Chapter 134 - Junmei Youth

This person was stunned, but there was no resistance. Looking at a few partners, one was stunned. The other two hold hands and endure the pain, making him realize that he has encountered a master.

The hero did not eat before the loss, he quickly greeted a few, let them go with him. There was another coma. All three of them were injured and did not help him. Instead, they dripped a bottle of wine directly on his head.

“Wait!”

When they got up and left, Shen Lang spoke again.

“What do you want? You have the ability to leave your contact!” At the beginning, the black man was angry.

He just had a moment, feeling his own hand injury, and found that the injury was heavier than he thought, his anger was even worse.

“Drinking overlord wine? Pay the bill and go!”

The waiter at the bar found that the side was wrong and had already rushed over with the security guard. When he saw the foreigner, he did not make a living.

The one with half of the face and the head of the pig, took out the wallet, threw a stack of cash on the stage, and then the four people went out with their tails.

The surrounding guests saw it and they all screamed.

“Man! Come, my brother will pay you a cup!”

“Have a good fight! These foreign devils dare to play our girls, it’s time to fight!”

“If they dare to call the police, we will testify for you!”

Shen Lang waved his hand and did not entertain with them. He left with Yue Zhennan directly.

“Lang brother, have you found out?” Yue Zhennan whispered a question when he was in the elevator.

“nonsense!”

“If you are an ordinary person, you will still be merciful.” Yue Zhennan smiled a bit, he found out, and can you get through the waves?

Shen Lang said faintly: “I have been merciful.”

“...” Yue Zhennan shrugged helplessly, isn't it? According to his last handwriting in Yuejia, this is really a mercy.

“This thing... I don't think they will give up.”

“Afraid of him?” Shen Lang glanced at him: “As a superb warrior, doing such a thing, should they feel shame?”

Yue Zhennan is actually a little disappointing. For the little bee, in his eyes, there is no difference between the nightclub and the nightclub. Since I am willing to do this job, I should have been prepared for such a thing.

In law, this is generally a misunderstanding, and the law and order issue is dealt with. But now that Shen Lang has injured all four of them, it will be a criminal problem.

“I am afraid that they will use the title to play. When I remind my dad, I am going to go back. The time is still very early!” Yue Zhennan once again brought himself back to play the atmosphere.

“Go back.” Shen Lang, whether it was the last life or this world, was the first time to come to the bar. After experiencing it, it didn't feel so good.

When they came out of the bar, Yue Zhennan made a phone call to the driver and asked the driver to drive the car over.

At this time, the four foreigners who had gone out first ran out of the hiding place and surrounded them.

“You hurt our hands, you have to pay the price!” The black man snarled with another finger and angered.

They came to participate in the Super Wu Heroes. They have goals. They have been injured before they start. The pig head is just a wound on the face, even if it has not been eliminated, it is just pain and influence. The one who is in a coma will not affect much. But the two of them are broken bones, and the impact is great!

“What is the price?” Shen Lang asked faintly.

“Follow us here!” The foreigner of the pig’s head pointed to one direction.

Obviously, they still have a little awareness of prevention. They will be monitored and photographed here, and will be photographed by passers-by mobile phones. Therefore, it is necessary to let Shen Lang go to no back monitoring and no one to go back.

“Why?” Yue Zhennan stopped in front of him, and he sighed in his heart, you are a few ghosts, this young master is for you!

“Good.” Shen Lang nodded and agreed to Yue Zhennan: “You are waiting here.”

Shen Lang is a loner, he is not afraid of offending anyone. Yue Zhennan is a Yue family. If he also participates in the shooting, chasing it up, it will make the Yue family more passive.

The four people turned back while walking, fearing that the waves would not follow the past.

Shen Lang did not follow them and walked forward. It was only after a while that they found a place suitable for the appointment. It was not easy.

Come to the back alley, no one here has no neon lights, only one street light.

“Is it really interesting to be a superb warrior who is a nine-segment, even bullying seven?”

In the latter case, there is already a person waiting, and the four of them did not follow, but stopped the exit in the back, and avoided other people.

Shen Lang was stunned. These four foreigners are the seven-sectoral super-wu people. He knows. But they actually thought it was bullied by the nine paragraphs, so quickly brought the nine friends in the neighborhood to the rescue!

“Who are you?” Shen Lang asked, from the accent that I just spoke, I can hear that this is not like a foreigner.

Sure enough, the man turned around, not a foreigner.

“It doesn’t matter who I am. You like to bully seven paragraphs with the strength of nine paragraphs. It is also your personal interest, but bullying foreign guests, this is a bit shameful to the international, I have to teach you.”

This man has a sinister smile on his face, his face is very beautiful, but there is a hint of arrogance, not too old, it is a little bigger than Yuezhen South.

“You are the superb warrior of the nine paragraphs?” Shen Lang asked.

Junmei youth smiled and shook his head: “I didn’t say it. Since you can be strong, why can’t I be bullied? You are so levelly You can’t really get on the table, you should be educated. ”

“You look good.” Shen Lang suddenly said something irrelevant.

“Thank you. Looks good. I have always known. Your compliments will not let me let you go.” Junmei youth is still smiling.

Shen Lang shook his head: “Think more. I want to say, if you are a pig, will it be a good pig?”

This made him listen to it and then laughed.

“Not bad! For a long time no one dared to talk to me like this.” Junmei youth smiled and said, “You just put one into a pig’s head. It seems that you really like it, then I can also make you a pig!”

For the attempts of foreigners, Shen Lang understands that following is to find out who is it. It is also confirmed now that this is not a superb warrior of the nine paragraphs, but a comprehension!

In front of this handsome young man, I am afraid that it is already in the late stage of returning to the Yuan Dynasty! Cai Shuming and Ye Long have a lot of resources, and they are so old to cultivate. This person is so young, it must be quite a source!
