

First Strong 2111

Chapter 2111 - Bad feeling

The same is true of the three of them. The space of Tianshu is not secret to them. It is directly into the space of Tianshu, and it is also seen that Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy who retreat in the first place.

Shen Lang has traveled to so many places and has harvested a lot of things. But these are his women, and there is nothing to be pity, and they will not be reluctant.

Therefore, it is directly to give them the best, the dragon's marrow, the dragon's internal organs, etc., as well as the blessing of the spirit.

Dragon Ball did not give it because the number is only one, and he has already absorbed one. This one is not good for anyone.

One more, I don't know if they can afford it.

It is the essence of heaven and earth. He let the dog  take it. He has also taken it himself. He still does not dare to take it directly to them, but let them absorb the aura of spirituality.

However, there is a difference in this, that is, falling rain.

Falling rain is the body of congenital pure Yin. For her, the type of Yinquan can't stand it, and it is an excellent supplement to her. However, if the dragon body is in the positive direction, if it is taken by her, if it is only limited in absorption, it is afraid that there will be a reaction.

Therefore, the boating and the windlessness are in the way of Zheng Yumeng, but it is a separate solution.

Shen Lang has a lot of harvest, but there is no special negative, so she can take a drop of "Essence of Heaven and Earth" boldly!

Yes, before he had more experience, he and the dog  only dared to take a drop first, and the half-scented rain was even more afraid of one drop.

At the time of guarding Zheng Yumeng, there is already experience. Shen Lang directly instills mental strength into them, so that they can more powerfully survive the process of reborn.

According to the time of the Tianshu space, guarding for a few days, confirming that they have entered the absorption state without problems, Shen Lang will first retreat.

His parents still go shopping for food. This is to make a reunion dinner for everyone. If the food is good for a big table, then they will eat three, then they will be busy.

So it is necessary to talk to them before they start, and wait for two days to eat this big meal.

After he came out, he took a look at the time for more than an hour. The food was naturally not started yet, but it should have been bought back.

At this time, my parents have not returned yet. It is normal. It is a rare opportunity, and there is no meal. They will definitely sell all kinds of ingredients.

Normal waves will not care, but this is his parents, can not help but care more, and at this moment to read, there is a bad feeling!

His own “yin and yang wave if true” cultivation to the back, there is a certain foreboding ability. It’s just not specific. It’s just a push for him to make some whim and push things that matter.

And the bigger the thing, the more premonition.

But the last time at the Yaochi event, the effect and the effect were different. Like danger, it can be accurately sensed in advance.

I just noticed that there was a bad feeling. Shen Lang immediately got serious and calmed down the wheel of the gods to see what the situation was.

He has just come out to be informed of his parents, instead of continuing to guard them in the space of Tianshu. Although it is reasonable, but knowing that it is not pre-existing and promoting in advance?

The hunch of the wheel of the celestial plane is much more detailed, and immediately points to his parents, and has a specific direction!

Shen Lang couldn't sit still, and immediately went out from the balcony and went straight to the other side.

At the time of rushing, the knowledge of Shen Lang was also spread out first, and instantly locked his parents.

Shen Nan Han Fengying, two people, are carrying a lot of shopping bags, just out of a vegetable market, because they are not far away, they are walking back and forth.

Perceive that everything is normal, they do not have any danger, Shen Lang is a secret breath, but also immediately stopped at the top of a building.

If he falls from the sky and appears next to his parents, even if he does not scare them, he will scare the passers-by around.

He doesn't mind how passers-by sees, but parents certainly don't want to see passers-by to see the enchanting eyes of their sons.

Since there is nothing, he will wait and see.

It just had a bad feeling and it was not dangerous.

But since I feel that there is something wrong with it, there will definitely be something!

It is rare for Shen Lang to have the opportunity to stay with his parents. No matter what trivial things are, they must guard them.

His rapid decline from the sky is too great, but not far away, just walk in the past and pick them up.

So he paused for a moment at the top of the building and immediately landed on the back lane of a no man, then went out and walked forward.

In the process of landing, the knowledge of Shen Lang is also concerned about the parents, what is the situation, he is still clear.

But just as he walked out of the alley, the situation happened! A galloping sports car, ignoring the red light, stopped without slowing down, and directly collided with the past!

The problem is here!

Shen Lang immediately knew why it was bad.

Everything is normal, and there are no enemies or the like, only when his parents have a traffic light, there is a sports car with a red light rushing over!

With his current realm, the speed of thinking is extremely fast, and under the perception of God, it is also possible to determine the parents who will not hit the sports car.

After all, the owner of this sports car is just a red light, not a deliberate one.

In other words, because the talent has just stepped out of the zebra crossing, he feels that he can still rob the past. If the pedestrian has already reached the middle of the zebra crossing, he will not dare to collide directly.

This is a bad feeling, but it is not a dangerous feeling.

But it matters to parents, it feels different!

Shen Lang can't gamble that they won't be hit, what if they hit it?

Even if he has this strength to save back, he will suffer tremendous pain.

Therefore, at the moment of discovery, Shen Lang did not reveal anything, and the body swept away with the afterimage. At the same time, the field of God spread the past, immediately pulling the parents and other pedestrians and retreating to the back sidewalk.

When he arrived, sports car also rushed to the zebra crossing, in the field of God, Shen Lang did not slam the sports car.

It's not impossible, this impact is nothing at all.

I am not afraid that it will be shocking to do so, but it is too cheap for him!

His approach is to directly give the front strong resistance, the front of the car is forced to withstand, the strong inertia, coupled with the manipulation of the Shenlang, directly let the sports car turned over, and then went out to the front!

Shen Lang can hold it in, can set him in the middle of the road, let the vehicles with green lights on the side hit, but in that case, it will hurt other innocent drivers.

Therefore, let it directly roll over the car, and then quickly fall to the green belt next to the corner, not to hurt other vehicles, not to hurt the passers-by.

At the same time, he had already reached the roadside and supported the parents who had pulled back.

All happened in an instant, then a scream.

Chapter 2112 - Can't cheap him

The screams are sent by passers-by, and there are also a few passers-by next to the Shennan couple.

Although the Shennan couple was also shocked, but the Shenlang was in the field, it was to let them naturally retreat, just like sliding backwards. Even if they had come over and helped, they did not fall.

The two of them are also stronger than ordinary people, even if they are scared, they are not intimidated.

A few passers-by next to him was a big jump. It felt like someone had pulled it, or else the sports car rushed over and unconsciously retreated, or else...

The exclamation of the nearby passers-by was mainly directed at the scene of the crash of the sports car.

Shen Lang comforted his parents and then helped them cross the road.

The Shennan couple saw that Shen Lang suddenly appeared here, and he was a little embarrassed.

But they all understand that the son’s ability is far more than their imagination!

Maybe just the son saved their lives, or they might have been hit!

They know that they want to be low-key, naturally have no control over the situation of the sports car, and they have not complained about what they are complaining about.

Shen Lang just manipulated everything and directly interfered with the signals of all electronic products, so that the camera, driving recorder, etc., did not shoot anything.

As for the case of someone using a mobile phone to shoot a sports car, it doesn’t matter.

He doesn’t need to know in the past, he is not interested in scolding the driver, he has already started!

The rollover was manipulated by him. The angle and strength were all manipulated by him. Everyone saw that the sports car rushed to the red light, and then inexplicably rolled over and fell to the green belt.

The invisible car is the driver who drove the car, not only the head has stunned. When the car crashed, the windshield of the car was completely broken, and some of them had already bypassed the airbag that popped up, and tied him with a face!

This car seems to be a young man under the age of twenty, but this is not the reason why Shen Lang does not kill him.

It's not because his parents didn't get hurt and let him go. In the current status of Shen Lang, killing him is no different from pinching an ant, and it won't cause a little embarrassment.

The reason why he did not directly roll over and "crash" him is that Shen Lang feels too cheap for him!

If you are less than 20 years old, you can drive a luxury sports car. Naturally, you have money at home, and this is the enthusiasm of his dare to red light!

Because Pingxi is a small city, many cameras at the intersection may not be illegal, or may not be perfect. And even if it is photographed, as long as there is no accident at the scene, just deducting points, small places can spend money to buy points.

Problems that can be solved with money are not a problem for them.

Even if there are vehicles with normal legal driving on the side, if you see such a sports car rushing out, it is definitely a quick brake.

In this case, as long as his speed is fast enough, before the pedestrians walk to the middle of the road, there is basically nothing to do, and they are stunned by passers-by.

But for those who drive, you should enjoy the thrill of this kind of stepping on the line.

If Shen Lang kills him, everyone will say that he should live and die well. I didn't meet people, no other car touched him, and I didn't reach innocent people.

But this is too cheap for him! Too cheap for his family!

You should let him suffer in the hospital, feel a lot of glass into the body, feel the disfigured taste.

Since this is a wave of hands-on, it is not easy to treat, it will be a long-term pain!

Shen Lang does not feel that this is very cruel, because not complying with the rules of communication, the destruction is not only the individual driving the car, but also the innocent passers-by, other drivers, and even the family of others!

If it is really a situation where the vehicle is out of control, it can be understood. But in order to grab this little time, deliberately rushing past, it would be bad.

On the way back, Shen Lang injected a bit of energy and mental strength into his parents, and they were shocked.

In fact, the two of them are also considered to be self-cultivation, and all aspects must be stronger than ordinary people, and not so shocked.

They are also complaining that the current people are driving too crazy, and said that they will be more careful when crossing the road.

Because they are also very clear, this time the son is at home, but the son will not be at home every day, self-care, in order to reassure his son.

Shen Lang also said a bit, said that they pointed out a few of their cultivation aspects, are working in closed doors, may take a day or two, first make a big meal.

Shennan couples also have daily practice, knowing that this thing can not be disturbed, and that they are practicing in the opposite room, so they did not bother.

This was originally bought a whole layer, and the four sets were opened into two sets, so there are no other neighbors on this level.

After the dish was put, Shen Lang took his parents out to eat.

Although for parents, if they have a meal and their children can have a good time, they will be happy, and they will have to worry about spending money.

But for Shen Lang, he left because he had to go low early. He also needed a low-key here, but he really didn't have much chance to go out to eat with his parents.

Shen Lang is not very familiar with Pingxi. In a few years, the change is not small. Let him take the hotel and definitely don't know where it is.

His parents will certainly not go to the restaurant often, and occasionally go out to eat, it is estimated that it is a common restaurant nearby.

So when Shen Lang took a taxi, he asked the taxi driver directly. After the driver introduced the most advanced hotel, on the way to the first, I called to book a private room.

The Shennan couple didn't say anything along the way, obviously it was a bit cramped.

The son is very good, and they are very happy to take them to the best restaurant. However, there is a gap between the son and the son. Now, where is going to go, it is not an occasion that you are familiar with. Is it inevitable to be nervous?

But there are outsiders like taxi drivers, and it's hard to say no, lest the son feel that he has no face.

When I arrived at the most upscale five-star hotel in Pingxi Shen Lang took her parents to the Chinese restaurant and reported it to the private room.

Although he does not often appear on such occasions, but in his current status, the United Nations Headquarters has been in and out of the guest, and there will be a market.

But soon, Shen Lang found that he would be wrong...

Parents just didn't go out to eat with him alone. Every time they came back rarely, they were doing it at home, so they were not used to it. In fact, when there is no wind, no boat, no rain, when they have a visit, they will take them out for dinner.

Usually Zheng Yumeng will come out to eat with them.

They are not bad money, Pingxi is not high-end, so they are very familiar with this!

After discovering this, Shen Lang was a bit embarrassed and felt embarrassed. This was thanks to a few of them helping him to be filial, and he was not guilty of ill-treatment.

When I was half-eaten, I received a message, which was sent by Yuezhen Nan!

Chapter 2113 - Old friend

Yue Zhennan has not been in contact for a long time. The gap between the two has been so great. He is also not good enough to contact Shen Lang repeatedly, so as not to be suspected of having a knot.

Shen Lang didn't look for him when he came back this time. He is precious now, not so much good old.

However, I received the information of Yue Zhennan and I took a closer look.

The content is to make him a little surprised, Yue Zhennan said that he saw him come here to eat, has already helped him pay.

There is no accident in Shenlang. Here is the most upscale hotel in Pingxi. Yuezhennan's own meals and banquets may come over here, which is not a coincidence.

Now, he has no danger at all, and he has not been careful about it. If Yue Zhennan sees it far away, he does not pay attention to it.

However, after a little thought about it, Shen Lang will understand why Yue Zhennan will send a message.

The things that his parents lived were protected by Mo Qi, and then Zheng Yumeng (Desolation) protected and sent out abroad.

At that time, the enemy Chu family, who had the master of the real world Chu Mofeng, was able to send a young disciple to crush the Pingxi Yue family, and indeed had already tired the Yue family.

Therefore, Zheng Yumeng did not let the Yue family know that Shen Lang later came back and did not disclose this, including the placement of his parents back to Pingxi, which were also confidential.

Mo Qi helped him to upgrade, and then stayed in Yuejia again, and his status was different. And Shen Lang is constantly getting stronger and stronger, and should not tell this secret to Yue Jia.

That is equal to finding out the mouth! Besides, Mo Qi was later taken over by the trolls and has already refining into the original Ba Tian Tower.

However, with Yuexian South's eye-catching, I saw Shen Lang and Shen Nan Han Fengying and his wife together. Even if he was unfamiliar in the past, it has been a long time, but it is not difficult to guess the truth.

In this case, he would not be able to come forward to say hello, involving the secret that Shen Lang did not want him to know!

However, he is not good at taking the initiative to break the waves, but seeing that Shen Lang has returned to Pingxi, it is not good to say no, and the friendship of the landlord is also appropriate.

Shen Lang's strength is strong, maybe he is also found? If he pretends not to see it, does he think he deliberately?

Therefore, Yue Zhennan should be after careful consideration before letting the restaurant end up their consumption and send a message. Shen Lang is not bad for a meal, but it can be done.

Shen Lang thought about it and decided to see him once. If you come across it, it will not be too good to ignore it.

Now Yuezhen South, it is a bit like Zheng Man in the past life, got his photo, but the gap is big, and slowly broke.

In the future, if you don't take the initiative to contact the old, with Shen Lang's current level of activity, there will be almost no contact with Yue Zhennan.

There is no urgent matter for the time being, and I will give a little time to see one side, and I will not meet again in the future.

Then he searched for his mind and found the shadow of Yuezhen South in a luxury private room in the restaurant. Sure enough, he was here to entertain guests, perhaps before he went out to meet the guests.

Shen Lang didn't bother him now, just returned a message.

After the meal, let the parents go back to the taxi first. He said that he saw a friend and talked for a while and then went back.

To let Yue Zhennan arrange a car to send his parents, it is not very difficult compared to Yue Zhennan, but it is not difficult, but Shen Lang does not want him to know this layer, the meeting will also hint, let him not inquire.

Waiting for a moment in the lobby, Yue Zhennan has come in a hurry.

“Lang brother!” Yue Zhennan smiled warmly and shouted loudly.

It can be seen that in his enthusiasm, there is excitement from the heart, and there are some unconscious rashes.

“Is progress very fast?”

Shen Lang looked at it and saw that the strength of Yue Zhennan is not weak.

At first, because the flame troll entered his body, he was later expelled by Shen Lang, but his body has been affected and changed, which is a great reinforcement.

Although there is no support for the strange energy of the world, it is far better than the original state, and it is a blessing in disguise.

At that time, Shen Lang estimated that his strength had reached the realm of survival. When he stabilized, he could better manipulate his body. In addition, he should continue to cultivate and should be even higher.

Now it is verified that this speculation, Yue Zhennan has most of the resources he gave, and normal can only rely on the aura of the earth.

But now, the faintness has already approached the level of the gods!

To know the entire Pingxi area, the strongest thing has always been. The Chu family, which has a true environment, can sweep all the forces in Pingxi.

Now that Yue Zhennan can have the strength of the real world, it has been regarded as a master who has never been a Pingxi since Zheng Man.

Of course, except for the swell.

Hearing his words, Yue Zhennan was a little smirk.

“Lang brother is joking, it is far from being comparable to you. Please! We are talking here.”

Yue Zhennan is very interesting. Shen Lang asked him to see one side in the lobby. He also knew that there was not much time and he would not give him a chance to eat.

So he did not invite Shen Lang to go back to the private room, just went to the lobby and found a corner to talk.

In fact, Shen Lang does not matter. He wants to prevent others from hearing him. It is easy.

“If you have the strength of the present, I am completely relieved.”

Shen Lang is a bit embarrassed.

Because of the relationship in the past, Yue Jia was also tired, and later he was compensated again and again. However, Yue Zhennan’s personal strength, that is limited to talent, after all, is only in his twenties to let him have the opportunity to practice.

Now Yuezhen South, not to say that he is in the world, at least in the Pingxi area, is very solid. Going out is also a master class.

And looking at his current level, Shen Lang also has the heart to finally help him, let him reach the realm of the gods.

Even if it can only go to the early stage of the transformation of the gods, it will take a long time to be more advanced, but it is a great thing to have a real world.

“It’s all about the support of the wave brother!”

I want a pot of tea to send the waiter Yuezhengnan is also very embarrassing.

He remembered the way he saw Shen Lang in the past. At that time, he was the second son of Pingxi Yuejia, and Shen Lang was just a high school student.

After many years of passing, he is now the pillar of the Yue family, and is also the figure of the hegemony behind the scenes.

The high school students in the past, even the lack of medicinal materials, are now the world’s number one, and the world’s strongest!

He is also very fortunate, not too embarrassed in the past, but successfully embraced the thigh of Shen Lang.

Looking at his expression, Shen Lang also guessed what he thought and was very emotional. He has changed a lot in these years, but Yue Zhennan is not aware of how much life and death he has experienced.

It was a good old-fashioned atmosphere, but it was disturbed by a voice.

“Yue Zhennan! You still have the mood to chat here!”

Chapter 2114 - Brother problem

Listening to this voice, it was a man’s resentment, coming with him, and a woman, all of them were imposing.

Shen Langyu was a bit curious to hear this.

With the repair of Yuezhengnan now, in Yuejia, in the realm of Pingxi, it is the absolute boss. That is the official rich, because his secular identity, will not be so reprimanded.

If this is his wife Ye Yao, then it is okay, after all, Ye Yao is very strong and assertive, but also because of the chilling of Ye Jia, coupled with the high pressure of Shen Lang, plus Yue Zhennan did not give up her, Only married.

But the woman who came over is not Ye Yao, she is much older, and it seems that there are forty. The man who came over together seems to be a little younger than the woman, but it should be almost forty.

However, Shen Lang immediately woke up, because this man and Yue Zhennan, are somewhat similar, and also similar to Yue Gang.

Just reminiscent of the old, but also think of the same year, Shen Lang also remembered that Yuezheng South is the second son of Yuejia, is another big brother Yue Zhendong, studying abroad, and later stayed overseas to cooperate with the development of Yuejia's business.

This is also true, even if Yue Zhennan is in a good position, the Yue family already has the status of a homeowner, but in their own small family, Yue Gang is always his father, Yue Zhendong is always his big brother, calling him The name is also normal.

“Big brother, big brother.”

Yue Zhennan stood up a little bit.

“Do you come over? I have said it and see a very important friend.”

Before the Shenlang, God swept it. In the luxurious box, it seems that there are two of them.

It should be that Yue Zhendong and his wife came back from abroad. Yue Zhennan is doing a banquet here. He just came out from the private room to see him, so that his brother felt that he would not give face!

“A re-important friend, is there a family important?” Yue Zhendong's wife could not help but interrupt his words.

“Da, you guys”

Yue Zhennan slightly frowned, and he knew that Shen Lang would not mind and would not feel offended. Because of the current Shen Lang, they are completely looking at the ants.

However, it is rare for him to have the opportunity to see Shen Lang once, but he does not want to miss this precious opportunity to maintain his friendship.

As for accompanying them to eat, you can always have two times, one hundred times.

But he is not good at how to directly swear.

At this time, Yue Zhendong's wife interrupted him again.

“Benjamin was hit, very serious! Now in the hospital!”

When Yue Zhennan heard this, his brow jumped.

“Which hospital? You go first, I will arrive later.”

Benjamin is the son of his eldest brother. If you want to say your feelings, you don't get along much, and you won't be much deep.

However, because he was the son of Yue Zhendong, he was only a teenager when he was born. Therefore, this nephew is watching and growing up, and he grows up with him. There is another kind of profoundness.

Especially now in Pingxi, he has developed all aspects of the family very well, and the big brother came back, just like the guests, to entertain.

Now the relatives, on their own site, have been hit, very serious, of course he can not care!

However, Shen Lang is still here, still important!

Hearing this, Yue Zhendong could not help but be angry.

“What did your kid say! Your nephew was badly injured and entered the hospital! He was only sixteen years old! His face was full of glass, and he couldn’t unlock the phone! You didn’t care about it, don’t shave the person who hit him. Still chatting here?”

“I counted it! Yue Zhendong, this Yue family is someone else, there is nothing for you! We should go when we come back to be a guest!”

Shen Lang is next to him, it doesn’t matter.

Originally, I also had a few old sentences with Yue Zhennan, and then gave him some resources so that he could cultivate higher in the future. I really want to continue to talk more, and everyone will have no topic and it will be cold.

So Yue Jia really has something, he is also ready to leave.

But now that these words have been heard, I have already let him know about it.

The driver of the sports car before the daring, is the son of Yue Zhendong?

I don’t know if there is a passerby on the scene to help save the kid named Benjamin, or else I have to wait for the traffic police.

If it is the son of Yue Zhendong, and only 16 years old, then it will certainly not have a domestic driver’s license, the car should be opened in Yuezheng South.

Then there is no identity information for him. No matter whether it is an ID card or a passport, there should be no domestic information. The rest depends on the mobile phone.

If his mobile phone is a fingerprint lock, he can still unlock it. If it is a password, he can only wake up. Listening to this meaning is that face recognition is unlocked. When the face is filled with glass and blood, it is naturally unrecognizable.

It is estimated that the phone will hit Yuezhendong here, or check the Yuejia from the driving license on the car, notify the Yue family, and then tell the Yuezheng East here.

This should be the first to save people, sent to the hospital, and then find ways to contact the family. Plus the twists and turns, so until just arrived, I was informed of Yue Zhendong here.

And Yue Zhendong couple, this is still not clear about the specific situation, or else it will be even more crazy.

The Chinese have encountered something. The first one is to call for help, usually to find the most capable relatives and friends. Yue Zhendong, they are the same, this is an accident in Pingxi, Yuezhennan is here again, of course, he came directly to him.

In addition, they just came out of the private room, it took time to arrange the car, so there was no first time to run the hospital.

However, the attitude of Yue Zhennan at this time has already made them very disappointed, and this is about to leave.

“Big brothers don’t worry! Let’s go to the situation and treat Benjamin. In other cases, I will check it out!”

Yue Zhennan immediately stated his position.

Yue Zhendong studied abroad, and then stayed back, although it is a personal habit, but it is also the intention of Yue Gang.

The purpose is obvious. When the Chu family wants to destroy them, there is another one that can open branches and leaves overseas.

Yue Zhendong is abroad, even if he can’t make the Yuejia business to a great extent, at least it is much stronger than the average person.

Originally in accordance with normal development, he is very important for the family, for the entire family, come back is also superior.

But now the situation is different. The strength of Yue Zhennan has made him a new leader without any dispute. Even if the owner is Yue Gang, it is only for respect, and the real power is still here.

Only he can survive the power of other parties, and Ye Yao is not easy. When Yue Zhendong returns, there will be a huge gap.

This is a gap that was not as good as that of his younger brother. It is also a kind of disappointment that his father was taken over by his brother in advance or even seized power.

Just now, it is an opportunity for an outbreak.

It is impossible to see this point when Yuezhen's southern calendar has been practiced, so he immediately stated his position.

He also figured it out. Now that the atmosphere is not friendly enough to chat with Shen Lang, then it is still to comfort the brothers and sisters.

"Wait a minute." Shen Lang spoke up.

Chapter 2115 - He is Shen Lang

Yuezhen Nanguanguang immediately looked over.

Originally, Yuezhendong couple, Lianyue Town South must tear face, where will he care about his friends?

But seeing Yue Zhennan's first look at the past, I could not help but feel more unhappy.

I haven't seen such a thing about their son!

"Have your son been hit by a man, or did you have a car accident?" Shen Lang said this question to Yue Zhendong.

When Yue Zhendong's wife heard this, the gas of the stomach was directly directed at him.

"What are you counting? Are you asking for it?"

“Dayu!” Yue Zhennan was busy screaming.

He believes that Shen Lang looks at his face and should not care about them, but it is really an ant for them. Once his face is not enough, Shen Lang may destroy them at any time!

Yue Zhendong sees that he still swears at his wife, and is even more unhappy.

“Yue Zhennan, you are your important friend! Benjamin is alive and dead, it is our business, I will not ask you to do anything!”

“Look!”

Shen Lang waved his hand and immediately appeared in front of them, showing the picture of the sports car smashing red light.

This is the trace of the record of the holy armor. Shen Lang is free to adjust and will not present himself in the inside. No other equipment on the scene has been photographed. This is only him.

The hologram was presented in front of them, as if they had seen it with their own eyes.

How did this person...do it?

“Your son is sixteen years old. It should be foreign nationals. How can you drive in China?”

“Zhennan brother, this car is what you gave him? You are also. I care about the laws and regulations! And there is no education for this little beast, and there is no red light for driving without a license. If you hit a passerby... how can you help? he?”

Yuezhen South is cold and sweaty.

He didn't think that this was done by Shen Lang. He just thought that in the time he just spoke, Shen Lang had been able to perceive everything and was able to present what happened in the perspective of God.

What kind of ability is this!

And Shen Lang's sentence is obviously criticizing him. Neither should the car be opened to a minor without a driver's license, nor should it play an educational role.

"Pretend to be a ghost..."

Yue Zhendong does not believe that someone can reproduce what has happened in the distance.

But when I just said it, I heard Yue Zhennan whispering.

"Shut up! Master Shen is a god-like character, not something you can evaluate!"

Yue Zhendong had a resentment against his younger brother, and with the anger of his son's accident, he heard it again and it would soon erupt.

But suddenly thought of a little, Master Shen?

This character, he had heard before, had a few hardships before, and he heard that his father had said that he had a relationship with a Shenlang person, and later he also benefited from the family.

This time I came back and heard it, but he is not a self-cultivator, or a lack of awe.

"Is it a fairy? I think it is a * stick!"

Yue Zhendong couldn't help but sarcastically said, "He wants to be so god, then let Benjamin recover immediately, I will serve him!"

Yue Town South Brow is big.

He is convinced of the ability of Shen Lang, his relatives are injured, he is treated and treated with hospital treatment, the effect will be more obvious. If you let Shen Lang come, maybe you can really recover quickly.

But just accusing him of slamming the waves has already indicated his attitude. It is impossible to help Benjamin.

Besides, even if he puts his face down to ask for the waves, there is still hope. But the big brother is now this attitude, who is willing to help?

“God stick? Then I will predict it once, the hospital can save his life, can’t save his injury, he needs to bear the price of pain.”

Shen Lang said faintly.

This is what he did. It is a trivial matter to let Benjamin die on the spot and let the car burn and explode. But in the end, it is necessary to let the driver who drives this suffer.

Being able to drive a super run is naturally not the second generation of the rich, and there will inevitably be the best medical resources, so when you are manipulating, always let all the glass contain a vitality.

In short, his strength is to take a long time to dissipate. Normal treatment, can not resolve the vitality, the wound is not good.

This is his shot, not to mention that he must be comparable to his strength, because this is just a hand, but at least it can be lifted.

Now I know that this is the son of Yue Zhendong, and the other party is such an attitude. Shen Lang will not look at the face of Yue Zhennan and tell them directly – your son will suffer enough!

I can’t stand it when I hear the ears of parents.

“How is this person so vicious? Do you dare to curse my son? I curse you...”

Yue Zhendong’s wife immediately pointed to the swell of the waves.

Yue Zhennan was shocked. She had to curse the Shen Lang. If it involves parents and children, then there is really no room for manoeuvre!

So he immediately waved his hand and sealed the mouth of Yue Zhendong's wife in the air. He directly forced her mouth to say nothing.

With the strength of Yuezheng South, of course, it can be done easily.

However, the incident suddenly occurred, and the control of his shots was still not well done. He directly let Yue Zhendong's wife suffocate and then stunned.

Yue Zhendong was next to him and quickly helped the wife who was going to fall.

He was so angry that he shivered!

"Well, you are a town of Yuezheng! You are here for the outsiders to fight you! You are amazing! Great!"

"I am sorry for Lange!"

Yue Zhennan realized that letting them be here, saying that there are more mistakes, will only sin more.

There is no atmosphere of contact and friendship, so I quickly apologize and then pass.

"Big brother! Let's go to the hospital first!"

He could not help him to support Yue Zhendong's wife, but he could only wake her up.

Although Yue Zhendong was nervous and attentive, but still had a brain, he also saw the apology of Yuecheng South to Shenlang.

Think about the status of Yue Zhennan now, everyone said that his strength is unfathomable, still still want this attitude, can only show that this man is more powerful!

The hero does not eat before the loss.

Both of them are ordinary people. Now the son's situation is still unknown. It's meaningless to entangle here, or leave and say.

But even if he left, he didn't have the courage to let go, he couldn't help but look back.

This is to express dissatisfaction with Shen Lang in a blink of an eye, but also to recognize this person clearly.

But looking back, he found that the Shen Lang sitting there, has disappeared!

He helped his wife turn around and walked also turned back in a blink of an eye, but people disappeared!

If I saw that Shen Lang had shown the scene of his son's rollover, he still felt that the other party was pretending to be a ghost, and now he feels a bit horrible.

"No, people are gone..." He muttered softly, saying that he said to Yue Zhennan.

The realm of Yuezhennan has no need to look back.

"he's gone."

After a moment of silence, he sighed: "Big brother, he is Shen Lang, the strongest person in the world, don't provoke people who can't be provoked."

Shen Lang?

Yue Zhen is awkward, and Master Shen has heard many times from his father, but how is Shen Lang so familiar?

The strongest in the world...

He immediately thought of it, the man who directly overturned the presidential palace of the superpower, the Capitol, and broadcasted superpowers to the world at the UN headquarters!

Chapter 2116 - Fight for 100 hours

Shen Lang left the hotel. Before leaving, there was a piece of Yuanling Stone in the pocket of Yuezhen South.

At the level of Pingxi, it is very good to have the elementary stone. The medium stone is more precious, and the fine stone is precious to the whole earth.

Yuezhen South is also relying on the gift of Shenlang, or else it is unified in Pingxi, and there is no possibility of a fine stone.

This time, Shen Lang gave him a Yuan Lingshi.

This is even rarer on earth, and it is impossible to come out and circulate.

In fact, what Shen Lang now has is to give him a thread and he will not be reluctant.

But still have to consider the actual situation.

Yuan Lingshi is already precious enough, like the Imperial Immortal Castle Qingcheng can not get much, the comprehension forces on the earth, this can be passed down from generation to generation as the treasure of Zhenshan.

Shen Lang gave this to Yue Zhennan, letting him cultivate himself to achieve the realm of the gods, instead of directly helping him to ascend.

But if you give the spirit, the effect will be too great, and you will be guilty of sin, and you will not be able to provoke a big rush.

Yue Zhennan knew that Shen Lang had disappeared directly, but after accompanying his brother, he found that there was more in his pocket.

When did this come, what was it, he didn't know.

But with this hand in hand, you can feel the boundless aura, and immediately know that this should be a kind of Lingshi, but it is definitely a very rare high-level Lingshi.

Shen Lang didn't give him directly, just didn't want to have his gratitude, and this gift was Shen Lang's help to him, and that's it.

The difference in strength between everyone is so great that even others can take care of you, but also need to consider your self-respect, such a serious unequal, naturally no longer equal friends.

Their friendship has also stagnated in the same year.

Every time I help, every gift is a kind of care for my friendship.

Conversely, the relationship will be lightened again and again.

However, he has no initiative.

Even if he has the heart to choose friendship, not the interests, but the distance has been opened, and more and more, even if you do not benefit, the friendship will be far and weak.

Shen Lang will not take the initiative to contact him more, and he will not take the initiative to contact, so as not to have the intention to ask for gifts.

What he can do now is to cherish the gift of Shen Lang, use it well, and raise his own strength higher.

If you can get closer to the distance between the waves and the waves, it will be more valuable. Maybe one day, you can stand by the side of the waves, even if it is farther...

As for Benjamin's business, Yue Zhennan has already decided that he will not mix more. If the treatment is not good, the treatment is not good, and punishment is imposed.

Shen Lang is a "prophecy" in the tone of the jokes. It is not necessary to have this leisure time to verify, but he can't ignore it, that is the will of Shen Lang!

Shen Lang returned home, accompanied his parents to watch TV and talk about home.

I also asked if I would like to accompany them to a meeting in Cao County, including what my former relatives and neighbors had. He now has the ability to protect his family, and it is not impossible for them to be open.

However, Shen Nan Han Fengying and the two have already communicated.

They can't go back!

The gap between the son and them is getting farther and farther. What is the gap between them and their hometown?

As soon as the fire broke down, they were separated from their hometown, and everyone was dead. Go back and explain, not when they are ghosts, but there is no possibility of getting close.

According to normal habits, I know that his son is prosperous. There will be many people who are close relatives to the door, borrow money, carry and ask for help.

Then I will not bother with it, and I will not be able to understand it. It will only add a lot of trouble to my son and daughter-in-law. To let them handle it themselves, they also have self-knowledge.

If you ignore it, you will get an nickname, and there will be all kinds of smashing them behind.

Instead of it, it is better to forget about the rivers and lakes now.

In this way, Shen Lang spent two days of leisure time, in addition to entering the space of the heavenly book from time to time to check the situation of several of their retreats, is to accompany their parents.

Just like ordinary people, I took my parents to some attractions near Pingxi City to have a look.

There is not much demand for parents, and the son can be satisfied with it. They used to live in Ricao County, and they have never been to local attractions in Pingxi.

Now I can have a son to accompany them, and look at these familiar but unseen, even more satisfied with taking them to the famous mountains and rivers.

And a few of them, a few days of retreat in the Tianshu space, is equivalent to a retreat throughout the year.

He has completed the semi-Xianfeng peak and finally made a breakthrough in the realm of Daxian.

Re-export, the strength of the five people is far better than before, this time is the strongest of the earth.

And they have five people, so it is a very strong team.

Shenlang's parents don't know how much, they just see a few daughter-in-laws, they are getting better and better, and the skin is better and better.

They are also sensible. The son is now a big man in the world. Even if he doesn't take care of everything, he has to do big things. He can't let him accompany them all the time in Pingxi.

Besides, there are so many beautiful daughter-in-laws, and it takes time to accompany one day.

Therefore, after eating a reunion dinner, the old couple excused themselves for a few days of ruin and cultivation. They are also used to cultivation, so that Shen Lang should not bother, and accompany them to have fun.

I understand everyone.

When Shen Lang came back for a long time, the first time was to help them improve their strength, although it was excellent and extremely important. But after all, it is too sensible and there is no emotional comfort.

Therefore, he also deliberately spent an hour, together with the five of them, the turn of the bumps and phoenixes, completely thoroughly moisturized each one.

This hour was spent in the space of Tianshu, which is one hundred hours!

I realized that the status quo of gathering and getting away is the highest cold rain, and there is no shame. And in the space of heaven, this is an independent world, the whole world is just a few of them, and there is no need to pay attention to the concept of secular.

Of course, not only five, Zheng Yumeng also switched to bleak from time to time, which is equal to six...

Seven P fight for one hundred hours!

In terms of quantity, Shen Lang may not be anything, but in terms of time, it should be the world's number one  powerhouse.

He first upgraded their strengths to two levels, and the tolerance is naturally increased. Together with the many-to-one, they still have time to rest, and only Shen Lang has been working hard.

Of course, Shen Lang is not purely for the pleasure of the body, including the comfort of the emotions, but also the cultivation of yin and yang.

In other words, this process is of great benefit to his own cultivation. For them, it is even more rewarding.

Chapter 2117 - War book

Shen Lang chose to work in the space of Tianshu, on the one hand, in order not to be disturbed, and on the other hand, because of more time.

If it is a hundred hours in the room, it will be a few days, more or less there will be all kinds of interruptions, it will not be fun.

But just taking away for an hour, there will be no impact.

After a hundred hours of "competition and cultivation", they are all beautifully irrigated like flowers.

Then, you have to do business!

Feng Wuji received a message, a message that everyone has been worried about, and finally came.

When Shen Lang came back for a few days, the news did not spread out. Otherwise, the people in the two camps naturally need to measure it and dare not act rashly.

It is because he has not appeared for a long time, and the rumor is that he has entered the non-returned sea prison. When he comes back, he has no way of knowing it.

Everyone has been waiting for a long time. The competition between the two camps of Guangming and Zhenzhen has recently become hot, and there is an urgent need for a breakthrough. Otherwise, it really needs to be fired.

All the way to the present, both sides are trying to expand the site as much as possible and stabilize their own believers. This goal has also been achieved.

But both of them have reached the point where they are short-handed. If there is nothing to transfer, then it will not only be a huge force, but also very likely to lose both!

Winning is the highest goal.

If you can't win again, that win-win is acceptable.

A win-win situation can't be achieved, and then it is necessary to keep going and not lose.

Only when one of them feels the pressure of a crisis of life and death can it be desperate to fight.

Naturally, there is no such thing as this.

Therefore, both sides have naturally looked at the East and looked at the land of China!

Although this section also has a lot of their believers, but because the management is controlled by the country, their benefits are limited.

Looking at a huge and sweet cake, but can not cut it, it is inevitable to covet.

The quest for the two non-returns to the sea, for the big men on the earth, is for the sake of their own interests, but also to observe other parties.

When the second time passed, at the time of the Yuxianmen War, everyone made it very clear.

They can fight with Yuxianmen Weiqingcheng and Huoshan. There are only two males in the earth, one is Shenlang and the other is Pope!

At that time, it was unanimous, and in other people's territory, others had better time and place, and if they did not go all out, they might be wiped out.

And many of them know the roots, there is no hidden strength.

That is to say that the Pope is the first person in the West, and Shen Lang has grown to be the first person in the East!

After that, Shen Lang annihilated the behemoth, publicly appeared, no two in the limelight, and it is the world's strongest.

However, Shen Lang and the Pope and God made their battles. They did not broadcast live on the comprehension, and the Pope succumbed to the sedan. Shen Lang did not light their fig leaf.

Therefore, in the eyes of many comprehensions and superpowers in the West, the Pope can still be juxtaposed with Shen Lang.

In other words, as long as the Shen Lang is absent, the Pope can lead everyone to the East!

The camp of the Light Gods has been eager to move, just because the Pope himself knows how powerful Shen Lang is, and there are many scruples that have been pressing.

In the true religion, the oldest man has always been the best in the world. They will not recognize the Pope's strongest. They also assigned themselves to each other and did not accept each other.

This time, the gods of the gods were greatly benefited, and the true gods could not stand any more, so they stood up, united internally, unified the outside world, and quickly united various teammates in a camp.

Some of these join the camp, some are geographical relations, and some are traditional friendships.

But in the end, if you dare to stand up for them, it is undoubtedly a recognition of their strength.

In other words, not only does the true  teach itself to disobey others, but many people also believe in their power.

It is said that the first two explorations have no return to the sea, they are more conservative, and there is no strongest. Therefore, their strength, not exposed in Yuxianmen, is still hidden.

There are many sects in the true religion, the largest of which is the true faction and the god.

The strongest of the two factions are the true teacher and the god.

The Pope who is willing to teach with the gods of light is not the same as the influence of the expansion of the secular. The true  teaches the sect of each sect, and it remains mysterious. The outside world often knows a name and has very limited understanding.

This time they can compete with the Guangshen gods, except that there are still many forces that do not want to participate, that is, because the two most powerful teachers of the true faction and the gods join hands.

Domestically, in fact, they can't wait for their dog to bite the dog!

Although they have lost both sides, it does not mean that all foreign forces are finished, but it is undoubtedly excellent.

The most worrying thing is that they joined forces to invade China!

Like Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan and so on, they have all witnessed it. The strength of the Pope can only be matched by Shen Lang.

If the two gods of true religion also have the same strength, China is in danger!

Of course, some of the ancient sects of China's profound heritage, as well as the ancestors of the ancestors, can not be seen, we do not know, this is also a hope outside the Shen Lang.

However, that is only a possibility, and Shen Lang is a real existence, and has the strength to hold on to each other.

So the biggest hope is still on Shen Lang.

The latest news from Feng Youji is the one that everyone is most worried about. The true gods and the light gods have joined forces and sent a gauntlet to China!

Of course, it is not directly said that I want to come to the Huaxia Qunxiong, but I have issued an invitation to talk about it.

The leader of the Guangming and the true gods is willing to come to China for a trip, and the wise men of Huaxia, who talk about religion and talk about the world.

The place where I met was Gang Rinpoche.

Gang Rinpoche is not the highest mountain, only 6,000 meters above sea level can not match the peak of many more than 8,000 meters. But it is regarded as the "king of the mountain", and multiple religions are regarded as the center of the world.

Not only in the East, but also in the world is a mythical popularity.

The main peak of Gang Rinpoche is covered with snow and ice, resembling a round crown pyramid. The walls are very symmetrical, like the eight-petal lotus, and the mountain is like a crystal.

They chose this place, they were carefully selected and had multiple considerations.

First of all, this is a screening, the world's first Everest, there are many climbs, and even commercial climbs. But here is no one to climb to the top, except for the prohibition of climbing, but also because the cliff is extremely dangerous and extremely difficult.

They are coming, naturally, they have to climb to the top. It is possible to screen the comprehensions who are not strong enough, and they will not come to watch.

Secondly, the king of the mountain, although it is a few religious views, they do not necessarily recognize, the Chinese factions do not necessarily recognize, but there is indeed such a name.

They set foot on the eastern mountain, defeating the Chinese powerhouse on the top, that is a great propaganda gimmick.

Chapter 2118 - Tell them, I am back.

Besides, Gang Rinpoche, as a few religions – mainly the pilgrimage of the Z people, is prohibited by the relevant departments from getting involved in climbing. It is not a problem for masters of cultivation.

Going directly up is a paradox for local people and culture. If you fight on the top and destroy and destroy the mountain, it will be a major impact.

The main peak of Gang Rinpoche can be chased as the original shape of many mountains. Except for the special nature of the outside, will it contain any extraordinary resources?

Before Shen Lang, there was no special attention and no experience. But before the creation of the “Yin and Yang Bo Ruozhen”, it was the practice of many factions, including Buddhism, including Z-Buddhism.

“They are deliberate and intend to do things! This is a representative, landmark environment.”

There is no wind in the wind.

If it is a representative landmark of China, the most common and most easily used representative is often the Great Wall.

But in fact, the Great Wall is not tall and not dangerous. As far as the open section is concerned, walking up will be an hour or so of exercise. (Verified Juyongguan, Badaling)

In the early years, there was a package propaganda such as “the only building visible in the outer space that can be seen by the naked eye”, but in fact it is impossible.

In short, the Great Wall is more representative of cultural architecture. For the self-cultivator, it is really necessary to fight on that, whether it is the height of a little bit or the endurance, it is vulnerable.

Of course, this is also the facade of the country. If you really want to go up, it will inevitably lead to anger at the national level.

They want resources such as the population of the East, not to directly invade the country, and not to cause a big melee.

Therefore, for the self-cultivator, it is either directly to a certain martial art challenge, but there are many domestic martial arts, many of them are powerful, and they belong to the group, and there is no single leader.

The landmark is the name of the mountains and rivers, Kunlun, Tianshan, Himalayas, etc. are famous.

The Gangdese Mountains are between Kunlun and the Himalayas, far from the Central Plains, and in the vast and sparse plateaus. It is difficult for the country to send a military blockade.

The main peak of the Gangdese Mountains, Gang Rinpoche, has the name of the king of the mountain, and it is not surprising that they have become their choice.

“Nothing, we can let them not reach the top.” Shen Lang smiled lightly.

To say the mountain, he is on the mainland of Nakajima and climbs the highest mountain in the other side. It is not only the legendary mountain of God, but even the huge world, can be intercepted as two, can not be crossed!

When you are not ruined, you have gone so far, and you have climbed tens of thousands of meters in height, or you may just be in the middle of the mountain.

In comparison, whether it is to keep Gang Rinpoche or Everest, it is not difficult for Shen Lang.

The news that Feng Youji received, is already an expedited notice.

Because she is the representative of Shen Lang, she is a special existence in the league, so she is also nervous and serious.

But after listening to the words of Shen Lang, I immediately relaxed.

This time, several of them have actual “long-year” retreats, which have raised two big realms and reached the level of half a cent.

According to her understanding, no one on the planet should be their opponent.

Shen Lang can easily get them early, he will only be more unfathomable?

What are their hidden strengths? What about their joint operations?

In front of Shen Lang, they are all chickens and dogs!

“Tell them, I am coming back. I will appear tomorrow!”

Shen Lang told the wind that there was no such thing as a wind, and the wind did not understand how to do it.

She brought the information to the Alliance and the Alliance spread. But it will not give any clues and evidence, that is, to create a situation that seems to be true and false.

Or else... those leaders are scared to come?

The Huaxia Comprehension Alliance, although only a temporary organization, was formed in response to this incident and does not have strict regulations.

Whatever is in its own right is only for this matter, and nothing else will be discussed.

This is also the official lead, but most of the more responsible big names are arranged to participate in the core figures.

Regardless of whether there is a portal or not, who will not accept anyone, this time it is a war outside.

How to compete in peacetime is also the competition of our own compatriots. It is principled. If you want to be occupied by the field, then everyone should not play, and the millennium may be hollowed out.

Although everyone is not convenient to say it, whether it is a meeting with the official, or to give everyone the atmosphere, all the way to say is full of confidence.

Friends come to have a good wine, wolf tiger and leopard have a shotgun!

So many thousands of years of famous masters, they are all small!

But to say that, in essence, it is still guilty, because no one has the power to suppress.

If it is really the day, it will only be the joint efforts of all parties.

At the same time, many big brothers are asking each other in private: Are there any elders in your family who are hidden? Old ancestors should go out!

Today, the enemy's gauntlet came over. Sure enough, as everyone guessed, it was the two camps.

And the time is very urgent, today's next battle, tomorrow's decisive battle!

This is clearly to be a surprise to everyone!

If there are really hidden old predecessors, usually not retreat, it is to travel the world, this needs to be notified in advance, not on call.

Generally speaking, ten days and a half months in advance, that is the minimum, just like the previous selection to go to the uninhibited.

It is three or five days in advance, and it can be said.

It's just a day's time, it's really ulterior motives, and it's an explanation of the urgency of the other side.

At that time, no one can play, or the people who go there are not strong enough, or if they don't have time to arrive, then they will lose first, even if they are debating, the public opinion is weak.

Of course, since the alliance is formed in advance, and the official intelligence channel is also operating in this respect, it is naturally against this day.

So even if there is only one day, it will not be unprepared.

Even if there is no, or can not contact the ancestors who have been hidden for a long time now the big brothers of the road, but also stand up without hesitation.

Everyone has not been in contact with the two gods of the true gods, but the pope of the gods of light, everyone has seen it.

Like Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan, Zhang Zhulang, and Liu Yuchang, they are considered to be the first-class and strongest in the contemporary era. They are the old predecessors who rarely appear in the past. However, their strength is basically in the middle of the transformation of the realm of the gods.

It is precisely because of this that in the pastoral garden of Yuxianmen, the Paul the Great Church became the leader of everyone.

In addition to the influence in the hearts of Western superpowers, Archbishop Paul has the power to transform the peaks of the gods!

Archbishop Paul has been able to suppress everyone, let alone the Pope who has at least half the strength.

When you can't find a stronger old predecessor, everyone's plan can only be countered by quantity!

It is said that it involves all the sects of the alliance, but the real decision-making and output is still dependent on the strong people of the famous school. They also have a plan to deploy troops.

Chapter 2119 - King's return

Feng Wuji also had a meeting with everyone many times, and also repeatedly expressed that he could not contact Shen Lang and did not know when he would return.

Everyone knows that Shen Lang is chasing the behemoths. Although they don't understand the specific situation, they have all gone to the sea of innocence, and they all know that it must be another world.

There is really no way to get in touch with this, and I really don't know when I can come back, or even come back!

Of course, for Shen Lang, they are very admired, and they used to rely on Shen Lang twice. They were trapped in Yuxianmen. It was Shenlang who saved everyone. In the underwater world, they were still looking for the past to save them.

If it is someone else, you may not be able to guarantee it, but Shen Lang, the chance to come back is still great.

But this time, it may be a few months, or maybe a few years.

Now time is waiting for people!

The other party is also considering this point, so it will be urgent after the wait and see for a long time to make sure that the Shen Lang is not there.

At this time, the wind did not leave again.

This naturally makes everyone very anxious.

Because the invasion of the giant beasts has already proved the strength of the people such as the canoe, the women of the Shenlang are completely above these amnesties!

In the case that Shen Lang can't come back, in the array of soldiers who have won the number, they are still the core combat power.

Whether it is the canoe of the Tianshan Ice Palace and the falling rain that represents the family, or the more mysterious Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy, it is necessary to rely on the wind to contact, and others cannot be contacted.

Therefore, the latest meeting, can not find the wind no Ji, the phone can not be contacted, so that the entire temporary alliance is nervous.

Qiao Yuxian and others have still lived together. For the women of Shen Lang and Shen Lang, they are all trusting and trusting their character.

However, the leadership of the relevant departments is different, that is, it is simply a matter of contact with the wind, and even if the big brothers testify, they do not believe that she is the top strength of today.

Now that they can't communicate, their first reaction is that they feel that the wind is running!

This is not to contribute to the country for the people!

For such behavior, it is directly criticism and condemnation!

Qiao Yuxian and others are a bit embarrassed, although they have repeatedly promised, but also completely believe. But after all, I am not familiar with that level. Wherever people go, they will not be detailed with them, and they will not be able to answer where the wind has gone.

An hour of the wind "no retreat", of course, will not come to the gauntlet just right, actually more than half an hour.

But the league is like an ant on a hot pot, it feels like it won't be able to contact her for a long time.

As a result, Feng Ji did not say where she went and when she came back. Will she be notified of the people who were in the canoe, and was blasted, and she returned a simple sentence in the group.

“Shen Lang is back, he will appear on time tomorrow.”

This message came out when it was even sensational!

The big guys jumped out one by one and asked if it was true.

Because the last meeting, Feng Wuji also said that the contact could not reach Shen Lang. Today, when the gauntlet comes, it will be able to contact, is it too clever?

But in everyone’s heart, of course, I still want to believe that this is true.

And has quickly made several rationalizations in the brain.

For example, Feng Wuji actually has a way to contact Shen Lang, but Shen Lang is not willing to be disturbed by small things, so he is pushing.

For example, Shen Lang has already returned, but in order not to scream the snake, let them show the true face of the wolf ambition, deliberately not come out.

If this is the case, it is no coincidence that it is only necessary to show up.

Feng Wuji also gave a positive confirmation. As for the details of where Shen Lang is now, he will not disclose it. He just said that Shen Lang will never let everyone down.

They said this in the core group of the alliance.

Because of the short time, the information in the essays has not spread, so as not to cause a wide range of tensions.

Now I have been confirmed, there are Shenlang back, plus a few of them, that is, the two camps together, are not afraid.

Everyone is a big fan, and they are full of confidence. They all want to do a good job with Shen Lang!

Therefore, after a simple negotiation, the information spread to a large group of alliances.

The information of the core small group will also spread to the main major names. And in a large group of open, it is to face the entire realm of cultivation.

For the entire comprehension community, this is undoubtedly two heavy news.

The day that everyone worried about finally appeared, and the two camps were really ready to invade. Although it does not necessarily lose, it does not necessarily directly affect individuals, but it is always a major threat.

Now, the return of the King of the Swan Lang is a more glorious news!

The core tycoons are not reserved, and the other comprehensions are even more needless to say. Many admirers who are self-proclaimed and fascinated by the fans are beginning to blow the rhythm.

Since this is the official public release of the news, it is also allowed to spread out.

Ever since, in less than a few minutes, the news has spread rapidly and geometrically, and the sects and families that have spread throughout the country have spread to the world of comprehension.

In fact, the two camps were also waiting to see when they issued a joint war.

They are waiting for the reply here to judge whether there is any preparation or the like.

After waiting for a while, and did not respond immediately, let them understand, even if there is preparation, there is no certainty, it is an urgent discussion!

So they also confidently spread the news out.

There is a time lag, and when they just spread the news, they immediately heard the news from the east – Shen Lang is back, and will appear in person tomorrow!

So these two messages, all over the world, are complementary to each other.

However, the scope of communication is still in the realm of comprehension and has not spread to the secular public media.

But this is also the case, it also caused a sensation. Shen Lang directly felt the power of a group of beliefs!

Originally he has been weakened. Now this new emergence of is the power of the self-cultivator's faith, some of which are from domestic and foreign supporters, and some are foreign supporters.

Foreign countries are because they sent Lingshi before, at the bottom of the comprehension world, they have accumulated a good image and reputation.

Besides, they have formed a big camp, but they are not really unified in the world. Not to mention that some have not joined, they have joined, and they may not be convinced, and some are unable to stand.

If you really want to invade the East China, the biggest benefit is definitely that they have divided up the two religions. Others who follow the team, can get a little soup to drink is not bad.

Once the opposition between the East and West monks is stimulated, they will not be arranged to be the former cannon fodder, but will also be affected.

Therefore, others are more likely to want peace.

Shen Lang, the man who shocked the world, has brought countless miracles. As a young man with no name, he has directly stood on the top of the world and the king of the earth. It is in line with the heroes of all.

Compared to the old church, everyone is more willing to see a young king climb to the top!

Chapter 2120 - Not accustomed to his fault

Feng Wuji is busy at the moment and collects all aspects of information.

Shen Lang is also thinking about it.

He felt that he couldn't think of the other person too much!

In the face of the enemy who wants to plot China, or to maintain a "heart of the villain", and even the most malicious speculation, they will not be wrong.

Therefore, the positive challenge, the choice is in the remote Mount Kailash, which will be a tiger away from the mountain?

And assume that he is not coming back.

If he didn't come back, the other party must have tried to wipe out the top players in China, which smoothed the first wave of obstacles, even if there are still most of the self-cultivators, but the level is already low.

And as long as the Shen Lang does not come back, it will be much easier to use it in a few months or a few years.

This time, it is the most crucial battle.

There is no sinking wave. In order to be unbeaten, others must go to more powerful people, and it will create holes in other places.

The other side is two big sects, plus two teams in the two camps, the strength is immeasurable.

If several teachers go to Gang Rinpoche at that time, but other archbishops and the like, they will gather together and go to various places. Maybe they will level the gates one by one.

This possibility is still great!

They don't know enough about the strength of the people such as the canoe, and there are a lot of hidden ancestors, but with the information of the journey of "no return to the sea", the Pope and the other two leaders are really enough to extinguish the top. Strong.

After the tiger is off the mountain, other people can destroy other sects.

Everyone's attraction is focused on Gang Rinpoche. As long as the door is fast enough, the information will not spread quickly, and they can do more.

If the strength is strong enough, it can be shot in many ways at the same time.

In this case, it is equal to one day, from the top to the middle and high level, and a large piece is destroyed. At the end of the day, there is no resistance at all.

Of course, Tianshifu will not be Zhang Zhanlang. In addition to Qiao Yuxian, there are also Qiao Zhantian in the Beihai Qiao family. Others have many realities that will not be easily destroyed.

But if you have an unintentional sneak attack, it will be easier to pay a more painful price.

Shen Lang decided to talk to the wind and no one, let her highlight the reminder, let all the factions pay attention to it.

At this time, the wind did not come to a phone call, she looked at the caller, a little hesitant, looked at the waves.

Shen Lang signaled her to pick up.

The wind nodded and nodded, and everyone answered, and opened the hands-free.

"Director Liu."

Her name is simply to show the general information.

Before I talked about the alliance, I already know that the official person in charge is Liu Shengwei. The administrative level is not low, and it has a background.

This is also imaginable. After all, it can be regarded as the overall situation of the national defense strategy. It must be of a low level to be able to co-ordinate all parties.

“Small wind, let Shen Lang answer the phone!”

The voice of Liu Shengwei came from the phone, with a bit of accustomed arrogance, and even a little impatient. Probably because the wind has no time to answer, it makes him a bit uncomfortable.

The wind did not respond to a humble question.

“Director Liu, Shen Lang is not convenient to answer the phone now. Tomorrow...”

“What is inconvenient to answer the phone?” Liu Shengwei directly interrupted her words, and the tone became serious.

“When is it now? Do you still have to pretend to be a ghost? It’s just a mystery to the outside world. It’s also hidden from the leadership? Everything must be planned! Since Shen Lang is back, he must obey orders and obey arrangements! ”

He sternly criticized the attitude of his subordinates, and made Shen Lang and several of them frown.

Look at the wind and no Ji, they have a little admire and can not bear, I think she is usually not easy.

Feng Wuji is more than capable, and has no emotions, or keeps the light theorem.

“Director Liu, you can rest assured, I promise you that Shen Lang will appear tomorrow.”

“Comrade Comrade! You will not be unclear about the seriousness of the incident? What tomorrow! Let me come back now! Report to me face to face, discuss strategic tactics with everyone, and then act collectively, we do not allow personal heroism!”

Liu Shengwei's name has changed and his attitude has been much stricter.

Just as everyone has rationalized the brain, it is no coincidence that Shen Lang is coming back today, but he has already returned, and Liu Shengwei feels that.

But other people feel gratified and excited, but he is not good!

Since you are back, why did the three-time recruitment call for women to push away?

Since I am back, I am going to discuss the countermeasures with everyone. Is this a big name?

Those prominent sects with a thousand-year history, those who are nearly a hundred years old, are not bigger than you?

Everyone is obliged to stand up and do their best to offer ideas in the league. What are you?

Even now the gauntlet has been sent, still installed here!

He was very upset, so he didn't call through his assistant and called him directly.

There is no way to do this. It can only be passed through the wind. Otherwise, he will directly call Shen Lang himself.

Moreover, with Liu Shengwei's experience, it can be guessed that Shen Lang is likely to be listening to it, so this seems to mean that there is no wind in the wind, in fact, it is to say to Shen Lang.

"Director Liu, Shen Lang has plans for Shen Lang, you..."

Feng Wuji patiently wants to explain, and Liu Weiqiang is even more upset.

"Hey! Shen Lang's plan! I won't talk about the country. Is the alliance recognized by you? The plan of the alliance is not a plan. Is his plan called a plan?"

His tone has been yin and yang, and he does not hide his dissatisfaction.

“He wants everyone to turn around him alone? There is no organization, discipline!”

“Director Liu, we are far away, it is too late to go back, and we will go to Gang Rinpoche tomorrow. So go directly to the meeting and join us...”

The wind has no tolerance for the temper, explaining it from time to time.

“Don’t give me an excuse! Is there any thing about Shen Lang? It’s all your words! It used to be that you couldn’t be contacted. I just got a book today, and I immediately said it, it’s also you! Is he there? I have to give me a confession!”

After Liu Shengwei finished, seriously added: “This is not for you, not for you, this is the order!”

“I.....”

When there was no wind in the mouth, and he wanted to explain it to him, Shen Lang had already reached out and pressed the phone.

“I am not used to his faults! Command? Report to him? Virtue! Take me as his hand?” Shen Lang snorted.

He is the one who can even smash the roof of the presidential palace on the opposite bank. What pressure can a director Liu give him?

“But he represents after all...” The wind has no words to stop.

“You wait for me.” Shen Lang directly began to read the recent memory of Feng Wuji.
