

First Strong 2251

Chapter 2251 - Dog * clearance

Although quite sure, the preparation is still sufficient.

Among them is the awakening of Count Dracula.

When Count Dracula followed the way to Zhoushan, he did not know whether he had sucked a lot of blood like snowmen and hawthorns, and he directly evolved to the strength that is not inferior to the great god.

When he came over here, he was not as good as Xu Yueyue, but this time, he has already opened a lot of Xu Haoyue.

This has come to such a high level, it is difficult to upgrade, it is not easy to evolve in a short time.

Because to his base, the blood of the general king's beast will not be tied to him. Either a great amount, or a super beast.

But which situation is not easy to achieve.

Unexpectedly, he was chased back by Nangong Shihe and Fan Tianxing because of his fear of the situation of Qiu Lin Jianzong. However, they were rounded up by Shen Lang, and he and Shen Lang swallowed one.

The blood of a strong deity is almost double the energy for him!

This is a great surprise, and the abundance of fire spar in the abyss is also an excellent environment for him, so he immediately entered a deep sleep.

This is equivalent to retreating.

That is the energy of a great god!

Before Shen Lang refining and absorbing the energy of Nangong, it took three or four days, but this is the normal three or four days. In fact, in the space of Tianshu, it takes one year.

Count Dracula seems to be a simple sleep, but in fact there is no cultivation, or how to evolve, others are not clear.

But no matter what, now only a few days have passed, even if the vampire has a special talent, it can't be dozens of times faster than Shen Lang.

So after awakening him, the strength of Count Dracula did not increase much. This time just merged the blood, can maintain a stable state, and has not reached the realm of completing another evolution.

Knowing that there is a new situation, Count Dracula is obliged to stand up.

After coming here, he also stayed in the Qiulin sword.

Xu Haoyue is very close to Gao Hanqiu, and he is just an irrelevant outsider, that is, a partner. In this strange world, to a certain extent, it is equal to shelter!

Just like the information sent by Qiu Lin Jianzong at the beginning, it is the same reason that many people are afraid to move the waves.

The last time I went to the ruins, Gao Hanqiu also brought him, so that he was full of harvest, so the previous time he did not ignore it, knowing that there is danger will come back here.

It is the same now, dangerous, and he is willing to stand up and support.

This is a return to the Qiulin sword.

The more powerful, the more unwilling you are to owe you.

The other one is the Emperor's behemoth.

The time for the dog to retreat is much longer than the Count of Dracula.

It was in the burial dragon valley, and was poisoned by the poisonous grass. Then the shoal controlled the poisonous grass and finally became a seed.

When Shen Lang wants to destroy it, the dog  thinks that it is most likely to be attracted by this kind of child, risking to swallow the seeds.

Shen Lang feared that it was hung up and placed it in the space of Tianshu. He also kept it for a few days, and left the spirit, the spirit, and finally gave it a drop of heaven and earth essence.

Since then, the dog  has been retreating in the space of heaven.

From the funeral dragon valley, return to Yaochi, and then return to the Qiulin sword, and then the situation here, then Shenlang and Gao Hanqiu go back to the earth, and then come back now.

It has been more than twenty days for the dog  to retreat before and after.

In the time inside the space, this is equal to six years!

For six years, it's just a little bit of work for the  of the gods, which has lived for thousands of years. It has been a very common thing to sleep for decades.

But this time it is different, it is not a simple sleep, it is a state of cultivation that is always running at a high level!

Because of the toxicity of the poisonous grass, there is still a mysterious seed swallowed, so that it must be highly alert, and if it is not careful, it may hang.

Those things that Shen Lang prepared, ordinary spirits and the like, also became food. The spirit is already very difficult to get, and the spirit is a more rare good thing.

For these, it is also not polite, because only save the life, only the strength is stronger, in order to return the good intentions of Shen Lang.

The final essence of the heavens and the earth, although Shen Lang only gave it a drop, but Shen Lang himself only dared to take a drop, because it has not yet determined the effect.

All of this adds up, plus six years of practice, so that it has had a huge change!

It was originally in the world of giant beasts, and other behemoths depended on the growth of talent. The Emperor and the Great Beasts have inherited some human cultivation methods to make them faster.

But in fact it is still a very shallow system.

From the perspective of Shen Lang, it still depends on talent, the kind that can evolve when lying down.

In the world of behemoths, Aura is still very good, but for the use of various resources, they are still very primitive, most of which are the spiritual fruits determined by some experience, or the battle to engulf other behemoths.

After Shen Lang arrived here, it saw more possibilities.

And this time the retreat, it absorbs the most energy, the pulse, the essence, the essence of the heavens and the earth... and the mysterious seed, all of them come together, this six years of cultivation is comparable to it lying before Evolution of thousands of years!

Originally, according to its normal state, it is unwilling to wake up, because in the past thousands of years, it has never been so fast and strong.

So basically it is hunger and thirst.

However, when Shen Lang came in the space of Tianshu and kept staring at it, it was still aware of it and interrupted cultivation.

“Look at what you look like... It seems that you have not been poisoned, but you have been blessed with evil, and you have improved a lot.”

Shen Lang is now strong enough, and the relationship with the dog  is not ordinary, no need to be careful, you can arbitrarily ridicule it.

The dog  responded seriously.

“It’s not a blessing in disguise, it’s because of your help. The environment here has so many good resources for me.”

Shen Lang also has no customer, and directly asks the key points.

“What about the seed?”

The dog  is also a bit confused.

“I was expecting it to detoxify, but it seems to be integrated with me, and those violent toxicities are not detoxification. It seems to be an energy that is good for me...”

The dog  described its situation with Shen Lang and hoped that Shen Lang could give it some suggestions.

For the energy of various resources, for the way of cultivation, it is now more and more felt that human beings are more intelligent!

Perhaps heaven is fair. Human beings do not have the physical superiority of giant beasts, but in terms of wisdom, they are far better than them.

Chapter 2252 - Come back

After listening to its description, Shen Lang also made some analysis and suggestions on its situation.

People and behemoths are still different and cannot be applied directly, but there are some big directions that can still be judged.

This seed can resonate with the dog god, obviously they are in harmony with each other.

No matter what the factors are, the seeds exist in the form of poisonous grass before, and they want to take possession of the dog god. The result now is that the dog * takes possession of the seeds.

This is like a human strong, the monster beast as a tonic; or the monster beast, the human strong as a tonic, essentially similar.

Since it has been able to be integrated, it is equivalent to refining the mysterious seed. With the wisdom of that kind of child, it is still not enough to counter the dog god.

And this “combination of animals and plants”, in addition to giving the dog * a huge harvest, seems to let the evolution of the dog god, has a significant additive effect.

That is to say, it may take several months before it, or one year to refine the fusion of the seed, after a leap forward, there is a faster proportion in the next five years.

Of course, the spirit, the essence and the essence of the world are also a great driving force.

Shen Lang also took advantage of this opportunity, and then taught some human cultivation methods to the dog god, which was taught before, but not enough.

On the one hand, of course, it is out of preparedness, lest it be more powerful than human beings after learning it; on the other hand, it is also necessary to take into account its acceptance and gradual progress.

Now naturally, it is stronger, and it can understand more. Everyone has died many times in the same life. It is the life and death that can deliver life.

The dog * remembered it seriously and did not verify it immediately.

“Are you in a crisis situation? Or you will not come to me specifically.”

The dog * was also polite and asked directly.

I got a lot of help from Shen Lang and let it rise so much. Of course, it has to be rewarded. If there is no chance, it is regrettable.

Shen Lang nodded: "I am in Jianlin Jianzong, there has been a great change here. When we came back, Yang Huantian, who had hosted us before, was already destroyed. There is a small number of people left in Qiulin. "

At the beginning, he came to this side with the dog god. He had abused all the families, causing the ancestors such as Mu Xiyang and Long Yao to come here, and then they were directly destroyed by the dog god, and absorbed their energy. Instilled in Shen Lang, let him increase his strength.

But in the eyes of the dog god, Tang Cheng and his party really made it impressed, that is, let it also harvest the dragon elephant monster.

Yang Baotian or something, it has no impression, it is also a general concept – Qiu Lin Jianzong people.

For the high cold autumn, it is also a partner who has fought with each other. The door of Gao Hanqiu was destroyed, and those who have served it, of course, let it be enemies.

"Destroy them!"

"The matter has already been fixed. Now there is another group of people who want to go to work. The number may be a bit more, so I wake you up."

Shen Lang is simply telling it about it and showing respect. Although he said nothing, the dog * would not ask much.

Of course, what is related to Lin Biao, it is not convenient to say more, it is Mo Feiliu they do not understand.

After confirming that the dog god's current state is no problem, Shen Lang is relieved.

Things have already been said, let it practice for another day or two, which is also the effect of several months. So you don't need to pull it out now, just let it remember that there is such a thing.

Then Shen Lang was a little regretful. I knew that the snake  Kemrisu would not be released. With the space in the space, it would be equal to summoning two super beasts.

However, the strength of the dog  is very high, and now it has greatly improved, still on top of him, perhaps only slightly worse than the cold autumn.

This is enough!

According to the calculation of Shen Lang, Gao Hanqiu, himself and the dog god, are ancestors who can deal with several great realms, plus the white prince and the Count of Dracula. They are not the way of attack by the Terran, but they can also have miraculous effects.

In addition, there are two lines of Xu Haoyue and Mo Feiliu, which are stable!

They are waiting for the robbery alliance to come over and cross the alliance. It is also a constant news.

All the factions who came to inquire about the information were only far-following. They did not dare to come directly to the Qiuzongshan Gate of Qiulin. It would be an offense, and some would collect intelligence in Tangcheng.

The return of Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu is directly transmitted to Qiulin, and their realm is high. It is not something that people can know.

When the three of Lin Biao left, they left publicly.

With their three strengths, the more subtle departures they want to make are actually ok.

However, the challenge of the robbery alliance was that they blocked it. As a result, when the cold winter came back, they replaced them. Not to mention Li Xiaofeng's ignition, it is Lin Biao's somewhat emotional.

So they are leaving openly, intending to let the outside world know that they are leaving. At that time, the sword of the autumn forest can not hold, the loss is not the face of his Lin Biao.

Of course, this will allow information to spread rapidly, and the parties are also speculative.

If the ancestors of Lin Biao who have suddenly emerged are gone, can Qiu Lin Jianzong still be able to keep it? Not to mention a group of the robbery alliance, it is to come to a ancestor of the realm of the gods, but also to be able to live in Mo Feiliu!

Therefore, according to the normal time, the group of ancestors of the robbery alliance should arrive at the Qiulin swordsmanship on the third day after Shenlang came back.

As a result, on the second day, the great  who had been blocked by Lin Biao's back came to the door again!

After they received the information, they did not act rashly. They suspected that this was a policy and wanted to swind them back. But after a day, I didn't see the information that Lin Biaozhi and others came back.

That great  can't help but feel heart.

He originally came to receive the spiritual pulse, is to let the Qiu Lin Jianzong surrender, let the various factions of the world to see the prestige of the Alliance of the robbery the result of the other party directly forced him, so that he had to Retire, this is not only a serious loss of the face of the robbery alliance, but also a great shame for him personally!

There are a few people in the league, and you can also bring your face back, but what about his own face?

Therefore, now that he has the opportunity to regain his face, he still can't help it.

One day, I repeatedly confirmed that Lin Biaozhi and others did not go back. He finally couldn't help it, or he returned with a big fanfare!

His purpose is very simple. As long as Lin Biao is absent, it is the mysterious woman who can't stop him. If the Qiulin swordsman can surrender and re-complete the task, then the face will pick up.

When you are embarrassed, everyone is far from watching. Now you have to pick up your face, but you must take the initiative to let more people come to witness!

Chapter 2253 - 3 generations of enemies

What is the level of a great god?

As far as Tangcheng is such a prominent range, it can be suppressed by oneself!

Now the * of the great god, coming from Tangcheng, the goal is Qiulin, but it did not come at the fastest speed, but maintained a relatively gentle speed.

In this respect, it is to let more people watching the rhythm keep up with the rhythm. On the other hand, it is also necessary to create momentum and put pressure on Qiu Ling Jianzong in advance!

Of course, he also left a hand.

In case he rushed to the hand, Lin Biaozi came out again and obstructed. If he didn't fight in the end, he couldn't leave, and he couldn't leave people twice.

So now it's slowly passing, and it's time for Lin Biao.

If Lin Biaozi will come over and block, then he will be the face of Lin Biao, or the Qiu Lin Jianzong will appear, or excuse me to send a letter – tell the Ferry Alliance to come to visit tomorrow.

If Lin Biaozi no longer appears, it means that he has really given up and fled, then he can regain his face without any scruples.

But even if the speed is not fast, even if he is the only one who plays the main force, it is the atmosphere of the general pressure!

Those who followed, whether it was his martial art, the sect of the squadron, or other people who completely inquired about the news, were careful, and did not dare to have any offense.

Because there is a super strong breath, it is directly covering a large range, as long as they have any dissatisfaction and provocation, they will be locked immediately.

The feeling of this kind of army pressure is also that before they have arrived, the cold and autumn waves of Qiu Lin Jianzong have been sensed.

Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu, just looking at each other, everyone can understand each other's ideas and understand the enemy's intentions.

Just like this, it is a bit of a disruption to their plans.

They are ready to fight with the robbery alliance, and they are also spreading the news to the major sects.

At this time, if the board is completely uncovered in advance, there will be no surprises.

"Let the white scorpion and fly them to play!"

Shen Lang immediately made a decision and quickly sent his mind to open. He and Gao Hanqiu, together with Count Dracula, stayed in the back mountain abyss.

Qiu Lin Jianzong, let Bai Yu and Mo Feiliu, Xu Haoyue to represent the battle.

Since the other party dared to come up with such a bright future, it was natural to confirm the information that Lin Biao left them, but it did not mean that Gao Hanqiu was back.

Bai Yu was exposed before, and Mo Feiliu and Xu Yuyue were the same.

The three of them should fight, of course, they are not as strong as the three of them, and they cannot force the enemy to retreat directly. But from the card's point of view, it is still an undefeated situation.

Because according to the previous situation, they are also a strong person in the realm of the gods, plus a few more. Because a great * is enough to suppress Mo Feiliu and so on, there is no need to bring the peak of Daxian.

The peak of Daxian is actually not weak, and it is placed at the head, the sovereign, and the elders.

For example, when participating in the Yaochi event, following the ancestors of the various ancestors, it is also the peak of Daxian. After all, Mo Feiliu is also a long-lived age, stronger than the ancestors of Tangcheng.

Therefore, their own martial art, there is no need for people who have the peak of the Great Immortal. Maybe the Great Immortals are the best people in the number one, and naturally they can't just follow the battle.

That is to say that this great * can deal with the day, plus a Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue, it is necessary to measure it.

And Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu are still behind the scenes. If there is any danger, they will be shot, and it will not matter if they are exposed in advance.

After quickly reaching a consensus, Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu tacitly agreed to split the order.

Shen Lang is to let the white cricket play, the high cold autumn is to let Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue go to assist the day.

A few of them have already faced it once, and immediately entered the state of preparation.

Mo Feiliu and Xu Yuyue don't have to say that there are high cold autumns and deep waves, and they are confident.

And white, it is much more serious.

The last time she was not the main force, the main one is Lin Biaozi, and she is one more, which makes the other party even more afraid to act rashly.

But this time, she is the core of the main force!

In order not to let Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu expose them in advance, she must complete this battle, and let the other party think that after Lin Biao's departure, she is the biggest rely on Qiu Lin Jianzong.

Since following the Shenlang, although she also has performance, but more is insignificant. Although she was sent to Shen Lang by the patriarch as a maid, it is also a genius Qingqiu fox that has reached the end of nine.

She also wants to prove her ability to prove that she can help the waves.

The last time she didn't have Lin Biaozi, she would go all out. This time is the time for her performance.

One person has created the effect of the army's pressure, so that those who follow the fun, there is a little fox and tiger and a sense of honor.

Especially in the nearby hills, I was afraid to get close to the Qiu Ling Jianzong. I even feared that Qiu Lin Jianzong would come over and thought about excuses like watching the scenery.

Now I see this posture, and I am also eager to follow, and I am close to the bright and bright, even stepping into the Qiulin sword.

“Chaotiantang Zhou Zhentang once again came to Qiu Lin Jianzong!”

When the * came to the top of the Qiulin sword, the sound spread throughout the hill. Then it slowly fell, and other people who watched the excitement kept a distance and followed.

Shen Lang is in the abyss of the back mountain, while concentrating on the individual atmosphere, while carefully watching the situation here.

At this moment, he couldn't help but see Chao Zhenmen Zhou Zhentang?

This is a bit familiar...

Chaotianmen, isn't that the martial art of Zhou Jiashi?

When I first arrived at Tiandu City, Shen Lang encountered Zhou Shaojun of Chaotianmen. When the other party disagreed, he followed him with Shen Yi, Shen Er, Shen San and Shen Mi.

Then Shen Lang was also in the ring, and the public defeat defeated Zhou Shaojun.

This led to the contemporary head of Chaotianmen, Zhou Shaojun's father Zhou Wei. Zhou Wei was only half-bony peak, and at the time it was crushing Shen Lang and others.

Finally, in the Tianshu space retreat, plus the girls together, only defeated Zhou Wei in the Linyuan, and more days of the seal.

That is, one of the children of Linyuan died. Although it seems that Qiu Linjian's face is not moving, there is no movement. However, it was still buried in the bane, so that after Lin Biao's return, he was furious and killed Qiu Lin's swordsman, and there was also a temper of this matter.

After Zhou Hao's death, he let his retired father Zhou Yucun anger and chase it out. Zhou Yucun is the realm of Daxian, placed in the small and medium-sized sects, that is, the ancestors who have already retired behind the scenes.

Shen Lang went to the ruins, because Ji Qiandao's suggestion coincided with his meeting. He also avoided him in the Ji's team. He went to Zhoushan and Zhou Yucun could not think of it.

But in the end, in the ruins of the past, Shen Lang still encountered Zhou Yucun. And he relied on the sacred veins to shake some of the beasts in the valley, regarded him as a god, and helped him kill Zhou Yucun.

Including Zhou Yucun's associates, Mu Tianda and others.

Counting this is already the grievances of the three generations of grandparents and grandchildren. The time has not passed too long, and Shen Lang still remembers clearly.

Chapter 2254 - Seeking private enmity

Before Mo Feiliu did not elaborate on the identity of the person coming, Shen Lang certainly would not think too much.

Now I heard the name of "Chaotianmen Zhou Zhentang" and immediately thought of more.

Zhou Zhentang, naturally, was the representative of the Chaotianmen to the “Cloud Palace Holy Land”. Perhaps he had not returned since he left, and the Chaotianmen had fallen a lot.

From the age, he may already be the grandfather of Zhou Yucun, even a longer generation.

This time, the strength broke through to the realm of the Great God. I wanted to make the Chaotianmen shine. As a result, I found that generations of descendants have been destroyed, and they are all the same person!

Definitely angry!

In the ruins of Zhou, the Zhou Yucun village wants to move the waves, Mo Feiliu and Xu Yuyue are the representatives of Qiu Lin Jianzong, standing out to force the Shen Lang.

The news of so many big fairy on the scene, the news will naturally spread.

Normally, Zhou Yucun, the ancestor of Chaotianmen, hangs, and the head is dead. It will only drop directly to the small door. Knowing that the enemy is a deep wave, knowing that the Qiulin swords are covered with Shen Lang, it makes no sense.

They dare not report their hatred themselves, and no other martial art can help someone.

Therefore, there is no other person who treats them with blockade information. This does not know, it is all the same.

But nowadays it is different. Zhou Zhentang, the ancestor who disappeared for two hundred years and a few generations, reappeared, and the strength was shocking. The doorman naturally saw hope and retelled everything.

After Shen Lang and the dog * come again, after going to Guangming Mountain, they will deal with the great ancestors of the Yaochi event level. This information will naturally not be understood by the general martial art.

But the last time he and the dog * clamored for Tangcheng, Qiu Lin Jianzong also protected his information, but still can be heard.

For Zhou Zhentang, you can't find the information of Shen Lang, you can also lock the Qiulin sword.

Although Qiu Lin Jianzong is not a direct enemy, but he has sheltered the murderer who killed his offspring, it can also be regarded as an indirect enemy.

That's all right!

The Qiulin Swordsmanship will be ruined in the name of the Tangcheng factions. It is a typical target, and it is necessary to ask for twenty threads. It is very likely that Zhou Zhentang will have the shadow.

And Zhou Zhentang personally performed this task, of course, also to find an excuse to move Qiu Lin Jianzong, looking for opportunities to force out the information of Shen Lang. If you can, even do not hesitate to destroy the Qiulin swords!

However, the last time I came across, Lin Biao did not die, plus a woman of unknown origin, and a disciple of Daxian Fengfeng, Zhou Zhentang can only be forced to retreat.

Lin Biao's away, he made a comeback, in addition to the thought of the face problem, there is still such a reason!

According to the presupposition, this great  is to come back to face, Bai Yu plus Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu, as long as this lineup, he can't deal with it, it should still retreat, maybe it is a bit of a swearword.

But now it seems that it may not be good!

The departure of the three of Lin Biao, he has a day to collect information, I believe it has been well understood.

And the whites and other three, it was the last time, and he still came over with great fanfare, indicating that at least he is sure and planned!

In addition, just performing tasks, losing face, or will be concerned about the level of strength.

But the relationship between the three generations of grandchildren killed, it is not necessarily!

If Zhou Zhentang is sensible, he may wait for more people from the robbery league to arrive, and then ignite the Qiulin swords.

If he can't stand it, if he can't do it this time, he will slap his hand!

To be honest and upright, of course, take into account the overall strength of both sides.

Revenge is not the same, in his realm, if you avoid the white, full attack on Mo Feiliu, perhaps Haoyue, then neither of them will be an opponent!

If you want to attack other disciples of Jianzong and destroy the mountain gates and buildings that Jian Zong has just rebuilt, it will be even more difficult to prevent.

After he attacked, he returned to the defense and retreated. Even if he did his best, he could not take him.

This also understands why he deliberately came slowly, deliberately attracting more people to follow.

Those are not Chaotianmen. He can attack the Qiulin swords without any fear. If Qiu Lin Jianzong attacks unscrupulously against other people, he will offend more martial art and there will be more enemies!

In this way, the heart is sinister, and they almost ignore it.

This can't blame Mo Feiliu. After all, Mo Feiliu has just suffered from the sect of the sect, and he has encountered such an attack. His whole mind is protecting the Qiulin sword.

The grievances of Shen Lang and Chaotianmen before, for him, are simply a small matter, and they did not go to the heart. Just like the earth's heroes saved by Shen Lang, will they remember one by one? I won't think of it for a while.

“Attention! This Chaotianmen had a hatred with me before. This person came to Qiu Lin Jianzong, not only the matter of the robbery alliance, but also the opportunity to seek revenge, and it is very likely to attack the Jianzong disciple!”

Shen Lang immediately transmitted this idea to Gao Hanqiu and Bai Yu, Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue!

He still chooses to be behind the scenes, but the scope of surveillance will be wider, no matter who Zhou Zhentang wants to attack, he will shoot!

This is his enemy. At the beginning, Mo Feiliu represented Qiu Lin Jianzong as sheltering him. He could not let the heavy-duty Qiulin Swords be even tired.

At this moment, the three white people are already welcoming Zhou Zhentang and others.

Zhou Zhentang is currently standing, followed by a few followers, and later, it is the people who sent inquiries.

Perceived the idea of Shen Lang, all three people were amazed.

If there is such a layer of factors, then they must adjust their mindset. This is not to be able to keep the other side, but to be careful to kill each other!

“Zhou Laozu came again, don’t know what to do?”

Mo Feiliu pretended not to know, or asked a question from the surface.

Zhou Zhentang slowly moved forward.

In this action, he immediately made a full defense and blocked a large amount of space in front. If you want to attack, you must first be right with her!

Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue are also highly alert at this time.

Zhou Zhentang is very satisfied with the emotional changes of their enemies, which shows that the other party is afraid of him! Only when he is guilty, will he be nervous about his casual pace.

“Qiu Lin Jianzong surrendered 20 spiritual veins This thing you Lin Biao’s ancestors refused, I don’t force it now, just by the way, the tyrannical alliance will have dozens of ancestors tomorrow. Come to Qiu Lin Jianzong!”

Although everyone is full of enthusiasm, it is not clear how many great powers there are in the alliance.

Now this sentence is openly spoken, dozens of ancestors!

I was shocked by everyone.

These inquiries are also sinking in my heart. There are dozens of ancestors in the alliance. The Qiulin swords can’t be dealt with. Other sects don’t have to say anything.

The spies of the famous big-name faction are also anxious. This is an important piece of information and must be transmitted as soon as possible...

“Oh, by the time... it’s not a problem that twenty threads can solve!” Zhou Zhentang threatened another sentence.

Chapter 2255 - seek death

According to Zhou Zhentang’s analysis, Qiu Lin Jianzong will certainly not be willing to pay 20 spirits, so he can generously reiterate this point.

This is the condition of the alliance of the robbery, and naturally it will not be reminiscent of his selfishness.

As long as Qiu Lin Jianzong refuses, there is an excuse to start!

Mo Feiliu is the veteran of the old card. Even if he is guilty of facing the ancestors of the realm of the gods, his momentum is not weak. At this moment, there is a master behind him, and of course he will not be embarrassed.

“Zhou Laozu asks such rudeness again, then I reiterate our attitude again. Why did the Alliance of the Robbery order us to send spiritual offerings? Because you are united, you have to be enemies with the various factions in the world. ?”

What he said is not unreasonable, but also a reasonable question.

But in fact, it does not attract many people’s resonance.

After the matter has been fermented, what attitude should everyone have? It is basically certain.

The small martial art, that is, the small shrimp without meat, will not be stared at. Although in the long run, the middle sect is suppressed, it may also be sent to the small door to collect the money to make up for the loss.

But on the surface, it has nothing to do with them. Some of the small sects are afraid of being affected, some are willing to embrace change, the situation is chaotic, and they may have the opportunity to rise.

Just like the grievances of the major schools of Tangcheng and the swords of Qiulin, no one cares about these small forces, and they are all good opportunities for quiet development.

Who wants to jump from a small martial art to a medium martial art, even a big sect!

The middle martial art, this time is the object of being slaughtered, but after the other people’s cards are put out, everyone is deeply weak. Just like Zhou Zhentang said that the robbery alliance, the light will kill here, there are dozens of ancestors of the realm of the gods!

This makes them completely give up the resistance, isn’t there a more serious Qiu Lin Jianzong? The five spiritual veins are not so unacceptable conditions.

Since the forcible weak meat is strong, they can also plunder some weaker sects and forces to balance losses.

As for those big names, the attitude of the ancestors is their attitude, they are still waiting to see, anyway, they will not hit their doorsteps.

In the meantime, if you do not fly, it will not cause everyone's rivals.

So even if Mo Feiliu said that he is not humble and powerful, but he did not infect the "world of facts" together, at least on the scene to see the excitement, they are still standing on the sidelines, no one is open-minded, mixed in the crowd to add a sentence nothing.

This point, after the cold field of Mo Feiliu finished, it was highlighted, let everyone realize.

Zhou Zhentang even sneered.

"Qiu Lin Jianzong He De He can, really want to represent the various factions in the world? You want to tie the various factions in the world, what is your heart?"

Those who had been sitting on the sidelines, when they heard this sentence, couldn't help but whisper and began to whisper.

"Qiu Lin Jianzong is trying to harm everyone!"

"Why do other sects have only five spirits, and Qiu Lin Jianzong has twenty? It is not because they have destroyed the Tangcheng factions!"

"Yes! This is their own evil. The alliance of the robbery is also a matter of appreciating justice for all parties."

"How much benefit did they get out of the factions? They were all reluctant to spit out, and they had to fight against the alliance. This is their own death!"

"They die and die, but don't pull everyone!"

"Bundling the various factions of the world to fight against the alliance of the robbery, is it not that everyone is asked for twenty threads?"

"The heart is too sinister! We have to draw a line with them!"

For a time, everyone was emotionally excited. Mo Feiliu originally wanted to let everyone join the enemy. They didn't have to help them. They only needed to stand on the side of the momentum. It was enough.

I didn't expect the anger of most people on the scene to come to them! Do not blame Zhou Zhentang's representative of the robbery alliance...

The deep waves behind the scenes are also well-known for the above situation.

He is not surprised at all. For human nature, he knows more than Mo Feiliu.

You don't know how to be rich, but you will definitely earn a higher income.

Civilians can compete with civilians, but they have always been strong and they are chilling.

These sects, at the beginning, or privately, are certainly dissatisfied with the alliance of the robbery, but now they are not willing to have any dissatisfaction.

Now they are fortunate that the five spirits can be safe, have accepted this condition, anyway, there is the bottom of the Qiulin sword.

Therefore, Mo Feiliu said that they found a transfer point and transferred all the resentment against the alliance of the robbery to the head of Qiulin, and rationalized and stigmatized it.

Zhou Zhentang was only trying to make the situation bigger, and he did not expect that everyone would support him. I can't help but hear everyone's words at this moment. This is his charm!

"Mo Zongzhu, what do you say?"

At the beginning of Zhou Zhentang, an excuse was used to convey the message that there will be dozens of great ancestors coming tomorrow.

In this case, even if Lin Biao arrives and continues to be tough, he will not lose face again.

However, until now, Lin Biaozi did not appear again. It seems that he really left, which made him want to move.

Lin Biaozi and the woman, the two strong gods in the realm of the realm here, even if he can not kill him, is enough to intercept him in all aspects.

But only the young woman, no matter what way she is, can't stop him!

Zhou Zhentang has already had a bloodthirsty desire. People who want to find an excuse to kill a few Qiulin swords are going to sacrifice their descendants.

At this moment, he is directly forced to fly.

If Qiu Lin Jianzong refuses, then he has an excuse to start.

If Mo Feiliu bowed his head and offered 20 spiritual veins, then he could well degrade the Qiulin sword. Destroying the reputation of a sect is no less than killing a few people for revenge.

At this time, the white shackled by Shen Lang was opened.

“What are you counting? Last time you rolled away from here continue to roll for me today! Come back with your dozens of great gods!”

Originally everyone's eyes are on Mo Feiliu.

Because Mo Feiliu is the lord of the Qiulin sword, the age and generation are also large enough. The last time the grandfather Lin Biao was no longer there, of course, he still had to look at his decision.

Bai Hao didn't talk at the last time. In addition to looking young, in addition to Zhou Zhentang's clear understanding of her strength, she was not clear about her details.

At this moment, she suddenly issued a message to expel Zhou Zhentang, and everyone was shocked.

All eyes turned to the white body.

Everyone is a thought: Who is this woman? Is there a problem with my brain? This is a big death!

Chapter 2256 - 1 touch

“Can you represent Qiu Lin Jianzong?”

Zhou Zhentang sneered at the white sneer, his eyes still watching Mo Feiliu.

When he said this, he was so full of momentum that he seemed to be fighting at any time!

Immediately between, watching the lively behind, can not help but retreat, and ready to escape at any time, if you can't escape, then jump directly down the mountain.

This is the ancestor of the great gods!

It is not a problem at all, not to ruin the destruction of the earth and destroy the hills of the swords of the autumn forest.

The same momentum of the day is soaring!

She is actually the spokesperson of Shen Lang's manipulation. How to say and how to do it is to teach behind the waves.

At the moment, her defense is also included in the flight of Mo Fei and Xu Yuyue.

Because Shen Lang reminded her, Zhou Zhentang would not do anything with her, but would attack Mo Feiliu!

Normally, in the current status of Zhou Zhentang, if you openly deal with Qiu Lin Jianzong, it is natural to compete with his strength. Aside from the level of the Great God, the shots of the Great Immortal Peak, regardless of their age, are a bit bully.

The last time Lin Biao was here, his opponent was Lin Biaozhi.

Now that Lin Biao is absent, Bai Yu has the strength equivalent to the realm of the great gods, and his opponent should be white.

But this is the normal default rule. Now Zhou Zhentang is enemies with Shen Lang, and then he has resentment against the Qiulin swords who used to protect the Shenlang. Mo Feiliu is equal to his No. 2 enemy.

Under such circumstances, he is likely to take the opportunity to use the white crowbar, in fact, kill Mo Feiliu! It may also be Xu Haoyue. After all, Xu Haoyue is in the face of a group of big immortals.

Now Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu are here, naturally, there is no need to be afraid of Zhou Zhentang.

But the problem is that they are in the abyss of the mountains, even if they are directly exposed, even if they are fast, or use other methods to block, it takes a little time.

Zhou Zhentang is the strength of the realm of the Great God. As long as there is a little bit of time, it is possible to kill Mo Feiliu, especially the sneak attack of Dong Daxi.

Therefore, the waves are white and the priority is to defend them both.

White 嬭 is of course an instruction to strictly implement Shen Lang.

Swords and arrogance!

Suddenly, the autumn forest Jianzong mountain rain is coming to the wind, and the atmosphere becomes very tense.

The war is on the verge!

Since the contact with the White House in the Yungong Holy Land, there have been days, and Mo Feiliu is quite familiar and familiar with her.

He knows very well that if it is not the instructions behind the scenes, the nine-tailed fox girl in Qingqiu will not be so mad.

Plus the signal from the previous Master, he can guess a rough.

“Nature can represent, what is your business?”

Mo Feiliu said this, and it triggered the darkness of the people from all walks of life!

I feel that this old guy is confused. The young woman’s brain is missing a rib. His lord is so crazy.

This is equivalent to a declaration of war directly with Zhou Zhentang!

Without the former ancestor, Qiu Lin Jianzong also played a fart?

Isn’t this looking for death?

Others just want to warn you that you are going to kill yourself!

When the Qiulin swordsmanship is destroyed, they should all be deserved!

Everyone is also better prepared to escape...

Zhou Zhentang is a bit hard to ride the tiger!

Just now, he thought that Qiu Lin Jianzong was deliberately letting a young strongman come tough. This is definitely a foreign aid. It is impossible to stay in the Qiulin swords. The purpose is to support the field now.

In this case, the woman can talk indiscriminately, and Mo Feiliu does not dare to talk nonsense!

His just questioning is to make Mo Fei flow.

I did not expect that Mo Feiliu actually took over, acknowledging that the woman can represent Qiu Lin Jianzong, this is equivalent to declare war on him!

This pressure came to him.

War or not?

In the war, others have a similar experience with him, plus two big fairy peaks, he has no chance of winning. And others have already been prepared, and it is difficult to succeed in sneak attack on Mo Feiliu.

If you don't fight, then you have to lose your face again!

He asked me this time, that is, I want to abuse the Qiulin sword. Ask for 20 spirits, fight against the reputation of the sect, and even kill Mo Feiliu.

The result was twice, and his own face was greatly damaged, but it boosted the enemy's reputation.

How can this make him reconciled?

Especially this time, it is clear that he has already gained the upper hand. Even the people from all walks of life who are watching the lively are resentful of Qiu Lin Jianzong. How can he retreat at this time?

Going back this time, what prestige is there in the future?

How does the outside world look at him? How do you see him inside the robbery league?

How to reinvigorate the sky gate?

At this moment, Zhou Zhentang has already flashed countless thoughts in his mind.

It was originally a moment of smashing, and it would be fighting, just in his mind!

So his moment of discretion, for everyone, as if time is still, it seems like a long wait, waiting for his decision.

Of course, Zhou Zhentang also understands this. He does not need to look back, does not need to be inductive, and knows that the people behind him are watching him. Even in the future, countless people indirectly “look at” him.

“Since you are so ignorant, don’t blame me for not giving Lin Zu’s face. I will teach you for him today!”

Zhou Zhentang slowly opened his mouth.

He didn’t speak fast, and he didn’t attack first, because one of his words was to start the horn, and the words had a strong weight!

Others watching the excitement, immediately realized that it would be too late to retreat!

This is equivalent to giving them a buffer time for retreat, and then bold, can not continue to watch!

For a time, everyone quickly retreated.

Some leaped down the mountain, and some flew past the other hills nearby.

Basically just to withdraw the safety distance, but still want to witness the official first battle of the robbery alliance!

The robbery alliance was only an opening, and it scared everyone. Everyone either slammed it or waited for the fall of the sword.

Those strengths are put out, no need to fight, everyone can’t beat it.

But now, this does have the opportunity to see the ancestors of the realm of the gods!

The opponent is the veteran patriarch of Qiu Lin Jianzong, at least the existence of the peak of Daxian!

Even if they don't see the strength of the day, the weights of Guang Zhou Zhentang and Mo Feiliu have already made everyone fascinated. They have never seen such a level of battle in their lifetime.

It is the disciples of those big-named factions, and only the ancestors, or the elders of the heads, can only see this level of fighting.

Therefore, in order to save the life of the retreat, they are all flying backwards. The eyes and the gods are still paying attention to the scene, and they are not willing to miss the slightest story.

The three whites are more nervous.

Although there are still waves and high cold autumn behind, let them have confidence, but after all, they are three of them.

Bai Yu remembers the shackles of Shen Lang and wants to protect them both.

Mo Feiliu and Xu Yuyue also understand that this is the strongest enemy attack they have encountered in their life span of hundreds of years. Even if there is a white cover, there is a cold autumn in the back, and they must fully defend themselves.

Chapter 2257 - Controversy and infighting

Zhou Zhentang's words are also dripping.

This seems to be the last time he left, "to give Lin Zu Shi face", is to respect the identity of Lin Biao, not the taboo of strength, and now is also "learned for him."

If you win, you don't have to say it. If you lose, you can say that you have not done your best.

Of course, he doesn't feel that he will lose.

After he finished speaking, he was in a state of skyrocketing, like a torrent of torrents, rushing to the day!

This is an attack on the realm of human beings, and this is a hatred. It is bound to attack with all strength, so the white scorpion does not dare to neglect, and immediately defended it with all strength.

She still remembers the shackles of the waves, to protect them both, so they are not ready to attack, and everything is stable.

At this moment, Zhou Zhentang really as the Shen Lang guessed, on the surface of the storm, but in fact, the body quickly reached the side of Mo Feiliu!

The day is still defending both of them, and the two of them are also defending themselves.

But for a strong man in the realm of the great realm, it is still difficult to stop!

Because of the defensiveness of the day, she must first protect herself, or else she will be jealous, and the other party will win. Dividing a large part of the strength to defend Zhou Zhentang's slamming attack, the protection of the two of them is naturally weak.

And Mo Fei flowed their own defense, in front of Zhou Zhentang, that is a big difference.

Therefore, Zhou Zhentang broke through the two-layer defense in one fell swoop, directly to the side of Mo Feiliu, the palm of his hand just caught the throat of Mo Feiliu!

This is his planned plan.

It's not a slap in the face, because it's really a full blow, and the white must be defensive. There is no lasting post, no matter whether it is preventable or not, it will not fight back.

He is equal to the second strike, still trying his best, so he can break through the two layers of defense, directly to the face of Mo Feiliu, and his hand also caught the throat of Mo Feiliu.

For those in his realm, you really want to kill a strong person. Of course, you don't need to rely on the suffocation of your throat to complete it. It is not necessary to break through your throat and break your neck.

But he didn't want Mo Fei to die so fast!

He must let Mo Feiliu know what sin he committed, knowing what it is because of the murder of the killing!

Didn't you be a cow at first? You stand up to protect the waves, no one dares to disagree.

Who is standing up to protect you now?

More importantly... He wants to hear the information of Shen Lang from Mo Feiliu!

That is the enemy of the number one!

So he was ready from the attack, not killing Mo Feiliu, but threatening death.

When he shot to Mo Feiliu here, he had completely banned Mo Feiliu. His field power had already broken all the defenses of Mo Feiliu, so that he had no chance to resist and escape.

Grabbing the throat of Mo Feiliu is nothing but a gesture on the surface.

Just forbidding a person, of course, not holding the neck and picking it up so directly.

And for a revenge, this can be more enjoyable, but also better to live the day!

At this moment, Zhou Zhentang felt that he had already achieved stability. Even if Lin Biaozi came over at this moment, he could calmly seize such a hostage.

Unless Lin Biaozi and the woman do not care about the life of Mo Feiliu, they will vote for the mouse.

But just as the tenth and tenth steady, there was a question that he did not expect.

This is not a leak of his own, but he does not know where the situation has occurred.

There is actually a strong mental power, in this moment, such as lightning, directly into his mind!

In an instant, Zhou Zhentang felt that there was a feeling of paralysis in his body, and even the consciousness seemed to be blank!

Although it is only a moment, for the top experts, there are many changes in the moment.

The most direct change is that while Bai Lu resolves his attack, he is distracted and directly “recaptures” the past with Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu!

Xu Haoyue did not become the focus of the attack, so it is still able to cooperate with dodge.

Mo Feiliu was completely imprisoned by Zhou Zhentang, and the surrounding space was also blocked. Under the loss of the opportunity, even the same strength of the white, it is difficult to win.

But the attack that Zhou Zhentang had just encountered seemed to be a power outage, and directly let Bai Bai take the people to the past.

Just shot is the cold autumn!

The strength of Gao Hanqiu is stronger than him. Just sneak attack by Yi Yi, I really want to kill Zhou Zhentang. Actually, I have the opportunity to do it.

In an instant, he still chose to let go, just let Zhou Zhentang know how difficult it is to retreat.

His concerns are also very simple, because now is the state of public, there are still many people watching, and we can't stop everyone. And even if it is ruined, I know that Zhou Zhentang died here.

Zhou Zhentang can be forced to retreat. On the bright side, the three of them can also do it. At most, they will let them guess that Lin Biao may come back quietly and lie in the dark.

However, if Zhou Zhentang is killed directly, the severity will be different. The number of individuals who come to the Alliance will be extraordinarily careful.

In terms of the number of people, the party should be the weaker side. Now it is to use the opponent's light enemy to achieve a surprise attack with less wins.

If the other side is prepared to be more fully and fully committed, then tomorrow will affect the entire sect, and will also sway them.

Gao Hanqiu just did this shot, helping to ease the pressure of Mo Feiliu, and then he gave up and kept the posture of the sweeping, no more shots.

Zhou Zhentang is trapped in a place. Even in the past two hundred years, the experience is naturally far from sufficient, but after all, he has reached the realm of the Great God.

So just that moment, he couldn't figure out the specific source of the attack, but he was able to confirm that it was another person who attacked him in the dark!

He can be sure that this is not a day, because the day is going to defend his attack, and he has saved both of them with this moment.

Really want her to do this, it should be obviously stronger than him!

But if someone else is ambushing in the dark, relying on the sneak attack of finding an opportunity, it is not necessarily better than him. It is similar to him, even slightly worse than him.

The son of Qiu Lin Jianzong is flying here Which one is with him?

The answer is coming out – it must be that Lin Biao's pretending to leave, but in the dark!

This makes Zhou Zhentang secretly sneer, do you want to pretend? That Laozi will count!

When he took the white scorpion and took Mo Feiliu and Xu Yiyue to the past, he did not follow it again, but a sacred sacred coat.

“This girl! I don't know your origin, but you are definitely not the person of Qiu Lin Jianzong. I advise you to think twice, don't ask your own teacher for trouble!”

Zhou Zhentang was watching Bai Yu talking this time, and then waited for her to respond, and sang again.

“I am just calling today, you are good at it!”

Chapter 2258 - White battle

Zhou Zhentang just ate a dark loss, but this situation is his own, but it is just a moment of feeling, other people are naturally unclear.

The other side hid him in the dark, and in his opinion, he wanted to hide his strength, and he would count it, pretending not to find it.

When he was just white, he thought he was attacked by the day.

For the outside world to see the excitement, his words are even more intriguing.

On the one hand, it is suggested that Bai Qi can't be the person of Qiu Lin Jianzong. This is to find a boxing aid. On the other hand, he hints that he is the facade of the teacher behind the scenes, so he just didn't move the real thing.

Finally, with the addition of a sentence just a message, it will be the second time, there is still no harvest, and it is invisible.

That is to say, under the arrangement of Zhou Zhentang, he did not lose face again this time, but earned a little face.

At the same time, he also felt that he had some useful information. Lin Biaozi did not leave, but hidden strength in Qiulin.

“Communication? You come here to triumphantly, you want to leave like this cheap?”

The white chill responded with a cold sentence.

Just after she opened the two of Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu, she also stepped forward and blocked them. It was not so easy for Zhou Zhentang to attack them both.

“Oh! I am leaving Zhou Zhentang, you are a junior in your district, can you stop me?”

Zhou Zhentang sneered, and added another sentence: “I am good with others, you are arrogant, but don’t blame me for taking the sword of Qiu Lin Jianzong!”

This sentence is both a threat and a foreshadowing!

Because they have always been the goal of Qiulin, and he has just hinted that this woman is not the sword of Qiulin. So I annoyed him, couldn’t move this woman, and moved the disciples of Qiu Lin Jianzong, it would be a matter of course.

He originally had resentment against Qiu Lin Jianzong, the biggest Mo Fei flow.

If Mo Feiliu is protected by the key points, then the other disciples will not be so good to avoid!

Originally, in his capacity, Mo Fei’s mobile hand can be said to be the sovereign, and it is a bit unreasonable to start with the younger generation’s disciples.

Now with this layer of preparation, it is natural, killing young disciples, it can be said to be stunned!

“You can’t stop you, you can know it when you try!”

During the speech, Bai Hao has taken the initiative to attack Zhou Zhentang.

Originally low-key white, this time is so active, of course, because of the waves.

She is a fox, even if it is comparable to the realm of the gods, to play a real strength, it is also to practice the practice of Qingqiu, and even to show the body.

In this case, the impact is not very good, Zhou Zhentang can completely give Qiu Lin Jianzong a big hat to collude with aliens and plots.

Others who look at the excitement, where there are so many, the more special circumstances, the more enthusiastic about spreading. At that time, I will add vinegar to the rumors, but I don't know what it will be.

So whether it is just the defense, or the current attack, Shen Lang must be careful that she must be careful, just purely in the way of energy, not revealing the traces of the green hills.

Such an offensive and defensive, can not play the strength of the day, naturally it will be a little weaker than Zhou Zhentang.

But Shen Lang of course has another arrangement!

Zhou Zhentang is secretly sneer.

When the expert takes a shot, he knows if there is any.

Just a simple fight, he has clearly understood that this woman's strength is not as good as his, which is also in line with the appearance, such a young woman, can reach the realm of the gods, in addition to talent, but also countless resources piled up.

It is incomparable to have such a strong foundation with him and to suffer from the great gods that have come out for two hundred years.

The reason why he showed her scruples about her was deliberately pretending. He was willing to take the mental power of sneak attack on him, and counted it on the head of the day.

At this moment, the white shot, once again proved that he did not feel wrong, this woman is not his opponent!

He is ready to count, but the other party really thinks that she is very powerful, it is necessary to show another hand, let the Lin Biao behind the scenes understand that he is not irritating!

“As long as you can break my day, even if you win!”

When Zhou Zhentang proudly said this sentence, his hands were printed with his hands, and he had already smeared a shadow of the sky, and fiercely went to the white side.

With this imaginary range, it is not just white, but they will be affected by Xu Yuyue and Mo Feiliu.

Zhou Zhentang did not think about such a simple attack, who can kill, but even if they can resist and dodge, this illusion will also cause damage to the construction of Qiu Lin Jianzong.

The first attack of Bai Yan's attack was directly blocked by the sky, and there was obviously an obstacle that could not be resisted!

The dark waves observed in the dark can not help but secretly nod.

Chaotianmen's magic weapon was once on his body, even though he was given a few with other magic weapons. When he was alone, they still brought him.

At least to his current realm, such a magic weapon, such as Chaotian, has been a bit sloppy, so he gave the canoe and others.

For Chaotian, he is not as clear as the people in Chaotianmen, but he is familiar.

Now I can see at a glance that Zhou Zhentang's personal strength has surpassed the power of Chaotian Printing.

In other words, the Chaotian Sealing Magic can play a more powerful effect in the hands of Zhou Zhentang. But there is no such magic weapon. It is just the practice of "Day of Heaven". The power that he can attack will not be inferior to the day.

Now, Zhou Zhentang certainly does not have the best efforts to break the net, but he can still suppress the white pheasant. If you can't use the Qingqiu method, the contend will be very stubborn. May be defeated and even hurt.

However, Bai Hao still completely obeys the arrangement of Shen Lang.

For Shen Lang, not to mention the arrangement of the patriarch, it is also very admirable. At that time, in the Great Wilderness, it was not as high as her and the vast territory of the giants, but it was their main heart.

No matter whether it is a family of red porpoises or a dragon in the wild, it can handle it freely. After following the Shenlang, I saw his magic and saw his rapid progress. Since Shen Lang said this, she strictly enforced it, and she didn't have time to ask anything.

The people who watched in the distance, this time are all tides.

The previous attack and defense, the overall speed is very fast, and there is no spark, just like a temptation, no one has seen anything refreshing, let alone enjoyable.

But Xiao Zhou Zhentang's casual shot, there was a huge illusion, like a hill to suppress the past, the momentum made them all nervous.

No one doubts that this illusion is enough to flatten people and buildings!

Can be regarded as a face to face!

At this time, the golden light flashed in front of the white scorpion!

Chapter 2259 - Flying sword first hit

The slight golden light flashes, the speed is very fast, if not everyone will concentrate on staring at this time, it may ignore the past.

This golden light was sent from the day, and then went straight to the front of Zhou Zhentang!

Zhou Zhentang's assault on the sky was a top-down suppression of the past, and this golden light did not go up and went straight ahead.

With the eyesight of Zhou Zhentang, of course, it is more real than the onlookers in the distance.

Even if he can't see what it is, but as soon as he appears, he can clearly know that this must be a magic weapon to attack him!

And immediately guessed a possibility: Although the woman is not as good as him, but the performance is still weaker than expected, it should also be pretending, the purpose is to paralyze him, cover this attack!

Zhou Zhentang attaches great importance to it, but it is still very calm on the surface.

His hands were still in the sky, not only controlling the illusory, but also completely controlling the surrounding space.

He seems to be understating the other side, but he knows that there is also Lin Biaozi ambushing in the dark, so he still controls the surrounding area very well and avoids being attacked again.

At the moment, under the golden light, his expression is unchanged, the action is unchanged, but the field has changed!

Originally, he blocked the space around him, and at this time he put the key core in front of him for a few meters!

Assuming that the general self-defense is ten, then the field he placed is equal to ten, plus twenty defenses.

Now, on the basis of maintaining the twentieth defensive circle, a space in front of the whole person is added to the defense of one hundred!

Ten's defense can finally block, twenty can make everything in the field controlled very slowly, and that one hundred, can completely solidify any movement in the area.

According to Zhou Zhentang's prediction, no matter what the attacked Golden Light, what is the attack magic weapon, entering a few feet in front of him, will be frozen, and go forward at a very slow speed.

And this will allow other people to clearly see this situation, he will let everyone see clearly, then crack this attack.

Everything is in a flash.

Only the field of the Great God can achieve such a freely changing effect, and any other defense is too late.

No one can know the performance of Zhou Zhentang. What everyone can see is his calm and calm face.

The speed of the golden light, and the speed of his field changes, are very fast, but after all, he is a defense, and he changed after seeing the situation.

So when the field before the field was strengthened several times, Jinguang had crossed the first few meters and went straight to the front of him one meter away!

Zhou Zhentang couldn't help but be surprised. But fortunately, even if he slowed down half a beat, he successfully intercepted it. At this moment, Jinguang was about one meter in front of him. The speed has become very slow, almost like solidification. Move slowly.

He also saw it clearly, this is a gold dagger!

No matter what the origin of this thing, even if you can't solve the algorithm, as long as you can win it, you will earn your face!

He was ready to control the gold dagger directly and flew to his hand to hold it.

But at this time, the gold dagger, which was originally very slow, was once again fast!

It was a golden light flashing, this time it didn't flash, but it directly penetrated his body!

The situation just now, because it is too fast, we can't see these subtle changes under the naked eye. I only saw the golden light flashing, and then paused in front of him, and then disappeared.

But basically everyone knows what this is like, and the weapon has already stabbed Zhou Zhentang!

Zhou Zhentang himself is very shocked...

He clearly has controlled the speed of this dagger. It is a reinforcement of several times in front of the field. What can be strong and blocked, and the dagger is obviously imprisoned. Why is it suddenly accelerating?

And this dagger...

In addition to shock, he also felt a pain!

Because it was too fast, it directly penetrated his body, and did not stop in it, but penetrated and flew away.

If someone stabs a sword, he feels that if he is not sure, he will dodge and will not stand still.

Just because he was sure to control the weapon, he really managed to control the dagger, so he did not dodge, until he was in front of him, it was still several times of field control, which was equivalent to the seizure of this stuff.

So when it gets out of control, he can't do it if he wants to dodge and catch it.

Such a fierce blow also made him unwilling to track where the golden dagger flew.

The first thing he has to do is to hurry!

The woman deliberately showed weakness and so sneaked on him. Although he won't let the dagger hit again, there is still a Lin Biao!

What if the secret Lin Biao wants to kill him?

After being pierced, Zhou Zhentang's handprints were immediately smashed, and the pressing seals that had been pressed down suddenly disappeared from the air.

Zhou Zhentang is also the strongest in the realm of the great gods. Even if he was worn by the golden dagger, he did not fall, and he still supported it.

He is a turning point in the air, and immediately goes to the distance!

“I will be back!”

The words he left are drifting farther and farther in the air.

Others look at the excitement, and they smashed.

Before they were many people complained about Qiu Lin Jianzong, this time Zhou Zhentang left, how to face the Qiu Lin Jianzong?

This woman who can be hard-working with Zhou Zhentang is obviously also a strong person in the realm of the great gods. No matter what she is, she is helping Qiulin Jianzong twice. Naturally, the relationship is extraordinary.

Listening to her attitude, Zhou Zhentang is not polite, will they have a good face?

For a time, everyone hurriedly turned around and ran away. The loss just got rid of the safe distance, and it would be faster to run.

Outsiders don't know, including Zhou Zhentang, who is facing the frontal battle, did not notice but Bai Hao is very clear, just the golden dagger, seemingly hit from her, is actually Shen Lang manipulation!

Shen Lang is naturally the most well-known one. He secretly arranged the day, which is the seemingly paralyzed Zhou Zhentang.

As for the golden dagger that he controlled in the form of flying swords, if he flies out from the abyss of the mountains, even if the speed is too late, such a long-distance trajectory will be noticed.

In fact, when Bai Qi and Zhou Zhentang played against each other, they were released. When the cold autumn pierced his consciousness and made him paralyzed, the golden dagger had already arrived near them, hiding in the ground.

So when I first attacked, it was really flying fast around the day, not from the abyss of the mountains.

When entering the field control area of several times, the speed of the gold dagger also really encountered the imprisonment, which was instantly slow to be visible.

Chapter 2260 - 1 sword 1 pavilion

But there are two situations in this kind of imprisonment.

One is one-off and the other is continuous.

For example, an ordinary person throws a stone into the air. When the external force (gravitational force) acts, the power thrown out is not enough, and it will fall.

But if it is tied to the drone, it can fly higher by continuing the speed energy through the remote control.

If Shen Lang throws the gold dagger as a weapon once, the opponent's defense is timely enough, the field energy is strong enough, then it can be controlled and captured.

But now this gold dagger is that he is made into a flying sword, which is the magic weapon of the sword and the sword. In the distance, he can continuously inject energy and continue to control.

When the energy of the first wave of attacks is confined by equal or greater energy, it appears, and it is paused in the air.

When Shen Lang injects more energy and surpasses the energy of Zhou Zhentang's field, naturally it can no longer be banned, and it will continue to complete the previous attack.

In these cases, Zhou Zhentang and watching the excitement are not clear, and even the day is not clear about the details, but she knows that this is the completion of Shen Lang.

After a while, all the people who came over went away, probably also withdrew to Tangcheng. In the next moment, they will spread the situation happening here today to a wider area through their own channels and methods.

“Flying stream, passing orders, in addition to the safety of everyone on the mountain, the disciples of people in Tangcheng should pay more attention to safety, so as not to suffer the killing of Zhou Zhentang!”

Shen Lang is also not polite, directly smashing Mo Feiliu.

Mo Feiliu now understands that the normal big  is not disdain for ordinary disciples; Zhou Zhentang is the ancestor of Chaotianmen, and he has resentment against Shen Lang, him and Qiu Lin Jianzong, just injured and more likely I am angry with the ordinary disciples of Qiulin.

He can't go on his own, because his goal is more conspicuous, but it is more dangerous, but it must be easy to arrange.

“Zhou Zhentang said that there are dozens of great ancestors, Lang Ge, what do you think?”

In the abyss, Gao Hanqiu directly asked an important question.

The fight was just too good, except for the white, he and Shen Lang both secretly shot, and repelling Zhou Zhentang is nothing. The focus is on the information that Zhou Zhentang said, and the arrival of the alliance will be held tomorrow.

Shen Lang directly asserted: “I feel impossible.”

“Our group went to the Yungong Holy Land, and most of them were the ancestors of the Great Gods. Even if I found a way out, some people died during the period.”

As a result, Gao Hanqiu took it for granted.

The danger is inversely proportional to strength. The stronger the strength, the lower the risk is.

The batch of that year was basically based on Daxian. That is not the real cloud palace holy land, it is the gantry's bureau to kill them.

Or, even if it enters different areas of the Cloud Palace Holy Land, with their strength, the chances of surviving are lower than the recent one.

When I first survived, I was killed in the next two hundred years. For example, in the memory of Nangong, there is a phase of disability.

When I finally lived and came out now, they saw six, and where can they go?

“This is what you have experienced. You should know more about how many people are there.”

If you are in the dark, let the cold autumn fall.

“Cough, cough... How long has it been, and then we can qualify for it at the time, and we can understand all the people.”

It's also reasonable to think about it, two hundred years ago.

He pondered another question.

From a time perspective, these people should be similar to them from the Yungong Holy Land, or a little earlier. What is the connection?

Originally from the history of the Longmen, they used a lot of fake Yungong holy land news, people who swayed after wave after wave.

This time it is true. In fact, it should be fake two hundred years ago.

But after two hundred years, there have been pits and times again and again. This time is too coincidental.

It is because the group of people who entered this room have to vacate their seats, so they have released a group of people who have been trapped inside?

It is still said that there are still many areas in the Yungong Holy Land. The impact of their entry has opened the portals of other regions. Those who have studied for two hundred years have found that they have gone out.

Thinking for a moment, without an accurate answer, Shen Lang would not bother to think about it.

What is the use even if there is a relationship? Will you go in again?

Now it is better to deal with the group of people who will be tomorrow!

Then, Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu worked hard together to reinforce the Qilin Jianzong's protective mountain squad, replaced it with a stronger Lingshi energy, opened the big array, and protected the entire Qiulin sword.

This is actually not very important for the strong people in the realm of the great gods. However, it can prevent some dogs from stealing dogs and smashing fires, and it can also prevent damage caused by attacks.

The battlefield, of course, don't put it in your own home.

In the direction from Tangcheng, from the autumn forest Jianzong here is a mountain peak in the past.

Gao Hanqiu showed his strong strength. A sword cut the entire hill, countless mountains and rocks, and fell to the valley next to the grass.

The original mountain was cut off at the top and presented a huge flat space.

This is the battlefield of tomorrow!

When the cold autumn came out of this sword, the disciples of Qiulin's Jianzong were seen far away on the mountain.

The high-grandfather's sword is the driving force of the mountain, so that everyone is full of blood and has a high goal.

On the second day, because I didn't know when the other party arrived, everyone decided to wait a little earlier.

After they went out, the guardian mountain opened, and the disciples could safely watch the situation in the distance.

Including Mo Feiliu and Xu Haoyue.

Since today is the battle of the Great God, they used to be cumbersome or obedient, and stayed in the mountains to look after the disciples.

Above the flattened peaks, they are four of them.

Shen Lang, Bai Yu, Gao Hanqiu and Count Dracula.

This is the hidden lineup that did not come out yesterday, and it is also the main force of today.

The Emperor's behemoth is still in the space of heaven, as a hidden secret weapon.

They are putting their own cards to but still have to keep a few cards.

As the whole mountain was flattened, the big flat space, four people stood and waited. Although there was a momentum of "one husband is a singer," it seemed a bit silly before the enemy arrived.

So, when everyone got to the top of the peak, ready to sit down and wait.

Shen Lang waved his hand!

Between the time, a temple appeared in the middle of the open space!

Then Shen Lang made adjustments, changed the architectural style of the temple, and became transparent, like a huge pavilion. There was another high platform in the middle, allowing them to rest on the four.

In this way, you can see the flat mountain above, there is a huge pavilion, there is a high platform in the middle of the pavilion, and four people sit on the high platform...
