

First Strong 2241

Chapter 2241 - 1 new skill?

This is not the case of Shen Lang. Of course, once the upside down is bad, the body will affect the consciousness!

For example, he had had a similar experience himself. At the beginning, he refining the undead undead, so that he could control the iron bars.

Later, after getting the skeleton skull and inheriting the energy inside, the energy is as conscious!

It wasn't that Shen Lang was strong enough at the time, and with strong mental strength, it was able to live in refining. Otherwise, this force will resonate with the iron rod weapon, and then inspire the undead soul that has been refining, and may eventually turn him back!

If that strength and the personal power of Shen Lang are disparate, there will be no souls and no weapons, which may affect him. If you are not controlled, then the subject consciousness will be affected and eventually dissipated, from the power contained in it. It is not impossible to seduce information and slowly gather consciousness.

Now the problem of the contemporary Loulan Wang is here.

If he is a sacred god, this troll is almost the same strength, and the legacy after the fusion may be a little uncontrollable, but for a long time, as long as his mind is strong enough to stabilize.

Of course, the most secure one is still weaker than him, because he is not a troll after all, no special body, soul, etc.

But now that a genre is around, and the other side is at least the level of Daxian, then it is a matter of time to finish, just how long he can last.

His body can't control him, the body will have memories, and there will be a lot of residual information. With the powerful vitality of these extraterrestrial demons, it will not be able to breed consciousness.

It takes a little time for Shen Lang to understand so many memories. This is why it was not possible to fuse analysis memory first.

After the completion, see Gao Hanqiu still looking at him.

“I’m fine,” Shen Lang shook his head. “I just learned about their memories.”

Gao Hanqiu is still worried about whether he is injured or not. He knows that he understands the memory of “they” and he understands it. Really should be called “they”, Loulan Wang and the troll!

When Shen Lang just fought the troll soul, he had already learned this first, and everything was understood.

“Even if he is allowed to recover, he can’t hold it.”

Gao Hanqiu just said, Loulan Wang is very weak, he injected a little strength and mental strength, which made him recover a few.

But this is temporary, even if he injects a lot of energy, so that the Loulan King can completely recover, the same problem can not be solved.

Both of them understand what is going on and don’t need more nonsense.

“Try to take him away!”

In the realm of both of them, nature does not bother to grab the power of others, unless it is an enemy.

However, in the current situation, the body of the Loulan King must have been removed from the body of the troll. Otherwise, it will not be a problem of death, but will not reshape a troll!

They can’t be guarded here, Loulan Wang still wants to stay in the Loulan world.

If this huge hidden danger is not resolved, it will not only be the King of Loulan, but also everyone here. According to the idea of the troll, everyone in the outside world will be the target of the attack.

This is in Tianshan, the first to bear the brunt of the Chinese nationals, comprehension!

They are two heavens, chasing the world, chasing the world, what is it for? It is because the danger of the extraterrestrial demon is too great!

Once you have given them a seed, the whole world will be destroyed!

In particular, this is an extraterritorial demon that can restrain the instinct and know how to calmly use the strategy. It is even more dangerous. If there are billions of people in the world, once they are hidden in the people, there is no way to find out.

It is impossible for Shen Lang to spend all his time on defense and search outside the demon, so if you find a sign, you must trace it to the end and understand the root cause.

Now that the root cause has been determined, the rest is this.

“I have just tried it, it didn’t work...”

Gao Hanqiu smiled slightly.

Before Shen Lang dealt with the souls of the extraterrestrial world, he tried it after he understood the memory of Loulan Wang. There is no way to inject energy to help.

Of course, he is in such a realm, as long as he is given enough time, he can certainly find a way to solve it.

But isn’t Shen Lang here now?

Even if he is super senior now, but he still thinks that Shen Lang is a big brother, he still feels that Shen Lang can do anything!

Shen Lang nodded and stood up.

He once again reached out and touched the head of Loulan Wang.

Not long ago, it was the soul who took the initiative to turn to him. This time he needed to explore the king of Loulan.

The time they get together is very short, and the trolls have not yet had time to blend more harmoniously, they are chasing.

So now under the exploration of Shen Lang, I can clearly feel that there are two bodies in the body of Loulan Wang!

Yes, this is not just two energy, it is two bodies!

This is also more confirmed, if you do not solve this problem, the body of the troll will swallow the body of Loulan, and then reshape the consciousness, completely occupy this new body.

These two bodies are merged together. What the Shenlang needs to do is to strip off the troll.

What he has to do now is actually the way to extract energy.

Once the energy of the troll's body is completely removed, the two already integrated bodies are not divided into two parts, that is, the Loulan King becomes a more sturdy body.

When the sinking wave is combed, start extracting the energy immediately. He can't be too fast, he must be controlled not to be drained by the energy of Loulan Wang himself, or else Loulan Wang will be abolished.

The result was found to be as rapid as a whale swallowing drink!

This even made him secretly surprised, if not for his early vigilance control. Before the energy of the troll body has not been extracted, the energy of Loulan Wang has to be drained first...

After the control is completed, it is the energy that extracts the body of the troll very fast.

Shen Lang is also distracted to think about it, this is definitely beyond the speed of his daily active absorption, and now still carefully control the speed, once released, the effect will be more rapid!

Where does the change come from?

The answer is obvious!

After he completely swallowed up the troll soul, he also inherited some advanced abilities. The ability of this whale swallowing cow to swallow is usually from the troll.

Of course, he destroyed the troll, which is like passively mastering a new skill, but it does not affect his consciousness, he can also fully control it.

Chapter 2242 - All refining

Under the careful control of Shen Lang, all the troll body energy was extracted into his body, and Loulan Wang himself was still left.

The two flesh are already integrated, but because of the existence of energy, there will be a sense of separation. When the Shen Lang was removed, the troll's influence completely disappeared.

The current body of Loulan Wang has actually greatly improved the quality.

Originally, he was weak and severely upside down. The conflict was also one of the reasons. Now, after the withdrawal, the effect of the aid of Gao Hanqiu before him is obvious. His state is obviously much better.

When Shen Lang just absorbed the memory and absorbed the energy, he used the power of faith and still did not stop.

Now that so much energy is absorbed, it is also a problem for him, either to compress it for use or to refine it for its own use.

Otherwise, if you go out from here, it will lead to a robbery.

But both of them take time!

“Let’s deal with it, I will come when I go.”

Shen Lang thought a little, and said this to Gao Hanqiu, then the person disappeared directly.

Gao Hanqiu has become accustomed to knowing that Shen Lang has his way of adjusting and has not asked much.

Shen Lang is of course entering the world of Tianshu.

There is a hundred times more time to complete his integration.

So much energy that has just been absorbed, in fact, it must be counted, it is close to the realm of the Great God! It’s just that Loulan’s body can’t take on that much.

Now that Shen Lang has completely withdrawn, there is basically no loss.

If all of them are absorbed by him, it will be a huge increase in strength. It will be even harder to hide the strength.

But Shen Lang thought of the cold autumn.

The memory just now, I have already understood, it was not the catastrophe caused by the cold autumn, which shows that as long as I hide it better and maintain vigilance, I can still avoid the sense of space rules.

His strength is still not as good as the cold autumn, even if it absorbs and refines these, it will not reach.

In this way, we will begin to refine and absorb.

Because this is the energy of the troll, not refining it, after all, it is still a bit uneasy.

Refining into pure energy and reusing it for its own use is a complete solution.

In the process of refining, it was discovered that the new skills of the trolls still expanded. That is not only in the speed of absorption is very fast, but also in the speed of refining, it is very fast!

He also understands why trolls can evolve so fast through predation, because they do not require slow cultivation and can be quickly absorbed automatically.

When he accelerated refining, he found that the transformation of the power of faith, which was slowed down, accelerated the speed!

It seems that this is a complementary process. His body refines and absorbs these energies, and also allows more of the power of faith to be integrated into the body.

In the end, it will be an effect. Shen Lang is not too clear for the time being, but it will definitely be a good change. He is also looking forward to it.

This lasted for more than a dozen hours, refining all the energy, and incorporating more power of faith.

But in fact, it took more time to study the strength of hiding, so that it can be more calm.

When he appeared again in the palace, it took about ten minutes.

Seeing the dark waves, Gao Hanqiu took a serious look.

In just a short while, there will be obvious changes, not to mention reincarnation, at least there is no small progress, and the whole person's state is very good.

This made him sigh, Lang brother is a wave brother!

“Lang brother, it has been handled here. We can leave at any time!”

Next to Loulan Wang, after Gao Hanqiu finished speaking, he respectfully bowed to Shen Lang.

“Thank you for your enmity for my Loulan, to solve my grief for my people, and to help me!”

After that, it is a direct worship.

Gao Hanqiu rescued him, and the extra memory made him panic and knew what happened. The high cold autumn conveyed and appeased, let him rest assured.

Later, he also ordered Mu Xiu, who did not dare to come in outside the wall, to call back all the royal members and the guardian slaves who were expelled from the time when the devil was in control.

Shen Lang sees that everything has returned to normal, Gao Hanqiu has finished processing, Loulan Wang understands the general situation, knows the devil's problem, has been completely solved, and knows that their mysterious iron box has been ruined.

“Be good at it! You have some bad habits to change, or else you can't give this world to someone else.”

Shen Lang said a faint sentence.

“I understand, understand, I will not dare to come again!”

Loulan Wang understood what it was meant to prevent him from cheating the outside comprehension. Although those people are not well-being, but after all, he is not well-intentioned.

“we are leaving.”

“I will congratulate the two immortals...”

This is completely unfortunate for him, and Loulan Wang does not dare to open a guest.

When he got up from the ground, he found that two people had already disappeared!

And with his mastery of the Loulan world, the two people are not leaving normally.

This made him horrified!

Immortal is really not polite, Handi really has a strong presence of immortals!

Shen Lang was sent directly to the Gao Hanqiu with the door of the Three Realms. The place that came out was still outside.

Looking at the place where it was dug, Shen Lang used a small shovel to carry a large amount of dirt from the side of the hillside, covering it to a certain extent, so that the entrance to the palace would not be presented.

The purpose of this time is to trace the extraterrestrial demon, but in addition to solving the problem, he is not a small gain.

For example, the mysterious iron box magic weapon was smashed by the seven gods in a thousand years, and its energy came into their bodies.

And the body of the six demons is all earned by him, and he can be refining himself for use in the future. The last energy was also absorbed by him.

Even more, it is a good new skill. The transformation and integration of the power of faith that has slowed down a bit but continues is also an unexpected gain.

Gao Li once again rushed over.

He didn't help much in the whole process, and all the conditions were fixed by Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu.

"Let's go back!"

Now go back to Don't hurry, don't use the holy armor or the gold battlefield, just the normal flight of the three people back.

Shen Lang also simply said the situation and Gao Li, he and Gao Hanqiu will not stay for a long time, the situation here is to let Gao Li know something.

It is hard to say whether Loulan Wang will change his practice. Tianshan Jianzong may be the latest one. Have you ever had a disciple killed in Loulan Wang, but you really can't!

Even if they don't come out often, they will be in the range of hundreds of years. It is not small to find and meet the opportunity of the Tianshan Jianzong doorman.

Maybe the decline of the swordsman is because some of the predecessors were harmed by the former Loulan Wang.

But those who can't trace it, need to guard against it in the future.

Chapter 2243 - Lin Zhizhi?

In addition to this unexpected situation, the high cold autumn back to Earth this trip, has a wish, the sacrifice of the sacrifice has passed, the understanding of the understanding.

In mainland China, he also has a martial art, and that is the martial art that was founded by one hand. It takes longer than the original physicist door, and it is rebuilt after heavy damage. Lin Biaozhi and Li Wei are still alive. Of course, it can't be put down.

It's time to say goodbye. In this regard, Gao Li is undoubtedly the most embarrassing one.

When Shen Lang returned this trip, it actually took a lot of things.

Some of them should be put down, no matter whether they are women or parents, they can't carry them all the way.

I really want to take them all around, wherever they go, and it's also a huge pressure on parents and them, because they can't keep up with his pace and feel pressure.

On the way to his journey, the enemies encountered will inevitably become more and more powerful, such as the bright * who has no way to get it, and what the true God has offended.

Bringing them with you will only increase their danger.

Now all aspects of the earth have been arranged, and the strongest enemies have been annihilated. The remaining strength of the people, such as the canoe, has become invincible on the earth.

The influence of Shen Lang, the world's strongest, can also be sustained for a long time.

In the previous world, the highest goal pursued by Shen Lang, that is, the robbery and soaring, is the last experience left by the predecessors.

Although in fact, I also understand that after the robbery and ascension, it is impossible to enjoy the fairy blessings, and it will be the cultivation and struggle of the upper bounds.

But no matter the gods, the fairy world, the thirty-three heavens... all the legends are different, and it is obvious that most of them are fantasy of everyone, which is based on the real world.

What kind of world will be after the specific ascent, that is, he can't imagine, so the goal is to be one of the peace—the robbery!

It is different now, and it has reached the world after the robbery. There is disappointment – it is not a fairy palace to enjoy the blessings, but more surprises – a huge world, unlimited resources.

Therefore, the current Shen Lang, not the goal has been adjusted, but the goal is no longer limited!

He has reached the strongest state in his previous life, but there is still a lot of space in front, such as the bright god, such as the high cold autumn is also stronger than him.

There is a way forward, of course, we must continue to struggle.

If you stay on the earth, in order to avoid the catastrophe, you must always maintain your own state.

It's not easy to be born again, and it's been a hundred years.

The large space cracks that can connect in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, such shortcuts, are even more disagreeable, and are determined to be constantly shrinking.

Even if he has the fusion of the three-door Kunlun mirror, you can shuttle the world, and you can't be sure that it will be able to use it for hundreds of years, maybe it won't be used any day.

As a self-cultivator who changes his life, it is ok to have a leisure time, but after all, it is necessary to keep the road of struggle!

It is the same as the life of ordinary people. Even if life is as lifeless as salted fish, it still needs to struggle.

Have you tried your best?

Do your best, and there is much hope that the salted fish will turn over; and in the state of salted fish, it is hopeless.

Saying goodbye will ultimately be reluctant, whether it is parents or a few of them, it is other anxious friends, always feel difficult.

So Shen Lang is not ready to say goodbye, let everyone think that he is like every departure before.

Of course, in fact, he is not always going back to Earth.

A little different from the previous one is just that the target is different. It used to be because of more specific things, so the return period is more clear.

This time he went to his own life goal, and when he came back, it was not so clear.

Tianshan Jianzong is often used to the big elders of Shenlang.

Although Shen Lang does not participate in daily management and does not teach his disciples, the resources given by Shen Lang were unimaginable before the Tianshan Jianzong. Because of the influence brought by Shen Lang, it is also very prominent.

For example, Zhai Sheng went to the temporary comprehension alliance, and is also one of the core members. Whether it is the official or Qiao Yuxian, he treats him as the same level, and even more polite.

At the time when Shen Lang had just arrived, the sacred priest was too old, but he only broke through to the late stage of the real world, and then qualified for the high board.

Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan, Liu Yuchang, Zhang Zhulang and so on are not only more famous, but also the strongest of the gods. At most, I am very polite for the same age. From the strength, the sacred sacred is not qualified for the seniors.

Now, in addition to his strength improvement, it is also because of the influence of Shen Lang, so that everyone is very polite to the Tianshan Jianzong, and even say that it is a knot!

It was very simple to leave. After just smashing it, Shen Lang used the door of the Three Realms and sent it away with Gao Hanqiu.

The place where Shen Lang transmits is the Qiulin sword.

It didn't take long for them to leave, but the post-disaster reconstruction on this side has not stopped, and there have been obvious changes. Although it has not fully recovered before, it has been very different from the ones that were destroyed by Lin Biao.

When he left, Xu Haoyue took the initiative to stay with him and guarded it with Mo Feiliu.

And Bai Hao, although Shen Lang sent her back to Qingqiu, but she is also very interesting, even if it is clear that she does not necessarily come back to "here", she did not have a clearer goal, she also said to stay and guard.

There are Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu, as well as Bai Yu and Count Dracula. This is the reason why Gao Hanqiu can safely follow Shen Lang back. Otherwise, even if you come back, you will go back in a hurry.

After the Qiulin swordsmanship, their first two things were quickly searched for Qiu Lin Jianzong.

Although the situation seen from the visual inspection is getting better, if Lin Biaozi is in charge of Qiu Lin Jianzong, the same is to continue to rebuild.

Although Lin Biaozi said that he had left the righteousness, but at that time, Shen Lang was going to crush Li Wei Lin Biaozi had to choose to stop.

For those who have been trapped for two hundred years, can the regularity constrain them?

Qiu Lin Jianzong was founded by him personally, and he was able to kill him. Compared with it, what is the rumor?

Therefore, even if there are still white horses and Count Dracula sitting in the town, they are still a little worried that Lin Biao will make a comeback.

What made Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu one of the earthquakes was that they were swept away and immediately discovered a worrying problem – Lin Biaozi really was in the Qiu Lin swords!

In the evening, everyone had already broken their minds. Lin Biaozi said that he could open up the things they did, remove him, and let the disciples hate. Gao Hanqiu chose to be ugly.

Now that Lin Biaozi is already here at Qiu Lin Jianzong, what else can this be?

Chapter 2244 - The atmosphere is not normal

“Are you back?”

When they were shocked, Lin Biaozi’s voice had already passed.

When the door of the Three Realms crosses, there will be space fluctuations. Lin Biaozi is also a veteran god, and naturally he perceives it.

Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu did not make a sound.

Gao Hanqiu is secretly smiling. He has been worried about this situation, but he does not want this situation. Now it is still present.

They were brothers who worked hard together to start a business. They could also be regarded as the life and death. It is naturally unwilling to fall into this field.

Even if Lin Biao's ruined the Qiulin sword, he was not willing to pursue it.

If you leave like that day, although you are absolutely out of bounds, you know that they are still alive, and they are safe.

The most feared is that Lin Biao, under the temptation of Li Wei, continues to come back to compete for the Qiulin sword.

Gao Hanqiu does not care to give up the power of Qiu Lin Jianzong. In fact, he has not managed for a long time. Mo Feiliu has already begun to cultivate the semi-retirement status of the successor.

But now the Qiulin sword, is it really appropriate to hand them to Lin Biao?

Yang Baotian and other generations of the backbone, all were strangled, this is easy to not their master generation! The rest are easy to carry a younger group, full of hatred.

Even if they don't say it, the two hundred years ago, the ancestors appeared again, can they let them be united?

To be honest, if there is no Mo Feiliu, the cold autumn that does not show up to the doorkeepers may be regarded as impersonation, let alone the Lin Biao who has already died in the history of the sect.

Therefore, the final result is that Gao Hanqiu will leave the concession with Mo Feiliu, and may also mess up the Qiulin sword.

This is the situation he least wants to see.

Shen Lang is much calmer.

This matter can not be said that it is not his business. Yang Baotian and others have been polite and helpful to him before. Normally, he suffered a tragic death, even if it was not because of him, he would also participate.

For example, the inn, because of his relationship, so many people, were burned to death by the Tangcheng factions, causing Shen Lang to come back and discover this. In a rage, with the help of the dog god, all the factions were smashed. The bottom is skyward.

But in the cold autumn, everything is going to listen to the arrangement of the cold autumn.

The murderer is one of Lin Biao's trips, which is even more complicated. He is not convenient to make his own decisions.

Therefore, he is now in a state of mind: support the cold autumn!

If the cold autumn and Lin Biao's face turn, then he will work together immediately, and will also carry other people together.

If the cold autumn is to give up the Qiulin sword, he also respects the decision of Gao Hanqiu.

And in the moment they hesitated, Lin Biaozi has already appeared in front.

Then, a large number of people appeared.

Lin Biaozi's disciple, Li Wei, appeared to him behind him. For the cold autumn, he was hostile, but did not say anything.

Also came out, there are Xu Yuyue, Mo Feiliu, and Bai Yu and others.

What's happening here?

Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu are a bit strange.

Just as soon as they appeared, they sensed the situation of the whole martial art. The strongest Lin Biao, the first one was sensed.

This is also a clear enemy, so attention is on his body, and there is no time to pay attention to other situations.

Now seeing them except Lin Biao, Mo Feiliu and others are safe. The two also quickly searched for other situations in the martial art.

It was discovered that everything was peaceful and that no one else lived under high pressure.

It seems that Lin Biao's repression has controlled it, but something else has happened.

"Master." Bai Hao immediately greeted him and stood behind the waves.

Mo Feiliu also greeted them immediately: "Shi Zun, Mr. Shen. Lin Shibo came here to help us guard the division."

He called Lin Biao Lin Shibo, naturally knowing the identity of Lin Biao.

But that night, everyone sent out to deal with the Tang City factions, Qiu Lin Jianzong only high cold autumn, as well as the guests of the waves and white.

This incident is considered to be ugly, so Gao Hanqiu's message with tokens and the words of Mo Feiliu and others just said that the real murderer has solved, but did not describe the detailed process and specific information.

In his capacity, who dares to ask more, so I don't know about it at all.

When Lin Biao came back, as long as he showed his identity, Mo Feiliu should naturally be welcomed and respected. He also saw Lin Biao when he was young.

Therefore, it is very normal to be respected as a teacher and respectful hospitality.

just.....

Shen Lang looked at Bai Hao with a bit of blame.

Bai Hao was here that night. Although she did not say a word, she may not be able to understand their grievances and hatreds well, but at least they knew that they were enemies and were driven away by Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu.

How can I put them back?

Are you staying here, isn't it to help defend?

Bai Hao was a little panicked by Shen Lang. If he wants to explain it, he is not convenient to speak. He wants to send a memory to Shen Lang, and there is no clue.

“Not what you think, talk inside.”

Lin Biaozi saw the expression of Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu. After Mo Feiliu just finished speaking, he explained the sentence on his own initiative.

The atmosphere at the scene was a little weird, and it was not very friendly, but it was not arrogant.

After all, Mo Feiliu was still the nominal sovereign. Although he respected the identity of Shi Bo, he immediately led everyone to go inside.

This actually eases the atmosphere, and there is a little more ritual in the house, or else they do not need walls to block confidentiality.

When entering the house, Lin Biaozi had already indicated that Li Wei should not follow them.

Li Wei's face was slightly awkward, which made him feel that it was not very cool.

However, he never dared to touch the eyes of Shen Lang. The last time he slammed his fingers around him, he still had a shadow in his heart.

In addition to Li Wei and two people other people have arrived in the house.

Although Bai Xi's identity is relatively free, she is following Shen Lang's. If Shen Lang needs her to take the shot, it is the first time to start.

Mo Feiliu was very excited. He thought that Master saw Lin Biao's that they didn't die. It should be very exciting. I didn't expect Master to be very calm, and even had a feeling of not being friends with Shen Lang.

The attitude of Lin Biao's teacher is not normal, and there is no taste of reuniting with his old friends.

In the process of coming in, he has already thought of this, and has already secretly sorted out the wording. After entering the room, I quickly introduced it.

"Master, there is a big change in the situation everywhere, and we are not immune to it. You are not here, we can only rely on the white girl, it is very passive. At this time, Lin Shibo returned. , gave us strong support..."

Chapter 2245 - Survivor alliance

It turned out that it was exactly another situation that Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu worried before, it really happened!

A few of Lin Biao's, as well as Nangong Shi, Fan Tianxing and others returned from the disaster, is not a coincidence, and sure enough, there are others who are back.

Trapped in that special environment, those who can survive have been cultivated into the realm of the Great God, and everyone's strength is no small feat.

But two hundred years is enough to make the world change. Although there is no fundamental change, the power structure of all parties has a lot of differences.

For example, the Yaochi event, two hundred years ago, Gao Hanqiu is not qualified to understand and enter.

But now, he is not only a frequent visitor at the Yaochi event, but he is already the strongest  in the modern era. At the time of the Yaochi event, it was second to none.

Some people have risen and some have fallen.

These come back, if the division is still very strong and honored as an ancestor, then of course it is also a good thing.

But more because they were “dead” and let the sects fall. After all, there are not many top experts in each martial art. Once they fall, others will not keep up, so it is easy to fall behind.

When I come back now, I can see that my teacher’s voice is not as good as before, not to be oppressed, and I am not qualified to participate in the Yaochi event. There is no chance of giving priority to the big opportunities such as the ruins of the millennium.

Everyone is upset!

They have been shackled for so long, psychologically distorted, and it is easy to be extreme or even abnormal. And after two hundred years of hardship and suffering, they also have the capital of eruption.

Ever since, there have been people who have been unhappy, and have publicized their strength and identity, and released a signal to the outside world!

I am dissatisfied with the various cakes!

After someone released these signals, others immediately found themselves not the only survivors, and others suffered the same.

Some of them were originally coming out together, such as Nangong Shi and Fan Tianxing.

Therefore, all these people who got out of the false “Yunonggong Holy Land” soon contacted them privately.

They were qualified as Longmenkeng in the past, and they were already the top figures of the various factions. This is equivalent to the retreat of survival for two hundred years. Many of them can come out, and many of them have reached the realm of great deity.

It is always easy for people to find common points. Compatriots, alumni, fellows, etc. are all bridges.

These people have been trapped for so long, their mentality is different, and it is more difficult to be compatible with others.

Originally, they were originally a group, and most of them were known and even familiar. After coming out now, most of the predecessors and contemporaries of the year were already ancient, so their survivors were invisibly closer.

No one knows the specifics, but they must be in contact with each other and then concentrate on a meeting.

At this level, it is no longer a sect of the sect. Those sects are okay, and now they have stronger strength and want more voice.

Then they organized a “robbery alliance”!

The meaning of the robbery is to commemorate the survivors who have all survived the disaster. The alliance is to hold the group to fight the world.

Now the ancestors of the major sects do not have a common alliance, but everyone uses the Yaochi event as a threshold.

If you are eligible to participate in the Yaochi event, everyone is a level, interest, resource or something, you can discuss the division. If you don't get this qualification, then you won't play with it at all.

This qualification, on the one hand, is the historical heritage, and it must be a famous school. On the other hand, at least one must reach the realm of great deity.

This is not a plain text standard, but it is a consensus. Otherwise, others are participating in the Yaochi event at the level of the Great God. You don't have this strong person. Even if history is long, you may be stared as fat.

Of course, there are also many sects with a long history and friendly knowledge. There may be other sects to help, but very few.

More is the weak meat!

Nowadays, the newly-emerged "cross-robbery alliance" has basically not reached the level of the Yaochi event.

To put it bluntly, they will be pitted by the Longmen as the "Yunming of the Cloud Palace", that is, they want to go to the legendary place for gold plating, and they can fly out.

The ancestors who are already in the realm of the gods will not take risks.

This time, I was able to attract so many ancestors because Longmen released the true Yungong Holy Land information and reached a deal with Cui or it was the credibility of Cui and his teacher. Rather than the general message.

Lin Biaozi also went so far in the same year, Gao Hanqiu later entered this circle.

Now these people organize the "robbery alliance", and their goal directly points to the circle of "Yao Chi Sheng Hui".

It is equal to a group of new kings, want to divide the interests of those old kingdoms!

Even if the world has unlimited resources, there are "good" and "better", there will still be a pyramidal existence, and everyone wants to be a part of the spire.

Perhaps the first one to actively release the information, there is such a mind, saying that he is also eligible to join the circle of the Yaochi event, hoping to get a toss.

But after everyone gathered in a meeting, it was different.

The Yaochi event is not available every year. It is said that it has been held not long ago. The issue is the harvest of the ruins.

There is no big situation, and the next time may be decades later.

They are now living in this realm for decades and will not be too big a problem. But this means that they and their sects will be in the circle decades later!

If you still need to investigate and evaluate what, you have to drag on to the next session...

With the history of the “Yao Chi Festival” for thousands of years, it is really possible that the district is really nothing for decades.

However, their strength has skyrocketed. It is precisely when they need to force them to force them. I can't wait to fight directly. Who has the patience to wait for decades?

The first ancestor of the great  who released the information was because only one of them wanted to be accepted.

But now they have a group of people who are already strong and strong, and why bother to beg the acceptance of others?

Wang Hou will be interested in Xiangning?

Is it a big name, is it just a big name?

Everything is based on strength!

Since everyone has this strength there are a group of like-minded partners, why not directly?

Ever since, after the “Robbery Alliance” came out, they quickly attacked!

The first strike is to ask for the compensation of five spiritual veins in the name of some of the divisions that have been infringed upon by other sects!

“I used to be” is a very vague concept. If you put it into a wide range of hundreds of years, who would dare to say that there is no disciple in your family who has rubbed against others?

That is, Yaochi can’t do it either.

So this excuse is that no evidence is needed, it is just an excuse.

Of course, the target they attack is not the big name of the Yaochi event. Then it is necessary to move, but also the plan behind, the first to get the approval of the door to stand up, show the strength of the “robbery alliance” is the most important.

Chapter 2246 - Return to guardian

Qiulin Jianzong... is also one of the targets of Liwei.

It is said that at the top of the Yaochi event, everyone defaults to Gao Hanqiu as the first ancestor. How should these people be a little taboo? How do you put Qiu Lin Jianzong as a target?

This involves an issue of information asymmetry.

Originally, it was very vast here. Even if there is a flying magic weapon, it is not convenient to communicate.

The foundation of the Yaochi event for thousands of years has created the same token system as the long-distance walkie-talkie. Other lower-level martial art, in the case of a loose sand, of course, there is no better communication system.

Similar to the big city pool like Tiandu, the occasions such as commercial houses, inns, auctions, etc., are of course an information distribution center, but limited to the grades, the people there are not too high-level.

For example, when they first went to the ruins, Shen Lang’s group encountered a mysterious woman and ignored their meaning.

This aspect is due to the style of Yaochi female disciple “men are not close”. On the other hand, there will be more or less famous disciples who are proud of other sects.

In other words, if you don’t need the level of the ancestors of the gods, the ordinary disciples will go out and everyone will just play with people of the same level. Your lower-level disciples will not talk about the core secrets even if you are in contact with you. of.

The realm of comprehension is also divided into classes!

The survivors who came out of this time are still short-lived. When they go in, even if they are amnesty, the level is not enough. There will be a lot of information deviation in two hundred years.

Gao Hanqiu’s circle in the Yaochi event is that other Tang dynastys don’t know, even Qiu Lin Jianzong’s disciples don’t know that he is still alive.

This is also his strategy. He himself has this strength, but the martial art is not yet available. The doorman is too high-profile and prone to problems.

This led others to not understand the Qiulin sword, according to the impression two hundred years ago, this is a newly created martial art.

Therefore, Qiulin Jianzong has also become a target.

And they are extorting five spiritual veins for each martial art. They also have such quotas in other sects in Tangcheng. As a result, the other sects were destroyed by Qiu Lin Jianzong!

It is also possible to find out that Mou Feiliu, the sovereign of Qiulin’s sect, is the strength of Daxian’s peak, and personally led the team to destroy other sects.

As a result, they regarded Qiu Lin Jianzong as a typical model of the thorns, threatening to preside over justice for other sects, and let Qiu Lin Jianzong surrender 20 spirits!

This has caused widespread dissemination. Everyone knows that Qiu Lin Jianzong has destroyed many sects in Tangcheng, and they know that they have been established as a new object by the newly established “Robbery Alliance”.

The five spiritual threads are actually worth a lot. It is also necessary to look at the target, such as the level of Yuxianmen, the Yuanling stone is painful, and the spirit may be one or two, and some may not.

But for Qiu Lin Jianzong, in the public level, it is a famous school, the meat hurts to the pain, and the five spiritual veins can still be derived.

And even if it is given, it is very wrong!

But when others are united, it is a group of ancestors who come together, and no martial art can compete.

At this time, the Qiu Lin Jianzong family was asked for twenty threads, and immediately made a lot of painful people, but also became more balanced.

Look, there is even worse!

Compared with the 20 spiritual veins, the five spiritual veins are acceptable.

Everyone comforted themselves and then waited to see the end of Qiu Lin Jianzong.

Kill chickens and monkeys.

They are monkeys, and Qiu Lin Jianzong is the chicken!

Everyone is ready to see the chicken's end. If the chicken is over, they will of course stick. If Qiu Lin's swordsman gave 20 spirits, then they would recognize the five, which is much less than any other.

Lin Biaozi came to Qiu Lin Jianzong and looked for Gao Hanqiu, so he did not contact those people. Nangong Shi and Fan Tianxing are also the same. If they are not, they may join the robbery alliance.

When the news spread, it was said everywhere.

Lin Biaozi's hearing is also a fire!

What does this mean? Bullying Qiu Lin Jianzong no one?

When the cold autumn is already dead?

He is still not dead yet!

Li Wei, they are back, but they are not supporting Qiu Ling Jianzong!

Because they have already lost their minds with Qiu Lin Jianzong, they lost face in the day, and there is no need to come back to help.

But they support coming back to see the fun!

Is the cold autumn not very cattle? Is there a helper?

That night was Master, plus two of them, not the opponents of Gao Hanqiu, Shen Lang, and Bai Yu, who had to humiliate leave.

Now there is a group of great gods in the "Robbery Alliance"!

In Li Wei's view, Gao Hanqiu will definitely be blazing for fire, and will reject the confession of 20 spiritual veins, and those who need to stand up, this will be a direct war.

At this point, Qiu Lin Jianzong may be destroyed, but they have not cared, they want to see the tragic end of the cold autumn, Shen Lang.

Lin Biaozi is another mentality.

Qiu Lin Jianzong was created by him and Gao Hanqiu. He can ruin himself, others can't!

He destroyed the Qiulin sword and opened the killing, just like he was licking his own family and playing children. In his opinion, it was justified.

But when someone else wants to lick his glass and hit his child, it is different.

In this regard, he will choose to be consistent with the outside world.

But after all, the night has been broken, this is the Qiu Lin Jianzong who is in charge of Gao Hanqiu.

What is he going back to? Doesn't it make people look down?

So the three of them are coming back and watching.

After the results returned to the Qiulin sword, I found that the cold autumn and the sinking waves are not there, only the whites!

The news also reached the Qiulin sword, Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue are all frowning discussions.

With the strength of Lin Biaozi, they can also glimpse their conversation without their knowledge.

Only then did I know that Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu had left, and they were guarded here, and they could not be contacted!

Gao Hanqiu is, if he is destroyed, he is blackmailed, he can despise the cold autumn.

Gao Hanqiu is not there, Qiu Lin Jianzong was destroyed and was extorted, which made Lin Biao feel that he had no face.

So he stood up disclosed his identity to Mo Feiliu, but did not mention the previous killing.

When Mo Feiliu was young, he also saw Lin Biaozi. When he saw another ancestor returning, he was overjoyed.

Only Bai Yu knows the inside story, but Gao Hanqiu and Shen Lang are not there, she does not know what to do.

Therefore, it is only possible to keep the caution and vigilance as much as possible, and wait for Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu to come back.

Li Wei, who is unhappy, is mainly Gao Hanqiu. He was treated with respectfulness by Mo Feiliu, the younger brother of the year. It is not good for any attack. He only privately persuaded Master to take the opportunity to take Qiu Lin Jianzong.

Since the “robbery alliance” is to be established, it is of course very important to pay attention to the sword of the autumn forest.

In their message, there is only Mo Feiliu, so when they come to collect these 20 spiritual veins, only one big god-level ancestor comes.

Chapter 2247 - There are sinking waves!

When this person came over to collect the accounts, it also attracted a lot of spies to watch the distance. Everyone wanted to know how Qiu Lin Jianzong faced it.

As a result, the great  is so dumb!

It is not the Mo Fei flow of the peak of Daxian, but at least four peaks of the Great Xian, and two levels of the Great God.

As a result, the account can of course not be charged.

Lin Biaozi also directly indicated his identity and let the other person give him face.

Everyone is the same experience, and the same from the Yungong Holy Land, it should be normal to give a face.

just.....

For the “robbery alliance”, this is not a question of face and human feelings. If it is ordinary, it does not matter. But this is the first battle after their establishment, and Qiu Lin Jianzong is the bridgehead in this first battle.

This is a must!

If Qiu Lin Jianzong’s account is not received, how can I receive other accounts?

Will other people follow it again?

And he alone, has not received this account, there are still many people onlookers!

Originally, these people were able to follow the distance. This is his acquiescence. It is necessary for everyone to pass on the information provided by Qiu Lin Jianzong.

It is now his embarrassment...

But he has no way, the other person is strong and strong, this is not a rescued soldier. Lin Biaozi is really a sword of the autumn forest, which means that he will stay here, he wants to attack again.

Going back like this, I have no face and lost the face of this first battle.

With the spread of other onlookers, the “robbery alliance” will become a joke!

If it is not seen, after this matter goes back, it can still be negotiated. As long as Lin Biaozi is brought into the league, it is his own person, and everything will be said.

But now the public refusal is being advertised by many people, and the “robbery alliance” must be hardened!

The man left, “the robbery alliance” has not yet sent information, and the hard bar of Qiu Lin Jianzong has already made the parties pay more attention. More martial art arrangements have rushed to Tangcheng.

This is not to watch the excitement, is to understand the first-hand information!

Lin Biaozi is still waiting here, and he is not sure what kind of arrangement the other party will be.

He thinks that it is very likely that he will pull him into the “robbery alliance.”

Anyway, he doesn't have a good place to go. The biggest anger has already been sent, but it is not a very satisfactory result. It also needs a little something to divert attention.

Li Wei and his two men also suggested that Master join the “Robbery Alliance.”

Originally they have already missed it. Now they have to join in the past. It seems to be a bit of a taste for others. It is no face.

But before the Qiulin sword, it has been publicly exposed, and the other party will naturally know that it should extend the olive branch.

What they need is that Master took the initiative and abandoned the shipwreck of Qiu Lin Jianzong and joined a new circle.

As a result, at this time, Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu are back!

This makes the atmosphere a bit unusual...

Mo Feiliu told all the situation, Shen Lang is also understood, gave Bai Hao a look, said not to blame her.

Then everyone's eyes, intentionally or unintentionally gathered on the face of the cold autumn.

Wait for him to make a decision now.

“Thank you for your brother.”

Gao Hanqiu arched thank you.

This sentence makes the atmosphere of the scene even more strange.

Xu Haoyue and Mo Feiliu are very puzzled. Is Lin Biaozi not one of the founding fathers?

According to the truth, it should be familiar with Gao Hanqiu. Everyone has a good relationship. Don't talk about it now, it's even awkward.

Lin Biaozi spoke at this time.

"Although I left Qiu Lin Jianzong, but it has something to do with me. You are not there, I am guarding. Now that you are back, I will return it to you!"

Thanks to the high cold autumn, Lin Biaozi was a little comforted, and he did not suspect that he was nosy.

But his identity is awkward. Before other people didn't understand it. Now that Gao Hanqiu and Shen Lang are coming back, how can he face it?

Still leave!

As to whether or not to join the "robbery alliance", that is another matter of planning.

The cold autumn is ending with words.

He wants to open the forest to fight against the enemy.

But this can't be said to the lips.

When he was not there, Lin Biaozi's ability to guard this place is already a derogatory act. It is also a little atonement for the previous act.

But keep it, how can he behave himself?

Gao Hanqiu is pushed by himself. If he is, he will feel very embarrassed. It is now that he and Lin Biao's get along with each other will be embarrassing.

Still forget about the rivers and lakes!

“Do not worry!”

The simple dialogue between the two, let Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue, heard a little taste, maybe two big sisters, there have been some unsatisfied places before!

Lin Biao said that he left Qiu Lin Jianzong, is it because the founder is not harmonious, leading to his departure?

This time it was because I found that the cold autumn was not here, so I came forward to protect the Qiu Lin Jianzong?

No matter what, they are the disciples of Gao Hanqiu, one is his younger brother, even if the impression of Lin Biao is good, it is also determined to follow the footsteps of Gao Hanqiu.

After Lin Biao's resignation, he immediately left with Li Wei.

Li Wei was threatened by Shen Lang at the end of the night. It was the most uncomfortable and most unwilling to see Shen Lang. Leaving, of course, is also happy, by the way is to persuade Master.

He also thought about it, Qiu Lin Jianzong must be with the “robbery alliance” hard bar, if they are here, there is no chance to join.

Leaving the autumn forest Jianzong, just in time to join the “robbery alliance.”

The three of them left, and the cold autumn was still politely sent.

Shen Lang did not go out to send.

Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue, of course, also followed to send.

Before they came back, Shen Lang also exchanged talks with Bai Hao.

Although she is not convenient to say anything, she can't stop anything, and she doesn't even know what to do. But in the past few days, she still pays attention to the appearance of the three of Lin Biao, so that they will not kill anyone or destroy anything.

But everything is fine, and it didn't happen.

And they did not expose her, but also did not see her, and did not have any communication with her.

From the point of view of the white spectator, she felt that Lin Biao was okay, and the other one was fine. Only Li was very unfriendly.

Also understand the information of Count Dracula, the old vampire is still in a state of sleep.

After all, time has not passed for a long time, not so fast to wake up, and not to be forced, Qiu Lin Jianzong is not convenient to wake him up.

Shen Lang has thought about whether he should be put into the space of heaven, and in a hundred times of time, he can complete the evolution and upgrade faster.

However, although it was the earliest known to Count Dracula, the relationship was not close to that level.

Soon, they are back.

This is a big problem to be faced. Everyone is a core person, and there is no politeness. They all come together to discuss.

“Master, we have to face the alliance of the robbery this time... They are likely to target us and send more people. Lin Shibo...”

Mo Feiliu talked and stopped.

In his view, even if Master and Lin Biaozi have any knots, it should be a long time ago. Since Lin Shibo has come to protect Jianzong, it is equal to having already put down the grudges.

Master should take the opportunity to leave people to help, and by fighting side by side, you may be able to find back the previous friendly relationship.

Even if Lin Biaozi still wants to leave, at least he is here, he can let his own side increase the strength of a big  realm and two great fairy peaks.

It's just that he's not convenient to say it directly, because now Master and Shen Lang are back, and the two of them can definitely make up for the gap between the three of Lin Biao's departure.

Although the more people, the better, but does that seem to have no confidence in Master?

“Flying, you maintain the daily situation of Jianzong. Let everyone not mess, or you can pass the words properly, and say that I am back.”

After the cold autumn was finished, he waved his hand slightly.

Mo Feiliu did not dare to say anything more, quickly agreed, and then went out.

The day is still a bit eye-catching. Although it is not a very good way to understand human beings, but look at it, I guess they have something to discuss.

Since Mo Feiliu has been driven out, this is absolutely loyal, which means that no one wants to know more.

Shen Lang's trust in her is definitely not as good as the trust of Gao Feiqiu in Mo Feiliu, so she also voluntarily left.

“Xiao Xu, I went to see a lot of places this time. It really is a big change. It is a change of the sky.”

Hearing the news of the cold autumn chat back to the earth, Xu Haoyue could not help but smile.

“Gao Big Brother, let’s talk slowly. Now the robbery alliance is really a big problem. Even if you and the brothers come back, they will make everyone feel at ease, but we still have to take countermeasures in advance.”

Although he has been alone for hundreds of years, he decided to follow the cold autumn. After he arrived here, although Mo Feiliu treated him like a guest elder, he also used Qiu Lin Jianzong as his own martial art.

In these few days, he was also worried, even if Lin Biaozi had dealt with a round, but in the next round, the other side will definitely come to a group of great gods!

His own strength is not enough. If he comes to the realm of the great gods, he and Mo Feiliu can’t cope with one.

Although there are three now, and there is another Count Dracula who may be able to help, it is only four. There are a total of the number of the robbery alliances, but nothing is known.

“Do not worry! You have to believe in the energy of Xiao Gao. If he wants to put the following, he should be able to move a lot of rescuers!”

Shen Lang smiled easily.

“Lang brother, I am not without confidence, I just don’t know the specific...”

Gao Hanqiu also laughed Xiao Xu, even if you have no confidence in me, do you have no confidence in Langge? There is a wave brother! ”

The two of them made Xu Haoyue sway. It seems that when he returned to youth, he was the younger brother of Gao Hanqiu, and Gao Hanqiu deeply worshiped Shen Lang.

The swell of the waves at that time was also like a cockroach. The stars couldn't vie for it. It seemed that everything could not be overwhelmed. It seemed that he could not do it.

At that time, Xu Haoyue, he could only look far away, and he was not qualified to be close to his friends.

Now he and Gao Hanqiu are both old and old, and after the reincarnation of Shen Lang, he is as young as he was.

But what kind of feeling is still the same, even if it is a young identity, Shen Lang still gives them unlimited confidence!

Chapter 2248 - Old ancestor "group chat"

The joke is so open, and there is confidence. However, Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu did not really take the other party seriously.

From Lin Biaozi to Nangong Shi, Fan Tianxing and others, they have proved that this is not boasted. They have all reached the realm of great deity.

This was originally a concern before Shen Lang.

An ancestor is newly become a great god. It affects only their own martial art. At the same time, a group of great gods appear, and it will really affect the world.

It is their own politics, and the number is too large. Now they are united to form a coalition of forces, that is the most terrible one!

Because the major sects do not have alliances themselves.

The Yaochi event, although a grand event that dominates top resources, is not an alliance itself, but a specification and a threshold.

Everyone can reach this specification, even if it enters this circle, it is an endorsement and a resource sharing.

Just like the G7 summit on the earth, the G8 summit, and the G20 summit, it is a circle of mutual play, involving trade, environmental protection, science and technology, etc., but not an alliance.

The “robbery alliance” is directly a military alliance. After they have determined the plan, everyone will fight against the target and divide the interests together.

Now the first step against the middle martial art is a process of showing off muscles, so that those big names can see their strength.

Negotiations are also good, and if you pull them together, you can make them have more say.

This step does not need to be discussed with the major sects, just do it for them.

All major sects have their own intelligence channels, and they do not involve their own safety and will share information.

Therefore, now that the momentum is so vast, the famous group of Yaochi event will definitely wait and see, as well as discuss countermeasures.

Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu did not know before, because they were on Earth, the communication token, and received no information, they were placed in the storage space.

Now they have taken out the communication token and see what other sects have.

Gao Hanqiu has his status and connections, but now it is not convenient to directly invite people to help boxing.

Other friendships, even if they are hot on the verbal, will still have interest, and will not support him like Shen Lang.

But now Qiulin Jianzong, has been on the robbery alliance, then he is likely to become the “gun” that others expect!

Other sects may want to use him to test and fight against the robbery alliance. This is a buffer zone.

If there is no Qiu Lin Jianzong, just other medium martial art, then everyone will not be able to directly support, but can only wait and see the results.

Qiulin Jianzong has a high cold autumn, which can be a sharp knife, and can be used to support the league's sharp knife, but also everyone can support.

Whether it will be such a situation or not, it is not known for the time being, because they have just returned and have not yet got a deeper understanding.

At the moment, the communication token was received, and immediately received a lot of message information.

Whether it is a private channel or a public channel, there are quite a few messages.

This is the case with the cold autumn, and so is the Shenlang.

The message of the public channel, Shen Lang also received all, but personal channel, he does not have much information.

Because this is a token belonging to the Ginkgo Valley, after the elk disappears, others can guess the ending, and the Ginkgo Valley will not be contacted.

Therefore, his token, only Gao Hanqiu and Xuefei Xue will contact.

Gao Hanqiu, together with him, will contact him, only the snow in Yaochi is not snow.

The public channel, like the chat history of group chats, has accumulated a lot in the past few days.

Everyone wouldn't have contacted every day, but after the emergence of the robbery alliance, it immediately caught everyone's attention. Through this channel, it immediately spread to the ancestors of the major sects.

Everyone has their own opinions and is basically based on wait and see.

When the first wave of the robbery alliance came into being, everyone began to realize that this was not a small fight, nor was it to want to brush the sense of existence, but to launch a horn that competes for power!

A martial art has five threads, all of which add up to more than one hundred, so it is not a small number.

And the next step, it will involve the interests of these big names.

The first wave asked for more than a hundred threads. When they waited for them, wouldn't it be more?

After the news came out, there was disdain and disregard, but most of them have been taken seriously.

The real problem is that these famous schools can stand taller, because there is a strong person in the realm of the great gods. That is a kind of crushing on other forces, which is insurmountable by the peaks of Daxian and Daxian.

But often there is only one!

Don't look at the circle of the Yaochi event. It seems that the ancestors are like dogs and gods, but they are often ancient martial art of thousands of years. It is good to maintain a big * in each generation.

Mostly because of the premise of looking at the huge territory!

If the gods are so easy to reach and there are everywhere, the Qiucheng Jianzong and other Tangcheng sects will not be so prominent.

Now that other people really have a strong god-level power, they already have the qualification to be equal to everyone. Even if they lack the foundation, they have to recognize it.

Just like the cold autumn.

The current situation is that a group of people form alliances. Say that they are barbarians, nouveau riche, really want to fight, no martial art can contend with the robbery alliance!

This embarrassing reality is unwilling to admit, and everyone knows it well.

This needs to be faced.

Later, the news was updated, Qiu Lin Jianzong destroyed many sects in Tangcheng, so they were erected as targets of the attack by the squadron, asking them for 20 spirits!

Qiulin Jianzong?

Everyone is not so familiar with this martial art, but it immediately corresponds to Gao Hanqiu.

Naturally, you will want to watch the fun, look at how the high-cold autumn how to cross the robbery alliance He is not the strongest? That's just to see what effect he is doing.

But Gao Hanqiu is also in the “group chat”, this is not convenient to say.

In the “group chat” information, everyone expressed their solidarity and support for Gao Hanqiu! Anyway, this is only verbal, and does not need to go to the scene in person.

Some people have made serious suggestions, let everyone all gather in the Qiulin swords, let these so-called robbery alliances, see the strength of the old-fashioned big-name faction, positively put them down, let them know the size.

This is also a constructive suggestion in itself. This is not because they provoke war, this is the name of the supporters. But it can reach the confrontation between the two forces, can seize the peak, let the other party feel the pressure, they dare not challenge.

If you simply distinguish between the above, this is equivalent to giving them a rise from “middle” to “middle” and holding down the level that they are not allowed to “up”.

Chapter 2249 - Hard dry

The suggestion is good, and for the time being, a defensive strategy that is most beneficial to everyone.

But there is no enforcement power!

Because of the specific ancestors, they are inevitably have their own selfishness.

Such a thing, if it really hits everyone's door, naturally angered. But now it is not on their heads, but only on the head of the sword of the autumn forest.

Even if it will help himself indirectly, it will directly help the cold autumn. There is no benefit, let them help the Shen Lang against other great gods, or a large number of great gods, of course, reluctant.

This is the case with human nature. If it is the martial art that is attacking them now, I naturally hope that everyone will stand up and help.

But he still hesitated before he reached his head.

Of course, they will not say rejection, but wait and see and see the attitudes of others.

But everyone is watching, there is no positive attitude, and naturally they will not be able to continue.

Because the former Yungong Holy Land and the burial dragon valley died together, the relationship between Xuefeixue and Gaochunqiu and Shenlang is of course different from that of the ancestors.

However, Yaochi can stand for thousands of years and can maintain the host of the "Yaochi Festival". The way to stand is neutral.

Therefore, this time, Snow and Snow have the heart to help the cold autumn, and it is not convenient to publicly appeal to everyone to assemble Qiu Lin Jianzong.

That is tantamount to a temporary alliance, which is not consistent with Yaochi's consistent neutrality.

There is a cold field behind, and I believe many people have private exchanges. Some people began to express their views. I feel that this matter depends on how to deal with the cold autumn.

“With the strength of the old ancestors, these jumping clowns may not be worth mentioning at all.”

“Yes, if they just swayed a little, all of us will rush in the assembly, it seems that we are afraid of them, and we will say that our old martial art is suppressing others.”

“We must also be wary of their conspiracy! Maybe they seem to want to oppress the Qiulin swords, but actually concentrate on the fire to ambush other sects. We all gathered together and counted!”

After these ideas are spoken, everyone’s discussion becomes painless.

After reading the group chat information of these ancestors, Shen Lang basically understood their mentality:

The fire didn’t burn to his brow, maybe someone else would put out the fire and didn’t need to play on his own;

What if the tiger is off the mountain? In order to help the cold autumn, it is impossible to put your own martial art in a dangerous place;

Even if you really want to help, you can’t rush on yourself, but you should ask for a cold autumn, and you must promise a certain amount of compensation.

Group chat in the public channel, this is also seen in Gao Hanqiu. In addition, the message information of his private channel may be some good relationship, or a guest talk.

Shen Lang does not need to understand, he is to view the information of his private channel.

The information really comes from snow and snow. From the beginning of this situation, Xue Feixue will contact him and ask about their attitude.

Did not get his response, Xue Fei Xue did not worry, after the situation escalated, she also gave her advice.

As a friend who died together, she personally worried that the cold autumn could not be passed.

As the lord of Yaochi, she is not convenient to openly call for rhythm.

Therefore, she chose to privately suggest to Shen Lang, through the Shen Lang to talk with Gao Hanqiu, in order to take care of the face of the cold autumn.

Her advice is actually very simple, that is, let Gao Hanqiu ask for help!

In the status of the cold autumn, as long as he speaks, whether it is to find a good relationship in private, or to openly talk in the “group chat”, there will certainly be support.

It’s unrealistic to want everyone to go to help, and it’s not bad to have someone to go.

The last time the Yungong Holy Land was able to come back safely, mainly relying on Shen Lang, and Shen Lang and her and Gao Hanqiu are together, and they can also say their help.

This is a human condition, not a verbal thank you. Normally, these ancestors are willing to pay back as soon as possible.

As long as the cold winter is open for help, there is no need to promise anything, and it will certainly be rewarded. This reward is either actual or one of his personal feelings.

And the key to these is the active opening of Gao Hanqiu!

The ancestors also want to face, take the initiative to help, and perhaps be rejected.

but.....

The ancestors of the high-cold autumn high are older and should be more face-to-face.

Therefore, she did not directly suggest to Gao Hanqiu, but hoped to convey it through Shenlang.

Although she does not understand the relationship between Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu, she can see that their relationship is not general, not simply forgetting the year-end, Shen Long, then Gao Hanqiu is very likely to listen.

After Shen Lang finished reading, there was no direct response to Xue Feixue, but to wait for the decision of Gao Hanqiu.

After watching all the information in Gao Hanqiu, I naturally understood the mentality of others.

“Lang brother, what do you think?”

Shen Lang smiled slightly: “Look at what you mean, if you want to find more people to help, I also support. If you are, we can do it.”

This actually went back to the state of joke before, but it was just a joke, and it is still easy to understand the situation further!

Gao Hanqiu also laughed.

“Good! Then let’s do it!”

Just two of them passed the communication token, basically just want to master the current situation. Of course, all other factions have stood up, but the mentality that everyone does not stand out is also expected.

Shen Lang’s support for the cold autumn is his own grasp.

The outsiders originally had two kinds of understandings about the Qiulin swords, one was the small and medium-sized sects, and the strongest one was Mo Feiliu; the other was that the famous sects knew that there were high ancestors.

The information that is now being sent out is that the “Breakout Alliance” knows that Lin Biaozi is still alive, and he is back to support Qiu Lin Jianzong.

Either way, it is basically a strong person in the realm of the gods.

The “robbery alliance” can be suppressed by quantity.

But in fact, there are three that Shen Lang can affect!

He is one himself, white is one, and there is a great monster that has been in a state of retreat.

While Qiu Lin Jianzong is here, although Lin Biaozi is gone, there is still Duke Dracula who can wake up.

So This is not a league against the robbery, but five alliances against the robbery.

In fact, Shen Lang himself has dealt with a group of great ancestors when he has not broken through the realm of the Great God!

In terms of actual combat with the great god, he will never be worse than anyone. The magic weapon he possesses is not comparable to the survivors of these troubles.

Therefore, he can understate the decision of Gao Hanqiu.

If Gao Hanqiu wants to be safe and wants to take the opportunity to deepen the relationship with other famous people, he also supports it.

If the cold autumn is hard to work, then they can do it themselves!

Obviously, Shen Lang can think of it, Gao Hanqiu also thought of it, and chose to do it!

Chapter 2250 - Give each other a surprise

After making the decision, Gao Hanqiu immediately stated his statement in the public passage.

“Thank you for your ancestors’ concern. For the time being, you don’t need everyone to help you. Just let me Qiu Lin Jianzong, let’s take a look at the characters of these alliances! Welcome everyone to watch the fun.”

After this incident appeared, everyone discussed it, and then the problem fell to the Qiulin sword, and it was a discussion.

However, Gao Hanqiu never spoke up, so now everyone is not open, so as not to be embarrassed.

For Gao Hanqiu, he did not publicly appear, nor did he return to “private talk.” Everyone suspected that he was waiting for the major sects to come to Tangcheng for assistance!

Unless you have already made a decision to help, or who is not good to say anything more.

And even if there is a better relationship with him, and willing to help, it is not convenient to openly say.

Because that will create an appeal, stand up, you stand up and open, what do people do?

If people don’t participate, does it seem that only you have loyalty, and others are ruthless?

Public statements, no matter what attitude, will cause invisible kidnapping, so everyone is silent.

The same is true of snow and snow. Yaochi is not convenient to openly deviate from the “neutral” tradition, so she can only contact privately.

And now the opening of the high cold autumn, but did not get everyone’s response!

At such a critical moment, Shen Lang estimates that all the ancestors will keep the communication tokens with them, and understand the latest situation at the first time.

So after he said this paragraph, everyone should have heard it in theory.

But it is not very convenient!

If they first confirmed that there was no sound in the cold autumn, they were waiting for their assistance. Now, if you don’t want to help and welcome the onlookers, you will definitely feel that this is a bad mood and a negative attitude.

Naturally, no one can say anything, but I haven't seen it for the time being.

Subsequently, Gao Hanqiu also responded to other messages by the private channel.

Shen Lang also returned to the snow and snow, saying that the cold autumn has already decided, and he will also be here to support, temporarily do not need everyone's assistance.

After the information is released, it means that the decision has been officially implemented.

Gao Hanqiu immediately summoned Mo Feiliu and easy to understand, to understand the latest situation.

In fact, the work of inquiring about intelligence information is easy to do, and he is doing better.

However, his previous strength and status have to be understood to a high degree of limited, and other higher-level news, there is still no way.

In fact, there is no way for Mo Feiliu. As a sovereign, he is also a good old man. He is said to be able to reach the heads of all parties and the level of the sovereign.

But the problem is that the communication here is backward. In addition, the ancestors of the Yaochi event level have such a small-scale local area communication network that can reach basic real-time messages.

Under the premise of leaving the Qiulin swords, Mo Feiliu can reach people who are at a higher level and can not find information.

However, this event is the first battle of the League of the United States, they need to become famous in the first battle, it is necessary to win, so the publicity, but also sent people to Tangcheng.

These days, Tangcheng has also become a center of intelligence circulation, where all parties exchange their intelligence and information.

Some sects are not good enough to look at the strength, but they are very good at inquiring and disseminating intelligence. There are also some sects that have their own internal communication tokens, which can send distant information to Tangcheng.

Easy to use, it has already unified the various channels of Tangcheng, and the information is collected.

After Lin Biao took them back from the robbery alliance, it was time for the thing to be sent back by the great god.

After the meeting of the people of the squadron has made a decision, it will take time to come over here again.

So I didn't immediately hit the door again.

However, according to the latest news, the robbery alliance is likely to come to Qiu Lin Jianzong the day after tomorrow!

They still have less than two days of preparation time.

For Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu, this is enough.

They are not prepared to rescue the soldiers. They need two. One is the Emperor and the other is the Count of Dracula.

Count Dracula was retreating in the back mountain abyss. He did not come out to deal with it before, because Lin Biao came, so that Mo Feiliu did not alarm him.

Now just wake him up in advance.

As for the Emperor's behemoth, it is in the space of Shenlang's Tianshu, which can be used as a squad, and then suddenly summoned in the battle, hitting each other unprepared.

To make arrangements in advance, you can do it at any time.

So, now that Mo Feifei needs to do, it is a bit – confidential!

“Flying, for the past two days, you have to keep a high profile! Including in Tangcheng. And all of us are squatting in the back of the mountains to give each other a surprise!”

For the Shenlang, Mo Feiliu first smashed and then reacted.

“I understand! The people who have been robbed of the alliance are the two hundred years old. They are not clear about the teacher’s message. They didn’t understand the situation of Jianzong before, so they sent an ancestor.”

“At the time, because Lin Shibo and the two brothers, and the white girl were here, they forced him back. They would think that this is our card, they don’t know the situation of Master and Mr.!”

Xu Yiyue and Yi Yong did not want to understand, because they are their own people, knowing these situations. When I heard Mo Feiliu, I realized the importance and role of confidentiality.

“Zhu Shi and Mr. Please rest assured, I will restrain all disciples!”

The last time I almost killed the door, let the survivors know that the grandfather is still alive, everyone is very excited, and know that the ancestors have solved the murderer.

They must be kept secret.

These days, they are actually very likely to brag about it, but the gates of Tangcheng are all gone, and the audience that blows out will not be too high. It will not be clear the difference between the founder of Gao Hanqiu and the founder of Lin Biao!

Lin Biao’s public appearance before the day Everyone knows that it is the founding father of Qiu Lin Jianzong. I really heard it, and I only think that it is Lin Biaozi.

Today, Lin Biaozi has taken Li Wei to leave, and this will inevitably be noticed. The news may also be spread out and passed to the ears of the rushing alliance.

In that case, it may become “the soul of the Qiulin sword ancestor Lin Biaozi, fear of the robbery alliance to seek revenge, abscond in advance”, in that case, can play a role as a light enemy.

The high-profile of Mo Feiliu is to strengthen his signal that Qiu Lin Jianzong is the strongest.

This is not because Shen Lang is afraid, but on the premise of not knowing how many great gods there are in the robbery alliance, they also need to hide information as much as possible so that the other party does not understand the card of Qiulin.

The rest is waiting for them to come to the door!
