

First Strong 1691

Chapter 1691 - Out of the limelight

The words of Helan's ancestors made everyone nod and nod. The behavior of Shen Lang just was really convincing.

In particular, many people have just secretly said that Shen Lang "has no brains", and now they are glad that they have not directly screamed out because of conservation.

Just now, Tong Xian Weng took the lead and praised him. Now Helan ancestors themselves praised Shen Lang and divided the two spirits equally.

Of course, other people also praised it, and did not hesitate to say a few more words.

What Shen Lang wants is the opportunity to "get out of the limelight", the purpose has been reached, and the spiritual pulse is really bad. This empty gloved white wolf is violent.

But now it is different. Helan's ancestors insisted on giving half of it to him.

In fact, it is also very understandable. For Helan's ancestors, he has already seen the current strength of the elk, and it is a big problem for him and Helan City!

Just now the bar has been on the front side of the bar. Now Shen Lang helps to mediate and solve this problem. It is also a hidden danger.

And really let Shen Lang white two spirits, he can not do such a generous.

Shen Lang took the initiative to give him all, and he was sincere and full of face.

At this point, I split it in half, and I was compensated myself. I showed a generous performance, and then I went to a Lingshi, and I didn't care about the comet ginkgo leaf.

This is a win-win situation.

Besides, he also feels that Shen Lang has a lot to come to, and it is worthwhile to win a strong bond.

This is also an acceptable result for the elk.

After all, Shen Lang is willing to sell it to him. Otherwise, at least it is not convenient to grab it now. Who knows where this kid is going!

Helan City ran a monk and could not run the temple. This Shenlang is not sure what the origins are.

Helan's ancestors would rather fight and not sell to him, so he paid a lot of spirits and he was willing.

Unwillingly, Shen Lang gave the two spirits to Helan's ancestors, and now he gave Shen Lang more, making the elk more acceptable.

The two sides of their contradictions have already reached a reconciliation. They may still be hostile to each other in the future, but at least they will not make trouble at the Yaochi event. Others are also at ease.

All of this, not the one who is highly respected by the seniors, but the youngest guy on the scene, is sure to let everyone pay close attention to him.

Under the concern, it can also be found that although the age of Shenlang is light, it has reached the peak of Daxian. This strength is not inferior to some of the heads and elders of the scene.

This is enough to prove two points: the individual is absolutely a genius; behind it must be a strong family, martial art, in order to stand up to such genius consumption.

For a time, everyone was enthusiasm.

Of course, those ancestors will be self-confident, and will not be arrogant and willing to climb and cross the waves. Although the older generation is older, the strength of Shenlang is no less than theirs, and they will not feel that they have no face.

Younger generations may be truly admired for the deeper waves that are much younger and stronger than them, but more unwilling.

After all, they have always been regarded as a genius, and now they are all over, and envy of hatred is indispensable.

But they also understand their respective identities. They can come here, that is, the lowest level, that is, to learn to exercise, but also to socialize for the future.

For Shen Lang, is it possible for the ancestors to communicate?

So whether they are happy or not, they will not be reconciled. They all have to smile and take the initiative to say hello to Shen Lang.

Among them, Tong Xian Weng three, because there has been a relationship before, this time can take the initiative to come over and chill, will not give people the honor to climb and meet.

On the contrary, when such a good young person does not know each other, only they know it, but they have a sense of superiority.

This time, the elk saw it. Shen Lang really knew them, and it didn't look like he was familiar with Helan's ancestors. The suspicion of Shen Lang disappeared, but Helan's ancestors were still there, and he naturally would not pass.

The Kunlun ancestors of the Kunlun School heard yesterday that Shenlang knew Tongxian Weng, and their attitude has changed. Now they have verified their true understanding, and of course they have come to say hello.

A few of their ancestors came over, and other older generations, younger generations, could only get close to say hello, and then stood by.

The success of Shen Lang's success has reached the goal of becoming the focus of the scene.

Of course, he will not be proud. For every monk who comes to say hello, whether young or old, close or partial, he laughs and calls out the other person's name, and it does not make people feel left out.

The older generation is nothing more than that. When the younger ones need to sell their fame, they find that they are stronger than theirs. They know their identity and they are quite proud. It is a recognized Shutan. .

After all, Shen Lang is now a character who can talk and laugh with his ancestors!

Before they were in communication, no one had taken care of the waves. Now people don't care about these, they can still recognize them, and they can see it.

Shen Lang was the first to pass all the identities through the holy sacred to the upper number, and now directly corresponds to the past, of course, it is called, and will not make a mistake.

In fact, he personally has no impression of them.

The three children of Tong Xian Weng are different. They almost did it yesterday. It was impressive. It was also remembered by the Kunlun School.

"Shenlang Xiaoyou, when will your teacher arrive?" Song invincible could not help but ask.

After leaving yesterday, they were unwilling to play chess, basically based on the analysis of Shen Lang.

It is felt that there may be a long-lost ancient sect behind him, or it may be a bluff.

Now come here, Shen Lang is still one, how much more doubts. However, before Shen Lang calmly settled the grievances of the two ancestors, the courage of the momentum, and they made them believe a few points.

And three people also saw that the beast god, was not carried by the waves!

It is a living thing, it can't be placed in a space like a storage bag, or it has already been dried up, or someone else has taken it away!

Such super beast gods, all three of them are reluctant to directly kill the inner Dan, Shen Lang can open the mouth yesterday, and certainly will not kill so quickly.

The result can only be taken away by someone else, and his elders must be here!

Shen Lang directly opened the invitation letter to them and looked at it and then made a deep mysterious smile, no other explanation.

In addition to the next to the Helan ancestors, Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Yi and Song Invincible three are close to see, Zi Zi ancestors are also polite to squeeze through.

Everyone saw the name of the guest above the invitation, but it was just a simple word "Shen Lang"!

This makes them feel incredible.

Generally speaking, only high-level training such as Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Wei will be treated like this. Invincible Song will be the first to list the Promise Palace, and the ancestors of the Purple Emperor will be the Kunlun School.

What's happening here?

What is this sinking wave?

Absolutely impossible to be a mess!

Without strong resources, there is no strong practice and high-handed guidance, and no one else can be self-disciplined to this extent. Unless it takes a hundred or two years.

Chapter 1692 - Fairy teaser

They want to ask, but Shen Lang said that they don't want to answer, and they are not good enough to ask.

At least people are willing to show them invitations, they are already recognizing them, and it is not good to go to the bottom.

Others didn't know what was going on. They faintly saw Shen Lang give them a few look at the invitation, and then everyone's expressions were complicated.

This makes a lot of people think about it, is it a super shocking martial art? Or how do you make them look like this?

For a time, Shen Lang, which has already become the focus of the scene, is full of mystery.

No matter what identity, it is not comparable to mystery.

The more mysterious, the more curious you are, and the brain produces a result that fits their expectations, which is more exaggerated than the actual result.

Just when Shen Lang made everyone curious, there was a change in the water surface of Yaochi!

Everyone comes in advance, just for a simple social and recognizable person. After the official start of the Yaochi event, you will be able to go ahead and have an advantage to understand first.

So at this moment, the channel of Yaochi was opened, and everyone immediately put down the other, all concerned about the waters.

Yaochi is a vast lake, also known as the mysterious sea by the Guangming Mountain.

Everyone is now in one direction.

The passage to enter the Yaochi Festival is not the only one here, or there are other passages in the place. The waves are unknown, and now it is with everyone.

Anyway, he lacks experience and needs to follow the public.

The calm lake, under the watchful eyes of everyone, there was a whirlpool.

The range of vortices is getting bigger and bigger, and the spread also affects the surrounding waters.

Looking at this scene, Shen Lang determined that this is the place where Fan Xueyu said.

After a while, a platform appeared above the vortex, but the platform was like a ghost.

After this virtual shadow platform was just formed, it soon appeared multiple figures.

All are a group of Yaochi female disciples.

Above the virtual screen above the water surface, it gives the impression that it is the image of a fairy in mythology and legend.

“Yao Chi’s uterus is holding the same door, and welcomes all the distinguished guests who come to the event!”

Out of a group of female disciples, came out of an old man, who was the former Shi Fan’s sister who had seen before.

She introduced herself to the palace, and for others, she did not introduce them one by one, and then invited them to everyone.

Everyone in the outside world occasionally encounters Yaochi disciples, all wearing veil, and revealing the truth like this is generally not seen.

And the fact that so many women have appeared together is inherently rare.

In addition to the image of the old man, the other is basically younger, basically from the appearance of more than twenty to thirty, and looks beautiful.

The whole team is quite pleasing.

Shen Lang is also in the welcome lineup, seeing the Fan Xueyu.

She can be in this welcoming team, strength and generation are natural, but she should be the smallest in the grade, is on the far side.

The female disciple of Yaochi has always been a cold-blooded image, but this time it was the host, so it was a smile that kept a courtesy.

Even if you can't make a smile, you still have no expression, not suitable for cold.

For the first time, Van Syracuse encountered such a large-scale event, which was very exciting.

Now in the crowd, she knows Shen Lang, so her eyes naturally find Shen Lang.

The two eyes met, and Shen Lang cast a grateful eye on her.

This time, I can get an invitation letter. Although it is the privilege of Yao Chi's personal opening, it is obviously related to Fan Xueyu.

On that day, her sister-in-law's attitude was now understood. She was responsible for the reception this time. What is nearby is directly her responsibility.

Although Shen Lang and Fan Xueyu, only the eyes exchanged, and did not speak, but still been concerned by many people!

For the ancestors, not only strength, but also the most experience. Fan Xueyu is the only female disciple in the welcome Yaochi. The only one who looks at them, and she is the youngest, will inevitably be concerned.

It's just that curiosity is understandable, but when she glances at Shen Lang, she pauses, naturally letting them pay more attention to their eye contact.

The older generation is more serious, and the focus is on the representative of the palace.

Younger generations, once seeing so many Yaochi fairy, is inevitably more exciting. When they appeared, their eyes were concentrated.

Fan Xueyu is one of the youngest and the most beautiful ones, and naturally attracts their attention.

These days, the pride of the people, have maintained the best state, ready to contact with her eyes, the newspaper said with a smile, in order to leave an impression.

It turned out that the youngest and most beautiful fairy, swept away, completely ignored them.

I have been skipped, of course I want to see if anyone else is favored.

If all of them are skipped, then everyone is balanced, and they are not suffering from unequalness.

So they involuntarily tracked the eyes of Fan Xueyu, and then found her glanced eyes, and naturally stopped at Shenlang.

The moment with the gaze of Shen Lang, the expression on the face and the smile, as if it is not a polite expression, but there is really a kind of communication.

In the words of the earth, this is “discharging” and “sparking out the spark”.

This point is that Shen Lang did not think of it!

Everyone looked at the other side, and across the water, they just had a look at the meeting, and they passed on the tacit. I can't think of it, this is also amplified by everyone.

At this moment, those ancestors paid more attention to Shen Lang.

The young female disciple is undoubtedly the best in the young generation of Yaochi. It seems that she recognizes this deep wave, and it can be seen that the origin of Shenlang is not ordinary!

They all secretly thought about it, and they had to look for Tong Xian Weng privately and they inquired about it.

The younger generation, who was a bit envious of Shen Lang, was a bit uncomfortable.

Now look at the most beautiful Yaochi fairy is also a glance at the sinking eyebrows, but they are all compared, it is even more unhappy!

After Miyazaki said a few more words, he invited everyone to go to Yaochi.

The people who have arrived have leapt to the virtual platform in batches, and then accompanied by one or two female disciples of Yaochi.

Miyazaki and other female disciples are waiting in the air.

The virtual shadow platform is naturally a bridge of transmission. After a group of people are sent away, they will reappear and come back again.

They are leading the way in batches. In the order, Van Gogh is on the far side, and it is the turn.

She probably also wanted to find a chance to talk to Shen Lang, and saw him more. I can see that I hope that Shen Lang will be a little late, waiting for her to go.

A lot of people have just paid attention to their eye contact, which undoubtedly adds another piece of evidence for their conjecture!

Chapter 1693 - Entering Yaochi

As a teacher of Fan Xueyu, Miyazaki is more likely to end her.

And she is the person who has seen Shen Lang and Fan Xueyu together, naturally, they will inevitably pay attention to them both.

Just as a representative of this concierge, she can't have any changes, so try not to see the waves, not to see the younger sister.

Shen Lang received the "signal" of Fan Xueyu, and in the name of "modesty", let the monks of other sects go first, and he stayed in the last batch.

A few of them, when they opened in the waters, they were with Shen Lang. At this time, they watched the waves and stayed at the end. They were also natural and Shen Lang.

When I finally flew to the virtual stage, I was a few waves and a few of them.

In addition to Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Yi, and Song Invincible, it is the Helan City and the Kunlun School.

On the reception side, Van Gogh is left, and the palace is gone.

When everyone came over, they took the invitation letter out to show their respect to the organizers and not let the guests be embarrassed.

But in fact, Gong Yi did not check any invitations.

Is there a special mark on the head, only they know it.

On the platform, everyone was quickly transferred to another place.

Originally in the waters of Yaochi, it suddenly came to a world of flowers!

It doesn't seem to be at the bottom of the water, on the island, or another small world. It is completely uncommon with the outside world. There is no existence of Yaochi waters in the surrounding, above, and in the distance.

Perhaps it is the relationship between the environment here, or it may be because Yaochi is a relationship between women and women. The exotic flowers and flowers here are far better than the general place, just like a large garden with spring blossoms.

When it was delivered, there were female disciples in Yaochi waiting.

They provided the itinerary for the Yaochi event.

There are no prints and copyings here, all of which are handwritten.

The itinerary is for everyone to provide a copy of the entire schedule.

Before Shen Lang did not understand these, don't even come over with the first time, but also heard from the division.

So now that I have the itinerary, I will only look at it carefully.

He didn't feel any embarrassment, and figuring out the details to avoid problems is the key.

After carefully looking at the arrangement, Shen Lang knew that this decade-long Yaochi event would actually have only one day!

It is no wonder that in addition to his early arrivals, other people have arrived very early, and now that they have not arrived yet, there should be Yaochi disciples to pick them up later.

The meeting is mainly divided into three parts. The first part is the welcome banquet of Yaochi.

It will be Yaochi who will be responsible for all the guests and let everyone know. After all, this is once in a few decades. These big men are usually in the middle of the world, even if they are old friends, it is difficult to see them for many years.

Of course, like Tong Xian Weng, they will gather first on the way, or before they come.

But that's a small area. Now it's all together, a common meal, and a cold welcome.

The second part is the main body of the Yaochi event.

It will be divided into two venues at that time, and the topics discussed will not be reflected in the schedule.

The third part is a free communication.

Similar to Shen Lang's conjecture, the main body of the event should be to exchange some information, not to talk about metaphysical roads. It is too time consuming, and no one can convince anyone.

The link of free communication should be the link of some resource transactions.

After the third part was completed, it was Yaochi who sent all the guests away.

All of this is done in one day, and it is a bit crowded and not enough time.

However, Yaochi is a female monk, and the invited monks are mainly male. If you still stay with everyone, I am afraid that the impact will not be good.

And this is probably a tradition that has already been formed, and everyone has no meaning.

After Shen Lang finished reading, it was secretly analyzed.

Time is limited, this day is actually a day, according to the Earth algorithm, about eight hours or so.

From 10:00 to 12:00, it is the first part. From 10:00 to 11:00, the first social tea party will come, and by the way, it has not yet arrived.

From eleven to twelve, it is a formal banquet.

From 12 o'clock to fifteen o'clock, it is the "Yao Chi Festival" in two venues.

From fifteen to eighteen, it is the last transaction, and then everyone is leaving.

With such an intensive arrangement, everyone should be prepared in advance and have an approximate goal so that they can make the best use of time.

It is no wonder that everyone just arrived at the edge of Yaochi in advance and completed some cold links in advance. When you are banqueting, you can start to pave the way for the next two links.

Others have experience, some friends can discuss, and Shen Lang is completely black, only to follow the flow.

This also determines that in terms of time utilization, he is more efficient than others, or else he is far behind others.

Miyazaki accompanied them and came to a temporary meeting place for the event.

This is the site of Yaochi, but it is all female repairs. Of course, it is not convenient for male monks to stroll around, so there are several scopes.

First of all, there is a large activity area, which is the scope of the entire event, which is marked on the itinerary.

This includes places to banquets, and two venues, then the trading floor.

This is not like a meeting on earth, no need for high-rise buildings, no need for glory, everything is relatively simple. However, Yao Chi also spent a lot of thoughts.

After entering the activity area, everyone who saw the first one was inside, because many people had already been in the cold before when they were outside, and many of them were enjoying the flowers and plants.

After Shen Lang and others came in, Fan Xueyu was looking for a chance to talk to Shen Lang.

In fact, I can see that she is not a private statement, just as a friend 叮嘱 some notes.

She couldn't say before, some of them are not enough. Now everyone is coming in, she knows more, so I can remind you.

However, Gong Miao stopped her in advance, took her back with her, and continued to wait for the guests behind!

Fan Xueyu was a little helpless and could only pass the sound to Shen Lang when he left.

“Shen Lang, you should be careful, don't offend people. It is said that some people are enthusiastic at the venue as old friends, and they ambush after they go out!”

“Understand! Thank you.”

This sentence of Fan Xueyu reminds that Shen Lang is actually understanding. With his experience, he even understands it more thoroughly than Fan Xueyu!

Face to face enthusiasm, behind a knife, may not necessarily offend people!

It may also be because you have the information that others want to know, and it may be that you have the resources that others want to have. Or robbing, or killing, is possible!

Chapter 1694 - Misunderstanding

The Yaochi event is very high-profile, and all the attendees are big men.

But human nature is the same.

The low-level comprehensions on the earth will desperately kill even a fine stone. At the guests of the Yaochi event, a fine stone is a humiliating sale price.

In their eyes, Yuan Lingshi will not be in the eye.

But it does not mean that they regard resources as dung, but what resources to look at.

For example, the rare spirits will still make everyone feel excited. For example, a super beast god, will still start immediately.

Other incomplete information, or some resources brought back inside, as long as the value is enough, will let them do it.

Take Gao Hanqiu, Liu Qiu Jianzong is already very wealthy. He is not interested in the things in the ruins, but he guards the killing warrior and wins its source of energy.

In the end, the level is higher, but corresponding to their level, there are more advanced things that will make them heart.

Therefore, if you don't equal the high-profile big-name, you won't kill people and goods. It's just something that lets them kill people and goods. The value is even greater.

For this, Shen Lang sees it more thoroughly than Fan Xueyu.

After all, how can Van Gogh's experience be compared to the kind of people he killed in the two worlds, like the flowers in the greenhouse.

Just like yesterday, he rescued the dog * from the three hands of Tong Xian Weng, that is, the act of taking the chest in the fire. If it wasn't for the success, it wouldn't be a chance to come here.

However, for the reminder of Fan Xueyu, Shen Lang is still very grateful, and that representative is really a concern of friends.

“Oh—“

After they left, He Lan smiled and smiled eccentrically.

“Just the fairy, it seems to be interesting to you!”

Tong Xian Weng and others are also interested in watching Shen Lang.

They are still a bit of a senior, and they are not familiar enough, not too good to make a joke.

Now, his friend He Lan asked a smile, and of course they are happy to know the answer.

According to their conjecture, this is obviously a female disciple of Yaochi Tianzhijiao. Under the circumstance of ignoring so many outstanding young disciples, it is a different signal to Shenlang. Naturally, it is a signal.

Until now, they still don't know the origins of Shen Lang. Since Yao Chi can send him an invitation letter and send him a personal name, it is natural to understand his situation and feel that he can afford it.

Shen Lang just said that he has already turned around and he is not willing to tell them the details.

And looking at that meaning, it should be that his elders behind the scenes did not let him reveal, just to introduce him.

Therefore, they are not convenient to continue to ask directly, but the more they do not know, the more they want to know.

I want to see now, can you know his situation from the side of Yaochi.

“Think more. It's just a friend.”

Shen Lang smiled and admitted generously.

When he hadn't come up outside the Yaochi waters, he didn't pay attention to everyone's attention, but they just noticed it.

So he immediately thought of it. When they were outside, they noticed it, and maybe there were other people who noticed it.

That being the case, it is not as generous as it is, lest you wait until the time when Fan Xueyu still communicates with him, everyone is staring at the sneak.

When he said this, he noticed the surroundings.

Sure enough, as he guessed well, he answered Helan with a smile, which is equivalent to answering the attention of Tong Xianwen and others, but there are still many people who are quietly paying attention to his answer.

“Hmm, my friend! Of course I am a friend. I didn’t say that you have any special relationship. I said it is interesting, I care about you.”

He Lan smiled and sent his unique laughter to ease the atmosphere.

Just the answer to “friends” has given them a lot of information.

In the style of Yao Chi, it is very strict, wearing a veil outside, not close to men.

But now it is very likely that the youngest female disciple of the younger generation is a friend with Shen Lang!

This shows that the two sides are likely to be World Trade, so that Shen Lang must be from an old martial art like Yao Chi!

At least it should be the same as Yao Chimen.

At this point, they feel that they have mastered the general information, and they are sure to be sure and relieved. As for the details, they will not be able to trace it. It’s good to have a good relationship. Others will be confused.

Some of them have already done this. Others who are suspicious of Shen Lang's identity, because of this information, have quickly launched more analysis and got a similar conclusion.

For a time, all the factions secretly instructed their young disciples to let them get closer to Shen Lang.

Although it may not be of any benefit to be close to Shen Lang, I don't know what the benefits are, but even Yao Chi has already taken the first step. There is definitely no problem.

Yao Chi's best young disciple and his friend, Yao Chi's invitation to his name, has already explained many problems.

Many young disciples can't help but feel mixed.

Before looking at the youngest and most beautiful female disciple in Yaochi, when they had their own eyes on Shen Langqing, they had already made them somewhat interesting.

Because they have not yet reached the age of old, even if they do not want to pursue, possess, and the like, the male nature will still want to perform in front of the excellent females and get favored.

That is the way to suppress the homosexuality of other competitors without using force.

The result is that they are being pressed down by the waves!

The waves that were not noticed at the time were so envied and hated by them.

Now, they are more aware that Shen Lang may be far better than them in terms of origin. That Yaochi fairy, everyone still does not know the name, he has already got the first step.

And they are still ordered to take the initiative to get close to him!

Five flavors are also good heart is not willing to give up, they are still sensible, or must pile up a smile to take the initiative and Shen Lang sets close.

Tong Xiangeng and other ancestors of the age, have just surrounded the waves for a while, after this, of course, they also greeted the old friends and acquaintances.

If you have been around the side of Shen Lang, then you will be down.

Including the Kunlun faction, it is not so convenient, but to communicate with other levels of the same level, like other people, to give this task to Su Feng.

He Lan smiled and was also a younger generation, and he was a friend who had known him with Shen Lang. He could naturally socialize with others in the casual wave of Shen Lang.

Su Feng is also on the side.

Both of them secretly groaned. They had communicated with other people before, but because they were not familiar with it, they were not introduced by the elders. Others simply said hello.

Now because everyone else wants to make a mess, in order not to be too deliberate, they also greet the two of them next to Shen Lang.

Chapter 1695 - Goodbye acquaintance

Shen Lang has the help of the Holy A, can remember the identity of each of them, and is also responsive to them. These people have been outside before, many people have already experienced it.

In addition, there are two people, He Lan, and Su Feng, and they are not as embarrassed as they thought.

But Shen Lang is not satisfied with communicating with them!

The factions will let young disciples come to meet with him because they look at their age. These younger generations are actually at least one or twenty years older than Shen Lang.

But from the realm, Shen Lang is no worse than the older generation.

And his true knowledge, heart, etc., are actually comparable to those of his ancestors.

So let him and the “younger generation” who are at least forty at least, of course, are not reconciled.

Together with these younger generations, it is equivalent to classifying him as a junior character. In this Yaochi event, it is just a matter of insight. Don't reach the effect of showing your face, don't even want to participate in the core!

All of them are developing in the long run. The younger generation can increase their knowledge and make friends. It has already achieved its goal.

Unlike the Shen Lang, he will not stay here for a long time. He had to leave, and he stayed because of the Yaochi event.

His purpose is very clear, that is, guessing the theme of this event is related to the ruins. I want to see what information they got from Zhoushan and see if they can exchange some valuable resources.

If you want a higher specification, you must distance yourself from their younger generation!

After this decision, Shen Lang deliberately screened it up. Some people who have already greeted them will not be so much nonsense with them.

After chatting with most people, he took the itinerary and walked alone to the corner of no one to sit down.

However, the content on the itinerary is limited, and the simple one is finished.

At this time, Shen Lang misses the social environment on earth. Although everyone plays mobile phones, there is a lack of communication between people. But you are holding a mobile phone, pretending to be on the phone, sending a message, others will naturally not come to bother you.

Now he thought about it, and immediately took out the same thing, and read it instead of the itinerary.

Not a classic, but a manual!

He has purchased a lot of this, and there are quite a few manuals.

Anyway, everyone doesn't understand, just like holding a book.

When I come to the Yaochi Festival, I am still reading a book. It will inevitably be regarded as a pretending act, but as long as I don't bother to do it.

First discard the interruptions of these young monks, and then find ways to integrate into the social circle of the ancestors!

This is actually not so difficult. After all, he has just had a relationship with Helan's ancestors. Regardless of the real idea, at least it should be enthusiasm.

There are also a few of them, and they have a few sentiments. With them, other ancestors will not feel self-destructive.

However, Shen Lang thought quietly.

If you want to take the initiative to cater to other people to communicate, then just like these young people to cater to him, the value is first low.

And he doesn't need to lay the groundwork for the long line in the future. What he wants is a blockbuster show!

Then you should use a unique way to attract others!

This unique way must be high-end, compelling, or else it is easy to become a clown.

Playing chess?

This is a good point. There are a lot of entertainment activities here. It can hold a group of high-ranking people, and it can still make people look at each other.

But this point has been used once in front of Tong Xian Weng, and there is a bit of repeated suspicion, and they will certainly not be abused again, others will hesitate, the effect will be worse.

Shooting?

Fan Xueyu can surprise photos, others should be surprised.

But it is hard to say if you can reach the level of your ancestors.

This kind of “magic technology” may be in their eyes, it is difficult to be elegant and singular, skillful and skillful.

Thinking about it, there is no good entrance.

Shen Lang sighed and could only see the opportunity to act, find and create opportunities, and make good use of every opportunity.

At this time, he heard a familiar Shen Lang, a female voice.

“Shen Lang, I haven’t seen you for a long time.”

Shen Lang looked up and saw a middle-aged woman who did not wear a veil.

“It turned out to be a fairy, I haven’t seen it for a long time.”

Flowing Cloud Fairy came over and gave him a slight ritual. It was also quite emotional: “It’s good to call me a cloud. It’s been a long time since I saw it. I didn’t expect to see it so quickly, and I didn’t expect you to come to Yaochi.”

Apparently, she knew that Shen Lang would come over because of the relationship of the invitation letter, and she was not surprised.

However, when she saw the real person, she discovered that she was not as good as her swell, and she is already above her!

Of course, Yunyun Fairy also learned a little. I heard about the special case of Shen Lang, and of course I heard the rumors with Fan Xueyu.

In her opinion, in the capacity of Shen Lang, she is absolutely not qualified to receive an invitation letter. The head can give him a separate invitation. It is because of the relationship between Van Gogh and the house.

But now that she saw Shen Lang, she realized that Shishi’s three days were dazzling, and now the Shenlang is not the Shenlang she saw.

How long has it been!

Shen Lang has already completed the realm that others have been able to break through for decades, even the gap that cannot be crossed in a lifetime.

It’s no wonder that such a talented person will get another look.

Even if it is a genius, it should be related to the adventures in the ruins. It is really valuable and valuable.

“Yeah, I didn’t expect to come to Yaochi as a guest. Can a mysterious woman be good?”

Shen Lang smiled and asked.

He has no friendship with Liu Yunxian, because she is the master of the mysterious woman.

The friendship with the mysterious girl is somewhat similar to that of the Fan Xueyu.

Hearing the waves and asking the mysterious woman Flowing clouds fairy eyes flashed a bit of complexity, and then responded to a sentence.

“After returning, the mysterious woman has been retreating and practicing, and now she has not gone out.”

“It turns out that it is a pity. According to this process, we have to leave today, and we don’t know when there is a chance to come next time.”

Shen Lang is also a bit regrettable. This place in Yaochi is not an accident. He cannot specifically visit the mysterious woman.

Now that I am here, of course, I will visit it by the way. Since it is in a retreat, there is no chance.

“Well, as long as you have the heart, there will always be opportunities in the future. I am busy!”

After the flow of the fairy, he said with a deep meaning, he left.

As the host of the event, Yaochi disciple is busy today, she is coming to say hello.

Chapter 1696 - Old friend now

According to the rules, the flow cloud is not allowed to be in private contact with guests.

But she is still here, and it can be rounded up. After all, it is also known. It can be classified as a friend, not a guest.

She came to contact Shen Lang, came over and said hello, of course not for her own, nor how much friendship with Shen Lang. It is entirely for the disciple!

If she can, she is willing to match the mysterious girl and Shen Lang.

But the mysterious woman is better than other people, or placed outside, but also a genius, can not compare with the Fan Xueyu.

The mysterious woman is only her disciple, and Fan Xueyu is the most popular disciple of the head!

Besides, I don't have a high level of Van Gogh's realm. How is it better? How to fight?

Moreover, now the strength of Shen Lang has already opened up her by leaps and bounds, and the mysterious girl is also out of reach.

Originally, she came over to contact Shen Lang, who wanted to brush the sense of existence for the mysterious woman.

At the beginning, there was nothing for the two people. They couldn't blame Shen Langxi for being tired of the old, or blaming him for being on the snow. Just remind me of her existence when the mysterious woman retreats.

Now that she saw Shen Lang, she has given up.

From the talents, from the realm of cultivation to all aspects, it is obvious that they are more intimate with Van Gogh.

For the inner real thoughts of Liu Yunxian, Shen Lang is completely unaware of it!

It is not that he is slow, nor is he ignoring others.

It was the same time that the mysterious woman and the mysterious woman met each other. It was a friend who helped each other. It was the same with He Lan, and there was no special feeling.

I also know that she is a disciple of Yaochi. I don't know where Yaochi is, and I don't know how to go to Yaochi. So I didn't go to men and women from the beginning.

It is now the same as Van Gogh.

So I just saw the flow of clouds, and I have already taken the initiative by many people. Shen Lang certainly feels that the flow of clouds is just a greeting from the cold, and I don't think so much.

He didn't think so much.

Others think a lot!

Just now, Shen Lang walked away alone, and took out books to watch. People who are interested can feel it. He is rejecting others.

However, he is still noticed by many people. When you see the fairy tales in the past, everyone pays attention.

Although their words are not well understood, they can still be heard. Shen Lang is not only aware of this fairy, but also a female disciple!

Together with the Fan Xueyu that everyone saw before, he is known to all three Yaochi female disciples!

Just talking with Fan Xueyu's eyes and passing the voice, I have already let everyone guess that he and Yaochi are the world.

There are now two more female disciples. This shows that the relationship between the two sides is definitely very good. Yao Chi is to treat him as his own, and he will know so much.

This makes the parties pay attention to Shen Lang and adds another point...

Just now, now, from time to time, there are late arrivals to pick up.

After they arrived, they were not as grouped as before. When you get there, you don't have to wait a lot.

But now, the time is close to eleven, and it is time to start a formal banquet.

In addition to the real delays, for this kind of decades-long event, those who face the face, can not delay until the last moment, it will be rejected.

So at this moment, it is the last batch of guests who have arrived.

Shen Lang also saw that Gong Yi and Fan Xueyu accompanied the last batch.

Obviously, Gong Yi called Van Gogh to welcome the guests before, and left her to stay together. Perhaps it is not wanting to let her and Shen Lang more contact, so as not to be misunderstood, thus affecting Yaochi's reputation.

Now that they are back together, it is natural that the work has stopped outside.

How many invitations, the palace is clear, how much she knows when she comes in, then I know that the guests are all there.

Shen Lang first looked at Fan Xueyu and Gong Gong because he did not pay attention to the guests.

But he is a little farther away, and this time he saw it, they saw it together with the guests.

This look, let him discover that this last guest is also an acquaintance!

It will be used because there is more than one, but it is just three people.

Gao Hanqiu, Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu.

It seems that Qiulin Jianzong, developed for hundreds of years, still received the approval of the Yaochi event.

It seems that it is not the first time to participate. Mo Feiliu is a close disciple of Gao Hanqiu, and he is also a young man. He should have followed before.

Xu Haoyue is definitely the first time to participate.

It can also be seen that Gao Hanqiu is still very old. For this former younger brother, although he is only a level with his apprentice, he has been taking care of it.

The last time I went to the ruins, Xu Haoyue was with Mo Feiliu. Now I can only bring two people at this Yaochi event, and I will give Xu Haoyue a quota.

However, Shen Lang is also familiar with Qiu Lin Jianzong, and Qiu Lin Jianzong talent reserve is also insufficient.

Nowadays, as a successor, it is easy to manage the tough front. It is a disciple of Yang Baotian.

It is easy to be excellent in management, management, and diplomacy. There is no problem in the future.

But his age is not small, but his talent is not comparable to the younger generation here.

To put it simply, in terms of age, it is easy to catch up with these heads and elders, but the strength is not enough for the big fairy, not comparable to Zheng Songlin and Su Feng.

He Lan smiled, it was similar to Yi, but now it is also a breakthrough in the realm of Daxian.

Mo Feiliu's seniors are all ancestors. He is surrounded by Tangcheng and a large territory. He is a super-powerful person who can live in martial arts like Longyan and Muxiyang. Family ancestors.

However, compared with the martial art and family of the Yaochi event, he is inferior to the older generation who are at the elder level.

Fortunately, Gao Hanqiu is still alive, he is the realm of the gods, not lost to the ancestors of other families.

It's just that the cold autumn has been hundreds of years old...

On the whole their heritage is still not as good as others, relying on the strength of time. It is worse than others, or even two generations. And now the younger generation, there is no genius.

Shen Lang also understands a lot of things.

From his first time to the Qiulin swords, Qiu Lin Jianzong publicly expressed his cover and spread his reputation.

Now it seems that it may not be the inspiration of the cold autumn, but the inspiration of Mo Feiliu. The purpose of course is to win his joining!

With his age and speed of progress, joining Qiu Lin Jianzong is a complete complement to their lack of success!

Even if one person is not enough to influence the overall situation of the whole sect, there is a big banner person who can make the sect for one or two hundred years. With time, there are more opportunities and more possibilities.

Perhaps it is precisely because of the high-standard existence of the Yaochi event, so a young Mo Feiliu did not dare to retreat behind the scenes, or sit in person.

Chapter 1697 - Shocked the audience

Think of these, Shen Lang is also a bit embarrassing.

Compared with the earth monks, Yuxianmen is already very cattle, and it can restrict everyone's food chain.

Compared with other sects, Yuxianmen is only a small martial art school. Qiu Lin Jianzong is the representative of the martial art school.

However, compared with the real pool and the hidden sects of the Yaochi Festival, Qiu Lin Jianzong is also under great pressure.

There are people outside, there are days outside the sky, nothing more.

Gao Hanqiu is a senior, even if it is not the biggest one in the ancestors, there will not be too much. So even if he arrives at the latest, it is still understandable.

When they appeared, many people immediately greeted them with enthusiasm.

Although Qiu Lin Jianzong is not rich in history, it is now a sect of secularity. And they have a cold winter, they are sitting in the town, no worse than them, and no one treats them as upstarts.

Perhaps there has been such a treatment, but now, it has been recognized by the Yaochi event, and some old guys have been removed, and it is also a daughter-in-law.

The old ancestors said hello, the cold autumn is not easy to support, keep a smile and say hello to them.

Because the original people have come a lot, Shen Lang is in a corner where there are few people. Now those big sisters have taken the initiative to meet and say hello, so they have not seen Shen Lang.

After the arrival of Fan Xueyu, his eyes searched for Shen Lang.

Among these guests, only this one is her friend, and he is another person, young and inexperienced, of course she will be more concerned about it.

When he found Shen Lang, he nodded slightly to him, and he said hello.

After the palace led them over, they called Shang Fan Xueyu to leave, and they still had work.

Shen Lang is also hesitating for a while.

The past high cold autumn is his younger brother, but he is already another generation. People are old people, and he should go to say hello.

But Gao Hanqiu still recognizes the first life. If he greets him in the past, Gao Hanqiu will definitely feel embarrassed and will come to him to say hello.

Nowadays, people are surrounded by the past. If Shen Lang goes up, he may be felt by others that he is in a cold autumn, and the reaction of Gao Hanqiu should make everyone stunned.

In that way, you can achieve the effect of a limelight.

However, Shen Lang is a bit entangled. He can use Tong Xian Weng, He Lan's ancestors and others to make a stepping stone to get out of the limelight, but can't use the cold autumn, this is a friend of the two worlds.

In the end, the cold autumn is the great god!

Although many familiar ancestors have come to chill, he only needs to socialize with his ancestors, and he does not need to pay attention to other older generations and younger generations of monks.

But as long as he has a thought, he can still be completely covered by all the monks in the entire activity area.

When he was entertaining, he had already mastered how many people were at the scene. For Shen Lang, of course, it is also concerned about it.

However, even if it is as old as the cold autumn, I did not expect to encounter a deep wave here.

This is totally unreasonable. Shen Lang cannot appear here as a guest.

So even if it was discovered, he thought it was an illusion of missing the waves.

But even if it is an illusion, he still pays attention to it again. This time, the gods specifically swept the past, and they confirmed that it was really a wave!

Originally for the ancestors of all walks of life, the cold and cold autumn still have to be polite. Even if he is old and has a high score, others are not bad, and the martial art has a long history and is worthy of respect.

But now that Shen Lang is here, he can't calm down.

On the one hand, for Shen Lang, it is not the same feeling, not polite respect, but the respect that is integrated into the bones!

On the other hand, he is also very curious, how can Shen Lang be here?

“Sorry, sorry, let me see, I see a friend.”

Gao Hanqiu immediately told everyone about it, and then let others let the road go ahead.

Of course, Shen Lang will be clear, and he is not good enough to sit still, but stand up.

Seeing that the cold autumn came, when he had not opened his mouth, Shen Lang first passed the sound.

“It's good to call me a sinking wave, or else it's too ridiculous.”

Before meeting, in addition to maintaining the respect of past lives, Gao Hanqiu still called him Langge. Xu Haoyue has no problem, Mo Feiliu is his disciple, and there is no problem.

But for outsiders, this is incredible and shocking.

A centurion old man, a young man in his twenties called a brother, these powerful people with rich knowledge, you should be able to guess that Shen Lang is a reincarnation.

It's not that Shen Lang is afraid of others knowing that now he can not be kept secret. But this is his own secret, or it is not guilty to let others know.

When Gao Hanqiu let everyone borrow, everyone will of course give up the face.

Only everyone is very curious, the guests on the scene, can enter the high-cold autumn eye, only those ancestors.

But in all the strong ancestors of the ancestor level, which one is very special, it is worthy of the cold and autumn so active past greetings?

This is the same as the thoughts of the young monks about Shen Lang before, the ancestors are also a bit puzzled and secretly dissatisfied, want to see who is actually, even more than their own face.

They are active to go forward and greet the cold autumn, giving enough respect and face, so high cold autumn, it can be considered a bit rude.

They all want to see what a "friend" is, which can make the cold and cold fall.

They followed and swarmed around, and then looked in the direction of the cold autumn, seeing the sinking waves that just stood up at the corner.

How can it be!

Everyone is stunned!

Just let the cold autumn ignore them and chill, do you want to come in advance to entertain, will actually be Shen Lang?

Can Shen Lang call the old predecessors like Gao Hanqiu a "friend"?

Even the ancestors were shocked, and others would not even say it.

All do not believe this conjecture, do not believe what you see.

For a time, they were searching around quickly and wanted to see someone who qualified.

Before the ancestors, they were quite dissatisfied, and felt that there should be no one on the scene that is much larger than their own face.

But now when I see this person, it is very likely that when they are sinking, they are panicked...

At this time, as long as it is the family, the ancestors of the martial art, no matter who they are, and their level of they will not be dissatisfied, but will feel gratified.

Because a hairy boy who is less than a fraction of their lives, the wife is subverted!

“Shen Lang... It really is you! I really didn’t expect to meet you here.”

Gao Hanqiu was supposed to shout out “Lang Ge”, and the timely reminder of Shen Lang, let him change into “Shen Lang”, I feel very blunt and strange.

This sentence is said, let all the people feel as if they are sunny!

It turned out to be true!

It turned out to be a wave!

How can he be?

And Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue also followed the front, and screamed respectfully to Shen Lang: “Mr. Shen!”

In this sentence, everyone was shocked again!

Chapter 1698 - Mysterious

Gao Hanqiu called out the name of Shen Lang and has already shocked everyone.

But that can also be described as “forgetting the year”.

After all, at their age, making friends has not been too deliberate, although most of the time, it will be a good friend.

But occasionally there are times when you meet some young people who look pleasing to the eye and have a good temper.

This point, Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Zhi has the most say, because Shen Lang is super talent in playing chess, so that they can all be outside the other interests, and are willing to pay such a friend of similar interest.

Of course, this may also involve interests. For example, playing chess together, helping to improve chess, etc., is only an interest, and not a direct benefit.

Therefore, they think that Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu’s understanding should also be like this.

In a very short time, everyone gave themselves a rational excuse:

Gao Hanqiu and their acquaintances who have known each other for a long time, we are not welcome, now we want to not neglect the new friends to forget the young friends, so first greet Shen Lang.

However, the two people who came along with the cold autumn, Mo Feiliu many people also know. After all, from the age of generations, Mo Feiliu is inseparable from these ancestors.

Mo Feiliu is the contemporary head of Qiulin Jianzong!

In addition, although Xu Haoyue is the first time to appear, but the strength will not be worse than the Mo Fei flow, can be brought in the cold autumn, naturally it is also a big deal.

The strength of both of them is the peak of Daxian.

But now, both of them have consciously passed, respectfully calling “Mr. Shen.”

This is unusual!

Their respect is definitely because of the relationship between the cold and the autumn, but if they are only interested in the cold and autumn, they will maintain a polite respect, and they will not be so respected.

The attitude of just two people, everyone can see, it is really like the respect of the elders!

Therefore, for the attitude of the cold autumn, they just made up a reasonable excuse to comfort themselves.

The attitude of Mo Feiliu and Xu Yuyue to Shen Lang is to make everyone even more shocked.

For a time, everyone was holding their breath and watching the waves.

Combined with the special nature of Yao Chi against Shen Lang, this can never be the treatment that a young person can get, even if it is a super genius.

There must be a powerful force behind this!

Shen Lang... What is it?

As a result, Song Invincible, who had no good attitude toward Shen Lang, and the elk and other people in Ginkgo Valley, had a little drumming in their hearts.

Although they did not reach the level of fear, they did not want to offend a party because of unintentional contempt.

“Yeah. I didn’t expect to meet you here.”

Shen Lang smiled slightly, and said hello to the cold autumn, and then took a shot of Xu Haoyue, indicating that they do not need such politeness.

Xu Haoyue and Mo Feiliu have long been stunned. It is still a bit special to call “Mr. Shen”, but it is still worthy. Gao Hanqiu called Langge, the response is big.

At this time, he did not realize that the attitude of Xu and Mo, but let everyone more invisibly push the “power behind him” up!

After Zhoushan’s departure, the three of them were in the cold and autumn, and they were also closed in Zhoushan.

They all have their own great harvests, but in the end, the time is short, they are all gimmicks, and there is no big leap in general.

Seeing it now, Shen Lang has changed a lot.

Gao Hanqiu is a purely unexpected surprise, just because he saw Shen Lang personally.

Xu Haoyue is gratified and admired.

When he saw Shen Lang again, it was nothing more than a real world. At that time, it was far from him. In the past few years, I have been leaps and bounds all the way, and now I have caught up with his strength.

He did not doubt the magic of Shen Lang, which is why he was so respectful of Shen Lang’s strength as he was on Earth.

Mo Feiliu is completely silent.

When he saw Shen Lang once, there was a big change. Such a talented person was only seen in his life. If you join the Qiulin sword, it will inevitably be a new pillar, and the future achievements can even catch up with the teacher!

However, Shen Lang's identity is special, and he dare not ask anything. At this moment, he still maintains the attitude of the younger generation.

Shen Lang is not convenient to talk to them at this time, because everyone on the scene is watching here, he has once again become the focus of the audience!

He had just entangled this problem, and did not want to use the reputation of the cold autumn to come out.

As a result, Gao Hanqiu still inadvertently helped him build momentum.

Before the cold autumn came, he was already the ZTE lord of the Tianshan Jianzong; after this, the joint Lin Biaozi, gradually became the sword of the autumn forest, and worked hard to become a first-class martial art... and live to the present, of course, it is already human .

He was very surprised just now. He didn't expect to encounter a deep wave here. He didn't even think that Shen Lang would be in this world.

The simple greeting now is an emotional maintenance. The tacit understanding of their former brothers does not require more words to maintain.

So he came back to God and immediately felt the difference in the atmosphere of the audience. He further understood the position of Shen Lang.

No matter how Shen Lang came to Yaochi, he alone, without a strong martial art support, must have been blinded by these parties.

No wonder it will be a person in the corner!

They should all be left out of the cold, and they don't want to have a meeting with a young man.

Gao Hanqiu has been the lord of the Tianshan Jianzong. Now he is the ancestor of Qiulin's ancestors. The relationship with Shen Lang is different, but for him personally, he does not want to change this relationship!

Because in the first few decades, many of the masters who successfully came to the world from the earth died in the process of gaining a foothold in the battle. I have really stayed, and I have succeeded in making contributions. I have passed away for hundreds of years.

Only he is alone!

Even his disciples with Lin Biaozi died one by one.

This is the closing disciple of Mo Feiliu. Now it is also a lot of age, and the situation of Qiu Lin Jianzong is now, the current disciples, he basically did not understand, no impression.

At this time, the appearance of Xu Haoyue and Shen Lang for him, is worthy of a gift from heaven.

Both are the old people of past lives, one is his big brother who worships his life, and the other is the younger brother who follows him.

Old people are always easy to nostalgic, easy to recall things when they were young. It was the best time. It was carved by the years, many of them were forgotten, and all left are wireless beautification.

I can still see them both, and he has no regrets.

Xu Haoyue said that he was originally his younger brother. Now everyone is a hundred-year-old man who continues to follow him.

Shen Lang is a reincarnation, which requires him to take care of it!

It's just that the cold autumn is clear. Now the gap between the two sides is big. If he is too enthusiastic to take care of the waves, he is worried that the waves will be sensitive and he will be sensitive, so he is restrained.

But now, seeing that his big brother is isolated by everyone, he can't stand it!

Chapter 1699 - Calm

In the impression of the cold autumn, the Shen Lang is like the sun, always shining!

Not to mention that Xu Haoyue of the year, that is, he is far from being able to look back.

Now because of the reincarnation, although it is already a peerless genius, but in the end, only a few years of cultivation, how can we fight these old guys who have been at least one or two hundred years old.

The result is that they are looked down!

This is the dragon swim in the shallow water!

This is the tiger fell Pingyang was bullied by the dog!

Disrespect for Lange is far better than disrespect for him!

However, in the end, Gao Hanqiu is a ancestor of hundreds of years old. The heart has been tempered very powerfully. Even if it is uncomfortable, it only brings a hint of embarrassment, but it will not reveal people.

But he has made a decision, that is, to force the Shen Lang, to build momentum for Shen Lang, let everyone respect the waves!

"Haha, I think that our relationship, you don't need to be a chiller, and turn back to the old. Now I introduce some new friends to you!"

Gao Hanqiu wants to build momentum for Shen Lang. This is also a temporary intention. There is no complete plan, but a machine to act.

However, he obviously not only participated in a Yaochi event, but also an old man with a good foothold, and the status of the rivers and lakes here, everyone is giving face.

Therefore, he does not need to use domineering means, or declare that “this is my friend, you all have to respect.”

What he needs is to take the opportunity to Shen Lang and use his own to raise the position of Shen Lang!

The easiest thing is to introduce other people to Shen Lang with enthusiasm.

These ancestors, for the two generations of successors of their own generations, are also brought along with them, and they are not really paving the way for them.

There are new friends, just a brief introduction.

Now Gao Hanqiu is passionately inviting Shen Lang to peer, and then one of them is actually introduced.

The identity of these people, Shen Lang is basically known, and the Holy One is another note. He also knows that these people are concerned about him, but now the formal introduction is not the same.

When the cold autumn was warm, Shen Lang guessed his mind.

He didn't want to take advantage of the cold autumn, but now Gao Hanqiu is unbearable to his situation and insists on taking advantage of him.

Shen Lang will be able to withstand it, because it is a heart of the cold autumn!

In the past life, he brought Xiao Gao, so Xiao Gao is still in mind.

But Xiao Gao is not a small high in the past!

The current Xiaogao has long been a great  who is not lost in the heights of Shenlang's past life. It is also in this world, and it is also a master of the powerful martial art!

If he does not appear here, these years of care, is just a memory of the past.

But he has already seen the cold autumn again, and this will become a knot in the cold autumn. If he can't return his kindness, it will have an impact on the cold and cold mood, and he will always remember this.

Taking into account this layer, Shen Lang accepted it calmly.

You can't let others entangle because of their own self-respect and face.

Let the current cold autumn take care of him, you can make the cold and cold autumn better, he also needs this care, it is the right approach.

Gao Hanqiu personally brought people to introduce, and other ancestors certainly could not leave because of reason.

Many people have just said hello to him in the past. Now, after some shocks, they have been enthusiastic and they have set themselves up.

They are not children, everyone understands that Gao Hanqiu is giving his own status to Shen Lang to lift the sedan!

I think that his original love for his own, but also the successor Mo Feiliu, did not reach such a level, which shows the extraordinary of Shen Lang.

And this also makes everyone more entangled.

This swell, what is the end of what is special!

Before the Shen Lang, there were some young people who were unwilling to make friends, and they stopped eating.

This is not because they are handed down, it is clear that others give face to deal with them!

This is a enthusiasm of a super ancestor to introduce to others, and they are completely out of touch with them.

The same is a young man, why is Shen Lang so good?

These people have grown into the present years, and when they are out of their own divisions, they are the objects of envy.

Even if you see some people like them here, no one is worse than anyone, and you don't need to envy anything.

Now the emergence of Shen Lang is the first time they have experienced this huge gap and feel the "genius of others."

If you said that because of the attitude of Van Gogh, let them envy and hate, then now, they are completely admired.

Just now they still think that everyone is a level. Why can Shenlang be favored by the most beautiful fairy in Yaochi? But it is younger and stronger.

But now they are not only leading them, but their predecessors are also being opened, and they have directly dealt with the ancestors...

Beyond this level, envy is no longer useful, and natural disappearance, but become a look.

Originally, they were the latest ones, so after a brief introduction, they have already arrived at Yaochi to entertain everyone's banquet.

The female disciples of Yaochi have already arranged a banquet hall.

However, there are no luxurious banquet halls, still in the outdoor garden, with stone tables and stone benches, and the food for them, of course, is not a rich wine and food.

When Shen Lang came to this occasion for the first time, it was inevitable to watch a few more curious eyes and found that basically it was just some fruit!

Of course, these fruits are not ordinary fruits, they are all spiritual fruits with extraordinary aura.

Many of them are varieties that have not been seen on the earth. Shen Lang does not know what it is. It can only be determined to be an extraordinary spiritual fruit. Yaochi wants to entertain everyone, certainly not bad, and even less likely to be poisonous.

But there is one, he is really familiar.

Jade peach!

Shen Lang secretly relieved, it seems that the jade peaches have flowed from the world to the ancient times of the earth, and the mythical legend of “Yao Chi Tao Tao” the earliest prototype, perhaps also spread from here.

How it was first spread is not known. It may be similar to the Guangmingism, to other low-level worlds, including the Earth, to teach and preach, that is, the myth of the myth, the advent, and bring some legends.

And those who did not necessarily have participated in the Yaochi event, may also slowly spread more and began to appear different versions.

In general, Shen Lang estimates that it is likely that the root cause is here.

However, after reading this jade peach, he also found that the appearance of Yaochi here is much better than what he had seen before, including those seen in the Forbidden City in Jinjiu Valley.

This appearance is not only the appearance of a head, color, etc., nor the taste of eating – not eating yet, but the degree of aura that can be directly felt.

The peaches that think of the mythical story also have the result of three thousand years and three thousand years of fruiting, and the difference of six thousand years and nine thousand years. It can be seen that there are different varieties of jade peaches, and there are also differences in years.

Chapter 1700 - Sit on the table

These spirits, including the jade peach, are worth a single one. Now there are so many guests, and all the stone tables have one. These are the big ones.

Yaochi is not Yaochi.

This is the accumulation of the millennium for thousands of years, or it may be the achievement of the sects in the environment and other aspects.

Perhaps they have a large piece of jade peach in Yaochi, which has a lot of fruit. In this way, you can be self-sufficient, do not need to go to places like Tiandu to trade, do not need to go to the forbidden places like Jingui Valley.

The purchased jade peach is a finished product that has already been picked and can only be selected without growth.

Forbidden land is to take chances, not just can be encountered casually, and there are dangers such as beasts, so it is encountered, and regardless of the quality, they are picked first.

But the sects hidden like Yaochi, if you have a large piece of peach forest, all the jade peaches can be well planned, and can be picked at the best time according to their varieties.

When the accumulated quantity is too large, it does not need to be urgently used, that is, five hundred years and one thousand years, it can be afforded.

And this is one of the roots that they can have a long history.

The guests on the scene have all seen the world, and the performance of such a large-scale spirit is also very calm. Yaochi is available, and their various factions may have their own unique heritage.

As the organizer, Yaochi maintains an objective balance and does not visit famous brands on the stone table.

Secular meetings often distinguish important levels according to official positions, wealth, and fame.

The Yaochi event is different. There are too many things to consider, not so good.

The history, historical and current influence of the sects need to be considered; and the individual age, seniority, qualifications, strength, prestige, etc. of the guests also need to be considered.

Don't look at everyone's gloom. Once you have been seated, there will always be people who refuse to accept it.

Therefore, the practice of Yao Chi is to not seat, let everyone sit at will.

In this way, everyone will not have a feeling of being evaluated, and how to evaluate it fairly will also make people uncomfortable.

By the time everyone arrives at the scene, it is a group of peace, and each of them is humbly recommending others to sit on the table.

Today's ancestors, at the age of the youngest, are also two hundred years old, and the oldest is the high cold autumn.

The Yaochi event has been held for decades, and they came as sectarian representatives, including this time, often two or three times. More than a hundred years ago, they were probably the heads of the elders and the elders.

If you have been a very talented person, you may have participated in four or five times.

And even if you participate in the most, the cold autumn is already there!

Therefore, they are not clear about how old the cold winter is, and can only be determined to be at least a few hundred years old. His close disciple Mo Feiliu may not be lower than two hundred years old.

In addition to the weak history of Qiulin Jianzong, which other cold autumn is qualified to sit on the table.

Therefore, it is the most uncontroversial to recommend him to sit on the table. Everyone agrees.

As for the rest of the people, they are free to sit around in a random manner, no longer arranging the seats from both sides. If they are casual, then everyone is equal.

Gao Hanqiu gave a resignation, and he was welcome.

In addition to Xu Haoyue and Mo Feiliu, he also took the opportunity to sit down with Shen Lang!

Shen Lang is the youngest, and he has to sit down. Of course, everyone is dissatisfied. However, now that the cold autumn is clear, it is necessary to hold him up, and everyone can't say anything. When he is not available, he will not sit on the table. If he pushes other people, he will feel unnatural when he sits, and he will feel stared by others.

The result was not that Gao Hanqiu and Shen Lang were sitting on the table, but Mo Feiliu and Xu Yuyue were accompanying the left and right in the attitude of the younger generation.

This picture makes everyone a little bit embarrassed. This time the event, for a long time in the past, everyone will remember it.

What is certain is that this young man who does not know what comes to mind, this name called "Shen Lang" will be a rising sky!

There are some ancestors who are coming to the limit, but there are regrets outside. I am not able to support the next event, I hope to let go of the old face and sell more of my own generation.

As a result, Shen Lang smashed out and robbed all the young people.

On the age, on the strength, on the treatment, the background, everyone is compared!

At this time, everyone who has just been seated has stood up, and Shen Lang looked at the past and saw that Yao Chi's head came.

Yaochi is a female disciple. According to his identity, he has completed different jobs and is busy for today's event.

Now the arrival of Yao Chi's head has not followed a string of female disciples. As with other sects, there are up to three people, and two female disciples are brought.

These two female disciples, as everyone has seen, are the palaces that led the welcoming today, and the youngest and beautiful Fan Xueyu in the comrades.

Seeing this, Shen Lang immediately understood a lot.

Fan Xueyu called Nagase as a sister, and now they all come out with the head, it is likely that both are disciples!

Miyazaki is a big disciple who is trained to take over the head. It is also for the sake of a stricter image, so she retains the image of an old man.

And Fan Xueyu is the last young disciple. Because of his good talent and being pampered, he has been repaired to catch up with the palace.

Corresponding to other martial art families, Yao Chi is even the ancestor of the palace. The palace is comparable to other elders, and Fan Xueyu is the leader of the younger generation.

The palace is nothing, and there is no special place for it, but at this age of Fan Xueyu, it can be done so much, it is not ordinary!

There must be some secrets in Yaochi, and it is difficult to see their true strength.

But basically you can judge Gongyi and Fan Xueyu, it should be possible to reach the peak of Daxian!

At the age of Fan Xueyu, such an achievement can be achieved by pressing down the younger generation of the scene. If there is not another sinking wave, then she is the one who has made the limelight.

At this moment, many young monks on the scene were also convinced.

It is no wonder that people can add to the eyes of Shen Langqing. They will be friends because others are of similar age and strength. They are older and have lower strength!

However, the envy and hatred of Shen Lang at this time was reduced a lot, but it was thanks to Shen Lang.

If there is still a deep wave, then isn't everyone not as good as a woman?

This is the world dominated by men. Yaochi is respected by female practitioners and is already very rare. These sects of the sects of the genre still have the idea of being patriarchal.
