

First Strong 1561

Chapter 1561 - 1 enemy 3

Pope and Brooks, when they first began to watch the cross light break through the wall, they still feel the power of God.

But it was discovered very quickly. It's not that the waves are eating, it seems that God has made adults fall into the wind!

When the gods were shot out at this moment, and the waves were cold and ironic, they would understand that this was actually defeating God.

“Shen Lang! Don't be rude to God!”

The Pope gave a sigh of relief and surrounded Brooks from behind.

Brooks didn't open his mouth, because he was only a semi-prestigious realm. He obviously felt that it was not as good as a deep wave. Before he could be calm in front of Shen Lang, it was entirely because of God's support.

The Pope of Constantine V is different. It seems that he and Shen Lang have only reached the semi-fairy realm. He even feels stronger than Shen Lang. Shen Lang is strong. Know the route and so on.

After that, I separated and waited until I returned. I heard that Shen Lang has become very powerful, and this time the temptation also made him believe that Shen Lang has a huge improvement.

However, he has broken through two realms after all, and has already reached the realm of Daxian, so when faced with Shenlang, he still has strong self-confidence. At this time, he not only dares to speak, but also dares to shoot!

Brooks thought that God made a shot, it was easy to crush the waves, and now he wants to shoot himself, but also feels the pressure is huge.

This is the guy who can turn the gods to make adults!

“roll!”

The two of their shots, not halfway through, were slammed by the waves of Shen Lang, and they directly flew back to the back!

The realm of the realm is huge, and the difference is already huge.

What’s more, the strength of Shen Lang can now be reluctant to fight with the realm of the Great God. For the Pope and Brooks, it can really form a crush!

It just seemed to be a simple scream, and they flew out the two of them, just like the dog * of the day.

But in fact, the process of real implementation is not so easy.

In short, he has just been mentally bombarded and crushed, so that both of them have lost control, and then they are bombarded with vitality.

To push them back, of course, is to better face the Paul the ambassador in front.

Just said that he is domineering, but Shen Lang is very clear, and has not crushed the formation of God.

When his voice just fell, Paul also made him see his power!

Paul took the initiative to move forward, and the broken wreckage that came from behind could not hurt him. At this moment, Shen Lang was assigned to deal with the Pope and gave him a chance to breathe.

He is now flying quickly, once again, with white light.

What is different from the previous one is that now he even whites his eyes, and it looks like his god!

The Pope and Brooks who just fell out, have not had time to feel the pain, see this picture, sincere worship, feel the breath of God.

“Ignorance! You are looking for death!”

When Paul said that he had said this sentence, the man had already reached the front of Shen Lang, and one hand took it to Shen Lang!

This one hand, the one that had encountered the stagnant water whip before, the bones are still visible, but for a short while, the wound is almost visible to heal, but there is no longer long meat.

“Is there a stagnant water in the district, and dare to compete with God?”

His hand is directly prepared to catch the water whip!

Shen Lang is also cautious. Since the other party dares to come up with such a hand, naturally it should be prepared.

Especially after I have recognized the source of the stagnant water, I dare to continue to catch it, when there is restraint!

Shen Lang itself is very confident in the resistance of the dead water whip, but now the two sides play against each other, not to mention the outcome between the two, at least one judgment error, will lead to a reversal of the situation.

In order to ensure that this time will not cause problems, Shen Lang is still choosing to avoid its edge!

When the cross light waves were infiltrated, he was hidden in the world of heavenly books, and then re-emerged, so he succeeded in attacking Paul.

Now this time the other side is going to catch the water whip, but Shen Lang has not chosen to avoid the space.

In the same way, if you use it again, it will be seen by the other party. If you want to use it again, it will not be so convenient.

So this time, he is also avoiding his edge, but in the way of harmony between man and nature, his body has suddenly retreated to the rear.

This is almost an invisible moment, where the Pope and Brooks are.

The two of them have just been repelled by the violent drink, and they have not been hurt too much. Now they have just slowed down, but Shen Lang suddenly appeared around, and they were all taken aback!

boom!

Shen Lang was already ready, and he punched out directly. The goal was Brooks.

When he was found to be around, the Pope and Brooks were instinctively dodging to the side.

It's just that they have high grounds in their realm, and the speed is also different. Although the reaction is between the electric and the Flint, it is only a slight time gap.

But in order to maintain the effect of the attack, Shen Lang directly gave up the stronger Pope, this punch is to hit Brooks.

Brooks can imagine that Shen Lang will attack, but he did not expect to use a fist!

Coupled with the sudden emergence of Shen Lang, the speed is very fast, so he has not had time to escape, this punch has been firmly smashed.

The fist from his ribs directly penetrated into the abdominal cavity!

Waiting for his body to sneak out to the side already has a  wound.

In the front, Paul God grabbed an empty hand, and both the Shen Lang and the Dead Water whip appeared in front, making him annoyed again.

The Pope was self-sufficient at this time, and it was too late to protect Brooks. It was only fortunate that the attack was against Brooks, so that he could successfully avoid a few meters away.

“Deceive a hard coward! Fight me!”

Paul’s body is faster than the sound to the front of the waves!

Shen Lang has just shunned, and the attack is also the weakest of the three selected Brooks, so that Paul is more full of confidence, and that Shen Lang is bullying and hard.

The fear of this hard, of course, is him.

The result was that when he first arrived, he felt something stinging into the brain!

“Glyphs!”

Just this sting, far from the headache of the previous mental attack, so he forced the past, to dispel this mental attack.

But at the moment of dispersal, he realized that it was a bit wrong...

Shen Lang came here to avoid the edge, but also set up a bureau. Just giving Brooks a punch is just a matter of convenience.

In fact, he has released a lunar needle, and it is estimated that Paul will be coming soon, so this lunar needle is directly pierced into his head.

As a magic weapon, the Yueyue needle is to be combined with the whole set of eight needles in order to exert great power. Just a needle, there is no power multiplier effect.

But what Shen Lang wants is to be alone as a weapon, a needle that is inconspicuous! Once the power is huge, it will be discovered and cannot be attacked.

Chapter 1562 - Test the enemy

Just now it was full of dust ruins and a needle. It really didn't make much care for Paul.

It was just a lunar needle, and it didn't have obvious power. Even when it was pierced into his head, it was only slightly pinned.

Under the attack of the former, Paul's ambassador thought that it was another mental attack. This time, the power is not great, he will directly repel and disperse.

The result is a physical needle this time!

For the dispelling of mental power, it is not necessary to care about the trajectory. It is ok to withdraw from the brain, or it is effective to disperse and dilute.

A physical needle, in his realm, of course, can easily be forced out, but must follow the direction of the direction, other random directions, will only let it drill in the head!

What Shen Lang wants is this effect.

When Paul's ambassador began to disperse the needle, he was also manipulating the lunar needle. The result was not only to force the needle out, but to slam in the head!

When I just pierced, it was just the pain of a slight acupuncture. Now the whole needle is drilled in the head, and the effect is different. It is a real headache.

This is a loss or Paul's current body is strong enough to be placed on the average person, the lack of strength of the self-cultivator, a needle in the head of a drill, can also directly stunned the headache, even because of the stimulation of the brain and nerves and other death.

But now even if he is a god, on this body, it is also affected by the pain of the flesh.

This is not the same as mental attack, but the effect is the same.

After the Pope flew a few meters away, he turned back and looked at this side, while continuing to retreat to a farther place, has not cared about the other side of Brooks, the most concerned about the state of Paul now.

The ribs were broken into Brooks in the abdomen, and the situation was even worse. In addition to trying to stop bleeding, he also took time to care about Paul's condition.

His current situation is that the direct ribs are broken and the holes are worn into the abdominal cavity. Many of the internal organs are shattered and broken. Even if they can treat a life, the body is also heavy and it is difficult to maintain his needs.

Therefore, he can only expect God to make an adult, and then help him to complete the transfer of the soul and re-continue to the new body.

This requires God to make the adults fight to win the waves, safe and innocent, and then help him.

As a result, the two people saw the expression of Paul's * in a different direction!

They can't know the specific situation, but look at it, and know that it should be sneak attack by Shen Lang. This is the result of injuries and pain.

This situation made two people secretly complain, they thought it was already the top of the earth, and no one else except the gods could stop them.

I didn't expect that just after the words of Zhang Lang's mouth, they flew them out!

If you really want to fight with all your strength, it is easy to kill them with Shen Lang.

To protect themselves, they must count on Paul to kill the waves...

When it was said that it was too late, Paul's ambassador immediately reacted, knowing that it was not a bunch of mental power, but was being counted by a real needle.

Just a needle turbulent, let him understand that this should be the same magic weapon used by Shen Lang, rather than ordinary steel needle.

So he immediately changed the way, no longer forced to force it, but a strong mental power to condense, in the head, to fix the lunar needle!

He didn't even have to push it out in the direction, so he calmed down and settled the waves.

Shen Lang, of course, did not pin all of his hopes on the sneak attack. This is just to get a head start and hold back the other side.

So when Paul God made a fight against the moon, Shen Lang was ready.

He didn't use the stagnant water to whip against the palm of the hand that made the white bones appear, but it turned out to be a fist against the past!

This punch, with the blood that just broke through the abdominal cavity of Brooks ribs, came directly to Paul, but it was much stronger than the punch of Brooks!

This is the simplest punch, but it actually contains a punch of the essence of Shen Lang's life!

The first is "Yin Yang Bo Ruozhen", plus "Da Shou Mi Long Xiang Shen Gong", but also contains "Heaven and Earth Domineering", directly let the power reach its peak.

The essence of the genes that were previously absorbed in the giant rhinoceros, swallowing scorio, iron armor and red dragons, as well as the recent force from the memory of the behemoths, are all contained in this simple punch.

Paul's ambassador gave up the "dead water" magic weapon for Shen Lang, and used his fist to confront him. He felt that this kid had a problem with his brain!

However, the plain punch, but also made his heart a little worried, there is a feeling of high mountains and big sounds.

He faintly felt that this was like a big hit!

Therefore, even if he was disdainful, he was very cautious and greeted him with a blow of the power of light.

But just at the moment of confrontation, he found that in the other hand of Shen Lang, there was another dead water whip, and it was entangled directly into his waist!

“Shameless!”

Paul God could not help but scream!

This is a sinister attack!

Although it is just two words of anger replied but when it is said, in fact, the faster boxing, has already touched together!

Paul made a palm with a powerful light directly to the palm of his hand, and hit the fist of Shen Lang!

Shen Lang finally realized the extraordinaryness of this light.

First of all, it is really a great drag!

Such a punch of supreme power, like a sinking sea, disappeared into the white light. The distance from white light to the palm of his hand is like the mound of thousands of mountains.

In turn, after the fall of the light, but broke through his defense, directly penetrated the surface of his fist!

It's like a boxing ring. You punched it and others wrapped up with thick armor and couldn't touch the meat. The punch of others is directly to the flesh.

What's more, the white light is not only unloading defense, strong penetration, but also has not touched the skin of Shen Lang, it has a burning sensation that erodes everything!

Shen Lang immediately understood that he had the same effect as the stagnant water!

However, a comprehensive inference can be drawn from the synthesis of various information.

The stagnant water is the hegemony that destroys everything. This light is capable of destructive power, with more effects such as defense, penetration, unloading, and treatment.

It can be seen that Shengguang only has a similar effect, but it is not a substance, but should be the effect achieved by one of their exercises.

Taking the test of the law, the eyes can see that their flesh is dissipated, revealing the bones on the fist!

Pain is naturally indispensable and terrifying, but with his experience with the stagnant water whip, the power of erosion is still much worse.

Chapter 1563 - Supreme 1 boxing

There is already a confrontation between the gods and the dead water whip. When Paul, who had the gods and protectors, directly caught the water whip, the result was that his hand was corroded.

It can be seen that the hegemony of the dead water whip can be broken even with the gods.

But Paul also knows the consequences and dares to continue to attack with his hands. It can be seen that he is now under the light of his eyes, completing an upgrade and adjusting the light to another height or state.

Shen Lang is also aware of this, even the dead water whip is avoiding its edge, how can it make himself risky?

Therefore, his attack, on the one hand, attacks the opponent with a supreme punch. If he can harden his light, it will be hard. As it is now, it will not be able to attack the next dead water whip, divert the attention of the other party, and complete the anti-killing of Wei Wei Zhao.

In the same way, he also maintains the state of harmony between man and nature. Once he is not right, he will immediately let himself go to the distance, and if necessary, leave it directly to the ground!

Now that I have seen the effect with my own eyes, now the light of Paul's palm is really extraordinary, and it can directly erode his fist.

While Paul was screaming, he still had the confidence to retreat when the stagnant water wraps around his waist, or now the light of his body is already the effect, not afraid of the dead water whip.

Therefore, he did not move, continued to grasp the past, ready to grab the fist of Shen Lang with his palm!

The current confrontation, in fact, there are still a few inches of space, but the Shenguang has eroded the skin muscles that are said, and the power of Shenlang has been removed by the light.

Paul's ambassador has the upper hand, and this inch of space allows him to better grasp the fist of Shen Lang. Once caught, you can erode his arm along the fist, and make the waves unable to escape!

At this moment, Shen Lang did not escape and left, but opened his palm!

The palm of the thunder suddenly bursts out!

The stimulation of Shenguang is like a great provocation to Leiyuan. It is even worse than the elders of Tula. Leiyuan did not discuss anything with Shenlang, and directly slammed the past with the strongest lightning. !

Paul did not think of it, Shen Lang actually burst out of thunder and lightning, and this thunder and lightning is not the only thing, even the gods can not be removed, straight into his palm, directly exploding along the arm to the whole body!

Shen Lang's arm is violent, and then suddenly hit!

Just Lei Yuan is equal to helping him break the light, he is now attacking again, still the supreme blow of the previous life essence!

Lei Yuanben extraordinary, at this moment is a successful raid at the crucial moment, under the crit, directly hit the Paul God to make a bit of a sense of collapse, the power of the gods plummeted.

The dead water whip almost wraps around his waist at the same time!

Originally, he still had speed to dodge. He might have been able to defend himself, but now it is entangled in solidity, and then quickly erodes inward along the entire waist.

Because it was too fast, almost at the same time, Shen Lang pursued the supreme punch, hit his arm, and then passed through the broken arm of the light, directly passed to his body!

Lei Yuan's thunder of the thunder is to give him a feeling of flying away, but the surface of the body has not changed much.

However, Shen Lang's fist is a huge force, and it has begun to sweep away the ravages!

His clothes were the first to be crushed by the impact, then the flesh of the body, and because of the impact of too much powerful force, the defense could not resist, and the pieces broke and shattered.

If his body is blown out and attacked by the iron rod before, then it will fly out, and the power does not need to be fully absorbed by itself, but can be transferred to the wall, the ground, etc. that are hit.

Even if you have to bear a lot of impact, you can still remove some of it.

But now another hand of Shen Lang is wrapping him with a stagnant water whip, his body is fixed, so the huge impact is completely under his body, the most vulnerable clothes are gone, then the hair , flesh...

Pope and Brooks, seeing the eyes are coming out!

Originally they all saw it with their own eyes. The bones on Shen Lang's fists were all exposed, and the flesh and blood disappeared. This made them very excited, but even if they didn't have time to secretly scream, there was a huge change.

At this moment, God made the adults not only bombarded by inexplicable thunder and lightning, but the whole body of large flesh and blood flew out, instantly turned into a * person, revealing a lot of internal organs and skeleton!

This is already very shocking, even a little scary, and without a moment, they find that God has broken the waist of the adult!

Completely broken off!

Then the upper half and the lower half, but also flew out without the power of dissipating!

However, because of the relationship of flying out, there is no more flesh and blood.

"This is impossible!"

There are no walls in front, and one house has passed directly to the ground.

At this moment, Paul's ambassador has become a separate part of the upper and lower parts, and it is completely flesh and blood.

The flesh on his face also dissipated most of it. This sentence is almost barely spoken, and it is difficult to understand clearly. Leiyuan has just been stimulated, and he has made a full blow, and then it seems to be surprised. Shen Lang's full blow.

Looking at this situation at the moment, Shen Lang should be able to cope with it, and naturally he will take it back.

Shen Lang holds the dead water whip and has already reached the blood man Paul.

“I said, how about killing you, this god?”

Shen Lang no longer needs to use his backwaters to whip again. Just after the lightning strike and his supreme punch, plus the backlash of the dead water whip, Paul’s ambassador at the moment, half life is not enough, even if the * is not satisfied. There is no physical support.

When he spoke, he had secretly driven the lunar needle, circulated inside his already outburst head, and through the field control, torn his dirty organs.

“Kid! You will regret it! You dare to treat God like this, you are the sin of God!”

This sentence is very interesting, it is not through Paul’s mouth, but his * is directly transmitted to the brain of Shen Lang.

The spirit of Shen Lang has already been prepared, and directly devour the spirit of Paul!

Paul’s physical ambassador is the metaphysical avatar of a great * on the mainland of China. Shen Lang is now doing this. The nature that is swallowed is not Paul, but his metaphysical avatar!

If you let Shen Lang succeed, it is equal to his detached Yuanshen directly supporting Shen Lang. How can this be accepted?

So when I realized this, I realized that I couldn’t resist it. I knew that Shen Lang was not stifling. I wanted to devour him. He was wronged and had to kill the gods!

This naturally will cause the deity to be injured and frustrated, but if the strong man breaks his wrist, it will be cheaper!

Shen Lang seems to feel such a distraction... I will be back!

Chapter 1564 - Faith and life

Although the Pope and Brooks did not come close, they could see a shoal of mud, blood and flesh revealing white bones, and there are many pieces of meat that flew out, and the pictures are all nausea.

And the two of them now feel more shivering!

Brooks didn't say it. He was the first official appearance of Shen Lang today. It should have been heard before.

Pope Constantine V is different. He traveled to another world with the same battle, and fought with Shen Lang. He also heard about his various things in Tiandu.

But whether it is on the mainland of the mainland, or this huge victory for the behemoth, or the previous trolls, no matter how famous, it is not directly related to them.

Just this is not the same, this is not to beat the masters of their bright Holy See, but to kill the gods from the heavens of the upper reaches!

God makes, in their view, this is God's self-humiliation, in theory, it should be God's avatar.

Actually killed by the sinking waves!

This is his faith sustenance, killing the gods, is more influential than killing them personally!

This kind of feeling is like a general believer, a bishop, watching someone killing the Pope, it is going crazy and crashing.

The Pope and Brooks are, after all, not ordinary people, or have a calm mind. More importantly, just after Shen Lang screamed, they could fly them out. This is the strength gap.

So at this time they both felt a little bit of a feeling of collapse, but did not dare to go crazy for God to revenge adults.

In fact, in addition to the feeling of collapse, the two of them now have no idea of running away.

After all, God made adults like a slaughter dog, where can they escape?

Shen Lang carefully stared at Paul for a while, and completely monitored the surroundings, determined that the * had been dispersed, and did not transfer to other people's bodies, or fled from here, only to rest assured.

Then I didn't pay any attention to the flesh and blood. Paul was his friend, and this was a revenge for Paul.

But there is nothing to miss in themselves, because their relationship has not reached the point of revenge for Archbishop Paul. This is just a matter of convenience.

Besides, for the Archbishop of Paul, he does not feel that he is being murdered, but may be a sacrifice of glory.

Brooks and the Pope had just escaped in the direction of separation. This was the rib that pierced the hole and barely came to the side of the Pope.

In his current situation, what is needed is immediate treatment, and perhaps a life can be saved.

But without God making the adults, he has no chance to re-transfer the soul to continue his life, and he may not be able to survive. He will not be able to reassure him without moving past the pope.

When the Pope came over, he also came back to God, but he also secretly complained.

Although he has dealt with Shen Lang, but the friendship is not comparable to the Archbishop of Paul, and now Shen Lang and even the gods are killed, will he spare him?

The two people looked at the waves and couldn't speak.

"I have killed your gods."

In the case of Shen Lang, the Pope did not know how to respond. He only nodded and said that he knew.

Brooks can't even make a nod.

"You have no opinion? Don't want to avenge him?" Shen Lang asked again.

This time Brooks reacted. He is now like this. It's hard to say how to save his life. Where can he say revenge!

It's better to live alive than to die. Now, even if you can get back a life, you can't support the original strength, but you can live alive and have hope. If you die, you will have nothing.

So he hurriedly ran his head and replied: "Don't dare, don't dare, you look at us like this, you don't need a finger to kill me, and I dare to take revenge."

He obviously complimented with flattering, and he thought it was better, hoping to satisfy Shen Lang.

But Shen Lang stared at him and asked.

"Don't dare? That is to say, you want to take revenge, but you are not as strong as you dare to do it?"

This sentence was said to directly let Brooks fall down and sit down, and the intestines leaked out from the big hole next to it.

“No, no, we don’t dare to take revenge, and we definitely don’t want revenge. We are very, very...”

He was really shivering at this moment. Under the urgency, he didn’t know what to say. He could only turn to the Pope for help.

Under his response to these few sentences, the Pope has gradually calmed down.

“Yes! You killed the gods I taught. It is a god-dead behavior. My personal beliefs should be firmly defended. As a contemporary pope, I should lead everyone to attack you and revenge for God.” !”

Finished!

Brooks fell to the ground directly. The Pope should have angered Shen Lang directly, and there is no room for manoeuvre.

He is ready to wait for death.

“Just, even if we are not as good as you, we have started together. Now I can only watch, there is no voice for God to revenge adults, not I don’t want it, nor I don’t dare, but the strength is too different, I do this. No meaning Shen Lang has ignored the Brooks on the ground, but a little appreciative to watch Constantine V.

After all, the Pope is the Pope!

His faith is more determined, he can die for his faith, and Paul, who can be the chief archbishop, should be the same.

Now the Pope is also ready to die, just want to die with dignity.

To die for faith is an incredible foolish thing for many ordinary people, but for many people, it is natural.

This belief, including religious beliefs, also includes a firm philosophy. For example, many revolutionary martyrs, not hesitate to throw their heads and blood, is also a firm revolutionary belief.

“Thank you for letting me finish, I will not ask you for your life. If you keep me, I will eventually find you revenge, and I will organize people to avenge you. If you want to kill me, I will not have any resentment.”

After the Pope finished, he made a religious gesture of their light gods, and his eyes became peaceful and kind, as if the large-scale religious activities were frank with numerous believers.

At this moment, he is calm, although he said that after all, he must revenge and organize revenge, but he does not have any intention of attack at this moment, and even has no defense.

But Shen Lang has a very strange feeling, as if the Pope has a faint aura around him at the moment!

This kind of aura is not like the  that just made the eyes shine, but an invisible feeling.

“You have earned my respect for the belief that faith exceeds life!”

Shen Lang seriously said this sentence.

The Pope, who was also waiting to die, had no emotions, but Brooks, who was scared to death on the ground, ignited hope!

Chapter 1565 - humiliation?

“Yes, for the sake of faith, we can give our lives! Now we are afraid to do it with you, but our heart is walking with God!”

Brooks has just begged for mercy, and it has no effect, and the Pope insisted on his own beliefs, but he won the respect of Shen Lang.

So he immediately changed his attitude and kept himself a firm believer.

There was a glimmer of hope, and he was allowed to sit up straight from the stumbled state, but he did not stand up yet.

The Pope looked at him, his eyes filled with cichlids, and perhaps a sigh.

Shen Lang also gave him a look and nodded to him.

“You are willing to give life for faith, and I am very touched...”

Upon hearing this, Brooks secretly took a deep breath and allowed the enemy to be respected and moved. At least he should not kill him in person.

As a result, he had not finished his breath, and he heard the latter sentence.

“I should fulfill you and let you walk with God.”

During the conversation, Shen Lang’s hand was pressed against the top of his head.

“Why, why! I don’t want to walk with God!”

Brooks is very scared at this moment, is the Pope not okay? Why does he have to pay the price of life for the same statement?

He does not want this kind of fulfillment!

Is it just that the attitude is not yet firm enough, did not say to find Shen Lang revenge?

But at this moment, he still has no determination to dare to turn his face with Shen Lang, thinking is still strong and begging for mercy.

Compared with the current Shen Lang, he has only half a fairy realm, can not resist, let alone less than half life. Therefore, the latter words can no longer be said, and they feel that their own cultivation and spiritual strength are rapidly passing.

“Mr. Shen, please bypass him. Please kill me. He is a bishop who has been disregarded for a long time. I am still the Pope.”

God's process of killing adults was too fast. It was too late for the Pope to help and want to open his mouth. It was completely shocked at the time.

Now watching Brooks being killed in the face, he can't bear it.

In his opinion, anyway, he will die. If he can let him die, he will be able to make a life for Brooks.

Shen Lang did not pay attention to him.

The Pope is just a firm belief in the attitude that makes him feel, and this Brooks is undoubtedly a person who lacks this quality and can do anything for his life.

Soon, Brooks was drained and landed on the ground.

Constantine V made their religious gestures again, silently praying for Brooks.

“Do you think I will kill you?” Shen Lang asked again.

The Pope said faintly: “You kill and not kill me. There is nothing to me. You can't be satisfied by intimidating or humiliating me, without wasting everyone's time.”

He can see clearly that Shen Lang can directly kill him against his strong god. Brooks, who is seriously injured, can also be ruthlessly killed. It should not be special to him.

I haven't moved him yet, it's nothing more than trying to humiliate him again.

Brooks did not have the identity of his pope, and naturally there was no value of humiliation.

He said this layer in advance, that is, let Shen Lang dispel the humiliation of the Pope.

Shen Lang reveals a smile: "If you believe in firmness and threaten you, it is useless. As for humiliating you, for me, there will be no satisfaction."

"I won't kill you either."

"..."

Not humiliating, not killing him, this is to make the Pope a little surprised.

Is it really because his faith is determined and respected?

He felt that he could not see the waves.

According to Paul's previous report, and his own previous observations, he felt that Shen Lang was very human and would not be limited by conventional legal principles or even morality.

Seeing his incomprehensible look, Shen Lang laughed.

"There is a high and low level. I have just humiliated your  to make an adult. In your words, you are already stunned. If you humiliate you, can you have any higher satisfaction?"

"..."

The Pope is speechless. This is correct. It must be a bishop, an archbishop, a pope, a god, and so on. This is the normal order of satisfaction.

"Of course, there is another way, that is, I will take you out, swear to the world against the camera. The degree of excitement is even greater."

The words of Shen Lang made the Pope a surprise.

He personally has seen through the fame and fortune, even if Shen Lang wants to humiliate him and humiliate the Pope, he can face it calmly.

But if the public humiliates the Pope to the world, it is not a problem that he can personally bear. It will become a stain on the history of the Light God, and will cause all believers around the world to be ashamed.

This severity is indeed much greater.

“you.....”

He said a word, but he didn't know what to say.

Open for mercy? What is the difference between Brooks and Brooks?

Even if he is not afraid of the ridicule of Shen Lang, if you let Shen Lang look light, continue to publicly humiliate the identity of the Pope?

But if he does not ask for mercy, he does not know how to avoid this result. Whether it is the firm belief in the hardship, or calmly does not seem to be enough.

“But you know, I am not such a person. I am a good person. In that world, we are both willing to work together and fighting together.”

The words of Shen Lang seem to be comforting, but they make the Pope have no bottom.

He immediately recalled the various kinds of Shen Lang in the world, including everyone asking Shen Lang to lead the way to develop all kinds of non-returned sea prison, – benefits!

Shen Lang is a real person, always benefit first!

For example, for personal benefit, you can mediate the grievances of the Earth monks and Yuxianmen.

Then he is saying this now...

The Pope raised a trace of worry, not knowing what the interests of the Holy See were.

Shen Lang itself has no hatred with the Guangming Holy See. This time, Paul God made a ghost and made an appointment here. It was nothing more than the power of faith to move their cake.

Now that Paul has done it, he is guilty of publicly humiliating the Pope!

Public humiliation of the Pope, for him, there will be no good and refreshing, but the benefits will be greatly homeopathic!

After all, this is a famous religious leader. The country is a billions or even billions of believers. Among them, fans who have gained the power of faith now, there must be no small overlap.

He is able to reap the power of faith because of the superhero image of the patron saint of the earth.

But compared with religion, the foundation is too weak. If he moves religion, it will immediately cause an uproar!

Believers already have a huge foundation, and seeing the countries and forces that he is not used to, will inevitably take the opportunity to help, and then they will be discredited.

Shen Lang doesn't care about fame, but the power of the recent beliefs is too comfortable, and I don't want to lose.

However, do not humiliate the Pope, can you use his identity?

Chapter 1566 - Help me make a name

Shen Lang wants to use the identity of the Pope to see if he can make some articles. It is best to harvest the power of the beliefs of their bright believers.

But he had no plans before, or even thought about it at all. It was an accident to meet the Pope here.

So at the moment, I haven't thought about how to use it for the time being.

It is only obvious that Brooks has no value and the Pope is valuable. He will not kill, nor will he be publicly humiliated.

Of course, it will not let him go so directly!

Let go, the next time there is not such a good chance to seize.

Moreover, the Pope said that it is true, and he rushed to kill the gods. He must launch the power of the Holy See to take revenge!

Just let go of it, but also to find trouble for yourself, it is better to kill it.

Shen Lang has not yet thought about how to use him. The Pope does not know what big interests Shen Lang wants to get from him.

For a time, two people were silent.

“Not as good as our cooperation?” Shen Lang quickly broke the cold spot.

“Cooperation?”

The Pope is waiting for Shen Lang's “sentence judgment”, either to kill him directly or to gain benefits from him.

Now that he wants to cooperate, he will feel that Shen Lang will benefit from him, including the Guangming Holy See.

“I am talking about the destruction of the Statue of Liberty. You want to harm me, I have successfully resolved, with my current influence, and the public opinion that has been scattered...”

Shen Lang looked at him like a smile: “If you say that you are behind the scenes, it is your people in the Holy See. How much influence you have on your reputation.”

The Pope frowned and silenced.

To directly think about his personal, even his reputation, does not care.

But since he is a contemporary pope, he is doomed to have nothing to do with personal matters, and things that appear on him are directly linked to the entire religion.

Now that this matter has come out, Shen Lang only insists that they are engaged in it. Even if there is no direct evidence, with the current public opinion, abandoning their own believers, most of them will spray them.

The key point is that they are orthodox teachers. If they are extremely cults, they will do all kinds of destruction and attacks. It doesn't matter.

Orthodox teaching, even if there are all kinds of shady scenes in history, there are some scandals and the like on a daily basis, but in general, it is the guide to be good, which is recognized by the world.

Now because of the attack of the behemoths, the world has already made a lot of noise. This time, it is a big smear and it is difficult to clean.

With the momentum of Shen Lang, there is no need for evidence. He only needs to say that at least hundreds of millions of people believe or be affected.

The superpowers, the Capitol, the Ministry of Defence, and even the presidential palace have been smashed, and the army has been defeated. It is also necessary to keep them calm. This is unprecedented.

Are they good people?

Are they confessing to introspection?

It is nothing more than a clear understanding of the situation, knowing that hard work can not be good, so low-key service is soft. In the capacity of a super-powerful country, eating a dumb loss and admitting mistakes, naturally sympathy, no one will pursue their problem of the attitude of the behemoth.

The Pope is a true man, a religious leader, and a mature politician.

These problems can be sorted out in an instant, and Shen Lang just clicks, he will understand.

“What do you want me to do?”

The Pope slowly asked, knowing that Shen Lang wanted to benefit from him, but there was no way.

The soft ribs have been taken over, and now there are conditions to talk about, and the risk of the crumbling of the millennium industry is much better.

However, he also knows that the wealth of the world cannot attract the deep waves, and the resources for comprehending the truth are far from being comparable.

Therefore, it is not a simple thing to make Shen Lang’s plot!

“I want your reputation to give me the platform!”

“My reputation?”

“Your reputation and influence are bigger than me. This is the only thing you can give me. You stand up and prove that I have solved the evil superpower. I praised me and praised me. I naturally will not say you.” “”

The words of Shen Lang were spoken, and the Pope was a little surprised.

He suspected that Shen Lang wanted something unique in the Holy See, such as holy paintings and holy waters. These had been supplied with Shen Lang before, and they were clear.

He has even been secretly calculating, if Shen Lang is open, how much the amount can be given to the psychological price.

I didn't expect the spurs to be, but it would be a worldly reputation!

"I want to do this, there is no problem, just... you are sure... or you have other requirements, please come up first!"

The Pope thinks this may be a scorpion of Shen Lang, and the real intention has not yet been said.

If he does not say the real purpose, he is not at ease.

"I am a young man after all, I don't have any money beauty, I have the power at my fingertips. What is still attractive is the reputation."

"I used to be respected and supported by the realm of comprehension. Even if more people worship me, it is just a very small minority. Now it is different. With hundreds of millions of people, even one billion people worship, the feeling is different. of."

"I enjoyed it very much, and for a long time there was nothing that made me enjoy it."

Shen Lang said this, very calm, because this is the truth, but he did not say that the enjoyment of the absorption of faith Pope was originally surprised, but listening is gradually believe.

Yes, Shen Lang has entered his vision, and it is far from being able to look back. It will take a long time, but only a year or two.

In the past, even if the Shenlang was red again, it was just a red circle in their country. Later, even if it was red all over the world, it was just a high-level circle of comprehension.

Now is the real way to get to the public and enjoy the real feeling of big red and purple.

This point, in fact, the Pope himself is also deeply experienced.

As a pope, it is also step by step, from the ordinary author of the gods and staff, to the bishop, to the regional archbishop, to the regional bishop, the red archbishop and so on.

Every step forward is also an upgrade that can affect a larger range and be recognized and embraced by more people.

But even if there is a chief cardinal like Paul, and the Pope, there is still a qualitative difference!

Because as a bishop, you are famous again, but it is only in your own teaching, it is the fame among the believers.

But as the Pope, that is the world's religious leaders, whether it is the teacher, or even believe it or not, know his existence.

The Pope's illustrious identity, of course, cannot be "long standby," even if it's already in the midst of a semi-prestige, it's time to hide its identity when it's appropriate.

The external performance is "death." Then it is as fascinating as the ancestors of the general comprehension forces, unless there is a big problem.

At their funeral, it is often possible for many heads of state in the West who are not religious believers to attend and reach more than 100 countries. This is something that no other head of state politicians can have.

Chapter 1567 - Shocking headlines

The Pope has risen one by one. According to the truth, he should have enjoyed similar prestige, and he has a good cultivation and state of mind. He should have calmed down.

But in fact, for the position of the Pope, it is still very hot. It is also very exciting to climb the top of the pope. Some even occupy a long time and are reluctant to “death.”

It is because of the tremendous qualitative change of this influence that the experience brought about is completely different.

According to Maslow’s hierarchical demand theory, people’s needs, from low to high, are physiological needs, security needs, belonging needs, respect for needs and self-realization.

Breathing, food, water, sleep, sex, etc. are the most basic physiological needs, at the bottom of this demand hierarchy pyramid.

For any successful person, these are easy to achieve, and then there will be a higher level of demand.

Like Constantine V himself, when he stepped forward to the Pope, basically all aspects of the demand can be achieved, that is, the status, fame, etc. of the Pope can also stimulate him.

Now he is pushing people, to the strength of Shen Lang, the money beauty is nothing, until now, no one can threaten him in any aspect of the real world, even the superpower can easily provoke.

He has saved all the people in the world of comprehension, and everyone respects him. What else can stimulate him?

This is the unintentional exposure on the world stage, let the world focus, let him feel the worship of hundreds of millions of people, giving him a fresh sense of excitement.

But the starting point is extremely high, and it is directly to everyone in the world. Fans come up with hundreds of millions.

It is even harder to want to go forward again.

The public visit to the UN Security Council today is tantamount to the endorsement of the largest institution. Next, even if the leader of a big country meets, it will not increase much.

Unless the heads of dozens of countries meet with him...

At this time, the Pope's face lifted the sedan chair, which is naturally the biggest growth point of Shen Lang's reputation at this moment.

"What do you think I still want?"

Shen Lang joked and asked.

The pope is a bit embarrassed.

"What do you think you can give me?"

The Pope is even more embarrassed.

"If it's just this request, I am willing. I thought... you want me to give up revenge."

Shen Langhehe smiled: "Oh, revenge, the strength of your Holy See, who can find me revenge. You? In addition to you, other use of sea tactics?"

The Pope is further embarrassed...

The words of Shen Lang are very realistic.

Even the gods can kill, even if he really has the revenge, he will have to pay a huge price, and hopes.

In other words, the power of the Holy See is nothing more than letting Shen Lang kill more.

Therefore, his previous gesture is serious, but it can only be a gesture, and it is really impossible to carry it out.

Now Shen Lang directly took out the revenge that he could not do, and expressed disdain, which made him very embarrassed.

“If you insist on revenge, I don’t mind. I believe many countries, religions, and willing to see your destruction!”

The sentence of Shen Lang is very understated, but it is the threat of red fruit!

The Pope secretly smiled, and Shen Lang said it makes sense!

They are a world-class religion, but a large religion can last for a thousand or two years. It is not luck or doctrine.

The development of believers is essentially the same as that of the country. Only the larger the site, the more believers are likely to be. So many times, it is inseparable from the state and politics.

And even if the population of the earth is now seven or eight billion, the total amount is limited. Religion is often the only exclusivity, and development will be a process of change.

The main major religions, if one encounters a fatal blow, there is a tendency to decline. Other religions, not to mention joint suppression, will inevitably develop and expand.

The superpowers that had been swayed by Shen Lang before did not dare to stick to him. For this reason, they feared that after major problems, they would benefit other countries.

As a religious leader with great political wisdom, the Pope certainly understands this very well.

It is also impossible to fight, and let more people die, the same will lead to the decline of the Holy See, and the result is still to become a sinner of the ages.

So from the beginning, his revenge is also a slogan.

Only his mentality is very good, even if it is a slogan, it is also true, not like Brooks swinging.

“what do you want me to do?”

The Pope can't say no revenge, even if it won't be executed, it must be insisted that it can only be a topic.

It didn't take long for Shen Lang to leave there.

He did not kill the Pope, the death of the Pope – the real death, and was killed, will inevitably cause an uproar, no interest.

Soon, video information recorded by Shen Lang appeared on the network.

In the video, I took a picture of the broken wall in the basement, and I saw that it was a fight.

The person who appears in the picture, in addition to Shen Lang, is Pope Constantine V.

Constantine V is like a demeanor when there is a large-scale religious activity. He introduces himself seriously and shows his identity to many people who don't know him.

Then they publicly said that they helped to hear the news the evil supernatural who destroyed the Statue of Liberty and almost killed a lot of tourists, and then asked Shen Lang to dismiss it.

For Shen Lang, he is of course a great compliment, saying that this is a very good young man, a super hero like a god, and a person worthy of respect and love in the world.

Shen Lang is polite and courteous, thanking the Pope for providing information.

And solemnly warn the evil superpowers hiding in the dark, if they dare to destroy the world and injure innocent civilians, even if they hide in the Antarctic North Pole and hide in the Pacific Ocean, they will be taken out!

During this time, everyone can also see that it is a simple mobile phone shooting, and the reporters immediately contacted the Guangming Holy See while forwarding, and confirmed that it was really the Pope of Constantine V.

This has become an explosive news to seize countless headlines!

In the identity of the Pope of the Light God, everyone has never imagined that Jiayu praised a single person, even if he met with the head of the big country, and said it was a diplomatic rhetoric.

Now the praise of Shen Lang, the word actually “like a super hero of the gods”, “worth the world respect and love”, this is a supreme evaluation of a religious leader who serves God.

Although the major media have been concerned about the information of Shen Lang before, but the report is still strictly prohibited, is a variety of tabloids, websites, self-media and the like, will be all kinds of exaggerated reports.

But now, the Pope has come forward to endorse the Shenlang platform. It is the major media in the Western camp, and they are also highly reported.

Chapter 1568 - The heat of the world

Some media have sorted out the timeline.

The time when Shen Lang arrived at the United Nations building, then the time of the meeting with the Security Council, and then the time when the Statue of Liberty appeared.

The video released by the Pope and Shen Lang now shows that the problem has been solved.

No more than an hour before and after!

What is this concept?

Not to mention such a big case, it is a daily case of robbery and theft, and it may not be so fast.

Intelligence agencies such as the Federal Bureau of Investigation do not know that the Statue of Liberty is going to have an accident; after the accident has occurred, it is estimated that it has not yet arrived at the Freedom Island.

However, Shen Lang, the guest who came from the east of thousands of miles away, had taken time to scout a big case during the meeting and flew in time.

Although it did not stop the destruction of the Statue of Liberty, it was normal. Watching the destruction of metal statues and foundations on the scene was definitely not possible in a short while. It may have started before Shen Lang came to New York. .

But Shen Lang successfully saved all the tourists!

This is already a very rare and very great act, and after completing the rescue, he did not stop for a moment, nor did he leave the rest, but continued to search for the evil superpower who was destroying.

And with the information provided by the Holy See, the enemy of the evil superpower was quickly found and ended.

This is already an unparalleled ability!

It is all the New York police, the investigation bureau and other institutions that are ashamed. And under the loss of the Statue of Liberty, I have to be grateful that Shen Lang has saved so many tourists, otherwise it will be a much bigger disaster.

Although there are no images of the evil superpowers and bodies in the video, there is no evidence.

But the Pope's speech is simply the platform of the strongest voice in the world, better than the head of state.

For example, the support of an Eastern head of state may be that Western media people will doubt whether there is political fraud; in turn, the support of a Western head of state may also make the Eastern media people suspect.

But to a certain extent, the Pope can be regarded as a political figure like a head of state, but it is also a transnational religious leader, and it has a universal high reputation in all walks of life in the West.

Therefore, he personally came out to praise and praise Shen Lang. For the Western world, I feel that this is a kind of signal, a signal that is recognized by the whole West.

Therefore, from the media to the people, they are enthusiastic and supportive.

For the people from all walks of life in the East, especially China, we don't necessarily think that there is any conspiracy. More will be felt. As an oriental superhero, it is especially hard to get the Western mainstream to recognize that they have to take it.

The Guangming Divine Church has a huge number of believers in the world, plus the families, relatives and friends of all believers, that is definitely a billion.

For them, this is nothing to do with them, and it is a bit lonely. This superhero is not their  to save the world.

But now it is different. Does the Pope not come out personally? Is the information of the evil superpower not provided by the Holy See?

This shows that the Holy See is also a real superhero!

Moreover, the Pope uses the "super hero of the gods". Does that suggest that this superhero is actually an incarnation of God?

Therefore, because of the goodwill of the Pope, a considerable number of people who made them public, regarded Shen Lang as their own, became the messenger of God, and offered the most sincere worship!

The result is that the real “God” does not open up its identity and can only enjoy the power of faith indirectly.

However, Shen Lang not only killed him, but also occupied his “God’s” status in disguise, and this is because of the Pope’s speech, and a somewhat semi-public nature, which led to the surge of faith.

God wants to make waves, because Shen Lang inadvertently affects the acquisition of their faith. Now let the believers directly have a devout faith in Shen Lang. If there is knowledge in the underground, I don’t know if I will be mad again...

Of course, there are also some religions, countries, or some media that want to find another way to deal with the light of the gods.

The Pope, who felt that they rarely appeared, ran out at this time, in fact, in order to smash the heat of the waves.

This immediately triggered a debate and a melee. The bright believers felt that they were shameless. The Pope needed to be hot. This is a true and friendly relationship with Shen Lang.

The controversy, of course, has accelerated the heat and continuity, and the power of faith that has multiplied Shenlang has been extended for a longer period of time.

The view of “hotness” also reminds some countries and politicians.

Even the Pope is out of the heat, what are they embarrassed about?

Therefore, politicians in many countries have joined the ranks of swells and waves.

The reason is of course very easy to find, such as the Statue of Liberty, which was given by France at the time. Although it has been destroyed, Shen Lang is equal to helping revenge. They can express their gratitude. Re-express the friendship with the superpowers, the complaints against the bad guys, and so on.

Other unrelated countries, as well as tourists, have an excuse to have their own people traveling in the Statue of Liberty, and they are in danger of life and death. It is because of the rescue of Shen Lang that they are saved safely.

Those big countries were still a bit reserved , for example, through the Security Council, it is out of this consideration.

But now I see a lot of other irrelevant countries, all of which are excused by the popularity of their own tourists. It seems that if they don't say anything, they are indifferent to the safety of the tourists and the people!

Ever since, this superpower has had to make a public statement, paying attention to today's affairs, investigating power, and making comforting work for the frightened tourists, as well as cleaning up and repairing the Statue of Liberty.

Then he expressed his gratitude to Shen Lang, thanked Shen Lang for his contribution to the country and to all tourists, and also paid tribute to his fight against criminals.

Other big countries are also those who cut in from tourists and civilians, condemned the people who attacked and destroyed, and praised the height of Shen Lang.

The country and religion are still the same, and for the entertainment industry that is always the most popular, it is even more important.

For a time, Hollywood's corporate giants, famous guides, popular stars, etc., all on the social network, highly praised Shen Lang, both expressed great admiration and love for him, hoping to have the opportunity to see the clouds.

Hollywood is the first to be taken, and the stars of other countries will of course catch up. The star of our country has the advantage of getting the moon in the near water, saying that it is proud of Shen Lang, proud of him and so on.

Religious leaders and politicians have influenced the mainstream population, while entertainment stars and so on have affected more young people.

Originally, fanatics are mainly teenagers. Now they see their favorite stars and like the waves, they are even more fanatical. There are many stars who have been interested in Shenlang Road, and they like to admire Shen Lang and join the ranks they like.

Chapter 1569 - Do not forget the initial heart

The power of faith that has soared so quickly has greatly exceeded the expectations of Shen Lang.

In this way, he will use the Pope to increase his influence, and he will consider the power to increase his faith, but he did not expect it to be so fast and so fast.

What he can expect is the same as before, the increase in the average person's audience. But after all, there is already a big base, the level has the influence of the Pope, and it is very good to add a few more achievements.

Even if you don't increase much, you can maintain your current state. Don't be suspicious because of the collapse of the Statue of Liberty, which is a good ending.

However, he did not expect that because the Pope had a slightly ambiguous term, plus the brains of the bright believers, so that a considerable number of people believe in him and regard him as a god!

They feel that the Pope can be so powerful, and with such words and attitudes, it must be God. This base is large enough to directly increase by hundreds of millions.

Moreover, they were originally believers, and they were very religious to the gods of light. At this moment, they were added to Shen Lang, which is the power of very pure faith.

This is much more pure than the average fan.

Another unanticipated one is from politicians to stars, all of which are hot spots, which is a great expansion.

One is a single audience, but the proportion is large, and it is a believer. There is enough power of faith.

One is that the expanded audience base is large, even if the proportion is small, it is still a lot overall.

Shen Lang estimates that he should be the first in history. Even the former leaders, or the famous leaders in history, can hardly reach the level of this base.

For example, the leader of Guangmingism, naturally should have harvested the power of a great amount of faith, but it is gradually accumulated in two thousand years, and some may be collected by him, and some are already collected by the younger generation.

In a short period of time, it is absolutely unique that Shen Lang can make billions of people worship the faith.

Of course, he is very clear that his state is short-lived. In popular terms, he is the only superhero on the earth. Now it is just a net red, and the net red will always be too angry.

However, the power of faith does not require him to take the initiative to stop and absorb the power, anytime, anywhere, even if he is in the world of giant beasts, mainland China, can receive the same.

Therefore, Shen Lang does not need to compete for time to absorb. If you have time, you can extend this time point and keep this process longer.

After all, it is a powerful force of faith, and one day is also a huge gain.

However, Feng Wuji has already started to make up classes. He has provided some reliable advice for this aspect of packaging.

Net red is inevitable, just the length of time – generally not too long, and then a small part of the iron powder. But there are two things that will accelerate!

One of them, of course, is the scandal and black material. What Paul God has done for them is the use of the destruction of the Statue of Liberty, plus many tourists who have harmed the waves.

The other one is the over-exposure of aesthetic fatigue!

Because the cycle of net red is too short, it is necessary to maintain more heat by exposure, and it is necessary to grasp this degree, avoiding too dense and aesthetic fatigue, leading to lower heat in advance.

Feng Wuji has specially prepared a group of people to follow the news of the world, and then analyze and anticipate. If it is enough, Shen Lang will not come out. If there is a decline, find a good entry point. Come out.

Of course, Shen Lang himself is not idle, but is prepared.

All the visits by the parties in the realm of the realm, he naturally let the wind push the whole thing, and there is no time to spend on the unnecessary social.

With his current realm and the resources he now has, even the masters of the Pope, such as the Pope, are not in the eye, not to mention other family powers.

But one thing, he has to take care of himself and can't let go.

That is the behemoth.

The violent redness of Shen Lang is the basis of the great premise of the behemoth invasion. Otherwise, he does not say that the military machine is crushed, even if the aircraft carrier is pinched, it is also a destroyer.

If you want to absorb more of your faith, you must continue to be red; if you want to continue to be red, you must not forget your initial heart without further expansion.

If there is a change in the behemoth side, the basis of his popularity will be gone.

Don't look at it now that everyone holds the sky and treats him as a god. Humanity is selfish. Once a giant beast appears, or it is proved to be caused by his relationship, they will immediately turn their faces to the end!

It is precisely because of the human nature that Shen Lang will come to a rescue show when the Statue of Liberty is in crisis.

Because others use such an accident, they can blacken him.

In the case of the giant beast world, in fact, Shen Lang is not worried.

Originally, this time, the Emperor's behemoth was already fixed. If it wasn't for the backyard fire caused by the hurricane beast, it would have been safe.

Now the Emperor Beast has brought back the other remnants of the beast. Normally, it will not come here again – there is no resource at all!

But the change of things is not entirely based on the will of individual strongmen, and the hurricane beast will send troops without the permission of the Emperor. The nations of the earth will also explore the world of giant beasts without the permission of Shen Lang!

If human beings are flying and the submarine has passed, and then they have passed the chaotic space into the world of giant beasts, then human beings are invaders!

Earth people hate the invasion of giant beasts, and monsters will not like the invasion of small humans.

When it is time to attack again, no matter whether Shen Lang has the ability to kill them, it will be a bad state.

To fight against the dog god, the current Shen Lang can't win.

So he decided to go over the world of giant beasts and communicate with the dog god. If someone goes to explore, there is nothing to say, just kill it!

Compared to the world that invaded the whole human race, these screaming spies, who are obedient orders, die and die.

Shen Lang himself can use the Kunlun mirror of the New Three Realms to cross the place where he has been, but he still chose the old road and walked to the vicinity of the non-returned Hai Prison.

The old road is not to save spiritual strength. He himself has to bear the impact of a wave of space cracks. He has to drift from the chaotic space and enter the giant beast world once again. It is not easy to add up. It is more expensive than using the magic weapon. Bigger.

This road is for careful observation at close range!

One is to observe how much is left in the scope of the return to the sea.

In the past, the Andean high priest gave an estimate. In fact, everything is changing, just a matter of it. Now that time has passed for a long time, we can see a little change.

The other one is to see if there is any country's expedition expedition to come here!

Chapter 1570 - destroy

Said the expedition team, that is to say a good point, basically will come, even if there are scientists mixed in it, it is only a small part, the key is to explore and rob resources!

This is in the center of the Pacific Ocean. Shenlang can't understand the situation here. It is impossible to arrange people to guard here. After all, it is far away from the nearest island, and there is no value in defending.

But for the major countries, there is no such problem, they can afford the cost, and the big ship is coming.

Shen Lang just came over and did not land in the air, and found that it was right.

In the sea near the sea without a sea, there really is a big ship!

Things will not be so clever, now he will see here, there is only one possibility, that is, they have come long ago, after all, it takes a lot of time to open, but it is not too difficult to find.

For the average person, it is very difficult to find a small piece of unmarked area in the Pacific Ocean. However, since the invasion of the behemoth, it has certainly caused a lot of abnormal energy fluctuations. In addition to the high-tech of various aspects such as satellites, it is not difficult to locate it.

Because of this, Shen Lang only publicly warned the countries to let them not go.

It seems that some people have not listened, maybe it has already been arranged before he issued a warning.

However, from time to time, they will not be here for too long, and may not be able to conduct more in-depth research.

The deep waves kept in the air, the energy condensed into clouds, concealed themselves, and then carefully observed the situation on the sea.

The big ship is probably for safety, keeping the distance, and it is almost the same as the first time in the comprehension. Then there were small boats and helicopters near the end of the sea.

Judging from the situation at the scene, Shen Lang confirmed that they had only arrived here. I still don't know how big the specific area is. What will happen to the specific situation? Now let the scientists detect it.

Shen Lang thought for a moment, did not understand their specific situation, and did not communicate with them. Since the world has already issued a warning to the world, people who do not listen will have to pay the price!

He understands that these people on the scene, whether they are crew members or military personnel, are obeying orders. Scientists, at the same time, work with the great spirit of exploring new fields for humanity.

In short, they are all innocent, innocent, and even belong to the applause and respect.

But they must pay the price!

It is impossible for Shen Lang to go to a country behind it. All the tasks are not decided by the president alone. It must be a meeting of political leaders in various fields.

So these executives have become victims.

Whether they are innocent or great. In the event of a counterattack from the behemoth, it is a problem worldwide.

Compared with the seven or eight billion people on the planet, they are insignificant.

Not to mention seven or eight billion, even if only one in a thousand, one in ten thousand is killed, it is also a huge number.

So at this moment, Shen Lang does not wait for them to enter the chaotic space, and no matter how much the exploration of the non-returned Hell is progressing to the extent, directly!

Others are in the air, do not need to go down in person, direct lightning to the big ship smashed in the past!

After the big ship was hit by the thunder and lightning, it began to explode.

This movement caused everyone on the boat to panic, as well as other small boats and helicopters outside.

Shen Lang directly thunder and lightning, all the helicopters burst!

Then carried a lot of sea water in the air to form a huge wave of tens of meters!

Those small boats couldn't bear it, and all of them fell over the sea, and the big ship in the explosion was also overturned by huge waves and began to sink.

Then, Shen Lang and another spiritual force dispersed, completely killing all living lives nearby!

The big ship turned over, and even if they jumped into the sea wearing a life jacket, they were temporarily lingering. There will be no equipment for them to contact the outside world, even if they can really contact, waiting for the rescue, they will definitely die on the sea.

Since they are all deadly, let them struggle to escape in the sea, and eventually they will not be able to endure the thirst, freeze, death, etc., but it is better to give them a happy.

The situation that is now revealed, if it can still be transmitted through the signal, is only a scene of natural disasters.

However, Shen Lang does not care, even if he guessed that he did it, there is nothing to say. His attitude is very clear, and this is for the sake of all mankind.

Danger, can't scare greed.

Death ability.

In the same year, the realm of the realm continued the exploration of this aura of water for decades. From "the road to the sky" to "no return to the sea", there is no return for decades, it is 100% mortality. Only let future generations give up.

Nowadays, major countries are also, if they do not let them feel the death, the great attraction of occupying the new world will still make countless people take risks.

Not only the country, but also some big capital chaebols, they also want to develop. They have the financial resources of the rich and the enemy, and the civil identity can better avoid some constraints.

The last time Shen Lang was a warning, this time is a further death warning!

After the ship sank, Shen Lang also confirmed that no one was alive at the scene. He further expanded the search scope and searched around in a circle Good guys, dozens of nautical miles away, I saw a similar ship!

Obviously, there is more than one country or force that wants to explore it.

When Shen Lang was in the air, he found that the ship seemed to change the route, not to go to the sea of no return.

However, he used the sacred armor to compare the map of the Pacific Ocean, confirming that this is not an ordinary route, and the other party is completely rushing to the sea.

As for the current change of the route, it should be the danger and distress signal sent by the ship just before the sinking of the ship, so that they have received it.

And then the signal was completely interrupted, they realized the danger, and did not go again!

Shen Lang is even more polite. This time, a super-powerful wave of tens of meters has passed, and this ship has also been destroyed. There are also all the people who have also killed together.

Then, while continuing to search, he found the helicopter and flew in the direction of no return to the sea.

The answer is self-evident, that is, on the ship just after, after discovering the danger, they changed the route and then sent a helicopter to check the situation from the air.

Shen Lang did not have much nonsense, one by one, they thundered and thundered the sea!

The various situations that have occurred here have also been transmitted back to their respective countries. The one that has been developed in the vicinity has already made progress. I did not expect that such a reversal will suddenly occur. Naturally, it is very deplorable.

For the lightning and huge waves without any warning, the scientific advisory team could not explain that according to the inherent science and the information collected continuously, they felt that it was impossible unless there was a big problem there.

But then another ship that was dozens of miles away was also hit by a huge wave, and everyone began to realize that it was not that simple...
