

First Strong 123

Chapter 123 - Receiving cure

Before the desolation, she was a female sword fairy. Even if she was only called or claimed to be a sword fairy, it was enough to show that her realm was not low.

It is a shame for her to become a slave now. But compared with existence, this is still acceptable. After all, people need to exchange for the same price. Her practice, her treasure, others are not in the eye, what else?

After the confirmation, Shen Lang directly used the gods to mark her god, which made the two people have a affiliation. If she wants to kill the waves, she will first encounter a counterattack, and Shen Lang will take her life, but it is only a matter of thought.

And if Shen Lang encounters an accidental death, she will vanish!

This is similar to the time when the scams were confusing, but it would be more troublesome to show them with real people. It's not worth the pain to save the mind. Now it is easy to do this very weak god.

For the bleak, it is completely an unequal condition, but there is no way. She was already in a weak position, and others had to destroy her, of course, to guard against her.

After being branded as a slave, Shen Lang did not communicate with her so much, and she did not lack her exercises or treasures. She was sealed directly in the body, and then she was given a vitality to nourish her.

Now her  is too weak to do anything big. If you want to be able to use it for me, you must first fatten the horse.

After the seal, she was allowed to cultivate and restore herself. It will not affect Shen Lang, of course, she is even less likely to understand the thinking of Shen Lang.

After handling it, Shen Lang checked the situation of Yue Baichuan again.

There is no such cold ice in the brain, no Yuanshen absorbs his vital nutrients. In essence, the root cause of the disease has gone. The rest is to treat him well, and then the cultivation is restored.

This can be handed over to Yue Bailun, but save the people to save the end, Shen Lang did not say anything, directly injected into the vitality, will restore the brain damage of Yue Baichuan, by the way, some organ functions that have been lying for two years of necrosis have also been repaired.

After he finished, Yue Baichuan, who had been a vegetative person for more than two years, slowly opened his eyes.

“You are...what is this place...” He slowly saw the deep waves, and faintly saw the room like a ward, but the general ward was not so big.

“You are fine.”

Shen Lang pressed the bell next to the bed.

“I... How long have I been in a coma?” Yue Baichuan asked again, he thought of Shen Lang as a doctor, and thought he was in a coma for a while.

“Maybe more than two years! I don’t know, you will ask them directly later.” Shen Lang shrugged.

“Two years?” With a simple conversation, Yue Baichuan’s thoughts began to clear a bit, and it was a little unbelievable to hear that he was in a coma for two years.

Yue Gang and Yue Bailun both left under the request of Shen Lang, but they were waiting outside. When they heard the ringing, they almost made three steps and opened the door in two steps.

“Mr. Shen, is there anything... Father!”

Yue Gang originally wanted to ask if there was a problem. I didn’t expect to come in and see that my father was awake!

His father and son were in love, and they couldn't take it with Shen Lang's politeness and flew directly to the bedside.

Yue Bailun is also very excited at this moment.

Because he took care of him for two years, he is more aware of his brother's situation. Not only him, but all Chinese and Western doctors are useless. He really does not believe that Shen Lang can have a way.

Even if the strength of Shen Lang is strong, it is not likely to be a versatile omnipotent. Even if it is a versatile, the age is limited.

But after two years, they have also used various methods to determine that there is no better way. Therefore, he will not question whether the dead horse is alive.

Just let Shen Lang be alone, not personally watching, he is a bit uneasy, so just waiting outside.

I didn't expect how long it would take, but it's not an accident, but my brother has woken up!

"Thank you! Mr. Shen is really a young master, is our Yue family benefactor!" Yue Bailun replaced Yue Gang, sincerely thanked Shen Lang.

Shen Lang nodded. "His crux has been eradicated, but after all, he has been lying for more than two years. The body is already very weak. For the rest, there is no need for me to say more. I believe Yue Lao is more clear."

Seeing that his brother woke up, Yue Bailun was very excited, no matter what, at least a big breakthrough. When I heard that Shen Lang said that the crux has been eradicated, the rest is really a small problem.

"Thank you, thank you!" Besides, everything else is superfluous. As for the reward, Yue Gang has already made a decision, so Yue Bailun simply bowed to Shen Lang.

Yue Gang at the bedside also confirmed their conversation after confirming that his father really woke up. This is also a thank you.

When he was a young man, he saw that the old father of eighty was saved. At this moment, he was a bit old and tearful.

“You don’t have to be polite with me. You take care of him, I am leaving.”

“Well, OK, Da En does not say thank you, Yue family has no teeth to forget. I will let Zhennan send you!”

At this moment, Yue Gang was really anxious to understand his father’s situation. He thought that with Shen Lang, he could only continue to thank him, and he chose to let Yue Zhennan send it.

Having said that, Yue Bailun personally sent Shen Lang out of the door, and Yue Zhennan and several other young children were waiting outside. When they saw them, they immediately greeted them.

“Mr. Shen!” The young Yue family, both of whom respected the luggage. They have seen the waves that have been seen this evening, and they are all very admired.

Shen Lang nodded and didn’t say much to them.

Yue Bailun has already sung with Yuezhen Nan, let him drive Shen Lang.

Yue Zhennan immediately agreed.

Busy till now, you can finally have a free time. But in fact, from time to time, whether it is to clean up five sects, or to treat Yue Baichuan, it has not been used for a long time, it is not too late.

Yue Zhennan soon drove over, and after picking up the Shen Lang, the two of them left, and he had a share.

“Thank you very much tonight, if it’s not a brother, you...” When I got the car Yue Gang had called him and told him that Yue Baichuan had been awake and let him More grateful. “It’s really a matter of how he can, I don’t know what kind of virtues I have accumulated in my life, I can know you like a friend.”

“Okay, you have all said thank you, but also give me a billion, and stocks. If you thank me, I will be embarrassed.” Shen Lang coped.

Listening to his tone, not high, or treating himself as a friend, let Yue Zhennan be very happy, immediately put down the burden, correct the attitude, worship can, but can not look up, so that can not be friends.

“That... Langge, you have worked hard. I will take you to the restaurant in Pingxi, then take a bath in the most upscale bathroom, and then by the way...” Yue Zhennan said, while picking up the waves Eyebrows, giving a man a tacit smile.

Shen Lang directly eyes! “Take a good car and send me back.”

In order not to let him seduce him to the occasion of the feast, he simply looked at the phone and checked WeChat. Although it was turned on before, it didn't look much.

As a result, I saw a lot of messages in the class, and Jianghe and others privately believed that he was spreading a news!
