

First Strong 1661

Chapter 1661 - Secret of the event

Fan Xueyu had a tacit understanding and understood the meaning of Shen Lang, and immediately moved along the topic.

It's a bit embarrassing to let her apologize to the dog god. After all, she didn't do anything wrong, and the sister did not do anything wrong. Instead, the dog * just wanted to eat her sister.

“This is the case, we have always had a tradition in Yaochi...”

According to a brief introduction by Fan Xueyu, Shen Lang learned about a rough idea.

In the ancient times, Yaochi was once very high-profile, showing the leader's martial art.

I don't know which generation of the heads started, I held a Yaochi event, and invited the world to go to the banquet.

Because at that time, the status of Yaochi, coupled with the high-end positioning, so the scope of the invitation is not large, can be invited, more or less feels a kind of glory.

And those who are not invited are inevitably sputum, pantothenic acid and the like. But human beings have such a mentality. The more they can't get it, the more they feel extraordinary, and they can't help but ask about the Yaochi event.

The result is a martial art that can be invited to, and this is naturally regarded as a historical publicity record, but the content is secret.

If you don't invite it, let future generations work hard, develop the martial art, and put the reputation on it, so that you can be invited the next time.

This result was not thought of by Yao Chi. It was only a grand event. Under the high expectations of all parties, there will be a second session.

The second session expanded a little scope, and added some martial art, but not many, but also able to serve the public.

Of course, the invitations that continue to be invited, as well as the new invitations, continue to be promoted. Without entering, I also saw hope.

As a result, this Yaochi event will be held for one session.

However, it does not stipulate specific years, but the will of the contemporary head. Or there are other big names that are suggested to be promoted.

In general, Yaochi was the original sponsor. This event has been called “Yaochi Grand Meeting” and was held in Yaochi. It has become a tradition, usually once in a few decades.

The so-called thirty years of Hedong’s thirty years of Hexi, not to mention thousands of years, is a long history of hundreds of years, there will be many major changes. For example, a group of monks who gathered from the earth hundreds of years ago, by desperate efforts, have hit the original pattern within a certain range.

Just like the ones that Shen Lang had seen at the foot of the Zhoushan Mountain and the four sons of Hongdian, they just challenged others to gain fame and enhance their strength.

Fighting all the way, making a name forever, naturally wins. Those who lost, they did not fall in every corner.

With the rise of a powerful martial art, there will naturally be a decline in the sect.

The rise of the martial art, to a certain extent, if you do not get the invitation of Yao Chi, the event of that session may not be able to convince the public, and the quota cannot be expanded indefinitely.

So in addition to the gradual improvement of the standard, there are also some dying sects that have been abandoned.

As a promoter, Yao Chi also needs to consider the feelings of everyone, otherwise it is impossible to maintain the specifications of this event.

In the long history, Yaochi has not stood tall at the top.

In the era when Yaochi was relatively declining, some people moved to transfer the event to the most powerful martial art at that time. It may be some flattering voices, but it does represent the wind.

Any society, any rivers and lakes, is so realistic.

After the wind came out, everyone's mind was instigated.

Some of the sects that were strong at the time naturally hoped to be able to rotate their martial art, which was a feat of history! It is also the style of the Eight Dynasties to the DPRK. It is a kind of god-like recognition of the status of the rivers and lakes.

But if there is any decline, or if it is not strong enough to qualify for the place, there will be more thinking.

The reason why the Yaochi event can be held in one session, in addition to the objective reasons of the various factions in history, one of the most important reasons is that Yaochi is a female repair!

In general, women's training is not so ambitious. Yaochi is also in a remote place, when it is the most powerful, and there is no hegemony.

To put it bluntly, it is the generation of women who are light and windy, and will not threaten everyone. Everyone is happy to send a nickname like a fairy.

Other sects are not necessarily available.

In particular, some newly emerging sects often break some unwritten rules.

And if it is transferred to a new and powerful martial art, the old martial art of all parties will not be able to wipe out the face.

Therefore, whether it is for checks and balances, or for consideration of face and other aspects, most of the sects still support Yaochi.

Of course, these are not to be said. The reason for publicity is to say “Yaochi Grand Meeting”. This is a grand event with historical significance and connotation. If you change places casually, you lose this meaning.

Because of this relationship, the Yaochi event has been hosted by Yaochi.

However, in the long history, there will always be some sects who are not willing. This is a period of several decades, and there are no specific years, plus high specifications, inevitably some martial art engaged in similar events.

For example, the Tangying Association of Tangcheng is also a kind. Only they are engaged in large-scale, for the lower level, it is a kind of circulation, but also the selection of talented seedlings.

In short, the Yaochi event has been circulated until and some time ago, the head of Yaochi contemporary, launched the invitation of the latest Yaochi event.

Still inviting all the powerful martial art to come to Yaochi as a guest.

Shen Lang returned this time, just by the way to the Tiandu City, and then left the road. If you stay in the city, or meet with Ji Qiandao, you will hear this news.

It is still very exciting for Fan Xueyu to talk about this event. After all, this is the glory of their teachers, and at her age, they have not participated in the last time. The next time is even more decades later, naturally very excited to witness this session.

It's just that she is limited in age, limited in understanding, or related to confidentiality. For specific situations, I have not elaborated on it. There are some historical allusions, and Shen Lang also evokes the memory of some of the mainland's strongest people who have been absorbed before.

But why is the Yaochi event held at this time?

Not a few years ago, not a few years later, but in the recent days... Shen Lang certainly does not feel that this is specifically for him.

It is probably because of the impact of the ruins of the week!

The exact time of the relics is also uncertain. It is probably opened once in the millennium. Naturally, all parties attach great importance to it. Since we have encountered this year, it is necessary to have another high-profile event after giving the time to explore.

In the view of Shen Lang, such a grand event will definitely not be just a drink and a feast, nor will it be just a reflection of the status of the rivers and lakes.

Talking about the way of cultivation, to this level, it is unlikely to share with others.

Therefore, the biggest possibility is the circulation of high-level intelligence information, and perhaps the circulation of some comprehension resources!

Chapter 1662 - Healing

Before Shen Lang had some people who absorbed memory, the realm and status were not enough. For the Yaochi event, only the legends have been heard. Now, it can be evoked some related memories. The specific situation is unknown.

However, he feels that the guess should be inseparable, the circulation of information and resources, and the high specification, is very worthy of participation!

Now let Shen Lang's interest in the Yaochi event be even greater.

It's just that the dog * doesn't have much interest!

It is not the same as human life. The history of mankind for thousands of years is not a strange thing for it.

Some related information, it can not be read, but even if you know, it is not of interest.

Looking at its interest, Fan Xueyu also puts attention on Shen Lang.

“I have to go back and send the invitation letter as soon as possible. Don’t run.”

Fan Xueyu is a good heart, she does not feel the identity of Shen Lang, can reach the level of participation in the Yaochi event. I am happy to see and promote, just want to give them a chance to shelter in Yaochi.

Even if the light  is more powerful, the Yaochi event will gather the highest level of the head of the world, and no one dares to offend.

It was just the verbal embarrassment of the head. It may be a whim of a moment, and the sister-in-law went back first. What if there were other influences?

In order to avoid night long dreams, she must rush back as soon as possible, as far as possible to help speak good things.

I have just talked as long as possible to tell the story of the history of the Yaochi event, but also hope to retain the waves.

After all, the attitude of the dog  is already very obvious, and its strength is strong. The age of Shen Lang may not be able to stand the help of the people under the fence. She must first attract him.

Now that he has listened to it, he is also interested, and there is no more nonsense.

After Van Gogh’s departure, the scene left Shen Lang and the dog god.

They directly communicate with each other and do not need to speak any more.

“The Emperor, let’s stay and see. This should be a high-profile event for human beings. It will be a lot of strong people who don’t show up. We didn’t see any strong people last time. more opportunities.”

“...” The dog  was silent: “I have already seen it.”

Shen Lang is a little sweaty, knowing that it refers to the  of light.

The last time I came to this world, it was transmitted to the other side of the world, and there were Tiandu, Tangcheng and other places. The strongest one was the peak of Daxian, which might make it look down on the human comprehension.

So before the decisive kill to Guangmingshan.

But today is to see that human beings are also powerful.

Even if the * of light may have resorted to the rich history of the gods, and has the support of the temple, its own strength will never be under it.

Just now, just a petal that doesn't know where it came from, it flew it out, and it once again witnessed the power of the human powerhouse.

Now the dog god, but frustrated and decadent, participate in the human strong event, it will be even more difficult!

“Still stay here, it should be safe. My condition is really bad and needs good treatment.”

Shen Lang smiled, he was not a lie.

Before his state was as dying, he finally started an artifact crossing. The consumption of mental power is not small. If it is to go to another world, the consumption is even greater.

So first arrived here, he had planned to leave, but also used the flight of the Holy Grail to leave, and then find a place to recuperate.

Simply put, this may not be able to complete the journey to the earth, or the world of giant beasts.

The dog * nodded in understanding.

The situation of Shen Lang, it is also very clear, everyone is not easy, is barely supported to the present.

“You can heal yourself, I will help you guard!”

Between the dog gods, a defensive circle has been quickly deployed to protect both of them.

Its own physical condition is also very bad, and it needs treatment, but it is better than Shen Lang.

Shen Lang did not have any politeness with it, and then took out a few veins directly.

In addition to his own use, it is also given to the dog god.

Lingmai is undoubtedly a very high-level resource. Even if it is at the level of Daxian, it may not be able to grab one.

Shen Lang is now the body of this appearance, of course, will not deplore resources. And he and the dog  are also on board, everyone is good, it is really good.

Getting along with him now, he and the dog  also have trust, not afraid that the dog  will covet to grab his resources.

The dog  is also aware of the goods, but it is not polite with Shen Lang, and it begins to absorb the energy of the spiritual pulse.

The skinny dead camel is bigger than the horse, there is a dog god, and the Shen Lang is still very reassuring.

And this is on the edge of Yaochi, and that the head can be seen from afar, unless Yaochi wants to move them, otherwise the security is still relatively high.

Shen Lang is also now, only have time to check his injuries.

This made him secretly smile.

The situation is even worse than you think!

The suppression of the Light God made him not only a mental confrontation, but also a heavy pressure on his body.

Then, because of the gradual pressurization of the layers, he was supported for a longer period of time, but it was also more overdraft.

Now I feel carefully that all aspects of the whole body have been extremely seriously injured, and I have not lost it. I can still persist until now, and I am fully benefited from his unusual body.

From the very beginning, Shen Lang has specially cultivated the physical body of the body such as “King Kong is not bad body power”, these are gradually strengthening in the process of gradual strengthening.

Later, it absorbed the excellent genes of giant rhinoceros beasts, iron armored red dragons, swallowing scorpions and other beasts, and accepted a certain degree of transformation of their bodies.

In the back, “Yin Yang Bo Ruozhen” combined with “Heaven and Earth Domineering”, also cultivated the body.

It is precisely because of this that he can kill the same level and can challenge the higher level.

This time is also true, Guangming God probably wants to see where his limit is, afraid to kill him, only a step, a step to increase pressure.

The two sides rushed to the end, and the light gods felt that they had not yet reached the limit, and there were still several steps to continue to press.

However, Shen Lang has already passed the limit. If he does not find a chance to break through, he can't bear it.

In addition to the body, the spirit is the same as consuming him.

Later, with the face of Guangming God, even if there is no pressure, psychologically and imposingly, it is under pressure.

At the entrance of the temple, he summoned Lei Yuan to come out, and then used the magic weapon of the artifact to send and leave with everyone.

It's here, there's no stop, and the old man came over...

Now that I have stopped, I really feel the unstoppable collapse.

Fortunately, he has excellent resources!

The incomparable spirit can now be absorbed, just like a dry riverbed, ushered in the irrigation of the reservoir, and it is absorbed very quickly.

However, Shen Lang's "Yin and Yang Bozhenzhenzheng" has not stopped. At this moment, there is replenishment. First, the resources are mobilized to repair the injured body.

Chapter 1663 - Eat 1 mountain under one mouth

The condition of the body is extremely miserable, but as long as there is a replenishment, it can be repaired slowly. After all, this is the body of the Great Xianfeng.

But the consumption of mental power is not so easy.

The current situation of Shen Lang is like being drained.

If you change to any one, you will go straight down and it will take a long time to recover slowly.

Now, of course, he needs to be as fast as possible. Otherwise, it will be a waste of people. If you participate in the Yaochi event, anyone will despise it.

In order to be self-protected and to be seen by others, he must recover as soon as possible.

This is not a face issue, but a very practical issue of interest.

Why does the Yaochi event have to strictly control the scope, that is, to ensure its specifications. Just like the G8 summit and the G20 summit on the planet, if the 100-nation and 200-nation summits are held, it is the UN General Assembly.

You are a poor and small country in the third world. Can you be respected by the invitation to attend the G8 summit?

Here too, you are a waste, who can respect you? What other famous big factions, what is the exchange of information and resources with the waste of a nameless soldier?

In order to get the resources and respect of others, Shen Lang must let his strength recover.

Even if his current peak state is not too much in the event, at least he will get enough attention because of his age.

To this end, in addition to absorbing the spiritual aura to repair the body, Shen Lang must face the mental energy that is now exhausted.

In terms of mental strength, he has no spiritual things, and can directly absorb supplies.

Fortunately, he has been very productive recently, and he still has the advantage.

The harvest of Shen Lang has three aspects. On the one hand, it is the power of faith from the earth. Now the strength of the billion-level beliefs, even if it will not last for a long time, but the heat is still there, or it is continuously transmitted. .

At the peak of his time, it felt a bit over-supplied, but now it is raining in time, and it is hoped that it will be stronger and more.

On the other hand, it is the power of faith from the watershed city-state.

There should be a benefit from the continued operation of Bihaihuan and the Bihai family, so that he can also receive the power of faith.

There is mainly a population that is bigger than the earth, with a large base, and when defeating the demon outside the universe, there is a full-scale battle image.

And on the earth is an opportunity, there is the creation of the blue sea family. This is still Bihaihuan did not start to make God, or that it has not been effective, otherwise it is even more incredible gains.

The third aspect is the absorption of the spiritual power of Joseph and others, including the apostles and others.

That is not enough to completely absorb refining, it is absorbed and slowly refining.

Now these have become the resources of reserves, and they can be refining them, because the consumption of spiritual energy, refining and absorption will be much faster.

It is a pity that those gods cannot be used directly.

Shen Lang can be sure that these gods should be related to the power of faith, but I don't know how to manipulate the evolution. It is already an attack energy, and can not directly compensate for the mental power.

Otherwise, the supplement of pure faith is undoubtedly the fastest and the best.

Shen Lang is also a little emotional, he can now experience the practice of the evil people.

For example, when she encountered a bleak moment, she also went to the time of consuming the gods. If she did not make up, she would have to disappear, so she took the way of living.

In his current situation, if there is a heinous enemy here, he will also bluntly give up the other's cultivation and spiritual strength.

Of course, his current situation is also inconsistent with the enemy. Self-protection is a problem, only to think about it.

However, this idea is to inspire Shen Lang.

He remembered the Tower of Heaven!

Inside the Ba Tian Tower, I have already ingested a lot of things, and I have been refining it, and I have not paid much attention to it.

Just like when I was not going to Zhoushan, the savage swordfish in the glaciers was also extraordinary. Although it was not big, it was a lot. It adds up to millions of dollars.

The kings and monsters that were killed behind were not able to deal with their bodies, and they were thrown directly into the Ba Tian Tower.

It is equal to the Ba Tian Tower has been refining a Dan, and constantly feeding in.

The more materials you add, the stronger the energy and the longer the time, the more powerful the refining effect will be.

Shen Lang is no more than before. In the reserve warehouse of the “Xian Gong” in Zhoushan, he has obtained great resources. The spirit is not lacking, and it is not used. He has been allowed to refine it.

If the normal state goes on, he will prepare for the impact of the great realm in the future. The Great Immortal Peak is completed with the help of the dog god.

Recently absorbed so much energy, his body has begun to approach the limits of the Great Immortal Peak, which is also used.

But the situation is so bad now, of course, you must first go back and say it. Break through the realm of the gods and so on.

The Ba Tian Tower Shen Lang is placed in the space of the heavenly book. This aspect is safer. Even if it is caught, it will not be able to take it away.

On the other hand, a hundred times of time allows it to be more time-consuming and complete refining.

At this moment, I took out the Ba Tian Tower and inspected it and found that it was a white, almost transparent bead!

The Dan before the refining was black, because it was caught by the enemy and put it into the refining. Shenlang was also called “human Dan”. This tells you that you can’t use it often.

Now, how many “things” have been put in, Shen Lang can not remember.

But at least two are clear. In terms of quantity, millions of glacial cannibal fish are the most. In terms of volume, it is the body of a giant beast.

All of this should add up to the size of a mountain, but the * has not been completely refining, all kinds of dross have disappeared, after numerous refining and refining, and after numerous times of concentration, Become such a remedy.

Looking at this white translucent remedy, Shen Lang was a little hesitant.

Will the effect be too overbearing?

In his mind, he could not help but emerge the giant beasts and ice fish that piled up into mountains...

Eat a mountain in one bite...

Of course, hesitation does not mean that the feeling of “snapping a mountain” is not good, but that the current body cannot withstand it.

The more energy and the higher the concentration, the more amazing the effect.

When he was originally prepared to use it in the realm of impact, it would of course be very well prepared. When the state is at its best, it will naturally be able to withstand the impact and complete the blow.

But now it is a heavy body. If the effect is too strong, I haven't waited for it. If I don't do it, I will hang it myself.

The internal troubles, even if the dog  wants to help, is not so easy.

Chapter 1664 - Recovery and variables

After hesitating for a while, Shen Lang made a decisive decision!

eat!

This thing is such a thing, it is made of a huge amount of materials, and these are basically difficult to copy, and it is not easy to refine such a thing.

Even if the dog  will not be jealous, will you know the people in Yaochi?

The head of Yaochi was able to throw a petal in time, which shows that every move here is well known.

Maybe you are watching them now, if you are greedy, don't you give it?

Ants are also good for food, and they are worthy of their own.

For the value is huge, and there are not many things that you own, Shen Lang is certainly not free.

And there may be other sects coming over in advance, and when they move here, Yaochi is not good at saying anything.

Now that you have taken it out, take it first!

According to the previous situation, the absorption of the medicinal herbs of the Batian Tower will be very fast. But after all, he is the master himself. If he does not take the initiative to refine, purely natural absorption, the speed will be much slower.

Therefore, Shen Lang still swallowed it!

As a result, he is very busy now. The body and the spirit are both absorbed and treated.

The three aspects of mental absorption, the physical body is absorbing the external spirit, and the internal absorption of this medicinal drug, but also to continue to treat the body's injuries.

After swallowing the remedy, Shen Lang passed a thought to the dog god, saying that he would leave if he left first. If Fan Xueyu came, he must leave an invitation letter. Some relevant information.

He did not elaborate on where he went, and then disappeared directly. The dog  understands whether he has left or left, and he does not explain it.

The real purpose, of course, is to hide in the space of heaven.

In order to obtain information resources and other circulation, it must be recognized by the general public. If you want to be recognized, you must at least return to the peak state.

If he is healed here, even if he is given ten days and eight days, he will not be able to recover.

It doesn't make sense to race against time.

Time only fights in the space of Tianshu, and it takes a day to retreat, which can achieve a hundred-day effect.

According to Fan Xueyu, the Yaochi event will be in a few days, as long as there is an invitation letter and know how to get there, then he will come out in time.

In a few days, in the space of the sky, it is hundreds of days. It takes a year to heal the wounds, which is basically safe.

There is really no doubt about the dog god, and compared to him, the healing of the dog  is much simpler.

Its mental strength has not suffered so much damage, but if it is the flesh, it will be suspended by the timely rescue of Shen Lang.

And it is a great monster, the body is very strong, and the self-healing ability is even stronger.

In terms of energy supply, it is also indispensable, because the dragon elephant beast that was swallowed before is still in the process of digestion. This time it is a group of apostles, which can give it a huge supply.

It will not be so easy to let it evolve again, but if it is healing, these apostles are the peaks of the peak of Daxian, which adds up to nothing.

Shen Lang is full of God's alert, multi-tasking to maintain each balance, can not let the spirit and body have a deviation, can not let the injury appear can not bear the impact.

The dog  is like a sleepy squat, no need to move, rest can achieve the purpose of recuperation.

This is also the reason why it can help against the waves, it is really not too much to worry about.

If Shen Lang can bring it into the space of heaven, it can complete the healing process as long as it is lying down to sleep.

Shen Lang is unwilling to take care of it. Even if he knows, he is not envious. It is the advantage of racial talent.

And Tianshu space, he still does not want to share a dog god, the outsider is only the former Yunqiu beast god, it is also a state of stunned, when the cargo compartment brought it.

Dog god...

The river has proved that people can't stand the test, let alone the beast.

Still don't tempted, keep secrets with each other, and maintain a friendly situation.

Just because he had a lot of secrets, there are many incredible situations, like Lei Yuan, etc., which have not been explained with the dog god.

So now that it disappears, there is no need to explain it. It will not be questionable.

Time passed by.

Fan Xueyu did not come back!

The dog * did not care about this Yaochi event. It was knocked down by the petals of other people's masters. It had already lost a face, and then went to participate in any event, and it was even more embarrassing.

If you can get back to the game, then you can't see each other; obviously there is no chance to get back to the game, it is self-deprecating.

If it is not intentional, and it takes time to heal, it will even propose to leave first.

But now Shen Lang and it are healing here, saying that after going back, I will send the invitation letter to Fan Xueyu, but I will not come back.

This makes the dog * a little concerned.

Let them wait here, but you are not coming, what do you mean?

Isn't this a play for them?

However, its level of intelligence is not low, but it does not understand the various psychological and thinking ways of human beings.

With the help of Van Gogh, and the attitude here, it is also in the eye. People are interested, the old woman is not wanting them here. It seems that after the return of Van Gogh, there is no invitation to come soon, it should be a change.

This change is naturally the opposite direction of her opinion. She did not get an invitation letter and no longer looked at them. She continued to fight for it.

However, there is no one in Yaochi to expel them, indicating that the situation has reached a tacit agreement.

Inviting Shen Lang and it to participate in the Yaochi event, was stopped, or the head changed his mind, but allowed them to heal in the outer part of Yaochi.

The dog  is still a bit of a beast, please go, it may not be willing to go. But please, and change your mind and let it go, let it feel bad.

However, it did not reveal anything. Now its injury is not good, and its strength has not recovered to its peak. The situation of Shen Lang is even worse, and it is the first to heal.

Before Shen Lang didn't "return", it was only a one-hearted healing, and the waves were no longer needed, and the guards did not need to be so careful.

The day after tomorrow is over.

The deep waves in the world of the book are immersed in the healing process for a year!

His injury was very serious. It took a long time for half a year to recover, and reached a good state. After half a year, he was able to restore his peak.

The body has been repaired and the mental power has recovered. Although the spirit of this is used, but the medicinal medicine, but still dare not all refining, or some reservations.

Remembering the affair of the Yaochi event, after Shen Lang completely recovered, he did not stop any more, and quickly came out of the world of Tianshu.

To be honest, he is still a bit worried that the dog  will conflict with Fan Xue...

Chapter 1665 - Dog god

When Shen Lang came out of the world of Tianshu, he thought that the dog  should also recover. Fan Xueyu should have sent the invitation letter, and almost should be able to rush.

After the results came out, what I saw was an empty one!

I can't see the shadow of the dog god, and its protective ring has disappeared.

Shen Lang immediately frowned.

With his knowledge of the dog god, it will not run away without saying hello.

If he has been healing here, it will definitely not leave. Even if he left, he said he would come back, and the dog  will definitely still be here.

Now it's not here, there is only one possibility, there is an unexpected situation!

Unexpected circumstances, does not mean that the dog  is an accident.

After all, the dog  is comparable to the strength of the realm of the gods, even if it is injured, the big fairy peak can not make it, just like it can almost eat the old man.

And only need to give it time, the recovery speed is still very fast.

As long as it is restored to 10%, the power will be much greater.

What would it be?

Shen Lang has already recovered its peak at this moment, and the gods quickly scanned the surroundings.

I don't know how long it has left, there are no traces around. The initial review did not show any signs of fighting.

This makes Shen Lang settle a lot.

Without fighting, the dog * left again, and it was probably the invitation of Van Gogh.

Only a few people invited, and promised to pick him up, the dog * can leave.

However, there are no other clues left here, and no one is waiting here. Why is this again?

It is said that the dog * did not take care of Fan Xueyu before, and almost ate her sister, Fan Xueyi should be more willing to communicate with him, will not ask the dog * to leave alone.

Even if the dog * believes in her, he should wait for him. After all, he is interested in Yaochi.

These mysteries make Shen Lang difficult to sort out.

For Yao Chi, he did not understand, I don't know how to enter it, and I don't know how to contact Fan Xueyu.

Shen Lang is a little missed by the modern earth, or the city of the river basin, you can immediately contact people by making a phone call.

But can't find Van Gogh, he can still find the dog god!

Because he had swallowed the beast before, he could use the way of the behemoth to sense and contact the Emperor.

The range of the beast's induction can be enormous, and the range between the beasts can be larger.

Of course, the Emperor's behemoth is superb, it is more easy to sense other behemoths.

I have not been able to sense other behemoths in the world of behemoths, because the gods and monsters have bound everyone.

Shen Lang did not figure out that it was always difficult to fully settle, so he immediately entered the state of the behemoth.

When he was inspired by the thinking of the behemoth, he soon felt it with the Emperor.

After all, this is not a world of behemoths. In addition to his non-real behemoth, there is only one supernatural beast, without any interference, and the goal is clear.

And if everyone's distance is close, it can be sensed clearly.

It is only a surprise that Shen Lang can sense the Emperor's behemoth, but he can't communicate with it.

Originally, the behemoths can be communicated in this way, even if they are separated by thousands of miles, the former behemoths are the other beasts.

But he now senses the Emperor, but can't communicate directly.

Shen Lang first thought that he was not familiar with their communication methods, but he was already operating with the beast god's thinking, and also according to the law.

They used to be able to communicate on Earth. He also experienced it at the time. There is no question of changing the environment.

In combination, there may be two, one is that the Emperor's behemoth "closes" the communication; the other possibility is that it is in a state of lethargy.

The former possibility is relatively small, there will be no behemoths to contact it, and there is no need to pay attention to these, and will not deliberately "close".

The latter case is also impossible. Not sleeping, but may be healing.

Just looking at it, it's not right. If it followed Van Gogh, and went to Yaochi, it was a place in a strange place where it once wanted to eat the other disciple. It is unlikely to be reassured.

These analyses and conjectures are all done in a flash.

Shen Lang immediately made a decision!

Since you can't determine the safety of the dog god, look for the past first, whether it is invited to Yaochi, whether it will take the liberty.

He must first determine the safety of his friends, and secondly consider the issues of courtesy.

With this idea, Shen Lang did not continue to communicate with it, but directly locked in the place where it is located, and people also rushed in that direction!

As soon as I got on the road, Shen Lang immediately found that it was a bit wrong.

Before the Fan Xueyu and the old man, whether it appeared or left, the direction was Yaochi waters.

That shows that their Yaochi school is also in this mysterious sea called Yaochi.

Whether it is the island, the underwater world, or any other form, it must be related to this water area. The giant python is also their guardian beast But now he moves in the sensed direction, it is not Going in the direction of the waters, but going in another direction.

After discovering the wrong, Shen Lang immediately speeded up and was more accurate in locking the seat of the dog god.

In the previous analysis, Shen Lang basically followed the general direction of Yao Chi, or was kind.

And that head is so powerful, if you want to be bad for the dog god, direct attack is good, there is no need to play tricks.

Now I found that the direction is different, and I also think of another possibility.

It's all the giants who come to participate in the Yaochi event. Or the head, or the ancestors, they have a strong strength.

The average beast, even the king's level of beasts, can't attract their attention.

But the beast  is not the same, especially the super beast  like the dog god, for them, it will still be a huge resource!

Imagine if one or a few big sisters came to Yaochi to go to the meeting and found that there was a super-beasted  who was not hurt, and it was not raised by Yaochi. Can you not think about it?

The dog  is disdain to communicate with others. If someone is disrespectful, it will worry directly.

Although it has been frustrated one after another, it is even more raging, and it is more likely to erupt!

The retreat of Shenlang Tianshu Space was a few days away, but it was not clear when the dog  encountered the change.

If it is just left, it is not too late. If it is longer, it may be more troublesome.

Now I can't communicate with the dog god. If the situation is good, it may be suppressed and stunned. If the situation is bad, it may be hit again. It is already dying!

Under the urgency, the speed of the Shenlang is fast, and the moment has disappeared into the distance.

Chapter 1666 - Chess player

"Chapter error, click here to report"

The place where Shen Lang rushed to, from where he was before, probably a few dozen miles away, and soon arrived.

After arriving, Shen Lang was carried out in many aspects at the same time. The bird's eye view, the sensory induction, and the positioning of the behemoth induction immediately locked the specific seat.

The dog  is now in a mountain, inside a natural cave.

It is also very clear now, that is, the possibility of his guess, the dog  was not taken away by Van Gogh, but was pushed here by the strong man.

It is now being held in that cave.

Of course, the cave can't stand the emperor's behemoth, and even if it is suppressed inside the mountain, it can burst out.

But now it is lying in the cave without movement.

This cave is set by the strong human beings, not only can't escape, but the outside world can't sense it.

Just like the current Shen Lang, it has already come to the vicinity of the sky, the naked eye can not distinguish the cave. God's sense of induction will also ignore the past, because it does not sense the situation inside the cave.

The reason why he was able to determine is that because of the positioning of the behemoth sensor, combined with the sensory sense of the gods, the specific location was determined, and it was found that it could not be sensed, and it was clear that it was abnormal.

After confirming that the dog * is here, the attention of Shen Lang is placed on other people.

In the vicinity of the cave, there is a flat land, the edge of the flat land, and a large ancient tree that extends out.

Below the old tree, there is a flat boulder with three people on the boulder.

The three people are sitting on the ground, in the middle of the stone, there are criss-crossing checkers!

Two people are playing black and white, and the other is watching chess.

Shen Lang also observed it at a glance. The flat land was not natural. It was probably after they chose this cave and artificially flattened it.

The boulder that the three of them are, of course, is not naturally there, but moved from somewhere else, and then cut flat and smooth.

Only that old tree is true.

This is a chess environment that they temporarily arranged.

The three people are also quite a bit like the sacred bones. The two chess players are all white, with elegant and elegant clothing. They look like gods, or the appearance of a worldly man.

The chess player does not have to be white, but it seems to be seven or eighty years old.

Of course, with their realm and external appearance, they can no longer reflect the true age.

Some like the fairy wind bones, and some like the young and strong, they are just a pair of skins.

Generally speaking, women are more willing to maintain a young face. Men are more willing to maintain the middle-aged appearance of a strong young man. They are majestic and stylish, too young, seemingly frivolous or tender.

And some ages and generations are big enough, and they will like to show people in the image of the old man. That is the respect brought by the years.

“He Jiaju Lang? Has come, why not?”

He is talking to the chess player. He seems to be afraid of disturbing two people who are playing chess, but he whispered slowly.

Then he took the move in the direction of the air and seemed to be inviting him.

The two old players who are playing chess are still on the chess board, not looking up, not distracted.

Not to mention the young lang, that is, a big head comes over, they will not look in the eyes.

The chess player’s beckoning, although seemingly gentle and casual, but the people in the air, but it feels a huge suction, directly involved him from the air.

Obviously, the other party’s gently waving has completely blocked his surroundings and directly arrested him!

They must have come to participate in the Yaochi event. The status is very honorable. It is not when he is an enemy. Even if it is just passing by, stop and watch them. For them, it is already offensive.

This is an empty door, and for Shen Lang, it is naturally an offense!

However, he did not have a hard top, or attack, but he fell directly on the boulders.

Now it is necessary to figure out the situation first, the dog gods are caught by them, he wants to come hard, certainly not an opponent, must be wise.

Knowing ourselves and knowing each other, there is no war.

This most basic strategy, Shen Lang will not forget, for the enemy can not be crushed, must always remain calm.

The sinking of the waves is directly to the opposite side of the chess player. The formation of four people is a square pattern.

This is to make the chess player slightly surprised, and carefully looked at him.

He just shot, it is necessary to “shelter” the sinking waves from the air, it is not a polite “please” down.

In the normal situation, Shen Lang should be thrown under the boulder and keep looking up at them.

Their identity determines that they can overlook the sentient beings. Shen Lang, a young burdock who is not afraid of tigers, will not be able to recognize the number of rituals.

However, when he fell, Shen Lang went directly to him, and he naturally sat down with his knees, as if he was not arrested, but he came to watch the game.

When the chess player is about to ask Shen Lang why he doesn't answer his words, he hears what surprised him!

“The chess strength of the two of you is not very good.”

Although Shen Lang has come to abruptly but they are not associated with the dog god.

Because the dog * was alone there, and it was injured, it is generally not associated with people.

The appearance of Shen Lang, in their view, should be the young disciple of the martial art, followed by the elders, passing through here to find them three, want to come over and know.

Therefore, according to the idea of the chess player, pulling down the sinking waves and throwing it on the ground should also be waiting.

I didn't expect Shen Lang to actually reverse himself and sit down. That's all. After all, he didn't have a hand, it was a negligence.

But now, if you say this, it is more offensive than watching it in the air!

“Kid, what are you from?” Did your parents not teach you politeness?”

The chess player is a bit angry, and the title has been changed from “Youth Lang” to “Kid”.

The two old men who played chess, this kind of temperament is still there, let alone not angry, even watching no waves.

They are all old people, and the young people will say something new and different, just want to attract their attention.

Who are they?

What kind of chess do they have, are they still not counting?

Still more realistic with a young man?

The two of them did not speak, and the one that watched the chess was a slap in the face.

He thinks that they are both busy, he is idle, and this idle thing should be managed by him.

“Politeness is important, but it’s important to be outspoken.”

Shen Lang responded a little, then shook his head and sighed.

“I found out that you are playing chess here. I thought I had any masters. I didn’t expect it to be like this. The enemy is difficult, the master is lonely.”

Between the sighs, Shen Lang will have to stand up.

Chapter 1667 - 1 ringing amazing

Shen Lang is purely a force, and the purpose is to attract their attention.

If you change to the average person, you may not care about him.

But these two old men have already ignored him once, and now they continue to attack them in terms of chess power, saying that “the enemy is difficult, the master is lonely”, it is uncomfortable.

Once again, are you still coming a second time?

For a time, just after playing a chess piece, he turned his head and looked at Shen Lang. His eyes were very sharp.

His scrutiny is with scrutiny. I want to see if Shen Lang is a young man, but it is still true.

The black chess veteran continues to think about the next move.

At this moment, two people are watching the waves.

Even if they did not exert mental pressure, but a long-term high momentum is still very oppressive.

However, Shen Lang is still a cloud.

Because he had encountered a huge suppression of the gods of light before, this is nothing at all.

“Why, want to come to me with a game?”

The words of Shen Lang are obviously provocative.

The chess player immediately sneered: “Come to a game? You also match?”

Shen Lang smiled slightly: “If you say the opposite, they are not worthy. I can’t compare you to other aspects, but if you want to talk about chess, the two of them are not my opponents.”

The emotions such as “master loneliness” can be regarded as bragging, but now that this is said, it is directly demeaning to both of them.

“Little bastard! Do you know who they are? Bigger your dog’s eyes, I am the invincible of the Promise Palace. This is Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi!”

The tone of the chess player is not good. The name for Shen Lang is from “Youth Lang” to “Little Boy” to “Little Hybrid”.

From his tone, it can also be seen that this self-reported Song invincible is younger than Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Zhi, or a lower status.

In his opinion, Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi do not need to report any more.

Shen Lang quickly recalled the memory he had read before.

At the time of Qiulin's Jianzong, Long Yu and Mu Xiyang were directly infested by the dog * to Shen Lang. If they learned their memories, they will learn more about the secret, which is the ancestor of the Daxian peak.

However, the existing memory, the Promise Palace is also known, it is an ancient martial art, has not appeared so often.

Song's invincible name is also there. It's a long time ago, and there has been no movement for him. It should be the level of the former generation of the Promise Palace, the ancestors and so on.

Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Xin are also famous.

At least in the memory of the monks who had been absorbed in the past, they belonged to the predecessors who were at least active a hundred or two years ago.

There are no sects in Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi, but there is no information. Legend has it that they are practicing alone.

Maybe in the early years, there was a teacher's door, or what martial art was attached. I didn't know what the odds were. I couldn't afford to develop to the old teacher's door.

After they became big, whether they started a martial art or whether they recruited disciples, it is not clear, after all, it is very long.

It's just that there are no sects and doormen who have their signature signs in the world.

But they themselves are indeed legendary legends.

From this age, generations, and fame and active time, Shen Lang guessed that they should already be the realm of the gods.

With these three together, it's no wonder that after the shot, there is not much chance for the dog * to struggle.

Although Shen Lang guessed such a result, it really confirmed it, and it also shows that the situation is not optimistic.

Take wisdom.

Another way!

Go!

Shen Lang just spoke with “chess”. In addition to attracting their attention, it really took this as a breakthrough.

When Shen Lang searched for memories, Song invincible silenced him, once again screamed.

“Don’t you hear about it? Then go back and ask your elders to see if they dare not say that they haven’t heard it! They dare not offend Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi!”

“and many more.....”

Shen Lang interrupted his words.

“You are stronger than me. I can say that I can win me. Is it offensive to me? Not counting! This is not because you are old, but your strength is really better than me.”

“But my chess is better than them. This is also the truth. How can we be offended when we tell the truth? False flattery is offensive.”

This debate has already caused Zhimin to stop thinking and turn to look at the waves together.

“You, why do you feel better than us?” Zhisheng was not angry, and asked plainly.

“Take the ability.”

This answer is equal to no return, and everyone is not satisfied with this answer.

Tong Xianwen asked another question: “In this game, you can see who can win. If you can say yes, I believe that you have the ability!”

Shen Lang smiled faintly: “Whoever wins depends on your attitude. If you decide who can win, you have to deliberately lose, it makes no sense.”

“Less nonsense! Don’t shake your spirits, you will judge the win or lose according to the current situation. No one will deliberately.”

If Shen Lang’s words are not convinced by three people, that is tantamount to sophistry.

“Okay, then I said the objective situation don’t say that I am offended...”

Shen Lang sat down and reached out and pointed at the chess game.

“The sunspot will fall here, the white son will fall here, then here, here... within five steps, White will win.”

He said it was easy and simple, but everyone is an expert, and of course it is completely up to date.

In fact, when he just pointed out the first step, Zhisheng was surprised, because that was where he would fall.

After his fall, the whereabouts of Tong Xian Weng Baizi was completely counted.

So step by step, the final is white chess.

Because they will play chess for a long time, each step carefully considers the backhand, and the whole process takes time.

Now Shen Lang clicked out and directly announced their results, and basically followed their thinking.

This time, they really surprised them.

“You have two sons. On chess, I am not as good as a child. If you come over and look at it, you can see a general, not simple. Who is the respected teacher?”

The wisdom of the generous, according to such a law, he will lose.

However, it is also obvious that he lost to Tong Xian Wen not once or twice. When two people play chess, he should lose more and lose more, so he can be so open-minded and natural.

This hand of Shen Langlu has already aroused his interest.

Tong Xian Weng also nodded and wanted to know who Master Shen Lang was.

They don't feel that they are better than Shen Lang, but Shen Lang really sees through the game, which shows that the chess is very strong. He can cultivate such a disciple, and Master is sure to make a difference.

Such a master of Go, who came to participate in the Yaochi event, is definitely an old friend they know.

They are all guessing which one.

Chapter 1668 - Computational power

Shen Lang is not a go genius.

In the last life, he was proficient in many things. He had few entertainment activities hundreds of years ago. Go is a tactical strategy with even philosophical wisdom. He is of course proficient.

However, these old guys are not too young, live for a short time, and the chess is not low.

In the past, Shen Lang studied the exercises of various factions in order to create exercises, and did not have much energy to play Go.

And the realm is getting higher and higher, the friends around you will be less and less, and the chess players are hard to find.

In short, even if his past chess power is not stronger than the two of them!

But why did he just be able to see them at a glance?

To put it bluntly is the power of computing!

On the earth, the development of Go has been stagnant for a long time. Later, with the development of East Asian economy, the professionalization of modern Go, there is a big leap in the theory of Go and the tactics of chess.

In just a few decades, the three countries of East Asia have developed Go to the extreme. Shen Lang's past life was an "old man". He would not blindly respect the old and worship the ancients. He believed that the level of ancient times was far less than the development of modern times.

Later, the Go robot appeared...

The most talented player in mankind, in front of the Go robot, there is no way to pass it.

Because wisdom, logic and other aspects are stronger, experience is needed.

And experience is time-dependent.

Human chess players play to the limit, and training and competition experience are limited. And the Go robot can play chess with you without sleep, and can skip the time of "thinking".

The experience of tens of thousands of millions of disks is unachievable.

In essence, Go is the calculation game.

There are no Go robots in Shen Lang's hands, and there are no such projects in the river basins. However, when the Holy Grail is on Earth, it is already a database of Earth civilization.

When he was in the air, he saw playing chess and decided to use this as a breakthrough.

As a result, the Holy Grail has read the data on Go on Earth. And its super-civilized technology is that the most advanced super-supercomputer on the planet is too late.

Therefore, for a while, the Holy Grail has "learned" to master the knowledge, and has integrated the experience of all the players on the planet, including the Go robot.

When I first spoke, it was more than enough time for the Holy Grail.

Shen Lang seems to be pretending to be forced, but in fact it is the truth.

Let him judge the win or lose, he directly put the results of the sacred armor, one by one for them.

For their problems, Shen Lang shook his head directly.

"Who is my Master? It doesn't matter. Is it better for you than for me to complain to my Master?"

Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi took a look, then laughed at each other.

"Notice? Interesting!"

"It's an interesting little child."

Song invincible has just been surprised, I did not expect Shen Lang actually understand. But he still feels lucky, even if he has been watching it, he can't infer it, because it is ever-changing.

“Kids! You haven't compared with the two, you claim to be better than that. You have a few eyes, it does not mean your real material.”

After Song Invincible said it, Zhisheng decisively invited the war.

“You keep saying that we are not as good as you, then I will come to you for a while! We will come back again.”

He can lose to Tong Xian Weng, but he does not believe that he will lose to a young man.

His age is not white.

Song invincible but said: “Xian Weng, Zhi Wei, killing chicken with a knife? I can easily crush this kid, know a little fur, I don't know the height of the earth, let me teach him lessons!”

In fact, Zhisheng will take the initiative to invite the war. On the one hand, he has just lost. Losing to his old friend is not shameful, but if he can win back from this arrogant kid, he will earn face.

On the other hand, if he has a miss, and the child fairy can be pulled back, it will not let everyone's old face be lost.

But if Tong Xian Weng first shot, once it is lost because of the light enemy, unfamiliar style, it will indirectly hit his confidence.

Now Song's invincible words have achieved the same effect.

Song's invincible chess power is not as good as him. If he can win, he is naturally very good. He does not need to be shot to suppress this kid.

If Song loses invincible, then he can take a lot of experience.

“You? Don’t waste your time?” Shen Lang smiled lightly.

This makes Song invincible very uncomfortable!

This is despising him!

Although he doesn’t feel as good as the two of them, but you are a wild boy who doesn’t know where to come. Why is it so arrogant?

“Less nonsense! Are you only working hard?”

Shen Lang did not dare to fight, let him be more full of fighting spirit.

“Well, in order to save time, don’t come back again. Then the endgame continues, you are white.”

Just after his analysis, it has been clarified that Bai Zi will win within five steps, and Zhisheng is also recognized.

Now let him go on this game, and let him come and win the next few steps, is it silly!

Song invincible is also a bit suspicious, Shen Lang let him hold the white chess, he can not help but suspect that there is a conspiracy but he can not see the conspiracy there...

“If you want to do the sunspot, there is no problem...”

“No! I will play white!”

Cheap does not account for white.

Song Invincible directly determined that he wanted to play white, anyway, these steps, and Shen Lang just calculated himself. He just has to follow the next problem.

Unless the other party just said, there is something concealed, and he deliberately digs into him.

But think carefully, there is nothing good about it.

“Let’s get started!”

Shen Lang held the black chess. According to the previous demonstration, the first step was taken.

Song invincible seriously added the chess piece, this is targeted, the next step is one less step, he can not afford to lose after waiting for the loss!

But what he didn’t think was that, in the second step, Shen Lang did not use the previous solution, but it was also in line with the rules.

Song was invincible, and it was disrupted.

His chess power was not as good as it was. He was just angry and his mind was different. The situation of winning at the moment was suddenly changed. If multiple factors came, it would be a little overwhelming.

Have a look at Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi, but see them are watching the board carefully.

Because they play chess carefully, and of course they are still thinking and thinking.

Can Shen Lang believes in the look of the hand, so that Song invincible feels bad and slowly consider it, so the momentum is weak, and immediately followed.

Shen Lang’s step-by-step leisure is because there is a calculation of the invincible speed of the holy armor. Naturally, there is a best solution. Now, when Song is invincible, it is obvious that the loophole is obvious, and the analysis of the sacred armor has calculated all the results.

Shen Lang then pressed the past, step by step, and soon let him follow his fast-paced Song invincible dead chess!

Chapter 1669 - Chess!

“You... you deliberately pit me!”

Song invincible after the dead chess, could not help but blame it.

“How do I hang you?” Shen Lang asked faintly.

Song Invincible just blurted out. He also understood that this was unreasonable. He just let him choose first, and he made clear that Black lost and White won.

But at this moment he was so angry that he knew that he didn’t make sense, and he was going to die.

“You deliberately let me choose white! If I choose black...”

Halfway through, Song Invincible found himself digging a pit for himself!

This game is not the beginning of his and Shen Lang, but the end of the end of Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi.

The white son he had just held was followed by Tong Xian Weng, and Zhi Zhi admitted that it was not as good as Tong Xian Weng. Now it is necessary to say that Black can win. Isn’t it even a child’s fairy tale?

“It doesn’t matter. As you wish!”

The holy armor has a detailed record, and Shen Lang immediately withdrew the pieces one by one and restored the previous game.

“You will do it again. But if you look clearly, don’t lose and lose, and say I am pitting you.”

The people who are sullen and generous have repented and he has come back again. Song’s invincible face is also dull, but this is the end of the matter. If you don’t continue, you will lose your life. If you continue, you will have some chance to come back.

He secretly gritted his teeth and continued to return to the sunspot.

But he is also calming himself, and must not be brought to the rhythm!

Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi two, for Song invincible repentance, did not blame it for no chess style, but pretending to be acquiescence.

Because they just confirmed that Bai Zi won, Shen Lang held the sunspot, and even reversed, so they were very surprised.

At this time, I want to see how Shen Lang holds the white, and how will it go down.

If you look at a few more pieces, you will know a little more about the style of Shen Lang, which is helpful for them.

At the moment, Song is invincible, but after Shen Lang’s personal demonstration, how to fall, it will lead to the defeat of Black; how to make the game, can make Black turn defeat into victory.

He doesn’t even need more innovation, just follow the routines that Shen Lang just made.

He does not believe that Shen Lang can still reverse once on the basis of reversal.

He is very cautious, and he continues to think with the other’s thinking. This is once, and he believes that he can do well.

But what I didn’t expect was that when he fell, Shen Lang immediately followed the drop!

So fast, he gave him a sense of oppression, even if he could remain calm, and continued to follow the sinking before Shen Lang, but found that the waves immediately reversed the situation!

Because the last time the Shen Lang was screaming at him, he found the opportunity, but the Go is ever-changing and can have different combinations.

Now he follows the plan of Shen Lang, but Shen Lang has directly changed other programs, and he has taken the rhythm away.

A few more eyes down, the black invincible Song, found that he has no way to go...

On the other side of the game, Shen Lang's black game can win, and white chess can also win. This has hoisted the interest of Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi.

Just as they watched chess, they watched it carefully and found that in addition to the situation they would have appeared, the two different methods of Shen Lang and Black and White were very subtle, making people scream.

Song Invincible this time is really no face and no words.

Do you care?

He will lose if he plays white.

He has already realized that the opponent's chess power is far better than him, so he can defeat him if he comes.

“Song Laodi does not want to be discouraged. Victory or defeat is a common practice of the military, not to mention that you have not spent so much time on the board.”

Tong Xian Weng comforted one sentence.

He is the strongest of the three of them, and Zhisheng is able to fight against him. Song invincible only plays chess on the side, which is not as good as many of them.

This sentence is both to comfort Song and invincible, but also to give them two confidence!

Zhisheng immediately interface: "Small friend chess is quite powerful, can you enjoy the face, and re-matching the old man?"

Any place is to respect those who have strength.

They are talking about Go now, and respect is the chess power.

These two ancestors, who may be two or three hundred years old, originally dismissed the sorrows of the waves. They screamed for a teenager, or considered a close disciple who might be a newcomer.

The layman watched the lively insider to see the doorway. Just a simple confrontation has already upgraded the name of Shenlang to a "little friend".

"You are not afraid of being hit?"

Shen Lang's deliberately awkward tone, with a hint of ridicule.

Zhixiao smiled and said: "It is a fun thing to play, what is the fight? Besides, it is not as good as people, and it can inspire self-improvement. How old I am, naturally calm."

Shen Lang nodded, but my heart was very clear, it is easier said than done!

Even if he is a few hundred years old, even if he is in a high mood. Usually, he will not be beaten. It is nothing more than winning him. He will not win him. Young juniors will not win him.

Shen Lang will not give him any face!

Return to zero.

Shen Lang does not care about black and white.

At the beginning of the game, he is still resolute!

Regardless of whether Zhi Zhi is fast or slow, he will follow suit. At first glance, it seems to be done in order to complete the task and hurry, but in reality every step is carefully calculated.

Zhimin's mentality is much better than Song's invincibility. He has not been driven by the fast pace of Shen Lang. He is not sure, he will carefully consider it.

However, Shen Lang was quick, and then he didn't look at the board at all. It didn't seem to need to think about the back hand, just watching him and waiting for him to fall.

This silent urging has also put some pressure on him.

Originally, they played chess with their old friends. It is really not important to win or lose. It is more fun, and even includes a philosophical understanding.

But now against the Shen Lang, the face of the three old guys, he is invisible, still have the heart of victory!

Once you have the heart of victory and defeat, you will have concerns, and naturally it will be more easily affected by the pressure of the waves.

Tong Xian Weng kept the attitude of watching chess, and did not give a reminder next to him, but he himself was trying hard to think about every move of Shen Lang.

He thinks that the soaring of the waves is so fast, it should be more casual, too late to think so much.

But every time Zhixu is thinking, he knows that the son of the waves is not so simple!

This made him feel more and more magical about the young man of Shen Lang. He began to think that Zhisheng would not be an opponent, or even himself, it might be difficult to win!

And Zhimin, but I thought of another direction...

He felt that the waves were so fast because he had considered too much time himself!

The other person is young, may be more active, and consider it faster, so the longer he considers, the more chance he gives the other person.

Ever since, he began to play fast, and like the rapid wave of Shen Lang, even he did not think deeply, how does the other side analyze his layout?

Chapter 1670 - Admit defeat

The changing style of Zhisheng makes Shen Lang laugh and cry.

This is not a way of playing cards, maybe it can be beaten by others, but it is relative to a chess player who is familiar with his style!

Like the child fairy in front of him, he may be confused by his awkward way, and he is not clear about his specific intentions.

It is a pity that the Shen Lang he is facing now is the sacred armor with super bionic light brain micro-readiness system!

He wants to play fast and let Shen Lang have no time to think, thus disrupting the situation.

The only thing that is chaotic is that he is not chaotic!

His chaos will certainly affect the data of the analysis of the Holy Grail. However, with the calculation ability of the holy armor, the new one is adjusted and adjusted in an instant, and it can be fully dealt with.

On his own side, there are more and more flaws!

Tong Xian Weng has been secretly anxious, but the rules of “watching chess is not a true gentleman”, he still does not say a word. It also includes no sound, and the mind reminds me of wisdom.

Song invincible is not so well cultivated.

He just felt that he was greatly swept away, which is very unpleasant. Now, seeing that Zhisheng is going to be swept away, in the next city, it is estimated that Tongxian Weng is also unbearable!

And what if the other party doesn't do it? If you win two people in a row, let them not lose face.

So for everyone's face, although he didn't open his mouth to say anything – he couldn't point it, but it was obviously coughing with hints, in order to attract the attention of Zhisheng.

However, it is a pity that Zhizhi will understand that Song Invincible is to remind him to be calm and not to be chaotic, but after he has been chaotic, he is getting more and more chaotic!

Even now, even if he wants to stop and think slowly, there is no such thing as a trick, the layout is already chaotic, and the situation is very obvious.

“You win.....”

When Zhimin found that he had to rack his brains to think of the next step, the other party was still understated and quickly sighed, and voluntarily sighed and took the initiative to admit defeat.

He does not admit defeat, in fact, there is no way to go without a few steps, but the admittance is a bit more atmospheric.

Tong Xian Weng is silent at the moment.

He did not stop the wisdom of Zhisheng, he was secretly asking himself, if you change to be him, can you do better?

Now, from the perspective of a bystander, he finds that Shen Lang is fast and he is not leaking. As soon as Zhizhi followed the speed, he was immediately found to have many loopholes.

He can calm down now, when he really plays, can he still have time to calm down?

If the other party is so oppressed, can he do better than Zhisheng, and the other party will not change his strategy?

In view of the invincibility of Song before the combination, he felt that Shen Lang still did not exert his full strength!

Suddenly, he felt that he was a bit old...

This young man is not bragging, it is really better than the two of them!

He did not want to admit this, but the current situation makes him feel that he is playing a game with Shen Lang, and he is also humiliating himself, but it is a little delay.

“I am as good as Zhi Zhi, and Zhi Zhi admits that it is not as good as you. I am naturally not as good as you.”

Zhisheng admit defeat, has already let Song invincible suffered a setback, can only pin the hope of reversing the situation on the body of Tong Xian Weng, did not expect Tong Xian Weng also take the initiative to admit defeat.

He almost wants to swear!

But what is the solution?

It doesn't matter if he is on his own. Others take the initiative to admit defeat. It is better to be forced to die than to be positive and negative like him.

As a result, Shen Lang has become the focus of attention of three people, they are all guessing what the young man is.

“You have self-knowledge, not bad.”

Shen Lang nodded and stood up.

This “tweezers can teach” attitude, so that Tong Xian Weng secretly smiled, with their age and seniority, how did not think that there are still people who are said this day.

“There is a self-knowledge, but the old man still wants to play against the little friend. It is a discussion.”

Tong Xian Wen added a sentence.

When I heard this, Song invincible eyes lit up!

After all, Tong Xian Weng is still not convinced!

As long as you continue to fight against each other, there is at least a hope of winning, and directly admit defeat, there is no hope for it. He certainly hopes that Tong Xian Weng will persist in the end.

Then the brain turned around and Song Invincible immediately woke up.

Tong Xian Weng just took the initiative to admit defeat, on the one hand, intentionally showing weakness, can play a paralyzed enemy, let the enemy impetuous.

On the other hand, I also gave myself a step!

Surrender lose half!

Anyway, they have already accepted the loss, and there is no burden of losing. Instead, they can be lightly loaded. Losing is normal, if you win, you will earn!

Want to understand this, Song invincible could not help but sigh, or this old fox is shrewd!

He and Zhizhi both have a heart of triumph, and with obsession, they let the opponents get the chance.

Tong Xian Weng first lowered himself, but he could die and die.

“Not interested in.”

Shen Lang shook his head directly.

This answer, Song Invincible has already guessed in advance, and won't do it if it wins. This is normal.

But the three of them lost two. If the waves are not dry, they will not have the chance to regain their face!

“Isn't I still interested or not? I see you are lucky! Xian Weng is not as good as himself, it is his modesty, his chess power is not ordinary!”

Song Invincible used the radical method Shen Lang slightly sneered: “You have two have proved that it is not as good as me, and the other one has self-knowledge and admit defeat, and then continue to play against you. Not only has no fun at all, It's not a discussion, I'm pointing you!”

He glanced at the three of them, and finally his eyes fell on the face of Tong Xianwen.

“You are more leisurely, a lot of time, my time is precious, I can't afford to waste!”

This is said, let the three old guys directly want to roll their eyes.

They are all older ancestors. If they were not practicing to the present realm, they would have died one or two hundred years ago.

To say that time is precious, of course, the elderly like them are more touched.

Now a hairless kid on the mouth, actually said that they are leisurely, a lot of time, actually said that his time is precious, can not afford!

“Kids! Don’t overdo it!” Song Invincible couldn’t help but spurt: “Our time is definitely more precious than you. Tong Xian Weng please play, don’t say it is you, your master, you will think it is Give face to you! Don’t give your face a shame.”

“I don’t give face, I know it. I don’t care about your face. I care about the interests! With my chess power, I will give you some inspiration, of course, to give a little price.”

Shen Lang began to take the rhythm on the other side.

His aggressive words are to make Tong Xian Weng a little unhappy.

Tong Xian Weng just like Song’s invincible conjecture. Declaring defeat is intentional. It can be regarded as a strategy. It does not mean that he really feels that he is not as good as Shen Lang.

Besides, even if he can be humble, the other young man, who has decided to eat him, keeps his voice, so that he still has no face.
