, Zhou Shaojun is also a blind child. This is the end of the matter. Let him teach him a meal and let him compensate for the bleeding. It is not necessary for such a person to follow the Chaotianmen. Dead.”

This is a good intention, but it can also be regarded as a reconciliation of businessmen.

“When you come out, you should talk about credibility, speak and count, right?” Shen Lang looked at him and asked.

Luo Fatzi is busy saying: “Yes, right and talk. You can rest assured that we will not count on your medicine.”

“That's right. When it comes to doing it, saying that you want to kill them all, one will not stay alive.”

“...” Luo Fatzi thought that Shen Lang did not trust him so many herbs, and when he heard this, he couldn't help but close his mouth.

Chapter 1185 - More than people?

After Shen Lang finished, he had already gone downstairs.

He is not worried that Zhou Shaojun and his party will run away because they can't escape!

When he was drinking tea here, his knowledge did not go to other places. It was polite, no matter which room, or upstairs, or next door, involved the trade secrets of others.

But now for Zhou Shaojun and his party, he is already locked. If they want to escape, he will catch up and go over.

Luo Fatzi immediately confessed several other things, and then immediately went out.

The attitude of this young man just made him feel restless.

The reason why he recognizes Zhou Shaojun is, of course, because of the relationship between Zhou Tianmen and now. Not a good friend, but also a guest who has been trading many times in decades, is also an acquaintance.

Even if Zhou Shaojun was taken by himself, he could not really see that Zhou Wei's son was slaughtered in the ring.

When Luo Fatzi came out, he found that it was not good!

Zhou Shaojun thought that Shen Lang had the most and he was a realm. The two people were different in age. He still had the confidence to press the other side in terms of experience and so on. Therefore, I want to become famous by the battle of the downfall.

Now other people call him, they are all set to “the head of Zhou Shao”, which is undoubtedly because of his father's face. If it is ten or twenty years old, he is still acceptable.

At this age, the internals are called “small heads”, and others just know “the head of Zhou Shao”, which is harsh. Just like the fat man just now, even if he recognizes him, he may not remember his name.

Today, he wants to spread the name of “Zhou Shaojun” from Tiandu City!

Everyone has the same realm, it is not a big bully, it is a well-known reputation!

So after he came out, he let other people start publicizing, and the six people dispersed and spread, not only clamoring along the road, but also going to other stores to promote.

Soon, the guests coming and going on the street know that there will be a big battle at the end of the big battle!

Residing in the business of the capital, it is rare to encounter a battle in the past few years. I have lived for a year and a half, just arrived here, but I have never encountered it. Ever since, everyone is excited and wants to see what kind of battle it is.

Qiao Yuxian also heard the news, they stayed here for half a month, I heard that this is a rare event in a few years, but also excited to see the excitement.

Everyone went to the end of the street, watching this lively crowd, Zhou Shaojun was very excited, speeding up and flying over, he wants to enjoy the appearance of the moment before the arrival of everyone.

The deep waves that walked down the street were not noticed, and they would pay attention to him, only the monks from the earth.

“Shen brother, have you heard it? It is said that this battle is very rare. It is generally a bit conflicting, and it has been solved privately. It is rare to really fight against Taiwan.” Qiao Yuxian smiled and talked with Shen Lang.

Shen Lang nodded.

“One two three four? They don’t want to look at the excitement?” Nan Liuchuan asked with a smile.

In fact, he already has the answer. It is estimated that Shen Lang has gained too much money and is trading. The four of them are staring at the scene.

Shen Lang faintly said: “Dead.”

“Dead...ah?” Nanliuchuan’s smile solidified, a little embarrassing. “These guys... are you not happy?”

Others are also curious, Shen Lang said that he is dead, and everyone is sure to be uncomfortable.

Shen Lang did not stop, still continue to move forward.

“I was negligent and let them be killed.”

“Kill, kill... really dead? Lying in the trough! Lying in the trough!” Nan Liuchuan couldn’t help but burst out.

Other people are also shocked. Although these buddies are not people on earth, they are also suffering together. Together with the followers of Shen Lang, they are also familiar friends.

Actually killed by people!

Especially they followed Shen Lang and killed in the face of Shen Lang!

“Which store? We overturned them!” Qiao Yuxian immediately angered.

Of course, if Shen Lang has no way to get justice for the four people, they will add up to a solidarity and they will not really help.

However, they think that they are the “sinking of the waves” in the earth’s monks. Of course, at this time, they must make a firm statement.

“I am going to the stage now and kill them.”

The anger of Shen Lang is suppressed. He doesn’t need to yell and yell to vent, but instead intentionally suppresses the anger, so that he can burst out when he shoots, so that he won’t have any mercy.

With such a sentence, let them know it right away.

I dare to spend a long time, this is going to see the excitement, it turned out to be the excitement of Shen Lang!

The party is the sinking wave around, and the reason is actually because the other party killed them!

“Don’t say it! Laonan, call people!”

After Joe said that he ran away, Nanliuchuan did not care to greet Shen Lang and ran away.

Because everyone is scattered, the two or three are scattered throughout the street. Now only they know the inside story, they must spread out immediately.

Judging from the attitude of Shen Lang, there is no problem in getting the enemy. You don’t need them to go to the charge, but the battle can’t be weak!

At the end of the street is a square with a large platform in the middle. The audience can see the situation on the stage from all around.

On the pillars around the ring, some notices were posted, which was left in the ring.

When Shen Lang slowly came to the end of the street, a lot of people had gathered, and everyone looked at the stage. The six people in Chaotianmen in the different directions on the stage, to promote the battle to the audience below, focusing on the introduction of Chaotianmen's small head "Zhou Shaojun".

Zhou Shaojun stood in the middle of Fujian and Taiwan, posing a posture that he thought was the most windy.

Although he himself feels that this is a little childish, it is not very suitable for this age, but the opportunity is only once, or it is necessary to install a pack.

When the Shenlang came over, one of the Chaotianmen, immediately pointed it.

"It's him! I thought he didn't dare to come! Let everyone let a let, let this Lord go to power and be abused by Zhou Shaojun!"

The words of this person let everyone's eyes look over. Some of them have been squeezing in order to take a closer position and to go in other directions.

The swells coming from the street, in the middle of the road that everyone let go, step by step toward the ring.

Zhou Shaojun in the middle of Fujian and Taiwan suddenly felt very upset.

Just after he pulled the wind, but soon everyone guessed who the opponent is and where. Just so screaming, let everyone see the sinking waves.

He made a fortune for a long time, but let the other party show up in the eyes of the public!

After Shen Lang took office, the audience quickly regained the best position to watch.

"Don't say that we have more people bullying people, don't need them to help, Grand Master Zhou Shaojun, I am killing you alone!" Zhou Shaojun once again stressed his own name, pulling back the bite that was robbed by Shen Lang.

At this time, a sound sounded.

“More than people? Who is afraid of who!”

In the meantime, in the direction of the street, dozens of people gathered together suddenly flew a few meters off the ground, suspended in the air, and a pair of planes to fly to the stage.

Not to mention that Chaotianmen was frightened and jumped, that is, the audience was also shocked.

Chapter 1186 - Put

Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan split their actions and quickly searched for other people on the street. Because everyone went out to see the excitement, it was also fast, and after finding it, they sought to spread out.

Then they quickly rushed over here, all gathered in one place, ready to reunite for the waves.

Although not everyone has just strolled here, it is not immediately notified, but there are also dozens of people.

In the eyes of Qiao Yuxian, I know that the middle is the key target, and the other six people are nothing. But since the other party said “there are more people bullying people,” he immediately seized the opportunity.

Dozens of people flew up as a whole, and the battle directly scared everyone around them.

It was Luo Fatzi, and he was shocked to see this battle.

He can see that this young man is extraordinary in strength, but he also feels that Shen Lang has four followers and has been killed. I did not expect that there are still dozens!

If you go out, you will carry dozens of them, what is your identity!

This problem has also spread in the hearts of the surrounding audience, and I guess what this young man is.

The six people in Chaotianmen thought that the winner was in the grip. I didn't expect that such a scene suddenly appeared, and I almost scared the urine. Ten times their strength, they can directly crush them into slag!

Zhou Shaojun was also shocked. After observation and analysis, he thought that this should be the soft persimmon that came out of the small place. I did not expect that there were so many followers.

If this group of people is together, he can't stand it. Not to mention such a person, can there be no big power behind?

I found that I was kicked into the iron plate, which made him have a headache.

Originally, I wanted to make a name for myself. This seems to be notorious...

However, he is still sensible. The other side has so many helpers that he can't kill today. Even if they win on the stage, the other party will smash their seven groups.

It may not be safe to leave today, let alone the big troubles in the future. The only thing that can be done now is to take the soft and active compensation to the other party before the war, and to eliminate this.

Although this will become a laughing stock, but the reputation is also proclaimed, and ... life is important!

On the stage of the Tianmen Gate, naturally there was no sound, and the audience watched the excitement. Suddenly, there were so many people around, and they had to talk about it. Who knows if there are people with them?

Ever since, the silence was quiet, and the atmosphere at the scene seemed a bit solid.

Without talking, the waves slowly raised one hand in the air.

Suddenly, everyone's eyes were focused on him, focusing on his hands. They all squeezed a sweat. Is this going to be ordered?

Zhou Shaojun is also staring at Shen Lang. If these dozens of people really want to kill on this station, he will definitely not be able to stop it. It can only escape as quickly as possible!

The scene was very quiet, and the gesture of Shen Lang was slow, and it seemed to be slower when everyone stared.

Then his hand pressed a little.

The earth's heroes are also looking at the sinking waves. They are all experienced and versatile figures. They have been groping for the command of Shen Lang.

Seeing his gesture at the moment, everyone was just neatly flew up and immediately landed neatly.

They are also very clear about their role. What can work is to build momentum for Shen Lang. Really hands-on, Shen Lang does not need their help at all.

So just everyone has to be neat and consistent, that is to be high-profile!

When landing now, not only neatly, but also intentionally step on the ground!

There are two types of grounding on the ground. One is the real strength, the injecting vitality, and the ground is stepped on; the other is to control the power to make it sound as much as possible, but it will not destroy the ground.

They are now using the latter method, so when dozens of people landed at the same time, they immediately issued a “hoom” of a muffled sound, which directly made everyone feel a shock, but also made the atmosphere more dignified.

Zhou Shaojun and Chaotianmen on the stage were relieved, and they did not directly touch it.

“This friend, I am killing you four followers, purely unintentional. Our Chaotianmen are bright and upright, and I don’t want others to say that I am deceiving. If you want, I can compensate you for your losses.”

Zhou Shaojun, who knows the time, does not care. Those dozens of people completely obey the command of this young man. If he really wants to attack, he may be dangerous today.

What they just preached was that Zhou Shaojun of Chaotianmen had less heads, and he had to learn an unopened one. He had to kill his opponent on the ring, and this attracted everyone.

Now that I saw the strength of Shen Lang’s side, I immediately recognized it, and this immediately made the audience scream.

The Earth’s heroes did not participate in the buzz. They kept the chill, staring at the stage and putting pressure on their opponents.

The other six people in Chaotianmen are even more nervous – they are weaker. If these dozens are to be killed, the few heads may have the strength to escape, and they will become cannon fodder.

Therefore, Zhou Shaojun’s recognition at this time made them more relieved.

Luo Fatzi is also below, began to build up the Tianmen, let him hate to helpless, I think this guy is looking for death. But he and Zhou Shaojun are not familiar with the point of friends even more to see that the other party wants to become famous, it is impossible to persuade.

Wait until dozens of monks obey the orders of Shen Lang, and let his heart be completely cold, and began to think about how to explain to Zhou Yu in the future.

But now Zhou Shaojun can decisively recognize, but it makes him feel gratified. I didn’t expect him to have a child’s side, but also a calm and rational side.

It's a breeze to watch the lively around, and the bigger the better. Therefore, Luo Fatzi must quickly seize the opportunity to quickly follow a sentence before others have begun to squat.

"Friends! The family should not solve the problem, Zhou Shao's head is also a moment of failure, just an apology, and willing to make compensation. I really want to do this thing, I hope everyone can make money!"

Many people who are busy here want to let them hurry up. However, Luo Fatzi opened his mouth and some of them had been in Tiandu City for a long time. They felt that he represented Tiandu's local forces. He did not want to make things bigger, and they would not be able to start.

However, some of the foreigners who came here soon, young and prosperous, can not care so much, and directly screamed.

"Isn't it said that Zhou Shao's head is going to be a threat to killing opponents? How do you think?"

"Crap! This is bullying and hard. I just thought that I was bullying a young man. Now I find that there are a large group of people, and I immediately become a turtle."

"Hey! Chaotianmen has less heads, this is really a good person who knows the time!"

"But it's so embarrassing, it's not strength, it's not good, it's not a brain, why did you go early? Don't you know about the enemy?"

Everyone, you say a word, all kinds of fallen to the ears of Zhou Shaojun on the stage, he can not wait to directly drill into the ring...

Chapter 1187 - Do not care

"You open a price!"

Although she felt very humiliating, Zhou Shaojun had to continue to believe.

He is very regretful, but also secretly smashing the waves to play pigs and eat tigers. There are so many people, why do you bring four followers? If you know that there are dozens of them, he will not pretend that.

However, it is too late to say anything now, and I only dare to speak, and I dare not say it.

Although Shen Lang has been slower than them for a while, there is no world that has been delayed for too long. It is impossible to convince dozens of people who pretend to be in such a short period of time.

Shen Lang looked at Zhou Shaojun and ignored him. Then he looked at Luo Fatzi.

Luo Fatzi saw Shen Lang's gaze and looked up, and he piled up a smile. Judging from the current situation, Shen Lang is not dismissive of Zhou Shaojun, but also gives him face.

He is able to mediate and is a reputation for himself and his shop. After all, which merchants, no matter how many people are few, want to be safe.

“General Manager Luo, you have already asked him for help once. I also told you that people should be credible. I said that if they want to kill them all, they will all be slaughtered. Now they will officially answer you again!”

Upon hearing this, Luo's smile solidified and became very embarrassing.

I thought it was his fat face, and I didn't expect that Shen Lang was directly humiliated even once. And in the last sentence, there is a hint of warning. If he wants to mix again, he will be tired of it!

Luo Fatzi can sit on the side of the town. Naturally, there are people who are extraordinary. This is not only strength, but also good at people's life, mediation and other aspects.

Just now he will talk to Zhou Shaojun again and again, of course not for this second ancestor, but the Chaotianmen behind it, because Zhou Wei.

The business of a martial art such as Chaotianmen is that the generation of the head of the business has the final say. Now that Zhou Wei is in power, he can earn such a big face for his son, and the business will be put in their stores in the next few decades.

But even if Chaotianmen is a big customer, after all, it is a customer. He must first ensure that his store will not be affected.

So at this moment, his smile was restored after a moment of solidification, and he smiled more freely and freely, and made a random gesture. This is not pretending, but really let go.

Zhou Shaojun has been watching, Luo Fatzi before the round, he felt that for the Shenlang pleading, so once a bit hard. But now I know that this is biased towards him. Perhaps this fat man knows the other side.

But now Shen Lang is not a face!

Just now, on the surface, it is not to give Luo fat face, but in fact he Zhou Shaojun even Chaotianmen, even a little face is gone!

Because Shen Langlian did not care about him, and what is this?

Say you want to kill them all, you have to say it, kill everyone!

This is especially to treat their six or seven people as the fish on the cutting board!

Zhou Shaojun can understand the current affairs, but he is a sly child. Just now, it's just because there are dozens of people under the ground.

As a result, after he recognized it, the other side did not give a face, and did not follow the steps, but was so humiliating them. Where can he endure?

“We must kill us all! Hey, the tone is really big! Go ahead, wait for me to be so good!”

Zhou Shaojun began tougher, but because of the relationship between the following dozens of people, he did not say anything like killing, but used a more euphemistic “meeting”, but also left room for himself.

At first glance, I was able to watch the lively crowd. I was excited immediately.

“That’s it! The small heads of the heavenly gates can not ignore the reputation of Chaotianmen. This must fight to the end!”

“If you think about it, after today, Zhou Shao’s head will be notorious. Once spread, it will be difficult to wash the white.”

“Dry! You have to do it!”

Of course, these brave screams are not in the same direction as Joe. If you are close to dozens of them, you naturally don’t dare to do so.

“This young friend, can you tell me your name?”

“Yeah! You can order so many followers, and it must be the number one.”

“Today’s World War I will win no matter whether you win or lose, we can help you publicize it!”

“Do you know what to do?” Shen Lang glanced coldly at the past.

Those who wanted to ask Shen Lang’s identity immediately felt a chill, and quickly dared not speak.

Others have also been quiet. This young man is very angry!

However, there are some older people who feel that they can understand. Originally, people lost a few entourages. This is to avenge, not to be famous for performing, not to find happiness for you.

When I first spoke, Zhou Shaojun was already secretly prepared, using the field to control the entire ring.

At this time, the audience was smashing, and the other six people of course rushed to the stage.

They are very clear about their own strength, and they can't help less of the heads, but instead they fall in the name of bullying. If you really want to escape, they must start first.

As soon as I saw this picture, everyone was quiet, waiting for the battle to start soon But at this time, there was a picture that made everyone stunned!

The six disciples of Chaotianmen are leaping out of the stage and preparing to go under the ring. As a result, when the body left the ring for a few meters, the body was fixed, and it was suspended in the air!

Everyone was surprised and still didn't figure out what was going on.

Zhou Shaojun is shocked!

Because it is clear that he controlled the field in advance, this is tantamount to his secret preemptive shot.

But now the entire area of Fujian and Taiwan is not controlled by him, even he seems to be trapped in a quagmire!

The other six children, naturally, because of their weaker strength and unpreparedness, were directly controlled by Shen Lang. In other words, the downfall is already controlled by the field of Shenlang.

Zhou Shaojun always thought that Shen Lang and he were a level. Just the recognition, not the personal strength of Shen Lang, but because there are so many people backing.

Since everyone is a level, whoever first shot, who first controls the surrounding, not directly defeated, at least can greatly facilitate.

When he just shot, he also confirmed that Shen Lang did not attack him.

But now, even in the quiet, his field has been disintegrated, and the new field has completely controlled him with the ring.

There is only one possibility to do this – that is, the opponent is at least one level higher than him!

The high realm of dealing with the low realm can really be done from the palm of your hand. He had a deep understanding of this point. Not long ago, in the shop, he directly drained the four entourage heads when he shot, and the other side did not even have a chance to dodge because the gap was too big.

Now it's his turn...

Chapter 1188 - Rao his dog life?

Luo Fatzi under the stage is shaking his head and sighing.

This result is not surprising at all. This young man is far better than Zhou Shaojun. Since he has a sense of killing, how can he be merciful?

Some of the spectators who have reached the semi-immortal level also see the strength of Shen Lang. Before, they were very surprised how Zhou Shaojun would provoke a higher than his realm.

However, this has nothing to do with them. Chaotianmen is not a friend, of course, there will be no more words.

I feel that Zhou Shaojun's early shots, they also understand, the feeling Zhou Shaojun is unable to see through the strength of the other side, thinking that he is similar.

After discovering the gap in the realm, Zhou Shaojun immediately knew that it was too late, and now there is only one way – escape! Fighting for life, maybe there is still a chance.

Although he is now trapped in a quagmire, he is not completely imprisoned in the air like several other weaker ones, but his speed and other aspects are greatly reduced.

Since it is much stronger than him, then going to the hard battle is not a bone, but a stupid act.

Therefore, at this critical moment, he did not care about the other same door, regardless of the attack of the waves, directly ingested the same magic weapon, detonated it in the hand!

Between the time, countless smoke quickly burst open, starting from Zhou Shaojun, wrapped all around him to the entire ring!

The effect of this smoke bomb is very large. This is what he used to cover his escape. It was no problem to directly fill the entire square.

But here is a lively one, but no one is an ordinary person. There are some powerful ones, so after the smoke bombs were discovered, some people immediately shot.

They will not interfere with the situation of both sides of the battle, but they can block the smoke and prevent it from spreading.

“How is it? How?”

“Not good! This guy wants to run away!”

“It’s too shameless! Calling for a fight, the result is to let the smoke bomb escape!”

“Hey, Chaotianmen! This reputation has to be hurt by this few heads!”

Looking around the crowd, the discussion has come up. If you really reach more than half a cent, you will look at the doorway, and the rest will see a lively event.

Since this smoke bomb is used by Zhou Shaojun to escape from the body, it is certainly not so simple. Even the eyes of these comprehensions can be concealed, and it should also have the effect of irritating the eyes.

However, because they were blocked by the strong under the stage, they were all in the ring.

The range is small, the concentration is higher. This makes Qiao Yuxian and others, and can't see the situation above. Although they are very confident about Shen Lang, but the opponent does not seem to be good.

Just when everyone was anxious to see the above situation, suddenly found all the smoke, even in the rapid concentration!

Qiao Yuxian and others are even more surprised to see this picture... It's like a film and video recording taken down!

After a while, it quickly blasted all the smoke in the entire Yongtai area, and all of them gathered back to Zhou Shaojun's palm.

Without the thick fog, everyone also saw the state of the stage.

This time, except for the six people who were still in the air, Zhou Shaojun did not stand still.

The thick fog completely returned to his palm, but he could not change back to a smoke bomb.

In fact, the "rewind effect" just because it is within the scope of the field, because other people's help blockade, did not quickly spread to the outside. And within his field, even a few people can be kept in the air, to manipulate some smoke, it is simply a pediatrics.

Therefore, these smokes were forced to return to Zhou Shaojun by the waves.

Under the circumstances that everyone has seen clearly, all the smoke from the palm of Zhou Shaojun's palm, completely smashed the whole face of his face!

Everyone looked at this weird scene. All the smoke, as if being manipulated by the master, gathered all over Zhou Shaojun's head and did not spread like other places.

And Zhou Shaojun seems to have been imprisoned, let alone dodge, that is, the moving bullets can not move.

Shen Lang didn't think it was interesting. He didn't play anymore. Soon, all the smoke quickly flew to the sky, spread in the air, and diluted with the wind, it would not affect anyone.

Without the cover of thick fog, everyone has clearly seen that Zhou Shaojun's tears and nose are together, and they have a look!

Needless to say, nature is just the effect of those thick smoke, just like ordinary smoke has the same effect on ordinary people.

Although there is no anticipation of a close match, but the pre-match proliferation news to kill the opponent, this time is being abused by the opponent, but also everyone is very cool.

"Oops! Zhou Shaojun is crying at the head! I am going to play emotional cards and want to show weakness and beg for mercy!"

"Don't say that, maybe people really know it wrong."

"Oh, maybe you are scared to cry?"

"It's also possible, you see what he just thought and fled. It must be scared!"

"It doesn't matter if you cry, don't know if you are not scared!"

The young and good people below are happy to ridicule Zhou Shaojun on the stage. They don't know Zhou Shaojun, but since you were so arrogant and posing in the wind, it is a straw bag and a bag. Do you still encourage your support?

It is said that although Zhou Shaojun was banned, people still have consciousness, and everyone can still hear it.

He was an instinctive reaction stimulated by smoke, which was not able to control it. The result was said that he was scared and cried, and some people said that he was scared of urine... If this is especially true, it's true. It's notorious!

What makes him even more depressed is that he is not like several other people, and he is not imprisoned by the field.

He also has the strength to turn the peak of the gods, although the gap is still very large, but it is not allowed to be banned by the field.

In fact, when the richness was scattered in the ring, Shen Lang had already approached him, directly slammed him, and then returned.

So in everyone's eyes, Shen Lang didn't move even in the same way, so they packed them up.

"Little brother, you have just humiliated him. The fact that today is going out, it will be a great loss to Zhou Shaojun, and a great blow, it may be more uncomfortable than killing him."

"I have to spare people and spare people, let him have a dog's life! I must contact his father, let Chaotianmen apologize to you!"

Looking at the level of Shen Lang's shot, Luo Fatzi realized that even if he wanted to intervene, he could not save Zhou Shaojun.

This time, he will not be stupid to open the mouth again, but use the way of voice, secretly pleading to Shen Lang, hoping that Shen Lang can put Zhou Shaojun a life.

As for Zhou Wei and Chaotianmen, it is not near Tiandu City. How can I say that I can contact you? How could it be possible to sue for a crime?

Luo Fatzi's words are actually euphemistic expressions: I can't make a life-and-death for Zhou Shaojun's dog life, with Zhou Wei and Chaotianmen!

"His dog life is life, my life is also life. Zhou and Hetianmen want revenge, I don't mind!"

Shen Lang faintly returned to him, and then began to shoot!

Chapter 1189 - You devil

Others did not know that Luo Fatzi pleaded with Shen Lang's secrets, so they only saw Shen Lang's shot.

Shen Lang walked slowly in the ring, and in his hand, Liu Yejian appeared.

Then, with a slow sword that everyone can see clearly, cut it out directly!

The first sword went out and directly separated the head and body of a disciple.

And Shen Lang's control of the field is also a good match, not only let the body of the separation fall, but also intends to let the blood in the throat shoot high!

A sword sees blood!

This makes all the fun, it is exciting to the extreme.

Originally they were surging, just to watch the excitement, and the excitement was to see the big one. If they are like Zhou Shaojun, if they find something wrong, they will immediately recognize it, and will say a few words without pain and itch. Then the duel will be cancelled. How boring it is!

Just after Shen Lang controlled them, they have already whipped up their appetite. Now they directly kill a person, and they stimulate everyone's excitement.

"They are innocent."

When Shen Lang spoke, a slow sword swung out, killing another person's head, and the separated body fell to the ground.

"My four followers are also innocent. Zhou Shao's head is inexplicable and kills them if they don't agree."

The third sword slowly swings out...

"Since his strength is strong, he can kill others casually. Of course, he should still use his own way to give him another body. Isn't he saying that he is a small head of Chaotianmen? The disciple of Tianmenmen, of course, is also because of his words and deeds. And die!"

It was like a relay. When talking on the side of Shen Lang, as one blood was sprayed, he immediately smashed another one and then spurted blood.

The crowds watching the lively scene have become quiet, and the atmosphere has also killed the first fanaticism, becoming nervous and strange.

These are the * young people, and they feel creepy at this moment.

What kind of person is this younger on the stage than they are? Can you talk to everyone while you cut your throat easily?

And is it to help everyone's blood as a fireworks?

Human blood fireworks sprayed from the throat of the throat... This is hard to accept.

"I said that I want to kill them and bury them. Naturally, there will be no less. Zhou Shao is at the head. Do you think I should have said that?"

Shen Lang has already killed six, and finally came to Zhou Shaojun.

At this moment, Zhou Shaojun, desperately trying to struggle to leave, was far from being shackled by his deep waves, and could not break free in a short time.

The Liu Yejian of Shen Lang has already arrived in front of him.

He had just fired his sword very quickly, even because they all jumped up a few meters in the air, and the Liuye sword itself was not in contact, but Jianmang cut off their neck.

Therefore, the Liu Yejian at this moment is still soft like a willow leaf, and there is no trace of blood on it.

However, in the eyes of Zhou Shaojun, it is not bloody.

He had just burst into tears and he hadn't eliminated it. It felt like he was really scared and scared. It is a pity that there is no habit of photographing and spreading here. Otherwise, if this picture is photographed and spread, it will inevitably be greatly spread.

After Shen Lang asked, Zhou Shaojun found that he could talk.

"You have to kill it! Anyone who wrinkles his brow is your grandson!"

Shen Lang has just said to Luo Fatzi to kill them all, just killed six, the chief culprit Zhou Shaojun, do not feel that they can be spared.

In this case, it is better to say a few hardening!

"Oh, the brow doesn't wrinkle, just scared the tears and snot, and scared the pants."

In the words of Shen Lang, Zhou Shaojun roared: "I am not scared to cry! I am not scared of urine!"

There are tears on his face, which is very unconvincing, but everyone knows what caused him. There is no scare, it is also a joke, and I will not believe that he is really scared.

However, at this time, Shen Lang's vitality sealed the past and directly penetrated into Zhou Shaojun's body.

Zhou Shaojun, who can't move, his face changed immediately!

He can't control his body at all, but the current situation...

With the harsh fart coming, then there was a flood of sputum, and then the stench spread!

"The trough! Not only scared the urine, but also pulled the pants!"

"The head of Zhou Shao of Chaotianmen is really hard!"

"No, no, my body is very honest!"

"I have lived for decades, and it was the first time I saw someone who was really scared!"

"What are you doing? The old man has lived more than you for decades, don't say that he has seen it, and he has never heard of anyone scared out!"

"Hey, Chaotianmen can really show his face this time. What is Zhou Zhou's head calling Zhou? I have to remember this name, and I will definitely make a big name in the future!"

In fact, you don't need the realm of Luo Fatzi. As long as you think about it, you can know that this is just the incontinence caused by the pressure exerted by Shen Lang. This is something that Zhou Shaojun can't control at all, and the smell is also scattered by the field control. sparked everyone's hot theory.

However, it is not important for people who are busy watching. The important thing is that Zhou Shaojun just said it is very hard, and he immediately pulled his pants.

Not to mention Tiandu City, that is, the entire Han Dynasty, there are few such scandals, of course, more willing to believe this version.

Zhou Shaojun has just been in control of incontinence, and the whole person is almost going crazy. This is not only extremely embarrassing, but also his own face.

And to hear the words of other people, let him collapse directly!

His purpose today is to want to make a big name, but it is not such a name. Even if he has an “anonymous”, it is a hundred times stronger than this “anonymous”. This is really “notorious.”

“just kill me!”

Zhou Shaojun has been desperate. At this moment, he really no longer considers any situation. He only wants to die. As long as there is still a rest, he must feel endless shame.

“Of course I will kill you, you are doing evil, you can’t just let them be your scum.”

When Shen Lang spoke, he shot directly on Zhou Shaojun’s head!

At the moment of contact, he quickly took out his mental strength completely, and at the same time, the influx of energy, quickly gave Zhou Shaojun abolished!

Between the time of the day, Zhou Shaojun was completely lost. If it wasn’t for the control of the field, he would be soft on the ground.

“You, you, this demon!” Zhou Shaojun shouted out in pain and weakness, but the voice was very weak.

“You shoot my followers directly, so that they only have a bit of time. I am not a demon. Although I take revenge, I still give you the opportunity to let you spend more time reminiscing. Is half-day enough?”

Zhou Shaojun spurted out of blood!

Chapter 1190 - Awe

Looking at the crowds in the audience, listening to the heart is also faint.

Directly killing a person with a palm, leaving only a few breaths of time, it is actually a very fast death, it is a happy death.

But now Zhou Shaojun has been completely humiliated. Although everyone can't feel it, but it seems that just the palm of the wave, has basically had Zhou Shaojun half life!

Now leaving him a half-day time to live, is actually to let him suffer more than half a day of pain, and humiliation!

Luo Fatzi also sighed. When he just persuaded him, he still felt that Shen Lang had already humiliated Zhou Shaojun and should be able to vent his anger.

I didn't expect him to underestimate this young man. What humiliation? That is just the beginning!

Even now, it is only a beginning of humiliation. Zhou Shaojun still has to suffer half a day of pain and humiliation...

At this moment, he has not dared to open any. Even a little regret, for fear that Shen Lang will be angry with them. But think about the medicinal materials of Shen Lang, still trade with them, and the four followers still let them arrange the aftermath, and a little rest assured.

wrong!

Just in a hurry, he just confessed to the management. It is only now discovered that this young man is not only very powerful, but also vengeful and revengeful.

If the people in the store don't pay enough attention...

This made him unable to watch the excitement, and quickly went back. One is that the benefits of medicinal herbs should not be short-lived. On the other hand, the four followers must be handled well.

Luo fat people are gone, of course, no one will help Zhou Shaojun to speak.

When the field of Shen Lang was withdrawn, Zhou Shaojun fell to the ground directly, and he could not move. Both body and mind are already very weak, and they are still incontinent.

Shen Lang glanced at the bottom of the picture, and then went straight to Chao Xian on their volley.

Qiao Yuxian and others set foot in the battle, all unified, and greeted Shen Lang with a respectful attitude.

Just revenge, they are a big heart!

One, two, three, four, in any case, and they were in the pastoral garden, in the underwater world, there have been two fellowships. There are still a few people who used to be a small team with them. In Jingui Valley, they also established a friendship between life and death.

Now that I came to the city, I was suddenly killed by the inexplicable, and they were all very angry.

Therefore, for Shen Lang's means of revenge, they are secretly screaming. If they are, they may be killed desperately. It will not be so much worse than death.

Shen Lang did not pay attention to the collapse of the platform. Even if someone went to save Zhou Shaojun afterwards, he would at most give him a knife, and save him from saving his life.

Of course, if there is a good thing to return to life like the Haizu Lingzhu, and timely to Zhou Shaojun, you can save a life.

However, if he is willing to do so, he should only be alone. Other people can't save him even if they have this good thing in their hands. Really have this friendship, just stopped to stop, at least will open your mouth.

Therefore, Zhou Shaojun is dead, and he will torture him for a long time.

With his new Thunder method and Zhou Shaojun's stench, it is estimated that it will not be a life of friendship, nor will he save him. Give him a knife, but many people can do it. But who wants to get involved?

“Master Shen, the sorrow!”

“They are a few...hey, I didn’t expect it to be like this.”

Everyone persuaded Shen Lang.

Shen Lang nodded and said that it was very gratifying for them to quickly gather to cheer him up.

However, his purpose was just to take revenge, not for the limelight.

Now it has been seen by so many people, and will soon be spread throughout the city. After a while, it will spread to the Han Dynasty with the guests from the south to the north.

In order to avoid being too swaying, Shen Lang immediately stunned the crowd now, letting everyone disperse and spread, and don’t let such a huge team be remembered.

Of course he is not afraid of anything, but he does not want to break the personnel.

Everyone else completely obeyed his arrangements and quickly dispersed. Three people, Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan and Liu Yuchang, took the opportunity to follow the casual waves.

Originally, they were familiar with Shen Lang, but like they just came to this street, Shen Lang also let them all spread out, only one two three four is the follower’s identity to follow.

Of course, they don’t have any intentions. They just feel that the gap between the strength of Shen Lang and the Shen Lang is getting bigger and bigger, and they want to get a little closer to him.

Shen Lang returned to the previous store.

After the first battle, the prestige of Shen Lang is rapidly spreading to the whole city, and this street has no one to know.

Even a lot of people who have just been in various stores have heard the explosives here and they all regret not seeing them. This time, I followed it and watched the waves.

This shop is not greeted by the buddy, but the management is waiting at the door.

Just after Luo Fatzi went back, he arranged for people to wait at the door, and he must give the treatment of Shen Lang's guests.

However, they basically have a very good attitude. Even if they look down on the guests, they are very enthusiastic in the face. Only when they are behind can they spit.

Now facing the sinking waves, it is even more sincere and fearful. I am afraid that this killing  will be angry and give everyone what to do.

The three people of Qiao Yuxian are also very emotional.

The fierce name of Shen Lang's "blood-blooded madness", they have heard it before, and then he gets along with him and feels his strength. But I didn't expect this child to be more than just on the earth. It is still so strong in the new world that makes them feel powerless. It is still like killing God.

Shen Lang is Shen Lang.

Domineering!

When entering the store, the management led the Shenlang to the upstairs. It was also a warm introduction. The pharmacists were already working hard to identify and basically completed. Let them go up and wait for a while to estimate the price.

At the door of the second floor, Luo Fatzi has smiled and greeted.

“Small friends really let me be convinced. I am a fan of fat people. I have seen more guests in all parts of the country. I still open my eyes today!”

Luo Fatzi's face was full of emotions, and he did not hide his eyes from seeing, and then vigorously touted Shen Lang.

“I have not spoken to Zhou Shaojun, he also has the punishment he should have. We continue to trade, even if I don't deserve to make friends with you, can you know what Xiaoyou calls?”

“Shen Lang.” Shen Lang is not afraid to reveal the name.

For Chaotianmen, he also knows a little about Moran's memory. Naturally, there is a foundation, but it cannot be compared with Qiulin. Therefore, he is not worried that he will be tired of Qiu Lin Jianzong. As for his revenge, he will not refuse!

“It turned out to be Mr. Shen, please forgive me Lao Luo for being ignorant...”

Luo Fatzi does not hypocritically say that long-term, such a person, can not be hypocritical. But when it comes to this, I can't help but laugh at the fact that I'm still saying that I'm “very knowledgeable.”

“What do these friends call?”

I have seen Shen Lang as a follow-up to killing. For these new followers, Luo Fatzi is not willing to do anything. It is not only awe of Shen Lang, but also a respectful attitude towards Qiao Yuxian.
