

First Strong 1721

Chapter 1721 - Teenage girl

This question, I believe many people have it, but Xue Feixue directly asked it out.

At that time, Shen Lang had already smashed the cold autumn in advance, so that he only called Shen Lang and he kept the distance.

But even so, still let everyone doubt.

This is very gratifying for Shen Lang, because it means that Gao Hanqiu is special to him, even if it is intended to keep the distance, it is still unprecedented.

“What do you think?” Shen Lang asked one.

This makes snow and snow slightly frown. If she knows the answer, she won't ask, and the answer is not that she thinks it is the truth.

“How do you know me and me?” Shen Lang asked again.

“What do you mean?”

Snow is not a bit unpleasant, she doesn't want to play a riddle with Shen Lang.

“This question, I want to come is also a place that many people doubt. They feel that if you have not had any special relationship with me, how can you give me an invitation to the event.”

Snow is not a little snowy to understand what he meant.

She did not know before Shen Lang, but for some reason, she was willing to give him an invitation to participate in the event.

Other people don't know, don't understand these, there will be various speculations.

He and Gao Hanqiu are similar relationships?

What is it because of it?

However, the attitude of Shen Lang, Xue Feixue already knows, it is impossible to ask more.

This kid... the old tycoon!

At this time, she had something in her hand and threw it straight away.

Shen Lang reached out and saw that it was a small bone flute.

This made him a little bit puzzled.

“If you go out from Yaochi, I will not be able to protect you. This is not a magic weapon, but it can alarm the beasts. If you go out, you will have trouble, maybe you can use them.”

After the snow is not finished, it disappears directly.

Shen Lang looked at the bone flute in his hand and was a little surprised.

It seems that this thing should be a unique summoning thing of Yaochi. It is snow and snow, not a magic weapon.

She is right, in Yaochi, others have to give her face.

But if you leave Yaochi and others want to move him, you don't need to worry about Yaochi.

On the contrary, if Yaochi wants to intervene, he must also take into account the faces of others.

But if you summon the blasphemy, it is to confuse the situation, so that it is huge, and it is not afraid of the ancestors of the gods. At that time, you can't blame Yaochi for intervening.

This gave him a life preserver.

Not a hundred percent life-saving, at least one more chance to live.

But the restrictions are also very obvious. I can only have trouble after I just went out. If I leave Yaochi, I will not feel that I can leave the Yaochi.

"Thank you."

Although the snow non-snowman has disappeared, Shen Lang still whispered a word.

Even if he is the gentleman's belly, he does not want to see snow and snow is harmful to his heart.

Already stated, he will leave immediately.

Snow and snow should have been smashed, and shortly after she disappeared, Fan Xueyu rushed.

"Master asked me to send you out..."

When Fan Xueyu looked at Shen Lang, it was a bit worried. It seems that it was not what Gong Yu said to her, that is, she thought of various consequences.

Shen Lang didn't want snow and snow to pass the Fan Xueyu to play emotional cards again, and she refused directly before she did not open her mouth.

“Well, the snow palms want to leave me a guest, it is also a protection for me, but I don’t need it, or go out first. I have to do it.”

He said this first, and it is not easy for Fan Xueyu to open up and retain him.

The palace did not come out to stop, and she sent Shen Lang to the outside of Yaochi.

On the water, Van Gogh’s last words.

“There is a chance... Come back to Yaochi as a guest.”

“Good. If you have a chance.”

Shen Lang smiled and said a word.

This undoubtedly made Fan Xueyu a little disappointed.

She originally said that she wanted to invite her to be a guest, even if she was a guest, at least she could know where to find him.

“Where... where can I contact? If the next Yaochi event, I don’t know how to send you an invitation.”

She can’t say anything, she can only ask one more question in this name.

Shen Lang can guess a little, she should be a bit sad.

But this is because she has not been exposed to any man, let alone men of the same age and level.

However, for Yaochi, even for the mainland of China, Shenlang may be just a passer-by, and he does not want to be entangled.

“The next Yaochi event, it will be after a few decades. At that time, I don’t know if I am still alive. Let’s talk about it later.”

This made Van Gogh stunned.

This is the next Yaochi event, just an excuse for her. However, it was said by Shen Lang that it really seems to have “the opportunity”, and it is only a few decades later that the Yaochi event will have a chance.

This made her feel lost.

Seeing her feeling so low, Shen Lang is a bit intolerable.

This time, he may have a little ignorant of the taste of first love for Fan Xueyu. Even if there is no result, he should give a good experience to others, and he will have lost it before he started.

“The reason for life will be very wonderful. We are going to Guangmingshan, but because of the deviation, it has just arrived at Yaochi, which is tens of thousands of miles away. It just happened to meet you. I will have a chance to see you again in the future.”

The girl is still very good, always believe in fate.

When I heard Shen Lang say this, Fan Xueyu also felt that it was incredible.

She did not believe in any conspiracy, because following them to Guangmingshan was really risking her life and killing a large number of apostles of the Light God.

This shows that they appeared here, it is really just because the direction of the road and just happened to be nearby, it will be met.

This probability is already very small. If you want to meet again in the future, it should be easier.

And now he is famous at the Yaochi event. Everyone knows him. It is more convenient to ask him about his news.

Seeing her emotions are a little better, Shen Lang will say a word, then fly directly out of the water and go to the distance.

Shen Lang immediately disconnected Fan Xueyu, and he did not have the mind to care about her thoughts.

Because now we have to face the “enclosure” of the ancestors of all parties!

I promised to help a lot of sects before, but I didn’t have a specific agreement, but I reached an intention. Basically, I understand that it is the end of the event and the specific deliberation after it comes out.

The result was that Snow was the first to retain the first wave.

Now whether it is snow or snow, it can be sure that many ancestors are still waiting outside. Even everything should be there, even if there is no “treasure box” to open him, it will be left to watch the fun.

If you want to be clear about the time when he appeared, and it is not convenient to open to Yaochi, you should lock the range of dozens of miles nearby.

Now that he is coming out into the distance, it is almost as fast as the lock of these great gods.

Chapter 1722 - Great God

It was already in the night when Shen Lang came out. He did not look back at the Fan Xueyu on the water surface of Yaochi and went straight ahead.

When I didn’t leave, I felt a voice in my mind!

“Lang brother, people are waiting for you in all directions, please come to the southwest!”

It is a cold autumn.

Gao Hanqiu not only sent such an idea, but also had a general idea of the route map, so that Shen Lang has a reference, and there will be no deviation.

Now, within a few dozen miles and hundreds of miles, there are big gods and ancestors guarding them. Their purpose is to sink waves.

Even if the cold autumn is no longer strong, it will not be able to shock everyone.

When you are normal, you can give him face, but when it comes to great interests, it is hard to say.

He can only wait in one direction now.

Now is a call to Shen Lang in advance, let Shen Lang go to him.

His thoughts are the same as snow and snow. When Shen Lang is in Yaochi, others have to take care of a few points and cannot directly enter Yaochi. The same is true for Shenlang and Gao Hanqiu.

But now that Shen Lang appeared, other great gods also felt it.

The cold autumn will come out to protect the waves, others of course understand.

Therefore, this scruples will only let them block him before Shen Lang rushes to the cold autumn!

In fact, there was also a plan, that is, Gao Hanqiu did not go straight, waiting for the waters of Yaochi.

That will ensure that when the sun breaks out, wait for him first.

The same is true of other great gods. If you wait directly there, you can directly invite Shen Lang.

Why is it not because of the relationship between snow and snow?

Snow is not snow, leaving Shen Lang in Yaochi, anyone can guess, nothing more than two possibilities.

One is to help the waves and open the “treasure chest” obtained in the ancient ruins.

The other one is to leave the Shen Lang, whether it is to use a female disciple to recruit relatives, or to use force directly, the purpose is to leave his skills.

Needless to say, the latter is to transfer this technology from Shenlang to Yaochi. This is a situation that everyone does not want to see.

In the former case, the Shenlang will still come out.

But in their view, even if you can open the organs in the ancient ruins, it will never be an instant completion, but it should take more time, plus the martial art of Yao Chi, there will be more things.

So in everyone’s opinion, Shen Lang should stay for two or three days.

If it has not yet come out, it may be the latter result. Everyone will support the high-cold autumn and go to Yaochi.

The relationship between Gao Hanqiu and Shenlang is obviously not normal, and you can bring this head.

But there is another factor, that is, everyone guesses that Shen Lang comes from a super power. In that case, Yao Chi should not dare to leave him and encroach.

Then it will come out.

In this case, most people just borrowed the help of Shen Lang and did not dare to treat him.

In general, it is expected that it will take a few days, they will not be able to keep waiting on the waters, and that is too down.

However, it is inconvenient to leave too far. Therefore, it is a situation like this. First, leave a distance. After two or three days, come close to Yaochi.

But no one thought that Shen Lang came out tonight.

This is because the cold autumn is still far away, and he is not convenient to go straight to meet the waves.

Because the whole body is moving!

Originally, they will have mutual scruples and form a restrictive relationship.

If the cold autumn is rushing to pick up the waves, it will make people doubt the identity of Shen Lang. I suspect that there is no powerful force behind him, or else there is no need for such eager protection.

In that case, it will encourage some of the great ancestors to mourn the poisoned hands!

Shen Lang can come out so quickly. This is a good phenomenon for the situation. The side proves that Yao Chi is scrupulous about his identity and dare not treat him.

The cold autumn must also remain stable, so that others can believe in the bluffing “personal setting” of Shen Lang.

Now, Gao Hanqiu is guiding and time for Shen Lang. As long as the Shen Lang is safe, he can leave with Shen Lang.

Leave here and say everything.

Other people who can live to this age are the old foxes of the old traitors, and of course they can analyze and guess this situation.

At this time, for them, it is necessary to hurry up and wait for “inviting” to go with them before Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu meet.

Not to mention whether there is a monopoly of the heart, at least scattered away, it is very difficult to invite him to help unlock the insurance.

Now everyone is thinking about the opportunity to seize this time.

In the twinkling of an eye, the wind is rising!

A large number of great god-level powerhouses, all go in one direction!

It is very rare that such a dense degree is all directed at one person.

“Small high, you help me to deal with them. There are ancient institutions that need to open the solution, make an appointment for the time and place. I will hide first, come back to see you ten days later.”

Shen Lang could not sense the traces of all the great gods, but he knew that he was the center of the storm.

Therefore, when I sensed the idea of the cold autumn, I immediately returned to such a paragraph along with his intentions, and disappeared directly after disappearing!

The idea that Shen Lang had just started was to go directly through the Kunlun mirror of the Three Realms to the Qiulin sword.

Let them want to help, directly bring the “treasure chest” to the Qiulin sword.

But immediately realized that this is not good, on the one hand will bring trouble to Qiu Lin Jianzong, a large number of great ancestors in the past, is not a fun thing.

On the other hand, what others get from the ancient ruins is called a “treasure chest”. Of course, it is hidden in a safe place, and it will not be taken out casually.

What if you and Qiu Lin Jianzong are in partnership?

Another using the door of the Three Realms to cross, it still needs a little more time, even if it is very short, but for the great gods, this still has a lot of reaction space, maybe come directly It is.

So he confessed to Gao Hanqiu, let him help with the appointment, and then directly into the space of heaven.

This only requires his own thoughts, and it is invisible and in situ. It is the great gods who can't capture the space fluctuations and can't intercept him.

After the appointment, I will meet again after ten days. When I come out, I will go straight to the cold autumn.

He has disappeared, and no one else knows when he will be back. It is impossible to continue waiting here.

And his disappearance is to make all the great ancestors once again shocked!

Although they have a certain distance, the speed of dozens of miles and miles for the great gods is at most a few seconds.

They have locked the trajectory of the sinking waves from different places and are rapidly approaching.

As a result, he disappeared at a glance!

All the great gods did not figure out what the situation was, and Shen Lang disappeared like this!

how did you do that?

This swell is really extraordinary!

Chapter 1723 - Shocked ancestor

The strength of Shen Lang, the ancestors of these great realms, at the Yaochi event, but witnessed.

The strength of Miyazaki is not stronger than that of Shen Lang. It is also the appearance of his serious injury and sudden death in the past few days, so he will doubt what method he used to disguise today.

However, these ancestors are all higher than the realm of Shen Lang. They can completely see the strength of Shen Lang, and there is no such thing as pretending.

And his age can be seen, but the old guy is not well maintained, but really so young.

Therefore, it is superb that I can reach the peak of Daxian, and no one doubts that he is hiding strength.

But such a person, just came out of Yaochi, everyone has locked his trajectory, and suddenly, it is completely out of thin air!

This is definitely not something that his personal strength can do. If you leave with the help of the magic weapon, everyone should be able to feel the fluctuation of space.

It is the cold autumn to meet him, it can be done under the eyes of all people, and it is impossible for everyone to feel nothing.

At this moment, all the ancestors did not stop, but continued to rush to the place where Shen Lang disappeared.

If you don't verify it yourself, they are still unacceptable.

A couple of seconds before and after, a large number of ancestors came from different distances and directions, and their other doormen did not arrive so fast.

Everyone saw other people and saw everyone's horror.

Almost everyone quickly checked it out.

People's breath, etc., will form a certain residual trace.

The higher the realm, the more subtle the residue can be perceived. In performance, it is clearer and longer.

And this residue, and then look at the individual differentiation. For example, behemoths, extraterrestrial demon, these are very different from humans, and their heads are huge, and the residual traces will be very obvious.

And like the great gods, the tens of miles are just super-fast, and the traces will be very light.

Shen Lang did not stop here, but quickly rushed over.

So they have to hurry up, and more time passes, it gets weaker.

Now the ancestors of these great gods, the careful feelings, have captured the traces of the remains here.

Presented in their minds, it is the shadow of the rushing waves, and then suddenly disappeared in the vicinity!

This is exactly the same as what they are far from sensing. It is equal to just verifying it.

Everyone then looked at each other and everyone gathered near the specific point where Shen Lang disappeared.

But let them try to detect the sensor, and I can't realize what is special here.

In their induction and verification, Shen Lang suddenly disappeared here, not using any magic weapon, nor was someone picking him up, there was no trace, no abnormal space fluctuations.

The time they are late is also calculated in seconds, and then in their realm, it is far away and can be clearly sensed.

For a time, everyone did not speak.

Because no one can see what the situation is, everyone is a little embarrassed.

In the current situation, there are two possibilities. One is that Shen Lang safely left, no matter what magical method he personally used, or someone helped him. The other one is that there is a space crack here, which makes him accidentally crash in and leave.

They did not see the people behind Shen Lang and Shen Lang. They could not prove the former, but they all proved that the coincidence of this very small probability is impossible.

Gao Hanqiu and Shen Lang are the most familiar, but now they have not come here for the first time. When they all came to see it, Gao Hanqiu had not come.

This proves that the cold autumn is not worried about tension, that is the first situation!

This makes them unsure of the situation, so that everyone has a dim sum.

No matter what the secret technique is, or if someone helps, it will make them feel nothing, it is terrible!

The sinking waves that caused the great gods to shock, but did not think of this at all, he just did not want to be surrounded by them.

He needs to disappear for a while, let everyone give up or enthusiasm or ulterior motives.

After the Tianshu space, Shen Lang was not idle.

He and the cold autumn are commemorating ten days, ten days here will be a thousand days, that is nearly three years.

He needs to make good use of these three years.

It took him a year to recover himself from the state of sudden death to the best.

For three years now, can you let yourself break through the realm of the gods?

Before the tyrannical refining of the tyrant tower, Shen Lang was directly swallowed, and also absorbed a part, with the treatment of the pulse and other injuries. However, the drug effect is too overbearing, and he does not dare to refine and absorb it.

Now that part of the drug has not been absorbed, this time for three years, he can slowly absorb refining.

However, Shen Lang is not prepared to break through to the realm of the Great God.

Because he had experience in his previous life, once he reached the realm of the Great God, he would immediately begin to prepare for the catastrophe.

The power possessed by the Great Gods has exceeded the permission of the Space Law.

The age of his life is only more than 20 years old. The cultivation time is only a few years, and it is impossible to complete the cut-off of the earth, so it must be suppressed.

Now he slowly refining and absorbing the medicinal herbs, and also eating the jade oysters of Yao Chi, etc., and you are eager to eat, and there are also spiritual veins to prepare.

These are not in a hurry, and are slowly prepared for three years of cultivation.

But now there are two more urgent ones, you need to explore it first.

The same is the skull of the skull, the same is the wheel of the universe.

This has been bought at a big price, and certainly can't be idle.

綦沔 Skull, that is the scene is inductive, can be sure that it is true will certainly be rewarded, as time is good or bad, is more strong, or is affected by the mind and the like It is not known for the time being.

Therefore, Shen Lang chose to study the wheel of the heaven.

This is a sky-high price, 5,000 yuan Lingshi, to a large extent, may be a big head.

However, at that time, it was put on the shelf. This pen had to be made. It was necessary to support the people behind the big forces with rich financial resources.

But no matter what, since it has already been bought, even if it is of little value, it must be squeezed out and cannot be bought.

When the wheel of the heavenly plane appeared in his palm, Shen Lang observed and looked more closely than before.

However, nothing can be seen. He also tried to drop blood, but the result was not absorbed. Naturally, there was no certification for blood and genetics.

It doesn't seem so simple. If the conventional means can crack the truth, the other party will not sell it...

The door of the Three Realms, the wheel of the heavenly machine... four artifacts...

With this in mind, Shen Lang took the door of the Three Realms merged with the Kunlun mirror, and let the two get closer to the past to see if they can sense it and whether they can excite each other.

Those who have had the wheel of the sky before may not necessarily have the door of the Three Realms.

Chapter 1724 - Incorporate into the sky

This is a speculation of Shen Lang. I think it is very possible. After all, if he does not have the door of the Three Realms, he will feel that the wheel of the heavens is also awkward.

However, after the contact, there was a flaw, and there was no reaction!

If you think about it, the so-called “four great artifacts” may be the same. The name of X of XX may also be the unity formed later.

These four artifacts are not from the hands of a high-ranking person, not built together, how can there be a connection?

The Three Realms and the Kunlun Mirror can be merged together, presumably because these two artifacts are similar in function, similar in design and material.

A dough and another dough can be fully kneaded together. But a group of rice and rice noodles can not be fully kneaded together.

This is also a carbohydrate staple food, a group of noodles and a group of meat, vegetables and the like, it is even more impossible to integrate.

The gates of the Three Realms and the Wheel of Heaven are different artifacts, they will not merge, and there will be no connection.

Under the disappointment, Shen Lang did not try other means.

Because in addition to the door of the Three Realms, other ways, such as blood drops, others should have tried, he can not do anything else.

Maybe it's not a chance...

But before the moment it was ready to be put away, Shen Lang was not reconciled.

Such a famous artifact, falling in the hands of ordinary martial art, may not know its value, do not know how to use it, or simply sell it because of damage.

Just like the previous three gates.

But this time is different. These are ancient sects with a foundation, no shortage of spiritual stones, no shortage of resources.

Will also put the wheel of the sky to sell, only one possibility!

That is, after decades and hundreds of years, no one has penetrated. When it can't be used, it is bought at a great price, it is very tasteless.

Can be encountered, can buy, is originally a chance.

Others have had a chance, but they can't find the opportunity to use it.

Shen Lang gave up today because of factors other than preferences and value.

From this perspective, the round of the heavenly plane and his fit are even worse. I still want to chance in the future, but I don't know if I have to wait until the Year of the Monkey.

If you want to put this thing for decades and a hundred years, Shen Lang is not reconciled.

He is ready to continue to enlighten now. If he can't use it, then after going out, he will find a chance to get rid of it. Even if he loses, it doesn't matter.

If it is inconvenient to let go, then simply give away, such as Qiu Lin Jianzong, to Yao Chi, they can pass on the artifact magic weapon from generation to generation.

Therefore, he once again clarified his thoughts and let himself finally realize it again.

If it doesn't work, don't waste your time tangling.

This time, he directly tried to merge with the wheel of the heavenly machine, and used the method of “Yin and Yang Bozhenzhenzheng” to merge with it in the way of harmony between man and nature.

Although in practice, he is used in the environment, and it is the first time to use an object directly like this.

Of course, he did not think that he would really integrate with the artifact. He thought that if he could enter it and understand it in such a way, he might be able to find the way to open it.

There is a lot of time now, and Shen Lang is not in a hurry, try it a little bit.

This is undoubtedly a very wonderful feeling. His mind begins to have a peculiar experience. He merges with an object, and it feels like he has become an inanimate object.

But soon, he felt that the wheel of this day was not normal.

Although he did not fuse with objects, he still felt instinct that the dead should not be like this.

But it can't be said that the wheel of the universe has a soul life, just a little strange feeling.

The integration of the environment before the Shenlang is often an urgent need, and it needs to speed up and complete as soon as possible.

But this time, you don't need to care about time, slowly experience and polish, safety first.

I don't know how long it took, he felt that the wheel of the heavenly plane seemed to disappear!

He also quickly had a feeling of discomfort.

This discomfort is not a physical discomfort, but a psychological discomfort, a feeling of uncertainty about the future.

With the current realm of Shen Lang, there is no problem in the cross on the earth. The absolute first strong is that the superpower can not be seen.

So there is no such feeling of uneasiness long ago, and now this feeling is undoubtedly caused by the wheel of the universe.

The wheel of the heavenly machine, according to its function in the legend, it is to help people understand the secrets of the heavens. It will make people master everything. How can they just touch it now, which makes people feel awkward?

Soon, Shen Lang was alert!

He just merged with the wheel of the heavenly plane, but the object of integration has disappeared, so he naturally left the state.

No?

Shen Lang sees again, the wheel of the heavenly plane has really disappeared!

He was shocked and surprised, but there was no panic, because it was in the space of heaven, even if the wheel of the universe had its own divine soul, it was impossible to run away from here.

When he was searching for the wheel of the sky, everything was clear!

The disappearance of the wheel of the celestial plane was actually a fusion with the people. It seemed to be a part of him. At this moment, it seems to be a fusion of hiding in the eyebrows.

So as soon as he moved to search for the wheel of the sky, he felt it clearly.

This change was not thought of by Shen Lang.

what is this?

Is this the way the wheel of the heavens is driven?

He tried to operate the wheel of the celestial plane. Although he didn't know how to operate it, but the artifact was already integrated with him. Should it be like the sacred armor, can you control it with your heart?

The result is wonderful. The wheel of the celestial plane is a bit similar to the operational feeling of the sacred armor but there is no data or traces, and the functionality is far less than the sacred armor.

In any case, since I have found a method and have already integrated it, it is a sense of accomplishment for Shen Lang, and I will not feel the price of 5,000 yuan.

After this was solved, he did not spend any more time on the wheel of the plane.

What still needs to be solved now is another, an equally urgent thing.

Skull skull.

When I saw it before, it had a strange feeling with the "eyes" of the holes in the black hole.

The abyss is staring at you as you stare into the abyss.

Knowing that it is a skeleton skull, Shen Lang must buy it.

Now, he is holding the skull in front of him, and after he is ready, adjust his angle and let the eyes look at it.

Skull skull, of course, has no eyes, there is empty, it should not be able to "view", should be able to directly see the empty skull inside the skull.

But now, there is an unspeakable experience.

Shen Lang is very clear, this kind of feeling, only he will have it!

Chapter 1725 - Foreign enemy thief

At the booth, the monk who sold the skull was a powerful introduction. The eyes inevitably looked at the skull many times, but there was no abnormality.

And Shen Lang just saw that there was an abnormal feeling, let alone personally.

When you know that this is a skull, you naturally understand why he has a special feeling.

Because of the undead souls, the powerful undead that has been preserved to the present is swallowed up and refining by the waves!

The shackles of weapons and iron bars, as well as the tyrannical temperament of the heavens and the earth, have been obtained by Shen Lang, and they have been cultivated and used.

To put it simply, everything that has been smashed has become his nutritional supplement, and it has not affected Shen Lang, but in turn, it is equal to a part of his body.

This can also be regarded as a kind of inheritance.

So when I saw this skull, Shen Lang was like seeing my body and I had a special feeling.

As for why it would be staring at the eye, he would not say it.

But now Shen Lang, there is no surprise, but a 12-point spirit!

When the undead souls of the early days wanted to take possession of him, he took it for him, only because the spirit of Shen Lang was strong enough to eventually resist, and quickly ate the other.

After all, it is a dead soul, like a duckweed without roots.

Now this skull can have such a strange feeling, and I believe that it is not a bone that has dried up for two thousand years.

It is very likely that he has repaired him all his life, and he has suppressed it on his head with any special secret technique!

Of course, it may also be hidden in the body, and all of them will be gathered on it when they are cut and revealed.

Or when you die, you are suppressed by a powerful enemy in the skull, or you will not take his skull away.

Shen Lang is not suspicious, just like he was able to lay down the rebirth before he fell. It was the destruction of the flesh and left the consciousness of the gods.

With this world's self-cultivation means, whether it is jealousy or the strong enemy he encountered in the meditation area that can kill him, this is possible.

No matter how it is formed, after two thousand years, there is such a strong feeling that it is very likely to be like his conjecture.

And if these are all absorbed into the body of Shen Lang, it is likely to stimulate the undead souls that have been refining!

It is not that the resurrection of 慕泮 possesses his body, but it is likely to represent the power of 慕泮, which will affect the part that has become part of Shen Lang.

This will make his body appear something abnormal!

If he can't suppress and tame it well, it will breed a second personality.

Therefore, Shen Lang is now guarding the whole god, saying that it is not an exaggeration to be an enemy.

This is not the same as the wheel of the celestial plane. The wheel of the celestial machine is at most a chicken rib, a waste of no effect, and it will not affect him. The loss is only Yuan Lingshi.

But the skull that was bought with less money, but it is likely to directly affect his body and consciousness.

Shen Lang is not allowed to happen this situation!

Oh, it's already two thousand years old.

Whether it is his remaining undead, after two thousand years of growth, or the physical strength left by his secret law, it has become a thing of the past.

You must accept this fact and you can only continue in the form of part of him!

In fact, Shen Lang himself has to pass this level.

Even if it is the bureau of its own, even the awakened memories of the past life are more powerful.

But he must also admit and face, the past life is already a past life, the past life itself, has been dead for hundreds of years!

Now he is a fusion of past life, in the form of a part of the current Shen Lang!

Or, now, he retains the existence of past memories, gods and other means.

If you can't accept and coordinate the "previous and present life" in that year, you will be the two waves of consciousness and fight against yourself. Even if one is stronger and the other is destroyed, there will be an impact.

Of course, his own integration of the two worlds, psychologically no obstacles, the previous life to accept the birth of this world, or this world, accept the existence of the previous world, is his own.

This form is even harder.

This is why it is necessary to be enemies.

It is really necessary for the power of the shackles to influence the reincarnation of the undead to reawaken the will, to have a second personality, and even to occupy him. These are the things that Shen Lang cannot tolerate.

So after he was fully prepared, he “looks” at the eye hole of the skull.

And this “prepared enough” is including lore!

When the embarrassing situation appeared again, Shen Lang had a two-pronged approach, on the one hand mentally suppressing the affected part, and the body began to absorb the power contained in this skull.

And the power he absorbs is the refining of the whole effort!

Absorb a little refining.

If all the forces left behind are refining and used for him, naturally there will be no greater impact.

In fact, for phagocytosis, absorption, refining, Shen Lang is experienced, including the recent apprenticeship of light gods.

It's just that it's all against the enemy. Now, this enemy's “綦沔” is no longer external, it is already a part of himself!

It is necessary to absorb external forces, deal with foreign enemies, and suppress and confront internal enemies.

This is the problem.

However, Shen Lang is now safe around, don't worry about anyone being disturbed, and there are three years to prepare, enough to get everything done.

Besides, the dog **** has been here for nearly two days, and it is equivalent to half a year of healing. It should be restored a lot.

If he has a big crisis, the dog **** should be able to help.

Because of the soul consciousness, familiarity with weapons and exercises All the power contained in the skull feels very familiar, as if this is its body, it is a natural return.

This process, so that Shen Lang needs to deal with the “foreign enemies”, in fact, very easy, completely free to absorb, absorb and refine.

The most important thing is the “internal enemy” that will be provoked.

However, after all, Shen Lang is Shen Lang!

Even if it was alive, it was once invincible, and after all, it was two thousand years of death!

Even if the strength he retains is still very huge, but after all, there is no soul support!

The last time, Shen Lang dealt with his undead, but he was also powerful and lacked a leg – without physical support.

It is the same now.

And “the thief” is the most difficult to deal with, and it is easy to deal with.

Difficult to be difficult to prevent, can not be self-defense, easy to easily prepare in advance.

Having said that, for Shen Lang, difficulty is both a challenge and a temper!

He is far better than the rich experience of other people, isn't it tempered again and again?

For example, if the light of the gods of light is not tried, how can it be absorbed and utilized?

Chapter 1727 - Meet the waves

Shen Lang appeared again, still in the place where he disappeared.

Time is early morning.

For others, he disappeared for ten days, and for him, he was retired for three years.

For three years, there will naturally be a huge difference for people like Shen Lang who are generally improving their speed.

Although it is extremely difficult to change the situation in this realm, he is now completely different from ten days ago.

First of all, there is a huge difference in the perception of God.

Now it is possible to perceive the surrounding tens of miles or even the range of hundreds of miles. This kind of feeling of controlling the whole situation makes Shen Lang not help but have a hint of excitement.

This is the feeling that only the predecessor of the real world!

However, he did not sink into the fascination, but first understood the situation around him.

As expected by him, there are not many monks left around, it should be a martial art, plus the cold autumn.

Both of them are now in one place, or the position where the cold autumn was.

Shen Lang moved with his heart and went straight to the other side.

Of course, he is also very clear that the ten-day appointment time has arrived, even if there is no precise point, but everyone will pay attention to the piece that he disappeared.

Others do not say that the ancestor of the Great God level should naturally be able to know that he appeared in time.

His current strength is advancing, but the realm is still sealed, and the performance is still the peak of Daxian, so when he is on the road, he does not deliberately achieve the fastest speed, but maintains a sense of proportion.

If you use this well, you can still achieve the effect of a surprise attack, and you will not be able to pretend to be “forced”.

Of course, even the speed of the Great Xianfeng peak is still not slow, and it didn't take long before I rushed to the place where the cold autumn was settled.

On top of a mountain, Gao Hanqiu has already carried everyone, waiting to welcome the arrival of Shen Lang.

“Shenlang brothers really believe in people, and they come on time!”

Gao Hanqiu smiled far and wide to meet Shen Lang.

There are six people on the mountain.

In addition to the Xu Hanyue and Mo Feiliu after the cold autumn, the other three Xuan “color” clothes are the three of the Kunlun school.

Ziyan ancestors, Shenyang and Sufeng.

Shen Lang didn't feel surprised. Although the Kunlun faction was hit before the grand meeting, it was actually a big show in the grand meeting. In fact, all the ancestors of all the factions played with him. I greeted you.

Gao Hanqiu has clearly figured out that with his age, if he calls Shen Lang "brother" and "brother", it is naturally inappropriate, and people will doubt the origin of Shen Lang.

But with "brothers", you can blur the past.

"Brothers" can be used as a close word, or as a custom word.

For example, a stranger can also say "this friend" and "this brother."

Furthermore, the term "brothers" is often for younger people.

Gao Hanqiu wants to call Shen Lang as the "Shenlang Brothers". In other people's eyes, this is his forgotten friendship. The use of "brothers" is more closely related to the name of "little friends".

In this case, he can accept a little more than the direct call of Shen Lang, and can also lift the sedan for Shen Lang.

For his name, Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu did not have any abnormalities. They all knew the identity of Shen Lang and maintained respect.

But the purple ancestors, they are secretly surprised.

Shen Lang can hand over the appointment to the cold autumn to arrange, they are not surprised.

Because the high-cold autumn strength and seniority are super high, handed him to "fuck", no one dares to "disorder".

However, Gao Hanqiu can accept the instructions of a young man, and the natural help is not the same. That means that the emphasis on Shen Lang is not a guest.

Just after feeling the presence of Shen Lang, Gao Hanqiu first stood up and had already surprised the Zizi ancestors.

Now they are greeted with them, and the warm tone makes them all surprised.

“There are Lao Gao brothers!”

Shen Lang heard the name of the cold autumn, and he was very happy.

Calling “small high” is the habit of past lives, but now he is only a few decades old. People are hundreds of years old ancestors, and it is a bit unnatural to call “small high”.

Gao Hanqiu called him “Shenlang Brothers”, he called “Gao Xiong”, although both people will be a bit unaccustomed, but at least it is appropriate.

After the arrival of Shen Lang, in addition to the high cold autumn guest set a sentence, for Xu Haoyue and Mo Feiliu, just nodded, believing.

And Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu two people, but still respectfully say hello, called “Mr.”

These details, all the Kunlun faction three surprised!

On the same day at the Yaochi event, the performance of the three people of Qiu Lin Jianzong, they all felt that they were intentionally made, whether it was for the sake of the spurs, or for other reasons, it always caused some doubt.

But now there are no more people here, in the status of Gao Hanqiu, they can’t pretend to be in front of the three of them.

Moreover, Mo Fei’s performance is completely unpretentious, and it is very sincere.

Who is this sinking wave?

“Shen Lang Xiaoyou! We have been waiting for you, and we have the love of Meng Gao, let us make an appointment to be the first one. It is an honor.”

Gao Hanqiu's attitude, so that Zizi ancestors did not dare to neglect, polite and Shen Lang Han Han.

Shen Lang smiled and said: “Zi Zi ancestors, thank you for your understanding and support.”

A glimpse of the ancestors of the sable, even if you understand, Shen Lang knows everything!

They Kunlun faction can make an appointment to the first one, saying that the love of Gao Hanqiu is of course polite. In fact, it is because he decided that day!

On the evening of the same day, after seeing that Shen Lang disappeared, I didn't know how to do it for a while.

I also thought about whether or not to ask about the cold autumn, but people are just friends, and they are not obliged to ask them what to ask.

At this time, Gao Hanqiu came to the idea and conveyed the meaning of Shen Lang to everyone.

For a time, everyone exchanged their eyes and analyzed what it meant.

Shen Lang will do this, the purpose is just to avoid everyone? Don't want everyone to fight for it?

Will there be any other purpose?

While everyone is still hesitating, Zi Zi's ancestors resolutely tribute to Gao Hanqiu, indicating that he is willing to make an appointment, and directly searched for the past, and confirmed with Gao Hanqiu.

Because this does not hesitate let him make an appointment to the first one.

Shen Lang just said "understanding and support", naturally guessed his situation on the day.

He didn't know what to say for a while.

Shen Lang then smiled and said: "Reassure, since I have spoken a big word, I have promised everyone, I will definitely do it. The Kunlun faction can come to the appointment first, and also shows sincerity, I will be sincere."

"Thank you, thank you, I have prepared a thin ceremony..." Zi Yan's ancestors said that they would pay for Shen Lang.

"Don't worry, wait until you can start talking about it! The ancient organs are also thousands of dollars, maybe I can't open it. Rest assured, I will try my best!"

Shen Lang refused to collect his benefits first, because he himself understands that the so-called "treasure boxes" are all kinds of material warehouses, many of which have nothing to do with the cultivation of real resources.

Although it has nothing to do with him, he did not want to pay for them. First strong

Chapter 1728 - Going to Kunlun

What is the strength of Gao Hanqiu?

For Shen Lang, it is more intimate with Mo Feiliu and the younger disciples of Qiu Lin Jianzong.

So when Shen Lang came back, he immediately saw the difference.

Shen Lang is the idol of his first half of life, the old friend who missed the second half of his life.

Even in the case of Shen Lang, he will not be surprised if any miracle occurs.

Just like when I saw Shen Lang in the Qiulin swords of the past, Shen Lang was still not able to turn the gods. Goodbye to the back of the mountain, it is already half a fairy peak.

And now I see you again this time, it is already the peak of Daxian.

Such speed is only seen in his two worlds for hundreds of years.

However, the base that can be classified as Shenlang is still relatively low, and can be classified as an adventure in the past.

Can this be?

However, it was ten days. Everyone came out at the Yaochi event. Shenlang obviously wanted to avoid the containment of other ancestors.

In this way, it disappeared for ten days, and it is actually able to make great progress.

Lang brother is not a wave brother!

Gao Hanqiu can only be so embarrassed.

At the time of Shen Lang and Zi Yan's ancestors, he also uploaded the past, and arranged the sects, family orders, and map routes to all places, which were directly transmitted to Shen Lang.

This avoids the careful observation of Shen Lang, which is equivalent to instilling the memory into it and directly possessing it.

In addition, he also asked a sentence.

“Lang brother, how do you arrange it? How many of us will accompany you to take a trip?”

The words of Gao Hanqiu are also not very good to ask.

Because this sounds like the strength of Shen Lang is not enough, he needs to protect, he is afraid of hurting the self-esteem of Shen Lang.

After all, a few hundred years ago, Shen Lang was his eldest brother, and now he needs to protect him, afraid that Shen Lang can't accept it.

But after all, the parties are far apart, and there are still parties who are stunned, so that Shen Lang himself can go, he is not at ease.

Face is also not safe and important!

Shen Lang immediately responded to him: “You can't always protect me. And you see it, even if there are a lot of enemies who can't win, but I have to escape from self-protection, it's not a problem.”

He also did not evade security issues, and bluntly he would not beat.

Similarly, he also explained his ability to protect himself from Gao Hanqiu.

Ten days ago, his sudden disappearance was the manifestation of his self-protection ability!

In this regard, Gao Hanqiu has nothing to say.

How did Shen Lang disappear on that day, and all the great gods did not figure it out, and he did not figure it out!

But he is very proud, because the wave brother is the wave brother, even if the strength has not yet recovered, there are still countless means.

Now that Shen Lang has said this, naturally he has his own arrangements.

“Well, I listen to you. Then we will go back to Qiu Lin Jianzong. After all the things, you can come to Qiu Lin Jianzong.”

Gao Hanqiu did not entangle anything, since Shen Lang said, he also confirmed.

For Shen Lang, he has a blind confidence!

Even if he is now much stronger than Shen Lang’s strength, he still feels that he can’t see the depth of the waves.

While communicating with the cold autumn, Shen Lang also communicated with the Zizu ancestors.

The “treasure chest” of the Kunlun School is of course also protected in the gates of their mountains. There is no way to bring them out.

To invite Shen Lang to help, you can only run into the scene.

Shen Lang directly agreed with him, and then the people who led the Qiu Lin Jianzong in the cold autumn will leave.

The purple ancestor was once again surprised.

Others have left these days, but he is sure that there are still people waiting nearby, or waiting on the way to the Kunlun Mountains.

Gao Hanqiu is waiting for the Shenlang here, and naturally I can think of this. It will definitely follow along and protect the Shenlang.

But now, he seems to wait until Shen Lang has handed over, and then left.

Gao Hanqiu is so relieved?

Or are they prepared to protect the sinking waves in the dark?

In any case, the scorio ancestors themselves made up their minds to pay for the help of Shen Lang, and did not want to move the waves.

As for the way back, will it be attacked by others, and he has no choice.

At that time, you can only see the machine, if you are offended, you will maintain the waves, at least ensure that the Shenlang can not be taken away before the “treasure chest” is opened.

If you really can't afford to offend, then you can only give up.

On a single basis, he did not have the ability to fight against the enemy for the waves.

“Go.”

After seeing them in the cold autumn, Shen Lang took the initiative to say.

“Go, go!” The god-in-law's purple ancestors quickly agreed.

Before leaving, the old ancestors of Ziyang introduced Kunlun Mountain, in which direction, how many thousands of miles, what major areas will pass.

In the memory of Gao Hanqiu's transmission, there is already a detailed map, including the markings of each martial art.

The first Kunlun faction to go is naturally detailed.

Shen Lang is a foreign memory, and is not so familiar. Now listening to his introduction, it is also a “light review” for a better understanding of the map.

Only after he has never been to the Kunlun School, he cannot cross the past directly.

For the Kunlun faction, Shen Lang is still very interested.

On the one hand, there are also Kunlun Mountain and Kunlun School on the earth, and “Kunlun Mountain” is the same as the “Fashan Mountain”. It is a place where you can live in the sky and many gods live in seclusion.

On the other hand, the earth’s artifact of the shuttle space is called “Kunlun Mirror”. Will it have any connection with Kunlun Mountain and Kunlun School here?

After that, the four people went on the road together.

Among them, the ancestors of Ziyan have the highest realm, and Shenlang certainly keeps up with his speed, but Shenyang is much worse, and Sufeng is even worse.

So in terms of speed, it is actually to take care of both of them.

Originally such a long distance travel, you can use the magic weapon to fly. It’s just that the pixel wind has reached the realm of Daxian.

Therefore, the general magic weapon, the speed is not necessarily fast, it can only save energy.

However, this is also an exercise for Sufeng.

The sable ancestors did not choose to use the treasure, but chose to fly away, which is also a little safety consideration.

Because he expected that someone on the road might block the waves!

Everyone left, they also intercepted them for “sex”. If you are flying inside the magic weapon, then if you want to intercept them, you can only attack the magic weapon, and everyone will be affected.

Of course, he can't say this.

As for Shen Lang, I don't care at all, and I have not analyzed his thoughts.

Just when I left, Shen Lang vaguely felt that someone in the direction of Yaochi was watching him!

He couldn't help but look back...

In fact, of course, the eyes can not see, it is the knowledge of the gods can not see the situation in Yaochi. That is a feeling, he can imagine it, it is from the Van Snow... the first strong

Chapter 1729 - Grass sea waterfall

This kind of concern is not that Van Gogh is staring at him, and in fact he will not know which direction he is in.

However, Yao Chi should have known his ten-day contract with everyone and knew that he was safe.

Therefore, Fan Xueyu knows that he is a re-emergence today, so he will remember him and worry about him.

This kind of concern, the current Shen Lang can feel it.

However, he did not say anything. After looking back, he immediately left.

Everything is gone, everyone is on the road.

The scorio ancestors and Shen Lang are very calm, and they are more than leisurely, and Shen Yang is more eager to wait, and Su Feng is the fastest.

The overall speed is far less than when the previous waves and the dog gods are on the road. At that time, even with the Fan Xueyu, they are very fast.

The biggest difference between magic and personal flight is not the speed of the magic weapon, but as long as the energy is sufficient, the magic weapon can maintain the same speed continuously.

And if you fly personally, even if you are a strong person in the realm of the gods, you can fly for dozens of miles in a few seconds, but you can't keep this speed all day long.

Now the downwind is even more so, and he can't keep running at full speed, or take a break from time to time.

Originally in this state, the ancestors of the sables are trying to get closer to the straits.

However, everyone is not familiar with it. He does not know what topic to look for, and he can only give up.

Su Feng is undoubtedly under great pressure. He can be easily relaxed at a young age. The scene is that he is dragging his legs. Therefore, he is also a remedy with qi, so that he can not rest as much as possible, anyway, it is also exercise.

So rushing for a day, probably more than 10,000 miles.

The sable ancestors opened the Shenlang Road: "Shenlang Xiaoyou, the past is a great grassy sea, and it is easy to get lost in the road at night. It is better to rest for a night nearby!"

He has begun to slow down during the talk.

Shen Lang nodded, and he did not have any opinion on this.

This time, I came from Tiandu City, went to Guangming Mountain, and came back to Yaochi, which greatly expanded his map.

The memory that was perfused by the high cold autumn also included a detailed map of the territory, but the map concept was not as good as the map that I had traveled.

The place where he walked was to leave the route of the sacred armor, and he would have memories. When he wants to traverse, he needs a memory anchor to locate.

Comparing the map, the front should be a prairie that does not know tens of thousands of miles.

Crossing the prairie, it is the Kunlun Mountains.

The size of this prairie is extremely large and irregular. The Kunlun Mountains are also extremely large. No matter which point you cross, it will be in the Kunlun Mountains.

But the Kunlun faction will not be so huge, it is only the main peak of the Kunlun Mountains, and the scope of the main peak is also great.

Therefore, it is necessary to cross the main peak in a straight line and it is the shortest distance uphill route. You must also find the right point here. Otherwise, the detours will be tens of thousands of miles.

Once you get lost in the prairie, or if the Kunlun Mountains are lost in the past, it is likely to go tens of thousands of miles in white, and the strength is not enough or even can not go out.

Shen Lang now has the memory of the cold autumn, and it is just a large-scale map. It is the cold autumn, and it is impossible for every sect to visit one by one.

Even if you have visited the major sects for hundreds of years, it is not always possible, and it may be back and forth once. Whether or not there is a detour, it can only be a route. For such a vast territory, it can only be a macro reference.

But the Kunlun faction is different. This is the scope of their activities.

Just as Gao Hanqiu will definitely be familiar with the area around Tangcheng, they will not only have a lot of their own, but also have accumulated experience from generation to generation.

In which direction they should have the best route, with detailed coordinates and references.

The sable ancestors opened their mouth at this time, and Shen Lang guessed that it was near their reference.

After everyone slowed down, Shen Lang noticed that Shen Yang had a sigh of relief. He naturally supported it, but it is estimated that it is rarely so long-distance.

Like they went to Yaochi before, they will definitely be ahead of time, ready for the time, and may even have plans to visit by the way, without the need to hurry all day.

Compared to him, Su Feng's face is a bit ugly, he is a bit overdraft.

"The sound in front is a thousand-foot waterfall in the mountains. It is quite spectacular. We used to rest here before. If you are quiet, we can change a place..."

"Nothing, just here!"

When I heard the introduction of the ancestors of Zi Yan, Shen Lang understood that this thousand-foot waterfall should be a reference for them.

The whole world is sparsely populated. Especially here, it is possible that you can't see a town for thousands of miles. The plains and mountains and rivers everywhere are similar.

Places like Yaochi, Prairie, and Kunlun Mountain will be a large coordinate reference.

Specific to the prairie, and the Kunlun Mountains in the distance, to go in different directions, also need some different reference objects.

Between the mountains and rivers in this area, that big waterfall is a reference.

Even the strongest of the great gods, such as the sable ancestors, can't guarantee that there will be no deviations when they are on the road. There must be some references on the road. And here, it is the place where he suggests to rest for one night.

Since there was no opinion in Shen Lang, Zi Zi's ancestors took them to the mountains and rivers, and then to the top of the mountain opposite the Great Falls.

This mountain is shorter than the waterfall, about two-thirds of the height, you can appreciate the waterfall very well, you can see it spectacularly up and down and there is a large piece of this mountain peak There are several tall old trees next to it.

Before Shen Lang had seen Tong Xian Weng, they opened the mountain to a flat place to play chess.

It may also be artificial.

The mountains are flattened, and the movements are even bigger. However, they are temporary, and here may be the platform for the Kunlun predecessors to stay for a long time, naturally bigger.

The old tree next to it is estimated to have been left and transplanted. I don't know how many thousands of years have passed, and it has become a towering old tree. This mountain is also weathered like natural.

After Shen Lang landed, his eyes stared at the big waterfall down the mountain. Here are two-thirds of the waterfall, the waterfall is not down from the summit, and the opposite mountain is much taller than the place where they settled.

Thousands of waterfalls are of course only an exaggerated description, but there are some hundred feet, there are about 100 meters up, and there are more than two hundred meters down.

Such waterfalls are naturally spectacular, especially now they are admired above the almost erected peaks in front.

However, Shen Lang is now watching, but not a waterfall, but a waterfall!

There are hidden people there!

The role of the first thousand seven hundred and thirty-one heavenly wheel

Chapter 1730 - The role of the wheel of the heaven

Shen Lang felt that something was wrong early in the morning!

His previous warnings were not very clear. For example, when it comes to the Guangming Mountain, there is also a foreboding crisis.

However, at that time, I felt that the ***** of light should be the realm of the gods. He himself was in danger. Together with the dog god, there should be no problem, and how can he escape.

I didn't expect the end to be really dangerous.

In addition to his own heart warning, this time is the perception of the wheel of the eye of the eye!

It was just the beginning, it was just a warning sign, but as I came all the way, it felt more and more clear all day.

When the sable ancestors slowed down and said that they would stop here for one night, the perception of the wheel of the celestial plane was already very clear, and the warning signs pointed to this mountain!

It is a blessing that is not a curse.

Shen Lang did not evade the distance for the first time, but decided to face and solve!

So he immediately promised to rest here, and when the Zihao ancestors talked about the waterfall, there was no rejection. Everyone came down like this.

In the vicinity, the wheel of the heavenly machine is not only a warning sign, but also the key to the problem, confirming that the sense of crisis comes from this waterfall!

So now Shen Lang is on the surface to see this waterfall. Actually, I am observing the overall environment. If I fight it, what can I use?

If you can't beat it, how can you leave it safer?

These are not enemies on the front bar, he will quickly study it himself.

Do not fight unsure!

Good times and people!

Knowing ourselves and knowing each other, there is no war.

As far as these three military laws are concerned, Shen Lang has always obeyed the first article, and now the second article is gone, and the right place and the right place are both at the other side.

What he can do is to know oneself and know each other's information in advance.

Even if you can't be completely confident, you can count on it, at least not being ambushed by the other party.

"This waterfall is naturally less than a thousand feet. I have a real waterfall in Kunlun Mountain. But here, it is also spectacular."

The purple ancestors thought that Shen Lang was watching the scenery and took a sentence next to him.

If Shen Lang is interested in the waterfall, just take a sentence, then he can take the opportunity to accompany Shen Lang to see the thousands of waterfalls in Kunlun Mountain.

That will pull the relationship closer.

Shen Lang is picking up the phone, but it is not about the waterfall, but let him not know how to pick it up.

“If someone wants to attack us, isn’t the waterfall behind a good hiding place?”

After the purple ancestors, they barely smiled: “This is an ordinary waterfall. If someone hides behind, we can find out in advance.”

Shen Lang nodded: “There is a theoretical way. But there are some magic weapons, you can still hide people, you can let them hide themselves in the turtle shell like a tortoise.”

He seems to be chatting with the sable ancestors, but the voice of this voice is overwhelmed by the roar of the waterfall and directly forced into the opposite waterfall.

The “shrinking turtle” is a direct indication.

This statement is not only a response to the ancestors of the purple scorpion, but also a direct array of people hiding behind the waterfall!

Since the other party used the magic weapon to hide himself behind the waterfall, it is clear that the Kunlun faction will return from the direction of Yaochi and will pass through here. Before entering the Caohai, it will rest here.

Preparation is to sneak when the waves are not ready.

I didn’t expect that Shen Lang had just landed. They hadn’t found a chance to shoot. They had already hidden their names, and they said that they said they were shrinking turtles!

The ambush did not make a sound, nor did it come out.

They are still not sure, and it is impossible to know that they are hiding there, but the ancestors of the purple scorpion have not found it.

It is very likely that they are swindling them!

If they really open their mouths or come out, they will be swindled.

But they are also very puzzled, because the place where Shen Lang's eyes are staring, is where they are!

Even with a thick waterfall, they have a feeling of being stared.

Then there is really a kind of cockroach that has been exposed...

The sable ancestors were originally very embarrassing.

Because this is the place where their martial art rests, and he proposes to rest here. Shen Lang said that there are hidden people on the opposite side, and there is an indirect way of saying that they collude with people who want to harm him.

However, when Shen Lang said it again, there was already an eye, and his eyes and words were not like him, but he was talking to the waterfall.

The scorpio ancestors did not dare to neglect.

In the end, he was the ancestor of the realm of the great gods. When he searched the opposite side, he immediately found out that something was wrong!

Because this is where they are familiar, I have never thought that someone would ambush. Even if there is a vigilant search, it is only a routine scan.

Under the cover of the magic weapon, the other party was not aware of it.

But now Shen Lang pointed so clearly, he specifically searched for that place, and immediately noticed the traces of magic.

"I don't know which friend is the friend? The old man Kunlun Mountain is purple, can you come out and see?"

The scorpion ancestors directly reported his name.

But in fact, this is just a routine set of words, Shen Lang is very clear, of course, he is also very clear!

It's impossible to be so smart. Someone here passes by, and it's not that the other party just chooses to rest here.

This is one of the routes of the Kunlun School. It is not so coincidental to deal with the Kunlun School.

All the clues have proved a little, the goal is Shen Lang!

The ten-day contract before Shen Lang, in fact, the real family of the sects who booked with Gao Hanqiu is not a lot.

Others who had intentions and became obedient, but this ten-day agreement is known to everyone.

The Kunlun faction has won the top spot and everyone knows it.

Today, the Shenlang will appear, and it will return to the Kunlun Mountains with the Kunlun.

From the direction of Yaochi, you have to go through Caohai, and here is the nearest route. The Kunlun faction will lead the way and will definitely pass through here.

Ambushing here, naturally, I want to block the sinking waves.

He can think of this, but he can't say it!

Because the people who will come here must have been seen in Yaochi ten days ago. They are not friends, they are old acquaintances.

No matter who it is, once it is broken, everyone will be embarrassed.

What's more, Shen Lang may suspect that he is colluding with the other side.

Therefore, he must have a serious pretense not to know.

Shen Lang has already been smashed, and the ancestors of Zi Yan are also called the board. The people inside can no longer be bluffs.

“Shen Lang Daxian, we are not malicious, there is something I want to ask you for help, specially invited to invite, but also hope for understanding.”

There was a voice behind the waterfall, but they still did not show up.
