

First Strong 1211

Chapter 1211 - Heaven and earth domineering

“This secret is the ancient books that the owner can get. After analysis and research, it is very likely that it is left behind. The name is, the world is domineering!”

When the host said it, it was full of enthusiasm and very inflammatory.

But there are very few people interested in the scene!

The guests behind the stage are even more whispering.

“Hey, heaven and earth are domineering... There is no such practice in the battle, no one can be sure, who can be sure this is true?”

“Analytical research, can this thing be studied, at least a well-informed predecessor? Can the owner of this thing invite others to study?”

“That is, this is different from the magic weapon of the weapon. The secret is studied by people, but people can write down the content and learn, and there is no value.”

“So! What research and analysis, what is very likely, is nothing but the seller’s words.”

“I haven’t heard of any sects left behind by the martial arts, and there is no more authority to confirm.”

Shen Lang secretly nodded, and the reason why everyone is not enthusiastic is understandable.

After all, this is a character two thousand years ago, and it is a person who has been deified by later legends. Low-level comprehensions may be a bit fanatical. Those who can afford to buy tickets are those who have low-level realms and knowledge, and naturally have to be much more rational.

It is as if on the earth, someone took out an ancient book and auctioned it. It is very likely that Zhuge Liang left the secret of the art of war. Who can believe it?

Earth can also use scientific means to firm the age of the article, but this is not the case. And this is the secret of the exercises, it is impossible to give people a view of the identification.

“Hey, but the god-level figure, the person called the war, hit the world invincible. Later, it is said that he went to the meditation area to find a stronger existence to break through his limits.”

“For two thousand years, many people are exploring the relics of the study of war shackles. But there has been little gain, and this heaven and earth is arrogant, but it was actually unearthed hundreds of years ago. But the owners are not willing to expose until Now, with the demand for Lingshi, it is only for the sake of giving way.”

“So, today’s VIPs on the scene are blessed. This is a good baby that other predecessors have not had the chance to see and buy for hundreds of years!”

This is the first major event, and the host is of course bragging.

However, the guests under the stage are even more uninterested.

“Hey! Hundreds of years ago! Unwilling to expose!”

“Is this not nonsense? If it has been unearthed for hundreds of years, the seller of course has already studied it thoroughly, and now it is worthless to them, and then sell it out.”

“Oh, stop it! Now take it out and sell it. Others will definitely still have a copy.”

“Is this not a buyer who is a fool? Isn’t it a secret to buy it, what secrets are there?”

“Oh, can’t say that, there is also the value of antiques! I am afraid that people will sell them, it is an old imitation, and the real thing is left.”

The host on the stage, because of the need to brag about the auction, did not have the heart to listen to the following whispers. I watched many people talk to each other, I don't know if others are vomiting, and let him think that everyone is full of interest.

“Although this value is infinite, but after all, it is not like the weapon magic weapon can be used to buy it, cultivation also requires a lot of time and resources. So from this consideration, we Tianbaoxing, for the benefit of all VIPs, to the sellers to suppress the start price.”

The host deliberately paused for a sigh of appetite, and then excitedly said: “One hundred fine stones!”

Look at his appearance, a pair of “Is it very cheap?” “Are we very kind?”, let the guests on the scene, is a low-pitched spit.

One hundred high-level spiritual stones, how many people can feel that they can get a “history” that can't be sure of true and false? More people think that this is to teach IQ tax!

“A price increase of ten superior Lingshi. Which VIP wants? The next battle, it is likely to appear among you!”

“As long as one hundred high-level spiritual stones can make your sons and sons, you can cultivate, it is very cost-effective.”

“As long as one hundred fine stones...”

After saying a few words, there was no one to increase the price, which made the host feel a bit wrong.

It seems that not many people are interested!

I go! What kind of discussion have you been so enthusiastic about!

He got stuck and didn't know how to make it.

Originally, this first major event, because of the particularity, pricing is not too high, but after all, it is a heavy item. I hope that everyone can be enthusiastic. In the end, if you can shoot more than a thousand, you can also get the atmosphere.

However, I did not expect that 100 people in the district would understand the price increase, and this would be awkward...

He is also not sure whether he is getting the undead, or even knowing if this secret is embarrassing. But he has no way, this kind of thing can not be met, let alone he can not have a long time, even if there is this time. There are not many related things unearthed in the past two thousand years.

On the other hand, once you go back to Earth, it is absolutely impossible to know anything about you.

Therefore, although this is only a doubt, it is probably still a fake, but he would rather buy the wrong one and not miss it.

Originally, he wanted to see if there were any other bidders. Since he didn't have it for a while, the first one would increase the price so as not to sneak out.

The host of Zhengzheng seems to have seized the straw and quickly screamed: "One hundred and ten! There are VIPs bidding here, there are no eyes... cough, and No chance to bid for more VIPs?"

A discerning VIP... If this is said, there is ambiguity. It will mean that there is no vision of not bidding. Although he felt so in his heart, if he really wants to say it, he will offend most people.

"One hundred and twenty! There are VIP bids here!"

After the price increase of Shen Lang, some people added a price soon.

There are some wealthy things, I feel that it is not too expensive anyway, in the same “buy wrong not to miss” mentality, participated in the ranks of the auction.

People’s psychology is the same, if you are completely unattended, you will not be interested.

Once someone else buys and snaps up, it will feel that the value is great.

For a time, more people started to participate in the auction.

More people in the audience are still whispering. However, it used to be Tucao Tianbao. It doesn’t matter. Now many guests are participating in the bidding, and their spit will be implicit. Such as “the rich and the rich are still many people”, “for others, this is nothing.”

However, the rate of increase is not large, and the atmosphere is not warm enough. After several rounds, when it is added to two hundred and five, many people will not follow.

Chapter 1212 - Hard bar

Shen Lang raised his hand again.

When many people just bid, Shen Lang did not participate in it. Anyway, he is inevitable. The more he participates, the higher the price will be. He will wait for the final price increase.

“Two hundred and sixty! There are two hundred and sixty on this side, is there any higher?”

The host looked at Shen Lang and felt that it was a relative!

When no one had raised the price just now, it was this guest who took the lead. Now that everyone has stopped, it is his continued increase in fares.

Looking at this strange face, he even had a little doubt that this young man is looking for a child care provider. How else would it be so cooperative? Seeing his age is not like the kind of wealth.

Although not so many people have increased their prices, naturally, some people continue to add to the two hundred and five. After the guest stopped for Shen Lang, he was a bit uncomfortable with the price increase with him.

“three hundred!”

This time, he did not add ten and jumped directly to three hundred.

“Three hundred! This VIP bids three hundred! There is no higher!”

This is very obvious to him. If you are a childcare child, then I will add more than a few dozens, so I should stop and listen!

It is a pity that Shen Lang is not a child care. There is no price increase among him. Instead, he does not want to trust the market. Looking at the posture of this person seems to be fixed.

He hesitated a little, and jumped once again when the host voted for him.

“Four hundred.”

The sound of Shen Lang didn't have much, but when the words came out, the scene was suddenly stunned and everyone was surprised.

After all, for most people, they feel that it is very uneconomical to spend a hundred fine stones, buy one that may be a fake, and still have someone else who has seen the copied fakes.

Just after the competition to the two hundred and five, they all felt that some money was stupid.

The person who just opened the price to three hundred is already imposing. I did not expect that there are still people directly added to the four hundred! This is a starting price!

Although everyone's arguments and vomiting are not straightforward to say, but friends look at each other, they all see disdain for the "defective family."

There are also some people who have just suspected that this is the daycare of Tianbao, when the wave is added to the two hundred and six. The purpose should be to raise the price a little higher.

But now, when I add it to four hundred, it dispels doubts.

After all, this is too arrogant!

If it is child care, others do not increase the price, it is equal to the flow, even if the seller does not complain, this also directly lost 30 commissions of the fine stone.

Besides, if it is found out that it is a childcare, it directly affects the credibility of Tianbao.

Therefore, even if there is a childcare behavior, it is necessary to make no traces. In the middle of the warmth, a little push to help, raise the price, it is impossible to **** at the end.

Just after the price increase of Shen Lang, it was only ten superior Lingshi, so that person was only added to the warning three hundred. Now Shen Lang is directly more than he is added to the four hundred, which is equal to shocking him.

This makes that person unhappy!

If it is done by Tianbao, then he still has to consider a little bit of face, and each other will be subtle. But now that it is not Tianbaoxing, and it is crushing him like this, isn't it aimed at him?

This is a big crowd, so many people look at it, if you don't go back, how can you still have a face?

"five hundred!"

The man shouted directly, obviously with anger.

The host is of course a joy that cannot be concealed. This is the effect he wants! When the guests get together, even if they are in conflict, they are not related to them. I want to see them arrogant.

The host praised and looked forward to Shen Lang.

At this moment, other people on the scene will no longer say anything more than a silly class. In any case, this is the front of the rich and the rich, and everyone will have fun.

There are several auctions every month, and those who attend regularly will not have any anger and will not be tempted by others. Basically, there will be a price point in the fancy, and once it exceeds the psychological price, it will quit decisively.

However, there will always be some young and energetic, or the first time to participate, like to face to face.

Anyway, this loss is not their spiritual stone, everyone is happy to watch the drama.

Shen Lang is a bit speechless. He has no intention to use things. He really wants this thing.

No need for the host or who will motivate him, he will definitely continue to increase the price.

However, just added one hundred, in order to shock the other side, let the other side know how difficult it is to retreat. Now that the other party has added one hundred, then he does not need to be so big. Certainly there will be another round of competition, one hundred and one hundred, it is easy to raise the price very high.

So this time, he just raised his hand and didn't bid.

“Six hundred! The VIP here... oh, five hundred and ten?”

Just two people directly added one hundred, let the host excited, but also announced six hundred. Fortunately, the reaction was released, and I quickly asked about the change.

Shen Lang nodded slightly.

“This friend, are you sure to stick with me?” The buyer over there also simply shouted at Shen Lang and was full of disappointment.

The host on the stage was busy playing round: “Everyone is a VIP, they all like this secret. They will definitely not be targeted at who they are, but they will not be misunderstood, calm and calm.”

It is reasonable to say that it is not allowed to talk like this between the guests, which is suspected of threatening. However, everyone is just the default. Even if it is not good, it will be said afterwards, there is no direct clear text.

Shen Lang responded with a faint reply: “Sorry, I have to find something that I have to look at.”

“You have kind!”

Originally, the host played round, and the man endured it. If Shen Lang gave him face and said a few soft words, he might take the opportunity to step down.

But now I actually say that I must be able to get it, let him feel bad!

Do you dare to continue this, others think he is afraid!

“I am out of six hundred!”

After talking to Shen Lang, he said loudly.

This is also helpless, I thought it would be two or three hundred, and now it will double.

“Six hundred... There are six hundred and ten of the guests here!”

The host had not had time to announce the announcement, and the price increase here made him very excited. Although this time is plus ten, but can shake the other side plus one hundred, this is also a very good bid.

Although the person is very unhappy, but the reason is still there. Before I bought this heaven and earth, I felt that there was not much Lingshi. I bought it and bought it. More than two hundred, he thinks it is still nothing.

The price increase to three hundred is also to curb the opponent.

But now it has risen to 610, and it has doubled directly. According to his previous style, the next time should be added to seven hundred. If the other party adds ten more? He added to eight hundred?

This is a few times more, and in order to make a big head for the moment, it is impossible to draw.

If he adds ten and slowly grinds it up, it is equal to ignoring, directly throwing the momentum, and spending a lot of money on what face is not earned.

Chapter 1213 - Sword

After thinking about it, the buyer endured it and did not continue to increase the price.

Anyway, if the price is raised to this height, anyone who buys it will be seen as a big head. Then he will retreat in time, but it is wise.

“Six hundred and ten! Is there any other VIP bidding higher?”

The host looked at the buyer with a sly look. The buyer did not look at him with a sigh of relief.

The host also understands that this is abandonment, and it is here.

The starting price is 100, which can be pulled to 610. Although it is not ideal, it is not bad.

“There is no other person to bid again, then the secret of the battle left behind by this battle, the heaven and earth domineering, it will be taken by this VIP at the price of 610!”

The host is not awkward. The last sentence is to try to lengthen it as much as possible. I hope that at the crucial time, the buyer who competed before will increase the price. Even if you add ten Lingshi, you can come back again.

Unfortunately, that person gave up and did not increase the price. This first key item was shot to Shen Lang at a price that was not too high.

In absolute terms, it is really not too high, because the consumption here is too high. I used to buy a few thousand of them at Luo Fatzi.

However, everyone still thinks that he is a stupid man with a lot of money, because he feels that it is too worthless.

Shen Lang does not care about other people's opinions. As long as this is true, as long as it is useful to him, it will be valuable. If it doesn't work, that's no way.

The auction continued, and the hostesses came over immediately, screaming in front of Shen Lang and whispering that they had to pay Lingshi first.

This is understandable. After all, you have not paid the deposit. If you don't have the money to pay the bill, you will be pitted. So after the filming, the payment will be confirmed immediately. If it is not paid, it can be re-shooted later.

Shen Lang took over the jade that she handed, and combined with the transfer of 641 Lingshi in the past, he had to pay a commission of 5 percent.

The auction continued on the stage, because his eye-catching performance, the host and other guests, could not help but pay more attention to him, want to see if this local tyrant will come out.

Others are watching the fun, the host is really hope that Shen Lang came out to bid. If you lift it a few times, you can double the price. How good this local tyrant is.

It is a pity that Shen Lang is unmoved. After several times, everyone will no longer pay attention to him.

The guest who had been with Shen Lang Bar was disdainful. He felt that Shen Lang had just swollen face and fat, just to grab a jackpot and grab one of the three main items today. After the real payment, it must be I regret it.

He continued to bid for a few items in the back, and also specially waited for the price of Shen Lang to raise the price, as if every item that was contested was grabbed from the hands of Shen Lang, as if they had hit the face of Shen Lang. Like.

Shen Lang is not at all moved.

This is not his calm, but he did not notice it at all!

Before the competition, the world was domineering because he was useful and he was bound to win. It wasn't at all arrogant with the people, so he didn't think much about what the guest felt. I did not expect that the other side has been secretly competing with him, and regards his pure disregard as a defeated victory.

"Very distinguished guests! The second item that is going to be born today is coming out! Everyone is looking forward to not expecting it? This is really a very good thing!"

At the time of the two-thirds, the host began to hang the atmosphere as usual. The second important item is said to be as rare as there is in the sky.

Everyone has been disappointed for the first time. This time, there is not much interest.

However, two-thirds of the items were sold, and more than 30 items were sold. There was no such thing as a lot of things. It also made everyone a little disappointed. I also wanted to see if this thing could bring you excitement.

After sending the second item, the host continued to buy it for a while, and everyone was bored before the mystery was revealed.

“This is a sword of the king! A thousand years ago, the famous sword repair master, the star of the river, the sword!”

When this statement came out, everyone was a little surprised at the scene, and all eyes were gathered on the display of the sword.

Shen Lang recalled that he could search for the memory of the Lexing River. It was said that the ancients were thousands of years ago. It is said to be a famous sword master, but also a lone ranger, and did not leave a martial art.

There may also be descendants, but they are not famous, and they are slowly lost.

The Sabre of the Lex River, of course, makes more people interested, because this is not the same as the exercises, it can be identified by people who know how to do it. This role can be done by Tianbao. They all have some experts and cooperate with some well-known experts.

But the secret of the exercises, if these experts have been identified, is that more people have seen it, meaning that even if it is true, the value is diluted and diluted.

The famous sword will not, as long as everyone confirms that this is the sword of the Lexus River, it is a sword worthy of possession.

The host saw this time, everyone really has enthusiasm, but also more excited, do not dare to continue to appetite, immediately open the sword, and then stand up to face everyone.

The sword is inside the scorpion, and there is a layer of transparent protection, and there is no direct contact with the air, but it can be seen clearly.

Shen Lang did not know much about the Lexington River, and they passed Moore's indirect memory. But there are so many people on the scene some people know better, and then began to talk about it.

Basically, from the perspective of image temperament, this should be genuine, but there is no personal touch, and it is not certain. However, since it is the focus of Tianbaoxing's bidding, it should be wrong. It must have been appraised by experts.

The host started bidding again, and the reserve price is still a hundred fine stones.

But this time, you don't have to worry about no one to increase the price. Everyone is very enthusiastic. At least, most of the people are interested in this price.

Ten ten plus, some people think it is too slow, can not screen their opponents, if there are more people, more than a few rounds, the price is even higher.

So at the beginning, someone directly increased the price of two hundred fine stones!

At this time, the price has risen to six hundred, and many people have given up.

Even if this is the sword of the Lexus River, but also consider the price. If it is not Jian Jian, if you can't play it too much, you can buy a collection, and you can't make it.

But six hundred is not enough to scare everyone, and some people continue to raise their hands.

"one thousand!"

When the price went out to more than 700, someone jumped directly to a thousand.

As soon as this new price came out, a few of them immediately retired.

Not that they can't afford a thousand, but add more than two hundred at a time, which shows the other's enthusiasm, and shows that the other side's potential is inevitable!

Then put it down again. In the end, they don't have enough financial resources, or they can't figure it out. At that time, they will give up and they will offend people.

Since we can't do it after all, it's better to be a good-going person. Anyway, the bidding price is higher. It is also a cheap buyer and a treasurer. Other people can't get any benefit.

Chapter 1214 - Who is fat?

After a thousand people have been suppressed, there is still one person who has joined the competition, that is, before competing with Shen Lang!

Although the man bought a few in the middle, he was not satisfied. The three most important ones are the protagonists of today. Has already let Shen Lang grab one, then the second one, he is bound to get.

The previous temptations made him feel that Shen Lang had swollen face and filled up the fat man. He had no money to continue to force it, so he was quiet and did not hurry to shoot. Now when someone else has done other opponents, he will only pick it up. peach.

There is only one opponent left now. This person is patient and has no price. No matter how much the opponent adds, he just raises his hand once, that is, adds ten.

This quickly made the former guests lose their patience, so it was very uncomfortable to entangle the opponents. You have the ability to directly pay a high price!

That person actually summed up the method of Shen Lang. Anyway, there are no more opponents. Adding too much at a time is a cheap seller. As long as you can lead, you can.

“One thousand five!”

The guest was not so irritated and pulled to a high price.

“One thousand five...” The host just announced the excitement and immediately saw that the man raised his hand again: “One thousand here... five hundred and ten!”

Although he is willing to see two people sticking up, he is more willing to raise everyone. You are one thousand five, he is one thousand six, so how good. You hang a fraction...

“One thousand six!” The guest also aroused fighting spirit.

The man then raised his hand again.

“One thousand six hundred and ten...” The host immediately exploded.

“One thousand seven!”

“two thousand!”

Originally, everyone thought that he had to go one thousand seven hundred and seventy. I didn't expect this time he went up three hundred directly!

The guest had been very upset by his entanglement. At this time, he suddenly came to a nap and immediately let him wake up.

Unconsciously, only a few rounds, the price has been doubled!

When he shouted a thousand and forced everyone back, it was already ten times the starting price, and now it is twenty times. This is not going to come!

“You are amazing, you are, I don't want it!”

Exceeding his budget, he did not continue on the bar. Anyway, he can make his opponent spend twice as much money, and he feels a little relieved.

Two thousand fine stone, buy a sword, worth it?

Putting it on the earth is definitely a very uneconomical act of madness. Two thousand fine stones can buy too many resources, and no sword can reach this price.

But here is not an astronomical number.

It is not strange that Shen Lang is. After all, he himself bought 10,000 yuan of jade emperor, isn't it even more crazy?

The Sabre of the Lexus River is undoubtedly the magic weapon of the weapon of the gods. It has a huge additive effect on the sword repair. One thousand is more cost-effective, and the value of two thousand fine stone is not worth it.

However, other people on the scene, if they really want their opinions, they will feel that at least six hundred and tenth than Shen Langhua bought a secret that does not know how many people have seen it, and does not know the true and false.

The price of two thousand fine spirits also made the host very satisfied. In this way, the light rake can reach two hundred fine stones, which is double the reserve price.

When he was about to laugh and announced that the man had got the sword, the man waved his hand to stop.

Everyone is a bit strange, is he not going to accept it?

If you just shouted the sound of the sky, you wouldn't accept it if you turned around. It would really be scorned by the audience, and it would spread throughout the country.

"The buddy over there! Just grab the secret with me, say you! Don't say that the grandfather bullies you, now give you a chance, as long as you can afford more than two thousand, even if you can add ten, I will Let it be for you!"

His triumphant words are obviously winning.

The host did not play round the round this time. This kind of provocation is not good for the guests. If you really come back in the last round, then the gains will be even greater.

Everyone else has come to the interest.

From the previous auction of more than a dozen items, this person did not bid again to see, it is likely that the secret has already hollowed him out!

Now, this deliberately said, that is, want to retaliate, deliberately let people's embarrassing exposure under the public!

Although everyone can't see who it is in the back, but it is not a friend who is familiar with him, and it is a big deal.

Shen Lang is a style in which people don't commit me and I don't commit crimes. The things he wants have already been grabbed. The sword of this series of stars does not have much interest, because his accomplishments of swords have surpassed the realm of relying on swords!

Therefore, in the past life, Liu Yejian was also left to the cold autumn, and the sword was given to Zheng Man. There are other swords that have been given to some friends and followers at that time.

He did not even think about grabbing the Sabre of the Lex River.

However, the opponent actually pulled him out after he had already succeeded, and wanted to make him ugly in public.

This makes the waves difficult.

"How? Shouted two thousand, the result is not able to take out the Lingshi? Want Grandpa to help you take over? No Lingshi, do not swollen face to fill the fat, not shame!"

A word of Shen Lang came out, let the excitement wait to see the lively people can not help but fall.

This is all about it. It is obviously that he himself is more like a swollen face and a fat man. It is now empty. The result is that I will first hit a slap, saying that others are swollen and fat!

That person is also happy.

“You are a sharp tooth! But you are asking for a price. Of course I can get two thousand Lingshi, I can press it on the stage and let all the guests testify. As long as you can get two thousand and ten, I These two thousand lost to you!”

When this was said, everyone was all alone, and then many people applauded.

Dare to directly take out two thousand fine stone bets, this really needs to be strong enough.

The host whispered a reminder: “Two thousand and ten, with commission, actually pays two thousand and one hundred and ten.”

The one that was previously pressed down, it was called at this moment.

“That friend, as long as you can get two thousand and ten, I will help you out of the one hundred commission!”

The enemy of the enemy is a friend. Just after he was crushed down, now of course he wants to be able to disgust the person.

“Dare?” The man smiled and provoked: “Now everyone can testify! Come, as long as you can have more than ten stones, not only the sword is yours, this is yours, there are people to help you out The commission is equal to the fact that you only have ten swords to buy this sword. Is it worth it?”

He just wants to humiliate the waves!

It is to take a bite out of the suffocation that was suppressed by Shen Lang.

Of course, he is also good. Just now, Shen Lang did not increase the price once, even if he provocatively every time, this is definitely empty. Even if there are still residues, you can't pay as much as two thousand.

Shen Lang is very speechless, and it is a little bit dumbfounding. Jiang Taigong doesn't want to fish, and the fish have to jump hard to bite!

Chapter 1215 - Exhausted

"Gambling, gambling!"

"No gambling, no gambling! We are all witnesses, and the chance of white is in front of us!"

"Continue to increase the price!"

Other guests are clamoring. Anyway, to this extent, they have no chance to get it. And this person's targeted, obviously wants to report the enemies that were robbed before, others can afford two thousand, and will not give.

Therefore, everyone can't wait to join in the fun. If Shen Lang can't afford it, he will be humiliated and humiliated. If he can afford it, then that person will lose his wife and lose his army. For them, he is still happy.

"Good! You must first press out two thousand spirit stones to prove that you are not bluffing." Shen Lang said slowly.

"Pressure! Pressure!"

"Definitely got it!"

Look at the excitement and continue to make noise.

The man sneered aloud: "There is no benefit to make you earn money. If you can get it, I will send you two thousand spirits. If you can't get it?"

"If I can't get it out, the former heaven and earth are domineering, don't give it to me, just give it to you. Everyone will bear witness!"

Shen Lang's front bar went up and everyone was very excited.

Although not equal, the heavens and the earth are arrogant and the price is only one-third of the current sword. But since this person is provocatively provoking others, it is necessary to pay more, or else others will care about you. ?

“Good! That’s it!”

The man immediately agreed, his original purpose is to humiliate the deep waves, Shen Lang can not get out, it proves that just swollen face and fat, has already spent the Lingshi.

But now that he has added the arrogant chip of heaven and earth, he can still get what he did not get before, and naturally he is very satisfied.

He spread a hand and threw a pile of items directly onto the stage.

The host on the stage never saw the guests directly to this extent, but there was no loss anyway. Everyone was watching the drama, and of course he did not persuade anything.

“This is twenty yuan stone, and the basic value is equal to two thousand fine stones.”

After the host checked and confirmed, then everyone’s eyes were on the side of Shen Lang.

People really took out the mortgage, and now I see him.

“Two thousand and one ten.” Shen Lang raised his hand and shouted.

Everyone is waiting, and most of them will think that Shen Lang will find an excuse to step down, and as a result, he will simply respond!

“Two thousand and one ten! This guest has two thousand and ten, and there is no…”

“Let him pay! We are waiting!”

The man said coldly that he did not believe that Shen Lang could pay for it.

The host did not dare to say anything, and I believe that no one else has bidding again.

The man who was pressed by him before said this time on the stage: "Remember, one hundred commissions are counted on me."

Before Shen Lang heard it, he thought that he would be disgusting about the person. I didn't expect to help out a hundred fine stones at this time.

This is what makes him feel good.

Although it is an enemy of the enemy, or a sigh of relief, but one hundred of the finest stones, but the value is not low, true than real gold and silver.

The host immediately asked Miss etiquette to come over to Shen Lang.

Everyone has stretched his neck and wants to see the situation here.

Especially sitting in the seat next to Shen Lang, this time is no matter how rude, directly to see the fun.

Shen Lang did not let others help pay the commission. Since the bar is on, of course, he solved it himself.

Coupled with a commission of 5 percent, Shen Lang directly paid 2,111 a fine stone in the past.

Everyone waited to see the embarrassment that Shen Lang didn't pay for Lingshi. I didn't expect that Miss etiquette would go back soon, and she nodded to the host on the stage and said that she had confirmed receipt of the accounts.

The scene was quiet, can this person really afford it?

"We have all seen it, it is really paid."

In the seat of the seat next to Shen Lang, the opening helped to make a proof.

The staff of Tianbaoxing can accept that they have already received the Lingshi, or they are their childcare, and they dare not cheat like this publicly.

Now other unrelated people have come out to prove it, and it will be confirmed.

“Is the commission paid? I said it! It seems that this friend is also a low-key person. It’s just that some people are so eager to forget the shape...” The one who wants to help Shen Lang pay the commission, of course, don’t forget to go down the stone. .

It was just that man who had lifted his sword from a thousand to two thousand. Now that he can’t get it, he can see that the person lost twenty yuan of Lingshi in vain. Of course, it is very happy!

Other guests on the scene, there is no pre-determined position, it is good to see the embarrassing excitement, can not be seen, see other people to force the loss of two thousand fine stone, and of course it is very cool.

Only that person, his face became very difficult to read.

“Are you sure that you have not made a mistake? Tianbao will not be a joint childcare to play with me?”

For this, the host on the stage frowned.

“This VIP, Tianbao has opened the door to do business, and there are three large auctions every month. Will it be a self-proclaimed sign? If you can’t afford it, you can talk to others...”

After all, it is a matter of arrogance, one hundred and two hundred of the finest stones, even if it is a price, the two thousand is too much.

But the man would stop calling for the sinking wave, because he was very concerned about the face, and felt that he had robbed the world of domineering before the waves. was hurting his face. What he cares about is not the domineering of heaven and earth, but to fight back to face.

Obviously, it has already been lost, and there is still a bottom line to pay. He became a joke, but if it is stiff, the jokes also show that he is rich and rich, and losing is not really a shame.

“Who can’t afford it! Then pay him!”

When the words came out, they all applauded and watched the excitement. Anyway, they did not need to pay for it.

Of course, the host quickly followed the stage and passed this ring. He directly sent the 20 Yuan Lingshi on the stage to Shen Lang.

The man can throw it up, he can’t throw it directly to Shen Lang, it’s rude.

At this time, Shen Lang said, “The friend who wants to help me out the commission, thank you very much. It seems that you really want this sword. I don’t care about this thing. I will ask you for the price.” Let it be for you!”

Upon hearing this, the guest called out: “How do you make it? Directly let you lose more than a thousand!”

“Oh, it doesn’t matter. Just sell it to you!”

The words of Shen Lang have already shocked everyone. This opening is to make a thousand fine stones! What a big deal!

However, everyone also understands that this is the generosity of others, and it is a big head to send two thousand Lingshi!

Now I heard that this has not been sent to the hand, it is said to be “second-hand goods handling”, it is really mad.

Of course, the madness is the one who provokes the waves. Nima earned two thousand. The old man is willing to gamble and lose, especially to half of it to others!

“Good! Enough, I have made you a friend, but I have to pay you the commission.” The guest was also refreshingly promised.

Chapter 1216 - Finale baby

They made a greeting to each other, and the host on the stage continued the next auction.

Just a few consecutive items, so that everyone is not interested, and even have a stream, because everyone is still immersed in the just episode.

It is very common to stick up each other, especially some good things. However, if you lose in general, you will have a few words in private, so that when you are hurt and angry, there are still very few.

And the man was forced to force it, and finally lost two thousand fine stones. The other party also disdains the two thousand fine stones, and directly costs another opponent with a thousand fine stones. It is an unprecedented situation.

So everyone is whispering, who is the protagonist of the two bars.

Because it is a guest of the seat, with shielding and shielding, Zhang Wang can't see it, but it is impolite to be discovered with the knowledge of God. So still inquire about it privately and see if anyone notices who it is.

The host was very anxious, but still played a professional level, mobilizing the atmosphere again and again, finally after a few items, let the atmosphere of the scene back to the auction.

In fact, most people just have no intention of bidding on the stage, but they also have some weaker foundations and they are cheaper.

After the final ten items were auctioned, it was the last one of the finale.

This one is the heaviest of the three major events today, and it is also the top priority of all items.

This is also the convention, the most heavyweight finale. So before we go into detail, everyone is very much looking forward to it.

“The final finale of today is amazing! I can guarantee that it is definitely a good thing that everyone has never seen! Even if we have so many good things every month, every day, I have been working for so long. See you again!”

I heard that the host said so, so that everyone is more interested. I also secretly guessed what it would be, and even let Tianbao do it.

The host continued to sell a customs, did not introduce such items, but directly opened the red cloth that had been placed on the display stand, revealing the box.

Then, with the help of Miss etiquette assistant, open the box and face the direction of the stage.

Everyone was dumb, looking at the things that appeared there, they did not see it, and it seemed to be the same weapon weapon, but for a time it was not certain what it was.

Shen Lang was also surprised, but he was totally different from everyone else. He was surprised that he recognized it at a glance, but he did not expect it to be there!

This is a gun!

Although I don't know the specific model, I am sure it is a gun. Of course, it should not be a gun on the earth, and it is most likely a weapon on the watershed city-state or on other city-states.

However, after he was surprised, he was relieved immediately.

When the city is in the river basin, it is called the island of Nakajima. The so-called masters of psionic powers are all passed down from the immortals of Nakajima. And since there is such a legend, it must be that the monks of the mainland of China have crossed the endless seas and reached other continents.

Also because of this legend, let the watershed city state and the like, have always wanted to develop the mainland of the island. No matter whether it is a ship or an aircraft, it is impossible to land. The mysterious shield is also more mysterious and makes the outside world more curious.

Directly out of the sea, Nakajima monks may also be affected by the shield. Besides, going directly to the sea, whether it is a ship in the sea or a flying magic weapon in the air, will inevitably be monitored by the city-states.

Therefore, it should be through the secret transmission array, and the number of trips will certainly not be much. Those psionic masters may have been a little magical practice that was taught hundreds of years ago or thousands of years ago, and gradually evolved into what it is now.

Now seeing this gun, Shen Lang immediately thinks a lot.

It should not be the Han Dynasty, but the mainland of the Nakajima on a huge territory. Forces are also monitoring and understanding the development of other overseas continents.

After all, the ship's airship is coming over and wants to land. It should have been a long history. The cultivation of the civilization here will also be worried that it will be broken by the outside world's technological civilization.

To understand and bring back some technology products is a way of knowing ourselves and knowing each other.

Of course, if you can be auctioned in the Han Dynasty, it will definitely not be the highest-end and largest technology product. Just like this gun, it is a gimmick that relies on rare things.

When Shen Lang associated these things, the host on the stage boasted a few words, and then the staff sent a big stone.

“Everyone is optimistic, this is a real stone.” The host asked a hostesse, holding a hammer to beat the stone.

From the point of view of her hammer and force, it can be seen that this is an ordinary person, this is to avoid injecting vitality to break the stone.

The sound of the hammer striking the stone spread to everyone’s ears, and it can be confirmed that the stone and the hammer are real.

Then when everyone was a little puzzled, the host took out the gun and taught the lady how to hold it, how to shoot it, and then retreated to the side and let her shoot.

Everyone’s eyes are gathered on the lady’s body This is the staff of Tianbaoxing, there is nothing rude.

After investigating a bit, they all confirmed that she was an ordinary person, and then they were curious.

Is this magic weapon that ordinary people can use?

Miss etiquette was a little nervous, under the encouragement of the host, and then aimed at the teacher, and pulled the trigger.

With the light flashing, then there was a loud noise, and the big stone placed on the stage was directly shattered!

This change made everyone surprised. It is not its power, but an ordinary person who can actually exert such power. Wouldn’t it be much higher to switch to them?

The host took back the gun and continued to smile and introduce it to everyone.

“This magic weapon is unique. We are also brought back by special channels. What is the power, everyone has seen it, even if it is an ordinary person, it can easily exert a powerful effect. And it does not take time to start, it is It is also very convenient for ordinary people to carry.”

He continued to brag about the magical features of this gun, but it was basically a gimmick, unique and novel, used to collect, show off and force it. It is a problem to really want to be a magic weapon for the war.

However, the guests on the scene have already been appeased, and everyone is thinking about having this unique magic weapon. Self-use, delivery, or resale, all have value.

When everyone is eager to bid, it is also inevitable to pay attention to Shen Lang. This man is silent, but as long as he is shot, it is very decisive, and no one else dares to provoke a wave.

But the one who had been pitted before, but still mad, sighed with a sigh of relief, ready to wait for a while to sink the waves again, to bring back the face and the spirit stone!

Chapter 1217 - I do not want it

The final baby of the finale, although it is not worth the money in Shenlang, the casual weapon of his armor equipment is better, but the unique rarity, plus mystery, directly caused many people to participate in the auction.

The starting price is two hundred high-grade Lingshi, a price increase of 50, the result was quickly raised to two or three thousand.

At the beginning, everyone was enthusiastic, but the price reached 3,000, and some people could only sigh with sigh. To make this big price, to buy a magic weapon with a very unknown attack, it is still a bit unfinished.

However, the wealthy sects with strong strengths can be more self-willed and prices continue to climb.

After adding a few rounds, the price reached 3,700 and the finest stones, and few people continued to do so, hesitated.

They are very clear, certainly not worth the price, can bid to this level, the key is that there is no precedent, we do not know how much is cost-effective, so until they can not accept it.

The view has basically stabilized, and the person has spoken before.

“four thousand!”

It is also a direct jump of three hundred to make an integer, this momentum, and shocked everyone else.

Although this person has just been stunned for everyone’s fun, but he can easily throw out twenty Yuan Lingshi output, the nature is rich.

And this posture, combined with the previous two rounds of his attack, but did not get the same, no doubt this last is the same must!

Accumulated to the present, his anger is definitely great, and if he is with him, he will really pull a very high price.

Others just want to buy something, and this novelty is not a necessity, and certainly not a sinner for it.

So after four thousand, no one will open again.

“How? Don’t you dare to follow it? Just Grandpa has already given you two thousand, but still dare?”

The voice of the man is very big. Although there is no name, anyone can hear it. This is another war with Shen Lang.

Shen Lang is very speechless. They arrange these three things in an important order. But for him, it is also suspected that the war and the heavens are domineering and interested, and others are tasteless.

Therefore, he would rather give the sword to others, and others would be a derogatory sentiment.

This gun, he is the only one on the spot. As a person who has been to the city, he knows something more broadly than all of them.

But he really won't spend so much money to buy this.

So he did not respond at all.

“How? Hey? Hey, it's earned, there's nothing to spend, Lingshi is mine!”

The man was very uncomfortable. After careful calculation, Shen Lang had never bought anything. He was arrogant and arrogant, and the sword was that he lost the Lingshi. Even if you give another thousand to another person, there is still a thousand. In addition to the domineering world, you can earn hundreds.

Others earned him with his spiritual stone, which of course made him very upset. Therefore, directly re-stimulate the waves, this time must raise the price, even if you can not buy this piece, you have to sneak a wave of blood!

Just like the third-party cheaper third-party, he now prefers to let the seller, let Tianbao do more profit, and must also sneak out more and more Lingshi.

Shen Lang is not willing to pay attention to him, but it is also uncomfortable to be provocative in this way. And look at this, if you don't respond to him, you will continue.

“Is it? I am afraid that you will not dare to follow! I am out of eight thousand!”

“...!”

The scene was awkward, and the man who had jumped from 3,700 to 4,000 had already shown his strength. But now Shen Lang actually jumped twice to eight thousand, and everyone was shocked.

Eight thousand fine stone!

There are some guests at the scene, and they may not be able to get the best stone of eight thousand.

Of course, there are a lot of 8,000, but you have to look at something. If it is really valuable, for example, the starting price of the starting price is several thousand, it is not surprising. The starting price for this auction is two hundred, which is equal to forty times!

Especially the highest price is only 4,000, and the direct increase is too big.

However, everyone in the atmosphere of the scene has also seen it. It is obvious that because of the excessive provocation of that person, it is not sensible price.

Of course, besides the shock, everyone is more excited, and there is a lot of fun to watch!

Now everyone is looking at that person and wants to see how he picks up.

That person is also riding a tiger now. This provocation is issued by him. He repeatedly said "Don't dare" and "smashed". Now the other party not only dares, but also directly reported a big number!

He intended not to get it, but also to sneak a wave, at least let him lose two thousand, let Shen Lang spit it out.

But now the eight thousand, it is beyond his tone, even if his two thousand, even if Shen Lang does not give other people, at least still need to pay 6,000 fine stone.

From this perspective, his purpose has been reached.

I have to let him recognize it as soon as he comes up. Even if the purpose is achieved, it is really impossible to open it. Today, the face is lost here.

At the very least, you have to compete for a few rounds, and then give up, it is not a lie, but an intention to design each other. If Shen Lang starts from four thousand, even if he adds a few hundred at a time, he can bid for several rounds.

It is now forced to make a statement.

Others can't see him here. The eyes of the host on the stage are always staring at him. It seems to be urging.

The man bit his teeth and raised his hand: "One thousand!"

I want him to double again I really don't dare. I don't even dare to add four thousand. Adding two thousand to ten thousand is already his psychological bottom line.

Shen Lang directly raised his hand.

"The VIPs here are bidding 10,000, and the VIPs over there will increase the price by 50, 10,050!"

It was restored to this style, and the person hated the teeth, but secretly sneered. Do you want to add a little to stimulate me? Then let you stimulate one enough!

"One thousand and one thousand!" He roared, and he was irritated and lost his sense of reason.

"One thousand and one thousand! There are 11 thousand and fifty here!"

Just now, Shen Lang's domineering directly added four thousand, and everyone has been convinced, so now every time you add a minimum, no one thinks he can't afford it. I feel that this guy is a bit embarrassed, this is deliberately irritating!

"One thousand three thousand!" The man secretly sneered, and shouted more angry, as if he had already stunned.

Shen Lang still followed his hand.

"Thirty-three thousand and fifty-five!" The host excitedly helped him to report.

“Fifteen thousand!”

The man roared again.

Let him increase from eight thousand to one thousand five, he is definitely not afraid, the risk is too great. But in just a few rounds, he deliberately “will count on the plan”, as if he had been swayed by the group, in fact, he was brought in by the other side, mastered the rhythm, and raised the price to a high level of one thousand two thousand.

Now that he is satisfied, he can go out of the 1st and 5th of Shenlangkeng, and the commission will be seven or eight hundred. Satisfied, very satisfied!

He waited for Shen Lang to raise his hand now, and he immediately announced that he would not follow.

Just as he was laughing and appearing on his face, he heard a voice – “You won, I don’t want it.”

Chapter 1218 - Got cheap and sold 乖

Hearing the words “I don’t want to”, the man slammed directly.

“How can you not!”

He directly broke the opening of the seat, and the surrounding seats were not weak, and naturally they were not accidentally injured.

No one cares about him at this moment. Almost everyone has seen it and wants to see who is the most unfortunate person today.

“It turned out to be Mutian Songtao.”

“What is Murtian Songtao?”

“Mu Tian Song Tao, you don’t know? Yangcheng Mutian family.”

Before, everyone wanted to check his identity, but he was afraid that there would be a very powerful strong person in the seat, and he would not dare to offend. Now he broke the seat of his own and was immediately recognized.

Shen Lang certainly didn’t know Mu Tian Song Tao, but after hearing someone smashing his identity, he immediately understood that this was an old rival. It immediately echoed the memories of Moran and Li Tianqing.

The first thing he encountered in the Golden Mile was Mu Tianzheng, watching the repair and the momentum, as well as the self-proclaimed Master of the Heavens, should be the descendants of the Mutian family.

However, I later understood that Mu Tianzheng was so arrogant, not because of the sneak sneak out of the young master, but that he would also admire the heavens and the sea to bring out the experience.

Not only does he have several bodyguards himself, but the Mutian family also has a team of ten people, and there is a sea of envy, this is his arrogance.

Moran, they really have a good relationship with Mu Tianhai, and they still have a certain understanding of the Yangcheng Mutian family.

To put it simply, the Mutian family is the giant of Yangcheng, and it is also a well-known big force in the whole of China. To compare with the contemporary Chinese comprehension community on the earth, it is similar to the position of the Millennium World in the North Sea Qiao Family and Nantian Family.

The last time Mu Tianhai listened to the name of Shen Lang, it was to give Qiu Lin Jianzong face, but in fact did not reach the level of fear, so he later found Shen Lang cooperation.

The most powerful contemporary of the Mutian family is the former owner of the retreat behind the scenes, Mu Tianda, the contemporary owner, who is the eldest son of Mutian Dagu, Mu Tianyu Mountain, who is also the son of Mutian Daxie.

Today, the one who is with the straits of the straits, is the eldest son of Mutian Mountain.

According to the tradition of tradition, as long as the qualifications are not bad, the long-term grandson of the ancestors will be the successor. Now the owner is already Mutianyu Mountain, so Mutian Songtao is basically cultivated as a future owner.

Just like the present situation, Mutian Songtao is obviously a regular customer. He travels to places like Tiandu, sells surplus resources of the family, and purchases scarce resources. This is of course a fat deficiency.

But this is a more comprehensive experience, including understanding of the family situation and future planning, for all aspects of the entire Han Dynasty, as well as socializing.

After understanding his identity, someone began to vomit and defeat him. But there are also people who know Mutian Songtao or have a good impression on the Mutian family. They also talk to him. They feel that Mu Tiansong Tao only wanted to get the world's domineering, just because he was stimulated, and finally he reached the present level.

Mu Tiansongtao's phrase "How can you not do it" is purely a rush, and he has already calculated it and immediately took the troops and put Shen Langkeng here. I didn't expect the other party to take the troops one step at a time and directly pit him.

After he finished speaking, he realized that this was too unproductive, and he could not force others. And I found that everyone is paying attention to him, don't have to listen, and he is definitely talking about him.

This made Mu Tian Song Tao sigh and regret, originally in the seat of the seat, try to keep faceless, even if it will be passed on afterwards, it can be firmly denied. Lost Lingshi lost his face, but it was not embarrassing.

Now that I'm out of it, I don't need someone to inquire about it.

After everyone had fermented it, Shen Lang said slowly.

“How can I not? I don’t think this price is very uneconomical. Only a fool can shout so much. I don’t want to be a fool, of course I don’t follow. I could have been silent, not speaking, and speaking out, it was polite.” Let your confirmation win.”

This is said to make everyone laugh.

Indeed, this price will only be accepted by fools. But even if they think so, they dare not say it.

But everyone also understands that neither of them is a good bird. They all know that they have already surpassed the actual value, but they all want to hang each other. It’s just that Mutian Songtao’s fool is “perfect”, but the other side’s judgment is even better!

“Who are you stupid!” Mutian Songtao, who is extremely embarrassed, has an excuse to vent.

He screamed very loudly, and he said, “Let’s see you soon, he yells at me.”

“Oh, of course, I am a fool. You are so rich, so there is momentum, I actually want to compete with you several times, it is simply not self-reliance. So this time, I admit defeat, you win, I dare not fight with you. “”

“ ... ”

This words directly smothered Mu Tian Song Tao, and other people who watched the fun were happy.

This is also really interesting, put people to this level, get cheap and sell 乖, so attitude, people can only be stunned and unable to release You will not be enough Lingshi? Oops, there is no way for Lingshi. I have a lot of good things. I have to buy tens of thousands of good things. I can afford them, but I don’t know each other. I can’t help you wipe your butt! ”

The words of Shen Lang are not yin and yang, so that Mu Tian Song Tao is even more angry and vomiting blood.

“No need! Grandfather has a Lingshi!”

After that, he was already sitting on the air. No matter how angry you are, there is no reason to face the fire on others. If you really want to teach, you can only privately afterwards. At this moment, you can only keep calm as much as possible.

“One thousand five thousand fine stone, congratulations to this customer to shoot the finale baby!”

The host on the stage was afraid of long night dreams and quickly confirmed. However, it was originally a “congratulations”, and no matter who it sounded, it was a sigh of gloating.

He didn’t dare to say more, he hurriedly ended the auction, and invited everyone to come back to the big auction this month in ten days.

Guests who did not bid for any items will leave the scene at this point.

The guests who have already taken the items, because they have already paid for it, the background staff has already packed the corresponding items, and then they will be sent one by one, which will not last for a long time.

The spectators at the back wanted to know who was the one who had miserable the day, but Shen Lang had never been up from the seat, and he could only give up.

However, there are also guests of the same seat, some did not take the items, some first got the items, when they left, they intentionally circled in front of Shen Lang, pretending to observe him casually.

“It turned out to be Shen Lang, thank you fortunately!” A man came to the front of Shen Lang and stopped.

Chapter 1219 - Ji 0 Road

Shen Lang looked at this person carefully, a man around forty. Although the other party recognized him, he naturally did not recognize this person, but from the sound, you can still know that it was the person who had previously vie for the sword with Mutian Songtao.

It is no accident that he can call his name. After all, he was already in the limelight yesterday, and he will definitely let the parties inquire, and Luo Fazi may not be tight-lipped.

“The big sword of the Lexington River, for you.”

Just when the man came over, Tianbao's various staff members sent two items to Shen Lang's face.

Shen Lang didn't open it and looked at it. He pointed the sword of the Lexington River directly to the man. He himself just took the box of heaven and earth.

“Shen Lang's lord is not a believer! Then I will be respectful and obedient.”

The man praised one sentence, then took over the big sword and opened it carefully.

He dared to bid to one thousand seven before, naturally it is confirmed that this is the real thing, the current view, that is, to see if there is any package, eye.

Of course, Shen Lang also carefully checked the arrogance of this world. Once he left, he found that it was a fake, and he did not recognize the other people.

The staff of Tianbaoxing are quite confident and have not left, but wait for the customer to check the goods and confirm before leaving. Of course, this is also a face-to-face look, to avoid the need to transfer the package to make trouble.

Although Shen Lang has not seen the domineering of the heavens and the earth, he does not know the true and false, but now I have seen a part of it, and I immediately have a familiar feeling, which makes him understand that the number is right!

The undead that he swallowed before was the undead of the war priests, and this heaven and earth is domineering, and it is also the secret of the martial arts left behind.

Since it is true, he is not in a hurry and immediately closes up.

The man has also confirmed the Great Sword of the Lex River and confirmed that the staff of Tianbao can leave.

“I am very grateful to Master Shen for giving me a sigh of relief, I will take advantage of you.” He said, indicating that Shen Lang took out the jade.

Shen Lang is also not polite, although this is almost white, but for a stranger, let half of the price, is already very interesting.

The man transferred 1,110 to Shen Lang. As he said, he was responsible for the commission.

Just when two people traded face to face, Mu Tian Song Tao also came over.

Mu Tian Songtao has just received the variety of things he bought, including the one that he bought in 15,000. The commission is seven hundred and five, which really hurts him.

Fearing that Shen Lang ran, he rushed over, with him, and a few of his friends.

“Ji Qiandao, is this the nurse you are looking for to make my ghost?” Mu Tian Song Tao called directly.

Obviously he recognized the man but did not know Shen Lang.

Ji Qiandao?

Hearing this name, Shen Lang immediately connected with Ji Qiancheng. It seems that he should be a family member of Ji Family. Perhaps he is still a younger brother and cousin of Ji Qiancheng.

When he returned to the meditation area, Ji Qiancheng told him a lot of common sense in the Han Dynasty, but he did not say much about the Ji family.

Shen Lang is now searching from the memories of Moran and Li Tianqing. What they know is what the outside world knows.

The Ji family is an ancient family with a long history. It has been a lot of predecessors, and it has been a bit degraded in recent centuries. Even so, it will not belong to the big family like Mutian and Huangfu.

The owner of the Jijia contemporary master, named Ji Chixia, is the uncle of Ji Qiancheng, and Ji Qiandao is the son of Ji Chixia.

After sorting out these things, Shen Lang will understand that this Ji Qiandao recognizes him, perhaps not because he heard it here, but Ji Qian took the information there.

Judging from the age of generations, Ji Qiancheng and Mu Tianhai should be equal. However, Ji Chixia is now a contemporary owner, and Mu Tian Songtao's father, Mu Tianyu Mountain, is also the contemporary owner of the Mutian family. The two are similar in age. He feels that Ji Qiandao is a peer, so he calls his name.

Just like Shen Lang, although I was annoyed just now, I finally had a big bleeding in Mu Tian Song Tao, so I can calm myself down.

The same is true of Ji Qiandao. The provocative discourse of Mu Tian Song Tao is just a faint smile.

"It turned out to be a big day, and I knew that it was yours. I didn't dare to compete with you. We have a small family, and the strength and financial resources are far less than the Mutian family. Let you laugh!"

This is the style!

This words also smothered Mu Tian Song Tao, so that he could not help but stunned and looked at the side of the waves. The style of the two people makes him feel that he is deliberately targeting him.

"But you misunderstood. The master is very gentle at the young age. It is a genius figure that I admire. I can drive it. The childcare is used on people's bodies. It is just a smile."

Ji Qiandao naturally got the message of Ji Qiang, and the benefits of Shen Lang's just getting a thousand fine stones, made him full of good feelings, and didn't mind publicly touting the waves.

He is sincere, but this is in the ears of Mutian Songtao, it is very harsh!

Mu Tian Song Tao feels that Ji Qiandao is deliberate, deliberately looking for a young man to sing a song and Or else who can sacrifice the benefits of a thousand fine stones? Now, as a person of Ji Qiandao, he is so touted by a young man, is it against his heart?

However, Mu Tian Song Tao is not stupid after all. Today, he has lost his face. He will not continue to make a fool of himself in public, or leave a message. He just looked at Shen Lang and tried to remember the appearance of this young man.

In the end, Ji Qiandao is a member of the Ji family. He may even succeed in taking over the successor of the Ji family in the future. Mu Tiantao Tao himself is the same, so he cannot be offended by such an enemy.

It is precisely because of this kind of psychology that he feels that Shen Lang is the childcare that Ji Qiandao hired. He can't offend himself. The fake hand can be cleaned up in a nameless pawn.

He can't take Ji Qiandao, but this employed child care can be revenge!

A few of them with him also left immediately.

"Can Master Shen appreciate his face and gather in the cold house?" Ji Qiandao slightly bowed to Shen Lang.

His attitude is very low, and he really hopes to invite Shen Lang. Even if he is not invited, he will not dare to force it. The salute did not reach the level of embarrassment, not because he did not want to, but because there were still many people on the scene, and people were noticed that it was not very good.

Shen Lang shook his head: “No need? Dabaojian has been transferred to you, and you have paid the accounts to me.”

“I am very grateful for this transaction, but I am inviting you, but I have nothing to do with it. Even if I didn’t help me, I will ask for a face when I meet it.” Ji Qiandao continued to respectfully.

Shen Lang thought that there was nothing wrong with it, and he agreed.

Chapter 1220 - Secret auction

Ji Qiandao was very excited and immediately led the way and led Shen Lang to leave.

There are some guests behind, tempered to not leave, they want to see if there is any follow-up, just the conflict between Mutian Songtao and Ji Qiandao, let them see, but unfortunately did not make trouble.

However, they also know that one of them is Ji Qiandao, which naturally has a lot of topicality. The other one, is it the childcare that Ji Qiandao asked?

At this time, I saw Shen Lang and Ji Qiandao coming out together. Everyone is also looking at the time.

The most popular character yesterday was the killing of the seven disciples of Chaotianmen in public in the ring. It was not only popular yesterday, but the most popular recently.

If it weren’t for the mysterious giant’s attack on Bao Puzong, he would still be the focus of everyone’s talks.

Nowadays, many people recognize that it is Shen Lang. Looking at Ji Qiandao’s attitude is not like pretending. Naturally, I don’t believe in Mutian Songtao’s speculation.

So how many people who go out with dozens of followers, who don't put Chaotianmen in their eyes, will be the daughter of Ji Qiandao? That should be a character who really does not look at thousands of fine stones!

When everyone went out, the discussion spread immediately.

Ji Qiandao used a beast car to pick him up, took him and Shen Lang, and went to Jijia's industry in Tiandu City.

It was a big house similar to that of Bao Puzong, and Ji Qiandao always led the Shen Lang to the inside of the house, and then took a long look.

"Why did you suddenly salute?" Shen Lang asked with a faint smile.

Ji Qiandao said: "Shen Shen wants to come to know that the thousand roads are not for the swords of the Lixing River predecessors, but for the brothers Ji Qiancheng. Thank you for the help of the masters in the meditation to the elder brothers and his party!"

"Have you seen Ji Qiang?" Shen Lang was not surprised.

"Yes, my brother came from the Golden Valley. I passed the heavens in the past few days. I have already returned to the Ji family. I am very grateful to Master Shen for his help, and I will be grateful if I have a chance. When you see Master Shen, you must make the best of the landlord."

After Shen Lang came out of the meditation domain, he began to search for them. Then they gathered them one by one. In the end, there was no fixed direction, and they accidentally passed to Tiandu.

Ji Qiancheng and his party have a clear purpose. When they come to Tiandu, they should take some of the harvest from Jinjiu Valley and hand it over to Ji Qiandao. It will be normal to come here earlier.

"You don't have to be so polite, I and Ji Qiancheng are also helping each other. However, this is also a coincidence. If you are on the bar with me and the other is Mutian Songtao, then it is a bit embarrassing." Shen Lang thinks and laughs. It's up.

Ji Qiandao also laughed. As the son of Ji Chixia, Ji Qiancheng said everything to him.

Shen Lang and Ji Jia are friends who have cooperated with each other, and Mu Tianjia is an enemy – although it is Ji Qiancheng who directly kills Mutian. Just everyone didn't know the identity. If they were on the other side, it was Ji Qiandao, and it was Mu Tiansong Tao who helped the sword and finally gave up the sword.

“This also shows that we have a chance, even if we don't understand each other, we are still motivated.”

Shen Lang glanced at him: “So... in fact, you were originally interested and admired?”

“That's not. Although I recognized his voice, it is still a secret, we will not say it to the outside world, so we will not reveal anything.” Ji Qiandao immediately became serious.

This is his disguised attitude to Shen Lang – Ji family will not betray him!

Shen Lang nodded. Ji Qiandao resisted the end of the auction before bidding. In addition to considering the price/performance ratio, he should not want to face the conflict with Mutian Songtao, so that he was more concerned by Mutian Songtao.

After he knew this, it would be more beneficial to keep the role in the dark.

He is also secretly sighed, and is also the candidate for successor. Ji Qiandao is much better. Judging by Mutian Songtao and Mu Tianzheng, Mu Tianshi used to be used in Yangcheng, so that he was habitually arrogant when he went out.

After this relationship was opened, even if it was the first time, everyone was naturally close to a lot.

Ji Qiandao did not have any scruples. He directly asked what plans Sun has.

“For the time being, you will be in a hurry for two days, then you will leave the capital, you may go to the Tang Dynasty, or you may find a place to retreat for a while!” Shen Lang said that the truth is true. He did intend to do so, but there is no specific determine.

Ji Qiandao nodded: “Alright. Zhou Shaojun of Chaotianmen, I heard that he is looking for you, and then killing your four followers without saying a word, it is damn! But Chaotianmen certainly will not treat it this way. His father Zhou Wei, even his grandfather Zhou Yucun, must have come from Chaotianmen.”

Shen Lang smiled. He didn’t worry too much. He didn’t take nearly 100 people on the earth. He was a high-flying bird.

Ji Qiandao watched him smile and didn’t talk, and quickly added: “Of course, Master Shen is not afraid of them, but there is no need to entangle with them. These days...”

“I stayed, but also want to see if you can’t get a good thing in the day. But today’s auction, to tell the truth is very disappointing, the finale is that stuff.” Shen Lang shook his head Ji Qiandao, I realized that although Shen Lang finally pitted Mutian Songtao, he was really not interested in that thing!

“Today’s auction is indeed a bit more popular, including the larger one after ten days, and it will still be more popular. After all, Tianbao is like a business with other businesses.”

This point is also clear, not to mention anything else, just like the original Master League in Tangcheng auction, not often. Three times a month here, it is actually another way of selling.

“These things can’t enter your eyes, but the sky is all heaven, it won’t let you down!” Ji Qiandao reveals a mysterious smile.

Shen Lang eyelid pick: “What do you mean... is there better?”

“Tianbao is really capable, it is open to the public, but privately, there is a secret small auction of invitations.”

Ji Qiandao introduced that this secret small auction has a limited number of places, and it will not know if it is not enough. Usually the package is held that night, but it is not fixed. If there are no guests, or there is nothing good, the cancellation will be cancelled.

Simply put, the higher-grade things are left in the secret small auctions of the evening, circulating in smaller circles. Of course, the threshold for entry is also higher. After all, a quota for a big door is still not small.

Therefore, in order to avoid casual visits, in addition to the need to have the qualification to invite, the other must pay the cost of fifty fine stones, equal to ten times the expensive tickets!

Since Shen Lang has this heart, he will not stay here more. Ji Qiandao will arrange for him to see if the secret auction will be done this evening.
