Chapter 179 - Secret of age

After listening to Xie You's remarks, Shen Lang also paid attention to it.

For the Chu family, he has already contacted three people. Chu Yuncheng and Chu Yuntian returned to the late Yuan Dynasty. He can easily complete the defeat, and the Chu River, which is the peak of the Yuan dynasty, was defeated by him.

According to his own estimation, Chu Yuncheng's masters and other masters are higher than the Chu River, and Chu Mofeng may be two higher than the Chu River.

With the Chu River to calculate, a high level, nothing, he still has confidence. And two high realms, you can still beat. Besides, there is still a month to prepare, you can prepare a killer or something.

Now according to Xie You, the Chu River is only the peak of the Yuan Dynasty, and the Chu family is still in the early, middle, late, and peak of the virtual environment, and then the Chu Mofeng that is the real thing!

This is a high degree of five realms, and it is across two big realms, the big realm is the gap between the general situation!

"So, you killed the Chu River and challenged the Chu family, and came out to deal with you, but also the monks who were still in the virtual world. But directly challenged the Chu Mofeng..."

Shen Lang gave him a look: "You don't say it early!"

Xie You can't smile. "You have to give me the opportunity to say it early! I used to keep you calm, your brother is arrogant, and directly smashed the two legs of Chu River one by one, and returned directly to the public. Declare war on Chu Mofeng."

He didn't say a word: If he didn't come over and popularize the realm of Chu Mofeng, I don't know how to die after a while!

Shen Lang actually said a word, he did not panic.

“Since I have no value for you, thank you for coming to me. Why don’t you come to me? Don’t say it is for the benefit. Before you come, I don’t know if I will give you a spiritual stone. Don’t say it is out of loyalty, we are not friends.” Shen Lang asked another question.

Xie You thought for a moment: “I don’t know... I think you are more involved. What do you want to do? How do you say it? Like the character of Chu Yuncheng, it is not the kind I like, even if I know and are familiar with it. I will not treat him as a true friend.”

“Crap!” Shen Lang directly sneered: “You guys who cultivated this kind of giants, will you be so emotional? If I don’t have the value of using it, it would be worthy of thanking you for taking a look at it? Directly!”

Xie You was awkward and watching him seem to be turning his face, and he did not dare to find a reason.

“Okay! Let me just say it, you still have the value of wooing. I have already reported the family tonight, and the family asked me to focus on you. See if we can help us to thank the family, you just declared war, Let me become passive, but give up and be a bit unwilling.”

When Xie Yu said this, it has become very serious, and there is no customer.

Shen Lang sneered aloud: “You haven’t told the truth yet! As you said, you thank the family for not missing the master of the virtual world. What am I? And the outsiders who are wooing are interested in the interests, and they must rebuild loyalty. Where is it worth your trouble!”

Xie You shook his head: “In fact, it is not to train your loyalty to thank you, nor because you are strong and unparalleled. So let’s talk about your age!”

“Year?” Shen Lang slightly frowned, this is a special feature of him.

“Let’s pull together or cooperate. When I don’t come together, I don’t know how to reveal the secret. But in order to express my sincerity, I can explain it sideways.” Xie You said while finishing the wording.

He said this, Shen Lang understands that since there is no intention to be drawn by Xie, there is no need to inquire about the real intentions of others.

“There is one thing, our family needs to send people to participate in the time, but the rules are limited, not limiting the strength, but limiting the age. So people with younger and stronger strengths will have a great advantage.”

After that, after he was afraid that Shen Lang would not understand, he made another analogy. “Like the rules of the Olympic football game, do you know?”

“I don’t know.” Shen Lang shook his head directly. He was a weak chicken before this world. He did not play football and basketball, and he did not know enough about the rules.

Xie You was speechless for a while and could only explain it to him briefly.

The Olympic Games is the biggest sporting event of the day. The Olympic champions are regarded by the athletes as the highest glory and also the glory for the country. However, many sports projects with successful commercialization and large audiences are far superior to the Olympic Games (the single item) in terms of attention and bonuses, and do not require Olympic gold medals to be added.

Several grand slams for tennis, several gold belts for boxing, NBA for basketball, Super Bowl for rugby, and so on.

The World Cup of the First Sports Football itself is one of the biggest events of the Olympic Games. Of course, it is not willing to put the strongest match in the Olympic Games. The result of the game between FIFA and the Olympic Games is to limit the age of the athletes. The players can’t exceed 23 years old. In order to increase the attractiveness, there can be 3 professional players over 23 years old.

The 23-year-old is the rising period of the development of potential new talents, and has not reached the peak period of career peaks. Under such rules, if there are talented young players, if they are less than 23 years old, they will reach the peak level of 25 and 6. (For example, Bailey was selected to the national team for the World Cup at the age of 17), of course, has a great advantage.

“I am not a genius, but I have been working very hard, and the family has cultivated it with heart. Chuyun City is similar, but at this age, we will return to the late Yuan Dynasty. More talents than ours, this age will reach the peak of the Yuan Dynasty. “”

Speaking of this, Xie You looked at Shen Lang with all his sighs and sighed: “You are less than 20 years old, but you can kill the Chu River that belongs to the peak of the Yuan Dynasty. If you can be the representative of Xie, you must be unique. This is the reason.”

Shen Lang relieved, no longer doubt his intentions. Then I asked again: “This incident, is there anybody from the Chu family?”

“Hey...” Xie You originally intended to say that it was a thank-you thing But seeing Shen Lang has already guessed, can only admit: “Yes. If it is only our family, it does not need Outstanding.”

“Similar to the super-wu heroes?” Shen Lang just asked, immediately shook his head and denied: “No, this is your selection of grassroots personnel. You have all kinds of resources, do not care about such a game. That only wants one Kind of possible!”

“what?”

“A number of joint rookies are competing, and the rewards are generous; or what is the very open trial field, ancient relics, where younger children can get exercise, and can bring out some magic medicine magic weapons, etc., it is worth your attention.”

Shen Lang thinks this possibility is very big.

After listening to his words, Xie You was staying: “You...you really don't know it at all, relying on analysis?”

He couldn't help but carefully look at the waves. This boy is obviously like a small bun in a small place. He doesn't understand many common sense things, but he has an unusually high vision. It is really an incredible unity of contradictions.
