

First Strong 1611

Chapter 1611 - Stay strong

“Is it here... Yaochi?”

Before Shen Lang did not travel to Zhoushan, I met the mysterious woman from Yaochi, and later her master Yunyun Fairy.

The semi-sacred sects of all walks of life are respectful to the Yaochi disciples, and the Daxian of each road does not dare to sneak into the clouds. According to the memory of the monks here, Yaochi is also an ancient martial art with a lot of foundation.

However, because Yao Chi is a female disciple, it is also relatively remote, and has never been with other sects, so everyone's impression is very limited.

This time, the purpose of Shen Lang was to go to Guangmingshan, so they did not go through the memory of other people, just follow the memory of Augustus.

In the memory of Augustus, there is the existence of this place, but it may be tens of thousands of miles away from Guangming Mountain. There is only one general name of “mysterious sea”, which is not known about the specific situation here.

Shen Lang and the dog god, they did not want to know about it.

When I found this large area of water, I only guessed that it might be the mysterious sea. Then I had to confirm the direction and go back to Guangming Mountain through the approximate orientation.

This is how they come from all over the world. After all, there is no satellite positioning here, no map navigation and the like to determine.

The farther the distance is, the more easily it is biased, and even the deviation is very large. One reference object and another reference object, thousands of miles away, require constant correction.

It is also because they are fast enough. If they are replaced by ordinary people, even if they have perfect roads, they can drive all the way, and they will be completely lost.

Just now there was the shackle of the Big Mac, and there was another mysterious woman who sighed the sound into the sea. Shen Lang did not associate with Yao Chi.

This even bright mountain is regarded as the “mysterious sea”. There are so many great beasts, and certainly there are powerful sects.

But with her words, Shen Lang suddenly thought of Yao Chi.

The world’s male and female monks have a greater gap in resources. The higher the cultivation, the longer they live, the vast majority are male.

Female practitioners are often only vassals. At a lower level, they are offered to men to pass on to the family, to serve the daily life, and even to be used as a practice.

A truly influential female repair, Yao Chi is a representative.

This stunning woman said that she had heard his name. From such a far-distance distance, it is the possibility of hearing from the mysterious girl and the fairy  fairy, which is much more likely than other news to spread!

“You don’t know if this is Yaochi?” The stunning woman asked.

“Oh... I really don’t know.”

She also jokingly asked: “You are a sinking wave, isn’t it to find a mysterious woman?”

This is basically clear, here is Yaochi, and this stunning woman is also known as the mysterious girl or the fairy.

Perhaps she just started to appear, only because it sensed the embarrassing change, and then saw that he is a human being, only intervened. I heard the name of Shen Lang when I heard him telling the door.

“It turned out that this is Yaochi. I should be regarded as a friend of the mysterious girl. I have also seen the fairy goddess. I don’t know how the fairy is called?”

Shen Lang once again bowed his hand, “Fairy” or something, of course, everyone’s nickname for their Yao Chi female repair.

“I am not your friend, you don’t have to know what I am calling. Since you are looking for a mysterious woman, you should be honest and say what you pass by. The beasts think you are sneaky!”

“...”

Shen Lang didn’t know how to say it, but he could only helplessly smile.

Yaochi Fairy, so high in the realm, is there a heart of gossip?

He really is not looking for a mysterious woman.

Besides, he has nothing to do with the mysterious woman. At most, it is the same degree as Ji Qiancheng and Ji Qiandao. It is impossible for the two worlds to visit her.

But now that people have arrived in Yaochi, people have already misunderstood this way. Don’t insist that it is passing by, but say something to go, so as not to be polite.

“Yaochi is a place where the fairy people live. It is expected that the men should not be allowed to visit. I am not good at taking the arbitrariness. Please ask the fairy to ask me for the fairy and my daughter.”

The stunning woman, listening to the meaning of Shen Lang’s want to leave, was close, and immediately stopped him.

“Yao Chi does not allow men to visit, it is aimed at strangers. You are a friend of the mysterious woman, that is, the guests of Yao Chi, it is different, it is possible to visit.”

“...”

Shen Lang is silent for a while, and the dog  can understand it. It is a bit helpless. It is still suffocating. If you want to kill Guangmingshan, you can't waste time here.

“I am very honored! But today I really have no intention of passing by, and I have not prepared any gifts. It is not very interesting to take the liberty to visit. I will come back to visit the next day!”

Shen Lang once again refused to visit Yaochi. Even if he really has a visit, he can return when he comes back.

Now there is still a business, to go to the bright mountain, to fight the hundred paradise, the dog  will be the main force, we must let it maintain a bang. It's not good to have exhausted this gas.

The stunning woman looked at the waves in surprise.

“How many men want to visit Yaochi is not available allows you to visit, you actually repeatedly quit! Do we still ask you not to?”

Shen Lang smiled: “The fairy has misunderstood. I heard that this place is called the mysterious sea. I am here to find the reference direction along the water's edge. There is another place to go.”

“Then you just look down on Yaochi?” The pretty woman's Liu Mei was upside down, and she was going to worry. “If you don't look at you as a girlfriend, I have to teach you lessons!”

“This is what I said... Why should I look down on Yaochi! Not to mention the objective reputation. Since mystery is my friend, I will naturally be respectful to my friends.”

Shen Lang is also slightly frowning, which is a bit unreasonable.

“No! You have to leave Yaochi as a guest. Otherwise you will not look down on Yaochi!”

“The hospitality is very grateful, but it is inevitable that it will be unreasonable to stay strong.”

The tone of Shen Lang is also strong.

The dog * is next to it, and it is a bit too tempting. It is a giant beast. For men and women of human beings, that is, the distinction between male and female, there will be no ugly judgment at all. It is impossible for the other party to be young and beautiful, and there is a heart of pity and jade.

The stunning woman whispered slightly: “Since I don’t look down on Yaochi, I said that I can’t reasonably stay with you, that is to look down on me?”

“...”

Shen Lang did not speak, simply gave her a default.

Originally, he was still very good-hearted. He changed his mouth from “girl” to “Fairy”. Even if he was a rumor, he kept politeness, but her arrogant attitude made him unhappy.

They are coming from the world of giant beasts, ready to kill the Guangmingshan, the light gods dare to do, Yaochi will not fear!

Chapter 1612 - Fairy sound

His default attitude is not even more irritating to this stunning woman, but she suddenly turns a corner!

“I don’t look down on Yaochi, nor look down on me, then you don’t have a picture!”

“...” Shen Lang continued to silence and did not speak.

Her attitude is good! Originally, the default was to have an opinion on her, but it was her explanation that she did not look down on her.

If you have a picture, you can have a picture. Whatever she said.

Shen Lang's patience is running out, and he is ready to leave.

"Do you want to come with a mysterious girl?"

"..."

Shen Lang could not help but stunned. Is this what she said?

He had thought that she had a picture, and it was a picture of Yaochi's resources, so she would say that she was sneaky and would be alarmed. I didn't expect to be a gossip!

"Look! I was talking about it!"

The reaction of Shen Lang made her think it was guessed.

"You think too much." Shen Lang is helpless, and continuing to silence will only make her think that she is right. "I really just passed by, even Yao Chi is not known here, and has nothing to do with mystery."

The stunning woman is a charming smile.

"Admit it! Your explanation is getting darker and darker! I can help you to inform the mysterious woman separately."

Shen Lang is a bit big, don't explain when you are the default, explain that you are more and more black... This is a preconceived determination.

"Lead first!"

He didn't talk to her more nonsense. After saying this, he and the dog * went to the waters in the opposite direction.

The dog * is also waiting impatiently, and this time he also wants to leave quickly.

The place that was originally the land below, because of the agitation of the previous smashing, has been greatly wetted by huge waves, and they flew away from the air.

Before coming here, I have already walked along the waters for a period of time. With a general directionality, as long as I am looking for the right direction, I will continue to go to the direction of Guangmingshan. Anyway, I will continue to correct it.

Only after they had just left, and had not had time to accelerate, they found that the stunning woman still appeared in the air in front.

“Stand up! Yaochi is where you want to go, you want to go and go!”

The stunning woman who appeared in front of them was still playing gently in the caress, and that sentence was passed from behind.

After she said this, people have blocked the front faster than the sound.

“Don’t force us to do it.”

Shen Lang sighed: “I will give my face to my face, my friend is angry, but no one will give it!”

He first said the attitude of the dog god, it can not say hello.

The stunning woman is playing the pipa and has never responded to him, but the voice has already given a response!

Her voice is still melodious, soft and sturdy, and there is no strong. But it is quite a feeling of softness, just like forming a sound wall around them!

Because Shen Lang and the dog * are in the air, this voice directly surrounds them in a spherical shape. No matter whether it is left and right or left or right, barriers are formed.

Shen Lang is still sensible, there will be human face, the dog  can be different, you have to fight, then you can fight!

It made a roar directly!

Although it is now the size of a dog, but this sound is not a bark, it is still the roar of a behemoth!

The melodious voice formed a spherical sound wall with Joker Gang, and the roar of the dog  was extremely powerful.

In an instant, the entire spherical sound wall, the next shot was broken in the air!

The shattering of the sound wall also directly made the voice become scattered and harsh.

The voice that continues, faintly mixed with the surprise of “咦” .

The stunning woman had noticed the dog  before, but she did not expect this dog to have such an imposing manner.

Her voice can be spread to dozens of miles, and when she is small, she can wrap them all, which is tougher than the physical barriers.

And which kind of invisible to soft, just can use the power to resolve many powerful forces.

But just the “canine”, but directly broke her sound wall!

No matter how smart it is, there is a degree.

For example, when a typhoon is blown, many trees are often broken, but like reeds, bamboo and many grasses, they are rarely broken.

Because they are soft, they will sway along the wind, which creates a clever dismounting process. Therefore, the ancestors summed up the attitude of just being easy to fold, able to bend and stretch.

But that is also to look at the “degree”, when the typhoon continues to upgrade, these soft and supple things that will not be broken, may also be directly uprooted!

When the soil underneath them is picked up and scraped, it is meaningless to use the softness and the ability to stretch.

The roar of the dog  just now is such a violent blow!

The wall of the voice can resist a certain degree of attack, but when it is more powerful than the limit it bears, it will be broken.

The dog  is actually giving Shen Lang a face!

It does not understand the specific relationship between the woman and Shen Lang, but since it is related, when it comes to friends, it still gives Shen Lang a little face and is under the mercy.

Just after its attack, it was bursting out and blasting out the barriers formed by the voices. If it was to treat her as an enemy, there was no need to attack these sound walls, and the roaring bombardment It is directly attacking her body, killing her and killing her, and naturally resolves the attack of the voice.

However, the female disciple of Yaochi, apparently still does not know the height of the sky, and still does not feel the power of the dog god, but still continue to attack without ignorance!

Her voice is also magical, just like a substantial object. After the burst and burst, as she continues to play, she quickly merges and wraps them around again.

It feels like a cloud, blown away by the wind, and can be merged again.

This time, it is different than just now. After the ball is wrapped in them, it is no longer melodious and gentle, but in the scope of this sphere, full of killing sound!

The voice is still a voice, still no hole and no trace, if it is not watching her play in front, it seems difficult to trace the source.

Shen Lang thinks of the sound “stereo”...

The sound of the beginning of the killing, the effect is more obvious, not only into their ears, but also directly into their brains, their consciousness deep!

“The sound of the fairy sound, but this is the case. I last advised you to leap on the cliff, otherwise don’t blame us!”

The sound of Shen Lang directly penetrated the voice barrier and was transmitted to the ear of the woman in front of the sky. This is the final warning.

“What about you?”

This sentence is not what she said, nor is it transmitted by consciousness.

It is normal to use sound waves to express emotions such as appeasement, killing, and anger, but it can express clear sentences. Shen Lang is also the first to encounter.

Chapter 1613 - Sound wave

This unusual situation has evoked the curiosity of Shen Lang.

The woman has pressed down the huge incomparable shackles, and it can be said that the way of playing is dazzling.

Plus Shen Lang can not see her strength, so that she has added a lot of mystery.

But later said the mysterious woman, see her meaning should be to know the mysterious woman, and maybe even a friend. And her age should be as young as she looks, and there will be such a gossip.

This is doomed to her strength can not be high where to go, perhaps half a fairy, half a fairy peak.

Being able to appease 鯤 is not the suppression of her strength, but the effect of that piece of music, or the way they communicate with Yao Chi and 鯤.

A breeder who can touch an elephant does not mean that the power is greater than the elephant.

Because of this, Shen Lang has been patient with the temperament, on the one hand, to give Xuan female a face to Yao Chi, on the other hand, it is also a bit disdain and she put a pneumatic hand.

Just as her voice barrier was directly dispelled by the dog god, it is also a proof.

But now she can actually use the voice to express her voice, and still maintain the barriers and keep the attack against them. This operation is a bit unusual.

“Let me come.”

Shen Lang passed a thought to the dog god, and then continued to speak to the woman in front.

“You are welcome to teach you!”

His sentence seems to be simple to say, but it is actually very simple. It is not as simple as transmitting the sound wall to the other party's ear as it was just now.

Every word he spoke is also a kind of sound wave transmission, a kind of resistance and expression.

His voice first spread out, with a loud and heroic voice, against her full of killing voices, and then a word on the top of all sound walls!

His attack ended here, did not break her spherical sound wall, did not penetrate the sound wall to reach her ears, he believes she can hear these words.

This is an exchange and a temptation.

If you say a glimpse of the dog god, like the tyrannical tyranny, the words of Shen Lang are like the harmony of the spring breeze.

However, the spring breeze is still awkward, and it is still impossible to ignore its existence.

The expression of Shen Lang is undoubtedly a surprise to the woman.

She attacked in a voice because it was one of the ways she was good at. The dog * is strong in strength, and Shen Lang's move is to respond to her in her way.

Although slightly surprised, but her voice is unchanged, still continue to play, but she understands the meaning of Shen Lang.

So this time, it is not the same as the indifference to enter the depths of their two, but specifically for Shen Lang.

Although the dog * does not pity the jealousy of the human woman, it does not hurt the ordinary people, but also does not bother to attack the weak people it thinks.

At this moment, Shen Lang said that he would let him deal with it, and it would not open it again, and it was completely handed over to Shen Lang.

However, it is also the master of a world, or has strategies and experience. At this time, it did not participate in the battle of two people, but directly spread the warning to a larger extent!

Since this is the place of Yaochi, a young female disciple already has such strength, and there must be more strong people.

Especially the previous Big Mac, compared with the cockroaches, they are embarrassed to claim to be a behemoth.

If you are embarrassed to appear again, or if she summons it, then I have to be more careful.

The re-sounding attack, Shen Lang also realized the difference.

The operation of this stunning woman is still remarkable. Now it looks like a normal blow hole, but it shows three different sound waves!

The first layer is to continue to maintain the sound wall and continue to wrap them in a spherical shape.

The second layer is to continue to penetrate into the minds of Shen Lang from all directions, and it is impossible to prevent it.

The third layer is inside the sphere, and there is a free sound wave, like a physical creature, erratic, seems to be attacking him with an opportunity!

“Come, see who is teaching!”

At this time, the fourth layer of sound waves appeared, which was transmitted into the ear of Shen Lang.

“it is good—!”

This “good” is the promise of Shen Lang, and the sound seems to be normal. But the reality is that he pronounced it as the “lion lion”!

The sound didn’t make a loud noise, but it spread to every corner in an extremely majestic way.

A continually spread, first quickly spread out, directly to the sound of the waves coming from all directions, came a mighty suppression.

Then it spread to the sound wall!

When Shen Lang spoke before, he had already made a temptation on the entire sound wall, but now it is as if looking for a fragile connection point, directly exposing the spherical sound wall completely!

But the breath of Shen Lang is constant, the sound waves are not finished, and it continues to stretch!

After the opening of the spherical sound wall, the “Lion 吼” continued with a “good—”, but it was directly forced into the woman’s ear!

Shen Lang, who just thought of the sound “stereo”, gave her a headphone-style package, directly injecting the majestic sound of “Lion”, completely instilling the past!

When people wear headphones, can hear all kinds of sounds inside, but the outsiders are not smelling.

This is the case with Shen Lang. The perfusion of the sound wave directly to the woman has no effect on the next dog god. If there are other people nearby, I have not heard any abnormalities.

But in the ears of the stunning woman, it is a direct deafening bombing effect!

The sound waves of Shen Lang are not only in the ear, but also directly into the mind!

“not enough!”

The woman who had been attacked had a constant voice, and even though several layers of sound waves were broken, she still passed the words through the voice to Shen Lang’s ears.

At the same time, a voice like the sound of harsh currents, strong into the mind of Shen Lang, gave him a great stimulation!

This is the layer of voice that was just detached in the spheroid. When the lion swayed, it seemed to disappear. Shen Lang thought it was an attack that caused her to lose sight of it. I didn't expect it to be hidden or dodged. Now it has attacked again.

At this moment, it is conceivable that the woman has already encountered a deafening lion voice. Shen Lang was also straight into the heart of the heart!

Although the degree of counter-attack broke, Shen Lang was the upper hand, but the other side did not lose, barely can be regarded as a match.

“Is it? Then give it to me – oh! Next! Chen! Service!”

Shen Lang once again came out, this time is still the way of “lions”, but it is a double attack!

On the one hand, directly into his own brain, to fight the invasion of the sound waves. On the other hand, directly following the voice just now, the last four words, directly in the consciousness of the woman's ear in the brain exploded!

Chapter 1614 - Give me a kneel down

The woman had already broken the sound wall twice, but continued to play as usual, without affecting the voice.

But when the last four people of Shen Lang entered the middle of her ear, it was a shock!

Her previous state has always been an active attack, and it is also considered to be offensive. But this time, Shen Lang not only broke her attack circle completely, but also directly broke her defense.

When “Yu Xiu surrendered”, when she burst into her mind, she really had a feeling of wanting to kneel down!

This feeling made her apricot eyes mammoth, realized that it was just a contest of sound waves, but the other side was surrounded by a mental attack.

It wasn't just the words that scared her, nor the attacks that made her unbearable, but the spiritual power with the words affected her consciousness.

This kind of feeling made her very uncomfortable and realized the crisis.

The next moment, she has stabilized her body shape, the voice continues in the mouth, but the style is a big change!

This time, the voice is no longer a melodious approaching approach, but a strange and fragmented way, and as a sharp arrow, constantly rushing toward the waves!

At the same time, she also broke out in spirit and launched a counterattack against Shen Lang.

“On this point, I want to let me kneel down?”

This voice was directly transmitted to the brain of Shen Lang. It was no longer transmitted by the voice, but transmitted by consciousness. With the words in the brain of Shen Lang, the mental attack was launched.

She feels that she has just been ugly, so this is also an upgraded attack method, intent to make Shen Lang also ugly.

She is also multi-tasking now. When this sentence comes, the mental power is beginning to sway in the brain of Shen Lang!

Shen Lang originally thought that just after that, even if she did not hurt her, she should let her know and retreat, stop the unnecessary entanglement, I did not expect her to come, and continue to want to compete with him.

He has already told the dog  to let him come. If the dog  is impatient, the shot will seriously hurt her.

Therefore, he did not delay, and she was not afraid of her spiritual attack, and violently extended a hand to the front.

They are all in the air now, but they are still separated, but after he reached out, he quickly slammed forward!

His one hand not only flew in front of the stunning woman, but the process of going forward was getting bigger. When she was around her, she could already hold her body directly in her hand!

With the strength of this woman, even if she is really quick, she can still afford to dodge.

There are only two problems now. One problem is that she just trapped them with a voice, and Shen Lang's attack was also based on sound waves. She also joined the mental attack, but still has no formal shots.

Therefore, she instinctively feels that this is a kind of tacit understanding. Everyone will point to it and will not hurt people.

The other one is that Shen Lang and her are separated by a distance, and one hand reaches directly into front of her, and it quickly grows bigger. This picture will be strange and surprise her.

In addition, she still maintains a voice, and the mental attack on Shen Lang, after a slight delay, has missed the opportunity to dodge.

Suddenly, her body was held in the palm of her hand.

“Give me your knees without squatting!”

When Shen Lang said this sentence, she had already grabbed her and took it directly to the ground!

After the stunning woman was suddenly caught, it stopped the voice and mental attack. Shen Lang broke her tacit understanding and made her angry, and the big hand directly held her whole body, which made her feel very ashamed.

Suddenly, the hole in her hand has become a short sword with a wave, and then it will be stabbed on the back of the big hand of Shen Lang!

She misjudged again...

I thought that Shen Lang was going to pull her in front of me, or there would be further humiliation. I didn't expect Shen Lang to shoot her directly to the ground!

She stabbed her sword and almost accidentally injured herself. Then she found that her body was almost on the ground, and under the force of the force, it was too late to resist.

There is nothing to fall on the ground normally, but now they are on the edge of the waters of Yaochi, which is also a dry ground. However, before the occurrence of the cockroaches, a large amount of water was directly poured out, and this large piece became muddy.

When the stunning woman reacted, she wanted to leap away and it was too late, and she was shot directly into the mud by Shen Lang!

Although it was too late to make a leap, she was still eager to make a heart, and immediately formed a protective cover around the body. Although it broke into the muddy water, the ordinary muddy water was still discharged, and there was no direct infiltration of the whole body.

After Shen Lang took her down, she gave the dog a thought, and the two quickly flew away!

For his treatment, the dog * has nothing to say, friends of friends, still have to give some face.

When the stunning woman flew into the air from the mud, the figure of a person and a dog was already turned into a black spot in the distance.

“hateful!”

Although she is still spotless, she has just been thrown into the mud, and it seems very embarrassing.

This is still her quick response. If it is a little late, it really has to flutter in the mud, make a dirty muddy water, and become very embarrassed.

Looking at the direction of their far away, she gritted her teeth and quickly chased the past!

After Shen Lang and the dog * left, they didn't think about this woman anymore. It was just an episode.

What made him sigh, is that I did not expect this mysterious sea to be Yaochi.

Yaochi is both a martial art and a place. This is imaginable, but in the impression of Shen Lang, Yao Chi should be the general existence of the Tianchi in the snowy peak. I did not expect it to be a lake Daze.

And this Yaochi actually has Zhenchi God Beast!

These are not important. If you have time in the future, you may be able to visit again. You can also learn more about it. For example, is it true that you can fly with a fish-shaped bird, or Mr. Zhuangzi has combined the two gods of Qi and Peng into one.

The most important thing at the moment is to keep a sigh of relief and kill it to Guangmingshan!

From the "mysterious sea" of Yaochi, to the Guangmingshan, there are still tens of thousands of miles away. Shen Lang and the dog * kept the acceleration, and after several corrections to confirm the direction.

Finally, before dark, they are about to arrive at Guangming Mountain!

It's almost there, it's not yet. This is a few hundred miles away from the Guangming Mountain and is the nearest city.

It is called Paradise Town and is a town under the protection of Guangming Mountain.

The reason why this can be confirmed is that after they feel close to the Guangming Mountain, they slow down the speed. In the air, when they discover the town, they see a huge symbol of the light gods, combined with the memory of Augustus. Make sure this is the town of paradise, and make sure that the front is Guangming Mountain.

Chapter 1615 - Paradise town

In front of the paradise town, Shen Lang and the dog * first landed, and then discussed it.

It's going to be dark, and if it's familiar with the environment, it's certainly the best combat strategy.

They all read the memory of Augustus, Shen Lang and the memory of Joseph and Christopher. They are quite familiar with Guangming Mountain and Bai Paradise.

It's just that they are a temporary decision under the guise of a sigh of relief. Now that they are dead, it is inevitable to negotiate a decision.

The threat of Augustus made the dog * realize that the * of light can succumb to the world and the world of the earth. This punishment is likely to be the result of sending a master.

And when they die there, they can also connect through some kind of consciousness, let the light * know this consequence, which is equal to being positioned to some extent.

In this case, it is better to kill in advance before the other party comes to the master.

Shen Lang certainly has the same problem. He should even say that he is the main responsibility. After all, it is not Augustus, Joseph, Christopher is also directly killed by him, but also the * of Paul, the * of light.

But now, how come here?

Rushing into the Guangming Mountain, rushing into the paradise, killing people when you see people?

Shen Lang and the dog  are not pedantic, but they have not reached the point of indiscriminate killing. If it is not the other party who kills the door, they will not take the initiative to provoke the light of God.

The result is to kill the  of light?

Not to mention the specific strength of Guangming God, the information alone is mysterious, that is, Augustus has limited understanding of the  of light.

This aspect is about the high position of the azimuth, just as the average bishop is impossible to reach the Pope. On the other hand, there may be a mystery that is needed to make God.

Simply put, relying on the memories of Augustus, you can easily kill the Guangming Mountain and the Paradise, but you may not be able to get the light of God!

There is also a possibility that the Light God has perceived the silence of the Earth's avatars and perceives the death of the three people in the world of the beasts. In addition to the possibility of arranging human attacks, it is also possible to arrange defenses.

If the defenses have already been arranged, then August's memory will become a trap. The other party can make a new adjustment according to the inherent conditions of the past, and they will count on the waiting.

This point of Shen Lang proposed to the dog god, the dog  came all the way, but also calm down, the same consideration.

After hesitating, the dog  threw the problem to Shen Lang and let Shen Lang decide. It also feels that Shen Lang is more intelligent than it is, dealing with human beings, or human beings are better at it.

Shen Lang immediately made a decision, first spent a night in Paradise Town!

This is not to rest, or even to go to town, but to prepare to check the situation here.

Augustus is impressed by the paradise town, where there are naturally people with bright gods. Now use one night to observe the analysis, and compare it with the situation in memory to know if there is any abnormality.

If the Light God has placed a trap waiting to be counted, it will take into account that the night is a good time for a sneak attack, and may be more severely defense than during the day.

In addition to Guangmingshan and Baiyuan, the paradise town in this outpost is sure to make a good layout. As long as the enemy appears here, you can send the information back in advance to make a better “reception.”

The dog * also recognizes the arrangement of Shen Lang, but still needs more observation and analysis. Because not to mention Augustus, even Joseph and Christopher, are in a very high state, do not touch the work of Paradise Town on a daily basis, and generally do not need to rest and rest here.

Therefore, their memories, one is relatively long, one is only a general impression, which requires Shen Lang to judge themselves.

The knowledge of Shen Lang and the dog * is strong enough. You don't need to enter the paradise town, you can also sense all the conditions of the entire town.

The dog * has no experience. In its view, it is a group of small humans.

Shen Lang found that the residents here are obviously different from Tangcheng, etc. The population and architecture there are all in the Eastern style. And here, it is Western style.

However, in Tangcheng and Tiandu, there have been surprises and experiences. Whether it is the influence of the world on the earth or the fact that some believers on the earth have really been brought to the “paradise” here, there is nothing surprising about it. .

They first understood the general situation of the entire paradise town, and then focused on observing the disciples of the Guangming gods here.

However, after observing it overnight, there was no abnormality found from them. They were weak in strength, and they were all stationed here. They did not receive special tasks and were careful about outsiders.

So wait until dawn, Shen Lang and the dog  are a little impatient. Then bypass the paradise town and go directly to Guangmingshan.

Shen Lang also said his follow-up arrangements with the dog god. Since it has already arrived, it is necessary to find the  of light. Can you kill it, can you fight it, and you must see it before you see it.

But can come here, can come to challenge is their attitude!

And they can go to the paradise town, can go to the Guangmingshan hundred paradise, also shows their strength, is a warning. If the Light God insists on revenge for Augustus and to deal with the Earth and the Beast World, then their bases must be ready to be destroyed!

Even in the memory of Augustus, the gods of light are all inscrutable. What challenges and warnings do they rely on?

Shen Lang has its own dependence!

On the one hand, it is the confidence of the strength of the dog god. If the  of light is the realm of the gods, then the dog  can completely fight.

If it is really “God”, it is the realm that Shen Lang has not touched in this life, and he can only escape.

If this is the case, dealing with it should also despise them, and this light enemy mentality can be used. As long as the dog  can delay, Shen Lang can use the Kunlun mirror of the Three Realms, allowing them to directly transfer to Tiandu City 200,000 miles away.

That is to say that the light  is fierce, the speed is fast, and even the transmission array can lead to the heavenly capital, it also takes time, and it is impossible to catch up immediately.

Once there is a danger of being too late to deliver, he can also hide in the space of the Bible with the dog god.

Because of this double dependence, Shen Lang dared to go to the Mingshan Mountain with the dog * and challenge the Guangming God.

In fact, even if the * of light has an inscrutable realm of “God”, as long as you have come to Guangmingshan and Baiyuan, Shenlang can be transmitted again, and you can sneak up on the people of Guangmingism at any time and then leave.

This will be a great threat to them.

If you have enough strength to go to the door, it is the challenge.

There is no strength to go to the door, it is reckless, it is to find death.

Chapter 1616 - Fan Xueyu

At about a hundred miles from Guangming Mountain, Shen Lang and the dog * found a mountain to stop and look back at the road.

“When are you going to contact us?”

Shen Lang reluctantly passed the voice to the far side.

The person behind is naturally the pretty woman of Yaochi.

Although she has maintained a long distance, but after all, it has tracked tens of thousands of miles. If this can't be found, Shen Lang and the dog * don't have to challenge others.

Just along the way, she did not come close to entanglement, and did not open her a few times, and she gave up.

I watched outside of Paradise Town last night, and she was watching behind them.

Now that she is approaching Guangming Mountain, she will continue to follow me. When she is unable to take care of her, she will not be able to take care of her. If she is dead, or let the Guangming God and Yaochi fight against each other, it is not very good.

Therefore, Shen Lang stopped in advance, followed tens of thousands of miles, showing his willfulness, certainly can not dispel her thoughts to continue to follow, as long as she let her stop first, watching the lively also maintain a safe distance to escape.

The Yaochi woman heard the voice from Shen Lang, and she was slightly awkward.

Originally, she was still a little proud. I felt that I had followed them all the way and I didn't find it. I didn't expect the other party to know it.

However, since I found it early, but pretended not to know, which made her uncomfortable, isn't this all the way to see her joke?

Now that Shen Lang has already spoken, she has hesitated a bit and then speeds up the past.

"Who is following you? Is this a fixed road?"

Seeing that her mouth is still hard, Shen Lang could not help but look at her eyes.

"A fixed road, you can also say that you just took this road. We don't fix the route for tens of thousands of miles, you can get along, isn't this tracking?"

"..." The stunning woman is also awkward, and can only continue to the end of the mouth: "I see you sneaky, there must be something wrong, so follow it!"

"Even if there is anything wrong, it has been tens of thousands of miles away from Yaochi. Can you have anything to do with you? You are really at ease!"

"..."

She opened her mouth and could not argue.

In fact, at first she was out of nowhere, because Shen Lang took her into the mud and almost wandered.

But behind the scenes, they were able to keep track of them. This is still using the secret method of their Yaochi, or they will be embarrassed when they accelerate.

So I never got to the heart and the result was a thousand miles in thousands of miles. There is still no result. It's all so far, and it's so unwilling to give up, it's like running away so far.

The result is here all the way.

Before the darkness last night, they stopped in Paradise Town and then watched Paradise Town overnight. Because she is farther away from the back, she is not clear about the specific situation, but she is still a little excited, and she finally feels at the destination.

I didn't expect them to continue on the road early in the morning!

When she was chasing her way, she briefly scanned the paradise town and found that it was an ordinary town. It was not like a place worth 100,000 miles. After wondering, it continued to catch up.

"I don't care, I am so far away, I can't let me go back like this! What do you do, I will continue to follow."

"Who are you! Why let you follow?"

When Shen Lang snorted, he was about to leave the order.

"My name is Fan Xueyu." She said this time directly to the name.

"Oh! I don't know."

Snow scene? Acupoints... tight?

“I don’t know if I don’t know it? I am a disciple of Yaochi. I have helped you. If it weren’t for me, the beast and the giant beast will toss you well! You will still be envious, arrest, grab... throw me in the water!”

Fan Xueyu said a little anxiously.

“I didn’t let you help, I want to toss us, or we can kill big fish. You dare to attack and block us. You haven’t let your knees go to face Yaochi!”

Shen Lang sneered.

Of course... I can talk so succinctly because the giant python is far away from the tens of thousands of miles away. If you are really here, he will not dare!

Of course, Van Gogh also understands this and directly looks at it.

Then she quickly turned around and changed her mouth and said, “Don’t let me follow it? Ok. Then I will go back to the town in front and look at the customs here.”

When she said this, she had a smile on her lips.

Needless to say, this is a threat!

Although she didn’t know the specifics, they slept for a night last night and they naturally attached importance to the town. And just around the past, it is obvious that I don’t want to show my face.

She suspected that there is no need to say that as long as her stranger has swept the city in the past, naturally someone will pay attention. And this must be related to their plot!

“Wan Xuexue is it? Look at the master of the Xuan female master, I will say it to you with a good voice. Our trip is to go to the front of the martial art, the town in front, belongs to that martial art! You Following the past is tantamount to finding death; you used to look at the customs and customs of the towns, but also to find death!”

Looking at Shen Lang’s face, Fan Xueyu sneered directly.

“Looking for death? I can kill the town and no one can move me!”

Although she just passed by, the quick sense of the gods sensed but basically it can be confirmed that the town is dominated by ordinary people, even if there is a self-cultivator, the strength is low.

“To do this, don’t say more. You are willing to follow, it is your freedom, and I will not interfere. You have to be treated as our accomplices, that is, you deserve it, remember to escape, I will not take care of you!”

Before the contact in Yaochi, Shen Lang had already felt the willfulness of this Fan Xueyu. It is estimated that her master should be the big man of Yaochi.

Now he doesn’t want to argue more. Anyway, what he said has already said that she really wants to find her own death, and she still comes to death from tens of thousands of miles away. It is really her fate.

“Who wants you to take care of you!”

Fan Xueyu said that the meaning has been clearly expressed, she will continue to follow, and do not take care of the waves, self-confidence and ability to protect themselves.

Shen Lang secretly shook his head, and he regretted using the wrong method.

Like this kind of arrogance, the woman with the temper of the young lady is actually temper tantrum, holding back and not going backwards!

The more she told her that she was in danger, it was for her, she was more energetic.

If she had just invited her to take the initiative, she said that there was fun in front of her. Let her be together, but she would be full of doubts and take the initiative to look at the rear.

It's already like this, and there's nothing to say. Shen Lang is flying directly to the dog god.

Fan Xueyu is also closely following.

She is now a face of excitement, which even let her put down the uncomfortable feelings of Shen Lang, grab her body, shoot her into the mud, can be temporarily put down. Running for 100,000 miles, just to challenge a martial art, is there any deep hatred?

This is definitely a big move, you can watch it with great excitement!

Chapter 1617 - Stepping on the bright mountain

Shen Lang and the dog * came to Guangmingshan, and at a great distance, you can see the bright mountain rising.

In the memory they read, they are already very familiar with Guangmingshan, but now they have seen it with their own eyes.

“What is this place?”

Fan Xueyu followed them, sure that there was a lot of fun, and it would be a big show. She didn't have a temper, and followed them honestly. Now it is also polite to inquire.

After all, the disciples of Yaochi do not often go everywhere. Many of the understandings of the parties are heard, or books and the like.

The Guangming gods did not understand Yaochi, and in turn, Yaochi did not know much about this.

Guangming Mountain does not live up to its name. It is far from the past, not only embarrassing, but also anti-glare, quite bright and bright.

According to their understanding, this is because the main peak of Guangming Mountain is a cliff standing on the top, and there is ice and snow on the top, so it will reflect the sunlight. The farther away, the more you feel the light shines.

And the park where they are located is to climb the main peak of Guangming Mountain, a valley in the back.

Such a towering cliff, let alone ordinary people can not climb, is a low-level comprehension with insufficient strength, and can not rely on their own strength.

Therefore, the bottom disciple went out and returned, there is a gallows lift, and some people are responsible for this work.

Augustus, Joseph, Christopher and others are at least already in the realm of the Great Immortal, and it is hard to beat them.

They are all back and forth, so they don't need to be facing the seat of the gimbal lift, and they can go from the main peak range.

The main peak of Guangming Mountain can be very far away, except for high, it is also very large.

At this moment, Shen Lang and the dog god, they are in one of them, ready to fly up to the summit.

"You are leaving now, but you still have time. After going up, it is the territory of others. Once you fight, no one will help you!"

"You don't have to help. You will not ask me to help!"

During the speech, Fan Xueyu took the initiative to fly up to the heights, a way to go up first.

However, she did not have any waywardness after all. When she arrived in such a place, she was careful.

She didn't know anything. At least people came to the door from 100,000 miles away. They definitely touched the road. So she is still very sensible, just do it, and then wait for them to go first.

Shen Lang shook his head and did not persuade her, and went with the dog  to the summit.

Two people and one dog came to the top of Guangming Mountain, looking out into the distance, the scenery is very good. It's not like here, it's too big. From this distance, it's still very good.

But they are not looking at the scenery, they follow the memory of Augustus and then start to hurry.

After reaching the top of the peak, Shen Lang's speed is full, and it is also trying to converge on their own atmosphere.

Here, there is a kind of stone that can hide the vitality. When I first arrived in the restricted area of Jinjiu Valley, Shen Lang became the one who had been admitted to Tian Zhengde. When I was in Tangcheng last time, I also had a good understanding of it.

It is known that the mysterious stone, although it has the effect of hiding the spirit, can be purchased, but the effect is limited. When it is strong enough, it can't be hidden. Therefore, it is generally self-protection for young disciples when they go out, and more are non-prepared beasts and monks of the same level.

For example, if you encounter a strong person in the realm of Daxian, or a beast of the beast  level, you will be sneaked.

At the beginning, Lu Feng had an effect in front of the king's dragon, because it was only the king's level. If he reached the level of the beast, he could not hide.

The last time in Tangcheng, in the Qiulin swords, Shen Lang was completed to the transformation of the Great Xianfeng peak, after understanding the restrictions, naturally no more to buy this chicken ribs.

Now that they are three forwards, they have not used this thing, or they have to rely on themselves to collect.

However, Shen Lang has a feeling that they are coming to the Guangming Mountain, and the Light God is probably already known!

If Guangming God is a monk equivalent to the realm of the Great God, it is certainly easy to understand all the changes in his own territory. Like two outsiders and a  god of the  level, you should be alert immediately. .

Now that there are no bright gods, they will continue to move forward.

With Augustus's age, it is very natural for Guangmingshan, but now the responsible waves are not completely in accordance with the memories of the three of them!

Because they understand things, the light gods naturally understand, and it is really difficult to arrange the traps, which are completely in accordance with the route they are familiar with.

However, fortunately, the main peak of Guangming Mountain is also very large, and there is no fixed route. There are still many flexible arrangements.

Along the way, it was a person who did not touch it. It was so smooth that Shen Lang was secretly stunned.

But in fact, it is normal to think about it. After all, except for the place where the gallows are lifted, there will be no other people in the place, and no one will wander around. It is before they go and return, and often they don't touch one. To just Shen Lang always feels that there is a feeling of being monitored...

"From here, the valley in front is the paradise, the place where they live."

Shen Lang paused and said softly and simply.

The dog  also has the memory of Augustus, of course it is very clear. This is actually to say to Fan Xueyu, let her prepare, it may be dangerous!

However, Shen Lang is still a bit speechless, because Van Gogh is not nervous, but it shows the excitement. All the way smoothly, she is a little intolerant, this is not too big to see the excitement!

Shen Lang secretly shook his head and walked in front of the horse, letting the strongest dog  in the middle. If there is any problem, he can adapt to it, and the dog  can have enough time to rescue him.

From Guangmingshan to the hundred paradise, it is not a simple mountain road, nor is it going to the valley along the way, but going to the front, there is a road like a rainbow bridge.

According to their memories of Augustus, this Rainbow Bridge is a good-looking one. In fact, it will pass through the paradise in the past.

In the case of Shen Lang, this may be a cover-up method. It seems to be the Rainbow Bridge. It is actually the road. In the past, there was no hole in the sky.

But there is another possibility, that is, it may be a transmission matrix method, and Bai Paradise may be another small world.

Now there is a problem in front of you, the mask of the illusion is good, the transmission array is also good, it is straightforward to go in, or will it be different?

If the disciples of the Guangming gods can pass – such as the characteristics of their gods, then when they enter the three, should there be a warning-like signal immediately?

Chapter 1618 - 0 paradise

Dog gods do not have so many concepts about human arrays, and there is nothing to discuss with them.

As for the Fan Xueyu, Shen Lang will not discuss anything with her, so he made a decision after he considered it.

“I am in front, if there is anything wrong, I will inform you in time!”

Shen Lang finally explained it.

“I will take you out if there is an exception.”

The dog * immediately stated.

For an unknown situation that may be dangerous, the strength is not as good as its swell, or is willing to walk in front of itself, of course, is the performance of friends.

Of course, it will also be loyal. If there are any problems, it will definitely be timely to save the waves.

Fan Xueyu was amazed.

Before the Yaochi side, the communication between Shen Lang and the dog * was through consciousness, and when she caught up, she did not speak in person.

So for the first time, she is still hearing the dog's mouth.

In the next moment, Shen Lang has already stepped into the Rainbow Bridge!

At this glance, both the dog * and the Fan Xueyu have concentrated their spirits. If there are any problems, they must maintain a high degree of alertness.

“no problem!”

The words of Shen Lang suddenly came to the minds of both of them, which made them all loose.

The dog * has nothing to say about Fan Xueyu, and he directly goes into it. If there is any problem, it must be at the side of Shen Lang as soon as possible.

When Fan Xueyi looked at it, he quickly followed.

Before she was alone, it was no problem to track tens of thousands of miles, because she had enough strength to protect herself.

But now it is different. It is in the sects of others, and it may encounter the siege of a large number of masters at any time.

Although she still has confidence in herself, she feels that she does not need to help them. But she followed the crowd to see the excitement, but they could not run both, so she was left behind to drag the enemy.

After Shen Lang came in, he has already determined that this is a magical array.

For those who don't know, there is a rainbow in front, and the bright mountain top leads to the abyss below.

Only the one who knows the inside knows that it leads to the Valley of Paradise.

Involved in it, Shen Lang felt it was a magical array rather than a transmission array, and immediately gave them two.

At this moment, he himself has stood in front of the paradise.

In fact, this is still on the top of the Guangming Mountain. Looking back, you can still see everything coming, including the dog  and the Fan Xueyu who are heading for the Rainbow Bridge.

But in front of him, it is obvious to see the scenery that I just could not see.

In front of it is a huge valley, said to be a valley, in fact, more like a basin, is within the main peak of the Guangmingding, surrounded by the main peak.

As you can see in the mountains, the paradise is like a painting, and the content is like a huge garden with spring blossoms.

However, at the moment there is still a cloud over the valley, and it is impossible to see the details in the real one.

According to the Rainbow Bridge, these clouds are also a cover for a magical array.

This scene is commonplace for Augustus, and they will not pay attention to it at all.

Soon, the dog * and Fan Xueyu also followed in tandem.

There is no reaction from the dog god. This picture is also found in its memory.

Fan Xueyu is a bit curious to observe the situation in Bai Paradise.

However, it can be seen that she was also born in a big family, and she has seen the world. It is not such a illusion that she is surprised. It is purely a curious look at a fresh place.

“Go!”

Shen Lang made a gesture, whispered a word, and then leaped directly into the valley.

Augustus is the way they enter and exit. Only the weaker ones will follow the valley.

The dog * and Fan Xueyi followed the back of Shen Lang and flew together.

Landing into the valley, I immediately felt the paradise of the hundred paradise.

At the top of the main peak of Guangming Mountain, the aura is much more filled than the outside world. And entering this paradise is even more intense, far better than the outside world.

Augustus is in their memory, this is a natural situation, and has not been considered at all.

Shen Lang secretly analyzed it. It is estimated that this Guangming Mountain should contain Lingshijing or a lot of veins, so the mountain is higher than the outside world.

The valley of this paradise is a basin that is sunken in the middle of the main peak. It may be natural or may have been transformed. Perhaps the way it is used, so that it can gather more aura.

The average level of aura in Nakajima is far better than that of the Earth. The Guangming Mountain is better than the average outside. This valley is far better than the top.

The level of aura here can be seen how high it is, this is the paradise environment they promote!

Not to mention the great magical effect of cultivation, that is, ordinary people living here, they will be very strong and healthy.

Inside the Valley of Paradise, there are strange flowers and grasses, rare birds and beasts, and the beasts see them a few, there will be no horror, everything is so peaceful.

From the bottom up, the air is a piece of auspicious clouds, perhaps it is not only a magic array, but also a role in preventing the overflow of aura.

The dog  couldn’t help but utter a sigh of relief and then silenced.

In the world of giant beasts Hengshan area where the Emperor’s behemoths live, is also one of the best environments in the world, but it is higher than the average level of the mainland.

Places like Guangmingshan, or other martial art schools such as Qiulin, are better than Yokoyama’s aura.

This hundred paradise is based on the Guangming Mountain, and it has been greatly strengthened. Naturally, the dog  is a little hot.

In this simple environment, even if the aura is filled several times, for it, it is a decade of cultivation, and there will be no big difference.

But the beasts have a life span of thousands of years and thousands of years. The gap of several times is the savings of thousands of years. It can not only evolve to a higher level earlier, but also reach the ancestors before the end of Shouyuan. The realm reached.

At this moment, its silence, to be honest, is actually a heartbeat. If you can, take it here, and then another thousand years of sublimation, it will surely reach the achievements that all the gods and monsters have not achieved!

Of course, this is just thinking about it. With the 200,000-mile road and the feelings after going to the Guangming Mountain, the dog * has gradually calmed down and has not yet reached the momentum of Guangmingshan.

As long as you are sensible, you can think of a question: Can you occupy such an environment for a thousand years, can you have no point?

“Go! Go straight to see the light god!”

Shen Lang also feels that the momentum of the dog * is weakening, and he hastened to hurry.

Already in the paradise, Augustus has their memories that can help them find everything successfully. It is also clear that the place where the * of light is located is clear.

“As far as you are concerned, the strangers who come in are also worthy of the light god?”

The dog * and Fan Xueyu have not responded yet, and there is already a voice that has received the words of Shen Lang.

Chapter 1619 - 3 apostles

As the voice came, someone floated from the front.

Three people came over and the one in the middle was spoken.

The feeling of Shen Lang's initial observation can confirm that these three are comparable to the strength of Daxian Peak!

At the same time, the appearance of the gaze also made them coincide with the memories of Augustus and others, and clearly understood the identity of the three of them.

The words are called Gabriel, the other two are Mellon, and the other is Raphael.

The three of them are among the top ten apostles, and they have a high status in the Light God.

In direct contrast, Joseph and Christopher needless to say, that is, Augustus, who has the strength of Daxian's peak, is not among the top ten apostles.

In other words, the three now, even if they are the peaks of Daxian, are at least better than Augustus. It is very likely that they are all close to the realm of the gods.

The dog * does not have so many concerns. It also knows this from the memory of Augustus, but it can make it taboo. Only the mysterious light god, let alone the three apostles, is the ten apostles. And it won't care.

Fan Xueyu is a little embarrassed...

At first she thought that Shen Lang was deliberately scaring her, the purpose was not to let her follow. I guess they should have any adventure plans, such as looking for treasures and magical resources.

So she insisted on following it, and when she needed it, she helped me a little.

I did not expect that they really want to come to the door!

Although I don't know much about this light god, but I can use God's own self, I don't think it will be low.

Now they have just arrived in the valley, and the three embarrassments that come out are already so powerful. The strength of this martial art can be imagined.

Gabriel, Rafael, if they know that Van Gogh's heart is treating them as a patrol, I don't know if I will face her immediately...

"Gabriel, Raphael, Mellon..."

Shen Lang read their names one by one, which made them slightly surprised, and then thought of some possibility, and immediately changed his face.

"We are coming from afar, we are going to see the gods of light, and the three apostles will lead the way! If you are not good, you are not qualified."

"Bold!"

The words of Shen Lang were just finished, and Raphael immediately screamed.

Now that they know the identity of the three of them, they dare to use them as a guide to the road, and they are also clamoring to see the gods of light. This is not to put them all in the eye!

Gabriel waved his hand and prevented Raphael and Mellon from turning their faces.

"You can go to the bright mountain, you can enter the paradise, and you know our identity. It seems that Augustus is not only dead in your hands, but also remembered by you."

Shen Lang did not default, nodded directly, admitted this statement.

The Fan Xueyu on the side of his side feels even more tricky...

Even if it is a homecoming challenge, whether you want to make a name for yourself or simply want to prove your strength, it can be regarded as a contest.

Even if the strongest light of the other party will not come out, the dispatch of disciples can be solved, and in the end it will not cause big problems.

I can listen to this now, they have already complained first, it is Shenlang who killed people, and they have won the memory of people, this will kill the door!

If you change it, no one will be good!

She is a bit embarrassed, and then I will say that I am passing by, and they are not a group, who can believe it!

She has the heart to sneak into the waves and not to make it clear, but it seems that she can't say it. Others have always let her not come, but he insists on coming.

"Killing me to teach important people is already a crime of death. No matter where the sea is by the sea, we will chase it to the end! You dare to go to the door to provoke God, this is to find death!"

The tone of the Gabriel apostle became very majestic.

Shen Lang is laughing: "The people you teach are not aware of the lack of language, or everyone is so arrogant. From the gods of the light * to the body, to Joseph, Christopher and Augustus are three of them, I like to open my mouth and look for death."

He paused. "You should know all the endings, saying that I am looking for death. Without exception, I have been killed. Gabriel apostles, you have to be careful."

"Looking for death!" Raphael sighed again, but still used to find death, making this sound a bit embarrassing, and lack of momentum.

"Your kid is really mad..." Behind the Fan Xueyu, I couldn't help but sing a word with Shen Lang.

When I came to the site of others, I was threatened by three other masters. At the same time, there may be more masters coming over, and I dare to describe in detail * four people.

This also includes God's avatars!

This kid is really not a general madness. It is no wonder that before he dared to say that he had to slaughter the big fish, he couldn't really face the giant beast and dare to speak out.

Shen Lang does not respond to her, but it is interrupting at this moment...

"Look, I haven't finished talking yet. You have another sentence to find death. It is estimated that the Mellon apostle also wants to say it, and then he stunned."

Shen Lang smiled and teased them and then said: "Speak seriously, you will not be our opponent, or take us directly to see the light god! I understand that it is not easy to practice life. I don't want to ruin you."

It is said that whether it is Gabriel, Raphael, or the three of them, or Van Gogh, they feel very weird.

Shen Lang, a young man in his twenties, turned out to say that several people who were obviously seniors said that it is not easy to practice a life. "I don't want to ruin you." It is a bit of a violation of the old-fashioned feeling.

However, the dog * does not feel that something is wrong. It feels that Shen Lang is right, and it feels that Shen Lang is very kind! Before the painstaking persuasion, Fan Xueyu did not follow the adventure. Now even the enemy persuaded, there is great compassion!

Speaking of this, it is naturally not good.

Gabriel, they just had a little bit of a ritual, and now the young man is so arrogant that they are all furious.

In Bai Paradise, on his own site, he was actually degraded by an invading field. If you can bear it, what will happen to the face of Guangmingism?

All three of them are among the top ten apostles. They are self-proclaimed and not good for a young group.

But now the attitude of Shen Lang has already angered them!

Moreover, although Shen Lang is a young man, a young woman, plus a dog, but in terms of quantity, it is also “three”, it is not bullying.

Besides, this is happening in the 100th paradise. As long as these enemies are leveled out, even if the ten apostles do it together, they will not spread it out and will not damage the face of the gods.

Therefore, the three apostles have the same mind and immediately come out with weapons!

Chapter 1620 - Join hands with hard battles

The weapon that appeared in Raphael’s hand was actually a feather, but a feather that was burning with flames.

Mellon’s hand is an old scepter.

Gabriel is a sword.

As their three apostles, they have not known how many years have not been shot, and a long time ago, the shots were also able to suppress the opponents, and the enemies that allowed them to use their weapons were few.

It is even rarer for the three apostles to shoot at the same time and use weapons.

But today, they did not hesitate to take their weapons out before they even shot.

Joseph and Christopher are all over, can kill Augustus, can kill God’s avatar, it is very bad.

Even if it is definitely not completed once, it may be that many people assist, and may even use the magic weapon to attack, but it is definitely not a fluke.

Especially after reading the memories of Augustus, they did not hide far away. They dared to go to the mountains and dare to challenge the gods. Even if it is arrogant, there is definitely a strong confidence!

All three are very powerful, but they are also very sensible.

This is in the Guangmingshan Park, their shots can not be lost!

At this time, Fan Xueyu appeared in her hand.

I blame it, even a little regret, but since she has already reached this point, she will not retreat, then it is too loyal. Besides, you said that this is not a group, and no one will believe it.

So she also prepared the battle directly.

This point makes Shen Lang a bit unexpected.

Shen Lang's hand was raised, and the iron bar appeared in his hand, and it was directly extended a lot, attracting the attention of the other party.

From the very beginning, Gabriel, they put their attention on the body of Shen Lang, like Van Gogh, and regarded "that dog" as a beast that was raised by the waves.

No matter how powerful, the beast is a beast after all, and it cannot be compared with others. It will only be a help from the master, and it will not be much stronger than the master, so that it will not be willing to support.

This point is also discovered, so he took the initiative to take up the responsibility of communication, and at this moment also use the changes of the stick to attract their attention.

The strength of the dog  is certainly no problem, but it is necessary to preserve the strength, this is to fight against the light of God!

“You are offensive to the heresy of God, and today we will represent God to purify your sins!”

When Gabriel said this, a white light appeared on his chest, which quickly spread and opened up, and all of them were blocked.

The white light turned into a faint light and shadow, enveloping them like the effect of the previous Van Gogh sound wall.

His purpose is not to fear that they will escape. They should just want to protect the surrounding area, so as not to wait for the battle and destroy the surroundings.

A layer of barriers, whether it is flowers or trees, or buildings, can avoid shocks and sounds will not be spread out.

When Gabriel made this action, Shen Lang exchanged consciousness with the dog god.

He deliberately licked the dog god, for the time being, don't play such a powerful power, because it is their card, and premature blasting will make the other party ready.

This is to make the dog  a little depressed, originally according to its meaning, since the three populations say that they are looking for death, then they will die first.

However, for the wisdom of Shen Lang, it is admirable. Since Shen Lang said so, he also obeyed the arrangement.

After Gabriel made protection, Rafael and Mellon both attacked!

Raphael's mouth sang in the mouth, and the feathers in his hand waved in the air. As he danced, he immediately rushed to the three of them!

Mellon seems to be a fusion of his scepter at the moment, just a simple forward, immediately there is a violent force surged, directly rushed to their three sides!

The attacks on both of them were not directed at the individual, but against the three of them.

And Gabriel himself, suddenly jumped up, people in the air, standing with a sword, looking down on them.

Seeing him like this, it seems that waiting for the opportunity, they will be killed and killed. It's like coming out of a circle, if they have the intention to escape, they will shoot again.

After receiving the inspiration from Shen Lang, the dog * suppressed his own level and let himself play the level equivalent to the peak of human beings.

And it didn't restore its own body, just by screaming and then trying to fly and bite to fight.

In short, it does not present the side of the Emperor, the state of a dog.

At this moment, Fan Xueyu had already played the voice, and the sound waves were spread out and they were attacked by the three of them.

The long wave that has already taken out the iron rod is the last one.

Just like Gabriel is the one of the three of them, the Shen Lang seems to be the strongest of the three of them. This successfully attracted their attention to him, not too much attention to the dog god.

“As for you guys and chickens also dare to purify evil!”

“Look at me after killing you, go to dry the light!”

After Shen Lang spoke, this leapt, waving the iron rod in his hand and going to Raphael and Mellon in front!

Just the first wave of their attack on the flames and the power of the scepter, the dog  and the sacred snow have already shunned.

Now that Shen Lang has leapt, it is also a direct attack.

Seeing that he was approaching, the attack of both of them immediately turned to Shen Lang.

For a time, the raging power of the scepter slammed directly against Shen Lang. The wave of Raphael's flame feathers directly caused the fire dragon that had just missed the attack, and rolled away from the back and from the bottom!

The waves of people in the air have not been attacked before them, and have been surrounded by them!

Shen Lang is not affected at all!

His iron rod continued to smash in a fierce and unstoppable posture!

The power that the scepter bombarded was very turbulent, but the iron bars of the war shackles were even more extraordinary, and a stick directly broke them. Just like a hard reef, you can break through the rushing water.

And behind the flame, Shen Lang did not pay attention to it. Because his speed is fast enough, the flame almost touched him.

When the iron bar opened the power of the scepter to the front, it was a last resort to judge the mistake, and quickly greeted the scepter.

“boom!”

A shrill loud noise, the iron rod directly stunned the scepter.

Mellon felt that his arms were both numb, and his scepter was a high-level magic weapon. He directly touched hard, but still made him a little worried about whether he had been split.

Because the other side's seemingly unremarkable black iron bar, he gave him a feeling of chilling.
