

First Strong 1201

Chapter 1201 - Mouth face

"I really thought that I was greedy for the little toll you went back? Know how many Lingshi I sold today? 100,000 fine stones!"

The words of Shen Lang, they all shocked them, even if they got the gift of Bao Puzong, the gift of Ge Luting, just took out dozens of yuan Lingshi, but thousands of fine stone, he actually sold 100,000!

"I really want to be unfavorable to you. I went back last time and stayed for a year and a half. I can directly put your sects and unify the whole earth comprehension! And can you hold it for a year and a half?"

In this case, they are both embarrassed and scared.

At the beginning, everyone had such a conjecture. Shen Lang left it one or two, and his women were taken away.

"Abandoning the Western monks does not say, divided the team, I can still find you alone. But even if I tell you this information completely. What can you do?"

"Do you know the ancestors of hundreds of years ago, in which position? I met Qiu Lin Jianzong in Tangcheng, and like him today, it is purely an accidental coincidence! Today is not an accident, Ge Luting, do you know that there is Bao Puzong? Know where to find it?"

"I really want you to know, my heart is wild, I want to get something for nothing, and I can reap a month of peace of mind."

This time, let's not say that the three of Qiao Yuxian, that is, Ge Luting, is also a bit embarrassing. Still can't really do it!

Shen Lang smiled faintly: "It doesn't matter. I was just hired to lead the way. The so-called leader is just when everyone has no way. I hope that there will be people who continue to lead the way. I can't ignore the difference in my compatriots. ""

"But now that Master Ge has found the same master, the information I have learned, the help I get will be far better than me. I don't need my selfish people to lead the way, everyone will part ways in heaven!"

"No, no, Shen brother, you said, we did not blame you. We are always grateful to you."

"Yeah! We know that you are good for us. In the month of Kim Sum, it is both a temper for everyone and a reward for everyone. Now, if we bring us here, there is no chance."

"We still need yours."

Several of them havetened to stay. Ge Luting whispered slightly, he does not need to sink now. I have just installed it once. What I need is to further replace Shen Lang and become the leader of everyone. That is the real force.

Shen Lang shook his head: "I am not angry. Speaking badly, I thought you were a little tired. And don't forget, I just had a few people on Chaotianmen! It is also the local martial art, Zhou Shaojun's father, Zhou Hao, the head of Chaotianmen, will inevitably find revenge on me. And the former generation of Chaotianmen, Zhou Shaojun's grandfather Zhou Yucun is still alive."

These words are spoken, so that they are all taking a breath.

The strength of that little head is that they can't wear them. They can only be sure that they are much higher than them. They are other disciples and their level.

His father's realm is bound to be higher, not to mention the predecessors who have long since retired.

“Thank you for your support today. But with me, it is dangerous.”

“Shen brother, you don’t want to be tired of us, only deliberately say this. We have to take advantage of the advantages, and we will draw a line with you when it is dangerous. Is that still human?”

“That is, we will not leave you!”

Shen Lang waved his hand: “You all discuss it yourself! Take the time to find out your ancestors, and develop well, there is still time.”

“Remember today, it is based on today’s date. Today, two years later, I will appear in the valley where everyone was trapped. When you find a relative who wants to stay, you can stay and want to go back. I will leave with everyone.”

Although they just felt a little sad, they didn’t treat them as cronies.

But now everyone has to part ways, or let them be very upset.

However, they also have self-knowledge, followed by Shen Lang, in fact, can not help, can only follow the cheap, and people may finally have the opportunity to marry them.

Shen Lang looked at the past.

“Master Ge, what are you doing?” Qiao Yuxian asked helplessly.

Ge Luting snorted: “You have to leave, it is your business, you must have wanted to marry everyone. It is not Jingui Valley, you don’t need cannon fodder. But you have to take the magic weapon of Yuxianmen.” Hand it over and hand over the methods and routes to go back!”

“Why?” Shen Lang asked a faint sentence.

Ge Luting seems to have already had this question, and he is very proud of the answer.

“You just admitted that you are the passer-by we hired. Whether you are a friend of the West or us, you are receiving commissions. It is your duty to lead the way!”

“Yes! Now you are making big money, 100,000 Lingshi! But when you were on Earth, you still haven’t, your request, everyone is satisfied. If you turn your face and don’t accept it, then you don’t want to face it.” !”

“Either, you are on call, and you will lead the way for everyone. Or, if you hand over things and methods, even if you transfer this obligation to someone else. I have a product, I am willing to stand up and work hard for everyone!” ”

Listening to him talking to this one Everyone knows that he still has such a wish today.

Qiao Yuxian couldn’t help but anger: “Master Ge! Do people want to talk about conscience! Shen brother accepted the employment, and also successfully brought everyone here, and also sent a group of people back. In Yuxianmen, in the Golden Valley They all saved us, you are so happy that people are on call, your next man!”

“People can’t speak without faith! You can’t talk to him because he is strong.” Ge Luting is not ashamed.

“It’s too much. The spaceship was taken by the sinking brothers, and the route was also from the Shenxianmen. I have the ability to do it yourself!”

Shen Lang just analyzed that Bao Puzong may have the intention of plotting the earth’s world. To give benefits to Ge Ge Lu Ting to divide everyone, it is necessary to try to get all the earth’s heroes to the net, or to use the means to win.

But I really didn’t expect that this would not only be the right to win the “leader”, but also force him to hand over the method of returning.

Just now he also said that the two-year contract is to give everyone a retreat. He won’t interfere with everyone, and he doesn’t want to be dragged down, but he won’t give up after all.

Now the attitude of Ge Luting is irritating him.

“You don’t deserve it! There is no match for Bao Puzong’s support, and Bao Zong is not worthy!”

Shen Langlian said three unworthy!

Originally, I felt that I was holding the words and smashing the waves. I was proud of Ge Luting, and I was angry and angry.

“You, do you know what you are saying? Do you dare to say that Bao Zong is unworthy?”

“Bao Puzong is not worthy! There is a skill to let them take you back.” Shen Langyi sleeve: “Now roll to Laozi! Or else you will kill you and grab your Yuanling Stone!”

Chapter 1202 - Unaccompanied

Shen Lang’s unsatisfactory swearing out only made Ge Luting angry and dissatisfied, but the latter sentence pinched him and grabbed his Yuan Lingshi, which scared him.

Immediately after saying nothing, I quickly collected the Yuan Lingshi that had just been shown, and then left a sentence, “You wait,” and hurried away.

This is not a joke, the strength of Shen Lang is not what he can compare, although there is now a mountain back to Park, no one is here!

After he left in a hurry, the scene was quiet and the atmosphere looked a bit embarrassing.

Shen Lang has re-arranged a soundproofing: “You don’t have to feel embarrassed. I am not sorry for you, you are not sorry for me, everyone is equal.”

With that said, the three people who were originally embarrassed think that it makes sense.

Secrets or interests, since they are obtained by others, why should they be shared with others?

Sharing it to everyone is a sentiment; not sharing, it is also a duty.

“Not much to say. Such a fast time, Bao Puzong can believe that Ge Luting, must have read his memory, he must be concealed. Since reading his memory, you will know everything on earth. Common sense, including everything we have come over this time.”

“They have the same origin, but this relative is a relative of 1600 years ago. Oh, we all said that we were a family five hundred years ago. If you meet a surname, can you really be a family? Everyone, from Yuxian At the door of the door, there is no room for the space of the sea, including the earth world, which will be the object of their plot!”

“What do we have to do?” Nan Liuchuan quickly asked.

Undoubtedly, a few of them are still looking forward to the first wave of influence, and have not shaken the trust of Shen Lang.

This also makes Shen Lang quite gratified. If there is any emotion to the earth's heroes, it is also a few of them.

“In this case, I estimate that he should spread out immediately, but there should be reservations for the outside world. He wants to keep the information asymmetrical. So, you, who already know the truth, don't have to follow him.”

“Of course, I don't have to follow me. I really have danger. The information of Zhou Yu and Zhou Yucun is that when you sell the medicine, the general manager of Luo Fat told me. He sees us as many people, thinking that it is a big force. So remind me.”

Joe said that they were three, and they were a little anxious after listening.

I heard that Shen Lang said that he should not be with Ge Luting, but thought that he would bring them three.

However, Shen Lang is telling the truth, which also makes them scruple. If you don't say anything else, one, two, three, four are good for his followers. Once you are in danger, there will be time when you can't protect them.

There are too many strong people in this world, and Shen Lang is bound to be a high-profile one, and the danger will be more.

"You come over."

When Shen Lang did not react, they poured a memory into their consciousness through the spirit.

Because everyone's realm is very different, even for three people at the same time, for Shen Lang, it is also an easy task to complete in an instant.

"This is the route of Yuxianmen. I have given it to you. You all have it, and you are not afraid of anyone who has forgotten it. Then this is..."

"Shen brother! How is this? You gave it to us, then what do you do?" Qiao Xiaoxian was a bit unacceptable.

Shen Lang shook his head: "Do not worry! I just gave you the route memory, I also own it. For protection, I can try to replace it with other ones. For example, you gave me the cloud."

Although he said it easily, but several of them know that the spaceship of Yuxianmen is optimized for the foggy world. Other flying magic weapons, it is very likely to stop there when it is there.

"I have said this. I will give you two years of time. When I go to stay, I can leave with everyone. But Ge Luting can reveal such a mouth, and there must be instructions from Bao Zong, they will not wait for two years. It will invade the Earth as soon as possible."

“So, I refused him on the face, but things and methods were handed over to you. In the future, if you go back yourself, or keep in touch with other people, when you go back together, look at your decision.”

Liu Yuchang sighed: “Shen brother, you are to cover yourself for us! I am really ashamed of our old man.”

Qiao Yuxian and Nanliuchuan are also bitter smiles.

At the time of the pastoral garden, Shen Lang also used his own stay to drag Yuxianmen, in exchange for the opportunity for everyone to leave.

Now that there is a crisis, it is the way to let go and drag them.

Where is this selfishness, it is a great sentiment of selflessness!

“Go out now, live in a different place, hide yourself. Find your ancestors, or continue to wait and see. No problem. The goal is me, I will not pay attention to you for the time being.”

After Shen Lang finished swinging his hand, he was also arranged.

Qiao Yuxian also understands that because they are close to Shen Lang, if Shen Lang is gone, then there will be a local pavilion supporting Ge Luting, they will definitely find them.

So this time They have to leave when Shen Lang attracts attention, at least hide it.

“Shen brother, we will remember today, two years later, to the valley...”

Shen Lang interrupted his words: “You take care of yourself and see the situation. If the follow-up situation is not good, leave if you leave. You don’t need to wait for me, maybe... I will go back first.”

Shen Lang's refusal, let them silently nod, and went to Shen Lang's body for a ceremony, then turned and left.

After they were sent, Shen Lang also relaxed a lot.

To be honest, he is a big man, and it's convenient to go anywhere. They can also come out at any time in the World of Heaven, and it is dangerous to hide.

With a large team of nearly 100 people, it is all sorts of troubles.

He has never been accustomed to being such a leader, and Tianshan Jianzong has never been specifically worried about it. It was because Qiao Yuxian and others, including one two three three, could not let go.

Now that I have reached this step, it is time for him to leave alone.

As for Bao Puzong, Shen Lang is really not in the eye!

Luo Fatzi is the general manager of their business, and is also the highest responsible person in Tiandu, which is the semi-sacred environment. Shen Lang can regulate him.

From this point of view, the characters of other commercial towns and towns should be about half a cent, after all, it is mainly business. Moreover, the joint trade association's plan for the exchange of jade has also avoided a large amount of hoarding, and there will be no large-scale raids.

The things here, even if they will immediately report to Bao Puzong, they will take a lot of time, and they will definitely need to be discussed inside. It's really better for the stronger players to come, but it's absolutely faster than Zhou Yucun.

Chapter 1203 - Bao Puzong meeting

This is not just the most expensive medicine I have ever bought, it should be the most expensive item. The original price is 10,000 yuan, and after the bargaining, it is about 7,000.

This is really a huge expense. If it is not 100,000, Shen Lang is reluctant to spend.

Now look carefully, the bottle is sealed, the isolation is very good, and the inside is not felt.

Luo Fatzi is guaranteed by the creditworthiness of the firm. Naturally, it will not be a fake. Otherwise, if it is spread out, the reputation of hundreds of years will be lost.

But can this remedy really make him reborn and even enter the realm of Daxian?

He broke through the semi-fairy situation and relied on the space of the heavenly book for several years. But in the next six months, there is no such retreat time. In a short time, it is difficult to forcibly break through.

Now he is waiting for tomorrow's auction to see if there are more good things.

But tomorrow is still a small auction of two big and one small, ten days later will be the highlight of a month. Ten days, it was enough to spread the news and let Zhou Yucun rushed over.

In this way, he is able to take part in it, that is, tomorrow.

I also counted the harvest. The main thing I sold was that they got it, but he got it in Jinmao Valley for half a month, and there are one two three four. But to the more advanced Yuhuatao, Shenlang is not sold.

Now I can use the main funds, or the 90,000 high-level Lingshi, and his personal accumulation can be used for thousands.

However, just now Luo fatzi there, the limited edition of a unique jade emperor, the highest price will reach 10,000. It should be regarded as a ceiling price, and the items to be auctioned will not be higher.

At this time, the voice of Ge Luting came over: "Shen Lang, come out! Let's find another place to make it clear, you don't want to be tired of the inn, so that the local monks can see the excitement and shame."

Shen Lang's knowledge was swept away and he saw Glouting outside the inn. In addition to him, there are three other people, who should be the people of Bao Puzong.

Whether it is Ge Luting's own meaning or the meaning of Bao Puzong, it is in line with the idea of Shen Lang.

Today, in the ring, he has already made a big splash, and will certainly be noticed by more people. That is a duel of personal grievances. It is in the ring and there will be no interference. But if you start at the inn, you may become a public enemy.

There is nothing to do with Shen Lang. The auction is for tomorrow. Today, he does not want to socialize with other people, so he goes out directly.

Outside the inn, Ge Luting saw Shen Lang coming out and immediately whispered to the three people next to him.

"Several brothers, this is Shen Lang."

When Shen Lang came over, he also introduced to Shen Lang: "Shen Lang, this is the high person we hold Pu Zong. Wan Jianliu brother, Jinghai brother, Zhong Rong brother."

These three people look much younger than Geluting from the age of the surface. Wan Jianliu seems to be in his fifties, and Jing Hai and Zhong Rong are about forty years old.

However, the ability is the teacher, the strength of Wan Jianliu is the semi-prestige realm, and the other two are also the level of the peak of the gods. In the middle of the Gloria, the gap is still obvious.

Therefore, he called his brother, and he is already climbing.

“Master Shen Lang, today, once in the day, it is already full of the city.” Wan Jianliu smiled and handed over.

Shen Lang nodded, too lazy to be with them, and then pointed to the outside.

Looking at the atmosphere a little embarrassed, Ge Luting immediately whispered: “You kid don’t know how to lift! Wan Shixiong personally came to see you, it is your honor!”

Wan Jian rushed to raise his hand to stop him from talking, and then let Zhong Rong lead the way.

“We hold Park Zong, in the Tiandu City, there are also small industries, the visitor is much more convenient than the inn, please!”

The fierce beast car was ready outside, everyone went forward and the car ran very fast and steady.

In their realm, if they want to hurry, of course, they will be faster and not tired. The fierce beast pulls the car, and in the end it is a symbol of identity.

In the car, everyone is also a simple guest set a few words, Wan Jianliu asked about nonsense such as living habits. And Zhong Rong is driving outside, knowing that the atmosphere is not harmonious, or speeding up.

Bao Puzong’s industry, of course, will not be in a remote place, or in the center of the city, after a few streets have arrived.

“Master Shen, please!” Wan Jianliu did not give a face because of the coldness of Shen Lang, or kept the basic guest set, of course, not too enthusiastic.

This “small industry” is a mansion of the same level as the palace. There are gates in front, and there are also partial doors on both sides. There are several entrances, including gardens and various pavilions, as well as rockery and water.

Of course, they are not showing off the real estate. For the comprehension, these secular industries are brilliant again, nothing.

After the waves entered the inside, Shen Lang felt that the architectural style in this large house was actually a concealed layout. The size of each house, the size of each courtyard, and the seats of pavilions and rockery trees are all worthwhile and some are likely to be active, that is, they can be formed at ordinary times. Gathering the array, once it is needed, after moving, it can become a killing.

Bao Puzong is the newly created sect of Bao Puzi Ge Hong, who is good at alchemy. These arrays may also be designed by people.

“Let’s talk about it here!”

Wan Jianliu smiled and laughed: “Master Shen is a guest, and it is the first time that he should come to the main hall and become a body in the garden pavilion.”

Shen Lang faintly said: “There will be nothing to talk about in the end. Once you fight, in this garden, after all, the damage will be smaller.”

When they came in, they were accompanied by these big brothers, and there were no more disciples and no ordinary attendants.

It can be seen that they have also prepared to turn their faces and have already opened up others.

“Shen Lang, you are among us, the strongest one. Don’t forget, this is the place where you can hold the Park, don’t say that you are far behind, it is Jinghai brother, Zhong Rong brother, not you. Competing, you are so arrogant, it’s so arrogant!”

Shen Lang squinted at him. “Glu Ting, you are just a piece of chess. They want to play chess with me. Your mission has been completed, and the chess piece should have the awareness of the piece, don’t become abandon!” ”

Ge Luting was said to have a hot face. He wanted to say that they would not be like this, but they were afraid that if the sword flow really was as Shen Lang said, there would be no room for turning.

So, even if it is very embarrassing and uncomfortable, you can only resist and not talk.

Chapter 1204 - Lion's big opening

“Shen Master does not need to use Ge Ge’s younger brother. If you don’t say whispers, let’s go to the pavilion and say it!” Wan Jianliu pointed to the pavilion.

When Wan Jianliu and Shenlang stepped forward, Ge Luting just lifted his foot and was dragged by Zhong Rong.

This makes Ge Luting, who has been obsessed with it, be ashamed!

Sure enough, let Shen Lang say it!

Bao Puzong does not have much friendship with the same sect. It is just because he sees the interests and wants to use him. Now he has about Shen Lang. His chess piece has no value!

Jinghai entered the pavilion with the Jianjian flowing, and Zhong Rong stayed in the same place.

He also discovered the embarrassment of Ge Luting, and immediately gave him a voice: “Ge Shidi does not mind, do not let you go, not to not value you. But this is a slap in the face, in case you turn your face, afraid that you are in danger. ”

Hearing this comfort, Ge Luting was a good one.

Yes, his strength is not the opponent of Shen Lang, and Shen Lang must regard him as a anti-bone, this is not a traitor, it is simply a “sacred traitor” of the earth, once you start, you must first take him to open the knife!

In this way, several brothers did not let him close, but left Zhong Rong's brother here to take care of him and defend him!

"Thank you, Master Zhong Rong, thank you for the love of several brothers!"

Ge Luting is almost old and tearful!

When he was smashing the waves today, he seemed to be a little boy, but he was also an old man. In Luofu Danzong, he is an elder who has already abdicated regardless of the matter. He has no elders, and the entire sect is already covered by him.

This time, I have become very unexcited. Although Shen Lang is also a way to lead, but for the beginning of nearly three hundred people, to the back of nearly a hundred people, it is impossible to take care of them.

So now there are a few distant relatives "senior brothers" who have met for the first time, but they are so caring for his comfort and taking care of his emotions, which really touched him very much.

After entering the pavilion, Wan Jianliu invited Shen Lang to sit down on the stone bench beside the stone table. Jinghai was waiting on the side of the pavilion, and did not mean to prepare refreshments.

This is already very obvious, they will be on the lips, others have not been able to cope, ready to turn their faces.

"I saw Ge Gedi today and made me feel a lot. I didn't expect to have a chance to see the descendants of my grandfather in the ancestral land after a lapse of more than a thousand years. This is a huge thing for us to hold Park Zong, for Han Guo. Many martial art, I think it is very important."

"Because this is of great significance to us, we must go to the ancestral land to pay homage to the ancestors and go to see where the ancestors practiced the testimony. This requires Master Shen to help!"

After Wan Jianliu finished the opening remarks, there was no turning around and he said directly.

“What we need is the way to go to the ancestral land – the earth you are talking about. As long as you are willing to give up, we are very happy to give compensation. Dan medicine, Lingshi, are not a problem, but please offer.”

“Sounds, you are very sincere.” Shen Lang smiled lightly.

Wan Jian’s face is serious: “The place where the ancestors came, we call it the ancestral land, which is the source of our patriarchy. Therefore, it has always been a great wish for us. For a thousand or two years, for us, It is very regrettable. We are fortunate to get the news today, we are all very excited. Nature is full of sincerity.”

Shen Lang was speechless for a while. Originally, he opened a million stone, which means that he knew it was impossible and deliberately ran on it. I did not expect that Wan Jianliu actually agreed to be refreshed!

“Are you sure that you have not heard the mistake? I am talking about ten thousand Lingshi, that is a whole million spirits!”

They were also heard from the Gelutings across the distance. He almost slammed the robbery of the waves, but now that he is not allowed to get close, of course he does not want him to blend, so he still resists.

However, Wan Jianliu actually agreed!

Ten thousand yuan Lingshi has promised, one million superior stone!

Before getting dozens of Yuan Lingshi gifts today, he never thought of having such a great value. Shen Lang is also embarrassed, and actually opened such astronomical figures, Wan Shixiong actually promised...

Ten thousand yuan Lingshi, is one million high-spirited stone, one hundred million medium spirit stone, one billion yuan primary stone... Ge Luting feels that the brain is not enough, this is all the existing spiritual stones on the earth add up, but also far Not this number.

Think of the hundreds of medium-spirited stones before Shen Lang, plus some fine Lingshi, you can provoke the world's low-level comprehensions to rush to line up. This number is hard to imagine!

"Of course. Ten thousand yuan Lingshi is certainly a huge resource, but compared with our millennium wish, we are still willing to pay this sincerity." Wan Jianliu is still a serious face.

The other party is not irritated, but rather agrees quickly, this does not follow the way of playing cards, so that Shen Lang does not know what to say.

Seeing that Shen Lang did not speak, Ge Luting in the distance could not help but secretly sneer.

Think that I am a traitor to sell the earth? As long as the price is big enough, are you not the same obedient offer?

Just as Ge Luting's belly and squats were "sacred", Shen Lang shook his head.

"Sorry I can't give it. I don't turn around. With your strength, it's impossible to go back to the ancestors. Even if you respect the ancestors, but for the so-called ancestors Land, you have no feelings and relationships."

"Speak straightforward! After you get the method, you may sell it to other sects, perhaps you personally develop it, but the purpose is one, invade the earth!"

Ge Luting was speechless for a moment, wondering if this kid still wants to raise the price? In the style that he has always been so profitable, he will not be like a person who has such a huge gain.

“Shen Master’s concerns, I can understand. But I want to say that you really care about it. If you say that the earth is so good, you will not find ways to sneak into it, nor will it be so bleak. You have nothing to invade.”

Wan Jianliu’s words are recognized by Ge Luting. Compared with this world, he is very miserable. Many young Jinghai Zhonghao are far better than him. If it weren’t for the relationship between the door to the space of the sea, the aura of the earth might have dried up.

The poor people of the four walls of the family, but also worried that the rich will grab things?

“敝帚自珍, Jinwo Yinwo is not as good as your own kennel. The earth is bleak, and I can’t let people invade, even if it is possible. I can’t let billions of people follow the adventure!”

Shen Lang is still a positive rejection.

“Shen Lang! Don’t toast, don’t eat and drink fine wine, billions of ordinary people shut them down! Don’t give yourself a gold, you give up the huge resources of 10,000 yuan for them, who will know you?” Ge Luting I don’t want to drink it.

He is a little unbalanced. After all, he only got dozens of yuan Lingshi and some other interests. Shen Lang asked for hundreds of times and was satisfied! This kid is still not satisfied!

Chapter 1205 - Turn face

“Ge Shidi said that there is a truth. What do ordinary people have to do? Besides, what do we have to do with ordinary people? For the ancestral land, we also have a revered mind, just like the average person goes back to worship the ancestors, just a thought. I think, I can guarantee that we have absolutely no malice! We can make a contribution to help our ancestral development even if we need it.”

He is very honest, but for Shen Lang, this is the routine that is used to the earth!

“Think, keep it and think about it. Once it is realized, it will be disappointing. You are so sincere, I don’t want you to be disappointed.”

Shen Lang looked at Ge Luting over there and said: “At least, now that you have found the same relatives for more than a thousand years, you can already let the ancestors reassuring, and the ancestral land, let him go!”

“You don’t want to toast and don’t eat and drink fine wine! It’s you who just offered the price. We promised, and you repented. Is this the quality that a man should have?” Jinghai took a sentence next to him.

Shen Langhehe smiled: “Oh, don’t say that you are so noble, even if I really promise, you can’t give me a million Lingshi, can you get it?”

Wan Jianliu felt that this was a space for revolving, and immediately responded: “We hold Park Zong is reputable. We also have industries and businesses here. It is difficult to get 10,000 yuan of Lingshi directly. It takes time. Prepare, but we can do it in other ways, as long as you are willing to say it. Everything is easy to say, what effect does it have on you? You still know the secret.”

“It is also nonsense to say more, you can’t get it now, so my remorse is normal. OK, don’t talk nonsense. I just play with you, no matter 10,000 or a million, I don’t want to.”

Shen Lang was too lazy to talk nonsense with them, and the direct flag was clearly rejected.

“I know that your strength is there, your strength is not lost to me, there is Qiu Lin Jianzong behind. But even if Mo Feiliu is still alive, when we hold Park Zong, there is no high person?”

Wan Jianliu directly threatened, and this is obviously even the Qiu Lin Jian Zong are on the bar!

Before the Qingcheng, Mutian and the sea, they were not willing to offend the Qiulin sword after confirming the Shenlang. But now Wan Jianliu said this, but directly said that they hold Pu Zong, and Mo Feiliu's elders are hidden.

“What about that? Are you commanding? Or do you want me to take down their old bones?” Shen Lang snorted.

If it is really a level with Mo Feiliu, Shen Lang is certainly not an opponent. However, it was really necessary to bring in the Qiu Lin Jianzong at that time. Gao Hanqiu was more useful than Mo Feiliu.

Wan Jianliu listened to this, but his eyes suddenly widened.

“Your words are a big disrespect to Bao Puzong! I am an unintentional lord, and I apologize now, but I still have time.”

It can be seen that his attitude has been made since the beginning.

On the one hand, it should be able to solve words and try not to do it. On the other hand, of course, when meeting, it is seen that Shen Lang does not lose to his realm.

But now he feels that he has insulted the predecessors and is really angry.

Shen Lang said faintly: “Your attitude is also a big disrespect to me. Believe it or not, I will dismantle you here first?”

No matter who sounds like this, it is extremely arrogant. After all, he is only in his twenties. From the age point of view, Wan Jianliu is a predecessor, not to mention the elders whose teachers have retired.

But in fact, for Shen Lang, he and Gao Hanqiu are a generation. Even if there is any ancestor of Bao Puzong, and Mo Feiliu's generation, it is not the level of the close disciple of Gao Hanqiu.

In this regard, there is no need to continue to talk about it.

Ge Luting has not dared to speak anymore. After all, he is a frontline person. Now he is so unsuccessful. Even if he condemns Shen Lang, he will be unhappy with the brothers of Bao Zong. The best result is to obey the arrangement and not to mess around. .

At this time, Jinghai quickly retired from the pavilion, and Zhong Rong was in a different direction on the other side.

Zhong Rong also quickly smashed Ge Luting, let him find a place to avoid.

Ge Luting has seen Shen Lang's shot. Although he did not see the hands of Chaotianmen today, he still saw it when he started to work on Mu Tiansongyun, including the fight against the king's fierce beast.

Although he is very confident about Wan Jianliu, he is safe and first, and he ran decisively.

Two people from the left and the right held the pavilion and immediately began to move.

Shen Lang will choose here, not just choose it. This is the center of the garden, and it is the center of the whole house. It is also a battle of the law!

When he and Wan Jian flow in the pavilion, letting the outside change the array, relatively speaking, the impact is much smaller.

Zhong Rong and Jing Hai will cooperate with such tacit understanding. It is undoubtedly discussed in advance. After confirming the strength of Shen Lang, Wan Jianliu should also give them more instructions.

And he himself pays special attention to Shen Lang. When they move in the outer layer and change the array of the whole house, Wan Jianliu himself is the first to seize the opportunity. The field and the pavilion are combined into one. The waves are firmly locked!

Before Shen Lang's duel on the ring and Chaotianmen, Wan Jianliu did not go to see it, but the situation was quickly reported to him. Even if he did not come in person, he could pass the phenomenon like Luo Fatzi and others at the scene. Look at the essence.

Although Zhou Shaojun grabbed the opportunity, but the strength gap with Shen Lang is too big the result is in turn controlled.

But Wan Jianliu does not think that there is any gap between him and Shen Lang. Everyone should be on a horizontal line. So whoever grabs the opportunity first will occupy a great advantage!

Not to mention that when Zhong Rong and Jing Hai drive the formation, he can still get home advantage.

What surprised him was that Shen Lang did not compete with him for control of the field, nor did he escape from the pavilion. It seems that even the defense is too lazy to defend...

However, he is not Zhou Shaojun, the more so the Shen Lang, the more he is very vigilant!

Wan Jianliu, who has already taken the lead in the game, chose a more conservative way. He had a flaming flame in his hand, but he did not attack immediately, but waited for the effect of the change of the formation.

In fact, he is tactically correct. Since the enemy is likely to exceed the expected strength, in the case of maintaining the first opportunity, do not rashly attack, on the one hand, wait for a bigger opportunity, and on the other hand, strive for more enemies. Understanding.

Unfortunately, his enemy is Shen Lang!

Shen Lang in the Golden Mile and the meditation domain, the semi-fairy realm who directly killed, has reached three. It can be said that they have a better understanding of their strength. The two are asymmetric in this respect.

The reason why he did not grab the advanced attack is really a little too big. I feel that the opponent is just like this. Just see what the means of Bao Puzong are.

If Wan Jianliu is really like a name, it is a master with a sword. Shen Lang will take a good look at it, that is what he is good at. But now there is a flame in his hand, so he can't wait.

As a school of alchemy, it is normal to practice the flames. And his palm of the flame is definitely extraordinary.

Shen Lang does not want to overturn the ship in the gutter!

Chapter 1206 - Transfiguration

Wan Jianliu controls the field, up to the entire garden, and the core is within the pavilion, which is completely controlled by him.

He himself and Shen Lang are still sitting on the stone bench, but there is already a flame in his hand.

But just as he watched, Shen Lang's body exploded in an instant!

He controlled the surroundings, but the sinking waves themselves did not move, but the body quickly expanded and became larger.

After all, they are two, separated by a stone table, and the stone table in the pavilion will not be much. If Shen Lang wants to attack him, this is very normal, and Wan Jianliu is ready to defend.

However, the whole person of Shen Lang did not move, did not take out the weapons, did not cast a spell, actually the body is rapidly growing, and the stone table hit him in front.

This situation is so special that Wan Jianliu was also taken aback.

He had been waiting to see because he didn't understand Shen Lang. Now he is very special. Without knowing the specific situation, he instinctively quickly receded back and went outside the pavilion.

After all, Wan Jianliu read the memory of Ge Luting. Although the limited time and limited integration is limited, this time it is immediately "reminiscent" to think of the moment when Shen Lang rushed into the pastoral garden.

Shen Lang can actually become a giant!

There is no need to be suspicious, and at the moment he thinks, the eyes have already seen it.

The swell of the rapid expansion, not only the stone table knocked over, the entire pavilion could not bear. As the body stood up, Shen Lang's hands had already grabbed the pillars of the pavilion and lifted the entire pavilion directly!

Wan Jianliu was amazed, and Jing Hai and Zhong Rong were even more surprised.

And Shen Lang did not give them time to hesitate, holding the entire stagnation with one hand, and went straight to the place where Wan Jianliu stood!

At the same time, in his other hand, an iron rod appeared, quickly becoming big and long, and then went out to the side.

For a time, Wan Jian couldn't take the attack. For a pavilion that had reached the top of his head, he could only dodge quickly. The Zhong Rong, who was swept by the huge iron rod, couldn't care for the other. He turned over and crossed the wall and fell into another.

The entire pavilion squatted on the ground, making a roaring sound, a large number of broken stones smashed, and the place swept by the huge iron rods was even more roaring. Whether it is a rockery, a tree, a stone, or a wall, all of it is crushed and crushed.

The role of Zhong Rong and Jing Hai is to move a lot of layouts, let this array change and become a killing enemy. However, now Shen Lang directly wiped out most of the yard with a stick. It is equal to the fact that the formation has not changed, and has already been excavated a large cornerstone.

On the other side, Jinghai was also scared, and now it is already broken. Even if he continues to change the layout, it will have no effect.

Wan Jianliu is the strongest of the three of them, and the reaction speed is also the fastest. After avoiding the fierce blow of the entire pavilion, he has already jumped into the air and pushed his hands out to Shen Lang!

The flames of his palms quickly turned into two fire dragons, and they rolled over to the sinking waves.

Just the smashing of the smashing waves, not only the destruction of the formation, but also the field that Wan Jianliu first manipulated, was also disturbed.

However, his flame attack still took the lead.

It's just that the goal of Shen Lang is different from what he has encountered in the past. Originally, the flames were swept in the past, and they were able to completely wrap people. But now the goal of Shen Lang is much higher than that of the house, and the attack can only be a small part...

At this time, Shen Lang, but did not pay attention to him, but quickly moved to the side to move out.

His body was huge, and it was already on the edge of the collapsed wall. Then the iron bar in his hand went out to the other yard!

Zhong Rong, who had just fled to the inside, looked at such a huge monster and went straight to chase him. If he swept a stick, he could sweep the whole yard. He rushed to fight against the one that seemed to crush him. Iron rod – iron pillar!

So at that moment, he had given up the cooperation and was directly prepared to escape first, and then he was handed over to Wan Jianliu.

As a result, he just flew up and realized that it was not good!

The huge gap, although it is easy for him to not flatten on the ground, how many houses are used as a cover, once leaped in the air, it is a bright target!

Sure enough, a big hand came quickly, grabbed his body and rubbed it directly on the ground.

Jinghai looked at Shen Lang and chased the side of Zhong Rong. He was slightly fortunate. If he chased him, he estimated that it was too late to escape. Now he does not dare to catch up with the attack, think about it or escape, do not create a burden for Wan Jianliu.

Let's talk about Ge Luting. Although he has already ran to the back, he is also aware of the situation here. When he saw Shen Lang transforming, he was also shocked.

He still remembers that Shen Lang was a disciple who was holding a Yuxianmen. A woman hung on her shoulder and rushed directly into the pastoral garden. It is said that the city of Yuxianmen had been destroyed in a mess.

At that time, the strength of Shen Lang was almost the same as that of them. It has already had such destructive power. Now that the strength is rising, the power after the transformation is not even more horrible?

So he decisively ran to the inside...

Others can run, Wan Jianliu can't run!

For a few of them, Wan Jianliu is a brother; for the whole Bao Puzong, he is the strongest person in charge of Tiandu.

Of course, he will not run. Shen Lang just avoided his flame attack, which undoubtedly made his confidence soar. I guess this should be a scruple for him.

When he saw that Shen Lang reached out and grabbed Zhong Rong, he could not rescue him. He could only attack Wei in the back and attack the past!

“stop!”

Others quickly leapt into the past, and the manipulating flames swept through the courtyard, attacking Shen Lang's side faster than the sound.

It is a pity that the giant body of Shen Lang is both a bright target, but at some angles, the body can act as a cover.

For example, now, Wan Jianliu saw that he caught the bell and pressed it on the ground. The movement of his other hand was blocked by the huge body.

When Wan Jianliu wants to attack Shen Lang, I don't know when the iron bar has been discovered. I have already come over from the other side!

Because the speed is fast, and it has become a lot smaller, it is blocked by the body, and I don't see it. It is not far from him at the moment.

He either chooses to give up attacking the waves, first avoid the iron rod; or continue the attack, and then the two hits are hit by the iron rod!

Wan Jianliu at this time, suddenly pulled himself up a few meters, the flame in his hand, continue to go to the head of Shen Lang!

The iron rod is already close, and he pulls a few meters high, which will directly let the iron rod pass under him, and he can continue to attack the sinking waves.

Chapter 1207 - If someone commits me

The calculation of Wanjian flow is very good. If the distance between them is far away, he will pull up, and Shen Lang will definitely adjust the height of the iron rod, which will not help.

But now that he is close to him, it is too late to adjust the height of the iron bar. Once you pass under him and turn around, you need more time.

Experts have a trick, and a fraction of a second is also very valuable.

It is a pity that his change is very fast, but it is also a thought of Shen Lang!

After discovering the purpose of Wan Jianliu, he does not need to adjust the trajectory of the iron rod, and directly manipulate it to make it even bigger!

Originally, when he was doing great damage, it was a huge iron pillar. Just for a better surprise effect, it was reduced to the size of a general bucket.

Now it's already beside Wan Jianliu, it's skyrocketing several times! Originally it was going to pass under him, and it turned directly into hitting his legs.

Wan Jianliu did not estimate that it would be like this. Suddenly, the direct collision of his legs was made, so that he could not maintain balance in the air. While the whole dumped to one side, the fire dragons operated by both hands were also dancing in the air.

At the moment of his fall, Shen Lang has turned back and slaps him to shoot higher!

The bell that was originally pressed on the ground did not have the opportunity to escape. When Shen Lang turned back and attacked Wan Jianliu, he had already stepped on his body with a blunt foot and directly crushed him on the ground slate!

With the strength of Wan Jianliu, this will not be played by Shen Lang, but the iron stick has become huge, and he was caught unprepared, and he also hit his legs, and added the waves in time. The slap of the slap, he took him in the air, as if the leaves were floating in the whirlpool.

The attack of Shen Lang will never be single. He will only fight the other party directly before the other party has no time to react!

So don't wait for the Wanjian flow to fly in the air, the iron rod has already made up a stick!

Zhong Rong was trampled on the ground, and Ge Luting was far away, and Jinghai was desperately hiding. I can still observe this scene, watching the sword flow be a huge pillar, and the cockroach's cockroach flies to the distance, life and death is not clear!

After the sword was flown, the iron rod in the hands of Shen Lang was quickly smashed in the big house, and his body was moving fast. However, in a few seconds, I took a broken wall wreck in the house where the palace was usually several times.

This neighborhood is the stronghold of major commercial banks. They are all similar large houses. The population density is not large, but they are all self-cultivators. Once there is a situation here, there will be a crowded look.

Then I saw a giant, killing the Quartet in the courtyard of Bao Puzong, scared that no one dared to come over and check the situation, let alone help. Although it is not as good as a close relative, it depends on the situation. This is a life-threatening thing.

They are peeking and watching, they are careful, for fear of being tired, so the information they see is just a few fragments.

When Shen Lang smashed a sloppy time, both Ge Luting and Jing Hai were harboring and not dare to move. I only hope that Shen Lang will leave after venting anger. I really have to go to the front and I can only be dead.

At this time, if you want to escape first, the result will be the same as Zhong Rong, exposing the target to Shen Lang and directly being killed.

Just as they shivered, Shen Lang appeared in front of Jinghai.

At this moment, the Shenlang has recovered its normal size and changed clothes by the way. The high-elastic close-fitting clothing custom-made in the city of the river basin has not increased, but the outerwear that was worn before will naturally burst.

“Come out! Do you want me to block you below?”

Ge Luting is constantly running inside. After seeing the situation is wrong, it is hidden in an inconspicuous small firewood house, so when the courtyard house is damaged, it is fine.

Jinghai has a more advantageous advantage. He hides directly into a well, allowing himself to sneak into the bottom of the water, pressing his breath and trying to converge.

Originally, he felt that this was the safest place, letting Shen Lang think that he had escaped, waiting for Shen Lang to destroy and leave, and he came out again.

Unfortunately, I was still acquainted with it. When I heard Shen Lang, he didn't dare to stay any longer. Otherwise, the huge iron pillar fell down and he really blocked him inside...

The Jinghai, which came out of the water, was still shivering. It's just that they both helped Wan Jian's attack against Shen Lang. It's carried out under the condition of having a good place and the right, but the other side doesn't need to show it, just relying on the violence of the hands, they smashed them. !

Now the Shen Lang in front of it, as usual, but when thinking of the giant who just turned, Jing Hai is still worried about the Shen Lang, as if he would be swallowed by him.

"You, you... what do you have to tell? I listen to you..." Jinghai tried to calm himself down, but still a little embarrassed.

No way, he lived to the present, the enemies and dangers he experienced, compared with today, are small and small. This is the real enemy. Even the powerful Wan brothers have been smashed into the distance. He can't resist at all.

"You said that I am extorting, rogue or rogue I have never been guilty of me, I am not guilty, if anyone commits me... then you are welcome!"

"You, you..." Jinghai whole people stuttered up: "Actually, I don't know, it's the idea of Wan Jianliu's brother, I just didn't attack you, I just hid."

At this point, the sword flow may have died, of course, pulled out to block the gun.

Shen Lang said coldly: "Less nonsense! Ten thousand yuan Lingshi handed over, or else it is not just your life, your business, I also went back and destroyed!"

Jing Hai almost has a soft foot.

Ten thousand yuan Lingshi!

Or destroy the business!

Like they can open a store on the core street, they are all hundreds of years old, all of them are old brands. In the early years, there were often commercial banks that were eliminated. Later, the longer they operate, the stronger they will be, and the stronger they will be.

Later, everyone also formed an unwritten contract. To expand and renovate, everyone is together, and no new business is allowed.

Therefore, many shops that are newly opened up can only enter other core streets and cannot enter the core street. That is equivalent to forming a brand. When others come here to purchase, they will feel that these stores are reliable.

If it is completely destroyed by Shen Lang, it will destroy the ancestral foundation. It will be difficult to rebuild. Even if it is rebuilt, even if it does not count the loss, it will lose its credibility. Others will not dare to purchase it, and will fall later.

Now this big house is another matter, but it is living, the damage is not big, the reconstruction will take time to spend money, and the other one will get it quickly.

So these two choices are all shocking to his heart.

Chapter 1208 - Again sensation

“Shen...Shen Master, 10,000 yuan Lingshi we really can't get it. Even if we go through our entire business, it will take a long time to raise. Do you think... I will give you a little medicine?”

Jinghai's words were just finished, and immediately felt a strong pressure, so that he could not resist, and fell directly to the ground.

“Speak with me? Do you think I am doing business with you?”

“No, no, I don't dare, I am willingly compensate, but we really don't have that much.”
Jinghai is sweating and then bites his teeth and suggests: “Or... I passed the union of the Chamber of Commerce, Will you exchange Lingshi?”

Shen Lang is unhappy with fighting with them. Since he has already torn his face, Bao Puzong will inevitably retaliate. Of course, he will get back a little color.

Yuan Lingshi or just the fine stone of the exchange, it does not matter, as long as enough compensation is enough.

When he took out the jade, Jinghai also took out a jade, and then stood up a little embarrassed: "But I only have the highest authority to send 50,000 fine stone..."

"Do you play me?" Shen Lang blinked, and Jinghai couldn't bear the pressure again and fell to the ground.

"No, no! I really didn't play with you. The highest authority is in the Wan Jianliu brothers. I and Zhong Hao can only have a ceiling of 50,000. If you go to the firm, you can only get the medicine..."

Shen Lang frowned, he was 50,000, Zhong Fu 50,000, and it was only 100,000.

He asked for a 10,000 yuan Lingshi, that is a million, just like Wan Jian's quick response, it is impossible to give it. So now 100,000 compensation, he is still acceptable.

As for the search for Wan Jianliu, it doesn't make much sense. Just that blow may have seriously injured him, but for a half-sex, it is impossible to fight. And Wan Jianliu knows the gap and will definitely use the knowledge of Tiandu City to hide it.

Of course, the destruction of Bao Puzong's business is just a matter of saying.

If he is so open and violent, he has provoked the rules of the whole street and even the capital city, and made a public anger.

Even if others don't make a fuss for Bao Puzong, they will boycott him. For example, tomorrow's auction will not accept him. Or it is inconvenient to directly reject him, and it will also be used as an excuse to stop.

Everyone knows the grievances of him and Chaotianmen. Now I have to add Bao Puzong and stop the first phase. After the next period is ten days later.

“Give me the 50,000 of you and Zhong Rong first!”

When he heard the waves, Jing Hai secretly sighed. The 50,000 of their two people add up, and the 100,000 fine stone, which is a thousand yuan Lingshi, is one tenth compared to the lion's big opening.

Just 100,000 words, they are still affordable here. It is possible to save the business bank from falling, and the 100,000 fine stone is worth it.

Jinghai quickly climbed up, and then took his own jade, and docked with the jade of Shenlang, and placed the upper-class Lingshi with 50,000 privilege in it.

“Let's go find Zhong Rong's brother?”

Shen Lang grabbed him directly, then flew to the place where Zhong Rong was.

Zhong Rong was just stepped on the ground by the giant wave of Shen Lang. Although the ground was covered with slate, but the pressure on it was too great, he still pushed the slate out and let the body fall into the ground to try to unload.

However, it only saved a life, and still remains in a state of coma.

Jing Hai did not look at the injury of Zhong Rong, and immediately wake him up and let him take the jade. The process does not need to say much, and the bells that have been rubbed in accordance with the ground in person are even more afraid to resist the words of Shen Lang.

Looking at the numbers in Yuxi, from the previous 90,000 to 190,000, Shen Lang is also satisfied with a lot.

Bao Puzong has already been on the front side, and will definitely chase him afterwards. This is the first use of resources.

Jinghai nervously looked at the dark waves, and Zhong Rong was still moving on the ground.

“Shen, Shen master, what else do you have to tell? We have been ruined here, this is also the ability to call the maximum authority, or you... go to Wan Jianliu brother?”

Wan Jianliu still doesn't know whether it is dead or alive. Jinghai is of course pushed to Wan Jianliu. If Wan Jian is okay, of course it is better than them. If it is already dead, there is no way.

The most important thing is that Shen Lang just has to leave here to find the body of Wan Jianliu, they have a chance to escape.

Of course, his attitude must be best, or else if the Shen Lang squatted both of them to find Wan Jianliu... If they can't find it, they will vent their anger!

“Tell Wan Jianliu, what ideas you have, what you have in your mind are clear. I will not allow you to do this! Do your business in the medicine, or else, I don't mind doing a big fight with you!” ”

“Yes, yes... I must, must...”

Jinghai quickly nodded and promised, and then found that Shen Lang has lost its sight, and has disappeared from the ruins of the ruins of the Park.

He took a long breath and fell to the ground, but for a moment, he quickly hugged Zhong Rong and left here to say.

Shen Lang is of course going back to the inn. He is very fast. When he left the scene, no one saw the trace of his departure.

However, before their battle, the people in the house of other martial arts firms in the cycle but saw some fragments from different angles and different time points.

Out of such a big thing, the entire house of Bao Puzong was destroyed. Of course, they did not dare to neglect and quickly passed the news out.

The first thing that was passed on was the shopkeepers of their own businesses in the center of the street.

Today is definitely a special day. Before the Shenlang and Chaotianmen Zhou Shaojun's head-to-door duel was still letting everyone talk about it, and the result came a more exciting news.

There was a giant in Tiandu City, which directly ruined the site of Bao Puzong, and some people were caught and thrown in the mouth; some were trampled into bolognese; the giant also had a huge stick, and one had a direct Was flying out of the city...

Since this may be related to everyone in the city, and not directly related to who, so the person who spoke, did not think about confidentiality, but went directly to the business, just rumbling to pass the message out, and then was brought to the responsible person Ask the room carefully.

Because many of them are not strong enough, and they are nervous and afraid, they only see one or two moments of the lens, the picture is very one-sided. But when you want to spread the news, of course, it can't be too simple. Therefore, on the way to running past, when thinking about the wording, I have already filled in some pictures.

For example, if you see Shen Lang grabbing Zhong Rong, you think that the person must be eaten by the giant; when he sees Zhong Rong being trampled on the ground, he feels that he has become meat.

And a stick of scorpion flies far away from the sword flow, of course, exaggerated into flying outside the city.

One pass spreads ten hundred, and the more it spreads, the more exaggerated. Not long after, the people behind, have added more content to the brain, describe the transformation of the waves, described as a murderous blind, green face fangs devil.

Chapter 1209 - Jianbao

After returning to the inn, Shen Lang searched for a moment. Qiao Yuxian had three of them and had already left the arrangement.

As for whether they have contacted other earth monks, Shen Lang does not care so much.

When I went out to eat at night, Shen Lang was talking about his rumors after hearing everyone have a meal.

However, this limelight is silent.

Chaotianmen Zhou Shaojun, because of his own hype, everyone knows. However, Shen Lang did not disclose the information, and everyone can only guess.

The buzzing news in the Bao Pu Zong house defeated his own explosive news. But before, everyone knows that he is this person, this time only knows a giant.

From their discussion, Shen Lang also found that it has become more and more outrageous. He has already been like the original troll!

This is purely an exaggeration after the people who have seen it in the vicinity, or is it that they are intentionally made by them.

However, purely from the point of view of him, Bao Puzong should publish his information, and then do demonization, then the whole city can fear him. Then connected with the things of Chaotianmen, and then broke the relationship with Qiu Lin Jianzong, and even hit the reputation of Qiulin.

Of course, it is also possible that Wan Jianliu lost their face, not wanting to let people know that they lost to a young man and lost to a mysterious giant. Of course, it is better to listen.

In addition, they may also want to monopolize the information of the earth, do not want to be known by more people, so mysterious, but also excusable.

For Shen Lang, everyone is still far away. No one is close to his table, and he is happy.

I listened for a while and wanted to know if there would be no good things happening in the auction tomorrow, but everyone talked about the mysterious giants in the city, and they left without interest.

On the second day, Shen Lang came to the center street.

He has already inquired from the buddy that the firm that specializes in the auction is also on that street, and the normal time of the event is at 10 am.

Such an arrangement is said to be convenient for the guests, some have taken good things, and they are worried that they will be embarrassed, and they will think about leaving quickly, so the activities should be as early as possible.

It doesn't matter to Shen Lang. Anyway, he doesn't know what the goal is, but now there is a spiritual stone that can be bought and bought.

Especially the 100,000 from Bao Puzong, of course, it is to be turned into bullets, to deal with the upcoming counterattack of Bao Puzong.

When Shen Lang walked down the street, he found that there were more people who were bustling than yesterday. Perhaps it is usually that everyone can disperse all day, and they will go to different businesses. Now it is concentrated in one time to come to the same place. Naturally, there are many more people.

However, there was no crowd around him, and everyone was very polite and very polite to keep a distance from him. In the face of his eyes, when he avoided the past, he quickly smiled and then accelerated.

Obviously, it is not related to Bao Puzong. It's just because of the Chaotianmen's Zhou Shaojun's affairs. Everyone knows it. He didn't see it, but he also heard about it, and he waited to hear the inn he lived in.

So from the inn, no one is close to him, no one wants to be a friend of the enemy because of curiosity or inadvertence.

On the road, there are also monks who see the earth. They all avoided the dark waves, and when they saw it, they let it go first, pretending not to see it.

Of course, they are not afraid of Chaotianmen, but because of another problem. Whether it is Ge Luting out of the wind, or Qiao Xixian, or whether they know about Bao Puzong, at least know that Shen Lang concealed their information.

Of course, Shen Lang will not take the initiative to greet them. I would have let everyone disperse the stay. I don't want so many people to follow the same situation. Now I'm going out.

This firm is called Tianbaoxing, and there is also a facade that does not lose to other commercial banks, but it was closed yesterday when it passed by.

Now Tianbaoxing has opened its doors and hangs out the "Jianbaohui" brand. A group of very well-appointed receptionists are welcoming guests from all walks of life.

Shen Lang has been very clear about the rules. To participate in the small Jianbao meeting twice a month, it is necessary to deliver five superior Lingshi. This is a ticket fee. No matter whether there is a successful auction or not, it will not be retired. On the other hand, there are eight high-grade Lingshi.

Shen Lang may not have time to wait for the big time after ten days. This time, of course, you can't miss it. The five fine stones are not for him.

Others who come here basically have no reluctance to pay tickets.

After all, everyone knows that after entering, most people are still watching a lively and up-and-coming experience. If you really want to be successful, you have to pay more spiritual stones. Compared with these five, it is still small.

This Tianbao line will open for three days in a month, strictly speaking three times, and once in an hour or two. Naturally, there is no need for other people's daily business, and there is still a lot of effort to be done behind it, and it must be charged.

Tickets are not enough. All the auctioned items, as long as they are successfully traded, must pay 10% of the rake, and the buyer and seller are responsible for 5 percent each.

It is precisely because there are tickets to the bottom, plus the steady earning of the servants, so that they can earn a lot of money. Only when you have the strength, you can find more good things and attract more guests.

It is also a virtuous circle, and everyone is used to this rule.

Shen Lang actually admires the original founder of Tianbaoxing. Because a street is a big business, although it is as professional as possible, it is still a lot of repetition.

Opening this exclusive auction is a unique one. Now I am bigger and branded, and three times a month, it is difficult for other people to enter it again. Maybe it will earn more than other businesses, and it can be said that there is no business.

“Do you need a seat?”

When Shen Lang prepared five fine stones, the man who collected the money pointed to a small sign next to him and asked.

The original five fine stones, just the price of entry, the seats inside are first come first served. And the seat, similar to the VIP area, close to the front seat, the price is ten fine stones.

I know how to make money!

Shen Lang did not care to give ten fine stones. The man immediately gave him a sign to hang on his chest. When he walked inside, there was a more enthusiastic approach to the road.

However, he also heard some whispers of his “money and more people stupid” arguments. After all, the guests here are all self-cultivators, and they don’t talk about the gods. The eyesight is far better than ordinary people, farther closer. The visual difference is not that big.

In this way, the seat is more face-oriented, more forceful, but to pay double the price, it is inevitable that people are talking about money and many people are stupid.

However, he is scornful, just like the kind of VIP ticket on the earth, some are swollen and fat, and some...it is really not short of money, like the five fine stones and ten fine stones now. There is no difference in his eyes.

When there are only a few dozens of hundreds of pieces, five and ten pieces are twice as big a difference; when holding 200,000, adding five to buy a good point of enjoyment, will not be distressed.

Chapter 1210 - Ancient secret

After being led in, I saw a hall that was the same as other businesses, but the layout was different. There were a lot of seats, small tables and big tables. There were some refreshments on the table. This is for The guests are resting.

Guests in the seat will have VIP seats, so you don't have to rush into it. Other seats, although available on a first-come, first-served basis, do not matter to guests who want to be low-key or don't care.

Such a concentrated traffic situation is also a rare social occasion. Especially in the days and nights, most of them have the identity of a businessman and need to socialize more.

Shen Lang is not an acquaintance, and does not want to be surrounded by people, and will not take the initiative to pick up others, so he directly let the guys carry in.

After the hall, it is upstairs.

The layout of the second floor is completely different from that of Luo Fatzi, but the second and third floors are built into a high-low ladder auction hall like a cinema auditorium.

After coming in to see this layout, Shen Lang will understand why he will vomit his "more money and more people", and understand why he is keen to drink tea in the first floor, not in a hurry.

The stepped seat allows the front guests to not block the sight of the rear passengers. The higher the back, the easier it is to take the overall picture. Instead, many people will like the back row.

Therefore, the front, the middle, and the back have their own advantages. Guests without special needs do not need to rush to grab the position.

Look at the seats here, although not sponge sofas, but outside the wooden stools, they are covered with soft cloth and cushions. Overall, all aspects are relatively high-end.

After all, it is the price of five fine stone, placed on the earth, this is five hundred medium stone, you can buy an ordinary inner Dan.

The man led Shen Lang to the seat.

The seat is not only close to the front of the stage, but also the rear seat, which also maintains a wide and obvious interval. Each seat is a little wider, and the seats are all with a small screen, like a separate deck.

And on the top, there is also a decorative screen isolation. As a result, these VIPs are at the forefront, but on the surface they will not be seen by the guests at the back.

This also takes into account a certain amount of privacy, unless you use the gods to investigate, otherwise the naked eye does not look good at the seat. The use of God's knowledge to detect, for the master will be discovered, it is disrespectful, the average person will not do so.

Since Tianbaoxing has doubled the price, it naturally takes into account the psychology of VIPs.

After Shen Lang was seated, someone immediately sent a toon.

Before I led the way, the guys dressed up, and the tea inside was poured out. It was a young and delicate girl. Perhaps these are also services for VIPs.

Shen Lang was relatively early to come in. After a while, the auction floor was full of fun, and more and more guests came in. Because they are sitting casually, they are all coming in with the familiar friends who are talking about it, and they are also neighboring, or continue to chat.

The guests in the front row of seats are coming in at the end. It seems that there are some big people who have reserved seats, but they are not full. After all, there are not many services to spend a little five stone to buy a little service.

At ten o'clock, the auction will start on time. Close the door directly.

The display stand has also been prepared on the stage, and a host has come out to open the guest room and welcome all the guests. Then the convention tells the flow of the auction, these are the routines, that is, the folks of the previous inn know.

Finally, I briefly introduced the situation of today's auction. Today, there will be 57 items in the auction, and the number is still quite a lot.

Today's highlight, there are three items, one of which will be released in about one-third, two-thirds, and then the final one.

Specifically, the host still sold the Guan, and then started the warm-up from the simple.

Dispersing the main event into three segments to release, of course, is to mobilize the atmosphere, so that everyone feels inconspicuous and does not care, and then the competition is heated up, so the need is to constantly sizzle the atmosphere.

The innkeepers can hear and hear a lot of information. The specific auction items, if you haven't been there, don't understand, and every time you will definitely have new ideas.

For example, if you want to start the first lot better, you will be surprised by Shen Lang. Actually it is a batch of medicinal herbs that reach 100!

Listening to this, it should be that a certain house has been sold, but I don't want to hold a lot of alchemy, so they don't have their own business. Selling to a business like Bao Puzong will definitely be sold down.

So I chose the way of bidding, although I have to pay 10% of the rake. But the seller can get more benefits than the price cut by the firm, and the buyer can buy it at a cheaper price – if not, it will not increase the price.

Because of the guests here, many of them are vendors who came here, so the first competing product of this hundred medicinal herbs was quickly taken.

Shen Lang is not in a hurry, there are 57 items, and a lot of it.

Most of the people on the scene are also holding such a wait-and-see attitude.

For most of the vendors, they are not in the world, but to understand the market. If there is any good thing, then you can't get it, you need to know. And if you have something worthwhile, you should purchase it.

, which is in a hurry to shoot, is generally not financially strong. The auction will be the higher the price.

One by one, after the fifteenth, there is no thing that Shenlang can see. Now his eyes are high, and there is a lot of money in his hand. Of course, you have to buy the best.

“Next, it will be the first of the three major items today!”

The host began to warm up the atmosphere more than the previous competing products: “You are rich and noble, ready to shoot, don't miss it when you pass by, this is a rare good baby!”

When he was engaged in the atmosphere, there was also a hostesses who sent the item to the display stand.

“I believe I don't introduce it. Everyone doesn't know what it is.”

The host opened the red cloth covered with a transparent jade box, which contained a yellowed leather roll that looked like an ancient book.

“This is of course a secret! Everyone here is a big man. It is definitely more than my knowledge. I was convinced by the turmoil of the world two thousand years ago. I believe everyone knows...”

When I heard this, Shen Lang could not help but feel the spirit.

War 秦泮?

According to Mu Tianhai, the tomb they found in the meditation area is suspected to be the tomb of the martial arts. In the legend, when the battle was everywhere, there was no rival, and finally went to the meditation to break through.

If this is the case, then the powerful undead that the swollen waves swallowed is the undead soul, and the iron rod that is obtained is also a weapon of shackles.

It's just that after two thousand years of undead, there is still a difference between the gods and the gods. There is no memory, and Shen Lang's inheritance is still a feeling.

If this is the secret of.
