

First Strong 1471

Chapter 1471 - Pick one

Shen Lang's face is more gloomy.

He is still grateful to Master Zhian. It is not because of the high level of Master Zhian, but because of his attitude and help to him at that time.

At that time, Master Zhian was the guest speaker invited by the organizer. In the end, he invited him to talk about it and went to the inn to express his wish to listen to him.

This is equivalent to the personal reputation as the Shenlang endorsement platform. It was rare for the foreign kid who had just arrived in Tangcheng and had no name in the field.

It was also because of the help of Master Zhian that Shen Lang had harvested a large amount of fine stone, and he was still very rewarding for him at that time.

Such a benevolent elder, because of helping him, was angered and angered by local forces!

Adding two strokes together makes the anger of Shen Lang soar again.

“Specific who is moving.”

His voice is very calm, but it is easy to feel more weighty, and he is not afraid to play sloppy eyes.

“The specific implementation is definitely the following people. Because there is no master in the VIP building, Master Zhian is not too strong. But behind the planning and instigation... is the nine factions that came to Qiulin.

In fact, it is easy to be unwilling, and to a certain extent, it is still inclined to local forces!

Because Shen Lang is an outsider to him, and he is born and raised in Tangcheng, he naturally has a sense of closeness to the “Tangcheng Community”.

When Shen Lang and Qiu Lin Jianzong are together, and these are the enemies of Qiu Lin Jianzong, he can stand on the side of Shen Lang.

But these martial art only dealt with some ordinary people, Zhian masters, and he psychologically went to these sects.

On the same day, Lin Jianzong of the autumn, basically not the head is also the elders level. The Fan family's weakest, but also the peak of the gods. Others have half a fairy, there are peaks and half cents, and there is a big fairy realm.

Such a lineup, this wants to force Qiu Lin Jianzong to follow the example, let Mo Fei flow taboo, did not expect the high cold autumn do not have to show up, a glimpse of ideas, they hit a falling water, directly suppress the injury, and then throw out dozens of miles away.

As a disciple of Qiu Lin Jianzong, it is easy to be proud of the invincible magical power of the ancestors.

As a peak and a half, but also can understand their group of more than 20 depressed.

Finding a few people to vent their anger, that is, to vent their anger.

So after he finished speaking, he couldn't help but suggest a sentence.

"Shen Daxian, things have passed, people can't resurrect. We also killed seven of them on the same day, and the ancestors also seriously injured more than 20 of them. Can you forget this?"

Shen Lang looked at him coldly and looked at it with ease.

"I will just suggest it... of course, I am not afraid of them. If you are looking for their theory, I will stand up and support."

It's easy to just laugh and turn around.

“You just... are reminding me because I killed them first? So they didn’t find me to avenge themselves, just angering some weak people to vent their anger, is it that I am taking advantage of it?”

“Don’t dare! Don’t mean nothing.”

It is easy to hear the cold and cold sweat, and quickly explained it.

Not to mention that this is the old friend of the ancestors, can not offend. The strength of people now can crush him.

“That will help me a lot.”

“You please tell me!” I don’t want to help myself. This is what Mo Zonghuo has said. He has to do whatever he wants.

“Since you don’t know the specific people, then put the accounts on the heads of their nine factions! Give me a map and mark the addresses of their nine sects. I will find them by myself!”

The words of Shen Lang, let Yi do not feel a little soft...

He wants to persuade, although there is a sense of intimacy with the Tangcheng martial art, more is afraid of the situation like this!

Shen Lang wants to fight against the nine sects. Where is that strength? In the end, isn’t it necessary for Qiu Lin Jianzong to take him to the bottom?

This is equivalent to leading the war to the sword of the autumn forest, the real power of the nine forces!

Although the Gaozu Division is very powerful, it is easy to fly dozens of dozens of nine factions without having to show up. However, the high ancestor is the biggest reliance of Qiu Lin Jianzong, and other sects should also have ancestors who have been hidden for many years.

Even if it is not as good as the great ancestor, once the nine factions are fully joined together, it is very serious.

Last time they didn't have a voice, they should be afraid of intensifying contradictions to this extent.

Now the meaning of Shen Lang is simply to ignite the war...

“Shen Daxian... I think we have to think about it for a long time... Although they are not right, we should be sensible, and it should be the decision of individual people. It is a direct challenge to the whole martial art. The consequences are compared...”

“okay.”

Shen Lang stood up.

Since it is easy to be this attitude, it seems that I don't want Qiulin Jianzong to be hurt.

Shen Lang is of course also respectful. After all, Qiu Lin Jianzong does not owe him anything, and he cannot directly order others.

There are so many people in Zhian Master and VIP Building, because of his connection, if Qiu Lin Jianzong is also tired, he will be even worse.

“Da Xian... I don't mean that, I mean...”

I am nervous about it, and I will explain it quickly.

Shen Lang smiled, not the previous sneer, it was a very gentle smile.

“I don’t think about it. I am uncomfortable for those who are tired of me, but I ask you, and I am more and more people. Rest assured, I will handle this matter well.”

It’s easy to cry and mourn your face. If you let the lord, you certainly have no good fruit to eat!

“You misunderstood, we Qiu Lin Jianzong is absolutely not afraid of being hurt, we will certainly support you. I just want to be harmonious...”

Shen Lang raised his hand and prevented him from continuing.

“Let’s stop here.”

After the words were finished, Shen Lang had taken the dog  and left directly from his office.

When the easy to chase after chasing out, Shen Lang has left the tough front.

It’s easy to be the big one I don’t care about the tough front, I immediately rushed back to the mountain. The Sovereign is not there. He also has Master and Master. He must report this matter to the elders. This is not something he can handle.

On the streets of Tangcheng, the dog  is also very unhappy.

“Why do we need to look at other people’s faces? What can’t you do, I will help you! You are my friend, your friend is killed, my friend is killed!”

“Thank you. I haven’t blamed him. He is afraid of being hurt by me. After all, I won’t be here for a long time. When I pat the butt, I will be here one year, and I will be here for generations.”

Shen Lang can see it, and there is no resentment for the easy.

From the perspective of easiness, it is the best for Qiu Lin Jianzong.

However, Shen Lang still has to fight back, for the VIP building, to avenge the master of Zhian!

Chapter 1472 - The first hit Fanjia

When it was easy to go back to the Qiulin swordsmanship, Shen Lang grabbed a relatively high level of comprehension on the street and directly extracted his memory, and obtained the address of nine martial arts.

They are the organizers of the former Tangcheng Qun Yinghui, and also the main major sects of the local, plus the Qiu Lin Jianzong, is the top ten forces.

The local master of comprehension, of course, is to understand, at least know the approximate location of the headquarters.

Shen Lang doesn't think it's easy to go to inform, but it's easy to ask for advice from Qiu Lin Jianzong. When the other big men of Qiu Lin Jianzong come to tell him what is reasonable, they are bigger.

After all, I fully know that he and the cold autumn situation, that is, Mo Feiliu, others are not convenient to say too detailed.

The people who will support him, such as Xu Yuyue and Count Dracula, are not here. Others will of course take the important work of Qiu Lin Jianzong.

So now he has to do it before the people of Qiu Lin Jianzong react!

“Fan family.”

Fan Yu and Huang Wei of the Fan family are the deaf children who were offended when Shen Lang just came, and the animal husbandry, but the Fan family is actually the weakest in the local big forces, just like Fan Yunduan who had been before. .

Shen Lang is of course the first one they opened!

Fan family is best to find, they are in the city.

The original meaning of Shen Lang is to find the door, let them tell them clearly, let them know why they came, and let them surrender the culprit.

But now it's easy to worry that Qiu Lin Jianzong is being hurt, so let's do it directly. Anyway, let them bear the consequences. The reason is no matter what.

After arriving at the door of Fanjia, Shen Lang pondered how to start. Was it the first signboard of Fan's family? Still called array?

At this time, the dog  confessed to him: "I am coming!"

Before the dog  looked at the easy-to-follow attitude, he was already very angry. He only saw that he was on the side of Shen Lang's friend, and he was not angry.

It is now understood that Shen Lang is going to act alone, so it is ready to enjoy this opportunity to vent.

After talking to Shen Lang, no matter what the answer does not agree, anyway, this has already determined that it is an enemy, then it is directly!

It screamed directly at the Fan family!

Shen Lang immediately became speechless.

Fan Jia last time he came, it is stressful, but the current strength is not afraid of anything. After all, the information that has been mastered, although the Fan family has the qualifications of the qualifications, but the strength is actually not very good.

The contemporary homeowner may be only half a fairy, the most peaks and half cents, even if there are still ancestors who can't hide, the most is the big fairy.

At this level, it is still not possible to let the dog  shot.

But the dog  shot is too fast – it does not need to shoot at all, just to give to the waves, and then smashed a mouth.

The sound of this hoarse voice is not very big, there are no people who have alarmed too much, but the impact is still very strong!

Of course, even if the dog * wants to vent, it is still measured. Before the attack on Wuji ancestors, it was directly there were eight Daxian and Fengfeng Daxian.

Now Fan family is going to be too much, almost it is not visible, the same as the ants, it does not want to think that it is indiscriminate.

However, the strength of this embarrassment is too strong. Even if it is restrained and restrained, the impact of the casual glimpse is not something Fan can bear.

The Fan family, who suddenly fell into a disaster, not only smashed the signboard, but directly destroyed the whole gate and the entire wall and flew out!

The building inside is also destroyed by the vicissitudes of life. Many of the weaker ones are also directly mixed in the building, and there is no chance of escape.

The impact of the great god's free shots, but in a flash, the Fan family was destroyed by a seven-eight-eight-eighth, undestroyed place. It is estimated that it is not the building where the owner lives, or the ancestral hall, which is protected by the law, but Also suffered a serious impact.

Looking at the Fanjia Grand House, which was hit by a sigh of relief, Shen Lang was helpless.

Dog God is efficient in doing things...

“what happened!”

“It's a big deal!”

“Is it an earthquake?”

“What happened?”

The glimpse of the dog * was not too loud, but the Fan family was destroyed and there was no small movement. Not only to hear the sound, but also to see the entire Fan family was blown down in the vicinity.

There was a lot of discussion around the people, some of them ran out of the house, and wanted to see what was going on, worried that the earthquake could not run. I saw the passing outside, and I suspected that I had an illusion.

Many of Fan’s people were buried directly in the ruins, and there were several buildings that had not collapsed.

“Who! Dare to attack my Fan family!”

At the beginning, they roared out loud, but when they flew out in the air and saw most of the fans who had become ruins, they were more furious and more frightened.

“In the Fanjia contemporary family, Fan Shu, I don’t know where Gao Gao visited the Fan family. What is wrong with him? Fan Shu once again pleaded guilty!”

They are in the air, look around, and want to see where the enemy is.

At the beginning, it was all angry, and some people actually bullied the door. However, when he saw that the other side had such a powerful power, Fan Shu would not dare to care about it. He lowered his posture first and made the bottom of the enemy clear.

Not to mention Fan Shu, that is, all Fan family, including the crowds watching the lively melons, no one thought that the shot was a dog.

The swell of a dog is undoubtedly a type of person who is classified as a lively one.

The dog * looked at his eyes. “Do you want to eat them all?”

Shen Lang was full of anger, and he must also avenge more than 100 people in the VIP building that he was tired of, and the master of Zhian.

However, the dog  directly caused the Fan family to suffer heavy casualties. He did not want to destroy the Fan family.

With the time spent together, the dog  also knows a little about Shen Lang. He hesitates to know that he doesn't want to slap his hands, but he wants to let him go, and he is a bit unwilling.

So it immediately grasped the mind of Shen Lang – but it felt that it was understood So, its paws gently pressed on the ground, no one around it was noticed, it was such a light one.

There were no buildings collapsed inside the Fan family, and they immediately collapsed!

When Fan Shu hurriedly looked down, in the disintegrated buildings, a few pieces of masonry jumped up and immediately hit their chests and directly threw them into the rubble!

There was a burst of exclamation around!

Just once again collapsed, let everyone instinct doubts are aftershocks after the earthquake.

However, Fan's architecture cannot be tofu, and the houses with much worse surroundings have not collapsed. Fan's house has all been destroyed. Obviously, it is intentional.

This made them shocked, and the pieces of masonry that suddenly popped up actually smashed Fan's family, Fan Shu, to the ground, and even shook everyone.

Chapter 1473 - 11 defeat

Some of them live near Fanjia, and some are attached to Fanjia. For example, many properties such as shops are Fanjia.

Even if there is no relationship with Fan, I understand the energy of Fan.

Now Fan family is ruined like this, and Fan Shu, the owner of the public voice, is inexplicably beaten down by a brick!

With the strength of Fan Shu, can this be ordinary masonry? It must be a more powerful master to manipulate in the dark.

Obviously this is the enemy of Fanjia, but will other people be hurt?

For a time, many of them had just rushed over, didn't know the specific situation, and wanted to get closer to see the excitement, and they began to retreat unconsciously.

The dog * turned his eyes and looked at Shen Lang and asked him if he was satisfied with this treatment.

Shen Lang did not speak, but slowly raised his hands. Under the dog god, he had cast a spell, forcing a group of three real fires, and directly headed to the Fan family, which is already in ruins!

“Or you!” The dog * could not help but feel up.

It felt that Shen Lang didn't want to start too much, so the two shots were just careful and careful. I didn't expect Shen Lang to put another fire.

Shen Lang is a little sweaty, it is not him.

Now, in order not to be tired of Qiu Lin Jianzong, he will not openly let them understand why revenge, but the flames of the VIP building, let them taste this taste.

Perhaps someone can understand why there are consequences today.

However, he did not do so absolutely, will not prevent the Fan family from escaping, nor will it prevent others from fighting the fire, but they will bear the cause and bear the fruit!

Originally, the Fan family had broken the ruins of the wreckage, and suddenly the fire fell, and the wood that was separated from the masonry and the debris was immediately burned.

This result also made the people around me scream again.

“Heavenly punishment! This must be a punishment of the day! Fan family has done something evil, will be punished by Heaven!”

“Shut up! What kind of punishment, this is definitely a powerful master of attack.”

“That is, don’t talk indiscriminately, anyone who offends can kill us ordinary people.”

Some of them are attached to Fan’s family, or belong to Fan’s workers’ servants. Of course, they don’t care so much. They quickly get water to fight the fire. The Fan family was not injured, but they also rushed to save. After a while, they will be burned to death.

Shen Lang did not stop them from fighting fire and escape, but they were not interested in staying here to see their tragic situation. He took the dog  and came to the Huang family nearest to Fan.

At the earliest, Huang Jia was associated with Fan Wei. Later, there was also a Huang elder who came out, and what the animal husbandry had.

They are also one of the nine sects. Regardless of the Huang family, the shepherd, and the Baijia, Nangongjia, Yiyangzong, Zhentianmen, Shenlang will not let go!

The distance between the Huang family and the shepherd and the Fan family is not too far away. They are all in the city, so these big and small people can play together.

When they came to the Huang family, they had the children of the Huang family and quickly rushed back to report.

The situation of the Fan family’s experience was too strange. There were children in the vicinity of Huang’s family. When they saw it clearly, they rushed back to report.

However, the one who reported the letter just returned, and has not reported to the elders and homeowners. The attack against the Huang family has also come!

The dog  has already shot it once, and the scale is very good. Shen Lang is not polite with him. This time, it is also made to follow the same method and maintain the same scale attack.

For the dog god, this is of course a mouthful.

With the previous experience, the dog  controlled this time better, and those buildings were completely destroyed!

The Huang family also has some core buildings with array protection. The attack of the dog  has been strengthened for these places, so it seems that it is still a matter of sighing. In fact, it has been disintegrated according to different needs.

The core personnel of the Huang family are, of course, no exception, and they are directly smashed by bricks.

They didn't even have the opportunity to fly and talk like Fan Shu, and they fell directly into the rubble.

And Shen Lang is also welcome to put a fire again!

After Shen Lang finished the fire, he would not stay in the same place to see other people's reactions. At the speed of him and the dog god, he rushed to another one, and the speed was extremely fast.

The whole process of the attack was also very short-lived and completely crushed.

So long after the work, Nangongjia, Yiyangzong, Zhentianmen... one by one was defeated in turn!

These family sects, some like Fan Shu at home, but also the head of the family is not at home, just like Mo Fei rushed to the mountains, they also have to go out in the past.

There are also some ancestors who can't live in seclusion. Like the cold autumn, they don't want to miss the ruins of this millennium. Perhaps there are gains and inspirations in them, and they will stay in the mountains and retreat.

So relatively speaking, the factions are all relatively empty, not to mention the power to fight back, that is, the power of defense is not.

After all, no one can think of it. Some people dare to make trouble in Tangcheng and dare to challenge all the big forces in Tangcheng.

I don't even think that the major sects of Tangcheng will be so vulnerable. After all, the strong gods of the great gods are already the legendary old predecessors, who can deal with ordinary juniors.

But what makes Shen Lang a bit surprised is that the two sects who went to the back went to the building, as if they had received information and hid!

It is also on the edge of Tangcheng, hiding in the surrounding residents, want to screen out one by one, it is more troublesome, and can not kill all the areas.

The result is that all of their buildings are razed to the ground.

The last goal is the white house.

The White House is at the foot of a mountain in the surrounding mountains and rivers. It is not a direction with the Qiulin sword. But it is also obvious. Even if they receive information to hide in the martial art building, they can also use the realm of Shen Lang and the dog god. Quickly locked.

After some tossing down, Shen Lang also spent a lot of time. When I came to Baijia, it was already dusk.

The information I got was that Baijia had a distance from Tangcheng but it was not so simple when I arrived at the scene. The white house is not isolated and there, it should be a Baijia Village, Baijiazhuang and the like.

There are at least hundreds of ordinary villagers who may or may not be related to the Bai family, but they are provided with all the needs of the world.

However, the overall situation is much better than that in Tangcheng. In Tangcheng, it can be said that it is the comprehension of other sects. Here, even if it is mixed in the villagers, as long as it is a self-cultivator, it can be regarded as a white house.

“Shen Lang! It turned out to be you!”

When Shen Lang just arrived at Baijia Village, he heard a voice coming from far away.

Then he searched the gods and found that the villagers also hid and ran to the back of the mountain.

And this person who recognized his speech, I used to see it once, is Bai Yucun, the owner of Baijia!

Chapter 1474 - Want your head

When the 20 people rushed to Qiu Lin Jianzong together on the same day, Bai Yucun as a representative, came out to Mo Fei to discuss the “murderer.”

At that time, there were two people in the seven people killed by Shen Lang and Count Dracula. And he can speak on behalf of other sects, in addition to this reason, but also because his strength is strong enough!

Baiyu Village is also the realm of Daxian.

At that time, they felt that Mo Feiliu was the realm of Daxian, so even if his age was much lower, he felt that he was qualified to compete with Mo Fei.

The result is not waiting for Mo Fei to flow out of the hand, Gao Hanqiu directly shot.

On the day of the injury, Baiyu Village has certainly recovered. For the Qiulin swords, including Shen Lang, he has left a certain shadow, which will recognize Shen Lang at a glance.

Bai Yucun said and talked, he has already appeared to the entrance of the village, directly blocking the Shenlang in the foothills.

Up and down the white house, I went up the mountain with the villagers and went to the back. He was alone!

“Since I already know the information and guess that I am coming, why don’t you run away with your tail?” Shen Lang asked faintly.

Bai Yucun looked at one person and one dog, and smiled lightly.

He didn’t think about it. It was the dog that made Tangcheng chaos, thinking that the shots were all sneak attacks.

“Is this interesting?”

“Oh?”

“I have heard that you have an adventure in the ruins of the past, and leaps into the realm of the Great Immortal. I have not gone to the ruins, but unfortunately nothing.”

Shen Lang did not have the slightest interest in his situation, and he did not answer.

“For the so-called adventure, I personally don’t believe it. I am more inclined to help the ancestors of Qiu Lin Jianzong!”

Looking at the meaning of Shen Lang did not speak, Bai Yucun did not stop, continue to say.

“I don’t care whether you are the illegitimate child of your ancestors, or the future generations. You can get such a picture. It is your blessing. We are not as good as people, we can only recognize it, we will not find you to account.”

“But do you still need to do it absolutely?”

“I think you also took advantage of it at the beginning. It kills us a lot of people. Now that you are strong, you have to continue to kill?”

“I just want to say a word, young people, turning back is the shore!”

“Are you finished?” Shen Lang looked at him coldly.

This is why I have been to the ruins of the past, there is no gain, I do not believe in the momentum of the Qiu Lin Jianzong. However, he regarded Shen Lang as a descendant of Gao Hanqiu, and even an illegitimate child, which made him very uncomfortable.

“No!” Baiyu Village still has a faint smile.

“You can succeed in successive attacks today because you are a sneak attack, no one has thought about it. And you are a destructive house building, killing old and weak women and women. You are not the top powers!”

“Do you not feel that you are winning?”

“There is the ability to wait for the veterans and the ancestors to go to the board.”

“Even if the ancestors of Qiu Lin Jianzong lifted you to the realm of Daxian, what about it? Do you think that the world is invincible?”

“The land of Daxian, placed anywhere, is a strong side, but in my Tangcheng, it is not the case, not a single one.”

Shen Lang raised his hand and interrupted his words: “You feel that you have a great fairyland, so I am not afraid of me, it does not matter. I will ask you, why do you think I am looking for revenge? Do you do it?”

Bai Yucun smiled and smiled a little.

His meaning is obvious – why? Just because we used to force you, I once chased Qiu Lin Jianzong to find you trouble! Today, you are flying, and you want to come to the glory!

“You have besieged the VIP building and slaughtered more than a hundred innocent people. They are not allowed to escape. Fire is not allowed. Never stop?”

The expression of Bai Yucun immediately solidified.

VIP building?

What it is?

However, he soon recalled that it seemed that there was such a thing. Afterwards, in order to vent their anger, everyone burned their anger by the inn that Shen Lang once stayed for a while.

“You avenge an inn? You for all ordinary people, destroy the various sects of Tangcheng and burn them?”

The expression on his face seems to say, “Are you sick?”

Looking at him like this, Shen Lang no longer needs to ask for anything. Bai Yucun must be the same as other big sisters. It will not be his personal execution, but he must know this.

And in their view, it is just a group of ordinary people. When they die, they die. It is not worth mentioning. More than one hundred people are just a number of ants. They cannot compare with the major sects.

For a group of ants to pick the headquarters of the major sects, it is simply ridiculous!

“There is also Master Zhian, because he and I have talked about it. At the group meeting, he used his knowledge of the bottom comprehens to help me. You also killed him.”

Bai Yucun smiled bitterly: “Shen Lang, Shen Daxian! I thought that you can’t keep up, if it’s just something ordinary people, then everything can be negotiated, we can compensate you, you can’t make it so big. You engage How do you end up like this now!”

“Compensation? Ending?”

Shen Langhe sneered: “According to your logic, all the villagers in your white family, including the weak ones in your white family, are just a group of ordinary people in my eyes. If you kill, you will kill them. If you burn, you will burn them.” ”

Bai Yucun shook his head. For Shen Lang, he insisted on seeking justice for ordinary people. He was not sure whether it was really so * or an excuse.

But since he knew the crux of the problem, he decided to change his mind to solve the problem.

“What you said, I swear I didn’t participate! But since you think it’s what our major sects do, I don’t believe what I say. What conditions you want can be opened, as long as I can do it in Baiyu Village. of.....”

He did not go to argue that who is more reasonable, this is not convincing the other side, or directly talk about the conditions are more realistic.

“Since you are the first to prepare and come out to negotiate with me, then put forward my conditions, are you really willing?”

Hearing the words in front of Shen Lang Baiyu Village has a slight pride.

Compared with other families, he was caught unprepared. He got the news, evacuated everyone, and personally recognized Shen Lang here, which naturally shows that he is better than other leaders.

“Of course, as long as I can do it, I am willing.”

“Give me the head of your project! I don’t even have more people, let your heads pay homage to those who I don’t know, and pay homage to Master Zhian.” Speak slowly.

“are you crazy!”

Bai Yucun finally gave this sentence out.

He always thinks that Shen Lang’s thinking is different from everyone’s. A group of ordinary people, a self-cultivator who is not a big one, can compare with the Tangmen’s major sects?

Now I still have to let him send the man on the head to pay homage, it is simply unreasonable!

Chapter 1475 - Feeding the dog

“I have no disease, you don’t have to take care of it. Since you promised, then you have to do it, send your item to the head!”

Shen Lang is staring at Baiyu Village: “You can’t get it, it doesn’t matter, I am willing to do it.”

“On behalf of your mother!”

Dignified, the owner of the White House, could not help but swear.

The condition of Shen Lang is too much. He is very sincere and willing to pay compensation. It is regarded as a part of Qiu Lin’s ancestor’s ancestors. He paid a little price to pay attention to it, but this is purely a pastime.

“You have a bad attitude. If you don’t want me to anger and kill all the whites, you should sacrifice one.” Shen Lang shook his head.

Bai Yucun feels very ridiculous!

Why is this?

The ancestors of Qiu Lin Jianzong are of course very powerful. They are great gods and can directly create a big fairy. Can you just compare with the old-fashioned big fairy like him?

“I see you swell too much!”

“Don’t forget, the ancestors of Qiu Lin Jianzong, including Mo Zongzhu, are not retreating in Zhoushan, and they are not in Tangcheng!”

“Today I am going to kill your kid, they will not know, and it is impossible to save you from a million miles away!”

“I will give you a chance. You will kneel down and ask for mercy. This fairy can be used for a long time. You can also compensate you. Everyone has finished this!”

Bai Yucun took a big bang in one breath.

After saying these words, he felt very refreshed!

Originally, I was the ancestor of Qiulin’s swordsman. You thought you were afraid of your kid! Do not tell you clearly, I thought you are more cattle!

After waiting for him to finish, Shen Lang went on to say: “I originally wanted you to pay homage to the head, but if you look at it, you can only feed you.”

He said that he pointed to the dog  next to him. “My dog has never had a chance to have a good meal. For those of you who are famous in the Tang City, I have maintained humanitarianism and did not let them feed the dogs.”

Although the dog  does not understand their communication, but for the mind of Shen Lang, still can perceive a general, and the cooperation is more and more tacit.

When it came over, it hid its own strength. At this time, when Baiyu Village looked over, he even made himself look like a dog.

“Let you feed the dog in Baiyu Village, it is your honor!”

Bai Yucun just looked at the dog god, he did not look much, looked at the face of Shen Lang, as if looking at a madman.

Is this kid so swollen so much, or is it purely a fool?

Actually dare to provoke an old singer!

I really thought that there was a big backing, wouldn't others dare to kill you?

As far as what you are doing today, Qiu Lin Jianzong does not dare to come out to support you!

“The people who dare to talk to me are no longer alive. Even today, the patriarch and ancestor of Qiu Lin Jianzong are here, I will crush you!”

Bai Yucun knows that Mo Feiliu is not a mountain outside of a million miles. Therefore, since he has made up his mind to make a wave, he is even more angry.

“And your dog, I will use bamboo poles, burst into it from behind, turn it over and dry it into dried meat!”

When he said this, he looked at the dog  with a bad look.

The dog  does not understand the specific words, but from his manners and emotions, he can also guess that this is to threaten it with vicious means.

“I am coming! I can't help it!”

Shen Lang has not spoken yet, and has already sensed the idea of the dog god.

“Good! This is too hateful, you ate him.”

Shen Lang also decisively told the dog the scale, he needs a break!

The two families in the front have been hiding more, and the burning of the foundation is also a punishment for them.

Bai Yucun is different. He already knows his identity and knows why he is revenge because of what he is, so he has to destroy him.

This is the phrase of the dog god!

Before the seven or eight homes down, it must be cautious, a little more vigorous, and it may be indiscriminate.

Now that Shen Lang has said that he can eat him, a big fairy has a great appeal to it.

“Roar!”

The dog  screamed.

The realm of Daxian, in which it still does not need to go all out, but it is a stronger glimpse!

This is already comparable to the attack on the Wusong ancestors before, and it is a big fairy, it can't bear it.

However, Baiyu Village has also been fully defensive, but he is defending against Shen Lang, but he did not expect a dog to attack him!

This dog, which looks very ordinary, said that he would flip a dog with a belly and dried meat, but it was just a shit, and he almost fainted!

Bai Yucun suddenly felt shocked.

He finally understood that Shen Lang is not inflated and arrogant, not even a fool, relying on this dog!

This is a beast of the beast  level!

It is likely that the ancestors of the Qiulin swordsman left him a super-spirited beast!

At the moment of the attack, he was both shocked and awakened, and his body quickly exploded.

However, the impact of the dog  is naturally much faster than his speed. He is not retreating himself, but he is still being blown out by the impact of the impact.

In the back, Baijiacun, including the core building of Baijia, all collapsed in the same row!

Because this time the attack was too strong, in the process of collapse, these buildings did not even have time to make a sound, and there was no sound of collapse, which was directly broken into powder, and was covered by the impact to the back hill!

The white family and the villagers hiding in the mountains felt that there was a sudden gust of wind and a lot of dust. A large piece appeared at dusk.

I don't know if this is the powder of their home!

In Baiyu Village, which flew out, it was not able to take care of the surrounding buildings. He was already hit hard and understood the truth.

Just now, Shen Lang said that he would let him feed the dog. He really wanted him to feed the dog, not to anger him!

With a dog, he will not let him fly out, will not give him the opportunity to escape, but will  him to swallow it!

He can't give this super beast a chance...

Suddenly Baiyu Village ignored the mouth and vomited blood, and quickly recited a spell that only he knew!

When he finished the last note, his body seemed to be caught. He did not continue to fly backwards, but began to * forward...

Bai Yucun spit out a lot of blood at the moment, but he didn't care at all. In addition to fighting against attraction, he also looked forward to waiting for something.

At this time, all the buildings were smashed by the ground of Baijiazhuang, which suddenly disappeared, and began to separate quickly like an earthquake!

This reaction made the face of Baiyu Village happy.

But the suction of the dog * is speeding up, and immediately swallowed him down!

The dog * still keeps the size of an ordinary dog, and swallows a person directly, still a little weird.

Shen Lang is a white house that gaze at fission...

Chapter 1476 - Patron saint

After the dog * swallowed the white jade village, his eyes fell on the fissured Baijiazhuang.

Baijiazhuang was originally a very large piece of land. Just after Bai Yucun recited a spell, he did not know what was inspired, and there was a big fission.

The whole process, although not as fast as the dog * attack, is not slow, but in a few seconds, the ground has already burst, sunk, etc., and it is completely different.

At this time, Shen Lang has felt a breath.

A very strong atmosphere!

The dog * still had the appearance of a dog, but at this moment, the body also became bigger and restored to the original behemoth.

As the ground in Baijiazhuang cracked and sank, from the depths of the ground, a large behemoth was drilled!

From the point of view of scale, the light is bigger than the Emperor's behemoth, and the appearance is very weird. I don't know how to describe it.

Shen Lang has had a lot of memories of this world, and he has already recognized what it is – the dragon elephant!

The dragon elephant is a powerful beast. The shape is not like a dragon. It is not like a elephant. It will get this name because it is huge in size and powerful. It is like a giant elephant in the common animal world, but its speed is fast. And very flexible, just like a dragon.

However, the dragon elephant is very rare, even in the major forbidden areas, it is rare to see.

Of course, everyone can see, the dragon image that has been circulated, and the size of this head is not huge.

Shen Lang looked at the pattern in front of him and already knew about it.

The ancestors of the White House should have ever been a great * and surrendered to the dragon elephant. And the life of such a beast is much longer than humans. Before the great * died, it laid a game for it.

Here I made a deep pit in front of the mountain, let it live below, leaving a well-shaped passage to the entrance of its mouth. After the cover up, the building was built, that is, the white house that was moved over.

The younger generations of the White House should all accept an ancestral training and regularly feed the dragon elephant.

At this level, it is not the general food, but the supply of Lingshi. It is located below, and should also be able to absorb the aura of the earth and carry out cultivation for hundreds or even thousands of years.

And Baijia raises resources for it, and it is its guardian promise!

It is impossible for ordinary grievances and hatred to be able to summon it. It can only be summoned when it comes to the death of Bai Jiasheng.

Maybe it can only be done once.

The spell of Bai Yucun's chanting just now is the secret that he inherited as a family owner. He realized that the dog  is so powerful that he would destroy all the white houses, so he did not know how many generations of dragon elephants were lurking. come out.

Just under the speed of the dog god, he himself could not wait for the dragon elephant to appear, and he was already swallowed.

After the appearance of the dragon elephant behemoth, it is obviously a bit sluggish.

It is still motionless to maintain cultivation below. It is not known whether it is a few hundred years or a thousand years. It is a bit embarrassing to be summoned up.

However, the existence of the Emperor's behemoth immediately reminded him of it.

Only Shen Lang, such a small human being, was directly ignored by it.

The dragon elephant beast climbed up from the ground, and with the previous crack, it has already made a large part of Baijiazhuang unrecognizable. It is bigger than the Emperor, but it still feels the pressure of the Emperor's behemoth!

“Hey!”

The dragon elephant beast screamed at the warning of the Emperor.

Its sound is very loud, it rang directly around, and the vibrations were felt on the back hills.

Because the dog god's glimpse was very strong, so a large piece of powder debris, the speed is also very fast, and some fell on the mountain, but also far away.

The white family hidden in the back hills was covered with gray, and it was very painful to hit the head and face. But now you can already see the following situation.

Because it is still at dusk, they are still at a height, but they can still see the situation in Baijiazhuang.

It was only a few seconds of difference, and after that overwhelming powder passed, they suspected they were sent to another place!

What about white house?

The entire Baijiazhuang is gone!

All the house buildings, including the ground, are gone, and there are still many cracks in the cracks. At this moment, there is a huge monster lying there.

No, strictly speaking, it should be two monsters, the other one looks like a dog, but the scale is huge.

Everyone in the white house is very puzzled. I don't know what it is. Needless to say, the average villagers are still rushing to the farther places in the mountains, where to dare to stop and see.

In fact, the white family is watching in the back hills, but also has a certain strength. The old and the weak women and children are together with the villagers and continue to hurry.

They searched carefully and did not see Baiyu Village.

Where is the huge monster that ran out, did it eat the owner?

Look at it and the dog-like behemoth squatting, is it the summoned by the owner?

Although the Bai family did not understand the specific secrets, they all heard a legend. It is said that the Bai family has a guardian beast and has extraordinary strength. If it encounters a great danger, it will appear out of thin air.

Is this huge monster, the legendary white house guardian beast?

Guess that this may be the patron saint of the White House, everyone is excited. Although they don't know who the enemy is today, there are legendary guardian beasts, and naturally there is no problem.

So I don't worry about the safety of Baiyu Village. I guess he should be hiding.

As they stared at the movement below, they also heard the roar of the dragon elephant beast, and it was even more exciting when it shook.

After the Emperor's behemoth waited for the dragon elephant to climb up, he also stared at it. At this moment, the roar of the dragon elephant is a provocation.

"The Emperor, be careful! This guy should be a dragon like a beast that has lived for thousands of years The strength should also be very powerful. It has strength, speed and agility, and few weaknesses!"

"Do not worry!"

For the information reminded by Shen Lang, the dog  responded to him a little proudly.

Shen Lang is indeed a bit worried. The dragon elephant beast that has been cultivated for thousands of years is probably the equivalent of the human gods!

However, he also saw that the dog  is really enough to pay attention to it, as long as it can do it, it can be leveled.

He did not think that the white house still hides such a patron.

However, from another point of view, Baiyu Village has already been settled anyway. More dragons and giant beasts have come out and beaten and lost. The purpose has been reached.

Once you can win, you can swallow this dragon elephant beast. It is a huge harvest for the dog god, and he can also share a piece of cake.

Chapter 1477 - Battle of the Great Beast

The two god-level behemoths are already on the eye, and both of them can feel the strength of the other side, and even have a pressure, so they all play the spirit.

“Shen Lang, you retreat a bit. It has to be shot!”

The dog  passed a thought to Shen Lang, and the two legs retreat and swayed, and the two front legs were also ready to fight.

The confrontation of the great god-level behemoths, Shen Lang did not dare to carelessly, and immediately retreated a few miles.

The dog  had dealt with the eight great immortals before, but they did it with a random scorpion. Now, against the dragon elephant beast, it is obviously ready for melee combat, showing the gap.

The dragon elephant behemoth is also ready, but like the dog god, it is still just a confrontation.

They probably didn't have a single blow to grasp the other side's grasp, so they kept cautious.

This confrontation has been kept for more than ten seconds, not to mention the deep waves, that is, the white family on the mountain, they feel a tense atmosphere.

“Hey!”

“Roar!”

From the feelings of both sides, the two giant beasts realized the attacking intention of the other side, so they also screamed at the same time, and then both jumped up!

Both of them are very large, and the speed is very fast, their distance is very close, so you can only see them moving, and then feel the touch, both left far away.

Although Shen Lang is a few miles away, he is also staring, and his eyesight is far better than the white family.

When the Emperor’s behemoth and the dragon elephant beasted, they both had hundreds of attacks each other!

At the moment of the touch, a lot of quick interactions were completed.

It is a bit strange that I don’t know what kind of tacit understanding they have reached. It’s just a collision of physical strength, and the speed is not exerted.

But if you think about it again, it will be relieved.

Since the dragon elephant beast is the guardian beast left by the white family ancestors, its purpose is to save the white house.

Just Baiyu Village summoned it, Baiyu Village has been swallowed, but the Baijia people are still on the mountain, and they are still going backwards.

These are not so sloping, but even more so than the beast  of the realm of the gods. If their two beasts are fighting here, not to destroy the land, not to mention the entire Tangcheng area, at least the nearby mountains will be destroyed.

In other words, everyone in the white family will inevitably be affected by death!

The purpose of the dragon elephant beast is to protect the descendants of the white family. If the white house is killed by all of it, it will lose the meaning of being summoned. It is also sorry for the original master.

In the process of confrontation, they should probably be communicating.

The dog  has no feelings for the white family. He will agree that he should be worried about the idea that Shen Lang will not kill him.

At this moment, the two beasts have been separated far apart, at least a dozen miles away, but for their realm, they will be able to rush together in an instant.

Just a quick fight is a temptation for both sides.

The stop at the moment is also a reassessment.

The dragon elephant beast has an advantage in the strength, agility and speed of the body, and it is bigger than the dog god. It can be just a purely flesh-like fight, but it can't be overwhelmed by the dog god, which makes it more cautious.

After the dog  retreats, Shen Lang is not far from it, paying attention to the look of excitement in his eyes!

Because in the world of giant beasts, it is the most powerful behemoth beast, and other race beasts are not their opponents. After coming over here, the strongest one is the peak, and there is no challenge to it.

Now it's finally the opponent, of course, let it want to fight.

This kind of feeling is like the battle of Shen Lang and Qi Ming.

There were no more words on the scene, and the two behemoths were not arrogant. After being separated for a while, the two suddenly rushed closer together!

The dragon's giant beast's head makes it step on the ground from every step of it. The ordinary mud surface in the wild cannot bear its weight.

However, in terms of performance, it is very light and does not fall into the mud.

Compared with dog gods, it is much easier. Its body shape contrasts, it looks slim and small, and the speed is very fast.

This time, the dog  showed the strength of its supernatural beast, and it was actually a big dragon monster like a monster, and it flew out!

The body of the dragon elephant beast crossed the top of the Baijiazhuang site in an instant, and the heavy squatting on the back hill.

The white house on the mountain left the group to see the situation, scared to quickly escape.

Although they did not marry them, they also collapsed a large piece of the mountain, and the shaking of the mountain shakes the villagers who are still running away, crying and crying.

“Hey!”

The dragon elephant beast is angry!

Because of its age, naturally, it has the heart of relying on the old and selling the old. I don't know how many years have come to wake up, but it has been hit by an unidentified beast.

With its roar, it spurted a breath!

Its potential is like a hurricane!

Its fierce edge!

Crazy to the front of the dog  swept away, in front of the Baijiazhuang area, has been razed to the ground, without any block, immediately went to the front of the dog god.

Shen Lang is still behind, but it is also rapidly rising in the air. For the attack of the great dragon-like behemoth, I dare not care.

The dog  who just knocked over the dragon elephant beast, but the old  is there, the breath of the bang, the hard life stunned!

Its protective power is strong enough, and the breath that comes to it is all slipped on both sides and does not hurt its body.

But it was not stopped, it was still strong and plundered in the distance. Many trees and mounds were razed to the ground after being breathed, and the scope of the spread reached a dozen or twenty miles!

Of course, the dog  will not suffer from the loss of the It just had a hard wave, after the breath passed from the side, and immediately retaliated a wave out!

The dragon elephant beast has just been angered, but also to fight for a little time, and did not expect that breath can kill the dog god.

At this moment, it has already leapt from the collapsed mountain, and directly blasted into the air, and rushed to the Emperor!

But the dog  just had a wave of counterattacks, but not as wide as its attack range, but concentrated on one point. When it leaped halfway into the air, it immediately hit its body!

Focusing on a single bombardment is harder than a hurricane. The resistance of the dragon elephant beast is naturally very powerful, and this blow cannot kill it.

But the strong impact not only blocked its leaping, but also slammed it out again. This time it turned over one or two mountains and directly slammed into a distant hill. The mountain collapsed, and it rolled into the valley, and a large number of mountains and trees were affected.

Chapter 1478 - Ferris wheel

The dog  did not give the other party a chance to fight back. After the bombardment, he followed the pursuit.

When the dragon elephant monster collapsed on a mountain, it followed another wave in the air!

However, the dragon elephant is not a vegetarian. Although it lost its first opportunity, it fell quickly and immediately.

When it rolled down the valley, the two claws had already penetrated into the side of the mountain, and suddenly raised a mountain and smashed it toward the dog  that followed!

Just past the past, the white family has not dared to stay any longer, but those people have not had time to come over, and now they have rolled to the other side, but the white family and villagers who ran before, can see this scene far.

When a huge monster collapses a mountain, it has already made them scare to urinate, and dare to continue running to the front.

At this moment, I saw a mountain dug out and moved into the air, which subverted their imagination!

There are a lot of comprehensions in Tangcheng, but which strong ones fight and do not move a mountain as a weapon!

If this is on their side, then they all can't hide, and all of them have to be buried here...

In fact, it is a mountain, in fact, it is part of the mountain. After all, the mountains are made up of mud and sand, not a whole. Just because of the support of rock formations, under the violent excavation of the dragon elephant beast, a considerable part was carried.

In such a process of smashing into the air, there is also a large amount of sand and gravel falling.

On the contrary, the vegetation on the surface is deep in the soil and does not fall off.

Another wave of attacks that followed by the dog * was blocked by the mountain that was smashed, and the mountain was cut in half, and the remaining half was picked up by the dog god.

The dog * is running fast on the mountain that has come over, and Xun has reached the top.

Of course, the dragon elephant beast is also very clear. When a mountain passes, the momentum is there and the power is there, but the goal is too big and it is easy to dodge.

Therefore, he did not expect to be able to kill the dog god, but it was just to block its sight and the momentum, and strive for a little more time for itself.

While the dog * is stepping on the top of the mountain, the dragon elephant beast has already leapt!

The dog * that just appeared on the top of the mountain immediately faced the head-on crit of the dragon elephant behemoth, and the mountain supporting it was smashed in the air or moved, when it was exhausted in the air. It is the process of falling quickly.

The support borrowing point is not balanced, and it also has an impact on the dog god's swing.

But for this situation, it is already ready!

Therefore, the crit of the dragon elephant beast did not cause trouble, but it has already hit the past in the fore paw!

Both of them slammed the body of the dog  into the air, and the dragon elephant monster fell back to the valley.

The half-mountain that had fallen from the ground, because of the impact of their attack power, went straight to the side and went far away, and fell directly to the half-hill of the mountain where the villagers of Baijiazhuang were located, scaring them to death.

Half a mountain down the air, this experience will not be encountered by almost everyone.

When they were scared to death, of course they were unwilling to watch the battle. In fact, they were trying to escape as far as possible. There was no war, and the battle was transferred to their front and passively watched.

Under the hard shackles of the two great beasts, one flies upwards and one falls into the valley.

But that was a process of unloading the huge impact, and they immediately fought again.

At this time, in the mountain group, the third strongman appeared!

The two great beasts that had just caught the second wave were all surprised by the third.

This is a giant cockroach standing in the valley, but the height is already higher than the peak!

Although they are comparable to the realm of human beings, the importance of the size of the block is a natural instinct. Not necessarily the bigger and stronger, but the bigger the more, the more important it is.

When this giant cockroach, which is far better than them, appeared, let both sides have a truce and observe it.

Because the dragon elephant beast crawled out from under the ground, the dog  did not know if it was a giant giant.

The dragon elephant beast is a sleepless cultivation. I don't know how many years, I don't know the changes of the outside world, I don't know what it is.

At this time, the giant scorpion's big hand suddenly slammed into the dragon like a giant beast!

The degree of giant cockroaches is fast enough, but because it is too big, it moves farther. The strength of the dragon elephant behemoth is very powerful, and it is naturally impossible to smash it.

In order to find out what the giant cockroach is, it did not dodge, but stretched out the claws, directly holding a slap in the face, while pulling hard, want to see the giant eccentricity.

The dog  is also floating in the air, strangely watching this giant cockroach.

It is more real than the dragon elephant beast. Now there is a figure inside the giant body, it is the deep wave!

This makes it very surprised. Is this giant cockroach a weapon of Shen Lang? One?

This is not a giant cockroach, but a giant deformation robot operated by Shen Lang – Killing Warrior 377!

The Killing Warrior 377, originally a flame giant of several kilometers, but was taken away by its energy supply in the cold autumn, can not bloom a few hundred meters of flame.

However, its body can also be stretched and deformed, can be transformed into hundreds of meters, kilometers, and the attack power is also very powerful.

The killing of the soldiers 377 that day, is to let Shen Lang their group of immortals also helpless Finally is the cold autumn shot.

Now Shen Lang wants it to deal with the dragon elephant beast. In fact, it is more of a shocking effect. It is very difficult to fight against it.

After the dragon elephant monster blocked the killing of the killing warrior 377, it began to confront, and wanted to test the bottom of the giant dragonfly.

At this time, there was a sudden strong thunder, following the arm of the iron and steel, directly hit the dragon elephant behemoth!

Rao is its powerful body, and it was shaken by the lightning strike.

The body of the steel of the killing warrior has already grasped its claws, letting the power of the thunder and lightning continue to attack it.

“嗷呜!”

The dragon elephant beast had a violent drink, and the sigh of breath not only broke the killing warrior, but also the impact of its huge body shape to collapse to the back!

At first glance, the dragon elephant beast jumped up and attacked the giant cockroach and prepared to smash it!

The scale of the cockroach is as high as kilometer, and it is naturally not flexible enough. With its strength, I believe that it will be crushed soon. I was just hit by lightning and made it feel humiliated!

Of course, the dog * is not idle, especially knowing that this is the “squeaky” of Shen Lang’s manipulation. Of course, it is his own. When he looks at the dragon elephant beast attack, it immediately intercepts the past.

Chapter 1479 - Ambush ambush

The dog * was originally waiting in the air, and this interception made the dragon elephant behemoth unable to get close to the killing warrior.

Although they have not completely liberalized the taboos, they are close to each other, but they also directly shock the surrounding mountains.

But in the process of their fight, both of them noticed a strange thing, the giant skyscraper, which is shrinking quickly!

The dog  and the dragon elephant beast were surprised to separate and watched this picture together.

However, for a while, the giant cockroaches, which were originally taller than the mountains, have now become a cockroach that is about the same size as them.

This is so, Shen Lang can still be inside the chest.

“The Emperor! Let’s not play with it, let’s kill it together!”

Suddenly sensing the idea of Shen Lang, the dog  immediately excited. &1t;i>i>

“it is good!”

After just a few battles, they also tried to test out the opponent’s approximate strength.

The dog  can basically be sure that the strength of this behemoth is not as good as it is, but on the whole, it has reached a realm, but it is weaker than it. But it is not so easy to kill.

At first, it will feel the joy of the opponent, but will soon be impatient.

Because in the world of giant beasts, it is the supreme ruler, followed by Shen Lang came here, and did not encounter any problems. But now I can’t take this guy for a few times, so it feels a bit lost.

Shen Lang just suggested that it should be combined to kill it. It is also a bit embarrassing, but it can be a great attraction to kill a behemoth close to it, both in terms of stimulation and interest.

After the communication, the killing warrior 377 immediately attacked the dragon elephant beast! &1t;i>

The dragon elephant beast immediately screamed with sarcasm.

Just so big can't take it, now it's getting smaller, can you touch it?

Although it seems to be about the same size now, it is undoubtedly the most powerful and powerful among the three!

In contrast, the dog gods are all thin and slim, and the robots they see as jealous, there are many hollows, seemingly the bones that can be crushed at any time.

However, the dog * also attacked at the same time, which made it laugh out!

Originally, the dog * is better than it. Now with the help of one, the pressure is much greater.

This giant cockroach does not need to be able to win it, as long as it can contain a part, you can let the dog * kill it!

And just as it felt the pressure, Shen Lang had already come out from behind at the time of killing the warrior 377, and went around. &1t;i>

Immediately formed a three-party pinch posture!

“Hey!”

The dragon elephant beast is angry!

The strength of the dog * is stronger than it is, and it is no problem. This weird embarrassment can become so big and powerful.

However, now an inconspicuous human being in the district has dared to attack it!

The deep wave of the Great Fairy, in its eyes, is nothing at all, and dare to attack itself is a provocation!

This is actually quite normal, just like the dog gods even the ancestors of the great princes of the great fairy, they did not look at them. They did not engage in the sinking waves because of the “information” value they had, and then quickly layer by layer. Put it in it.

The dragon elephant beast had to face a double attack, and there was greater pressure. The Shen Lang came to provocatively, and immediately let it make Shenlang a breakthrough!

Do not say whether you want to catch hostages, you can kill one, you can also defeat the morale of the other side.

So it directly throws away the dog  and the killing warrior, and turns to the sinking wave!

And on the occasion of its return, there was a net of lightning in front!

The dragon elephant behemoth could not help but sneer!

It has just experienced thunder and lightning. Although it was electric, it feels that it is due to lack of preparation. Now it is ready to shield the lightning around the body.

Therefore, it did not pay any attention to it, and still continued to join the past, ready to directly sink the waves into the claws.

The dragon elephant beast is flying fast and the lightning is faster!

So almost just between the thoughts, the other two dog gods and killing warriors have no time to catch up, the dragon elephant beast has been wrapped in the net of lightning.

According to the expectations of the dragon elephant behemoth, its claws are about to reach the front of the sinking waves. It has a strong defense that is prepared, and it does open the lightning defense screen.

but.....

Just now, Shen Lang used his power of lightning to guide the past through the robotic arm of the killing warrior. This time, it is the source of the palm of your hand!

The thunder and lightning that this Leiyuan and Shenlang have cultivated are still hugely different, and they are spiritual and worthy of a “Raytheon.”

It was just a random attack, so it was shielded by the dragon elephant.

But for Leiyuan, this is what makes it lose face, which is a provocation!

So immediately strengthened ten times the power!

The result is that the dragon elephant beast has been put into the lightning grid, and successfully shuttled to the front of Shen Lang, but has not touched the Shen Lang, it was attacked by Lei Yuan after the upgrade, giving a thorough electric shock! &1t;i>i>

In an instant, its body was fixed in the air by a strong network of lightning, and then it was stunned by electricity.

Because the body of the dragon elephant behemoth is very large, this piece of lightning network is really like a net fishing a big fish.

Under the wrath of Lei Yuan, the power of lightning is still being upgraded continuously. The purpose is to kill the dragon elephant beast!

Both the dog  and the killing warriors followed closely, but they saw the picture and they paused.

The situation at hand is in the plan of Shen Lang!

Just now he was hiding in the killing warrior attack, which is a temptation, and intentionally released the killing soldiers to attract attention.

By the time the three sides have been attacked, he is the youngest one. It seems to be the weakest and the best bully. It can also irritate the dragon like a behemoth.

Lei Yuan is waiting for its ambush!

If attacked by normal means, it is very difficult for Shen Lang to want to protect himself. It is embarrassing to turn the dragon like a behemoth. Even if you borrow the power of Ray Source, it is very difficult.

But according to the current plan, it is different. The dragon elephant beast has already had an understanding of the power of lightning, and it will not pay enough attention. When it enters the scope of the attack of Leiyuan, there is enough opportunity.

The more powerful it is, the more it will anger Lei Yuan.

So with the current network!

However, in the end, the dragon elephant beast has the strength of the great  level. The strong attack of Leiyuan is enough to make the big fairy strong and broken, and its defense has also been broken, but it can still be supported by the strong body.

The danger of life, but also let the dragon elephant beast burst into a fierce atmosphere, scattered from the body, there is almost a terrible sense of destruction!

The dog  is also very serious, and is prepared to be on the side.

However, it is only aimed at saving the sinking waves. The explosion of the dragon elephant beast has destroyed everything around it, and it does not matter.

Chapter 1480 - Destroyed beast

The change of the dragon elephant behemoth, Lei Yuan naturally feels.

For it, no matter who is the human or the beast, no matter what the realm, it is a common generation, it is a congenital spirit. Want to challenge it, it is that dignity has been offended!

Just like the original use of Shen Lang, and finally to confuse it, it is squatting rather than intimidating.

Now the reaction of the dragon elephant beast makes it even more intense.

With the fierce struggle of the dragon elephant beast, even the net with the entire thunderbolt flashed in the air, but Leiyuan continued to increase the power of output lightning, like a strong rope, firmly tighten it.

The power of thunder and lightning is not only trapped, but is constantly smashing the target with devastating power!

Not to mention that this kind of spiritual energy is ordinary lightning, and the power can reach its peak in a very short time. If it continues, it will only cause the target to be broken.

The dragon elephant beast has a strong defense and endurance, but for this thunderbolt that has broken the defense, the final is more than one second, which is equivalent to more death.

In the end, its violent temperament has not yet erupted, and it has been firmly locked by the thunder and lightning net, and it cannot be suppressed.

At that moment, the dragon elephant beast finally had remorse!

After a long time, I don't know how many centuries of millennium, it once again realized that human beings are the masters of this world! Even if this human being is weak, it still has its incomprehensible power.

If it asks for mercy in time, it may be able to communicate with Shenlang, stop the mine attack in time, and leave it a life.

However, the dragon elephant beast only had remorse, but did not ask for the first time to ask for mercy!

The result was a little more than half a second, and there was a thunder in the arc light and shadow!

At that time, the giant body of the dragon elephant, stopped struggling, and all the reactions were gone, which directly stunned it.

Lei Yuan did not stop, after it was stunned, it could not resist the defense. After less than half a second, it was directly killed in the air!

Until the goal was confirmed to have completely lost the life, Lei Yuan was proud of the income of the palm of the wave.

When the lightning disappeared, the dragon elephant beast also began to fall from the sky.

Just a few seconds, but it has already made the dog stunned!

It was originally thought that Shen Lang was barely able to rely on the surprise attack, and slammed the dragon elephant beast for a while, but did not expect to kill the dragon elephant beast!

This is to change it, and it can't be done easily.

But just the picture, it has also been seen. When the day came, Shen Lang took it with him.

That is Raytheon!

Raytheon can listen to him, what else is impossible?

The dog * is also sincerely admired for Shen Lang. Don't look at the strength of the young and weak, the power that can actually be controlled is beyond imagination.

Then it looked at the killing warrior 377 next to it.

The “Scorpio” released by this swell wave, under his gaze, once again quickly deformed and contracted, and finally became very small, and was collected by Shen Lang.

“boom—“

The dragon elephant monster fell to the ground and collapsed a large piece of hillside. A large number of trees and rocks were destroyed and rolled down, and then it fell to the valley.

There are some people in Baijia, and they have been watching from afar. Although they don’t understand it very well, they also vaguely saw the result. They know that the guardian beasts of Bai’s legend have been killed, and they are completely desperate for a time.

They don’t even know where to escape.

Shen Lang and the dog  landed in the valley and looked at the dragon-like behemoth like a hill.

“Can you finish it?”

The dog  is also a bit awkward.

It is a bit exaggerated to say that eating so much, but the level of the dragon elephant behemoth, there is no one in its world. I have never eaten such a high level, it is the level of the beast and the god, and there is no chance to eat.

“Then, don’t be polite, eat and slowly digest. Dismember it, I can’t use much, take a little bit.”

“it is good!”

When I heard Shen Lang say this, the dog  was not polite and immediately began to dismember.

The dragon elephant behemoth is too big, and it is really troublesome to let Shen Lang come to dismember. And what he wants is very simple – Nedan!

Dog gods should not have this concept. The style of their behemoths is to directly swallow the other side, knowing that it is a big complement and can absorb evolution.

After it dismembered, Shen Lang took the most valuable inner dan, and then concentrated the marrow and blood to a part, and the other allowed the dog to eat slowly.

This level of dog god, for the general eating, has nothing to pay attention to, no problem for decades to eat meat for a hundred years. Followed by Shen Lang, it is also an early adopter to eat human food.

But now, this is not food, but a tonic that helps to improve evolution.

Compared to the dragon elephant beast, Daxian Baiyu Village, which was swallowed before, is just an appetizer.

The dog  thinks that the Shenlang is a symbolic take-up. Like the spirit that was obtained before, it is completely taking care of it, making it feel very interesting!

Shen Lang's physique is only so big, it is also difficult to insist that Shen Lang eat half of the dragon like a behemoth, so no polite, eat all of them just secretly decided to repay Shen Lang from other aspects .

When they flew up from the valley, the white family and the villagers had already hid.

With the strength of Shen Lang, of course, you can know where they are.

However, after killing Baiyu Village today, the account has been broken, and the dragon elephant beast is even more unexpected. He will not really want to destroy the white family.

The dog * now enjoys “playing pigs and eating tigers”. On the way back to Tangcheng, it has shrunk to the size of ordinary dogs.

This also makes Shen Lang feel very fun.

Because the body of the dragon elephant is bigger than the body of the dog, and it is all eaten with the belt bones, it should be the belly bulging, but there is no such problem.

And now it can be reduced to the size of a dog.

But after all, it is a * of the gods level, of course, this is not a big deal.

When Shen Lang returned to Tangcheng, the sky was already faint.

The VIP building is gone, and Shen Lang will go to the city center to find an inn.

At this time, it is easy to appear in front of him.

It seems that it is easy to wait, and they are aware that they are back, and they have come up.

“Shen Daxian, you haven’t stayed at the inn yet? I hope that I will stay in the tough front, or else the Sovereign will marry me!”

He respectfully invited Shen Lang to stay in the tough front.

Shen Lang didn’t know about the inn here, and there was no problem in living the tough front.

Originally, the VIP building was there. He didn’t want to give trouble to others. But before he came over, he had already communicated with Yi and Yi. Once he couldn’t live, he seemed to be blaming for it, and Qiu Lin Jianzong did not help him.

Therefore, he also readily agreed, followed by the easy to go to the tough front.
