

First Strong 1701

Chapter 1701 - Yao Chi Head

Van Gogh followed the back of the head, and for the first time to attend such a big occasion, the whole person was still very excited.

It is not the specifications of the Yaochi event that excites her. However, there is no activity in Yaochi, and there are not many foreign visitors. The male guests are not allowed to enter directly.

So there is such an activity, just like a party, a celebration, it is very exciting for her to have a child's heart.

But she is the future star of Yaochi's vigorous cultivation. Miyazaki has been holding her and holding her hands and hands.

After all, this event will be held in the next few decades, and the time of the event will be one day today, not to be missed, and there will be no more time to adapt.

Just now they had their work to be busy, and then they went away after the arrival of the cold autumn, I don't know what happened later.

Entering the banquet hall at the moment, I saw that there was a deep wave in the person sitting on the table, which really made her a bit stunned.

Miyagi will of course share the situation with all her guests, so Gao Hanqiu can sit on the table, which did not surprise her.

But how can Shen Lang He De?

He is a young man, why can he sit side by side with the oldest and most seniors here?

When she was stunned, she also found that Shen Lang was self-sufficient, and there was no tension. There was no unnaturalness, as if he was qualified enough to sit there.

This made her very helpless. The face of this kid was thick enough. In front of so many seniors, she dared to sit on the table like this, and she was not afraid of others having opinions on him.

Miyazaki's gaze saw Shen Lang and was amazed.

She is not only responsible for reception, all aspects of affairs, she is co-ordinating, so it is not clear about the situation here, Shen Lang can actually sit with Gao Hanqiu, so that she is also difficult to understand.

Both of them looked at Shen Lang, and they were naturally in the eyes of the guests who looked at them together.

really! It is the palace Gong also knows the waves!

However, Yao Chi's head did not look at Shen Lang, nor was he surprised.

"The old snow is not snow, on behalf of Yaochi up and down, welcome guests from afar!"

Yaochi's head said hello, and with the palace and the vanity, he saluted all the guests together.

"The snow palm is good!"

"Break the Yaochi!"

"The snow palm has not been seen for decades, it is much younger and more beautiful than that year!"

Everyone has a good time to say hello, and some have complimented.

If they had met at the last Yaochi event, it was really a few decades apart. A few decades later, it is said that it is younger and more beautiful than that year, and it is undoubtedly a slap in the face.

But this is used in the snowy snow of Yaochi, but Shen Lang thinks it may be true!

Although he has not seen snow or snow for decades, the current palace is just next to it. It should be her pro-disciple, how can it be much younger than her?

But now the light looks from the outside, the old-fashioned palace is more like a master, the middle-aged woman's state of snow is not like a disciple.

But then again, for the high-level comprehenders, youth is not a problem forever, compliment them young, and will not be as happy as the average woman.

Shen Lang has insufficient understanding of the situation in all aspects. He can only listen more and read less.

Now he confirmed that Gong Yi and Fan Xuexuan are both apprentices of the head, and they also know that Yao Chi's contemporary head is called Xue Feixue.

It seems that the day when Yao Chi's head specially invited Shen Lang, I really looked at the face of Fan Xueyu.

Snow is not a host, but also the strength of the ancestors, and now worthy of talking to her, are the ancestors of each family. The average level of the elders is also the attitude of the younger generation. The younger generation is not afraid to take any risks on the side.

Probably the relationship between men and women, everyone just stood up to welcome her, but did not embrace the past as passionately as Gao Hanqiu.

Therefore, after the snow was coming in, it was a relatively quick circle, and the ancestors of each stone table were chilled by one or two sentences. For others, they also encouraged me with a smile.

Sitting on the high cold autumn and Shen Lang, there is no big sitting and not moving, also stood up to show respect for the host.

"The high-level predecessors are still the same, it really makes non-snow envious."

For the cold autumn, she is also a predecessor and maintains respect.

Gao Hanqiu will not feel that he is old, he is the oldest.

“I am still the style, the snow palm is far better than before, more enviable.”

Gao Hanqiu also responded with a smile, and then looked at the side of the waves.

He has already introduced it to everyone with Shen Lang. Now it is also the time for everyone to pay attention to it. Officially introduce the Shen Lang to the head of the host Yao Chi, even if it is the peak of the promotion.

But he still didn't speak, and he heard a word that surprised him.

“Shen Lang, I didn't expect you to be familiar with the seniors, I really didn't think of it!”

Xue Feixue, a smile with a smile, made Gao Hanqiu, Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu both surprised. I didn't expect Yaochi's head to know Shen Lang!

However, I immediately understood that if Yao Chi's head did not know him, how could he have an invitation letter?

Others have heard this, but they secretly feel that “it is.”

They saw Shen Lang and Fan Xueyu have eyebrows and eyes, and they talked with Liu Yun. The expression of Gong Yi also indicated that they knew each other, so it is normal for Xue Feixue to know him.

Now is to give them a testimony, but also let them curious, in the end what is this sinking wave?

What kind of young people can know Yao Chi's head and be familiar with Qiu Lin's swordsman?

Yao Chi's head did not show up on the same day. It was flying over the sky and knocking down the dog god. It also promised an invitation letter. It would be normal to know Shen Lang.

The accident of Shen Lang is just that her young looks so young even the middle-aged woman is not enough to describe, even a little beautiful young woman's feeling, looks younger than the clouds.

"Thank you for the invitation of Xuezhangmen. Yaochi is like all Yaochi fairy. It's so beautiful! It's a memorable one for everyone."

Shen Langdao thanked the rest, but also a compliment.

There is nothing wrong with his sentence. After all, any party is considered to be invited by Xue Feixue. Although he is a special case, it is very important. Others should not ask her what to ask for.

Others listened to the words of the compliment, and could not help but secretly.

Beautiful to see for a lifetime, unforgettable, this is not Yaochi, but a Yaochi female disciple?

Miyazaki is directly frowning, and Fan Xueyu is a slightly awkward blush.

There is no doubt that everyone feels that this is a wave of confession.

Chapter 1702 - Forced to ask questions

Snow and snow are like not listening to anything. I don't care if Shen Lang is a compliment, or if she has something to say, she will say this, and then she will greet Gao Hanqiu and continue to turn to other guests who have not said hello.

Although it is only a matter of time for Shen Lang, it is already a disregard.

Other young people, the elders of other older generations, did not say the qualifications of a sentence, and other ancestors, that is, a sentence of two words.

Gao Hanqiu, three of them, although they were surprised, but immediately guessed that Shen Lang was invited by Yao Chi.

And soon I noticed the changes in the expressions of Miyazaki, Van Gogh, and some other people's expressions. I immediately guessed that Shen Lang could be invited, most likely related to this beautiful disciple.

Snow and snow, they greeted each other in three circles, sat down in the master's seat, and then invited everyone to simply eat a little fruit.

I have already given the time to everyone, and the host has just greeted them one by one. So after starting again, there is no life, and everyone has started to talk about it.

Now that the ancestors are self-proclaimed, they will not eat the fruit.

However, the spirits prepared by Yao Chi are really valuable, they are adequate grades, and they are prepared for everyone. Even if they don't eat now, they can be taken away.

So basically eating and drinking is just a form, essentially a formal "warm field" activity.

Waiting for everyone to say more at the banquet, the atmosphere will be brought up, and the second will not be convinced, it is the main event.

But now, with so many ancestors, the younger generation and the older generation are accompanied by smiles and have no say.

"Shenlang Xiaoyou, there is a problem, I don't know when I ask questions."

After a moment of polite chat, there was an ancestor who asked about Shen Lang.

As soon as this problem came out, everyone was quiet and all waiting to listen.

Everyone does not know the origins of Shen Lang, and they all want to know the answer. Now someone has opened it. Naturally, it is for this question. This is equivalent to asking everyone.

There is a saying, I don't know when I'm not talking about it...

There is a problem, I don't know when I ask questions...

This is a set of nonsense, the problem has already come to the fore, and so retreat into progress, others can say not to say, do not ask?

Generally, such a problem, no matter what the starting point is, is often not heard.

The person being asked, in general, can only let him but say no.

Just after the opening of this ancestor, it is natural to wait for Shen Lang to answer, and then he has to ask him the question of the teacher.

Everyone understands this routine, so wait for the answer.

The eyes including the cold autumn and the snow and snow are also looking at the Shen Lang.

The three of them in the cold autumn are really worried about the waves, because they know the identity of Shen Lang and know that he is not convenient to say more details. – This is another visitor with a lower level of comprehension!

Snow and snow, including Van Gogh, are also curious about what the waves are.

Shen Lang is a slight smile: "Since I don't know if I ask questions improperly, it means taking the liberty, don't ask."

"..."

This statement came out, the audience was amazed!

Silently stunned...

As a guest in the field, naturally it will not be directly stunned, but that look is obviously a look of utter disappointment, just hold back without sound.

That ancestor is even more stunned!

When he prepared for the question that Shen Lang answered, he had already reached his lips, but the result was that he would not ask!

Others are as if they are in the throat, and they don't spit.

However, others have already refused. In their capacity, of course, they can't stalk and ask questions, and they will lose their prices.

Originally this harlequin can be done by the younger generation.

However, the specifications of this banquet, it is not their turn to speak, Shen Lang is able to sit on the same level as Gao Hanqiu, they can't compare.

So at this moment, the younger generation can only secretly vomit, and feel that the swell is really crazy enough to directly attack the ancestors, but no one at all thinks of asking questions.

Just asked is Shen Lang, Gao Hanqiu is not a good answer instead of answering, but since Shen Lang's own domineering response, he is relieved.

If there are still people who are not interested, then he can send it out.

The atmosphere at the scene became solid, and the face of the ancestor was more gloomy. He was the most embarrassing one.

It's too much to give face!

At this time, some people's eyes looked at the snow.

She is the host, and at this point she should find another topic and round the past. When someone else finds a topic, it will be very blunt. As a host, she will definitely be prepared.

Snow and snow are also really open, but when you say it, it is everyone's surprise.

"Shen Lang, what are you going to do in the end? We are very curious, can you talk about it?"

The question that the ancestors would ask just now is naturally this problem.

When Shen Lang did not ask for an exit, he refused in advance and expressed his attitude.

It is said that everyone should shift the topic and leave this untied.

Snow is not a snow host. Normally, the host is alive and well, and it should be a round-the-clock incident. I did not expect that she would not open the pot, and then asked directly.

Suddenly, everyone gave a thumbs up to the snow and snow!

This swell is so arrogant that everyone has some opinions, and Xuezhangmen is equal to sighing for everyone.

Especially the old ancestor, I am grateful to Snow and Snow.

Immediately afterwards, everyone's eyes fell on Shen Lang's body, and they wanted to see how he responded to Xue's snow.

But soon, everyone felt a bit wrong.

No reason! Xue Feixue said that he should be clear about the origins of Shen Lang, and he may be able to give him an invitation letter.

If she doesn't even know, there is no reason to allow Shen Lang to participate in this high-profile ageing event.

Since she knows, she will also ask it deliberately, instead of round the field, there is only one possibility – she wants to take the opportunity to build momentum for Shen Lang!

Explain that the identity of Shen Lang is definitely coming, and there is a shocking effect!

After a while, everyone was inevitably guilty.

Why did Shen Lang dare to directly reject an ancestor in public?

It's blocked before someone else's words have been asked. This is really not giving face!

This shows that he does not want to say, and that there is this conviction, the forces behind him do not let him say.

Snow is not snow at this time, there is no ambiguity in the round field but continue to ask questions. If you are not doing well, it is a lively mentality!

Then, if you force the Shenlang to say it, what will be the problem?

Everyone doesn't know.

But just because I don't know, let them make up all sorts of incredible things, so that they are more and more scruples!

“That... Since Shen Lang Xiaoyou has already said that he is taking the liberty, we are not good enough to ask again, or even if it is.” Zhi Wei said slightly tangled.

“Yes, yes, everyone has the privacy of everyone. We can’t rely on the old and the old to ask the children!” Tong Xian Weng also said with a match.

Everyone else came back with a recollection, and they also persuaded them.

What is his head, and he is in charge of Hemen Hepai, from Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Yi, Song Invincible, then to the host Xue Xuexue, and the oldest high-cold autumn, all this attitude, what is doubtful ?

Chapter 1703 - Core theme

Originally, Gao Qiuqiu was ready to stop driving for Shen Lang, but most people can send it. Snow is not snow.

Because Xue Feiming is aware of Shen Lang, and also gave him an invitation letter, it is obvious that the relationship is not ordinary, even if it is because of the girl.

Because in this public place, they are not convenient to ask for verification, he does not know the intention of Xue Feixue.

If it is a good deal, Xue Feixue deliberately asks, waiting for Shen Lang to answer, then he is not good at driving.

But now that he didn’t wait for him to say anything, others began to persuade him to make him feel a little confused.

Didn’t they want to know the identity of Shen Lang?

Why did you suddenly persuade not to ask?

This is because snow and snow asked, representing a certain signal?

The cold autumn can’t be touched, and the snow is not snowy!

She really didn’t know the origins of Shen Lang’s teacher. I asked Fan Xueyu, and Fan Xueyu was even more unclear.

Originally, she was not good enough to ask directly. Someone just opened her mouth and she asked me. That is to ask everyone, not her personal problem.

I didn't expect these guys to be awkward!

What are they afraid of?

Shen Lang himself has nothing to fear, and it is impossible to turn his face in the cold autumn.

Did they suddenly guess what the origin of Shen Lang is?

Others thought she knew the origins of Shen Lang, and she thought that everyone had guessed the origins of Shen Lang...

Since this is already the case, it would be boring to say it again, it is really putting the atmosphere in a stalemate.

Therefore, Xue Feixue also shifted the topic and talked about other things.

After this, everyone has no interest in the origins of Shen Lang, but he is sure that he is sure to come from an extraordinary place.

After eating the banquet, Xue Feixue invited everyone to move to another venue.

Two other venues have already been prepared here, one is the meeting place of the ancestors' highest specification, and the other is the meeting place of others.

Now that the ancestors first moved away, the other older generations also instructed the younger generation to collect the spirits on the table.

These jade peaches and the like are all good things that are worth a lot of money, and they are high quality that can't be bought outside.

Yaochi is already offering entertainment to everyone, and there is nothing to be embarrassed about.

Of course, letting them take it themselves is a bit confusing.

It's like a banquet in the country before, and adults will let children carry candy in their pockets...

When moving to the other side, Shen Lang was certainly not polite, and got up with Gao Hanqiu.

Helan ancestors, Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Zhi and others, who came in with Shen Lang, came naturally together.

If there are clusters of waves, it is naturally a fall in self-destructive status, but now there is still a cold autumn, then there is no problem.

From the banquet place, it is not far away. Like the banquet, it is also open-air outdoors.

However, there was a difference between the two venues. When they came over, there were Yaochi disciples who started a small array.

Originally on the open space, two hoods similar to the big tents appeared quickly.

It is impossible to see the inside situation outside, and this will definitely isolate the sound and isolate the detectives of the gods, in addition to isolating the line of sight.

This is more of a gesture, a form.

Otherwise, there are no other people here. Others who are in defense, apart from the various factions from the same party, are Yaochi disciples.

In the simple gossip, everyone has already arrived, and under the guidance of the female disciple of Yaochi, they directly entered the venue.

Snow is not in the snow, but Gong Gong and Fan Xueyu are leading other people into another venue.

Originally, Snow and Snow did not hesitate to participate in the meeting with Shen Lang.

She gave this invitation, just to give Shenlang a chance to come to Yaochi once, it is a meeting, and I want to know more about this person.

In his capacity alone, it is not qualified.

The result is still unknown now!

However, she now wants to refuse the waves, but it is not suitable.

On the one hand, she participated in the platform herself, and if she refused, she doubted her previous intentions.

On the other hand, Tong Xiangeng and others seem to recognize Shen Lang, let alone the influence of Gao Hanqiu.

In fact, it is true. The only young man in Shenlang followed everyone into this high-profile venue. No one felt that something was wrong.

After entering the inside, it is still a flowery outdoor, and there is a stone table stone bench with tea preparation.

On the outside, it looks like a blur of the envelope. After coming in, you can see the outside.

It's as if everyone is in a one-way visible glass.

About two-thirds of the people are missing, and there is no need for a banquet. The overall space is much more compact.

This time, everyone didn't have anything to offer, and there was nothing to recommend. They just sat down with their seats.

"Dear brothers, everyone's time will be precious, and non-snow will not waste time."

There was nothing bustling, and the host, Xue Feixue, acted as the host, and went straight to the point.

"This time, the Yaochi event will be at this point in time. Everyone understands that this is related to the previous ruins."

"We have never experienced the last time, and we have not experienced the last time. It is impossible for us to experience the next time. This is our unique opportunity."

"I believe that everyone has already entered the mountains, looking for relics, and also has their own gains."

"The core theme of this event is the ruin!"

"I am going to throw a brick to attract jade!"

After Xue Feixue finished the opening remarks, he also directly said the arrangement of Yaochi.

"This time, there are many relics. We have arranged two groups of people to go to Yaochi. Some of them are quite damaged, and the other part is my own team, and there are certain gains."

Shen Lang can understand it. The two parts she said, the part that has personnel damage, is the batch of mysterious women.

The mysterious woman said at the beginning that many of her colleagues were in the snowy mountains. Later, when she met her master, Yunyun Fairy, it should be considered the same batch of and Xue Feixue himself, it is estimated to carry Fan Xueyu together.

After her arrogance, everyone began to talk about things that were not well-remained.

The time that Shen Lang saw was just a group of big fairy, and the flying stream of Daxian's peak could suppress them.

In the cold autumn of the realm of the gods, it is easy to knock down the intelligent robots of the killing warriors that are several kilometers high.

Now I listened to their remarks and realized that it was only a small part. There are more people who enter the mountains in different areas.

The remains are not just those he has seen.

And there are a large number of ancestors of the great realm of the gods entering the mountains!

Those safe houses that are going on and off again should be laid out by the strong people of these great realms. And the one they walked was just one of them.

Chapter 1704 - The unique value of Shen Lang

Then the parties yelled at you and said a word about me, but everyone has reservations, just saying that they went for a trip, a little bit of gain, no one said dry goods.

This is the purpose of Shen Lang's stay. Participating in the Yaochi event is to get this information.

So now he is just like a student, listening to them and not interjecting.

But others don't do it!

Although everyone is still only a little bit of expression, but the snow is not snowy, staring at the waves!

It was confirmed that the theme of the exchange was about the ruins, and Shen Lang also verified.

Yao Chi head gave him an invitation letter, let him stay, have the opportunity to participate, Van Gogh is just an entry point, or that part of the reason is because of her.

More reasons are because of the value of Shen Lang!

After the return of Yunyun Fairy, it is natural to report everything. She did not know what the origin of the waves, but also left her impression.

If it is normal, the world is huge, I don't know where to go.

But since she is walking with Van Gogh, she certainly won't miss the opportunity to stay with him. The Yaochi event is a bait.

Perhaps Snow's intention is to want Yaochi to communicate with him alone, so just let him participate, not necessarily such a high-standard treatment.

Just because everyone has misunderstood, coupled with the momentum of the high cold autumn, has already made Shen Lang here.

Now she is staring at the sinking waves, probably just wanting to let him talk.

"I will also say one!"

Shen Lang's decision also revealed a little bit of information: "This is what I did not say to the seniors of the cold autumn. The Mo Feiliu lord did not seem to have seen it. However, some people have seen it in the underground palace in the ruins of the ruins. , including the fairy of Yaochi."

When I heard Shen Lang want to talk, everyone did not care too much.

After all, the strength of Shen Lang is not as good as theirs, and the most is comparable to the peak of Daxian, and the gap between them is still a gap, even if there is gain, it can not be compared with theirs.

It is now here, relying on the identity behind him.

However, I don't know about the cold autumn, and Mo Feiliu did not see it. The situation of the underground palace, everyone began to have an interest.

"The snow palm should know, yes, I can open the ancient organs! Strictly speaking, not only can it be opened, but also the various organs in the ancient ruins!"

Shen Lang said this and immediately surprised everyone.

Originally, even if he was not as good as them, he was only a gap in cultivation time. He was still too young. Everyone will not doubt his talent.

However, he was able to open and control the ancient organs of the ruins!

This really shocked everyone.

They can also open some organs, but it is based on the destruction of powerful forces. It is a violent type that can't be controlled.

"Shenlang Xiaoyou, what you said is that you can control all kinds of organs in the ancient ruins..."

Someone couldn't help but confirm it, and the words were more precise.

Shen Lang nodded and then smiled.

"As for how I did it, how to open it, don't ask more, I won't say it."

His vaccination was played in time, and some people have already asked about it.

In this regard, everyone is also speechless.

Which martial art also has its own secrets. This may be a secret law or a mystery. Perhaps they have found the books and materials of the control organs in the ancient ruins, perhaps because they have been passed down from ancient times.

But if you want to ask again, you will be guilty of others' exercises.

Just like Yaochi, there is no problem in welcoming everyone to eat jade peach. You can also praise it and have high quality. But if you ask where the Taolin is, how to plant it, it will be over.

However, the news revealed by Shen Lang has already cheered up the audience.

This is the first to disclose dry goods!

Through this information, even if they did not witness in person, they can guess that Shen Lang must have opened some organs of the underground fairy palace, and certainly got a lot of treasures.

At this moment, they began to understand the snow and the cold autumn.

Regardless of the power behind this kid, his skill should be drawn to this event. because.....

They are likely to have time to use him!

The next moment, everyone's eyes are concentrated on Shen Lang here, eyes are a bit eager, seems to want to pull him for his own use.

Snow is not heard from Liuyun, but she is a bit skeptical. ‘

She doesn't think that Liu Yun dares to lie to her, but it may be entirely possible for others to lie to the clouds and mysterious women with a blind eye.

It is precisely because of this that her attitude towards Shen Lang is still a bit tangled.

But now, including the high cold autumn, so many ancestors trust Shen Lang, showing its strength and value.

Now Shen Lang faces so many predecessors, personally admit that point, it should be no fake.

“Shenlang Xiaoyou, the old man in the ruins of the past, once got the same thing, it seems that there is also a lock, I dare not destroy it, maybe you can help me. Let’s go back and talk!”

“Shenlang Xiaoyou, I also have such a harvest, I hope you can help when you arrive.”

“Shenlang Xiaoyou, we can discuss it well, I will give you a reward for helping.”

Several people immediately began to invite Shen Lang to help them “unlock”.

What they got was not known, but they understood their mentality.

Since it is obtained from the ancient ruins, it is certainly not simple. Then you can’t arbitrarily crack the home. If something inside is broken, it will be wasted.

And this opportunity is over, and it is impossible for everyone to find the ruins.

If you want to go inside and explore the adventure, you can only wait until the millennium, which is a long time that they can’t sustain their life.

So they are all good guards, looking for opportunities, looking for a safe way to crack.

Just for Shen Lang said, for them, it is a great excitement.

This incomplete relic is a millennium, even though each of them has a long history. Previously, there were predecessors who had gone in and left clues.

But after all, it's not their personal experience. A lot of things are separated by thousands of years, and the circulation has changed, not to mention the situation.

And if you want to research, there are no more opportunities.

It is because of this that they will be so refreshing, Yao Chi is summoned, all come to the event.

That is, everyone wants to see from others whether there is any good way, or some clues, information, etc.

The result is that the parties have not yet said how much valuable dry goods, but they are a young man that everyone has not thought of, and there are actually the laws that open the ancient ruins.

Excitement is excited, everyone is not seeing rabbits and not eagle, just like everyone just said a little bit of talk, others did not say that they have value, they do not want their information to be set out.

If you can't see the real opening organs of Shen Lang, they will not really give any compensation.

Chapter 1705 - Great God's routine?

Snow is not a bit of a snow. It is a clue that Shen Yao may be able to use it alone.

On the same day, Shen Lang came here first. Although she had made a bold decision, she made an exception to let Shen Lang participate in the Yaochi event, but she still kept a little.

If you let Shen Lang come in directly and ask about this, then this clue is that Yaochi is exclusive!

If we can further obtain and master the methods of opening and controlling the ancient organs, it will be a huge gain for Yaochi.

Just like now, all the factions must be soaring, even if they don't mention any excessive demands, they can get a lot of benefits just by helping them open.

Now publicly speaking, Yao Chi does not say that it is exclusive, but it is only one of many sects. Even if there is anything you want to let him open, you have to pay the price.

Today's high-profile event is tantamount to creating momentum for Shen Lang and accomplishing his tremendous gains.

However, this is the end of the matter, Xue Feixue has nothing to say, her judgment is conservative, but can send invitation letters to Shen Lang, which has not been seen in history, is the embodiment of Philip.

Besides, Yaochi still has an advantage.

For example, Shen Lang is adventurous with Xuan Nu, and now has a fate with Van Gogh, which is the advantage of Yao Chi.

Just how much you can get in the end, you can only look at the opportunity.

At this moment, Xue Fei snow feels that ***** is still old and spicy!

Gao Hanqiu has already put this seedling on it!

Of course, other people have the same idea. It is no wonder that Gao Hanqiu is so special to Shen Lang. Snow and Snow are also particularly fond of Shen Lang. Not to mention the back door and personal talents, the value of this aspect alone is worthy of being wooed. .

The three children who have had "hands-on" with Shen Lang are even more convinced than others.

When Shen Lang was so young, he had such an achievement in terms of chess power. All three of them took turns to be killed by him. It shows that the intelligence of this kid is extraordinary. If someone can move to the ancient organs, it may only be him.

The effect of the scene makes Shen Lang very satisfied. What he wants is to highlight his unique value.

And now it's even smoother than he imagined. He was also prepared to get some "technical products" and come to see it. It is not needed now, he has this value.

Shen Lang has already opened this mouth, and other people have not been hiding, and began to reveal some information they know.

What is certain is that everyone will have reservations, and there will be a lot of things to keep, just to reveal more.

However, listening to the ears of Shen Lang is still very valuable.

Now he is like a jigsaw puzzle. What he has experienced is only a small part. What other people are contributing now is only a small part and a small part.

But even if there is still a lot to say, so much more comprehensive, still give him a bigger outline.

The size of the mountain is not so great, it is even more incredible than the last time he saw and experienced it!

Not to mention the scope of the last long journey, it is these extraordinary gods and ancestors who have not read through the mountains, and can not see the whole picture!

Not a remnant, of course, not only appears in that place.

That place is only the most widely circulated one, and because it is widely known, many sects can go. Many half-sex, peaks and half-sex can also enter.

However, it is obvious that the road was explored by the great gods. In a day or so, the safe landing point of the protection array was set.

These seem to be the shadows of future generations after the ancestors of the predecessors explored the road.

It seems that it is actually another matter.

There are the ancestors of these hidden sects who have opened the road ahead of time and paved the way for them so that they can follow the plan every day!

Because the last time it was opened, it was not just a thousand years, it was almost a thousand years or so. Even if there was a law, it was a small array of methods, and energy could not sustain the loss of a thousand years.

In the past 100 years and hundreds of years, the ruins have not been opened, and there will be no strong people to explore blindly and pave the way for others.

Only they can do it!

Their purpose is to intentionally guide some people to the entrances.

This is why Shen Lang did not see the great ***** in the ruins, and Gao Hanqiu did not seem to go in.

As for why this is the case, Shen Lang is not very sure.

From his own personal experience, it is not that the big men let other people do cannon fodder.

It's more like there, they have searched it in advance, valuable first, or feel that there is not much development value, so let this be open to everyone. – Maybe a thousand years ago!

If this is the case, it may be to hide more of the entrance to the ruins!

Throw a golden sand into the riverbed and let everyone slowly go to the gold. This draws attention and delays the time, so it will not find the Jinshan next to it.

Jinshan is shared by these people.

There are similar operations on Earth, such as the Death Forest.

The entrance that Death Valley has mastered is operated by means of collecting spiritual stones, and it is oriented to some sects that are not high enough.

And some famous big factions, who hold the entrances of other transfer points, can enter and exit; but they are not open, and they acquiesce in the way of operation of Death Valley.

Even the rules that have been opened up in those years are the result of the operation of the gates behind the scenes!

That is to give up a small part of the benefits, so that others have a hope, attract attention, but will not notice other places.

When I thought about leaving on the same day, because of the destruction of the killing warrior, the rest of the valley called Death Valley was turned over. Is it cold and autumn to rebuild a foothold?

At that time, Shen Lang felt that he was responsible for the great gods.

For those who have not yet come out, and those who will come in and out in the future, arrange a rest and rest.

Now it seems that these may be established routines!

However, these are only his personal guesses. The cold and early autumn has already integrated into the world. It can participate in the Yaochi event, indicating that they have been recognized by these long-historic hidden sects and must abide by their rules of the game.

Otherwise, others will not take you to play, and Gao Hanqiu is just a person so powerful.

As for Gao Hanqiu, he did not tell him about it at that time, and there was nothing to entangle with it. After all, Shen Lang's own strength was not even enough for Daxian, and he could not reach this level.

Besides, he has always stressed and always returned to Earth. He is a passer-by, this is the secret of other people's world, there is no need to tell a guest who will not stay.

Chapter 1706 - Pleasant

Although there were a lot of people attending the meeting, they chose it. Only the ancestors participated, and the number was much less.

However, the agenda of the entire meeting is only about three hours, which is still far from enough.

The temptations that each of them had perfunctory before, wasted a lot of time. After talking about Shen Lang, it began to enter the topic.

For the sake of their own interests, everyone will not be completely open and honest. In the end, when they say it, they will still hide and retain them. This will be slower.

Coupled with the exchanges between the parties, the result is that time is up and there is no pioneering progress.

Really want to say the harvest, that is, the harvest of Shen Lang is relatively big!

This is based on the fact that he knows the least amount of information. Some of the information revealed by others is also valuable to him. Many of them are added together and it is a puzzle process for him.

But other people are obviously not satisfied with this result.

Only no one wants to fully announce it unconditionally, and hopes that others can take the lead and be honest.

And because of selfishness and suspicion, even if someone really takes the initiative to disclose all the information, others will think that he must be concealed, so that they will not say what they know.

In this case, then everyone has to hide.

In the end, there is not much promotion for the secret of this millennium.

There are still some people on the scene who are relatively calm, such as the cold autumn and snow and snow.

They think that they have a good relationship with Shen Lang. In Shen Lang, perhaps they can get some more important information, including the help of the opening, so that even without the help of others, they can complete their own gains.

Others are of course the same idea!

It is impossible to please everyone.

It is even more impossible to make everyone open and honest.

In this case, it is better to spend a little price. When you want to please Shen Lang one, as long as you get the help of Shen Lang, their respective purposes can be achieved to a certain extent.

Under such a big atmosphere, everyone has no intention of collecting more information, and even more unwilling to lay more roads for the younger generations after the millennium.

As a result, after three hours, there was no big gain, and everyone did not feel sorry. Instead, they thought about how they would be close to Shen Lang, and Shen Lang would offer price, and what kind of price could be affordable.

For decades, together with the ruins of the last millennium, the theme has ended in a hurry.

This makes Shen Lang feel very sorry, but he is the shallowest one, and there is nothing to ask others.

In addition, the older generation and the younger generation over there will be much simpler, and the things they explore will be more pure. Mainly the cooperation between the various factions, the interests of all parties, and so on.

The second agenda, and the most important part, has been completed, leaving the last link.

The last link is completely open.

That is to say, each has something to trade, you can contact in private, or you can trade face to face.

As for the content and form of the transaction, Yaochi will not make any regulations, and it will be no problem to trade goods, or use “hard currency” transactions such as Lingshi and Lingmai.

As for not being able to buy strong sales, you can't pit people. It doesn't need to be raised separately. After all, there are people with heads and faces, and the martial art family has a history.

The time arranged later is also about three hours, and everyone has no more time to rest, and directly enters the last link.

However, this has another problem.

After the second session, there were one after another ancestors, enthusiasm came to say hello to Shen Lang, followed by the cold hackers around him.

Including the children, they are surrounded by the waves, because of the relationship between the cold and the autumn.

Now that everyone is coming together, it has nothing to do with Gao Hanqiu. It is purely to make a good relationship with Shenlang!

The “skills” possessed by Shen Lang are unique. This layer of rarity gives him great initiative.

These ancestors cannot be said to pay directly to him.

There are so many guests, others are not short of you, if you are uncomfortable, for whom to help, you will not help, then you are embarrassed.

So this time, all the ancestors were very dignified and enthusiasm for Shen Lang.

The title is also more and more enthusiastic, from “Shenlang Xiaoyou” to “Shen Brother”.

People are such a reality!

Even if these are in the realm of the Great God, it is nothing more than the interest that can touch them.

Shen Lang is seeing everything, and the whole person is very calm.

He will not swell because of the crowds of the great gods, nor will he deliberately carry the shelf. In general, he responded politely to others' enthusiasm.

As for helping to open something, neither directly promises to promise, nor refuses. It is answered with the vague words of “good to say” and “no problem.”

This scene will undoubtedly make other older generations and younger generations a little bit ridiculous.

They don't understand, the previous event, Shen Lang can qualify to attend, is already a bad deal?

How come down, the ancestors of all parties respect him, and it seems that there is something to ask him.

Shen Lang, this guy is so god!

Miyagi and Fan Xueyu are hosting the other side of the event. They are also a bit dumbfounded when they see this result.

Even if I saw the palace that was not pleasing to the eye, I had to admit that I had to look away from it this time. I have to admit that this kid really has something extraordinary.

And this made her sigh secretly.

The little sister is not a white pet, not a talent, such a light, or luck, it is much better than her.

Fan Xueyu is even more ridiculous, and more and more want to know what secrets can be discovered in the end.

When Shen Lang was surrounded by everyone, Others have already begun to prepare.

The venue is the place where the banquet was held before. Everyone is still seated in the stone bench, and the stone table can be used as a booth.

If you will come up with a deal, you will naturally not be able to use it yourself, or you will want to change it more suitable for you.

And with the specifications of these people, there is not a lot of things, not winning by quantity, they are all boutique products. A stone table is enough, and no big booth is needed.

Because there are too many people, the cold autumn is a little crowded, and Xue Feixue deliberately walks alone with him, and the two sides chatted a few words. Of course, it's about the situation of Shen Lang, but it's all tentatively trying to get more information from the other party, and it doesn't reveal anything valuable.

Gao Hanqiu does not need to worry, his relationship with Shen Lang is irreversible.

Snow is not a little anxious, she is the host of Yaochi, but also a female repair, it is not good to get close to the enthusiasm of the past, it will become a laughing stock.

Chapter 1707 - Use of love

Before the Fan Xueyu, because of anger, they chased the waves and they went out for tens of thousands of miles. Of course, it was not deep.

It should be that most of the Yaochi female disciples are not deeply involved, because they are far from the town and less contact with the outside world. There are various experiences like Miyazaki, which have been piled up for decades.

Xue Feixue wants to use Van Gogh, which is of course a word, and it doesn't need to be awkward or something, it will make her willing.

Snow is not snowy. It is not convenient for you to get close to the waves here. Fan Xueyu is different.

She is young and casual, and she is not guilty. Moreover, she is a genius, beautiful, and a small disciple who is favored by Yao Chi. What is really rash, as a guest of the elders, it will not blame anything.

Master asked her to come over and find Shen Lang, and she naturally came over.

In her opinion, Shen Lang is surrounded by some ancestors. It is a kind of experience for her to let her go.

And Shen Lang can talk and laugh with her ancestors, but also admire her.

I am a bit unwilling to admire, I feel that he can do it, and he can do it himself.

So come and say hello, she doesn't have any nervousness, it is a hint of excitement in nature.

“Shen Lang!”

She didn't feel that she had anything. Anyway, the invitation was not what she asked for, but Master said. As the head of Yao Chi, Master can invite Shen Lang to come, and of course there is no need to avoid it.

Before the palace, she kept looking at her, keeping her away, and she didn't have the opportunity to talk to Shen Lang alone.

Now I got the permission of Master, and I came to say hello.

The ancestors were all fine, and Fan Xueyu came over to find the deep waves. Even if they didn't hear or see anything, they could guess that it was snow and snow.

However, before everyone has analyzed it, I think that Fan Xueyu and Shen Lang may have a little meaning.

It's been more than half a day since I came in today, and I'm leaving the last link, and then I'm leaving. At this time, Fan Xueyu came over to find Shen Lang, and there is nothing to question about it.

They also have no reason to occupy the time of Shen Lang. For young people like them, they will definitely pay more attention to men and women, occupying time or beside them, will be irritating.

For a time, everyone who was interested in the set of things, then went to the side first.

They can see through, can't see through?

Shen Lang has now fully figured out that giving him an invitation is not to look at the face of Fan Xueyu, but because he reports from Liu Yun that he has the skills to open the ancient organs.

However, he still appreciates Van Gogh.

Because she is still very good friends, including the dog ***** when sending invitations, including the previous voice, he does not offend people and so on.

Now she is given the snow and snow, but I am willing to come and talk.

"how do you feel?"

Shen Lang smiled and asked.

Although he is the first time to participate in the Yaochi event, in fact, all kinds of big scenes are seen more, like the earth, the rivers and cities, the number does not know how much, this is not a big deal.

Fan Xueyu is rarely experienced in such a lively occasion.

“Well! A little nervous, but it feels good, all the guests are very good.”

She is one of the three people of the organizer. Master has to entertain the ancestors, and other guests, she and her sister-in-law should say hello.

Miyazaki has to worry about the most things, all aspects need to pay attention to, but also cultivate her with heart, so it will also be arranged for her.

If it wasn't for Master who had just allowed her to come over and talk to Shen Lang, Gong Yi estimated that she would catch her busy again.

Two simple words, naturally go to the place where no one is next.

The activities of Yaochi are all outdoors, and they are all in a flowery environment. They walked over, and others were too embarrassed to get close to disturbing, just after the flower tree.

It feels a bit like the occasion before the moon...

Shen Lang was a little sweaty and didn't go any further, lest the atmosphere escalated.

It's not afraid of misunderstanding, but the big men around us are definitely watching the movement here.

Imagine that before the flowering month, the dating was held by dozens of hundreds of people, it would only be unnatural like filming.

When Fan Xueyu didn't see him before, there were a lot of words he wanted to tell him.

Because I saw a lot of new things I didn't know before, I wanted to share them with others. The sisters on the side were so serious. What she naturally thought was to talk to Shen Lang.

But now I really have the opportunity to talk together, and it seems that there is nothing to say, nothing.

"When the end is over, we are leaving."

Shen Lang broke the slight cold field, because knowing that it was being watched, this sentence is also directly transmitted to the ear.

His sentence is also intended to be said.

After all, she came to the task with Master, and Shen Lang can guess a general, but I don't know the specifics.

And he is willing to become a full-blown.

Some other ancestors have personally greeted him and asked for help. They have more or less gains, probably a variety of safes and the like.

Snow is not snowy. I can't say it. Let Fan Xue come. If she is too embarrassed to speak, Shen Lang can't take the initiative to say it.

So I emphasized that I have to leave after a few hours, that is, let her speak faster, and he will promise to help.

The host still has a lot of things to be busy. After a while, the palace will come to find her again. Gao Hanqiu and others will also look for him, so they must hurry.

Sure enough, when I heard this sentence, the expression of Van Sheriff changed.

“Yeah... you are leaving. You... are you leaving?” She also understood that it was also a voice that communicated with Shen Lang.

“Sure, if it is not for the Yaochi event, it should be inconvenient and will not be invited to Yaochi.” Shen Lang looked at her and waited for her to speak.

“Yes.....”

After hesitation, Fan Xueyu said: “Master wants... invites you to stay as a guestI don’t know if you would like it...”

When she said this, she was really a little hesitant and tangled.

The world has not been deeply involved in the world. Once at this time, when it is ready to export, it will observe the attitudes of other ancestors and Shen Lang before the match.

She can also guess a rough, so it is a bit difficult.

This is obviously Master’s desire to use her and Shen Lang’s friendship, although she does not feel how much friendship with Shen Lang, but it can be considered as an adventure, fighting together.

If you really take advantage of this relationship, then there is not much friendship, and it is estimated that there will be no more.

“Of course I am willing. You are my friend, you are all open, of course I am willing. And your Master Xuezhangmen also gave me the opportunity to participate in the Yaochi event, and then I also know the mysterious girl and the fairy.”

Shen Lang decisively promised, without any hesitation and reluctance, let Fan Xueyu’s pressure loose a lot, laughed.

Chapter 1708 - Shocking painting

“Yeah, this time you didn’t see the mysterious girl, did you miss her?”

Shen Lang smiled and shook his head: "I saw the flow of clouds, she said that the mysterious girl is in retreat. Just met, it is good to have a chance to meet, no chance and no impact on cultivation."

Fan Xueyu nodded: "Thank you! You promised, I have spoken on Master."

Shen Lang comforted one sentence: "Don't feel any embarrassed. Just above the event, I said that there is a skill that may help everyone. Others have told me actively, because we know, so your master is let For you."

When I heard Shen Lang say this, Fan Xueyu was really relieved.

It was true that many ancestors surrounded him and spoke some polite words. It seems that this is really the case, Master told her that it might be to give her a chance to say hello.

"Then you... will there be a safety problem?"

Fan Xueyu immediately thought of another possibility.

The strength of Shen Lang is naturally not as good as those of his ancestors. Since he has the skills to make his ancestors feel the heart, will he be embarrassed?

Will it be superficially ridiculous, and he will be forced to leave behind him?

She is a disciple of Yaochi. Of course, she will beautify the Master. At this point, she feels that Master has let her open her mind to stay in the waves. Maybe she is worried that he is in danger, so I want to protect him and wait for the wind to pass.

"Maybe, but it is not a problem. We went to the Guangming Mountain before, but did not think that the end is so dangerous!"

Shen Lang is very open.

Naturally, these ancestors cannot fully trust.

There is a saying that knowledge is incapable of taking away, but it is a condition limited to ordinary humans on Earth.

A person who is strong enough to a certain level can capture the memory of others. This can be achieved through scientific and technological means in the river basin.

Now Shen Lang can open the “Ancient Organs”, in fact, relying on his identity and the operation through the Holy Grail.

But others don’t know, others must think that he has gained inheritance, captured his memory, and also knows the secret, knowing what method to use to open.

Invite him to help, even if you don’t need to give benefits, it is also a request for people.

For these ancestors, the question of asking for a person is actually more rewarding than paying.

If you can get the technology of Shenlang, even if you don’t let others ask for help, at least you can use it yourself. You don’t need to ask for help.

At this level, there are principles and standards, and will be scrupulous of identity and honor.

But if it involves some unique secrets, many people will do whatever it takes.

Shen Lang can now be calm, because after intentional and unintentional creation, now others feel that there is a mysterious and powerful background behind him!

The cold autumn and snow and snow have inadvertently made one of the biggest footnotes.

The performances at the previous banquet have proved that they are inconvenient or afraid to ask questions directly. Afterwards, there may be a personal relationship to ask them for proof, and not everyone can ask.

Snow is not necessarily snow, and Gao Hanqiu will definitely not sell him.

And even if someone really wants to move him, he will look for opportunities. But he did not stay here for a long time. After leaving the world, there is no way to trace it.

So now there is no pressure on Shen Lang. As for the snow and snow requirements, he can stay, it is the humanity of the Yaochi event.

We didn't achieve anything just now, but for Shenlang, we also got a lot of information, and we may wait for the trading floor and gain something.

For the snow is not snow, Van Gogh's heart is beautified, it is felt that Master must protect the waves.

Shen Lang does not mind first maliciously speculating each other!

It is not necessarily that the female monk is more pure and innocent. For the sake of profit, the same can be done.

When I first fell into the river, because of the canoeing and falling rain, the relationship can be said to be very good. But after discovering the secrets of the world of heaven, she is still determined to kill the waves and replace them.

The current snow is not snow, but the relationship is far worse.

Therefore, even if you promised to stay in the snow, Shen Lang will not be relaxed and alert to Yaochi. He will not be as self-satisfied as a distinguished guest, but will be as vigilant as a cage!

Of course, these don't have to be said. If nothing happens, you have a warning. Just say it and let Van Gogh embarrassed.

Fan Xueyu gave him a few more words and turned back together.

Since Shen Lang promised to stay and help, there is still a chance to meet. When everyone is nearby, it is not good to continue to meet privately and whisper.

Shen Lang re-read, the trading floor has been quickly arranged.

Every faction has been prepared, and the things that you want to sell have already been released. The price, or what you want to trade, has already been advertised as the price.

“Wait!”

Suffering from the van Gogh that is about to leave.

The two of them came out from behind the flower tree and have attracted a lot of attention.

The ancestors actually paid attention to them if they were ignorant, and they came out at this time instead of looking at them with their eyes.

Most of them are still seen by the younger generation.

Even if they are a little unwilling, they have to admit that Shen Lang and Fan Xueyu are the geniuses who are right.

Whether it is age, strength or even looks, it is more suitable than them.

“what happened?”

It's just that Shen Lang is called out, not a voice, obviously made many people hear it.

This makes Fan Xueyu a little embarrassed.

At this time, Shen Lang's hand appeared a pile of items.

Then he did not hide from other people and opened it directly in front of him.

This is the photo after the glass frame is mounted.

Yesterday, I was photographed by Fan Xueyu at the waterside of Yaochi. She was on the water and she was posing behind.

Shen Lang selected a few photos, printed a few large ones, and then expeditedly installed. After purchasing the printer, etc., I brought it back together.

“This is the portrait I promised you.”

When Fan Xueyu saw these “portraits”, his eyes were straight!

Not to mention her, the rest of the scene was originally sneaked into the attention here, and after seeing these portraits, it was also very surprising.

“Is this a portrait? It’s too beautiful!”

“This is... Shen Lang painting?”

“Impossible This is too realistic!”

“I have lived so long, I have been to countless cities, and I have never seen such a powerful portrait.”

For a time everyone was amazed and then involuntarily surrounded by a fan-shaped observation to appreciate it.

Fan Xueyu is in front of the fan shape, facing multiple photos.

She is also very excited.

It was previously seen on the small screen of the mobile phone, and the impact force certainly did not enlarge to the effect under the photo frame of half a meter.

Chapter 1709 - Almighty genius

“Shen Brother! I didn’t expect you to have the ability to paint in addition to the amazing chess power. This is the high level I have only seen in my life!”

Not to mention the young and old, it is the child fairy, and can not help but directly open the praise.

Fan Xueyu knows that Shen Lang has a magic weapon for “painting”, which can be done in an instant, not that he painted it in one stroke.

But what does it matter?

This “painting treasure” is also Shen Lang’s, and he is only the only one.

More importantly, now this is her portrait, it is unique and realistic.

Not only the picture, including the mood, is vivid, retaining the realism of her flight over the water.

Shen Lang smiled at Tong Xianwen and they nodded and expressed their response.

“Give it to you.”

Shen Lang helped several large photo frames, indicating that Fan Xueyu came over and took it.

“thanks, thanks.....”

Fan Xueyu is very excited, just like the girl receives the flower for the first time, or receives the excitement of her boyfriend to send a sports car and a diamond ring.

Snow is not very snowy, I didn't expect Shen Lang to have such a hand.

Even more surprised, she actually could not see how this was painted.

It can only be confirmed that these and the general paintings are completely different, but the detailed differences cannot be made clear at one time.

However, she is still very happy.

Now in this scene, it is certainly a wave of the limelight. This kid's ability to paint a hand is also amazing.

But the person he sent was Fan Xueyu, a close disciple of her favor.

This also makes Yao Chi a big face.

Fan Xueyu came forward and reached out with a little excitement.

Seeing here, before you have seen it, you have to go through the compact past, or look at the gods to see the level of this painting.

Soon, she folded the photo frames together and thanked them and left.

Even if it is still the time of the Yaochi event, Fan Xueyu is prepared to leave it alone. First take these good things back and let them go!

This feeling is such a special, an unprecedented gift, not a practical kind of heavenly treasure, but it is a pleasure that can not be expressed in words.

The big guys are basically able to see the strength of Shen Lang, very genius, very good, but not comparable to them.

Therefore, it is impossible to compare with Shen Lang, but things like interest in chess and painting are a fair game.

The level of the realm will definitely have a great bonus to technology and art, but it is not absolute, nor is it the only factor.

For example, a super-powerful person in the realm of the great gods, even if he is not interested in Go, has never studied, just learning, may also be better than the amateur masters in ordinary people.

Because they are related to calculations, observations, etc., they all have great advantages.

But not necessarily better than a master!

The same is true of painting.

Their realm is high, and the mastery of ink, pigments, etc., the expression of artistic conception, and the control of the brushwork will be far superior to ordinary people.

However, painting is also subject to the skillful practice of tempering. To achieve a high level, we must also have talents.

This is why Tong Xian Weng, they can admire the reason that Shen Lang's young chess skills can surpass them. Because they have worked hard, know the difficulty.

They are already very powerful masters, but Shen Lang can easily defeat them, which is the embodiment of extraordinary strength.

The portraits they see now are really what they see in life!

Whether they are themselves or the professional painters they have seen on other occasions and in the past years, they can't reach this level!

Although Shen Langzhan only reveals the portrait of Fan Xueyu, but there is one of her Lingbo Yufeng above Yaochi, it is the embodiment of the Yaochi water surface, which is also vivid.

This shows that he is not only good at drawing portraits, but also has extraordinary accomplishments in terms of scenery and so on.

The person who had doubts about Shen Lang's ability to master the secrets of the ancient organs was also obedient.

This kid is a genius!

Almighty genius!

When I looked at the waves, many ancestors had a great hope in their eyes.

If such an all-powerful genius comes from his own home, how good it is!

At the next moment, some people couldn't help but squint at the snow.

Snow is not easy. I have cultivated a talented disciple, young and beautiful, which is also attracting Shen Lang.

If Shen Lang can become the son-in-law of Yao Chi, then it is not a Yao Chi disciple, but also mutual achievement.

They are faintly seen, and in the years to come, there will be a story spread...

Snow and snow are calm and calm, but my heart is naturally very satisfied.

Looking at their previous relationship, you can see that Van Gogh has successfully completed the task.

The public image of Shen Lang's publicity can be regarded as a kind of "sense-like" confession, which shows that he is more attentive to Fan Xueyu.

For snow and snow, it is over-completed. As for what they will do in the future, everything is easy to say.

Yaochi disciple man is not close, it is just a commonplace!

If it is also an extraordinary genius, Yao Chi does not mind marriage.

Shen Lang was of course deliberate, and it was a bit embarrassing to calculate it, because I used the taste of Van Gogh.

However, he did not plot her anything, nor did she let her go.

On the contrary, the scene just showed him the extraordinary paintings, but also let Van Gogh harvest a lot of praise and envy, which is not available in private.

From this perspective, it is not just a use, but a win-win situation.

After Van Gogh's departure, Shen Lang stared at him with a squint around him, then smiled and then looked at the items in the transaction.

Others, although some people want to come over to compliment the way the paintings are close, but when he starts to look at the transaction items, he also puts it down first.

And some of them are more eye-catching and immediately found a new breakthrough!

Shen Lang is an all-powerful genius. In terms of cultivation, he is also a gifted talent. But such a young person can cultivate into this realm. This is undoubtedly a lot of resources!

If the family sect behind him discovers that there is a whole mineral deposit, it is naturally unbelievable.

Even if the inexhaustible Lingshi, even the inexhaustible Yuanling Stone, the absorption is limited, unless there is a lot of spirituality, and that is impossible.

Therefore, for other good resources of Tianmudibao, in addition to the accumulated heritage, they also need to buy!

If they have the good things that Shen Lang wants to get, and when they trade, they sell at a friendly price, and of course they can sell a favor. In the next contact, there will be a certain priority effect.

The big brothers may use whatever means, but they will also use all kinds of means. It does not mean that each will use the worst means.

But they are also afraid that some people will use the worst means. If the technology is transferred to the hands of other ancestors, they are not so easy to discuss.

This is the reason for some of the ancestors who want to “schedule” in advance. In order to be able to give priority, let’s take the initiative to put the initiative together first, including giving discounts on the transaction.

Chapter 1710 - Dark sand

Shen Lang is really wide.

This kind of wideness comes from the underground “Xiangong” which is not well-remained.

It was a war-fighting warehouse in the city-state of the river basin. It may have been ransacked by these ancestors, and some things may have been removed by them.

Perhaps after some violence has been opened, I found that there are things that I don’t know what to do. I feel that there is no value and I have not completely broken it.

It may also be as if they said that they are afraid of good things being destroyed, so they are taken away with a safe.

In short, Shen Lang is still very lucky to be able to find energy zones and gain something.

There may be a lot of warfare warehouses, or similar places. These ancient sects have more information, and the area where the giants explore is larger.

Their own sects may also have a lot of good things to accumulate.

They have been practicing all the way to today, and for a long time, they may have gotten a lot of good things in places like forbidden places and meditation.

Now that Shen Lang thinks of it, he thinks that the quirky house in Jinpi Valley should be the old martial art or the ancestor of the great god.

This determines that they can now communicate at the Yaochi event, and they will not be ordinary items!

Even so, Shen Lang is now full of enthusiasm, and there is no such thing as a dumpling and a sour heart.

Because he has some spiritual veins and tens of thousands of Yuan Lingshi!

His arrogance in the chest also made other people secretly nod, and he felt that he was a disciple of the super-sect of the big world.

Now they are too lazy to scrutinize which martial art it is. Anyway, the preconceived determination has such a hidden sect, and all the words and deeds of Shen Lang have become a kind of verification.

At this moment, Shen Lang was at a stone table, and there was a simple sand table on it. There was some sand inside, which made him a bit puzzled.

No way, even if it is full of enthusiasm, but after all, it is not enough!

The experience of his previous life was limited to the ancient times of the earth. In recent years, he has seen a lot of worlds, but he still has limited understanding of the various worlds.

“Mr. Shen, please take a look. This is the dark sand for the forbidden land of the Liusha River. It has been accumulated from generation to generation.”

An old man at the head and elder level immediately introduced to Shen Lang.

Now the performance of Shen Lang, so that they have not dared to let the younger generation close, and the ancestors will not let the next time, let the older generation come forward.

These appear outside, are the peaks of the elders of the head, and are also very respectful to Shen Lang.

Although Shen Lang will not be much stronger than them, but how old are they, how old they are!

From this point of view, Shen Lang is better than their cattle, they also have to be convinced.

“Yes, Not Bad!”

Shen Lang nodded, not to do more evaluation, but began to search for memory.

Although the experience of those people in the past was limited, some common sense in the world is still there. .

The Liusha River, like the Golden Mile Valley, is also a forbidden place. What it looks like, the memory that Shen Lang searched for is also very vague, because even in the first half of the Jinjiu Valley, not all the forbidden places have ventured.

Like the Liusha River, it is also relatively mysterious in the forbidden land. Many people also hear the story.

Like the Golden Mile, which is a huge area, the Liusha River is not a river, but a big desert!

Perhaps it is a relationship with a mobile desert. The ancient ancestors discovered this, but could not explain it. They regarded it as a quicksand river—a desert that flows like a river.

The reason why the Liusha River is mysterious, in addition to the remoteness, is also because of the desert relationship, the number of various exotic flowers and spirits is far less than other places.

The harvest is small and dangerous. Naturally, there will not be so many people who are exploring and taking risks.

At least... In the monks below half a cent, there are not many people to explore.

However, there are some allusions that have been passed down from old to old, but they are still widely known.

Such as dark sand.

Dark sand, that is, some sand. Its nature is a special kind of material in the Liusha River, which looks like sand on the surface, but it is actually very magical!

It is said that a sloping sand will be turned into a huge sand dune, and this is a “living sand dune”. It is spiritual and can manipulate the enemy.

This is used when you are alone, you can manipulate the quicksand to trap each other without being close.

When used in the group attack, it is even a sand, you can block a large number of people!

When used in war, it is an army, a city, and can sprinkle a few quicksands, which can be completely eliminated.

So this thing is also very God.

In the memories collected by Shen Lang, those people did not personally see it. But he believes, because in the world of giant beasts, he has seen black sand.

The black sand beast **** can also manipulate the black sand!

That is not a thing, but the nature is similar.

Combined with the old rumors found in these memories, Shen Lang looked at the dark sand in the sand table in front of him, and it paid more attention.

If a small amount of sand can achieve the effect of sand dunes, then the dark sand in the sand table, there is no problem in creating a desert of hundreds of miles.

His attitude, in that person's appearance, was thought to be just perfunctory. In order to bring his interest, he quickly introduced it.

“Mr. Shen, these dark quicksands are collected from generation to generation, because the greater the number, the greater the power!”

“Don't look at the sand here, but it's already a very large number, and the attack is amazing!”

Shen Lang said with interest: “Is there any effect on attacking your ancestors?”

“Oh...” The man was stunned by and then said: “The ancestral realm is high and it should have no effect on him.”

What is the problem!

If it is just for the sale of goods, if it is only said that there is no aggression against the Great God, he will say that there is another occasion.

But now, in the presence of so many great ancestors here, and directly asked whether it has any effect on his ancestors, what else can you say?

Even feeling a little offended!

“Haha, I am joking, no one dares to disrespect the ancestors.”

Shen Lang immediately smiled, then asked again: “This is what you want...”

Then he looked at it and there was a paper prepared in advance with the price of the sale.

“One thousand yuan Lingshi.”

Shen Lang was not particularly interested in it. After all, he does not need to fight, nor will he want to attack the city. The general enemy is still a bit of a chicken.

Not to mention the realm of the Great God, it is estimated that the peak of Daxian is also difficult to deal with, then there is not much significance.

When I saw this price, it was even more uninteresting, a thousand yuan Lingshi!

This is comparable to the most expensive thing he has ever bought!
