

First Strong 1221

Chapter 1221 - Giant influence

The Ji family still has a status, and it is also the earliest to participate in the construction of Tiandu, and it is also quite well-known in Tiandu. Tianbao's secret auction, they are not only qualified, but also quite face-to-face.

Under the arrangement of Ji Qiandao, there will be a reply soon, and there is no accident in the secret auction this evening. Ji Qiandao also paid a hundred fine stones and got two invitation tickets.

Then he was entertaining Shen Lang to enjoy the local cuisine and talk about the various situations in Tiandu.

The things that Shenlang and Chaotianmen collapsed were hot spots, but he was a party. Ji Qiandao couldn't talk much, so he talked more about Bao Puzong's attack by the mysterious giant.

According to Ji Qiandao, Bao Puzong started from last night and everyone disappeared. Even they are business, and they are temporarily closed today. This makes everyone very curious about the specific truth, but can't find the party to ask.

But the reaction of Bao Puzong made everyone feel a little relieved.

After the news came out, everyone was very nervous, worried that this mysterious giant was an attack on Tiandu City. If it is not a person, but a group, it will be a big shock.

This also makes everyone alert and search for the mysterious giant's whereabouts.

Yesterday night, nothing happened, plus the reaction of Bao Puzong, let everyone realize that it is likely to be the enemy of Bao Puzong!

Since it is only for Bao Puzong, then everyone should be careful not to be beaten and pond fish. In particular, the house and business houses are close to Bao Puzong, and they are all more careful.

Everything is not relevant, everyone's tension is relaxed, and more leisurely.

What is this mysterious giant?

I have never heard of such an ethnic group in the entire Han Dynasty.

Bao Puzong has always been low-key and pragmatic, and the refining of the drug is very good. It has always been a good relationship with all parties. How could it suddenly offend such a strong enemy?

Of course, Shen Lang took nearly 100 earth monks into the city and killed the disciples of Chaotianmen. This is the hottest thing yesterday. It is hard not to let people contact once.

Fortunately, many people in the nearby houses saw it. It was a tall giant, so even if they doubted, they could not say that they had a relationship with Shen Lang.

The reality is the same as that seen in the morning, and the people who recognize him on the street will avoid a distance and dare not approach.

By the time all the news that Ji Qiandao has received, everyone is more outrageous about the mysterious giant. For the origin, there are two main tendencies.

One feels coming from outside of Han! The world is so big, with all kinds of strange races, it is possible to have giants.

The other one, according to the city's defense search, there is no trace, guessing that it is a kind of exercise.

If it is the former, even if it is now aimed at Bao Puzong, it is also possible to attack other people, even the entire Tiandu and Han countries in the future.

If it is the latter kind, the situation will be much better. It is only an internal contradiction, just the enemy of Bao Puzong.

Although there is no direct point to the conclusion, but it is not convenient to open the discussion behind, there is still a conjecture to connect the mysterious giant and Shen Lang!

The strength of Shen Lang's performance and the number of followers are enough to shock one side. If the mysterious giant is also his, the destructive power is even more terrifying. No one wants to get into trouble. Naturally, he dare not say more.

Ji Qiandao certainly will not ask Shen Lang, and everyone's friendship has not yet reached this level. Once said, it is likely that the current friendly relationship will be gone.

By the evening, Ji Qiandao prepared a black cloak for Shen Lang, plus a mask.

"Since this is a secret auction, of course, we also try to protect everyone's privacy. Although they all have identity. But whoever buys something and is completely open is not very good, so Tianbao chose to use this way. Anonymous auction."

Shen Lang put on a black cloak, put on a mask, and when he spoke, he found that the sound had changed. This mask has been specially designed to have a certain sound-changing effect.

Of course, the original design of Tianbaoxing took into account the familiarity of the sound, which is further hidden.

When going out, Ji Qiandao also joked to remind him that the auction at night will not be as intense as during the day, so the starting price will be higher, and the high-end resources that are originally positioned are psychologically prepared.

After Shen Lang followed Ji Qiandao out, he bypassed a few streets and came to a house.

It seems that this secret auction at night is not in the store of Tianbao, but in the house.

When they appeared at the door, they could not see the truth.

Tianbaoxing had arranged people at the door, watched them come over, and immediately verified the invitation tickets, and then let people lead them in.

This house of Tianbaoxing is different from Baopuzong and Jijia. It is not a multiple courtyard design, but a “back-shaped” design. The outer circle is covered with a small circle, which is obviously with defense. type.

They are now entering the innermost building, and the people of Tianbaoxing did not take them to visit. After they entered, they immediately quit.

Shen Lang looked at it. In the room that entered, some people have already arrived. Basically, it is also the shape of a black cloak and a mask. In addition to the low-key exchanges with friends who are with me, did not talk to other people.

This is not the purpose of socializing. Even everyone knows what kind of characters are coming. If you talk more and communicate more, you may directly guess the specific identity.

Shen Lang is not impatient. I have already looked forward to the auction in the morning. The result is disappointing. Now he has not had much hope.

After waiting for about half an hour, the guests of this evening have arrived one after another, adding up to a dozen people.

The number is too small, it is no wonder that Tianbao will receive ten times the tickets.

“The distinguished guests are all here, I don’t have much nonsense, let’s get started!”

Tianbao’s manager who seems to have a certain identity is no longer the host he has seen during the day.

Then he invited everyone to stand in the middle of the room, and a staff member reminded them to stand.

After everyone stood up, there was a sound of the organ rolling, and then the standing position began to sink down from the whole block.

The whole piece in the middle of the room was actually a lifting platform. Now it is like an elevator, carrying everyone down.

After sinking for more than ten meters, then it stopped, and the steward took everyone out of the lift, and then the lift lifted up again.

From the above building, we can see that Tianbaoxing's defense is far better than other houses, and the venue of this auction, even in the basement, is very careful.

The space that came out illuminates the bright and clear, and the seat has already been prepared. When everyone is seated, there is a number plate on the chair. This is the code for each person corresponding to the meeting. The front is a small stage. The place where the auction items are displayed.

Chapter 1222 - Blood of true dragon

"Everyone is a person with identity, time is precious, I don't delay everyone's time. It's just started!" The straightforward question of the management.

This is also the experience that Tianbao has summed up for a long time. Faced with the masses of guests, and there are still large mobile guests, it is necessary to fully create momentum and mobilize everyone's purchase and participation.

But for the representatives, they must rely on things to impress them. People pay ten times the ticket, it is to brush some of the virtual.

In advance, I introduced how many items will be auctioned tonight, so that the guests present can know how to arrange the Lingshi.

"There are a total of seven items tonight, which is basically the best thing we have in the near future. Of course, there are new ones and some things that have appeared before. The first item!"

He opened the covered red cloth directly to the first item that had been prepared.

What appeared was a transparent box with a transparent bottle inside, and the inside of the bottle was a bright red liquid that seemed to swim spontaneously.

Shen Lang thought of the jade emperor, and the situation he saw at the time was similar to this.

“Has anyone already seen it? This thing is the blood of a dragon!”

When this statement came out, everyone was immediately amazed. Although he couldn't see the expression with a mask, he didn't exclaim, but he intentionally or unintentionally leaned forward and wanted to see it clearly.

“I don't brag about everyone. Although I got this thing, it is the blood of the real dragon. But even if we are a treasure, we can't be sure if this is a dragon's blood. But one thing is certain, this will be at least the beast level. Blood!”

If you manage things, let everyone's eyes shine.

As long as it is the blood of the beast  level, it is irrelevant whether it is a real dragon. This drop of dragon blood can greatly increase the quality of the drug. If it can be used directly on a person's body, it can make people reborn. Fly into the sky!

During the conversation, the transparent bottle was taken out of the transparent box, and further demonstrations were made for everyone.

“Sorry, I can't open the bottle to everyone for a slow appreciation. I can only guarantee that we will be able to fake everyone.” The management has made a guarantee with the reputation of Tianbao.

When Shen Lang saw it in Ji Qiandao, he nodded with approval and said, yes, the item level here is really much higher.

This thing, he has already taken a fancy, decided to take it.

“Of course, whether it is dragon blood or the blood of other beasts, it is very rare. It is also a lucky one to get such a drop. The price can't be cheap, the auction price is 10,000 yuan, and the price is 1,000 yuan. Lingshi.”

There is not much nonsense in management, and the price and rules are directly mentioned.

The reserve price is 10,000, and the price is increased by one thousand. At this price, all the goods in the morning auction will be directly used. If it is placed in a public auction during the day, it is estimated to be the next big finale.

However, this price, for the scene of more than ten guests, did not shock.

The value of this thing, although it is not clear to anyone, but it will obviously be practical. Compared with the previous gun, everyone is not very clear, but that is the trend.

Those who came here tonight, who have been screened, have identity, and naturally they will not be jealous. Especially at the beginning, they are silent placards.

Once the card is priced, the price will increase by one thousand. In the dozens of people on the scene, except for Ji Qiandao, who is accompanying Shen Lang, there are several others who are unmoved.

If you don't move, it doesn't mean you can't look at it. It's about taking too much competition. It's hard to get it. You don't participate, and you keep the items behind the Lingshi competition.

Therefore, the number of people who have increased their fares, including the number of Shen Lang, is less than ten, and everyone has plunged a round and is about to double.

Waiting until the second round of placards, some people began to quit. But everyone who continues to placard, there is still no hesitation, basically one after another, even if someone hesitates, there are others to make up.

No moderators are noisy on the stage, only the staff quickly counts that the process is much faster than during the day.

When the price climbed to 40,000, most people stopped placarding. After all, this is not a small amount, unless there is an urgent need, or else the price is more cost-effective with other resources.

However, there are still two competitions with Shen Lang. Everyone seems to have a certain position.

Ji Qiandao looked at Shen Lang next to him, and his mood was changed several times.

At the beginning, I was worried about the quotation here. Shen Lang would not be able to eat it at the same time. It would be a bit embarrassing. After all, during the day, the swell of the waves was not followed, and it was not clear how his strength was.

Found that the price of 10,000, Shen Lang did not spit with him too expensive, but continued to join the bid, he will be relieved, at least not embarrassing situation.

Then, until now, the price has risen from 10,000 to 40,000. Shenlang still has no change and follow the fare increase, so he is a little surprised. Even if he has the back of Ji family, he dare not So sloppy, the things bought at this price are of little use to the family, that is the primary consideration, and can not be used with any arrogance.

Where did the sigh of Shen Lang come from?

Qiu Lin Jianzong's support?

Or is he himself huge in the Golden Mile and the meditation?

He still has dozens of followers...

Such a kind, let Ji Qiandao is completely watching the play mode, anyway, he did not intend to shoot tonight, is accompanied by Shen Lang.

Other bidders have been sifting down, and they have reached 40,000. Although there are still placards, they have reached the limit of psychological price. Everyone is pretending to be calm, and who is going to give up first.

At this time, every time a card is held, it may become the last straw to be crushed.

When Shen Lang raised the cards to 46,000, the others did not follow.

Perhaps 40,000 is their ceiling, only beyond the courage to add it.

“Congratulations to the VIP on the 8th!” The manager said to the side of Shen Lang.

The drop of dragon blood on the stage began to pack and pack. On the side of Tianbao, it is not as immediate as the daytime to arrange payment. Because there are identities in the evening, so some customers, if they can't afford it, they will give up and won't be able to afford it.

There are no more scenes in the management, and the second item will be continued immediately, so that the guests who have just been disappointed can then pick up the status.

Because there are only seven good things that can be seen this evening, one person is on average less than one, and some people may have the strength to buy two, or some of them can't afford the price, and there is even less competition. .

Therefore, after the blood of the real dragon fell into the sinking sac, the second one began, and the competition naturally became more intense.

Chapter 1223 - 3 gates

The second and third pieces, Shen Lang did not participate in the competition, his needs are different from others, and good for others may not be suitable for him. And he doesn't need to think about price/performance, and it doesn't make sense to buy it.

At the time of the fourth, I let the “rest” burst for a while, and I came to the spirit.

The fourth item is called “Shen Di”. In a nutshell, it is a fermented and improved fertilizer that has a similar ripening effect. If you find that you have a natural treasure, but you are still a little mature, after fertilizing the gods, you can accelerate the ripening ten times!

Of course, after ripening, it will affect a little bit of effect, but it is still cost-effective to save ten times.

Shen Lang came to the interest and found that others were interested in it. The reserve price was two thousand fine stones, and no one was placarding.

This makes him a bit strange, isn't it cost-effective?

Any elixir can grow to the level of Tiandi Dibao. In addition to natural breeds and long time, there is another important reason, the environment. For example, in the core area of Kanazawa, seeing a thousand-year-old medicine, transplanting it to ordinary mountains, generally will not survive.

Therefore, if you encounter a elixir that has not reached maturity, you can only give up. If you have a ripening agent that is ten times faster, can you wait for it to mature at the scene?

Ji Qiandao next to him seems to have discovered the surprise of Shen Lang. He was afraid that he would shoot and hand over to him.

“Master Shen, this thing is very good, and the value is not great. If it is the elixir of the forbidden land, it can make you see it, at least for more than a thousand years, then it is almost mature, it may be worse than a hundred years, decades. It doesn't make sense to have a god. If it's your own medicine, it's wasted with it. With these thousands of fine stones to ripen, you can buy ready-made.”

Hearing the reminder of Ji Qiandao, Shen Lang wakes up.

He just calculated the cost. If a piece of Tiandi Dibao that he almost missed was able to ripen it, he would be able to get it, but he neglected the time.

For the millennium and thousands of years of elixir, the maturity period is also normal for hundreds of years. Not to mention the fact that in a hundred years and decades, even if the effect is ten years and eight years, it is meaningless to accelerate ten times.

As for the difference of one and a half years, it can be counted in the scope, there is no problem in picking, so it is chicken ribs.

This thing should not be the first time, so everyone else will ignore it.

Shen Lang nodded slightly to him to show that there was no more cards.

The management of Tianbaoxing is also expected to have this result, so put this * in the middle. Already sold half, the competition behind may be bigger and more expensive, maybe someone will buy it. Or if you haven't seen it before, just buy it.

Unfortunately, everyone is very sensible, only Shen Lang almost did not respond to buy.

After skipping the fourth, the next fifth and sixth, Shen Lang did not participate in the auction.

This also makes Ji Qiandao feel relieved. If Shen Lang is bidding every time, he is also very stressed.

In the unlikely event that he succeeded, he was not enough to pay the bills?

That account, you need Jijia to get up!

After all, the invitation tickets are obtained in the name of Jijia. The people invited by Jijia don't give money. It can only be Ji family to collect accounts, and people will find Ji family. And spreading it out will have a great impact on the reputation of Jijia.

Besides, Shen Lang is very kind to Ji's family. It is really like this. He has to pay. Because that can't be said, I can't let the outside world wonder why Shen Lang will need them to pay the bills. When the investigation is over, the matter of Wan Ling's domain is brought out, and both lose.

Therefore, before the wave of 46,000, he estimated that Shen Lang should be able to afford. If you can't afford it, you should pay a part, and the rest can be packaged.

But if there are too many, the pressure will be great, which is one of the reasons why he does not dare to participate in the competition.

Wait until the last one, which is the finale item tonight.

Shen Lang once again got the spirit. There was a little less tonight, and he was not satisfied with much. I hope that this last one can achieve a good result.

However, he found another problem. Other people seem to have no interest at all.

What's happening? Is it another chicken rib like "Shen Di"?

"The last piece of the finale tonight is the most valuable treasure, called the Gate of the Three Realms!"

I am afraid that Shen Lang was pitted. When the management just introduced, Ji Qiandao reminded Shen Lang about the sound of the horse.

"This one is not practical at all, and the price is very high. This finale has been pressed for more than a year. It has not been taken out once in a month or two. No one wants it."

That's it!

Shen Lang realized that other people looked at the packaging and shape on the stage and knew what the finale items were going to be, so they were not interested.

For them, maybe only six items can be counted tonight!

Of course, I also understand this situation, but this thing should be collected at a high price, or it must be sold out. If you can't sell it at a secret auction, you can't sell it on a large scale during the day.

And there are many people during the day, it is easy to spread, everyone knows this later can not find a replacement.

So even if the atmosphere of the scene was cold, he was honestly introduced.

“As the name suggests, the magical magic weapon of the Three Realms is to open the door to any place in the Three Realms. Of course, opening has a certain chance, and the place where it appears cannot be determined.”

“But this is the door of the Three Realms, which gives people unlimited possibilities. In terms of price, the low price of this magic weapon auction is 100,000 fine stones...”

At the time of introduction, he had opened the covered red cloth, and the transparent box contained a magic weapon like a crystal ball. What is the specific effect, of course, can not be seen.

Introducing things, plus the price of 100,000 fine stone, under the scene mask, almost all of them have disdainful ridicule, I think this is the price of the pit.

Tianbaoxing himself was pitted and wanted to find someone to squat.

Are others fools?

That is the 100,000 fine stone! If 100,000 medium Lingshi, you may also buy and play.

The management on the stage was awkward, and then stuttered and said: “The VIPs on the 8th and 8th are bidding 100,000?”

Just after the swaying of the cards, he thought that he had a look at it, so he widened his eyes and still wondered if the other party was taking the initiative. Asked specifically.

After all, Tianbaoxing still has to face, even if you really want to get rid of it, you can't mistake others' hands.

As soon as this was said, everyone turned to look at Shen Lang.

Ji Qiandao is directly on the chair, and my heart is finished!

Look at this, Shen Lang has become a fool of the takeover, but Shen Lang is not stupid, he may be to pass this to Ji Jia to pay. The head of the 100,000-class spirit stone!

Chapter 1224 - Tuhao Xiti

This treasure of Tianbaoxing, this time is really exciting. Every time I take it out, everyone is unmoved. I can also think of laughing behind them and making a big head.

This time, someone actually offered a price!

He is very worried that Shen Lang will say that he is a mistake, and he is quite awkward at the moment.

Everyone looked at Shen Lang, and after they were surprised, they also felt that this buddy should have accidentally made a mistake.

Tianbao can't be sold to him because of this, just need to make it clear.

Of course, the most nervous is Ji Qiandao.

Under the gaze of everyone, Shen Lang nodded and confirmed that he was not a mistake.

Tianbao's management is very excited, finally! Finally someone has bidd!

"The number 8 VIP bid is 100,000, congratulations on getting the door to the Three Realms."

This time it was confirmed, not a strong sell, but worried about the other side's remorse, he still quickly confirmed the transaction.

Ji Qiandao is not good for the whole person, and the last hope is eliminated. Now he is starting to have a headache. If these hundreds of thousands of people, Shen Lang must let them Ji Jia to pay, what should I do?

He even regrets it. What kind of courtesy is it, don't bring it here, isn't this the case?

Everyone else is incredibly watching the waves, is this buddy really stupid? They are all curious about which one is this, and they will make such a decision.

“The items that have been auctioned this evening have been completed. Next, we will increase our efforts to collect more good things for the distinguished guests.” The manager said with joy.

There are many items during the day, most of which are commissioned by the buyer. The items in the evening are all high-value after all. If they can't be sold in a short time, others can't be placed in Tianbao for a long time, so most of them are accepted by Tianbao.

Pure platform, of course, is not to lose money, but the light tickets and rake, the profit is still small. Those who can sell big prices may also bring huge profits.

But this does not say what is their own and what is commissioned, so they are treated equally, and the seller is charged a 5 percent commission.

There are a total of seven items tonight, of which “God” has no one to ask for. The remaining six items were shot by Shen Lang, and he was undoubtedly the “biggest winner” tonight.

Now the staff has already delivered the packaged items to them, and at the same time paying them, it is a one-handed delivery.

In addition to the other four people have to pay, other people, their eyes are focused on Shen Lang here.

Together with the bid price of 146,000, there are 7,300 commissions, which add up to a fine of 153,000. The light commission is much higher than the highest price in the day!

Of course, the price of the door of the Three Realms is 100,000. It is also very rare in Tianbao. It will not sell very high every day. Will stick to this low price, perhaps the cost price they received.

Ji Qiandao has been sitting down from the collapsed state, and he is now sitting upright. He is now nervous and his scalp is numb. He is afraid to hear Shen Lang ask him to “borrow money.”

If the money is borrowed, it will definitely not be repaid, but if he opens his mouth, he has to borrow it. He has to be careful not to let people know their identity.

Of course, the Ji family can still afford it, but it is also a huge pressure on him.

The result is that Ji Qiandao is a big surprise. It is also very surprising to let other people watch the excitement. Shen Lang pays directly!

This is a huge sum of money. Of course, the staff did not dare to care about it. After repeatedly confirming the payment, they gave both items to Shen Lang.

Seeing this scene, everyone secretly praised it. I don't know which party is the power. Actually, such a defeated family, even the pure flower head of the Three Realms is bought at a high price.

The management of Tianbaoxing did not personally pass by, but his heart has always been in Shenlang. The price of Shen Lang is more than that of others. The key to the three realms that could not be sold in the past one or two years, before they paid the bill, they still worried that the other party would repent.

Shen Lang can be so generous, of course, because it received compensation from the 100,000 fine stone from Bao Puzong, or else he could not afford to sell more than 80,000 of his own medicinal resources.

However, of course he is not a lot of money, and he is very interested in the door of the Three Realms.

On the one hand, because the Pacific Ocean has no return to the door of the sea, it will disappear in the next two years. It is an important issue to be able to travel to and from the two worlds.

He got the Kunlun mirror. Although the legend has the effect of breaking the space, it has not been used after the restoration. Now it is still used in the Tianshu space to further repair and improve with the element beads.

This door to the Three Realms is an additional program.

As for success depends on the “probability”, it is too normal. If you can just break through the space and cross into other spaces, the value is too great. It is already very good to have a chance to succeed.

Of course, the specific effect, I have to wait for him to study slowly.

As for the true and false, he did not consider it. After all, Tianbao is in Tiandu City, calculated in a hundred years, and the credibility is still there. This thing dares to sell this price, of course it is true, or else ruined the reputation, how to do business in the future?

After Ji Qiandao looked at Shen Lang’s payment, he relaxed from the tension as he woke up.

He can actually afford to pay 150,000 fine stones!

Although from Ji Qiancheng, I know that Shen Lang has paid the harvest of the two families of Huangfu and Mutian but it is not possible to have such a big gain. I really want to have a harvest of 100,000 and a thousand Lingshi, and everyone will run away from the ground every day.

Anyway, as long as you don’t ask Ji’s family to borrow money, that’s fine. Ji Qiandao is also a bit embarrassed, and thought that others are the idea of playing Jijia, but I did not expect it to be a rich man!

After that, it was the stewardship that expressed gratitude to everyone, especially Shen Lang, which made them backlog of items for a long time.

Everyone else came forward to congratulate, of course, onlookers, they also want to have a glimpse of what is the identity. But this time I can’t ask too much, so it doesn’t work.

Came up from the ground, and then left the Tianbao House, Ji Qiandao returned to the house of Ji’s house with Shen Lang.

After taking off the mask and making a soundproofing treatment around, it was convenient and free to talk. Ji Qiandao was persuaded to persuade.

“Master Shen, you just thought it was too fast, I didn’t think you decided about it. The door of the three worlds is actually more difficult to distinguish than the gods. It has been auctioned for a long time, no one wants it. At that time you will soon Confirmed, I was shocked, and I didn’t have time to advise you.”

Shen Lang knows what he means, and smiles a little: “It doesn’t matter. If you can sell this price, even if it doesn’t boast, it will still have some effect.”

This has already happened. Ji Qiandao said this, of course, just to express his concern, but at that time he was really scared, or else he would explain persuasion.

“I won’t stay too much, go back to the inn to clean up and leave here tomorrow.”

The purpose of Shen Lang’s stay has been reached. Tianbao will not have too many good things in the short term, and he does not have too many spiritual stones.

Chapter 1225 - Ambusher

Shen Lang declined the retention and delivery of Ji Qiandao and returned to the inn alone.

But just leaving the house, I felt someone watching the stalk in the dark.

This street is such a large mansion. At night, there will naturally be no passers-by.

Shen Lang was supposed to go back to the inn as soon as possible. Instead of rushing to rest, he wanted to take a closer look at the auction proceeds today.

After the auction was over in the morning, I was warmly invited by Ji Qiandao to come here. Later, I was always enthusiastic to accompany him. Until now, he has not yet had a good look at the heaven and earth, and what he got at night.

Now that someone is staring at him, there is no hurry, but keep the normal speed and slowly go ahead.

There is no street lamp in Long Street, only the light of hanging lanterns at the gate of the house. When it comes to the whole, it still feels a bit black and windy.

Shen Lang walked straight away, and soon went to a place where there were no lanterns before and after. It seems that there should be no relationship between the surrounding houses.

“No one here, can you come out? When you are, you are bothered by not bothering me.”

Shen Lang stopped and said something to the darkness behind him.

Those who follow him are of course looking for a suitable place. At this moment, this is the best place. If you go to a crowded street, the impact will be even greater.

“Less nonsense! Robbery! Give all your belongings out, and spare your life!”

The sound came from the front. It was hidden before and after, and moved with the movement of Shen Lang.

Now speaking, in front of the dark long street, there are two black people. Immediately afterwards, two black men appeared from the darkness, forming a pinch against him.

Although they all wear masks, Shen Lang guess can guess that it should be the person arranged by Mu Tian Song Tao.

In the daytime auction, Shen Lang was out of the limelight, but the income did not have much value. It was no more than six hundred people who added the world to domineering. The big swords of the Lexing River were sent to Ji Qiandao, and finally shouted. The initiative to give up to 15,000.

Therefore, no one would think that he is full of treasures, and at night everyone is hiding their identity, and they buy two things. The door of the Three Realms is regarded as a chicken rib, and those who have identity will not chase and rob. .

Moreover, when I went to and came back, Ji Qiandao was familiar with the environment, and Shen Lang also noticed whether it was tracked or not.

So now these four ambush in the name of looting near the Ji family, only because of hatred, and not tracking, is waiting for Shen Lang to leave.

Even if he leaves during the day tomorrow, the other party may still be waiting here.

Only when Mu Tian Song Tao feels that he has been played big will make such an arrangement.

“Is it robbery? There are robbers in the capital city, and you have to hang up and show you so that everyone can see it!”

“court death!”

To hang the arguments of the public, they obviously angered them. They might have just wanted to rob them. The purpose now is to kill people!

Before and after the four people joined forces, for a time, the entire long street seemed to be pulled out separately and became another state.

They not only control the field in advance, but also under the force, the street is erected!

At the moment when the street was erected, the four people were flying fast to the side of Shen Lang.

There was a sharp long thorn in their hands, not waiting for the person to stab, from the top of the thorn, a black shadow had formed, and the rapid quadrilateral became a black circle, directly sinking The waves are trapped.

Look at the posture, this black circle is the first attack, if the Shen wave can resist, then the spike, and they obviously have the third attack.

Because it is too fast, the speed of several of them is already fast, and in their dominant field, it has been greatly increased.

Seeing that the waves were to be killed, when the black circle was closed, they were surprised to find that the target was gone!

Not dodging, not defense, but disappearing directly!

This completely exceeded their expectations, because they are sneak attacks, and the preparation is very full, everyone is very tacit understanding, and the speed is even more difficult to describe.

So they never thought that their opponents could still disappear, and at most they were recalcitrant. Especially in the first moment, obviously still watching Shen Lang will be hit.

Hell?

Suddenly, before everyone reacted, they found that the black circle that was originally formed was one-fourth less!

On the opposite side, the pupils contracted. When they saw the black circle change, they saw a partner's chest opposite and a fist appeared!

It was too late to talk at the moment. The two of them held spikes and swiftly swung them around like the partners behind them.

The other person next to the man who was pierced by the chest also felt the breath of death. The opposite voice was too late to pass, and he didn't need words. He immediately returned to the side and slapped his head.

Their reaction speed is really fast has a lot of practical experience, but compared with Shen Lang, it is still too much!

Shen Lang went behind them, punching one of them with one punch, and another punch had already reached the rib of the person next to him. When he returned to the attack and wanted to attack, the whole body had been blown out from under the ribs, and a big hole appeared!

At this time, the other two people have already crossed the partner and stabbed the side of Shen Lang. Compared with their spikes, there was a black shadow that quickly flowed.

The two men are still stabbing the sinking waves with spikes, but the spikes have been broken, and the next step is to directly roll off their spiked arms!

Rao is that they react quickly. When they find out that they are wrong, they throw away the rapid retreat of the spikes, but the speed of the Shenlang and the hegemony of the stagnant water whip, or leave their half-arms.

The two did not take care of the arm, and did not wait for the landing, the body quickly receded, and the long street became the same.

But this time, the situation has changed dramatically!

Before, it was the four of them who joined forces to control Long Street through the field, as if it had become an independent space, where they could play better and limit the enemy.

Because it is a joint force, the effect is very good. But because it is a joint force, after a person is pierced, it immediately becomes disordered. As the second one is broken, the remaining two arms are broken, so that they can only escape desperately. The field is gone.

At this time, Shen Lang had already released the field and kept the surrounding area under control. The two people quickly flew back, but after leaving more than ten meters, the body immediately became much slower.

Then they found that Shen Lang has already appeared in front of them!

Chapter 1226 - Killer vulture

“Give me down!”

When two people just heard the words of Shen Lang, the body felt the oppression of the power of the Wan, not to mention the escape and leave, even in the air can not stop, directly forced to fall to the ground.

At the moment of landing, they immediately felt their feet seem to be trapped in the quagmire. It seemed that they had sunk from their feet to the chest and directly trapped people completely.

When Shen Lang calmly fell to the ground, behind him came the sound of the two corpses that broke through.

This sound rang in the dark long streets, no doubt further reminding them of the two remaining.

“We lost, the skill is not as good as people, we must kill you!” one of them said coldly.

“Your realm is higher, thinking that a few hard words, procrastinating me, will there be a chance to get out of trouble?” When Shen Lang spoke, the stagnant water whip had directly entered from his front!

His speed is very fast, and he will take it back as soon as he wears it. If you wait a little longer, you should blow this person directly.

But even if the speed is so fast, just touching it, it still makes his body appear a hollow and spread at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“what—!”

The rapid decay of the whole circle of the body, the painful taste, is no longer comparable to the pain of the flesh. Even if this person is a semi-immortal, an experienced sly character, he is also screamed and screamed.

If he was not completely banned by Shen Lang, he might have to fly up.

However, Shen Lang has just added a sound insulation, which makes him cry in pain, and will not spread out, just around them.

In this way, the effect of this fear is completely borne by another person.

One of these four people is a semi-sexual situation, which is what Shen Lang has just focused on, and the other three are also at the peak of the peak of the gods.

With their three-plus joint action, it is easy to succeed in dealing with a half-sex. It's just that today's encounter is a deep wave, far from being a general semi-fairy comparable.

Looking at the body of their boss, there is a growing hole in the middle, just like the horror of just eroding the arm, with the painful and desperate voice, let the remaining one, already sweating.

When Shen Lang's gaze came over, it seemed as if it was his turn, let him almost collapse!

"I said, I said! I said, it is the people of the Mutian family, please ask us to kill you!"

"Mu Tian Songtao said that he was insulted by you at the auction this morning. He himself was inconvenient to shoot, so he spent five thousand fine stones. Please kill us in the name of robbery."

When he desperately wants to survive, he should not be adulterated. Does this make Shen Lang a little speechless, and is it worth five thousand fine stones?

Although there are quite a few high-spirited stones in the five thousand, but ... their information is still to this morning's auction, if you know that he spent more than 150,000 fine stones in the evening, it is estimated that the asking price will be different. Right?

"School can't be humiliated!"

Next to the boss, after a painful cry, he made a roar!

Shen Lang's face changed slightly, and immediately discovered the other party's intentions. This is the final potential to prepare for burning, to disintegrate and blew!

This person is also a semi-sexual situation, so he is leading this evening. The process of the four people's actions is under his control. It was thought to be very stable. Unexpectedly, he was defeated by the sinking waves. He immediately fled decisively.

After being trapped, I also thought that there was still a chance to escape. When the body was eroded out of a big hole, and he was so painful that he was about to collapse, he realized that there was no hope of turning the market. Even if he could escape, it would be abolished.

So he made a direct decision on self-destruction!

A strong man in the semi-fair realm, trying his best to blow himself up, the consequences are very serious, and may destroy the buildings around this street.

The most impactful, of course, is the recent people and things.

He has no problem with another living partner, but he has to go with Shen Lang!

Of course, they have prepared one plus three, can be quickly cracked by Shen Lang, and crushed to this extent, even if he blew himself, can not really let Shen Lang die.

The effect he wants to achieve, that is, the damage that can be achieved for Shen Lang can be counted as a revenge.

But he shouldn't call such a scorpion!

In addition, the person is confessing to Shen Lang, shifting the attention of a part of Shen Lang, and the cry of his painful collapse. If he directly blew himself, he can really hurt Shen Lang – as to what extent Another said.

But as soon as he spoke, he let Shen Lang discover his intentions.

Ever since, he used the advantage of the field to imprison his swells, and he didn't even need to do it. He directly stunned him with a thought!

In addition, I still didn't understand what was going on. I didn't know that I almost died.

But seeing his boss stunned in the past, he even dared not have any concealment.

“We have a nickname, called vulture. He is our big brother vulture. We are also businessmen in the outside world. In fact, we are picking up things that others are not willing to do. Take people’s money for disaster relief. ”

“This hero, we are purely just a beater, or a killer, and you have no grudges. Your enemy is Mutian Songtao of the Mutian family. I have all told the truth, I hope I can spare my life.”

Shen Lang smiled at him: “You said it is very simple. In fact, you are doing the murder of the goods! If I am weak, or if I am not careful, I will be killed by you. So, dare to kill me, It’s already unforgivable. Since it’s a big wicked person, I’m killing you, and it’s for heaven!”

“Don’t, don’t... you can’t talk, don’t count!” The man shouted nervously.

“When did I say that I will not kill you?”

Shen Lang’s words made him stunned and immediately remembered. Yes, Shen Lang did not say such a thing. It was purely his own confession of his own fear.

At this time, Shen Lang’s hand was caught on the top of his head, directly draining his mental strength!

Between the time, the person felt that he was quickly wilting. If the body was not imprisoned, it should be soft to the ground.

“You turned me into a waste... Is it because you want more people to humiliate me? It’s better to kill me directly!” He laughed.

It’s just that the mental energy is drained. It’s not the same as abolishing it. It’s just a temporary wilting, or it can gradually recover.

Shen Lang will do this, just don’t want to waste it. The two men who had just engaged in the war had been pierced directly because they could not care about it. Now they have completely controlled them.

“Since you have asked for it, I will do this for you.”

Talk, Shen Lang directly punched him punch!

Chapter 1227 - Night Quest

After solving this, Shen Lang came back to make the vulture.

The vulture has just been able to smother himself, because his own strength is still there, but he was injured, and the Shenlang field took the lead and blocked him.

Of course, the hole in the stagnant water whip also makes him not last long!

However, the hole in the stagnant water whip, and the punching of the body with a punch, is a little different. He pierced them and was a direct commandment. Because it is pure power, coupled with the infusion of vitality, before the hole in the body, the internal organs have been completely shattered.

The stagnant water whip is directly penetrated into the past, and the damage to the surrounding area is corroded and the damage is different.

It's like a piece of soy rot. It's a big hit with a punch. A knife that is more powerful than a fist will pierce the tofu, but the “wound” will be much smaller.

So even if his life is not long, there is still time, unlike the other ones, they are directly killed.

Shen Lang has stunned him. What he has to do now is not to waste.

Therefore, he first completely drained his mental strength, and then read his memory, and then killed him.

The code of their gang is called vulture, which is the code name of this boss. The other three younger brothers are all dependent on him. They are killers, and of course they have a lot of benefits.

Shen Lang now collected all of their four personal belongings before taking all the bodies and leaving.

Although Tiandu City can not be compared with the river city or the big cities of the earth, it is not small. There are a lot of big houses like this. Shen Lang is not familiar with this place. It is more troublesome to find the Mutian family in the base camp of Tiandu.

However, I have just read the memory of the vulture and I have already learned the information I need.

The vultures are all gone, for safety and confidentiality, they will not be in a fixed place, nor will they tell others information. They all pass the information through the set place, and then he personally went to the door to negotiate.

The business of Mutian Songtao is that the vultures come to the door, so now he can directly find the house of the Mutian family.

When I arrived at the Mutianjia House, Shen Lang immediately looked up and searched for the place where Mutian Songtao was.

Here is the industry of the Mutian family in Tiandu, not as protective as Tianbao. And Mu Tian Song Tao, obviously also very confident about the vulture, and did not hide.

Shen Lang did not rush into it, but first learned about the situation inside the entire house. Most of the discoveries are that some of the strengths are relatively low, and that Mutian Songtao and another person have reached the peak of the peak of the gods.

That person should also be an important position, at this moment and Mu Tian Songtao two people in a room.

Neither of them spoke, it seemed to be waiting for news.

After a while, Mu Tian Songtao spoke up: "The head of the Yuan, you said ... will they hang up and we will run?"

In addition, the head of the police looked alert and looked outside, and then lowered the voice: “The son, the vulture can make a reputation, because they are reliable, and like doing business, they must also pay attention to credibility. If a guest is pitted, spread Which other guests dare to find them?”

“That can be difficult to say. Looking for them to do things is all things under the table. Just like what we do today, we can’t open them. Even if he pits us, they can only recognize them, but they can’t find them theory, or what they spread. “Mu Tian Song Tao is not so optimistic.

“The existence of the son, the vulture is not a year or two, and the contact method is not public. At least many people know. Why are there no famous people to annihilate them?” The head of the Yuan asked an irrelevant question. .

“What you said... it makes sense. Why?”

Mu Tian Song Tao arrogant and arrogant, in the end is still relatively smart. After the question was over, I immediately thought of the answer.

“What do you mean... everyone is deliberately blinding one eye?”

“Not bad! This kind of person like vulture is of course the role that our famous name casts. But the existence is reasonable, they can solve the trouble for others, there are some troubles under the table, the decent is not suitable, you can give it to this kind of people!”

The head of the yuan said with a smile: “To annihilate the vultures, it is very simple. It does not require many martial art families. It may be solved by arranging a few masters. But who knows that they will not be useful to them?”

Mu Tian Song Tao nodded: “It makes sense. When it is time to use it, it is too late to support it. So as long as you don’t get it, there is no big name. Maybe... the vulture is a code name!”

“Yes! Who is the vulture, maybe a lot of people are very curious, but for some people, that doesn’t matter, as long as there is a vulture like this. So even if the vulture mission fails, there will be other People are replaced by vultures.”

“In this case, we don’t have to worry that the vultures will hang up the stone. Because this is the business they do has reached a certain tacit business, want this business for a long time, must Obey unwritten rules.”

When Shen Lang heard this, it was also a bit of an accident. Some people have rivers and lakes, and there are killers in the rivers and lakes. But I did not expect that the killer characters like vultures were actually intentionally or unintentionally acquiesced.

But if you think about it, it is not an accident. The black and white road on earth since ancient times is the existence of balance. Some contemporary terrorists also have some consortiums and even state support.

Listening again, there is no nutrition. From the memory of the vultures, it is already certain that Mutian Songtao is the hiring person, just want to see what attitude they are after the people.

Now that I know, Mutian Songtao does not have any remorse or even concern. What he fears is that the vultures take the money and do nothing!

Shen Lang appeared at the door.

The sudden appearance of the shadow, so that both people are quiet. They looked at each other and the head of the unit carefully came to open the door.

Looking at the black man wearing a mask, the head of the Yuan was taken aback and was invited to enter.

After Shen Langmai stepped on, Mu Tian Songtao waved his hand and signaled the head of the Yuan to go out first.

He was contacted by the Yuan in charge of this matter, but after all, he was the boss, and the head of the Yuan was not qualified. The conversation was also face-to-face with him.

“Do you bring back good news?” Mutian Songtao just said, seeing him coming, of course, waiting for good news.

Shen Lang directly threw the three smashed bodies in front of him!

Mu Tian Song Tao was still sitting in the old god, suddenly threw a few bodies out, scared him, and suddenly stood up.

Chapter 1228 - Killing Tian Songtao

“You, you... What does this mean?” Mu Tiansong Tao asked nervously. Although he is an employer, his strength is not as good as people.

The person he wants to kill is just a smashing wave. He does not believe that the vulture will help him kill a few Jijia people, so this will not be the people of Shen Lang and Ji Jia.

Look closely at the three bodies with the same mask, obviously a vulture!

“Humph!”

Shen Lang has the memory of vultures, but he can't imitate his voice. He is also uncertain about how much Mutian Songtao is sensitive to the sound, so he just snorted. Not only expresses anger, but also does not need to say more, let him go to the brain to make up.

“Bad... Vulture, you can't blame me! I don't know what level he is. Besides, if it's just a small one, I can find someone to pick him up. As for finding you out?”

“You can spend a lot of money to ask you to go out. You should also pay attention to it. Now your people can't do it, they are killed by others, and come to me to settle accounts? I didn't ask you to refund the money.”

After Mu Tiansong's nervousness, he has responded with reasonable evidence.

What Shen Lang wants is that he said this!

Because the head of the yuan went out, but did not go far, still listening to the movement here.

If Mu Tiansongtao finds out that he is a fake, this play is not fun. Therefore, Shen Lang's cold cry is to let Mu Tian Song Tao explain the cause and effect.

If this is well-founded, of course, it is said to the outside of the head of the general manager, so that the head of the general manager who did not see the scene, know what happened.

“You lied about the information, the other party is a super strong, hurting me three brothers, I am also hurt myself! Must kill you!”

The purpose of Shen Lang has been reached, and it is not afraid that the speech will be revealed. Mu Tian Song Tao is only the peak of the gods. It is very easy for him to shut up.

“Wait and so on! I can compensate you for the loss!”

At the moment of life and death, where does Mutian Songtao think that a vulture is a fake, there is no point at all, thinking about how to protect himself.

“Lord vulture, how many Lingshi do you think can make up for your loss?”

He did something to compensate for the “vulture”, and then he took it out, but it was the one that was auctioned this morning!

“Hey...!”

According to the usage of Tianbao’s teaching, he immediately shot at Shen Lang!

Shen Lang evaded a few times, and then broke the door directly!

Mu Tiansong Tao used this gun, which is the last life-saving. He is not sure whether it has any effect. However, with the gunshots, the “vulture” had to evade a few times and had to break the door to escape.

This made him very excited, this magic weapon really works, it costs no less than one million!

“You are not killing me! Don’t run!”

He is very confident now, while he continues to shoot at the back, chasing it out.

When Shen Lang came out, the Yuanjun quickly hid in another yard and he did not dare to take risks. But I found that Murtian Songtao chased it out, and quickly rushed back, can't let the son take risks!

Mu Tiansong Tao rushed out, and as a result, there was no shadow of "vulture" in the yard. Then he found that the whole person was imprisoned and could not move.

At this time, the shadows flashed!

A spike took a shot from the night, the head of the Yuan who just turned over from another yard, watching it pierced into the throat of Mutian Songtao!

"Do not--!"

The head of the Yuan screamed, and regardless of his own comfort, quickly rushed over, but only had time to hug the fallen Mutian Songtao.

There are three vultures in the house, and the spikes that have just pierced the throat of Mutian Songtao are also weapons of vulture.

Just now, Shen Lang appeared as a vulture. At this point, the story of the vulture killing Mu Tian Song Tao has been successfully put forward.

In fact, according to the style of Shen Lang, since Mutian Songtao dared to buy and murder him, it would be ruthless to kill directly, and even destroy all the people of the Mutian family here.

But he came out from the Ji family and was ambushed by the vulture, so he also considered the Ji family.

In the meditation domain, he killed the emperor, and Mu Tianhai was the hand of Ji Qian.

Therefore, this time the cause was caused by the contradiction between him and Mu Tiansongtao's bidding. However, there was a conflict between Jin Daigu and Mu Tianzheng. Later, Mu Tianhai took many people to see and know the identity of Shen Lang.

Once in a while, there are problems many times. If you think of him killing them in the meditation domain, and then, according to him today, together with Ji Qiandao, you can contact the Mutian 沧海 who killed together with Ji's family...

Ji Qiang's impression is OK, today Ji Qiandao is more enthusiastic, Shen Lang does not want to because he has caused trouble to others.

So I will toss a little more, posing as a vulture and killing Mutian Songtao. The body was thrown here. This is the body of a real vulture member. The weapon is also a weapon of vulture. Just the Yuan still heard the ins and outs and saw how it died.

All in all, let the Mutian family point hatred to the vultures that are no longer there!

The head of the Yuan knows the cause and effect, so even if you want to take revenge, you can only admit the vulture to privately find vultures, but not open, which avoids the possibility of many fermentations for Shenlang, the three The body was thrown to Mu Tianjia to solve it. He just treated the vulture alone.

After getting it, Shen Lang went back to the inn.

Today's two auctions plus the entertainment of Ji Qiandao, it is a long time to come back later.

After returning to the room, Shen Lang had time to learn about today's income.

The first thing to look at is the heaven and earth domineering!

At the time of the Tianbao line, I looked at it roughly and had a familiar feeling, but I didn't know much about it.

Now take out this ancient secret and check it out one by one. From the meditation to the present, after a while, Shen Lang has better integrated the undead.

Since this world's domineering temperament has been discovered for hundreds of years, it has not been seen as a treasure collection, but sold out. It can be seen that no one has cracked its secrets, or has limited understanding. It feels that there is not much value, and it also sells a gimmick.

Looking at the above text in fact, it is very difficult to understand. It is impossible to understand it according to the reason, but it is not only understandable, but also very effective and can be quickly understood.

It was like when he got the iron bar. Although he didn't have any experience in the past, he naturally danced out of the stick and quickly got it.

Now it is the same, the words of this world are domineering, as if it is already in the depths of his mind, just forgot, and now, when you look at it, it touches back.

Looking at it, there was a feeling of being addicted, and then I went back and forth several times at a faster rate.

After reading it, Shen Lang closed his eyes, and all the content was integrated in his mind, with some new enlightenment.

Chapter 1229 - Overbearing practice

The enlightenment of Shen Lang is not just the undead!

This time through the world of domineering, he has got a two-way verification. On the one hand, it confirmed that the last devouring soul was the undead of the war priests; on the other hand, it also confirmed that this ancient secret is not a fake.

However, when I read it several times, I felt that when I was arrogant and arrogant, I could read and understand it quickly because of the relationship between the undead, and let him have a familiar feeling.

To put it simply, this world is domineering, and the "Yin and Yang Bozhenzhenzhen" created by Shen Lang's previous life has the same effect!

Before Shen Lang was able to break through the seventh weight, a large part of the reason was to rely on the sea people do not know how many years of cosmic energy accumulated. The more you go to the back, the more you rely on the energy of the heaven and earth universe. It is difficult to achieve that level of self-cultivation.

“Hao Ranzheng”, “Heaven and Man”, “Heaven and Earth, Xuanhuang Universe, Wasteland”, “The Thousands of Worlds, the Number of Rivers and Rivers”... His past life is a combination of the Confucianism, Taoism, and other factions, including the integration of various ideas. “Yin and Yang waves if true.”

The shackles of two thousand years ago, although not as extensive as he was involved in hunting, but also from the personal experience, explored the hegemonic method of refining the “Heaven and Earth” as his own use.

The heaven and earth domineering record is this cultivation method, very overbearing, in simple terms, it is to devour everything!

Shenlang is from small to large, from the aura in the surrounding air, to a large range, to the essence of the sun and the moon, to the universe of heaven and earth.

The trick is the opposite. He is big and small. Think of everything as the atmosphere of heaven and earth, and everything is done in heaven and earth.

To put it simply, Shen Lang uses the way of absorbing the energy of the universe to absorb all the energy, such as absorbing the aura of the surrounding space, absorbing a spiritual stone, and even absorbing one person.

Before the Shenlang was small and big, after getting used to the “big”, it was often difficult to accept the “small” because the speed and efficiency were much worse.

But now I use the idea of “the world is domineering”, killing chicken with a knife, and playing mosquitoes with anti-aircraft guns, there will be another efficiency!

Taking Lingshi as an example, suppose that the average person absorbs the elementary stone at a speed of one, the medium spirit stone is ten, and the upper spirit stone is one hundred. The Shenlang can achieve twice or several times the effect of the average person. But it is not that there is no aura inside, but it cannot be taken so fast.

If you use the “Tiandi domineering” approach, you may directly achieve a hundred times the effect!

The method of Shen Lang is of course very good, but the effect depends on the environment. In a general environment, speed is also limited. The last time it was so fast, it was the inventory that the Haizu had collected and accumulated for many years.

And like this mainland China, it is difficult to absorb the energy of the universe! The reason he certainly knows, because the entire mainland of the island is protected by a huge protective cover.

The technological civilization from other overseas continents cannot be landed in any way.

Perhaps because of this reason, let the aura not overflow, there is such a rich degree.

However, the original method of creating a similar effect to Shen Lang, but completely different ideas, should also be related to this big environment. Shen Lang is also, he would borrow from the universe of heaven and earth, because the earth’s aura is exhausted.

What was it like in the past, Shen Lang is now unknown. However, according to the style of heaven and earth, his cultivation speed is definitely faster than the average person. Because he does not need very precious resources, he can use the abundant ordinary resources such as the surrounding aura and Lingshi to surpass the effects of others.

After full digestion, Shen Lang took a fine stone directly.

After a little consideration, I took a class of elementary stone and a medium stone.

Then he began to hold the elementary Lingshi, trying to absorb it with the method of heaven and earth domineering – no, it should be regarded as engulfing the aura!

Because his predecessor itself has a very high realm, and it is the same, so understanding and comprehending the world is domineering, and now, after a few tries, the key is grasped.

When this overbearing method is displayed, the solid aura in the elementary stone is madly rushing to the sinking wave at almost visible speed!

It took only a while, and he directly took a primary stone and dried it into an ordinary stone.

This effect makes Shen Lang very satisfied, and does not need to try with the middle Lingshi and the fine Lingshi. Their aura is much more than the elementary stone, and the speed is much faster!

Of course, that is the year-on-year speed. Assuming that one elementary Lingshi is used for one year, and the medium Lingshi is assumed to be one hundred times, it does not mean that it is not used for one year, but not for one hundred years.

It is a waste to re-absorb the elementary stone and the medium stone in the realm of Shen Lang. It is best to directly absorb the Yuanling Stone, and secondly it is the superior Lingshi that is easier to obtain.

In this way, he now needs a lot of Yuan Lingshi. The Yuanling Stone that he owns is limited. He sells 100,000 pieces of accumulated medicinal materials, and 100,000 yuan of Bao Puzong's compensation. is used for the exchange of jade, and has spent four quarters. three.

Think of Shen Lang a little regret, how did you let go of the Ge Luting last night? Doesn't that kid have the dozens of Yuan Lingshi that Bao Zongli lured him?

Now even if you want to redeem, the inside of the jade plate is only about 30,000, and it is only three hundred yuan.

Shen Lang looked at the harvest tonight, and the blood of the real dragon, there is no way to see it, it must be bought. No matter who has a great effect, especially Dorothy, Lingshi and the like have no effect on her, which may help her evolution again.

Then it was the door of the Three Realms that took the biggest head. Because Lingshi came easy, Shen Lang didn't blink at the time. Now I realized that the importance of Yuanling Stone is a bit of a pain.

But since I bought it, I still hope that they will have a good effect!

The blood of the real dragon can't be verified. Once he has verified the service, he can't give Dorothy. He is not in a hurry to enter the space for her to take.

The door to the Three Realms is not convenient for experimenting in the inn.

It's just an introduction to Tianbao's bragging. It's just that there is a chance to open the door to space. Who knows what happens when there is no success. Who knows what it would be like to start successfully.

This thing can only be tested by one person to the wilderness.

This made Shen Lang a little bit sorrowful. He even pondered in the name of "vulture" and went to the Mutian family to rob them of their spiritual stone...

Vulture?

Was the vulture not only received the five thousand fine stones of Mutian Songtao? That can also be worth fifty yuan.

Shen Lang was excited again and began to look at the pockets of the vultures of several people.

Chapter 1230 - exchange

The vultures of the four people, he did not pull down, all collected. Just rushing to the Mutian family to act, before I have time to check.

Now take it out and take a closer look, and immediately smile.

Obviously, one plus three of the vulture combination is centered on the vulture boss, and the other three people are divided into parts after getting the benefits, and there is no more vulture alone.

However, the distribution of the items of the four people is almost the same.

They are not going to risk their own forbidden places, and naturally there will be no strange treasures.

As a killer, after killing, of course, the items will be taken away. But other people's things may not be suitable for themselves, and they may be recognized. Of course, they are best turned into spiritual stones.

As a killer, they are not likely to accept the exchange of jade, and they all receive "cash." Therefore, in addition to a few of their own collection of items, they are mainly Lingshi, and then some of the purchase of the auxiliary medicine.

There are more Lingshi, and in order to facilitate collection and carrying, there is also a Yuanling stone that is converted into a higher level.

Shen Lang has a little bit of it. The Yuanling Stone, which is added by four people, is about six hundred. Most of them are of course vulture bosses. The number of fine stone is also quite large, about 10,000.

Looking at the collection of items, I can't confirm that today's Mutian Songtao is a Yuan Lingshi or a fine stone.

Add up to more than 70,000 superior spirits, think about this is that they do not know how many years of murder and accumulation of goods. Let Shen Lang also be a bit embarrassed, or to take the right path!

Like Bao Puzong, you can easily take out 100,000. The 100,000 yuan that Shen Lang sold last time, about the harvest of their four martial arts families for about a month, and then let go of the harvest of 1234, and there are also about 20,000.

Then cut half of the number, if the vultures of the four groups of groups go to the forbidden land such as the Golden Mile, relying on collecting the spirit of the spirit or hunting the beasts, a month down, there are nearly 10,000 gains.

Although you can't stay in the forbidden place, there are all kinds of dangers, but it is better to be safer than to be a killer.

But people are gone, and there is nothing to say. Since the work of killing people and goods is to be done, it is necessary to be prepared to be killed.

After Shen Lang had all the inventory, he was ready to go to Luo fatzi to exchange Yuan Lingling, including these medicinal herbs, he did not need to sell them together.

After packing it up, he secretly felt that he had lost a vulture and they still had a lot of Lingshi, otherwise he might find another account for the Mutian family!

After all, Bao Puzong's disappeared last night, and it is estimated that the most valuable ones in the store have been cleaned up overnight. Shen Lang does not leave, they should not dare to open again.

Earth's heroes should still be in the city, perhaps today, they are also looking for the martial art of their ancestors!

Since Shen Lang has already let go, he will not take care of them.

When he got up the next morning, he checked out and left.

Heaven has already stayed almost, you can change a place.

Although Shen Lang is not afraid of Zhou Yu or even Zhou Yucun, but after all, there is no need to wait for a deadly battle. There is no need to wait for a strong enemy to fight for your life and death. You can find a place to practice for a while.

Like yesterday, the Shen Lang walking on the street is still very eye-catching. Everyone killed him and screamed at the sky.

This is not to admire his strength and courage, but to feel that his new born calf is not afraid of the young and arrogant of the tiger, will pay a heavy price.

When I came to the business again, Shen Lang was a bit embarrassed.

Two days ago, everyone just came here, and everything is different from now.

Although he did not have deep feelings for the 1 2 3 4, but think about their trust, all the way to loyalty to the table, still a little sad.

The people inside naturally recognized the Shen Lang, and immediately managed to go upstairs.

“I am looking for a general manager.”

“Yes, yes, please be here.” The management of the first floor is very respectful to him. He dare not ask if he has made an appointment with General Manager Luo.

However, he himself hastened to wink, so that the guys on the second floor will go up and report.

When he walked to the third floor, Luo Fatzi had come out of his room to meet the waves.

“Master Shen, I met again.” Luo Fatzi smiled warmly and held a fist.

After the two entered the house of Luo Fatzi, Luo Fatzi made tea for him, and he showed his hustle and bustle.

“Luo is still old. I heard the name of the surname on the previous day. I didn’t even think that you were the master of Shen Lang who was in the limelight in Tangcheng. Hey!”

Obviously, in the past two days, Luo Fatzi did another homework of the investigation and learned more about Shen Lang.

“General Luo loves it, I am so big. I have two things today...”

Shen Lang does not want to have so many sets, directly into the topic.

“Understand. We have already dealt with the issue of burial of the servant.” Luo Fatzi was prepared.

When he spoke, he took out a drawing and half of it was a map that marked the location of the cemetery. In addition, half of it is a picture of the cemetery. Although it does not achieve the effect of the photo, it is vivid and clear.

“Thank you. The cost...”

Shen Lang took over and seriously thanked him. In this respect, people have no such obligation and can help him deal with it. It really makes him worry.

Luo Fatzi was busy waving his hand: “The last time everyone has made friends, it is not a big deal to help a friend. – We are all very important and very grand, I mean the cost is small.”

He is still cautious and sensitive.

Shen Lang nodded, and these did not need to deal with Luo Fatzi personally, just looking for ordinary people to take charge, the cost really did not cost much, he did not insist.

“You said that there are two things to come today, and one more thing...?” Luo Fatzi asked the milk while he was teasing.

Shen Lang only said: “This is the case. I participated in the auction of Tianbaoxing yesterday, spent a little Lingshi, and also purchased a little something. Now I want to convert some of the spiritual stone into Yuanling Stone. I don’t know. Is your business convenient?”

“Although we advocate the exchange of jade to avoid the flow of Lingshi, but since it is requested by Master Shen, of course there is no problem. I don’t know how much you have to exchange?”

Luo Fatzi smiled and agreed, and this expression expressed his attitude – originally there is no such business, this is to give you face, but also expressed their wealth.

Shen Lang is also not polite, directly said: “About 40,000, there are some medicinal herbs that are not used, and sold together.”

“no problem.”

The day before yesterday, Shen Lang took away 90,000 fine stones from here. Yesterday morning, Tianbao’s counter-bar has spread. Shen Lang did not consume much, plus other purchases, it is estimated that there are still 80,000.

Now I have to redeem 40,000, which has already made him relax a lot. After further confirming that Shen Lang needs to be exchanged for 30,000, the other is 10,000 yuan of Lingshi exchange, he is more relaxed. After all, the finest stone of the real thing is more practical than the “big amount” of Yuan Lingshi.
