

First Strong 1671

Chapter 1671 - Conditional game

“Young people, what benefits do you want? What price do you want?”

Tong Xianwen’s name for Shen Lang changed from “Little Friends” to “Young People”.

Then slowly added: “If you want someone else to pay the price, you have to pay the price. I am afraid you can’t afford it!”

“How is a thread?”

After Shen Lang finished, he added a casual sentence: “Two can also be.”

The value of the spiritual pulse is huge. The last time I have not seen it in Zhoushan, the big fairy still breaks the head. For the ancestors of the Great Xianfeng peak, there should be some possession, not to mention the realm of the great gods.

But having it does not mean that it is not scarce!

Just like the cold autumn may not care about a spiritual vein, it has been collected for hundreds of years, but one more, for the Qiulin sword, it is also of great value.

If a thread is not enough to make them tempted, the two should be quite attractive.

When the words were spoken, they immediately attracted the attention of the three of them.

“If you dare to say this, I believe that you should have come up with it. But is this spirituality yours, or is it yours?”

Tong Xian Weng’s eyes flashed slightly, and he still has to ask.

Zhixiao smiled and added: “Children, if you have something you personally own, you can take it out and gamble with others. If it is your teacher, you are only in charge of your master, there is no right to use the right to use, this It’s the empty glove white wolf.”

Song Invincible also said: “You don’t take the right path at a young age, and there is no attitude of a younger generation with your predecessors. Who is your master?”

To bet on the price, he is a little unhappy.

Because of the two spiritual veins, if you win, it is a child of Wen Xian Weng, or will be divided into one for Zhimin, there is no one for him.

But if they lose, they will be together. If they fail, he will have to share the cost.

Shen Lang laughed. “Nature is my own. But...”

He paused for a moment, a little ridiculous expression.

“Look at what you look like, you shouldn’t be able to get anything. Playing chess is just too happy...” He shook his head. “Forget it, don’t earn your coffin.”

These words, the three people are a little annoyed.

Even if the realm is very high, it has already been obsessed with life and death. But it is bearish, it does not mean disregard!

“Coffin book”... This is harsh to the old man.

And even said that they can’t get anything out, saying they are happy!

“Kids! Too much!” Song invincible calm face.

He didn’t want to mix and share the benefits, but it was unbearable.

“Yes, we are all old guys with one foot in the ground. The coffin is always prepared. You have the ability to take it, the old man dares to play against you, you can afford it, and you will never eat it! You What?”

Tong Xian Weng stared at Shen Lang and began to be a bit confrontational.

Shen Lang directly ingested two spiritual veins, presented them, and then slowly said the real purpose.

“If you win me, these two spirits are sent, and I apologize for the disrespect for you. If you lose, I don’t want your spirit, I want...”

He reached for a finger and pointed to the cave that was filled with weeds in the back.

“I want something inside!”

These words, the three of them were really taken aback.

Originally, they came to the arrival of Shen Lang and thought that they only wanted to tie up their predecessors. Later, they discovered that he came because of playing chess.

Now that he heard his words, he realized that he was coming to the cave.

The three people changed their attitudes immediately and began to examine him again.

“How do you know that there is something inside? Do you know what is inside?”

Song invincible, who had spoken with anger, was calm down at this time. This sentence is very crucial.

Although they are only placed in this ordinary natural cave, they have already sealed the caves, and the outside world will not know what it is.

So when Shen Lang came here, they didn't worry about it so much that they would be noticed.

But now this young man is actually coming directly to this goal. It is so clear that he should know what is inside.

But they can't think of why they know, because no one has seen it.

"How do I know that you don't care, I don't know what's inside, don't worry. Just ask if you dare to gamble!"

Shen Lang saw Song invincible, and added another sentence.

"If you feel that the two spirits are not well distributed after winning, I can add another one, three threads, so that the three ancestors will not be disappointed."

He just said this, but did not directly take out the third thread.

The money is not white, just taking out two threads, it is not easy, people will guess that he should be more than two.

If you can easily come up with the third one, others will definitely think that he has more, then it will be greedy.

But just let the other side guess that there are three, Shen Lang is reassuring.

This is not a reassurance of the reputation of their ancestors, but a normal gesture!

It is the truth that money is not revealed, but there are certain conditions.

Ordinary people who have no background and no backstage If you are rich in money, you will be easily remembered.

But like in the mall, money is a manifestation of strength. The more you can get out of it, the more you can express your strength and strength, and others can see you high.

This is also why, a lot of business, will choose Mercedes-Benz BMW and other famous cars to decorate the facade.

When a guest you don't know, watch your car open for 50,000, and drive a car of 500,000, sure that the latter feels powerful.

If Shen Lang is exhausted, there is only one thread.

In fact, it is easy to be remembered, because this may be the unexpected odds, and that is, if you want to shake the Bo, others will swallow you.

But there are three possible ways to come up with two veins, which means that the family is well-off.

This means that there must be a strong master, family support behind him, and that he is so young to achieve this kind of cultivation, which shows that it is a big deal.

So before others can figure it out, they don't dare to move him, it's a kind of jealousy of strength!

Of course, if the resources exposed are too rich and dangerous. Because it will make people take risks regardless of the cost.

Just a word of Shen Lang, let them doubt it. Therefore, Shen Lang added a proper weight in real time to prevent the other party from killing people.

Those who can get three spiritual veins can still have extraordinary chess skills. No matter how they know them, they all show that there are people behind them and powerful people.

The three men quickly looked at each other.

This is no longer a problem with the game.

“You can take three threads to change things inside!” Zhisheng suddenly laughed and opened a condition.

Chapter 1672 - Pure heart

The three spiritual veins changed the life of the Emperor.

This is actually not easy to make a decision, because the value of the three threads is really high.

The Emperor’s behemoth certainly has great value, but it may not be able to be used, and there is danger. The spirit can be used by anyone.

And in Shen Lang here, he can’t kill the Emperor’s behemoth to divide its value.

Therefore, the three spiritual veins cannot be directly valued.

For him, he is willing to redeem a friend with the value of three threads.

This friend, the understanding is not even a few months, and it is not the same kind. For anyone, this is a tough choice.

But Shen Lang will not.

He is willing to come out and save the dog god!

Although the dog gods don’t know each other for a long time, and they are not the same kind. At the beginning and even now, both sides have elements of mutual use.

But it is pure enough!

The last trip to mainland China, it showed its purity. Shen Lang gave it some human snacks. It helped Shen Lang solve powerful enemies, and even helped him to infuse a big fairy and a big fairy peak, and let him break through to the peak of Daxian.

These are not considered equivalent.

On the earth, it is also a constraint that the behemoth does not invade the earth, and on the premise that the sinking waves have killed many giant beasts, they still go back with the giant beasts.

This does not take into account the equivalent.

This time everyone killed the Guangming Mountain, but also coordinated operations, and did not care who contributed a little more, who contributed less.

Therefore, Shen Lang does not account for the equivalent of the equivalent, the plan can not be drawn.

When Guangming God shot the dog god, he did not hesitate to pay for it.

Now, he is also completely willing to come out with three spiritual veins to buy the dog god.

This is willing, is willing to give this value to the dog god, but also feel that this friend is worth doing.

However, it does not mean that they are willing to be killed by three of them!

Originally, this was when he was absent, and the dog  was caught here. It would have been good to not kill them. It would cost them a lot of money. Of course, they were not willing.

Shen Lang's heart is also like a mirror.

This is a temptation!

He wonder if he really knows what is inside.

If you just guess, you will definitely not be willing to pay the price. If you are willing to spend, then you really know.

At this moment, Shen Lang's answer, whether it is promised or not, will provide information to the other party!

“Is this the wisdom of the seniors of Zhisheng, is it the chess power of Tongxian Weng's predecessors, and I think he will lose to me?”

After Zhi Zhi asked, he waited for his answer. He has analyzed the two possible kinds of things, depending on which side he verified.

I did not expect that Shen Lang did not answer him directly, but instead provoked it.

“The chess power of the child brother... I naturally recognize it. But now, it is not a problem with the game.”

He pulled the problem back to the cave.

Tong Xian Weng and Song Invincible are all staring at Shen Lang. At this time, they will not intervene casually. Everyone keeps calm and rational, tries to observe Shen Lang, and analyzes his deep meaning from his subtle performance.

“It's not a game. What else do you say? I don't know how you are positioning. For me, it's just a game of color. You don't even dare to play, so there is nothing to say.”

After Shen Lang faintly finished, he directly collected the two spiritual veins.

He wants to show his financial strength and to be interested in what has attracted the attention of the cave.

But it can't show too much interest in the dog god, so that the other side will sit on the ground, even more reluctant to let go.

His attitude, let Zhizhi and Tongxian Weng's quick eyes meet.

For this young man, they are more and more confused.

Who is he?

What is his intention?

Looking at the beast of the beast in the cave?

Is it just a go-going genius?

"Of course I can play against you, but you didn't tell the truth, how do you know this, know the cave, and the real purpose of coming here."

Tong Xian Weng slowly opened.

"We have a few old guys who can't let you be a young man. Or how can you lift your head in the future? Don't you be laughed at by other old guys? As for the color heads, we can still afford this."

"I came to see you playing chess, but let me find that there is a beast inside, I want to come over."

Shen Lang remained calm and did not have any emotional changes.

"Everyone is not a relative, you will not give it; but with a few strengths, I can't grab it. So the game is the only chance I can win."

The three people of Tong Xian Weng were slightly surprised.

Just the words of Shen Lang are equal to admitting that you really know what is banned inside.

And it sounds like it's found here, but how can he find out?

Is this kid coming? It was a bit unpredictable.

"If I want to hang you, I will not show my strength, so that you will not dare to play against me."

Although they are amazed at what the purpose of Shen Lang is, and how to know it, but this is also recognized.

If it is to hang them, then it will not be so arrogant, will not be aggressive and domineering after the Song invincible, and then continue to abuse the wisdom, but should lead them to the hook.

but.....

Is this really just the purpose of a young man's game?

"Who is your teacher? Who is your master?" Tong Xianwen once again seriously asked. He must figure out this person and see if the person behind him can be offended.

Shen Lang shook his head a little disappointed.

"The older people are boring. The next game is to look ahead. How can I win? How do I tell you what the teacher is? Know who my master is, do you have to take care of his face?"

"Uh....."

Tong Xianwen was a slogan, and he really was such a concern.

"Do you play chess with me, or play chess with my master? Or play chess with my teacher?"

“In the eyes of your older generation, personal strength, the strength of the division, the face of the elders... Are all these part of the game? No wonder you can only get to this level!”

This is the intentional spit of Shen Lang, but listening to the ears of Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi, but it is not a shock.

Although they claim to not consider the game to win or lose, but they will still enjoy the game at this age, it is also seen.

If you can ascend to a higher level, of course, it is very happy.

If there is no progress in the past few hundred years, then you can only enjoy it, but that is not what you want, but there is no way.

Just after the words of Shen Lang, give them a great revelation.

Playing chess, it should be pure!

Only pure, can be fully integrated into it, in order to enter a higher realm.

If you do something else, and don't say it is the identity of your opponent, it is victory, entertainment, thinking, philosophical comprehension, etc. With these thoughts, you can't be pure!

“Okay, let's play a game!”

Chapter 1673 - 1 heart 2

After all, Tong Xian Wen is a child Xian Weng. If there is no extraordinary state of mind, he can not cultivate the realm of today.

It's just that playing chess is regarded as a path for recreation and entertainment, and there is not enough mentality to enlighten.

Now a word of Shen Lang, immediately dialed him, let him suddenly open.

The chess game is a small road, and the chess game can also be an avenue!

Access to the chess game may also help the mind of the realm.

In comparison, the rest are still foreign objects.

Therefore, at this moment he already feels that he may lose to Shen Lang. After all, others are higher in concept than him, and the skills will definitely not be lost to him.

But he doesn't care anymore. Such an opponent can't be met at once, just like a good teacher is hard to find.

Besides, even if you know the name and identity of the other party, the next time someone else may not play chess with him.

Now or never.

After the access, he immediately seized the opportunity, even if he will eventually lose to the other side, but the ability to compete against the first game, the harvest will undoubtedly be huge.

If it is the game, the most important thing is the child fairy.

But the beasts behind them are shared by them together.

However, the conditions of the Shenlang have already been opened, and Tong Xianwen can still agree in this way, which means that he can replace everyone's decision.

Zhisheng and Song invincible did not speak.

Since Tong Xianwen has decided, they will not be able to show their attitude even if they are not very happy. At least they must maintain an attitude.

So now they are watching the waves.

“Are you sure you don’t regret it? I won.”

When Shen Lang said this, he took the pulse again.

This time, it is three spirits!

Zhimin and Song are invincible. It was still a little bit sloppy, but when I saw the three threads, they were completely gone and turned into expectations.

It’s like a promised check, just like a box of cash in front of you, the impact is different.

Song Invincible was originally worried that he would not be able to win him, and he would lose his share.

Now I am relieved, because when Shen Lang just said three threads, he said that in order to facilitate their distribution, it means that Tong Xian Wen won, and he was too embarrassed to monopolize the benefits.

And lost, Shen Lang wants the beast * in the cave, that is the three people shared, then at least he does not need to paste again.

Both have already decided, and they will start a new game immediately.

When Shen Lang was still playing against Song invincible and Zhisheng, he was allowed to first settle down.

In the style of chess, he still maintains a fast style. Because of the backing of the sacred armor, he basically does not need to think about what he wants. He needs a performance outside the game.

Tong Xian Weng clearly absorbed the experience of both of them. In the process of playing the game, he played very stable and was not taken away by the rhythm of Shen Lang.

It's just that no matter how long he thinks, as long as he falls, Shen Lang will immediately follow.

So down, 99% of the time is spent on his side.

This way, even if he has not won, he has already lost.

Song Invincible and Zhisheng are also watching seriously, but they maintain the style of watching chess.

But then again, if there is no way for Tong Xian Weng, their reminders will not work.

As time goes by, the time begins to lengthen.

Before Song was invincible twice, the last game that Zhisheng finally admitted was not as long as it is now.

Tong Xian Weng has been pulling the game for more than an hour, and he is more and more cautious, but the waves are always calm, and it is keeping the aggressive game.

Before it was a temptation, winning or losing can be generously recognized, but now it is different. In relation to the issue of bets, Tong Xian Weng did not dare to give up and admit defeat.

“Are you going to participate in the Yaochi event?”

“what?”

Everyone was quiet, and all eyes were on the board.

The mentality of the three ancestors is very good, and it is common for them to talk for a long time or even a day.

So now Shen Lang suddenly opened his mouth and let them squat.

Zhisheng immediately responded. “Yes. If it wasn’t for the Yaochi event, we certainly wouldn’t come here, and everyone would have no chance to gather together.”

Song invincible also immediately wakes up.

Shen Lang talks to them, perhaps because he wants to divide the heart of the child.

But they have three people. The two of them talk to Shen Lang, which is the heart of Shen Lang, and Tong Xian Weng concentrates on it. Under this trend, the possibility of winning is even greater!

“You must also follow the elders to participate in the Yaochi event. You are not willing to disclose the teacher’s door. Can you say your name?”

“Yeah, you are so young, we are unlikely to have heard of your name. It is not to inquire about you, just to call you.”

They talked with Shen Lang in two words and tried to make Shen Lang answer questions so that they could not concentrate.

“You can call me a sinking wave.”

Shen Lang did not hide anything.

What they said makes sense. It is very likely that their ancestors have not come out for decades. The reputation of Shen Lang is not enough to reach their level.

Sure enough, even after they came out, they did not react at all, when it was the first time to hear the name of Shen Lang.

“Shen Xiaoyou is so young, respecting the teacher to bring you over, maybe don’t have any deep meaning!”

“What is deep?”

“Yaochi has always been a female disciple, and it is called Yaochi Fairy Only some of them are really very beautiful. If you can get the favor of Yaochi Fairy, it will be a chance.”

“No! Yaoko female disciple, it should not be possible to marry out.”

Shen Lang saw that they were screaming at Yao Yaochi Fairy, and could not help but laugh.

They regard him as a young boy, and the problems of men and women are undoubtedly the most embarrassing.

However, he is not distracted now, and he is happy to hear more information about Yaochi from them, the information of the Yaochi event, so he also talked down.

Although Yaochi was a female disciple, it was not allowed to marry a female disciple. If there is a suitable one, it is ok.

It is only in the environment in which they live, the concept of growing up from a young age, it is difficult to receive men. It is also remote here, and there are not many opportunities for male monks.

The Yaochi event is very lively, but after all, it is only once in a few decades, and it is often the ancestors of one or two hundred years old. There is no such demand.

When Yao Chi disciples reach this age, they will not be tempted again. Young female disciples are unlikely to be an old man.

Therefore, for thousands of years, it is rare for a female disciple to marry.

But because it is very rare, once it becomes, it will become a good story.

In order to separate the thoughts of the waves, the two of you said a word to me, and the topic is constant, so that Shen Lang knows a lot of information that he did not know.

But what makes them depressed is that Shen Lang clearly seems to be thinking about chatting with them. Playing chess is just a matter of hand, but still every step makes Tong Xian Weng think hard.

It's not that they haven't weakened the waves that distracted them. On the contrary, Tong Xian's every step is getting harder and harder!

Can you play this game with one heart and one mind?

Chapter 1674 - Win the dog god

Even if there is no more Go concept here, but chess is a matter of concentration, but it is recognized.

Because Go is bound to involve calculations, and calculations need to be precise and detailed, they must be focused.

Unless you are really entertaining, or if you have a big difference, you can chat while you are chatting. Otherwise, even if the opening is easy, you must be very focused in the back.

When Shen Lang was very good for both of them, they still felt understandable.

Because Song is invincible under the endgame, perhaps Shen Lang has seen a similar endgame, there have been various solutions to crack; and Zhisheng took the initiative to admit defeat.

But now it is not the same. The three of them, the highest chess player, are struggling to go all out. The degree of attention is the old chess player like Zhisheng, and the first time I saw it.

Shen Lang can still talk to them with two hot days, just take a look at the camera, but also get the upper hand!

What a genius this is!

They have lived so much age and have never seen such a talented chess player.

In turn, they are more curious and able to cultivate such a talented player. Master is definitely a super player.

And he is so young, his strength is already very strong, it can be seen that his master is not a low-level monk who specializes in Go, but a big man with a very high realm.

Then they should know each other, how can they not correspond at all?

It is a pity that Shen Lang did not disclose his personal information except for his name.

Speaking of the latter, they found that chatting with Shen Lang was useless. It seemed that he was more relaxed and relaxed, and he was not interested in speaking.

As for whether Tong Xian Weng can win, they do not have much hope.

Two hours later, Tong Xian Weng had no way to go, and the dead chess was defeated!

“I lost.....”

Tong Xian Weng spit a long breath and sincerely sighed.

“Mr. is a wizard!”

Mr!

At the moment, for Shen Lang, he used the honorary title.

This makes Zhiyi and Song Invincible both silent.

They are all familiar old friends and understand the situation of Tong Xian Weng.

Although at this moment, Tong Xian Weng seems to be as tired as a person, but there is a sense of detachment in spirit.

It was the words of Shen Lang that made him realize the concept of pure chess.

The two of them also understand it.

But understand the results, and did not experience this process, the effect is still different.

Tong Xian Weng has just come down all the way for more than two hours. The harder it is, the more energy it spends, the bigger the harvest!

The two of them even watched the whole process, but did not participate in it. Just like watching people compare, the effect is still different.

Besides, in order to divide the heart of the waves, they actually divide their own hearts.

“Would you like to gamble and lose? If you want to turn your face and don’t accept it, you can’t kill me.”

Shen Lang said a ugly word in front of him, but when he said it, there was no slight tension on his face.

All three people are a little embarrassed.

In principle, their three ancestors bullied a young junior, which really could not be done.

But intellectually speaking, if you bully a younger generation, you will be able to harvest three threads, which will still make people feel excited.

Just moving the waves, they need to worry too much.

No matter who the background behind him is, it will not be simple. As long as they are exposed, their three old faces will be thrown away.

For the sake of benefit, you can occasionally give up the principle.

But if you want to lose face, this advantage will not be ruined.

“What you said... it’s just a face-to-face!”

Tong Xian Weng smiled a bit: “What are we going to do, we will not make such a shameless thing. If you gamble with a junior, you must of course recognize it.”

Zhimin is also generous and said: “Even the children are not your opponents, we are really admired. The things in the cave, you can take away!”

Song invincible can not be said, even if he is unhappy with the waves, but this is a real ability.

Say it’s just a fight, and he can’t turn it over with a big bully.

Everyone is saying good now, and he has not done any evil people.

“Shenlang friends, I need to remind you that although it is a beast, it is very fierce. It is us, it is not easy to convinced it, it is very dangerous for you...”

Tong Xiangong’s face was positive and said seriously: “The invincible old man said yes. We were three people working together on the same day, and in the case of its serious injury, it was considered a sneak attack, otherwise it would never be so easy. ”

“Your strength, by your age, is already rare in history, but it is still very dangerous.”

Zhisheng nodded: “If necessary, we can help you.”

All three people have the same “we are willing to give you, but very dangerous, if you can’t do it, it will hurt your life.”

“It doesn’t matter, I am not afraid.”

Shen Lang faintly returned a sentence.

The three men exchanged a look without a trace.

Tong Xian Weng laughed: “Mr. is a rare genius in the world, naturally not afraid of the beasts in the area, then we will give it to you!”

The three people immediately started to act, and the three men joined forces to open the seal enchantment of the cave.

After the opening, the knowledge of Shen Lang can clearly sense the situation inside.

Before he could determine that the dog  was inside, because the sensor of the behemoth had arrived here, he found the exception of the cave, but he could only confirm that the dog  was inside and could not know its condition.

Now that they were unsealed, they immediately found that the dog  was inside, had been tied by a special rope, could not see obvious scars, but was in a state of coma.

At this level, the injury does not need to be an obvious trauma, just like the suppression of him by Guangming God, almost sudden death, and there is no obvious trauma.

The dog  is at the level of the great gods, but can be desecrated. Here, there is a coma that is not rebellious, and how serious it is.

After the unsealing, Song Invincible recruited and waved, immediately arrested the dog  inside, and appeared below the boulder.

“This beast is not simple, it looks very small, the actual body is huge. Now it is imprisoned by us. If it is handed over to you, we are really worried that it will hurt you.”

Song invincible looked at Shen Lang, a look for you.

His meaning is also very obvious, if you want to hand over to Shen Lang, then you must remove the above binding.

That is naturally an extraordinary magic weapon, and perhaps a removal will make the Emperor behemoth wake up!

Once awake, even if it is injured, it is stronger than Shen Lang.

From this point of view, they did not lie, no alarmist.

It's just that they have used this to make Shen Lang take the initiative to give up the bet.

"Remove your imprisonment! I can conquer it. If I can't accept it, I won't want it." Shen Lang said faintly.

Chapter 1675 - Shocking performance

Seeing the situation of the dog god, Shen Lang is actually very angry.

But there is no way, let alone he can't do the other three, even if you add the dog god, you can't do it.

This must face reality.

At this stage, it is not easy to win the dog  by relying on the bet of playing chess.

And before you take the dog  away, this is only half the success, you may turn your face at any time!

Therefore, he must not only show his anger, but also must show that he does not care about the dog god, can not be the slightest familiar, must be like the general beast.

In short, you can't let the other person know that he is deliberately planning, or else he will turn his face directly.

The imprisonment that the dog gods are now suffering is the seal of the joint strength of the superpowers of their three great gods. There is no way to solve the problem.

So they must use their hands to unblock them.

Tong Xian Weng has been willing to gamble and lose, but if he really wants to take advantage of it, the bet is just a dog god, and does not include the release of imprisonment!

Of course, it is purely to kill the beast  and take Nedan. They sealed it and must have tied him. And this is what they will definitely unblock now.

They did not kill the dog god, but they were imprisoned. Naturally, there was a bigger plot, and it was necessary to keep its life slowly.

Therefore, I am certainly not willing to give it to Shen Lang.

According to their plan, the ban will be untied when the magic weapon is removed, so that Shen Lang can't control it.

When they ask for help, they will control the beast again, and they will not be remarked, but they will be recycled again.

In this way, they have not tossed a bit more, and have not lost anything, but have gained more.

In this way, Shen Lang will count on the plan, follow their minds, directly let them lift the ban, and said that they can not accept the service, they will deal with them casually.

This is the effect that Song is invincible.

Ever since, when Song Invincible received the bundle of magic weapons, the three together worked together to unblock and unblock the seal of the dog god.

And the three of them were on the alert, and together they laid a field and blocked the surroundings. Even if the dog  wants to go away after awakening, they can re-submit it.

For these, Shen Lang is aware of the heart, but did not say anything, but prepared to communicate with the dog god.

Soon, the dog  who read the seal was imprisoned and began to wake up.

A painful and angry atmosphere immediately spread, and when the dog  woke up, it made a roar of the sky!

It is very painful and very wrong!

Originally hit by the Light God once, and was once hit by the head of Yao Chi, they still did not show up.

I didn't expect to come over to the three human monks, and joined forces to easily suppress it.

This makes the dog  that has always been at the top of the bulls, it is a huge blow!

The attack of the Light God quickly stopped after Shen Lang summoned Lei Yuan.

Yao Chi's head just flew a petal and didn't hurt it.

These three human powers are different, and they are really tormented!

Will put it in this cave, of course not hidden, but the pressure on it!

After all, it is a super beast that is comparable to the Great God. It is not so easy to do it directly. Therefore, even if the three people work together, it takes time, and after it is tortured to a state of extreme weakness, it is only another shot.

In the end, their purpose is also to extract its spiritual power, Nedan, etc., but there is another one – memory!

Because of the memory of it, you may be able to find more beasts along the way, that is a greater gain.

But to extract its notes directly, because it is powerful enough, it is not impossible to do it for the time being, but it is afraid of being countered by it.

These ancestors, who have lived for such a long period of time, are not in a hurry, so when they are tempted to suppress it to the point of weakness, let's take it easy.

The result is a sinking wave...

Now suddenly lost the suppression, and immediately let it out.

Such torture, even in a state of coma, is also recalcitrant, knowing what the consequences will be.

It is no more than other beast gods, just a sphere of influence, it is to have a whole world!

If they have won the memory and travel to the world of behemoths, all the beasts will be enslaved.

So why is it hard to capture its memory because it is defending with life!

Now, the dog  is ready to desperately, even if he is dead here, he can't sell the whole beast world!

It has not wanted to get out of it, and now it is the same mind.

Song invincible, they all looked at the waves.

Basically with a touch of play.

What if the bet loses to you?

Are you strong enough to take it away?

In terms of chess, they admit defeat and admire. But in terms of personal ability, they are far better than Shen Lang.

Now, they are waiting to see the excitement, watching Shen Lang can not accept this “bet”, and finally said that they can not be asked to come to the aftermath!

The ancestors still have the dignity of their ancestors.

Frustrated by the young man, this time is waiting to find his face.

“Hey! Beast, can you surrender to me?”

In the face of the dog  that ran away, Shen Lang directly sighed.

Tong Xian Weng, their three ancestors, almost laughed out loud!

This kid is still young, so childish, when is this a low-level beast?

Even if you don't restore the ontology, you can feel the power of that. It's the three of them who don't dare to care. This kid is too dying to live and die.

In addition to schadenfreude waiting to see the excitement, they are also ready to see if they can save their lives.

In that way, they will become “savior” from “the defeat of the hand”. When the time comes, Shen Lang will not be able to take things to win them, and face will earn back.

But in fact, when the dog  roared, he also saw Shen Lang, just huge pain and anger, etc., which has left it no time to think about how Shen Lang will be here.

And Shen Lang is connected with its consciousness, and has passed the information in the past.

The specific process is too late to elaborate, but the general situation has already been conveyed, let the dog * know that he has come to save it, but not the opponents of these three people, now it is to use the wisdom to take it, give it to Win back.

The most important thing is to let the dog  cooperate with him!

So just the word “www.mtlnovel.com” which is very much in the second paragraph of Shenlang is just a performance for the three of them, that is, to make them feel naive.

The dog  sensed the idea of Shen Lang. Although he did not understand it for a while, he believed in the trust of Shen Lang and believed in the wisdom of Shen Lang.

Therefore, when the voice of Shenlang just fell, it began to converge on the violent breath, and collected the state of the dead net.

“If you are willing to cooperate, take orders from me, just come over to me, I will take you away!”

After Shen Lang finished speaking, he extended his palm.

The dog  cooperated with all the fierceness and walked up to him, letting him caress the dog’s head.

Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Yi, Song Invincible, all three people are stunned!

I can’t believe my eyes at all!

Chapter 1676 - Retreat

The three of them have already prepared for the end of the wave, and they have also repressed the beast.

I didn't think of it, so the childish voice of Shen Lang actually let the beast god, which was already fierce, to be subdued!

The three of them also relied on the suppression of power. They couldn't do it like the current Shen Lang, let the beast * tame and let him touch his head.

The three people looked at each other and saw that everyone's eyes were so incredible, and they were sure that they were not blind.

Then, they had a thought in their hearts.

This kid... In addition to being a chess genius, is it a genius of a tamer?

Just a sentence, already contains the skills to tame the beast?

But there is no reason!

This is a super beast god. It is not as simple as humanity. It is not a problem to become an adult. How can it be tamed by a human being?

Even if it can really be tamed, it should be far superior to its super power, not a teenager who is not as good as him.

All three people are big and big, and they have no clue.

The ages of the three of them are all over a thousand years old. What strange things have not been seen before?

But today, it is to see strange things in succession.

This young man who doesn't know where it came from, has done a strange thing!

"Good, since you surrender to me, I will take you away."

Shen Lang nodded. This words seemed to be said to the dog god, but it was said to give them three to listen.

The meaning is very clear. I have just said that he can conquer it. It is the bet he won, and he will naturally take it away. If you can't accept it, you will ignore it.

Tong Xian Weng laughed and said: "I didn't expect Shen Lang friends to be geniuses in the animal training. It is really a shame for the old man. This is what you win. Naturally, it should be taken away by you! We will never stop it."

In truth, they have no reason to stop it.

Intellectually, all three people feel that they can cultivate such a young genius, and behind it is definitely a super scary force!

They also have some power to check in, but they are not always sure which one.

However, the world is huge, and in the long history, there have been many super forces that have since fallen. There are also declining forces that have re-emerged after a thousand years.

They live a long time, but they are still incomparable with the entire historical years.

Who knows which ancient sects that have been crouching for hundreds of years and thousands of years have returned to the mountains?

After all, this Yaochi event is also a thousand years old.

If there are some who have been qualified to participate in the Yaochi event in history, but they have not been left behind and are not invited, it is also possible to return to the king by this grand event.

They have another thought in their hearts – this time the Yaochi event may not be calm!

And this boy is likely to be the focus!

With such a guess, they are even a little scared!

No matter what the forces behind it are, for such a genius, it will definitely be fully protected. Come to the strange place of Yaochi, can you let him go to the face of their three strangers?

This shows that there are very likely people who are staring in the distance, and this can pass them, indicating that strength is above them!

In the course of the past, if they had any chaos, they said that no one could have killed them.

In this way, I was scared of my own guess, and I would never dare to be distracted by Shen Lang.

Since Shen Lang can conquer the fierce beast and god, and do not need them to help anything, and then propose to leave, they are not easy to retain, and no more inquiries, passengers say goodbye!

Just looking at the waves and carrying the dog-like beast  disappeared, the three people felt very lonely.

Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Yi, Song Invincible... Which one is not a big man who has been famous for at least 100 years, is a ancestral level that can't be seen in the world.

Now three people are being crushed by a young man!

The injured super beast, this is the wind of accident, but now the cooked duck flies, made a wedding dress for others, think it feels depressed.

I knew it was suppressed, and it was good to kill Nedan directly.

However, after all, it is not the original thing, but it still can't be lost, but it is no longer a mood to play chess.

Shen Lang took the dog  and quickly left the scene.

He had just rescued the dog  in front of the strong men of the three great realms. It was already a tightrope challenge.

With a little carelessness, I also put myself in.

For a few strong people in the realm of the gods, it is not a matter of killing him such an unknown soldier of unknown origin. Just like the dog  was the same as the old ancestors of Wuhuan, the Xiyang of Longyu, and so on.

In the process of intelligence acquisition, in addition to using the holy armor to concoct a chess sacred identity, Shen Lang is also a psychological game again and again, intentionally or unintentionally creating a false and powerful background that can be a fake tiger.

But these may be worth a while, but they can't stand the deep understanding.

Therefore, he tried to let them talk as much as possible. He did not mention the background. It was both a mystery and a mistake.

Now that you have succeeded, you must quickly leave with the dog god!

Otherwise, they will ask more about how he tamed the beast, how to make the dog  obedient, and say that no flaws will be found.

But when he left, he didn't dare to be too hasty. He couldn't fly away with the super-sonic speed of the sacred armor, and he couldn't use the artifact to cross. It was only a normal fast flight away – as if there were people waiting for convergence in the distance. .

However, in the process of leaving, he has already dressed to the dog god, telling about the process.

The dog  also simply told him about the process, it is really very simple, it is waiting for the back of the waves, he is also healing, and then ambushed by three human powerhouses.

These three strong, if it is not injured, there is no problem in resisting one. When three people join together, there may be opportunities to escape.

But the injury was unclear I didn't even think that there would be so many human powerhouses, but they were also attacked by others and they started.

For Shen Lang, the dog  is also very grateful.

Even if Shen Lang said it is relatively simple, there are some tactical strategies, and it is not so understandable. But one thing is clear, that is, the strength of Shen Lang is far less than the other side!

Moreover, Shen Lang is also in the case of serious injury, which is equivalent to the risk of his own life, and take the possession of the spirit to attract the enemy to save it!

If it is not a life of friendship, this can't be done. In exchange for other beast gods here, such as the cloud hill beast god, may also retreat and escape.

At this moment, the dog  has fully realized that human beings have many mediocre people, many powerful people, many bad people, and good people who regard it as their own.

At this moment, I made a decision to treat this human being as the most solid and friendly partner and a friend who can serve him!

Chapter 1677 - Share the book

Shen Lang rescued the dog god, purely from the heart, I feel that this is a loyal friend, it is worth saving, even if it may lose three threads (not afraid of losing, but afraid of being robbed), there is no relationship.

But he himself did not consider how it would return.

Just as he used to save all the earth's big shackles, he didn't want their rewards.

But now, after he and the dog  have confronted each other's situation, he feels the sincerity of the dog god!

This is not said, nor is it conveyed directly to him by consciousness, but a feeling, a kind of sincerity that can be felt without being said.

He can basically be sure that the dog  is treating him as a friend who can entrust his life!

This did not surprise him, he could save the dog god, and because it is a pure enough friend.

You can give up your body and others can give up on you.

He is a bit awkward!

I have never thought about the relationship with the dog god. After all, the types of people are different, and the strength is also high and low. The temperament has not been fully understood.

Like the secret of the space of the heavenly book, he did not let the dog  know that, a few days ago, he still went to heal himself.

But now, at this moment, he already understands the dog god's intentions.

Shen Lang also made a decision to open the space of the book to the dog god.

Now everyone has a life of friendship, that is, no one will move each other for the sake of profit. Just like the other day he gave the spirit directly, the dog  was also frankly accepted, and innocent.

All the way to the edge of the Yaochi where they stayed before, Shen Lang stopped.

Inductive for a moment, there are no other people around, here from the distance of children, they are about a few dozen miles away, in their realm, in fact, can be sensed here.

But when they left, they have left them with an unpredictable and mysterious background. I believe that they will not investigate casually in time, so as not to irritate the power behind Shen Lang.

So for the time being, it should be safe.

“The Emperor, your injury is not light, I need to find a place for you to heal.”

“it is good.”

The dog  is not reluctant, it is indeed seriously injured now.

Originally, the slamming of the God of Light has not been treated well, and they have been attacked by the three of them together, and they have been crushed for a long time, and the torture has been worse than before.

“You don’t get hurt. People like them are not all over the land. They are the predecessors of their predecessors. They are in your world. They are the kind of retreats that have not existed for a thousand or two thousand years. “”

“But this world is much bigger than ours, bigger than yours, and it takes a long time to develop. After all, there are still many old people who can’t hide.”

“This time we met the Yaochi event, it was only a long time to hold it. The invitations are all these super masters. And the strong people we saw before in Tiandu City, Tangcheng, etc. are not a level, not even a world. It is.”

Shen Lang seriously explained to it, Tangcheng, Tiandu and other active, are the backbone of the various factions, is the contemporary “young generation”, in their respective sects, and the heads of the older generation Elders.

These are the older ancestors of these sects. Even a lot of ancient sects that have disdain to show up!

For example, Yaochi may have sent young disciples to all parties, including forbidden places, including Tiandu City, but there is no need to set up branches there, and there is no need to do business.

“I am safe for the time being, because I am on the surface and they are the same kind. As long as they are not guilty of them, they do not bother to beat me a young man.”

“But for you, they will naturally kill, it will be a rare resource to snatch. So I must hide you to heal!”

The dog  nodded.

Shen Lang said it is very realistic. Although it is a bit ugly to compare it with resources, but their giant beasts are not the same as human monks.

Not to mention anything else, not long ago, it also swallowed several apostles directly, and it was a resource.

What is happening here is the grand event of the top human beings. Before the people in Yaochi did not move it, it did not mean that others did not move it.

Shen Lang was able to save it in the hands of three powerful human powers than him, because of intelligence.

The dog  has always admired this aspect of Shen Lang, so there is no second word, completely accept his arrangement.

Shen Lang is mainly afraid that it will not show weakness in the neck, which explains the persuasion of it.

After you have identified it, you don't need to talk to it about other specific arrangements.

Bring the dog  directly into the space of heaven.

The dog  is also very surprised and amazing about the space of heaven.

However, following Shen Lang, it has become accustomed to it. Before it took it to the chaotic space, it was completely incomprehensible, and it was able to take it directly through the two worlds.

It feels that the waves are omnipotent.

“This place is a bit special, time is not the same as outside. There is a hundredfold difference, but it is not really different.”

“...?” The dog  is a bit difficult to understand.

“In short, I have been practicing here for a hundred years. It took only one year for the actual time outside, and my own body is only a year old, not a hundred years old.”

“There is such a magic!”

The dog  was shocked.

“You see that my injury is completely good. It is because I have been here to heal these days. The time you feel is a few days, but I have actually healed for a year.”

“Now it is for you to heal here, and I will pick you up later.”

Shen Lang said, and took the thread out.

Such a magical place, to say that the dog  is not heart-warming, it is a fake.

However, this belongs to Shen Lang, and does not say that it does not know how to get in and out. It is completely necessary to carry the waves, even if you know, it can not move the waves!

It is very uncomfortable for people to save their lives and share such magical places with it. Can it live up to it?

“No, I just need to have enough time to heal.”

The dog  looked at the waves and gave him the spirit, and immediately resigned.

This thing is good, but it is rare. It does not want to smash the waves in order to heal yourself.

It said that it refers to your stomach.

Shen Lang immediately understood that the dragon-like beast that had been swallowed before, the six apostles swallowed, etc., had not yet digested, and it was completely energy-healing.

“Okay, let’s hurry up! I will come over and take you out later.”

Shen Lang could have been able to explain the magic of the space of the Bible But recently they have been in danger. If they don’t make it clear with the dog god, it will wait for ten days, eight days and a half months. I haven’t seen him back yet, maybe I think he has suffered unexpectedly.

At that time, it managed to go out and find a problem.

In this day’s book space, there is no day or night, and the dog  has no concept of watches and clocks. In fact, I don’t know how many days have passed.

But with it clearly, it can be safe here, in the past half a year, knowing only a few days, it will not be a focus.

“Hazard, find me!”

The dog  sighed again.

The strength of Shen Lang is not enough. If it is dangerous, it is indispensable!

Chapter 1678 - Lingbo Fairy

After the dog * was placed, Shen Lang came out again.

He stayed here and was at the Yaochi event.

To participate in the Yaochi event, it is the invitation letter promised by Yao Chi.

Fan Xueyu, the old master and sister, will naturally not be happy, and expects to wait for Fan Xueyu to get an invitation letter.

For the children of Wenxian, a few of them, Shen Lang is certainly hateful, because they torture the dog god.

However, the dog * has been rescued, and hate has been greatly eliminated.

From the three of them, it is already possible to glimpse one or two of the Yaochi event.

Casually, the strongest in the realm of the great gods, it is high in specifications.

Above this event, the information exchanged by everyone is bound to be the highest level of confidentiality in the entire mainland of the mainland.

The resources that everyone will circulate are also the top rare treasures.

This makes Shen Lang more irritated and eager to participate in such a grand event.

He had already participated in the ruins of the millennium, but he was not too big. He could go to a limited place, and the harvest was already the largest in the same line.

But other places, other routes, and perhaps many other gains.

Besides, the last time they saw it was basically Daxian, Banxian, and Mo Feiliu of Fengfeng Daxian, which could already suppress the audience.

The realm of the great gods like Gao Hanqiu has its own goals.

Gao Hanqiu is hundreds of years old and naturally counts as an old-fashioned  with great strength. But in the history of the whole world, he is just an inexperienced outsider!

The Qiulin swords were built by them, and they did not witness the last time the ruins were opened.

Compared with the sects that had been explored thousands of years ago and the sects that have been explored many times, the information they know about the cold autumn is still too little.

Not Zhoushan is able to traverse the whole world, and its territory is so incredibly unmeasurable, and the ruins are certainly not just that.

Although I am looking forward to it, Shen Lang has no way at the moment.

The Yaochi event is an invitation letter, or it is impossible to enter.

Hard?

Don't say that all the participants are top ancestors, and the foundation of Yaochi alone can be easily killed!

Shen Lang didn't forget that he didn't know where to float a petal from that day, and he knocked down the Emperor's behemoth. It was just a stop for saving people, not to hurt it.

The strength of the Yaochi head is unfathomable!

Besides, even if it is not hard, he can't find the door in the name of visiting Fan Xueyu.

And Fan Xueyu is just a young disciple. Even if her master's strength is amazing, it does not mean that she is qualified to open the back door.

After all, Yaochi has always been the principle that men are not close.

Why is it that Shen Lang is coming back here? This is the reason why Van Gogh was back from here. If she will send another invitation, come here too.

Otherwise, the area around Yaochi is also vast and thousands of miles away. It is impossible to search one by one in a short time.

Shen Lang did not stroll, sitting quietly on the edge of Yaochi waters.

It is purely sitting still.

He also thought about whether or not to try to integrate with the entire Yaochi waters, and maybe you can know where Yaochi is.

But when I think about the last time I came here, the giant python that has been dozens of miles away, I still don't want to provoke it.

His current injury is already good, and he has returned to the peak state, and he is not bad for this day and a half.

So really just sitting and watching the scenery.

Looking back, Shen Lang is also very embarrassing. It's almost as easy to look at the scenery like this, and I don't know how long ago it was!

After the cultivation of the former world to the back, we must try to get a variety of exercises, and then master the various exercises, and finally integrate them to create a "yin and yang wave if true."

The ultimate goal is to cultivate and fly...

In such a long road of cultivation, where is there any leisure time to see the scenery? Not to mention the scenery, even if it is a woman or something, have not paid attention to it.

Of course, this is also the time when the young people of the past life began to cultivate and have seen various landscapes.

In this world, when I was awakened, I was still a high school student. I did not leave Li Cao County. Various scenery and the like were basically obtained from the media.

All the way down, all in order to be able to survive, in order to get a little resources. Then I was pitted to the death forest, and I still have to revenge...

All the way to the present, the scenery has seen countless.

In the middle of the Pacific Ocean, chaotic space, mainland China, the mountains, the world of giant beasts, the city of the basin...

A variety of completely different landscapes are unique.

But that is all about the scenery, the scenery that I saw, and I didn't appreciate it with a purely scenic view.

Like this Yaochi, the legendary Yaochi Wonderland did not feel so special when it came over last time.

Now that I am free, let me relax.

After pure appreciation, Shen Lang found the phone out, started taking photos, and directly shot the scenery of Yaochi from different angles.

Yaochi is really beautiful. It is shot in the camera. It is very beautiful. The waves can be shot at different angles in the water and in the air. The effect is very good.

While playing, Shen Lang felt the fluctuations, patrolled the past, and saw that the snow was coming from the water, and the clothes were fluttering, and there was quite a taste of Lingbo Fairy.

Shen Lang adjusted the camera angle and shot her down.

“what are you doing?”

Fan Xueyu flew over and saw that the little thing in Shen Lang’s hand was aimed at himself, which was a bit strange.

Everyone has fought side by side with each other, and there is already a comrade-in-arms trust. I don’t think that Shen Lang is using a magic weapon to harm her.

Shen Lang and her standing on the ground.

“Show you your photo.”

“photo?”

Fan Xueyu is puzzled.

“Your... portrait.”

Shen Lang opened the photo she just shot to her.

I was just shooting the scenery, watching her come over, taking a temporary shot, without using a beauty camera.

However, the effect seems to be very good now, because the Vatican is always young and beautiful is such a high level, temperament and skin have not said.

Just Lingbo came to the air, but it was not taken by ordinary photography.

“this is.....”

Van Gogh was naturally the first to see the “photo”, and couldn’t help but surprise her eyes.

“This is what you just painted?”

Of course, she looks at it more, but it is generally static, so that the artist or the friend who is well versed in painting can follow the painting.

If you want to draw realistically, you have to be prepared and the time is not short.

Just like her, she just flew over the surface of the water, basically after painting the portrait, plus the effect of such an environment, and could not follow the painting.

What makes her even more incredible is that she just arrived, this is the picture before a moment, but it is already imaging!

Chapter 1679 - What is it?

“How? This composition is still good, the light and angle are also very good.”

Shen Lang talked to her while zooming in on the photo and letting her see her own appearance.

“This this.....”

Fan Xueyu was shocked again!

Just seeing Shen Lang painting her portrait so quickly, it is unbelievable, but the mobile phone screen is still relatively small.

Now it’s even harder to imagine that the painting can grow bigger.

“I know! You are a magic weapon, a magic weapon that can be quickly painted!”

In Van Gogh's concept, there are no concepts such as cameras and mobile phones, but she is quickly rationalized.

Pure hand-painting, even the most powerful painter, can't be so fast, and a small painting can't suddenly become bigger, but it can naturally shrink and become bigger, and touch will not have any influence.

So she put it back to the magic weapon.

Shen Lang smiled and said: "You can understand this."

Fan Xueyu took a closer look at the photos and praised them again and again.

"The world is not amazing. I didn't expect anyone to create a magic weapon for portraits. I don't know where the loser is..."

"..."

Shen Lang was a little sweaty, but looking at her reaction, suddenly thought that this might be a good business opportunity!

Is Yaochi not a female repair?

After all, the girl is beautiful, although the cultivation can keep the face old, but the recorded picture is different from the person. It can be enjoyed in the hand, it can be enjoyed with others, it can be sent to and sent to the distant place. Friends and relatives.

Fan Xueyu will be so surprised, others should be.

He just shot it, but he couldn't give it to her.

He still has a spare phone for the mobile phone. It doesn't matter if you send a mobile phone. If you go back, you can buy a lot of it right away. The key is that you can't charge here, and it will soon be bricked.

Just for the printer, he is not ready.

Who can think of using a printer!

“Do you like it?”

“Hmm!”

“I will give it to you!”

“it is good!”

Fan Xueyu was very excited and did not polite with him.

Shen Lang turned off the phone screen and looked at her.

Fan Xueyu immediately woke up and remembered his own intentions.

“This is an invitation letter. Although the head is confessed, there is still a process. The Yaochi event is very strict, so it has been delayed for a few days.”

“It doesn’t matter, thank you!”

Shen Lang took over and the invitation was very simple and elegant.

This represents recognition, that is, formal recognition, not relying on strict security.

“The specific time is in the morning of tomorrow, and there will be people on the waters of the dozens of places over there. You will be able to pass the invitation letter.”

Fan Xueyu and Shen Lang said the specific time and place of entry.

She is a disciple of Yao Chi, and she can't just tell Shen Lang how to enter Yaochi. Everything is still in accordance with the rules.

“Right, what about the Emperor's behemoth? No... what happened?”

She did not see the dog god, she was still a little worried.

Shen Lang shook his head: “It is a beast god, but it is not a mount that I support, it is not convenient to appear in human events.”

Although Fan Xueyu's experience in all aspects is not enough, but it is so clear to understand, it is also a realization of the meaning.

“Also, it is really not convenient. Then it is now...”

“I have been healed in a safe place.”

“That's good.”

Fan Xueyu smiled and said: “I was a bit embarrassed because I only had one invitation.”

There is only one invitation letter, maybe you can bring your disciples and friends, but with a dog, others will naturally feel that they are mounts.

“I thank you for your concern for it.”

Shen Lang is very sincere thanks: “I am also very grateful to Van Gogh's kindness.”

“Don't say that, everyone has fought together. You are hurt, of course I can't rest assured that you are being chased... eh?”

When I first came, Fan Xueyu's attention was drawn to the photo.

She was a young girl, and she was the first to see a lifelike photo in her life. She didn't think about anything else.

Now when it comes to injuries, I was surprised to find that Shen Lang seems to have recovered!

“Are you okay?”

“My skin is thick and fleshy and recovers quickly.” Shen Lang smiled.

Fan Xueyu was still unbelievable. On the same day, Shen Lang was suppressed for several hours. He began to vomit blood in the middle, and he was obviously dying. When he came here, he barely supported standing.

How can it be healed in a few days?

She couldn't help but patted his chest.

“Do you pretend it?”

This is to participate in the Yaochi event. Shenlang is probably afraid of being looked down upon, so I have to pretend that I have nothing at all.

“Do not worry! I am really okay, I have a unique practice, healing is relatively fast.”

Seeing that Shen Lang said this, Fan Xueyu is not good enough to ask again. After all, it involves taboos of others. It is taboo.

“It's okay.”

She was also relieved. Originally she begged to let Shen Lang stay with them, just to give them a healing place. Now that people are fine, they are much more secure.

“I have to go back, we will be very busy these days.”

Shen Lang is also understanding. Such a few decades of events, even if the scope is not large, must still be very adequate.

She was very pleased that she could send the invitation.

“Show me the portrait again.”

Fan Xueyu is still too realistic to remember the portrait, she has never seen such a realistic portrait.

Shen Lang opened the phone again. “I will shoot you again... draw a few!”

Said, let her put a few poses, and then took a few shots for her.

Fan Xueyu is very curious and follows his command.

After the filming, Shen Lang signaled her to come to see the photo, she immediately approached.

The screen of the mobile phone is limited, and the two are close to be convenient to see.

The Earth is familiar, and can keep a distance to aim. She is not very familiar with this, and it is a new thing, very important, unconsciously close to the waves.

Shen Lang did not think much, but did not take advantage of the cheap, just showed her a few new shots.

“This magic weapon is really amazing If...oh, it’s so fast!”

For this, she really wants to have one, but think about it is a magic weapon, it will certainly not exist in batches, it is not convenient to feel that you want to have it, so as not to be suspicious.

After all, it is a disciple of the big door, she still has principles.

However, because she is now looking at the photos and squeezing the pictures together, it is a taboo for Yaochi!

“Little sister! Pay attention to your identity! What is the system!”

A voice with anger came from far away, and came with the voice, and the old man who had seen before.

Of course, she did not come across such a coincidence, it should be with Van Gogh. Just don't want to see them, wait in the back.

As a result, I have already seen them huddle together. I have already endured it once. I have seen the chest of the snow and the waves, and I have to endure it once again. Now she is more crowded together. She can't help it!

Chapter 1680 - Earth procurement

Shen Lang is a clear-hearted person. On the earth, it is quite normal for young friends to see the photos close to them.

However, he also understands the anger of the teacher and sister of Fan Xueyu.

After all, the concept of the world is different, more like the ancient conservative, and the Yaochi is more conservative than other sects.

Still, Fan Xueyu was too excited because of this new gadget. He completely forgot to keep a distance from Shen Lang and forgot his sister!

So now that I heard the sound, I suddenly reacted and immediately bounced off.

Unfortunately, it is already late, and the old man has come over.

Shen Lang is very calm, nod to the old man.

However, he did not say hello, it is not good to call it!

According to the general politeness, for the Yaochi disciple, you can call “Fairy.”

However, the image of the fairy in Shen Lang’s impression, even if it is not necessarily young and beautiful, at least can not be an old man’s image.

Therefore, the name of the mysterious girl, Fan Xueyu can, the Xuan female master Liu Yun is also considered a middle-aged image, is acceptable.

Now, the teacher and sister of Fan Xueyu, it is really the image of the old man, more suitable for the title of “XX 姥姥” .

Called the fairy can not be called out, called the words of the predecessors, she is just the sister of the Fan Xueyu.

Anyway, the other side also sees him unhappy, will not change because of a title, so he simply nodded and said hello.

“Sister... you misunderstood, I just looked at the portrait.”

Fan Xueyu’s weakness explained it.

But how does the sister think?

Shen Lang is not a painter at all, and the brush paper has not been seen. Where is the portrait?

Considering that this is the “magic weapon” of Shen Lang, it is not good for Fan Xueyu to let him testify. What if the sister is to take it?

“Go back with me!”

The old man took a look at the waves, filled with warnings, and then did not arrogantly ordered the Van Snow.

After she turned around, Fan Xueyu squeezed a sorry smile on Shen Lang and then quickly followed.

Shen Lang shrugged, did not expect to have such a scene.

It seems that after the return of Van Gogh, he will be scolded.

But he is not too worried.

There are always some people who are favored.

Fan Xueyu is so young, can have such a realm, is naturally a beautiful girl, and certainly must be specially favored by Master.

After being brought back by the teacher and sister, it is also a warning to blame a few words, and should not be how to treat her.

It was not too nervous to watch her leave.

After they left, Shen Lang collected the invitation and then remembered the business opportunity.

Mobile phones can take pictures, and the level of mobile phones can shock people in this world without using professional SLR cameras.

However, it must be equipped with a color printer and photo paper.

To put it bluntly, in addition to the appreciation of appreciation, this is even more necessary to have a compelling effect.

If you just enjoy the small screen of the mobile phone, you will not achieve this effect.

It can be printed out, and it can be held in the hand. It can be compared with the ordinary portrait.

The printer can only return to Earth.

For a printer, going back and forth between the two worlds, the price is extremely low.

However, this unexpected effect inspired the business opportunities of Shen Lang and felt that it was necessary to go back.

Not just printers, maybe some other “modern souvenirs” of the earth can be purchased.

Really count, the river city is of course more good things. However, his familiarity is not as good as it is, and it is even more troublesome. It is just a return to the earth.

Back to the earth can directly start the Kunlun mirror of the three kingdoms of the artifact. Of course, crossing the two worlds is much more spiritual than the space in a world.

Tomorrow is the Yaochi event. I don't know what kind of comprehension resources are there in the big brothers. Shenlang wants to get something from others, but he can't bear the spirit.

So go back and take a look at the earth to carry something as unique as a photo, as long as it can be promoted to a specific target group, you can achieve a rare effect.

At the very least... you must also print out the photos of Fan Xueyu.

Shen Lang went directly back to the big city of the earth, and then printed a few large photos of the snow-capped scorpion. Now the phone has a very high pixel size, prints a large size, and the picture is still very clear and fine.

Others are only likely to have business opportunities, and this is to thank Van Gogh's gift, it must be sent, so be prepared to be more adequate.

In addition to printing well, it is also immediately installed.

Then he also purchased a lot of things in various aspects, useful and useless, including photo frames.

There is still a steady flow of faith in the earth, and there is no problem that affects his personal reputation. Shen Lang has not contacted Feng Wuji and others. After purchasing it, he will wear it back to Yaochi. on.

Everything went well, and the spiritual power of crossing the two is also affordable for the current Shenlang. The power of faith is a great supplement.

But when he crossed back to the original place, he immediately found an unexpected situation!

In the time when he went back to Earth to purchase, the original Yaochi edge, there were some people, just in the vicinity.

As a result, the slight fluctuations in the space have attracted everyone's attention.

The fluctuation of space anomalies will not be an ordinary situation, so everyone is guarded by God and ready for battle.

The appearance of such a deep wave is equivalent to being surrounded by many people in general!

All the people who are on the alert are ready to attack, and suddenly they see a human being, not a creature coming out of a different space. This is a pause.

But the Shen Lang appeared abruptly, no one relaxed his vigilance, or surrounded him.

Space fluctuations are only a slight situation, time is fast, and everyone has not made it accurate.

Now that Shen Lang appeared, I immediately let everyone have a clear goal, and immediately surrounded him very strong.

Looking at a group of strong people, Shen Lang is a bit embarrassed, how to feel the feeling of falling a wolf group.

“Calm, calm! I am not a spy. I also have an invitation!”

Shen Lang first made a greeting, so that everyone would not do it, then gestured, took out his invitation, and showed it to everyone.

The invitation letter was issued by Yao Chi, and everyone is the same.

Others have already sent out Shenlang is now temporarily sent. But from the appearance point of view, it is the same.

But the people around you didn't relax their vigilance!

The Yaochi event is not only high in specifications, but also has no fixed time when it is held. Every time it is started, it is also secretly released.

After everyone receives the notice, they will only be familiar with each other and will not be widely publicized.

Only in the Yaochi event, some consensus has been reached, some decisions and the like will be publicized, and most of the content is also confidential.

This is caused by the fact that no one knows or dares to fake an invitation.

After all, it was hand-signed by Yao Chi's head. It was marked with a mark, and it was faked again.

But it is also possible to steal other people's invitations!
