

First Strong 2191

Chapter 2191 - Death sacred

When the five gold suits were in front of Shen Lang, Shen Lang listened to the introduction of the Kemrisu water monster while observing them.

What makes him a little curious is that there are no special things in these things!

Originally, Shen Lang felt that if it was a magic weapon, it should be obviously different from other cultural relics, and it could be immediately searched under pressure.

But now it seems that they are like some old artifacts, and there is no special bonus. The power and effect are just the description of the monster.

And watching them being thrown casually, the monsters have never paid much attention to them.

What is magical? Or is it similar to the same batch of unearthed artifacts?

However, since I have followed this place, Shen Lang will certainly not be disappointed by this point of view, but I have to look it up carefully.

Seeing Shen Lang, I didn't express any opinions. The water monster is a little scared.

Isn't this also completely invisible?

This master is just a young human being. How can it be so high?

Not to mention the legendary power, so these are the pharaoh treasures of 3,000 years ago!

I don't feel any special place, I can only see it is very old, and Shen Lang decided to get started!

This treasure trove is a special existence. Even if it looks like an ordinary cave, it can actually come in through transmission. There is no problem of dry humidity, snake worms and even dust in the daily life. There is also no oxidation.

It can be seen that there is special protection here. Now presented in front of you, it is well protected.

Of course, there is no such thing as being spotless. After all, it has been thrown here for three thousand years. There are many bumps and bumps.

The first contact with Shen Lang is the golden dragonfly.

This sentence is the most glamorous and bright, even under the faint and cool light, you can see the large area of gold.

Regardless of the purity, it is definitely a lot of gold.

According to the Kemrisu water monster, this is what it first made, and it is different from the other in the tomb. This is a death sacred device that can summon the devil or exile people to the demon domain. There will be a mummy.

The mummy is the Pharaoh who lives for himself and hopes to be born again one day. Of course, I will not banish my body to the magic domain.

Shen Lang reached out and rubbed the surface of the enamel, even injecting a glimmer of energy, and there was no change.

The Kemrisu water monster looks like this, afraid that the waves are uncomfortable, the tail has already come over, and on the edge of the shackles, as long as Shen Lang utters a word, it immediately helps to push open.

It hopes that there will be a little different inside.

Shen Lang did not order it, but carefully examined the ancient text engraved on the outside. These specific meanings are immediately meaning, and now they have been lost, but the guess should be various spells and the like.

He also recorded all the details and the whole picture through the Holy Grail.

When the lid that had been closed opened a gap, there was an inexplicable chilly air that came out.

Originally compared to the desert, this treasure house is already chilly, but this is just a gap, immediately let the temperature around it plummet!

This change has made the Kemli Suwei spirits alive.

Whether it is good or bad, at least it is a little special, in order to arouse the owner's interest.

“Master, be careful with poison!”

It will not let go of this opportunity to flatter, it itself can spray toxic fog, the general poison gas can not hurt it, but the sun is a human, may not bear.

In the legend of the tomb, many of them opened the tomb, and there was poison gas that caused death. Or it is to open the cockroach, a poison gas makes people die, and it is lighter to die after a while.

That is actually not an alarmist legend, it is scientifically based.

Because they can have the value of tombs, they are often the tombs of the aristocrats and wealthy families. They are very well sealed. Buried in the underground for thousands of years, the air is not circulated, and many heavy metals and poisonous gases in the underground and building materials have been volatilized and dispersed into the graves for a long time.

This kind of opening directly into the gas is no less than entering the gas chamber. The same is true, and because the enclosed space is smaller, the concentration is higher.

Therefore, it is generally necessary to first convect a convection for a period of time, and the candle will not go out to indicate that there is sufficient oxygen content inside.

But this is still the original simple way, the scene will not cause death, fainting, and may also become infected or even die due to inhalation of poisonous gases and viruses.

Modern tombs...呃, archaeology, often install air convection, remote control small robots go in to test the concentration of all toxic substances, and finally enter protective clothing, gas masks, etc.

This golden urn has been closed for three thousand years, and naturally it is not necessary to say it.

However, those who are ordinary people, in the realm of Shen Lang, are poisonous substances in the murderous land of such a burial dragon valley, they are not hurting him, and they will not be afraid of this.

But even if you are not afraid, it is still uncomfortable to inhale some turbid gas, so he naturally forms a protective cover around him and will not touch him.

The chilly atmosphere, with the opening of the cockroaches, is even more intense. Not only the surrounding, but also quickly spread out, even the temperature inside the treasure house began to drop sharply.

After all the cockroaches were opened, what was exposed was a normal open space, and there was nothing special in it.

But the chilly atmosphere is still coming in a lot. It is obviously not that this space can be stored so much.

Death Sacred, Summon Demon, Exile Demon...

These mysterious keywords showcase the combination in Shen Lang's mind, and immediately came up with a more reliable guess.

This death sacred device should be a door similar to a space, the magic domain of connection, is another world!

The gates of the Three Realms and the Kunlun mirrors are magic weapons that traverse the space. Although the specific positioning is different, the essence is similar.

This golden sacred death sacred may be a directional space door. The place called the enchanted domain is another world. The people there, or creatures, are called the devil and the demon. Category.

As a result of orientation, you can call the demon king from the magic domain, or you can exile people.

As for this conjecture, right, you need to lie in and feel it...

Chapter 2192 - Golden flying sword

Since this thing will be called “the sacred device of death”, it still looks like a shackle, and it is obvious that the warning is strong.

In the history of this ancient civilization, there have been similar legends, such as revenge and resurrection, and sacrificed the soul to the demon king, thus attracting the demon army.

Shen Lang now feels its speciality and has a hypothetical guess, but whether it is true or not, he will not try.

Just not going to temptation now.

According to his analysis, this is the way to another world. In his experience, this is not a big deal. I really met the Mozu army and the devil. With the current ability, I can also have confidence. Challenge, confident to return safely.

The artifact of the Kunlun mirror, the door of the new Three Realms, is the key moment of this death sacred, and he can return to Earth.

But it is not known how much time will be lost in another world that will be sent to it.

So for the time being, Shen Lang will not go to temptation. It can be confirmed that this thing may have a role.

The head of the Kemrisu water monster is also looking at the inside of the cockroach, the chilly atmosphere seems to be quite attractive to it. But what is the magic domain, it still does not dare to chaos.

At the moment, in the heart, there is an expectation, expecting Shen Lang to go in!

He was exiled to the demon domain, and it is a good thing to be able to come back. Even taking it with you is a great experience.

But Shen Lang let it down, and then shut down.

According to the description of the Kemrisu water monster, Shen Lang thinks that the golden chariot should be a flying magic weapon. In ancient times, flying in the sky and galloping in the desert will undoubtedly be a very shocking effect.

With his current ability, there is no need for a general flying magic weapon. Besides, if you really want to fly at a long distance and at a high speed, the most advanced equipment of the river city, with the power of black technology, has already surpassed the repair.

It is also very convenient for the holy armor to create a variety of pulling effects, which is unmatched by other flying magic weapons.

However, the golden chariot is still a bit extravagant. The sense of local tycoon created by gold has another kind of refreshment with the sense of science and technology.

This time, when Shen Lang reached out and touched the golden chariot, he injected a glimmer of energy and immediately felt the state of being motivated. He had a bit of a taste that he wanted to vacate.

Confirmed its effect, Shen Lang is also relieved.

It's good to come here, at least to get two good things that have effects, not to waste.

Even if the slave of the Kremsius monster has little value, the thing offered by the light is worth putting a way into it.

The third piece that Shen Lang called the “golden suit” was the gold dagger. It is also a famous cultural relic, which is a product that transcends the times.

Since this is not the same as the ordinary dagger, it is definitely more effective.

After Shen Lang picked up the dagger, in addition to injecting vitality, it directly injected a bit of mental power and prepared to try it directly.

The golden dragonfly is the sacred device of death, connected to the magic domain, and you can’t just try it.

The golden chariot is because there is not enough space here, at least when you have to go back to the desert, you have room to try it out.

But this dagger is different, you can try it out. There are not many ancient artifacts in the Pharaoh’s Pyramid here!

If you know that Shen Lang has used the artifacts in the Pharaoh Pyramid thousands of years ago to test the sword, it is estimated that the historians, archaeologists and collectors who study and love ancient civilizations will jump out to complain.

In fact, until the time of picking up, Shen Lang still thinks that this will not have much effect.

Even if it is different from another gold dagger, it is a magic weapon with attack power, and it should be more gorgeous and more practical. After all, Pharaoh does not need to be hands-on, let alone a funerary, which is a symbolic meaning.

However, after injecting vitality and mental strength, Shen Lang immediately discovered that the dagger disappeared instantly!

This disappeared, not dissipated, but the same as the temple was absorbed into his palm, it was inhaled into his body!

This makes Shen Lang a little vigilant. After all, the real origin of this gadget is still not very clear. Even if it is really in the tomb of Tutankhamun, I don't know what it is, for what purpose.

But soon, he was relieved.

Because this golden dagger seems to be integrated into him, but it is completely controlled by him. As his thoughts move, he will directly shoot out!

Looking at the floating gold dagger, Shen Lang found that there is a relatively large playability.

He only needs to move his thoughts, and he can flexibly manipulate it to fly quickly in the air!

Because it is like a cave, the space is limited, and the faster the speed, the easier it is to hit the wall directly. He is also the first time to control this dagger, and can't say how tacit.

But this dagger is like a bat of sound waves, which can be very free to fly in this space. When it is about to touch the wall, it immediately strokes.

This unexpected experience made him feel that he had a new usage – Feijian!

From the original sword that was first brought together in the tomb of the King of the King, to the back of the Qiu Shui sword, Juyue Sword, Liu Yejian, etc., until the sword of the king he used now, is a weapon that holds the attack, and does not They are used as flying swords.

It's not impossible to do it, but to operate it, there will be certain unequal!

This is not equal, it is related to strength, and has a relationship with “wealth.”

For example, in the Tianshan Jianzong, he was able to summon the Qiushui Sword and smash it into two paragraphs. It is similar to the manipulation of Feijian.

But he did not dare to use it in battle. If one does not control well, it will not hurt the enemy, but it may be collected by the enemy.

After the sword, it is the same effect, or you are holding the attack, more confident.

With his current ability, any sword can be used as a flying sword, but some others have been given to others. The sword of the king, which is now commonly used, is very precious. This can not be used as a flying sword.

In case someone else has a magic weapon like the tower, and collect it? Then it is a big loss!

Now I get this gold dagger, and I can control it so flexibly and freely. It can also be portable in the body. As long as the power is available, it is a very good choice for flying swords.

This is an unexpected income. There is no feeling, no effort, and even if it is received, it will not hurt.

In order to verify the power, he manipulated the “Golden Flying Sword”, did not infuse much energy, and relied on its own sharpness to draw a pile of artifacts.

These gold and copper-made utensils, which are drawn, are all cut in an instant!

Chapter 2193 - Summon Scarab

It is not broken or smashed by force, but cut like tofu, which shows that it is very sharp.

At this moment, it is already proof that the legends of the Kemrisu water monster are not false. These are really extraordinary things, and they should also be made of meteorites.

As for the meteorite outside this day, what is it, what is the composition, and how it is refining, it is too lazy to manage.

Looking at Shen Lang using the golden flying sword to open a variety of items, the Kemrisu water monster did not have any distress, but rather a lot of peace of mind.

This shows that it is useful, then it is much safer, don't worry that this master will destroy it.

Shen Lang continued to practice a few times. After feeling more comfortable, he took it and looked at the fourth item.

The fourth piece is the gold scarab ornament. According to the introduction of the water monster, it can summon the scarab.

Shen Lang is actually not interested, a bunch of bugs ran out to eat people, still a bit disgusting. This can only be against ordinary people, or low-level monks. If you encounter a strong person, it will have no effect.

However, since it has already been obtained, it is a magic weapon. Don't waste it, or take a look and see how it works.

After the jewelry was started, Shen Lang's natural hand was placed in the position of the gold scarab.

With the infusion of his vitality and spiritual strength, there is an unusual connection.

His consciousness, as if he had reached a space, seemed to have a door in front of him. There was a huge scarab behind the door. It seemed that he only needed his mind to open the invisible door, which would make countless The scarab is released!

This feeling is very wonderful. It seems to be only a personal fantasy, and it is so real. He has no doubt that as soon as he moves, there will be a large number of scarabs coming out.

But what is it about?

Is this "golden scarab" sealed with countless scarabs?

Still similar to the Deathly Hallows, which is also connected to a world of bugs?

After summoning these scarabs, can you command them with your heart?

Or do they have a sense of autonomy and attack when they see people?

After summoning them, can you all go back to where you came?

Before these problems are clarified, they cannot be summoned casually. The same is true for the call of the golden scorpion.

Although I don't know exactly where it is, it's better to have a tactical protection. Even if you can't send the scarab back, you won't escape into the desert. It won't hurt the earth.

After thinking of it, Shen Lang's thought immediately controlled the invisible "door"!

His control was quickly "closed" and "closed".

While completing this control, Shen Lang is also concerned about the situation around him.

The scarab does not appear from the ornament of this gold scarab, but appears out of thin air in front of him!

Although he was closed very quickly, it was a moment of opening, but at least a few hundred scarabs appeared out of thin air!

These scarab beads are all black in color, and they have a fist-sized head. It is a bit of a slap in the face, and there are dozens of them at a time, which directly makes people feel their hair.

Shen Lang naturally does not fear them, but there is no good feeling. This is an experiment. Even if the space here is closed, it is still necessary to take measures.

The Kemrisu water monster saw such a scarab, and immediately alerted him, actively guarding forward in front of Shen Lang.

A slight wave of Shen Lang waved the deliberately presented monsters to the side, and then looked at the scarabs who had fallen from the air.

After the emergence of these scarabs, they immediately understood the situation around them. They set the target on the Shenlang and Kemlisou monsters!

It seems that they have no interest in other objects. Just watching the living things is like watching food!

The split is because he now has two feelings, one is his own main consciousness, locked all the scarabs, ready to kill them, so as to avoid an uncontrollable situation.

On the other hand, the consciousness of these scarabs seems to reflect in his consciousness!

That is to say, the Scarabs looked at him and the Kemrisu water monster as if they were looking at the food, and made him feel this way.

Think of yourself as food...

It seems that these scarabs can be controlled!

As long as it is the scarab that he released, it is similar to “calling”, and he is controlled by his consciousness and is linked with him. They also have their own instinctive consciousness, but they will be under his control. In turn, their instinctive consciousness will also reflect on him.

He himself has actively locked in them, and on the other hand, he has not controlled it so that their sense of autonomy can be exerted.

The effect is coming out soon!

These scarab beetles that appeared out of thin air, after they landed, were aware that only they were “food” and “looking” at them, but there was no immediate action.

Now Shen Lang relaxed control, they were immediately driven by instinct, hundreds of scarabs, quickly split into two, respectively, climbed to Shen Lang and the water monster quickly!

Some still flew up in the air, attacking them from two different angles.

In the feeling of Shen Lang, it is a bloodthirsty craving, a kind of hunger driven by the instinct of food.

The feeling of these scarabs also makes him feel!

Of course, even if it is added up in a few hundred, it will still be weak and will not affect him.

The Kemrisu monsters stopped the saxophones in front of them, at least with at least invisible energy, and did not kill them. Because this is summoned by Shen Lang, without the permission of Shen Lang, it can only defend and not dare to kill.

Shen Lang has no defense, but when they get to the front, they give a little thought.

The scarabs that have already arrived in front of him, whether they are flying over or climbing over, braked instantly.

In his feelings, he can feel it. They all have a feeling of being forcibly interrupted. The instinct drives them to move forward, but the idea of being swayed directly affects their decisions.

Since the “food” in front could not be eaten, their instinct immediately drove to another “food”.

The Kremisi water monster is a bit awkward. These scarabs are summoned by Shen Lang. When you want to attack the Shen Lang, you can change it to attack it. Is it obvious that he controls it?

Also what should it react to?

Chapter 2194 - Golden mask

For these scarab attacks, the Kemrisu monsters can only maintain their defenses, and they are more conservative than before, and they dare not hurt them, so as not to be uncomfortable.

However, it quickly realized that Shen Lang was not uncomfortable with it, but wanted to experiment and see how to manipulate these scarabs!

Of course, you can't let yourself come to experiment.

After understanding this layer, its pressure is much smaller, keeping cautious, not letting them close and not killing them.

Shen Lang soon discovered another situation!

When they are not allowed to attack him, they will be contradictory, but they will stop immediately and then attack other living things autonomously.

But if he consciously commanded and manipulated these scarabs to attack others, they would immediately excite themselves, as if they were greatly encouraged and morale rose.

In the current situation, even if the defense of the Kemrisu monsters makes their attacks not effective, they are persevering and continue to attack.

Shen Lang estimates that even if some are killed, damaged, will not affect their offensive consciousness, or will be eager to swallow the living things, this is a desire to eat, a strong instinct awareness.

After experimenting with controlling them not to attack him, he ordered them to attack the monsters, and later began to consciously let them line up!

It's just his slight thoughts. These scarabs are like the well-trained soldiers, and they execute them quickly and accurately. The effect is just like his own operation.

Whether it is to let them all attack from the ground, split into a team and a team of offenses, or the upper, middle and lower three attacks, all-round encirclement, etc., they can all feel, and then perform according to his meaning.

This process is very fast, almost like the order of the computer, the consciousness of these scarabs themselves is completely controlled by him.

Originally, Shen Lang felt that the worms were a bit disgusting, but now they are getting more and more comfortable. He thinks that hundreds of scarabs can be easily controlled, even if they are thousands, they should be able to control them.

He even wants to see what it would be like if he was commanding a saint beetle attack.

After the completion of an operational drill for these scarabs, Shen Lang has grasped, at least not lost control. The rest is the last step – can you send them back the way!

He tried to order, but immediately found them to be awesome!

How to send them back?

He put his hand on the position of the scarab as he opened it before, then injected his energy and mental strength, and immediately felt the state as before.

In addition to the “gate” that may be his figurative representation, it is faintly able to feel that countless spots of light generally exist behind the door, and can see hundreds of pictorial spots nearby.

Is this slight light spot the soul consciousness of those scarab beetles?

His eyes were still in sync, and as a result, he saw the  scarab beetles, which quickly returned to the air from the ranks of attacking monsters, and then disappeared almost at the same time.

In the state of consciousness that he observed, these light spots quickly disappeared and returned directly to the back of the “door.”

By this time, he basically understood.

The call of the scarab is through the prop of the golden scarab, as a medium, to complete the opening and closing of the “door”.

In another world behind the “gate”, there are countless such scarabs!

These scarabs don’t know what space or world they are in, and what they used to be food. Anyway, he can summon it at any time, and he can send them back with thoughts.

Can be successfully sent back, confirm that no one has stayed, Shen Lang will be relieved.

Controllable, can be sent away, the biggest problem has been solved, the other is nothing, the specific operation depends on the level of proficiency.

By now, for Shen Lang, it has exceeded expectations.

I have seen these five gold suits, and he thinks it should be a golden slap. Gold chariots, gold daggers, all feel a bit tasteless, not a big deal.

Now the gold chariot is only a gorgeous flying magic weapon, but the golden dagger is used as a flying sword, and the effect is still excellent.

And this golden scarab is also an unexpected harvest, and the disgusting worms become a controllable private army, which is also very useful.

Finally, the golden mask is left. The Kemrisu monster does not know what it is, but with the front, even if it is just an ornament, this trip is not lost.

Originally, Shen Lang didn't care about it, but it was optional. But now one by one, the whole situation is to satisfy him. Will this golden mask be unexpectedly extraordinary?

“This thing, you don't know the specifics?”

From now on, it is the introduction of the Kemrissu water monster. Shen Lang did not ask, let it be a bit embarrassed, worried that he would not be satisfied, if it is not good, it will be extinguished.

In the previous decisive battle, Shen Lang was able to clean it up in different ways, and even if it narrowed down the body and escaped with a little bit of groundwater, it could be caught up, so it was completely feared.

Now when I heard Shen Lang ask, it was a bit flattered. I realized that the owner was hooked up and quickly introduced it.

“This thing is the most mysterious piece in these pieces, and the most important one. I am not human, and I don't have enough ability. Only the main talent has it and knows everything about it!”

It has already said before that it does not understand it. Now, if it is said, it means that it is not said. It just wraps around and then takes a slap in the waves.

However, Shen Lang listened to the ear but also found it makes sense.

Of course, he doesn't need a flattery of a monster, but he really feels right.

In the golden items created by these gold-like, but extra-virgin meteorite materials, this mask is really probably the most important one!

The gold scarab is made into jewelry, the dagger does not need to be said, the symbol of force; the golden chariot is a symbol of power, and the death of the golden scorpion is the final destination of Pharaoh.

What about the Pharaoh itself?

Normally, it is a mummy, but in addition to the corpse mummies, from the perspective of these funerary objects, this mask represents Pharaoh!

The golden mask should have been made according to Tutankhamun. It does not mean, at least, the Pharaoh itself.

That is what Kemli Su said, there is a certain truth, this will be the most important one of the five!

Since it is a representative of Pharaoh, that is, a person, Kemrisu as a monster, perhaps it is really impossible to understand and know the details.

Chapter 2195 - Zombie?

The golden mask unearthed in the tomb of Tutankhamun was worn on the surface of the mummies, which was worn after Pharaoh died. Covering the entire head, the mask is commensurate with the size of the real person's face and fits on the face.

The mask is made of gold foil, set with gems and stained glass, and the forehead has eagle gods and cobra gods, symbolizing the entire land. The eagle * and the zombie were once their protectors.

The weight of the entire mask has reached more than 20 kilograms, and it is still very weighty.

Shen Lang did not pay attention to the art of this ancient civilization. After all, he awakened before the college entrance examination, and then there were many things, trapped in the death forest, etc. There was no time for good leisure.

The specific image of this golden mask was just obtained through a search for the holy armor. This is not connected to the Internet, but the data on the Earth has been downloaded and equipped by the Holy Glance.

This is search data, not real-time positioning data, or it is easy to come out.

Looking at the “Snake God” above, the contents of the introduction, there are the names and origins of the zombies once worshipped here, but Shen Lang still could not help but look at the Kemrissu water monster.

He instinctively feels this guy is the protection  once here – the zombie!

Although the name is not the same, it has no effect at all, because this “Kemrisu god”, it is only because it lie to the temple, the long water month, there must have been various identities.

When Shen Lang saw it, he felt that it was the shape of a dragon snake. The “Kemrisu Great God” was obtained from the temple. The “water monster” was defined by him.

“Have you been the zombie here?”

Hearing the question of Shen Lang, the Kemrisu water monster smiled: “It’s been too long, I used to have a lot of images.”

That is to say, you can spit out words, but after all, the monster of the water monster can’t see what it looks like.

This sentence is also an indirect recognition.

In fact, from the control of the temple to absorb energy, you can see that this guy is worthy of the Wannian demon, far better than the general beast monster.

Being able to pack yourself into God again and again means that thousands of years ago, you have faintly mastered the method of absorbing the power of faith!

After all, thousands of years ago, it was already a big demon for thousands of years. Perhaps it should have the strength of the beast  level at the time, and now it should be the super beast.

Shen Lang didn't want to get its old bottom. The big demon of Wannian must have many stories. This is not so curious. Anyway, as long as it is controlled, it will be fine.

This old-fashioned demon is really unlucky. If it is not a sinking wave, who else on earth can be its opponent? It continues to be low-key and muffled, and who will pay attention to it?

But then again, if it's not a deep wave, it's impossible to send the obelisk back with a painful egg. It's impossible to collect the temple. Naturally, it won't bring this "snake god" out. It is.

The golden mask can be lifelike, the key place, or the eyes!

This is a glance at the Mona Lisa's gaze, which is the effect that can be achieved in art. Shen Lang does not understand much.

But since the mummies of Tutankhamun have worn a golden mask, what is the extra thing?

Already have a series of gold equipment funerary objects, why do you have one more?

In the mouth of the Kemrisu monster, this set is the real thing, the set is a fake.

The mummies of Pharaoh Tutankhamun will also use fakes?

These problems are related to the Kemrissu water monster, and it is probably the snake  that this ancient civilization once worshipped. Shenlang also has an answer.

That is to say, that set is the funeral of Pharaoh, this set is sacrificed to God!

This set is really better than that one, better than Pharaoh, only the gods who worship them.

As for the eagle god, the zombie, or other gods, it is not known.

In that era, the Kemrisu water monster was packaged as a zombie, and it would know that it would steal a lot of Pyramid tombs and funerary objects.

From the perspective of its self-proclaimed “God”, of course, this set is the real thing, and the set is a fake that cannot be seen.

After so sorting out, Shen Lang is more curious about this mask.

This set is a sacrifice to God, prepared for God, no wonder the effect will be different, and this mask is still the most important.

They have never seen God. They can only shape eagle gods, zombies, gods, etc. on this mask. So the mask of Pharaoh can not be regarded as Pharaoh. This should be regarded as their humanization of many gods. representative.

That golden mask will undoubtedly be the core of these five golden equipment! – Or there are others, but the Kemrisu water monster used to buy people, or forgot about it.

Shen Lang just caressed the mask, and did not inject vitality and mental strength. At this moment, after watching the eyes for a while, he felt that there was an inexplicable attraction, so that he wanted to wear the mask!

He has looked at the golden dragonfly.

According to the logic of storing mummies, should you lie in the coffin and wear a mask?

Will this mask be used in conjunction with the Deathly Hallows?

The Kemrisu water monster is a snake-shaped, naturally it is not in conformity to wear this mask, perhaps it is adult-shaped, and it does not reach that effect.

Shen Lang is still confident about his own strength and other aspects.

Gold 棺槨 has been analyzed and guessed that the big probability is to lead to the “magic domain” world, and you don’t need to try it for the time being.

That golden mask Whether it is combined with it, it is not combined for the time being.

While watching him wear a mask, the Kemrisu water monster is staring at him, his expression is a bit strange, and he does not know whether it is worried about the accident, or whether he is worried about the accident.

After wearing the mask, the front is a black one. The golden mask does not know. There is no hole in the golden mask. After all, whether it is for the mummies or for God, there is no need to look at the holes.

Then, Shen Lang had a strange feeling, as if wearing the mask, he communicated another world!

Originally, it was black, but the eyes were blocked from seeing, and his knowledge could completely sense everything around him.

But now, in this state, he is inducing another situation in all aspects. It seems that he is no longer in the treasure house. It is no longer a monster or a treasure, but a dark world.

This strange feeling is still extending and changing. At this moment, Shen Lang quickly took off the mask!

Chapter 2196 - caveat

The mask was taken not because of any troubles, but also because of the danger.

It is a self-warning of Shen Lang!

It was just dark, but his consciousness has completely attracted the past, and he felt another world and wanted to feel other differences.

What is in the dark?

Will the darkness disappear?

What is this situation like, what kind of world?

What kind of contact role does it play?

There were a lot of questions, and the unconscious attraction made him want to stay in this state and attract him to explore.

This is a problem!

He is very confident about his own strength. For example, the golden dragonfly has already opened up, and he feels the inexplicable chill. I guess it can connect with the magic domain. He never thought about going in and feeling it.

I don't think "I will go back to the demon domain and look back," but now it's different. It just has an attraction that makes him wear a mask, and then all the attention is here, unconscious. Just want to explore the world.

He faintly felt that this may be the impact of the brain consciousness directly after the mask is worn, even when it is in contact and close.

This kind of influence has long been attractive.

As for whether it is achieved through radiation or something, you don't think too much. In general, his body will not have problems, but he can't be immersed in that state!

The Kemrisu water monster can't kill him directly, but if the Kmli Su water monster takes the opportunity to go out first? Even if he can still sneak away, what if the other party directly used it to explode here?

Although from the perspective of the soul contract, the Kemrisu water monster, who does not have to say it himself, is indirect and useless. As long as he moves his thoughts, he will encounter the soul.

But in case the other party is clamoring for something to come back to life, and directly choose to go with him, then the ship will be overturned in the gutter!

Therefore, Shen Lang waited for himself to get too deep, and while he was still awake, he took off the mask and let himself come back.

“Master, are you okay?”

Seeing that he hurriedly took off the mask, the Kemrisu water monster hurriedly asked.

Shen Lang glanced at it and shook his head.

“This thing doesn’t know how it is, and it takes more time to study it.”

“Masters don’t have to worry, these are yours, you have plenty of time to study. I believe that with your wisdom, nature can be very discoverable.”

Kemrisu Water Monster took a flattering and continued to say: “There are still many treasures here, all of them are Pharaohs of all ages. They have been lost in the outside world. What do you want, I will find out for you, I want to All of them can also be taken away.”

The meaning of the Kemrisu water monster is a little retreat. I volunteered to offer everything, and the other party is embarrassed to take everything.

Shen Lang glanced around in a circle, and the various antiques and antiques that were piled up in random were all worth the price.

Unlike gold masks, some of them have never been unearthed. They don’t make people think that this is stealing a museum, but it may be how he personally discovers and collects it.

In other words, it is better to sell a good price.

However, Shen Lang has no interest. Even the price of hundreds of millions of dollars is not a problem. If you really want to talk about the value of money, it is not as good as Yuan Ling and Ling Ling.

He has always been a muffled fortune, in addition to the power of faith that requires more fanatics.

Now these five gold suits have already achieved the effect of making a lot of money, and if you take out any antiques, you will need to deal with all kinds of people, or you will be too lazy to pay attention.

Anyway, this place can be collected for thousands of years, thousands of years without problems, and there is no problem with continuing to put them.

“No, leave it to you.”

“Thank you for your master!”

Shen Lang can hear that it has just been a little regressive. Now he does not want it, but in this water monster, will it feel that its speaking skills have succeeded?

Shen Lang doesn't want to bother, but he can't let this monster feel that he counts him. Otherwise, what will happen in the future?

“Master... what else is there?”

Seeing Shen Lang watching it not talking, the water monster was busy asking.

Shen Lang said faintly: “Whether you are a monster or a zombie, there is no problem with the Kremsho. But in front of me, I still have to be honest!”

“Yes...” The Kemrisu water monster replied quickly, and there was a dim sum.

“I personally don’t care about it, I don’t want to have anything to do with you. In addition, you choose one or two, in my name, donate to the National Museum here, no matter what method you use, it must be huge anyway – my name!”

Shen Lang emphasized a problem.

“You can rest assured, I must do it!”

Just after the words of the waves, the Kremsi water monster has been a little hairy, afraid that the waves are unhappy.

Seeing that he will arrange for him to do things now, is relieved, which shows that he still has value.

For its full mouth promise, Shen Lang looked at him deeply and did not say anything. The gold suit was collected.

“Go!”

The Kremsi water monster is a dark and cold sweat. It has lived for thousands of years. From ancient times to the present, dealing with humans in different periods, all kinds of pretending to be ghosts, can be described as experienced.

But now that this force is pressing humans, even though it is so young, it can see through its mind at a glance, making it feel a lot of pressure.

As for donating one or two pieces in the name of the owner, there is hardly any loss to it, and it is not difficult to do.

At this moment, it also understands that Shen Lang is a direct warning!

If it still wants to be clever, then the next result may be different.

The Kemrisu Water Monster did not dare to say anything, respectfully leading the way, from the depths of this treasure chest, to the tip of the drop.

Just as the Kermisu water monster began to sing and sing, Shen Lang suddenly disappeared!

This surprised it I don't know what it is like. Quickly and quickly inquired, confirm that Shen Lang is not back inside, there is only one living thing in the whole space.

Did the owner go out on his own?

With such doubts, it quickly completed the spell, called the tornado, and sent it back to the depths of the desert.

From the beginning of the battle, to the pursuit of all the way, to the road to come here, and to stay in the treasure house, all the time added up, and there is no such night.

In the dark night in the desert, the Kemrisu water monster saw a shadow and could feel it, that is, Shen Lang.

This human can actually leave at will!

This situation, greatly shocked to the Kemrisu water monster.

It has always been a god, this human being, is it true God?

Chapter 2197 - Real treasure house

I have to say that it offers the surrender of the soul, that is because the small life is pinched, and it is helpless after the forgiveness of the redemption.

It's not possible to be willing, it's a plan to stay in the mountains.

But just in the treasure house, it is making it more and more shocking and more and more shocking!

Beginning to die the sacred device, bringing the atmosphere of the demon domain; putting the gold dagger into the body, easy to control; using the gold scarab, summoned a batch of scarabs, and can easily send them back.

There is no demonstration of the gold chariot, and it is not clear what effect the golden mask is.

But these have proved that the waves are not ordinary, and you can see through it at a glance, and you can come out without needing to call it!

At this point, it began to really admire the waves.

Even if you are not willing to bear this result, you have to objectively admit that this human being is stronger than it in all aspects!

“Come here! Go with me to a place!”

After Shen Lang waited for it to come out, he screamed and put the golden chariot out.

This is a flying magic weapon, and after he has injected vitality and mental strength, he can fly.

The Kemrisu water monster does not dare to neglect, although it can also fly, the speed is also very fast, but it must be followed by the owner's arrangement.

Shen Lang searched for the information of the golden chariot and learned that the experts recovered according to the design. The design of the golden chariot can really run in the desert, and the fastest speed can reach 50 kilometers.

It was already a very fast speed, and it was even more incredible for that era.

But for Shen Lang, it is not worth mentioning.

Therefore, even if the two versions of the gold chariot are not the same, the increase in the expected value is also based on this speed of 50 kilometers per hour, and is not too high.

The result is now really operational, and it is still very windy!

First of all, it can be manipulated to adjust the sound, you can quietly fly silently, or you can provoke a lot of wind and sand like a helicopter propeller.

More importantly, after a real flight, it is at least ten times faster than fifty kilometers!

Although it can't be compared with the holy armor, it has greatly exceeded its expectations.

These things were collected more than 3,000 years ago, but they have always become chicken ribs. Just like other funerary objects of the Pharaoh's tomb, they are thrown together and they are not treasured.

This time there is no way to think about them. It is regarded as a life-saving straw. Even if they have no particularity, they must be blown magically.

I did not expect this thing to go into the hands of Shen Lang, but really every one is turned into a magic, all baby!

What else can I do? Recognize the clothes!

It was a bit lucky at this moment, and fortunately, Shen Lang did not accept the rest.

If you follow the initiative, it is all the treasures, all to be dedicated to the master, and the rest of the other treasures, do not know how many good things.

It feels that it can take a little time to study it later, and maybe even get some from it.

This city is the headquarters of the true sect of the true gods.

Shen Lang's trip to the west is aimed at three places. The first stop to go yesterday was the City of Light.

It was then going to the headquarters of the other two sects, and the obelisk was an unexpected episode.

Originally, Shen Lang put the obelisk back, and it was still able to come over last night, but the result was followed by a temple and a monster.

In the early morning, Shen Lang has already reached the headquarters of the True Denomination. It is the largest temple in the city. It is very magnificent and has a large construction area.

The entire city and country are their followers, and the atmosphere is very strong.

Shen Lang came here because they also have the power of faith to harvest!

All the secrets of the true sect, of course, is that the lord Morière knows that the sect of the sect is the leader of Hawadina.

Together with the Pope and other archbishops, they were packed up by the waves near Gang Rinpoche. After a day of information dissemination and fermentation, it is estimated that they have become a mess.

Of course, this chaos is limited to a very small number of high-level.

The news of the commander's commandment has not spread out, or it will really cause widespread turmoil.

When Shen Lang came, it was early morning. Whether it was in the city or in this big temple, it was calm. Just like the daily state, there was nothing special.

He has the memory of Morrie, and does not need to search for inquiries. After understanding it, he directly sent it to the treasure house of their headquarters.

In Morrie's memory, Shen Lang has a general impression of the structure of the treasure house and what he has inside.

At this level of treasure trove, the basics are similar, so that the collectors can collect, in addition to some precious documents, handwritten manuscripts, and so on, that is, the reserve resources such as the fine stone.

The only thing that Shen Lang can see is the same, that is the power of faith!

After seeing the treasure house of the City of Light, I compared the situation in the memory and felt that they are similar.

There is also a similar device in the underground treasure house of this great temple, but it is not a crystal ball, but does not know what stone.

The tip of this stone is facing the apex of the big temple above, and it is the same function as an “antenna” and “launch tower”, which transmits the power of faith to the kingdom of God. Relying on the Great Temple, it absorbs the faith of believers everywhere.

They also have a pool with a belief in the liquid state.

In general, it is the same as the other side, so Shen Lang came over for the first time, but it is also a bit like a light car.

He is ready to collect all the power of liquid beliefs, and then go to see their situation. If there is disagreement, it is necessary to give a good warning.

Others who belong to their religion, whether it is a secret, a document or a book, have no interest, that is, a spiritual stone, and now a pile is not in the eye.

The added value can't be compared to a few threads, let alone spirituality.

After finishing the work here, I will go to the headquarters of the Divine Church and fix the program again. After this is completed, I can go back to China.

But the plan can't keep up with the changes!

When Shen Lang was transferred to this treasure trove, he found that it was empty!

Everything has disappeared, and everything in the memory of the true sect, Morière, has disappeared, and the entire underground treasure house is empty.

The only thing left is the device that absorbs the power of faith. But the accumulation of faith in God water is gone.

Chapter 2198 - Waiting for the rabbit

Everything here was emptied, and there was no memory in Morrie's memory, indicating that it had not been moved a few days ago.

Then there is only one possibility: as the information about the incidents of the two teachings came over, they immediately responded!

Compared with the Cardinals of the City of Light, the true sects have spent more than half a day and one night, and they have passed the stage of vying for the seat, and have time to defend and cope.

What happened in the City of Light is related to the dignity of their sects, and only the core red archbishop knows that it should not be ventilated with the true sects and the sects.

This is a long-term difference. This kind of thing will definitely make it difficult for competitors to suffer.

However, the disappearance of the obelisk is open, and the news can be blocked by the blockade. The true gods must also have a similar message to the undercover city in the city of light.

Although I don't know what happened inside, the news of the defeat of the East, combined with the obelisk, can basically guess that Shen Lang is killing.

This is a warning, and there are certainly more unknown warnings!

Is this true for the city of light, will they let go of their true gods? Nothing is the next step!

The war on the side of Gang Rinpoche is to wait until the wind is not released in the name of the alliance, and then pass back, it is passive.

But in the city of light, their people will take the initiative to inquire about the news, and will always send the discovered information calls and so on, it is very real-time, let them have time to cope.

In the end, this treasure house will be evacuated. It should also be from the identity of Shen Lang. I guess that only the eyes can be entered here, or because it is the most expensive, the first time.

As soon as I saw this picture, I asked Shen Lang to understand the information.

This made him unhappy.

I have learned about their memories of Morrie and Hawadina, and they want to take the power of faith. Others will not move. Now they are taken away in advance, and the affirmation of the Shen sect is the same.

Isn't it a white run?

It's already running white, and the gods will run white!

These are the analysis of the moment of the swell, and at the same time, he immediately investigated it for four weeks.

If it is simply emptied, it means that the other party analyzes this point and quickly transfers the precious items.

If there is still an ambush here, it means that the Archbishops of the City of Light are venting!

Shen Lang can enter the treasure house without destroying the protection. Only the people of the city of light know that the true gods do not know.

In the city of light, they all know afterwards. The reason is here, the goods are withdrawn in advance, and the ambush of the rabbits can be kept.

He is uncomfortable now. Although the warning to the Guangming gods at that time was that they were not allowed to invade the East again, and did not touch this point, but it is  to dare to reveal his news.

After a patrol, the treasure house was still blocked. There was no ambush inside, and no one was ambushing outside.

This makes Shen Lang feel a little better, no need to run the city of light to find them.

What is now in front of him is two choices.

One is a white run, and he recognizes it. He quietly comes and walks quietly, so he leaves. The true sect is like this, and the sects do not need to go any more.

The other one, of course, is to investigate, to grab the heads here and see where they have moved things.

From the point of view, there is nothing wrong with people. If someone knows to “steal things”, if they can’t protect them, it is not normal to transfer items.

I am going to steal something, you actually hide it, not let me steal easily!

It is unreasonable to anger because of this, it is not right.

However, Shen Lang can’t just reason, he also has emotions!

The two factions jointly challenged the East, which is the signal of aggression. He came here from time to time and was also warned by a small punishment. By the way, the enemy’s reserve resources were weakened.

In other words, for the enemy, it is impossible to distinguish it with a simple “right or wrong”, which is the point of view!

These are the enemy, and his choice is of course the latter!

As the gods of Shen Lang spread, they quickly burned the entire temple and immediately locked a place.

That is the sleeping place of the teacher, Morière, and there are others there. It can be seen that they have already elected a new successor. Even if they have not yet officially crowned their successors, they have also moved into the dormitory.

This is what Morrie once said. Naturally, it was impressive. Shen Lang did not walk the door. From the underground treasure house, he used the gates of the Three Realms to shuttle into the sleeping quarters of Morrie.

The true sect of the true sect, less than a day in the upper class, is still very excited. It is estimated that there was no sleep last night. It is also awakening, and they are doing their religious prayers.

When someone came in, he immediately sipped and then got up and saw the waves.

“I am Shen Lang, don’t say you don’t know who I am.”

“Sink, sink...”

The teacher, who originally wanted to say who Shen Lang is, does not dare to delay the time in this way.

Shen Lang is the most famous self-cultivator in the world. He is the number one strong. How could he not know?

Even if I don’t know too much, I will be familiar with the news of the fall of Morière.

“Come on Shen Lang is too lazy to talk to him nonsense, torture is too much trouble, or directly grab him to read the memory.

“Are you killing Morrison?”

The new teacher immediately calmed down and did not resist the waves, but slowly walked forward and asked when he left.

“You should thank me, or else you will have the opportunity to succeed the true sect of the sect in this life?”

The sentence of Shen Lang suddenly made him speechless.

Originally, I wanted to complain, and I seemed to be angry with the former generation. But this is the case. Even the fall of Morrie is a huge loss of the true sect. For him personally, he is unconscious.

“I know very well that I am not your opponent, but no matter how you want to be with me... you are late!”

The Protestant Lord smiled and stopped, shaking one of the shoes.

“We expect that you will come and will hold me, so I made arrangements in advance. My siren is in the shoes, and when I just stood up, I have already stepped on it.”

He was not bluffing. When he got up on the ground, his feet were forced in the shoes. Shen Lang did not notice.

At the moment, noisy footsteps have been heard outside.

The Shenlang gods swept away and found that at least thirty true sects had rushed over!

These thirty, the strength is average, not a master of comprehension, but they are holding submachine guns in their hands!

Chapter 2199 - Bullet time

Upon discovering this situation, Shen Lang will understand that this new teacher is still a little bit powerful!

Or their new team has been discussed in a targeted meeting.

Shen Lang can destroy the three sects of the two schools and the three strongest archbishops. These two lines are added together, and more three lines together, will not be opponents.

That is to retreat to other places to hide, but in this high position, if you run away, then naturally there are other people in the upper position. If you stay here, you can only find another way.

What he chose was to use modern hot weapons!

Shen Lang has publicly demonstrated the tearing machine before, including smashing the roof of the presidential palace and destroying the parliament building. But after all, they have not seen it with their own eyes.

The power of close-range submachine guns is very clear. If this is not the Great Temple of the True Sects, there may be a large number of bombs ambushing.

Now this strategy is to use thirty people to use a submachine gun to sweep the sinking waves. The firing rate of hundreds of bullets per second can instantly make ordinary people into sieves.

This is a surprise attack, and they may not care about the lives of these 30 people. It is just the pile of people, the pile of bullets, the time for the teacher to cover, the ability to take the initiative to sink the waves to achieve the effect, can hit a bullet, are greatly The merits.

As for whether these people will be killed by the sinking waves, they are all cannon fodder.

“I can challenge me with such a method. I dare to wait here. I don’t know if you are brave or not, or if you are stupid.”

Shen Lang shook his head...

With a wave of his hand, the door of the room flew straight out, and the crowd rushing outside was completely presented.

There were already 30 priests with submachine guns. They rushed in the position of the cannon fodder death squad. They wanted to protect the lord and kill the enemy. They would not care about any life. In fact, in their concept, after death, Can enjoy the paradise.

Just after the alarm came out, these people rushed like chicken blood.

Originally, I thought about hitting the door and I didn't expect the entire door to fly. Instead, they were all taken aback.

But under inertia, it was too late to think. The first person had already rushed into the room, and the people behind him rushed over.

They are the identity of the death squad, and they know that they are facing a very dangerous enemy. Therefore, they rushed to the front of the person and saw a stranger in the bedroom of the teacher. They simply couldn't see who it was, and they shot directly!

Followed by the people who rushed in, in order not to hurt their own people, can not casually shoot, it is necessary to rush in, spread to the side to shoot.

But even so, in the blink of an eye, there are dozens of sub-pops, and the targets are all waves!

There are still people rushing in and there are still shots.

This Protestant Lord waited for this moment. He himself did not join the ranks of the attack, but leaped sideways to the window!

As long as you can kill the smashing waves, if necessary, blow up the bedroom, it doesn't matter!

When he flew off the ground sideways, he found himself fixed in the air, and the thirty gunmen priests were all fixed!

Including all the large bullets that were hit, all stopped in the air!

The whole picture is very different, just like the time in the science fiction movie pauses.

And Shen Lang, but in this bullet time, walking in a leisurely pace, shouting a bullet, let them aim at those who shoot the priests!

There are still a few bullets that greet the Protestant, and these bullets are specially adjusted by Shen Lang, which promises to hit him, but will not shoot him.

The Protestant and all the thirty gunmen priests were frightened.

The bullet time in the sci-fi movie, that is the effect of the shot, in fact, the speed of the protagonist is too fast, in contrast, everything of a normal person is as slow as a pause.

Another situation is to really stop the time between that moment.

But no matter what kind of situation, it is relative, it is the perspective of the protagonist. Those who have been “paused” have passed the time of zero and a few seconds. They are too late to react and have no time to be aware. When they are revived, they are already the end of the dust.

However, the current situation is that they can clearly see the smashing bullets of Shen Lang’s strolling in the air, watching Shen Lang aiming the bullets at them, and watching the bullets still pause, but if they are lifted, they will shoot at them. It is.

If the other party’s speed is a thousand times faster, then the ten-second thing to do, their consciousness is zero-one-one-second. It is understandable to have a pause in this time, but it will not be conscious at all, and will not feel and See you.

Now these ten seconds, they are clearly seeing everything, how can this be explained?

They can’t open their mouths and can’t talk, but they can see that they can think, only to be sure that Shen Lang can control everything like God!

At this moment, everyone understands that they are like ants in front of Shen Lang, and thirty submachine guns are like children.

If the other party wants to kill them, it may be just a wave of things. Now it's not killing him directly, but it slows down the time and lets them watch the bullets turn and change their direction to themselves. aim. Aiming at the bullets that are out of the way, it is much more stressful than being targeted by the gun!

After a while, you should also watch the bullets fly over to yourself and watch your head open!

At this moment, there is only one thought in their hearts. It is better to be headshot than to be unconscious, and to ask for heaven anyway.

The pressure of the Protestant is greater. He can clearly see the flight path of several bullets. He can probably guess which parts of his own body will be hit. This is not going to die. It is about to suffer more pain than death. !

The state of Shen Lang at the moment, of course, is not because of his "bullet time" that is too fast, so the other party can not feel it; nor is it to stop the "time pause" around, just the control of the realm of God.

Within the realm of the field of God, he can control everything and let them move, so that they can't move without moving, including people, including all bullets.

Therefore, it was actually that everyone was imprisoned into a still picture, but because a batch of bullets shot in the air, the extremely fast sense of speed gave everyone the illusion of "bullet time" and "time stop."

In the realm of God, he has to control the direction of each bullet, and he only needs to move his mind. The reason why he has to move around himself is to give them more psychological pressure, combine time control, and let them go further. Watching yourself approach death!

Chapter 2200 - How is the plot like this?

The next moment, under the control of Shen Lang, all the bullets were not in vain, and the thirty gunmen priests were completely headshot!

The remaining bullets were not shot.

As for the Protestant, there were three bullets on his body.

Under the control of Shen Lang, the bullet in the eye only blasted the eyeball, so it was inlaid and did not enter the head again.

This result, the new master who jumped up to the window, the whole person is about to collapse!

Originally thought that using guns to attack Shen Lang, it would be another surprise attack. I did not expect that in the face of absolute strength, any surprise attack is not worth mentioning.

He just couldn't move, so he slanted in the air, watching the bullets shoot and shoot into his own eyes, feeling the blood coming out on his face, which kind of clear feeling made him difficult to control himself.

The other 30 gunmen priests were the cannon fodder he had prepared, and they would not have any heartache and pain.

But watching them be headshot by a bullet, then the person still kept the action that rushed in, and did not fall down, the whole picture, still let his heart panic.

“what do you want to do.....”

When he opened his mouth, he found that he could talk, and looked at the waves, making him even more confused.

“You see, it was because of my relationship that you became a new leader. You don't know how to be grateful, but you want to kill your benefactor. Doesn't it come when you don't retribute?”

The Shenlang hand revoked the control of the field of God, and the thirty gunmen priests fell down one by one, all at the door and the rushing in, and the street was piled up.

The Protestant also fell to the ground, and he found that he was still unable to move at all.

But in addition to not moving, his feelings are more clear!

Just hit three bullets, mainly to give him a psychological shock, watching the bullets fly over, hit the waist, hit the eye, it is very crashing.

But he was still suppressed, and now he feels the huge pain caused by three gunshot wounds.

He is very helpless. Normally, with his strength, it is still possible to avoid the ordinary people shooting. Even if there is no way to shoot, you can control the injury and suppress the pain.

But now, he has no way at all. The whole body is not what he can control, and even the sense of consciousness cannot be controlled.

After receiving the information yesterday, like the archbishops of the City of Light, they also felt that Shen Lang killed one of the Pope's team and was an exaggeration of the oriental monks. The purpose was to create a super warrior to scare everyone.

Now it is clear that it is easy for Shen Lang to kill them. To kill the Pope and the two teachers, perhaps it is to increase the difficulty.

He prejudged the wrong situation!

The City of Light has not heard of someone dead, and it is obvious that the other party has directly yielded. He should also surrender...

It's too late to regret it now.

Shen Lang does not need him to sin and make meritorious deeds. He directly suppresses his consciousness and reads his memory. For a moment, he has already learned the information he wants.

"Hey, you are so embarrassed, these 30 gunmen are ready to die, and they have prepared bombs in this room, want to kill me?"

After understanding the latest two days of memory of the Protestant Master, Shen Lang has already made clear the direction of the transfer of all items. And knowing that these thirty gunmen are a group of beggars that have been enchanted, they just regard this as the first wave of death squads, to die, just delay him for a little while.

The rest is that when the Protestant Lord escapes from the window, it will detonate the bomb in the bedroom of the teacher!

Just like his siren is placed in a shoe, the bomb detonator is also in another shoe. As soon as he flies out, when he falls, he can use a force to detonate.

With his strength, he doesn't even have to wait until the person is in the air. When the person is in the air, he can press the tip of the foot and press the detonator inside the shoe to explode inside the house.

This result will not ruin the big temple of their headquarters. The only thing that ruined the house of the Lord is that the movement will spread to the surroundings.

This can repair the reconstruction, and such an attack can be exploited. He can then unite with the hatred and indignation of the believers and let everyone support him.

As for the 30 submachine guns and bombs, if they are unable to make a wave, then he himself is decisively running away!

The treasure house was transferred to another temple overnight in the middle of the night. The other core personnel also went there first.

If it is not for the sake of going up, he will not try his own risk here.

But now, everything has changed!

Seeing that Shen Lang has already understood everything, the Protestant smirked, "You killed me!"

By this time, he felt that Shen Lang would not let him go, it would be better to have a bit of a bone.

After he finished speaking, he also closed his eyes and prayed to their true God, hoping that he could go to heaven.

“What are you doing! Do you like to play bombs? Then blow it up!”

Shen Lang took his detonator out and put it in his hand.

“How about watching this kind of story?”

Shen Lang in front of him showed the scene of those people who rushed in and shot.

“You really have a guilty sect. Someone has arranged so many people to shoot you, and you are ready, so you pressed the detonator and everyone died. The final result is that the entire temple was blown up and burned.”

The picture that appeared was what he had just seen. He didn't know how Shen Lang did it.

Later, it is a little weird.

But with a little thought, his face is drastic!

With the strength of this Shen Lang, it is not easy to control him to press the detonator.

He can take pictures of the previous ones and should also be able to photograph the “detonation” of the bomb.

With the amount of bombs he prepared, he could only blow up the room around, but if the Shenlang had to put a fire, it would completely burn the headquarters temple!

In this way, everything that happens here is not only not stigmatized to the sinking waves, but to discredit their sects! Guilty to the guns and bombs, and finally bombed the headquarters...

The most shameful thing is that he, who has been a true sect of the church for less than a whole day, will be nailed to the shame column forever. Still want to reach into heaven? It would be nice not to punish God!
