

First Strong 230

Chapter 230 - Savage

Shen Lang quickly tracked the past, exercised in the forest, and swept away in the air farther than before, from one tree to another.

This avoids some roads that cannot be walked on the ground. Although it does not make an absolute straight line distance, it also saves a lot.

A few minutes later, Shen Lang stopped on a big tree and had already arrived at the place where the flying object landed.

After seeing the situation on the ground, Shen Lang was shocked!

The flying object was so fast that he couldn't even see it clearly, and even quickly surpassed his range of reaction. He went to the top of the tree to see if he could see it clearly, and found that he landed in the distance.

He immediately rushed over, but in a few minutes, and all flew in the trees, if the object flew away, he would certainly be aware.

But now I can see, but there are no flying objects below, and some are just one person!

Look carefully at that it is a woman, very good shape, a purple-red tights, the outline of the exquisite figure is clearly visible.

She is watching what is on the ground.

Shen Lang immediately looked at it, where she is, a huge stone.

In this forest, although such a place is not everywhere, it is not uncommon. For example, when he killed several people in Xiejiachu's family, it was similar.

Although he did not see clearly, he was sure that the person who had just flown would not be a person. The speed at which people would fly so fast would be terrible!

However, it may be that there is a flying magic weapon, which is much more advanced than the one-off use of Chu Yunfei.

Anyway, I finally saw a living person, which made Shen Lang feel a little excited.

It is impossible to see her as an indigenous in this huge infinite forest, that is, it is transmitted from the outside world.

If you can get from inside her mouth and know where to leave, you can “snap” it once, then that’s fine.

Really not, just look at whether she has a medium spirit, he can exchange the resources collected these days with her.

However, from the situation of a dozen of them before, it is very unlikely that they will carry a lot of Lingshi to the dead forest. I hope that the former can succeed.

In order to prevent others from leaving, he quickly fell to the ground and walked straight away.

“Yeah...” Hearing the sound, the woman quickly turned back and saw Shen Lang was shocked.

“Hello. I am not malicious!” Shen Lang stopped and kept himself a kind smile.

Seeing closer is also clearer. This is a pretty young girl who looks pretty. It should be less than twenty.

Even so, the girl still slightly back two steps back, and then suddenly said: “Brothers come! There are savages here!”

When Shen Lang heard the previous sentence, he was trying to see where her brother was, and the result was a “wild man”, which made him quite speechless.

‘How did I become a savage?’

He couldn’t help but look at himself and then he felt embarrassed.

He spent too much time in this forest. Every day, I have to wear the mountains and mountains to avoid the dirty, but I want to find spiritual mines, all kinds of stone gaps, stone walls and mountains to find, dirty clothes and scratch.

There is luggage in his storage space, there are clothes, but since it will be dirty and broken, he will not be too lazy to change, it has been this body, it is now broken!

The water source is not met every day, and the encounter is not the same, it is safe. Only when it is reliable, can you take a shower and wash your hair.

Because of his age, he didn’t have a beard, but after a long time, his hair was much longer than when he came in. Sand dust, leaves and hay, and it is messy.

I just found out that someone is here, rushing over, of course, there is no time to clean up, this is the face.

If you change a place, he should look like a beggar or a tramp.

But in the dead forest, obviously there is no such thing, and it will be considered a savage.

Unexpectedly, it will be considered a savage day, and Shen Lang is quite embarrassing.

But now it has appeared, and there is no water nearby. He has always been a person, of course, he will not carry his bag, all thrown in the storage ring, and now it is impossible to take a bottle of water in front of her face to wash something.

He can only wipe his face with his hands, so that he can identify as clearly as possible. Anyway, the clothes are like this, and they can’t be changed.

After finishing the conversation, she still did not see where her brother was, and the girl stared at Shen Lang with curiosity.

“I am not a savage.” Shen Lang said helplessly.

“What kind of person are you?” The girl asked him if he could communicate and asked.

“I am... normal person.” Shen Lang did not know how to answer her.

Before he knew her identity, he couldn't tell anyone, can't he be a man?

At this time, there was not much noise in the air!

Shen Lang looked up and immediately noticed.

It was the flying object he saw before!

But this flying object seems a bit familiar...

The flying object quickly landed on the boulder, blocking the between the waves and the girl.

From the appearance of it to the landing, Shen Lang looked carefully.

Now it is watching it quickly gather, and then there is a man.

Shen Lang didn't know what to say...

The flying object he saw was not so much a flying magic weapon as a flying armor!

It's not because I've seen it before, but it's common in sci-fi movies.

This can both fly and armor, but after landing, it quickly shrinks and shrinks, and finally becomes his blue tights!

This is a bit subverting the concept of Shen Lang. I thought that I would encounter a comprehension. I didn't expect it to be black technology.

Can you really do it by shrinking the armored aircraft into a tights?

Is the technology so powerful now? Is this... a top secret military technology?

"Brothers look at the wild man but he can talk, he said he is a normal person." Purple red tights girl went to the blue man next to him.

"Who are you?" When the blue man asked, his hand went forward and there was a sharp sword in his hand.

Shen Lang saw it really, this is the extension from his sleeve, probably one of the weapons on the armor.

"I was abandoned here, I can't get out. Then..." Shen Lang sighed and pointed to the body: "It has become like this for a long time."

"What are you doing here?" The blue man did not take back the sword.

"I am so hard to see the living, I hope you can take me out of this forest."

Shen Lang said sincerely, then made a gesture of holding a fist, but looking at their appearance, should not be used to it, and turned into a folded hand, expressing the meaning of "Please".
