Chapter 1651 - Soul branding

The eyes of Guangming God look at Shenlang, but they are full of unpredictable meaning.

“Always have to be mortgaged, you can choose yourself or leave the outside two.”

Shen Lang smiled: “I am a lower earth man, the ant in your eyes. But the girl, but a disciple of a big door here. With her age so cultivated, it must be a talented person. It is cultivated vigorously. Object.”

“As for the behemoth, the supreme king of their world, do you want to develop a bright * in their world?”

“What about that? Since she attacked the paradise with you, it is natural for me to leave her. As for the behemoth...” Light God is a little sigh.

“Human beings are the spirit of all things. Even if the beasts are strong, there is still a gap with human beings. Their world may be the next step.”

On the same day, Paul God, who can arrange for Augustus to go to the world of giant beasts, is undoubtedly wanting to explore the road and develop a new world.

Now the light  is not as important as the earth, because the earth population is huge, and it is a mature harvesting period, the sooner the better.

The world of giant beasts is still a wild land, and it takes time to cultivate.

These don't matter, the most important thing is the attitude of the  of light!

Although given two choices, Shen Lang feels that he is a test, or a temptation!

Because of the relationship with life, it is related to the population of seven or eight billion people in the world. Under such circumstances, Shen Lang is very likely to give up two friends.

There is a great excuse to offset the guilty ignorance.

Therefore, the Emperor and the Fan Xueyu were left hostages. In fact, they did not have a big constraint on Shen Lang, regardless of their lives and deaths.

The Light God will not think of this, and it will be raised in this way, that is, to test his temptation to see if he is serious.

This is the need to weigh the game, representing the observation of Guangming God on him.

“Then leave them two down! One has a strong division, one back against the whole world, and the value is still huge, leaving them hostage.”

Shen Lang said his decision.

This is a psychological game between the two sides. The other party must see whether he is affectionate to his friends.

If he shows a strong sense of affection, then not only will the two of them become hostages, but other friends on the earth or on the mainland of the island will be threatened to threaten him.

Of course, there may be a bad situation, that is, the two of them will appear to be of little value, but they may be in danger!

So what he just said emphasized that there is a teacher behind him, and there is a whole world behind him.

The eyes of the * of light are still staring at the waves.

“What you said makes sense. But I didn’t make it clear that I attacked Bai Paradise. Not only you, they are not accomplices, they are murderers.”

“So?” Shen Lang was not surprised at all. He did not believe that he would speak so well.

“They have to pay for their actions. They also have their missions. Otherwise, they will have to stay for atonement. This will not allow them to replace you, or you will replace them.”

“Then don’t circle, just say your conditions!” Shen Lang said faintly.

Bright God really just wanted to test him, now the purpose has been reached, and too lazy to talk nonsense.

“You are the same as them, and the two of them can go back to Earth as your assistants. But you all have to be left with a soul brand!”

The soul of God said by the light, what is not clear.

However, from this name, Shen Lang has already guessed a rough, similar methods are very common, but the names are slightly different. It is the same agreement between him and the dog god.

However, the  of light is the constraint of the strong to the weaker. His soul brand has been beaten down. It should be like being separated from oneself. It is always clear that every move can be destroyed at any time.

Only in this way can we really achieve the effect of control.

Otherwise what if you ran?

Or what if your wings are hard to resist?

But on this point, Shen Lang does not want to do it!

He will be motivated by the advice of the Light God, that is, he wants to see if he can intercept the power of the next batch of faith.

If it is injected with the soul of the brand, then where is it not where people are, even thinking and thinking, may be glimpsed?

That is not to say that the power of the beliefs of the Guangming gods, and all the secrets of their own, are known to the light gods.

Although Guangming God said that he is only a strong ant, even if it is such a disparity, he is not willing to let his own details be clearly understood.

“Don’t do it!”

Shen Lang shook his head and refused.

“I can help you, but that is to deal with the enemies that the Pope can’t cope with. The specific development of the believers depends on their ability. They have a huge number and a mature system.”

“But I personally don’t reply to you! You won’t be my god!”

“If you give me a brand of soul, I feel that I am your slave. I am giving you the soul. If you don’t give me the solution, after you complete the task, do you directly kill and kill?”

Hearing the words of Shen Lang, Guangming God returned a sentence.

“Do you think I am the same as you?”

His words are very calm, and there is no ironic taste, no arrogance But it is obvious in the speech that he is a noble god, and he is disdainful.

“I can accept that you give me poison, only the poison you can lift. But I can’t give my soul to you!”

Shen Lang is still a direct rejection.

“You can shut us up, death and torture, I recognize.”

When he said this, he was very calm.

If it was just the beginning, Shen Lang said this, it is not convincing.

But the test on the steps just took a few hours, which has proved that he is really not afraid of death. The whole process was a huge torture, but he also passed away.

Bright God feels very funny. With his realm, the soul can be imprinted directly. Why do you need poison? That is too low-end.

However, Shen Lang’s determined attitude made him interested.

“Your resistance means that you feel that you have a lot of secrets, and I am afraid that I will see. Do you think you have to do more?”

“what?”

“If I want your confidential information, I can extract your memory at any time! Just like you did for Augustus.”

This time, the * of light is with a strong disdain.

It is not a disdain to do this, but also disdain to know the secret of Shen Lang.

A human being from the lower bounds of the earth, no matter how talented and talented, can’t enter his eyes. If it wasn’t all the way to kill, and it’s here, it’s not going to let the light  open its eyes.

Even so, the secret of Shen Lang, in his opinion, is nothing more than a chicken food.

For chickens, a few grains of rice and a worm are very precious things. However, in the eyes of the human being, it is not to be seen.

Chapter 1652 - Threat

Shen Lang is very dull.

“You are self-deprecating and will not blame my secrets. Why can’t you be generous? Why bother?”

“Everyone’s secret is on the one hand, and more importantly, I don’t want to give my soul to you.”

“You will choose me, not because I am an independent soul? You also want a special embarrassment. If you are completely controlled by you, it is your believer and there is no challenge.”

Shen Lang does not expect to be able to convince the  of light, saying that it has reached this level, the big deal is to tear the face down!

Since their hatred is so big, it is to torture them to vent their anger, not to kill immediately, then it is not an opponent, there are opportunities.

Just like the pastoral garden in Yuxianmen, you can also find another opportunity to run out.

The last reliance of Shen Lang is the space of heaven. If this secret is known, there is really no possibility of escape.

Of course, the light God said is also reasonable. If you really want to know his secret, you can read his memory directly.

But if this is the case, he will fight to the end.

“You are wrong! I am not an independent soul. I want to be controllable! I choose you because you are already on the planet, already known, and it is a hot person now. For my plan, I can make rapid progress. That’s it.”

Bright God is not polite to fight against the waves: “You have nothing special! Special ants, strong ants, are just ants.

Shen Lang did not say anything more.

Ants also have the dignity of ants. If you are too big, you will crush it!

He is not convinced of the gap between everyone, really to the extent of ants and humans.

Silence represents his attitude, and the light  is also feeling. He is not just talking about it. He is really ready to fight.

This makes the light  a little unhappy.

The only conversation he had made was that he had stated his identity as a bright god. He had already given his face very much, including explaining it to him.

But this kid doesn't know anything about it, but he still has such a bargain.

Originally, he only wanted to control the Shen Lang, and he would not care about what was going on in the waves. But now that he is being reversed, his emotions will come up a bit.

“I will give you an opportunity to discuss with them.”

“But remember, I won't say so much more to you. If you decide, then the dust settles. The atonement is not that simple!”

Once again the threat!

This is completely understandable. You have killed more than a dozen core backbones and you are not blamed for killing you.

With their strength, you can let you die and live, always on the edge of sudden death, but will not let you kill.

After Guangming God finished this sentence, there was a sudden change around him.

Shen Lang has a feeling of dizziness.

Then he felt that he had returned to the temple, and the pain of his intestines was clear.

He was taken away from the general consciousness and re-presented on the body.

At the scene, he still looks at the eyes of the gods.

But now the eyes of the gods are still alive, but there is no such thing.

This is the opportunity for Guangming God to discuss with him!

Shen Lang clearly felt the gaze of four people like Gabriel.

“I just passed the Guangming Gully. He let us go out and discuss it with my friends.”

Shen Lang said slowly.

At this moment, he had to tell the truth and pull out the banner of the * of light. Because in his current state, let alone the two apostles of darkness and light, even Gabriel, he can turn him over.

“Do you think we will believe it? God will only punish you for this sinful sinner!”

Don't talk about Gabriel. Even if the dog * and Fan Xueyu hear it here, they will feel that Shen Lang is looking for an excuse to go out.

After all, his communication with the God of Light is another state. For others, it may be that he stares at the statue for a while.

“Let him go out.”

Shen Lang has not said anything, and a sound is heard.

Another apostle who had wanted to speak, changed his face with Gabriel.

The two apostles, light and dark, with black and white masks without facial features, could not see their expressions, but no doubt everyone knows that this is the will of the light god.

Since God has already spoken, they certainly dare not stop.

Shen Lang turned around and was still carried by the sacred armor, and then walked outside step by step.

Guangming God gave him a chance to discuss, and there is no time limit, but since he has not been suppressed, it is naturally impossible to go on for a few more hours.

He can only go out slowly because the injury is not light, and it is at this level.

So he must use this time to go out and quickly think of a countermeasure.

Going out to discuss, in fact, there is nothing to say.

Fan Xueyu is a new show of Yaochi. The newborn calf is not afraid of the age of the tiger. How can it be branded as a soul, and it is impossible to stay atone for sin.

The dog  is the master of the world of giant beasts. He wants to dry up the light and clear the gods. Even if he realizes that there is a gap, he will not die and be willing to do so.

Of course, it is impossible to say a word because of Shen Lang's remarks.

Therefore, discussing with them is basically equal to the meaning of declaring war with the * of light. But Shen Lang himself has experienced it. Don't say that he is seriously injured now, even if there is no injury, it can't be combined with the light god. First battle.

It doesn't even need to be lightly God's own hands, only to have their spiritual repression, the light and dark apostles are long, they can dry them down.

It is precisely because of this that Guangming God did not care to let him come back to discuss.

Because in the eyes of others, they can't afford the wind and waves!

Besides, this is just outside the temple, completely in the territory of others. Not coming out of the temple, I am free.

With the strength of the light god, if he wants to control, the entire hundred paradise, Guangmingshan, he can not get out of the temple control!

Shen Lang is now stepping out of the way, and then it is the time to step down the steps.

He must have a perfect countermeasure, the discussion is not very likely, it can only be escape!

If you escape, the light * must have thought of it.

Shen Lang estimates that only the two of them can be brought into the space of Tianshu, which can be completed by the thoughts.

Otherwise, even if the Kunlun mirror of the Three Realms can be transmitted to a very distant place, it will be controlled when the artifact is activated.

The two apostles of light and dark did not move, and Gabriel and another apostle could not help but follow the waves.

Their purpose is very simple, even if you can't move the waves, you should put pressure on him!

If there is something unsatisfactory about Shen Lang, and it is uncomfortable to provoke them, then they will swear at the time when Shen Lang is seriously injured, revenge for the dead partners, and also make a bad breath for himself!

In this way, it would be like escorting the sinking waves out of the temple door.

Chapter 1653 - God's shot

Dog God and Fan Xueyu have always maintained a state of high alert.

They are a front line with Shen Lang. The inside is against the light god, which means that they are fighting, and of course they can't drag their legs.

But they can't sense the situation inside, they can only watch the temple door.

When Shen Lang appeared, both were a little surprised.

Because I have just entered the time, the speed of the slow movement of Shen Lang should only go in, how come out again?

For a time, they are all ready to go, always ready to fight.

Shen Lang has appeared at the door, and there are two apostles with bad looks. Both sides are arrogant.

Shen Lang secretly smiled, people have seen them, but there is still no clear plan.

With them hiding into the space of heaven, this is his last resort. But now there is not such a big grasp, can Wanguang Mingshen control it?

I have tried and tested before, because the enemy is not strong enough to this extent, even if it is a big fairy, it is too late to control.

But the strength of the Light God is really unfathomable, and it has directly suppressed him to this extent. If you are not good, you can completely control the surrounding environment.

If this last resort fails, it is really even the confidence of Shen Lang is defeated!

If he is completely discouraged, the dog * and the Fan Xueyu will be more able to cope.

Shen Lang has stepped down from the steps step by step.

Gabriel two, on the inside of the temple door, did not follow.

But they watched the eyes of Shen Lang, but they seemed to be like a sharp blade, and they wanted to pierce him.

The dog * and the Fan Xueyu have stepped forward a few steps, and they have reached the bottom of the steps, and they have come down with the waves.

However, the situation of the steps just now, they are all in the eyes, so they did not step forward.

Of course, Shen Lang is very clear. There is no problem with the steps. He is now moving down step by step. There is no suppression at all, that is, the ordinary step.

He is not going fast now because the body is about to fall apart, and it is now leaning against the sacred armor.

Just like the distance in the temple, the distance from the step is also fixed. There is not much time for the sun, he has to make a decision.

At this time, the most prudent decision is only one of the space books.

The other way is basically to hit the stone with an egg.

Just as he made up his mind, a sound suddenly sounded in the air.

“Shen Lang has already promised to go back to Earth as the messenger of God! Now he is coming out and inviting you both to assist him!”

This is naturally the voice of the bright god, and both the dog  and the vanity snow are surprised.

Shen Lang also frowned. He did not expect that Guangming God would actually release it first.

Just saying good is to give him a chance to discuss, now this is equal to the first play to help him decide.

Just put him up and let him betray his friend's camp.

“You have no choice. If you refuse, you will stay and torture for a hundred years.”

Gabriel in the temple door, they heard the words of the light god, but also stayed a bit.

I did not think that God would choose Shen Lang as a god!

This is the enemy, killing many core enemies, how can they become the messengers of God?

But they dare not and cannot question God. The decision of God can only be completely obeyed and believed.

But the latter sentence is to make them feel relieved.

God wants them to stay and torture a hundred years of redemption. This is a punishment that makes them very satisfied!

Since God can think of this, the mission of this messenger is certainly not simple.

Just as a person with hatred, they certainly hope that Shen Lang refuses, directly shut them up and torture, think about it is fun.

In their realm, the mood is high, and there is no mood swing for a little hatred.

But this time, the impact of the matter was too great. The Eight Great Apostles were killed. This is an unprecedented blow, and no one can calm down.

What is the result of Shen Lang's discussion, the light  should be able to guess, and guess that they are likely to run away.

So now he announced it in advance, that is, let Shenlang have no retreat, and let the dog  and Fan Xueyu directly understand.

Now Shen Lang is still on the steps. The three of them have not yet come together. It is too late to want to escape together.

“Roar!”

The dog  violently screamed, and the body immediately swollen quickly, in the state of restoring the body, while his roaring, already has a huge impact, go directly to the temple!

Although it is facing the main entrance, it is the deep wave that crosses the steps and rushes to the door of the temple.

And in the process, there is still a suction, sucking the sinking waves that are obviously not hurt.

Fan Xueyu is still a defense-oriented. At this time, she can't be hidden in the shell magic weapon, or else she will be directly connected with the magic weapon.

Just in the blink of an eye, an invisible force has covered this area.

Gabriel two in the temple door, is fully defending, but found that the impact of the roaring roar, the invisible dissipation, can not reach their front.

The Shenlang was sucked up into the air from the top of the steps, but it was suspended for about a foot lost support!

The most obvious is the dog god.

It is to restore the ontology, but has not yet swollen to the true meaning of the Emperor's behemoth, it was strongly suppressed!

Not only did it not have the impact of roaring out, the power of sucking the waves was gone, and the whole body was still crushed and crushed. In a moment, it returned to the size of a dog!

It grows bigger and smaller, it is its own ability, and there is no problem. But in the process of restoring the ontology, it is directly reduced by the external force, and the process is very painful.

For example, a balloon, the inflation can be enlarged, and the deflation will be reduced, which is a natural process.

However, if it is not inflated, but it is directly pulled and enlarged, it may tear.

If the inflation is getting bigger, instead of giving up, but pressing it tightly, it will burst and burst.

The situation of the dog  is not very similar, but the situation is even more severe. The whole body is squeezed in all directions and forced to shrink. That is the triple pain!

One thing is that its recovery has not been completed, and the interruption is painful. Another heavy, strong repression of the pain. The third weight is the pain of the body being crushed and remodeled.

These add up, so that the pain it has suffered is almost the same as the pressure of the last few steps of Shen Lang.

Beside the Fan Xueyu, it was not taken seriously, but it was not ignored. She was also shivering at the moment, her face was pale, and her strong spiritual repression made her almost collapse.

All the sudden waves that have lost their support in an instant have also fallen from a height of one foot. Because he knows his situation, Guangming God did not engage him again this time, but it is still a little easier.

Chapter 1654 - Please Raytheon

Fan Xueyu could not withstand the pressure, but he had to sacrifice the shell magic and completely wrapped himself in it.

Although it may be collected together with the magic weapon, there is no magic weapon to protect it now. She feels that she can't resist it.

Before I felt about the situation that Shen Lang suffered, I couldn't really understand it. Now I have encountered it and I know how uncomfortable it is.

And the dog  is unwilling and unyielding!

When it was crushed and compressed, the embarrassing momentum broke out again, letting its entire body expand again.

The purpose of expansion now is not to restore the body, but to double-layer.

On the one hand, it is not just a natural reduction, but it is oppressed to concentrate, and the whole body is extremely uncomfortable to be broken.

Now re-expansion expansion is a process of adjustment, so that the body can be normal.

On the other hand, it is also a problem of face.

Being suppressed like this is still very shameful. Even if you can't fight against it, you can support your body and you can count it back.

In addition, it is really not reconciled, but also want to try to turn the plate.

Soon, the body of the dog * has expanded a lot, there is a trend of elephants, but its legs have crushed the slate of the ground and fell into the ground!

This shows how much pressure it is experiencing.

The giant beast has a great advantage in terms of physical aspects, whether it is defense, combat, and strength.

The dog * is the * of the behemoth world. It used to be a giant beast with the patron saint of the white family. It didn't take much effort.

But now, the light * did not personally show up, it directly suppressed it, and it was so dead!

Shen Lang has already fallen on the steps. Now he has no ability to help the dog god.

There is still only one that he can do now – think of a way!

Of course, while the brain is trying to get out of the way, he can still do other work at the same time.

You can observe with your eyes and cooperate with the close-up of the sacred armor to see if there are any flaws that can be found. If you can't help, you can also pat the dog * by the onlookers.

But soon, Shen Lang found that something was wrong!

In this state of his own state, the physical body has been dying and the mental power is also very expensive. Whether it is the knowledge of the gods or the observation of the eyes, it is not as good as usual.

At this time, the ultra-clear close-up of the holy armor helped a lot.

The picture and the analysis of the data, let Shen Lang discover the body of the dog god, in the extent of supporting the elephant, it is dead.

It can no longer grow bigger, but because of resistance, it falls into the ground, and is not willing to be squeezed and shrunk. This is a hard confrontation.

Between its hair, there is bloodshot!

Shen Lang has just experienced a lot of things. It is very clear to them that he has also had this stage. However, he is step by step, step by step to strengthen the pressure.

The dog  now bears the pressure and the situation of arrival is almost the situation in his last two steps!

It may be a minute between the completion of his process for a few hours. This pressure is undoubtedly far better than him, and more rapid!

This also shows one thing, the dog  is not as good as him in the eyes of the bright god, or the sequence is a lot behind.

So I will give him time just now, but now I will not give the dog  time, I will directly crush it.

If the dog  squats and loses, it will be slowed down by rolling and shrinking, but now it is a tough confrontation to the end, naturally it is to bear a stronger impact than it.

This makes Shenlang no more time to think about countermeasures!

Originally, he still had a little time to go down and discuss with them, and he could delay it.

However, the early voice and shot of Guangming God directly disrupted his plan.

Now the situation of the dog god, so that Shen Lang also had to act decisively!

In his current situation, even if you can use the holy armor to jump over the two of them, the speed is too late, and the light  will definitely intervene.

Therefore, the escape of Tianshu Space has not been utilized.

Can't escape, can't see the dog  being crushed and crushed, then do it again!

Shen Lang turned the palm of his hand and summoned the source of the thunder!

This is also a last resort. After all, this is not a heterogeneity of the goods. It is not a friend, not a master-servant relationship. It is completely induced by good faith.

And the lure that lured it, in the chaotic space, it has seen another minefield.

Shen Lang has already used its power before, and now the remaining human feelings are estimated to be called up to one or two times. Unlike the Tianshu space, Kunlun mirror, etc. can be reused.

There is no way, he does not want to summon Leiyuan.

Now is the time to no way!

When Lei Yuan came out, he immediately understood the situation around him.

The dog gods were together when they were summoned in chaotic space. Of course, they knew that this was a group with Shen Lang.

Although there is now a more than a Fan Xueyu, but she is under pressure to hide in the magic weapon, obviously also a group with Shen Lang.

Another situation of Shen Lang's current situation is almost a bad thing that is devastating to death. Let it clearly understand that Shen Lang is looking for it to save lives.

Shen Lang did not lie to it, so that Lei Yuan was very impressed with him Last time, helping the elders of Tula was very easy.

Now I see a few of them in Shenlang, and I immediately sensed the situation on the spot, even if I shot it!

Suddenly, Tianlei appeared out of thin air!

A few bursts of glory before Lei Yuan were done by his own people in the chaotic space. Like Tula elders, it is much more than just letting it go all out.

Now that there is such a strong opponent, even if it is not clear what the environment is, it has already inspired its war!

The thunder that it shot, immediately covered a large piece!

In terms of distinction, it is divided into three parts.

Part of it is the protection of Shen Lang, the dog god, the Fan Xueyu, and the suppression of them by Tian Lei.

Part of it is to follow the force of repression and smash the past to the Temple of Light!

The third part, from the temple door to Gabriel, they smashed the past!

It's the shot, no, it hasn't been shot yet. It has just been summoned and it has been highly valued by the Light God.

Therefore, behind the three of them, the light God also voluntarily gave up the suppression of them, all the energy is placed on this new mysterious object.

The outbreak of the thunder is equal to the different angles of the temple to the light!

The God of Light is in the temple. Gabriel and the two of them are at the door of the temple, but also inside the temple. These attacks on the thunder have first encountered the defense of the Temple of Light.

Suddenly, the thunder has spread far out of the voice, and the confrontation with the temple has caused the bursts of shock waves to spread rapidly. For a time, almost the entire paradise has felt the great changes here!

Chapter 1655 - Temple of God

After they entered the paradise, they did not feel too much, because Gabriel and others arrived soon, and then built a protective cover, and everyone tacitly fought in it.

The second wave was when their eight apostles set up, naturally they were arranged around, the battle was fierce, and they only ruined the piece and did not transmit it.

The third wave, the two apostles of darkness and light, took the shot, and the dark apostle used the dark way to attack. As a result, it was bombarded by Shen Lang, and all the effects were accepted by him.

Just now, Shen Lang can be regarded as the fourth wave, purely only he feels.

The attack on the dog  Van Gogh was considered the fifth wave, and only they felt it.

But now this source of lightning attacks, there is no control, although the target of the attack is above the Temple of Light, but this day's rolling movement is still far away, the power of this shock Sex, also let the believers in the distance shiver.

The average believer does not understand, so the change of the sky is unprecedented, and the unknown makes them afraid.

The most direct way is to worship the temple of light.

Then I can feel the change is here, so I started to come over here and concentrate on praying to God.

The few in the temple are very clear.

Even the two apostles, such as Gabriel, were the weakest of the two, but they saw the scene directly at the entrance of the temple.

No matter what it is called Leiyuan, Raytheon, or anything else, it is just a name. It is not a person.

Even this thunder and lightning is not the thunder and lightning on the earth. It is just that Shen Lang is called by Tian Lei.

This falls in the eyes of Gabriel, and it is the attack that Shen Lang's palms are out of thin air!

They have fought with Shen Lang. Although they have lost again and again, they always feel that Shen Lang is a trick. The real strength is stronger than them, and it will not be much stronger. It should not be as long as the apostle.

What can win is the intrigue, and the Dark Apostle does not elaborate on what is going on.

Just now, God's easy crushing also allowed them to confirm this. How did Shen Lang look at them for a few hours? It is very understandable.

But in such a state of sudden death, even a powerful attack can be released!

The Tianlei, which has just come directly, is to make them feel trembled. If it is not in the hall, it will be badly damaged.

At this moment, even if there is shelter in the main hall, they do not consciously retreat inside.

The two apostles, light and dark, did not follow, but they were clear about the outside situation, and they were ready to fight.

But in the face of the * of light, they are not the main ones.

When Lei Yuan came out, he immediately felt that he was not right. This is not an attack by Shen Lang, nor is it a magic weapon. This is a creature that is not a level at all!

Just as Lei Yuan felt a strong opponent and aroused the war, the light  was still an understatement for Shen Lang and for the dog god. For Leiyuan, it also aroused the war and kept great attention.

Unlike the direct attack by Lei Yuan, Guangming God is ready to understand the situation first, so it converges. Instead of paying attention to the dog gods, there is no direct confrontation with the Leiyuan, but the Tianlei attacks the temple.

When the repression of the Light God disappeared, the pressure went steep, and the dog  immediately had to recover the body and prepare to continue fighting.

At this time it sensed the words of Shen Lang.

“Give up! We are not opponents! I have not promised anything, just leave!”

The mind was directly conveyed to the dog god, and the voice was given to the Fan Xueyu.

At the same time, he also used the armor, flew down the steps, and went to the side of the van Gogh.

Although the dog  still wants to continue the confrontation, but for Shen Lang, it still trusts.

Just now he also realized the tremendous pressure, Shen Lang has made arrangements, it did not hesitate, and immediately came to confluence.

Fan Xueyu has just felt the pressure disappeared. When he heard the waves, he immediately came out of the shell and looked at everything outside.

For a while, Lei Yuan has no idea how many thunder hits on the Temple of Light!

This temple also showed a strong defense. Even if it was hit by such a thunder, it was not destroyed, and it remained firm.

Shen Lang is also paying attention to the picture here. This situation has given him a general confirmation.

The superb power of the light gods is not necessarily so far outrageous than them, it is likely to use the temple, or what is inside the temple!

The light gods here may be tens of thousands of years, and the accumulated accumulation is not so powerful. As the contemporary master, Guangming God can naturally take advantage of everything in the Light God.

This is a common thing in any faction, just how much is added.

For example, Fan Xueyu can use the voice to influence the sacred beast, and the power is extremely terrible but it does not mean that she personally has the same general strength.

This discovery, or this guess, makes Shen Lang feel a little relieved, at least not to be discouraged.

However, the current situation is that even Lei Yuan has not been able to break the temple, which shows that the foundation is thick, and the light gods there will not have any influence. It can continue the external counterattack of the temple and so on.

This will make Shen Lang decide that he must leave immediately!

He has summoned Leiyuan to attack, and Guangming God will no longer want to support him. Besides, he could have expressed his demeanor, but he could not offer his soul.

There is not much talk about this, and they may be able to suppress their livelihood.

In the end, Lei Yuan is not under the control of Shen Lang. Now he can come out to fight, or to see its will. If you can't fight it, you may be more and more brave, and you may be angry and angry!

Therefore, Shen Lang can only rely on it to save a life, but not too much, but still left now!

The three people have joined together, and there are Leiyuan cover. Shenlang does not need to hide the space of the heavenly book, but the Kunlun mirror of the Three Realms is launched.

“Raytheon! They can’t hide, this building structure is a bit weird. Let’s leave for the time being, discuss it, and come and get them!”

Shen Lang must be very polite to Leiyuan, and at this moment, it is also a step for Leiyuan.

Although extremely short-lived, Leiyuan’s attack on lightning has not known much, and it must be stepped down before it feels angry and angry.

It is not enough energy to attribute the cause to the other party and not to come out.

But Lei Yuan has been summoned, can not “obey” to leave, Shen Lang is not sure!

And they must go.

Chapter 1656 - Back to Yaochi

Fortunately, Lei Yuan still listened to the advice of Shen Lang, and quickly returned to his palm to hide.

When Leiyuan came back, he also released a series of thunder, although he did not know the temple of light that did not know how many years, but it was also a town.

After it came back, the artifacts were also activated, and they were sent to tens of thousands of miles away!

The place where they appeared was on the edge of Yaochi that I had been to before.

Shen Lang uses the transmission of this artifact, there is a limit, only the place that has been visited, in order to accurately locate.

Although it can be directly transmitted from Guangmingshan to Tiandu City, Tangcheng, and Zhoushan, there is no problem to return to the earth, but he chose Yaochi.

Because there is still a Vatican.

At first, I felt a burden, but in the 100 paradise, she did not retreat every battle. It was not a key and did not directly kill the enemy, but it also played a very good role in assisting.

So before leaving, Shen Lang was ready to send her back. No matter where you go, it must be at least tens of thousands of miles, or even hundreds of thousands of miles. It is also troublesome to let her go back alone.

After being sent back, he and the dog  can discuss it again.

“This is... come back to Yaochi?”

Going back to the familiar environment, Van Gogh felt it and was surprised. Before she followed, she knew very well how far away.

Shen Lang nodded and then asked: “Are you okay?”

Fan Xueyu shook his head and then looked at the waves. She did not say it clearly, but the meaning is very obvious, Shen Lang should be the one with something!

To her speechlessly, she looked at the past with a young and beautiful girl, but she did not look at her, but looked at the dog next to him...

Before I saw Shen Lang, there was a few hours of accumulation. Afterwards, she only looked at innocents and the time was short. I have not found much pressure on the dog god.

Shen Lang saw it, and realized that Guangming God was not so merciless about it.

“Can’t die... underestimate him.” The dog  is very depressed.

I used to think about it, and I killed it directly from the world of giant beasts. I rushed to Guangmingshan as soon as possible, and I was going to be a so-called * who intended to touch their world.

The dog gods at that time were angry because Augustus had killed a lot of behemoths and finally threatened that the gods of light would come to God.

On the other hand, it is also a bit of a master.

In the past thousands of years, it was only in the world of giant beasts, followed by Shen Lang, opened the door to the new world, and the knowledge and stomach have been greatly opened.

However, apart from the two sources of mine, on the mainland of Nakajima, or on the other side of Zhoushan, and the Earth, there is no strong person who can match.

Now Augustus has their strengths already strong, and the strong people who can let them worship the gods have also aroused its challenge.

It also wants to see yourself, in other worlds, whether it can reach the level of dominance.

To put it bluntly, there will be ambitions, only strengths and weaknesses.

The hurricane beast god, after being unwilling, has always been its vassal, so there is a chance to want to seize power. Even if it comes back, it will be able to regain the world of giant beasts and be able to play a new world.

For the dog god, it has always been the Emperor, so the master of this world is taken for granted and taken for granted, like the earth can not afford its interest.

If it can be rampant in the mainland of the island, it is still interested.

But now it has cooled down, and today's encounter has made it realize the huge gap with the world's top human powerhouse.

From the suppression of Shen Lang, to the shots of them, the other side did not even expose each other, and they made it easy to understate them.

If it wasn't for Shen Lang's last summoning that Raytheon's help, the escape could not escape.

When I heard the dog god, Fan Xueyu carefully observed it, but it has already slowed down, not as dangerous as it was just now.

It's just that Shen Lang will ask this question. The dog * has not denied it. It uses "can't die", which shows that its situation is definitely serious!

This made her a bit embarrassed, because she was hiding in the magic weapon at the time, and did not help her partner.

"Sorry, my magic weapon has a limited scope. I didn't have time..."

The dog * ignored her, and Shen Lang just nodded, indicating that they would not care about this.

"He may have underestimated him before, but we may overestimate him later!"

The sentence of Shen Lang makes the dog * a bit puzzled. Fan Xueyu did not explain more and listened carefully.

"From its point of view, it is almost crushing our level. But I think it should not be to this extent! The most obvious is the attack of Raytheon, the power of those thunder is very huge!"

The dog * is an expert, although there is no direct experience, but I also know that extraordinary.

Although Fan Xueyu didn't know much about it, he just hid it in the shell magic weapon, but when he shot, he could destroy the attack of Guangming God. It is also very powerful.

“But the thunder was rolling, and the temple was not destroyed. And I vaguely felt that the light * did not resist, and it seemed to be watching Raytheon.”

“This shows that the power he displays is not necessarily his personal strength!”

“This temple may be a cumulative of thousands of years, that is not something that a generation can achieve. If he leaves, he may not be better than you.”

The words of Shen Lang are just a guess, but they are very likely to be true.

Of course, the light * can control the light gods, can control the temples of such a foundation, and its own strength will certainly not be low. It is more certain than him and the dog god, but it is only a matter of strength.

“I will take him for another time next time!”

Shen Lang suddenly felt the meaning of Leiyuan.

Lei Yuan is still listening to their words!

It seems that I have not ruined the temple. I did not take the enemy out and do it. It is still very convincing.

Now the analysis of Shen Lang has further given it a step, and let it want to fight with the Light God again, perhaps... Any thoughts on the temple.

“Raytheon, rest assured, when we are ready, we will definitely go to him for a while, let them see and see you.”

Shen Lang immediately returned to him.

This is what they mean to communicate, the dog * and the Fan Xueyu do not know.

Lei Yuan's attitude made Shen Lang feel relieved.

Because after summoning once today, he can summon several times, and he can't summon it next time. He is not very sure. Even Lei Yuan may be angry and anger, spilling his anger on his head.

Just that sentence, I am relieved. Now it is arousing fighting spirit, but also thinking that the next time will be bright, then it is not a problem.

The dog * and Fan Xueyu have not spoken yet, and everyone feels a strong breath approaching!

Everyone can't help but be shocked. Can the Light God trace tens of thousands of miles away? Or is there such a power in the temple?

Chapter 1657 - Old teacher

For a time, they couldn't attend to discuss other things, and they were all on guard.

Lei Yuan did not say anything to Shen Lang, as to whether it would also pay attention to the surrounding, Shen Lang is also unknown.

In fact, Shen Lang is really the heaviest one on the scene!

The dog * is fast and the pressure is huge, but he released the Leiyuan, which has been resolved, without further deterioration. And he himself is a few hours, step by step, and heavier and more overdraft.

Therefore, at this time, his responsiveness and inductive ability are weaker than the two of them. It is really the light * chasing it, or it is locked in other ways, and he can't be hard.

Fortunately, just after Lei Yuan's statement, Shen Lang's heart was settled a lot.

"Own people!"

Fan Xueyu soon cheered.

She received the least impact, plus the magic weapon's defense, basically no injuries, plus the excellent disciple who is Yaochi, naturally more clearly the atmosphere of Yaochi.

The master of that strong atmosphere has not yet appeared, she has already confirmed.

Hearing her words, the dog * and Shen Lang are also relieved.

For the God of Light, they are really worried. Even if they have just analyzed that the Light God relies on the foundation of the Temple, there is still pressure and shadow.

And if the light * really has such a rapid magical power, it is a very strong manifestation.

Fan Xueyu said that he is a man, that is the master of Yaochi. This is on the edge of Yaochi, there will be strong people in Yaochi, it is very reasonable and reasonable.

Just after the Fan Xueyu just finished, there was a figure above the water surface of Yaochi, and the wind rippled on the surface of the water, and soon left the waters and appeared to them.

“Sister!”

Fan Xueyu not only felt the atmosphere of Yaochi, but also felt the familiar atmosphere. When she showed up, she recognized who it was and immediately screamed.

Yao Chi women from the wind, overlooking them.

Shen Lang also looked at the past, I saw this person is a young man, is full of silver, do not know what methods they have, like Van Gogh, can not see the specific realm.

Fan Xueyi told her to be a teacher...

On the surface, this is simply called the ancestor, the mother-in-law can be, and even the sister!

If it is not getting along, I am sure that Fan Xueyu is a young girl. I have to doubt that she is also old and just well-maintained.

However, if you say it again, you will be able to be younger when you are in the realm of the realm, and you will be able to stay in the face to a certain extent. The realm above Daxian really depends on the individual's wishes.

If you are willing, even if you are younger than you can break through to Daxian, you can rejuvenate and keep yourself young.

The fairy tales in the myths and legends are also the look of youthful beauty. The fairy tales will not look like the old trembles.

In other words, at such a state, age is no longer important, and it cannot be measured by the age standard on earth.

“Small! You come over!”

This old sister-in-law is in a tone of alert, letting Fan Xue go.

If it is not that Shen Lang and the dog  are obviously not hurt, she is expected to be more vigilant, which can be seen from the compelling breath of her coming.

Before coming over, she estimated that Van Gogh was caught by coercion and would be approached by warning.

Fan Xueyu was a bit embarrassed and quickly explained: “Sister, they are my friends. We are all injured. Can we let them go back together for a while, and wait until they are injured?”

What she said is also the truth. Can the light gods be traced back, not sure, if they can, then they have no resistance now!

If you hide in Yaochi, it will naturally be hidden. Even if you trace it here, Yaochi will not talk about it, you can also say no.

When the words were spoken, the old master and sister frowned.

“You are more and more courageous! Privately sneak out and strangers slipped out, not returning for a few days. Also want to bring strange men into Yaochi?”

Shen Lang listened to it and remembered it. She used to see the mysterious girl in Zhoushan, and her master, Yunyun Fairy, all wearing veil, and they also heard from the Shangguan Tianyuan that the Yaochi man is not close.

Fan Xueyu and this sister did not wear a veil. It should be because there is no outsider in Yaochi, so there is no preparation. Once you go out, you will still wear it.

As for the inability to bring men into, this is also very understandable.

Not to mention the ancient sects such as Yaochi, which are like the Tianshan Ice Palace on Earth.

Female repair is a vulnerable group in the realm of cultivation. Their female martial art is a natural resistance to reject men and regard them as opponents and enemies.

“me.....”

Fan Xueyu did not know how to explain this matter.

She did not collude with the elopement of strangers, but no matter what the reason and reason, it was the private report that was not reported.

Now it is also out of a friend's loyalty, but for the teacher's door, this is to bring a strange man into Yaochi, which is a violation of the rules and regulations.

“That... can you allow them to recuperate around here?”

She can only retreat to the next that the old man did not look at her, now staring at the sinking waves, probably want to see what the origin of Shen Lang.

However, it is a pity that even if Yaochi has a deep foundation, even if she is not young and has many experiences, she cannot see the origin of Shenlang.

After all, Shen Lang is not a martial art of the mainland, but from the earth.

In particular, Shen Lang's current age is so light that she feels that she is definitely an outstanding disciple of the big martial art. The more she speculates, the more she is not aware of it.

Like Van Gogh and Gabriel, at the beginning, the dog * was once again ignored...

Her instinct also thought that this beast * is a beast god, or a beast * who helps each other, so it is only necessary to pay attention to the Shen Lang, and do not need to pay attention to this beast.

Shen Lang maintains a very calm posture, and there is no need for a hard top, because he has no momentum now. The injury is so heavy that it can't be concealed.

"I have seen the fairy in Yaochi, and I am sinking."

Looking at her age, Shen Lang was still politely saying hello.

This made Fan Xueyu slightly pouting, of course, it seems not so polite to her.

But at this point she wants to help Shen Lang and the dog * settle down, of course, will not care about these. On the contrary, Shen Lang does not need her to be jealous, can politely say hello to her sister, so that she is very pleased.

"Which is your teacher, who is Master, who is Master? Why do you come to Yaochi? Why..."

She probably wants to say why she left Van Gogh, but after seeing Van Gogh, she still resisted and did not say anything behind.

But the words that are rooted at the bottom of the question are already questionable.

Chapter 1658 - Yaochi Festival

Shen Lang shook his head: "It doesn't matter. What's important is that it is safe to send the Van Gogh back. As for us, we will leave immediately and will not disturb the Yaochi Wonderland."

When he said this, Fan Xueyu was a little anxious.

She didn't know that Shen Lang had already planned this way. She only wore it here to send her back, or else she could go further.

She also thought that Shen Lang was explained by the attitude of her sister.

"Shen Lang! How are you going now? You are all very hurt! And there are enemies... We are not accepting strange men, but you are not..."

"..."

Shen Lang is speechless, is he not a man?

Fan Xueyu also almost said to be a man, and changed his mouth: "You are not a stranger, we are a partner who has fought together, a friend who can be trusted!"

The old man was sneer.

In her opinion, this is nothing but a sneak peek at Van Gogh.

The younger sister is young and has no life experience. He is deceived by a man.

partner? friend?

What does she know!

“Unfamiliar is not a stranger is not the focus, the focus is male! It is a friend, as a male, can not enter Yaochi.”

The emphasis of the sister is to immediately block the opportunity of Fan Xuexue to wipe the ball.

“Sister!”

Fan Xueyu hurriedly asked: “The teacher’s rule is not like this. We are not going to hold the Yaochi event right away? Most of the guests who come here are men!”

“That is the VIP invited by the teacher!”

The old man emphasized one sentence, and then looked at Shen Lang, and the meaning was very clear.

Fan Xueyu was a slogan, and the invited guest was the invitation of Yao Chi on behalf of the head. Those who can come to participate are all very famous people.

Even if it is at the head level, it is not necessarily eligible for an invitation. Anyone who can be invited by Yao Chi is a rich man with a foundation.

Shen Lang, a young man of unknown origin, certainly cannot be compared with those big names.

She just said this, it is not to say the identity of Shen Lang, just want to say unwritten rules, in fact, it is not dead, it can be flexible.

But the sister-in-law now has an attitude that makes her wonder how to persuade.

Shen Lang is a move in my heart.

Yaochi event?

Yao Chiben is a myth that has been heard by mythology. Yao Chi Tao Tao is also a mythical legend.

Is the festival of Yaochi here similar?

According to this old man, all the guests invited by Yao Chi are of extraordinary natural strength. How should they be more than the people of Daxian?

That is also in line with the fairy tales of mythology.

The Yaochi event here will not be held often, and the agenda is definitely very important.

Can happen to catch up, he still has a little moving.

However, there was nothing wrong with the old man who said that he did not have a prominent teacher here, and he could not enter the eyes of others.

Shen Lang was trying to hand over Fan Xueyu to the old man, and then he left with the dog god. But now, I want to stay a little bit.

Just in addition to Fan Xueyu, he knew the Yaochi doorman before, not to mention the mysterious girl, it was a fairy who was a cloud, and it should not be enough.

Flowing Cloud Fairy is the realm of Daxian, and the strength of going out is not low, but Shen Lang always feels that Van Gogh, who can't see the strength, and this old man should be much stronger than the fairy.

So even if he came out, he knew the fairy goddess and the mysterious woman. In this old man, there is nothing to add.

Fan Xueyu can know his name. He should still have a gossip for young people or a mysterious woman of the same age.

Their faces are not big enough.

“Thank you for the kindness of Van Gogh, we don’t need to be a guest at Yaochi.”

Shen Lang said politely.

Fan Xueyu secretly white eyes, before Shen Lang is a variety of dislikes for her, now the fairy is so good.

However, she did not know how to fight for her stay, Shen Lang gave up and let her helpless.

If the other party really can’t help, she is convinced to convince her sister. Now that he gives up, she is not convenient and enthusiastic.

But Shen Lang and the dog * are in the current state, she is really worried about where they can go. Don’t say that God of Light has gone out of his own hands. Even if he sends an apostle, or a lower level, he may be able to defeat them.

For her white eyes, Shen Lang ignored it and continued to say one.

“But we are really not hurt, we really have to go far, but we can’t hold it. Let us leave a rest here for a while, and we won’t bother with Yaochi. Is there any problem?”

When he said this, his eyes looked at the old man.

There is no problem with Fan Xueyu, and her opinion is sought.

The old man listened and frowned directly.

In her opinion, Shen Lang is not ruthless, but also wants to find opportunities to enter Yaochi, or Bo sympathy and the like.

However, their injuries are also true. This is only on the edge of the Yaochi waters. It is like when it rains, saying that it is sheltering from the rain under the roof.

It is normal to inconvenience to invite guests to the door, but as a well-known person, it is not good to expel the weak under the eaves.

But she also has her considerations Yaochi event, not necessarily just guests coming from here, but there may be someone coming here.

When you see this situation, you can't help but be suspicious.

Yaochi disciples went out wearing veil and men, not close, but for the reputation of women. If you don't want to be sent out by people, you should do it yourself.

Young male monks appear on the edge of this Yaochi. Who knows what others think?

It's not the same as the Yaochi event. It's an open conference, and it's all about identity.

So she still has to refuse!

In fact, Shen Lang will propose this way. On the one hand, it really needs healing. On the other hand, I want to see if I have the opportunity to participate in the Yaochi event.

With the status of Qiu Lin Jianzong today, it should also be eligible to be invited by Yao Chi.

At that time, whether it is the cold autumn, or Mo Feiliu, I am embarrassed to see him when he is here, maybe he will be brought.

“inconvenient.”

Shen Lang took the initiative to ask not to go to Yaochi as a guest, so that the old man's tone was a little better, but after a little hesitation, he still refused.

The dog  is a bit uncomfortable!

Directly issued a low-pitched, imposing momentum, fully demonstrating its strength!

It used to eat cockroaches in the light god, it is a place where the fire has no place to vent. I didn't have to stay here, or go to Yaochi, but I felt different when I left and was expelled.

Just like the behemoths on the earth in the same day, give the face of Shen Lang, it can take everyone away. But the elders of Tula want to suppress, it is not polite.

The old man felt the momentum of this beast and changed his face.

I still want to come hard!

Don't know who is this place?

Chapter 1659 - Dog  1 anger

"As far as you are, you still want to turn over in Yaochi?"

The old man sneered a sneer, and the same momentum soared, and the dog  was in opposition.

Shen Lang can't see her, but it is estimated that it should be less than a dog god. After all, the dog  is a super beast with a great realm.

However, just as Guangming God can get a bonus in the temple, this old man is definitely here in Yaochi.

Besides, there is a lot of movement here, and there will be more Yaochi strongmen coming out soon!

Judging from the situation of the former Yunyun Fairy, Yaochi is similar to other sects. But look at Fan Xueyu and this old man, you can find that their foundation is far stronger than other sects!

If you don't say anything else, the masters of both of them, the head of Yao Chi, will definitely be the realm of the great gods.

If you want to stick with someone, you can't get any benefit.

The most important thing is that there is no grudge with Yaochi. I can't be offended because I am not upset. This is not a problem that is not afraid of fear, but it is not guilty.

However, under the old-fashioned tit-for-tat, the dog  suddenly swelled, and recovered the body, giving a roar of challenges!

Its body has grown rapidly and has expanded directly into the face of the old man.

She was not too tall to hang, but at the moment she quickly retired, but it also became overlooked by the dog god.

Fan Xueyu is in a hurry!

She did not pay attention to the dog  at first, but in the back of the paradise, she saw the strength of the dog god, and most of the apostles who were degraded were swallowed by it.

It is not that she has no confidence in her sister, but that her sister does not know this information at all. If she is swallowed by this beast because she is a light enemy, then it will be a big problem!

“Shen Emperor! Sister! Calm!”

However, the dog gods at this time are already like hills, and the sisters are also staring at each other, and there is no meaning of retreat. Both sides have a red-eyed taste.

She was still beside Shen Lang, and quickly reached out and took a shot of the waves, let him hurry out.

If Shen Lang can restrain the dog god, she can discourage her sister, then it will not be able to fight.

But she forgot that Shen Lang was seriously injured...

Fortunately, the Holy Grail is in a defensive state, and directly unloaded the force that she took over. Otherwise, even if it is not used, it will make Shen Lang feel uncomfortable for a while.

Where does Shen Lang need her to remind her?

He didn't speak because he knew that he was too late to talk and had already communicated with the dog god.

He is actually understanding the dog god's unhappiness. The gods and monsters who have always been high above are not able to fight back because of friction. It is not only a physical injury, but also a humiliation of dignity.

There is no way for a strong person who cannot fight. But if it is not as provocative as it is, it will not hold back.

And it has no concept for Yaochi, and will not consider the consequences. Just do it!

So at this moment, the waves are already communicating with it when Vatican is open, letting it calm down, saying that they can leave without staying here.

It's just that the dog * has already provoked anger, and when it comes to restoring the body, it is even more involved in the pain of the whole body, letting it want to vent the depressing fire!

It is now necessary to let it calm the anger, only the escape of the other target disappears, or bow down and admit it.

And this is what Shen Lang can't do, but Van Gogh can't persuade it.

Switching to a general monk and seeing the huge body of the Emperor’s behemoth will be intense and cautious. But this old man will not, because they have a Yaochi!

Compared with the sacred beast, this is nothing at all, so she can still sarcasm.

Her ambiguity, I do not know because of the strength of her own strength, or because of the relationship between the dog  was seriously injured.

This statement is very irritating to the dog god, and its tongue is immediately rolled out!

Although the dog  is not hurt, all aspects of the body have been affected, but it also depends on the enemy.

Just like Shen Lang is almost in a state of sudden death, but I really want to be able to move him, or at least half of the peak. If it is a sacred god, or a lower monk, he can still live.

The dog  is now in the state of the old man.

Its tongue was rolled out, and it was wrapped in a red cloth, and it was filled with strong suction, like a whirlpool, directly rolled to the old man.

Once you get in, don’t wait for your tongue to wrap directly around her, you have to be sucked into the mouth!

The old man is able to provoke, but also maintains a high degree of alertness. She is also sure to dodge the attack on the dog god.

She felt that on her own site, let the beast attack and then knock it down.

But what I didn’t expect was that it looked like a tongue attack, but it contained a powerful force that completely blocked the space around her.

When she wants to dodge, she feels imprisoned and the speed is pinned.

And she also began to be a little anxious, if not able to dodge in time, was sucked into the mouth, that is, the ship was overturned in the gutter.

Even if you can escape again, entering the mouth of this behemoth is also a disgusting thing.

“The Emperor! Let’s be under the mouth!”

Shen Lang was anxious and shouted out.

“Sister!”

Under the urgency of Fan Xueyu, the flying body flew straight into the past!

She didn’t want to be hard with the dog god I just thought that I could save my sister in the past.

This is the speed of the fight, can be the first to roll over the tongue, the master and sister will be left.

This is an instinctive reaction, but in fact, not only speed can do it!

Because the dog * can attack success, it is not the strength of the tongue, but the surrounding is blocked, and the tongue is only to help the person to enter the entrance.

The result of her rushing past will only be the two entrances together!

Shen Lang sighed, and he couldn’t resist himself at the moment. If he couldn’t persuade him from words and senses, he couldn’t stop the dog god.

The result is that he has to watch them being swallowed by the dog!

And in the time when they were sucked into the mouth and swallowed, he must immediately think of a reason to convince the dog god.

“The Emperor, just fine them and punish them. Don’t really eat them. This is not a real enemy!”

Just as Shen Lang’s consciousness communicated with the dog god, the air suddenly changed!

The result of no one thought of it, the body of the Emperor’s behemoth, like a mountain, turned out to be a major impact, and was directly hit and fell to the side!

Its tongue has not been rolled up to the old man and the banyan, and has fallen to the side with the body.

This surprised Shen Lang!

What other strong people are lurking around?

The ability to knock down the dog god, the power that is needed is very huge, that is, the strong people who are surrounded by Yaochi are lurking, and their strength is not trivial.

At this time, I saw the situation clearly, and let Shen Lang reveal a stunned look!

Chapter 1660 - 1 petal

The light picture has already surprised Shen Lang, and then he can still make him stunned, showing how shocking things are.

But it is not something that is particularly magical, but a very ordinary object.

petal.

If it wasn’t for him to stare at it, and the super-clear capture of the sacred armor, it would be easy to ignore it.

Of course, the petal is not simple, still in the air, slowly floating.

Just at the crucial moment, the dog * was knocked out, it turned out to be a petal!

If this is said, almost no one will believe it. The dog * himself should not accept it and be knocked down by a petal.

But Shen Lang can still understand, and now the dog * should understand.

Because the attack of the light gods on them was so incredible.

This piece of petals is just a symbol, a symbol that the other party deliberately expresses, in order to contrast the gap.

In fact, the knockdown of the dog * is of course the power of the person who shot this, and the petals themselves cannot withstand such tremendous force.

The air attack itself is already very shocking.

For example, on the day of the cold and autumn, a group of thoughts, the elders of the heads of the Qiu Lin Jianzong, flying directly from the top of the mountain to fly hundreds of miles away.

But a petal to knock down the giant behemoth of the hundred meters, the contrast effect is even more shocking.

After losing control, Fan Xueyu successfully flew past, and then fled to the side with the old man.

They don't need to stare at them, and God's knowledge is also concerned. I know that it is just a petal, knocking down the Emperor's behemoth and saving them.

They are all gratified and delighted, and obviously know who saved them.

At the moment when the dog  fell to the ground, the body quickly shrank and would not wait for the wolverine on the ground to fall.

It is of course also perceived to be knocked down by a petal, which is also a huge blow to it.

But this time it is too late to be frustrated, we must be alert to this powerful enemy who does not know where it is.

There is only one floating petal in the air, and the two are falling from the other side.

There were no continued attacks, no sounds, and so on, as if nothing had happened.

Shen Lang immediately said: "Calm, calm! This is their place. This is also an ancient sect that may have thousands of years and tens of thousands of years of history. With their heritage, we are not guilty of fighting with them."

Just one shot, it has already proved the strength of the other side, he is afraid that the dog  will not be convinced of the battle in the end, and quickly persuaded.

The other party did not have any further attacks and did not say anything. This is an attitude in itself.

Explain that the strong man behind the scenes is just to save the old man and give the dog a little warning, and there is no intention to attack them.

But if the dog  can't challenge the strongman behind the scenes and continue to shoot at the old man, the other party will definitely not be merciless.

Whether it is the master of Fan Xueyu, the head of Yaochi, or the same person, it means that the strength is above the dog god.

The successive blows are also very bad for the dog god. Shen Lang can only persuade it like this.

At this time, the van Gogh, who had just landed, spoke.

“Shen Lang, Emperor, you are calmer! Listen to my sister!”

She shouted first, shouting like this, but also to give the dog a face.

Because Shen Lang is not only seriously injured, but also did not start, only the dog * is not calm.

After she finished speaking, her eyes looked at the old man.

The old man’s face is not good, and his face is quite a bit sultry.

But after a moment of squatting, she still had to speak.

“The head is kind, allowing you to recuperate here. Remember not to harass Yaochi!”

Shen Lang immediately understood that after the two of them were rescued, the master behind the scenes had already explained to both of them.

Listening to this tone, it should be the contemporary head of Yao Chi.

Being able to get a chance to rest here, Shen Lang is already satisfied. Although he can only recuperate, he can do whatever he wants, but mainly to see if he has the opportunity to participate in the Yaochi event.

This is the mythical assembly of the gods!

Fan Xueyu is still looking at her sister, a look of expectations, she should know, but still waiting for the sister.

The old man looked at her in a complicated way, and then slowly added a sentence.

“The head is generous... The visitor is a guest. I decided to invite you to participate in the Yaochi event. I will give you an invitation letter.”

Obviously, she is very unwilling to give this instruction.

It's already unwilling to leave behind the rest of the waves. Just attacking her enemies like that, it is already generous and kind, how can it stay?

Left to let them recover, it is possible to lead the wolf into the room, how can they let them enjoy VIP treatment?

Yaochi event, not everyone is qualified to participate!

She is very unhappy, very unwilling, but there is no way, the order is down, she must execute, must be transferred.

In fact, she hopes that they will leave immediately, so that she does not have to look at them and can cope.

But just the information, Fan Xueyu also knows, just respect her as a sister, let her say.

It's not afraid that Van Gogh will complain, or kick it in the face If she deliberately doesn't say it, let Shen Lang leave, and it's even more shameful to go back and ask her to come back. Where please.

So embarrassed, she also had to say this invitation.

After saying this, she really didn't want to stay at the scene, and she directly dropped a word on Fan Xueyu.

“Little sister, you will handle it!”

After she finished, she immediately flew to the waters of Yaochi.

“Sister is slow!”

Fan Xueyu greeted him in the back, but he was relieved.

Things have been solved very well, and the sister has left again. She is truly without pressure.

Just a little while, things have changed repeatedly, so that she is a little pressure, but fortunately this result is okay.

Watching the old man disappear into the water, she immediately came to the side of Shen Lang and the dog god.

“The Emperor, I am sorry, the sister is also limited to the rules of the division, and did not deliberately target you.”

Fan Xueyu also realized that the dog god’s mood was wrong, did not dare to irritate it, explained it first.

The dog  is a bit frustrated at this moment.

After being hit by that powerful presence, it was not injured, but the other party was coming over a petal from a distance!

The power came through the space and sent a piece of petals. This is Liwei.

And it also proves that it is not hurting it, it is the mercy of the people.

I was afraid that the attack would continue, and now I feel depressed when I cool down. I don’t care much about Van Gogh’s words.

Shen Lang feared that he would have to wait for his enthusiasm to leave, and he took the trouble and transferred the topic: “It’s all misunderstandings. Right, what do you say about the Yaochi event? Listen to the high-profile.”
