

First Strong 1901

Chapter 1901 - Quicksand

Light is the technique of bandits, and the memory of the elk is not clear, but the quicksands are obviously a clearer label. Just think about it.

The so-called quicksand slave is not the name of a person, but the name of a group.

They live in a place where they are a drifting sea. If ordinary people and beasts go in, they will be swallowed up and directly sink into the ground and be swallowed by quicksand.

Originally, the quicksand sea was considered dead. Because of the horror of quicksand, there was no living thing to go in. It was flying from the air and did not dare to go in.

From the perspective of flying on the edge, there is no greenery in the Liusha sea. It is estimated that even if there are resources, that is, mineral deposits, there is definitely no such thing as Lingcao Lingguo.

There is no shortage of resources in the whole world, and of course no one will develop the quicksand sea.

But then I didn't know when, I was curious about the young people who had been practicing along the sands of the past, and found that some people came out from the quicksand sea and could enter it.

At first, I thought it was wrong, or some of the strong ones went in. After a long time, there are more clues to accumulate.

Later, there were active people in the quicksand sea, and went to the outside world to trade goods with humans.

They are covered in dark skin, not afraid of high temperatures and not afraid of flames. The things that come out of the transaction, although not precious, have the effect of hunting.

Those who come into contact with them are referred to by the quicksand.

These people did not have a name, and they were glad to accept the name of the quicksand.

Later, it was discovered that these quicksinging slaves are all skilled in the technique of bandits. Perhaps they live in the quicksand sea. Just like the fish live in the water, they can swim in the quicksand and exercise the technique of bandits.

The quicksand slaves are nicknames, so some people, combined with their characteristics, renamed the quicksands and slaves, meaning the meaning of cultivating in the dead of the quicksand.

This name has been circulated.

However, the quicksand sea is very remote. Generally, very few people pass by, and they rarely come out to trade items.

Therefore, the reputation is not big, similar to the father who is a sacred father, not everyone knows. I heard that it is also legendary and may not have been seen.

“No, no, I haven’t attacked anyone. I saw two spirits today and suddenly mourned. This is the first time, but I also hope to forgive!”

This quicksand slave immediately confessed and explained.

Shen Lang already knows his identity, and he is most convinced of his words.

According to the legend, the laks and slaves are rarely communicated with the outside world. They have very few bases, and they should be better than others to excavate and whiten them.

However, from the beginning of the sneak attack, it seems quite scheming. It is definitely a veteran. Now it is the first time. It seems that he is very good at communication. Knowing this can make people easier to forgive.

“Then I ask you another question. What are you doing here?”

Although Shen Lang did not know how far the quicksand sea was separated from the deserted forest, it certainly would not happen to be nearby.

This watchful savvy, should have been integrated with humans, and may have left the quicksand sea.

“Our ancestors have lived in the quicksand sea for generations. It is difficult to get a trip outside. I want to see the great rivers and mountains. I just came here. I have offended the two and I hope to forgive me.”

His answer is the same as Shen Lang expected.

And he will answer this way, so that Shen Lang is even more distrustful of him.

Originally, there was no good feeling for the slumber of the earth-boring slaves, because when he came over and snatched the spirit, he touched the white chest and touched the white face with one hand!

He has not touched it yet!

At that moment, it was already very bad. Now that she is so fake, Shen Lang is more skeptical that he does not have any disagreement.

“you can go now.”

“what?”

The quicksands and slaves could not help but staggered.

Shen Lang will ask him what he said, and he has already had a care in his heart. This answer, Shen Lang may not believe, will definitely ask, this is what he expected.

Therefore, he has already thought about the answer to the question that was later questioned.

However, Shen Lang suddenly said that he could go, so that if he had already reached his mouth, it would be like a throat.

“What?” Shen Lang frowned.

“I am...” The slumbers and slaves suppressed what they were prepared to respond to.

Explain the cover, not all to be able to leave safely? Since you can go, it doesn't matter.

“...I'm the little shovel... Can you return it to me? It's not a precious thing, but what I took out from the quicksand sea is a hometown thought.”

When he said this, Shen Lang felt that he was more level!

Not to mention the other ethnic groups, such as earth-excavation and white pelicans, who rarely deal with human beings, are human societies, and may not be able to say such things.

Do not emphasize that it is a more important magic weapon, but emphasize that it is the thoughts brought out from home. As long as they are righteous people, they are embarrassed to take it.

However, for Shen Lang, this proves his savvy, and he wants to get him even more!

“What little shovel? You gave it to me?”

“...”

Shen Lang looked strangely, letting the lazy slaves completely speechless.

This is turning your face and not accepting it!

However, it was impossible for him to get the evidence, but it was impossible to get it. Because it was “a thousand miles away”, he did not see anyone at all, and did not see the other party taking his things.

Not to mention his small shovel, it is the two spirits, the other party can not admit to take away.

But he is sure that the young man has taken it away, there can be no other people!

“You are a high-ranking person, you are offended, and you are still expected to give the shovel, and the quicksands are grateful!”

He has no other way, and he can only ask for the other party in a low voice. If you want to do it, obviously this is not a fight.

It's very good to be able to get back a life. If you do it, you may not have a life.

“I don't like listening to you!”

Shen Lang took a look at the board: “It is obvious that you have snatched our spirit, how can you turn it over? What do you mean by this, is that I grabbed your shovel?”

“...”

“I have come to see you coming from the quicksand, it should be poor, and for the first time, it will not be with you. Now you have to say this to me, then let me return my two spirits!”

“No, no, I am wrong, I am wrong, I am just a slave.

You are angry, I will leave now!”

The laks and slaves immediately began to sue, and then they turned and left.

He is also very decisive.

The magic weapon has been lost, others do not accept the account, that is the attitude of not willing to pay. If you are entangled again, then you will not lose more than two spirits. It may be true that you will be here!

Although there is no small shovel magic weapon, he is still a bandit to leave, for safety reasons, the speed is as fast as possible!

At this time, Shen Lang once again waved the sword of the king!

In the face of the slain slave who thought that he was quickly leaving the ground and turned around in the air, he went out with a sword!

Chapter 1902 - Deadly

The sloshing slaves mistakenly thought that Shen Lang had arrested him from thousands of miles away. Although it was incredible, if it was strong to a certain extent, there might be a spell that “reduced the ground” and could catch people across thousands of miles.

Therefore, he just found that he was hopeless to get back to the magic weapon and to decisively escape. He did not dare to go down with the static waves.

However, I did not think that the magic pen held in the hands of Shen Lang is the real magic weapon. In the moment of his escape, it is actually a real fantasy!

The result was that he thought he had escaped, but in fact he was still in the air as he did before.

Before Shen Lang can use lightning to attack him, he can use the sword to slap him, and let him understand that it can only be as far away as possible, and other defenses will not have any effect.

Therefore, his situation is now worse than before, even the basic defense has given up!

This is what Shen Lang didn't think of. Originally, this sword was used in the past, but it was prepared to be defended. I didn't expect to directly drop the quicksand slaves into two pieces!

Bai Hao has been very admired for Shen Lang, and he feels that he can't see his details.

Just in her eyes, I saw that the quicksand slavishly left, and then saw Shen Lang smashing a sword to the ground.

Because there have been many times before, she did not think much, thinking that it is still the same as before.

I didn't expect to see it again. The scene seemed to have changed again. It didn't seem to change. It was just that the black quicksand slave, which did not appear from the ground, but fell from the sky and has become two paragraphs.

“you you.....”

The “squatting” way of the savior is like a swim, and it is squatting forward in the air, so it is smashed in the air, not divided into two, but broken into two.

So he did not die directly, still have a sigh of relief, looking at the coming, said, full of fear.

Shen Lang took the sword of the king.

“I can't kill you, is it? But I don't think you are upset.”

Shen Lang directly controlled him and began to extract his memory.

The day is also followed, although Shen Lang does not necessarily need her help, but she still has her own duty, guarding it.

On the one hand, guard against this lazy slave, fearing that it will hurt the sinking waves in a self-destructive way. Once the head is wrong, it will be shot ahead of time.

On the other hand, it is also necessary to prevent other people from coming around.

Just now they were unprepared and were brought close by the lazy slave.

The quicksand slaves are also very clear about what Shen Lang is doing, but his current body is rapidly weakening, and the spirit is completely controlled by Shen Lang. There is no room for resistance.

In this moment, he regrets very much!

When you have just been cut off by a sword, you should decisively kill yourself!

When you fall from the sky, if you can decisively, you still have to do it yourself. Now you want to commit suicide.

And others have taken away his memory, then there is no need for torture to extract confession, all information has been transparent.

“You...what is it...?”

Finally, the reedless slaves stared at Shen Lang and asked a sentence.

“You want to know who I am, to be able to die, right?”

The quicksand slaves nodded slightly.

He does not believe that this young man will be a god, but he really wants to find out who the other person is, what the realm is, and it is so easy to kill him.

“Then I won’t tell you, I will let you die.”

“puff–“

In the words of Shen Lang, the slain slaves could not help but spit out a blood.

“You have a lot of bleeding underneath, you can also vomit bleeding, blood is really a lot!”
Shen Lang praised.

“...”

Hearing this, the savior wants to vomit blood, and must resist it.

Shen Lang was not wasted, and the tower of Tiantian came out again, sucking in the two bodies of the savior.

He also did not take care of the towering towers to collect so many powerful realms in the realm of the gods, and then what kind of people will come out, and they will be stuffed in anyway.

“have a rest!”

Shen Lang returned to the cave with white enamel, and then placed a protective cover.

Even so, Bai Hao still acts as a defense, silently paying attention to the situation around him.

Shen Lang is the memory of the beginning to digest the laks and slaves.

He is still very curious about these strange ethnic groups.

For example, for Kuafu, for the Fox, and for the Red Dolphin, there are only some inappropriateities. When it comes to absorbing memory, it is a superficial understanding.

But now that this slumber is a slave, you can get a good look.

Shen Lang will read his memory, mainly to find out what he is here. He couldn't have come by chance, and he was more familiar with dealing with people.

As for the situation of the quicksand sea, the situation of the laks and slaves is by the way.

In the memory of this savior, the situation of the quicksand sea has already appeared in the mind of Shen Lang.

It is only the speciality of their ethnic groups, whether it is historical inheritance or living habits, etc., it is very simple, let alone civilized.

There are many things that are slowly affected by a little bit of contact with outside human beings.

For their history, that is, word of mouth, many have been annihilated, and some are similar to the story of myths and legends.

On the whole, they are like a special primitive tribe, living a life that is isolated from the world because of the relationship between the living environment.

In the long past, what is the situation, and now there are not many people who know the slaves.

The story of ancient rumors he knows is generally that their ancestors were descendants of the gods, came to the quicksand sea, and then prospered there.

They feel that they have lost the power of the gods, but they still have the genes of the gods, so that they can walk through the quicksand without sinking or suffocating.

In the Liusha Sea, there are naturally a large number of mineral deposits, because there has never been developed, and the number of each generation of quicksand slaves is very small, so it is easy to get resources.

Including the spirit, the spirit, they can all get, and these are also one of the foundations for their strong existence.

When the outside world named them they also began to get more exposure and began to have a sense of civilization. In addition to the exchange of some necessities, I also began to learn the cultural civilization of the outside world.

But in general, they still live a primitive primitive tribal life.

They don't need names internally, because the whole number is very small, everyone knows, and there is no sense of name.

When they are outside, they will also use the name of the human being as a slave.

Coming to the lazy slaves today is a different kind. When he was very young, because he was more savvy, he was brought out to trade, and he saw the prosperity of the human world, and he did not want to return to the hardships of the sand sea!

Later, for a long time, until now, he is actually in the human world.

Chapter 1903 - Who is behind the scenes?

In the human world, the particularity of the slain slaves, wherever they go, is eye-catching.

And because even if it is dark, it is considered to be a kind of human race. It really needs to be a gap, much smaller than the giant family of Kuafu.

Therefore, the Terran will not kill him as a ferocious beast. He has only one and there is no threat.

In addition, he showed that because he admired the life of the Terran, it is easy to have a sense of superiority, and there are many curiosities because of the confession of the slaves.

In general, others are good to him, and he has grown very well.

But for him personally, after all, there is no hometown, no partners, violently displaced, and sent to the fence, so they have to learn, have to cater to the favor, to the end is also a variety of unscrupulous means.

There aren't any other details in the details. Shen Lang doesn't want to know his journey of growth. He needs to pay attention to the situation here!

The memory of this part is related recently.

These years, the reedless slaves are actually doing some unspeakable work, which is similar to the vultures and the great five dragons.

However, he is more inclined to "employ", and he does not have so many independent actions.

This is because his understanding of the human body is consciously limited, and he is afraid of attracting people who cannot be provoked.

If someone else hires him, then you can ask first, the risk geometry, the cost, and the harvest, and finally make an assessment before moving.

This time, someone hired him to come here.

But he is not sure who the employer is and does not know what the specific purpose of the employer is.

In short, the employer is letting him come over the forest in the past few days. When encountering any human monks, they are secretly observing and then looking for opportunities to seize their belongings!

These items are finally available to the employer and the employer will pay him a commission.

It is equal to saying these things, you don't need to let go of your own hands, the employer will get it.

But this person is not without a chance. Like today, I have grabbed the two spirits of Shen Lang. Of course, I don't need to give it to my employer. Because this does not require a shot, this thing can be used by himself.

Employers are not likely to pay a higher price, which is a loss.

From his memory, Shen Lang also found that because of the ability to hide under the ground, he has just sneaked four times, and several times he has not succeeded.

What he got successfully, he was hidden in that little shovel!

This small shovel is really a magic weapon. He came out from the quicksand sea. It is because of this body protection that he will be safe for a long time.

Also because of this, he also got the killing of the quicksand sea!

However, it is always better for him to mix well. Those who are not guilty of the world are easy to get lost, let alone chase him.

This shovel does not know where it came from. According to the legend of the shoal of the shoal, it is brought by the ancestor, which is the most important magic weapon for their ethnic group.

With this stuff, you can easily dig underground, just like in the air.

The shovel also has storage space to hide things in it. It is because of this that when they come out to trade, they carry things and go back.

Therefore, he was given the opportunity to take theft. Otherwise, if he was in the quicksand sea, his strength and identity would not be accessible.

After recognizing the role of this small shovel, Shen Lang had to admire the decisiveness of this quicksand slave!

This is equal to his most important magic weapon, plus the collection of the full-body family, taking away far more than the two spirits, is to rob him all!

If you change to any one person, you should not be able to bear it. Even if you don't dare to grab it, you will be pleading for it, and you will find it if you want to get it back.

However, he refused to give up immediately after Shen Lang, and immediately fled.

In the face of life and the whole family, he decided to make a decisive life, perhaps a life that has lived in the human world for decades, and made him realize that he has everything.

However, it was eventually turned over by Shen Lang.

Others have already entered the tower of the tower, and naturally it is impossible to have any connection with the small shovel. Shen Lang calmly accepts it for himself.

In the storage space of the shovel, what is left is his harvest for decades, and he is shrewd and is always in a state of escape.

It is necessary to guard against human greed to kill him, and to guard against the quicksand slaves to chase after him, so he never collects things of little value.

Even if some of the things that are harvested are not worth enough, they will be exchanged for more valuable things after they are preserved.

For example, if someone else hires him, it is a small matter at the beginning, which may be the revenge for the fine stone. Over time, there will be many spiritual stones.

Later, he will find a way to replace the fine stone with the spiritual collection.

Later, the collection was replaced with a spirit.

Because of his carefulness and fear, he is afraid of getting into a strong enemy, and the stolen goods are not easy to get rid of his hands. Therefore, even if he gets a good magic weapon, he will endure it to the employer. The deposit is basically a spiritual stone and a spiritual pulse.

He also likes to collect these things, because he wants the spirit of medicine, can be bought and bought, and wants Danmao to be traded. It is more practical than the weapon of the magic weapon.

It is precisely because of this reason that before seeing Shen Lang to give the two spirits of the day, when Bai Hao actually said no, he couldn't help but jump out and say that he wanted it, and then he took it and ran.

Shen Lang counted his collection, a total of eight spirits, can be described as huge gains!

In addition, there are three magic weapons and weapons, which are three times before. Basically, they are all ancestors of all parties. From the point of view of memory, they have all been seen at the Yaochi event.

These magic weapons, Shen Lang either brought back to the earth, or returned them for a personal situation, which is inconvenient to use here, will be misunderstood that they hired them to attack the slain slaves.

But this is not the most important thing. What Shen Lang wants to know is, who hired a quicksand slave?

What is the purpose?

Combined with this point of time, there is a great possibility that Cui or ancestors of Xuanyinmen!

Because the wind information here is what he released, and after entering the meditation domain he has not revealed it.

If he hires people, and you can steal a lot of weapons and weapons, then after the meditation, many of the same level will be inferior to him.

But then again, even if there is no memory of the savior, other people meet and communicate, it should be such a speculation, Cui is probably the biggest suspect.

Then he would not do this.

Will other people borrow this layout?

This possibility is also there. After all, the Yungong Holy Land has not been found for thousands of years, and according to the legend, it is also very dangerous. It is better to smash them when you want to explore. Piggy, that is the real gain.

Chapter 1904 - Goodbye

Shen Lang chose to wait and see!

He does not live in the righteousness of justice, and there is no such sense of justice. Just like this lazy slave, if he didn't get his head, he would understand it and would not interfere with anything.

The current situation is waiting for the follow-up.

The person behind the scenes may be related to the exploration of the Yungong Holy Land, which naturally reveals the tail of the fox.

After a restful night, Shen Lang walked with the white scorpion.

According to the information given by Xue Feixue, he searched for related references one by one.

The elk's memory of the dead forest is a long time, and it is his experience when he was young.

For Shen Lang, it is a vague one, there are not many detailed references.

However, the memory of the retributing slaves, I have not thought about this aspect, but it is unexpected income.

Because he came here in advance, and attacked several people, it is naturally a range of the environment around the area.

When he is fighting and ambushing others, he is hiding under the ground, and when he is rushing to escape, he will not live underground in his daily life.

Therefore, according to his memory, Shen Lang has found a lot of clues.

One day the next day, Shen Lang did not hurry to hurry, as if the attitude of swimming in the mountains, I found the meeting point.

The place where the collection is is in a crater.

Tiankeng is a world in this world, and it is not a unique spectacle. The scope of this tiankeng is not large, probably only a hundred meters in diameter.

Looking down from the edge, there is quite a bit of a bottomless look.

This is in the core area of the dead forest. If you can come here, don't say that these ancestors are not even weak in daily life. It is a trivial matter to go down like this. .

But now, the people who arrived in advance are all surrounded by the edge of the tiankeng, and no one has gone ahead and has not explored.

When Shen Lang arrived with the white scorpion, many people arrived at the scene.

Most of these people were the ancestors of the various factions that they had seen at the Yaochi event last time, and some of them were not seen before, that is, everyone called their friends and friends.

The arrival of Shen Lang immediately attracted everyone's attention.

A wave of Yaochi event a month ago, Shen Lang was out of the limelight, and no one can ignore his existence.

And some of them, when they saw the look of Shen Lang, became complicated.

For example, the Zilu ancestor of the Kunlun School, the last time he was the best, was full of enthusiasm, and a series of things happened. The Kunlun faction is also quite a loss, and there are things that have been sent out and died.

However, compared with the ancestors who are finished, he can still live, and can also open all the Kunlun pie, it is very rare lucky.

For example, his old friend, Elk, has no news, and he can guess at the end...

There are also sly, Helan City Helan ancestors, Lijiang Yuxi, Bailudong Xiaoyao ancestors, Zifu Wonderland Lu You ancestors.

They had previously participated in the ambush against the Shenlang outside the Kunlun School. As a result, Shen Lang left calmly. They made them rush to go back to their homes, so as not to encounter the attack of Shen Lang.

As a result, after more than half a month, Shen Lang did not “go to visit” and did not hear which one attacked, as if it had disappeared.

Whether he is hiding or practicing, or healing, or have other ideas, they will be relieved if they don’t engage them.

But the gentleman’s revenge is not too late, who knows when he will take revenge?

Therefore, everyone can only be a little relieved, can only be assured that half, failed to solve this matter, before getting his promise, it is not really okay.

There are also two people, Zhisheng and Tongxian, who were contacted by vultures.

The vulture guesses that the first one will go to Lijiang!

Because Lijiang was an appointment, I would have helped them, and I was involved in the attack. This is definitely the most unpleasant.

The three of them also rushed to the Lijiang River, but did not have any contact with Yu Yu.

Because their purpose is very simple, that is, after seeing Shen Lang destroying the Lijiang River, it is best to lose both sides, and then they will come out and cheap.

As a result, there was no movement, and there was a cloud temple in the back, so that they had to give up the plan to wait for the rabbit.

There are other sects that have been tired of being sent by the Lijiang River. They were originally scheduled to make an appointment, but they did not participate in the attack on Shen Lang. Apart from resentment and sorrow, they were also a bit resentful against Shen Lang. They did nothing!

But this is also the fear of anger and dare not speak, as long as there is no tearing face, there is another opportunity to join hands.

So at this time, watching the arrival of Shen Lang, everyone's minds are different, and there is not much sincere willing to see him.

“Hey! Shen Xiao brother, I haven't seen it for a month. It's a good time. There is a big beauty around here!”

When everyone is jealous, the first to say hello to Shen Lang is the Song invincible of the Promise Palace.

When the gods were rescued on the same day, Shen Lang did not like Song invincible.

Because this guy, in order to make a flattering child, Wen Zhi's flattering, take the initiative to be a villain. In contrast, Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Zhi are two, and they are quite sacred.

But after the Kunlun faction outside the battle, Shen Lang saw Tong Xian Weng, Zhi Yi, but did not see Song invincible.

Although the great possibility is because they are weaker than the two invincible Songs, they did not bring him, but they were set off by the two, but they made him feel good.

Now I heard Song's invincible greeting, although a bit embarrassing, but it is natural, and his previous attitude is the same.

This can also explain a point, although it is the child Xian Weng two did not bring him, he himself did not think about ambushing the waves, so it is so natural to face the waves!

"Song ancestors, long time no see, this is my maid."

What Song's invincible didn't think was that Shen Lang didn't perfuse him. Instead, he came to him in enthusiasm, chilled with him, and introduced the beauty.

"Little meet."

In the case that Song's invincible surprise has not yet reacted, it is found that something has been stuffed into his own hands.

He instinctively thought that Shen Lang wanted to harm him!

His first reaction was to throw something in his hand and throw it away!

Because he feels that Shen Lang's attitude towards him is too abnormal There must be a demon in the abnormal situation. This kid must have wanted to attack him to make him ugly.

But when you look closely, it is a kind of thread!

This.....

"Shen... Shen brother, I don't understand a bit. Our friendship is not so deep? You suddenly sent a gift of spirituality, is there anything I need to do?"

Song Invincible is a direct person, asked in front of so many people, and if Shen Lang really needs him to do something, he can still be calm.

Chapter 1905 - Burst point

Shen Lang smiled and shook his head: "You don't need to do anything. After the last Yaochi, you didn't think about killing me. It's worth giving me a thin gift."

"..."

Song is invincible and speechless. I didn't expect Shen Lang to say this.

At that time, even if he didn't know, he must have heard about it afterwards. For the behavior of Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Yi, he must have been a bit uncomfortable.

If you encounter such a thing, don't bring him, and you can't see him.

However, he secretly laughed at himself. He is not as good as others, and he does not reach the level of others. What other faces are asking for more?

This is also good, otherwise his strength is weaker. If he goes, it may be the one that has been dragged down.

After trying to understand, he himself was calm, no longer looking for Tong Xian Weng, and Tong Xian Weng and Zhi Wei later followed the vultures in the Lijiang River, and did not contact him.

Now when I hear the words of Shen Lang, Song is invincible and feels awkward.

Sometimes, when you don't do anything, you will be thanked by others. Just because many other people have done bad things!

Other people on the scene are also concerned about the situation here. Although everyone stands in different directions, the entire tiankeng is not only a hundred meters in diameter, not far from each other.

Everyone did not say hello because of blasphemy and other reasons. But I still pay attention to the situation here. When I hear the waves, many people have a sizzling face.

This is followed by Song invincible to hit everyone's face!

In particular, Zhisheng and Tongxian Weng are clearly aware that the invincible relationship between Shen Lang and Song is not friendly. The experience at this moment is even more real.

However, after all, they are all the characters of the tyrannical giants. This can still be tolerated. Everyone is regarded as jealous of others and has nothing to do with themselves.

Since Song Qianveng, who had a bad relationship with Shenlang, has taken the initiative to say hello, the relationship is better, of course, there are reasons.

Therefore, Helan's ancestors also came forward to say hello, and also cooperated with Yu Yu to apologize.

In their view, Shen Lang did not attack the Qijiang faction. Naturally, it was not about depression, but on the face of Helan's ancestors.

Strictly speaking, Helan's ancestors have no face, this is watching the friendship with He Lanchun.

This also makes Helan's ancestors sigh, so that the human sentiment has been sold, and later want to let Chuner and his friendship deeper, it is difficult, plain missed a good opportunity!

Others, inconvenient to come in front of themselves, is also a far-reaching gift, say hello to Shen Lang, it is said hello.

As a result, although it was very fake, the surface atmosphere on the scene was still lively.

Then someone immediately took the opportunity to open the topic and led to the topic of this time.

“Dear fellows, how many clues and how much do you know about this quest for the Yungong Holy Land?”

“Yeah, this is just Xuan Yinmen know, we don’t know anything. Cui or did not disclose at all, do you know anything?”

“I also want to know, why let us come here to gather, this tiankeng, can it lead to the meditation?”

For a time, everyone started a heated discussion.

This time I came here this time, and I came to the holy place of Yungong. For Shenlang, everyone has changed their attitude.

Because of the previous information, some of them were promoted through Yaochi. Some of them were private channels, and the fermentation was spread in this half a month.

Basically everyone understands that if you want to move the waves, the consequences are very serious and very dangerous!

This is already a price paid by the ancestors. If there are some no more news, it will naturally be a lot less.

Even if others are greedy, they must be measured. Is the value not worth it? Or say... enough to grab it?

These days, enough for them to be clear.

And the Yungong Holy Land is a new explosion.

People always have the heart of gossip. They don’t chase dog blood ethics and celebrity celebrities. But for the circle of comprehension, they are saved and calm, and they will always be enthusiastic about the screaming gossip.

The opening of the ruins is a burst point; the convening of the Yaochi event is the next explosion.

The wave of Shen Lang in the Yaochi event is another explosion point that everyone pays attention to.

Now that the heat of Shenlang has passed, everyone is concerned about the new explosion point of Yungong Holy Land.

In case you can really find the Yungong Holy Land, you can come back safely. Everyone is a big man who can open a sect. What is the interest of Shen Lang?

Ning is credible!

Everyone is like this mentality.

When everyone is eager to discuss, the focus is on Cui or the ancestors of Xuanyinmen.

Cui or master the public psychology, he knows that everyone is waiting for him, this place is also his agreement, but he did not come early.

“Actually, you are coming early. Is the news not to explain the day?”

The faint sentence of Shen Lang is equivalent to pouring a cold water into everyone.

Indeed, the time that was originally agreed is tomorrow, but until now, there have been more and more people coming, not to mention that all have arrived, at least there should be more than half.

However, I did not see Cui or, and everyone was anxious and complained a bit.

When I heard the words of Shen Lang, I felt that there was no reason.

The people agreed to come over tomorrow, you came over in advance, but you can still complain? I can only wait patiently.

Next, everyone still inquired about the news, but will not urge Cui or something anymore.

It's just that they don't have any good clues, or who have clues, and they won't say it in public. Really valuable clues are definitely all that need to be exchanged.

Shen Lang and Song Invincible have no topic to say, directly to Song invincible a spiritual pulse, but also a whim, the purpose is to fight the face of Tong Xian Weng and others.

In order to avoid being disturbed, Shen Lang took a white knee and sat down, a look of luck.

In the evening, some people came over and Shen Lang did not pay attention.

When he got here, he didn't need any care and safety.

Even if the masters of the scene do not have an attempt, they will not dare or do all the ancestors, so it is absolutely safe here.

A calm past in the evening.

The next morning, everyone "woke up" early.

They are waiting for the arrival of Xuan Yinmen Cui or the first wave of the morning, but not Cui or. It is the autumn cold of the autumn forest swords!

The cold autumn age and generation, as well as personal strength, even if the Qiu Lin Jianzong's bottom is almost a point, no one dares to disrespect him.

So no matter what the activity, he finally appeared, no one thought he was swaying.

For this unfathomable ancestor who has lived for hundreds of years, everyone, like Yaochi, has taken the initiative to express his respect.

Gao Hanqiu is still chilling with everyone as always, and then there is no accident that everyone is surprised. It is only a chill on other people, and then the active past does not meet the Shen Lang.

It seems that it is like a cold autumn to take the initiative to say hello to Shen Lang!

Chapter 1906 - High cold autumn sharing information

Although the last time at the Yaochi event, everyone has already stunned, but watching the attitude of Gao Hanqiu to other ancestors, and the difference with Shen Lang, still let everyone feel shocked.

In my heart, I have to ask another question: What is this kid? How can He De let the attitude of Gao Hanqiu?

However, in the past month, they have not inquired about one thing. Of course, no one will ask questions directly.

Gao Hanqiu still came with Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu. The two of them were also very respectful to Shen Lang and then stood aside.

After a simple set of two people, they began to communicate with each other.

Shen Lang simply said this trip to the Great Wilderness and talked to Gao Hanqiu.

For the adventures of Shen Lang, Gao Hanqiu is also amazed.

He has been in this world for hundreds of years, but he has never been to the Great Wilderness.

At the beginning, it was to establish a foothold, and then it was the hardship of the opening of the sect. After the stabilization, it is already a hundred or two years later.

Then I found that even in the Tang Dynasty, the first-class martial art was mixed, and it was nothing in the whole world. In the eyes of those ancient sects with profound knowledge, Tangcheng and the like were nothing.

Therefore, in addition to cultivating himself to a higher level, he is also trying to integrate into this higher level.

This is to be accepted by the family. It is not a year or two, and it has been going on for more than a hundred years.

Wait until everything is solid, Gao Hanqiu is really old, there is no more to explore the mood of adventure everywhere, most of the time, is at the bottom of the abyss of the abyss retreat.

It didn't take long for Shen Lang to come over here, and never went to Zhoushan, to the Great Wilderness, to Yaochi, to Guangmingshan... There have been some experience, and he is a little envious.

In the same way, the cold autumn is more than half a month, and it is not light in the Qiulin sword.

When I discovered the ancestors of these famous schools, they all let the following sneak attack the waves, make him angry, and then launched a series of actions.

All the ancestors who participated in the ambush over the waves have made detailed investigations, and they have also clarified the strength of their various factions.

According to the meaning of Gao Hanqiu, it is necessary for these martial art to pay the price!

Originally, with his strength, he personally shot one-on-one, and the ancestors were not enough to watch, let alone attack the weaker disciples of their martial art.

Basically, you can do it to the extent that they are eliminated!

Of course, if this is done, then he will also become a public enemy and become a public enemy.

In order to sink the waves, he does not mind becoming a public enemy!

However, at this time, Xue Feixue represented Shen Lang and issued his announcement.

This made Gao Hanqiu contact the snow and snow, knowing that Shen Lang is safe, which makes him feel relieved. Then I waited for it to change, waiting for the meaning of Shen Lang. If Shen Lang decided to retaliate, he would not say anything!

Now I heard the sudden encounter of Shen Lang for more than half a month, let him realize that although he is now a very old senior, but there is still a gap compared with the wave brother!

Lang brother did not want to retaliate against those sects in the past, but to find another way. When everyone thought he would retaliate, he went to the land of the great wilderness and came to an adventure that no one else thought or dared to go.

And no doubt, he also has a huge harvest.

Now that I have returned, there seems to be no obvious change, but in fact there has been a great change.

Revenge martial art, although it can vent your anger, but in a certain way, it is actually bullying the weak!

Like Shen Lang, those ancestors who want to engage in him are directly engaged by him. This is what the real strongman does.

Those who he was able to give up were of course not strong enough at the time, but they did not cause any loss to him.

The reverence of Shen Lang in the previous world gave him a preconceived notion. What Shen Lang did would be beautified.

“Lang brother, what do you think about this exploration of the Yungong Holy Land?”

In the process of communication, Gao Hanqiu has already shared some clues he knows, and he shared with Shen Lang without reservation.

There is no hidden secret in Shen Lang. In the memory of the elk, there is not much effect, but the thief can still add a little.

The day before, I got the memory of the savior, and there are some clues that I can share with Gao Hanqiu.

Now the two of them are the analysis after sharing the information with each other.

“Try it, idle is also idle.” Shen Lang said half-jokingly.

I am still idle while I am idle...

“Just like your exploration of the sea in that year, it was also a long-term exploration of two generations. Later on the earth, there was a rumor of no return to the sea. The result proved that although you did not go back, you actually lived. Ok.”

Shen Lang took the experience of coming to the world from the earth to make an analogy.

Yes, many of those who came here have not come here. When they arrived here, whether they died or finally survived, they never returned.

Perhaps the same is true of the Cloud Palace Holy Land?

When Ben came to his age, Shouyuan could not continue to grow. One day, he would fall. If he was still on the earth, he must have followed the footsteps of Shenlang. It is impossible to live to the present.

When you get here, let his realm be cultivated to a higher level, and you can live longer.

If you are in the Yungong Holy Land, can you have more adventures? Maybe that is also to another world?

The hanging of the Tianshan Jianzong, which was put down in the cold autumn, can now be placed on the sword of the Qiulin.

If he can go to another higher world, he will certainly be happy. It's good to leave them to Mo Feiliu. As for Qiu Lin's swords, what can be done, there are not so many, and the children and grandchildren have their own children.

Just like the first reunion with Shen Lang, he already knew that the Tianshan Jianzong had not been turned into a small sect, and that was no way.

“Well, mix with the wave brother!”

“Haha, Xiao Gao, don't hold me, I have to rely on you now.”

Just when two people communicated, they saw everyone paying attention to one direction, and they also thought about the past.

Yaochi snow is not snow.

Yaochi's head is not snow, it is the image of a beautiful and beautiful fairy, because her strength is extraordinary, and she is not afraid of men's repairs. Of course, she rarely goes out. When you are at the Yaochi event, you can see It was all her original appearance, no veil blocking.

Even if the ancestors are in a high realm, they will not be moved by the beauty, but they have to admit that she is graceful and luxurious.

Men occupy the world dominated, and a female practitioner can stand up against everyone, even stronger, and of course get more admiration.

Snow and snow are brought by the disciple, Fan Xueyu, who is a beautiful woman with youthful beauty. It is pleasing to the eye.

Therefore, these ancestors immediately opened the “dog walking” mode, and enthusiastically followed the snow and snow.

What Yaochi is different, the fairy style is even more immortal; what can get the snow fairy to kiss this time, everyone’s confidence is soaring.

Chapter 1907 - Focus on people

Xue Feixue keeps the fairy fan, with the little fairy fan Fan’s vanity, and the guests are chilling with everyone, no one can sin, so that everyone feels like a spring breeze.

Just like the attitude of the host in the Yaochi event, Yao Chi is not afraid of anyone, but he will not take the initiative to offend anyone.

However, after a while, everyone feels offended!

Because everyone is walking the dog and greet them, the two people are surrounded by the focus.

Only a few people have not passed, including Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu.

After coping with it, Xue Feixue took Van Gogh and took the initiative to pass the waves and the cold autumn, and greeted them with enthusiasm.

If the light is cold and cold, they can understand and accept that the strength and age of others are there.

If it is in Yaochi, it can be understood and accepted, the owner can not neglect any guests.

But what is this now? Why do you have to take the initiative to say hello to Shen Lang?

Doesn’t this compare everyone again?

It has just been once in the cold autumn, and now it is coming again!

Before in Yaochi, it was only a cold autumn, snow is not so obvious, now it is twice.

A group of ancestors, a little bit of miso, but also take the initiative to retreat. But the focus is still on their side.

Regardless of whether it is against the swell of the waves, it is only now that he can gather the cold autumn, snow and snow to the side, and he can see his energy.

When they get together, they naturally form the core effect of a circle, and everyone will unconsciously pay attention to their reactions.

When the snow is not snow and the cold autumn greetings, Van Gogh's gaze is staring at the white beggar next to Shen Lang, which is slightly complicated.

"How? Last time I went to Yaochi, it is said that you are retreating. How effective?"

Shen Lang smiled and said hello to Fan Xueyu.

"Fortunately, the time is short and the effect is limited."

Fan Xueyu responded with a touch of faintness.

Regardless of whether she can see through the identity of the day, Xue Feixue must have told her first, and she is already psychologically prepared.

"At your age, you are already in the sky, you don't have to put too much pressure on yourself."

Shen Lang encouraged one sentence. This is indeed the truth. With the age of Fan Xueyu, I can cultivate to such a strong talent.

"Not as good as you."

Shen Lang smiled and did not respond. He couldn't count the cultivation of this world alone. Besides, this is the world. The experiences of many worlds he has experienced are not comparable to others.

"What is the Emperor?" Fan Xueyu asked another.

For the day, even if she is psychologically prepared, the instinct is still exclusive. Originally followed by Shen Lang is the Emperor's behemoth, it will not pose any threat to her, in addition, it is her.

Now that the Emperor's behemoth has not seen it, there is more whiteness next to it, still making her a little sad.

"The Emperor is where it should be."

Shen Lang vaguely dealt with it, and then did not say more to her, and Xuefei Xuexue set a few words.

Snow and snow will bring Van Snow to this time, obviously wanting to get her close to the waves. I was not in a hurry before, but after seeing Shen Lang went to a great wasteland, I brought back the nine-tailed white fox, and there was pressure.

Although Fan Xueyu is the pride of the sky, but the white dragonfly is in the Qingqiu, it is also the pride of the Fox family!

Moreover, the gestures of others are lower, and they are followed directly by the maids who serve him, listening to the patriarchs who have given the benefits to the waves.

In comparison, Yaochi still has to face, no, no, it is impossible.

This makes it difficult to be competitive.

Although she has made a little joke, she can't go in person! It is even more impossible for the mentor and the apprentice to follow Shen Lang together.

Therefore, she must bring out the closed-door cultivation of Fan Xueyu, let her contact with Shen Lang, so that the relationship between the two people is weak.

Originally, she thought about bringing out the mysterious woman, but I think that the strength gap of the mysterious woman is too big, and it can not keep up with the rhythm of the Shenlang, but it will be cumbersome.

When it comes to the realm of Shen Lang, it is not good to look good, you can hold him.

However, snow and snow are not in a hurry, and it is not obvious that it has been revealed.

Then she was here with her cold autumn, and she said a little more about the topic, so that Shen Lang and Fan Xueyu would not be cold, and calm down the feeling of separation for a month.

Snow is not a friend of Shen Lang's trust, but it is not the same as Gao Hanqiu's identity.

For the cold autumn, they can really share without any secrets, while Xue Feixue is just an ordinary exchange.

After a few words, Cui is coming!

Xuan Yinmen's ancestor Cui or, when he was in the Yaochi event, was just an ordinary ancestor. It was not particularly strong, and it was not particularly bad. Naturally, it was inconspicuous.

But today, he is the most dazzling one!

In the past month of the Yaochi event, Shen Lang was the most dazzling star, and everyone was concerned about the discussion.

But in the recent days, Xuanyinmen and his Cui or personal, have replaced the Shenlang, which has disappeared for half a month, and become a new focus.

In the past, no matter what the occasion, even if he finally appeared, it would not cause a sensation. Only a few friends who are familiar with each other will greet him with enthusiasm. Others will look at the audience.

And now, it is the attention of everyone on the scene, everyone is watching him, waiting for him, excited for him.

At this moment, Cui has a sense of happiness that has reached the peak of life!

Cui or his ancestors, who came alone, did not take the people with mysterious doors. He will wait until now, but also deliberately the last to appear, in order to achieve the finale effect.

And he didn't go with people, he just came alone.

Looking at everyone now, he smiled and smiled at everyone.

"Cui or ancestors! You can come, everyone has been waiting for you for a long time!"

"Cui Xiong! You can count it, we are waiting too much!"

"Cui Xiong, watching your movement this time seems to be very big."

Everyone is inevitably greeted with enthusiasm, and some express their feelings of being impatient, and some are more familiar with Cui or more familiar.

Cui or enjoy the feeling of focus, then he naturally saw the situation of the audience.

Although most of the people took the initiative to come and greet him, but there are some high, but the deep waves, the cold autumn and the snow are not the snow, they are the most obvious one.

They originally had three people plus Fan Xueyu, Bai Yu, Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu, that is seven people, it is obviously a bunch of people.

As the focus of the audience, there are still a bunch of people who are not here, Cui or naturally is a bit uncomfortable.

However, it is clear that it includes the cold autumn and the snow is not snow, and he has no temper.

After dealing with other people, Cui or also had to come and greet them.

So, it is equal to the third wave gathered in Shenlang here.

Yesterday arrived, it has no temper. They waved up and waved, and the people of Shenlang didn't move, but they let the focus people come over to him.

Chapter 1908 - Shen Lang is making a big splash

Cui or of course is greeting with Gao Hanqiu and Xuefeixue. Looking at Shenlang, his look is a bit uncomfortable.

This is his most eye-catching moment, but he was still robbed by this kid!

But this is already the case, he still has to smile and say hello.

“Cui Laozu, when do we start, what is the next itinerary? What are the needs to be prepared? What are the dangers? I hope I can tell you one or two in advance.”

After a simple guest, Shen Lang directly asked a bunch of questions.

When everyone looked at Shen Lang, they all yelled at him, but now he asked them out, it is a matter of fact, it is a question that everyone wants to know the answer.

For a time, everyone was quiet, and even a little farther away, they quickly approached and didn't want to miss the details.

After Cui or originally came, he also wanted to announce these problems. This is the clue he left before, and he will announce it when he arrives here.

It is to enjoy the moment of attention.

But now that Shen Lang asked this question, he was passive and could not continue to force it.

This made him a little depressed, but he thought that if he was asked to continue, he would be asked by more people, and the effect would be even worse. He could only answer quickly.

“Yes, I took the time to come over. After a while, I can open it. We can go down this crater and you can reach the meditation.”

“After the meditation, I will take everyone forward. Wherever I go, I will say it later.”

“As long as you need to prepare something, there is no danger, everyone is not a three-year-old child, and I don’t need me to be embarrassed!”

After listening to everyone, I was a little discouraged.

This time, it is equal to nonsense!

I didn’t say the specific itinerary at all, but I said that I would wait for a while, and after I arrived in the meditation area, everyone still had to follow him.

The last sentence is not to mention, it is a bit of a dark irony.

But this is not the answer everyone wants!

Everyone wants to know the timing of going down from here, what is the next step after the meditation, what specific dangers may be encountered, and which ones can be defended.

Now this answer is too general.

However, if you look at Cui or this, you are prepared to answer this level and will not say more details.

Everyone exchanged their eyes with their friends.

What else can I do?

Continue to take his lead and follow him!

As for security and other aspects, you can only defend yourself as much as possible.

Fortunately, everyone is quite experienced and should not have problems in this first level.

Cui or Ben thought that this would be an appetite, let everyone come and follow him, and ask for more details.

I didn't expect everyone to be discouraged, and then I didn't pay any attention to him, which made him a little helpless.

At this point, I want to make up a little more, and others will not expect anything.

Just when he was a little difficult to ride, Shen Lang stood up and spoke up.

"Elder ancestors, although Cui or his ancestors said it is relatively simple, I think that everyone's safety awareness should be improved. Although I have only been there once in the meditation, I feel that there is still a lot of uncertainty."

"In addition, I also learned a message in the past two days. Some people hired a savior and sneaked into everyone, causing the loss of some ancestor weapon magic, and no matter who is manipulating, they must be more careful."

"Be careful not only the environment of the field, but also the people!"

The safety awareness in front of Shen Lang, everyone thinks it is a set of words, and does not care much, security awareness will definitely be there.

But when you say the words of the savior, you will detonate the scene!

“You know the sinking brothers? We have encountered a sneak attack from the squatter!”

“It turned out to be a slain slave! It was negligent.”

“Is there still someone hired? Who is the person behind the scenes?”

“We also met, but forced him back. Who lost the magic weapon?”

There were only three sneak attacks, and then the two groups did not succeed.

However, as soon as the topic was opened, everyone discussed it enthusiastically.

Cui or his face immediately became ugly.

Originally he spoke. His speech should be so popular, but he did not respond to his speech. On the contrary, a few words of Shen Lang’s casualness have triggered everyone’s hot debate.

There are also quicksand slaves...

“Everyone is quiet, listen to me.”

The sentence of Shen Lang was said and immediately calmed everyone down.

Because it was just the topic of the reckless slaves he detonated, now everyone wants to hear what he has to say.

Looking at the effect of Shen Lang’s call, Cui is not a taste.

This is the bureau of his group, and the result is to let others become the protagonists...

“Did anyone lose the magic weapon?”

Shen Lang asked this question, and it was silent.

Although some people have just said it, they have not directly admitted that they have lost the magic weapon.

Even if this was a sneak attack on the sloppy slain, but even his own magic weapons and weapons were not seen, it was very shameful!

This matter, the idea of everyone, is also a secret investigation, trying to win back.

Just after Shen Lang kicked the blast, I found that there were still many people who couldn't help but blurt out.

But now Shen Lang asks like this, but no one wants to admit it in public.

After Shen Lang asked, I also knew that there would be this effect, and then continued.

“Things are like this. When I went to the forest in the past day, the lazy slaves also sneaked and stolen my things. They were really surprised and couldn't prevent them, let alone defend him.”

Shen Lang said this sentence, let those three lost things, began to feel better.

Even Shen Lang said so, this is not that they can't do it. It is really impossible to prevent it.

“I am a person who does not suffer, dare to engage me, the end is bound to be very miserable.”

During the speech, everyone saw an image appearing in the air, which was the appearance of the slain slaves in two paragraphs!

This is the picture of Shen Lang recording the sacred hologram, holographic projection, let everyone see, to prove that he is not blowing.

“Natural That guy has been hacked to death, I will help you revenge. Because I found a few weapons, I guess that my ancestor also encountered his sneak attack. Please lose something, Looking back and looking for me privately, I am willing to pay for it!”

When I heard this, everyone understood the meaning of Shen Lang. It was not to publicly humiliate them, but to find the master and return the magic weapon!

This made the three ancestors very embarrassed.

“The sinking brother is kind, young and promising! For such a villain, you should kill him!” Helan ancestors finally caught the opportunity to help Shen Lang boast.

Others who have been attacked by the laks and slaves, three lost things and two did not lose things. Seeing this result, they are very happy, and of course they are applauded.

In this case, of course, other people do not mind the praise of the icing on the cake.

Chapter 1909 - Into the field

Cui or even more is not a taste.

He will set up a concert with others, but he will still be full!

He is very helpless at this moment, and he wants to announce something to fight for the limelight. He feels that it is too low-level, and may not be effective.

In order not to let everyone suspect that the quicksand slaves are arranged by him, they can only praise the waves together.

Fortunately, the ancestors are on the scene. Everyone does not have the enthusiasm of young people, and they quickly calm down.

After the biggest limelight passed, Cui or I officially took over.

“Everyone is ready, the channel below is already open, we can start now!”

Cui or such a saying, everyone is refreshed, and immediately focused on the upcoming meditation.

Just did not say more, was robbed of the limelight by Shen Lang, Cui or learned the lesson, and now began to reveal more information.

“This place is about ten days to open, and the opening time will last for a period of time, maybe one or two hours, and it is impossible to determine.”

“In short, after we go down, if we look for the Yungong Holy Land, it is naturally good. If there is no success, don’t blame me, I can’t guarantee that it must be. But remember, come back after ten days. Ground!”

“For security reasons, it is best to come back a little earlier and wait for the channel to open. Otherwise, wait for the next opening. But this ten days, I don’t know how long it will last.”

Cui He’s look is serious. This time, there is no cliché. It’s all about dry goods, but it’s also listening carefully.

“After going down, let everyone follow me. It’s not that I have my heart concealed, but the following situation. I told you that I can’t say it clearly. You can only understand it when you arrive.”

After Cui finished, the first jumped into the tiankeng and jumped in.

He jumped in, but it was also slowly falling down, not falling at a high speed.

When others saw it, they quickly jumped out.

“Let’s go!”

Although the grade is the lightest, but it is the core of the general, he said so, Gao Hanqiu, Xu Yuyue, Mo Feiliu feel very reasonable.

Although snow is not a snow, it feels a bit strange, but it is so cold and cold, she did not say anything, but also agreed to it.

For security reasons, the seven of them jumped together, and everyone kept the same speed and relatively close distance.

Others have ancestors who are less confident about themselves. They are also following their departure, and they are close to the past, ready to follow them seven, so that they are really in danger, and they don’t need to be single.

They went down from the tiankeng and did not encounter anything during the landing.

And Tiankeng can’t see the end, but everyone’s insights can be traced to the end, knowing how high it is.

Now landing to the height of the original bottom, it begins to continue landing, and is a high-speed fall process.

Soon, when everyone wants to stabilize the speed, they find that they are down to earth.

After landing, look around, and you will find Cui or unclearly clear—the feeling of dense fog around you. You can’t see the top above, and look around, the visible range is only a hundred meters. I can’t see it anymore.

Everyone is not an ordinary person and does not need to rely on the eyes.

But soon they discovered that their detective knowledge is similar to the scope of sight. At most, it is extended a little more. It is impossible to detect the distance. Compared with their normal state, it is a very small range. It is.

Everyone was taken aback by this.

“Cui or ancestors!”

Someone couldn't help but scream.

“I am in front, rest assured, waiting for everyone to come down, let's go together!”

Cui or promised.

Although a little foggy, I still see where Cui or where.

Everyone immediately began to move closer to him.

Everyone will be surprised that they have never been to the meditation.

It's been like Shen Lang, and the time is not too long, knowing that there will be fog.

When I entered, I saw the situation, one thought of the thousand caves, and the other one, I thought of the chaotic space.

In general, it is similar to Qiangjialing, which is a chaotic version of the dilute version.

But now, after this time, let him be cautious.

Because the extent of this fog has now surpassed the last time that I entered from the Golden Valley, it is naturally not comparable to the chaotic space that I can't see, but I can't hear it, but it's already at the bottom of the chaotic space. The difference is not far off.

This time, I went to the meditation area again, and the concentration was even greater. I asked Shen Lang to doubt the so-called meditation area. In fact, would it lead to chaotic space?

It is only a general space crack, which is a high concentration of air leading to the chaotic space, and here is the bottom of the chaotic space.

However, Shen Lang did not spend too much thought. He did not want to be an expert and would not do his best to understand the nature of the world universe.

What he needs is to use the environment!

Even if the environment is fake and artificially arranged, as long as there is a certain effect, you can get something from it, and that's it.

For the environment, the most important thing to pay attention to is not their historical origin, but security!

The last time Shen Lang entered the meditation, it was followed by a bunch of half-sacred, and now they are some great ancestors. Moreover, his current status is different. No one will dare to move him casually. There are snow and snow and cold autumn.

Originally, from a security perspective, he should have nothing to worry about.

But the last time was a misunderstanding of the uninformed, this time it was the Quest of the Cloud Palace Holy Land that the ancestors treated cautiously. The degree of danger is also different.

To this end, Shen Lang still maintains a high degree of alert.

Whether it is white, snow, snow, snow, or even a small high that can be absolutely trusted, the most should be trusted, or yourself.

“Try not to go away.”

Shen Lang snorted softly, letting the scope be around them. However, there were also a few ancestors who followed them, which made those few even more afraid to leave them.

“Look at this is where we go back!”

Cui or pointed out that there is a stone column erected on the ground, which is obviously artificial.

The range of landing is also very large. This stone pillar is a positioning reference. Let everyone be around here, it can be the way back.

“Besides this specific point, when you leave, you must also remember it yourself. You can look at the ground. When we came to explore, we have left traces on the ground!”

Everyone noticed it, and sure enough, there are traces of the ground, a thick one.

Shen Lang could not help but secretly nod. There is no trace of the sacred record. They are also a soil method. As long as the traces have not been cleared, it is a good guide in this fog.

Chapter 1910 - Take the magic weapon

Some have come to the meditation domain, or a little experience, some ancestors are the first time to the meditation, but this time the experience of the fog is beyond their imagination, so they are a bit surprised.

But now I see Cui or I have prepared the coordinates and the traces of the ground, so that everyone is relieved.

After all, fear comes from mysterious unknowns.

Shen Lang is because he has seen the chaotic space. For this is a pediatrics, it is also much calmer.

Soon, the people who came down finally confirmed, and then everyone followed Cui or forward.

“Because of the special environment here, I can’t explain it to you on the above. And I can’t let everyone go away, so as to avoid unnecessary problems.”

Cui or now said that it has been understood by everyone.

“Why can I find it here, so I won’t go into details, and everyone is not interested in listening. Let’s just talk about where we are going!”

In fact, everyone is interested in listening, but he is not willing to say, because it is the conclusion that they have learned a lot of clues.

Even if this time is wrong, these clues will still have a role, plus here, you can prepare for the future.

If you make it public, others will know.

Therefore, for the needs of common exploration, Cui can share the results, but is not willing to share specific clues.

“There is a distance of about ten miles here. Even if it is gone, please follow the traces on the ground and you can still find it. In the process, there will be no danger. This is what I did not have before. The reason for everyone.”

When Cui said this, he couldn’t help but pay attention to the expression of Shen Lang.

Before it seemed that he deliberately said nothing, let Shen Lang out of the limelight.

Now using the factual environment, it is proved that his attitude is normal, and it is not intended to remind you.

Everyone is an old man, and of course he knows his thoughts. Some people immediately applaud and express their gratitude to Cui.

Cui is satisfied, and more passionate to take everyone forward.

Although there are already routes on the ground, everyone is more willing to have someone lead the way.

Ten miles only, in normal times, for these great gods, it is only a moment has passed.

But here, everyone knows that safety is the first, and it is inconvenient for the fog that cannot be seen and can not be perceived.

However, the overall speed is not slow.

At the end of the route, it is the destination of Cui or.

They are seven of them, and they are in the middle and rear of the whole team. There are still some people following them.

After stopping at the moment, they quickly caught up.

In front of the sight of the hundred meters away, you can see the fog in the fog, there is a huge palace!

The palace towered up and could not see the head, and the left and right could not see the head.

The reason why I stopped here is not Cui or when they came over last time, they tried to find out that this is a safe distance.

After all, only a hundred meters, it is already very close, it is already difficult to calculate a safe distance.

But the problem is that they are groping forward. In this fog, farther places can't be detected, and when they are discovered, they are so close.

Out of fear of the Yungong Holy Land, and the risks of the legend, they dare not go any further.

Now that so many ancestors have come together, but when Cui or I saw the shadow of the "Cloud Palace Holy Land", I quickly stopped and couldn't help but feel a little excited.

"The Cloud Palace Holy Land..."

Everyone saw it, and they watched silently until someone muttered.

“Cui Laozu, is this the Yungong Holy Land?”

“The Cloud Palace Holy Land is a city? Palace?”

“Quiet!” Cui said after a loud voice, then the color.

“I was looking for a lot of clues, and when I saw this, I dared not go forward!”

“Don’t laugh at me. If I dare to go, if this is really the holy place of Yungong, then I may not be able to come back. No one can make this news public!”

“Cui Xiong! No one laughs at you. You are looking for the Yungong Holy Land that the sages have traveled to. It is a great event of merit. We are very admired and grateful to you!”

“Yes! We are very grateful to Cui Xiong!”

Cui or nodded and said: “Thank you for your understanding. Therefore, my duty to lead the way has arrived. The front is the cloud palace holy land I understand. But is it a cloud palace holy land, whether it is a city, a palace, or pure? An illusion, a shadow...waits everyone to explore together.”

He expressed very clearly that he did not dare to go in alone. If you want to go in, you need to explore together.

However, everyone actually has a plan in mind. If Cui or Ruo has a great grasp, this is the Yungong Holy Land. For example, if it is identified as other ancient relics, it will not be shared.

It is entirely possible to swallow it by yourself. Only the danger of the Yungong Holy Land requires more people to face it together.

Now that we have arrived here, everyone will not be in a hurry. It will definitely not go back immediately. In the next ten days, we can study it here and confirm it before we can explore it.

After all, this is a matter of life!

To this end, everyone is in a row, do not dare to go forward, but can be separated left and right, as close as possible to observe.

Different people have different thinking and different angles, and perhaps different differences can be observed.

“Shen brother, I was stolen by the lazy slaves. I don’t know if I can return to me... I am grateful...”

A sly voice was introduced into the ears of Shen Lang, and an old ancestor came over.

“Oh, what magic weapon did you steal?” Shen Lang looked over and responded to him.

“This one.....”

The man hesitated and didn’t know what to say.

“Things are in my hands. Do you really think that I can’t recognize them? I recognize that it is not good to know who is the natural thing.”

The man was ashamed. I didn’t look for the sun waves all the way. I wanted to get a magic weapon before the unknown danger. Anyway, Shen Lang didn’t need it.

I did not expect that Shen Lang was not so fooled.

“No, no intention to take the lead... It’s another slain slave who might steal my magic...”

Shen Lang will pass back to him is to give him face, not directly expose him.

“Yes, I misunderstood. There may be other quicksands, so I need my ancestors to find them.”

“Okay. Ok... I will go back and look for it myself...” The ancestor has started to sweat, and he is almost discredited!

Although their communication is voiced, others have noticed it.

Those who really lost the magic weapon are looking for opportunities along the way, but they are embarrassed to say that they are embarrassed.

Also because they pay special attention to Shen Lang, and noticed this detail, they immediately realized that if someone else took the lead, it would be a big loss!
