

First Strong 1271

Chapter 1271 - 1 stick

Miao Zhongtian's shot is actually a master of fire spells, an instant meteor fire, and countless fire points are fast and fierce, just like a machine gun sweeping against a deep wave.

The three people in the middle of the squad are pushing a distance farther away and then assisting the attack on Shen Lang. Their attack is to let the ground gravel, mud, ice, etc., constantly fly from different angles, and then stick to the sinking body!

Miao Zhongtian's fire spell attack, the natural effect is more obvious, it is the danger of seeing. The attack of the other three people seems strange, just seems to want to drag the hind legs.

But the actual feeling of Shen Lang is just the opposite!

Because it is the low temperature of the snow, the innate environment is not conducive to the attack of fire spells, all the flames must be weak.

The three of them are steadily fighting, cooperating, working together, using stones, etc., wrapping the target, once wrapped, it is not as simple as dragging the hind legs, but directly squeeze it, from the flesh to the bones!

Of course, it is because now Shenlang has become a giant. If it is an ordinary person, they will use the ice and other stones to directly drown the people.

It's too late to say it! The speed of the five of them is very fast, especially the four sons of Hongdian, and they cooperate with each other.

But the speed of Shen Lang is faster than them! Even in the case of a huge body, it is still very flexible.

"Get me a stick!"

When Shen Lang said these five words, it was a matter of a second. In fact, he waved hundreds of sticks!

Now the iron bars have become as big as the pillars. Such a quick swing makes the sky all the shadows of the sticks, so that the five of them can't help.

He Lan smiled and still suffered from a long knife roll, but the hurricane hit the general stick, so that he had to resist quickly, and after blocking more than ten sticks, the blade has completely rolled up.

He did not dare to accept the block, but let himself quickly retreat to the bottom and the distance.

Miao Zhongtian's meteor fire, although it looks very embarrassing, but unfortunately can not be close to the body of the waves, because the speed of dancing is too fast, all the fire points are blocked by the iron bars.

This is a fire spell. In the snowy edge of the mountain, the effect has been greatly reduced, and you don't want to touch the iron rod.

The other three people are even worse!

They had obeyed the arrangement of Miao Zhongtian, had already retired a little, and then attacked by the combined spells, ready to trap the sinking waves. It can even be attacked by the powerful fire spells in the Miao, but on the surface, it is to help them cover and let them build their merits.

The benefits are of course really effective, but the downside is that their spells can't be interrupted!

Just because it can't be interrupted, we must first retreat the safe distance, plus the strongest Miao Zhongtian to cover. It is a pity that the nearly 100-year-old squad that has been thrown out in a short second is no longer a specific attacker. It is a whole space, and everything is indiscriminate!

When He Lan and Miao Zhongtian, who are stronger than them, need to avoid, the three of them are weaker, and where can they remain still? Staying still, that is waiting to be knocked into the meat!

So soon, when Shen Lang said the first word, there were already one or twenty sticks of money, and they could not give up the attack on Shen Lang and began to flee to the back.

Even so, it was hurt by the surrounding hurricane.

Of course, Shen Lang will not just be a defense. In just one second, nearly one hundred sticks are thrown out. One or twenty sticks in front of them just really forced them to be very embarrassed. They almost hurt people, but they are scattered behind them. Escaped, quite a bit of a loss, and he had no difference to the surrounding attack, so did not hit.

However, in this second of light, it took a lot of trouble for the five of them. It is already very domineering.

And he immediately chased it out.

Among the five of them, He Lanyi and Miao Zhongtian are stronger, reaching the peak of half a fairy, and also the strongest combat ability. Just straining is also faster for them, so Shen Lang directly skipped them first.

His current pursuit is directly followed by Zhai Zhongzhi, Li Zhongyuan, and He Zhongfang!

When the three of them had just attacked the sinking waves, they were attacked in different directions. Now, when they flee, they of course flee from different directions.

This is inconvenient to track at the same time, even if Shen Lang has this speed, it can only pursue one, and then it will be too late to chase after others.

But now Shen Lang is a giant, still holding a magical iron stick!

Therefore, his body quickly chased to He Zhongfang, one hand grabbed the past, and the other one's iron rod directly attacked Li Zhongyuan alone, and it was constantly extended!

In addition, through the holy armor, mobilize the artillery fire to continue to smash the wisdom!

Everything happens in a fast process, and it's just one second, another second and two seconds.

Helan Yixiao, Miao Zhongtian two people who fled farther away felt the threat of no iron bars, and immediately turned to re-layout attacks. After all, they are just dodging, not the real number to escape.

As a result, I couldn't help but be amazed!

Almost at the same time, the continuous sound of the cannons directly smashed Zhong Zhongzhi from the air. Li Zhongyuan, who was desperate to flee, found that the iron rod followed him, and he was scared. When he was nervous, he was hit by an iron rod!

He Zhongfang was arrested by Shen Lang, and he almost suffocated and was pinched to move!

Shen Lang is not simply catching him. This is half a fairy, and it is half a fairy who is about to reach the peak. So he just grabbed the past, and essentially the same attack as Helan's smile before.

Therefore, the strength is not as good as his Chinese side. It seems that he was caught by the big hand. In fact, the surrounding area was completely blocked. There was no way to escape. After being caught, the whole person was banned and unable to struggle.

“Stop! Stop! Let's be merciful!”

As soon as I saw this picture, Miao Zhongtian immediately screamed and raised a hand, indicating that he would stop fighting and not attack.

Although He Lan did not speak, he stopped the attack, so as not to anger the Shen Lang.

Now Li Zhongyuan and Zhai Zhongzhi are both dead and alive, and they may have been seriously injured. He is also clearly caught in the hands of Shen Lang, who may pinch people at any time.

He still had a long knife in his hand and looked at the huge knife that had disappeared. He made him secretly smile.

Unexpectedly, actually turned over in the gutter!

Winning and losing is a common occurrence of the military, but this time it was his joint attack with the four sons of Hongdian, but it was like this by the other party. It was really shameful...

Chapter 1272 - Cry me 1

With a wave of swaying hands and a long stick out of the iron rod, the front end has been shrunk, and Li Zhongyuan, who stunned a stick, hooked back and then caught it with He Zhongfang.

“Is there any mercy? I am a demon outsider, isn’t the evil demon outside the murder?”

Shen Lang satirized a sentence. He did not catch Yu Zhongzhi. Two of the hostages were enough. The rest, let them see the effect.

At this moment, Miao Zhongtian immediately flew past and took the glimpse of Zhong Zhizhi who was falling from the sky.

I saw that the state of Zhongzhizhi was still possible, and it was not killed. But even if the body of the half-seven was bombarded at the same time, the clothes could not be preserved. It was no longer a film, and it was necessary to send it. Obviously burnt.

In addition, the body also has a lot of wounds, and the powerful impact has also affected him.

It was found that he was not seriously injured, and the genius in the seedlings was relieved.

However, Zhong Zhizhi, but it is difficult to bear this shackle, and immediately flew a little far away, and could not care about healing anything, first found clothes from the storage space...

“Your words are heavy...” Miao Zhongtian smiled bitterly: “We just...it was a joke.”

“I want to kill me, is it a joke? Then I should feel lucky, this is a catastrophe!”

He Lan smiled and snorted: “There is less garlic! Everyone just learns about the exercises. You really do not show mercy, and directly hit people to death, and there is not much difference between them and the evil devil!”

“Is it?” Shen Lang raised two people in his hand and worked hard.

“Don’t, don’t!”

He Lan can laugh regardless of it, Miao Zhongtian can not be ignored, this is his brother and brother, but also a partner for decades, that feeling is not generally measurable.

“Sorry!”

In order to let Shen Lang let go, Miao Zhongtian decisively apologized!

“How? You are not in addition to the magic guardian? That should not be afraid of death, not afraid of tired spirit, I am apologizing for being threatened by me, is this still a righteous person? Too embarrassing?” Shen Lang continued to ridicule.

Miao Zhongtian smiled bitterly: “Actually... we have not been malicious. We are young and may not have heard of our name. Our four sons and the Helan brothers are famous for challenging others.”

Shen Lang sank his face: “Are you just a challenge to me?”

“It’s just that we are not right... This is not a Zhoushan after all. We are afraid that you have no intention to accept the challenge, so we have used this method. Excuse me, we actually want to talk to you. Really, we actually No malicious.”

Miao Zhongtian quickly explained, and carefully asked: “Can you put them both first? I am afraid they will be pinched to death... and... can you return to normal? Now this Look, really... very unaccustomed...”

Shen Lang sneered: “I lost or what? Why do you want to accommodate your habit?”

He Lan smiled and said: “Kids! What conditions do you want to open directly! Don’t continue to squat, we fight for a lifetime, what kind of situation has not been seen? Winning and losing are bright and upright!”

Shen Lang smiled a little: “Helan smiles? Don’t worry, now I am holding the people of the four sons of Hongdian, so you should not be arrogant here, I will settle with you alone later!”

“...” Helan smiled silently for a while, but they just joined together!

That is to say, they are one side. Since one is hit and the two are caught, it is undoubted that they lost. He still recognizes this.

“Hey, smile... I will make you cry later!”

He Lan was directly irritated by a smile, but watching two people in the hands of Shen Lang, still hold back.

Miao Zhongtian immediately interface: “Your hero is a teenager, we are five people, not an opponent, we are already admit defeat. The two of them are your captives, but also hope that they can let them go, we are really not malicious. Of course, if you want us to pay anything, we can also consider it.”

“Really? I have only one condition and it is very simple.”

When I heard the dark waves, Miao Zhongtian's eyes lit up. "You please say!"

He Lan smiled a little suspiciously. He instinctively felt that this young man would not be that simple.

"Let Helan laugh and cry." Shen Lang's eyes looked at He Lan's smile.

He Lan smiled directly and mad!

What a ghost! He is a young man, even if he loses, he can't cry.

"Kids! Speak and pay attention, you can kill you!"

"The sorcerer can't be humiliated... The truth is right, but what kind of person are you?"

"I—"

He Lan smiled arrogantly. He fought fiercely, and everyone who saw it was polite, and today he was almost mad at this kid!

"Helan brothers... The life of the Central Plains and the Chinese side can be in your hands..." Miao Zhongtian hardened his scalp and asked Helan for a smile.

Compared to Shen Lang, a stranger who does not press the cards, he certainly would rather ask a friend.

He Lan smiled at him and made almost vomiting blood!

This makes Laozi cry, and you Miao Zhongtian also let Laozi cry!

He really wants to spray a few days in the seedlings, but seeing Miao Zhongtian's face helpless and sorrowful look, his heart softened.

After all, it's decades of friendship, and everyone has the same experience. Although it's usually said that this life would rather die in the challenge, it's really necessary to watch two people being pinched and doing Not enough.

He Lan smiled and turned into Helan, crying. This is of course a very dignified thing, but it is worthwhile to save back two partners. And compared to other conditions, this is the easiest to achieve except for no dignity.

“Kid! You have to talk and count!”

Helan snorted and smiled, then slammed himself.

But he was full of anger, and he only wanted to do a big job. Where can he still cry?

However, in this realm, to control some of the physiological conditions, in fact, it is still a small matter, emotionally unable to come out, he can only force himself to cry out.

This is a humiliating tear!

Miao Zhongtian looked very uncomfortable. This crying, let Helan say the name after a smile, will remember this one wrong.

Shen Lang's hand trembled, and He's body flew out immediately, and Miao Zhongtian quickly caught him.

In fact, after throwing it out, he has lifted the imprisonment. He regained his freedom. Just now he was caught and there was no serious problem.

In the hands of Shen Lang, there was Li Zhongyuan, who was stunned by the iron rod. It was the most injured one among the three people.

“Kids! You are fooling! I have already cried, how can you deduct the next person!” Helan said with a smile.

“Can you...” Miao Zhongtian continued to make a decision.

“The condition is one, of course, it is a change. Do you think that you are a bear like a bear? Is it worth it? I want to test it out and see if you will treat him as a must! It is loyalty to really replace him. !”

Chapter 1273 - Don't know each other

Hearing the words of Shen Lang, they are all embarrassed.

Shen Lang forced “Helan a smile” into “Helan a cry”, whether it was He Lan, who laughed at himself, or Miao Zhongtian, who was convinced of it, felt that this was a great humiliation!

If Lingshi or other resources can be exchanged, they would rather give resources and feel that it is a bad one.

But now I heard this, but I was surprised.

Actually it was to see Helan smile and have no loyalty!

Helan, who had been grievous and furious, laughed and thought deeply.

At that moment, he really thought about “closing my ass”, but looked at Miao Zhongtian's emotions, was infected, and quickly made a decision, grievances and saved them two – of course, now Know that it is one.

“In fact, I have proved that I am laughing, but still loyal, and you! But it is a remark!”

Because of the words of Shen Lang, the grievances and resentments of He Lan's smile have dissipated most of it. He began to talk more sensibly with Shen Lang.

Shen Lang shrugged: “You add up to hundreds of old guys, and you want to change back to two people with a tear, do you mean?”

“What do you want?” Helan asked with a smile.

Just let him cry, it is really hurting others, they estimate that Shen Lang still has Li Zhongyuan, just want to kill them.

“I want to know some information about the ruins.”

When he said this, Shen Lang directly threw out Li Zhongyuan, and his own body was restored to its original state, including iron bars.

This condition once again made them a few people wrong.

I thought it was like a magic weapon, I didn't expect to just want some information that was not well-remained!

“Thank you for your kindness!” Miao Zhongtian thanked him and caught Li Zhongyuan, who was in a coma. “But... it's not a ruin. What we know is actually public information.”

Shen Lang has been restored to its original state, and everyone has landed on the ground together.

“Are you sure you are not playing us?” He Lan smiled and stared at Shen Lang with a smile. Then he gave Miao Zhongtian a look and gestured to quickly check out Li Zhongyuan. Don't kill someone!

“I know that you are capable people, and you must know more information than I do.” Shen Lang seriously: “As for whether you say a few points, will you tell fake news, you will see yourself, sincerity I have expressed It is.”

He pointed to Li Zhongyuan, and the people first let go.

Miao Zhongtian has quickly checked, Li Zhongyuan was naturally stunned, and it was indeed injured, but it was not fatal, and even serious injuries were not counted.

He has already been relieved, and he also leads the feelings of Shen Lang.

“You are so sincere, we will not tell lies, and we are willing to tell you all!”

He Lanyi smiled that he suspected that Shen Lang had no plans. Now, Li Zhongyuan was not harmed, and Shen Lang also said, "I know that you are capable people." This sentence makes him listen very comfortable.

It can be praised by friends who are not inferior to their own, and it is more joyful than the praise of friends.

Therefore, it is also a bit of a taste of "not knowing each other."

By this time, the situation has already been explained, and He Lan smiled to find a reason to fight. If he is a master of fame, he is certainly a big invitation to challenge, but Shen Lang is a young man who does not know at all, so he used the attitude of seeking.

If the light is said to be fighting, Helan Yixiao and Miao Zhongtian are still not convinced. They all feel that they have not yet exerted their strength.

But just now they were besieged by five people, but they did not let the other party suffer setbacks. Instead, they beat them down and three injured and captured. This has already been judged.

From the top of the fighting spirit, He Lan smiled and wanted to continue to come with Shen Lang, but since the five people were said to have joined together, they must be defeated if they lose.

They have been fighting for decades, and this is still relatively bachelor.

Shen Lang used "loyalty" to describe his concessions, and praised "they are capable", which also makes them feel comfortable.

The latter is simple, they immediately told the situation to Shen Lang.

As people who have challenged for decades, both of them have more information in circulation than the general sects and families.

For example, a sect of ecstasy like Yuxianmen often has to wait for someone to pass by and visit, in order to learn more about the foreign information, often only once a month, a few months, or a fixed trader.

But whether it is friends or vendors, the information channels are limited. They are different, go to different cities, meet different friends, challenge different masters, and over time, they can be said that friends are all over the world, and the circulation of information is far better than ordinary people.

In the past few decades, there have been many unrecognized relics to be opened, and many sects have begun to prepare. Helan laughed at them and began to prepare from a young age.

They used to be like the average young people. They hoped that they would enter the ruins of the day, and they would inherit the inheritance in the ancient secrets.

But the average person just dreams, they have paid the actual action!

Helan Yixiao and the challenges of the four sons of Hongdian are not born to be aggressive, but to improve their own strength as soon as possible in this way. If the ruins are opened, they can also have a little chance of survival.

It's just that the beginning is the process of decades. It's no longer important to have the original intention. They are used to and adapt to this way of life. This time, they also knew this information for the first time.

Not to mention preparations for decades, not to be prepared, but they have always been in a state of combat, so there is no need to prepare as much as others, ready to go. Plus they were in the area closer to this side, so it was the first to arrive here.

Both of them met in the process of rushing. After arriving here, they thought that the heroes of the world would come, and maybe even many old people. This is a good opportunity for challenge.

So there is a scene of today, they are very curious about this young man who is second only to them.

As for the information on the ruins, they do not seem to hide, and many of them are consistent with the information of Chaotianmen. However, what makes Shen Lang pay attention to is that there is still the same information.

The opening of the ruins is not a simple opening, timing closure, but will be a long process. After entering it, it is likely that it will not come out in ten or eight years, even decades!

It is because of this relationship that there is no unified opening time for the inheritance information of each faction. Of course, it will always come out in it, and it will be everywhere!

But Helan doesn't care if they laugh at them. Isn't it a practice? In the ruins of the past, it is more likely to have unusual adventures. How can it be a thousand years, they are full of enthusiasm.

When Shen Lang heard this, he was a little bit frowning. According to this time, can you go back to the earth?

Chapter 1274 - Artifact Quest

He Lan smiled and they said some details about the ruins, but no one has ever been to the living, and can't verify that these are true or false. They can only listen to it and then adapt to it.

Of course, they also have to inquire about the origins of Shen Lang. Shen Lang said his name, but they have never heard of it!

This is because the last time the name came, the reputation of Shen Lang is not in their eyes. And this time in the Tiandu City, the various kinds have not spread, they are already on the road.

After some retelling, everyone has returned to Optimus Prime. They have not had too much enthusiasm. They still maintain their former appearance. They hide in the cave, and the three men in the middle of the squad will inevitably be healed.

They also suggested that Shen Lang get a cave. Even if he does not hide and ambush, he can avoid the snow and peace of mind.

Shen Lang said that he first explored the neighborhood and see how this is not the case.

He Lan smiled and they didn't persuade anything. Young people always felt that everything could be done. Only after trying it, did they know that they were not strong.

Of course, Shen Lang is not really exploring, but leaving them far away and solving another thing alone.

The space cracks on the side of the sea without jail should not change greatly, and it will take two years to go back. If you have entered the ruins of Zhoushan, it will take ten or eight years or even longer, you have to arrange things.

One is a canoe and others, and it is too long to leave. There are family members in the canoe and the rain, and the ice palace needs to be responsible. Dorothy and Zheng Yumeng are also similar.

The other is to see the parents again, let them have a psychological preparation, or worry about it for more than ten years, and someone needs to protect them.

This decided to go back and send them back. It's not that he will be in danger when he is in the ruins. Once he is in danger, they will follow the .....

It's just when the specific time is turned on, and how to get there. There is no more information about Shen Lang.

The space entrance and exit of Yuxianmen is still in a very distant direction. Once again, returning to the earth to settle down, the fastest speed must also take several days.

Shen Lang is now trying to try the door of the Three Realms!

That night, I got the magic weapon of the Gate of the Three Realms. It was just that there was an opportunity to open the door to space, and there was no chance to verify it. It is estimated that the opportunity is not great, or it will be treasured.

It's time to try it out, and if you can, go back directly to Earth from here, you can save a lot of time.

There are no people in the tens of thousands of miles here, and it is convenient for the experiment.

Without further ado, he immediately took out the door of the Three Realms and began to experiment while trying.

The research is actually very simple. After infusing the mental power, it will stimulate it and have the opportunity to open a small space crack and be able to shuttle anywhere in the Three Realms.

However, in the actual attempt, it is very helpless.

Shen Lang continued to try one or two hundred times, and none of them succeeded! And it also consumes a lot of mental power.

No wonder the magic weapon that can shuttle the Three Realms will be sold. With such a low success rate, even the chicken ribs are not counted. And there hasn't been a success until now, and it's just a matter of editing!

Now because of the time, even if the success rate is low, or it may be false, Shen Lang can only continue to test.

Unfortunately, this can't be used in the Tianshu space. Otherwise, it can be used hundreds of times.

Fortunately, the spirit of Shen Lang is still strong enough, so I continued to try one or two hundred times, and there is still no change.

However, three or four hundred times down, Shen Lang has summed up a little experience. Although it is not successful, it should be a low probability. If it is fake, it will not consume as much mental power.

It's just that if you can succeed now, it's a success rate of a few thousandths. If you want to escape in battle, it's almost a behavior to find death.

For Shen Lang, there is still nothing to run, what if the success rate of a few thousand? How many thousands of times do you want to try again?

It's always easy to give up without seeing the head.

Shen Lang quickly decided to make another attempt – Kunlun mirror!

He collected several pieces of artifacts in the past, from Qiangjialing to the last Western monks to help him collect scattered and scattered parts of the suspected ancient artifact Kunlun mirror, which had already been repaired with his own blood.

Later, together with the Ba Tian Tower, and together with the element stone, try to repair the evolution. I have been in the space of heaven, and it has been twenty years since I counted it. There may be some changes.

Shen Lang entered the space of the heavenly book, and by the way, they told the situation a few times, let them prepare, and then brought out the Kunlun mirror.

For the role of Kunlun mirror, it is also a myth and legend. Is it true that Kunlun mirror, can really have the ability to cross space, the same is unknown.

But looking at the door of the Three Realms, Shen Lang is really trying again hundreds of times, just one door to the three worlds, one hand Kunlun mirror, and let them together, try to inspire see if you can There is a linkage between each other.

If you can have a “one plus one equals two” effect, you can double the success rate.

But when Shen Lang was ready to do another hundred times of useless work, there was a change he did not expect!

When he put the two together and stimulated, there was no change in the space. The two artifacts changed instead, and it was a fierce struggle!

by! Is this a homosexual rebellion or a peer?

Shen Lang secretly spit, but want to separate them, it is impossible to do it!

The gates of the Three Realms and the Kunlun mirror are tightly adsorbed at the moment, but at the same time they are still struggling fiercely, and both of them are inspired by him. This struggle naturally draws his spiritual strength.

As a result, Shen Lang is now playing his right hand with his left hand. His own mental power continues to fight himself after being magnified by the artifact...

After a while, Shen Lang felt that his head was about to explode the same uncomfortable!

Because he has awakened his past life, he has always been very strong in spirit, and every promotion has also stimulated a stronger spirit. The latter is because of the unity of the two mysterious substances, allowing him to directly absorb and absorb, such as those trolls.

Just two days ago, before he killed Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi, he was not wasted and drained their mental power.

Therefore, if it is spiritual, even if he is directly confronted with the Daxian level, he is confident. Just like the half-sex peak, he devours most of the undead.

But the problem now is that he has to deal with himself! The stronger the left side, the stronger the right side, and it is all magnified by the artifact... In short, it is like two gods fighting in his spiritual world!

Chapter 1275 - Polishing artifact

Shen Lang immediately alerted, if he continues, he will not be able to bear it, and will directly become the victim of these two artifacts!

The gate of the Three Realms has just been received, not very clear, but the Kunlun mirror is very clear, it is he who collects a little bit and uses pieces to fight together.

In other words, Kunlun mirror is a remnant of reorganization after breaking, and all aspects are undoubtedly weak residuals. And now I can still fight with the door of the Three Realms, indicating that the door of the Three Realms is also a serious damaged item!

That's right, no wonder that hundreds of times have not been successful. And obviously their fighting now, or ask Shen Lang to borrow.

By lending to others, the result is that they act as a battlefield for the wreckage, and Shen Lang certainly cannot do this.

Artifacts are also made by people, and he decides that they will be refining!

Shen Lang is not proficient in refining equipment, and there are no materials and equipment, but these two are already completed, but now they are defective. In this case, he decided to take the risk of taking a different approach and refining them together to see if they could become a new product!

There is no time to think about it. When I think about Shen Lang, I will do it first. When the two sides are fighting upright, they suddenly cut off the support of spiritual strength and let them suddenly lose their roots!

Sure enough, these two artifacts are weak enough. Without the support of Shen Lang, they can't fight.

However, they just absorbed a part of their mental strength, so after discovering that Shen Lang's mental strength, he immediately began to attack him and fight back!

It seems that among them, Shen Lang is not worthy of their masters, but a slave who supports them. Now it is the act of slaves...

Shen Lang actually thought about taking out the Ba Tian Tower. The last time I knew that the Ba Tian Tower is probably the world's lost tower, it seems to be much more perfect, and it's still possible to keep them in their two artifacts. of.

However, it takes time for the Batian Tower to refine. He does not have so much time waiting now, and he must complete it as soon as possible.

So Shen Lang is hard to come by myself!

Since the two have been sucked together and can not be separated, he does not divide, directly holding them, let them together, and whip out the stagnant water.

When two artifacts counteract Shenlang, the power is still very huge, because they just use the spiritual power of Shenlang and magnify many of the fighting, which has made Shenlang unbearable.

That is the impact of the impact, not to mention now, it is directly attacking Shen Lang, and quite a bit of the taste of both hands, the power directly to add several times!

At this time, the stagnant water whip is under the control of Shen Lang, rubbing their corners!

What is the strongest spear, the strongest shield, and the shield of the spear?

The mysterious stagnant water from the meditation area can corrode the king's fierce beast and dragon scales, and can directly intercept the half celestial, and break the magic weapon like tofu.

However, the doors of the Three Realms and the Kunlun mirror are undoubtedly artifacts, and their endurance will be stronger.

Under normal circumstances, it is certainly impossible for Shen Lang to try his own things, whether it is the door of the Three Realms, the Kunlun mirror, or the iron bar magic weapon.

Now it must be used. He estimates that even if these two artifacts can withstand the corrosion of stagnant water, it is estimated that it is not enough. After all, it is a very weak state of disability.

And they are all rebellious, can they still fail? Of course it is ruined and can't make them succeed!

When the stagnant water whip rubs up, the effect is obvious. Although it is not as straight as the other weapon magic weapon, it is also like the grinding wheel sharpening knife, and there is obvious scratch.

Forcing the confrontation of the waves, I also feel that both of them have a frightened state!

He immediately speeded up the friction of the stagnant water whip. If he didn't want to refine his clothes, he just wanted to destroy it, he didn't even need to rub it, and the crazy scrolling corrosion would be fine. Now it's just a warning from the corner.

Just tried it, it has already been effective, and Shen Lang is relieved. When it is absolutely necessary, it will be ruined.

But it is best to be able to conquer.

As the corrosion of the stagnant water whip increases, the two artifacts begin to have a "emotion" of fear, they all have a certain spirituality, knowing that this thing can destroy them. And their current state, without the master's control, is not enough to confront.

Soon, Shen Lang felt that Kunlun mirror faintly conveyed a hint of mercy!

Although he collected Kunlun mirror for a long time, it was only a few pieces that were not fast, and naturally there was no spirituality. But when the debris is to the residue, and then to the final fusion, for those cracks, the Shen Lang is bleeding to help.

That is to say, even if Kunlun mirror does not recognize his master, he is also partly connected with him. Later, they were raised with elemental beads, which of course was very good for it.

Just when it was also fighting with the gates of the Three Realms, I felt that Shen Lang's withdrawal of mental strength was to support the other side, so he would counterattack. The gates of the Three Realms should be similar, but it has no emotion with Shen Lang.

Shen Lang immediately responded to it, providing it with a bit of mental power, but it is well controlled is much weaker than before.

The spiritual Kunlun mirror is quite a bit "spiritual," knowing that this is support for it, and immediately attacked the door of the Three Realms again.

The gate of the Three Realms is also immediately resisting. Although it does not have the support of Shen Lang, the residue just now is enough to make it fight for a while.

They are fighting again, and although the waves are still under great pressure, it is at least much better than attacking him together.

Although Shen Lang is now biased, the stagnant water whip has not stopped, or the friction continues, and neither has let go! The Kunlun mirror is still rubbing!

However, Kunlun mirror did not care at this time, but strengthened the attack on the door of the Three Realms. Perhaps it was felt that it was accidentally touched, and the other party should be “injured” more seriously.

Shen Lang observes, while manipulating the stagnant water whip, while the palm of the hand uses the heaven and earth domineering, and then the two artifacts that are directly attracted together by the “Da Shou Mi Long Xiang Shen Gong”!

If it is a wrought iron, or even a magic weapon of a high quality, it will be directly pinched off by him. But for these two artifacts, even if the power of the waves, the hands can not round them.

However, his behavior is a pressure!

Through the external pressure, let the spirit of fighting together, control the artifact to devour each other!

This effect is also very obvious. Before the struggle between the two of them, this is not a “light peer”. It is very likely that you want to defeat the other party and become a big tonic for your recovery.

Now that there is a heavy emphasis on Shen Lang, Kunlun mirror has already gained the upper hand, and of course it is more active.

Originally, the corners of both sides were whipped by the stagnant water, and under the guidance of the pressure of the waves, the gates of the Three Realms also wanted to defy the power of resistance and swallowed each other.

Chapter 1276 - Real master

After feeling the gap between the two sides, Shen Lang began to support more spiritual power in Kunlun mirror!

This made Kunlun mirror more successful, and the suppression of the door of the Three Realms began to become more obvious.

Both sides want to devour each other. Under such circumstances, the two artifacts that had been absorbed together have become compatible, but basically they are at the level of five or four or four, and they have not been fully swallowed.

At this time, the Kunlun mirror's power made the door of the Three Realms feel the threat.

It also realized that now only the cheap owner of Shen Lang can help him.

Although it is not willing to admit and accept this master, it also feels that this master is not strong enough, but now they are both ruined and have to bow.

Ever since, the gates of the Three Realms began to ask for mercy for Shen Lang. I hope that Shen Lang can let it go, and everyone will return to the previous state of separation. Well water does not make river water.

Shen Lang did not have a soft heart, and continued to input more spiritual power to Kunlun mirror.

Kunlun mirrors the spirit of all-round suppression, but also allows swallowing to go faster, and immediately to the level of Sanqi!

At this time, the door of the Three Realms, which was struggling to support, once again conveyed a consciousness. The general idea is that as long as Shen Lang helps it maintain balance, it is willing to help Shen Lang to open the door of the Three Realms!

When Shen Langyi perceives this meaning, he immediately becomes angry!

It turned out that he had tried hundreds of times and had no results. It was not a question of low success rate. It was that this instrument controlled the door of the Three Realms. Not only was it unwilling to contribute, but it should take the opportunity to absorb his spiritual strength!

Shen Lang is really angry!

Kunlun mirror is a painstaking collection of his mind, blood donation, element beads have not lost it, the result is to raise the weak white-eyed wolf!

The door of the Three Realms bought in the middle of the road should be weak, and it will be supported by the large amount of mental power that he has just consumed.

Shen Lang immediately poured a considerable amount of spiritual power into the door of the Three Realms!

It has already been vulnerable, and it will soon be changed from Sanqi to Erba. If it continues, it will be completely swallowed up. Suddenly get the spirit of Shen Lang, let the door of the Three Realms, which has not been left behind, feel like a strong support, and immediately counterattack!

Kunlun mirror originally felt that it has been stable, it only needs to continue to support it, and the other party will not last long. I did not expect that the other party will burst out of powerful energy!

Is this the enemy of preserving strength? Or is it the help of Shen Lang's betrayal?

The sharp contrast made Kunlun mirror be killed by a surprise. The spirit of the door of the Three Realms, knowing to play with Shen Lang, of course, is also very high-end.

It is very clear that it is almost twenty-eight now, and it is very difficult for it to slowly counterattack to five or five. But if he gives up, becomes a nine, becomes completely swallowed, it is very easy!

Of course, it will not commit suicide. Instead, it will kill the enemy commander at the same time as it gives up the position. As long as it can be replaced in time, the new site of the 10% is dominated by it!

The support of Kunlun mirror is from Shen Lang. Now, the amount of assistance to the enemy is certainly very good.

Being attacked has made it unprepared, let alone the sudden increase in the speed of devouring, which caused it to consume a large part of the time, and it is difficult to defend.

At this time, even if it is full of resentment against the betrayal of Shen Lang, it has to ask for help from Shen Lang. As long as Shen Lang gives it enough spiritual support, it still has a certainty to turn over.

It should be said that only Shen Lang gives it enough mental support to prevent it from being attacked by counterattacks!

At this time, the Shenlang is breaking its support!

Strong negative resentment is coming in... If it can open up, it should be the most ugly swearing out!

However, Kunlun mirrors are not allowed to use the remaining power to fight against the enemy's counterattack.

The door of the Three Realms also felt the support of Shen Lang, breaking the support of the opponent, is the greatest support for it! – Just like just breaking the supply to him.

Just at the moment when the door of the Three Realms counterattacked the anti-killing, it was smashed by the mental support!

Suddenly, the strong negative resentment is once again filled with the thoughts of Shen Lang... If the door of the Three Realms can be opened, the estimation of 骂 is even more difficult than the Kunlun mirror!

But in this world, they don't have more time to hate the deep waves, suddenly lose their support, they must break the boat and fight hard to avoid being destroyed.

At this moment, the two men are once again quite equal. Of course, there is only one kind of result. It is neither the negative resistance of Kunlun mirror nor the counterattack of the door of the Three Realms, but the two loses!

The result of both defeats, of course, makes the door of the Three Realms with hope and despair even more depressed. But Kunlun mirror, which hopes to despair again, has been fortunately surprised.

The two spirits attacked again. Since the other party also smashed the weakness, as long as they supported it, they could have the new artifact that was merged. In time, they could be restored.

Just when the two people finally harden each time, after losing both losses, they lost both sides. At this time, Shen Lang shot!

The shock wave, the impact of the attack is about to blow up. Everything broke out, the spirit of strength swept away, and the artifacts that directly hurt both sides were wiped out!

At the last moment, they understand who is the real master!

Even if the artifact has a spirit, it is still just a "tool", a magic weapon tool created by man!

It is a pity that there is no room for regrets. Shen Lang directly engulfed them, just like trolls and undead, let them completely dissipate. This is a new artifact that merges into one, and there is no instrumentality. Only the owner of Shenlang has complete possession and control!

Finally, I can breathe a sigh of relief. Shen Lang found that I didn't know when I was sweating.

Looking at this new fusion of artifacts, the door of the Three Realms and the Kunlun mirror are "pinched" together, and then polished by the dead water whip, it has been different. And the process is just fierce, and the finished product is of course rough, like the craftsmanship of novice blacksmiths.

However, Shen Lang is very satisfied. He has almost been killed by them. He can survive between the two artifacts and successfully kill them. They can also use them to refine and merge. It is already a miracle that cannot be copied. It is.

Also have artistic effects!

Shen Lang re-manipulated and used the new Kunlun mirror of the Three Realms. In an instant, in front of him, there was a blind door!

Sure enough, that is the **** spirit!

After all, the artifact is an artifact, even if it is broken, the function is still there, although it takes a lot of mental energy.

Now, I don't know about it, but it's a bit awkward. Even if it's really done, it's not easy, but it's likely to make it sleep, so it's controlled and taken down. Mental strength.

Chapter 1277 - Shuttle space

According to Shen Lang's understanding, if there is no intention at all, then the door to manipulate the open space is random. But if you focus on a certain point with a strong awareness, it is possible to pass through it!

So when he was just manipulating, he was thinking about the house in Pingxi.

Now that I looked at the door of space, I didn't hesitate. I did a good job of defense and protection, and I immediately entered.

After a while, the in-situ Tuen Mun Cave disappeared, and Shen Lang appeared in Pingxi's home!

This feeling is very obvious. The air quality and the concentration of the aura are not mentioned. It is the best proof from the snow and ice to the inside of the house.

Shen Lang's knowledge examined the surroundings and confirmed that the parents were in the opposite house. It also proved that this was not his illusion, but that he really came back.

Although time is limited, as long as you can smoothly back and forth and save a lot of time, you don't have to worry.

Shen Lang brought the five women back from the space of Tianshu.

They are very surprised to see that they have returned to Earth. Because it's been a while since they feel, but the real time should be short.

This adventure of no return to the sea of prison, for everyone only two months, for them, is a retreat for more than ten or twenty years!

Although most of them spent their time in cultivation, they did not feel long and difficult, and their moods did not age twenty. But after all, these times have gone by objective, so when they come back to Earth, they are still very surprised and embarrassed.

Shen Lang took them to see their parents. Everyone had a meal together, and then they bluntly told me to go out.

The Shennan couple now understand better, knowing that their son is not the son of that year.

Although I can't say it, but my son has achievements, they are still happy, but they are not common, and they will inevitably be lonely.

However, these "children and daughters" are very interesting, saying that they will not go with them this time and will often accompany them.

This makes the Shennan couple feel a lot more comfortable, with a group of young and beautiful girlfriends at home, the son of this far door, it should not be a long time to go!

Shen Lang used his time to accompany his parents, because he is very clear that the ancient ruins of Zhoushan are a mysterious event for the mainland of Nakajima. The degree of danger is not comparable to that of Qiangjialing.

So in the decade and eight decades, it is really possible. I don't know when I will meet again.

On the other hand, he is now a semi-Xianfeng peak, and the gap with his parents is also very different. It's not that you can't look down on your parents, or because the gaps and separation of feelings are indifferent, but everyone is really two people in the world!

Bring your parents to the mainland of China? Raise them to half a fairy?

These can be done, but they are not the life they want!

They have been ordinary people for most of their lives, and now they are living longer than ordinary people, and they can have a little more spells, which has already made them nervous and cautious.

After a long time, Shen Lang once again used the Kunlun mirror of the New Three Realms to shuttle back to the place where he left. This time he was alone.

Looking at the infinite mountain, Shen Lang also put away a bit of separation, let yourself cheer up.

Need to cheer up, it is not the relationship of mood, but because the door of the Three Realms is opened twice in a row, which consumes his great spiritual power!

However, although the mental strength is very poor, the "mental state" is very good. Because he has already verified the success, you can use this new three-door door Kunlun mirror shuttle space.

In this way, there is no need to worry about the disappearance of cracks in the uninhabited space.

Adding up and down, Shenlang consumes less than a day. When I was experimenting here, it was night, and it is already dawn in the morning.

However, Shen Lang did not delay the time, because he also touched the stone across the river, it is not clear that this shuttle space, there will be time error. If you cross the error of one day, then it is two or three days now.

So now I have to go back to the “entry”.

When Shen Lang came back again, he saw far more people at the entrance. He Lan laughed that they came out, and other people arrived.

He can see far away, and others look at him too far.

When I was approaching, I heard Miao Zhongtian telling people: “This little brother is called Shen Lang, who came alone.”

Shen Langfei fell to their vicinity.

“This is someone who has arrived. Are you looking for someone to fight?” Shen Lang jokingly asked.

It is three people who are coming, obviously a group. Their strength is not weak, two are half-six peaks, and one is also close to the half-six peaks.

The atmosphere at the scene was not like a duel for them. It was more like this party, so Helan laughed and the four sons of Hongdian came out to say hello.

When they heard the waves, Miao Zhongtian stunned a little. Those few defeated, medication is not yet good For Shen Lang, of course, there is no good face.

The newcomers, who were listening, were also frowning, seemingly a little bit strange and a few familiar with them.

“Little brother, where did you go this night? I will introduce you to this, this is from the predecessors of the Huangfu family. Huangfu Chiayi, Huangfutian, Huangfu.” Miao Zhongtian immediately introduced Shen Lang.

From his words, Shen Lang got two messages. One was the time he left, the one night, and there was no delay for a few days. The other one is this group of three people, actually an enemy!

However, he killed the Huangfu, which happened in the meditation, only Ji Qiancheng knew.

“Long time and longitude!”

Shen Langke put a sentence, this is not a lie, they have worked with Huangfu, of course, know the Huangfu family. Now, to hear their information, it can be found in the memory of Zhou Wei, Wei Yangzi and others.

Among the three of them, Huangfu Chiayi is the highest in generations and is also very old. Miao Zhongtian will be called “predecessor”, mainly because of him. Huangfutian and Huangfu are both a smile with Helan and Miao Zhongtian.

It can be accompanied by the respect of He Lan and the four sons of Hongdian. Of course, not only because of the seniority, but also the strength of Huangyi Jiayi is extremely strong. It has long been rumored that he may have stepped into the realm of Daxian!

For the simple guest set of Shenlang, the three people of the Huangfu family were not allowed to do so. Huangfutian and Huangfu just nodded. The Emperor Jiayi, who stared carefully at Shen Lang, seemed to want to see through him.

Obviously, in the age of their generation, in addition to such a big event, they generally do not care about so many gossips, and have not heard of the name of Shen Lang.

Chapter 1278 - Meeting with Ji Jia

Huangfu Jiayi saw Shen Lang for a while and did not say anything, probably recognizing his strength.

“On these two days, the parties will come one after another, and rest and prepare for it!”

He is the highest in the field, and he has to explain it. Everyone will listen to his arrangement. Then he took Huangfutan and Huangfu directly, and entered the cave where the four sons of Hongdian had finished, and then blocked it with boulder.

Miao Zhongtian made a slight expression, indicating that they are also a little helpless.

Li Zhongyuan was the most seriously injured, then Zhong Zhongzhi, and He Zhongfang was fine. They didn't have any good looks for Shen Lang. At this time, they went to another cave.

"How? How is the little brother visiting?" Miao Zhongtian asked again.

He Lan smiled still under Optimus Prime, along with Shen Lang.

The Emperor Jiayi had not seen Shenlang before, but the two of them were clear. After Shen Lang's battle with them yesterday, they were also very good-looking, but now they are obviously very tired.

Just strolling around in the nearby mountains, it is not going to look like this, it should be something that happened, it is very likely to do a job with the people!

And this is either a powerful beast, or a human being.

After Shen Lang left yesterday, they also passed through the communication ditch. They felt that Shen Lang is a kind of person with them, and they all have an unruly side, and unlike other people who pay attention to cultivation and cultivation, they are enthusiastic about fighting.

So seeing Shen Lang today, they are more enthusiastic, and now they feel that he has fought and is more curious.

Shen Lang smiled faintly: "In fact, there is nothing to visit. In the end, I still found a place. I want to break through and improve my strength. The result is counterproductive and I am greatly frustrated."

The answer, the two of them naturally do not believe.

When it comes to this realm, it is not so easy to break through the promotion, and it will not choose to be at this juncture. They all felt that the excuse was bad, but it was better to say that they were injured in battle with them yesterday.

However, everyone has limited exchanges. Yesterday, I still did one job. It can be said that I don't know if I don't know each other. It can also be said to be a temporary guest, so I won't tell them the in-depth situation. They also don't ask again.

They re-engaged each other a few words, and they entered the cave again to escape the snow.

Shen Lang did not go to the top of Optimus Prime, but he chose a huge stone and went to rest and recuperate.

This time, we will go deep into the mountains, and there will be many sects. If there is no good state, it may be dangerous.

Another day passed, and by the next day, several martial artists came over.

They all decided to go into the mountains together!

No matter how big the mountain is, it is just an entrance to an established route. There is still a long way to reach the ruins. It's just that the road is far from dangerous and dangerous, so everyone has to wait for more people.

But now there are already a few teams, and I don't want to wait too much. After all, the ruins can be counted as already open, so you can explore more first.

He Lan smiled and the four sons of Hongdian also invited Shen Lang, but Shen Lang refused.

In fact, for Shen Lang, Ji Qiandao is mainly to provide information about the ruins of Zhoushan. After the clue, he can follow himself.

However, since he has promised to work with Ji, he will not be advanced, so Ji Qiandao is not good.

There are other sects coming from behind, and the kingdom of China is too big. Even if the fastest speed catches such a long road, there will be a precedence.

Others basically did not take care of Shen Lang. They also waited for a few more sects, and after they had a certain foundation, they advanced.

After waiting for the third batch of people, Shen Lang finally sensed the signal of Ji Jia!

In the past few days, his mental strength has recovered almost. After all, he absorbed the spiritual power of Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi, and he took advantage of this opportunity to melt it.

“Shen brother!”

When Ji’s team came over, Ji Qiancheng immediately greeted him. Perhaps they also discovered the tokens of Ji’s family in front.

“Thousands of brothers.” Shen Lang smiled and said hello.

“You are actually faster than us!” Ji Qian took a look at the surprise.

However, in the Ji family’s team, he is not the leader. This is his suggestion with Ji Qiandao. He introduced an outsider’s friend, so he quickly introduced other people in the same trade.

Ji’s team is four people, the strongest of them is Ji Sheng, the cousin of the contemporary family Ji Chixia, and Ji Qiancheng is also called the uncle. Like Huangfu Chiayi, he is the strongest, the oldest, and the highest in his generation.

The strength of Ji Sheng is basically the same as that of Emperor Chiayi. It may have been in the midst of the semi-Xianfeng to Daxian, perhaps it has already entered the door.

There is also a Jichuan, also the same generation, is the uncle of Ji Qiancheng, but also the strength of the semi-Xianfeng peak.

The last one is called Ji Qianlong, the son of Ji Sheng, whose strength is close to the peak of half a fairy.

In this way, the leader who went to the meditation domain last time, Ji Qiancheng, who is also a young man, is the weakest one in the current team, and the lowest in age and generation.

Shen Lang is now a friend of him and Ji Qiandao, and he is at the Ji family. Ji Sheng and others, but did not give him a cold face, but a few sets of guest greetings. But after all, they are not familiar with, so after the guest sets, Ji Jicheng and Shen Lang talk. They are sitting in the other corners of the boulder, and they have to wait for a little more people to enter.

“Shen brother, how come you are here faster than us? You hold a jade card, it should be after thousands of things to get the family information approved, it is impossible to hurry ahead of us.”

Shen Lang smiled and said: “Not the same, you have companions, and you may also visit friends. I am behind someone to chase and kill, you have to chase you in front, so desperately hurry.”

Although Ji Qianshou still felt a little unbelievable, but did not know that Shen Lang had been there for several days, and this explanation was barely accepted.

He looked around and looked at the look.

“Thousands of brothers, if you have anything, just say it. There are no other people here. I watched them go a lot.” Shen Lang has been here for a few days, and this is still confirmed.

In fact, in addition to the ambush of Helan Yixiao and Hongdian Sizi, no one else deliberately concealed hiding.

“According to the thousand-way letter, it is said that the head of Zhou Tianmen of Chaotianmen and the boss of Bao Puzong have been killed together. How did you escape? Are they chasing after them?”

The relationship between Ji Qiancheng and Shen Lang is to kill the enemy together. There is a common secret. Naturally, it is not He Lan who laughs at them. So he lowered his voice and asked him a little deeper.

After all, it matters a lot. He has protected the waves and cannot affect the family.

Shen Lang said in an understatement: “I have killed both Zhou and Weiyang.”

“What! You have killed Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi!” Ji Qiansuo was shocked.

Chapter 1279 - High treatment

Even if Shen Lang said that there are no people around, Ji Qiancheng asked such a question, but instinctively lowered the voice.

But suddenly I heard this news, directly scared him, and could not help but screamed!

This undoubtedly also provoked Ji Sheng and others, and they also heard the answer from Shen Lang.

“You mean... you put Zhou Wei, Zhou Tianmen, Zhou Wei, and Bao Puzong’s Weiyangzi...killed? Kill...?”

Ji Qiancheng asked carefully, he suspected that he had just misunderstood, and Shen Lang said that Zhou Shaojun of Chaotianmen and Wan Jian of Bao Puzong flowed something? Or killing is not killing?

“Otherwise? Keep the New Year! They want to kill me, I can only kill them.”

Listening to the words of Shen Lang, Ji Qiang could not help but stay.

Yes, the enemy is going to kill me, then of course I have to kill him. The question is... How can Shen Lang get rid of Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi!

Not only him, but the attention of several people in Ji Sheng has also attracted.

However, several of them had originally met with Shen Lang for the first time. For this young man, they still don't believe it. Even Ji Sheng and Ji Chuan have seen that the strength of Shen Lang is not inferior to them, but it is still impossible to kill the Wei Tianzi of Zhou Tian and Bao Puzong.

Not to mention Ji Qianlong, he thinks that Shen Lang is blowing leather, and wants to maintain a tall image in front of their Ji family, so it is a bit disapproving.

“Oh, yes, when I left, Ji Qiandao seems to have given me a letter, let me give it to you.”

Shen Lang remembered that there was such a thing, and immediately found out and gave Ji Qiancheng.

The letter given by Ji Qiandao before leaving is to bring Ji Qian to them. Naturally, they have already left the Ji family from the Ji family. The distance is too far. His information cannot be transmitted, so let Shen Lang bring it.

Ji Qiancheng was still in a state of stunnedness, took the letter, and then looked up, and soon his face changed.

Then he sighed with a long breath.

“It's true! I thought you were joking. How long have we been separated? It won't be a month? You are so powerful!”

Ji Qiancheng did not hide his disbelief, including now that it is hard to imagine that the waves are so fast and soaring.

Listening to his words, Ji Qianlong still did not believe, went directly to the letter, and quickly read it.

After he finished reading, his face changed, and then he gave his father Ji Sheng and Ji Chuan.

After Ji Sheng finished reading, he could not help but sigh.

“After life is awesome! Before the thousand-dollar proposal, let you walk with us. To be honest, I personally disagree, purely a person who is still in your meditation.”

He said bluntly, and everything said it directly: “I just met, I found that your strength should be far better than what they said. But I still haven’t thought that you can actually kill Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi. After the birth is awesome!”

With the realm of Ji Sheng, once again, I used the “awesome afterlife”, which is a true appreciation and admiration for Shen Lang.

Ji Chuan is also amazed and curious to re-evaluate the waves.

Ji Qianlong is a bit of a taste. I thought it was just a friend of Ji Qiang, who was to be sheltered from the Ji family. Now the weight of the other party is different.

Ji Sheng is not careful about his son’s comparison. His age and seniority have made him open-minded enough.

“Shenlang Xiaoyou, if you don’t enter Zhoushan, you still need to rely on your help!”

He is the leader of the Ji family. This is undoubtedly the representative of the Ji family, and Shen Lang is placed on the basis of an equal partner.

Originally, if it was only Ji Ji’s friend of Ji Qiandao, Ji’s family owed the human heart first, then it was risky and I had to help. But that can make him a few words, it is already conserved.

Now it is different. It can kill Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi. No matter what kind of method is used, it means that Shen Lang is probably no longer under him!

It is undoubtedly a great increase in the strength of the Ji family. Naturally, Ji Sheng's attitude is enthusiastic.

And Ji Sheng has already raised to this level, and Ji Chuan and Ji Qianlong can only accept it even if they are not reconciled.

"The predecessors are polite, I want to rely on the care of Ji family."

The other party is so polite, Shen Lang also returned.

Ji Sheng nodded. "That everyone should be welcome. We are all partners. I heard that Xiaoyou and Qiu Lin Jianzong have a very close relationship. Is it because of the Mo Feiliu Master?"

This may be mentioned in the letter. In addition to the Qiu Ling Jianzong before the Jianlang, Ji Qiandao knows that Lin Huan, the owner of the Linyuan Garden, is actually a descendant of the Linlin swordsman Lin Biaozi, and his son is due to Shen Lang. After the death, actually can still suppress the emotional withdrawal, to see the position of Shen Lang in the Qiu Lin Jianzong!

This is also the place where Ji Sheng pays attention besides strength.

"No, Mo Feiliu is not my master. My Master is already dead, and now I am relying on myself."

Shen Lang said faintly, he is of course telling the truth, but with his appearance at the age of more than 20 years, this statement is too embarrassing, and it is a bit of a bully to destroy the ancestors.

Ji Sheng opened his mouth and wanted to ask another question. He felt that with his age and seniority should know even the Master who knows Shen Lang.

But looking at the meaning of Shen Lang has not said anything, he will not ask more.

However, Shen Lang shouted the name of “Mo Feiliu”, which is also full of information. On the one hand, he said that he would not be a disciple of Mo Feiliu, or even a disciple of Qiulin, but it would not be so rude to the sovereign.

On the other hand, dare to call Mo Feiliu, if it is not the deliberate arrogance of young people, it is the origin of its master, not inferior to Mo Feiliu!

This makes Ji Sheng more respectful to Shen Lang, and he dare not despise this young man.

He is not familiar with Shen Lang, and Ji Chuan and Ji Qianlong are not familiar with it. Of course, Ji Jicheng and Shen Lang’s old chatter will be able to draw a relationship.

Ji Qiang is curious about the whole process. Now that there are no other people here, you can talk easily and ask them one by one.

Shen Lang also gave a general account of it. I learned that I had a partner, and together I killed Zhou Wei, and then I joined forces to kill Weiyang. This made him feel normal. If Shen Lang killed a team of Zhou Wei and Wei Yangzi, it really made him unbelievable.

After chatting for a while, there was a flying magic weapon flying from a distance, so that they stopped talking.

Because everyone is too far apart, the time to come here is uncertain, unless it has already been agreed, otherwise it will not be done here, after gathering a few forces, you can go in.

Now they are waiting to see if they are people who know.

“That is... Master Shen?”

What the family of Ji family did not think was that, in this time, there were actually acquaintances who knew the waves!

Chapter 1280 - Revenge

Shen Lang saw the people coming, but it was also a bit of an accident. I didn’t expect to follow the Ji family. It was the person of the Lu family in Phoenix.

The one who just greeted him was Lu Feng.

When I was in the Golden Valley, Shen Lang mistakenly entered the area where the king was in the dragon. Lu Feng was lurking there to wait for an opportunity. As a result, the king of the dragon attacked them and launched a beast.

In the end, Lu Feng seized the spirit of the king and the dragon, but he was chased after he failed. As a result, Shen Lang took advantage of it. However, because Shen Lang saved his life, he was not robbed from him. Lu Feng was also convinced. Finally, he gave Shen Lang a token, so that when he had the opportunity to go to Phoenix, he could go to Lu to find him. .

After the wave, I was busy and didn't go to Phoenix. I came here to find Jijia. I thought I would meet Qiu Lin Jianzong, but I didn't expect to see Lu Feng first.

Lu Feng is still very enthusiastic, laughing and greeting with Shen Lang, but also did not expect to encounter Shen Lang here.

Lu Jialai's people are also four, basically the same as the configuration of the Ji family, Lu Feng of the half fairy is also like Ji Qiancheng, is the weakest one.

"This is the Shen Lang? Is that young man who has robbed you of the pulse in the Golden Mile?"

Suddenly a dissonant voice came and let the atmosphere become different.

Originally, Shen Lang was with Ji Qiancheng, and other people in the Ji family were nearby.

Now Lu family is also on this huge stone, Lu Feng went to Shen Lang's side. What is said now, naturally, is the person of Lu.

And this news, not only makes Lu Feng very embarrassed, but also surprised Ji Jicheng and other people in Jijia.

After knowing that he had offended Chaotianmen and Bao Puzong, Ji's family was willing to let him go with the Jijia team to go to the ruins of Zhoushan.

This person's feelings, to say a good point, of course, is because in the meditation of the help of Ji Qiancheng, is equivalent to saving the lives of the three people of Ji family. But in fact, it also includes the spirit!

Ji Qiancheng was given a spiritual vein in the dead city, and when he promised to pay for Shen Lang, Shen Lang did not choose the spirit. This is a very important interest for the Ji family, and it is also a place of sympathy.

Therefore, whether it is Ji Sheng, or the current family Ji Chixia, including the first known Ji Qiandao, I feel that this young man is quite extraordinary, and can face heavy profits and not greed.

Now when I heard the words of Lu, I was surprised to find that it was not greedy because people also had a pulse in their hands!

Ji family is not convenient to interject, but he really wants to understand the situation, so he listens to his ears and does not stand up to speak for Shen Lang, let him solve it himself.

Lu Feng is under the shackles and can only explain with a bitter smile.

"Uncle, I said, I didn't rob the spirit from my hand. When I took the pulse from the king's beast, I was almost destroyed. Master Shen saved me. He also got the king from the beast. Grabbed the pulse."

He called Lu Yang as the uncle, this is the leader of the Lu family.

Lu Yang snorted: "That's your honesty! You are ready for a long time. If it wasn't for him, you have succeeded in getting the pulse! Besides, he saved you, is it that he made you in danger?" And he also let you bait, successfully attracted the attention of the dragon, and then won the spirit from behind."

Obviously, after going back, Lu Feng reported all the details to the family.

Now in the face of Shen Lang, he wants to explain it. But when the family reports, more or less will make excuses for their failure. What Lu Yang said now may be analyzed by Lu, perhaps he guided.

Now Lu Yang said in public, let Lu Feng be very embarrassed, that is the elders, the strength is better than him, can not scream, can only apologize to Shen Lang.

“What? Is this not convinced?” Shen Lang asked not to be salty.

“What do you say?” Lu Yang asked one sentence, the attitude is already very obvious, and he is very worried about Shen Lang’s acquisition of the spirit.

“I don’t accept you, it’s up! I know that there is a king beast, you don’t dare to go to the tortoise, let others go, others don’t get it, you blame the East, stinking!”

When Shen Lang’s words came out, everyone on the scene changed his face.

Don’t talk about the people of Lu family, even if it is the person of Ji family, but also pinched a cold sweat for him, is this too sinful?

Lu Feng is naturally difficult to do. From a personal point of view, Shen Lang is a partner who has fought before, and saved his life. From the family point of view, this words smashed Lu Yang, which is equivalent to smashing the Lu family.

Ji Qiang is secretly complaining, Shen Lang, this is directly and Lu Yang turned his face, if you fight later, what role does the Ji family play?

They are able to suggest the family, let Shen Lang and Ji family walk together, but also considered the risks. Not as big as Zhoushan, all the factions in the world will come, and it is very likely that they will never meet with Chaotianmen and Baozong.

If Shen Lang cooperates with one another and hides his name from outside, it is safer. I did not expect that this has not officially entered the mountain, and it is on the bar of Lu.

He quickly looked at Ji Sheng, and now he is qualified to play this round of only Ji Sheng. He and Lu Feng did not persuade the qualifications, only to add fuel to the fire.

Ji Sheng did not care, and looked calm and changed.

For him, Shen Lang can win the spirit alone, it is already very good, and now facing the Lu family four, facing the irony of Lu Yang, does not show weakness, this is the performance of the qi!

As for the real emboldened, or guilty, as a person who does not understand, he just took the opportunity to look at it.

He just raised Shen Lang from a young man who needs Ji's shelter to an equal partner, and of course he wants to know more about each other's strength.

"Master Shen, uncle, this is my fault! It was my incompetence. Now we are going to the ancient ruins, and we hope that everyone will disappear."

Ji Qiancheng saw it very clearly. With his status with Lu Feng, he persuaded Lu Yang that he would only add fuel to the fire. Lu Feng is more sensitive to identity, unless he is drinking a sloppy wave, or else he will be neutral and persuasive, and he will let Lu Yang feel that he is eating out.

Lu Feng himself understands this truth, but he is one of the parties. He still has to ring the bell to solve the bell. If he does not come out to persuade him, who else can he count on? Ji family is irrelevant, maybe you can't wait to watch the fun!

He also knows this and will inevitably make Lu Yang very unhappy with him, but if it is not Shen Lang, he would have died in Jin Mao Valley. Because of the face of an elder, he will abandon the grace of life, it is not him.

Everyone looked at Lu Yang, Shen Lang directly smashed back, shrinking the tortoise, stinking and shameless. Lu Feng also persuaded, if you can accept it, you will see Lu Yang.

Ji Qiang was a little anxious and looked at Ji Sheng again. If Lu Yang was irritated, then it would be too late to persuade. Now Ji Sheng is open and can give him a step down.
