

First Strong 2141

Chapter 2141 - Does the mountain promise?

Soon, the air once again appeared to surprise everyone!

The monk who vomited blood and fell down, has not landed too much, but suddenly flew up, let the monk who chased him to pick him up, all fall.

If the injury is not so serious, it is a good thing to be able to come up by yourself.

But this person has not turned back, I feel that I have been pulled up by powerful forces!

The reason why I was amazed is because everyone can clearly see that these two people are not flying normally, but are pulled by a certain force!

If it is self-control, no matter what shape, it should be the normal standing posture upwards, and at most oblique.

No one will fly to the sky and back to the sky.

The two who just fell down and flew down to rescue, this time they all flew upwards in the sky, and the postures were a little curled up, as if they were pulled and pulled up.

This illusion, the true two, is considered to be on the side of Shen Lang, so it is just a surprise to see.

And Wang Ze and the remaining two are serious.

At this moment, they all understood that they had already been underestimated. The young man, the strength is not simple!

“Who are you in the end? Why do you want to marry me?”

Wang then screamed and asked, and did not manage the two people in the air.

This fully illustrates his calm, even if his two people were defeated by the spike, did not make him flustered.

“Who am I, what are you doing?”

Shen Lang’s hand, the two people already in the air, will circle around the fast circle, the speed is getting faster and faster, if they hit together, it is estimated to be very painful...

This picture is even more shocking to everyone.

Even if they are not as good as Wang, they are not even as true as the illusion, and basically they all reach the end of the realm of the gods and the peaks.

Now it is being played by Shen Lang in the palm of the hand!

This is really just moving your fingers, and they have no room for rebellion.

Including Wang Tzu himself, he quickly sensed his surroundings and did not find any control. He was relieved.

Then they quickly formed a field-like protection circle around themselves.

In this way, Shen Lang wants to control them, it is impossible to do it.

“You said this is your mountain of God. You call it, does it promise?”

“...”

The words of Shen Lang made Wang’s face look ugly.

God special code promised!

Can you call a mountain to promise?

But they can't respond like this, because Shen Lang did not say that this is his mountain.

"You see, you won't agree? This shows that you are lying! Try to stand up and seize a big mountain."

Shen Lang smiled faintly: "I am not the same. I came up to the top of the mountain and got permission. It is true that the true and the illusion can come up. The mountain does not matter to you, and will not allow you to come up." "

"Nonsense! That is the mountain of God, we all worship and worship! You will not step on the shackles, you are the blasphemy of the mountain!"

Of course they do not believe that the mountain will allow and not allow.

"Do not believe? Who are you coming up to see? If Shenshan allows you to come up, count me to lose!"

When Shen Lang spoke, his fingers waved, and the two monks who turned in the air for dozens of laps fell down again.

At this moment, Wang also did not care whether the two were injured or not. They were all concentrated in front of them.

They know it!

Shen Lang just said that Shenshan does not allow them to set foot, in fact, he is not allowed.

Now this is equal to one topic, if they want to prove themselves, they must fall on the mountain. If Shen Lang can control and prevent them from reaching the summit, they will win. If they let them fall, they will lose.

The peak range of Gang Rinpoqi is also very large. Now they face a few Shen Lang, just a small area, even if he wants to defend, it is difficult to prevent the entire mountain!

This relationship is no longer glory and face, but the ownership of the mountain.

Originally, this is the Shenshan of many sects, and everyone can be considered peaceful coexistence.

But now the meaning of Shen Lang is to delist them!

The three people immediately and tacitly separated quickly, and the two quickly circumnavigated on both sides, and Wang was the front bar from Shen Lang!

He must be positive, or else it is imaginary.

He also doesn't care if he can go forward, even if he can't, he is also holding back the Shenlang. The other two people can go up, which means they won.

More importantly, he must take advantage of this opportunity to test the strength of this young man!

It is now a summit, not a formal battle. When the expert takes a shot, he knows if there is any. If even this is better than that, then the war will only be even worse.

So at this moment, three people are divided into work wars.

This is also a very good tacit understanding, can be done quickly.

Both the illusion and the true man are looking at Shen Lang with a slight nervousness.

Because the two of them are very clear, the other four are not counted, but Wang is stronger than the two of them!

This is also why Wang can have such an attitude, take advantage of it, and have stronger strength.

At this moment, they can also see that this is a temptation, but to put it bluntly, it is still a positive confrontation between Wang Ze and Shen Lang!

If Wang found that he could hold back the waves, it would not be a temptation, and he would definitely take the opportunity to kill the killer!

The other two, on the one hand, will divide the heart of the waves, on the other hand, they may also support them at any time.

The speed of the three of them is fast, but the change is faster!

Just after the three talents moved, they immediately found their trajectory changed!

The two people who went around to the left and right, found that they did not walk in their own direction, but were pulled directly to the mountain, but when they had not reached the mountain, they were strongly bounced out!

The same is true of Shen Lang's positive Wang, who was originally going to the mountain. At this moment, he was pulled faster and then bounced out strongly!

At that moment, he did not have the power to resist!

This picture falls in the eyes of other people. Basically, three people fall to the mountain peak, and then they are directly rejected by Shenshan When they pop up, Wang is in a big heart!

Before the three of them together, they formed a field protection circle. Even if they were separated, they each protected their surroundings.

Originally, this was their defensive field, and they did not feel the attack of Shen Lang. However, at the moment of the summit, they were still held down and popped up.

That seems to be... Shen Lang is even controlled by their field!

In other words, although Shen Lang did not directly attack them, they all manipulated a space around them!

Just like this, let's judge!

Chapter 2142 - Secret trick

There is still a circle of space around them, which is to throw them out of the bounce and not hurt them.

Of course, it's not that Shen Lang can't do it, but it's a small punishment. I don't want to hurt them, or I can kill it if I kill.

"Is there no? Shenshan does not allow you to climb to the top, and you are not allowed to claim to be your mountain!"

At this moment, the two had fallen to the foot of the mountain.

The process of turning the circle did not hurt them, but it fell out, but it really made them fall to the ground.

During the period they want to resist, there is no way. Whether it was the one who was injured or not injured, it was thrown to the ground before it was given up.

Wang, the three of them, flew hundreds of meters in the air, and after the strength of the layer disappeared, they all returned again.

"What the **** are you? What are you doing here? What do you want to do with Gang Rinpoche?"

The attitude of Wang Ze has changed again. Although it is still strict, it is not a stern drink, but a trace of fear.

"What is it about you? Now go back, I can still let you go!"

In the case of Shen Lang, let the atmosphere become solidified.

The reason why I didn't communicate well was that Wang's judgment on Shen Lang was wrong.

When Shen Lang was willing to communicate with him, he simply dismissed it. He was also a bad attitude towards the good-sounding illusion and the true two.

Now that I have gone through a simple fight, I have realized the gap. I want to communicate, and the Shenlang is not happy.

In Wang Ze's view, his attitude has been lowered and then lowered, it is already very rare.

However, in the case of Shen Lang, it was acceptable when I first came. It is only this attitude that is beaten now. That is not enough.

“Go back! There won't be anything here, Master Shen Lang is here to protect the mountain.”

This illusion also opened up to persuade one sentence.

Although they had a bad attitude before, they did not want to make things bother.

It has been proved now that Shen Lang has strong strength and will not suffer losses. This is actually helping them.

Naiwangwang does not appreciate it!

Wang feels that his posture has been put low, and Shen Lang has made him roll back, which has made him very unhappy.

He was tangled when he wanted to turn his face directly and heard the words of the illusion.

The illusion of this illusion, in his ears, becomes very harsh.

“Go back,” it is equivalent to Shen Lang said “roll back”!

“There will be nothing here,” like “There is nothing wrong with you here!”

Originally, in the realm of Wangze, it is very high to cultivate in a state of mind. However, because he is famous and has many disciples, he is used to being respected. For the true and the illusion, the two ascetic monks have never been able to stand up.

Just being an outsider by Shen Lang, a young man teased, the mood has been very uncomfortable, and then by the words of the illusion, it directly detonated...

“You are going back to you! The mountain is ours!”

When Wang said this, he immediately retreated a distance of 100 meters.

The other two did not dare to neglect, and quickly followed back to the back, assisting him on both sides of Wangze.

At the moment, Wang is also a handprint flying, and the mouth is even a chanting spell, as if with a power amplifier, the sound directly covered the peak of this side.

Both the true and the illusion were immediately nervous and quickly reminded Shen Lang.

“Up... Shen Lang master is careful, this is the secret of Wang Ze!”

They are based on the movements of Wang Ze, and the protection of the two gods next to them, guessing what this is. But the specific effect of the secret surgery is also unclear.

After all, even if they have exchanges in the local area, they will not use the degree of secret surgery.

Now Wang is the rhythm of desperate efforts. Once it is shot, it must be of great power, and it must be highly valued.

But... they are not good at it.

Because they are their own people from the geographical and sectarian origins, if they do not have the relationship of “reincarnation”, they must cooperate with Wang Ze to deal with Shen Lang.

Now this relationship, Shen Lang does not recognize, they are not convenient to say.

Therefore, even if they are worried, they are not good enough to stand up and help the waves. At most, they can only wait until the time when the waves are dangerous, and save them.

The principle is still clear.

But what surprised two people was that Shen Lang was not in a hurry, and he was not even anxious to let the women in the cultivation get up and guard.

These girls, except for one who cares aside, the other four, but they are unmoved and continue to maintain their cultivation.

Is it because the support for Shen Lang overdraft is serious?

And this picture, falling in the eyes of Wangze, is a serious provocation against them, a silent ridicule!

All did not put his big move in the eye!

This young man is like this, so are a few women!

Perhaps Wang's original attack has the idea of leaving a little room, but at this moment, it is completely gone.

Because Shen Lang can completely crush opponents, it is really a gesture of easy watching at the moment.

It's like a boxing champion. Watching a child play a boxing method, he can smile and wait for him to demonstrate all the tricks. When he rushes to the front, he can take a KO with a punch. !

Wang's handprints are flying fast, and the innermost chanting spells are getting faster and faster.

At the moment, the two people who fell to the bottom, regardless of the situation, have already climbed up and bowed to the summit of Gang Rinpoche.

The two beside the Wangze are also assisted by the side. There are also some handprints. They seem to supply their energy to Wangze, so that the power of Wangze is stronger!

Shen Lang is completely unconcerned, even if they are united together, five together, can directly KO. Even if this handprint or spell can be used to provoke a formation, he will not look at it at all.

If he wants to take a shot, he can break away the other party at any time!

If you don't shoot, you just want to open your eyes and let the other party fully display this mystery.

In the previous life, in order to learn more about the martial arts, he also tried his best. Like the secret technique of the remote secrets at the bottom of the box, there is no chance to understand.

Now if it is a normal battle, no matter what spells, handprints, or enchantments, can't enter the eyes of Shen Lang now that is to see the secrets of their secrets. What kind of big move is it.

In an instant, Shen Lang felt it!

Dorothy and the tempering state of them feel a few!

The true and the illusion are also felt!

This secret trick, not from the attack of Wang Ze itself, actually triggered the energy of the gods of the mountain Rinpoche!

The mountain that was previously mobilized twice by Shen Lang, once again changed.

This time, the energy that erupted was swept away directly into the waves, and attacked!

Chapter 2143 - Adventurous

The singularity of Wang Ze is undoubtedly higher than that of the illusion and the true.

Or their sects should be higher in terms of exercises.

This is the power that can be called to the Gangrenboqi Peak!

After the second round of the previous round, Shen Lang actually had a better understanding of the situation of Gang Rinpo Qifeng.

This mountain peak is not ordinary, so it can become a holy land of several sects. For thousands of years, a large number of faithful powers contributed by honest believers have also gathered here.

It is similar to the way the Light God teaches them, but there is no medium such as holy paintings and holy waters. The carrier is this mountain.

In ancient times, the cultivators, perhaps the messengers and disciples of higher civilizations, like the power of the light gods to absorb the faith of the mortal world, this is also a carrier for the gods of higher civilization to contribute their power.

There is already an ecology in the light gods. Some of them are dedicated to the gods of light, and some are used by means of holy paintings and holy waters to help the archbishops improve their strength.

Here, the Gangrenboqi peak can gather so much that it is necessary to form a sense of autonomy. Have you never taken it from here?

This is also possible. Years and months have passed. Once lost, you may not know how to use it.

But what about the higher civilization of the gods? Didn't you take divine power?

Or to say... Through the space, only a part of it can be absorbed, and the rest remains here, and it will be more and more accumulated over thousands of years.

Shen Lang himself has experienced it. In different spaces, he can absorb the power of faith. However, no matter which side he collects, he does not say how much it is charged, and the time continuity is not long.

In addition, he has not experienced such a way in his previous life, and this world has harvested these waves. There is not much research and no detailed comparison data.

So he can only confirm the approximation and confirm that it can be received in other spaces, but it is not clear if there is any decrease.

Because of this, even if he felt a significant weakening, he thought it was a heat, or a long distance.

Now, considering the situation of Guangmingism, it seems that there is such a possibility.

It is precisely because the God of Light can only absorb part of the power of faith, and the extra can be used in other ways.

Because of the differences in the environment and the level of piety, Gang Rinpoche has always been well preserved and has not been used.

The situation just after Wang is also very sacred to the mountain, just want to force the waves to leave and punish. It is not a battle, but he will not use such a secret.

This mystery may have been handed down from generation to generation, and there is no chance to use it, and this is the same way of borrowing the light from the Light God.

All the thoughts are just flashing through the brains of Shen Lang.

At the same time, he put his attention on how to deal with it.

He has experience in dealing with Shenguang in Guangmingshan. It is really the power of God. Even if it is only borrowed a trace, the power is also very amazing.

Even the part of the light that he absorbed was used very well afterwards.

At this moment, for the attack of Gang Rinpoche, Shen Lang must be extra cautious and cannot be the slightest enemy.

Although this attack is directed against him, but the scope of the raging momentum, coverage is still not small, so Shen Lang is also manipulating the realm of God, the illusion, the true, and a few of them, completely sent to hundreds Outside the meter.

Still at the top of the peak, but it is not within the scope of the attack.

I felt the attack, and the people who were in the canoe were also sent out when they were sent away.

When everyone was sent off, Shen Lang was completely covered by the attack of Gang Rinpo Qifeng!

It's like the wind, although it's not visible, but everyone can feel its existence and can appreciate its power.

At this moment, whether it is a few in the air, or other people, can see the situation of Shen Lang far away.

This illusion, the original two, originally thought that if they would hurt the Shenlang, they can help in time.

I didn't expect to be moved away at the moment, and I couldn't even break free.

Looking at the waves again, I can only pray in silence, and it is also very fascinating!

After all, they determined that Shen Lang was the reincarnation of the Guru, allowing them to follow their lives, and after the death, still looking for reincarnation, the worship of Master is undoubtedly very high.

Therefore, even if the front feels that Shen Lang is so young and can't cope, the subconscious still feels that this is Master, certainly very powerful, and I hope to see this.

At this crucial moment, Shen Lang faced the attacking energy of Gang Rinpoche, but chose to accommodate and absorb it!

He is also a little risky, and that is absolutely powerful. If one is not manipulated, it will be a serious injury.

However, he still has the confidence, which comes from two aspects.

On the one hand, it has just been contacted by Gangrenbo Qifeng twice, and it has absorbed a lot of energy. How much should it be his own?

From this point of view, Wang is more like an outsider.

On the other hand, it is the gap between the strength of two people.

Wang is feeling in Shenlang, but it is only a half-sex level, which is stronger than the original and the true, but it has not yet reached the peak of the half.

Therefore, even if you borrow power, it is limited.

Just like the gods of the gods of light, the light that can be borrowed from the earth, and the apostles who are in the mountains of the Guangmingshan, can be borrowed differently.

If the current enemy is a strong man of the Great Xianfeng, and then borrow the power of God, Shen Lang does not dare to support the big.

But what about people who are less than half a fairy, even if they use the power of God, can they be ten times more powerful than him?

This is the confidence in our own strength!

He is confident that he has the ability to survive the blow of Gang Rinpoche, or even if he can't hold it, he can dodge before he can't help.

But this scene falls in the eyes of others, it is shocked and scared!

Just Shen Lang is still in the name of Shenshan Do not let them come up. Now they directly summon the attack on the mountain, it will not be surprising to be scared.

Wang several people, it is directly felt that the attack has been rolled around the waves, it is a hint of relief.

Such a mysterious attack, Wang does not know the power of geometry, even before summoning the power of the mountain, he is not sure whether it can be done.

Now that the proof is true, the legend is naturally true. Shenshan really has the power of God, and it can destroy all evil spirits!

At this moment, the vision that made everyone horrified appeared.

Shen Lang was not only not bombarded by the attack of Gang Rinpo Qifeng, but seemed to enjoy it. The power of the scorpion was swept around him, but he was like a spring breeze!

Chapter 2144 - God Buddha came to the world?

When Shen Lang is like a spring breeze, it's really not a show!

He was already ready, including preparation for the injury. When it came to contact with the energy of the Gang Rinpoche peak, it changed immediately.

Because Shen Lang used to meet at this moment, it is the energy of the mountain that was absorbed before!

Before the massive amount of energy was poured over, I wanted to block the barriers. He could only convey his strength to them and accept them while they were empty.

In such a short period of time, these energies have not yet been refining, or the original state.

So when the energy that comes from this attack comes into contact with these same energies, it is immediately flooded into the river!

When the flood encounters confrontation, it will naturally be a raging shock. Even if it is not confrontation, everything will be destroyed.

But what about floods in the waters of rivers, lakes and seas? Even after the remittance, there will be rough waves, but there is no flood to destroy the flood!

So at this moment, Shen Lang basically copied the previous feelings – a huge amount of energy rushed over!

This has already been experienced, and some of the previous ones are not white.

What kind of characters are Shen Lang?

The past life has been bullish, and this world has more experience.

Just now, we must let them share it together, but the power of the individual is too strong, and one can't control it.

And that's an unexpected state. It's too late to have more preparations. You can only deal with it first.

When it is finished, he is silently compressing the energy in the dark.

This is the experience gained from the analysis of the light, compressing these energy, can be better utilized, and will not be too large for the time being.

So from the end of the day, to Wang, they came over, Shen Lang "Yin Yang Bo Ruozhenzhen" is running, compressing these energy is also in operation.

The absorption at the moment, for him, of course, is also absorbed while absorbing.

Compared with the previous one, this time it is more violent, but because of the experience, with advance preparation, there is no hardship.

After successfully completing this step, Shen Lang is relieved.

After a while of adjustment, he began to be distracted!

While absorbing and compressing, he also spoke with ease...

“Wang Ze! I have said, Shenshan is not yours, it is mine! You want to attack my mountain to deal with me? These forces, but belong to me!”

“...!”

The people who were in the canoe and the other stood up. Just after Shen Lang had to send them out for a few hundred meters, they had already made them realize that things were more serious, so they were all a bit worried.

After observing, I saw a similar picture before.

Before Shen Lang was to let them share the help one by one, but now it is just a person, which makes them all want to help in the past.

At this moment, seeing him so relaxed, he is relieved.

But this illusion, the original two, and Wang Ze and other five people, is completely shocked!

Just Wang is really through the mystery, which triggered the resonance of Gang Rinpoche, borrowing the power of Shenshan to attack Shen Lang. However, there was no attack on the sinking waves at all, and all the forces seemed to be resolved by him.

Do not!

It is not a solution, but it seems that all the power has been absorbed by him, and it is still being absorbed!

This makes the illusion and the true two incredible, but also a little excited.

It is worthy of the reincarnation of the guru!

Regardless of whether you admit it or not, whether you have awakened memories of past lives, this is extraordinary, only the master can have such a legendary power!

Wang, a few of them, shocked that they did not know how to describe it.

This young man is obviously a Han Chinese in the Central Plains, and even more likely to be a believer. How can he get the recognition of the mountain?

Why is this so?

Even if it was passed down from old age, I have not heard of anyone who can manipulate the energy of the mountain.

Is it... this is the Buddha's coming to the world?

It was this idea that made them so shocked that they could not breathe.

They believe in piety. If it is a god, it is the greatest surprise for every believer.

But there is still the problem of "Ye Gong Hao Long". Even if I usually put the Buddha in my heart, I really want to see the Buddha. It will be very tense.

Only in addition to the coming of the Buddha, they really can't think of a better explanation.

This is their mountain of God, the land they guard, the sham, and they should be fake, not others.

Since ancient times, people have unconsciously mystified things and phenomena that cannot be explained by common sense.

Now, Shen Lang is a phenomenon they can't explain...

Why does Shenshan not attack him, and he is willing to absorb all the power of the attack. This can only be an explanation, or else they must subvert their cognition.

So at this moment, they became sluggish and didn't know what to do.

A pause in the moment also stopped the secret technique of Wang Ze, and the infusion of energy that Shenshan did not touch again came.

Shen Lang calmly absorbed all the energy, and there was no waste at all.

“There is nothing to do with it? Now it's my turn!”

Shen Langyi waved, and the three people who stayed in the house were all arrested by him, and they came to his front!

They have just tried their best to show their secrets, so that they have lost their defenses. Under the imprisonment of the field of Shen Langshen, they have no resilience.

However, when they came out, their beliefs were still pious. Even at such a moment, when they set foot on the summit of Gang Rinpoche, they were still shocked and a little sincere and fearful.

“Really, how come you come here?”

Although Shen Lang did not force them to the ground, but with the previous picture, and when they saw the Shen Lang, they invisibly merged Shen Lang and Shenshan.

So at this moment, looking at the waves in front of you, it seems to be very tall, but there is also a feeling of Buddha's light. The original Himalayan mountains have become solemn backgrounds.

“Before I felt that something happened in the mountain, I came here specially.”

Wang also really answered honestly. After the answer was over, he was amazed.

Shen Lang is secretly nodding, which is similar to his guess.

Wang is not perceived in a thousand miles, but has a hunch in advance, so he rushed in advance.

It's just that something happened What exactly is it?

Is the Pope coming over and fighting with everyone here?

Or is it because he alarmed the movement of Gang Rinpoche?

They are also coming over, but they are not interested in talking. I felt it before, because they persuaded them, but they intensified them.

“Go back! There will be things happening here, but not what you can face and solve, let me handle it!”

This is what Shen Lang said before. Before that, he was angered by Wang, but now this sentence is said, and Wang is three, but it is a respectful promise.

“Okay, let's go back soon.”

Chapter 2145 - Renewed power

The whole process was very fast. Wang had no objection to the voice, directly obedient, and then respectfully bowed. Finally, he took the following two and then left Gang Rinpoche.

Where did you come from and where did you go?

This scene shows the two people of the illusion and the true!

Before Wang, it was so hard, so excited, how can you be so obedient?

They absolutely do not believe that this is a change of power, this is actually an invisible upper-class habit, not a change can be made.

It can only be conquered by Shen Lang.

I think that he can manipulate the power of the mountain before he can receive it.

But how can it be so simple?

Because of the manipulation of the mountain's belief in divine power, let Wang be shocked. But that was only a moment, only to let him not dare to mess, but not so honest.

Later, when Shen Lang arrested them, they directly began to suppress their mental strength, and then exerted influence.

Because the realm of Shen Lang is strong, and the treatment is invisible, it does not seem to control them, but they are willing to obey.

Of course, after they have been sent away, the impact will be eliminated and they will wake up.

However, that is no longer important. Even if they wake up again, they just feel embarrassed, but the disparity in strength is already clear, and it is impossible to kill them again.

After sending them away, Shen Lang sent the illusion and the true two left.

Just now, their situation has been proved, even if they are both here, it will not help. Instead, it may be easier to intensify the locals or deal with them yourself.

This illusion is really two people, naturally I don't want to leave.

It's hard to find a guru. Even if you can't follow it for a long time, it's good to be able to get along for a while. Because there is a hunch, this one, there is no chance to meet again in the future.

But everyone also understands that just a few of them have come, and they are here to help explain, it has no effect, when you really want to do it, people do not need them.

It's just a bit cumbersome.

In desperation, the two were also respectful salutes, and then left to leave.

However, it is still a bit different. The two are affected and driven away. The two of them are still happy to leave.

After they left, Shen Lang asked them a few.

Because the realm of Shen Lang is higher than them, so directly instilling the vitality into them, even if it is four people, the harvest is great.

However, for such a short period of time, they are still not fully digested. It was not long before it was upgraded. It is not so easy to break through to the peak of Daxian.

At this point, Shen Lang has already understood clearly about Gang Rinpo Qifeng, and he is not guilty of continuing to be at the top of the mountain.

If you come back to other denominations in the next few days, then there is a conflict.

This time I am waiting for foreign enemies. I can't kill myself because I am not happy at the moment.

And this is the holy land of others, and it is also difficult to let others have no temper. This fantasy is special.

So in the next moment, Shen Lang took them and flew down from the top of the pyramid-shaped snow peak.

In fact, this is not at the foot of the mountain, probably the height of the mid-mountain.

Before Shen Lang did not let them stay in the Tianshu space to cultivate, because the previous retreat has been upgraded, and can not be improved in a short time, do not need to be so urgent.

Now they are a bit different, because they absorb his vitality, which is a lot of energy for them. If they can't be well integrated with refining, once they fight, they may not be well controlled and may cause problems.

So now, after they have come down, they will be carried directly into the space of heaven.

There is only one person left, just between the snow peaks, waiting for the Pope to come.

In the realm of Shen Lang, it is not necessary to occupy the commanding heights to look far. Because the enemy is coming from which direction, it is not clear, and it is not necessary to rely on visual inspection.

In the following time, he was also distracted and sent himself.

In order not to be forced by the sky, Shen Lang did not want to improve at all, but now it is unexpected and gets a lot of energy.

Therefore, now he is not practicing hard work, but compressing the power of the Gang Rinpo Qifeng, which was previously absorbed, for later use.

If you are in the space of heaven, he can also get a hundred times of play.

There is always someone here to guard, just keep Dorothy who doesn't need to practice here, and don't worry. In case the Pope came over, she was not well handled.

However, after comparing it, Shen Lang decided to stay in Dorothy here, he went to the space of heaven!

According to the normal time, wait a few more hours, it is dark, and then one night to dawn, the other party will arrive tomorrow at the latest.

In this case, Shen Lang himself is guarding here, at most for a dozen hours.

And the time of the space is a hundred times!

After leaving for a few hours or even tens of minutes, Shen Lang is not at ease. I really have to come so skillfully. There are many things that can happen in dozens of minutes.

But he stayed in it for an hour or two, but the outside world was only a minute away. There was no loss of control in one minute!

Anyway, it is only a dozen hours of free use outside, in which he can come out in an hour or two.

For this arrangement, Dorothy does not need any explanation, she is completely obedient.

Even she is very happy and excited!

Because this time, the waves came back, the gap and they are getting bigger and bigger, I feel that I can't help. Just now everyone can help to share the pressure of a little wave, she did not help, and now have the opportunity to stay alone, she is of course very happy.

Next, Shen Lang followed this rhythm and compressed it for a few hours and then went out for a few minutes.

With so much time, he can do better and compress and store these gods very well. And because this is not a one-time solution, it will stop from time to time and it will not be affected.

After an hour has passed, Shen Lang has spent several days and has compressed all the power.

I am still idle when I am still idle He tries to contact with Gangrenbo Qifeng again, and draws energy from it!

After three times, this has been very calm.

In the next few hours, Shen Lang was able to absorb a lot of energy and began to compress it continuously. It was directly and greatly saved the energy!

So I have been tossing until dark.

The Pope and his party waiting for this trip are finally here!

For the four people, such as the canoe, this is a retreat without any interference for more than 20 days, and all the energy has been completely refining.

It is also completely brought out, so that they are ready to face the enemy.

Chapter 2146 - Forgotten strength

Shen Lang took the girls and locked them in advance.

As he analyzed, they really came from the Himalayas and should have crossed the border of the Himalayas from South Asia.

After confirming, Shen Lang took them and greeted them forward, waiting on the top of a mountain.

The elevation of this mountain peak is not as high as that of Gangrenboqi. However, in the case of inconvenient trip to Gangrenboqifeng, this is a good place to block in advance. The peak is always more powerful than the mountain and the mountainside.

The plateau and the mountain peaks are just a few people on it. This is very inconspicuous.

But they are different. They don't converge on their own atmosphere. The ordinary people don't feel it. The self-cultivators are not close, and they feel that there is a strong existence here!

The Pope and his party, this is the next comrade, not coming over one night in advance, of course, it will prevent China from guarding.

So I didn't wait to get close, but I also found the situation here.

In front of the Gangrenbo Qifeng, the other party is rushing to stay at this mountain, obviously waiting for them in advance.

If you want to go around, it is almost impossible, but it seems guilty and sneaky.

Their time for the battle was tomorrow at noon, and it was a bit sneaky before coming tonight, but since it was discovered, it still did not shrink.

"It turned out to be Lord Shen Lang."

Before coming close, the Pope's voice was heard.

They also used the same flying magic weapon to come together.

In addition to the Pope, there are two other strong people like him, and there are three more people, adding up to twelve people.

Seeing the Pope at this moment, feeling his level, Shen Lang only remembered one thing.

The Pope has the power of the Great Fairy!

The Pope was originally only half a centimeter, but after the mainland of Nakajima, it should have been brought to the Guangming Mountain. The light **** instilled power for him and helped him to ascend to the realm of Daxian.

Only when I saw it last time, Shen Lang was an enemy, and the Pope was no longer the protagonist. His focus was on Paul God, who was manipulated by the Light God.

At that time, with an enemy three, Paul with the glory of the gods was shackled, Brooks was also destroyed, the Pope had to yield, and cooperated with Shen Lang to open the sedan.

It was because of the limited play of the pope that Shen Lang then chased other gods to the world of giant beasts, then to Guangmingshan and so on. There are so many things going on in the back, so that in his impression, the Pope still stays at the level of the previous half.

Now found that it is also a bit lucky!

If his prestige was enough to hold them back, when he left, the Pope would attack the wind, no one, or the canoe, or come to China to kill the Quartet, it is really dangerous!

Shen Lang will promote a few of them to the realm of Daxian, that is, to grasp the initiative, rather than pin their hopes on the hidden ancestors who may or may not exist.

Fortunately, he did not leave the time for a long time, and the act of killing God's distraction and ruining the Pope.

Plus, Shen Lang's ghost is gone, so that he is not sure if Shen Lang is there.

I have been dragging it until now. I should have set up a temporary alliance here for so long, but I can't find the news that Shen Lang is sitting in the town, let them know, and this confirms that the contact is not on, which means that Shen Lang is probably not in this world.

Of course, the true gods can balance them. It can be seen that the two sects of the true sects and the sects, even if they do not have the same strength, add up to each other.

This time, it may be that the true gods can't stand it. They are not rubbed by the waves, and there is no shadow dominated by fear.

At this moment, looking at the people who have already arrived, Shen Lang is also quickly understanding the situation of everyone.

The twelve people who came to the scene together were divided into three grades.

Among them, the Pope and the other two core figures are a grade. The two are slightly weaker than the Pope. It seems that they have just completed the breakthrough, which is equivalent to the realm of Daxian.

Shen Lang suspects that even if they are not the help of the "God" behind them, there is also a secret law, which is enhanced by the power of their religious accumulation.

In addition, the three people who took each other, these nine people, obviously also improved their strength through various means, are the main force of this expedition to China.

Among the nine people, one of them has reached a level of about half a cent, and the other six are equivalent to the peak of the gods.

Of course, they may have different names and divisions, which is basically the level of this level.

This is of course very powerful!

As for Shen Lang, who went to the headquarters of the Temporary Alliance, the group that can qualify for the core meeting is some of the buddies he has seen. All of them are added together, or more people are brought together, and they are not comparable to these nine people. Strength!

Not to mention the Big Three.

There is no doubt that for China, it can only rely on Shen Lang and his women. Otherwise, you can only expect to have a hidden ancestor and be able to come back in time.

However, among them, there must be a situation in which the recent destructive encouragement. Otherwise, they really have to be so many ahead of the Eastern monks, they have already started, and they will not appear without returning to hell.

Not to mention anything else, the most obvious example – the Pope is definitely the first-class in the West, and in the non-returning Hells, it is also the strongest. He sat down as the chief archbishop of Paul, which is the level of the peak of the gods.

Now there will be so many masters in batches, only one possibility, that is, the ***** behind them, the super-powerful superpower has intervened in the situation of the earth!

In the case of the Pope, Shen Lang recalled that it was clear that it was the intervention of Guangming God.

The true gods should have discovered this problem, how to let their “god” know it, and gave help to each other through different spaces, and reached a batch leap.

In this way, if it is not the Pope’s taboo, it is estimated that it has already been done!

However, all this is no longer a problem.

Shen Lang is back!

As long as there are deep waves, they can’t look down on the storm.

Whether it is the Light God or true God, the “God” behind them, Shen Lang is still not sure of the challenge, but “God” can not reach the Earth, or can not fight the law of space.

Then, whether it is a ***** or a avatar, coming to the earth is only a part of him.

Of course, Shen Lang himself also needs to be careful of the thin ice, not because of the exposure of too strong strength, which led to the robbery.

“Is it strange? You will definitely hear about us. This time, if you are strong, I will not come, will you not be directly into the hinterland?”

Shen Lang said faintly, then raised his hand and gestured to let them come to the mountain.

The Pope could not help but look at the other two leaders.

Chapter 2147 - That is fair

The two devotees of the true gods looked at each other and the three men reached their intentions and flew down to the mountain with everyone.

“You are Shen Lang? Long-awaited name!” One of the teachers is staring at Shen Lang.

The Pope introduced: “This is true religion, the true sect of the contemporary sect Morière. This is the contemporary sect of the sect of Havana.”

Pope Constantine V has had many dealings with Shen Lang. The last time he was in New York, he was directly beaten, killing Paul and killing Brooks.

Therefore, he always maintains awe-inspiring attitude toward Shen Lang. Even at the moment when I saw Shen Lang, I did not hope for the success of this trip.

But the two true gods did not face each other directly with Shen Lang.

Their understanding of Shen Lang was obtained from the Western comprehens who had participated in the innocent sea, and the second was the information disclosed by Shen Lang.

Although the Pope has the first-hand real secrets, it is related to his personal and religious face, dignity, and ability. Only the side can describe the power of Shen Lang.

Even when necessary, he must also make a good relationship with Shen Lang!

Because he previously publicly recorded the video for the Shenlang platform endorsement, if the relationship is not good, others will guess that it is threatened.

Therefore, the two of them have always been dubious about the strength of Shen Lang. They even suspected that the Pope and Shen Lang had colluded.

This is also why they will be deadlocked for a while, neither side can believe, and naturally cannot cooperate quickly.

Now that they are in front of them, the two of them looked at Shen Lang and his party, and they immediately got a judgment.

There is no doubt that Shen Lang and a few women, the strength should be as strong as them!

Shen Lang is much stronger than them, naturally they can't see through the concrete.

But from the age, from their inquisition to analyze the growth trajectory of Shen Lang, coupled with the strength of several of their girls, let both of them feel that Shen Lang should also be a grade, but only a little stronger than them.

So, they immediately weighed it.

Suppose everyone is a horizontal grade, there are six on the side of Shen Lang, and only three of them!

Although they still have nine people, they add up to one or two.

This concern has made them dare not act rashly.

“You don’t have much to say with kind words, you have a challenge book, we are here. What do you want to do?”

Shen Lang asked straight into the knife.

There was no friendship with them. The Pope’s friendship was not as good as that of Archbishop Paul. The last time it was cut off.

If you want to fight, then fight directly!

Originally, their two major forces took the initiative to go to war, and as a result, when they met, they became a direct invitation to Shen Lang and took the initiative.

“You... are all young people who can represent the entire oriental comprehension world?”
Havandina taught slowly.

The three of them quickly exchanged one look.

The situation is not good!

Shen Lang can be so arrogant, obviously it is to eat them.

“The East is very big, but China is indeed representative of the realm of the East; and we are numerous in China, and generally challenge you like this role. Of course, we don’t need old people to go out, we young people can easily get it. ”

Shen Lang talked and then looked at their faces, so they were shocked.

“Oh! You yell at me! Sorry, my voice is straightforward. What I think of is not to say that you are a trivial little character. I know that you are all big men in the West.”

The faces of Morrie, Hawadina and others have been very bad.

They can all hear that Shen Lang is deliberate!

They fully grasp the confidence, and do not believe that there are still more powerful people in China than they are, and this group of Shen Lang is the strongest.

But others deliberately say that they don't need the old predecessors to go out, they can easily get the young people, they deliberately belittle them and say they are small roles.

Now this supplementary explanation makes everyone even more upset.

Most of them emphasize that they are "straight straight", in fact, it is hard to talk!

This supplementary explanation not only emphasizes that they are small characters, but also emphasizes that they are big men in the West.

Do you not say that their big men in the West, in their eyes of China, are only worthy of the small role of young people?

If you change someone else, they have already started!

However, the shadow of the famous tree of people, regardless of inheritance, Shen Lang has been shaped into the image of the world's strongest, naturally there is a layer of taboos.

I just compared each other's strengths and felt that I was not sure. I naturally didn't dare to get it.

Both Morrie and Hawadina looked at the Pope and signaled him to speak.

The Pope knows more about the strength of Shen Lang, so he does not have much depression, not even the shackles. Because he believes that Shen Lang can really get them done easily...

just.....

They came from a group of people, and this time they could not encourage the enemy's momentum and destroy the prestige of the allies.

“Lord Shen Lang, you understand people. In your words, the people do not say slang. Our challenge this time is actually to challenge the same generation with us.”

When the Pope said this, Morrie and Hawadina, a few bright eyes.

Old guys can!

Still his most treacherous!

“Yes! To say who is strong and who is weak, we are not the strongest in the West, and there are more powerful. Our challenge is to have friends with our peers and see who is working harder.”

“It doesn’t make sense to fight with you. If we win, it should be like this, or it should be bullied. If we lose our hearts, it will be detrimental to our face, which is not fair to us.”

The two of them immediately followed up and ambushed first. This win is what should have been done, and losing is also a mercy!

“So, do you mean that you don’t dare to fight with me, or do you have to ask your peers to be peers?” Shen Lang looked at them with a smile.

“It’s not dare, it’s just fair. The current sports competition, or professional boxing are all graded. We are not a level in age, and the number is twice as many as you. It’s unfair to you to bully and bully.

They first retired and moved out of the age, but it was unexpected.

“It doesn’t matter, we still like to bully the old man. As for the number, there are some chickens and dogs. No matter what it means, you can get together.”

They chose to avoid the waves, and Shen Lang continued to smile.

Bullying the old man...

Native chicken...

These two statements made them a group of people, except the Pope, they felt very harsh!

Chapter 2148 - Edge of belief collapse

“Shen Lang! You have to figure out, we are not afraid of you!”

Morrie said quietly.

“We don’t fight with you, it’s because you have a relationship with Constantine V. We don’t want to make him embarrassed.”

The Pope secretly smiled: What can I do with Shen Lang!

He was looking for an excuse for his peers, but he couldn’t use it any more. He couldn’t help but find another excuse.

“Shen Lang, I will speak more straightforward. Your strength is stronger than the strong on earth. You should challenge God instead of receiving our challenges, just as we will not challenge ordinary. Like a young monk.”

The Pope said that everyone would frown.

This is tantamount to acknowledging that everyone is worse than a wave!

Although they all see it, they also admit that their strength is not as good. But that is not as good as the whole of them. It is because they are not weak.

This may still be worse.

The Pope can directly say that Shen Lang should challenge God. It is a strong person who has surpassed the Earth. This has brought it to a completely different level from everyone.

“How do you know that I have no challenges?”

Shen Lang asked a question, and suddenly let the Pope tremble.

The Shen Lang immediately made a section of the sacred clip, and the direct holographic projection was presented. The whole process is short, but a lot of information has been expressed.

Including his pursuit of the world of giant beasts, Augustus and other gods, as well as direct travel to the Guangmingshan, as well as killing the apostles.

Finally, the Temple of Light is presented directly!

This paragraph is presented, directly making the Pope's face pale.

Not to mention the true gods, it is the several archbishops he brought, and he does not understand the specific connotations.

But the Pope is very clear, after Shen Lang left last time, it really is to find the ***** of light!

Augustus waited for God, he had seen it, and after he got to the earth, he chased the world of giant beasts, and he was killed by Shen Lang!

And Guangmingshan, he also went once. After encountering the gods there and knowing his identity, he was taken to the Guangmingshan Park.

He was there to raise two realms. For the sacred paradise of the country, can you forget it?

And some of the apostles who have just passed by, some of whom he has also seen.

Shen Lang, smashed the avatar of God, smashed the gods, killed all the way to the Guangming Mountain, and killed the apostles...

Did you meet the light ***** behind?

He can't imagine it!

If you encounter a light god, it should be true that it was killed by the light god. However, now Shen Lang is not only safely back, but it seems that the strength has improved.

That light god...

If Shen Lang, in what way, really killed the ***** of light. The Pope will really collapse!

This is his belief!

Even if God and God's avatars are destroyed, he still believes in immortality. The power of God is infinitely powerful. If Shen Lang wants to challenge God, it is self-destruction.

But the picture I just saw...

If you haven't been there, the picture that you imagined out of thin air is impossible to match his memory.

Even if you go, you can't see it, you can't morph the faces of the Situ, and the Temple of Light!

He didn't dare to think about it, it was a desperate fear!

The deepest level of faith has actually been subverted once.

I thought it was the only ***** invincible creation. It was actually met in another world. It shows that it is stronger, not the only omnipotent, but the super power that coexists with others.

But from another point of view, the ***** of this faith may not exist. It is at least proven to exist and is very powerful.

As long as you understand the world as a heaven, and the heavens have other gods, you can do it.

At least, according to his experience, those apostles are powerful and powerful, and the ***** of light is even more powerful.

Isn't that the existence of God relative to the earth?

So the last subversion, his belief was illusory, became a real landing, subverted but did not let him collapse.

Now this time is different, Shen Lang has given him too much excitement!

Even if God is not the only one, not the omnipotent Creator, but also has unlimited power. If the gods of light have been killed by the waves, their religious system will collapse directly.

He forced himself not to think about this problem, and he dared not go to Shenlang for proof, because he was afraid of getting the answer that made him desperate.

The true gods, including the other archbishops of the Light God, also saw the picture just now.

Although they don't quite understand what the specific meaning of the expression is, the combination of this is Shen Lang's response to the Pope's words, and the Pope's reaction, let them guess a general direction.

But what do they think, and they didn't dare to think that Shen Lang really challenged God!

After all, they have not been to the world, the whole world is still different.

In their cognitive system, God is God, no matter how it exists, it is not something that mortals can challenge.

But basically it can be guessed that this is challenged by Shen Lang, perhaps the ***** of heaven.

The speculation of light has already made them shocked.

The two sects of the true religion, could not help but look at each other, and at the same time raised an idea: This swell, really want to provoke?

Judging from the reaction of the Pope, it may be unbearable!

However, they came here with great enthusiasm. This is also a detailed plan after repeated consideration. This has just come in, and Gang Rinpoche has not yet set foot, so he surrendered, and it is too much to face.

They are not only individuals, but also leaders of a big sect. The tossing of this period has formed two major alliances.

Both sides have a lot of gains, and now is the time to lick the biggest piece of fat.

At this moment, both sides saw another thought from the other's eyes!

Flowing through the world!

The extent of the process of world civilization to the present is the era of science. Although religion is still prevalent, it has missed the best development opportunities in history.

If you can squat down the great country of the East, no matter who you are, which religion is bound to be a leap of development will inevitably become a historical figure of his own religion, and will become a celebrity in the history of religion!

At their level, worldly money, power, etc., are completely detached. A strong religious leader is more influential than the king.

Come out to do evil, launch wars, and so on, and make a name that is stinking for a long time, or else it is difficult to have a reputation that is even more transcendent.

This is an opportunity for them to live through the ages, and missed this time, perhaps not the next time, not only themselves, other people in their own religion, there is no chance.

Danger is inevitable and must be faced!

The two people's eyes exchanged, and they completed a number of conversations in an instant, and became a taboo after the shock, but instead resolutely thought!

Chapter 2149 - You are not qualified

“We originally thought that you and the Pope of Constantine V had a lot of friendship. Now it seems that you are killing the gods of light!”

After it was confirmed, Morrie immediately began to put a fire.

However, he noticed that the Pope had a sense of sorrow and anger, and he was not angry with the pictures released by Shen Lang.

Just as he provoked this sentence, he only frowned at the other archbishops and did not let the Pope move.

Hawadina immediately added a sentence, this sentence is directly straightforward.

“The Pope of the Light God, your bishop, your gods, have encountered other people’s ambushes and hunts, don’t you want to resist?”

The Pope’s gaze came over and they were together with each other.

In the heart of the Pope at the moment, it is a dumb fork!

He was not willing to face this matter, and he wanted to give up.

The prerequisite for his original battle was to confirm that Shen Lang was absent. Now that Shen Lang is back, it has not caused an unmanageable situation. The best situation is to stop and leave.

Just the picture released by Shen Lang is to tell him: the last time you killed the gods in New York, it is not the enemy of the other side, not a lucky one, but he really has this strength!

From the latter situation, it was completely Shen Long’s work, and now he still has a bunch of girls.

The strength of these girls, the Pope is also impressed. When I went to the sea of innocence, what level is it? After coming back, there is improvement, but it is not as good as his.

As long as there are no waves, there is not much taboo for them.

But now, they are at the same level as him!

How did he make a sudden leap forward, it was made by God!

How many of them? It is undoubtedly made by Shen Lang.

In other words, it is that Shen Lang can reach the level of God, and can be a top-ranking strongman!

What is it still playing?

He just had a similar collapse in his beliefs, or else he might have to admit defeat.

But now these two are actually directly provoking him and Shen Lang!

He didn't open his mouth and it was already cultivated.

In his mind, he is thinking about how to maintain the face of the body and retreat.

Or, how can you retreat as much as possible?

But those two have already decided that this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity must be seized!

If the two of them can get the words of Shen Lang and others, then it will not be dragged to today, and will not be associated with the Guangming Gods, and they will do it themselves.

It's a good thing to get a huge "market" on your own. Just because you can't keep it, you want to unite and divide it.

Seeing that the Pope is going to retreat, they certainly don't do it!

Now on the board, it is already down, but there is still a chance. If there are no four people in the light of the gods, the eight of them will be greatly damaged, and it is almost impossible.

“Shen Lang, don’t be afraid to tell you! It is he who proposes that we cooperate and smash all of you in the East. Our two religions can drive straight in and lose the support of the comprehension community. When it is your government, it will not be hard. Come.”

“Of course, the Pope is still a little jealous of you. You must confirm that you are not there, and you will be willing to do it. Now that you are back, we have all come here. What do you say?”

Since the provocation of the Pope was useless, the two decisively changed one way and provoked the waves.

As long as Shen Lang is unhappy with the Pope, then this war will not go out.

For their two ideas, Shen Lang is clear at a glance. Including the purpose behind them, the contradictory psychology, are completely able to see through.

Shen Lang smiled and said: “It doesn’t matter. If you come here, then show your skills and let me see how many pounds you have.”

Seeing that Shen Lang took the words, Morrie and Hawadina were both reassured, and even if the Pope defended it, there would be no way.

The pope frowned.

In fact, he knows more about Shen Lang and ponders more deeply. He felt that Shen Lang should not let them go.

So when the two men just provoked, he did not directly clarify.

If the clarification is useless, then you won’t be able to lose your face again.

“My husband and I, Shen Lang, are friends who have fought together, and they have also handed over each other. Since the two gods of the true gods have to provoke the war again and again, then the two will go first to see who has the courage to single-handedly wave.”

The Pope did not yell at the top and went out.

Don't you have to pull me into the water? Then you have to try the water first!

Morrie and Hawadina had just provoked Shen Lang to agree, and did not expect the Pope to go to their heads soon.

This time, both people are paralyzed.

When they came to have an analysis, they immediately felt jealous. If they were alone, even if they could hold it, except for the three of them, there would be no way for others to top it!

If there is still a chance, there will be only a melee!

Relying on many people and relying on tacit cooperation, perhaps you can first rush those women and catch a few hostages.

Now, the words of Constantine V, is there a sinister idea of a person?

But they can't say no!

Regardless of the purpose of this war, at least on the bright side, what everyone said is to learn from each other rather than desperately.

"and many more!"

Shen Lang stopped and let Morrie and Hawadina breathe a sigh of relief. They all wanted to hear what he said. They didn't have to face it for a while, and they had a little more time to think.

"You, in my eyes, it's just a bunch of jumping clowns. Hey, you may not understand it very well, saying that a group of garbage is a bit more straightforward. You are not qualified to single-handedly with me. Together, they are also slaughtered by me. Life!"

Shen Lang just stopped, everyone thought that he had to propose what rules, duel and contest, are two-way, it is impossible to mention the rules.

But when this is said, how can it be so ugly?

Jumping the clown is not enough, but also a group of garbage!

Not qualified to single-handedly, all together are killed by the killing!

These words, into their twelve ears, are also very harsh. It is the Pope, and I can't hold my face.

The last time he felt very humiliating, but it was in the underground secret room, and finally he was alone.

It is now their humiliation in public!

“Sorry No matter from traditional concepts or scientific arguments, women are not as good as men. We add up to a few things, but we can shoot and compare with you, not afraid to kill you.”

This is what the wind said.

Originally, her style of life was sleek, but from the dialogue she had fully understood the attitude of Shen Lang, so she did not need to be polite to them, and went straight down the Shen Lang.

This means that we admit that women are not as strong as men, but we are enough to deal with you!

In other words, you are not as good as girls!

Chapter 2150 - This is looking for death.

Not to mention the status of the three popes, that is, other archbishops, but also status honor.

Originally, everyone has been very humiliated by the words of Shen Lang. As a result, even a woman without a wind can humiliate them so much. How can I bear it?

Almost burst out!

But everyone's mind is still sensible. The more advanced the age, the more rational and self-control.

Before issuing the gauntlet, they had in-depth research on the Oriental China, especially the tidal waves that everyone was jealous of, and it was considered in various situations.

When they have just revealed their intentions, if Shen Lang will persuade them to leave, it will be a negotiation, negotiation and other tone, which will make them more emboldened.

That means that Shen Lang does not dare to chaos, does not want to make a big noise, indicating that there is no absolute certainty.

But just Shen Lang is completely understated, and they are not regarded as opponents at all!

These girls, at the same time, did not mean to regard them as strong enemies. Seeing that they are eager to try, it seems that they just want to regard them as training targets.

Therefore, the more emotionally angry, the more sensible it is to remind yourself that the more you want to be calm!

Shooting, not only will the enemy expect, or even be played, as a sparring!

They have also had an understanding and analysis of the strength of the women. Now that they see strength far better than intelligence, it can be seen that they have leaped forward in a short period of time.

Naturally, we can understand why Shen Lang will let them come to work. Why are they eager to try? It is really the target of training.

With the strongest representative in the West and the strongest representative in the East, no matter whether you win or lose, this is dignified.

However, in the status of the strongest representative of the West, it is only a group of girls in the East to do sparring, and no matter whether you win or lose, it is shameful!

All of them can't speak.

Other archbishops, some people want to stand up: Shen Lang you do not shoot, our boss does not shoot, let us deal with their girls.

The problem is that the strength of several of them is also very powerful. Even if they are not as good as the Pope, they will almost reach the same realm. This is not what their Archbishop can challenge.

And really want to stand up and call the singles, it is also the end of being killed, so it is even more shameful.

The time of emotion and intellectual entanglement is very sad every second, even the thin air of this plateau is embarrassing.

In fact, it is a cold field of a second or two, but for a group of them, it is like a century of suffering, the opposite of the waves and the eyes of the girls, they are a kind of ridicule.

"Lord Shen Lang..."

The Pope slowly spoke up.

"You and I can't be friends, how much is old acquaintance. I will make it clear! You let a few beautiful ladies play against us, perhaps because of training and training for them, but you are really not afraid of us catching them. Is it a hostage?"

Havatina immediately got together.

"Yes! You really think we are a bunch of junk, jumping clowns, not qualified to single out with you, then you will deal with us all alone!"

"Our civilization is a gentleman, it is not to use force against the ladies. Let us compare with the ladies, that is disrespect for us, we would rather you deal with the insults of a group of us!"

Morrier also spoke.

They said this and made Shen Lang a bit stunned.

In fact, it can be seen that the Pope's meaning is that the ugly words are in the forefront.

Stick to letting us do something with a few girls, then don't blame us for catching them as hostages.

However, Morrie and Hawadina two, along the beginning, gave themselves a reason for a gentleman's demeanor, and they wanted to attack the waves!

This is a bit shameless...

Not only can Shen Lang see it, everyone can see it.

However, the people in their two camps are silent, as if they don't feel any problem, even as Morrie said, they seem to have been insulted!

At this point, for more than a dozen of them, they have regained their initiative.

The strength of the East China Huaxia, on the one hand, is very strong, on the other hand, even though their five women have become so strong, this is a whole powerful.

But now, as long as the words are suppressed, as long as Shen Lang is dealing with them twelve people, they will be full of confidence!

In terms of the level of Daxian, the three teachers of the three sides have dealt with Shenlang three, and they can only be leveled. The other nine will not be able to deal with the remaining three Daxian levels.

Three can deal with Shen Lang, plus nine assistance, that is not a problem.

To be precise, there are eleven, which does not include the Pope.

The Pope will just open up like that. Actually, I want to fight for a little face and make my face better. Then everyone will deal with the women together. It is best to seize a hostage together. This is the only chance.

But the words of Morière and Hawadina directly fell to another situation.

They think that twelve to one is no problem.

The Pope himself tried it. At the beginning, the three of them dealt with Shen Lang, and God and Brooks both killed it!

Now that the twelve teams have joined hands, perhaps they are stronger than the original three, but Shen Lang is obviously stronger.

However, now that I have already said this, I am not good at it.

The cold water of a person who pours one's own eleven people is tantamount to guilt.

He can only sigh in secret.

Shen Lang shook his head slightly: "You are looking for death. Let them shoot, they will not want your life, let me shoot, but it is really difficult to say."

"Young people are very angry. Since you are this attitude, don't blame us for sending you to heaven!"

Hawadina received the cold.

They are so hard to get Shen Lang to deal with all of them alone, better than to work with five women who are not weak.

Even if Shen Lang is stronger than them, there is still a chance. As long as he can control him, other women will not be anything!

Having said that, Hawadina and Morrie are directly on the move!

They have just bound the Pope, not to mention others. This time, let the Pope have no way back!

Because Shen Lang really wants to kill both of them, the Pope can't run.

When the two of them had a tacit understanding at the same time, the Pope had to go all out to at least a little slower, it was also the attack on the past.

The other nine people are close to each other!

Shen Lang originally wanted to train a few of them, but the other side has been so again and again, too lazy to entangle so much.

As he said, if he starts, he will only destroy them!

By destroying these enemies, they will not encounter such strong enemies.

Therefore, at the moment when the two teachers took the shot, Shen Lang sent the idea directly to them, let them retreat to the side to observe.

And the field of God that he has been handy, has covered the peaks without revealing!
