Chapter 1321 - Mysterious girl

Shen Lang can already confirm that only the mysterious woman arrived alone, and no one else. In comparison, Lu Yang wants to kill him, but he has not been able to get here as soon as possible.

“How does this place open? Just like the previous one, only you can open it, right?”

Originally, the mysterious woman had very few words. Now Shen Lang is too lazy to pay attention to her, she has to take the initiative to talk.

“none of your business.”

After Shen Lang finished, he had to turn and leave.

The mysterious woman immediately came to his face.

“In such a short time, you shouldn’t have time to get anything. This place is so big, the resources inside, you are also inexhaustible. Help me open, I just have to go in once.”

“Why?” Shen Lang directly eyes.

“If you let me in, I can tell you some clues I know.”

The attitude of Shen Lang still makes the Xuan female hate itching, but she has no way. Before taking the initiative to stand up and protect him, it was to show it in advance, but unfortunately people did not appreciate it.

And before they were in front of their Lu family, they also told her that she did not need her protection!

So at this point, she can only exchange the clues.

“Not rare, no need.”

There is no other comprehension resource in addition to Yuan Lingshi, but whether it is a system-controlled plot or a fact, Shen Lang will not let others in.

“Then what do you want, open a price!”

The mysterious girl is also simply, not irritated by the attitude of Shen Lang, but continue to talk about conditions.

Shen Lang floated up and leapt out, and Li did not care about her.

Mysterious girl bites her teeth and quickly catches up.

This place, there are such huge squares, there are such huge buildings, and the preservation is intact. It is not a general existence, there must be many good things in it.

If she didn't see Shen Lang coming out, she even had to wonder if she could go in. Now that I know that there is only one person in the situation, regardless of the situation, he is safely out, which makes her want to go in more.

Shen Lang did not give a face, and did not talk to her about the conditions. She had no choice but to stay in it. She could only bite the waves.

Shen Lang is going to search for other places, so he can't leave at high speed, but hesitated, and the speed is able to open the mysterious girl.

However, after hesitating for a while, he still did not move, because there is more than one mysterious woman around, can make him feel real!

In this ritual of the Temple of Heaven, the information of these time and space in the eyes of confusion and even public opinion made him somewhat doubtful about the truth and falsehood of reality. Even if he is always on guard, the system has no hostility, but who knows if he wants to confuse and confuse him?

At this time, more than one real person is around, always better than always beware of the wisdom system, to make people feel a little more comfortable.

“Where are you going?”

“what is inside?”

“Why don’t you stay inside?”

The question of the mysterious woman was not asked one by one, but after asking, Shen Lang ignored it and later changed other questions.

“What clues do you have?”

Shen Lang finally spoke a word, let the spirit of the mysterious girl who followed him all the way.

“Would you like to exchange with me?”

“Do not change. Love does not say!”

Shen Lang unknowingly dropped a sentence, then speeded up a bit, and directly opened her hundreds of meters to show his attitude.

Xuan female hated watching the back of Shen Lang, I really want to attack him directly!

However, this kid is really mysterious. Lu Yang, including Lu’s family, can’t find any benefit in front of him. Of course she does not dare to take risks.

Now that you have confirmed it, you can only continue.

“There is about five hundred miles to the west. There is a mysterious valley with countless good resources. I volunteered, you don’t need to exchange!”

After the mysterious woman caught up with the deep waves, she finished speaking loudly and then flew in the direction of the west. The result left hundreds of meters and immediately found that Shen Lang did not follow.

“I don’t have to lie to you!”

She can only pass the sound to Shen Lang, a little bit eager.

Shen Lang now has a rich map, and after she has been in the information, she immediately checked it. However, on the map, according to the Plaza of Heaven, it is not certain what the mysterious valley is.

He is also very helpless. If the system does not fool him, then these maps are the maps of 80,000 years ago! Not to mention 80,000 years, even if it is a fraction of a thousand years, it is farther away than the information of these gangs.

The information that they have spread from different sects is undoubtedly the last time they were opened. In the 30 years of Hedong in the past 30 years, the time of the millennium has probably changed a lot.

It is impossible for a mysterious woman to be fascinated by Shen Lang. It will be so convincing that it can undoubtedly see his ability to open this mysterious “formation”. The room was seen with the eyes, and the huge cube, it would be a huge resource to think about it.

Shen Lang now has no specific goals anyway. After hesitating, he followed the past.

“Take it with you.”

The mysterious girl almost broke the teeth!

This kid is derogatory!

Forcing him to inform the information on his own initiative, but also asking him to go, saying this, it seems to go to give her face!

“Go!”

Shen Lang not only caught up, but also went to her front. Mysterious woman helpless, and quickly followed.

If Shen Lang is flying at supersonic speed, he will soon feel it, but he now wants to know more about the world. In addition to the status quo, I also want to see if there are any relics of the ancient times, see if it is Really “history.”

So he took care of the speed of the mysterious girl, and it was not particularly fast.

The mysterious girl is also concealed, otherwise it would not be possible to follow the festival square so soon.

But now she is also secret, but she relies solely on her own power acceleration, and she is dark and dark.

It is a pity that Shen Lang controls the holy armor. The speed is just the control of the mind. It can be consistent with her speed, not at all.

In the end, she can only give up.

She also suspected that the magic wave used a magic weapon, but she did not see the shadow of any magic weapon. Even if he is not convinced, he has to admit that Shen Lang is faster than her.

The mysterious woman’s mind is on the “satisfaction with Shen Lang”. In addition to maintaining the same speed as her, Shen Lang simply did not pay attention to her emotions. He tried to say a bird’s eye view and recorded all traces of passing.

It is precisely through the flight of the holy armor, he has been analyzing the different data and pictures recorded in the holy armor.

After hundreds of miles, he found a helpless fact. The sacrifice of the heavenly project was preserved because of its particularity and various protections. Other buildings and the like disappeared into time.

Just like the research institute has protection, it is also over 60 layers of submerged under the ground, leaving only a little bit on the ground, maybe the next millennium, all flooded underground.

Chapter 1322 - Mysterious valley

Shen Lang did not ask where the clues of the mysterious woman came from. In fact, it doesn't matter. Whether it is left by Yao's own predecessors, or they are inquiring, they must have great reliability, otherwise she will not be alone. Desperate.

When I arrived at the mysterious valley, Shen Lang checked the map. I don't know if it was a change of 80,000 years, or whether the map is a fake material of the system, and it is still not the slightest.

"Is it here?" Shen Lang fell to the ground and looked at the valley in front.

The mysterious girl fell to the side of his ear and nodded seriously: "This is the valley, the resources inside, as long as you can imagine, there are! You can't imagine, there are!"

She is full of expectation and yearning, and her expression is also very serious, even a little pilgrimage.

"Since you have such a good place, why are you looking for me? You are not here to get the treasure resources you can't imagine?" Shen Lang joked.

The mysterious woman gave him a glance: "Crap! The treasure here is infinite, and nature is also dangerous. The place where you go can be easily retired, of course better."

She is also very helpless now, this information is willing to share to Shen Lang, in addition to his toughness, there is no way, but also because of danger!

She has this clue, but she has found other places, like that one. Then I wrapped up the waves and wanted to share a piece of cake at the Temple of Heaven. It was because she was difficult to support.

Now looking forward to the gods, it is also pressing fear and tension.

Shen Lang nodded, he was quite satisfied with this answer. If she says some beautiful excuses, her perception will become even worse. It is safe to say that she is entangled in order to be safe.

“I have already arrived here, do you want to go in? I am not afraid of danger.” After Shen Lang finished, he took a step forward symbolically.

The mysterious woman brows slightly, biting her lip under the veil.

“What else can I do? If you are willing to tell me the way to enter the building, I will not have to go in, or else I can only go in and die.”

Shen Lang smiled a little: “Don’t give me the next set, you can’t get in, then your business. You are risking death inside, and I don’t tell you the method, there is no relationship.”

“You guy... how is it so bad!”

Mysterious woman said nothing. In her style, it is rare to be able to use all the time and again. It is a pity that this kid is younger and harder than the old predecessors such as Shangguan Tianyuan and Jisheng. It is hard and hard to eat.

“When I was past the glaciers, did they crowd you out? Did I bring you? Don’t say that life-saving, at least it is helping you?

The mysterious woman has nothing to say.

” Plus you have trouble twice, I have helped you three times.”

“I am not asking for help!” Xuan female mouth hard.

“Yeah, you didn’t ask me, but I took the initiative to help, wouldn’t you explain my greatness?”

“...”

“And, everyone is at the same rest point, for ten days in a row, I am as impolite as a gentleman. If I am really so bad, I should have been with them and I have been doing it again and again, although you May be an old woman, but the identity of Yao Yaochi can also be added.”

“You, you are shameless!”

Originally, Shen Lang said that the mysterious woman was speechless, but she did not expect to be more outrageous and made her angry.

Shen Lang shook his head and sighed: “Mysterious old man, you alone are afraid to come here, I am accompanying to protect you from coming here, you still don’t appreciate it, it is too chilling.”

The mysterious woman said indignantly: “You are an old woman, you are an old man!”

The more I said the more difficult it was to listen, she also described her as “old woman” and “older generation”, let her almost vomit blood.

Shen Lang shrugged: “You can call me old people, my generation is high. It doesn’t matter. But I don’t know how to be an old woman...”

Said the old woman!

The mysterious girl snorted: “I want to provoke me to pick up the veil? Childish!”

After the expression of high gestures, she flew directly into the mysterious valley.

Shen Lang smiled and naturally followed the past. The mysterious woman is about the same age as him. This is the first night, and it was analyzed through the holy armor. It is precisely because of this that it will be ridiculed with the age of women.

After entering this mysterious valley, Shen Lang immediately felt different.

The aura of this is abnormally filled!

It is much more abundant than the forbidden land like the Golden Valley. It feels like you can grab it in your hand.

In such an environment, there will be a huge amount of resources, and of course it is not surprising.

Although the map of 80,000 years ago did not record here, it can not confirm the situation here, but according to this situation, Shen Lang can also analyze one by one.

It can make the valley's aura full of abnormality. There is nothing more than two possibilities. One is that there is a rich Lingshi deposit here, and after historical changes, it leads to mining or exposure.

However, in this case, in theory, even if the aura that overflows outside, it will spread out evenly. So it can make the difference between inside and outside the valley so big, it should be similar to the array method or other forms lock the aura out!

In the area where there is no return to the sea, the aura that flows from the chaotic space is not limited to the vicinity, and the outflow averages to the whole earth. For hundreds of years, the aura that has dried up the earth has been greatly improved.

The extent of this valley is far from being comparable to that of the earth. Therefore, as long as it is a little more agile than the outside world, it will be enough for tens of thousands of years to make it look like this.

There is also a possibility that there may be a lot of spirituality here!

The spirits already have a certain spirituality, they will moisten the vicinity, but will not flow out indefinitely, so the scope is controlled.

No matter which situation, it is worth exploring. Everyone is here, isn't it for resources?

After the mysterious woman came in, I didn't know if I was waiting for the Shenlang to keep up, or because of caution, the speed was greatly slowed down. It's like not being able to miss every place, but it's like not flying fast.

When Shen Lang approached her, the mysterious girl passed over.

"Someone has been advanced!"

Shen Lang is also observing all the details around, and indeed sees the traces of someone coming in.

The realm of people coming in should be very high. In fact, there are no traces of obvious trampling, but there are other traces. A big possibility is that someone came in and alerted the beastly beast inside.

Inside the valley, it seems like another world. Because the aura is full, there are all kinds of exotic flowers and plants everywhere, and the trees are far beyond the normal life. Many are towering trees.

And the environment is quite strange, not far from coming in, now I can't see the entrance again!

Chapter 1323 - Tree essence

She does not need the reminder of the mysterious woman, Shen Lang will naturally be cautious, but she can remind him when he comes in, this kindness, he still appreciates.

"Mysterious old man, there is no information to share, or else I will suffer, but also drag your hind legs." Shen Lang passed a tone.

The mysterious woman did not look good at him.

“No! Anyway, here is a Baoshan, it is also a crisis.”

The crisis is actually different for people of different strengths. For example, the Golden Mile is a peripheral area for the Earth, and it is also a crisis. And with the strength of half a fairy, there is no danger in the periphery, you can go to the core area to explore.

Perhaps the batch that came thousands of years ago is much stronger than the current ones, so it only emphasizes the crisis and does not elaborate on the specific situation.

“That depends on the care of the older generation!”

“...”

Shen Lang, a predecessor, let the mysterious woman directly do not want to talk to him, slightly jumped to the branches of a big tree, and then looked around.

At this height, she has a limited range of sights, and at most she only sees the surrounding situation.

The Shen Lang and the double reconnaissance of the sacred armor did not care about the naked eye.

Just as he stepped past, his eyes lifted fiercely!

The mysterious woman stood on the branch of a big tree, which was a normal condition. Just in the beginning, suddenly the tree is active!

The branches will be swayed by the wind and are normal activities. But at this moment, several branches next to the big tree, like the human arm, quickly joined together!

The mysterious woman did not think that the trees actually lived up, but she was always vigilant, and there was also a protective cover on the whole body. Even though the branches are fierce and unexpected, her shawl sleeves are moving with the heart, forming a protective ring around them in time.

It's just that the branches are very unusual. Not only the thick branches are far more than steel, but the leaves on the top are all turned into pieces and directly stabbed to the mysterious woman!

If the strength of the mysterious woman is a little bit worse, or the reaction is slower, it will be hung by the dead and then cut and killed by thousands of blades!

From the current situation, her scarf is also a treasure, but the area of protection may not be able to protect every inch, and she needs to break free, is the entire towering tree.

This "tree essence" is not only a very large individual, but also deep underground, spread a large range, and associated with other flowers and grass roots, with its confrontation, is equivalent to a whole piece of environmental confrontation.

And now the mysterious woman is very passive, only a reluctant defense, the pressure of the other side has exceeded expectations.

At this time, as the light flashed, the tree suddenly shook, and faintly whispered. The mysterious woman felt that the whole body was loose, and the shawl danced, and immediately scattered all the branches and leaves around her.

There is no doubt that Shen Lang has just saved her, but she is also a bit surprised. Shen Lang is not close, how is it done?

If it is attacking other places in the big tree, the big tree should be stepping up the attack on her. Even if it is not, it will withdraw the branches to deal with the sun waves, and she has seen it since she dispelled, whether it is leaves or branches. It is falling on the ground – this is cut off!

However, at this time, she did not have so much time to doubt, and must be prepared to fight.

This valley is very mysterious and very strange. This big tree is like this. Other big trees may also be perfect monsters. If all of them attack, they will be wrapped up here.

At this time, Shen Lang has been completely attacked by that big tree!

When I found out that it was wrong, Shen Lang had already shot it immediately, but the area was not so good that he could use the inexhaustible stagnant water whip. He just used the “White Rainbow”.

Bai Hong’s white light flashed, and all the branches supporting and hung up the mysterious woman were cut off. After disconnection, I can’t get the support of the tree essence, so the mysterious woman will be greatly reduced in pressure and directly earned.

For this tree, a branch is equal to an arm, not to mention hundreds of thousands, at least dozens of “arms” are there, just broken a few arms, although it makes it pain, but the impact Not big.

So it immediately gave up the re-attack of the mysterious woman, but with the rest of the branches together to the crazy waves of the past!

The lower branches are more massive, sweeping away from the different angles and heights, and the branches above are bent down, such as a spear, and completely stabbed from above.

Suddenly, in addition to just breaking a few to let a mysterious woman there is a gap out, it is equal to the whole tree bent down, layer by layer wrapped up the waves!

In this way, even if Shen Lang can find the gap to dodge, it will immediately be hit by the outer layer. Around and above, they were all wrapped in layers, and the ground was not so good. A strip of roots was drilled from the ground and wrapped around his feet!

This shocking scene, let the mysterious girl is also amazed compared with her situation, Shen Lang is now encountered, more than ten times stronger!

Even more shocking is the speed of attack by this tree!

She just got out and was ready to fight. For a moment, she had completely blocked the Shenlang, and she wanted to help, and she could only attack outside.

At this moment, she also had a hint of fear. If she was faced with such an attack, would she be already scarred?

But this time, no one has ran first, because in such an environment, she will only be more dangerous. just.....

Her experience with the enemy, except humans and beasts, never confronted a tree. Especially now the tree has been bent down to completely wrap the sinking waves, so that she does not know that attacking is the most effective.

If you attack the branches, it is too late, unless she can cut off dozens of branches in a flash...

“Retreat ten miles away!”

At this time, she heard the words of Shen Lang, and it was the tone of the order!

If she walks alone, Shen Lang doesn't even have a helper, it will be even more dangerous, and there is not even a hope.

However, Shen Lang is letting her retreat ten miles away, instead of letting her go first, that means he should have a solution, and because she is next to it, she may be injured by mistake.

“Be careful!”

As soon as the mysterious girl bit her teeth, she still obeyed the order of Shen Lang and quickly flew in one direction. In order to avoid other big trees, she might also attack herself. She let herself fly higher. And she flew out a few miles, not really to ten miles away, once found wrong, there is still a chance to help.

Chapter 1324 - Cut down the tree and ask for mercy

Although the attack of Shu Jing is very fast, but it will not be faster than Shen Lang, he holds the white rainbow in his hand. He could have swept a few circles around the branches. It can be cut before they arrive, let it taste. Try to lose more chances of minions.

However, the mysterious girl is still nearby, and can not predict her trajectory of action, will it be approached, the white rainbow has no special characteristics of the dead water whip, but the hole is very strong, the distance is very big, if she cuts her waist, Not very good.

Therefore, she can only let her go first, and when she said that sentence, he already had another countermeasure.

When the branches and leaves of the tree were attacked, the Shenlang did not dodge, and the layers of the attack, the hands lost their meaning, and they were completely allowed to attack the parcel.

But he himself, but the sacred armor wrapped the whole body, and quickly applied high temperature on the surface!

Ever since, the crazy sweep wrapped the branches and leaves of the sinking waves, not only did not pull and cut his body, but was directly baked by the heat!

After confirming that the mysterious girl has left a certain distance, Shen Lang can do whatever he wants. Although not as far as ten miles, it is a safe distance.

Therefore, while he continued to make the branches and leaves directly burned by the ultra-high temperature, he began to draw the white rainbow across the trunk.

Before he wanted to stop the attack, he cut off the branches and leaves, but now it is different. The direct attack is the trunk. This is the core of the trunk of the tree. "Broken hands and broken feet" will not be bad for it, but the torso of the torso is not the same.

Shen Lang is not prepared to kill it as soon as possible, so he did not let Bai Hong's white light sweep across the trunk, but instead oblique or vertical, or cross-section, let it experience the pain of cutting meat, but not let it directly break.

This tree was immediately mad, and the whole trembling and shaking was very fierce, wrapping the branches of the deep waves, and in the case that the high temperature could not threaten the life of the waves, it became a slam.

At the same time, the roots that wrap around the feet of Shen Lang are locked up desperately. Look at this, it is ready to pull the body of Shen Lang directly!

Shu Jing felt that the target was quickly stretched, and it was even harder, but it soon became wrong. How can it be longer and longer when it is locked? It should be reasonable to have pulled the body off!

Then it also found out that whether it is locked below, or it is stretched above, there is no high temperature, it is a black pillar that does not know where it comes from!

However, Shen Lang himself is in the middle of the pillar. As the pillar is pulled high, his cutting range of the trunk is much larger!

In a short moment, the trunk has not only been penetrated by a dozen or so long slits, but also a round of cross-cutting does not know how many knives.

Because its trunk containment is larger than a pavilion, cutting a few feet at a time is not enough to cut. And as long as it is not cut in the same place, you can continue to cut.

The process of Shen Lang is of course not very neat and cross-cutting, or left or right, turning circles, lifting up and down, and having fun.

The tree that has been scarred is crazy now!

I wanted to take the broken branches of the body and quickly pull them over him. The roots below also weave a net underneath, so that Shen Lang can't land, and of course I want to Strange black pillars are trapped.

Now Shen Lang's body has risen to a few feet. In addition to the above curvature, the lower branches below can also attack him. The trunk has been cut by a lot of sinking waves, and this is also the bark that cuts the broken place, and quickly rolls over to the sinking waves!

In addition to the leaves along with the branches, there are a lot of leaves, which fall off directly, like a flying knife, and go to the dark waves!

It can be said that this tree is the place where the whole tree can be used up and down almost, and it has already been used.

Although the overall time did not last long, Shen Lang also enjoyed the fun, and did not continue to waste too much time. For these approaching branches and leaves, the white rainbow was directly and quickly swung.

Suddenly, a white light centered on him and quickly strangled around!

No matter how thick these branches are, after being swept by the white rainbow, they are directly cut off, and after the holes are pierced, the back overlaps will be cut.

A large number of branches, suddenly cut off, lost the support of strength, have fallen to the ground.

The ground roots are just as good as they are. When Shen Lang turned two turns to the bottom, he directly twisted many of them, and they were all broken under the ground!

After a few seconds, this towering tree basically left the bare trunk.

Against the swaying of the waves, it is obviously regrettable, and it has provoked a man who can't afford it.

It is an old tree that can be used to prey on nearby birds and beasts, and even some beasts and beasts. It is quite difficult to prevent. But it has a fatal weakness, that is, it can't escape!

If the beast is attacking the human monk and finds something wrong, then run away That is the correct decision of instinct, and the beast will not feel embarrassed to escape.

But the tree can't jump from the ground and run away.

So it can only be desperately attacked, even if it is found that it can't be beaten, it can only be hard.

Now that all the branches have been smashed by the waves, if it wants to attack, it will leave the trunk and the roots that are not broken. However, the full-strike attack has no effect, and what is the role of the remaining strength?

“How? Want to eat people? Is it fun?”

Shen Lang glimmered on the “black pillar”, smiled and said to the tree, and whether it could not understand.

The tree is of course silent. It does not know how many thousands of years have been used. Although wisdom is there, it is impossible to be like human beings. Many of them are driven by instinct.

So at this point, it doesn’t understand, or does not understand more meaning, but the situation is still very clear.

Judging from the attack of Shen Lang just now, it can also realize that if you want to break its branches, the first step can be done. And the countless knives of the trunk reminded it. It is not difficult for Shen Lang to cut it and dig it out to destroy it!

So it was “silent” but for a second, it immediately surrendered...

The surrender of Shu Jing is of course not “lifting his hand”, nor is he seeking to ask for mercy, but to use his actual actions to redeem his life.

Among the wounds that were erected in the trunk, green objects rushed upwards, then condensed together, and “jumped” from the inside, and slowly floated forward in front of the waves.

This is naturally something that it contributes to the pursuit of mercy, and in order not to let the Shenlang misunderstand it is an attack, it slowly floats out.

Chapter 1325 - life Tree

The mysterious woman looked at the situation far away. When she saw that Shen Lang had cut off all the branches, she immediately rushed over here, waiting for them to confront each other. She has returned.

“This is the stock of the tree of life!”

Looking at the green gel-like object floating in front of the sinking waves, the mysterious woman called out.

Shen Lang didn't know, didn't know what it was. After I knew it, I immediately searched for the collected memories, and it was already clear.

The tree of life is a rare tree of the spirit, and it is generally only possible in the core area of the forbidden area.

Of course, there are some people who have seen it before, but they are basically inaccessible and very rare.

Just like the rubber tree has milky white juice flowing out, in the distant past, some people have found that in this tree, green liquid can be collected, and this kind of liquid is rare, but it has a miraculous effect in healing, recovery, etc. Call it the “tree of life.”

But because this tree is too rare, even if it is found, the green liquid that can be collected is very small, so it is not a common medicine. In general, occasionally someone gets it, won't sell it, but keep it just in case.

For example, sudden impacts, medicinal herbs, etc. take time to exert their effects, which can be used urgently.

As for the tree of life, it is rare, the conditions of growth are harsh, and the age of maturity is too long. Or because ancient people used to be heavily exploited by the predecessors, they were threatened with extinction. No one could say it clearly, and no one paid attention.

It is precisely because it has the name of “life tree”, it is not a popular spiritual tree, so the mysterious woman did not pay attention to it before, until now I saw these liquids to think of it.

According to the description, the stock solution of the tree of life is a green liquid. Now in front of Shen Lang, it is already gel-like, and the color is much deeper.

This should be related to this tree. The environment here is compelling, and it can grow for thousands of years, so that the tree of life can be refined. This liquid is naturally far from the ordinary energy ratio.

“Life tree? This is like a cannibal tree.”

Shen Lang smiled faintly. “In order not to let it harm more people, or to remove it directly?”

The tree of life probably understood the meaning of Shen Lang and moved again. Under the gaze of Shen Lang and Xuan Nu, soon, another set of liquid was floated out from another “wound” that was opened.

Still green gelatinous, there is no problem with the color, but it is obviously smaller, and the quantity is not as good.

“This is a good offer for it. A tree can be cultivated into a fine, in addition to the advantages of time and opportunity, and the long years of thousands of years. Let it be!”

The mysterious woman pleaded for the tree, but said it through the voice and Shen Lang.

Shen Lang glanced at her.

“I know, if it wasn’t for your help, I would be very troublesome. But now you cut it into this way, it is already a revenge for me. It has not recovered for hundreds of years. Besides, it has already been donated. The original liquid, this... should be considered part of its life.”

This point of Shen Lang agrees that this life liquid should be similar to the marrow of the beast, the inner Dan, and the like, but it is flowing, and the condensation is released.

From the point of view of this situation, it is necessary to completely smash it, and it should be able to squeeze out a little.

However, God has a good life, it is already wise, know how to deal with people, will be willing to offer the original liquid for help. If you get the benefit, you should be able to give it a way to live.

Of course, it will cause trouble today, and because of its wisdom, knowing that it has swallowed up human comprehension, it can be greatly replenished.

“Well, let’s be a resource for the people after the millennium.”

For the medicinal materials of Tiancaibao, Shenlang will not kill them. When Jinlu Valley was used, it also told the earth’s monks that there should be room for them to not be caught.

If this tree is not going to kill them today, he will naturally let it go.

But then again, if it is not for its attempt to devour, there will be no fighting, and it will not appear to offer treasure for mercy.

Shen Lang collected both of the original liquid gels.

This is a statement that it accepts the transaction and will not kill it anymore. It seems that this is a half-hearted tree of life. But before Shen Lang did not leave, they could not be completely assured.

The mysterious woman first encountered an ambush. Originally, she also wanted to take revenge. She only saw that the tree of life had been so badly slashed by the sinking waves. She also offered the liquid of life, and gave up the idea. Instead, she read it and practiced it. Shen Lang ruined it.

At this moment, Shen Lang said so, she immediately suggested leaving.

She had already gone for a while, and she was not attacked by other trees. Now it is confirmed that this is an extremely rare tree of life, and there is no shadow of the surrounding trees.

“Thank you.” After leaving for a while, the mysterious woman hesitated, or officially thanked Shen Lang.

Shen Lang did not care about laughing and did not say anything.

Just as the two mysterious women left early, he did not have any resentment. Now, he did not feel comfortable because he heard the thank-you.

Because for Shen Lang, it doesn't matter at all. Saving her and taking her over the glaciers is because she can do what she can, that is, to raise her hands.

This makes the mysterious girl a little embarrassed, she thinks that Shen Lang is still anxious about the previous thing We are not entering the mountain from the entrance...”

This is very clear, because he and Ji and others waited for a while before they came in, unless she entered earlier than Helan, so that they would not be at the first break. .

“We underestimated the danger of not being in the mountains. There are only four people in the division, only one of me.”

The voice of the mysterious girl is very heavy. “So I can't do anything. I have to go all out to come to the ruins, even... no choice.”

She took the initiative to tell her about her situation. It is difficult for her to express her feelings about these days. But for Shen Lang, this is not a big deal, because he and others can basically guess that it is the same thing.

“Too much, this is not an unscrupulous means. Moreover, it is because of special reasons, or because of the natural character, it does not matter.”

Shen Lang's response made the mysterious woman silent again.

She is an explanation with Shen Lang, but Shen Lang seems to really not care.

However, she quickly picked up her emotions, and Shen Lang did not care at all. She was only for peace of mind, not for sympathy.

“In the valley... there is a beast-level existence. I hope that I have just taken the tree essence and will not let you overconfident!”

Her reminder of this sentence is that it does not matter to Shen Lang. In the core area of the Golden Valley, there are legends of the existence of beasts. The environment here is so extraordinary, and it is only once in a thousand years that a small number of people may be disturbed. Naturally, it is far better than it is.

The life tree can be a good example. Is it normal to have a beast level? Nothing weird!

“Slow down, there is a situation ahead!”

Chapter 1326 - Narrow road

As Shen Lang said, he doesn't care, the beast  does not matter, so while listening to the mysterious woman's speech, it is even more distracted to pay attention to the situation of the front and the left and right.

Just discovered that there are conditions in front, there are human monks, more than one!

The mysterious woman also entered the state immediately. She actually kept her alert, but she just had a little influence on her emotions, so she was one step behind Shen Lang.

Because they don't know the dangers such as beasts, they don't dare to fly too fast, and of course they don't want to miss something good. But here, in addition to the tree of life, the other is some extraordinary trees, and did not see any treasures.

But this is not far from the valley, there are people in front, there may be some good things, have been taken away.

Now I find that there are human movements in front of me, indicating that the road has already been opened, there will be no danger, and I will confirm that there will be no good things. If they are masters, it is meaningless to hide them. It is better to speed up and catch up.

There is no big environmental change in front. It is still a forest of towering trees, but now there are many people who are divided into three camps.

“The road is narrow.”

Shen Lang couldn't help but pass the sound and the mysterious girl spit it out.

Among the three camps, one of them is the Lu family and his party who are separated today!

It was estimated that it was left in the building to heal the wounds that had been sucked out by Shen Lang and then kicked off one leg.

“They should also have news, see if they can't catch up with you, come here directly, and come from there a lot.”

Shen Lang did not say much to her. She thought that the road to the family was narrow. It was Lu Jia. Although she did not directly work with Lu Yang, she did not ask for cheapness.

In fact, he said that the road to the home is narrow, it is these three parties are home!

In addition to the Lu family, there is another party, it is with Helan to laugh at their first wave of the imperial family!

There is another party, but it is a person, but the danger of this individual may be greater than the sum of the two parties, and the hatred is greater than both of them!

The Huangfu family did not know the affairs of the meditation domain. In fact, it was not a big deal. The Lu family was mainly for the benefit, and this one was the son and grandson, all of whom died in the hands of Shen Lang!

Zhou Yucun.

The time from the entrance to the arrival of Shen Lang was almost a month, and it was still a few days. Zhou Yucun received the news of Tiandu City, and the analysis guessed that he would come over again, and it was enough to come here.

Shen Lang has not seen Zhou Yucun, but he has extracted the memory of Zhou Wei. When it was screened, how could this be avoided?

When he checked this side, he did not notice Zhou Yucun, whose appearance was not good. The Emperor's family did not know whether it was an enemy. Guang Lu's family was nothing. It's only recently that I've found that it's too late to go.

The three people just stand a little distance, in fact, when they come over, they can be seen as a group.

“Shen Lang! This time, you can really send it to the door to find death!”

As soon as he saw Shen Lang, Lu Yang immediately called, very happy. Before the speed of Shen Lang was so fast that he could not chase, it was very depressed. I didn't expect them to come after the advance, even the Shen Lang would follow. .

The three parties apparently had communication before, so Lu Yang did not vent his anger, but deliberately shouted the name of Shen Lang.

When I heard the name of Shen Lang, the insignificant old man Zhou Yucun, his eyes were soaring, staring directly at Shen Lang!

Huangfu Jiayi and others are also looking at Shen Lang because of their poor looks.

When it comes to peace, Shen Lang smiles faintly: “Is it dead? I have to die in front of you several times, you have to have the ability to kill me! If it weren't for me, you are already dead?”

In his sentence, he responded to Lu Yang.

However, Zhou Yucun has already slowly opened his mouth.

“In Tiandu City, kill my grandson Zhou Shaojun and others, and then kill my son Zhou Wei, and take away the Tianbao Town of the Tianmen Town. It is you?”

The mysterious woman originally thought that the enemy of Shen Lang, that is, the Lu family, still thought about whether or not to play a round. Although I have tried it before, the other party will not give Yaochi a face, but how much will still be a little taboo.

But now I heard this, but it was a stunned.

Listening to this tone, this should be Zhou Yucun, the head of the front of the Chaotianmen. Shen Lang actually killed the grandson and son of Zhou Yucun in Tiandu City, and also won the treasure of Zhenshan in the Chaotianmen!

Zhou Yucun's son, isn't it the Chaotianmen's contemporary head Zhou Wei?

This kid... What a big disaster!

She hadn't had time to secretly vomit, and she heard another voice.

“Shen Lang, on your body, I feel a temperament of the emperor family. If there is no guessing, the emperor of the emperor family will wait for you, and you will have died in your hands in the meditation. You also took his Spiritual!”

The words of Huangfu Chiayi are even more surprising.

Then I remembered that when I arrived at the entrance that day, the eyes of Huangfu Chiayi were quite profound. It seemed that it was not just a cautious attitude towards strangers, but that it was aware of something at that time, but there was no evidence.

Because the information transmission in this world is not so developed, and those who know Shenlang in the meditation domain, Huangfu and others, Mu Tianhai and others are dead in the meditation, Ji Qiancheng is naturally Will not say it. And Moran, Li Tianqing and others, also killed in the core area of the Golden Mile.

Therefore, the information of the meditation domain may not be so comprehensively spread to the ears of the Huangfu family.

But if they have exchanged ideas with each other, from Zhou Yucun, knowing that Shen Lang can kill Zhou Wei, then killing Huangfu and others, it is nothing.

Lu's information can let him know that during that time, Shen Lang was in the area of the Golden Mile, and it was basically confirmed.

“...”

The mysterious woman is completely speechless.

Sadly, he just said that “the road is narrow”, and the daring is not just Lu, but all three are his enemies!

From what they said, they can basically be sure that they have already said each other, and perhaps because of the “common enemy” of Shen Lang, let them be able to walk together!

In this case, Shen Lang does not have any good arguments, and simply acknowledges it generously.

“Yes, Huangfu is dead in my hands. In the meditation area, everyone has no moral constraints. See who is not pleasing to the eye and directly do it. He wants to kill me. Of course I will not let him kill.”

Upon hearing the confession of Shen Lang, the last hope of the mysterious girl was also annihilated. Even the meditation he went and did, and the things of Tiandu City must have been his work.

“As for Zhou Wei and Zhou Shaojun. Zhou Laojun, should you know for yourself? Zhou Shaojun first killed me, and then I will fight for death and injury without complaints, and blame me? Zhou Wei and Bao Zhizong's Weiyangzi, deceive me together. Finally, I was killed and blamed me? I will kill them and I will be killed by them!”

Chapter 1327 - Daxian also has no choice

If you are not wearing a veil, it is estimated that everyone can see that the face of the mysterious girl is green!

Listening to this meaning, this kid not only killed the Zhou dynasty of Chaotianmen, but also killed the ruling son of Park Zong... How many people did you kill?

This young man, who is not seen, is so fierce?

In fact, what she didn't know was that everyone was rushing to the mountains at the same time because the relics were opened. Otherwise, now, everyone should have received the record of Shen Lang in Tiandu City, which is already famous in the world. .

“The teeth are sharp, and the mouth is yellow!”

Zhou Yucun screamed: “The old man came to Zhoushan, not for anything else. Hearing that your kid has come here, today, you will give me a life!”

Zhou Yucun is already the realm of Daxian, and Daxian is angry. The Shenlang at this time is also hard to be tough.

“Be careful! This is going to escape!”

Lu Yang's words have not been finished yet, and Shen Lang has disappeared!

Shen Lang will be a magical stealth. He also confessed to them, that is, to cooperate with them. They want to take revenge, he wants to take profits, everyone is a hit.

Just to remind everyone not to care, the result is still late!

Zhou Yucun is of course very confident in his own strength. Because of this, he did not pay much attention to Lu Yang's previous warnings.

Now the stealth of Shen Lang disappeared, and he just sneered!

“The pearl of rice, also shine! Give me broken!”

With Zhou Yucun’s slamming drink, a burst of invisible gas quickly spread out and directly stalked all the nearby trees, and people already felt it.

However, he is so energetic, just let everyone chill, but it will not hurt people, and if there is a range of stealth surgery, it will be directly stripped to dispel the invisible effect!

The real process, of course, is very complicated and simple and easy to perform, just because it is Daxian. Like Lu Yang’s monitoring through the field, he is still passive. He is the active break.

In Zhou Yucun’s speech, several people from Lu Yang and Huang Yi’s Jiayi kept a high degree of alert. If there is a shadow of Shen Lang, everyone will work together to take the person and say no, never give him The opportunity to escape!

We must know that Lu Yang’s three or four people were escaped by Shen Lang and felt very embarrassed. Fortunately, no one else directly saw it. Now they are three parties, and there is a big fairy sitting in the town. If this still makes Shen Lang run, it really loses face.

At the moment when the gas spread, they were all very keen, and as long as there was a clue, they were able to perceive it.

The result is that everyone is disappointed!

Shen Lang disappeared out of nowhere, even if the big fairy broke the game, it did not have any effect.

Lu Yang’s face is a bit dignified. The stealth technique of Shen Lang, he has seen twice, is very strange. Now, if even the Great Immortal can’t be broken, it will be troublesome!

Emperor Chiayi does not believe in evil, but is still searching carefully.

At this time, Zhou Yucun’s face could not be changed.

Just now he also said “the pearl of rice”, the result was immediately hit face, this strength is not as good as his bead of rice, but it really shines, but also conceal his greater light!

Originally, he was very angry. Compared with the hatred of his parents and the treasures of the mountains in Chaotianmen, it was the ruins of the millennium. It was not so important.

He rushed over and wanted to find the deep waves. If there were no traces of the waves, he would collect some resources.

It's finally met now, but the result is because of the momentary intentions, plus the other's embarrassment, and they ran away under the eyes of the three parties. This is a shame to him!

In the people on the scene, his strength is the strongest, and hatred is his greatest, if he can't find...

Zhou Yucun did not speak. This time he kept his absolute vigilance and used a carpet search method to quickly spread to the surrounding space.

It is a pity that, no matter what, there is no trace of the waves, and there is no trace of leaving!

In the realm of his great fairy, even if he used stealth, even if he did not move, he could detect it.

But now, the result is still nothing!

The mysterious woman with Shen Lang, this time is not moving.

She was shocked and speechless, but she did not expect that Shen Lang actually caused so many things. But I didn't expect this guy to say a little, just ran away invisible!

After thinking about it again, I felt that there was nothing unexpected. Before Shen Lang left, I ignored him and He Lan and others.

When Shen Lang ran, she was embarrassed, because she had just come with Shen Lang and was treated as a group. And when she was there, she and Lu said to protect the waves.

So at this time, if she wants to leave, the other party must have taken her off first. At her level, she can't fight the three sides.

Lv Yang was arrogant when he was on the road because he represented one-third of the forces. Shangguan Tianyuan and Ji Sheng also had to let him three points.

Now it is different. The strongest thing here is Zhou Yucun, which is the difference in crushing.

Of course, he will observe the words also know how to round the field, just look at who, the value is not worth doing.

When other people such as Huangpu Chiayi were still searching, he realized that Shen Lang was likely to run. So at this time Zhou Yucun had nothing to gain, nor did he make him too surprised.

At this time, he had already made a decision and immediately sent Zhou Yucun a step.

"The demon girl! You are with Shen Lang! He left you to divert everyone's attention, we can't spare you!"

We can't find the sinking waves, and it is the metaphysical woman who has shifted everyone's attention and can make everyone's "incompetence" less. This also made the attention of the Huangfu family and Zhou Yucun to the mysterious woman.

"Shen Lang! Leave a woman, are you still a man? Do you think we will let her go?"

Before the stealth of Shen Lang, it is basically confirmed that he is gone. Now their strength is so strong, it is reasonable to say that it is necessary to escape as soon as possible.

But this is not like the grassland before, but in this dangerous valley, it is not so easy to leave quickly. Maybe the waves are just hiding, or nearby.

Therefore, Lu Yang directly threatened with the mysterious woman, and the mysterious woman came with him. Perhaps the two people also had other deliberations. Even if Shen Lang really ran, there is still a clue.

The premise is that you can't let the mysterious woman decide that everyone will not dare to move her. This is why he shouted "the demon girl" when he opened his mouth. He did not introduce her identity to Zhou Yucun and Huangfu Chiayi who had never seen the mysterious woman.

Yaochi... In the end, it is a mysterious strongman. Everyone is a little worried about it outside, but now it is a ruin. If anyone kills it, who knows?

Chapter 1328 - 3rd threat

Mysterious women have long guessed that this would be the result, so at the moment when Shen Lang disappeared, I was already thinking about the way to save myself.

She didn't dare to run, because she must not run, it would only make them misunderstand, and directly arrested him as a sinking wave.

Now Lu Yang said this, and she was not unexpected.

"Lv predecessors! You, I, Jijia, Zhenyuan, and Jiuxian sent in with Shen Lang. As you said, you are also with Shen Lang! I swear by the reputation of Yao Chi Shimen, I am not coming in. Before Zhoushan, if you know and saw the Shenlang, you will hit five thunders!"

Although it is prepared, the time is not long, so she can only express a little more meaning as soon as possible.

The words that were said so quickly included the relationship between the explanation and Shen Lang, and clarified that they came from Yaochi and even vowed to emphasize it.

Originally Zhou Yucun and Huangfu Chiayi and others looked at the mysterious woman's eyes are not good, regarded him as the buddy of Shen Lang, but now I heard this, but it is slightly frowning.

Huangfu Jiayi and others were first arrived. They only saw Shenlang at the beginning, but they were not sure whether the mysterious woman was a person like Shen Lang.

Now I heard her say Shimen Yaochi, and swear by the honor of the teacher, it should have been seen before.

“You are a sharp-eyed mouth! How many times have you passed since you entered the present? The waves have helped you a few times along the way. Before I started to work on Shen Lang, what did you say? You said you want to protect he!”

Lu Yang did not care about the style. This time, if Shen Lang ran, and did not say that there was no chance, everyone’s face would be lost.

“Women, come over.”

Zhou Yucun recruited, he did not use strong blackjack.

As a big fairy, it is impossible to talk to a younger generation. If it wasn’t for the * vengeance and the sect of the sect, it would be that Shen Lang defeated the disciples of the Tianmen, and even if he defeated Zhou Wei, he would not intervene.

However, his identity is extremely strong, and the mysterious woman can’t resist it. It can only be gone.

“Weekly seniors.”

“You have already heard it. Shen Lang killed my son and grandson and won the treasure of Zhenshan in the sky.”

The mysterious girl nodded. She now hates the dead waves. She has caused such a big trouble. She just patted her * and left, leaving her completely irrelevant person to be tried here!

I knew that I didn’t even find him to cooperate with him. I didn’t get any information, but it caused a big trouble.

“Tell me where I can find him, or else... I can’t say that I can’t give Yaochi a face, leave you in this ruin as a fertilizer.”

The same threat, Zhou Yucun said that the weight is not comparable to Lu Yang, does not require any momentum, a simple sentence, has made the mysterious woman feel great pressure.

She took a hard breath and let herself have a little more momentum, and then slowly explained.

“Predecessors, I really don’t know. Just met with him on the way, because I only have one person, he is also a person, so I walked together. Before Lu’s predecessors said, it is also based on the same reason. Because they There are four or five people in each martial art. I am not alone.”

After she finished speaking, she kept herself in the most calm posture and then accepted her life.

If Zhou Yucun really wants to kill her, she doesn’t think that Shen Lang will come out to save her.

However, Lu Yang thought that Shen Lang might have gone. The last time she saw it was that Shen Lang disappeared immediately after disappearing, so I still believe that he is hiding nearby.

Zhou Yucun raised his hand, and the mysterious woman was uncontrollably in front of him, and then his hand was placed on top of the mysterious girl!

At this moment, the mysterious woman shivered uncontrollably. Although Zhou Yucun did not imprison her, she still did not dare to resist and escape.

Several people from the Huangfu family and several people from the Lu family are calmly watching this scene. Zhou Yucun’s shots are the best. They don’t need any pressure from them. Of course they won’t discourage them.

The next moment, the mysterious woman felt a vitality into the body, and then fell softly on the ground.

“Shen Lang! I don’t care if you have heard it, give you three days, come and die within three days. I can lift the crisis for her. Otherwise, she will suffer the bite of biting, and go straight to the day. Only one night will be mad!”

After he finished speaking, he did not look at the mysterious woman on the ground, but went straight ahead.

The Huangfu family and the Lu family naturally left with their horses and they left.

Originally, they could not find the trace of Shen Lang. Zhou Yucun now uses the mysterious girl as a bait, and waits for Shen Lang to get hooked.

When they left, they came out again in Zhou Yucun.

“It is three days, it will not be exactly three days. The error of half a day is still possible. Even if there is no god, there is no way!”

The mysterious woman has just been shocked and fell to the ground. Now, when I hear this sentence, it is almost mentally broken!

A big fairy, under her no resistance, directly put a negative hand on her, she felt that this would not be a threat, Zhou Yucun said that he can do it.

She is now filled with depression and regret.

Why do you want to find this unlucky star, and you can’t get it with a little bit of benefit. Now you are directly exhausted. Well, before Shen Lang was saved, but compared with the fine tree of life that can still be self-help, and now Zhou Yucun this hand, she is no resistance.

She didn’t know where she was, she was crying now, even if she wanted to complain about him, even drinking, there was no object.

At this moment, she didn't dare to cry and curse, because the mysterious valley is very dangerous. Just so many of them are here, so there will be no beasts and the like.

Now she is left alone. If a loud noise is made, it is impossible to directly lead the beast.

If the general beasts are gone, even the king's beasts can fight out. If they come to the beast level, then they will not be able to hang directly here after three days.

After being depressed for a while, the mysterious woman had to calm herself down.

After analysis, she is also unable to determine the whereabouts of Shen Lang. It is possible to go back to the cube building and possibly continue in the valley. After all, he has this invincible stealth technique, even if he can't win, he is not afraid of them, and he doesn't need to escape.

In that case, will it still appear here?

Not here, she can have other places to see him?

Therefore, she can only stay here, at least for a day and a half, to see if Shen Lang will reappear.

And she didn't want to wait and see, just sit down and sit down and start to adjust the game. I want to see how much the state is, and can I resolve it.

After a few hours of her hard work, Zhou Yucun and others have already gone, and there is a big snake. I don't know where to come from. I'm lying on a big tree, my body hangs down and I'm bleeding. I have a big mouth and want to try a bite to engulf the mysterious * the ground!

Chapter 1329 - insanity

Mysterious girl really did not pay attention to the surrounding situation!

Because at the beginning, she found that there was no change in her body. She was slightly fortunate. I felt that what Zhou Yucun had said was just to listen to the darkness in the dark and want to force him out.

So she was also more assured to wait, but after an hour, she found that the body has changed, extremely bad changes, that feeling, as if there really is a worm in the body like it!

And she wants to grab “it” and want to solve this problem, but there is no way at all.

After trying it for about an hour, not only did it not ease, but it increased to three or four feelings!

This may not be really a locust in the body, or it may be purely a result of a powerful attack. However, according to this progress, after three days, it is really possible to bear the result of the worm!

This sense of crisis, let the mysterious woman still have the heart to think about the beasts that may pass by, she must use all her energy in the crisis.

Therefore, she did not notice the appearance of this big snake.

But the serpent is also wise, and the strength of this human monk is probably sensible – it is also the place to attract it. It was a little closer, and now, after approaching, it is not daring to rush, lest the other party is deliberately waiting for it.

Now its blood basin is far from the mysterious woman, but as long as it is explored, it can swallow people directly.

But it is still alert, slowly approaching by one point, it has enough patience, it can take a long time to advance an inch. And if it is dangerous, it can quickly retire.

When the mouth of the serpent advanced a little less than a foot, suddenly a person appeared out of thin air.

This cautious snake, in that one, two choices, one is a direct attack, swallowed the prey on the ground that has been observed for a long time, and the other option is to flee.

At that moment, it still obeyed the instinctive reaction without risk. Because it feels that the prey that has not been moving is probably the bait that attracts it. The sudden change is that the other party is going to kill it!

Shen Lang came out of the world of Tianshu. The first reaction was to guard and observe the surrounding conditions. See if Zhou Yucun and others are still there. If they are still there, they can only go in again.

This of course found the big snake, but he did not start and chase, but a wider range of investigations around.

The last time Lu Yang, he waited for the outside time for almost half an hour. This time the enemy was much stronger. He only came out after several hours, which is equal to the practice of ten or twenty days.

Although this time is not enough for him to break through, but the state of coming out is undoubtedly very good.

Seeing that the mysterious woman is still here, his reaction is that the other side regards the mysterious woman as a bait, waiting for him to be fooled, so she did not care about her, did not control the big snake, but first explored the surroundings.

The mysterious girl who is unlucky is the three parties including the big snake. They all become bait... If you know, you don't know if you will vomit blood.

After confirming the safety, Shen Lang continued to guard against the distance, and then he was interested in the mysterious woman.

At this moment, he is also a little relieved. The snake is also a fierce beast. If so many people are here before, it should not dare to appear. It will be so close to the mysterious woman. It should have been confirmed that there are no other people around.

Originally, he thought that the mysterious woman was deliberately trying to attract the big snake to come over and then kill it. I didn't expect him to be close to the past, watching her without any sense, and looking at the expression, the whole person was obviously in a bad state.

It seems that it is not intentional to bring the snake close, but really has no time to take care of it!

This made him speechless for a while, it was a thousand miles, if it was not his immediate appearance, this mysterious woman would be swallowed!

Of course, he didn't know that the big snake had been using it for at least an hour.

The state of the mysterious woman is not good. It can be guessed with the toes. It should be done by Zhou Yucun, but he is not sure about the specific situation. And her current situation, so that he did not dare to rashly check her body, so as to avoid the emergence of external forces, so that she can not directly control the fire.

However, Shen Lang can't wait here until she naturally wakes up, because he has disappeared for a few hours. If the mysterious woman has been self-healing this way, it means that after a few hours, she can't recover.

After thinking about it, Shen Lang used the holy armor and began to scan her body.

Although the holy armor is not medical, as a war preparation system, there are related procedures and equipments for medical and ambulance. Although it is not complete, it is a black technology that does not know how much it is, and it is necessary to photograph the state of her body. hard.

However, a scan, it was a shock to Shen Lang!

In the body of the mysterious woman, I actually detected the locust like the black dragon king of Siam in the past!

After all, the squatting is the side of the road, and it is difficult to climb the peak. At that time, the Black Dragon King's squatting on the Nantian family was also a long-awaited plan for many years, not an instant, and the strong man who could deal with the realm of the gods was already what he called the emperor.

And if you reach the realm of half a fairy, basically no poison is invaded, and the locusts can't be messed up, or they can't be called "semi-scented."

Just like the self-cultivator who can reach the Yuanyuan ordinary cold virus, the tiny toxicity in food, can be easily immune.

The strength of the mysterious woman is concealed and reserved, it is difficult to judge the specific, but from the point of view of everyone's scruples, it should not be inferior to the peak of the half. At such a level, even if they are Black Dragon King and Bagan, they will not be effective.

But now she is under tremendous pressure, and she doesn't know who is the hand. I didn't expect it to be a decent person. I even used this method.

Shen Lang immediately analyzed through the Holy Grail.

Before the data of the holy armor of the Emperor, it was still preserved. After the comparison, it was found that the mysterious woman could not resist it. This single head was several times larger than the Emperor of the Black Dragon King, and the vitality and activity were extremely strong.

Now the mysterious woman should be recalcitrant, but this locust is a living thing, not a general injury, nor a poisonous gas, she can not drive them out.

In addition to being tenacious, it also maintains a state of self-proliferation and reproduction.

According to the data after the analysis of the sacred armor, after one day, the situation of the mysterious girl is a hundred times worse than the present, because it is almost a speed of two, two and four, and the more the base is bigger, the more horrible!

This locust, no matter which aspect, is far better than the Emperor of the Black Dragon King!

However, Shen Lang is not nervous. It is now discovered early. Now there are only a few dozen locusts. If you wait until there are thousands, then it is really troublesome.

The method has been used before, and it has been verified that it is feasible. Now it only needs to increase the power. At the beginning, the situation of the Nanliuchuan brothers was actually more serious than the current mysterious woman, because it was the emperor who had been lurking for several years, and he was familiar with his body and the number was large.

And now the realm of the mysterious woman is much higher and bears the impact.

Chapter 1330 - Biased to Hushan

The Holy A can set the plan according to the target analysis, including the damage value to the mysterious woman.

And these, for its calculations, are done in an instant. When it was really implemented, it was already complete, and it was already a moment of work.

The locusts that the mysterious women struggled against were directly bombarded by the sacred ultrasound, particle beam or something, and then re-scanned and examined, and the stubborn residue was removed.

Of course, these locusts are only a few times larger than the Emperor of the Black Dragon King, but they are only micro-organisms. After the killing, there will be no impact.

“How? Mysterious old man, you are safe.”

Shen Lang screamed with a smile.

The mysterious girl had been fighting for a few hours, and was also physically and mentally exhausted by the locusts. Now, although it has been relaxed, the state is not very good.

“Not that you saved me, you hurt me!”

After she stood up, she said nothing.

“You chose to follow me, but you brought me here, or you will not meet them, you have to say something harmful... Are you hurting me?”

“...”

The sophistry of Shen Lang, let the mysterious woman do not know how to respond.

“It doesn’t matter, just when I am tired of you. But I just solved your problem. By the way, there is a big snake. I almost ate you and saved you twice.”

After Shen Lang finished speaking, he was ready to leave.

“What do you mean?”

“Dismissal! Everyone walks each, so that I will be tired of you again.” Shen Lang said of course.

The mysterious girl frowned.

She provided information and came here with a swell of waves, in order to exchange the secrets that opened the cube. It’s just that this guy doesn’t come in, she can only use this to express her sincerity.

Now if she is split up, she will not only get no other information, but she will not get any benefit here. Instead, she will be even more dangerous.

“You have to be responsible to me!”

Shen Lang smiled and said: “I took you to sleep or what, responsible to you?”

“You gave me the way to go in, I will leave the valley now. Or you have to be responsible for my safety, at least I have to find some gains to leave.”

The mysterious woman said very seriously.

“Why?”

She did not respond to the sentence of Shen Lang. All that has been said has already been said. Naturally, there is no reason to be more tenable.

Again, dead!

Shen Lang directly gave her a blank eye.

The mysterious girl gritted her teeth and picked up the veil, revealing her true feelings.

“I am not an old man, just a weak woman.”

Her appearance and age, the first night of Shen Lang has probably been known, and now I see the truth, beautiful is beautiful, and did not make him surprised.

This is undoubtedly a desire to practice beauty, but only because of the face, only to clarify the “predecessors” of Shen Lang’s ridicule as a reason to show his face.

“It doesn’t matter to me. The weak woman is pestering me, should I be responsible? There is no such reason.”

“Oh! Don’t talk nonsense, they are going in this direction, let you find them within three days, or else I will be violent. Now that you have helped me lift Zhou Yucun’s ban, then we have to change direction. go!”

She once again expressed sincerity and said the direction in which Zhou Yucun and others left, so that Shen Lang could avoid it. This should allow Shen Lang to accept her to follow.

Shen Lang is also getting right.

“Listen. If you don’t take care of you, you are not responsible for taking care of you. You don’t want to be tired of you. I have been tired for a while, and I am going in the direction of them. If you are with me, only It will be dangerous again!”

Mysterious girl had a headache, what happened to this guy, really squatting can be invisible, so continue to dance on the tip of the knife?

“I have no problem, I think very clearly. Lu Jia did not say, Zhou Yucun should hate me very much. Since I disappeared here, he did not stay here, nor did he search for me, indicating that they know the valley in front, and There are important treasures!”

This analysis of Shen Lang makes the mysterious woman a bit tangled.

She has one person left, and until now, it is not just to get more resources. However, the difference in strength of Zhou Yucun just made her feel that there was no room for rebellion.

Shen Lang just saw that she insisted so much. She simply told her that there are important treasures, which also means that there may be major dangers. I didn’t want to talk to her, so I went straight after I finished.

When the mysterious girl looks at the back of Shen Lang, she must make a decision immediately. If she can’t keep up with him, she must face the situation here.

Shen Lang is not going to leave now, but it is basically a time left for her to consider. So after a while, she resolutely kept up.

Shen Lang slanted her and glanced at her: “Is it clear? Don’t end up blaming me for harming you.”

The mysterious woman put on the veil again: “Hey! I am helping you. You see them, you can say that it is like sending me in the past, I pretend to be still hurt, maybe...”

Shen Lang directly interrupted her: “You think too much. He is not an ordinary injury to you. After I help you clear it He will know it right away, maybe he is going here. It may not be.”

This made the mysterious woman a shock.

Zhou Yucun is what strength, she just had a physical experience, and a little pat, so that she is so uncomfortable, and the consequences are even more terrifying. If you fight face to face, you may be able to destroy it directly!

“If you are afraid, you will still have time to leave now.” Shen Lang said a half-tune.

“Hey! I will stick to it. If I am still alive, do you dare to tell me the way to open it?” The mysterious woman has already decided, but settled down, and let it die.

Seeing that she still did not forget to sacrifice the idea of the Temple of Heaven, Shen Lang can only dispel her illusions.

“The method tells you that it is useless, only I can open it alone.”

For this truth, the mysterious woman did not believe it, but she did not say anything, only step by step.

The friendship with Shen Lang is not a matter of friendship. On the contrary, he has repeatedly helped him to help, and even can be saved. Now that I know that there is danger, I will follow him, and I will be able to brush it up and see if I can brush it.

If there is a huge danger this time, and in the end everyone will survive, and there will be an experience of life and death, the relationship will be different, perhaps let him tell the method.

However, if you follow the Shenlang, not only can you be safe, but you can also get a great treasure, then the cube building can not go in, it is not so important.

Shen Lang did not tell him, in fact, he already has a plan!

Of course, it won't be looking for the past with the route they left, but he just confirmed that the tracker on Lu Feng is still there!
