

First Strong 1251

Chapter 1251 - If you win, run?

Recently, Weiyangzi and others, as well as people who are watching more and more people in the distance, are a bit stunned.

In just a short while, with Zhou Wei, whose son wants to escape, it is finished!

Zhou Shaojun will be killed by Shen Lang. This is what Wu Weizi can guess, and even the intention to promote this kind of possibility. This is beneficial for him and will not lose anything.

However, Zhou Hao himself was killed, that is a big problem, directly affecting his layout.

Just the situation just now, it can be said that the speed is very fast, so that he did not have time to react, and the dust has settled. At this time, if you still want to save Zhou Wei, you will only let yourself enter the passive – now the top is the field of Shen Lang.

Mu Tianyu and Mu Tianchu two, after seeing the scene just now, in my heart, I admire Tian Songtao is really a guy who is not enough to make a mistake. For such an enemy, why bother to provoke it?

Now, let's drag the Mutian family directly into it...

Looking around the forest garden, it was deeply shocked.

In the previous scene, they all had a new belief that the leapfrog is also possible!

Generally speaking, the gap at the level of the realm is almost insurmountable, so in the face of an opponent who is higher than his own realm, he will not go to desperately.

But today, the way they fight, let everyone see hope.

They are not as good as Zhou Wei's realm. However, if everyone cooperates well, they can also come up with a "smashing one by one". This is to divide Zhou Qi's peak and half cents into multiple copies.

Therefore, several of their girls are not Zhou's opponents, but two or three people will be able to control if they deal with him. Bloodletting through the wound is also a process that can be used to weaken each other's strength.

Of course, this is still risky. If your strength is not enough and the enemy is strong enough, you will have to kill you before you have finished bleeding.

It's just that their method seems to be very fast...

Hands, legs, and a week are divided into four parts. It is easier to deal with one hand and one leg than the whole. It is also the same for other enemies.

This is the harvest of masters, even if this level of confrontation, it is not that they can easily see through, and the speed is quickly resolved, but still can give you inspiration.

Everyone has a new perspective on the expectations of Shen Lang.

Originally, he felt that he was a young man, and he was able to attract so many powerful people to besiege. It is enough to stay in the history of the Qing Dynasty. It is worthwhile to die.

Now Lin Huan has announced his withdrawal, and Zhou Wei has been killed. There is still a problem left in the semi-Xianfeng peak, it is not an impossible task.

As for what Wan Jianliu has to do, the last time Shen Lang can transform into a giant to make them fall into the water, now needless to say.

Now that Shen Lang has not turned into a giant, he has already shown his style by relying on an iron bar. If you become a giant, with that huge iron rod, Weiyang is not an opponent.

Under the shock of everyone, Zhou Wei's ending came out.

I saw Shen Lang and others scattered around him, and Zhou Wei's body began to fall.

The contemporary head of the heavenly gate, the half of the peak, has now become very convertible, the legs below the waist are frozen and stiff, while the upper body is very dry, without a trace of blood.

Zhou Shaojun on his back was already flattened by a stick. After Zhou Hao lost control, he had already fallen down. Now it is his own body.

Everyone watched Zhou Wei fall to the ground, and then after the frozen legs touched the ground, they immediately shattered into countless hail, leaving the remaining half of the body without the arm.

This situation directly makes everyone feel a hair.

This swell is really extraordinary!

Before Zhou Shaojun and others, many people have seen it. What happened in the park of Bao Puzong was also rumored to be rumored, and the king's beastly form, which was not mentioned by Wei's son, added a mysterious and strange color.

Just now, Mu Tianyu said that the investigation has been made clear. It is Shen Lang who killed Mu Tian Song Tao in the name of vulture. In this way, it was not three vultures that were killed by the sun, but the leaders including the vultures were killed, and then Murong Songtao was killed in the name of vultures.

Vultures are a kind of special existence, and they have gotten a lot of big powers, one eye closed, but for the average person, the professional killer like vulture is still unwilling to provoke, and there is a little A fierce, unscrupulous style.

As a result, even the professional killer was easily killed by Shen Lang!

It's even more incredible now, even the peaks and half of the celestial beings have been killed by Shen Lang.

Weiyangzi's secret voice has smashed Wan Jian's two people and prepared for the preparations.

Just so quickly killed Zhou Wei, unexpectedly, but also let him begin to pay attention.

Although rationally unwilling to believe that Shen Lang can make a big leap in seven days, in reality, Shen Lang must have improved. Zhou Wei must have eaten the loss of the enemy, so he lost an arm.

Weiyangzi still has confidence, but before the Wanjian stream was smashed by the waves, now it is directly killed.

Originally today's main force, Lin Huan withdrew, Zhou Hao died, leaving him alone, which caused his pressure to increase.

Mu Tianyu two, he will not care so much life and death are other people's home, Wan Jianliu two are their own teachers, you can not lose.

Weiyangzi also decided to adjust the strategy, focusing on the Huairou policy. Anyway, his attitude has changed and he has proposed peace talks. As long as Shen Lang is willing to talk, it will be a big deal to give 100,000 and 200,000 Lingshi!

The attraction of opening up a world is too great!

Although according to the memory of Ge Luting, it is a barren world, but the world has billions of ordinary people, and in the near future it may even reach 10 billion.

As long as these people are used up, it is also an inestimable wealth.

In comparison, Bao Puzong, who sells medicinal herbs, has a lot of Lingshi.

Before, he felt that he was stable. But now, at this time, I feel that safety is the first priority. If I can't take risks, I will still solve it!

As a result, he was preparing for the speech, but he did not say anything. Shen Lang and his party suddenly flew away from the yellow building!

What's happening here?

It's just that Shen Lang has killed Zhou Wei. When the momentum is booming, shouldn't it be pursued by victory?

Even Weiyangzi is ready to show weakness and seek peace. As a result, Shen Lang has taken people to escape?

Was it just what diarrhea broke out? How long can it last?

Other people who look at the excitement are also amazed. I don't know what it is like.

However, they are now daring to start talking and have time to discuss. In the forest garden, I quickly left.

And some of the faster speeds are followed by the direction of Shen Lang, watching the show to see a full set.

Mu Tianyu and Mu Tianchu were secretly relieved, and they were the most stressed!

“not good!”

Weiyangzi quickly reacted!

Chapter 1252 - 砸店

Wuyangzi's thoughts on the electric turn, with the various waves and waves that Shen Lang set off in Tiandu, this kid basically has to eat other people, including the auction, but also to make the delegation of Mutian Songtao.

Only when he and Zhou Wei took the lead to control him, he disappeared invisibly. But it only took seven days to bear, and it was killed.

Such a young and energetic figure is impossible to escape when he has the upper hand.

Since it is not to run away, then Shen Lang's words will leave without saying a word, and there must be more important things.

He came to the forest garden to kill Zhou Shaojun, and the purpose has now been reached. What else is important?

As a result, Weiyangzi immediately understood it.

Just now he took the earth monks to threaten the Shen Lang, then the Shen Lang must be going to save people!

Shen Lang did not know where the earth monks were locked, and they were eager to leave. What else could they be?

It must be to go to the business of Park Zong, hold the site of Park Zong, grab the things of Park Zong, and grab the people of Park Zong!

The last time Wan Jianliu was worried about this, so after being smashed out, he dared not go back and could not attend the life and death of Jinghai and others. Then quickly rushed the merchant's valuable medicinal drugs, and then snored, the next day is directly closed.

However, after Weiyangzi came, he had already reopened. He also highly recognized the decision of Wanjianliu.

Losing a few days of performance, nothing at all, the sign can not be damaged. If the business is directly smashed and even hurts the customer, it will be difficult to have a chance to turn over.

Now, this crisis has appeared in front of him!

If Wan Jianliu can prevent this from happening, he personally sits on the town, but this big problem has happened. Then he is the sinner of Bao Puzong, who is to be regarded as a model of shame by generations.

So after he thought of this layer, he screamed and didn't have time to talk to other people and flew away.

Wan Jianliu and another Bao Puzong, although slightly slower, but after the reaction of Weiyangzi, also guessed this direction, and quickly followed.

Mu Tianyu and Mu Tianchu both looked at each other.

They had come to help, and prepared to beat the sinking dog. The result turned out to be soy sauce, there was no point in their speech, and Shen Lang didn't even look at them.

However, from the situation of Zhou Wei, although there is no face, so good to live, with their strength, it is estimated that they will be killed faster!

Now they have ran away, they have to keep up?

After a little hesitation, the two people quickly followed up!

In any case, the stronger the enemy of Shen Lang, the more they need to know more. However, after following the past, they did not dare to rush to the front.

This will let Bao Puzong take the lead! Anyway, Weiyang is very strong!

Others who watched the excitement had not figured it out yet, but they saw that Weiyangzi's reaction was striking and immediately guessed.

"I understand! Shen Lang must have taken people to copy the old nest of Bao Puzong!"

"What old nest? Didn't it be destroyed by him last time?"

"It should be a new home."

"What is the house? The purpose of Shen Lang is definitely the business of Bao Puzong!"

“Yeah! That is the place where the medicinal herbs are piled up, and the Lingshi is like a running water. If you kill it there, it will be a blow to Weiyangzi!”

While talking about it, they also dared to watch the excitement while grasping the speed.

Since the formation of the center street, it has been quite history. After several expansions and renovations, the big pattern has remained unchanged. Few latecomers can squeeze in, and Bao Puzong is also an old name.

And all the old names there, even if they have closed down, are also martial art, family decline, is the decline of years, decades, and will not suddenly close.

It can even be said that there has never been a business bank that has been smashed by a signboard.

Today, will this historic first time occur?

Everyone thinks that they are excited. Anyway, it is not their own shop, nor is it a friend's shop. If you don't feel bad, it will be a witness to history! It's not too big to watch the excitement, and it's hard to get better and better. Too small is not a history.

Shen Lang is indeed such an idea!

Since Weiyangzi said that the earth monk had said something, he must have been arrested. That is, everyone is scattered, not necessarily arrested, or Qiao Yuxian and others may leave here, but all have nearly a hundred!

Among them are the defensive capabilities, and the Pope and the Archbishop of Paul. Others simply don't need to be out of the way, and Wan Jianliu can catch everyone, let alone the “ball traitor” leading party of Ge Luting, and it is easier to catch people.

However, dozens of them will certainly be imprisoned in a reliable place, and Ji Qiandao may not know it here.

Shen Lang now does not directly talk about conditions with Wei Yangzi. He directly took people to kill Bao Zong's business.

Not a threat!

The other monks did not have any direct relationship with Shen Lang. The insiders of the firm were all disciples of Bao Puzong. Kill each other directly to see who cares more!

Bao Puzong's business house is a prominent place in the center of the street. Ji Qiandao has already been marked on the map of Shenlang.

This street has been walking a few times. When I went to the auction, I closed it including the people who went to Luo Fatzi later, they passed them.

So now take a few of them, Shen Lang is going straight to the destination!

What he just wanted was the effect of the raid, so nothing was said, everyone left quickly.

In fact, from the past, the distance is not very far, so it is possible to quickly gather a lot of people to see the excitement.

Under the full force of Shen Lang, the average person is almost impossible to see clearly, everyone has maintained the fastest speed of short-range flying.

Among them, Shen Lang is the fastest, then Dorothy.

When Shen Lang came to the center of the street, there were not as many guests on the street at the moment. Obviously, the news on the side of Linyuan was spread, and the sound of the collision between the sky and the iron bar made many people curious.

However, the guys of various commercial banks can't close the door to watch the fun, and everyone still has to continue to open the door to do business.

The place where Shen Lang landed was directly on the top of Bao Pu's business.

He has taken the iron rod out of his hand and smashed it straight from the roof!

“All the guests and passers-by listened, and Shen Lang and Bao Zong’s grudges, and everyone did nothing, please do not go out!”

The scope of his opening is not too big, or else the entire house can be directly smashed. Now just open a big hole, let him land, and give the guests inside time to leave.

His iron rod, directly from the top to the ground of the first floor, seems to have set a big pillar to come in.

When there was a noise in the store, Shen Lang was swept away and went straight to a room on the third floor.

Like Luo Fatzi, there is also a special house similar to the “insurance”, with three layers of protection inside and outside.

Chapter 1253 - Ring finger 1 half

“who are you?”

“stop!”

The iron bars that Shen Lang just picked up, but also the sound, made the guests in the store nervous, but apart from being wandering, they will leave quickly, and some are trading, they are still waiting to see what is going on.

The third floor he went to was the top priority of the business, and immediately there was a manager in the store.

“roll!”

With a wave of swaying, all of them were shackled and then rolled on the ground.

He came directly to the front of the “insurance”. To open such a vault, there must be a method, and violence cannot be opened.

But that is only theoretical, if the violence is strong enough to a certain extent... such as the existence of the dead water whip!

In the hands of Shen Lang, there has been a dead water whip. Under the rapid waving, the “safety warehouse” was quickly cut out of a door. All kinds of prohibition protections were completely disintegrated under the corrosion ability of the dead water whip.

There are a lot of medicinal herbs in stock, and it seems that Bao Puzong is the most valuable remedy.

Shen Lang was not polite, and all the intake was collected.

At this time, Dorothy and others also arrived, and quickly controlled the second floor of the second floor.

Those guests, after discovering that they were really not right, did not dare to stay again and ran out.

The voice just made a lot of noise, so that people around and other businesses on the other side, after hearing it, ran out to see the excitement.

“Shen Lang is not in the forest garden? How come to Bao Puzong here?”

“Are they not enemies? Just as there was a news of Shenlang, Bao Puzong’s Weiyangzi immediately took people over!”

“Now Shen Lang has been killed, is it not that they have already...”

“Don’t talk nonsense! It makes people feel trouble when they hear you.”

The outside is still talking about it. Weiyangzi has already come to the air. He falls directly from the hole in the roof and falls down.

The man has not arrived yet, and the voice has already come.

“Shen Lang! You give me out!”

Looking at the business bank was opened a big hole, Weiyangzi is very unhappy.

Shen Lang is out, and when he just landed from the Great Cave to the third floor, he has already attacked from below!

At this moment, Shen Lang used the heaven and earth to be aggressive, waving iron bars in his hand, directly from below, and forced the Weiyang to fly to the top.

“What do you want to do? They are all business people, treasurers, all innocent people!”

Two people fell on the roof, and Weiyang immediately yelled loudly.

“There has never been such a destruction and injury to your buddies and guests! You are going to be an enemy of the entire Tiandu City. Do you want to be enemies with all business?”

He still deducts the hat very much. He directly smashes the damage of Shen Lang to Bao Pu’s business. It is said to be a gang, a harm to the guests. These are all vulnerable groups, innocent people, it is easy to stimulate the sympathy of passers-by.

Moreover, it is a kind of bundling to say that it is necessary to compete with Tiandu City and other business partners.

As a Weiyangzi, you don’t need the help of others. These busy passers-by can’t help. All he needs is paradox!

When it is necessary to let the outside world spread out, Bao Puzong is a vulnerable group that is being bullied. If he does what he wants, even if it is a mean and shameless means, others can understand it.

In the same way, this is also to give Shen Lang a little scruples, let him hesitate, you can delay a little more time.

At that time, if other business people are willing to come out to preside over justice, they don't need to take it out personally. Everyone can put pressure on Shen Lang.

However, Shen Lang did not care at all. He did not need to develop in the sky, and he needed to pay attention to their unwritten conventions.

“Less nonsense! No one will be in front of you, your business is finished, and there will be other people to seize the market!”

When Shen Lang spoke, he waved the iron bar in his hand and directly broke the roof out of the broken mouth.

“A total of twenty-three people!”

There is a voice that has been sent back and killed. It is the statistics of the wind.

Shen Lang knows that Weiyangzi is very fast, and will not catch up with it for a long time. So after staying here and tidying up everything in the “insurance”, he will meet up immediately.

Just before the central child delayed the time, in fact, Shen Lang is also delaying the time, or else will not listen to him nonsense.

Several of their girls were also very strong. Under the cooperation of each other, they quickly controlled the situation and had already counted the number of Bao Puzong.

“Twenty-three? A little bit less! These people killed, don't you know if you care? Hey-! Maybe you don't care, you don't see them anyway.”

Shen Lang looked at him with a sly look. “I am making a ring finger now. I will kill them halfway immediately. Do you think we dare?”

Weiyangzi's face has become very serious.

He certainly believes that Shen Lang dare!

The head of Nima Chaotianmen said that he would do it. What do you dare to do with the management guys of Bao Puzong?

But even if Zhou Wei is the head of the Chaotianmen, it is the peak of the half, it is also someone else. There are more deaths and no direct relationship with him. And these are the people of Bao Puzong!

Now it has greatly affected the reputation of the commercial bank. There are more and more people on the street, and many more are coming over.

If he ignores his own life and death, let alone the business, the entire reputation of Bao Puzong is paralyzed! I have encountered something as a master, even my own disciples are no matter, can they manage the guests?

Have you ever been attacked, and you are still the kind of business that responds to this attitude, who dares to come? If you don't encounter problems, what if you?

In that case, others will only come to them to buy the drug in one situation, that is, no other family can find a substitute. Such a business will plummet and the millennium reputation will be destroyed.

Weiyangzi can't afford this wicked person. This is not his personal family business. It is the foundation of the generation of teachers. It is also an important source of resources for maintaining Bao Puzong's prosperity.

"How many Lingshi do you want this time?" Weiyangzi asked quietly.

Shen Lang saw that Weiyangzi was still playing with his eyes. He wanted everyone to think that he was trying to extort the stone of Baozong, and immediately said one.

"Kill three!"

"it is good!"

Although they don't have much experience in killing people, the current situation is very clear. If they can't be tough, they will be cleaned up by the other side. Not to mention the fact that Bao Puzong's plan is the entire earth world. This is an enemy that cannot be softened.

"Wait a minute, wait a minute!" Weiyangzi quickly slammed and stopped. "The people you want are not here, I will take you to let them go now!"

"Hey! Go and let the people who caught me go! Bring it here, one less, I will kill you who holds Park! You don't care if you want to kill them, then everyone will kill!"

Shen Lang pointed at Weiyangzi and drank it.

Seeing the excitement knows that they have grudges, and thought that Shen Lang is coming to avenge. Hearing now, I know that the original Weiyang had arrested Shen Lang's people. Then everyone remembered that Shen Lang had a lot of followers. When he ran, other people would definitely not be able to run. They were all caught.

Chapter 1254 - Dorothy's strength

Of course, Weiyangzi is very unwilling. Now the strength of Shenlang has increased greatly. If the hostages are released, he will not be sure to fix the waves.

But now they are on the roof, there are a lot of people watching the streets below, and more people are coming together, everyone is watching his position.

The person who was supposed to save Parkong now knows that he is the "following" of Shen Lang, and he cannot prevail in public opinion.

"what--"

A scream came from below!

Shen Lang hit a ringing finger. The following has killed a person who holds Bao Puzong. The living hostage has become twenty-two.

"You wait!"

Wuyangzi said with anger, and then flew away.

People are Bao Puzong. If you die, you can afford it. When you die, you will have a big impact.

Wan Jianliu and the other one, also followed the Weiyangzi, but the speed is a little slower. When they saw that they were facing each other on the roof, the two men landed in the back street ahead of time, did not come directly, want to see if they can ambush in the dark.

Now that Weiyang has gone, the two of them are a little nervous.

Stay here again, in case Shen Lang directly attacked them, with both of them, it is impossible to stop.

But if you sneak up and ran like this, it's too embarrassing, and it's not easy to explain it to Weiyangzi.

Just as they were tangled, they suddenly saw a girl appear in front of them.

This beautiful girl, they have an impression at first glance, that is, the blood that used to take Zhou Wei's blood and turn him into a dry body!

Dorothy just got the instructions of Shen Lang, pierced directly from the back wall, and quickly rushed to the back of the two of them.

Looking at the crowds of people, it is in the center of the street in front, and the streets behind them are two of them.

"You don't want to mess around! Our uncle has already gone to bring people over!"

Wan Jian's body was half a fairy. It was originally very powerful, but it was scared by Shen Lang on the same day. That iron rod flew him far away, although it did not hang, but the injury is also unclear, these days are taking Ling Dan nursed back to health.

The other one came along with Weiyangzi and did not have the experience to fight.

Although I just saw the play of Dorothy and Zhou Wei during the First World War, it seems to him that it is more of the six people who work together and take advantage of Zhou's son's weakness, which alone does not have much power. .

“Little girl, who are you in the waves? He cares so much about ordinary followers, and you should pay attention to them too!”

In addition, the one showed a smile, and then a look at Wan Jianliu, let Wan Jian flow together, ready to take Dorothy as a hostage!

If they can seize an important hostage threatening to let go, it is really a great achievement.

Dorothy did not say anything to them. At the moment when both of them had a heart attack, she directly took the lead!

Although Wan Jianliu was a bit worried, but in the end, it was still a deep wave. For a girl in Dorothy, she still felt that the lethality would not be too great. So he also cooperated with the action and was ready to catch Dorothy.

As a result, the two of them had not had time to take the shot, and they found that the figure of Dorothy has arrived!

The two of them stood together, so Dorothy came directly to them, and both hands opened, attacking both of them at the same time.

Wan Jianliu was seriously injured by Shen Lang nine days ago. Even if he took the medicine, he did not heal, and the impulsiveness was weak and the preparation was not enough. At this time, Dorothy's attack made him too late to dodge. The throat was immediately crossed by fingers!

The other one did not have these problems, so it was also going to avoid Dorothy's blow, which surprised him.

However, seeing the current situation of Wan Jian, he did not dare to neglect, and quickly attacked it in madness. Otherwise, Wan Jianliu will certainly be sucked up by the blood!

The three of them are now close combat, whether it is the manipulation of the field or the use of spells, it is too late.

Purely relying on the strength and speed of the flesh, that is the advantage of Dorothy.

At the moment for both of them, she actually did one hand, while grabbing the neck of Wan Jianliu, taking his blood, and quickly slamming the other half of the fairy.

Poor guys thought that this was a girl. How could two people get together? I didn't expect to lose the opportunity when I saw it, not only lost the flow of Wan Jian, but also let myself be beaten.

After a while, this half of the fairy was beaten by the Dorothy punch and fell to the ground.

Nowadays, Dorothy has reached the level of the semi-Xianfeng peak, and has captured the blood of a lot of masters and beasts, especially the blood of the king, and the evolution of "ten years" has been very powerful.

Now it is the addition of dragon blood. After the evolution of "two years", she has the power of a real dragon!

The man thought it was a soft persimmon, but it was actually the hardest among the girls.

With her physical superiority, she can only control the distance through the spells and the field. Once she is close, it is the peak and the half of the Zhou Yi.

The recent round of attacks was like a storm, so that the man could not be overwhelmed, the speed was fast, and the strength was strong, which made him a little doubtful about life. Is this a half-denial duel? Is this a girl's style? How is it like a barbarian?

However, he has already realized the gap. It is definitely not good to go on. After all, the other side is holding a sword and dealing with him with one hand. If he is full, he may be worse.

Therefore, he decisively gave up the flow of Wan Jian, and prepared to flee first, so that Wu Weizi uncle could save people.

However, Dorothy has not given him the opportunity to escape!

At the moment he just fell to the ground, he had already found a hole in his waist, and then the blood was absorbed strongly, and the resistance could not be stopped!

The next moment, Dorothy had already reached him, stepping on his body, as if it were a mountain, directly suppressing him.

“Don’t... don’t ***** my blood...” He began to get nervous.

Dorothy lifted her foot and stepped on his head and stunned him.

Fortunately, the crowds watching the lively are all on the center of the street. No one has seen it behind. Otherwise, the scene of this battle will be rumored.

The two of them will be said to be the most half-sacred!

Although Zhou Wei is very surprised to die, it is also a strong attack of more than six and a half cents.

But just two of them, as a half-cent, but mad by a girl, even directly stunned the past, it is a joke to say it.

Dorothy stopped taking their blood.

Wan Jianliu is a neck injury, not a throat cut, but a blood vessel. Like the other one, Dorothy’s bloodletting on them is partly because it is her “resources” and on the other hand, it is to weaken their strength.

But they did not kill them directly.

There are 22 personalities in the business, except for a few of them who act as guards, and more are disciples who are talented and not very good at doing business.

Therefore, in terms of value, they affect the future of the business, and have no effect on the entire Bao Puzong.

However, Wan Jianliu and this person are half-scented, and that is the core member of the mainstay. The effect of the hostage is of course better.

Confirming that both of them were under control, Dorothy took them both to the roof.

Besides, although the battle situation in the back is very short, it has not caused more attention, and because Shen Lang is attracting everyone's attention on the roof!

"Friends of Heavenly Kingdom, I still remember that you all came to remember that just seven days ago, Bao Puzong's master of Weiyangzi was not swearing, and I robbed them of hundreds of thousands of Lingshi and medicinal herbs. It's the king's fierce beast-like adult shape, which makes everyone feel guilty and even panic against me, and it has a terrible impact on my personal reputation!"

"I am not a stingy person, if he just ruined me. That's it, the dog wants to mad at me, can I go back madly? Isn't that the same with him?"

"But Weiyangzi is even more insidious. In order to force me out, in order to catch me, he grabbed dozens of my friends and friends!"

"The disaster is not to the family, let alone the friend. Even if the Mutian family is another shameless person, Mutian Songtao, because the auction will raise the bar, hire a vulture to kill me That is already mean and shameless Extremely great, but he hasn't started to deal with my friends, or deal with me personally!"

“Weiyangzi is much shameless than Mutian Songtao. So, do you think I should kill their business? Anyway, this stigma has already taken on seven days, and it may have been spread to the whole country in China. I Do you still have to endure?”

Shen Lang’s “talking speech” is on the one hand to explain the cause and effect to the public, and to fight for public opinion, just like Weiyangzi. On the other hand, it also helped Dorothy to cover up, so that she can calmly solve the swords and flow them without being disturbed by the onlookers.

Everyone has been almost gossip these days, knowing that Shen Lang did not tell lies, and now it is adding a new material for kidnapping Shen Lang’s partner as a hostage, and just now, he admitted that he was attacked by Mutian Songtao’s vulture.

Mu Tian Song Tao was desecrated. Of course, Mu Tian, who was following in the crowd, was envious of Tian Chu, but he did not dare to come out to defend.

At this time, Dorothy carried the Wan Jianliu and the two fell on the roof.

“Look at this person, there are some friends who should know that the person in charge of Bao Puzong here is Wan Jianliu.”

Shen Lang grabbed Wan Jianliu and woke him up.

“You will talk about it, did I kill you alone that day? I asked for a stone and a remedy from you?”

Wan Jian lost too much blood, just being woken up, and a little confused, instinctive response. “No... but...”

His “but” has just been said, and Shen Lang will not let him talk.

“Have you heard it? Wan Jianliu admitted that I didn’t kill them alone. I didn’t ask for a spiritual stone from him. A remedy. It’s too shameless!”

Chapter 1255 - Playing local tyrants

“Really! Weiyangzi is also a well-known predecessor, and he has repeatedly lied, not a bit.”

“This is not a lie, it is a public opinion to suppress others! You see that Shen Lang was the human form of the king, so that everyone fears and fears.”

“So, this is called the old tycoon! It is said that people have plundered hundreds of thousands of Lingshi medicinal herbs and criticized you morally; said that it is the king’s savage beast, and emotionally isolates you, of course everyone supports him!”

“After all, I have also caught other people’s partners and threatened. I am a sinking wave. If I am so embarrassed, I will be furious.”

A few words of Shen Lang have already brought back the public opinion again. Everyone feels that Weiyang is not kind.

Originally, even if I really think so, no one dares to openly support Shen Lang, lest I should provoke unnecessary risks.

But today is not the same, Shen Lang is now in a strong momentum, no longer one-sided. Just before the Weizi was forced to leave, Wan Jianliu was like this. When there were so many people in public, everyone would not mind spitting.

“Right, I am looking for Bao Puzong to avenge. This business is dismantled. What is the medicinal medicine inside? I will be buried in the ruins, and I will not be minded if the younger brother is not. , you can go in!”

When this was said, it immediately gave birth to a strange atmosphere on the scene.

Originally everyone was watching the excitement, but now there is still such a big bargain, and it is a fake.

But whoever wants to face, although the crime is carried by Shen Lang, but to go to this way, it is equal to grab. In addition to the face, I am even more afraid that I will be held by Bao Zong. In order to lick a few bottles of medicinal herbs, he offended Bao Puzong, and after being chased and killed, his reputation was still damaged, and he was not worth the loss.

However, there will always be a certain identity in the face of the face; but there will be a certain foundation in the fear of offending the Emperor. There are some young people, or they are not well-off, and of course the interest is more attractive.

After being quiet for a while, one person put down his face and directly shook hands at Shen Lang.

“Thank you for thanking Master Shen Lang!”

After that, the man rushed in directly.

Someone took the lead, and many of them wanted to move and didn’t dare, and they immediately followed.

“Thank you Master Shen Lang!”

In the bursts of praise, more people began to rush in. And this has added a lot of hesitant, or scrupulous, to join it.

It was originally a cheap thing, but watching others go in and take advantage of it, but they didn’t take it, as if they had suffered. Grab is to earn, it is more, but if it is not robbed, it is a loss, it feels lost, it is more motivating.

And even if it is moral, many people are also the psychology of “the law does not blame the public.” Everyone else goes, I can go too.

As a large number of people rushed in, the appearance of watching the outside was significantly reduced.

But there are still people who pay attention to it, and they speak to Shen Lang.

“Master Shen Lang, Wei Yangzi is not kind to you, but you are not rude to grab the business of Bao Puzong.”

This made many people nod their heads.

Shen Lang smiled faintly: "I have smashed this business, all the remedies will be destroyed, it is a big waste. It can be used to give people in need, on the one hand, avoiding waste; on the other hand, it helps a lot of people. ""

"This is the act of robbing the rich and helping the poor by the resources of the local resources. It can help so many people. Even if I don't have a reputation for being kind, I don't mind."

Everyone listened to this and it seems that there is a point.

Playing local tyrants is of course a bad thing for local tyrants, but it is a good thing for those who share the benefits. A person has done a bad thing, and at the same time it is a good thing that is dozens of hundred. Should it be?

Everyone was involved in the philosophical problem, and there was no blame for the waves.

Wan Jianliu was controlled, but the consciousness was still sober. Looking at the situation, he was resentful.

This is really awful! Isn't this a bad person? Let everyone go to grab it in vain, he can't get it himself. Is this purely disgusting and holding the patriarch?

Yes! This is the buying heart! When others robbed together, they would naturally not stand on the side of Park Sung, but tied him to a boat.

Little age, my mind is careful!

Shen Lang certainly didn't feel bad. He moved the things of Bao Puzong, and the one with the most value, he had already collected it in advance, and the rest was not seen anyway.

After a while, Weiyangzi was like a duck, and a group of earth monks flew over.

The way to use it is because he said that others would not believe it. He thought that he would bring it to kill. It is estimated that he will escape when he comes out.

When I got close, I believe that Shen Lang can already see it. Other people can see Shen Lang. He will not worry, and he will fly to the top of Bao Puzong Business Bank in advance.

“Shen Lang! What do you mean!”

When the people have not landed, Weiyangzi has already seen it clearly. Wanjianliu was arrested on the roof, and at the same time, the gods saw it. There are many people in the business bank who are looting.

Those who have gone advanced, even if they have seized the drug, they want to grab a little more. Those who go in, of course, are afraid to grab less so basically no one comes out.

Now I suddenly heard the voice of Weiyangzi's anger. Everyone was shocked. Wherever they dared to stay, they ran outside.

Some people are more afraid, but they cover their heads with clothes, so as not to be recognized.

“The house is going to collapse. Everyone is enthusiastic. I can't bear to watch the things inside buried in the ruins, so I am eager to help. Your family is big, don't you want to come back with help?”

The crowd that came out immediately went to see the crowded side of the bustle. And those who did not go in, naturally do not want to coincide with them, so as not to be connected, decisive retreat, and they opened a distance.

This makes them very embarrassed. If you run away at this time, the target will be more obvious. With the strength of Weiyangzi, they can directly kill them. I really thought about whether or not to return the medicinal herbs to get the understanding of Weiyangzi.

It's just that when you return to it, others will think that you still have a private.

Everyone was very grateful to hear the words of Shen Lang at this time. It's really good, we are eager to help!

Weiyangzi almost mad!

If you don't need to see it, he can also guess that it is definitely Shen Lang who will go in and rob, otherwise no one has this courage. The problem now, the first thing is to fix the waves, or else it will regenerate all kinds of incidents.

As for the rushing of the medicinal herbs, it is not a big problem. Let them spit them out again.

"I brought you over, and let all of our business people go!" Weiyangzi endured anger.

Looking at this scene, the following is very quiet, this is basically verified. Weiyangzi really caught the people of Shenlang, and there are still dozens of them, so it is no wonder that others have to take revenge.

Chapter 1256 - Incarnation

At this time, the earth monks also arrived, although they did not see the beginning, but now this situation can be guessed.

These people, no doubt, have already known the situation before, even if they did not inform them, Ge Luting must have told them.

They have not found the traces of their ancestors, and they have already been arrested by Bao Puzong.

This time, they were detained for a week, not twice before, and not being abused. But when I was detained before, I couldn't see the head. I didn't know when it would be closed.

And the first two are their problems, this time it is a trap specifically for Shen Lang.

Shen Lang has been separated from everyone, will you come to save them?

It is said that Shen Lang escaped invisibly under the attack of the other side. Do you know that you can't win, can you come to save them?

Even... If Shen Lang escaped, he left here directly, and even if they were caught, they might not know! Without the grasp of winning, even if you come back, you will not come back.

Waiting day by day, let their hearts continue to sink. When Weiyang is impatient, perhaps it is their death!

I didn't expect it to be so fast, Shen Lang actually killed it again, and really saved them!

Looking at this scene now, Shen Lang ruined the business of Bao Puzong and arrested everyone to exchange their lives.

For this young man who saved them three lives, everyone has a strong gratitude.

Only after death can people be revealed, so that these masters can have a fragile side.

At that moment, Shen Lang felt the power of faith from them!

Above the earth, they are top-ranking powers, and they will not respect the power of faith in Shen Lang like other people get the spirit stone. At that time, although they were rescued twice, they have already passed.

Now this time, it is that Shen Lang can absorb the power of faith.

This third life-saving, plus the current situation, the danger has not been lifted, so let them have a strong belief in the power.

In fact, during this time, Shen Lang can continue to absorb the power of faith, basically from the watershed city-state, it should be Bihaihuan to create momentum for him, the earth above it is very small.

The watershed city state is also very small, it is the victory in the base, it is a harvest of fine water. Just a group of them, but they are all above the realm of the gods, the weight of the faith is still relatively full.

This unexpected harvest made Shen Lang a little gratified. I don't need the verbal praise of the language. This is the heartfelt thank you, and I have not saved a group of white-eyed wolves.

This also caused him to think of self-creation, but considering the territory and population here, it was also eliminated. There is no huge base, even if the individual contribution is stronger, it does not make much sense.

“Throw people up!”

As soon as Shen Lang's words were spoken, an individual immediately threw it from the big hole and more than twenty of them flew into the air.

Weiyangzi calmly controlled the field, and did not need to pick them up one by one, so that they all floated in the sky.

As people flew up, the people who fell in the canoe and so on also flew.

“Master Shen Lang! Thank you for saving!”

The earth monks fell below, and then thanked Shen Lang.

Shen Lang nodded. At this time, the foot was forced, and the vibration was slightly controlled. The force was controlled and the roof of the entire business of Bao Puzong was directly shaken without affecting other buildings.

“Look, I said that the house is going to fall!”

Wuyangzi did not speak, and waved his hand, and sent more than twenty people in the air to the center of the street, including the two swords.

The two are now, and it is impossible to tie him anything. Just to save their lives, the key is to rely on himself.

He learned the lessons of Zhou Wei, did not dare to carelessly, did not dare to let himself be “disintegrated”, but also to seize the opportunity!

So he used the field to throw people into the street, basically safe, no need to look at more. The key is to attack Shen Lang, so the core of the field is to lock the Shen Lang and the five women in the air!

At the same time, the shape of Weiyangzi suddenly changed!

In a moment, the entire upper part became the figure of Weiyangzi.

“Incarnation in the body!”

Seeing this, someone screamed and then desperately retreated to avoid being shackled and pond fish.

Of course, other people are also rushing to avoid and suffer. Those who had gone to the medicinal herbs before, of course, rushed to run far.

This “incarnation of the body and the law” is not a real incarnation of the body, but is similar to the effect of the body. There are countless shadows in the avatar, but they are not real, because the speed is too fast.

The magic of this method is to launch an attack in different directions and angles when it is fast. It was a quick attack that was not so strong. But these attacks will not disappear, but will form a linkage, and finally reach a superimposed crit!

It is as if one small light bulb is connected, and the small light bulb itself is not bright, but when the last small light bulb is lit at the same time, it will achieve a bright effect.

It's like poke a lot of holes in the ice layer, each one has no effect Finally, according to the rules, and then stepping to the middle, it will make a large piece of ice collapse.

Weiyangzi is watching Zhou's experience, so he does not give Shen Lang and others the opportunity to break him apart. At the same time, he also understands that Shen Lang's group is not so easy to knock down, so he used his body to invade Dafa. There were a lot of "avatars" in the air, leaving a period of half-way attack, and then waiting for his last strike of synergy!

When this happened, Dorothy and others were all around the waves and prepared for the battle. They are not surrounded by Shen Lang, because Shen Lang does not need their protection, but they form a group, help each other, avoid becoming hostages, and avoid affecting Shen Lang.

Shen Lang is not very clear about this incarnation of Dafa. However, his own speed is fast, his mental strength is high, and he has super brain calculations.

Therefore, this incarnation of the body that was originally a bit horrible, for Shen Lang, but there is no mystery of the shadow of the sky, but all the trajectories are very clear.

Through observation and analysis of the holy armor, it is calculated in advance, and the iron bars in his hands are prepared in advance, and they go straight to a void!

All the people who watched the excitement, no matter how far or near, could not see the specifics. Only a large number of shadows of Weiyangzi flashed, and they did not see the waves crashing into the air.

But Weiyangzi himself is screaming bad!

Because that is his last point!

His incarnation of Dafa is based on the confusion of speed and obstacles. Now he finds that it is wrong, but under such speed, he can't adjust at all. When he discovered it, his body had already collided, and he was smashed by Shen Lang. Stick!

Chapter 1257 - Siege

Unlike Wei Zhou, he did not have a son who was seriously injured, and he was not injured. The defense can still be fully exerted.

Although it was too late to dodge because of the high-speed operation, it still contained a layer of defensive hood, and it took the last blow to resist the stick of Shen Lang.

In this way, his last blow can only be regarded as half of the display, which is used to withstand the heavy blow, and can not be combined with the various attacks of the previous avatar.

Presented in front of everyone, Shen Lang directly hit a stick, and he broke the body of Wu Yangzi into the Dafa. All the ghosts were gone, and the real person was shot and flew out.

This really makes everyone very shocked, because the lively scene, even if it is half a fairy, from the perspective of the onlookers, can not see which one is the true body of Weiyangzi, so fast speed, can not trace the trajectory.

However, as a stunned target, Shen Lang, but with a simple blow, hit the innumerable Wuyangzi outside the body, the strength can be seen!

After Shen Lang, after a stick, of course, he will not stop in the air, but will follow closely. The speed is not inferior to the speed at which Weiyangzi was smashed, followed by another stick to his head!

Although this time there was no confusion of countless figures, everyone still couldn't see clearly, as if two people had a trace of afterimage, and they had already moved to another air.

Weiyangzi is also engrossed. Although he was beaten by a stick, he was the next one. The impact was great, but no injuries.

Incarnation of Dafa, the need is the first opportunity, just mastered the first opportunity is not successful, in the eyes and speed of Shen Lang, if he continues, it will become a target hit by people.

So at the moment of being shot, he has changed his strategy, and he has the same magic weapon in his hand. It is a golden gong!

However, the speed that Shen Lang followed closely still made him unable to gasp, and had to hurry to smash the gold plaque against the iron rod!

“Hey-!”

The gold plaque and the iron rod are magic weapons, and when it hits, it makes a harsh sound. Although it is not as loud as the previous iron bars and the smashing of the sky, it is still far away!

They are now decisive in the air on the center of the street, so it's not just the people on the street in the center, but the time is too late to come over. Now they can look up.

The sound of this impact directly affected everyone. Some ordinary people even have direct tinnitus and even dizzy the past.

In fact, when they hear the sound, they need to have a slight time of sound wave transmission. The realm is relatively high, and the eyes are stunned. Even before the sound is heard, the arc flashes.

That was almost simultaneous, and then I felt thunder.

Shen Lang used the power of lightning directly through the iron rod. At the moment of Jin Jin's contact, the guide hit the Weiyangzi!

The gold plaque and the iron rod were separated immediately after the contact, but the light also made the swaying of the scent of the scorpion. If it was not timely, the cockroach was directly hit by the body and it would definitely hurt more.

He is very speechless, how many exercises will this sinking wave be!

Others think it is related to Qiu Lin Jianzong, but he knows that this is a human being from the lower world of the earth. How can it be so powerful?

But now, he doesn't have time to think about it now, and he has to deal with the waves.

The touch just made him feel awkward. After all, the master has a trick, a little influence, may have left the battle, not to mention bombardment by lightning.

So now he can't fly fast in the air. Kim is a killer, and he can kill people directly, but now he doesn't dare to touch the iron bars of Shen Lang.

Of course, Jin Hao can also operate from the air, but before the Zhou Dynasty's dynasty, it was taken away by Shen Lang, and Wei Yangzi would not dare to take the magic weapon.

In this way, it became a deep wave chasing him in the air!

The peak of the imperial concubine, the day and Zhou Wei once let Shen Lang invisibly leave the Weiyang, but now chased by Shen Lang!

And it was chased by a stick, how to look like a dog that is like a funeral...

In such a period of time, the people who lost the boat and did not idle. When they were incarnate in Dafa before, they couldn't get through it, but now it's clear.

So when Weiyangzi evaded the fighting, they quickly formed a fan-shaped encirclement!

The canoe danced the nebula chain and controlled a large space. The wind was not far from her, and it was under her protection to avoid being a hostage.

But the wind is no good, it is not to drag the hind legs, she is now using the copper bell magic.

The bell of the bell is a sonic attack. Although its own grade is not very high, the realm of the wind is now high, and the power of its play is not the same.

Moreover, she does not need to rely on the bronze bell to knock down the opponent. It only needs to affect the mind of the Weiyang son through the sound wave, which can help a lot.

Falling rain is a large piece of iced flowers!

In the same way, there is no need to expect to be able to knock down a peak and a half, but it can have a certain impact on the movement of Weiyangzi, that is, to help the sun. Occasionally, if it can hit, there is also Certainly effective.

Zheng Yumeng did not take the initiative, nor did he ask for the sorrow, but lived in stability and attacked through the air.

Dorothy is the only one that is free from the battle circle. Since she is surrounded by everyone, she is close to attacking Weiyangzi when she has a chance, and returns if she misses it.

In just a short while, this kind of battle has formed, and it is amazing to watch the lively.

In particular, those who followed from the Linyuan side had seen them approaching the past and smashing Zhou Wei one by one. Now they have changed the law and become a force.

Such a tense moment is too late to discuss, relying on the tacit understanding of everyone.

The earth monks are even more shocked.

They followed the swells all the way. The time for everyone to come here is the same. How do you rush into such a situation?

It turns out that Shen Lang and the Pope are stronger than them, and now... it seems that the Pope is far from being opened.

And his sons and daughters, aren't they sent back to Earth? I have never seen them appear!

Did these seven days go back to Earth and find them over? Or when I went back to find them, where did they first put them in retreat?

But even then, it can only be a month or two, how can they become so powerful? This is far better than them, and it is estimated that it is better than the Pope...

With the help of all of them, Shen Lang is of course more like a duck.

In addition to a stick of sticks, Wu Weizi did not have the opportunity to breathe. He also bombarded with lightning from time to time, leaving Weiyang with a little left and right.

“Stop! Or I will kill them all!”

Chapter 1258 - Everyone can be abused

When Weiyangzi spoke, Jin Hao had already left and went straight to the side of the canoe and the wind.

As he evades the attack, he has to do things to smash them!

Although it was only a fight for a while, Weiyangzi has already deeply understood that the current Shenlang is not the same day, and it is not something he can solve.

The seven days cannot be so big, the only thing that can be explained is that Shen Lang's original strength is like this. The day was only because of the sudden appearance of him and Zhou Wei. The attack on Shen Lang was caught off guard, and the double lock in the field in advance made him feel that there was no chance of winning, so he escaped.

Now that everything is late, Zhou Wei is already finished, and he does not want to follow the footsteps of Zhou Wei.

“as long as.....”

He has just flew out in addition to Jin Hao, and he has already locked in both of them. If Shen Lang continues to attack, he can have a threat to the hostages.

It is a pity that Shen Lang did not listen to him at all, and his body suddenly became bigger!

Suddenly, Shen Lang has become a giant, and the iron bar in his hand has become a giant pillar like a big pillar!

“Wow!”

“Sure enough, he!”

“It turns out that he can really become a giant!”

“Not a behemoth, a giant!”

Looking at the lively moments immediately, I saw the image of Shen Lang now, both excited and shocked, but also feel a little nervous.

After all, they are dueling in the air, but not too high, originally from the ground, it is also a few stories high, normal size is good, now it becomes a giant, it seems that at any time, people will be trampled to death .

The shops in the center of the street, as well as the owners of other neighborhood buildings, are secretly complaining. If a person is normal, even if you kneel down, it will be a hole, and it will be fine. If this giant is kneeling down, it will collapse directly!

Even if it was Weiyangzi, I did not think that Shenlang would change at this time.

Because in his view, the transformation is actually a very sloppy practice, it can only be a big bully. But to be bullied, you don't need to be physically big, you can bully casually. When they meet the same level, they become big chunks, and the speed is immediately greatly reduced. It becomes bloated directly, but it is everywhere.

So when he and Zhou Wei were trapped in the last wave, Shen Lang did not change. When he and Zhou Hao battled, they did not change. This is a wise and correct choice.

How did you suddenly turn to him?

However, when he really faced the giant, he discovered the advantage of “big”. Originally, Shen Lang wanted to track him. Everyone quickly evaded. Now the huge body may not be flexible, but the range of hand-held iron bars is much larger, and if you dodge to the other side, you will shoot directly with one hand.

Suddenly facing the swaying waves, he can only retreat quickly and let himself retreat from a safe distance.

At this time, Dorothy on the slant side intercepted it at a fast speed. In the process of his retreat, he kicked him in a boxing and flew him straight out to the side!

Weiyangzi is depressed!

He is a person with strength and strength, how can he be hit by a young woman who is a young woman? Just a few of them just assisted from the side, but they hit him directly! And that force is so powerful, so that he wants control can not control the body!

This time also makes people who watch the lively look bright, just now Dorothy, Zheng Yumeng and the canoe, all attack in different ways, but they can only play a role in the production, and did not really hit.

Just this time, actually shot the Weiyangzi!

Under the backdrop of Shen Lang's transformation into a giant, it is even more delicate and small, and the effect is even more shocking.

What made Wu Weizi angry was that Shen Lang had a bow to him at this time, and the other hand was quickly caught and took a two-pronged approach. And the shackles of the iron rod are thrown out directly, and the swaying of the right hand, then stretched out to catch the golden scorpion!

At this time, the iron rod is a huge pillar. The power of the smashing is very big. Even if it is evaded, it is difficult to catch or ***** it. On the contrary, for the sinking waves of today's huge body, the golden dragonfly is small and can be grasped in the palm of your hand.

Although Weiyangzi is still very confident about his magic weapon, but if he is caught and forced to control by Shen Lang?

This made him have to dodge double attacks while rushing to summon the golden scorpion, let it leave the deterrence against their two girls, and then go to the back of the brain after the spin.

Originally, with the power of Jin Hao, Suizhong can directly kill people, but now looking at the huge block of Shen Lang, he has some doubts about how big the effect will be.

The body of Weiyangzi is directly and quickly rushing upwards. His plan is very good. If Jin Hao is not in the middle, or if the effect is not good, he can still recover immediately.

His speed is very fast, but he still avoids the left and right pinch of the smashing stick, but just just rises up in the air, and is immediately wrapped in a sword net!

He couldn't wait to dodge, he could only be hard, and then when he rose a lot, he was hit by a series of ice hits in advance!

With his strength these even add up, it can only be considered easy, and no serious problems, but lost face! In the case of being watched by so many people, a girl can abuse him, how can he maintain his dignity in the future?

Not to mention that the annoying ringtones are always following him...

At this time, Weiyangzi found a wrong place!

magic weapon!

It is a powerful magic weapon attack!

He had to turn around quickly, no matter what the risk of facing the waves, let's see what magic weapon.

The result made him very surprised. The attack from behind him turned out to be a fine needle!

If you don't look at it carefully, you can't see it because of the distance between the following and the lively.

Weiyangzi is still knowledgeable. The more strange the magic weapon, the more careful it is, but the rough iron rod, you can not be so careful.

So at this critical time, he estimated that dodge was useless, and these fine needles would follow him, and one would accidentally be tied. Only defeat them!

He allowed himself to maintain a comprehensive defense, and then used the fastest speed to summon the golden dragonfly back to the fine needle to stop the past!

“Ding—!”

With a fine sound, the fine needle was obviously resistant to the golden scorpion and was defeated and dropped.

However, Weiyangzi had not had time to be happy, and found that something was wrong. The feeling of a powerful magic weapon has not been eliminated!

At this time, he felt that the attack came from the rear!

It's too late to turn around, it's just that Jin Hao's body is too late. He can only pour the whole body into a whole body to form a strong protective layer.

At this time, the fine needle seemed to have made a roaring body, not only broke through his protection, but also achieved a bursting effect!

Eight months of the month!

Chapter 1259 - Killing Weiyangzi

The eight-needle of the month is a French-style attack, and the synergistic effect of the superposition of the battle is the same as that of the avatar of the body.

A half-time attack that is performed once and for all, and finally adds a blow. The faster the speed, the more half-attacks are displayed, and the greater the power, the ghost is also a puzzle and protection.

The other one, the needle itself is a very hidden weapon, but there are not so many changes, but there are a fixed number of ways, the highest can reach 8 864 times the power!

Of course, this multiple is theoretical in theory and may not be sixty-four times true. The other is the multiplication of the force applied to the lunar needle, which is not equal to sixty-four times the total strength of the Shenlang.

But there is no doubt that the stronger his strength, the stronger the force that can be applied to the lunar needle. Similarly, the more the needle, the stronger the effect.

When Weiyangzi threatened the wind with a golden scorpion, Shen Lang realized the danger. The strength of Weiyangzi was too strong, even if he could pass it, it was not so easy.

If Weiyangzi wants to escape, it is estimated that even if they are added, it is still difficult to stop. Once they give up and compete with him, they are likely to take the hostage instead.

Therefore, he directly changed the strategy, and must be quick and quick, so as not to have a long night dream!

Turning into a giant is only the first step, and the purpose is not to attack Weiyangzi. Although it may not be competitive, but speed and agility will indeed decline, so just to attract attention, there is such a huge body contrast, the moon needle is easier to be ignored.

Just a few attacks, including the gold medal, are to cover the attack of the moon needle!

Of course, their several assists are also very useful, so that Weiyang has no attention to his details.

At the time of the final attack, Shen Lang was divided into two parts, one was a lunar needle on the bright side, and the other was the other seven with the eight-needle technique.

Seven needles can only achieve the effect of forty-nine times the theory, but it is enough!

The one of the lunar needles that was defeated by the gold plaque was originally a cover. The seven 鑒月 needles behind the forty-nine-fold effect completely broke the protection of Weiyangzi and directly fell into his body, which immediately contained Power breaks out together!

This kind of outbreak started with the needle as the center. If it is an ordinary person, or the strength is low, the power that is infused with the static waves will burst directly to let the body burst.

The body of Weiyangzi is of course very powerful, and it is just the stage of maintaining full defense, so it is still stunned and there is no direct explosion. However, the seven moons and the moon burst out of the power of forty-nine times in the form of arrays, which also made his body devastated!

This is because now it is the opposite effect, the muscle bones also act as a layer of protection, if it is positive, the direct trauma is the internal organs.

However, the body of Weiyangzi is still very uncomfortable at this time. His body, a little unsupportive, has to fall down.

As soon as I saw this battle, others immediately followed!

Shen Lang narrowed his body and floated behind Weiyangzi. Although the multiplying attack power was only a moment, the seven moon needles were still in his body!

Shen Lang only needs to manipulate the lunar needles, let them continue to pass through. I have already sneaked into the body from the back, and now I am pierced from the back to the front of the internal organs!

Such a painful heart piercing the lungs, so that Weiyangzi can not afford. Ming knows that he should first solve the enemy such as Shen Lang, but if he does not try his best to keep the needle in the moon, he will first let the body be corrupted.

At this time, several of them caught up and copied the plan for Zhou Wei.

The nebula chain of the canoe, tied with the legs of Weiyangzi, together with the falling rain, continued to infuse the cold air, letting his legs freeze, which can be greatly restricted.

The wind is no close to the wind, and the ringtone is still facing Weiyangzi, so that he has already collapsed, and he is more emotionally anxious.

Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy cooperated with each other. A quick sword, leaving a wound in different places such as his torso and arms, and the other quickly drew blood from the wound.

Because the speed is very fast, it seems that a series of blood arrows are ejected.

This scene made everyone watching the lively stunned, and everyone did not speak.

The previous week was killed and the number of people I saw was not so much. It was the ones I saw. I also knew that Zhou Yi was injured first, and then carrying his seriously injured son.

But it's different now, because there are so many people watching in the air, there are people in the nearby streets, and some are seen in the distant roof.

And everyone saw it, it was the early release of Wuyangzi, and the result was that Shenlang and his women had defeated Weiyangzi together.

“Shen Lang! I am fighting with you!”

Wuyangzi's eyes are round and round, and the last vitality erupts.

The seven moons in the body told him that he was about to collapse. At this time, he was desperately trying to use the greatest strength, and he wanted to break out and fight against the waves.

With his violent drinking, he just lost control of the golden scorpion that was about to fall to the ground quickly ascended and rushed over to them!

Speaking of this gold plaque is also wronged, with its grade, it should be able to shine. But today an enemy has not hit, let alone killed people.

It is the same now!

When Jin Jin was about to attack everyone's head, he suddenly lost his support and solidified in the air!

Because at that moment, Shen Lang had already controlled the remaining one of the moon into the Baihui point on his head, and sealed his consciousness.

At that moment, Weiyangzi seemed to become a vegetative person, and of course he could not control the magic weapon.

"It seems that you are very dependent on it, then I will accept it!"

Shen Lang was a polite move, took the gold plaque and took it to the storage space.

Everyone "holds" that Weiyangzi fell on a roof.

At this level, Shen Lang has no politeness. He has taken all the mental power of Weiyangzi and read his memory.

In the end, Dorothy let him take his blood.

Shen Lang threw the dried corpse out and went straight to the place where the people of Bao Puzong were.

"Wan Jianliu! I spare you a life, you hold the life of Park Zong everyone, I will not kill today. This is to give you the face of the ancestors, and also to avoid that everyone thinks that I am a demon outside! Just give you a warning, put your heart and mind away, don't yell at you to hold Park Zong to hit our idea, or else, I don't mind killing Bao Puzong!"

The words of Shen Lang are screaming, and everyone understands the reason for the beginning.

It turned out that Bao Puzong Wan Jianliu wanted to fight their thoughts. It is no wonder that the two unrelated people would do it.

Chapter 1260 - The first person in the day

“Mu Tian’s!”

Shen Lang made another drink, and his eyes stared directly at the two people who were hiding behind the crowds.

The two of them saw that Weiyangzi was killed and had already been scared. This is being shot too fast. If Weiyangzi gradually falls into the wind, they may have already ran.

Now that I heard the name of Shen Lang, they have already named them, and their eyes have locked them. Even if they want to escape, it is too late.

Stretching his head is a knife, shrinking his head is also a knife, Mu Tianyu and Mu Tianchu two people, immediately decided to hold hard.

Since Shen Lang did not kill them, should they not kill them? Maybe it is for them to bring words to the Mutian family.

Mu Tianyu responded quickly and immediately responded loudly.

“Shen friends, we investigated clearly. Mutian Songtao was a little unhappy with you at the auction. I was so confused that I found a vulture to attack you. Your powerful, lost vulture, angered Mutian Songtao, killed him! ”

“Right! We found that there is a person who, in order to shirk responsibility, pushes it on you, we will definitely deal with it seriously!”

“Mu Tian Song Tao is dead, but his behavior is also our shame. So, if you want, we can make some compensation!”

Shen Lang called them both, and originally wanted to send them like Wan Jian, giving them a warning and letting them take the words back to the Mutian family.

I didn't expect these two people to be soft, and they found that something was wrong. They have already changed their minds.

"Be clear! Things are here! If you admire the family and want to engage in ghosts, I will accompany you! I am afraid that you are not enough to kill me!"

Although Mu Tian envied the two people in Tianchu, it is expected that Shen Lang will warn him, but listening to this, it is still a bit hairy. That is an unspeakable murderous!

"You can rest assured! Our Mutian family is a matter of fact. This is Mutian Songtao. You are not responsible for compensation. It has already made us very embarrassed. He is now dead, and we can no longer trace his responsibilities. Seriously deal with the relevant people and be bound by everyone in the Mutian family."

Anyway, the two of them are temporarily relieved.

Even if I just lost a little face, my life is back.

Moreover, it is not too shameful to think that it is a shame, such as Chaotianmen and Baopuzong, which are more shameful. Besides, this thing was originally that Mutian Songtao was wrong. It is also a matter of death.

They comforted themselves and didn't feel embarrassed and kept lucky.

Other people who look at the excitement are sighing at the means of Shen Lang.

I want him to be a young man from a foreign country, and he is in the wind and rain in the sky. Today is even more shocking. First, I killed the Zhou Tianmen at the head of Chaotianmen, and then killed the Wuyangzi of Bao Puzong.

Now, in the presence of the city's spectators, the two forces of Bao Puzong and Mutian are directly warned!

No one dares to talk about the people who hold the Park. The people of the Mutian family are immediately self-reviewing.

When did you hit the three major sects in one day, when did you have such a character?

Today's battle, Shen Lang is bound to make a name for the world!

There are some older self-cultivators who are even more embarrassed and think that this is a change of the times. The birth of such a genius boy is very likely to change the pattern of the Han Dynasty in the days to come!

"Who is not convinced of me?"

Shen Lang was patrolling the street to see the crowds.

Who dares not to accept it?

Even the atmosphere did not dare to scream, and when his eyes glanced over, they turned their eyes away.

"No!" The monks from the earth were bragging out loud.

Anyway, Shen Lang is from a place with everyone, everyone is a partner, so Shen Lang is now bullish, so that they also have a little bit of light and have won.

"We all respect and admire you!"

The monks of the earth are not only to the support of Shen Lang, but also to cry from the heart. A lot of the power of faith is the most obvious evidence.

Just because of Shen Lang's words, I went in Bao Pu's business, and I got more or less medicinal herbs. The one that saved me was Lingshi. After the failure of the Central Committee, Shen Lang also excused them, and eventually killed the Weiyangzi, so that they do not have to worry about being accounted for by Weiyang.

So at this moment, I will applaud immediately.

Someone takes the lead and it is always easy for most people to follow suit. What's more, at least dozens of people are now applauding, and more people are being followed to cheer.

This makes Luo fat people in the crowd, do not know whether to be gratified or to smile.

The momentum like Shen Lang is almost the first person in Tiandu City. In the past, even if there were big people coming, it caused everyone's onlookers, and it did not reach this level.

Now the Shen Lang, the strength has conquered everyone, and the means also let everyone admire. Like Bao Puzong's medicinal herbs, he is willing to let people who are completely irrelevant to divide, he naturally can't do this.

On the other side, Ji Qiandao is very happy, and he is relieved for his decision Shen Lang really does not disappoint, whether it is when playing pigs to eat tigers, or these seven days have The great ***** reborn for him, and it is always an ally worthy of making friends.

He was grateful that he did not have the temperament of Mu Tiansong, and spread the feelings of Ji Qiancheng. If you wait until now that others are glowing, and then come and make friends, it will be a knot, it will make people look down, and the role will not fight.

Of course, he is very smart, and will not fly to meet the tide at this time. Although a wave of heat, let everyone know that he and Shen Lang have a relationship, is a bit of pretending behavior, can meet the vanity.

But the consequences may bring trouble to Ji Jia!

Besides, Shen Lang is now bullish, but it is only now. Just like the day when he shot a few people in Zhou Shaojun in the ring, it was equally eye-catching.

Zhou Hao is dead, not equal to no one in Chaotianmen. Not to mention how many seniors, such as his father, the former generation of Zhou Yucun, is still alive.

Mutian Songtao is the son of Mutianyu Mountain, and Mutian Mountain is not vegetarian. Mu Tianyu and Mu Tianchu have just had such a good attitude, nothing more because their strength is not enough. This represents the appearance of the Mutian family. If you return to the master, it will be another attitude.

At this time, I went out of the limelight and went to the next day. Someone else might have found him angry...

Therefore, whether it is Ji Qiandao or Luo Fatzi, they are all in the crowd watching the crowd, and will not go to the crowd to climb in love.

“Everyone is gone! Why are you doing it!”

After Shen Lang finished this sentence, he flew over several rows of buildings with a canoe and others, and went to a street without people.

The monks from the earth havetened to keep up with the past.
