

First Strong 2071

Chapter 2071 - Within the limits

Shen Lang will give the two essences of the world to them, and let them be half of them. In fact, it is also because of the snow and snow to give him the dragon ball.

No matter how much you know about the history of the ancient dragons, you actually understand that no matter the beast or the demon, the most valuable is Nedan.

Neydan is made up of the essence of their life, together with the spiritual power of the Yuanshen, is the main body of them.

The two inner dragons, the spirits of the two gods, have been obtained by him, which is equivalent to taking the big head. Other things, people still divided him on average.

The essence of heaven and earth, he personally has a share that has not been taken out.

So let them split in half, but let Shen Lang feel better.

Of course, he will be so generous and of course he will look at people.

Of course, there is no need to say about the cold autumn. Even after a few hundred years, it is still true and sincere to respect him. Even if there is already the strength of the great gods, the Shenlang, which is less than half a year, is still like a brother.

Snow and snow and Yaochi are also very close, from the mysterious girl, the Fan Xueyu, to the snow and snow, everyone's relationship is very good.

In exchange for other people, such as the giants of the wild, it will not be such an attitude.

After everyone packed things up, they decided to leave.

According to theoretical analysis, it is impossible to have a resurrected dragon. What is specific, but it needs to be verified.

But this research is impossible.

Because they are basically buried under the ground – perhaps exposed to the outside, they will be affected by more corrosive substances. Then take the time to find the entire funeral valley all over again, and it is impossible to dig a few tens of meters at any time!

I really want to overwhelm the burial dragon valley, I don't know how many unexpected situations there will be.

This is already a big place in ancient times!

For example, because of the alarming poisonous smoke of the Red Dolphin King, there is no answer now. That toxic smoke spreads rapidly, and the distance is thousands of miles away! The back is quickly disappearing without a trace!

Besides, I really have to dig out one and two dragons. Whoever loses and wins is hard to say.

All these concerns make them reluctant to go deeper and feel the analysis like this, so they leave safely.

This is the limit that the Red Dolphins explored. There is no memory before, and they have not decided to move on.

When I first came in, I thought that there would be an adventure, how to explore it, or else I would not be reconciled.

Now that the environmental conditions of the burial dragon valley have been seen, the danger has also been experienced, and the harvest has also been made.

That is the first safety.

When they went back, they were free to pay attention to the traces of the King of the Black Dolphin.

At that time, it was a long scorpion of the dragon, and the sound wave impact directly caused the distant red porpoise king to fly farther.

At that time, everyone was concentrating on the battle with the dragon. There was a leisure time to pay attention to the king of the Red Dolphin.

At that time, it was banned by the cold autumn, and its strength was greatly reduced. It is very likely that it would be finished like this, and even the bones are gone.

If there is no death, there is still room for it, and I will not dare to stay. It will be a desperate escape. It has been two or three hours since now, and I have already gone far.

Therefore, on the way back, I did not see the body of the King of the Black Dolphin. Everyone was not surprised.

Back to the fork, the Emperor's behemoth was waiting there, and now I know that Shen Lang has seen it, and placed it in a cure for poison, so there is no need to look for it.

Going back all the way back to the place where they left their words, then waved the traces.

Continue to go back, after the huge bones of the mountain, to the edge of this gray world.

The world has come to an end, and then the world of flames is everywhere, the edge of the burial dragon valley, at least two thousand miles.

The three of them could not stop, and then looked back.

In fact, whether it is the naked eye or the sensory sense, what you see is limited, that is, a large gray world, at most, you can see a few peaks that may be giant bones.

But everyone is here, experienced a life-and-death battle, and bid farewell to this moment, and will probably not come back in the future, it is still a bit embarrassing.

“I can meet the ruins of the millennium, and I can meet the true sacred land of rumors for thousands of years. I can also come to the ruins of the ancient murderous land that has not been visited for at least tens of thousands of years... I No regrets in this life!”

Snow is not a snow.

When she was feeling, Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu couldn't help but look at each other. The emotion in their eyes was even worse!

Snow and snow are the people of this world, and they are cultivated by famous schools. They are the ruins of the Yungong Holy Land, which has been rumored for the long time, but can be routinely explored. The funeral dragon valley is naturally full of yearnings.

The two of them did not have such feelings, but they also caught up.

They came from the earth world, and it is very rare to be able to successfully reach a high-level comprehension world with aura and resources.

Later, after the success of the ancient robbery, the broken void often came to this world. That means that this is the fairyland that came to the ancient legend, and this is no regrets.

They are here in the world, everything is fresh, everything is new.

Like Gao Hanqiu, in the earth China, led Tianshan Jianzong to complete ZTE and embark on the peak. When I came here, I created the Qiu Lin Jianzong and reopened the country. It was already no desire.

Therefore, there is not much feeling of affection for the funeral valley.

Snow is not snow, they don't have such a big sigh, they think it's a man's relationship, and they don't think much.

“Let's go! We have been away for some time, and they should be worried about it.” After Xue Feixue finished, he directly leaped to the front.

Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu are also following the leap forward.

At this time, Shen Lang suddenly saw that snow and snow were bounced back!

Then he himself bumped into an invisible wall and was bounced back strongly.

The cold autumn is of course the same!

The three people could not help but be surprised.

Before coming in, looked like the emptiness of the end of the world. Everyone is cautious and will worry about being hit hard and even tearing death.

I didn't expect it to come in directly, and there was no damage.

Going back now, it is very reassuring, and naturally it will leap to the past, and even the defense will not do much.

But this result...

"I will try again!"

Although the two of them also bounced back, Xue Feixue still felt a little embarrassed.

She just flew past casually, as if she had jumped through a ditch. Now it is enough to prepare, and at the same time as its own defense, it also opens the way to the front, breaking open a way out!

As a result... She has not touched the invisible wall at the edge of the boundary. When the strong energy first met, she encountered a rebound and directly hit a hundred meters away!

Chapter 2072 - Easy to enter

Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu have just been bounced out, just surprised, but not panicked.

Like snow and snow, I feel that I am just too casual.

There was no blockage in the coming, but everyone was waiting for it, but it was just too easy.

However, snow and snow have come prepared, and the result is still the same. Even because the strength is stronger and the rebound is farther, they are shocked.

“Snow palm, are you okay?”

“Nothing...”

Snow and snow immediately came back. When I tried to hit the dragon with all my strength, the rebound was the injury.

Now, this is to rush people out, not hurting her.

After all, she was just trying to clear the way, and there is no strong enemy to deal with.

“This place is weird!”

Gao Hanqiu took a shot and took a stone from nearby, then ejected it with great force!

Both of them looked at the past.

Under the gaze of everyone, the stone immediately bounced back when it touched the invisible boundary, and instantly reached hundreds of meters away.

Gao Hanqiu was only a temptation, and immediately began the second wave of temptation.

Others have approached the front of the invisible border and then try to reach out and touch the past.

Before, because people were popped up and not hurt, they dared to reach out directly.

Shen Lang and Xue Fei Snow are also close to view.

The result is as if it is pressed on an invisible wall and cannot penetrate the past!

Then Gao Hanqiu took out the sword again, and gradually increased the strength of the stab.

As a result, when the invisible boundary was stabbed, resistance was encountered and it was impossible to penetrate it. As he increased his power, he also encountered greater reactionary resistance.

This kind of picture is very strange, because this sword is like being in the void, and the front is nothing, but it can't go forward at all.

With the strength of the cold autumn, I can't let this sword stick out!

"It's like the buoyancy of water. The greater the force exerted, the greater the buoyancy of the action. The stronger the strength!"

When he said this, Shen Lang had already frowned.

The force of water depends on the area of force of buoyancy. Like a sharp sword stabbing in the past, pressure pressure or something can be directly penetrated and will not encounter a rebound.

After thinking about it, Shen Lang reached out and touched it personally.

This invisible boundary does not seem to have any feelings. He has nothing to gain, and then tries to analyze it with the Holy Grail.

But the Holy Ghost is also unable to sense anything, it seems to be a void!

He has a sacred track, which can ensure that this place is the place that has just come in. There is no problem caused by different positions.

“I understand... The ancient seal enchantment should be a few heavy ones. There are entrances at the periphery of the Great Wilderness. The dividing line here is the most important one.”

“This enchantment is to limit the dragons to go out. With this layer of protection, even if the dragons are resurrected, they can’t go out. The more powerful they hit, the stronger the rebound will be!”

I want to understand this reason, everyone can not help but secretly smile.

First of all, there is a layer of seal enchantment on the outside, which is generally difficult to come in.

After coming in, it is the world of flames. Even if you can find this boundary safely in the flame world of thousands of miles, you can go in without blocking, and it is impossible to come out!

Easy to enter!

The original goal was to prevent the dragon from resurrecting. If you can’t come out, no matter who breaks in, it doesn’t make much sense. It’s not so important to limit it. It’s not that important.

“We should still catch the king of the Red Dolphins, and I don’t know if the thing goes out...”

Let’s spit a sentence, then everyone’s eyes are bright.

The speciality of the original red porpoise is special here!

In addition to the outer layer of seal enchantment, what is more important is the seal of the inside. Others can enter, and only they can do it.

It is no wonder that the gantry side is strictly required to go to the funeral valley!

Not afraid of what dangers are encountered inside, but knowing that you can’t get out when you go in!

Perhaps the human skeletons that have been encountered in it, among them, which of the ancestors of the gantry.

Because people who come in can't get out and don't go inside, the people in Longmen shouldn't know what it is, so in their exegesis, there is only a strict prohibition, but there is no detailed reason.

They used to read the memory of the gantry black robes. It is because this slang is unknown, so it will enter the Quest.

I knew that there was such a factor, and I would think more about it.

However, Shen Lang mentioned the king of the Red Dolphin, and everyone has a hope.

Although there is no Akazu king to lead the way, but its memory has been read.

The family of the red porpoise can come in and be able to go out, and can go out with the keel and the like, and certainly have their route.

They didn't talk at the moment, and all three were searching for the memory of the King of the Black Dolphins to see how they went out.

No!

Shen Lang was surprised to find that in the memory of the Red Dolphin King he read, there was no trace of memory about how to go out.

He looked at them again, and soon their eyes looked over.

Everyone saw the same answer – no!

“How could this be?” Gao Hanqiu frowned and wondered what went wrong.

Shen Lang kept calm and analyzed it briefly: “I have seen the king of the Red Dolphins outside. They also have real keels to take them out. This is not a rumor, but a real exit.”

“There is a possibility...”

Xue Fei Xue sighed: “Everyone knows that when it comes to a certain realm, it can extract the memory of others, and its memory may be extracted. The memory is not reliable. But there will always be some very good information. In addition to the various records, there is still a word of mouth...”

“So, there is a secret method that can seal the memory and make some important information, and the ordinary memory, to be isolated.”

Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu suddenly understand, so after isolation, even if the memory is read only general content, can not know the core secret.

The people or beasts that have lived for a long time have long memories. They cannot be fully integrated and understood at a time. Therefore, when reading memories, they may not be verified one by one, and there is no way to know whether there are any gaps.

If you know that there are any gaps, perhaps you can dig deeper, you can still dig out the hidden and isolated memories.

“In general, it is a very strong strength to be able to do this. The Chiropractors... should be the self-protection mechanism that emerged during the evolution.”

The analysis of snow and snow is also justified.

Originally, the Akus dolphin family was the indigenous people here, and the Long Town was coming. At the beginning of the day, Longzhen may not know that this is the funeral valley, and they do not know that they can enter and leave the Dragon Valley.

Just as a general beast, no one is too lazy to understand their memories.

And they certainly have a sense of crisis, perhaps with a natural way to isolate and shield, perhaps evolved from that time.

Chapter 2073 - Get out of

Want to understand this, the cold autumn and snow are a little depressed. If the Red Dolphin King is still here, then you can carefully search its consciousness to see if there is any hidden memory.

However, after the battle, it is not clear whether the Red Dolphin is still alive.

If you are still alive, you must have left.

If you leave, there is no way...

The family of the red porpoises would have come in to do things regularly, but with today's events, knowing that there is a resurrection of the dragon, the Red Dolphin King will certainly not arrange for the porpoise to come in.

This process, from a few years to a few decades, is impossible for them to wait for the Red Dolphins to come in again.

"There is still a way!"

Shen Lang smiled.

The way he said, that is, using the Kunlun mirror of the Three Realms, directly transmitted away!

This is verified, and even can return directly to the Earth World from the mainland of the island, but also to the world of giant beasts. Compared with these space rules, what should be a problem with such a small world seal enchantment.

Of course, Shen Lang was not sure before he tried it.

Because this burial dragon valley is not only a small world, but also the powerful people of the ancient tribes, artificially set seal enchantment.

Gao Hanqiu and Xuefeixue also knew what he was talking about. Before that, they took the crater from the meditation area and sent them directly to the place where Cui or the black robes were connected.

And Shen Lang has disappeared twice, saying that it is to get medicine, and said that the Emperor's behemoth is sent to the healing, is it transmitted through the artifact?

Thinking of this layer, they are also relieved.

I got a dragon resource, which is very exciting, and it is also a plan to make their martial arts flourish for a thousand years. It turned out that it was not going to be trapped directly in this burial dragon valley. It was really a cold water!

Shen Lang brought everyone together and took out the door of the Three Realms.

But he was hesitant when he went there.

He has three choices himself. One is to bury the outer valley of the Great Valley of the Dragon Valley. It is not to chase the king of the Red Dolphin who may have escaped. He wants to see what the entrance looks like.

The second one is sent outside this boundary, or where it comes in.

The third one is directly transmitted to the Gobi Desert before it came over.

After a little consideration, there is a decision.

The first one is still waiting for you to go alone. The two of them may not be interested in taking risks, because their identity will be low-key.

The second one has no meaning.

If it is normal to go out from here, then go out along the incoming gap.

Now that the artifact has been transmitted, it will be transmitted directly, and it will not be tossed again.

Since this is his manipulation of the artifact, he did not discuss with them, he made his own decision.

When the start of the transmission, the two of them are still a little worried, in case this artifact does not work, it is really troublesome, and the last hope is gone!

The ancient artifact of the Gate of the Three Realms did not disappoint them!

After the fusion repair was successful, Shen Lang was first transmitted back to Earth, and then it was proved once and for all that it was ok.

Now this time, it is also the place where they are sent directly.

Sudden space fluctuations, immediately let Xu Haoyue, Mo Feiliu and Fan Xueyu, Bai Hao alert!

They are left behind, guarding the gap in the space, so as to avoid the party with the black robe.

The spatial fluctuations that have just emerged are not the changes that Shenlang left when they left, so they all thought that there were enemies coming.

When you see that they are three back, this is safe.

Snow is not snow and cold autumn, and you can breathe a sigh of relief when you see the surrounding environment.

In their capacity, being able to come back safely is the greatest relief. There is still a lot of gains, it is perfect.

“Master!”

Fan Xueyu and Mo Feiliu, both rushed forward to ask Ann, do not know how their situation is.

The white pheasant came over the side of Shen Lang, fearing that he was injured.

Snow is not snow and the cold winter is two people, but it is because of the rebound and the injury. However, in the two hours of waiting for the waves, there has been a certain nursed back to health, and it has been suppressed, including no problem with the dragons.

It is now in front of them, and the state is a little bit worse, and there is no indication of injury.

“It has been solved.” Xue Feixue simply announced a sentence.

For the specific process, including the news of the existence of Longmen, she is not ready to tell, Gao Hanqiu will have the same tacit understanding.

Because of this incident, it is related to the reputation of many famous masters!

It's not a matter of invitation, it's the face of so many people.

Respecting the teacher is the first place in any martial art.

This ruined the ancestors of other people, everyone will not accept, and will be hostile, and then it will discredit you. When you get dark, your words naturally no one believes.

They don't want to be the same people in Longzhen, and Yao Chi and Qiu Lin Jianzong certainly won't offend so many sects.

Since things have been resolved, they do not need the name of “save the world”, and they can do their own peace of mind.

Further on the secret of the funeral valley...

“Go back! Shen brother, I still have to trouble you for a ride.”

Gao Hanqiu's initiative to open the request.

Shen Lang would not have cared about it. The mental power of this transmission is not as big as the world. For him, it is nothing.

When he promised, he immediately wanted to understand.

Now a few of them, Fan Xueyu, Mo Feiliu and Xu Yuyue are all completely trustworthy, and he and Xue Feixue can influence and control them.

But day is a variable!

Even if she is now the servant of Shen Lang, it is a Qingzu fox.

Will there be any other legends about their green hills?

The Battle of the Ancients is not the merits of the Terran, but the Dragons of all ethnic groups. The history of the Terran has been blurred and turned into various legends. What if the Fox family has a more detailed record?

Isn't Shen Lang's help the Fox family get the ancestor of the ancient fox ancestors who were buried in the Dragon Valley? What if there is any information transfer?

So, they don't just say about the situation inside, but they will leave directly from here!

In that case, even if the space crack cannot be closed, and there is no static wave transmission, Bai Hao alone cannot find it here.

This is where it is, everyone is not clear, it is directly brought by Shen Lang, and then found in this Gobi.

The ability of Bai Yu to use Qingqiu stone to trace traces has already made them both taboo!

As for Shen Lang, with their tacit understanding, Gao Hanqiu does not need to say clearly, he will naturally realize it soon.

Chapter 2074 - Yaochi 1

This time, Shen Lang brought everyone together and simply transferred it to the edge of Yaochi.

Anyway, it has to be transmitted once. Before returning to the crater before the forbidden place, there is no point. Everyone needs to leave again. The territory of this world is extremely great, and it is good to send a trip.

Those people in those two aspects are preferred to the ladies. First, everyone will go to Yaochi together.

Then there is nothing wrong with Shen Lang. Perhaps it will be with Gao Hanqiu. They will go back to Qiu Lin Jianzong to talk about the old and live for a while.

When they appeared on the edge of Yaochi, it was already night.

In other places, it will be a night for guests to stay, especially when going from Yaochi to a distant road.

But Yao Chi is a bit awkward.

Because Yaochi has never stayed in a male guest, even the long-established Yaochi event will end at the end of the day and will not make people stay overnight.

This time I went to the Yungong Holy Land together, and took risks with the cold autumn and Shenlang, so that Xuefei Xue felt that everyone was very close and was a good team and partner.

But even so, she can't destroy the rules since ancient times.

As the head, she can't open this precedent, or how can the disciples inherit the tradition of the founder?

Therefore, everyone needs to say goodbye here.

This made Fan Xueyu very reluctant. Although this trip took a long time, there were not many opportunities to contact Shen Lang, and there was no chance of getting along alone.

If you are back all the way, you can still chat and talk, this use the artifact, send it back, and immediately arrive home.

She looked at Master a little in a hurry and wanted to speak, but she didn't speak well.

Snow is not a snow owl can not know the heart of the disciples?

But she can only sigh, now it is not convenient to invite them to Yaochi to be a guest, it is also not convenient to let Fan Xueyi follow Shen Lang.

She had considered this problem in the funeral valley, and could not keep up with the speed of the leaping progress of the swells. Fan Xueyu could not always be accompanied by the waves, even if he followed, he could only accompany him for a short period of time.

But for Fan Xueyu, it may be a lifelong embarrassment.

Instead of falling into such a consequence, it is better not to start in the period when she is still awkward!

"Thank you a lot of thanks to Gao Laozu and your photo, I am grateful, I will be free in the future, and I will see Yaochi as a guest, not to sweep the floor."

Listening to Master telling them the words of the guests, and did not retain the meaning of Shen Lang, Fan Xueyi gnawed his teeth, glaring at the cold autumn in the guest, and actively talked with Shen Lang.

"Shen Lang, remember the things we had before? When will you go back, you will be called the Emperor, and you must call me again."

This is about their secrets, and they must be honest with Master, but they cannot say it publicly.

However, between them, this is the intersection of this paragraph, but it can only be this reason.

When Shen Lang heard it, it was natural to understand what she was talking about.

Then go to the bright mountain and challenge the bright  again. He will definitely go again.

But think back to the strength of the sun god, it is called the high cold autumn, or to reach the strength of the cold autumn now, but also can not do.

Today's battle against the two dragons, although their strength is stronger than the cold autumn, but they were killed by him, but it is not directly hard, it is done by various means.

The * of light is different. The real people do not show up. The pure spiritual power can be suppressed by air. If the gap is not made up, there will be no chance to see the enemy. What are the means?

And this is also a false proposition.

Because he was originally chased by the gods to catch up with the world of giant beasts. Later, he encouraged the great beasts of the gods and went to find the * of light. Fan Xueyu met here, and because of her own unwillingness, all the way Past.

On the bright mountain, she did not retreat, did not hurry to escape, but to fight with them in the end, this is a loyal performance, but also won the appreciation of the sun and even the dog god.

But to say something is not good, Van Gogh is far from enough!

There was no delay in the last time, and there was some help, but that was the opponent of the top ten apostles. In front of the bright god, don't say her, Shen Lang and the dog * are not qualified!

How could it be possible to bring her again? Who is responsible for security?

However, it was not convenient for discussion at this time, and Shen Lang smiled at her.

It seems to be tacit, it is their common secret.

But in fact, nothing promised her!

Seeing the smile of Shen Lang, Fan Xueyu was relieved a lot.

Of course, she also understands very well that it is very dangerous to go to Guangmingshan. If she wants to follow them again, she must make herself stronger!

Only if it is stronger, can you not give up, and then give him some help.

Snow and snow and the cold autumn show a few words on behalf of everyone, there is no further guest set, Yao Chi will not stay in the male guest, naturally neither side will open, so as not to be embarrassed.

It's going to be back to Qiu Lin Jianzong at this time, it's still very far away. Shen Lang is of course not standing out, taking the door of the Three Realms, bringing everyone to send and leave, directly to the Qiulin sword.

Watching them disappear, including the white scorpion followed by Shen Lang, Van Gogh was a bit lost.

If she is leaving before, she can determine a direction, and she is still interested. However, the transmission of the door of the Three Realms may be on the horizon, and there is no trace at all.

“Let's go back.....”

Snow and snow brought Van Gogh and went back to Yaochi.

Shen Lang's current mental power is very powerful, but because of the relationship between the magical spirit and the self-destruction, his spiritual world is still a dangerous state.

After the second dragon, coupled with the continuous transmission, he is still a little discomfort.

However, it is not a big deal in general, but it is once again coming to Qiulin, and let Shen Lang be quite embarrassed.

When I first came here, the situation was still vivid. The strength at that time was much worse. Don't say that it was not as good as it was.

The last time, Gao Hanqiu and Mo Feiliu, Xu Haoyue did not come back in Zhoushan. He and the dog * are here, Yang Baotianyi is not guilty of their hospitality That time they took the Tangcheng area. Stir up one day and overturn, and kill the guardian beasts of Baijiazhuang. Some of their ancestors, Daxian, and Daxian's ancestors, like Mu Xiyang and Long Yao, also killed together.

The dog * also said nothing to help Shen Lang instill the upgrade.

Originally, Shen Lang appeared in Qiu Lin Jianzong. There are quite a lot of embarrassing things, but when these memories are coming up, I feel that the surrounding atmosphere is not right!

Not to mention Gao Hanqiu and Mo Feiliu, although they have been retiring all the year round, but after all, it is a place that has lived for hundreds of years and is well known.

If something is wrong, I will find it right away.

At this moment, it is too late to be polite with Shen Lang, and I will leave directly.

Shen Lang's knowledge quickly spread out, and suddenly he learned what happened to Qiulin's Jianzong and made him frown.

Chapter 2075 - Destruction

Although the relationship between Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu is not ordinary, Mo Feiliu must be like this elder.

But Qiu Lin Jianzong is also a big name after all, and the courtesy is still needed, so Shen Lang sent it, just to the mountain gate.

Going up here, the time for them will be more important than the direct transmission to the door, to respect the Qiulin sword.

Because of this, one did not see anything special, but they immediately felt it.

Now, under the investigation of Shen Lang's gods, I immediately discovered what happened.

The Qiulin sword stone monument erected on the mountain gate has been broken and landed; and the building on the mountain is also destroyed and dumped!

The entire Qiulin swordsmanship has become a wreck!

Moreover, the preliminary exploration of Shen Lang's knowledge did not show signs of living.

Everything shows a situation – Qiu Lin Jianzong suffered an attack, even a disaster!

Gao Hanqiu and Mo Feiliu took the lead, and Shen Lang and Xu Haoyue immediately followed the past.

Waiting for the above, everything is in the eye, more clearly visible.

The cold autumn that first came up, obviously has been investigated, and immediately went back!

Everyone is following along.

After the mountains and the waves have come, there is a deep abyss, directly into the ground.

There is a thick fire spar below, and the cold and cold autumn is to retreat below.

Everyone's speed is very fast, and quickly fell to the abyss.

In the past, Shen Lang's knowledge has been detected, and some people are there!

Because of the depth of the ground, the environment, and the intentional disguise, if you don't know and search for the past, it is very easy to skip.

This should be the place where the Qiulin swordsman agreed to take refuge.

Gao Hanqiu and Mo Feiliu are clear about this, so after not seeing the traces of people on the top, they immediately searched for it and then rushed over.

When they landed, some of the young Qiu Lin Jianzong disciples who were hiding in the body were scared to move.

“Zong... sovereign?”

“Zu Shi!”

When you look at the cold autumn and Mo Feiliu, everyone can't believe it, and fear is the hallucination.

“I came back with my ancestors. Don't come over!”

Mo Feiliu looked at a circle, and then called out the easy to come over.

“Zu Shi, Zongzhu, Shen Daxian, Xu Daxian.”

Even if they see their emotions, they still have not lost their gifts, and they greet them one by one.

When I got to the side of Mo Feiliu, I bowed my head and said: “Master and Su Lun have both...”

Gao Hanqiu is the ancestor of the ancestors. Before long, he was retreat under this, not to mention the outside world in Tangcheng and Hanguo. He was a disciple in the door and did not know that he was still alive.

He will go out and get in touch with the martial art of this level.

Because of the frequent retreat, Mo Feifei thought that he might have died.

But he is still the lord, and he needs to know a little more about the situation in the door. Now, when you look at it, you know about it.

The specific young disciple can't say it, but Yang Baotian and Su Lun are not there, but they can see it at a glance.

Mo Feiliu puts it easy, but he can't wait to let him tell and read his memory directly.

The founders of Qiu Lin Jianzong are Gao Hanqiu and Lin Biaozi, and there is a shift in the back direction. Gao Hanqiu is a disciple, and Lin Biaozi also cultivates disciples.

But Lin Biaozi is more old-minded, and here he is looking for a woman to leave behind!

At that time, in order to stand on this side, it was a constant fight. Most of their two disciples were no longer there. They were for Jianzong to establish themselves in Tangcheng, to make a name for themselves, to fight for injuries, or to delay cultivation.

In order to protect the descendants, Lin Biaozi did not let them move in the Qiulin, but moved away.

This is the Tiandu City Forest Park, and later with the Qiu Lin Jianzong relatives, but not one.

On the side of Qiu Lin Jianzong, with Lin Biaozi and their two second-generation disciples slowly passing away, the little disciple who left the cold autumn was flying.

Yang Baotian and Su Lun are the third generation disciples. Because Mo Feiliu is a little younger than those who are already dead, even some of the brothers are dead when he gets started.

Therefore, Yang Baotian and Sulun are his teachers, but they are more like a younger brother than their age and cultivation.

Mo Feiliu did not personally teach his disciples because he always wanted to improve himself and follow Master. Yang Baotian is not too young, so he later chose Yang Baotian's apprentice to be a successor.

In accordance with the normal process, waiting for the death of the cold autumn, Mo Feiliu will officially retreat to the world, so that the elders can not take over, the daily support of Yang Baotian, Su Lun and their elders, he is hidden in the dark as an ancestor.

At the scene, I didn't see the mainstay of Yang's generation. They were all easy to bring their peers and young disciples.

Coupled with his attitude of speaking, Mo Feiliu has already guessed what is going on.

After he read the memory, Gao Hanqiu did not say anything, but also directly read the memory of the easy.

Shen Lang is also not polite, although he is not a person of Qiulin, but Qiu Lin Jianzong really helped him, and he has been hidden here.

Yang Baotian and Su Lun, when they were fighting against Long Yao and Mu Xiyang last time, also represented Qiu Lin Jian Zongli to support him, and did not leave because of the cold autumn and Mo Fei flow.

So he also wants to know what's going on, and if you don't say it normally, then read the memory directly.

Seeing that they all did this, after Shen Lang read it, Xu Haoyue did the same, and he followed the cold autumn.

It's easy to be injured, and there's no way to resist reading. It doesn't consume anything, but it's a little affected if it is read four times in a row.

Shen Lang read his memory and immediately queried the recent memory and learned about it.

This happened in a few days ago.

Qiu Lin Jianzong suddenly came to a few mysterious monks, this is a polite visit, saying that something must be handed over to the cold autumn.

Originally, the cold autumn and Mo Feiliu have gone They started the Hushan array, but they are related to the grandfather, and the most responsible Yang Baotian did not dare to neglect, and quickly brought people out.

Seeing that they have no hostility, it seems that they came from afar, and they opened the guardianship array when the guests greeted.

As a result, they started to destroy directly from the mountain gate!

Immediately, Yang Baotian and Su Lun were killed, and the foundation of the Qiulin sword was destroyed. Everyone on the mountain killed a clean, even the body was taken away!

These are not easy to see. It was the disciple who went to close the guardian array at that time. Because he was temporarily closed and then opened, he was not among the ranks.

After seeing the killing of the big cockroach, he fled desperately to the back of the mountain and finally escaped.

After waiting for a long time, he went out from here, did not dare to stay in the mountains, went directly to Tangcheng, and found the easy.

It was easy to gather all the doormen in the tough front and in the city and rushed back together.

Chapter 2076 - The safest place

It is easy to bring people back to the mountains, not to want to come to support.

Even Yang Baotian and Sulun are not opponents. He is a young disciple in Tangcheng. Where is the qualification?

He is for everyone's safety considerations!

It is to take everyone back to the mountain to take refuge!

This seems a bit unreasonable, and other people have such questions, but it is not easy to have him consider it.

This does not know where the enemy comes from, since it can kill Qiu Lin Jianzong, can you know nothing about the information of Qiu Lin Jianzong?

Then they are in the tough front, and it is also possible to find them.

Even if they disdain to deal with the remaining young disciples of Tingfeng, what about other people?

Tangcheng is not the site of the Qiulin Jianzong family. Before because of the Shenlang, it was equal to the fall of the family. Just because there is the existence of Mo Feiliu, and the ancestors are still alive in the cold and autumn, the town can live with other people.

It is a dry wave, this is also an excuse, let everyone have a step, usually not used to find Qiu Lin Jianzong revenge.

Now, if we know that the entire Shanmen Jianzong is destroyed, it means that Gao Hanqiu and Mo Feiliu are definitely not there, and maybe even something happened.

Then they will definitely seize this opportunity, screaming at the cold autumn and Mo Feiliu have not come back, together with the Qiu Lin Jianzong disciple of the tough front!

Anyway, it's fine to go back to those people all the time...

In this way, the factions not only revenge, but also re-divided the site.

It is easy to be dual-identity for many years. On the one hand, it is the general manager of the Tangcheng weapon brand, and this identity is actually responsible for foreign affairs.

Whether it is Tangcheng local, or spread to the whole of China, including Tiandu and other places, merchants, all sects, etc., he needs to understand and establish diplomatic relations.

The other layer of identity is the successor of the Swordmaster of Qiulin, which is not specified in the text, but Mo Feiliu authorized him to manage many specific matters in the door.

That is, in terms of major events, Yang Baotian and other seniors are required to coordinate, and others are responsible for him.

This made him exercise very sharply, especially after coming from Shen Lang. Several times, he felt that he had learned a lot and benefited a lot.

So at this time, he didn't even care about picking up the things of the tough front. The talent is the first one. If you can leave a disciple, you will have more strength.

And it must be as much as possible!

The teacher's door is still the same. If the young people are not much left, they will not be able to hold up the sect.

After other people knew the situation, one of the questions that did not dare to follow the mountain back was: the uncles and teachers, the ancestors and the uncles, could not deal with the enemies. They went back, did they die?

Even if you stay in Tangcheng, you may be in danger. You can also close the door at the tough front, or find another place to hide.

Easy to mean, a bit like "the most dangerous place, the safest place"!

Since those people have already swept the Qiulin swords, they have to be killed and they have to be looted. It is almost impossible to continue to occupy the Qiulin sword.

Because this time, it is clear that it is known that the ancestors and the lords are not here, they may not dare to face the ancestors!

Therefore, what remains more in need of caution is the sectarian forces near Tangcheng. These people will find revenge for them and will use whatever means.

It's naive to hide in the tough front without opening the door.

Usually, the tough front does not become a rule. All customers can't do it in the tenacity store, and no one dares to steal the robbery, but it is not because the portal of the tough front is so strong, but because there is easy to sit down because of the back, because behind It is the Qiulin sword.

Now when the factions are going to beat the water dog, they will stay in the tough front and close their doors. It is their own death, which is caught by people.

It is just as dangerous to want to hide in Tangcheng, or to find a place nearby.

Can these mourning dogs be able to match the eyes and ears of all other family sects?

Only back to the mountain, this is no one can think about it, because looking for death!

Even after they couldn't find their clues, some people guessed this possibility and didn't dare to come over and search. What if they hit the murderers? Is it that you are looking for death?

Therefore, he resolutely brought everyone back.

I saw the wreckage of the broken wall and saw that there were no corpses left. There were only some residual blood, which made everyone very sad and very angry.

But there is no way. Under the flow of Mo Fei, Yang Baotian is the strongest. They will experience in Tangcheng. If they work in the tough front, they will add up and not be enough for others to kill.

It is easy to show the style of a successor, restraining his own emotions, drinking everyone, no movements, including the stone monument of "Qiu Lin Jianzong", all of which fell to the ground.

Whether the enemy will come back is uncertain, but other factions will certainly look far and far.

Once you find that it has been cleaned up, you can naturally guess that someone is coming back. When those enemies have not come back, the local forces will take revenge.

At that time, Qiu Lin Jianzong will encounter another disaster, and they are also escaping.

Therefore, he took everyone to the back of the mountain forbidden land, directly into the abyss of the abyss.

This place is that Qiu Lin Jianzong himself has not come down, and later I know that this is the place where the ancestors retreat.

Then they are waiting here and seeing it today.

These memories are helpful for Shen Lang to understand the whole thing, but there is no clue as to who the enemy is.

Because it is easy to hear from the disciples.

Mo Feiliu is the first to read the memory, and this is the fastest response.

From the crowd, he summoned the survivor and then read the memory of that person.

They are three of them, and they continue to follow them again.

This is the shortest time, so that everyone can get the most information, so that the process they are telling will not be wrong.

But after reading the memory of that person, I was still disappointed.

Although he had experienced it, Bin did not feel at a close distance, only found this situation, and then ran away.

In other words, he did not see the enemy's looks like him!

This makes Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu frown Qiu Lin Jianzong is the hard work of hundreds of years of high cold autumn, this can be regarded as a second venture, and it is still in a foreign land, more precious.

Qiulin Jianzong can succeed in its growth and development, not only for his persistence for hundreds of years, but also for his life-long efforts, including the main disciples of him and Lin Biaozi.

Nowadays, so many descendants and grandchildren have been killed and cleaned up, and the martial art has been destroyed. It is he who is so old, so cultivated, and angry.

“In the past few days, I still have a chance, give it to me! I can't do anything.”

Shen Lang said openly.

In this case, let a few of them look at them.

Bai Yu was followed by his maid. They were all there without talking. When she read the memory, she was of course inconvenient.

Now the meaning of Shen Lang, they have experienced, they instantly understand.

Chapter 2077 - Declare war

In order to minimize the interference on the scene, only Shen Lang and Bai Yu first returned to the top, and others continued to be there.

Shen Lang is not as good at grasping the level of Qingqiu. It does not mean that he has no effect.

This time, Bai Hao is guiding him, or let him try it first.

Because time has passed, and in this Qiu Lin Jianzong, no one else has come back, no other traces cover the impact, so soon, let Shen Lang restore all the conditions.

This time, his “seeing” picture is more detailed and more accurate than the disciple’s memory. It is to reproduce all the pictures.

Of course, there are also some places, because they are relatively weak, so it is not clear enough, but naturally it is much better than the side to hear and far to see.

The past pictures re-sensed by the green pebbles are very realistic and precise, but the clues are not enough.

Because I didn’t see the truth!

There are three people coming. This is a picture of the past. It is not sensed. From their shots to Yang Baotian and others, Shen Lang infers that at least one is the realm of the Great God, and the other two are the peaks of Daxian.

Therefore, it will form a crushing situation, coupled with a sneak attack, let Yang Baotian and others, even the room for resistance.

And from their decisive success, it can be seen that their purpose is very clear, that is, to destroy the Qiulin swords!

This is definitely not to be famous, challenge, etc. It seems to be for revenge.

On their bodies, there are cloaks and cloaks that cover people.

The use of Qingqiu stone by Shenlang is a situation that has been reappeared here. Therefore, it is useless to block or bow down. He can still see it from a different angle.

It's just these three people, with masks on their faces, so there's no way to know what they are.

Of course, knowing the appearance, you may not know who it is. More importantly, they guess their identity from their exercises and other aspects!

It is a pity that because their three strengths are crushed, the Yang Hutian, who stays behind, is just the realm of Daxian. In the face of the realm of the gods, there is no power to fight back.

The other two Daxian peaks, the disciples of Daxian, are also completely crushed.

The result is that everyone can't resist, and they don't need to show more exercises and skills, and they will directly kill them.

Finally, all the bodies were taken away!

With the help of Bai Yu, confirm that all the information that can be presented has already been presented, and Shen Lang will pass the sound to let Gao Hanqiu come up.

Then I just shared all the memories I had seen through the Qingqiu stone and shared them with them.

“Do you have any impression?”

This sentence of Shen Lang is a question of the cold autumn.

Because his understanding of the world is still a bit small, such as this time to participate in the Yaochi event, only to find that the previously known Han is only a small part of the scope.

Tangcheng is already the center of the Han Dynasty, and the Tangcheng factions are the strongest sects of the Han Dynasty.

However, these sects, including the Qiulin swords, can not enter the eyes of these ancient gates of the Yaochi event. Gao Hanqiu can join, is his personal strength, etc., he is pulling up the Qiulin swords!

Therefore, what is the situation in the world, he is not known. Alpine autumn has been here for hundreds of years, and mixed to a high level, you should know more.

The white pheasant is the Qingqi fox family. Xu Yuyue comes from the earth and they skip it directly.

Mo Feiliu is an ancestor in Tangcheng and Han, but in fact it is not far from the heads of many ancient martial art. Like Kunlun, their contemporary head, that is, the peak of Daxian.

But this time it involves an enemy with a great realm. He should have limited understanding.

Gao Hanqiu smiled and shook his head. He just blended the memory of Shen Lang. He did not have any impression on the three masks of this cloak.

“The other party intentionally obscured the identity. In the process of doing it, it did not reveal its own practice. This shows that it is very easy to identify!”

Mo Feiliu said his opinion.

The thrill of this incident is enormous.

Because he was the lord, Master gave Qiu Lin Jianzong to him, but he was not optimistic!

Although he is not here, he does not know what it is because of him, but he is the sovereign, and this responsibility is his.

If the division is embarrassed, he is a historical sinner!

He still appreciates the easy and decisive retention of a group of young disciples, which leaves hope for the sect.

In other respects, if he manages well and has more warning plans, he will not be taken over.

To be able to dig up the enemy, he will kill it soon!

Shen Lang nodded. "You said that it makes sense. Even if we don't know it, we must be able to find it. Let everyone investigate it!"

"Start everyone?" Mo Fei flowed.

He thought that it was easy to start and investigate, and in Tangcheng, this would not have any result.

Gao Hanqiu was able to understand what he meant.

"Flying, you bring other people, rearrange the martial art, we are not dead, Qiu Lin Jianzong did not fall! The enemy is being traced by me!"

"Yes!"

Mo Feiliu quickly agreed, then went on, to bring the easy to wait for others to start repairing the reconstruction work overnight.

Now that the night has begun to fall, the high cold autumn is directly at the highest point on the top of the mountain, igniting a giant wood, as a signal, to pass the Qiulin swordsman did not fall down the signal!

Shen Lang said that everyone started, he understood what it meant, that is, the communication jade was used.

There is also one Shen Lang, which is to win the Ginkgo Valley elk, and Gao Hanqiu has one.

This time, he himself announced the matter in the name of the individual, in the public “channel”, and paid for clues!

This release, which can participate in the martial arts of the Yaochi event, can basically receive information. No matter whether it is the ancestors of the ancestors, or the contemporary heads, the level is high enough.

Once they start their energy, this is a huge network.

Qiu Lin Jianzong suffered almost the destruction of the top, many disciples were killed, this is what the righteous people should support, morally and morally no problem.

Although the essence and face of Qiu Lin Jianzong is nothing, but Gao Hanqiu is almost the strongest and greatest  in the contemporary era. He publicly promises to repay, which will inevitably be a bad advantage.

But this is a big deal!

Do you dare to open the Qiu Lin Jianzong publicly, don't you know the cold autumn?

If you know, dare to do this, is it not proof that there is great strength?

Who is this again? Will it be someone who knows?

Therefore, no one publicly condemned the murderers and solidarity against the cold autumn before they learned the specific information. They all pretended not to see the information. But private “channels”, they have begun to inquire with their friends who have made friends.

At this time, Yuxi’s public “channel” has another message!

“Yao Chi never formed an alliance, but he has always adhered to the right path! There is a murderer, Tu Yu Qiu Lin Jianzong, is the contempt and provocation of the right path! Search and severely punish the murderer, Yao Chi is willing to fully support!”

This is the public information sent by Yao Chi Snow.

This piece of information, sent out, immediately triggered a lot of chain reactions.

Originally, the heads of other parties, ancestors, or in their own doors, or in discussions with other parties. When I saw this information, I couldn’t help but ponder the deep meaning behind it.

Yaochi is never aligned with the party and maintains a neutral attitude, but now it is the first to stand up and hold the cold autumn!

Is this not profound?

Almost all of the major sects went to the Yungong Holy Land and had a little understanding of the process.

Yaochi Snow is not snow, and Fan Xueyu is together with Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu. Whether it is team friendship or mutual help, standing up to help the cold autumn is all right.

But the problem is coming. If the snow is not snow, the cold autumn and the deep waves are seen together, then the last wave that comes out with everyone is also owing to human feelings.

Is this still going to be here in the cold autumn?

The snow non-snow statement is not a party to the party, it is to stick to the right path and severely punish the murderer, so that they can do so. If others do not speak, they will be a little embarrassed.

Is it not as good as Yao Chi's female repair when fighting the evil murderers?

Furthermore, snow blizzard is so smart and savvy, will stand up and support, is there any information?

No one knows how much information is in the cold, because they don't know the specific situation.

If the cold autumn has mastered the enemy's information, it only needs a paradox of cheers, and it doesn't take a lot of effort to stand up.

The feelings of Qiu Lin Jianzong do not matter, the personal feelings of Gao Hanqiu, but quite valuable!

There are more thoughts and more lively, and Lenovo thinks more.

This time Yungong Holy Land trip A few of them are a group, Shen Lang can bring everyone out, surely the biggest gain, snow and snow and the cold autumn must be a lot!

Then, what kind of remuneration he took out, will there be something in the holy place of Yungong?

Besides, this time there are still many ancestors who have not come out, and the pattern of the world will be affected. Those who have come out and get great benefits will inevitably shine like the ancestors of the history!

If it is a cold autumn, snow is not snow and a few waves, then it is equal to them to open up together, should not stand in time to close the team?

Ever since, after a period of hesitation, thinking and discussion, some people began to support the cold autumn in the name of the martial art like Yaochi!

In addition to the connection with the "Private Channel" of Gao Hanqiu and Xuefeixue, the jade that Shenlang owns is inconvenient to speak in the "public channel", but it can see everything.

Snow does not play the role of snow, other people's concerns, etc., through the time of the message, he can guess.

Chapter 2078 - Who is the black hand?

When the information is released, there will definitely be an echo.

But certainly not so fast.

In fact, according to the meaning of Shen Lang, this information spread out, on the one hand, it is hoped to launch everyone to search for information. On the other hand, I hope that those people will come over by themselves!

These people dare to destroy the Qiulin swords, naturally in the cold autumn, or else just move a Qiulin sword, you do not need such a lineup.

Therefore, these people, regardless of whether they left or are nearby, must have their channels of communication.

Once the information spreads, they will know that the cold autumn, Mo Fei flow back, naturally will kill again.

But taking all the information into account, Shen Lang always feels that this is coming to him!

The era of the cold and cold autumn has long since passed. Later, he passed the lord to Mo Feiliu, and he could not hide in the world. As the strength arrived, his qualifications also picked up, and he began to come into contact with the ancient and famous factions. .

Qiulin Jianzong is the gate of Tangcheng, but apart from everyone who had been offended by Shen Lang, they did not offend anyone everyday.

As for the other families and sects of Tangcheng, they could not move such a grand rescue.

Even if you can get a relationship with any big door, the ancestors of that level should also know about Gao Hanqiu. At least they will know that Gaochunqiu is still alive and knows that people with strong cold and autumn are very strong.

What benefits can there be, so that they will be able to kill the Qiulin sword?

Gao Hanqiu is strong enough, and his age and seniority are old enough. Therefore, like the Yaochi event, or other places, others see him, and they are all gracious and praised as “high ancestors.”

It is not easy for him to know his own affairs and to be able to integrate into this high-level circle. It is also necessary to accumulate relationships for future generations, and he has always been polite to others.

Then he usually retreats all the year round, and so is Mo Feiliu.

Unless it is not before Zhoushan, Gaochunqiu has a conflict with people, otherwise, with the analysis of Shenlang, I feel that there is no enemy to engage in the cold autumn!

The local forces in Tangcheng want to engage in Qiu Lin Jianzong, but they are not qualified. Of course, their grudges are also due to the relationship between Shen Lang.

As for the feeling that he is being hurt by him, it is not a paranoia.

Because he is offended, it is much more than the cold autumn.

It's really a crime to be counted down. Needless to say, the major forces in the Tangcheng area are the old famous big factions, and he is not offended.

Leaving from Yaochi, on the way to Kunlun, they made a batch of elk.

Then he retracted the previous words and stopped “opening the treasure chest” for other factions, which was another offense.

In the Yungong Holy Land, the child Xian Weng was killed, and Cui or was killed.

Whether these have been passed on, it is actually very difficult to tell, and no one knows what secrets others have.

It is difficult to find a revenge for Shen Lang, because he has no place to live, and no one knows his origins. But Gao Hanqiu is most familiar with him, and Gao Hanqiu can find it.

However, it is a little villain to use this to infer. It is a little villain's heart. Let's not say that Shen Lang is in charge. Even if these people are looking for revenge, they must come to him through the cold autumn. There is absolutely no need to destroy Qiu Lin Jianzong.

Besides, the famous big school even in various secret places, regardless of face and rules, under normal conditions, can not be ignored, or otherwise exposed, it will affect the reputation of the martial art plummeted.

It is this kind of consideration that Shen Lang did not say this speculation.

Further, he thought of another possibility!

Longmen.

The gantry black robes have been killed, this is verified, because the memory of the last black robes has been read. They don't know that they will pass, and they don't think they will be destroyed. It is impossible to prepare fake memories in advance.

However, it was only the people who killed the Dragon Valley Flame World.

Are there other gantry descendants lurking in the outside world?

From the days of Longzhen, they have been planning for thousands of years! The secrets of the Yungong Holy Land, which has been falsified in the past, are the source of their ghosts. The purpose is to let the people of the major sects continue to succumb to each other and continue to kill each other, including their secret killings.

From the memory of the black robe, you can know that the Longmen disciples are cultivated outside. Only after accepting the test of decades and hundreds of years, the strength and loyalty can be achieved, and they are eligible to enter.

It is not known how many gantry secretly cultivated outside. It is not known whether it has reached the realm of great deity.

In theory, there should be no, if you can, you are fully qualified to enter. If loyalty is not up to standard, then it is impossible to know this.

But there is also a possibility, in the daily situation, there is a top conductor outside!

The identity of this person may be known only by the Dragon Revival. Perhaps they are all known to the core, but they all sequester the memory. Generally, they do not know how to read the memory.

There is such a person, and in fact it is mixed in the middle of the major sects, such as an ancestor. The things of Cui or, naturally, will be known for the first time, and then they will guess that their plans may be revealed.

Looking at Shenlang, Gao Hanqiu and Xuefeixue as a group, Yaochi is not good at attacking. The origin of Shenlang is unknown. The Qiujiang Jianzong in the cold autumn is the best goal.

But the problem is...

Shen Lang was directly transported with everyone, and came out from the funeral dragon valley to the edge of Yaochi, and then returned to Qiulin.

With the time they track and stay in it, it's just one day.

Those ancestors who came out together from the Yungong Holy Land, far away, may not have returned to their own divisions at this time.

Then there is such a gantry black hand, how can it attack Qiu Lin Jianzong a few days in advance?

Thinking about it, there is no such thing as Shen Lang, and there is no such thing as talking about the cold autumn. Just wait for it! Mo Feiliu is bringing out the easy and unwilling people, personally. Together, they began to rebuild the Qiulin sword.

Originally, this kind of thing did not require his lord to personally take the shot, but now the number of people is much less. His master is still here, and with the anger of nowhere to be released, he joined the working team.

Xu Haoyue felt that he couldn't help anything, and these little things were added to it.

Shen Lang and Bai Yu are guests, they have not gone to work, Mo Feiliu will not let.

They sat silent with Gao Hanqiu.

Out of such a thing, Shen Lang did not know how to comfort him.

To say that he is a human being, many things can be seen through, but if you really fall to the head, you will still be angry. For example, now friends and relatives on the planet...

When I think of the earth, he has calculated it for a long time, and I don't know how the earth is going. Now that the realm is in the realm of the Great God, can you go back to Earth?

Chapter 2079 - Bullying the door

Reconstructing nature is not so simple, even if the heritage is not comparable to those of the ancient martial art, but it has accumulated for hundreds of years.

However, it is not difficult to build a building that can be accommodated for a while.

At this time, there is no mood to pay attention to beauty, style and the like, just to re-establish the house number.

The most important thing is to re-establish the stone monument of Qiulin.

The previous monument was a very good stone. It was carefully selected and polished. It was erected at the gate of the mountain. It was very imposing.

Now that I have broken the ground, I have to find a good one. I can't find it in a short time, but Mo Feiliu is directly dig a large piece of boulder on a cliff, and it has not been polished, but it has been cut. Very flat.

I went back to the cold autumn and personally engraved it, and then I wrote “Qiu Lin Jianzong” and re-erected at the gate of the mountain.

So there is no exquisiteness before, but it is taller and more a bit rougher.

Under the command of the cold autumn, the giant wood at the top of the mountain has added a lot of branches. It must be made bright and bright, let the outside world know that the Qiulin swordsmanship has not been destroyed, and the Qiulin swordsman still stands!

Originally came back with the resources of the magic dragon, Gao Hanqiu is still very excited, although it is not convenient to tell them clearly, but also from top to bottom, have obtained great benefits.

There is no thought now. He is very calm on the surface, and his heart is filled with resentment.

The sky is dark.

Yi Yong and others also completed the initial reconstruction, and asked the ancestors, the lords and the guests to sit in the house. They also continued to rebuild overnight.

After a few days, nothing can be done. Now this is a simple thing that can be done.

“Someone is coming.” White 嬭 broke the silence of the hustle and bustle.

“A group of jumping clowns.”

Gao Hanqiu said a faint sentence.

The daylight can be sensed, and the cold autumn and the deep waves are of course sensed.

Shen Lang is also very clear. It should be the local forces. I saw the burning of the Qiulin swords in the distance. I knew that there was a change, and I rushed over.

In the past few days, perhaps they have also arranged for the spies to look at the situation from afar.

Qiulin's Jianzong is on fire here. It can be seen on the hills in the distance, but it cannot be distinguished. It is not certain whether those murderers will burn the Qiulin swords.

Now that I am close, I have a general understanding. I saw that the trees on the top of the mountain are burning, and they have been burning for a long time, but they have not spread. This means that it is not accidental, but intentional.

So these people did not stop in the distance, but rushed over together.

When I got close, I could see some fires and young disciples who were still busy rebuilding.

A large group of people came directly in front of the house they had just rebuilt.

The ability to direct the work outside is not easy, but the strength is not enough, but when they come to the vicinity, they are also discovered, so once they appear, they don't have to wait for the sect to come out personally, and they have already greeted them.

"Everyone who is a fellow friend, Jianzong has been attacked by a murderer, and it is not convenient to treat guests. Please come back!"

This is already a customer-by-customer order, but he has not said it too rude.

There are a lot of people coming in. After a message, they are sent to each other for ventilation, and then come together.

I have just seen it clearly, it is easy to bring some young disciples, and there is no master.

Now combined with the power of multiple factions, they are completely crushed.

"Easy General Manager, we are not here to be a guest. I heard that the Qiu Lin Jianzong suffered a disaster. They are all friends. We have come to see if there is anything we can do to help."

One person said this with a smile, and the others laughed.

We are not coming to visit, we are watching the fun, watching jokes!

“I have the heart, we don’t need help, please come back.” Easy and not soft, not hard to refuse, and then deported again.

Different from the present day, if only him, for other weaker teachers and teachers, he must have a grandson and a smile.

But now that the Sovereign is in the house, the ancestors are in the house, what else is there to take care of?

Not directly flipping his face and swearing, it is already cultivated.

“Don’t! Everyone is good for Tangcheng, although you Qiulin Jianzong has always bullied people, not with us, but we are still righteous.”

“Yes! We are willing to stay and help, and you are also shocked by the general manager. If you want to take a break, let us help!”

The meaning of the words in this statement is already very clear.

Are you Qiu Lin Jianzong not very arrogant? Was it not bullying other factions before?

Now that you are in trouble, we will take over you directly!

But they still have scruples. They still do not dare to come before there is no evidence to prove that Mo Fei has died. This is still tentative.

As for the rumors that the grandfather’s grandfather is still alive, there is no one who believes that it is a speculation of self-lifting.

“Right, Yi Da, do you know one thing? You have a fire in the tough front! Unfortunately, all the torches have been burned, and many houses around have burned!”

It was easy to be patient or to be patient. When I heard this sentence, I couldn't help it.

How can the tough front be so smart that it will catch fire?

And also the fire broke everything?

You can also think of it with your heels. It must be their forces. They directly robbed the tough front and divided all the weapons and armor inside!

In order not to fall into the wrong position, after the rushing, the house was burned directly, and there was no trace.

The tough front has been easy to take care of these years. Although I heard the news of the division that day, I already knew that it would be the end of the game. I thought that people can live.

But now the lord is back, the ancestor is back, but he is told that the tough front was burned, and of course he is still very angry!

Just when it was easy to speak, a voice came out.

“Do you not and what are these rude nonsense?”

When this word is heard, it is easy to hear it. This is the voice of the ancestors!

He has not had time to respond, and there are already people calling in the opposite crowd.

“Who! Qiu Lin Jianzong has been killed, still loaded here! There is a kind of out...”

As a result, his words have not been finished, and he fell to the ground directly!

All the people who came next, all suffered strong pressure and had to fall to the ground!

Everyone was taken aback!

It is not easy to know what level, everyone has a general understanding, other Qiu Lin Jianzong disciples, it is not worth mentioning.

Who else?

It must be that the sovereign Mo Fei flowed back!

Chapter 2080 - revenge

Because Mo Feiliu rarely shows up, as a close disciple of Gao Hanqiu, his generation and age are higher than the current heads and elders of the surrounding martial art.

As for the cold autumn, they are still alive, they are more unbelievable.

The last time Shen Lang took the dog  and set fire to the various sects of the inn, all of them hanged in a circle, attracting the ancestors and elders of the dragons and the priests.

Everyone thought that Mo Fei had flown away and Zhoushan did not come back. Qiulin Jianzong should be unstoppable.

I didn't expect that the results of the Great Immortal Realm's Xiyang and Daxian's Dragons have gone.

This result, the deep earthquake hit the parties, but also the main reason for them to dare to act rashly.

What level is Shenlang, but many people know that when Tangcheng Qun Yinghui, Shen Lang was publicly exposed, and the pulpit was heard by many people.

It is impossible to dry up the factions so quickly, especially in Baijiazhuang. It is said that the legendary guardian beast is in the world and has been destroyed.

Therefore, everyone thinks that Qiu Lin Jianzong supports the ghosts, and that the husbands of Xiyang and Long Yao are both guilty and tempted.

Others did not dare to follow the crowd, but they all knew that there was such a thing, and as a result, their two ancestors did not return, naturally it was fallen in the Qiulin sword.

Mo Feiliu is not there, but they can also level them. That means that Yang Baotian and Su Lun are still at least inferior to the strength of Long Yu and Mu Xiyang!

In this situation, what kind of hatred is still reported.

Everyone is holding a tail and being a man. Try to avoid the people of Qiu Lin Jianzong and avoid finding excuses for others.

This time they dared to come because the former spies were far from observing and determined that the Qiu Lin Jianzong was destroyed and the wreckage was broken. No one was active, but it was also proved from the disappearance of the night and the night.

That means that Yang Baotian, Su Lun and other strengths may not be inferior to the big bangs of Daxian Peak, and they are already dead.

And Mo Feiliu did not go out and did not come back, but it is easy to preside over the reconstruction, then it is completely out of the question.

Everyone understands that no matter where they leave, Mo Feiliu will come back sooner or later as long as he has not been killed.

But now, on the one hand, Mo Feifei may have been killed by those people, and then come to destroy Qiulin. On the other hand, as long as they haven't returned yet, they can't wait for others, and they can push them to those people!

There is only one chance, and it must be shot now. Otherwise, if Mo Fei flows back, there will be no chance of revenge.

So they arrived, I didn't expect Mo Feiliu to come back!

Yang Baotian, they have been able to kill Long Yu and Mu Xiyang, let alone Mo Feiliu?

Suddenly, everyone shivered and was forced to squat, not knowing how to be good.

“What are you doing here?”

The voice just rang again.

Everyone rushed to talk about it: “I, we found that Qiu Lin Jianzong has a fire, want to come over and help...”

“Yes, yes, we have learned that there has been a disaster here, so we specially came to help.”

“You come to answer.”

After the sound was heard, one of them was suspended directly from the ground.

Then a stone flew over, in front of him, suddenly burst open.

“The end of lying!”

In exchange for the usual threat, they will sneer at it, and breaking a stone is not a great thing.

But now it is different. If the other party does not show up, they will be crushed to death. They have no room for struggle. There is no doubt that the head will burst like a stone.

The man who was under control was even more panicked. He wanted to run away desperately, but his body couldn't move at all. Even his consciousness was highly suppressed. He wanted to lie and he was guilty.

“It's us, we burned the tough front and robbed everything inside.”

“We found that the Qiulin sword had a fire. It is easy to guess that it is easy to clean up the mess. This is a good opportunity for revenge, so everyone came over.”

“Our goal is to take the opportunity to kill them all. When Mo Fei flows back, I will say that it was the enemy of the past.”

“If Mo Fei can’t come back, then we will completely divide the Qiulin swords. After that, there will be no Qiu Lin Jianzong in Tangcheng.”

After saying this in one breath, the man was stunned and wanted to bite his teeth, but it was too late.

He didn’t know why he just said everything naturally!

This can’t be said, lying will be terrible, but if you say it, it will be dead, and everyone will be dead.

He can also feel that no one has controlled what he said, just... as if it has been greatly affected, and he will tell the truth without knowing it.

After I finished speaking, I realized that this is what I said with Mo Feiliu!

Is there a chance to live?

“Your meaning, I understand. Originally, our Qiulin sword was a latecomer. We can have a place to stay. We will not fight for anything. Now it seems that you want to kill people by knife and take the opportunity to destroy us.”

In fact, it’s not Mo Feiliu, it’s always a cold autumn!

Master is here, Master is open, and Mo Feiliu is quiet listening.

Gao Hanqiu’s embarrassment at this moment is also true.

I thought that they could stand here, it was a long time of struggle, and then it was friction. Lin Biaozi and most of the disciples of the other two generations were injured in the battles with the Tangcheng factions and caused corruption.

It was really peaceful to get along with each other. It was the same generation that died, that is, after Mo Feiliu became the sovereign.

Both sides are considered to be dealing with future generations, abandoning the grievances of predecessors, the pattern has been formed, then do not let the Tangcheng area decline because of internal friction.

But the cold autumn is still not dead!

He passed through the elders and ancestors of the various factions, and the various factions around him could not compete with him.

It is more than enough for Mo Fei to flow to the administration. Gao Hanqiu also put his eyes farther and contacted the real gates of Yaochi and Kunlun.

In other words, as those opponents died in the past their own strength is superb, Gao Hanqiu really wants to send them out or annex them, it is not very difficult to do!

One is disdain, and the other is to establish a correct image to those who are truly famous.

But now he can't help it, and he doesn't want to endure it!

Destroy the enemy of Qiu Lin Jianzong, he will find it and retaliate with all his strength!

And these want to smash and rob, and he and Mo Feiliu have not yet returned, and he will not let go of the remnants of the disciples.

“Mo, Mo Zongzhu, don't listen to him, only their family is like this! We are all good people, we just want to help!”

“Yes, yes, we didn't steal the tough front. We didn't attack the Qiulin swords. They did it!”

The sound of the cold autumn floated out: “From now on, Tangcheng, there is only one Qiulin sword!”
