

First Strong 2201

Chapter 2201 - have eaten

The original goal of Shen Lang is to take away the power of liquid beliefs they collect. Others just warn that it is the same routine as the city of light.

But the situation has developed to the present, it is not the same, the other party has already started to kill him, he certainly will not be polite!

Since the thing has been withdrawn to another big temple, blow it up!

The “drama” that I just saw for the new teacher is not to scare him, but to follow such a story.

He gave him a close-up shot, especially the eyes, and then controlled him to press the detonator.

The power of this bomb did not hurt the sinking waves. He didn't even dodge. He took the last moment in the room, and after the bomb roared, gave the wall a palm and forced it out. Directly transforming the entire Great Temple building into a precarious one!

Then he let the flame of the explosion spread out and began to burn to the entire temple.

With the ability of Shen Lang, he can directly destroy the entire temple. Even if you want to make a bomb, you can let it collapse after a few seconds of “fried”.

But he would rather have trouble, shake the entire building, become precarious, and the fire spread but there is no rapid cover.

This is to give other people in this temple a chance to escape!

This is the headquarters of the true sect. It must be some important personnel, but some are innocent. It is true that there are believers here.

Their core members were all evacuated to another temple.

Therefore, Shen Lang wants to give these people a chance to escape. He already regards them as the level of ants, and also as an enemy, but still does not ignore life.

As for whether they are willing to appreciate or willing to leave, that is their own choice.

When leaving, Shen Lang posted the edited picture to the network.

The explosion of the headquarters of the true sect, and then the fire, has caused a roar around, and many people have come to fight the fire.

But the buildings that were in danger after the explosion, from time to time cracks, collapses, and growing flames, so that the city's loyal and honest people are praying for their true gods, and there is not much to come in to fight the fire.

Since this is the headquarters of the true sects in the true religion, it should be blessed by God. Prayer seems to be more effective than firefighting.

The people inside have peace of mind to pray, but also fleeing out.

Shen Lang ignored them and went to the temple where they transferred.

The Protestant Lord himself was too late to pass the information out.

But he pressed the alarm and someone has rushed to meet it. Naturally, there are related people who pass the information to the other temple.

After the explosion comes out here, there is no need to pass the information, they can hear and feel directly.

The answer is self-evident!

Shen Lang is coming!

Shen Lang fried!

Shen Lang came, this is what they can guess. I thought I would arrive last night. It's a bit weird now.

But the explosion is an explosion, and it must be a deep wave, but it is hard to say whether the Shen Lang has been blown up.

After all, this is the number one power of the earth, where the top three masters and the top ten masters have been killed by him!

So at this moment, on the top of that temple, many people are looking at the direction of the headquarters, there is excitement, expectation, and tension.

With their strength, it is impossible to sense the specific conditions there, but the sound of the previous explosion can be transmitted. At this moment, you can also see the black smoke that is rising into the air because of the explosion and the flame.

They all carry their mobile phones and wait for the news over there.

Because this is the plot of their core, the other people at the headquarters of the temple are not clear. Therefore, except for a small number of people who contact, even if they call, they do not need to pick up, because they report the explosion situation, they all know.

At this moment, they both looked forward to the call of the Protestant Lord and looked forward to his not calling.

The Protestant is personally in the game as a bait waiting for the waves, is the only one who knows all and has first-hand information.

If he calls back, he will naturally be able to understand the most real situation.

But if he doesn't call back, it may mean that he is dead...

This is not yet officially succeeded, the Protestant is dead, it is equal to their chance to come!

So at the moment, they are not worried about whether the headquarters temple will be destroyed, how many people will die, and the 30 death squads are gray.

What they hope most now is a situation in which the Protestant Lord and Shen Lang are all gone!

Although rationally, they felt that this was impossible. The bigger possibility was that Shen Lang was hurt a little and then killed the Protestant.

But what if?

Besides, as long as the Protestant Lord is dead and Shen Lang is chasing it, he can push everything to his head, and the others will be fine.

Just when everyone was eagerly awaiting, some people were horrified to find out that they didn't know where to come from a big snake!

"Snake!"

"What is the snake's big surprise... so big!"

At the beginning of the screaming, everyone sneered at it, and there was a snake. When they saw a big snake on the top of the body, they were taken aback.

But even such a big monster is actually nothing.

Even if they are only the second line, it is also the elite of the sects, and the strength of the gods. Can you still be eaten by snakes?

"I see, eat all of you."

When they are ready to let one of them get the insulting snake to get it suddenly heard the snake open itself.

The big snake that can spit out people's words is not ordinary. It is a beast that is not low in level.

Then they all realized a problem.

When did the snake come up? Why did you find out when you were close?

Although they have just been at the headquarters of everyone, but they are not weak, there is such a beast to come up, it is impossible to not know.

This will happen, there is only one problem – the other party is stronger than them!

Realizing this, just the same sentence to eat them, it is a bit creepy.

Just when they wanted to run away, the serpent spurted a mist of water and shrouded them all.

One of the quickest reactions, has jumped out, but was shot directly by the tail of the big snake!

These water mists are the same as those used to attack the sinking waves. When it comes to dealing with the sun waves, it is impossible to touch and it has no effect, as if it is saliva.

But now in front of a group of core clerics of this true sect, it shows its power. After being covered, they are all dizzy and lose their resistance!

In the next moment, the Kemrisu water monsters were taken one by one and swallowed them one by one!

It came with Shen Lang, but did not go outside the temple, and later received the idea of Shen Lang to send it here.

Chapter 2202 - Follow the sinking waves and eat meat.

After Shen Lang got the memory of the Protestant, he gave the order to the Kemrisu Water Monster and let it come here first, lest the core members move again.

In fact, it is also a prevention. In such a short time, with their ability, it should be too late to escape.

But after all, this is a familiar site. If the response is fast, it is not so easy to carry a part of the thing and spread it directly into the city, or drive it. If you want to find it, it is not so easy.

So before dealing with the latter situation, Shen Lang let the Kemrisu water monster, first to control the situation here.

The Kemrisu water monster is a ten-year-old demon. Of course, you don't need to say it in great detail. Naturally, you understand that you have to control the strongest human beings.

As for eating them, it is self-proclaimed. Anyway, Shen Lang did not say that he would not eat!

But in fact, after the Shen Lang discovered that his knowledge is able to sense the situation here, it is possible to understand.

After looking at the burning there, he also came over here.

The Kemrisu water monster devours them, and he knows it. If you really need it, you can stop it in advance.

Now these are all enemies, and he has not stopped the Kremsau.

After the murder of the bishops, the Kemrisu monsters were satisfied and narrowed their bodies to the top.

At this moment, I suddenly felt that it was good to have such a host as Shen Lang.

Otherwise, it is not afraid to leave the land that you are familiar with, and even more afraid to offend the human power.

It can live for so long, not because it is the most powerful, but because it knows the most!

When you can pretend to be a ghost, you can pretend to be a ghost; when you can't resist it, you will be low-key. The world is big, but if you don't lose it, you won't want to dominate the world.

Now it is different. This is followed by Shen Lang. Shen Lang is not a reckless person. I am sure that I will dare to come to my heart.

So it just has to follow the meat and drink soup, it is really a big problem, it will be the master in front.

It's hard to meet a lot of human powers like this, and it's hard to remember for the last time.

As for working for Shen Lang, what does this work for? Very easy!

Shen Lang now has the memory of this new leader, and it is also clear where the treasure has been transferred to this temple.

He still uses the door of the Three Realms and directly transmits it to the new treasure house.

This is also underground, but in all respects can not be compared with the treasure house of the headquarters of the Great Temple, it was created from generation to generation, although this is not temporarily made, but the level is much worse.

Moving from a bigger place, it piled up a bit dense.

Shen Lang ignored all other things and directly collected all the liquid beliefs they had accumulated.

They also lost their temporary succession. They are still not very familiar with this thing. Otherwise, they will have a part of it, or a group of people will be divided up, and then they will be directly hidden and cultivated, and they will not be able to stay now.

When Shen Lang took things, he opened them directly from the inside.

This is not so strict treasure trove, of course, the defense will be stricter.

When guarding the priests to see the sinking waves coming up from below, they were all taken aback and immediately realized that this was an enemy, even if they attacked him!

The result is that waiting for Shen Lang to shoot, the Kemrisu water monster has heard the news, these do not need it to attack hard, they swallowed them directly.

“gone.”

“Where are we going next?”

The Kemrisu water monster is very excited to follow Shen Lang. I thought it would be a chore. I didn't expect it to be so bad.

Shen Lang is a bit speechless.

He had brought the Kemrissu water monster before, but he had to try the golden chariot anyway, let it come and run. Otherwise, he has traveled directly from the desert to the treasure house of the true sect. It has already arrived.

Now that he is going to the Sectarian side, the gold chariot has been verified, and there is no need to use it again, and he does not want to take the Kemlisou monster again.

But he was hesitating again.

The Bright Holy See does not necessarily exchange information with the true gods, because in addition to this temporary cooperation, they are usually competitors and will not be cheaper.

But the true sects are different from the sects, even if everyone's ideas are different, and even some have hostile emotions, but in the end, they are the same, only different sects.

Therefore, on top of life and death, they naturally still have access to each other.

And this time, Shen Lang will come to find which one is first, is uncertain.

From the time point of view, Shen Lang has not come to deal with himself, it must be against the other side, the rest is them.

They will keep in touch, or have arrangements, always pay attention to the situation on the other side, and analyze all the information.

Now, the situation here, Shen Lang directly put on the network, it will not take long, it will ferment.

Adding a batch of “missing” here, it will make everyone believe in guilt.

But the people of the sects will know that this is not the case.

This message was sent in the past, and there may be two situations, one is that they continue to transfer the treasure and hide themselves. In another case, it is to give up resistance and wait for him to pass.

In the former case, they are not sure that Shen Lang will take away their treasures, but they must do so. And they have been hiding for a while, can't hide for a lifetime, or else someone will jump out of the upper teacher.

Besides, there are competitors staring, and if they are not good, they will take the opportunity to grab the site.

For such an analysis, they are more likely to be should be the latter.

If this is the case, Shen Lang feels that they can give them some time to let the situation ferment and let them discuss it.

Anyway, he only has one thing, and the other is a warning.

After the decision, he took the Kemrissu water monster, re-driving the golden chariot, and did not hide anything. He flew directly from the city and went to the city of the Shen's headquarters.

The world of comprehension, these two days are in a state of eager to eat melon.

The leaders of the Guangming and the true gods and the core archbishops have all been destroyed. In addition to the fact that the waves are more sturdy, the other forces in the West are ready to move!

For example, before they belonged to the small forces of their two camps, they are ready to rush to clear up, so as not to be tired of themselves.

And those big forces that wait and see, and now they are trying to figure out whether to grab the territory of their two factions. Of course, in such a short period of time, it is only waiting to see and plan.

Yesterday's obelisk was changed, although the City of Light quickly explained that it was transfer maintenance. However, the news still flowed out of the air, and there was a situation in which the cardinal collective suddenly appeared in the square.

It is not difficult to guess that this may be a wave of Shen Lang!

As a result, early in the morning, there was another explosion at the headquarters of the True Denomination. It was said that it was the effect of guilt, and then even the headquarters burned down.

Can everyone believe it? I think this is a dry wave!

Chapter 2203 - How can you be good?

The incident on the side of Gang Rinpoche is a secret incident that is only known to the real world. Even if it is passed back, it is only known in the circle.

The things that happened in the city of light, they are also as concealed as possible, the scope is not very large, it is the obelisk, and it has not caused a sensation outside.

But the faction of the true sect is different. The explosion and the fire are all open. In the age when everyone was a media, it spread quickly on the Internet.

Shen Lang didn't have a big V account, and he made a temporary appeal. He didn't let Feng Jiji organize hype, even if it was transmitted to the Internet, there was not a lot of proliferation.

But the network has keywords. As the explosion fire spread out here, when it was focused around the world, it was quickly flipped out of the video he uploaded.

This new priest is still not officially in power. Apart from the faithful followers of their religion, others do not know much. But the picture of the shot and the explosion was already very realistic, and the first-hand information was on the scene.

These immediately let countless people automatically forward and spread, and let the major media play it out, and immediately find experts to prove the authenticity of the video.

In this way, the guilt said that he would not leave.

And before they stood up for the true sects, they quickly made a clear distinction. Standing against the sects, this time for self-protection, but also actively looking for the sects, said to temporarily withdraw, do not participate in these things.

Originally, there was a light encounter with the Holy See, which allowed the two factions to have more time to calmly arrange, including transferring property, including consultation measures.

The last door to the door, some time is the most abundant, the pressure is relatively small.

But now it's different, the gods feel that they are the most stressful one!

The news that the teachers were killed was the first layer of pressure; the Holy See has already encountered a visit to Shen Lang, and the specific losses are unknown. This is the second layer of pressure.

Now, the true sects of the same origin have not only encountered the visits of Shen Lang, but also the explosions and fires of the name, and the collapse of the headquarters of the Great Temple!

The newly elected lord of the darkness has been blown away, and other core bishops have disappeared!

This is not something that guilt can explain. It must have angered Shen Lang and destroyed them all, creating a situation like this!

Therefore, this third layer is the biggest and most practical pressure, so that the gods are all enemies, and they feel that they are going to be destroyed at any time.

They also passed the stage of fighting for power and profit, and they have already reached the conditions to elect a new leader. It has also made arrangements for transferring treasures and dealing with Shenlang overnight.

But now, in this case, everyone hit a suffocating punch.

They are still interoperable. Even if they don't know the specific plan of the true sect, the general direction is that everyone is ventilated.

At that time, I still didn't know which side Shen Lang would go to first, so both sides were similar programs, waiting for Shen Lang to come. Also consider the experience of one of the parties, can provide reference to the other party.

The result of the true sect has now given the Shen sect a heavy reference.

So when the outside news was fermented, they gathered for the first time and then gave up pessimistically.

There was still a trace of luck yesterday. I felt that the defeat of the teachers was an away game. It was most likely that they were ambushed by a large number of people in the East. All the credit was piled up on the head of Shen Lang.

Does the Holy See have nothing to do with it? If they are prepared, they may be able to fight back to success, that is, the battle to change the world power structure, they will all become famous, it means the true God, and it is the world's top representative.

It is now obvious that several great teachers are not rivals. The Holy See is estimated to be very fast, so it has not been hit hard. The true sect wants to fight back, but it is ravaged by the other side!

Shen Lang is not only strong, but also!

Even if Shen Lang is not a person, it is a group of Eastern powers fighting, then what? The result is not the one they can handle.

At this level, only the initiative to kneel down can avoid losses.

Everyone soon reached a new consensus. In the case of urgent consultations, it is not how to deal with Shen Lang, but how to be embarrassed.

You must be embarrassed, but from this point of view, you may not want to kneel down, others will be willing to spare you, awkward attitude, awkward posture, but also let the other party satisfied!

The point of civilization is that what conditions are given to satisfy the satisfaction of Shen Lang, so that they can not pursue their problems.

Of course, it's better to be able to keep your face, and that's perfect.

During the consultation process, they also screamed at the Holy See. They felt that the guys were more embarrassed, and they had no bones, they were embarrassed, and they were completely thorough. I don't know what benefits I have given, but I haven't done any damage to the city of light.

These guys are still secret, don't say anything, don't give others a chance to refer.

I can only look at it. They have no position to ask others. Originally everyone is a competitive relationship. This temporary ally is also unreliable. After the fall of the teachers, they will not be allies again.

There is no doubt that Shen Lang will come to the Shen sect next time, leaving little time for them...

Besides, Shen Lang, the golden chariot with the Kemrisu water monster, leisurely flying over, he is ready to put pressure on the other party stay time fermentation, it will not hurry.

This process is a tour of the Kemrisu water monster.

The Kemrisu Water Monster also completed an "Exodus" and felt the situation in other regions. Although there is no stop to live, from the aerial view, many modern buildings are almost the same, but psychologically gave it Great touch.

So came to the headquarters of the Divine Church, which is a great temple with the same history and very grandeur.

When Shen Lang drove from the sky with a golden chariot, on the top of the temple, the Protestant Protestant, who had led the core bishops, was waiting for the group.

They don't really know what kind of form Shenlang will appear. In order to express their sincerity, they will wait in advance.

On the top of the temple, it is to make their goals more obvious, let Shenlang come from somewhere, and at any angle, you can see them.

And of course they are peaceful gestures without any vigilance.

If you are not afraid of being photographed by the secular people, you will simply pull the banner and welcome Shen Lang to guide the work.

"Great, respectful, and beloved, Shen Lang! We warmly welcome you, you can come from the east not far from the east, it is the glory of our gods!"

The new leader of the Divine Church, when watching the sinking of the waves, came up with a passionate ass. It seems that they are really excited to wait for a great person to visit.

Chapter 2204 - Take the initiative

Although I understand that this is insulting, Shen Lang is satisfied with their attitude.

Originally it was a strong repression, and it was not to serve people with morality. He did not want to receive their sincere respect. He came here, but wanted the power of their faith.

Now their attitude shows their attitude, they do not want to intensify contradictions, but they want to resolve them peacefully.

That's enough.

“It seems that you are the new successor of the Divine sect? Yes, you know the time, you should be able to get longer.”

Shen Lang laughed directly and did not hide the subtext.

God knows how nervous the gods are in this heart!

They are under the greatest pressure, which is equivalent to voluntarily running out to meet, but also afraid that others feel that their specifications are not high enough.

In the waiting time of the year, they have been silently previewed many times, so it can be done naturally.

But when I saw Shen Lang, I was shocked again!

This strong East is actually riding a golden chariot!

There is also a snake around, which looks very powerful.

This made them unable to think of it. Shen Lang disappeared for half a day and night yesterday. There was no immediate attack. It should not be to give them more preparation time. If they didn't do it, they would take a detour and get the gold chariot. .

The golden chariot is actually the same magic weapon!

The Kemrisu water monster came together in a golden chariot, and the body did not become huge, but its eyes still revealed a horrible light, and the bishops staring at it were a little panicked.

I ate a batch before, so that it is very comfortable and comfortable. This batch of course, of course, also wants to eat.

However, it is still very sensible. It can be eaten before because it is the enemy of Shen Lang and it is acquiesced by Shen Lang.

Now these people have already put on a good attitude. The owner does not want to move them. If it rushes to eat them, it is not good for the owner to take it to Nei Dan!

Therefore, it is just sitting on the sidelines, without disguising its thoughts and abilities, but without any action.

“Shen Lang’s visit is a great honor. It’s our pleasure to entertain here. It’s really disrespectful, but please move.” The Protestant immediately sent an invitation to Shen Lang.

“What is the purpose of my visit, do you know?” Shen Lang is straightforward.

“This.....”

The Protestant Lord is very embarrassed. They have already prepared for the squatting, but they are a little euphemistic. Now ask this question, how can people answer?

Can you say: We know that you are coming to grab something, we are ready, welcome to pick?

Still said: We know that you are coming to threaten us, we are willing to be a dog, please spare your life?

Seeing his embarrassment, Shen Lang smiled lightly.

“Or let me know! Constantine V, and your Hawadina lord, and the Moriist, have no hatred with me, everyone is just different. They pursue their goals, which offends us. I am not willing to give in, so I will kill them.”

“Yes.” The Protestant can only agree with the laughter, and no one else dares to speak.

Shen Lang gestured and said, he has the memory of Hawadina, and he is still well aware of this big temple.

“I am here to come to visit you three times, that is, to make you safer, be honest, don’t be self-respecting, and provoke people you can’t afford.”

“Don’t dare, don’t dare, we will never have two hearts. We are very admired for Shen Lang!”

“Yes, yes, we are all your fans! You have destroyed the presidential palace and the parliament building of a superpower. We are very enjoyable. Many of us believe in it.”

Others have also touted it, and this is what they have discussed.

After all, they don’t like the superpower. This is the common point that can be found out. It’s not fake, it’s all true.

“No more nonsense, you are honest, I can let you continue to develop peacefully; if you are not honest, what will happen, you will know.”

“Yes, yes, there are some people who are really not honest, but we will not, we are very much in agreement with you!”

Shen Lang is going to warn, that is, a verbal warning.

But for those who have certain strength, they will not accept verbal warnings.

Therefore, the situation that occurred in the true sect is to give the Shins, including the Holy See, a better warning to let them realize what the consequences are.

There is no need to talk nonsense.

“Since I am here, let me visit.” Shen Lang expressed his second purpose.

“You come with me!”

The Protestant Lord was very decisive, and immediately led the Shenlang and went straight to the underground treasure house.

The other core bishops did not go along with them. After all, it was a restricted area that the lord could enter. Even if they felt that they are now eligible to go in, they still have to be good and not guilty in front of outsiders.

So it was only the Protestant Lord who went with the Shen Lang, who left behind in the name of the hospitality.

The Kemrisu water monster, also actively stayed, it is slowly moving around.

Shen Lang is of course a search treasure, and there are not many things that can make Shen Lang see. Other things, perhaps useful to it, are more likely to be human treasures.

So it didn't follow, but stayed to help Shen Lang see other people lest they have disagreements.

The Protestant came directly to the underground treasure house with Shen Lang, and opened the door to lead him in.

He is also very decisive. Since Shen Lang has come, he has this purpose and will not ask them to entertain and drink anything. Then there is no need to imaginary and set the snake, directly let Shen Lang achieve the purpose, leave early, everyone's pressure will dissipate earlier.

This underground treasure house, they were transferred overnight last night.

But the discussion just now made them realize that this should be the goal of Shen Lang. If you are not satisfied with Shen Lang, you will not leave easily.

So before they go to wait, it is an emergency transfer again, returning the things that have been moved back to the original position, and then invite Shen Lang to pick.

Of course, they can also directly invite Shen Lang to the place after the transfer, but it is estimated that Shen Lang has received information from the leader of Hawadina. Changed the place, does it mean that they have had a disagreement?

Therefore, it is not too troublesome to move back again, try to restore the original state.

“This is a private storage room for the Havandina lord. There are many collections of famous paintings. You will slowly visit and enjoy. I will prepare tea for you.”

This new teacher has already prepared his speech. He does not go in and check the interruptions, so as not to be embarrassed. In order to appreciate the name of the artworks, it is the best squat gesture for Shen Lang to pick his own treasure.

Shen Lang is still very satisfied with this attitude. After entering, his goal is also very clear, only the belief is a little power!

Chapter 2205 - Enraged with God

They are all homologous, and all aspects are similar, and the same is true in this treasure house.

Shen Lang directly ignored other things and came to those liquid beliefs.

After collecting this wave, plus the other two waves, it is a huge reserve.

Because this is already the third wave, Shen Lang has not need to observe it carefully, it is directly to accept those liquid beliefs.

But a situation that he didn't think of happened happened!

Just as Shen Lang had just collected all the liquid beliefs, the “receiving and launching” device suddenly changed.

They are a stone, the tip of which points to the tip of the entire temple. On the one hand, it absorbs the power of faith everywhere. On the one hand, it transmits the power of faith to the realm of the gods, and if many of them are reserved, to a certain extent, Concentrated and condensed into a liquid form.

Now, when Shen Lang took all the power of liquid beliefs, a powerful ability came from the top of the temple and then passed to the tip of the stone.

“Bold mad!”

A loud sound immediately rang in the treasure chest and even spread outside.

Of course, the new cult leader is not really going to make tea. He is looking for an excuse to wait outside for the sake of the waves, so as not to look at the heartache and make Shen Lang feel unsightly.

At this moment, I suddenly heard the voice of a third person inside, so that he could not help but stumble.

Is there a guardian of some form in the treasure house?

I have never heard of it!

It's just that he is a temporary leader. It's not a choice of successors. He hasn't gotten the advice of the previous generation's leader. It's unclear about many things.

This treasure trove is known to everyone. It is also realized that Shen Lang will come to seize it, and then discuss the results together and open up the way.

But it was just a matter of shifting it. Today, it has been transferred back. In fact, for what is specific inside, they have not had time to take stock.

Now I heard the voices of other people coming in, let him guess that because Shen Lang is an outsider, it triggers the release of the patron saint.

This conjecture makes him a happy first, then a panic!

For the sake of joy, it is not necessary to say that there can be a patron saint to dry down the waves. What a good thing, if it is not done, it will not be that he is injured.

But the question is, is Shen Lang so easy to do it?

No matter what form the patron saint exists, there must be history, and there must be no flesh-shaped body. Even if it can prevent ordinary thieves, can you defend against the strong level of Shen Lang?

Shenlang is basically the most powerful person on the earth. It is the level of three masters, plus nine archbishops. The top-level and first-rate powers of the true gods and the light gods are added together. They are all destroyed by him!

The patron saint of the remaining soul, is the effect of bluffing?

Did not kill the waves, but it will anger the waves!

At that time I thought it was his intentional arrangement...

With such a thought, he is really panicked!

Because they had a very good attitude, they also went straight with Shen Lang. In order to express their sincerity, he did not follow. If there is a guardian attacking the waves, then Shen Lang will definitely think that this is a trap they deliberately set.

When the time comes out, it may be necessary to open a killing ring and repeat the mistakes of the true gods here!

This new protagonist, who is on the verge of death, feels that his fate is too much. It is a matter of infinite glory. As a result, it is dangerous to do it.

Just taking office yesterday is to face the difficult choice of how to deal with Shen Lang; today I changed it again.

And now, it is another difficult choice: choose the side station.

Believe in the patron saint of your own?

Or jump out to support Shen Lang?

He has no confidence in the patron saint, but on principles, it should be supported.

He believes that Shen Lang is likely to be hard, but to support Shen Lang, it is simply eating out, it is not right.

But now, you have to make a decision right away, or you will be able to see the team soon, and you will not give him a chance to stand up.

The Protestant master took the initiative and opened the door and rushed in!

He decided to go ahead and then act on the plane.

If the patron saint is very powerful, then of course he is standing on his own side, can help the patron saint, and finally, if it can destroy the sinking waves, the patron saint is inconvenient to come out, this credit is his!

If the patron saint is far from enough to fight, then he will stand on the side of the waves and kill the guardian god!

He can stand out from the competition and become a new leader. Naturally, he has something to do with him. He did not feel that there was any problem with the big event.

The sound first appeared, and then at the moment the Protestant Lord entered, the master of the voice gathered above the tip of the stone to condense the figurative human form.

When Shen Lang was just having energy fluctuations, he found out that when the sound came out, he actually guessed a rough idea.

This is of course not the patron saint in the treasure house, nor the guardian of this device that connects the power of faith and the god. This should be the avatar of God!

In ancient mythology, there are all kinds of gods, some of which are evolved and fabricated, and some of which are theified by the powerful comprehens.

There is also a kind of power that is created by God and cultivates faith. The current Shen Lang has already figured out what this is all about.

The upper limit of the space rule of this world is equivalent to the strength of the great realm. After reaching it, it will gradually be induced by the space rules to and then it will lead to catastrophe.

Since ancient times, monks have loved and hated for the robbery. The love is to hope that they will survive the day and day, and go to the higher worlds such as the fairyland, the gods, and the heavens.

The hate is that the end of the catastrophe is often smashed by the rolling thunder.

Judging from the situation of Guangming God, those who have come to create teaching should also be God's avatars and messengers, not personally.

This is true of the Light God, and true God should be similar.

The true God of true God, no matter which world, no matter how many generations, must be able to inherit the power of the earth.

And the power of all faith in the true gods on earth is absorbed by the true denominations and the gods, equal to these two "transmitters."

Yesterday both parties shifted the liquid beliefs. Although the device is still going on, the process of absorbing and transforming needs a process. It should give the experience of the true God, that is, the "incense" suddenly broke.

After the side was broken, it was not connected.

Here, because of the resolution they had just met, they have been transferred back. These liquid beliefs have once again been taken up, and the true God should feel it immediately.

It turned out that it didn't take long before it was broken. It was estimated that it would anger him, and it was related to the long-lasting incense, so that he intervened in the lower bounds.

Shen Lang understands the cause and effect, but there is still no way to judge it. Is this just a phantom, or is it the true God's avatar?

Chapter 2206 - True * shadow

When the Protestant came in, he wanted to have a big drink, and then looked at the situation and chose to stand on the sidelines. He did not expect that the figure in the air would be like the true * of the universe, and he would let him bow down.

“God! I am your servant!”

He was shocked at this moment!

I just thought that if the patron saint did not work, I chose Shen Lang, and even the partnership killed the patron saint of my own.

The result turned out to be the true spirit of the universe!

Where is God, isn't all the thoughts invisible? That just thought...

Like the story of Ye Gong Hao Long, a religious person like him, even if he is still very sincere and believes in God, when he meets God one day, he will panic.

Not to mention the idea of eating outside, even if his purpose is to allow the faction to be long-term, but in the end it is betraying God.

So at this moment, it was really shivering.

For Shen Lang, he is really fearful, but the time of fear is not too long. For their god, it is already a brand in his life, and he has the opportunity to see God himself. He can't resist at all.

From a mental point of view, he is really willing to let himself fall to the ground, and the five bodies can show their piety.

The distance between Shen Lang is much closer, and at this moment, the figure appears more clearly.

This powerful energy is from the tip to the top of the Great Temple, appearing out of thin air and descending from the sky. This is what he can confirm, but this energy is just a virtual shadow, or is it transmitted over?

Shen Lang is more inclined to the former!

Because God himself cannot come to Earth, and wanting to come through the door of space is not so easy.

They came over a thousand or two years ago, and maybe it was a coincidence, and they would not come over if they wanted to come over. Of course, you may have traveled to more other worlds.

Some places are suitable for preaching, and some places may still be wild and lifeless.

In the after hours, they will not check and inquire frequently, and may be able to return again. But more is to sow a seed, waiting for the future harvest.

To come over, it is the existence of the door of space, but it is just a matter of thought and so on. It is much easier to achieve by transmitting the power of faith.

This can complete the presentation of “showing the spirit” and “seeking dreams”.

In fact, it will not be “a day in the sky, a year in the ground” hundreds of times the gap, a thousand or two years, for the mainland of the mainland, is also a long process.

Just like the Light God, they may not have the means to come to Earth!

Because the door to space that appeared two thousand years ago may have disappeared long ago. Just like “No Return to Hell” is the door of space that emerged hundreds of years ago because of the influence of the sea. After the sea has left, it is getting smaller and smaller and will soon disappear.

Other places may have other cracks. These are changes, perhaps five hundred years, and five hundred years later.

Therefore, the last time God of Light could arrange God to come to Earth, or even personally, because of the discovery of the Pope, and perhaps even earlier, he discovered Archbishop Paul.

After returning, Paul, along with the Pope, worked hard to promote the second adventure of no return to hell.

The  of true God, whether it is a religious sect of the mainland of China, may not be able to come over. Otherwise, the earth world has undergone tremendous changes, and the population has soared to the point where it was unimaginable thousands of years ago. They have no reason not to intervene.

If God can intervene in the earth, it can help his own sects and destroy other religions, just as the light  wants to unite the earth.

In another case, this true  appears too fast!

The avatar also needs a suitable carrier.

Therefore, at this moment, the figure of the sky above the stone, even if it is so realistic, Shen Lang thinks that he may be a shadow.

The reaction of the Protestant, let this true God glance at the past, and reprimanded it.

“How are you so incompetent? Even if you just casually let people fall!”

“Yes, yes! We don’t have... No... God! It’s not that we are too incompetent, this enemy is too powerful! He killed our lords and many bishops, and today puts all the core personnel of our other group. It’s gone, now it’s here again, we can’t beat him, we can only give in.”

The Protestant Lord was just an instinctive reaction and would not doubt God.

After stumbling over, I heard that God can reprimand myself, and it proves that there is nothing wrong with it. God must have come, only to see him, to speak to him.

God has come, what is the fear of Shen Lang?

Even if he is strong and strong, will he be stronger than God?

This also shows that God listened to the prayers of all of them and deliberately saved everyone! The power of God is incredible!

The area is steep, and it is only human beings. It is to be beaten by God.

With such a mind, he immediately began to complain about the sinking waves. Before I almost had to hold my thighs to call my father's enthusiasm, I now describe Shen Lang as a sinister.

This face has changed, and it has also verified all the previous enthusiasm, which is fake.

Shen Lang could not help but sneer.

Originally it was put out, he didn't care. The things he wanted were clear, but now the situation is still not clear, so he is eager to turn his face, will it be too stupid?

"What about God?"

Shen Lang taunted and looked at the true God in front: "If it is your true body personally coming, I am naturally not your opponent. However, what are you doing now?"

"Bold!" The shadow of the true God directly screamed.

The new teacher just got equal to the sideline team, God's coming, so that he does not need to hesitate, must be chosen God.

Since it is chosen, of course, we must work hard to the end. Just the words of Shen Lang made him feel very harsh. I am also very worried that this is true, so I quickly refute it.

"Let's let go! You * the thief! Kill me the leader, kill my followers, humiliate my true God, I want to fight with you! Our great true God will lead us, put you in China, and let your land cover The glory of God!"

The mouth shouted desperately, but it didn't actually work, or it was lying on the ground. This is to anger God and let God destroy the waves. He does not have this strength himself, he can only add fuel to the fire.

Shen Lang still mocked the shadow of the true God.

“This God, tell him, tell your servant believers, can you move me a hair in your current state?”

Shen Lang did not dare to let himself exude the peak strength, fearing to attract the robbery, but even so, the realm of his great * is here, although this is only a projection of the present, but after all, it is the will of God, it is definitely able to see the score. Ming.

Chapter 2207 - First cleaned up you

The Protestant main torso is still on the ground, but the head is already up.

He is eager to see Shen Lang being beaten by God!

I had to succumb to the swaying wave before, which made him feel very shameful. There is no way, that is, the ability to bend and stretch, there is a way, of course, I hope to get rid of the waves.

Now, he almost yells: God! Do him! Kill the waves!

But he still suppressed it, be respectful! This is God's decision, and you can't open your mouth to avoid dissatisfying God.

But soon, he was disappointed!

God is actually silent!

The hard-nosedness that was disdainful like Shen Lang, God did not have anger!

He started to feel a little bit wrong...

Shen Lang is not only powerful, but also a few times who have gone to the sea of innocence, and not only returned from their own safety, but also saved everyone several times.

Such a person, can you have no brain?

If not sure, will such people go to risk offending God?

He carefully remembered, remembering the words of Shen Lang just now – if your true body came in person, I am naturally not your opponent. But what are you doing now?

When I heard this sentence, he was angry and could immediately spurt the waves.

But now, after pondering, I realized that this sentence has a turning point.

According to the meaning of this statement, Shen Lang is very clear that he is not as good as God's strength, and clearly said that "if God's true body is in person", he is not an opponent.

And the latter sentence, dare to say so arrogantly, because he has already seen it, this is not the true body of God!

His heart began to sink...

Yes, this kind of person who is so cautious, so sinister, and stunned, will you be in danger?

Even if he likes to force, he will look at the object. I will just say that, I have already seen the true strength of the object!

That's bad. This is not the true body of God. What is that?

He also began to realize that it was possible, if it was just a glimpse of God's long-range projections, it would not have been too dry!

Just after Shen Lang has directly challenged God, arrogant disdain. But now God's reaction...

"I remember you."

After a moment of silence, God's projections uttered a scene of incompetence.

The Protestant Lord immediately fell to the ground with powerlessness...

His posture has not changed, but it was just a sincere affair, but now it is soft without support.

Just that sentence means that God also acknowledged the words of Shen Lang. Under the circumstances that the real body did not come in person, there is no reason for it!

This is a big problem!

Remember what is the use?

Seeing this meaning, God is unable to come – at least not free to come to the world, Shen Lang does not go to heaven, remember what is the use?

And he is about to suffer revenge from Shen Lang!

“You remember me, do you want to retaliate against me in the future?”

Shen Lang sneered.

“What have you done, you know very well, do you think I should not retaliate against you?” God’s projection also sneered.

This is heard in the ears of the Protestant Lord. He feels that God is seeking justice for them. It is because Shen Lang’s actions against the two gods of the true gods have made God angry.

But in the ears of Shen Lang, it is very clear that the true God refers to the power of faith!

They have so many believers on the earth. Even if they lose a batch, they will have some influence. The overall situation and the long-term perspective are nothing.

But the two waves of faith that Shen Lang took away are accumulated over a long time!

This is because the “upload speed” is not fast enough, otherwise he has already owned it. But even if it comes slowly, this is their incense, which is continuously transmitted to them for a long time.

Shen Lang is the end of the pot, so that they lose a lot, for a long time, it may be collected, but also can not catch the delivery.

Even if there are enough believers to be able to catch up, even if these will accumulate more, they will not be fully transmitted to them. This is theirs!

This is like a local landlord. He has the wealth that he can't use for a lifetime. He can't use his children and grandchildren. But he would rather accumulate more and more, and he won't give it to others. Once he is robbed, it will be Furious.

Shen Lang nodded: “Since you have said it, I will retaliate in the future. Then I have to clean up you now. Isn't it a reason to be unreasonable?”

“...?”

In this case, the  seems to have no reaction.

The Protestant Lord is shivering, Shen Lang... Is it necessary to actively challenge God?

The next moment, the projection of God, without any answer, already understood what was going on.

Because it has been locked up!

What he just presented is a real figure, but it is actually projected, similar to the effect of the holographic projection of the sacred armor, he is just a form of spiritual energy.

If it's just a manifestation, it's enough for the believers to talk to people and talk about it.

But to fight, it is not enough, which is why he must surrender to the waves. If you can't scare the waves and see the strength of Shen Lang, you can only accept the reality.

But now, when Shen Lang is talking, the mental power has completely blocked it around!

This is a little different from the field, but it is similar in appearance. It is the existence of spiritual energy. Shenlang is to lock him up with spiritual energy, and the spiritual energy of Shen Lang is suppressed.

A mortal in the district, dare to suppress him a god!

This is really irritating him, this is a great provocation!

He really wants to learn the secret waves directly, but unfortunately when he controlled, he discovered that he had been cut off and contacted!

His previous form is like remote operation through the Internet. Now it is like being pulled out of the network by Shen Lang.

Without the remote support of God, this projection, although not dissipated in an instant, has no strength.

Shen Lang raised his hand and absorbed this  directly into the palm of his hand!

“Even if you are a god, you can only become my nutrition now! Since you want to remember me let you remember a little more!”

With this in mind, let the Protestant Lord cry a little!

He turned out to be watching “God’s avatar”, and quickly a large piece, a large piece was absorbed by the sinking waves!

This is of course an effect of Shen Lang’s show. In fact, this is the level of spiritual energy. He does not need to reach out. He will not be a person. If he absorbs energy, he will naturally die.

But under his operation, it seems as if a little bit of God has swallowed up, and the shocking stimulation of the Protestant Lord is not an order of magnitude.

For this, Shen Lang is really a light car.

At the beginning, his strength was far worse than that of the present, and he could kill a avatar of a bright god. Later, he not only reached the realm of the great gods, but also had many experiences in fighting the powerful spirit of the dragon.

Now this projection that is not even a avatar is eliminated, and naturally it is not difficult.

“Are you still waiting for God to destroy me?” Shen Lang looked down at the Protestant on the ground.

Chapter 2208 - give up

The Protestant on the ground, the whole man shivered, his face was afraid to lift up, completely close to the ground.

Just now he screamed that he was so powerful that now he wants to explain it. There is no way. The more he is black, the more he says it is fake.

“I... confessed, you killed me. I hope you let go of other people...”

He reluctantly said such a sentence, this sentence is not intended to express the temperament, is the real helpless pleading.

People will die and their words will be good.

This time, when he chose to stand in the team, the candidate was wrong, and he also paid the price of his life. There is nothing to say. But if you want to hurt other people, you will not be willing to go.

Shen Lang looked at him and asked a faint question.

“Do you think I have to teach you the true God, can’t do it?”

Hearing this, the Protestant, who was shivering, was bitter, but had to admit it.

“It is impossible to kill all the believers of true gods. But with your strength, it is a matter of raising your hands to destroy the core of the two factions.”

He is telling the truth. All believers are in the billions or even billions. Those who are even more powerful cannot be killed. It is also a great crime.

But to fight this religion, it is enough to destroy the core members of the two main schools.

Perhaps in the short term, it will inspire all believers to rebound and cause many conflicts. But without the spiritual leader, without the core management, there will be no leader and a loose sand.

Even if it doesn't fall apart, it will quickly decay. Other religions and forces, including many countries, will take the opportunity to eat and divide them.

Even if it is difficult to completely extinction, it will take less than a few years to become a marginalized religion without a sense of existence.

As for the core members who have destroyed them, one hundred and one thousand, and the number of Shen Lang is only a figure. Even those who can destroy the will of God, who else on earth can stop him?

“You are very interested. I am too lazy to kill you, get up!”

The sentence of Shen Lang directly made him suspect that he was wrong.

Just now he wants to kill him by the power of God. Does he not retaliate? This is not in line with the spurs in the rumors.

“I have to let the light * teach you and make an appeal. You will be the leader of the true gods in the future, and you can cooperate with it!”

“Good, good, I must cooperate...”

No matter what it is, being able to live is the biggest thing!

Moreover, Shen Lang really has something to do, and he is also at ease. Otherwise, he will offend him so easily, he has to suspect that there is a bigger conspiracy.

As for what is called, since the light gods can do it, they can of course follow suit.

At this moment, he is also a bright-eyed confession of the Holy See, or they know the time, and they are not guilty.

Although Shen Lang let him get up, he did not dare to get up casually. After waiting for a while, he found that there was no movement, and he sneaked up and found that Shen Lang had not known when he left.

The Protestant Lord took a long breath and a life is a comeback!

His whole person was cold and sweaty and fell directly on the ground.

Shen Lang made what he wanted, and gave the true God a warning. He returned with satisfaction, and everything else could not be looked at.

He is not a person who must report, but he has not reached the level of resentment. Originally this new teacher who wants to kill him, he will definitely be destroyed.

But this time it is a bit different.

The first one is that the Protestant himself is not deterrent. Just because it is not strong enough, it will be the wall. And as long as he is strong enough, the wall grass will always be on his side.

The other one is a problem of shocking effect.

Only this person has seen the shadow of the true God and saw that he has destroyed the projection of God. Is there a better endorsement than this?

There is no doubt that the God who can do their reverence will be a shadow of fear in his heart. This will always be in his mind, unless Shen Lang is destroyed by the true God, or else it will not change.

This determines that he will be afraid of Shen Lang and Hua Xia in the future.

If he is destroyed, naturally there will be other people who will take over the leader, destroy this group, and destroy this headquarters. There will still be other national and urban bishops standing up.

Such a large base of religion can not be killed. Others have not experienced the fear of Shen Lang in person, but they have not had such good control and influence, and there are more things to come out.

Keeping his life is much better than killing him.

After Shen Lang left, he immediately took the Kemrissu water monster and went to an open space outside the city.

“I have to go back, go back yourself, don’t follow me.”

The Kemrisu Water Monster immediately stated: “I am a slave, I want to follow the master. If there is anything I need to do, I can give it to me.”

“Don’t play. You are cautious like a turtle. You don’t want to leave your safe area. Even if you want to go somewhere else, make sure I take you. I don’t have much time to show you the world!”

“...”

The Kremsau monsters are awkward.

Originally, it was a fateful attitude to follow Shenlang. However, this time, I found that I can not only see the situation in other regions, but also have great gains. I have been willing to follow Shenlang.

As for the place to go back to it, compared to its longevity, even if it leaves a hundred or two hundred years, it is not too long.

It doesn't say much about the mission directly swallowing a group of true sectarian archbishops, it is also a good task, I thought that Shen Lang is willing to bring it, I did not expect so soon Drive away.

"You also have your dignity, being my slave, it is your helpless choice at the time. We are not enemies, I can let you go."

Between the talks, Shen Lang directly lifted the soul contract and gave the Kemlisu monster freedom.

"...!"

The water monster was once again shocked, which is the result that it did not even think of.

Although that was the choice that it had no choice but to redeem at that time, for which human beings, having a 10,000-year-old demon as a slave servant, should be very satisfied?

Even if you don't need to fight often, it is very ostentatious to take a pet. Put it, but it is not so easy to complete the soul contract.

This swell... is really willing!

At this moment, its heart is not a taste.

A wise human being can sometimes be guilty of guilt; this wise old-fashioned demon will be guilty of guilt.

It was originally confined to it, offering souls and giving freedom, so being enslaved was a terrible price. It can be left unattended by others, and it makes it very uncomfortable. It seems that it is worthless. It seems that it is very ordinary and casual.

But what can you do?

Do you want it to be a slave to the sinking waves?

Chapter 2209 - World boiling

On the other side of the Holy See, it was once visited by Shen Lang, and all the conditions must be agreed.

Their treasure house is even more difficult to unravel. Without being passed down by the Pope, it has not been opened for a while, and naturally it is not known that there is something missing.

But the obelisk is less, but everyone has seen it.

Therefore, in their view, Shen Lang is here to warn, and also put forward a request, the Obelisk is to show them the strength.

But because the power of warnings is not great, they are not too active. It is natural that they do not invade the East. They did not have this strength.

However, the appeal for the return of Chinese antiques and cultural relics was not immediately implemented.

As a result, today, the situation of the true sect has appeared!

It has become a hot spot in the world, and of course they are also closely watching. The major forces will also communicate with each other. Everyone shares or exchanges information.

What happened inside, the outsiders are not very clear, but the results of the true sect, but everyone knows.

The way behind this, they know better than others.

I want to get it, and the true sect is definitely trying to dry up, so I will encounter such punishment. This is not a disaster, but it is also a heavy blow.

In comparison, they just lost the obelisk, which is really good enough.

This situation also made them nervous.

The temper of Shen Lang, they are not clear, but from the presidential palace of the first strong country he smashed, the fighters pinch, it really will not be much better. This is the time, and they have all the heads of their two teachings.

The true sect annoyed him, and after going to the sect, he might return to the city of light!

Therefore, after the situation of the true sects came out, the bright side of the Holy See could not attend the information of the sects. After consultations, an initiative was issued.

They first issued a notice stating that the Pope had abdicated and wanted to change to the new Pope. Then the new pope sent an initiative without waiting for the official crown.

It is to appeal to several Western countries that have plundered a large number of cultural relics in China, and should return the cultural relics to China.

On the one hand, China's current international status is no longer the same, and those countries are much worse. On the other hand, from the perspective of reason, it is also plausible. After all, this is plundered.

The news that the Pope's abdication and substitution has come out is already a big news. Together with this initiative, it is even more embarrassing to brush a sense of existence.

In China, from the national level to the private sector, there is strong support.

Although Western countries and forces, celebrities, etc., are kept silent. But the public opinion is detonated from the light gods, it is not the unilateral appeal of China.

Then, the Shinshen sect also issued a similar announcement!

It is also the succession of the Protestant, and then the initiative to support the Light God.

Their right to speak is actually much worse than that of the gods of light, but in the end it represents the true gods, and it is not too small to influence the scope.

For a time, the world is boiling!

Everyone is talking hot.

In fact, the looting of antiques and antiques is an experience that many civilizations have had, but when the fists are not big enough, you have no part to speak.

There will be such a reaction now, there will be such a ringing, and the status of the country is also inseparable.

The forces related to comprehension around the world, including governments, are actually well aware.

Bright God is not out of good intentions, it is completely demanded by Shen Lang!

But what about it?

Shen Lang now has this strength, is able to call the strength of the world!

Even in a few Western countries, they should feel gratified that Shen Lang had to talk through the light of the gods, and there was still room for manoeuvre, and they had not been pushed directly to the front.

What if Shen Lang shouts at them?

Shen Lang is not a government. The government can only appeal, advocate, and at most protest. But as a private person, Shen Lang can be unscrupulous!

This unscrupulous means is not a derogatory term, it does not mean that it must be a bad thing. For example, when they bid through an auction, money can be bought back through auctions and donated to the National Museum.

However, Shen Lang obviously does not spend this money. If he really wants to use whatever means, then he will tear his face. I really want to rob all of them, and I will not leave any traces. Even if I know that he is doing it, I can't help it.

If you really want to go to that step, the pressure will come to their heads.

Now it is the initiative of Guangming Shenjiao. It can represent the will of Shen Lang. If you disagree, the extent to which Shen Lang will go can only be guessed.

For a time, the situation changed abruptly.

Originally as a country, they are also irrelevant. They are watching the situation of the true gods and seeing how much they will be fermented.

I didn't expect this fire to suddenly burn onto them.

For a time, their senior government officials met urgently.

These cultural relics are actually in the national museums of various countries, but they are very big. This is certainly not a decision of the museum. It must be at the national level.

It is also because the incident is sudden, otherwise it is necessary to go through the parliamentary proposal.

But the current situation has already been delayed. If you annoy the sinking waves, God knows what the consequences will be!

Therefore, after no time has passed, the relevant countries have officials from the cultural sector to express their views.

They all said that they also felt that there was a certain reason for the initiative of the Light God, and it was still necessary. However, the cultural relics are old and the protection must be the most important. Unreasonable transfer will cause irreparable damage.

Therefore, they suggest that in this general direction, the specific implementation must be extra careful to ensure that these artistic treasures will not encounter unexpected events.

It also said that the museum and other aspects of the will start a consultation and explore a solution.

This is actually a “drag” word.

I am afraid that Shen Lang will die, so I will express my willingness to return, so as to calm his heart. Then, delays are made in terms of the difficulty of the specific implementation.

It was at this time that another big news appeared on the other side.

There are mysterious people, in the name of Shen Lang, donated a few treasures of the Pharaoh Pyramid to the local museum!

The relics lost in the pyramids can be regarded as news that shocked the world. At this point in time, it was donated by Shen Lang, which is even more intriguing.

For ordinary people, they will only feel that the waves are very powerful. Even the lost pyramid artifacts that do not know how many millennia can be found. The worship of him is even more enthusiastic, adding to the gains of many faiths.

However, for the realm of comprehension, more consideration will be given to countries and major forces.

Where did Shen Lang get these artifacts?

These are most likely to be taken away by Western countries a year or two ago!

That Shen Lang was taken from the Western countries!

He naturally has this ability, but why not collect it himself, but make a public donation? Why choose this point to donate?

The answer is coming out!

This is pressure!

If the Western countries do not return, then he may have taken it away by his own means!

Chapter 2210 - Return of cultural relics

For those who believe in the gods of light, they would have come to find revenge after they were afraid of the waves, so they must issue this initiative as soon as possible.

Otherwise, they still have to get the Pope crowned first. But now the sects of God immediately support them, and then there are pyramid artifacts.

What does this mean?

Explain that it is not just one side of them, Shen Lang is doing a multi-faceted layout!

Originally, they helped the Shenlang to do things. Now, in this way, there is competition.

The general competition is good and praise, and bad is punishment. Here, praise, remuneration, and the like are not expected. If there is no punishment for doing it, it will be more troublesome.

Then they have the consequences of being associated with the true sect. Is it unwilling to help?

This will not directly lose their interests, but it is to use the name of the gods to come out on the platform. If the waves are wrath, the temple of light will be destroyed...

Worried, they then came out to respond.

For these diplomatic rhetoric, they still have special personnel. First, they highly praise the attitudes of the cultural departments of those countries. They also express that the world is beautiful and integrated. This is the expectation of more than one billion people in the East. Take out the plan and return it as soon as possible!

It was extremely rare for them to come forward to appeal for the initiative. It will be normal for the relevant countries to respond. If they respond again, it should be a thank-you, praise, and even more urging!

This is another push for external public opinion, and it feels more pressure for the countries concerned.

The nationals of those countries have some national sentiments. They feel that history belongs to history. They cannot be confused. The cultural relics are in museums. This is equal to all human beings and does not need to be returned.

Now it is getting worse and harder. The East doesn't have to say it. The large batches are one-sided, while other irrelevant countries are more of a Chinese side.

Because many of them have been invaded before, there may not be any loss of important cultural relics, but this is somewhat like the enemy's mentality.

Besides, anyway, it doesn't matter to anyone.

In human beings, no matter which country or ethnic group, there will be some part of the bar, but there is no shortage of eating melons that are not too big to watch.

Some of these people support those countries, and more people support China. It's not because they know more about China, or they are more friendly. Many people just want to see change.

It will be boring without any change in your own words. The bigger the change, the more interesting it is. Anyway, it is boring after a meal.

So in such a day, the social networks around the world are highly active, and everyone expresses their opinions.

Because it is related to the original sinful nature of many countries in the world that invaded the world, many Western media originally wanted to deal with it coldly, and did not report much.

However, in the Internet age, it is not the main media that can be controlled, especially the media must grab business!

The tabloids, the media, the big V and so on, which are not so much concern, are of course a rush of eyeballs and traffic, which makes the major media unable to sit still.

Soon all parties are in a hot debate, coupled with the supervision of the national level, so that they would have to make a statement on the same day, and they have to make a statement again on the same day, saying that they will immediately discuss with the Chinese cultural and museum departments.

The relevant departments of Huaxia have not received ventilation from Shenlang. Even when Guangming Shenjiao made an appeal, they still wondered if they had any intrigues.

However, I always pay attention to the wind and the wind. When I saw this, I knew that it was made by Shen Lang. I immediately conveyed this message through the temporary comprehension alliance.

Because of the strong performance of Shen Lang in the league before, it has already received the attention of the ministers at the ministerial level. So when I knew that this was what Shen Lang did, I immediately turned the news to the relevant departments.

After that, the response of the sects and the reactions of those countries were justified. Otherwise, the relevant domestic departments will be inexplicable and suspicious, and it really doesn't make sense!

After knowing the reason, everyone was highly operational. Although they did not think that they could solve the problem immediately, they were fighting for problems that have not progressed for many years. This is a new breakthrough.

When Guangming Shenjiao urged again and the relevant countries responded again, everyone realized that this time it seems that it is not just a breakthrough. It will not give the other party too much time, but it will really enter the stage of solving the problem immediately. !

These departments have limited understanding of the realm of comprehension because of their authority, but since there is a minister of the real power department, and Shen Lang is already well-known around the world, with a little knowledge, he will try his mind.

Anyway, asking for the price, will also be sitting on the land to pay back, so simply and quickly responded, immediately opened a big mouth, asking for the return of all cultural relics!

Of course, the specific implementation process is really not completed in a short time, but it is a long-cherished wish for decades. Some people have already imagined it before, and now there is a special group to do the plan at any time.

Such efficiency has made the relevant departments of those countries very helpless, and also made them feel that this time is not only the personal heroism of Shen Lang but the embodiment of the will of the country!

If this is the case, it will involve economic, cultural and political pressures.

In desperation, they had to make a real commitment immediately, bargaining the return time of the first batch of cultural relics. Let's take a look at the heart of Shen Lang, and I will talk about it later.

For the domestic, whether it is the relevant departments or the private sector, they did not expect such convenience. I felt that there was a breakthrough in the breakthrough. I did not expect that there would be a preliminary result so soon!

For a time, the whole network has boiled up!

The world is busy, and I am happy to see this specific change.

In this way, the Guangming and the true gods who have become the subject have received high praise from public opinion and netizens. Especially their followers will naturally be touting their own leaders.

Let the two populists and lords who have not yet officially taken office, they have won a lot of fame and support.

This was a humiliating incident that was forced to helplessly. I did not expect to give the teachers, especially to the individual, a great positive impact, and they were all flattered.

Then they were a little grateful for the deep waves. If it wasn't for the waves that forced them to do this, with their qualifications, and then they would not be able to serve the people with such a sudden rise to power, the believers would still doubt the former leader and the Pope. And other archbishops are being harmed by them!

Wait... The reputation makes them earn, will the waves be unhappy?
