

First Strong 2131

Chapter 2131 - Mountain awareness

There are a small temple in the hundreds of miles away from Gang Rinpoche.

It is built on a mountaintop. In this area of the Ali Plateau, the locality is wide and tough. In addition to a handful of loyalty practitioners who exercise perseverance, there are few here to offer.

The temple was not big, and there was only one monk. Today, the old man was settled in the simple home. He suddenly opened his eyes and looked at the direction of Gang Rinpoche. Then he disappeared directly from the house.

A few hundred miles southeast of the Gang Rinpoche, a humanoid snowman suddenly moved in an unknown valley in the majestic Himalayas.

As he stood up, the snow that shook his body, revealing a worn-out coat, standing barefoot in the snow, the snow was half a foot, and there was a clear trace in the place where he was sitting.

This old man, also looking northwest toward the direction of Gang Rinpoche, seems to be able to cross the barrier of the mountain and go directly to Gang Rinpoche.

For a moment, he has disappeared from the snow in the valley.

At this time, Shen Lang was still communicating with the summit of Gang Rinpoche. He let his whole person let go, just like turning into nothingness, and going to contact and merge with this peak.

A few of them were in the canoe, and they were trying to sense the situation around them, but they all reacted quickly.

Falling rain and sinking waves seem to be inspectively targeted. Since they have nothing to gain, they immediately put everything down and started to act as a whistle and a guard.

Since everyone is now at this peak, the enemies of the two religions are coming, whether they are from the southern Himalayas or from other places, they are coming here.

Therefore, they are four, and this time they are concerned about the four directions of the north, the south, and the north, and the waves and the rain are falling behind them.

There are deep waves, and basically they are not worried about any big problems. Need to be alert, that is, when the enemy suddenly arrives, give Shenlang some time.

As for themselves...

In the end, it is still too young. Although the strength is extraordinary, it will not be lost to anyone other than Shen Lang. But after all, the two gods of the Pope and the true gods have come to the fore, so that they are invisible, or do not regard it as the main force, or feel that they can cooperate with Shen Lang.

At the moment, the waves are clear and empty!

He has completely integrated, ignoring the fact that people are at the top of the snow peak, ignoring everything, and completely integrating himself with Xuefeng.

This kind of feeling is difficult to describe in words.

His attempts and experiences have been many times and angles, but the time presented is only a moment.

Finally, in this state, he can begin to feel the speciality of Gang Rinpoche.

At this moment, Shen Lang felt a non-figurative existence, as if it were a mountain, and it seemed to be a Buddha image, and it seemed to be a thousand shadows...

At that moment, Shen Lang can feel it. It can be this just what can stop him from detecting.

But this is actually one that exists in the mountain or is attached to the whole body of the mountain. It is still unknown. Only one point is certain. This is a existence with great energy!

Such contact and integration, for Shen Lang, is actually a matter of a moment, and this situation is as long as it is very long.

At that moment, he seemed to be completely integrated with this unrecognizable existence, and then dispersed.

Shen Lang made another attempt, still able to feel the existence of this unrecognizable existence, but if he wants to be in contact with it, he can't do it, as if the other party intended to exclude him.

After a while, Shen Lang withdrew from the state of unity of heaven and man and restored his consciousness.

Just thinking about it, he is also a little secret.

The reason why he dared to contact and integrate with the Gang Rinpoche "Heaven and Man" is that "it is a mountain."

This "day" is the "environment" and is a fusion with the environment.

However, the contact just now, but vaguely feels that this seems to have a sense of autonomy!

A mountain has its own consciousness!

It's a bit strange to think about it.

But for Shen Lang, it is not so unbelievable.

Like Leiyuan, it is a kind of environment that has consciousness; the "Xiaoxiandao" on the other side of the river basin can even say that it has a little consciousness.

And like the Cloud Palace Holy Land, will it be an "environmental perfection"?

Therefore, this Gangrenboqifeng, since it has been the name of the mountain since ancient times, has been worshipped by the believers at home and abroad, and it has become spiritual and it is not impossible.

The beasts and monsters are the longer they live. The more the aura is absorbed, the stronger the cultivation, the more the ingenuity is opened.

Some ancient trees and the like also bear the mortal incense, and for a long time, they will have spirituality and even become a demon.

Not far away, thousands of miles away, step by step to worship the pilgrimage, undoubtedly the power of faith is very pure, it is not only Tibetan, but also a few countries nearby, the number is not too small.

The power of many faiths is completely condensed on this mountaintop, ten years, centuries, and millennia, and ultimately it is possible to make it spiritual.

Shen Lang recalled the situation at that time and it was very clear.

He would think that this is the mountain, because this is the mountain; it will be a statue of Buddha, possibly because of the self-suggestion of information, or the image of the image of the believer.

However, it feels like a thousand shadows, which is a sign that there may be countless believers who are devout and convinced.

It's just that Shen Lang is not sure that this is the truth.

Because everything that is felt in entering that state may also be the result of his psychological suggestion. – Because there has been such an analysis before, there will be such a result.

But no matter what, if you really have a sense of autonomy, then he can no longer try to touch the fusion.

That is a very dangerous thing!

If the non-mountain peak is really sensible because of the long-standing and large amount of faith, then the Shenlang is united with it, and if it really has to mourn, it can directly swallow his consciousness!

This has nothing to do with the weakness of Shen Langqiang. Entering such a state is itself an undefended.

After retracting his thoughts, Shen Lang stood up and the situation around him was clear.

Several of them can quickly defend. He is still very pleased.

“How?” Seeing the rain and looking over, Shen Lang asked.

Falling rain refers to the top.

“It seems to come from above.”

This made Shen Lang slightly surprised. When I was just up, I felt this kind of chill, and with the pyramid-shaped peak area all year round, he thought that there was something around the peak.

I just let the rain that has become more sensitive to this aspect feel a little, actually came from above?

Shen Lang immediately let himself enter the state, and the gods carefully sensed it. With the hint of falling rain, he also began to explore above.

Chapter 2132 - coming

Although Shen Lang does not have the innate pure yin physique of falling rain, but his strength is much higher than the rain.

So after having a clear direction, the effect of his investigation is much better.

With the search of the layers above, you can feel the specific situation.

The higher the height, the thinner the natural air and the lower the temperature.

But that would be a wide-ranging environment, and in this one, there is a lower temperature, just a piece of the area, not a diffuse all over the sky.

The more up, the chilly temperature difference is more obvious than the surrounding!

This is also the reason why he did not feel it below, but to the peak, more obvious than the feeling in the process of coming up.

The higher the temperature, the more obvious the lower the temperature.

When it is about eight kilometers above sea level, it is a kind of pause. It does not continue to extend upwards, but expands!

This state, if compared with the image, is like a chilly umbrella at the top of the mountain.

If the handle is generally straight up, it will reach a height of more than a thousand meters, and then it will be caged as if it were a wide open umbrella.

This is still within the scope of Shenlang's sensory sensing, so it is clear that this is probably the state that is not felt at high altitudes or that the surroundings are not clear.

But why is this a state like this?

This made him confused too.

Is there a natural or artificial array of this?

Similar to the Gathering Array, pumping the yin below, so the higher the colder?

But this is not reasonable. If you really want to be chilly, the higher the temperature, the lower the temperature, and you don't need to face the mountain below.

That in turn?

This umbrella-shaped form is spread out at an altitude of 8,000 meters, such as an open umbrella surface, gathers the surrounding cold air, and then hangs down through the general line of the umbrella handle, and finally injects it into Gangren. Pozi Peak?

This possibility seems to be even bigger.

And this chilly gas may have another effect, or it may be the reason for the snow in the pyramid-shaped peak area all year round!

For a time, Shen Lang couldn't figure it out, but one thing is basically ok.

Gang Rinpo Qifeng, really not ordinary!

And this information, Pope Constantine V, do they know?

This is also difficult to say.

Because it is too remote here, it has been basically isolated from the Central Plains since ancient times. For example, when Shen Lang was alive, there was limited understanding of this place, and I did not think about coming over here to visit.

Instead, it is closer to South Asia!

The small country of the Himalayas does not say it. The South Asian country on the other side of the mountain has a long history and civilization. The contemporary population also has a huge population base.

Their civilization, religion, etc. may have many changes and changes, but the caste system has always made many things an insurmountable gap, and also allowed powerful forces to achieve greater continuity.

In ancient times, in addition to Z-Buddhism, there were several religions there, which was regarded as a pilgrimage to the mountain.

This is unique, indicating that in a certain period, there must be a generation of ancestors, together here to see what is magical!

The Central China-led Chinese realm has not taken this remote bitter land seriously since ancient times. As a result, there may be a lot of information, here and more in South Asia.

Nowadays, if the light gods and true gods want to invade the curve, they may pass through the South Asian side to understand some traces of information and then break through here.

In some ways, they are likely to have more information!

These are all analyses and there is no definitive evidence.

Shen Lang quickly felt relieved.

Because the two aspects that have just been sensed are now verified, there are magical places, but there is no treasure that can be directly plundered.

In this case, they have to be guarded, it is much more convenient, as long as they do not let the other party destroy it here.

Anyway, with the strength of Shen Lang, it is a breeze to suppress the Pope. If they want to fight, then they will fight in another place.

There are no-man's land everywhere.

“You can cultivate here and it is good for you.”

Shen Lang said a word to Luo Yu, and pointed to a specific location, which is the central point of the chilly air passage.

There is no retreat in the rain, but there are no enemies yet, and there is no need for everyone to be on guard.

This kind of environment can also be met. If it is not the time like today, even if you know that there is an environment suitable for him, it is not convenient to go to the Shenshan Mountain for long-term cultivation.

So she is also rude immediately, and it is a little more to absorb.

“Everyone will take a break, the enemy has not come yet, there is no treasure that will directly lose here, we can be more assured.”

Shen Lang said another, so that they do not need to be vigilant.

In fact, as long as he is not in the realm of the unity of the day, the vigilance against the outside world is bound to be his strongest.

He doesn't even need to be preoccupied with vigilance. Naturally, he can do better than them. Without him, he can only sense a wider range and a farther distance!

Nowadays, at this height of “viewing the mountains,” he will see farther than all of them.

“There is nothing more to discover?” The canoe came over and asked.

Shen Lang looked at them and briefly described it.

“There is a chilly atmosphere that pushes up above. It seems to be the pressure of the parties to suppress it. The other is that it feels like this mountain... It seems to have a little consciousness.”

Everyone listened and felt very incredible!

However, since it is said by Shen Lang, it must be aware that they will not be fooled.

For a time, the feelings of several of them were a bit strange.

This mountain is full of consciousness?

So what is this for everyone? Stepping on someone's head?

Fortunately, this is to fight, not a hot place, or else wearing a skirt, it will feel even more strange...

When everyone is about to discuss it, Shen Lang's look is positive.

“coming!”

Just a few of them were on alert is to prevent the enemy from coming. At this moment, I heard that the enemy came, and I immediately entered the state of alert.

However, they only have the realm of Daxian, and it is still incomparable with the deep waves of the realm of the gods. Therefore, even if the gods sense the limit, they have not found any enemy.

“This side, there is also here.”

Shen Lang pointed to one direction and pointed to one direction.

The four of them immediately split into two, and the two faced one direction, waiting for the emergence of the enemy.

But Shen Lang, but frowned, he thought that it came from a different direction. But when he first felt it, he thought it was the enemy. At this moment, the gods have already had a clearer sense.

In these two directions, there are two old ladies.

Chapter 2133 - After the ceremony, the soldiers?

After confirming that the two directions are all monks, Shen Lang also put down hostility.

Needless to say, the situation can basically be guessed, it must be that they have reached the summit of Gang Rinpoche, which invisibly triggers the induction, so that the monks in the distance feel it.

There are no organs or prohibitions found here, and it is not known what has alarmed the other party.

But the situation is already the case. At the speed they are coming, it will not take long to get here.

It is the monk here, and it is obviously because of the Gang Rinpo Qifeng, it is not the guardian here, but also a similar role.

Shen Lang slightly indulged.

Do you want to take them down?

Everyone has something that they respect, especially a religious believer. Here is the name of the mountain, forbidden to climb, is a holy place for other people's faith.

Then he came here with a few girls, and it was an offense to them.

This time, it is against the enemies of the Pope, and you can't pick up yourself. Even if Shen Lang has this ability, it is not good to kill them first.

If you can't play directly, then you have to be convinced, but this truth, can you tell them?

Their monks, who are known as family members, rules, interests, etc. in the world, may not be able to listen to them.

When Shen Lang thought about how to deal with it, the two directions of the old man, close to a lot, and then entered the scope of their sense of sensation.

"Shen Lang! Is it a monk?"

The canoe and the wind are not called.

Just like when they discussed the summit, they will have more concerns. At this moment, they think of more questions.

"Well, not the enemy we have to wait for."

Shen Lang nodded: “Nothing! Others know that we have reached the top. This is going to go down, but it is also trying to cover it. It is not enough. We are not malicious, just wait here!”

It’s also reasonable to think about falling into a canoe and wind.

Everyone is bright and upright. If you find someone else’s guardian coming over, you can go on quickly. This can’t be pretended not to come up, but it seems to be sneaky.

But the two of them, and then they have to rack their brains to sort out the wording, how do you talk about it later?

They are certainly bright, but others may not understand and accept it!

Shen Lang slightly hesitated for a while, and it is already very calm at the moment.

Big deal is the first ritual soldier!

The reason will tell them that even if they are seclusion in the snowy plateau, the news is blocked, but the outside world can still inquire about it, and there will be more repairs coming to tomorrow, which can be confirmed.

They believe and understand that it is of course the best. If you insist on not being reasonable, then you must not only ban people first.

The “birth” of the soldiers before the ceremony will of course be justified. It will only be that they will be arrested first and banned, so as not to stun the snake.

Afterwards, it would be nice to ask the Buddhist monks of Central Plains to persuade them.

Thinking of this, Shen Lang even looked forward to their dissatisfaction.

In this case, he just had the opportunity to let them train a few soldiers first!

Although all the women have followed the way to the mainland of China, the raft has been visited twice, in terms of combat experience, experience, etc., far better than their peers, and even more than many old predecessors.

But now that it has been upgraded to the realm of Daxian, it is not enough to understand its own strength. It may not be enough confidence, and it may not be light or heavy.

If you start with these two monks, they are naturally and maintain a sense of proportion, and they will be more cautious.

In this way, you can temper your strength better, and when you play against the real enemy, you can be more calm.

As for the two old ladies who will defeat them, Shen Lang is not convinced.

The whole world can see the strongest, that is, the level of half a fairy, such as the Pope.

That behemoth frenzy, which is related to the survival of the earth, is also a large number of beasts that have not been seen in the millennium, and it has also led to the elders of Tula.

Before the introduction of the return to the sea, the aura of the earth is increasingly depleted.

And the introduction of the aura of these hundreds of years of chaotic space, although there is a certain degree of recovery, but to keep up with the ancient ratio, it is still too much difference.

And nowadays it is a general wild animal, and it is becoming more and more extinct. The human body is huge and the living space is dense. It has reached an unprecedented period, and there is no living space for the beast and the beast.

It is true that there are also beast gods and big demons, which are often cultivated in a shape, hidden in time by the form of human beings. There is no chance of hunting a demon.

At least the king-level behemoth frenzy appears, as long as the strength is strong enough, you will want to share a piece of cake. It is not only to save the world, but also to hunt for excellent comprehension resources.

Who will be polite? Who will hold it?

This is not to say that the behemoth did not log in on the coast of China, and everyone will wait and see.

If China, or every other corner of the world, there are really more hidden ancestors, there are still old monsters that have lived for hundreds of years, unless they are in a small world like Xu Yuyue, or they will never miss it. .

Elder Tula, who can catch up with the Antarctic continent, is the best explanation.

Therefore, he feels that these two old ladies, how can they not be stronger than the four of them, is a good goal of training.

Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy did not care so much. In fact, they did not need them to brainstorm, just follow the arrangements of Shenlang.

Falling rain is still a calm practice, but she is also a vigilant, if you really need to fight, you can still pull out at any time.

In a short while, the figures of the two old ladies have already appeared within sight.

In fact, with the altitude of the Gangrenboqi peak and the pollution-free environment of the plateau, the visible distance can reach a very far distance.

But you can only see a rough outline, such as the peaks of the Himalayas, but you can't see the details on the peaks.

The two old babies should also appear in the line of sight long ago, but the distance is too far, it may be a point, can not be specifically identified, or locked by the gods, can be sensitive.

Now it is the eyes that can be seen clearly!

Everyone is ready, just waiting for them to come.

The two daddies came from different directions, but when they arrived at Gang Rinpoche, was about the same time.

After completing the last borrowing force, the two flew to the height of the peak, but did not go in different directions, but merged together.

After watching their confluence, they stopped in the air, and the waves shone to the edge of the mountain.

“The two sorghums, I know that you are coming to the teacher to ask for sin. Come up and listen to me first.”

Since it is ready to pay tribute to the soldiers, Shen Lang will certainly come up with sincerity. Of course, it is a bit of a slap in the face of inviting others to the holy places of others.

“Finally, you have shown up.”

One of the old ladies said a word that made Shen Lang inexplicable.

Chapter 2134 - Reincarnation

Finally, you have shown up?

Shen Lang was inexplicable and then laughed and laughed.

Listening to the meaning, they are the guardians of the mountain, through some kind of secret method, predicting that there will be enemies here, so they are ready to wait.

Today, when they set foot here, they were taken by the two old men as the enemies that will appear in the prediction!

The Pope will choose here, certainly not a sudden whim, but a plan.

Without the wheel of the heavens, Shen Lang relies on “Yin and Yang Bozhengzhengzhen” and has certain predictive power. And the Tianji Zong, like the real person of Fuyang, is specializing in this aspect.

On the side of Z-Buddhism, it is also known as Tantric. The Tantrics also have different factions, but they all have the secret of reincarnation.

Their religious leaders often make arrangements before they sit still. Then the disciples will start looking for reincarnation based on some clues and traces.

The reincarnation found has continued to be called a religious leader in the capacity of several generations.

Never believe in the secular perspective of reincarnation, this kind of behavior is a kind of power solidification, in the identity of reincarnation, the predecessor of the previous generation is transferred to the successor.

And there are also many scammers who claim to be living Buddhas and claim that you are a living Buddha.

But from the perspective of Shen Lang, it is believed. Because he did it himself, it really reincarnate!

This process of his work took too long, because he was arranged after the failure of the robbery, using the last remaining power, and needs factors such as time and place to be effective.

They have studied this since ancient times, naturally have more experience, and will start to make layouts in the later years, and the direction and time of reincarnation will be better grasped.

Even the reincarnation of the rebirth can be passed down from generation to generation, and it will be able to predict some major events, and naturally it is not a problem.

However, the arrival of Shen Lang in advance is a variable outside the forecast...

“Haha, if I say this is a misunderstanding, we come up to the summit to protect the Gang Rinpoche, do you not believe it?”

Shen Lang hit a haha, at least the other side did not directly turn his face, there is still room for manoeuvre.

“we believe.”

One of the oldest replies made Shen Lang a bit worse.

This also believes?

If someone sneaked into their own home and then said that I rushed in, it was to protect your home... no one should believe it.

The Shen Lang, who was prepared to explain, was stunned by this answer.

Everyone says that they believe, and you explain it again. Doesn't it seem that you want to cover it?

Can't explain it, it's hard to convince him, why? With strength, it is still handsome!

At this time, the two old scorpions suspended in the air actually bowed down in the air, just like on the ground, the five bodies cast their knees.

The women are a little bit sloppy, and the Shen Lang is slightly awkward.

He can imagine that these two old ladies are respecting the Gang Rinpoche, this is their mountain of God. It is a kind of embarrassment to go up, but to figure out the truth and not let them go down, Can only come up.

After all, these two may be guardians, no doubt they will be the first in the mountains. Once a war attack, it will inevitably affect and destroy, can negotiate or negotiate first.

It is obvious that the other side is worshipping the gods, but they are standing on the peak and facing the opposite side. It is like worshipping them. This feeling is still a bit unnatural.

After the two old priests went to the top of the ceremony, they slowly came to the summit.

If you don't need to say it, you can feel their respect for the mountain. When you land, it is very gentle and soft. It seems that you are afraid of stepping on the mountain.

"The two are actually like this. There are two foreign forces. We are going to fight for the war in our country. We are going to fight here tomorrow. We are afraid of a change and come over in advance."

Shen Lang directly projected the scene of the alliance meeting, holographic projection to the front, giving them two to see.

If Qiao Yuxian, Zhang Zhanlang and other older generations have had contact with them, then this picture of light can save a lot of tongues.

If they never interact with the Central Plains parties, then so many older generations sitting together to discuss and negotiate can also see that the situation is not small.

These two old ladies are very thin, and their underwear is also worn out. The surface seems to be sixty or seventy years old. The actual age is not known.

They looked at the pictures presented in front of them, but they did not show much attention.

The two people pay more attention to it and put it on the face of Shen Lang.

"Teacher, we finally wait for your living Buddha to reincarnate!"

The two men are in the same place.

"..."

This time, not only the faces of several of them, but also the inexplicable.

How did he become a guru and become a living Buddha of reincarnation?

“Two, let’s talk... We didn’t disrespect the Gangrenbo Qifeng. It’s really someone coming here. I’m worried that there is something on it that will be destroyed, so let’s take a look. Don’t be kidding...”

Shen Lang smiled and explained another sentence.

The two old ladies said that they were firm.

“The monks are not kidding. We all feel that you are the reincarnation of the Living Buddha Guru!”

Shen Lang was speechless for a while.

If he is another self-cultivator, he will be a little excited about this sudden identity, even shocked and incredible.

After all, this means that you have a big future, and the future is limitless. And this layer of identity can directly represent resources.

But he is Shen Lang!

He knows very well that if you live a Buddha or a guru, he can’t be the reincarnation of any sorghum, because now he is the reincarnation of his own past life.

“The two are mistaken. I am not a reincarnation of a living Buddha. I have nothing to do with your former guru.”

When Shen Lang said this, he had already taken a point of coldness. This is to draw a line.

He had intended to pay tribute to the soldiers, and the truth directly told them that if they couldn’t understand, they would do it well.

Now this is the operation of reincarnation of the Buddha, so that he can not see through the way, but there must be demon in the abnormal situation, or be careful.

But these two old ladies is a sincere face.

“You are still so humble! The former teacher refused to accept the name of the living Buddha, only said that he is an ordinary Buddha.”

“You really are the reincarnation of the guru!”

“...”

Shen Lang is speechless again.

He does not admit the name of the living Buddha, but does not recognize it as the reincarnation of their master.

This is the fact. In their eyes, it is modesty, but it is a combination of the character style of the previous life!

Where is this reasonable?

Chapter 2135 - I am not a guru.

“Two, the monks do not swear.” Shen Lang is serious.

“The monks don’t swear.”

Both of them are more serious.

This sentence is equivalent to their beliefs.

Shen Lang is a little headache.

I thought that the other party wanted to run them in this way. Can be so serious, the other party is also a direct statement, plus such a sincere gesture.

Not like a fake!

Wait... Is it just a prayer in the air, not a worship of the mountain, or a worship of him?

What is this with?

“The two masters, you should have made a mistake. We are from the original. You see what he looks like, and it is very different from this. It is impossible for the two masters to reincarnate.”

Looking at the canoe next to it, helping the waves to solve the problem, the good words explained.

The two old men are not moved.

“Before the teacher changed his life, he didn’t leave any clues, just didn’t want us to find it.”

“We have searched a lot of areas and there are no traces. It turned out that it was no wonder that they had joined the Central Plains.”

“...”

The canoe was also speechless. Originally, they wanted to say their guru, and they would not reincarnate to the distant Central Plains. As a result, they gave them an evidence.

“Why do you think that I am your master’s reincarnation?” Shen Lang asked helplessly. “Just because I came here? If someone else came up? They are a few, maybe!”

He really doesn’t want to take advantage of this!

The two old ladies are still respectful and sincere.

“Guru, you have left a demonstration, let us not look for you, and when it is necessary, you will naturally come back.”

“You said that there are foreign forces in the battle book in the Shenshan, so you are here, this is a necessary day.”

Shen Langbaiyan: “Can you not be superstitious? That may be the words of your master to appease you!”

“Is there a picture of the meeting that I just saw? I was not there, they came, would you recognize a master among them?”

“It is destined that you will be back, naturally it will be you back. So it is someone else, it will become you back.”

The two monks have already made a preconceived determination, and they have their own doctrines of causality and opportunity. Therefore, Shen Lang originally wanted to prove that he came over. It was a coincidence. The result was that they heard it, because it was destined that he was coming back, this coincidence would occur.

Shen Lang looked at the canoe and the wind, and let them help to persuade.

He was prepared, he could not use it, and explained that they did not listen. And the attitude is so good, I don't want to smile, and I can't give them a slap in the face.

Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy are curious to watch the fun next to them. The two of them are a little bit eager to try, they want to do it directly...

The canoe has just been opened, and Feng Jiji is also watching and thinking.

To talk about contact with people, the maturity of people's lives, the wind is no better than the raft.

Just now she has been thinking about a lot of countermeasures quickly. Some questions and answers first ask myself. If I feel that I am not convincing, I will not say it.

At this moment, she saw Shen Lang's helpless help, and she smiled.

“The two masters, I know that you are definitely not slang, but obviously we are all very inexplicable. So, I want you to give a reason, a persuasive reason.”

“Reason?” The two monks are a bit puzzled.

Shen Lang also nodded secretly. They just gave a result, and then he constantly denied it. Now the wind is no good. This is to give the ball to the other party. Who advocates who will prove it!

He is looking for reasons to prove that it is definitely more difficult than a preconceived determination.

Now it is the turn of the other party, they can not give a convincing reason, it is his turn to deny.

“Since you have determined that he is your reincarnation, you have to come up with more convincing evidence. The points you said are obviously not convincing.”

The wind did not smile, and gave some tips to guide.

“For example... what special signs, exercises or things you have in your guru, or whatever else can only be done by your guru.”

The direction she leads is beneficial to Shen Lang.

This is reincarnation, how can you still keep the mark of the past life? Shen Lang has not touched them, and it is even more impossible to know the exercises.

In other words, what both of them say can only prove that they have nothing to do with Shen Lang.

The two monks combined for the eleventh ceremony.

“The female donor is right. If it is you, or someone else, even if you can get to the summit, it is just a simple summit. Only the Guru can do it with the mountain.”

“Before we came over, you have already contacted and responded with Shenshan. This is something we can’t do, so it can only show that you are a reincarnation of the guru.”

“We can understand that you are not unwilling to admit it, but you have not yet awakened the memory of past lives, and do not remember who the previous life was.”

Shen Lang was a little surprised. When he said this, he began to grasp some rhythms.

The connection and echo with the mountain, it should be the fusion of him and the Gangrenbo Qifeng “Heaven and Man”!

This state, only he felt it, is a few of them next to him, so familiar with him, can not feel the same.

Listening to this, these two monks are in the distance, but they are sensed?

He was originally prepared, and whatever they said, he would directly deny it.

But now, he is really doing it, and negation is against it.

“I guess this is an illusion? We originally came to protect the Gangrenbo Qifeng, but only inducted below, this mountaintop seems to be covered by what, the induction is not clear, so come up and confirm.”

Shen Lang shrugged his shoulders, and he violated his heart once in a violation. He was not the master of the other party. He admitted that he was also deceiving!

“Probably we are coming up, let the mountain have a little movement, let you feel it. Or, my woman is practicing here, let the mountain have a reaction.”

The rain fell and continued to practice there, and they both knew that they would not have to come to the top of the mountain.

After that, Shen Lang specifically emphasized it.

“They are all my women! Do you still think that I am your Guru? Your Guru can be reincarnated. Even if you don’t accept the name of a living Buddha, you are definitely sorghum. How can you not be close to a woman?”

Shen Lang said that the facts they have no opinions, of course, do not have to deliberately kiss and so on to prove.

“Your identity is different. It is normal to have fellow practitioners.”

“You are a reincarnation of the guru, so you can reach the extraordinary realm at a young age, and there are many extraordinary lovers.”

Don’t say that the waves are dark, it is the wind and no jiao also laughs and laughs. This is really a matter of acknowledging death, and everything has become evidence!

“This is not convincing!” Shen Lang directly denied.

“We can’t be wrong, because now you can sense your connection with Mount Kinabalu, no one else!”

Shen Lang was slightly surprised.

Chapter 2136 - Verification device

This point, Shen Lang did not think of it.

The fusion of him and Gang Rinpo Qifeng can be said to be only a moment. He felt that this mountain may have a sense of autonomy, and he did not merge again.

Now they are still on his body, feeling the connection and echo of the mountain?

What is the status of this?

If this is the case, it is no wonder that others will recognize him.

“I did have a contact and echo with Shenshan just now, but that doesn’t mean anything. It doesn’t mean that I am the reincarnation of your guru.”

For the denial of Shen Lang, the two monks were a bit disappointed.

“Guru, we have waited for decades, just waiting for you to come back, are you giving up on us?”

During the speech, both people bowed down.

Shen Lang smiled bitterly: “Two, with your cultivation, I can’t be overwhelmed by you. Can you treat you as a disciple, is it not good for me? But I can tell you clearly, I am not yours.” Guru.”

“This is not because I give up on you. If I recognize it, are you not going to give up the search and waiting for the reincarnation of the guru? Isn’t his fate changed?”

“Everything shows that you are the reincarnation of the guru and there will be no second reincarnation.”

“That was a misunderstanding. I just happened to be here, just to communicate with the mountain, but I know that I am not your master reincarnation!”

“but.....”

Shen Lang interrupted their words: “Let’s say it! If I am the reincarnation of your guru, even if you want to give up on you, you can directly reject you. You can use the command method, there is no need to make excuses. Will let you continue to wait in vain.”

The two old ladies don’t know what to say.

Indeed, the guru does not want to call the living Buddha, do not want them to look for reincarnation, etc., are direct requirements.

If it is really a reincarnation, then according to the style of the guru, it should be a direct rejection of them.

“Sorry, I said that I am not your master reincarnation, can’t, and are not interested in his token!”

Shen Lang directly refused.

This is the token of a generation of high-ranking masters. According to them, it is the level of a living Buddha. It must contain enormous energy. How can it be regarded as a musical instrument?

But Shen Lang doesn’t care.

He does not lack the magic weapon now, and even has a lot of artifact levels.

Compared with the ancestors of the Nakajima world, this former living Buddha will not be as high as the level. This instrument is also tasteless for him.

If you accept it, you have to bear a human condition.

“No, no, just a test. If you are a reincarnation of the Guru, then you will have a reaction when you come into contact with this prayer wheel, just like the echo of the mountain.”

Then the monks respectfully put the prayer wheel over, and both of them looked forward to seeing the waves.

This makes Shen Lang a little helpless.

According to them, this is just a test. It is a reincarnation, and the prayer cylinder will respond. If he does not touch, he will be regarded as deliberately avoiding, and he will feel that he is the reincarnation of the master.

And the echo of the mountain, because they are far apart, just feel the change, do not know the specific.

It can only be verified with them in person now, in order to let them die.

It is reasonable to say that they do not believe that the attitude of serving a master is not good enough to start directly.

Shen Lang looked at the two of them and said seriously.

“Now, I will touch it. If nothing happens, I will ask you not to wrap me around. Or face the enemies coming soon!”

The two monks were a little excited when they heard that he was promised.

“I also hope that... after you touch, inject mana and carefully sense it. After all, this is a musical instrument, it can be done without touching it.”

The monk emphasized one sentence.

Shen Lang was speechless. Originally, he was really ready to take it casually, and then put it back, so there would be no change.

It is now said by the other party. If he does this again, it seems to be intentionally avoided.

However, he is still reassured, because he has no connection with the Tantra and the Tantric, it is totally different.

I was able to respond to the mountain before, because it is a unity of nature and human beings, and it is integrated with the whole environment.

Now even if he injects vitality and carefully senses it, as long as he does not merge with this prayer wheel, there is no possibility of any change.

No matter what else, Shen Lang himself is very clear about his past life, and naturally he is not afraid of being tested.

Therefore, under the expectation of two people, Shen Lang reached out and took the handle with one hand and stroked it on the prayer wheel. Then, in the eyes of their eyes, they began to inject a bit of energy and began to sense.

Naturally, the prayer wheel did not react at all.

Because this may be just an object of the cult of Buddhism, not a magic weapon for refining.

Falling in the boat, the wind and no Ji, and so on, also looked at it seriously looked at no change, they are also relieved.

But these two monks, there began to be disappointment in the eyes.

They waited for a long time, just gave them a very high expectation value, and all the dialogue explanations made them feel that it was a side proof.

It is naturally very difficult to directly drop hopes now.

“Look, there is no change, it has nothing to do with me, and naturally there is no resonance.”

Shen Lang took the hand that was stroking, and the other hand shook his hand with a handle.

At this time, the bronze prayer wheel, suddenly golden light!

Chapter 2137 - The benefits don't need it.

As soon as this picture came out, everyone's face became very exciting.

The rafting and other people who had a sigh of relief, looked at the waves in an incredible way.

The two monks who were falling to the bottom of the valley suddenly opened their eyes and became excited and even fanatic.

Shen Lang is awkward.

How can this be explained?

What is the situation?

He just injected energy and induction, and indeed there is no change at all, so he may think that it may be a religious object, not a magic weapon.

Even if it has a certain mana, it is because of the strong relationship of the former owner, and the outsider cannot use it as a magic weapon.

Just after he took the hand on the top of the prayer wheel, it was already verified, and the rotation of the grip was just natural!

This kind of natural response is not intended to be self-contained.

For example, if you take a press-type ballpoint pen, you will press the sound of “咔哒” and “咔哒” , not to write, or to listen to the sound.

When you see a piano or a keyboard, you will unconsciously reach out and touch a few times. It will not be able to play the piano or type.

Of course, he just didn't want to change anything. He just took it in his hand, and naturally he turned it.

However, I did not think of it. The prayer tube that had no reaction at all, because of this kind of rotation, actually began to shine!

Shen Lang naturally stopped, but the golden light did not stop, but all the golden light, all projected onto him, there is no diffusion elsewhere!

“What's happening here?”

Shen Lang said to himself.

He didn't feel that he had just triggered anything, but it did happen. How is this explained?

Just when the two monks were so excited that they didn't know how to speak, there was a magical change on the top of Gang Rinpoche!

The existence of the mysterious energy sensed by Shen Lang before seems to be the existence of the independent consciousness of the mountain. After the appearance of Jinguang, there is also a chain reaction.

When Shen Lang just said this sentence, a lot of energy came to him, all rushing into his body!

The energy of this one is surging, and it is endless.

Shen Lang is a secret call!

Is this the power of faith that has accumulated for a thousand years, or what other energy is inherent in this peak?

It is not known for a while, and he simply has no time to think about it.

The two monks are not considering them for the time being.

Because he has a burning eyebrow, he must deal with it first.

That is to cut off and stop these incoming energy!

I don't need it!

Originally, the realm of the Great God has already been verified. This is a rule that exceeds this space. It is to be robbed.

Being able to survive the catastrophe can also break down space barriers and enter another higher level of space.

I have been back for a few days now, but I have not encountered any catastrophe, but I am always careful.

I used to want to rob a little earlier, and the robbery was soaring in the daytime, but now I want to try to “slap the space rules” as much as possible and appear as late as possible.

Specifically, Shen Lang does not know how long it will trigger the limit, but one thing is clear.

In other words, if the power he uses is greater, the greater the triggering, the easier it is to trigger the space rule!

When he helped them to improve a few times, it was also in the space of the heavenly book, and did not trigger the movement of the outside world.

But now that the huge energy is coming in, it makes it difficult for him to cover up, but the sky is robbed in advance, and the sky is robbed on the spot!

Therefore, for this kind of energy that comes to Hengfu, Shenlang not only does not enjoy absorption, but instead cuts off the barrier quickly and refuses to absorb it!

But this is not explained. In the eyes of the two monks, that is the default.

In addition, Shenshan once again echoed, in addition to the reincarnation of the Guru, what other explanations can there be?

Suddenly, these two monks, directly to the head and worship.

A few of them fell in the canoe, but also saw that something is wrong, they are nervously watching the waves, if there is any need, they must immediately help.

It's just more worrying, because the realm of Shenlang is much higher than them. If Shenlang can't solve the problem, they can't do it.

At this time, if you can, Shen Lang is of course willing to guide these energies to them. Anyway, that would give them a big benefit, but it would not affect the catastrophe.

But this is obviously caused by him, but it can only come to him, so he can only be cut off.

At this time, the golden light that had been projected into his body seemed to have begun to merge his body. He began to have some rules, exercises, and the like, and naturally appeared in his mind.

Shen Lang couldn't help but sneak up!

He figured it out, what is this test, this is the inheritance of their master!

In other words, the golden light that has just been projected into his body is actually the compressed inheritance of the last master's practice.

He did not disclose the information of the reincarnation, and passed it on to both of them, that is, to give them who accept the clothes.

However, these two monks insisted on searching for the reincarnation of the Guru. Whether they know this inside story or not, they all want to leave this to the reincarnation of the Guru.

Normally, there is nothing wrong with this. After the reincarnation of Shen Lang, it is necessary to come back again. If there is such a heritage, nature can greatly reduce the time.

But they just said that this is a test, and the result is to pass this to Shen Lang!

A worse situation has emerged...

Originally, Gangrenbo Qifeng had a contact with Shenlang, so the influx of the moment is a sense of familiarity and no rejection at all.

This made him want to cut off the barrier and become more difficult.

At this time, the inheritance of the Guru is merged. All the exercises and the like are naturally run up. It is equal to "internal and external collusion". Not only can it not be blocked, but the influx is getting faster and faster!

The powerful energy resources that others can't ask for, Shen Lang is shunned, and his state is very helpless.

Although he was severed with great perseverance, he couldn't help but "the body is very honest."

You, Gang Rinpoche, is a mountain, do you want to be so generous?

Who am I? Why do you get the energy that is so empowered?

I want to spit out the food stuffed into my mouth I am also very difficult to do!

Seeing that it was difficult to cut off, Shen Lang took the initiative and changed his mind.

Since he can only absorb it, and his storage is limited, can he divide his inherent strength into a part?

Can not stop the source of living water, in order to prevent collapse, you can put water on the other side!

The two monks, Shen Lang will not care, even because of the energy they get, but it is because of the crisis they caused.

Shen Lang immediately took one hand and directly seized the head of the lively canoe and the windless man, and a lot of vitality instilled them in the past!

Chapter 2138 - What do you want?

Regardless of whether or not, Gang Rinpo Qifeng's massive amount of energy poured in, and Shen Lang changed his mind after it was difficult to break it.

Let it continue to come, this is forcibly poured, not to waste.

He himself is a large amount of vitality delivered to the canoe and the wind!

The two monks bowed and saw the situation of Shen Lang.

They are not very clear, but they can feel that it is echoed with the mountain, it is linked. Looking at Shen Lang's appearance, I thought he couldn't bear it. He needed to draw energy from both of them.

They are also a little anxious, and they want to help, but after thinking of this reincarnation, the Guru is different. The exercises are completely different. If you help, you may be blind.

So they are still on the side of the brakes, and Shen Lang did not speak, and did not take any initiative.

After Shen Lang completed the rhythm of delivery, it was much easier.

The influx of energy, although a bit strange and confusing, has merged with some of the master's exercises, and has automatically started to work, helping to follow these energies.

Throughout the whole world, he can calmly give them two deliveries.

There are two boats in the canoe and the wind, and although they don't understand the specific situation, they are reacting immediately, and they are absorbed in earnest.

The energy here is soaring, and the rain can not be cultivated with peace of mind, but also come to the side to wait.

After completing a while, Shen Lang moved to change people and began to transport the rain and Zheng Yumeng.

Let the rain and dew stick!

As for Dorothy, it is a different kind, and it is not necessarily useful to her.

In the middle of the substitution, the replacement of the canoe and the wind without the two, are seriously sitting on the ground to practice the state, which in the eyes of the two monks, it is more confirmed that this is to let them together.

This is because they are afraid that they can't hold back, so they change people's relays, and they hurry to practice, which is naturally to restore vitality.

The two did not bow down to the ground, but went to the side. Be prepared, and wait for the next wave of substitutions, and switch to their heads.

There is movement in Shenshan. This is not easy and casual. If you miss this opportunity, you don't know when there is a chance. If you can make the reincarnation of the guru quickly improve, then of course it is excellent.

Therefore, even if there is danger, they are willing to take the lead.

Shen Lang can't figure out what this is all about, but it's already done, so try to handle it as much as possible.

He does not believe that all the energy that Gang Rinpoche has, will be instilled in him, what should be stimulated, and a part of the transmission.

If you really instill it and can't get it, then he will go directly to the space of heaven!

In that case, all the associations are cut off, and when it is stopped, he will come back again.

His predictions are basically correct. After instilling a round for them, the power of the infusion of Gang Rinpoche has been weak.

When this power is weak, Shen Lang can be manipulated very well.

Those who have already been absorbed by him will not care. If there is still a weaker indoctrination, it is a direct interruption.

At the same time, he also stopped the indoctrination of Zheng Yumeng and Luo Yu, and they both immediately sat and practiced.

This instilled a lot of energy, the effect is naturally very good, allowing them to save a lot of time and resources.

But this is not the result of self-cultivation. It is a direct blood transfusion, or it is unstable. It needs to be self-reinforcing.

Of course, Dorothy can also guess the reason, and does not care about anything, but acts as a guard against the law.

She understands the importance of her, not only to prevent the enemy from attacking, but also to guard against the two monks in front of her.

Because this is a stranger, can not get trust, and just the situation, it is clearly because of what they took.

But how to deal with it, we still have to look at Shen Lang, she does not understand, just to maintain their alert.

Fortunately, the two monks were also prepared to replace the relay, so they waited quietly, and there was no other action, and they did not fight Dorothy.

However, after the two of them stopped at the moment, the two thought they were going to turn themselves. I didn't expect the Shenlang to stop.

“Guru!”

As long as the guru is safe, you don't need them.

Faced with Shen Lang at the moment, their attitude is different, more respectful than before, just like the disciple's attitude toward Master.

Shen Lang looked at them, and this is why I can't explain it clearly.

Calmly analyzed, he can vaguely grasp a rough. This prayer cylinder represents the inheritance of the Guru, but the two of them have never tried, and they have not thought about trying it themselves, but have been keeping it, waiting for the reincarnation of the Guru.

So it is not clear how the specific effect and how it changes.

And Shen Lang can stimulate, naturally, it is not related to the reincarnation of the Master. The greater possibility is because of the strength of his great realm!

In his realm, that is a common law, like the high version of the compatibility with the low version, inadvertently “opened” the inheritance of that turn.

As for the connection with Gang Rinpoche, on the one hand, he had just contacted and merged once, and according to the induction of their two monks, he actually still has the breath of the mountain.

On the other hand, it may be that they are masters. They used to be in harmony with this mountain.

So at the moment he was passed down, it inspired the energy of Gang Rinpoche.

In any case, Shen Lang naturally does not lose money, but also inexplicably made a big profit.

The only thing that was not reconciled was that the two disciples were generally wrapped up in him.

It’s already reached this level, and he wants to say it is not clear...

“I can’t explain it. You have to recognize me as a guru. What do you want?”

The two monks who were filled with joy, could not help but hear a word from the back.

“We didn’t want to be like it.”

“At my age, you should not expect me to teach you anything. Do you want to work together to train me and let me fully inherit the legacy of past lives?”

Shen Lang went straight into the knife.

If you are really ambitious, you have already inherited it yourself. They are tirelessly looking for reincarnation, either loyal or not confident enough about their talents.

That is to look for, naturally it is to jointly cultivate, and soon succeeded to take over.

Can Shen Lang ask this question, they are not good to answer.

“It can be seen Your repair is above us, how can we train you?”

“We need you to preside over the big picture...”

“Call! I have gone a different way in this world. It is impossible to teach you, and I will not care about your affairs. Whatever it is, you can handle it yourself!”

After Shen Lang finished, he added another sentence: “Do not pester me!”

The two monks face each other, hasn't this been verified? Why is this attitude?

Did the Guru really give up, and I don't want to come back after the reincarnation?

They feel abandoned by Master...

Chapter 2139 - Coming

Although I felt very lonely, I found it for decades, and I finally found the reincarnation of the Master. I didn't want to have any connection with them.

They are all sorghum, and they are “obsessed”, that is, they need to understand and let go of an important thing.

They have completely let go in terms of food, clothing, housing, and so on. The outside world seems to be an ascetic life, but it is actually a liberation of material desire.

What can't be put down is the obsession of the reincarnation of the guru.

Now this obsession can be said to have been achieved. The Guru has been reborn and reborn. It has already developed very well and has already surpassed them at a young age.

See also see, the inheritance of the prayer wheel has also been brought, why do you have to be obsessed with confessing them?

The Guru had a life and responsibility in the last life, and this world has life and responsibility in this world.

The last life can meet and follow, perhaps the master is going to cross them, and this world may have another person to cross.

When I think of this layer, the two old hearts have a look at the opposite, and they have put down their obsessions.

“How do you call it now?”

“My name is Shen Lang.”

It is said that the native people are the indigenous people here, the guardians here, and even this is their territory, so as long as they don't confuse him as a master, Shen Lang is still willing to maintain good communication.

“I have seen Master Shen Lang and other female donors, welcome to Gang Rinpoche.”

Shen Lang smiled and nodded, this is right!

Talking about reincarnation, what kind of guru is talking about, it is the last word to discuss the right things.

“What are the two big monks?”

Originally, he wanted to call the “master”, but think that others said that you are the reincarnation of their masters, and then use the honorary name, they can not bear, it seems.

So I changed to a more neutral monk. In fact, the monk was also respected, but it has become common now.

“Small 僧本真, this is the illusion.”

They all believe that Shen Lang is the reincarnation of the Guru, even if he is not obsessed with letting him admit it, but naturally he still maintains respect.

However, from the perspective of their appearance, they are at least sixty or seventy years old, but they claim to be “small squats” in front of Shen Lang. It still seems a bit strange.

“This thing is also expected to be a good student.”

When I really said it, I put the prayer wheel back again.

When there was a change, Shen Lang took his hand to the head of the canoe and the wind, and threw it back to them.

“This is for you!”

Shen Lang said a bit serious.

Before the prayer wheel, it was already made abnormal, and it made him unable to argue. But if the master had a reincarnation, he still needed it.

Even if the guru didn't want to reincarnate again, it should be true to them.

However, Shen Lang is not good to say that, so it is directly like a command.

“This is for you,” and that was told to them in Master's tone.

“The facts have proven that you can touch and resonate, so this is a gift left by the guru, you are a good person!”

“If you continue to stay with us, or be a obsession with us.”

Both the true and the illusion have said this, and it is not good to let Shen Lang refuse.

“Okay, then I will accept it. I...”

Shen Langben wants to say a few words, what must not use it to do evil, and the hand almost shakes up, but immediately stopped.

He doesn't need to promise anything, and the other party doesn't need any commitment from him.

For this true and the illusion, this is the most important thing they care about.

After this matter is over, I have to think about the business of Shen Lang.

There are other religious forces in foreign countries who are trying to make trouble here. They all say that they are obliged to stand up and resist.

The strength of the two of them is actually not low, basically reaching the level of half a cent.

Putting it on the earth is really the strongest decision.

Before exploring the return to the sea, they did not care, did not appear; super giants appeared in the world, they did not go hunting.

This is really a hidden world!

However, it is not difficult to understand that their teachings are different, and their lives are equal. The demon and the beast are the same beings.

If there is a disaster, you can drop the demon, but if you deliberately hunted the demon and the beast, take Nedan to eat flesh and other upgrades, it is a killing.

As for going to the sea of innocence, it is also related to their teachings. They are pursuing the sanctification of spiritual detachment, not the absolute power.

The obsession with power is also a kind of greed, and their practice is to break these.

They are different from the Mahayana sects of the Central Plains who pay attention to the evangelization of all beings. They are completely self-cultivation.

Therefore, regardless of the outside world, concentrate on the snowy plateau, in the Gangdese, in the snowy mountains of the Himalayas for decades of hard work, this is why they can have today's strength.

Shen Lang's past life has studied the methods of various factions of various parties. For this, he did not feel much mysterious.

The reason why they do not pursue the ultimate in power, but can achieve a higher level, is because of the detached state of mind.

Just like Shen Lang's re-construction, the state of mind is high and the spirit is strong, which is of great help to his cultivation.

Mindset is very important.

The old princes who had their two and a half centuries were guarding here, and they should be able to cope with the Pope.

But now, Shen Lang is here, he still has a voter, they don't need them to shoot.

Now, if you are in a canoe, you will be able to come out and be stronger than them!

Of course, the state of mind is not as good as the two of them.

But this is a battle, you don't need to test your heart, and pure power can be crushed.

“Let’s go back, let’s give us a few here.”

The reason is clear, Shen Lang sent them away. As long as you don’t add chaos, you will help. If you stay here, you really need to take care of them.

The true and the illusion two people looked at each other, and the eyes were tacitly discussed.

Then I made a decision right away.

“Okay, then we will go back.”

In their view, this is the reincarnation of the guru, it will appear here, it is the chance, that is, it should be robbed, and naturally they do not need them.

At this time Shen Lang’s eyes looked in one direction.

Soon, everyone also looked at the past.

Someone has come over!

Shen Lang is a bit helpless, and the enemy who is still waiting is still a local monk.

“It is Wang.” This is already recognized.

This illusion immediately explained quickly with Shen Lang.

Wang is a leader of a sect of Tantric, and also known as a living Buddha. It is also famous in the world and has many disciples. His temple is thousands of miles away. It is said that it is not sensed. I did not expect it to appear here.

Chapter 2140 - Damn

Wang is not alone.

I don't know if it came from a thousand miles away, or if it was closer, he used a flying magic weapon and came with four monks.

These few do not know if it is his disciple, but can bring it here, obviously the strength will not be too weak.

Before they arrived, Shen Lang did not show any malice.

Before the two illusions, the true two, he still did not know how to clean up their preparations, but now they are two here, it should be easier to reason, there is no need to prepare for the shot.

Shen Lang personally here, do not need them to shoot, let them continue to maintain cultivation, and the illusion, the true two, is also ready to help communicate.

Wang appeared in the field of vision, and then the capital Gang Rinpo came.

Just as they were when they came, they also saw Shen Lang and others at the peak, so they also flew over, but they did not step outside.

“Wang, I haven't seen you for a long time.”

“This is true, the magic! It turns out that you two thieves, colluding with outsiders to smash my mountain!”

This really made a greeting, but Wang was severely squandered.

“I still have more than one woman on the mountain! It is damn!”

“Wang Ze! This is not your own mountain, this is our mountain. Master Shen Lang is not a mortal, and there are reasons for it...”

This illusion explains it.

But before I finished, I was already interrupted.

“Shut up! 褻瀆神山, death sin! Your second thief, collusion with outsiders, blasphemy mountain, is a death sin!”

After Wang personally squandered it, the four monks who were with him immediately attacked and attacked.

“This is true, the illusion! If you still have a trace of faith, you will break yourself!”

“Before you break, you need to remove the garbage you brought!”

“I don’t think you are such a person! Is it worthy of your Master, worthy of your sect?”

“If it is not prosperous, the living Buddha perceives that we can’t stop you thieves in time!”

Originally, Shen Lang let the true and the illusion communicate. It is because they are all people here. They are all old, they should know each other, and they should communicate better than a younger foreigner.

I did not expect the attitude of the other party, it is relatively bad, it is simply pointing at the face!

I even think that he and the women are not even qualified to be detained, it is the garbage that was brought!

At this moment, the deep waves that were bothering the truth and the illusion of the illusion have greatly increased their affection for both of them.

This is the attitude of believers in maintaining the holy land of the mountain. Just two of them, can not care about these, really is very friendly, and really regard him as a master reincarnation.

“What are you counting?”

The other party is so embarrassed, and Shen Lang certainly has no good attitude. Just listen to the truth!

In this case, it can only be done first, so that they can see who's fist is hard.

Wang is a few people, apparently did not expect Shen Lang to dare to talk to them like this!

Because of their age, after they came over, the instinct ignored them. They felt that the true and the illusion were masterminds. Collusion of outsiders was just a guilty reason.

Now a young man in this district dares to say what they are?

"This is true, the magic! You don't do it, then don't blame us for being ruthless!"

"You are doing it now, grab a few of them, we can give you a way to live, wait for us to do it, and all will die!"

"Open mouth is just shouting and killing, are you really a monk?"

Shen Lang did not get angry and returned to them.

He has already noticed that the faces of both the true and the illusion are not good-looking.

The two also wanted to communicate well, but the other party refused to communicate when they opened the door. It was almost two ways to give them: they grabbed the waves and asked for mercy; or they just fought directly with them.

"Catch this thief!"

Wang said casually, the goal is Shen Lang.

For the strength of Shen Lang, he could not see clearly. In his view, it should be that the strength is too low, and it would not be thought that it is far better than his height.

So you don't need to be personally shot, just one person can do it.

While talking, his eyes are staring at the illusion, the true two, the meaning is very obvious, if they do two hands, then he will start!

“You don’t want to mess!”

“You can’t offend the master of Shen Lang. People come here to protect the mountain!”

The illusion and the true two still want to persuade, but the atmosphere has not been reconciled.

After Wang ordered it, one of the monks attacked Shen Lang directly.

His hands reacted quickly and he formed a mysterious handprint. In the process of printing, he has already driven powerful energy, and it is almost coming to the waves!

But just as his attack just left, it suddenly solidified in the air!

A person freezes in the air, an object solidifies in the air, but the “attack” solidifies in the air, it is weird.

The attack is a verb!

Just like the wind is a flowing air, can a wind freeze? It’s still called the wind?

But the fact is that he attacked by hand and could play a role, of course, the energy of the attack, no matter where it came from, what form of energy.

What is now frozen is the energy he attacks.

Anyone else will fall, and this energy will freeze as if it has stopped and disappeared. But the monk himself is very shocked!

Because that is the energy he is manipulating, but now he can’t move.

In the next moment, he immediately felt that all the energy had returned, and that handprint, all solidly hit on his own body!

The horrified monk, who was caught off guard, fell directly from the air and fell below the Gangrenboqi Peak!

This change made everyone surprised.

This illusion, the true respect for Shen Lang, stems from their belief that this is the reincarnation of the Guru. Shen Lang really has more powerful strength, they are not clear.

Therefore, they are still reasonable at this moment, and there is no direct incitement to shoot.

Just then, they also figured out that this is not their intervention, it is the wave of hands.

But how does Shen Lang do it In fact, they simply can't see through, and they don't even feel it!

A few people on the side of Wangze were greatly surprised.

A young man, who thought it was hand-to-hand, everyone is wary of the illusion, the true two will shoot.

As a result, I didn't figure out how the people who attacked me fell down directly!

With their strength, even if they fall from this air, they can land safely.

But the person just vomited blood first, and like a kite that had broken the line, and did not fall by self-control, so that they did not dare to care, and quickly one person accelerated to catch up, to catch before landing.
