

First Strong 1261

Chapter 1261 - Consultation confidentiality

After everyone keeps up with the waves, it is inevitable that they are grateful and thankful, basically with a look of embarrassment.

Undoubtedly, they all heard about the “bad words of Shen Lang” from Ge Luting. The people who killed them were Ge Luting, and finally they saved them.

Shen Lang had decided to give up last time and didn’t want them to use it for so much time. This time they waited for them to come over, and only to make a final statement. Last time he just said to them separately with Qiao Yuxian.

Among these people, he has already seen it clearly. He did not see them, and he did not see the Pope and Paul. The Pope, who is more powerful, has always had more ideas.

After the greetings, Shen Lang directly said what he meant.

“In the current situation, you are all clear. The road ahead, you decide for yourself. The method of returning and the magic weapon of the spacecraft, I have handed it to Qiao Yuxian, they should have contact with you, then you can contact each other.” Take care of each other, goodbye!”

Everyone was a little anxious. Shen Lang sacrificed himself for the first time and sent everyone away. The second time he took everyone back to the land. Now this time it is his help. I thought I could follow him again. Together, I didn’t expect it to be like this.

“Master Shen Lang, don’t leave us alone.”

“Yeah, we all want to follow you. This way, there is you, so that we can have the backbone.”

“We have not betrayed you, although Ge Luting has tempted us, but we are still willing to follow you.”

“Just because we are very loyal to you, they only take control of us.”

“We don’t have any requirements, as long as we can follow you casually.”

Everyone began to talk about it, showing the desire to follow the waves.

Before Yu Xianmen grabbed them, they were in a coma, and of course they were not convinced. I came back this time. Although I saw the strength of Yuxianmen, I still had a little confidence. I have been living in Jinyu Valley for a month and I feel that it is still very bullish.

Of course, in fact, in the mid-term of the realm of the gods, it is not weak here. Like the Tang Dynasty’s group meeting for young people, there are still a lot of pasts below the true state. In this liquidity of the sky, it is also the level of the upper middle.

However, there are still quite a few half-centres here. In the face of the half-sex, they are not resistant, let alone the peaks and half cents of Weiyangzi.

So after exploring the eyes, everyone realized that it was safe to follow the waves.

For everyone’s appeal, Shen Lang just shook his head.

They are not too familiar with them, and there are not so many responsibilities to take care of. They are all a group of old rivers and lakes. Let them be themselves and know how to survive.

Seeing that everyone still asked for love, Shen Lang took them a few and flew directly away.

Just now everyone’s play is good. Compared with the past, there have been a lot of progress. The main reason is that everyone has cultivated “more than ten years” and has more familiarity and understanding.

Shen Lang is quite gratified, not how much they can help, but the strength of their strength, in this powerful world, the strength of self-protection.

Then I asked them about how they felt when they were shopping and whether they had anything to look at.

Everyone's reaction is the same – the things here are too expensive!

Whether it is medicinal herbs, weapons, armor, medicinal materials, etc., all prices are staggering.

This answer, let Shen Lang burst into a sigh of relief, before let them go shopping, forget to give them a spiritual stone.

But it doesn't matter. Anyway, what I can buy here is not as good as he gets, and what she gives them is the best. Like the jade emperor, the virtual Dan and the dragon's blood, all of them are obtained at a high price.

Just as they chatted, a voice rang in the back.

“Shen brother!”

Shen Lang does not need to turn back, already knows Ji Qiandao.

Ji Qiandao is still more eye-catching, watching the earth monks follow Shen Lang, thinking that there must be something to say, so he is not convenient to approach, it is far following.

Waiting to see them apart, this is followed by catching up.

Shen Lang waited for him to come over and said a word: “Ji brother, thank you for this time.”

This successful solution can benefit from the separation of Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi. If they are together, they will be very dangerous to fight together, especially a few of them.

The news of Linyuan was revealed by Ji Qiandao.

“The sinking brother is polite. How about going to the guest with a beautiful woman?” He asked everyone again.

Today, the strength of the Shen Lang show is even more worthy of his knot.

“Before it was, I am offended today against Chaotianmen, Linyuan, Baopuzong and Mutian. If I go to Jijia again, I am afraid I will be tired of Ji brother.”

Shen Lang didn’t want to go any more, but when he came, he went to inquire about the news, and now he refused. It was a bit of a bridge to cross the river, so he expressed his attitude with more rumors.

Ji Qiandao smiled and said: “No matter, Ji family is not the best in the world, but it also has a few thin faces. Not everyone can bully.”

Shen Lang secretly laughed, face a few dollars? At the beginning, Ji Qian took them, and in the middle of the meditation, they were joined by the Emperor and the Murong Sea.

“There is another thing to do business, it is not convenient to talk here.” Ji Qiandao lowered his voice and said seriously.

He has already said that this part of the Shen Lang if it refuses, it is a bit unappealing.

Immediately introduced to them Ji Jidao, and then returned to the Ji family.

Ji Qiandao did not have a set of tea, but took them directly into a underground secret room.

Some of them are obviously close to Shen Lang, and they have enough identity and strength, so Ji Qiandao does not dare to reject anything.

After arriving at the underground secret room, Ji Qiandao was a little easier.

“Sorry, let everyone laugh. Not to mention my pockets, but to talk about things is very important. Shen brother just out of the limelight, will inevitably be everyone’s attention, in order to avoid message eavesdropping, it is safer to get here.”

It seems that this secret room has been specially ordered, so he is so reassured.

“It should be very important to look at the picture of Ji brother. But please say nothing!”
Shen Lang also took it seriously.

Ji Qiandao nodded. “This is the news that the Shen brothers received when they left. It was originally told you, but because I was in a hurry to go to the forest garden, I didn’t have time. The incident itself is not a special secret, I am I don’t know if Shen brother knows if...”

Shen Lang listened to his words, still a bit inexplicable, it will be more direct.

“No matter whether the secret is not confidential, I don’t know. Because these seven days, I am looking for a place to retreat. I bought the blood of the real dragon, and then I bought the jade emperor, and I will not pay for it.” “”

Hearing this, Ji Qiandao could not help but be surprised.

Even if he thinks, Shen Lang is looking for Qiu Lin Jianzong, especially to see Lin Huan’s attitude, even if the * is also a son, even his son can be suppressed, can see the attitude towards Qiu Lin Jianzong.

Chapter 1262 - There is a mountain here.

Listening to the meaning of Shen Lang now, it turned out to be a retreat on the 7th, refining the extraordinary items of the blood of the dragon and the jade emperor, so the strength soared!

How is this possible?

No matter whether it is dragon blood or jade emperor, it is not a product. It has great requirements for physical fitness. If it does not reach that level, it will not be able to bear it. Even with this talent potential, it is impossible to refine it so quickly.

“You don’t believe it? I still have the arrogance of heaven and earth, and there are many jade peaches. The price is not small.” Shen Lang said with a smile.

Ji Qiandao once again has a big head. His unbelief is not to believe that these two things can’t reach this level, but they don’t believe that they can refine so quickly. Still heaven and earth domineering, but also jade peach...

However, the genius of the enchanting genius cannot be regarded as the average person. Can the average person reach such a high level at this age?

Besides, who can have no secrets, what is the truth about the second meeting?

Ji Qiandao did not entangle this, but continued to return to the topic.

“It seems that the sinking brother really doesn’t know, then I will tell you what is going on. Do you know the ruins?”

Shen Lang shook his head, then nodded and said that his mind quickly searched for memory.

He now has not only the memories of Moran and Li Tianqing, but also the memories of Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi. These complete ablation and absorption will make his head information too much.

Therefore, he still keeps the current use, but when he encounters the need, he will go back and search for it, or else he will not touch it.

Just heard the “unknown ruins”, he instinctively shook his head, and then remembered that some of their memories may have, then nodded.

Seeing that he shook his head again, Ji Qiandao did not know if he really knew it, and he explained it briefly.

“There are not many relics, and it is an ancient relic that is not Zhoushan...”

Shen Lang has searched for memories, but did not disturb Ji Qiandao's commentary. Anyway, they need to know a few, lest he explain it again.

Not Zhoushan is in a very remote place and has already reached the edge of the Kingdom of Han. According to legend, that is the center of the world, that is the center of the mountain, beyond the mountains, and the wider world.

However, since ancient times, few people have been able to cross the mountains.

Not Zhoushan is not only vast and boundless, there are many legends. One of them has been verified, that is, the ancient ruins.

This ancient ruins is said to have been a thousand years. But this millennium is just like the medicinal materials of the millennium and the sacred beasts of the millennium. It is a general concept. It may be more than a thousand, or seven or eight hundred years. It is not changing, and it is difficult to unify all the records.

Moreover, the detailed records of the dynasties are all kinds of situations in the ruins. For the years, it is not the focus. This is also caused, and no one knows when it will appear. Just like an earthquake, there can only be a large active period, but the accuracy is not specific.

The ancient ruins that have appeared before, are not the same place, and can not be confirmed, collectively referred to as "unknown ruins."

On the day of Shen Lang's retreat, some of the great figures from various factions have sensed the direction of the mountains and the scenes are strange!

According to historical records, before the relics are opened, there will be abnormalities, so the parties are ready to go to the mountains and wait for the relics to open.

Ji Qiandao is the matter of Shen Lang in Tiandu City, and the letter was reported to the Ji family. Ji Qiancheng is also appreciative of Shen Lang. He should also say a lot of good words. Ji Jia Chuan came to mean that if Shen Lang came back in a short time, he could let Shen Lang go to Zhoushan, and he could join the team of Ji.

The meaning is also very obvious, offended by Bao Puzong and Chaotianmen, neither of them will be willing to give up. If Shen Lang goes with Qiu Lin Jianzong, naturally they don't need them to do much. If they don't, they are willing to give charcoal in the snow.

If you don't go to Zhoushan and mix in the Ji's team, you can temporarily avoid the revenge of the two factions. And if there are any adventures in the ruins, then it will be different when it comes back. It is not a good road.

Listening to these, not only the deep waves, the rafting, the rain, the wind and the wind, there is a shocking association with one thing.

The legendary mountain is not Zhoushan!

Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy, who are longer than overseas, certainly don't know much about it.

"Beyond the northwestern sea, there is a mountain that is not in harmony with the mountains."

"The former work together and fight for the emperor, anger and touch the mountains of the week, the Tianzhu fold, the ground is perfect, the sky is tilted to the northwest, so the sun and the moon move. The land is dissatisfied with the southeast, so the water and dust are blamed."

From the historical point of view, the workmanship touches the mountain, and the son-in-law creates people, rushes to the moon, and shoots the sun. It is the oldest four myths of ancient China, and it can be archaeological to the pre-Qin period. And like Pangu, the earliest source of climbing, but also to the Three Kingdoms, the true formation of the myth is to the Qing Dynasty.

For the research of Zhoushan, it is said that it is Kunlun Mountain, and it is also said that the Kunlun Mountain is further to the Pamir Plateau in the northwest.

From the perspective of comprehension, it is also a long-term experience. Generally speaking, the co-workers, son-in-law, servants, and descendants are regarded as the ancient gods.

Unlike Zhoushan, like Kunlun Mountain, it is generally regarded as the mountain of God, or the mountain of Tianzhu that leads to the fairy world.

Shen Lang has confirmed that there are many places in the world that are connected with Chinese legends and myths, including the jade peach and the Jade Emperor, and they also said to them. But I did not expect that there is still a mountain that is not Zhoushan and this is not a mountain, it sounds not just a famous mountain, but a mountain with myth and mystery here. The ancient relics of the millennium are the confirmation of the mountain.

In reality, the boundlessness of the mountains is also a natural barrier to the isolation of the Han and other regions.

The great gods who can make the high-level comprehension civilization feel that they are boundless isolation. It is the ancient * mountain. There is bound to be a lot of magical and mysterious places.

In terms of combination, the inconsistency of the Chinese legend may also be the concept brought back here.

“The situation is like this. There must be a lot of martial art now. They have all sensed the abnormality of Zhoushan. They have already started to go to Zhoushan. So I said that this matter itself is not confidential.”

Ji Qiandao smiled and continued: “If we need to talk confidentially, Ji family invites you to go. On the one hand, let the Shen brothers look for these enemies today. On the other hand, of course, I hope that I can rely on Shen brothers. Help and care.”

After saying the cause and effect, he only said his true purpose.

This requires extreme confidentiality, which is understandable. He invited Shen Lang to be a guest. It can also be said that it is a personal friend's behavior. However, the Ji family invited them to walk together, and naturally they are suspected of “hiding.”

Shen Lang is not a person who does not appreciate. The realm of Ji Qiandao Ji Qiang is half a fairy. But this millennial ruins of the Zhoushan, they all have “teams”, naturally there are more powerful leaders, and do not need to rely on He takes care of it, not to mention that when he passed the message a few days ago, his strength was still half a cent.

“Thank you. The love of thousands of thousands of brothers! I am willing to accept the invitation.”

Chapter 1263 - Distribution magic

The problem of Shen Lang is not to provoke the need for the strong people to avoid, but to return to the earth for a limited time. Unless he does not go back, he must obtain resources as much as possible!

With his foundation here, he wants to be faster and must take advantage of it. Compared with the Qiu Ling Jianzong, he prefers to be irrelevant to the Ji family.

Qiulin Jianzong will definitely have better and more care, but that is purely human, it is to look at the face of the cold autumn. This was in his previous life, but his younger brother was still somewhat unnatural.

Unless he has to, or he does not want to accept more gifts from the cold autumn.

Ji family is different, it is mutual benefit.

This was the case in the meditation domain. He helped Ji Qiancheng and Ji Qian took advantage of some of his interests. This time with them, it is inevitable to work together.

Can trade, Shen Lang is more willing to trade, not human.

Ji Qiandao invited him to discuss this, and promised that everything is easy to say, specifically the details of the implementation.

Ji Qiandao still wants to preside over affairs in Tiandu. Although the ruins are in the millennium, he also wants to go, but he is exercising as a successor. It needs stability and cannot be dangerous. Otherwise time is wasted.

However, he revealed that Shen Lang has gone, and it will not be unfamiliar, because Ji Qiancheng is also in the ranks.

Then he prepared a map for Shen Lang and went to the map of Zhoushan. The team of Ji's family has already set off. It can only be there to meet again.

However, it is not a mountain, the territory is extremely broad, even if the map is given, it is only a general direction, and the specific reference is still not obvious. It is also very difficult to find a team of people, not to mention needles in a haystack.

Now they are going to go, they have fallen behind in time, and they can't spend time searching for it.

Ji Qiandao gave Shenlang a jade card, which is a "technology" used by all parties here. When holding the jade card to inject mental power, it can sense the approximate direction and distance of the same jade card.

Although it is still relatively rough and cannot be precise to the specific point, it is much more precise than the current range of 100 million miles.

After thanking Ji Qiandao again, Shen Lang took them to the road.

On the Tiandu side, Shen Lang temporarily ignored it, and the monks of the earth also let them go their own way.

After leaving the city, Shen Lang is ready to bring them all into the space of heaven. In this, they can give them more time to practice and to take them away.

Continue to go to the mountains, it is to the edge of the Han Dynasty, is the farthest place, farther than going to Tangcheng, or going back to the Golden Valley.

And others have been away for a few days, and Shen Lang certainly won't fly slowly. He must speed up.

But before that, he still has a piece of pre-emptive, then the two magic weapons that he just seized!

At the time of the decisive battle, Shen Lang had already seen the problem. Some of their strengths were upgraded. Specific attack techniques and combat experience were not able to be accomplished overnight. More actual combat was necessary.

But weapons and magic weapons can be kept up, which can greatly enhance their strength and be more secure.

Just from the hands of Zhou Wei, I seized the treasure of the Tianshan Gate of the Chaotian Gate, which would naturally be a great magic weapon. The golden dragonfly of Weiyangzi is also a good magic weapon.

Slightly a bit regrettable, this is obviously not very similar to the magic weapon used by girls, but it does not matter, to their current state, it is not a little girl.

As for Shen Lang himself, he has a lot of things, but he can't use it, or give it to himself. And it's even more weird to use them like a smashing iron rod.

When Shen Lang took out the two magic weapons and said that they wanted to give them, they immediately gave up each other. They all say that they have magic weapons, or they are not used to using treasures.

"I feel that this day is a small dream, and her physique should be able to play well. Kim Min to the wind sister, her key moment of the copper bell is still not enough damage, it will be more dangerous. I already have a chain, Dorothy Both silk and small cockroaches have the advantage of body and exercise."

After all, the canoe is the palace of the ice palace. It is quite a big picture to see things. This is not biased towards falling rain, nor is it purely for the sake of humility to sacrifice the interests of the rain, it is really considered.

Shen Lang nodded. Her suggestion was more specific than everyone's humility, but he still had his own arrangements.

"Dorothy's body is the most powerful, I don't worry about this, and the weapon magic is not for you."

For Shen Lang, Dorothy smiled and nodded, saying that she understood that there would be no emotions. After all, the most expensive dragon blood before Shen Lang gave her.

“The magic weapon of the canoe is still usable now. After all, it is a boutique made by the tough front.”

“Little dreams, I suggest that it is better to use a sword. In addition to the autumn water sword, this will be held by Liu Yejian!”

Zheng Yu dreams with a sword, of course, because there is still a soul bleak, the goddess of a female sword god, without the sword, using other magic weapons is simply a short length.

Zheng Yumeng felt that Qiu Shuijian was already good enough. Liu Yejian should be reserved for Shen Lang. However, seeing that the Shen Lang is using the iron rod that can become bigger and smaller, it will be picked up.

Since all three of them have been arranged, then these two new magic weapons of course, is to give the rain and wind and no wind.

“The tricks of Yu Yu are not matched, but together with this gold, they can play a very good role, which is more suitable than the day.”

Shen Lang gave the golden scorpion of Weiyangzi to the rain, and then used the method of handling the golden carp to extract it and directly instill it into the rain.

Falling rain is the practice of the Ice Palace. Whether it is Jin Hao and Chaotian Printing, it will be inconvenient and inappropriate. This is also the reason why the former canoe has helped him to resign.

However, since Shen Lang arranged this, she accepted it and silently grasped the information she just got.

After all, the height of the ice palace's practice is limited, and it can still work because the realm is high. After all, the lifelong dream of Luohe was able to cultivate a sacred * through her talents.

Now both of their achievements are far better than Master's expectations.

I will also need to study new things in the future.

Then there is no wind, and the treasure of Zhenshan in the Chaotianmen is used by her, so she is also very excited.

Shen Lang has passed the Jade Emperor Ling Dan, helping her to catch up with the realm, and then give her such a magic weapon to help her make up the short board.

Of course, Zhou Zhi's thoughts on the control techniques of Chaotian's mind were all instilled in her, and it is reported that she should try her own.

Shen Lang himself has a power-type iron bar, a dead water whip that destroys everything, a lunar needle that can superimpose the effect, and a Ba Tian Tower and Bai Hong Guan Ri, etc., but it is quite useless.

However, he did not send it out in chaos, or stay on his own body. After all, he is the core of everyone. Everyone is assisting him. If there is a problem, he still has to solve it. He must let him have enough means.

Chapter 1264 - 5 horse corpse tracker

After the distribution, Shen Lang brought them into the space of Tianshu, and the time here was more abundant.

Then they began to teach some martial arts and martial arts for their characteristics. In his current realm, they do not need to rumor, but directly concentrate some of the memories and infuse them.

However, they are so passively accepting, of course, they need a little time to understand, in-depth understanding and use, they need to feel it themselves, but in general, some need to solve the problem.

This also includes the application of Chaotian and Jinyu.

After completing these, Shen Lang let them slowly explore their own practice, and he left the road.

Shen Lang himself came out of the space of Tianshu, and will still be in the original position, and will not leave.

Now when he came out, he heard a voice next to him.

“How come? It can’t disappear suddenly!”

“It should be disappearing in the vicinity of this. Is it because we found our tracking, so it is invisible?”

“How can I go back and report?”

When I heard the sound, Shen Lang immediately felt that something was wrong, because it was in the wild!

This is not like the earth, there are people everywhere. Although Tiandu is a lively big city, it is only relative to this side, and it is still incomparable with the city of the earth.

The average person who supports basic needs here has a limited range of life and is generally difficult to travel thousands of miles. If the self-cultivator wants to go to other sects and cities, it is basically to rely on the flying magic weapon, and the second-class is also the animal car.

So when he left for a while, the chances of someone just appearing here are very small.

After listening to them, they will understand that these are following him!

The people nearby were also talking about one person and one sentence. Then they quickly discovered the swells that appeared out of thin air. They were all stunned and unable to speak.

Shen Lang glanced at it. There were five people. These were indeed seen when they were out of the sky. They were not together, but they were there before and after. Some of them were surpassing him when Shen Lang had not accelerated.

So the impression they gave him was the one who was on the road in the same direction. It's not surprising to hurry in the same direction. It's just that everyone's speed is different, and they will soon be far apart. They have just been easily overtaken by him.

I didn't expect those people who were ignored to follow him, and in order to be inconspicuous, there was a way before and after.

"What else to say?"

Five people have seen the waves, they are already very nervous, it shows that they really doubted them! Stop and talk, just to make them close to confirm, then disappear invisibly, waiting for them to come forward.

"That, that...we are just passing by..." One of them was brave and said something he didn't believe.

These are all the strengths of the realm of the gods, placed on the earth, are the top masters, but here are just the spies of others.

These spies, even if they didn't see the waves and killed Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi, they obviously knew this thing, so after listening to him, they were already shaking.

"Is it passing?"

Don't say that they are already scared, they don't dare to run, they don't dare to move, even if they are ready to defend their enemies, they can't fight against the waves.

Shen Lang does not need any action, the field has blocked the surrounding. One thought, five people had already flew up, and then approached him, then fell on the ground one by one, unable to move close to the ground.

The one who just said “passing by” feels that he is being pulled apart by the five horses, and his body is constantly pulled, and even if he resists with all his strength, it will not help.

“Big, big, master... I was wrong! I was wrong! We were ordered to follow you, sorry! We are completely forced!”

Although it is only a single person, Shen Lang is going to kill him, and even his fingers can be moved.

They have already remembered the end of Weiyangzi, especially the one who suffered the pain of “five horses.” Although other people are only being forced to move on the ground, the psychological pressure is also great.

Hearing this man’s petition, the other four immediately followed for mercy.

“Masters are forgiving! Masters are forgiving!”

“We are forced to help, we are all small characters, no resistance.”

“Please let us go! We just see the direction you left, and don’t know anything else.”

Shen Lang grabbed them and fixed them on the ground, just to look down on them and give them more pressure.

At the moment, I was too lazy to talk to them nonsense. I asked directly: “Who asked you to follow me?”

“This...” is the one that passed by.

Others hesitated to hesitate, and did not directly express their feelings. His attitude of swallowing and vomiting directly made Shen Lang unhappy.

“Snapped!”

Shen Lang hit a ring finger, and that person was immediately divided into five horses!

Not only five horses were separated, but they were also very regular. The hands and feet were with the gushing blood and fell directly on the faces of the four of them. Then the torso and the head floated up above them and fixed on the ground. The four people who can't move can at least see some of them clearly.

The threat of Shen Lang does not threaten a sentence, a ring finger will split the person, this really scared them a few jump and the situation is very bloody, spewing blood on the face, also bring The temperature is the blood of the partner they just joined together.

They looked at them, the heads and torso that were still bleeding, and they trembled and trembled.

With the strength of Shen Lang now, it is completely overlooking their existence, even if they are separated, there will be no unbearable. And to do this, it is only the control of the field, the ringing is not necessary, but a deliberate symbol.

Now he then raised his finger and made a look at it again...

"I said! I said all!" Someone immediately yelled.

They now have a * face that can't stop flowing into the eyes, making them very uncomfortable, let alone seeing the movements of the waves through the blood, for fear that they will be separated by the five horses in the next moment.

Someone spoke up, and others dared to hesitate, and rushed to confess the confession, fearing that they couldn't come up with useful content and was killed by Shen Lang.

Although the person is inherently dead, but this death is also awkward.

Today, there are four people who are directly offended by Shen Lang, including those who have not thought of Lin Biao. And his seven-day change is so big that it will inevitably lead to a lot of attention from people with care. It will be normal for someone to arrange to follow him.

But the most likely, is Lin Huan!

After all, it was his son who died at that time. Although it was shot by Zhou Wei, Shen Lang first controlled it, and Zhou Wei was already dead. The hatred would definitely count on his head. It didn't happen at that time, and it might not be such a chest. And may not want to open the crime of Qiu Lin Jianzong, after all, they are homologous.

But when they heard the behind-the-scenes instigators they said, they were people who did not think of Shen Lang!

Chapter 1265 - Distant mountain

The first thousand two hundred and sixty-five chapters are far away from the mountain

The analysis of Shen Lang, I think the most likely, should be Lin Huan, after all, killed the Lin Gongzi.

Chaotianmen, Baopuzong and Mutian families will not be convinced, but they do not have a master now, and they are powerless and afraid to arrange for people to follow. Only Lin Huan has this kind of grudge and has this strength.

But after they said it, they let Shen Lang be taken aback.

“Are you sure? I can extract your memories. If you lie to me, I will let you end up being a hundred times worse than him!”

During the speech, the head floating in the air, the two eyeballs fell, fell to the eyes of two of them, and then fell on the mouth.

Then the empty * eyes were staring at the other two people.

This made the four of them shudder again.

This threat is already very obvious. Just that he just expressed hesitation, and the result was the result of a five-major corpse. It's a hundred times more than him. It's estimated that the whole body will be a break in a section, or it's a thousand!

“Master! We really don’t dare to deceive!”

“Yeah, if you don’t believe it, you can extract our memories, we can also swear by blood!”

The two of them rushed to say, and the other two opened their eyes, and the eyeballs that fell on their mouths fell to the innermost, allowing them to vomit directly. But lying on his back can’t move, this vomiting has to be self-confident...

Shen Lang watched them not talking and thought about it.

The four of them are waiting to be sentenced to death, and the pressure to be dismembered at any time makes people very bad. It is even more uncomfortable than a straight knife.

Things are no small matter, Shen Lang thought about it, or extracted the memory of one of them.

Since they are a group, everyone is saying the same, then only need to randomly pick one.

After he read and recalled the memory of this person, he had already confirmed that he had died and he did not lie.

Behind the scenes, they arranged for them to follow him. It was indeed Luo Fatzi.

Luo Fatzi has been in contact several times. In the impression of Shen Lang, it is an egoist and the true character of the businessman.

At the first time of the problem, Luo Fatzi persuaded him, hoping to ease their conflict. After the strength of Shen Lang show, still speak for Zhou Shaojun, it is natural to give Zhou Hao face.

Later, Zhou Shaojun was already dead. Shen Lang showed not only the strength of the individual, but also a large group of “under his hand”, which made him feel the business opportunity. Since he could not open it, he simply sold another person.

At that time, I collected a hundred thousand innumerable Lingshi, and sold him Yuhuangling Virtual Dan and a variety of medicinal herbs, and also revealed the information of Zhou Yu and Zhou Yucun.

Just before leaving, I also exchanged a large number of Yuan Lingshi at Luo Fatzi.

Today's show is out, Luo Fatzi does not have any advancement, obviously does not want to attract a lot of hostility.

Everything seems to be a shrewd and sturdy old river.

Such a character is better to deal with because he knows how to advance and retreat. As long as you have an interest in him, you will not offend you.

Of course, such people do not have to be deep. Therefore, Shen Lang pays more attention to Ji Qiandao, but does not pay too much attention to Luo Fatzi.

But I did not expect that Lin Huan did not arrange for people to follow him. Luo Fatzi actually arranged five people to track him with different speeds and distances.

The memory that is intercepted now can only confirm that it is the task that Luo Fatzi gave them, but why and what is the purpose, of course, they are not clear, and there is only one general report back.

Knowing the truth, he also tangled.

The first reaction is that I feel a bit betrayed. This is a set of faces behind the fat man, and definitely wants to harm him!

Of course, you should go to him and ask him to understand, even to eradicate this threat!

But calm and careful, I feel that it has not reached this level.

Since Luo Fatzi is a profit-seeking person, he will risk doing such a thing, or it may be for the benefit!

Just like when I was able to sell others and reveal the information of Zhou Yu and Zhou Yucun, he arranged for people to follow the direction of Shen Lang's departure. When Zhou Yucun came over, he could also sell a favor.

For such people, information is also part of the resource and can be used for trading and utilization.

And just as Shen Lang feels that he can't make a deep relationship with him, he is also for the benefit, and he has no personal relationship with Shen Lang, and may even have a better personal relationship with Zhou Wei and a longer understanding.

Even friends can't count, naturally, there is no loyalty and betrayal.

Leaving aside the collection of information resources, I don't know why Luo Fatzi is going to harm him.

With the strength of Shen Lang now, you can kill the world's sacred monks without any burden, but for Luo fat, do you need to kill it soon?

Up to now, it seems that Luo Fatzi has only benefited him, and he has not sold him. In order to betray his information, kill the person first?

This point can't be done, but I know this layer. If I come to the sky again, my attitude towards Luo Fatzi will not be as good as before.

He was thinking about these things, and the four people were very nervous waiting for the verdict. The bloodstains have fallen into their eyes, making them very uncomfortable, but they can't move, they dare not ask for mercy, so as not to be irritated. Shen Lang.

Especially the two eyeballs falling into the mouth, plus vomiting in the mouth can not spit out, so that they almost collapsed.

"Forget it. I won't kill you!"

Shen Lang took a bit of boring and accepted the field, did not say anything to them, and did not let them bring words to Luo fat. At this time, they will inevitably go back to repeat the fat to Luo, the other party has their own points.

As soon as the control disappeared, the four people quickly turned over and bowed to the waves.

“Thank you for the master’s fortune!”

“Thank you for the master’s fortune!”

They must apology with the most sincere apology, fearing that Shen Lang’s thoughts would change them and kill them. The two also quickly spit out the eyes, and then vaguely thanked.

Shen Lang did not respond to them, flew away directly, and did not confuse them. Anyway, there are still thousands of miles in the mountains. It is not a simple direction to confirm, and needs constant adjustment.

After leaving for a period of time, confirming that no one around the scene was following the peek, Shen Lang re-examined the sacred armor, replaced the power, and directly replaced the highest quality Yuanling stone as the power source.

I checked the map of Ji Qiandao and started flying at supersonic speed. Soon, I opened the city of Tiandu far away!

The world is vast and the speed of intercontinental missiles continues to fly. It has been flying for a day and a night, directly exceeding one million miles. Although there are also deviations in the direction angle, it is far better than the earth area.

Flying at this speed, the beginning of the wave was very exciting, and then it was very dry and boring. Finally in the afternoon of the next day, vaguely arrived at the edge of the mountain!

Chapter 1266 - Not Zhoushan entrance

Even if it is not on the edge of Zhoushan, there is still a long way to go. According to Ji Qiandao, the range of Zhoushan is too big.

However, Shen Lang must reduce the speed and even stop because it has to meet with the Ji family.

Ji family has already walked a few days in advance. When the news passed to Tiandu, it was already on the road. When Shen Lang re-introduced, when everyone came here, others were on the road.

After careful calculation, there is at least a seven-day time difference!

However, Shen Lang is still confident about the flight speed of the super high-sonic speed of the sacred armor. Unless there is a transmission array method, it is directly transmitted from the place where Jijia is located to the vicinity of Zhoushan, but it is very uneconomical, and it is unlikely that such a transmission array exists.

In other ways, especially if there is a team, it is definitely far less than the holy armor.

A rough calculation, if you are in a million miles, whether they are going for seven days or nine days, day and night without stopping, you must also have a speed of five thousand miles per hour to get here. That is twice the speed of an international flight, and it will last as long as it lasts.

From the conventional logic, Shen Lang feels that it is unlikely that there is a magic weapon of such speed.

However, he started from Tiandu, searching for memories, where the Ji family is located, and there is still a long way to go to Tiandu, and it is better to go to the side of Zhoushan, so that time can be shortened, but it should not be.

For the sake of stability, Shen Lang dropped the speed of the flight, fell on a mountain top on the edge of the Zhoushan area, and then began to sense the jade card given by Ji Qiandao.

In addition to sensing the direction position within a certain range, this can also convey information. It's just that the cost is relatively high. Generally, very important information will be transmitted in this way. Ordinary information is still passed on by people.

Shen Lang sensed a little, but nothing happened!

This almost made him suspect that Ji Qiandao was playing him, but after careful consideration, this time the speed of the road is too far, and now the Ji family may still be 100,000 miles away, and it really can't ask too much. It is.

The possibility of entering the range of not being in the mountains is relatively small, because even if it is faster than him, it is definitely their limit, and will not leave too far, and it is easier to sense.

It's completely undetectable now, and it's only possible to be on the way, too far apart.

To stop here and wait for the Ji family, Shen Lang can't use the method of licking the cat to meet the dead mouse. The range of Zhoushan is too big, and the angle deviation is a little bit, which may be the gap of 100,000 miles.

Regarding the information about Zhoushan, the memory of Moran and Li Tianqing is not enough. The difference between the realm and the identity often determines the difference in knowledge.

On the same day, Shen Lang read the memory of Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi. The practical meaning is very simple. They don't want to explore the secrets of their martial art. They just want to know how to manipulate the two magic weapons of Chaotian and Jin.

Such a high-quality magic weapon, even if there is no master, it is not so easy to control, and spend a lot of time to study and try, it is better to know the method directly.

Now it is accidentally used. From the memory of both of them, I have searched for more information about Zhoushan, especially Zhou Wei, who is the head of Chaotianmen.

For the millennial event such as the ruins of the past, the general monks can not catch up, and occasionally it is a lace news chat. But for the head of a powerful martial art, it is natural to collect information in this regard. Even if one generation, two generations and three generations are not used, it is necessary to prepare for future generations.

It's almost the same time. From a few decades ago, it's been rumored that it's going to be alive. The generation of Chaotianmen from Zhouyu Village tries to collect this information and pay attention to this change.

Zhou Yucun passed the position of the head to Zhou Wei, of course, not because he was too old and incompetent, and Mo Feiliu was still doing the head of Qiu Lin Jianzong! He is a family in this respect, and he will help his son to go to the top. On the other hand, he is also preparing for the ruins!

Some of the heads still have to worry about some matters. After Zhou Yucun's abdication, he can retreat to the core and improve his own strength. He also researches the collected information as thoroughly as possible.

They are fathers and sons, so whether it is the information collected by Zhou Wei or Zhou Yucun's research, there will be unreserved interoperability.

This is also cheaper, and I got a lot of information about Zhoushan.

In their size, it is estimated that as long as it is not certain confessional secret information, it should be collected.

According to Zhou Wei's memory, there is a map of Zhoushan that is more detailed than Ji Qiandao. Shen Lang quickly contrasted the direction of the peaks of Zhoushan Tongtian, and slowly analyzed the approximate location of his current location.

The place where he is now, of course, is randomly landing. In the information of Chaotianmen, entering the area of the Zhoushan Mountain is also dangerous. It is beyond the limits of all forbidden places.

So combined with the records of the predecessors, there are some bold people's adventures. Everyone has a safer route, and that route has a similar "entry".

That is to say, whether it is going to the ruins of the ruins or the daily adventures, you will first find this entrance location After you have prepared, go deep into the Zhoushan area.

Based on his own approximate location, Shen Lang compares and analyzes the location of this entrance, which may be thousands of miles away! Of course, this estimate is very rough and the bias will be great.

However, according to this information, Jijia should also rush to this place, and the deviation from the present is even greater, and it is normal to be insensitive.

After confirming, Shen Lang immediately re-oriented and rushed to the “entry.”

The hesitation range is large and the error is large. There is no data that can be located. It can only be referenced by the naked eye, so the Shenlang can't be too fast, and the speed is reduced a lot, but it took two hours to arrive.

The speed in the previous hour is slightly faster, and the speed in the next hour is much slower.

When I arrived at the entrance, it was almost late.

The closer the Shenlang is to the slower the speed, the more detailed the collected environmental information is. The altitude is much higher than the place where he used to go. The temperature is already very low. As the sky gets late, it is flying in the snow.

Landing down, I also saw this entrance clearly.

This is a big road ahead, but it is not accurate to say that the road is not accurate, because there are no traces of the road. However, it is probably for the convenience of future generations to find here. On this hillside, two stalwart pillars are erected!

The diameter of the stone pillar is about ten feet, and the height is one hundred feet away. So standing on the hillside, even in the air, can be seen far away.

In such a project, I don't know whether the original mighty might have taken the materials on the spot or the stone pillars from afar. It is still very shocking, just like the two Gemini skyscrapers.

Chapter 1267 - Not refusing

Shen Lang looked at it below, then flew to the top of one of the stone pillars, looking to the front, the view is excellent, very wide and very distant distance can be included in the eyes.

“Who is so rude, dare to blame the pillars of the sky!”

Suddenly a voice came out and surprised Shen Lang.

He doesn't need to look back, the gods and the sacred armor have been seen by all the details around.

When he landed, of course, he had already observed all the surrounding conditions, and he did not find anyone. Otherwise, he did not have the leisure to come to the stone pillar to watch.

Now with the sound, I found a boulder on the hillside that was being moved away, revealing a cave.

This cave is very shallow. It should be temporarily dug out to avoid the snow. When people get inside, they will cover the cave with huge stones.

There is only one person in it. I don't know if it is self-convergence, or if I have a mysterious stone that can hide my vitality. So I can't see it outside, and I don't feel his presence.

The two pillars passed through the memory of Zhou Wei, and Shen Lang also knew that he was honored as the pillar of the sky. However, the information of the person who built it, the information of Chaotianmen is not clear.

For this Optimus Prime, everyone is amazed, but generally does not rise to the extent of worship. However, it may be that no one has ever fallen on this relationship before!

Shen Lang is not afraid of things, but he does not want to cause trouble. If this is really something that people respect and worship, he step on it, even if it is unintentional, and it is also true to others.

So he nodded and said he had heard it, then flew down from above.

“Is it a long time since I have been driving? Do you know how to call it?”

In Shen Lang’s opinion, he has already come down, and then he will say hello, and things will pass.

However, I did not expect that the person who came out of the cave was still angry and leaped to the front of Shen Lang.

“Why are you a child? It is so rude! Now I confess to Optimus Prime, and I spare you!”

This person looks like he is forty or fifty years old, but he has a long, bearded face and his hair is unrecognizable. However, the current snow and snow will not be contaminated by his hair, and it will drift away a few feet away.

“I don’t know who is not guilty. I don’t know if you value this column. When you say it, I will come down. I have to kneel down and regret it. Have you passed?”

Shen Lang still kept polite and calm, and faintly negotiated.

If this person is interested, he can follow the steps. It is a pity that this person has persisted in his attitude, but seems to be angered by the words of Shen Lang!

“A good one is not guilty! I don’t know who you are, are you killing you, or you can say that you don’t know that you are not guilty? I will give you the opportunity, you don’t want to die!”

The strength of this bearded man, Shen Lang is also a bit incomprehensible, can only be sure that at least the peak and the half cents, this should also be his hegemony.

Shen Lang came to this place not to come to Zhoushan, in order to catch up with the ruins of this millennium, but not just to fight with people.

It is possible to perceive that the remains will be opened, and that they have the ability to explore, and they must all be gatekeepers.

“I am sorry, the behavior may have been disrespectful to this Optimus Prime. I already know, it will not be next time.”

I can't say how sincere this is, but after all, this is not a big deal. Such an apology, Shen Lang feels enough. Even if a visitor goes to a temple and is unwilling to disrespect the image, an apology is enough.

There are only a handful of extreme religions that can make you a big sin.

“Toasting, not eating and drinking!”

It seems that in the eyes of the bearded man, Shen Lang is a very perfunctory apology. If he does not repent according to what he said, he cannot be an apology.

When he spoke, one of his hands stretched out and grabbed directly against the shoulders of Shen Lang!

His speed is not fast, just like the speed that most people shoot at your shoulders, but this is a random shot, but it contains countless changes!

This person did not pre-empt the field, but in the process of this shot, it suddenly took the flow of the field. If the target does not control the field, there is almost no resistance. If there is a control field, he can achieve direct cracking.

Because his field is integrated into the arm, it is the concentration of all the power, far more pure than controlling a large piece around.

But in addition to the concentration of the field, he blocked the surrounding waves, and if he wanted to escape, his attack extended at any time.

There is no doubt that this person's control over the field is far better than the average half.

His current shot is so relaxed and casual, it should not be intended to kill the dead, but it is absolute control, no doubt wants to surrender.

Shen Lang's eyes are like a torch. At the moment he just shot, he has seen all the tricks. This also surprised him a bit. This person is much more advanced than Wei Yangzi.

He did not dare to neglect, and the same understatement was taken.

Beard Dahan's shot seems to be unsatisfactory, but in fact it has blocked everything. Unless the wave is flying backwards – then he will immediately control and keep up with want to go forward, almost It is very difficult.

However, Shen Lang is now quite a bit of a first-come-first-served taste, waiting for his palm to shoot his shoulders, which has been blocked in the middle.

This change has made the beard man a bit surprised.

Originally, according to his estimation, Shen Lang was crushed to death, and at most until his palm reached the shoulder, he could barely raise his hand, but it was too late. The bigger possibility is to escape from the back or to attack the magic weapon.

I didn't expect that Shen Lang would actually be as easy as he was, and the speed of this hand not only broke his blockade, but he was even faster than him!

As a result, he has to change his strategy. If he continues to shoot on the shoulders of Shen Lang, without waiting for his hand to touch his shoulder, his arm will be shot first by the palm of the wave!

When the expert takes a shot, he knows if there is any. He wants to control the Shen Lang, Shen Lang is the counterattack, the shot may be heavier than him, once the arm is hit, it is not as simple as the palm is broken.

So whether he is willing or not, this time he can only change the direction of the palm of the attack to half, and the palm of the wave is up.

When it is said that it is too late, in fact, the attack time will not exceed half a second, and the reaction, the shot and the change of both sides are completed in it.

When the palms of the two people touched each other, a small wave of volatility spread out quickly, and the falling snow around them swept out a long circle, and the bodies of the two people shook a little.

Undoubtedly, both of them kept the suppression and used the power on the confrontation with the other side, and did not send out the surrounding, so as not to affect the nearby pillar of the sky.

Chapter 1268 - Buckle hat

However, with a burst of blood, the beard and the face of the man became more gloomy.

“Despicable! It really is a small person!”

In addition to breaking his blockade and blocking a palm, Shen Lang also clipped a lunar needle in the finger joint, so just after that, it is equal to the other party and he touched a palm, but also put a 鑒 The moon needle is shot into the palm of your hand!

It was only because the power of that palm was too great, so I found it after waiting for it.

Shen Lang smiled slightly, directly let the energy contained in the lunar needle burst open, and then received it back.

“This is a small punishment for your rude behavior. If you are mean, you will shoot your eyes!”

In the case of Shen Lang, let the beard of the big man have a cold.

Just because Shen Lang has the strength to block, it is beyond his expectation, although it is still very calm, but the mind must be surprised by the attention, if at that time really use a fine needle to stab his eyes, even if it can successfully stop It will also affect that palm, and the consequences will definitely be much more serious than it is now.

“Kids! It’s the name of the newspaper, where are you evil demons!”

During the speech, the bearded man, has pushed the two feet back, keeping a safer distance, so as not to be attacked by this.

At this time, there were boulders moving in, and then there were four people coming out from another cave. They were also converged before. Now flying directly, he fell behind the beard and dahan.

“The evil is not winning! Helan brother, we are quite you!”

“Where is the demon!

Shen Langhehe smiled and spread his hands slightly: “Take your dog eyes!”

When this was said, the faces of the five people changed. This is a curse!

However, none of the five people had an episode, but instead carefully stared at the waves. Listening to this meaning, isn't it a famous figure?

Originally, they looked like a young man, so they were arrogant, but if they were big names, they still had to change their way.

It's just that they look at it and they don't see one. The latter four exchanged their eyes, and no one can recognize this person.

Just as they looked at each other, they heard the words behind Shen Lang.

“Look at me, such a jade tree is in the wind, which point is like a demon outside? Look at him again, his face is rough, his behavior is more embarrassing, obviously he is a demon outside!”

Five people who know a lot and think about the beginnings of the waves, immediately face green!

“Hurricane!”

“Helan brother! You have killed him! Even if someone says it, we will testify for you!”

Shen Lang laughed again: “Turn me out, you ask him if he has this strength?”

This made the face of the bearded man black again.

Just a palm is a temptation for both sides. He ate a dark loss, but in addition to this, he had to admit that the young man’s strength is not under him, otherwise he does not need to retreat.

But now these four ones come to help, but let him have no retreat.

If this is the case, he can also think of an excuse to find a step. As a result, Shen Lang is now directly speaking!

He began to regret a little, knowing that it was such a hard battle, he would not come out to force it, or go down the steps early, and now it is difficult to ride the tiger.

Fortunately, these four people are also shrewd. Originally, they ran out of force, because it was discovered that this young man could have a hard wave with Helan, but he was just stimulated.

“Hey! The young people are arrogant now. Since we look down on these old people, then our five old people will clean up together!”

Five people deal with a young man together. This is not okay. Anyway, it is a shameful thing. Therefore, they could only run out of the platform and not directly.

But the situation is a bit bad. If you put Helan pit, don’t say that it affects friendship, maybe the other party will resent them.

Therefore, at this time, it is best to advance and retreat. Anyway, no one else is here. As long as five people have cleaned up him, this matter will disappear in the snow forever. No one knows that there are millions of miles away. thing.

As long as one person said this, others would put down their shame and not have to face.

Including the beard and dahan, it is also a secret relief.

“You are a demon outsider! Even if you don’t know Zhoushan Optimus Prime, you really want to ruin the foundation of my country. Today, let me wait for five people to meet, and you will not be able to!”

When he said this, he was even more crowned.

The person who emphasized just now is the age, saying that they are five old people, and how much is a bit strong to make their own excuses. Now the reason for the beard and the big man is much greater.

To describe the other party as a demon outsider can also be said to be a kind of suppression, but he just appeared in the Optimus Prime. With this behavior, he was dismissed as an intention to destroy Optimus Prime and hurt the foundation of the Han State. That is a big sin. .

This is almost the extent that everyone gets it!

Shen Lang was very helpless. I didn’t want to get into trouble. I even apologized. I didn’t expect the other party not only to be uncomfortable, but also to give him a big reason to find a reasonable group reason. hat.

“Is this going to be more bully than people?”

“What is it? You are not saying that I have no strength to clean up you? Then we all together to remove the magic guard!” The bearded man Han’s face was upright, the bachelor’s recognition.

He is not a slap in the face, everyone is almost in the middle of the room, so he will not feel ashamed, and can calmly “except the magic.”

With the noble reason of “except the magic guardian”, the other four people are more calm.

“For the evil demon, there is no need to speak morally!”

“Everyone has nothing to do!”

“Today, we will inevitably kill this here!”

Shen Lang was stunned and couldn't help but spit it out: “Rely! Can you find a reason to be serious? I just stepped on the top of this stone pillar. There was a few feet on the ice. I didn't even touch the stone. This is the evil demon outside of all of you?”

Of course, a few of them understand this, but now they are already at this level. Can they still admit their mistakes? In order to face the face, and in order to be able to jointly attack, it is necessary to say that he is going to the bad.

The bearded man, known as Helan, threw a step at this time.

“Don't say that we are stubborn, I will give you another chance. If you can bow down and regret, you are not a demon!”

His conditions, or adhere to the conditions of the beginning, as long as Shen Lang did, he did not regress, or won. Now they are five people, but they are much stronger than just starting a person. He now feels that this is a step for Shen Lang.

“Go to your mother!”

Chapter 1269 - Fighting madman

“you you.....”

Helan's beard was mad.

They are all big people with identity. I dare to have such a drink for them. I don't know how long ago it was.

Just as they pressed Shen Lang into a demon outer road, it was just a moral dispute, and there was no sorrow. Suddenly being stunned now, not angry.

“Don’t be yours, Xiaoye doesn’t kill the unknown, and report your dog name!”

Apologizes, the reason is also said, and even the strength is also shown, the other side is still this step-by-step attitude, Shen Lang has not wanted to be polite with them.

Just do it!

If you don’t want to cause trouble, it doesn’t mean you are afraid!

“I am happy to laugh at you today!”

One of the other four people also sighed: “No matter which man you are, even if your teacher is in front of you, I will teach you a lesson today!”

“Helan smiles, is it? I remembered it! You four dare not report the name of the small, just call you passers-by A and B!”

Shen Lang searched for memories. He Lan’s smile came from Helan City, which is a very famous one of the Helan family in recent decades.

Because He Lan smiles differently from other people, he never does anything to keep a low profile. From a young age, he has a certain strength and begins to challenge everywhere.

It is said that the number of people he has challenged has reached hundreds of people, and most of them are victorious. He can live all the time, and the realm is getting higher and higher. It can be seen that even if he loses, he has not been hit hard.

After he won, he often laughed and laughed, so he slowly got the name of Helan, and his name was not remembered. He was very satisfied with the nickname of Helan, because it meant that he was always winning. General.

After learning about his origins, Shen Lang was a bit skeptical. Is this really so revered for Optimus Prime? Will it be just a reason to find a way to fight with him!

However, since this is already the case, there is nothing to say, and what excuses are all about playing a game.

“You are a passerby! You are only A, B, D, Ding!”

The four people were unhappy with the code name and angered: “We are the famous four sons of Hongdian!”

“Hey, I am not very old, but I was the first time I heard someone introduce myself. I said that I am famous. Hey!”

Shen Lang sneered at one side and searched for the memory of the four sons of Hongdian.

There is a place called the Red Mountain. There is a Cang and Zong. The four sons of Hongdian are the disciples of Cang and Zong. In the name of the Red Mountain, the brothers and sisters together created the nickname “The Four Sons of Hongdian.”

Needless to say, their style is similar to He Lan’s smile. When young and energetic, they will go all out to make a name. Perhaps they have a smile with He Lan, which was played when they were young.

Counting them five and Weiyangzi, Zhou Wei are a generation, so these are clear, carefully search for memories, or have seen.

Shen Lang is also identified one by one. The strongest of the four is called Miao Zhongtian. It should have the strength of a semi-Xianfeng peak. The other three are called, Zhong Zhongzhi, Li Zhongyuan, He Zhongfang, and the three of them are better than ordinary. Half of the fairy, but the distance from the semi-Xianfeng should be a little bit worse.

The four sons of Hongdian played in the form of a “combination” team. The strength of a single person is not as good as that of He Lan, but the four are combined to be stronger.

After learning that all five of them are of this style, Shen Lang suspected that they would speed up here and hide the trails. If they did, they would want to fight ambushes! And he is the first one to hit.

Just talking about Li Zhongyuan in the fourth son of Hongdian, he heard the ridicule of Shen Lang, he is also a red face.

“Kids! Hugh and sharp teeth, report the name! We are not worthy of the nameless ghost!”

They certainly like to fight, but they are still sensible. If they are untouchable, they will not be tempted. Will come out to provoke the waves, because there is only one person, can be provoked.

However, Shen Lang’s ability to understate and Helan’s smile is a testament to his strength, and a younger age than that of him can have such strength and will surely come.

It’s just that Shen Lang has never reported himself to the house. Now they have to do it with each other. They also asked one.

There is no doubt that even if Helan laughs alone, the five of them will add up, and they must be able to do it.

“I don’t have to sign up, I’m afraid to scare you!” Shen Lang said, stretching a lazy waist.

When he was in a shape, they were slightly surprised, and they quickly got ready for the alert. They found that they just stretched out and were a little bit shameful.

Oh! They are all masters of actual combat, but now they are so scrupulous about a young man.

But they also have to admit that the strength of this young man is much stronger than they were in those years.

“Then we are welcome!”

He Lan smiled and felt that this young man was bluffing. If there is any big news, he should have already said it. At this time, he has to face five people. Actually, he still does not speak. There must be no background!

“Kids! Come with us Don’t affect the pillars of Optimus!”

At this time, I am afraid that the battle will affect Optimus Prime. It is obvious that the excuse that He Lan started to laugh is not only an excuse, but a true respect for these two Optimus Prime.

When he spoke, he quickly swept out in the direction of the slope, and it was already outside the Baizhang.

The four sons of Hongdian kept their guards, and then they followed Helan with a smile. Among them, Miao Zhongtian, who has the strongest strength, is protecting the other three people and not letting Shen Lang break through.

Shen Lang also flew up and jumped out with them, but his speed was much slower.

Soon, He Lan smiled and flew to a dozen or so miles, and the four sons of Hongdian followed.

There are more than a dozen miles, even if everyone fights each other, there will be deviations, and it will not affect the accidental injury to Optimus Prime. And where he settled, he chose a large flat ground.

There is still snow there, and there is a lot of ice on the ground, but such an environment has no effect on their realm.

“Are you ready?”

Shen Lang flew in the air, followed, but in the end did not follow, but asked first.

“Kids! Look at you young, we let you shoot first!” Helan said with a smile.

All five of them have already prepared for the battle, and with their actual combat capability, such a joint attack can completely eliminate this young man. So don't mind the gentleman, let Shen Lang first shot.

Shen Lang laughed in the air: "Then I will be welcome! Be careful, once I shot, there will be no share for you!"

Chapter 1270 - Big bully

When the Shenlang people were in the air, when they spoke, they had already taken out the iron bars. When they finished, the iron bars quickly became bigger and longer, and then he stood in the air and slammed directly against the five people below. Go on!

Now he controls the iron bar more freely, can be big and small, and does not have to turn himself into a huge hand to hold.

At the moment, one end of the handshake is just the right size, and the end of the squat is as the strength grows longer and bigger, and when it falls to the ground, it can directly cover the area where five of them stand!

When an iron rod weapon appeared in Shen Lang's hand, they all looked in their eyes and did not pay attention to it.

Waiting for the sinking waves, I didn't expect him to sneak a stick in the air directly, but did not expect that this imaginary stick would become bigger and bigger!

With the realm of five of them, they can control the field, but this stick is too unexpected. When they want to control, they can't bear the tremendous pressure.

As a last resort, this first move forced five people to spread in different directions.

They are five people, two are the half-six peaks, the other three are also close to the half-Xianfeng peak, and it is actually out of the battle, naturally will not be killed by a stick. Everyone is surprised again, and it is still easy to avoid.

The huge one of the iron rods slammed directly on the ground, causing a shock nearby, and the ground was directly sunk, and countless gravel and ice  spattered to the side.

“Hey! This magic weapon is good, I want it!”

He Lan smiled and reached out to the iron bar and pressed it. The press was pressed by the individual's strength. At the same time, the field was used to contain the blockade, so that the waves could not be pulled out.

The four sons of Hongdian are old acquaintances with him. Everyone is very tacit. Needless to say, he has already flew directly into the air to attack the past when he shot.

In their view, the ability to control the magic of Shen Lang is equivalent to taking him an arm and attacking the past. Shen Lang either gives up the magic weapon defense, or he will be hit by the four sons of Hongdian!

However, they just saw a face of the iron bar and have not got a deeper understanding.

Therefore, when He Lan thought that he had already controlled the magic weapon, he suddenly became smaller. He let him press his hand with his strength and lost support. He almost rushed to the ground!

In the air, the waves are manipulating the iron bars as they please. The original end has become huge, but now it has become smaller.

And he just took back the iron bar a few inches, then adjusted the angle a little, and then grew longer.

The result was that He Lan smiled and stabilized his figure. He stabilized his hand and did not emptied, but it seemed to have disappeared from the same iron bar, but it became a sharp cone, and stabbed him from the back of his hand!

He Lan smiled that depressed!

The palm of his hand has been smashed into the palm of the hand by the moon, and bursting energy in the palm of his hand. Now he has worn the entire palm from the back of his hand!

Shen Lang did not expect to be able to kill him. After hitting the middle, he immediately took back the iron bar, and at the same time made it the same size as his hand, and then quickly danced to the four sons of Hongdian who flew over to him. There was a stirring interception in the air.

The four sons of Hongdian thought that Helan could successfully hold the magic weapon, even a bit uneven. They wanted to work  the other enemy, but Helan smiled and grabbed the magic weapon.

I didn't expect the situation to change in an instant, and the iron bars smashed over them!

They are approaching the sinking waves, but now they are intercepted in advance and can only be dodged in the air.

“This is called – stir the crowbar!”

The four people who were dodging, when they heard the words from the waves, were silent for a while.

God's special messenger! Who will give this kind of magic weapon to such a name?

But immediately four people were angry!

Stirring the crowbar! As the name suggests, the four of them who are now “stirring” are...

“The boy is looking for death!”

Helan smiled on the ground, and the back of his hand was pierced, which made him angry and immediately leaped up from the ground. There was a big knife in his hand!

He was quickly approaching the sinking waves, and the four who were stirred by the “cracking crowbar” were getting closer and closer to the waves in the process of dodging.

“Is it bigger than me?” Shen Lang laughed.

That big knife is indeed a very domineering weapon. Compared with the sword of about three feet, it is huge. It is a simple knife, but also a long handle, not a knife.

His knife is more than a mile long, and the width is several times that of a general knife. It is difficult to make a difference. Originally in the process of fighting, it can have a suppressive effect, similar to the effect of Juyue Sword before Shen Lang.

But now the iron bars in the hands of Shen Lang are completely different, not only huge but also able to grow bigger and smaller. The giant knife that followed the domineering, compared with the iron bars of the pillars, is a big witch.

As the sound of Shen Lang just fell, not only the iron rod became huge, but his own body also became huge, and once again a smashed stick came over!

Be bullied!

Five people can't help but sneak up, the magic weapon can become bigger and smaller, and people can grow bigger and smaller. What is this practice? Is it Ding Dingcheng?

He Lan smiled or did not believe in evil. His decades of experience in combat made him still full of fighting passion, so in the face of huge iron bars, he did not choose to dodge, but directly reached the hand to meet up!

With the sound of the "Golden Stone" of the "锵锵", a lot of sparks were spattered, and the thick blade was rolled up quickly with a visible degree!

This is a no-brainer. If you encounter an ordinary sword, you can cut off other people's weapons directly by his giant knife. Now the iron bar of Shen Lang is bigger than it, harder than it, and the strength is even stronger. As a result, the blade is collapsed.

In fact, this big knife with more than one foot has not been cut off. It has already proved that its quality is very good.

But Helan laughs certainly can't accept this consequence!

Not to mention the disappointment that was originally expected after the knife was built. This knife alone has been with him for a long time. It is not only a weapon, but also a glory accompanying it.

Now it is directly rolled up, which is more difficult than the tie on his back.

After the change of Shen Lang, the four sons of Hongdian, after being shocked, quickly evaded the opening. Miao Zhongtian has already gestured to the other three people and let them step back.

After a few simple fights, he is already very clear. He Zhongfang, Li Zhongyuan, and Zhong Zhongzhi are slightly worse than the two of them. If they are not careful, they may suffer.

They are partners for decades, and they are also brothers who grow up together, and naturally they will worry about the comfort of others.

Miao Zhongtian himself, also realized that he can't keep his hands, he must go all out to help Helan smile, or Helan smiles, and he can't hold it!
