Chapter 195 - Killing people with a knife?

Specific details, Xie Xun did not disclose, just said that naturally know.

Shen Lang did not ask much. Xie's family regarded him as a young child, but only he knew that going to such a place would not have a second person's experience comparable to him today!

Whether it is Xie You said or Xie Xun's information, the death valley and the dead forest are all unknown, whether they are clear or not willing to say more, or really do not understand, Shen Lang is clear!

According to previous statements, the death forest is actually a "small world."

The small world exists in our world, but there is another hole in the sky. The thirty-six-day and seventy-two blessings of Taoism are similar. Although it is a place that can be found in the real world, it is just a place like "Death Valley". It is just a representation. The real hole is a small world.

The concept of the small world was originally derived from the Buddhist family, and the holy places of the Buddhist family are the same. For example, Mount Putuo, in reality, but it will not be the Putuo Mountain of Guanyin Bodhisattva, perhaps just an entrance in the human world.

Penglai, Weizhou, Kunlun and other Xianshan Shenshan are also the same.

Combining the concept of this world, in contemporary words, it can be said that it is another space, a hidden space, and even worse, it is actually leading to another world!

In such a small world space, whether it is survival or treasure hunt experience, Shen Lang is very rich. But now, of course, there is no need to force what to say to Xie Xun. Anyway, it is necessary to take it.

They need him to protect Xie Tongwen and Xie Yunlin. What he needs is to find opportunities to improve their strength.

Next, it was rather boring. Xie Xun asked Shen Lang to go back to the hotel and wait for the specific time to go, waiting for his notice.

During the period, Xie You was not allowed to accompany him at any time. The previous enthusiasm was because he was a bridge to communicate between Shen Lang and Xie Xun. After completing the task, he still had to do his own business.

Fortunately, I did not wait for a long time. On the morning of the next day, I was informed that I had arranged for the car to come to Shenlang to go to the airport.

Shen Lang simply cleaned up and saw the driver before the door.

The driver was completely ignorant of Shen Lang. Respect was polite, because he was a guest of Xie You. However, when he saw the moment he was jumping on the road, he grabbed it and grabbed a car with one hand and smashed it out. It was shocking to him.

For the driver who crashed behind, he drowned directly. The driver who stopped in front of him stopped burning in the fire without mercy. Xie You expressed regret and felt too cruel. There is no need for this piece.

But this driver is a big heart!

Because it is his responsibility to thank Yu and Shen Lang, Shen Lang is not mentioned by outsiders for the time being. If Xie You is injured by the impact, it is really his responsibility! Therefore, Shen Lang reminded them to jump over the car, he has been very grateful, can directly kill this murderer who is almost miserable, he certainly supports.

So whether it is with Xie You again, or now to pick up and drop off the waves to the airport alone, he is respectful and respectful.

Shen Lang and he are not familiar with, of course, there is no conversation. These are also to send a WeChat to parents to report peace, and Zheng Yumeng is to send WeChat on time every day, one is to say hello to Master, and the other is to report how long she has practiced.

Although there was no mobile phone in the past, after entering another small world, the satellite signal must be cut off, and the mobile phone is not connected. He also thought about it. Before he went in, he had to explain it to his parents, so that he would not have an audio message for a few days.

“Mr.....”

“Well? Arrived?” Hearing the driver’s voice, Shen Lang opened his eyes and looked at it. This was the place that had just happened that day. It was not far from the airport, but it had not arrived yet.

The driver was a little nervous, but continued to say: “I don’t know and I don’t know what you and the two young masters are going to perform, but it seems that you are acting together. I don’t know what to say...”

“Crap, say!” Shen Lang’s eyes, “I don’t know if I don’t know what to say” is always a must.

“You saved me that day, I am very grateful. I don’t know how much Yu Shao said to you, but... in the end people... I mean let you guard against it.” When the driver said this, Obviously it was said with fear.

Shen Lang was a little surprised. The driver could say this. Is it really because he saved him that day? He is doing things for thanking the family!

He immediately thought of Xie You...

Xie You is obviously very good, but his strength and potential are significantly worse than Xie Tongwen and Xie Yunlin. In accordance with this development, the family successor must not have his share, and can only become a hard-working member, just like Yue Zhennan’s identity before becoming a self-cultivator.

If he is capable, he will be a good person. As a comprehensible person, he will be an important member of Xie’s family. He will be absolutely rich in the future.

But Xie You is an ambitious person! This can be seen from the fact that he can endure the cold eyes of the cold eyes repeatedly.

For Xie, of course, Xie Tongwen Xie Yunlin's safe return is the most important. Even if it is not a big gain, people are the first. But for Xie You, if these two are in the forest of death, then he will be the successor. It's big!

A quick analysis of the heart, Shen Lang mouth is a simple response: "Do you mean Xie Yunlin? He is not easy to see through."

"No!" The driver took a deep breath and then said quickly and nervously: "Yun Lin's young master is used to cold face, but he has not heard of any unusual behavior. On the contrary, he is the same as the young master... The simple and extensive character of the city, but it is said that it will play tricks."

"Is it?" Shen Lang looked at the driver behind him The driver smiled a bit: "I really don't qualify for this, I will remind you, because you saved us that day. Otherwise Even if you don't die, as long as you are injured, I can't eat it. But you can't say it, or I will die."

"Reassured. Thank you!"

Shen Langdao thanked him for saying that this is only a reference and does not really affect his judgment.

It seems that Xie's younger generation is intrigue!

Xie Tongwen, Xie Yunlin's original potential for cultivation is extraordinary. After passing through the experience in the dead forest, he will return home. Xie You has no chance to compete.

Want to kill someone with a knife? It should not be enough, just affecting the waves, hesitating at the crucial time, maybe they will be back! He endured the white eye and vigorously pulled it to promote the deep wave. For the family, for the recommendation, the merits are superficial. Is this really the intention?

Shen Lang secretly sneered, no one can take him as a knife!
