

First Strong 1841

Chapter 1841 - Double shock

Both the day and the giant clam, the plan is the same, and the choice is interspersed from the middle of the two red porpoises.

The strength of one's own side has been suppressed, and the strength of the other side has been increased. Under such a premise, it is still impossible to confirm the specific strength level of the other party. It is very dangerous for the enemy to be widowed.

Choosing a relatively weak link can either rush out of the encirclement or be a temptation.

However, this is also a pros and cons. Lee does not have to face up to the red porpoise and have a little space to leave. The disadvantage is that the two red porpoises can be smashed together!

The speed of the nine-tailed fox is very fast, it is also flexible and embarrassing, and its shape is erratic, making the red porpoise elusive.

The situation of the giant clam is much worse, because it presents the ontology, the block is big, and it is similar to the red porpoise. It is not so easy to rush.

Also its goal is very obvious, it will be easier to attack the red porpoise on both sides.

At the moment when the melee began, the white cockroach evaded and searched for the gap by erratic, while the python was bitten by a bunch of red porpoise in a pile!

However, the giant python has a unique advantage, that is, a huge hard shell!

When it retracts the body into the tortoise shell, it is like a large tank, and it is fearless.

The poison gas emitted by the red porpoise has no effect on the turtle shell, and it is not necessary to breathe anything. The turtle is very famous, and the python can be kept for a long time without breathing.

The sharp claws of the red porpoise can catch the red skin of the red porpoise, but on the thick and huge scorpion shell, it is the trace of the road, and it can not hurt the giant python inside.

Of course, it is just a simple bite. If the giant python does not resist and continues directly from them, it will not be used for a few times, and it will be able to smash its turtle shell and tear the whole giant python.

But the master has made a move, and it has changed rapidly.

They have not come out immediately, and Shen Lang has already come out!

Before the Shen Lang and the one of the black porpoises, whether they are sticking or disappearing, no one cares.

Because they all understand that the defensive power of each presence is not weak, and there will be no major problems when hit.

However, when the Emperor's behemoth appeared, it attracted everyone's attention to the past. It was a big guy who was bigger than them.

And this new big guy is very fierce, and he has already bitten and swallowed a red porpoise directly in three or two.

Then everyone watched it mad at the other two porpoises, and with the help of Shen Lang, they both bite and swallowed both ends!

This picture is really shocking both sides.

Where did this little human being release such a big monster?

What is this monster, what is the horror of strength?

Here is the limit of strength, it can be so tyrannical, if there is no limit, is it even more tyrannical?

Just three short-headed porpoises were bitten and eaten for a short while. If you give more time, wouldn't it be the other five black porpoises left by them, which will become a belly meal?

The red porpoises are a bit of a trembling shock, while the white pelicans and giant pythons are incredibly shocking.

Although they all know that Shen Lang is a human being, it is very clever and very tricky, but the real strength will not feel worse than him.

But they don't know that Shen Lang has such ability, and can even summon such a powerful behemoth without knowing it.

And look at this situation, this behemoth is well-coordinated with it, is tacit, and completely obey his arrangements.

If Shen Lang wants to engage them...

The giant python is a little scared!

It has been forced in front of Shen Lang, full of superiority, or else you want to use this human to set off it, and may even find a chance to kill him.

Now think about it, fortunately, there is no real hands, or else you may have been licked by the turtle shell!

The day is also secretly fortunate. Fortunately, last night I saw it on the face of the flower fairy. It was a sachet exchanged with green hills instead of snatching it. Otherwise, even if Qingqi is not afraid of him, he will Clutter the green hills.

After the shock, the emotions on both sides are different.

The red porpoises who thought they had eaten them, and they began to get nervous. In terms of quantity alone, it has changed from eight to three to five to four.

And from the strength, the other side has a terrorist giant that can tear three!

Not to mention the three-headed porpoises, even if they swallowed one another, they have no advantage in terms of quantity.

The dodge of white cockroaches and the giant scorpion hiding in the tortoise shell, this time is a little elated, morale is high.

Originally, they felt that after breaking through the encirclement, they would retreat as soon as possible. It is not far from the passage and exited to the canyon. These porpoises are not afraid to chase them out, and they are safe.

And their items have been collected by themselves.

At most, it is a white run, no loss. And for the giant python, it is also an eye-opener, not a white run.

But now it is different. The horror giant called by let them quickly win the hope.

If you don't say anything else, you can kill a red porpoise and bring it out. This is also an experience that can be shown off, but also has a certain value.

“Roar!”

After chewing a few times to eat the three red porpoises, the Emperor's beast screamed at the remaining porpoise!

Its screaming sound is so powerful that it has a powerful impact!

When I wanted to sing them with them, it could shake a group of big singers with a sigh of relief. Now it is a big strength, and I have been reminded by Shen Lang that the strength will be limited here, so this shows all the power.

In the meantime, whether it is white, or the giant python shrinking inside the turtle shell, I feel the shock from the ear to the spirit, quite a feeling of tremor.

And they are just the accompanying impact, and the remaining five black porpoises are the real targets, and they are directly surrounded by gusts of wind. They are also all Gods fighting.

Even if their strength is amazing, even if the environment here is a bonus to them, this time makes them a little shivering.

In fact, there is no disparity in this degree.

But the combination operation that Shen Lang arranged just now directly deified the dog god, letting them all think that this is a very horrible giant.

So now this scream, they also make up a random warning of the demonstration, naturally feel that this big man is very powerful.

“Misunderstanding, misunderstanding!”

A voice is far from near!

This is no longer a natural sound spread, but a voice, sending the sound out very far. The purpose is to deliver the scene faster, and the vocalist is also coming quickly.

Chapter 1842 - Red porpoise king

After the dog gods shocked all their arrogance, they found that Shen Lang held the iron rod and stood calmly on top of it!

This makes them completely convinced.

Such a strong person, even if they are friends who cooperate with each other, it is impossible for a person who is weaker than it to stand on top of his head.

There are only two possibilities. One is this little human being. It is the master of this terrorist giant. They have a contractual relationship with each other.

The other is that this little human, the actual ability is even stronger than this terrorist giant, let it completely obey!

Whether it is the first or the second, they are not tempered.

At this time, following the sound, there was a red porpoise that was bigger than the previous eight, and it quickly came, and there were countless dusts in the back.

This newly arrived red porpoise is much larger and faster than the previous red porpoise, and the other is a little different.

Its two wings are bigger and longer than other red porpoises, and the color is also purple-red. Its reddish skin is also slightly golden.

All of this proves this head, not a level of red porpoise!

If the previous one is the peak of Daxian, then this should be the realm of the great gods.

Of course, because of the environment here, the specific strength of the former red porpoise can not be seen, this more powerful red porpoise, no doubt can not see.

“They are stunned and scorned.”

The red porpoise that sent the “misunderstanding” in advance, after a visit, expressed apologetic attitude.

“It is our people who have no rules, and we hope that you will not care.”

After the red porpoise came over, the remaining five black porpoises immediately flew to the back of the line and bowed down.

“You can call me the king of the Red Dolphins. They are their leaders. I didn’t manage them. I apologize to the guests here.”

After the King of the Black Dolphin came over, he apologized again and again, not to mention the better talk of the waves and the white scorpion, which is the temperament of the scorpion, and it is hard to say anything.

Reach out and not smile, and the race is the same.

Of course, in addition to a good attitude, its identity is also an important weight!

If it is an ordinary red porpoise, whether it is one of the five heads, or a new one, even if you apologize, there is no such effect.

But this is obviously much higher, and the self-proclaimed king of the black porpoise is enough.

If you are a sinner who is covered by the Tongtian Tower, you will apologize in person. If others don't care, then they will not give face.

“We are white, dark and desertless.”

Bai Hao took the initiative to introduce themselves to a few, and then re-introduced a downside.

“We brought some gifts, of course, there are free gifts, they have already let them eat, and others want to trade with the nobility.”

In fact, everyone understands that this Red Dolphin King will appear so skillfully in time, and it is definitely in the distance to pay attention to the movement here.

When the red porpoises surrounded them three, it did not appear, and there was no control.

Now Shen Lang took the horror giant to shock the audience, and it quickly came over, no doubt just talking about it, it is a superficial story!

In fact, it is very clear about their intentions, what items are very clear, and even if it is not good, it just ordered it to make eight heads of black porpoise strong!

However, others have done a good job on the surface, and Bai Yu is also pretending to be ignorant, but also doing surface work.

If it is really true, then there is no step down. The result is that it will continue to fight and it will not benefit anyone.

Since the Red Dolphin King came over personally, he expressed this attitude and wanted to reconcile.

The worst result now is that you can leave safely. If the Red Dolphins are interested, they may continue to trade.

Of course, whether it is white or sturdy, it is a giant python, and they are always wary of the Red Dolphin King. They don't really believe each other's kindness.

“Yes! Trading! We need friends from outside to come and trade us with some essential items.”

Since the king of the black porpoise has already learned about the items they own, of course, they also want it, so this time, it directly shows its sincerity.

“You will come here, definitely for the sake of burying the Dragon Valley... see!”

The king of the black porpoise opened his mouth and spit out some items in the air in front of him.

Then it also began to introduce one by one.

It only released four pieces of this wave of things. Look at it, it should be these four pieces, you want to trade the items they bring. Will not come up with more, unless these are not visible.

These four items seem to be random, or all of them are taken out, but they are actually arranged.

For example, two of them are special products belonging to the murderous land, and the other two are the items of the ancient tribes.

This is also a balanced presentation. No matter what the visitors want, the Red Dolphin King will not let you all be satisfied, it will only make you half satisfied. If you want something, once you get satisfied, will there be next time?

They are relatively passive here, and time is uncertain. Besides, there are many relics of the ancient tribes, even if it takes a long time to trade a little out, it will take a long time to eat.

Therefore, in addition to the relics of the ancient tribes, it is necessary to tie the special products of the Dragon Valley. This is a renewable resource.

Of course, it does not directly say that it is tying, but because there are reservations and two relics. If the value is not enough, it can only accept other supplements.

If you really don't want it, then if it says that there is nothing else, you can only cut the price. Generally, you are willing.

According to the introduction of the Red Dolphin King, two of the "specialties" are the funeral grass and the fog vine.

The fungus is a highly toxic medicine that can be used for refining. However, if it is combined with other medicinal materials, its toxicity can play a super-catalytic role, and it can refine a very overbearing tonic.

Fog cane is also toxic, but it is much milder. It can be taken directly, slowly refining and toxic. If it passes, it will be improved, and it can also be used as medicine.

In short, if there are a lot of supply spirits here, they don't need to be eager to trade with the outside world.

The products of this murderous land are all toxic. The red porpoise may grow out of this environment, it may also be toxic, or it may be adapted to the environment. It has taken toxic foods from generation to generation and slowly has such a constitution.

It is obviously the words of the customers who used to trade, or they do not know. They don't have the skills of alchemy themselves, they can only take it simply, so they are so helpless.

Chapter 1843 - Keel broken knife

These two "local specialties" are tying, and the Red Dolphin King knows that others will not be interested, and does not spend too much time introducing them, focusing on the other two.

In addition, the two types, subdivided, also belong to two.

The same one is a bone as big as a pillar. It is a real keel!

Then said that the burial of the Dragon Valley is extremely dangerous, and their red porpoises can sneak in, but the damage is not small.

Especially the place where the ancient demon dragon was killed and trapped is the most dangerous place in this burial dragon valley. It is necessary to go deep into it. So they are hard to get back a little something.

This is to watch them as VIPs, they will come out, or else they will not come out.

For this, Shen Lang certainly does not believe in all, this is true and false mixed.

The remains of the Dragon Dragon will definitely be in a deeper and more sinister place. They may go in and may be really risky, and they will not be able to gain anything.

However, once there is a harvest, it will definitely be dragged back a lot, instead of just pulling a bone casually.

Now just take out a bone, it is split and sold. A bone can be traded once, of course it won't come out more, a pair of dragon skeletons, enough for them to sell for a long time.

As for the general not to come out, it must be said to everyone.

In addition to the keel, there is another one, a knife. Looking at the size and shape, it can also be seen as a weapon used by humans.

The Red Dolphin King said that this was a weapon used by the ancient people of the ancient times, and it was also their hard work. If you want to see if both of them are human races, they will not come out. This is an ancient magic weapon.

After listening to it, the white cockroach did not speak, but looked up at Shen Lang.

The current Shen Lang, standing on the top of the Emperor's behemoth, is the highest on the scene, overlooking them all, it is the king of the Red Dolphin, and it is much shorter.

The hand that made the dog **** dew before, let the white cockroaches and the giant pythons become respected. It is not asking for his opinions, but letting him do the representative negotiations.

The Red Dolphin King also looked at Shen Lang. There is no doubt that it can come in person, not because of the white dragonfly and the giant clam, but because of the mighty nature of the Emperor, and the inability to see through the waves.

Shen Lang is also doing his part.

It will achieve this effect through the dog god, that is, to control the dominance.

Now, don't be afraid that the other party will attack him and fly directly over the dog god.

“Good things like funeral grass, fog and vines, or the family of the red porpoise, keep it for yourself, or leave it to those who need it later.”

“This one.....”

“Poison is a side effect for us! Even if it can be used as a medicine, the formula requires a long experiment, which wastes a lot of medicine and time. Besides, like my friend, there is no such thing as a god, and the waters it manages are huge, and there is no time to refine medicine.”

In the words of Shen Lang, it is said that the hearts of giant pythons and white baboons have gone.

Use a variety of herbs to prepare an alchemy to achieve optimal use and better results. That is not what they are good at, it is human wisdom.

If this thing is given to them, it can only be idle. If you want to use it, it will drag on more, that is, side effects.

It is not so easy to trade to humans.

The giant python is a bit gratified. Shen Lang actually called it “sighing God” and his attitude is still very friendly.

The king of the black porpoise is a bit embarrassed. Although it does not say it straight, the meaning of the words has already been expressed. The previous transactions have been accepted by others, and there has never been such a direct rejection.

“This keel and this ancient weapon, I have to check to see if it is what we need, if not, then the transaction is not interesting.”

“This one.....”

The Red Dolphin King has been a bit uncomfortable, and its posture is already very good. What is this? Think it is bully?

Shen Lang interrupted it and said directly to Bai Yu and Hu Jin.

“If you have anything you want to trade, just say it, so that the Red Dolphin King understands what you want, and you can’t let people guess it!”

In this sentence, the giant python has not reacted yet, and Bai Hao has been slightly excited. It really wants to open the conditions by himself, but there is no such enthusiasm.

Now Shen Lang has mastered the initiative and directly rejected the two poisonous ones. The Red Dolphin King definitely has more items, and it decided to say it directly.

It's a bit ugly to see the red-breasted king's face with golden luster, and Shen Lang added a sentence.

"The king of the Red Dolphins does not feel that we are not easy to get along with. Since we are looking for a deal, it is naturally with great sincerity. If you are sincere, I can contribute a batch of human medicines! That is the fruit of the fruit." The effect is better and more practical!"

The Red Dolphin King was really uncomfortable, but when he heard this, his face immediately recovered his former kindness.

The human remedy, it, or their race, was definitely a change in the past. The medicinal herbs that have been refining with various medicinal materials are not necessarily simpler than the Lingguo, but they are certainly more practical.

For example, different spirits have different adaptability. It is not the same as eating too much. Weaknesses may not be accepted. Dan medicine has no such problems, and a small one can be better taken and distributed.

Hearing the waves and the supply of medicinal herbs, its attitude is different.

"Please check!"

It directly insulted the fungus and the misty vines into the mouth Check the keel and the knife from Shenlang.

Because the giant python has no purpose, it just wants to change something better. But here, it has exceeded its expectations.

These Akus do not have a variety of spirits, it must also be calculated separately.

Just after Shen Lang has already said it, so it secretly weighed it and immediately spoke first.

“I don’t want anything else, just the keel!”

The keel, just how hard it is to say that the king of the black porpoise has been, this is the real keel, and there is not much. If you bring it back, you can absorb a little dragon, or something else, it may be a huge gain.

There is only one, it is afraid of the sun or the white must first, it is not good, so be the first to speak.

Shen Lang looked at it, and then looked at the King of the Black Dolphin.

“Do you both are satisfied?”

The giant python also re-released the big boxes of the fruit in the air, but it was also a trick, and the most precious box was not released.

It was released before, and now it is pretending to be forgotten. Anyway, the spirits released are also many.

Although the Red Dolphin King has some knowledge of the situation here, but now I look at the meaning of the giant python, I think that the giant python feels that the keel is only worth so much.

Then look at it and think that the value is not worth it.

The keel does not say how much it is for them. The burial dragon valley is still there, and so many fruit trees are scarce, which can last for a long time.

“Although we have paid a great price for this keel, I am very reluctant, but if there is no sorrow, then trade it!”

Chapter 1844 - The real attempt of the day

The king of the black porpoise is experienced at first glance. This is a set of words, as if it was a big loss.

I was very happy to hear the giants, and I couldn't wait to grab the keel quickly, lest the other party repent.

But compared with Shen Lang, the experience of the Red Dolphin King is simply too much difference. Aunty on the earth, the acting aunt will be much better than it.

Before the popularity of online shopping, everyone buys things as physical stores. Large-scale brand-name stores, or department stores, are clearly priced, discounts and the like are also marked by promotions.

But in the general small shop, or the consumption of lower stalls, night markets, customers and stores, they will all be wary of bargaining, one seems to lose money to sell you, one seems to you earn me a lot of money.

In places where the virtual price is very high, the price of bargaining is almost halfway.

Shen Lang saw this when he was a child. This is a poor performance in front of him.

However, he did not say anything, this is the transaction you want.

This keel should have value regardless of whether it is true or not. The people of the Chiropractic family can take risks and make money.

Now the Red Dolphin King is very satisfied, and through such performances, it is also a good thing for the giants to feel that they are taking advantage of it.

And the day is purposeful!

The giant python has already spoken, and it has not hesitated.

"I also want to trade a bone..."

A pair of bones!

When he heard the word, Shen Lang shook his head secretly. Even if he now dominates and is willing to take the drug to trade, it must be a win-win deal.

It is impossible to trade the porpoise king with a pair of keels at once.

The face of the Red Dolphin King has also changed significantly.

“But listening to the king of the black porpoise said that the keel is so rare, so dangerous, I am not open. What about other races? I heard that the black porpoise once brought back the remains of a nine-tailed fox...”

I heard this, Shen Lang will understand!

From the very beginning, Bai Hao took the initiative to bring them here, which is for this purpose!

But if they say it at the beginning, they will not necessarily accept it, so they did not say it, but in the name of ordinary trading.

It turned into a human woman, not to pull a closer relationship with Shen Lang, but to avoid trading in the name of the nine-tailed fox.

The Red Dolphin King is not only stupid, but also very savvy. If you know that your purpose is very strong, if you need it urgently, you will definitely raise the price directly. It is likely to cost twice or even several times.

And Qingqiu wants to buy back the bones of the Jiuwei fox predecessors, certainly not for the sake of commemoration, but for their great value, it is worthwhile to venture here to trade.

This made Shen Lang think of the skull of the skull, which is able to retain the skill.

Although this is a long time in the ancient times, but the original can be encircled by the entire group of dragons, are the top talents of all ethnic groups, should not be comparable.

Even if the time interval is too long, the power of storage is weak, but there may be some information such as cultivation exercises.

There are probably many things that have been lost in the current Qingqiu, so it is entirely possible to turn to the ancestors of the ancient times.

This sentence also immediately made the Red Dolphin King doubt.

Originally thought it wanted a pair of keels, which were secretly snarled, but the result was only a bedding. In fact, it was the remains of the nine-tailed fox.

According to normal, the skeleton of any ancient Almighty is valuable. But generally it corresponds to one's own group, and it has greater value, including the commemorative value.

For everyone, there is a keel.

These concepts, in the past transaction process, the Red Dolphin King also learned. – It may also be the experience of squandering guests and extracting memories.

Therefore, when Bai Yi made this request, let it doubt it. Why would a Terran want the remains of the Nine-Tailed Fox?

Just when it hasn't responded yet, Shen Lang decided to help him!

The Red Dolphin King is naturally skeptical. If it can't dispel its concerns, it will definitely wait for the price, even if it is cheaper than the white one to trade in a nine-tail shape, it will certainly be higher than expected.

"I don't know where you heard it. What is the value of the skull of the nine-tailed fox? You should learn to learn the gods and exchange for a keel. That is what is really valuable!"

Shen Lang seems to whisper and blame the white cockroaches. In fact, this is of course to say to the Red Dolphin King.

Although the reaction of the giant python is a little slow, it is also known to be fine at the end of the day. It is a bit puzzling to listen to the words of Shen Lang.

However, it is now afraid to question what is going on, and then, just now, it is also a recognition of its transaction, so that it has a sense of accomplishment.

The giant python has already satisfied, the keel has already arrived, and everything has been traded.

Therefore, it does not engage in the destruction of the day, fearing that if you accidentally say it, it will be counterproductive, and then simply do not speak.

The Red Dolphin King just suspected the day, guessing what intentions it had, such as whether it would help the nine-tailed Fox to trade?

But the sentence of Shen Lang, let it dispel the thoughts.

From the words of Shen Lang Hearing that he does not recognize the value of the nine-tailed fox bone, but let Bai Hao continue to buy the keel.

For the Chiopractae family, they are in this place, relying on the name of the Long Valley, and the biggest gimmick in the Dragon Valley is not the most murderous land, but the entire family of the Dragon.

Therefore, no matter when, no matter which race is coming in, the keel will always be the best seller. It is not a trade.

Like the cheekbones of the nine-tailed fox, basically only the nine-tailed fox family will buy it.

Although it also wants to keep the price of the nine-tailed fox, but the scope is too narrow, I don't know if the monkey year can be sold.

Now that another human race wants the skeleton of the nine-tailed fox, if it can be sold, it is equivalent to saving the keel.

“Yes, we did bring out a pair of nine-tailed fox bones. Originally we wanted to stay and give them to the nine-tailed foxes. After all, they are their ancestors. They should be brought back to commemorate...”

It began to lyrical again, saying that it seems to be given to the nine-tailed fox for free.

“But today, it is rare for all of you to come here. I am sure to give you the face of the guests. Since the guests have been open, I will be too rude if I refuse.”

Behind Shen Lang is also followed by the Emperor’s behemoth, the ability to light, let them also think that he is the core figure.

Therefore, one of his words is likely to change the decision of Bai Yu. The Red Dolphin King is now afraid that she will change her mouth. After she has finished speaking, she will directly vomit a skeleton.

“White dig, you look, is this the deputy.”

“This...” Bai Hao certainly understands that Shen Lang is helping it, so he also hesitated deliberately, while the secret is observing the skeleton.

Chapter 1845 - 1 residual sword

“White dig, the keel is of course very valuable. But the keel is not unique. For example, the lord has already traded one.”

“But the bones of the nine-tailed fox are unique. No one else coincides with you. And it is a complete one. The value for you is definitely huge.”

Hearing this, Shen Lang thinks that the Red Dolphin King must have extracted the memory of human beings, or else he will not understand so much. Although this is only a bargain, it has already involved psychological effects.

It seems to be persuading the day, but in fact it has been secretly persuaded to smash the giants.

It seems to say: no boundaries, you see that you only got the keel, if the white scorpion also got the keel, your keel does not seem less precious?

Through such a side suggestion, you can let the helpless team to help persuade the day. In its view, the persuasion of peer partners is certainly more credible than its persuasion.

The giant scorpion is really guided by it. I feel that if the scorpion also bought the keel, its keel seems to be less rare.

Shen Lang feared that it was accidentally revealed, and the information about the white pheasant was the ninth fox. The horse sent it to it and taught it how to say it.

The giant scorpion squinted a little, and then immediately according to the meaning of Shen Lang.

“Yeah, I traded the keel. You also traded the keel. It’s not that interesting. It’s better to try something else.”

Seeing the success of the temptation to the giant python to help it talk, the red porpoise king continues to “influence” Shen Lang.

“Shen Langgui, you don’t know, if you are alone, the nine-tailed fox can’t compare with the keel. But the keel is too rare, the process we get is very dangerous, very difficult, and never complete. ”

“Look, this pair of nine-tailed foxes is a complete skeleton, which is enough to make up for its preciousness.”

It is clarified to Shen Lang, it seems that it is not treacherous, but a real value transaction.

Bai Yu “hesitated” for a moment, and then completely released the spirits that he had to trade before.

“Forget it, I will not repeat it with the godless gods, just trade the cheekbones of this nine-tailed fox!”

Upon hearing this, Shen Lang knew that it should have been confirmed. This is the skeleton of the nine-tailed fox, and it is ancient, not the nine-tailed fox bone that has been killed in recent centuries.

Performing a full set of performances, he also shook his head with a sigh.

The giant 鳌 鳌 和 成功 成功 成功 成功 成功

Today’s harvest, for it, is no small.

However, the loss of three red porpoises is also a great loss.

Of course, it does not want to let go of the deep waves – since it can’t be done, it can’t be killed, then drain his interests!

So it basically gave up the two that had been squeezed out, and concentrated on dealing with the waves.

“Shen Langgui, what do you think of this knife? This is a powerful weapon for the ancient humans.”

It has already been introduced just now, and Shen Lang also said that it was checked.

But did not see Shen Lang directly took it, the keel has already let the giant 鳌 trade, save this knife, it was directly sent to the front of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang did not look at it, waved his hand and let the knife slowly fly back to it.

“A broken knife has no value.”

Shen Lang put the previous medicinal herbs back and forth, and added a bottle of medicinal herbs. Open the lid so that the medicinal fragrance inside can be dispersed.

“The king of the Red Dolphin, I have something, but you can’t fool me.”

“How can I fool the VIP? This is really an ancient weapon!”

The Red Dolphin King quickly screamed.

Shen Lang shook his head: “I don’t want keel, what is the nine-tailed fox bone? If you really have ancient weapons, you will come up with the most valuable out!”

The black porpoise king looked sad and helpless, but Shen Lang’s eyes looked at it and seemed to see it completely.

It is very helpless, and sure enough, this man who can manipulate the behemoths does not have a common knowledge!

It hesitated a bit and spit out something.

Shen Lang has not spoken yet, and the giant python has already spit out.

“Just a broken knife, now I have a broken sword out. Are you really not looking at us?”

This is really a remnant sword, even the broken sword is not counted!

At least one third of the sword must be left behind?

This sword saves two or three inches in length and can only be regarded as a residual sword.

Just a knife, Shen Lang said that it is a broken knife. In fact, the surface is still good, this is the real broken.

“This is an ancient sword. It has the power to destroy the earth. Although it has been broken into this way, it is still powerful. This can be regarded as the strongest ancient weapon I have here...”

The Red Dolphin King looked at the remnant sword floating in the air, and he was very appreciative in his eyes, and seemed to be reluctant to sell it.

Shen Lang certainly does not fully believe its words, it must have exaggerated elements.

But since I have already called back once, the sword that I have replenished is naturally not afraid to take it.

These are just common sense speculations. It is his feeling that Shen Lang realizes that this remnant sword has extraordinary value!

Since entering this gorge, the periphery of the murderous land has not only suppressed the strength, but even the effect of the wheel of the heavens has been greatly reduced.

In the process of fighting and trading, the wheel of the celestial plane did not What reaction, and when this remnant sword was released, the wheel of the heavens began to have a clear feeling.

That is a very good auspicious induction, which is directly equivalent to telling Shen Lang: This is a good thing, this is not dangerous!

Of course, what is good and what is good, this is not detailed.

However, this is the same thing, it is equivalent to a big profit chapter for Shen Lang, so that he can buy with confidence, will not lose.

But this is not over yet!

In his hand, there is also a strong feeling!

Not only the hand, but also the spiritual consciousness.

Shen Lang's calm introspection has already figured out what is going on.

The reason why I first felt in my hand was because I still hold a smashing iron stick!

Although the Red Dolphin King did not continue fighting after he came over, he still took the iron bar when he fell from the top of the dog god.

At this moment, the iron rod has a strong sense, and thus his spiritual consciousness, but also the induction. This piece, of course, absorbs the layer that melts the power of the dragonfly.

what does this mean?

Two thousand years ago, I also came to the funeral dragon valley?

This so-called ancient sword is not an ancient sword, but a weapon left here?

This thought seems a bit absurd, but it is not impossible.

After all, the legend of the year was to fight the invincible hands in the world, to find people to fight everywhere, and then no opponents, only to go to the field. Before going to the meditation domain, it was possible to come to the Great Wilderness and come to the murderous land of the Dragon Valley.

Chapter 1846 - I can not be reconciled

In terms of bargaining, Shen Lang certainly cannot lose the face of the Earth, and certainly cannot be compared to this Avalokite King.

So even if he felt a few layers of changes, the whole person was still calm.

He did not show Muran, it was too deliberate.

"The king of the Red Dolphin, you said that this is your best ancient weapon. Does it mean that you have actually collected a lot of ancient weapons?"

The question of Shen Lang was asked, and the Red Dolphin King was a little embarrassed.

This means that it has to pick up all the ancient weapons!

In fact, to do business like this, what is required is information asymmetry. If all is open, there is no mystery on the one hand, and on the other hand, it will pick fat and thin.

Like the use of the keel, it will not be released all at once, and it will not let people know how much.

Just want to make the transaction of Shen Lang, will only come up with this residual sword.

But if Shen Lang still wants to see all the ancient weapons they have, it is absolutely impossible.

“Shen Lang VIP, I will tell you. This is definitely the best, and even if there are others, it is the same level as the broken knife you did not see before.”

“I already know that you don’t see any grades, you give the best directly, and you don’t want me to take out all the ancient weapons. After all...”

Later, it does not say.

After all, you will only buy the same, and don’t buy anything!

After all, you have limited trading, and you are not coming from Baoshan!

Shen Lang frowned. “If you have more good things, I can actually do more than just trade.”

The king of the Red Dolphins is not going to be fooled. You say this! If there are more good things!

If you have read all the things, you know everything, but you can't see anything, isn't it leaking?

It doesn't talk anymore, it's a must, don't pull it down.

The giant python and the white pheasant have already completed their transactions, and there is a leisurely look at the hustle and bustle of the waves. They are also not convenient to open up to persuade anything, just look at it.

Shen Lang can only be helpless.

"Okay! All of this you take, I will have your remnant sword."

He shook his head and then sighed: "You will regret it, in fact, you can do a few transactions with me."

He really thinks like this. Now he has released the Emperor, and he is not afraid to show his financial resources to the giants.

If you really see other good things, don't mind trading with the Spirit.

However, the king of the Red Dolphins is already very satisfied with the current transaction. I don't want more extra-budgets. No matter what Shen Lang said, it will not believe it, and it will not be greedy.

The items of Shen Lang, it is also quickly swallowed into the big mouth, in case he changes.

Look at it like this, Shen Lang is helpless, can only collect the broken sword.

He is really helpless. Chengdu has a unique place and a few unique magical products, but there are more possibilities here than this.

This remnant sword is definitely rewarding, and looking at these various reactions, it should be harvested, but people are always greedy.

With the harvest of the same items, it is inevitable to want to look at other things, in case there is better?

What if the Red Dolphin King thinks it is normal, but is it useful to him?

Can't see more, it is very regrettable, this funeral dragon valley is not coming back.

After the remnants of the sword were collected, Shen Lang saw the eyes of the giant clams and the white cicadas, and their meanings were obvious. Since the transaction has been successful, they should leave quickly.

This is a land of right and wrong, just everyone is fighting together. And also killed three of the three porpoises, no blame.

The king of the black porpoise and the other five porpoises are also staring at the waves.

Now Shen Lang has naturally become the focus of all the scenes, and his every move will affect everyone's attention.

Since the red porpoises are sure, they want to leave all three of them dry. It will inevitably also suspect that when Shen Lang has this grasp, he may even kill them!

The strength of the Red Dolphin King is even stronger and stronger. It is confident and emboldened, but its mind is much more than the average red porpoise.

For example, just after Shen Lang has already been from its words, guess that it still has more ancient weapons, and further wonder if it still has more keels and the like?

Isn't that greedy?

Therefore, at this time, only the Shen Lang, they left, the Red Dolphin King can rest assured.

But at this point it is not convenient to go under the order!

This is not for the face of the problem, but because once the order is shunned, even if it is a euphemistic way, it will expose the guilty conscience, and will let Shen Lang and others who are still hesitant, directly shot.

Therefore, they all maintained a state of immobility and I did not move, waiting for Shen Lang to leave.

Seeing everyone's eyes are gathered on their own bodies, Shen Lang faint smile.

“Red Dolphin King, I am still a bit unwilling!”

Everyone was shocked when this statement came out!

Not reconciled!

Does he want to do it?

The Red Dolphin King and other red porpoises maintain a high degree of alert and vigilance at all times, guarding against the need to shoot at any time.

And the giant cicadas and white pelicans are also a bit of a headache.

In their view, the transaction has been completed and the purpose has been achieved, and the trip has been successful.

Shen Lang and the behemoth have already killed three of the red porpoises, and others have not revenged, it is very difficult to get. He didn't even know how to accept it when he saw it. If he went on like this, he wouldn't be able to get the transaction items just now, but he still spit it out!

Don't forget, this is the site of the black porpoise!

The Red Dolphin King summoned it, maybe there are still ten heads and eight heads, and even more of the red porpoises come over. When you want to go again, it will be difficult.

“Shen Lang, what are you still unwilling? The Red Dolphin King has already had a very happy deal with us.” Bai Hao couldn’t help but play a round.

The Red Dolphin King, who is on guard, still has no voice It also means obvious.

Look again, if they can’t persuade Shen Lang, if Shen Lang is willing to go his own way, then it may be a bitter situation of both losses, then it must first be strong, grab advanced attack!

You can’t help but say: “Yes... If you still want to trade with the Red Dolphin, then prepare for something later.”

In the rear of Shenlang, the Emperor’s behemoth, although he did not get his instructions, did not know how to cooperate, the enemy’s state of arrogance, it still feels.

So it also made a statement, slowly moved a step, and took a step closer to Shen Lang.

It’s four feet, but it’s just a step.

Because of this distance, it is not a distance at all. This step is not really to get close to the waves, but to convey a gesture to the other party.

If you do it, it will not leave your heart and posture!

Chapter 1847 - Bet a bit of luck

“Of course I have a yearning for the heart of the Red Dolphin King. I can’t take a quick look. I really don’t want to be reconciled.”

Shen Lang smiled and expressed it directly, but in his hand, there was a thread.

If you just listen to him, you may think that he really wants to start, but this time suddenly came up with a thread, which attracted everyone’s attention.

What does it mean?

For a time, everyone did not speak, waiting to see his position.

“What is this called? Not important! Different races may have different names, but what is the value of it? I believe everyone knows.”

“It’s value is important.”

Looking at the veins, the red porpoises are coveted, they are very clear, this thing is much better than the Lingguo.

The giant python is borderless and coveted.

It was even cold and cold, and I felt that Shen Lang really licked it. Otherwise, this thread should be traded to it first.

But there is nothing to think about it again. If it was actually traded to it in Tongtianhe, then it would not come here, and it would not trade to the keel.

The daylight is much calmer, and the green hills should be much deeper than the giants.

But now it is trying to figure out what it means to be a deep wave.

After Shen Lang finished speaking, he directly sent the same vein to the air in front of the king of Azolla.

“The Red Dolphin King, I believe that you are also aware of the goods. I have brought this thing, and I don’t want to bring it back. Will you continue to trade with you?”

The Red Dolphin King did not go to see the veins in front, but looked at Shen Lang, a look that was unmoved.

“Shen Lang VIP, don’t know what else you want to trade?”

Shen Lang shook his head: “I know, let you take all of it out. It’s a bit harder, and I won’t be happy if you change it. Then you look at it! You give it to you according to the value of this thing.” Think of something quite.”

He spread his hands and smiled.

“This time I will never be picky. What do you give? Of course, don’t send me the funeral grass, the foggy vine, the broken knife that has just appeared.”

Although Shen Lang gave a kind of spirituality and sent it to the king of the Red Dolphin.

But in fact, everyone is not sure what he means, and thinks that this is not a bait.

Now his smile, and the tone of jokes, is to make the atmosphere a lot slower.

“Are you sure? I will give you the same, can you accept?” The Red Dolphin asked again.

Shen Lang nodded. “I think you may have Baoshan, but I can’t see it. It’s a pity. So I’m willing to take an opportunity to see if this can get something that surprises me.”

The Red Dolphin King immediately corrected his words.

“Shen Lang VIP, you are wrong. The funeral dragon valley is a treasure mountain. We don’t own Baoshan, but we have sacrificed our lives. We have barely come one or two. In fact, some of my existing ones are no one wants. The broken copper is only a bad iron.”

It must be clarified, not letting Shen Lang misunderstand that it has a lot of treasures, and can’t spread this information out.

Shen Lang swings his hand: “Baoshan is also good, broken copper and iron, you choose the same. I want nothing, there is no suspense, no surprise, you decide.”

This has been confirmed repeatedly, the black porpoise king sees Shen Lang this is serious, immediately swayed, directly swallowed the spirit.

If you are too big, fight again!

“This is what I am giving you, not a broken iron, the value will never be under your things. Our family of red porpoises will not be cheaper than others!”

“But if you want to surprise, I won’t introduce it to you, wait for yourself to discover it!”

It spits out this time, it is a black sphere, probably the size of a basketball. For its body, it is like spitting a bead.

Although not introduced, it can basically be seen that the surface is covered with a black object.

This black object is very likely to be highly toxic, and the real thing is inside.

Both the giant clam and the white cub want to remind Shen Lang that he must be careful, but think again, Shen Lang is obviously more savvy than them, and they don’t need to say more.

For this result, it is exactly what Shen Lang wants.

This is his gambling luck!

The black porpoise king will definitely give him something that is not bad. In fact, apart from the “local toxic specialty”, other things will not go bad. It is the knife that he did not see before, and it should be quite valuable.

Besides, even if the Red Dolphin King directly gives the lowest value, it is only the lowest value of the relative family of the Red Dolphin. It may still have a big effect on Shen Lang.

So now he is gambling about luck and opportunity.

It is because of the suspense of the unknown that it is attractive. If there is such a suspense, it will be able to let him down, not to remember all the kings of the Red Dolphin.

Otherwise, the final stage is likely to be unsuccessful.

Looking at Shen Lang and collecting things, both sides were relieved, and they secretly breathed a sigh of relief. They all had scruples and didn't want to fight again.

"Excuse me! Let's just leave, let's have a chance..."

Shen Lang looked at the distance, it was the direction of the funeral valley.

"...come to trade with the Akus."

That is to say, but just that one, so that everyone is not difficult to guess, Shen Lang is trying to go to the funeral dragon valley to explore!

In this regard, except for the giants who have just known this situation, the ideas of Bai Yu and Chi Gu Dou are the same.

I don't know how tall and thick!

Many people think that they are bold and daring, and they decide that they are the sons of the elections. They dare to bow anywhere. I feel that others have used the life-tested knives and fires of the sea, and they are able to sneak past.

Only when I hit the South Wall, only when I was seriously injured, I realized that I could not surpass all the geniuses of my predecessors.

However, at this moment, the waves are not clearly stated, and no one will go down to sarcastic.

The Red Dolphin King is also a guest of but there is no guest.

The polite guests are only superficial, and everyone is secretly maintaining a high degree of alert.

There are still variables before you leave this canyon! All goodwill may be pretending.

The Chiropractae are afraid that they will take a surprise attack. When the giant

This overall situation is still hosted by Shen Lang. He seems to be waving at random, letting the giant python and the white pheasant go first, and then set the mouth with the porpoise king.

After the two of them entered the passage, Shen Lang took the Emperor's behemoth.

There was a huge body of the dog ***** behind, almost blocked the passage, and the giant python and the white scorpion were relieved and quickly accelerated.

The red dolphins are watching them behind, and they are not reconciled!

If you can leave them all, then harvest...

Chapter 1848 - Great wild 5 dragon

Unlike the concerns of the giant cicadas and the white cicadas, in fact, hatred is not valued by the Azolla.

Living in the harsh environment of such a fierce place, survival is a kind of competition for resources. Three headed red porpoises have died. For other red porpoises, three resources are missing.

For the Red Dolphin King, it can also play a role in relieving the pressure of "population".

Let them not be reconciled, naturally still coveted interests!

The items carried by the white storks and giant clams are definitely only taken out, and Shen Lang is even more unfathomable.

If they can get all of them left, then the things that are traded today can be reclaimed, and all their items can be occupied.

Four different races, when food is eaten, are themselves huge gains, not inferior to those spirits.

The Red Dolphin King is the secret of summoning the giant beast. If it can be mastered, it is better to regard this behemoth as a beater.

But the current situation is doomed to not be able to act rashly. Maybe others will wait for them to start, so there is an excuse to turn their faces.

Ever since, they were not willing to be secretly obscured, and they did not follow the drop-off, but only watched them enter the passage.

When I watched the Emperor's behemoth block the passage, suddenly it disappeared!

Looking at it again, the channel only has to go far to catch up with the two front waves, and the behemoth has completely disappeared.

This makes the Achilles dolphin and envy...

Shen Lang is of course not "sending" the "summoned" behemoth, but let the dog **** behind the temple, after confirming the first two security, take it into the space of the heavenly book, and then come out.

Because he was in front of the dog god, it blocked the line of sight, and the time was very short. From the back, it seemed that only the Emperor's behemoth disappeared, and the Shenlang was naturally accelerated.

Out of the canyon, the giant clam and the white cub found that the behemoth was gone, and could not ask more.

“This place should not be left for a long time, let’s leave first?” Bai Hao made a suggestion.

Originally, this place was brought with it. It has more say. If it comes, everyone will follow it.

But the performance of Shen Lang just let it not dare to lead itself, or to solicit opinions from Shen Lang.

When the giants listened, they did not agree.

“Our keel has already arrived, and it has come out of the canyon. According to what you said, they can’t come out. Is there anything to worry about?”

Then it stretched his head and looked back. “The ghost place doesn’t know if it will come again...”

Look at it, thinking that it may not come again, take the opportunity to visit nearby.

Bai Hao was looking at Shen Lang, quite a bit of words and stops.

Shen Lang is also a bit hesitant.

Because he came from a farther place than Qingqiu and Tongtianhe, which are tens of thousands of miles away.

The giant python may not come again in the future. If he returns to the earth, he will be even more unlikely to come again.

Since it has arrived here, the transaction has been successful. It is also a good thing to study this murderous land. Come here!

“Hey God, what do you think? Is it a turn around?”

When Shen Lang's words came out, Bai Hao sighed, which is equivalent to explaining that he also had the idea of staying for a while.

This is already the case, it is useless to persuade it, but it may make him unhappy.

On the same day in Qingqiu, Bai Yu was still cautious, not to mention only one of them here.

Under normal conditions, a swell of waves and giant pythons can't be dealt with. What's more, now Shen Lang can summon a horrible behemoth, and it is really necessary to destroy it and take it all.

Seeing Shen Lang's words to support himself, let Bai Hao have nothing to say, the giant 鳌 is in a good mood, obviously its relationship with Shen Lang is better, they are partners.

"In any case, we have to leave, and we are not in a hurry. The canyon is considered to be the outer part of the murderous land. It is also a surrounding area. The red porpoise can enter the funeral valley. Maybe we can understand something."

It's a little smug, let the white eyes squint.

If it is so easy to enter the funeral valley, there is no need to exchange things with the red porpoise.

Have you been here before, are you weak? Don't have this mind?

However, it did not say anything. It is already the case. It can only be done with caution.

When Shen Lang and the giant python observe the front canyon, the white owl is paying attention to the area around the back.

Then, its face changed immediately!

Like its fears, there are people nearby!

It should be far from paying attention to them. If you leave immediately, you may only be able to catch up. But now they stop at this point and let the other party have a chance to come closer.

“There are enemies behind!”

Bai Hao whispered the situation to the two of them, and he was ready to escape.

If the enemy is too strong, it really does not care about the friendship and loyalty of the partner, and will directly escape the opportunity!

It is a dream of a generation of ancestors, and it is necessary to bring back the ancestor's bones!

Shen Lang and the giant scorpion have returned to the future.

At this moment, the giant python found that there were really enemies approaching, and his face could not help but succeed.

I didn't expect to be beaten so quickly I should follow the advice of Bai Yu, and leave this right and wrong first.

Shen Lang is very calm.

He is not an inexperienced giant, and Bai Yiyi immediately understands what her concerns are.

Therefore, when he hesitated, he was already secretly using the prediction of the wheel of the heavens to see if it was a fierce enemy and see if it would be dangerous.

The result was that there was an ambush, but the danger was not high, so he did not hurry to call them away, but with a giant.

Those who want to ambush them, of course, fear that they will run, not a moment, have appeared, and quickly spread out, surrounded them.

These come, the lineup is a bit different.

First they are five humans, and secondly, they all have mounts!

Their mounts are all dragons of the beast ***** level, so the speed is coming so fast.

It's not like the green hills and the inner canyons. They have a few strengths, and they can still see a rough one. They are the strongest people in the realm of the gods.

The strongest of the five great realms, plus the five beasts that are at least equivalent to the realm of the Great Immortal, confronting them three directly is the advantage of one side.

"I don't know if you have heard of it. We are called the Great Five Dragons. If you are interested, you will take the initiative to hand over the items you traded from inside. We can spare you a life!"

One of them rode the dragon, reported their name, and said the purpose directly.

It seems that they are in the area of the Dragon Valley, and they have laid their eyeliners. When someone goes there, they gather and stand outside. If you can't come out, you will be able to come out and explain that you must have traded the item, and you will be robbed.

Chapter 1849 - The name of jealousy

Great wild five dragons?

Shen Lang shook his head and said that he had not heard it.

The giant python shook his head and did not hear it.

When Bai Hao heard the Great Five Dragons, it was a change of eye, and then quickly told the voice to tell Shen Lang and the giant.

“Don’t underestimate the enemy! The Great Five Dragons are the collective name of the five notorious human thieves of the Great Wilderness! They use whatever means, no scruples, and shoot for all races.”

After hearing the white voice, Shen Lang probably understood.

These five people should be people like vultures, and they are doing robbery.

Vultures are attacks on various factions of the human race. The five of them are living in the wilderness. There are fewer human races, so they will not let go of attacks on other ethnic groups.

It is also a savage name.

However, one mountain can’t accommodate two tigers. They can coexist in five because the greatness is extremely big. Why do they unite together? Why is it so cleverly present here?

Shen Lang analyzed it. Although the vast wilderness is extremely vast, most of them are still uninhabited, and the density of various ethnic groups is very low.

Even if they make a fortune by taking the lead, once they reach a certain level, it is not so easy to go further.

For example, if you have already reached the realm of the Great God, and then occasionally grab a little spiritual fruit, there is no value for them.

So they will unite and hit their minds on the head of the Chi Gu yan!

Perhaps they have already started, maybe they have some taboos in the canyon, so they changed another idea, and the five teamed up to **** those who succeeded in trading.

Like this time they are three coming, certainly far away, they have already been noticed by the eyeliner they have laid, or by what means.

There are only three people, which are the targets that they are easy to hit.

Now that all three people are out, there must be some transactions to a certain number of items.

They have not seen the spirit and stone, and what they want is to bury the things in the Dragon Valley!

With this in mind, Shen Lang understands the reaction of Bai Yu before. Human beings had such sinister scums. They suddenly went to Qingqiu at night, and they didn't say hello. It's a coincidence. Can others believe it?

Just when the name of the "Great Five Dragons" was said, they were waiting to see them shivering. I didn't expect Shen Lang to shake his head directly. The giant cub also shook his head, a look that he had never heard of.

This makes them very uncomfortable!

How could they not hear about the five of them in the name of the Great Wilderness?

This is deliberately pretending, deliberately despising them!

"Kids! It seems that you don't put our big five dragons in your eyes. If you come up with a name, Grandpa will not want to kill the unknown ghost!"

The day is already very clear. Shen Lang and the giant clam are not pretending. I have never heard of it. Just stunned, so that they did not immediately go back, and now continue to linger.

"The legendary holy shrine is the most ferocious one in the Great Five Dragons. He never left alive. According to the characteristics of the rumors, this one should be a thief on the left, the right side is a sky stone, and there is Liu Zheng here. The last one is a one-eyed dragon."

It has just been secretly observed, in addition to self-reported sacred monks, several other people, also squatting, and quickly talked with Shen Lang and Python.

Because Shen Lang and Jubilee are listening to the day, they don't respond immediately. This attitude falls into the eyes of the holy shrine, and it is more deliberate to ignore them!

"What big wild five dragons! Is it sealed by yourself? Laozi is still the overlord of Tongtianhe!"

Then the giant scorpion directly hit the past.

It dares to be so steel, of course, because Shen Lang has given it confidence.

Now they have three, they should be able to deal with three, and the horror beast that was summoned before, in terms of tearing the red porpoise, one estimate can deal with three, and that one has an odds.

"Hey!" The thief directly spurned: "What is the Tianhe hegemon, are you not the old man in Tongtianhe?"

"Oh! One-eyed dragon has long wanted to catch you to drink blood stew, just too lazy to find you, this time sent to the door!" Talking is the aerial stone.

The one-eyed dragon screams and laughs: "The old man is still very tonic, I will stew it after all! The old stone, I will give you an old quail egg!"

"You still give him the head of the old turtle! He likes this." The thief laughed awkwardly.

Inside the Great Five Dragons, all three are watching the prey, and the first holy shrine is the most angry one.

But only the one named Liu Zheng did not speak and did not express his attitude. He just kept watching and watching them.

The giant scorpion has immediately turned red and its entire gimmick!

I thought that after self-reporting, the other party should be somewhat scrupulous. I didn't expect it to have heard of the other party, but the other party knew it existed.

And this word is really awful!

“Lao”, “old turtle”, “cooked it”, “eat its eggs”, “eat its head”...

These are very annoyed when you listen to it, and you have to do it with them directly!

However, it is still rational after all, and its core combat power is Shen Lang, or else it wants to single out others only fat.

If you don't get it, you really have to be drunk with blood!

So angry and angry, it still kept restraint.

At this time, Shen Lang smiled, his smile made them all see, and the laughter made them all heard.

This is a ridicule for their provocation!

When five people saw it, Shen Lang spoke.

“I said, you five, can you really choose a place?”

He said this, everyone did not say anything.

It is not a place to choose! Just waiting for them to come out of the canyon, do not even run away?

“Here is the funeral dragon valley. You five claim to be the Great Five Dragons, and you are riding on the dragon. Isn't this the meaning of rushing to death?”

As soon as Shen Lang's words were spoken, everyone's face changed.

The Great Wild Five did not think of this before. Now, when they look at it, they are nicknamed "The Great Wild Five Dragons" and they are riding the dragons and come out to the funeral dragon valley. It is really a jealous!

The Terran is more valued for color heads, taboos, etc. Even if it is not guilty of name, it is really buried here, but it is always suffocating and weak.

The giant clams and the white cicadas are secretly applauded, especially the giant clams. It has just been stunned to say nothing, and the words of Shen Lang have made the other party unable to speak out!

"The funeral dragon valley, of course, is the blessed land of our great five dragons! The funeral is your little sister!"

St. reluctantly twisted, and then saw the fierce light.

Originally they must have seized the items of the red porpoise, whether it is keel or the like, now Shenlang has already angered them, first kill them and say!

Chapter 1850 - Run after you finish

Not only the holy shrine, the thief grass, the aerial stone and the one-eyed dragon all see the fierce light, they have to do it directly.

Among them, only Liu Zheng still has a calm.

"It is a giant scorpion, who are you?"

Liu Zheng has been observing for a long time. Jue and Shen Lang have not heard of their names, and they are probably true. But the woman next to it has heard it, and it seems that it has been explained privately with them.

But in the next two sides provocative, he saw that the anger of the giants, can only press the mood, but this human, but still understatement continue to provoke them!

The ignorant is fearless.

If they don't know the Great Five Dragons at all, then there is no fear and normal. However, after knowing it, it can be said that it is very emboldened!

What is the strength of this young man?

The giant clam survives under the Tongtian River and does not communicate with the outside world. I don't know if the Great Five Dragons are normal, the Terran is a group, and there is too much information exchange. Why should he never hear about it?

Does it mean that this man is not the same as a woman? He does not live in the wilderness, but from the great wilderness!

Liu Zheng is not afraid of the Terran beyond the Great Wilderness. In fact, the Great Wilderness is even more dangerous.

The key is that the five of them have always been active in the Great Wilderness, and they have a better understanding of the situation of the great wilderness. The understanding of the situation of the Terran outside the Great Wilderness is extremely limited.

For those of them, whether it is single-handedly fighting, or when everyone joins hands, they will step on the spot and inquire about the situation. If they are sure, they will start.

This time, I thought it was just a giant scorpion and two human beings. But now if this human being comes from the Great Wilderness, there are many more variables.

Liu's calm style is also to win a few respects from them. So he kept talking, and the other ones were listening to anger.

"We are two? You may be scared when you say it! Outside of the great wasteland, she is a flower fairy, I am the ***** of the dragon!"

“Hundred Flowers Fairy... Zhenlong God...?”

Liu Zheng mourned for a moment, his brain was searching for memories quickly, and he knew about the situation outside the Great Wilderness. He had never heard of these two names.

“Liu brother! He is playing you!” Sheng Li sighed.

Originally, Liu Zheng’s mind was to be stronger than a few of them, but because of his thoughtfulness, he was thinking about the business.

They sang them, but they heard it, and Shen Lang was deliberately talking about it.

He said this, Liu Zheng also reacted.

Zhenlong Dashen, isn’t it to say that they want to town their great five dragons? The flower fairy is just used to cover and confuse him.

“If you say that, it will be boring.”

Liu Zheng’s face sank, but he still kept his reason.

This young man, dare to play with him, if it is not extremely ignorant, it is really fearless!

“What do you do with him nonsense? Just kill them all!” The thief couldn’t help it.

The other few, also sharpening the knife to the pig, just out of trust in Liu Zhengzhi, and waiting for him to make the final decision.

“Our wilderness is also a place where civilizations talk about rules. Just hand over the things you exchanged from the canyon, you can let them go, we don’t want anything else.”

Liu Zheng said this, let them a few partners, look at them, look at him incredulously.

Although Liu Zheng is calm and rational, and the means are not as ferocious as the holy shrine, but the decision to kill and cut is never soft, how can you become so good today?

I have never let go of other people in the past, let alone the ridicule of this kid to insult their great five dragons.

Not killing is not enough to vent your anger!

“Old Liu, you can think clearly, you speak this, it represents our great five dragons!” Sky Stone reminded.

Others insulted the Great Five Dragons, but also included insulting you, how can you let it go so easily?

Or to say... What good is this kid worth worrying about?

Liu Zheng waved his hand and motioned them not to talk, but their eyes were still watching the waves.

Out of thinking that they trust the decision of Liu Zheng, let them all anger and not speak.

Everyone is waiting for the response of Shen Lang, and Bai Yu and Ju Yi are also without borders.

If Shen Lang decides to surrender, then what they just got will be given out. With the experience of the Great Wild Five, it is certainly not that they can be fooled by one experience.

In the attitude of Shen Lang, the possibility of surrender is extremely small, which means that they must be ready to fight at any time!

“I also have a proposal. I am also very interested in the items that you have robbed in the Long Valley. If you hand it over, I will not do anything else. You can just leave the snake on the horse.”

“presumptuous!”

“shut up!”

“Hurricane!”

The sentence of Shen Lang said that not only the great five dragons were too much to be forgiven, but the dragons they were riding on were also unable to bear the roar.

It’s also a fierce beast of the beast ***** level, and he was actually said to be a snake!

In the end, Liu Zheng is a long-known murderer. Even if he is rational again and again, he is repeatedly ridiculed by an unknown child. He can no longer be calm.

“Get started!”

Just when Liu Zheng made this decision, he immediately felt a wave of space fluctuations in front.

This kind of anomaly makes him wary, but he has no time to stop other people. He can only control his own dragon and don’t rush.

And the four of them, including the four dragons and beasts, have already displayed their own spells, and they are mad at them!

Liu Zheng saw it really. They didn’t evade and didn’t defend, but just as the attack arrived, as the space fluctuated, all three of them disappeared and disappeared directly from the front!

The bombardment of the bombardment bombarded an empty space, so that the Holy Grail and other people face each other.

It’s very confusing to have a gas that can’t be sprinkled!

They teased them to ridicule and then ran straight, not giving them the opportunity to avenge, this is also very depressed.

At this time, there was a voice in the passage leading to the canyon.

“Where are the guests outside, is there any need? You can come in and talk about it. Our family of red porpoises may provide you with a lot of things.”

When the sound came out, they all heard it.

Then the complexion is a bit complicated. These red porpoises living in this canyon are not dare to provoke them. They used to go in and know each other. They know that it is not good and the generations, one is not careful, they will be eaten without bones. .

Even if they are now joined by five, they are hunting in the outer circle. If they don't go in, they will directly provoke the family of the red porpoise.

Just now, I also expressed it. The other party is also paying attention to the situation here. Maybe I am waiting for it to be cheap.
