

First Strong 2401

Chapter 2401 - Hanze Pearl

The ancestor Yuanshen has already prepared for the opening of the lions of the Shenlang Club, and has already predicted some things. If it can receive it, it can be promised immediately.

When Shen Lang said that he didn't want anything, he felt that there was a pit. When he heard that he had to remember the patriarch, he immediately opposed it.

This is tantamount to not wanting gold, but to the golden finger of the gods who can make stones!

The patriarch is the core of the Hanze mermaid family. It is also the key figure passed down from generation to generation. Normally, they can have a long life span. To a certain extent, even if they train the successors, they are only the stage of exercise and will not understand the core secrets.

In other words, all the secrets of the Hanze mermaid are in the patriarch, and other important members do not know. After the ancestor Yuanshen occupied his body, he was able to understand his memory, but it would not harm his children and grandchildren.

If this is known by Shen Lang, then Hanze is as transparent in front of him!

Obviously it is a thief robber, but also give the other party a map key, this is not a description of the wolf into the room.

"You don't want to be too much! What you want, I can measure it, I can give it, I won't refuse it, but you can't ask for his memory!"

Shen Lang smiled slightly. "If people are going to die, what is the use of memory? I don't want you anything, just want to learn more about the situation of the parties through the memory of the patriarch."

The ancestor Yuanshen believed that Shen Lang had the ambiguity to say this, because at least tens of thousands of worms have already caused the fish people to begin to collapse. If the battle continues, it will be both defeated.

If Shen Lang adds more insects, then they will only die faster, including the patriarch who has been seriously injured!

But he absolutely does not believe that Shen Lang asked the patriarch's memory, just to understand the situation of all parties!

This is absolutely to want to master all the circumstances of Hanze, it is necessary to put the whole Hanze mermaid in one pot.

If it is such an ending, then it would rather blood to the end!

The same is dead, and now it is also possible to pull a bunch of backs, which can be both defeated. If you have mastered all the pros and cons of your own, then it is really one-sided.

“Three beads of coldness! The memory of the patriarch is not negotiable. The result will be that you will let us destroy the family. If we persist in this condition, then today is a prerequisite for death. Three beads of coldness are My biggest bottom line!”

Heaven and earth conscience!

Shen Lang wants the memory of the patriarch. It is really to understand the situation of the ancient cold world. It is only that he is the head of the sand country. He cannot be clearly stated and changed into the situation of all parties.

His hatred with Hanze, that is, because of the dog god, now the dog * has been rescued, and their temples have been turned over, the gods have been ruined, and even the patriarchs have been seriously injured, and it has been completely flattened.

Listening to the words of the ancestor Yuanshen, he really wants to explain it, but unless he reveals his own face, otherwise, the other party absolutely does not believe it, but the more it is darker.

However, “The Pearl of Hanze” sounds like it is really the bottom line. Shen Lang couldn’t help but search for what it is.

He does not have the memory of the patriarch, but he has the memory of the autumn.

As the welcoming guest department, Fengqiu is also the mainstay of management. Although it is not comparable to the patriarch’s authority, it is much higher than the average fisherman.

As long as it is not a top secret, there are memories in Fengqiu.

The Pearl of Hanze, as its name suggests, is a kind of bead-like body from Hanze.

This thing should be regarded as the essence of the heavens and earth. When the ancestors of the mermaid chose to build a settlement here, the mermaid descendants were placed here because of the unique environment of Hanze.

This environment is multifaceted, including the security attributes that are easy to defend and difficult to attack, including the particularity of this water to the mermaid family.

Also included in the beginning of the ancestors, found a kind of heaven and earth essence!

It is precisely because of the existence of this thing that Hanze is so special, let the fish and people live here, and can make the cultivation and evolution more effective.

This kind of thing is deep in the waters of Hanze, and it is not fixed. It will flow. It is not easy to find it.

The original ancestor was a great energy. After the completion of this settlement, it took a long time to trace the essence of the day in the cold, showing the bead shape.

Also named “the pearl of the cold.”

The value of the Pearl of Hanze is huge, and only they know it themselves. They don’t publicize it, and even the general people with insufficient levels are not clear.

Fengqiu is the identity, so I know the Pearl of Hanze, but how many ancestors have harvested in the ancestors, how much was used later, and later the ancestors did not get it. How much is left now, he is not known.

This is the secret that the patriarch can master.

However, Shen Lang is already satisfied!

According to the memory of Fengqiu, this fragrant pearl is a very bad baby, they are still not qualified to see, can be called the treasure of Zhenze.

It seems that the ancestor Yuanshen is willing to come up with three beads of chills, it should be true to their bottom line, and it is better to start the war.

Their deliberation to come to me is a way of conscious communication, the overall speed is very fast, and there is no delay.

Other mermaid tribes are still fighting the tens of thousands of bugs controlled by the waves.

The ancestor Yuanshen is distracted. Now it is on the edge of entanglement. It is necessary to make a decision immediately. If the conditions of negotiation are accepted, then the worm will be withdrawn. If it is not accepted, then it will directly participate in the war!

Shen Lang can roughly analyze such a state, and there is no continued bargaining.

What he wanted was only memory, so there was almost no loss to the patriarch, but he could enrich the understanding of the ancient world.

But this is already impossible. Others will not believe that the compensation for these three beads of coldness is second to none.

Shen Lang suddenly felt a little funny, he felt that asking for a small price, in others to see the lion-style lion's big opening, so also a price close to the bottom line!

If he had the heart to ask for something It's really not necessary to think of the Pearl of Hanze.

Just like the water rippled stick that I just wanted, it is not because the memory of Fengqiu knows that it is a saint, but that the other party uses it, and it can resist the sword of the king, so it is requested.

Now this is a mistake.

“I don’t know what this cold pearl is, don’t lie to me!”

Although he already understands it, he can’t show how it is cheaper, lest the other party change.

“This is the best thing in Hanze!” The ancestor Yuanshen was a bit stunned.

It is also really a bit unbearable. After all, the patriarch’s intra-abdominal injury is not light and needs to be treated as soon as possible, and the longer it is dragged, the more dead and wounded the tribe.

There are so many bugs on the other side, and it will not hurt if you die tens of thousands.

So when I heard that the waves were loose, I immediately took three beads of coldness and sent them directly to Shen Lang.

Chapter 2402 - Give a face

Although the wind has not seen the Pearl of Hanze in the autumn, the mermaid family of Hanze is living here for generations, and it is integrated with this Hanze energy.

Switch to a mermaid in other places – if there is, come here, perhaps not able to withstand the water of the cold.

They can live here and be able to get into the water without being frozen to death, because they have absorbed the energy of this cold from birth.

And this cherished pearl is the essence of Hanze energy.

Shen Lang only read the memory of Feng Qiu, and did not study the martial arts of the Hanze people, but still has a familiar feeling, there is a feeling of attraction.

It seems that it should be wrong.

In order to avoid the other party's remorse and change, Shen Lang is as good as the water rippled stick beforehand. How to use it, how it works, and slowly study it later.

"Since you are so refreshing, I have nothing to say!"

Shen Lang has passed through the gold scarab in his hand, and the light spots that represent all the scarabs, the control of their souls, all drive back to the other side of the invisible door!

The ancestor Yuanshen was also staring at Shen Lang. It still saw the golden scarab held by Shen Lang. It was guessed that it should be the item of summoning communication, but I don't know how to operate it.

Suddenly, a large number of scarabs that had appeared out of thin air disappeared out of nowhere!

The ancestor Yuanshen was relieved a little, and finally the peace talks succeeded.

Just a few moments ago, some ethnic groups have been injured. Fortunately, the time is still short. Under the collapse of their hearts, they are not immediately retort, or they can persist for a while.

All the scarabs, though all disappeared, mean they are alive!

In the consciousness of Shen Lang, the light spot that exists is their soul. When they are killed, the light spot will be destroyed, and he will not be able to send them back to the world there.

So thousands of scarab beetles that died, except for some that fell into the cold, are more on the passage they came from, and they are all by their side.

The mermaids felt very disgusting and they were greatly relieved.

If you continue to fight these worms that are not afraid of killing and killing, they really don't know how long it will last.

When I think of an injury, the most likely result is that these insects are quickly stunned, or a little panicked.

They have just been covered by tens of thousands of bugs, and they don't know what's going on here. There may be a few strong ones that may be of concern.

At this moment, most of the mermaid people think that the patriarch forced the other party to take away the worms. It is very revered for the patriarchs.

However, after such a trip, no one dared to sneak into the waves.

Before I was angry, I wanted to smash people to tear up this enemy. Now I have become sensible.

I am irrational and have to be rational!

If you go up again, the other party can come back with a wave of bugs. At that time, it is a melee, but it disrupts the plan of the patriarch.

The other fishermen, such as the welcoming guest, immediately exchanged their voices, controlled everyone, prepared for the battle, and did not continue.

The ancestor of the ancestor Yuanshen immediately gave an idea to Shen Lang.

“The three beads of cold zeal have already been given to you. You have also got the water rippled stick. I took a thick and bulky legacy. Can you give me some face? Let me have a little dignity in front of these descendants. ”

Shen Lang wants to laugh a little: “They are your descendants, but you are now a patriarch.”

“The patriarch...you have to face too.”

“Then come a daring pearl!”

The ancestor Yuanshen did not respond again, and Shen Lang could feel a resentment.

Shen Lang is not a person who is not close to human feelings. If they did not engage in dog spirit from the beginning, then he can be very friendly.

Or it's normal to have a dog god. After all, it's unclear. As long as he is willing to hand over the dog * after he comes, it will still be very friendly.

The current situation is that he and the dog * have succumbed to the other party and have already paid a heavy price.

The statue was destroyed, the patriarch was wounded, the water rippled red and the three beads of cold...

From which aspect, Shen Lang did not suffer.

But this is the spoils that have been played. It is the backing of countless army of beetles. It is not the friendly side of the other party. He took it with ease!

But just the other party is also begging him, this one is a little effort, he is still willing to help.

“The leader of Hanze, today's event is a misunderstanding. Because my beast has been mistakenly entered into the cold, now it is clear that everyone is hurting each other. If you fight again, it will be bad for everyone. I am willing to work with Hanze. Get along with each other!”

When the ancestor Yuanshen heard Shen Lang publicly speaking this, he could not help but be surprised.

It is privately asking for a wave of face, but if you want to pay another rim of the cold, it is better to be humiliated.

I did not expect that Shen Lang was willing to cooperate and gave a step.

In this way, it is not that it is beaten for compensation, but that each has a step back from each other.

This is much better!

The temple is still there, it is hidden in the cold, and as long as it is brought back, you can regain your heart.

The injury of the patriarch's body can still be repaired.

As long as you have passed this level, after the enemy has gone, how to express and understand is their own business.

I was afraid of the ugly words after the sinking waves, and it quickly hurried to the interface.

“This is the case. If you are the owner of the sand country, you should pay attention to the impact. Otherwise, I don't mind killing you in the country! Please leave Hanze now!”

After it was finished, a wave of hand, immediately in the cold, a burst of water, and soon formed a water station.

The meaning of watching it is to let Shen Lang and the dog  go to this.

“Reassured! I have no time to harm you!”

Seeing the concerns of Shen Lang It quickly sent a message.

This is obvious. It has no time to continue fighting, but to find a way to treat the body of the patriarch, otherwise the consequences will be more serious.

For them at the moment, Shen Lang and the dog  are the gods that need to be sent away. There will be many variables left behind, so they will not play a slippery head in this respect.

Shen Lang immediately recruited, brought the dog god, and went to the water table together.

In the meantime, there is a water curtain in the face of the river, and you can feel a kind of rapid movement.

The mermaid patriarch and all the mermaid have not been able to sense it, and the island where they live is not felt.

What can be sensed is the rapid movement on the surface of the cold.

In a short while, Shen Lang and the dog * felt that the speed of the water platform was slowing down, and then the front was already land, and on the land, a lot of cold fires could be seen.

This is being sent back to the shore!

Chapter 2403 - Shen Lang is also awkward

After Shen Lang and the dog * arrived on the shore, they sent the water platform that they quickly came out, and suddenly disappeared in the waters of Hanze, as if they had never existed.

Because of the memory of Fengqiu, Shenlang still knows a little about this. It is a spell of the Hanze people, that is, the control of water.

That is not a special thing. Shen Lang can also do it with a water lift to hold his effect, but he does not know enough about this cold water.

The difficulty of the first ancestor Yuanshen is to send it out!

Before he went inside, he had already encountered it. This cold waters is a battlefield. Soon you can't see everything behind the shore. Then the data of the walking route inside is probably not referenced. of.

You think that when you go straight, you may actually be in a turn of the corner. You think that in one direction, you may have changed unconsciously. After all, the direction is also a reference.

Therefore, it is possible to send them from the tip of the island to the shore. It is equivalent to taking a shortcut directly from the island in the scope of the cold waters, and a correct way.

Looking back at Hanze on the shore, I couldn't see the margins, like a huge lake, like the boundless sea.

The dog  recalled that when he came here before, he could not help but be a little scared.

Originally, it thought that according to its current strength, no matter which world it is, it can be rampant. Just like on the mainland of the mainland, those great ancestors, it is also doing it.

It is more and more admired for Shen Lang, but also want to prove his wisdom and prove his value.

But now it seems that the wisdom of what, the Terran is still far ahead!

This time, if it wasn't for the swell, it might be held in that crater.

If it has the opportunity to wake up normally, it can still be troubled, but since the patriarch wants to observe it as a test article, it will naturally interfere with manipulation.

Just like scientists on the earth, if you use the beast to do experiments, you will definitely have sedatives, power grids, etc., to ensure that you can control at any time.

The battle in the temple after getting out of trouble is even more exciting.

It is in the world of giant beasts, the gods and beasts. I don't know how long it is used to be high. It is the king who despise the behemoths.

The only great crisis and psychological shadow in his life came from the Guangming Mountain, which was suppressed in the Temple of Light.

The temple of the mermaid, just like the size of the temple, is almost the same as the scale of appearance. I don't know inside, it didn't go into the Temple of Light.

This time, I entered the temple and could destroy it, including finally helping the waves and destroying the gods.

This is a great improvement in self-confidence for the dog god, and the psychological shadow of the light  has completely faded away!

What about God?

This ancestor is not the  of the Hanze mermaid?

The idols also fight directly with them, and that is equivalent to doing a fight with God!

The last time, they couldn't help each other. They could barely escape. In addition to the role of artifacts, they were disdain for them.

This time, they are winning!

Not to mention the main role of Shen Lang, it also shredded the gods and pierced the walls of the temple!

In the end, it is hard to tear a good one according to the  of the patriarch!

As long as it is strong enough, God is just that!

“Where are we going now?”

The dog  is full of confidence now, but it has no idea.

Before it made its own decision, it was completely random and random.

It's just that it's a dog and a dog, and it's a blue bird's fire.

Now that I have encountered Shen Lang, of course, I will not use my own brains again, nor will I try it out. I will follow Shen Lang completely.

Shen Lang is a bit helpless.

“I do not know either.”

“You don’t know?”

The dog  is stunned, and the Shen Lang is getting more and more powerful now. Just fighting the  of the mermaid is also relying on his means and response, and finally wins.

How can I not know where to go now?

“We are looking for Xiaogao and join him. When we come together, it is natural to go back together. But I don’t know Xiao Gao there!”

With this in mind, the dog  will understand.

It was tried before with Shen Lang, and every time it was sent through the box, it was in a different place. It is a colder autumn than they are advanced, and naturally it is in a different place.

If it is regular, say ten or twenty points, in order, or randomly at these points, they may not try it all over.

If it is completely random and completely random, it is possible to transfer to any place, and it is even more embarrassing.

Even if it is the former, they may not have finished the test, and there may be some point that has appeared, that is, the place where the cold autumn appeared, but he went away and looked for it.

Then there is no connection at all.

Shen Lang can find it, it is a way to give a contact. Otherwise, if you want to hit the air, it is very difficult to hit the whole world.

It is even more impossible to accurately lock into this cold and eventually find it.

With its wisdom, it is hard to think about it so much. How to find the cold autumn is really no way.

“I have found the source of this thing...”

Shen Lang put the special effects of the golden mask, as well as the situation of going to the sand country, simply said it to the dog god.

The dog  couldn't help but admire even more!

Shen Lang randomly went to other places, can find it, can save it at the most critical time, it is already very remarkable.

I did not expect that people took the time to go to the sand country, and solved a soul of the ancient  lurking in the mask, and can explore thousands of miles!

This guy... what else is he not okay?

“I have confidence in you, I think you can find the cold autumn!”

The dog  said very firmly to Shen Lang, it is not encouraging, but true belief.

Shen Lang shook his head In this world, the prediction of the wheel of the heavenly wheel is not used. This is a very unfortunate problem. Otherwise, even if there is no contact, he may follow the prediction and walk out. The right way, with the “cold encounter” in the cold autumn.

After leaving the country, his goal is clear, that is, to meet the dog god.

Now that they have successfully merged, the crisis has also been lifted, but on the edge of this cold, they do not know where to look for the cold autumn.

Random is the most terrible!

Even if you now combine the soul mask of the golden mask, you can reach the range of thousands of miles, and it is difficult to search for a world in the carpet!

For example, if he goes east, Gao Hanqiu goes west, or goes north, it will be farther and farther.

Or they are all in one direction, but if they are separated by a thousand miles and they are kept parallel, they can't find it.

The idea before Shen Lang was to find a settlement, because the two of them will have this tacit understanding, and the cold autumn will come here, and certainly will find the settlement.

Chapter 2404 - Why call me a dog god

But now he is in the sand country, and the danger of the dog  in the cold, let Shen Lang think of another problem.

At that time, they came close to the cold autumn. In the back, they did not see the people in front, so they could guess the problem of random transmission.

But I don't know in the early cold autumn!

And because they had encountered danger in the funeral valley, the cold autumn is entirely likely to worry about what danger they encountered in the back, leading to the failure of the plan.

Or the gold coffin, if it can only be transmitted once, then after he has transmitted it, he can no longer come over.

The prerequisite for exploring here is safety! If you can determine the safety of the swell, then only Gao Hanqiu is here, he should be assured.

But I don't know what it is, I might let Gao Hanqiu try to get back!

Gold coffins are unilaterally transmitted, and there is not necessarily a gap in space. Even if there is, it is not necessarily to the side of the funeral valley.

After all, this thing is the saint of the sand country, and the Shenlang is derived from the earth. According to the memory of the king of the world, it is just a space for the return journey to transmit the sacristy.

As for the random effect of the present, it is because it is impossible to locate the sand country, and for them, to return to the ancient cold world, there is a way to return to the sand country.

Gao Hanqiu is definitely not looking for the way to bury the dragon valley, but it may not be able to find other roads!

If you find a space crack and send it to other worlds, even if it is transmitted to the earth, it is very troublesome. I can't contact again, I can't even return to Nakajima.

Now that Shen Lang's sorrow is here, he is not worried about the danger of the cold autumn. No matter strength or wisdom and experience, it is not comparable to dog gods.

Worried is that the difference is wrong!

If you stagger in this world, if you have enough time in theory, you will be able to hit it. But if the yin and yang make the cold autumn enter other worlds, it will be a big problem.

The worst part is that because he doesn't know where he is coming in, he wants to find it now, and he can't start.

"We split up! Anyway, you can find me, I will try my best to be careful later. We are looking for such a place, leaving a mark that can be understood in the cold autumn!"

The dog * originally relied on Shen Lang, but seeing the waves was stunned, and forced it to find a way.

Its level of intelligence is in no way inferior to that of human beings. It will feel that human beings are powerful. In fact, it is only that the waves are particularly powerful.

As a behemoth, it is also the king of a world. Even if many things are not going to be personal, there are still many experiences for thousands of years.

When this suggestion is said, it immediately reminds us of the waves.

That's right!

Make a sign!

As long as the cold autumn is still in this world, even if it is staggered, the more signs are erected, the greater the chance of being hit, and it is even more likely to follow the signs.

This sign is not necessarily a symbol, it can also be a rough map directly!

If you are afraid that the general materials are not enough, you can also get some stones from the local materials. On the stone, you can engrave a more complicated map through the holy armor.

In different places, marking the approximate orientation, and leading the cold autumn to the sand country, there is no problem.

As for the place to be placed, you can be in some particularly conspicuous mountains and settlements like Hanze.

Gao Hanqiu looks for his words in the same way, it is not difficult to run into.

Even if the cold autumn is looking for a way back, it is not easy to find it casually.

In a wilderness without any clues, it is not a normal operation to find a place where people have smoke.

“Dog God! You can do it. Your idea is very reasonable. As long as we are fast enough to make enough signs, the chances of being hit by him will increase greatly.”

Seeing Shen Lang is a bit excited, and he is greatly appreciative of its suggestion. It is not like being casually perfunctory – seeing that he is not in a position to be perfunctory.

The dog  is very happy, which is equivalent to the approval of Shen Lang!

In its mind, Shen Lang has already changed from a previously weak human to an incarnation of strength and wisdom, and can be recognized by Shen Lang, and it is very comfortable.

“Really? Then let’s do it. Right, why call me a dog god?”

Happy to be happy, it still noticed the name of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang could not help but stunned.

Did I call it out?

He has long been used to calling the Emperor’s behemoth as a dog god, but this habit is only in his own heart. When communicating with the dog  consciousness, or when you speak directly, it is still called the emperor.

When there are outsiders, it goes without saying that they are called the Emperor.

Just under an excitement, I accidentally called out the name of my heart.

“Because... I also told you at the beginning that your ancestors were specially trained dogs, so even if you have become very huge, the shape is still like a dog.”

“The Emperor is the customary title of your world. I sometimes call it a good name for your original dog. For a long time, in my mind, you are as powerful as God, and it has helped me a lot.”

“So in my heart, I call you a dog god!”

Shen Lang explained it with sincerity.

This is not a slick, just a beautification. It was originally called a dog god, because it is like a dog, and it is very powerful, a beast-level dog.

In the concept of the king of the behemoth, there is no such thing as a dog, and naturally it will not feel like being degraded.

“Well, very good, I like dog gods!”

After listening to Shen Lang’s explanation, the Emperor’s behemoth was very excited to accept this title.

Because the God of Light, because of the God who has just defeated, makes it feel that it can be called God. This is indeed better than the Emperor and the King.

Since this inadvertently called did not make the dog  resentful, Shen Lang will be relieved, and later called it as the Emperor, the dog  is no problem.

If this plan is feasible, then it is time to hurry. The more signs you erect, the sooner you will meet with the cold autumn.

It is not difficult to get a map with a sacred armor. What needs to be considered now is how to make a form that can be discovered by Gao Hanqiu?

Must be high, must be big, conspicuous, plus words and maps!

However, like Hanze, this is a landmark settlement, but it is a large water area, which is roughly circular. Now they are in a place above the circle, and the cold autumn appears at any point. Can meet Hanze.

In this way, erecting a monument here, the opportunity to come to Hanze in the cold autumn is still very small!

At this time, Shen Lang and the dog gods sensed a strong energy fluctuation in a certain direction!

“Go and see!” Shen Lang said immediately.

Chapter 2405 - Goodbye barbarian

Shen Lang is always wearing a golden mask. This thing is now under his control and there will be no problem.

But it was just here to discuss with the dog  how to meet the high cold autumn, just pay attention to the surrounding situation, and did not pay attention to the situation around thousands of miles.

The wider the scope of attention, the more it can be consumed, even if it can be done. For the attention around, it is purely a defensive alert.

Just after greeting the dog god, Shen Lang's thoughts spread out immediately.

This situation is probably no more than a hundred miles. He and the dog  are both inductive, and no one needs to lead the way.

However, the dog  has become a little bigger body, directly put a wave of Shen Lang on its back, and then quickly go!

Its idea is very simple. Just like the outer layer of the burial dragon valley. If it is responsible for the road, Shen Lang can find and think more confidently.

Shen Lang is a little sweaty...

Because it is more wonderful than the flames in the burial dragon valley, there are many cold and inexplicable rogues in the air.

This determines that the physique can't be too big, or else it will hit it directly, and it is too late to dodge.

Now the dog * is glaring at him, and his physique has changed to the size of a horse. There is no problem, the speed is fast, and the dodge is flexible.

But the feeling for Shen Lang is to ride the dog!

If it is bigger than an elephant, it is the feeling of sitting on a monster, without the absurdity of riding a dog.

But that is only a moment of feeling, after all, the dog * is not a normal dog.

Without his need to hurry, his thoughts locked the scene one step ahead.

Such a distance, now his own knowledge can also be sensed, with the soul of the golden mask, you can see the farther situation at a glance.

On the side of Lake Hanze, dozens of miles away, there is now a team!

Suddenly found that Shen Lang is a bit surprised.

Because it is like those trolls – the extraterrestrial demon!

This mysterious race, no matter where it is, is endless. If you encounter a large number of people here, Shen Lang will pay great attention to it.

However, under the careful study, the difference is felt. Although they are also giants with green face and fangs, the whole body is red and red, so that Shen Lang thinks of a race that he has ever seen – barbarian!

The barbarian who was seen at the Yungong Holy Land at that time was two or three meters long. It was far from being comparable to the Kuafu, nor was it a mountain or a troll. It can only be said to be a tall man.

At that time, because everyone was suppressed as an ordinary person, the physical advantage of the barbarian was very obvious.

Now these fine looks, like barbarians, but they are much larger than the barbarians I saw last time. They are basically a dozen meters tall and the red skin is more obvious.

The energy fluctuations just sensed are from them.

As the scope of the Shenlang soul tour expanded, it was discovered that some barbarians ran in a farther direction!

Those heads are about two or three meters.

The extraterrestrial demon will grow up, and the stronger it will become more and more tall.

From the point of view of the scarab, the higher the level, the higher.

So now the observations let Shen Lang predict that they are barbarians. These are more than a dozen meters of barbarians, perhaps even more powerful among barbarians.

For example, two or three meters are ordinary soldiers, to four or five meters can be the captain, to a dozen meters is the generals and the like.

Barbarian, barbarian...

The last time I saw the barbarian was in the holy place of Yungong. At that time, combining Weiner Star, Lingxi God and Barbarian, Shen Lang boldly guessed that Yungong Holy Land is a existence that connects different worlds.

Now, I saw the barbarian in this ancient cold world. Is the Weiner Star and Lingxi God country here?

Or is this just a similar barbarian, and there are barbarians in other worlds?

When I think of the barbarians, I think of the Weiner Stars and the Spirits.

Naturally, I also thought of the winged sister Carlo of Lingxi.

Then Shen Lang's thoughts drifted a little more, and I thought of a lot of things that I didn't think of together.

When he arrived at the top of the Cloud Palace on the same day, he was stunned, and then went in with Carol, and as a result, he was suppressed as a mortal.

Then Carol was attracted by some murals on the porch.

Those murals are magical, and the waves are attracted to them. They almost hooked people, and he took Carol out.

At that time he looked at it and the mural seemed to describe some ancient myths.

The meaning of specific expression is unclear. It is a story, and it is also a simple context. It is based on guessing, and there may even be many interpretations.

But one thing he remembers is very clear, that is, on those murals, there are many ethnic creatures!

Ordinary Terran, is a reference comparison. At that time, the giants that had been seen and remembered had been seen, and those who had not seen it at that time, but had heard of the legendary dragons, including those who had wings in front of them.

Do you have a lot of correspondence? For example, the Qingqiu fox, such as these barbarians, and the mermaids here in Hanze, perhaps the sand country is also one of the aliens.

The place known as the Yungong Holy Land suddenly became more mysterious.

These memories and associations were only completed in an instant. The main attention of Shen Lang is still placed in the current situation.

The speed of the dog * is very fast, and the speed of those barbarians is very fast!

They can sense the barbarian people, and as they approach, the barbarian also discovers them, gazing at the direction they are coming.

And those two or three meters of barbarians, also rushed to into the group.

Then Shen Lang found another problem!

These two or three-meter-high barbarians, when they join the barbarians who are more than a dozen meters high, their bodies are rapidly expanding and expanding, and they have become taller than a dozen meters!

Everything is clear.

Just two or three meters high they showed up, in fact, like the dog gods now, they are all for the convenience of the flexible caves in the cold, so as not to be too big for the body to flash in the air!

Similarly, Shen Lang also wants to understand the previous situation. Those who meet two or three meters high in the Yungong Holy Land will not be weak, but may encounter the appearance of the body after the suppression!

For example, those who are in the spiritual kingdom of the gods, Carlos, he personally saw wings. In the cloud palace on the top of the mountain, there is no wing in the spiritual kingdom, and their human race is like a mortal, unable to use a little energy and Mental strength and so on.

Now those red giants of more than ten meters high are the normal body of the barbarians, but they are only on the edge of Hanze, and there is no flash of fire, which restores the status of the body!

Chapter 2406 - Friend or foe

Before the arrival of Shen Lang, the situation of the other party has been completely confirmed.

The barbarian who has arrived, plus the barbarians who have come over, there are a total of fifty-four!

He is now sensing a very large range, and it is already possible to determine that there is nowhere else.

These fifty-four barbarians apparently came from far away, and will come to this cold land, without knowing it, certainly not passing.

For Shen Lang, this will be two situations, and the two conditions are different for them.

One is the barbarian to dry up.

There is nothing wrong with them, they can watch the fun.

The other is a friend of Hanze.

Hanze certainly has the welcoming guest department. In their unique way, they pay far attention to Shen Lang and the dog god. Only when they both confirm that they have gone far, can they be assured.

If the barbarian is their ally and the strength is strong enough, then maybe it will come out directly!

And because the world's population – living things are too few, so see them two, barbarians have first shown hostility!

Soon, the dog  rushed to the vicinity of the waves, everyone is on the edge of Hanze, there is no cold fire nearby.

“What are you?”

Among the barbarians, there is a leader who looks like a direct drink. Fifty-four have not arrived yet, and they have come one after another.

They didn't have one more, they also gained a point of strength, while Shen Lang had only two of them, which is also noticeable.

“You are a barbarian?”

When this question was just asked, Shen Lang was secretly stupid.

Just because I felt the situation here, I looked at these red giants, so I thought of the barbarians I saw in the Yungong Holy Land.

Then it is combined with the information of the Yungong Holy Land to associate and analyze.

This is not a detour!

This is in the ancient cold world, and he already has the memory of the king of the world in the ancient Han Dynasty. Although it may be vacant for thousands of years, some common sense should be unchanged.

On the other hand, he has the memory of Hanze's welcome to the wind and autumn. Fengqiu is not as close to the patriarch as the internal secrets, but the outside is his work, and common sense things will know more.

Now he immediately searched for the memory of these two aspects, and immediately got a clear understanding of these "red fat people".

Barbarian!

Although it is not certain whether they are homologous to the barbarians seen in the Yungong Holy Land, they are indeed barbarians.

The barbarian should also be a big alien, and the specific subdivision is different. Like the mermaid family here in Hanze, there may be different mermaid families in other places.

Barbarians also have their own settlement, and their place is called Shibuya. They are a large number, and their characteristics are powerful.

Because the environment in the ancient cold world makes communication difficult, the settlement itself represents a very good resource, and each other is also wary of others.

Therefore, which side of the party is trying to keep their own information as secret as possible; but at the same time, it tries to understand the information of other parties.

Because everyone does this, it is difficult to find out what you want to inquire, and you can't believe it. Generally, they are summed up over a long period of time. Basically, they are directly or indirectly used to deal with information.

In Shaguo and Hanze, it is known to Shibuya. It is also known about the appearance and characteristics of the barbarian, but there are not many things to be deepened.

But to be sure of this, Shen Lang is enough.

The barbarian obviously has some simple understanding of the sand country. Just like Fengqiu can recognize the golden mask, the leader of the barbarian, after careful observation, also met this golden mask.

“The Lord of the Sand State?”

Originally, he said “What are you?”, and now recognizes the mask of the Lord of Sand, and his attitude has changed a lot.

Other barbarians are not necessarily recognized, they are all eye-catching, and it is a bit surprising to hear this.

Perhaps in their hearts, they are also re-analysing the meaning of Shen Lang.

“I am passing by here.”

Shen Lang faintly said that since the identity of the king of Shaguo is so good, it will of course continue to be used.

The chill of the sand country is also very far away. If you pass by, they naturally do not believe it. Especially when they arrived here, they just happened to pass by, it is too fake!

The barbarian leader couldn't help but sneer.

“Lord of the kingdom of sand, I am thinking of you as the owner of one party. Why is it so hypocritical? Where are you going to go, will you have to pass by here? You must pass by, never pass by, we just happened to pass by when we arrived. Here?”

Shen Lang slightly frowned.

He originally wanted to use the identity of the king of the country to get along with the barbarians. In this case, perhaps they can cooperate with them, so that if they see the cold autumn, they can bring a message.

Although they may make them suspicious, but a number of “locals” come, the chance of encountering the cold autumn will increase a lot.

But when this is said, how do you feel as if they are the helpers of Hanze?

This is one of his previous guesses, the barbarian is coming to the appointment!

“You all have the breath of the cold waters in your body. It is clearly just coming out of Hanze!”

Immediately another barbarian screamed.

Don’t look at their big red giants, they are very careful.

This is not enough to push the waves. They really just came out soon, and it is normal for them to send them out. It is a water table with a breath of cold water.

“It seems that your barbarians are coming to Hanze to seek revenge, we are with Hanze...”

Shen Lang is trying to say, “We just had a job with Hanze and there was a voice that interrupted him.

“Shaguo and Hanze are peaceful and friendly, and the Lord of Sand Kingdom has just been a guest in my cold. What does this have to do with your barbarian? Do you want to intercept our guests?”

As the sound came, there was also a person who appeared on the waters and walked on the water platform.

This is what I have seen before. Hanze is a fisherman at the level of the welcoming guest. He should be lurking in the dark to pay attention to the situation here. He just found an entry point. Before Shen Lang wants to make clear the situation, he will put it in advance. Shen Lang pulled to the position of their allies.

Originally, the barbarians were skeptical about Shen Lang. All aspects showed that this was an ally of Hanze. Now the mermaid of Hanze came out and confirmed it.

“Wind! We are coming today, just to trade the same items with Hanze! We are also your guests, don’t invite us in, but also invite the Lord of the Sands. What does this mean? Treat us as enemies?”

The barbarian leader shifted his attention to the past with a clear reprimand.

Chapter 2407 - Waiting for the price

When Shen Lang heard the words of the barbarian leader, he immediately added more information. It seems that they should have dealt with it first.

But this is obviously not a transaction that both parties are satisfied with, more like the barbarian wants to buy something, and Hanze is reluctant!

Just this wind meeting, it is no longer the words to pull him, it is a little fox fake tiger Wei, first pull them two, confuse the barbarian opponent.

This situation makes Shen Lang feel a bit interesting.

Originally, he was eager to find the cold autumn. This is to find out that there is movement, so come and understand the situation first.

After seeing the barbarian, it was connected to the Yungong Holy Land, and later thought of borrowing them to help contact the cold autumn.

So at the moment, I also have the heart to stay and see the excitement.

Maybe sharpening the knife without cutting the wood?

Help Hanze?

Why?

Just everyone is an enemy!

If you help the barbarian, there may be value. Compared with the fishermen, the barbarian obviously has more opportunities to run outside.

Thinking of this, Shen Lang took the initiative to open.

“Hanze’s friend, don’t say this, do you really think of us as a VIP? You interrupted me, wouldn’t you want to confuse the barbarian friends?”

When the words came out, the atmosphere at the scene was subtle.

The wind will be very embarrassing. I originally wanted to borrow the momentum of the sand country. Anyway, he just paid attention to it and saw that they did not have a relationship with the barbarian. Even the barbarian made a speech against him, which is available.

I didn’t expect to be face to face!

On the barbarians, not only the leader, but everyone showed a mocking smile.

“It turned out to be such a VIP! Sure enough, the hospitality of Hanze is quite special. The owner of the sand country, our Suigu barbarian, and the peace of the country, welcome the head of the country to visit Shibuya!”

The enemy of the enemy is a friend.

This simple truth, the leader of the barbarian is also understandable, so the attitude immediately changes again, showing clearly to Shen Lang.

The wind will be secretly complaining.

Of course, the borrowing can't be borrowed. The plan he just made is to influence the barbarian first, and then immediately secretly conveyed to Shen Lang, and promised him the benefits and let him play with him.

However, he did not have time to go, Shen Lang directly exploded, although not completely burst, but has confirmed that he just said is a lie.

"Ming people don't say slang, Hanze mermaid and Shibuya barbarian, are you probably not a simple deal?"

The sentence of Shen Lang said that both sides looked at him, but did not mean to speak.

Obviously, it is a matter of interest. In this respect, they both have a tacit understanding and are unwilling to disclose more to Shen Lang!

"I don't care what you trade, I don't care what your bottom line is, I will say it."

When Shen Lang's attention was fully concentrated, Shen Lan continued to speak out later.

"I, with my beast and my friends, can be a loyal ally to any of you!"

The wind will immediately sneak up, which is clearly a smash!

It's not just bonfires, it's just a bid, and it's not said "Whoever gives more benefits, I will help who!"

On the barbarians side, watching the eyes of Shen Lang is also complicated.

They can come to fifty-four, because they must be prepared to be more adequate because of the away game. Even so, there is no grasp of victory.

The sum of the kings of the sand kings and the beasts may help them greatly.

But to listen to this, I want to wait for them to come together, and see who's offer is higher...

In fact, the barbarians are also uncomfortable with such people. But the key is that it can be used now, which is worth using.

However, after Shen Lang finished speaking, neither of them spoke, but looked at each other.

Obviously, Shen Lang did not privately discuss the discussion, but publicly revealed his posture, that is, they want them to compete with each other.

To compete, of course, it depends on the opponent's card.

If the opponent plays the card first, there is still a chance for him to cope. Change to be your first out, it will be cheaper.

"It seems that the friends on both sides don't want me to be a loyal ally. It's a pity that I am ready. Any more! Let's trade between you and do it purely as a passerby. Look at the fun here. "

Both of them are waiting for the other party to offer the price first.

I did not expect to wait for the price, the price of the smashing Shen Lang, but want to stand by!

This time, both sides are anxious.

It represents the wind meeting of Hanze, and it is witnessed before the big bang. The owner of this sand country is able to summon countless worms, which is a very large-scale attack.

If there are tens of thousands of bugs, perhaps the fate of these dozens of barbarians will be eaten one by one.

Now Shen Lang chooses to stand by and watch, in fact, is waiting to sell a better price!

The barbarians are still strong at this moment. If they are frustrated, it is impossible to move from Shibuya.

At that time, the ready-made helper, even if the price was higher, had to be used.

And when the opponent has already used it, then it will be impossible to win it, and it will miss the opportunity.

The barbarians are also the same idea, no matter what the sand country is with Hanze, but the benefits are benefits!

When they hit the Hanze mermaid, in order to avoid the disaster, the other party will definitely invite the sand country to help, and it will be even harder to pull it over.

Suddenly, both of them offered a price to Shen Lang!

Only two people are very tacit understanding, did not openly say it, so as not to be understood by the other party, but directly to Shen Lang.

“Respected Lord of the Kingdom of Sand, we are a credible race. As long as you speak, we will be prepared. The other is a barbarian, the most unruly race, the risk is too great.”

Such a persuasive set of words Shen Lang directly ignored. If you ask for help, you must have the awareness of asking for help. Don't think about being a grandfather!

The barbarian leader also gave a condolence to Shen Lang.

“The Lord of the Sand State, if you have the heart, we can work together to overwhelm this land of coldness! Our Shibuya is far away from here, farther away from the sand country, and naturally will not want to encroach on it. In the future, it will be your territory!”

Compared with the style of the wind, the barbaric leader is more practical.

It is very attractive to destroy all the Hanze mermaids.

It is a pity that he encountered Shen Lang, who saw the broken waves of all their small ninety-nine.

He is not the owner of the real sand country. He does not need to play such a territory for the sand country. What he needs is a thing to take away!

The three did not speak, and each other understood what they were doing.

The wind will start the second round!

Chapter 2408 - Mutual calculation

Because they are conscious communication, they don't know each other's price for Shen Lang.

But if you don't talk at all, you naturally understand that you are negotiating.

There is no advantage in the conditions that the wind will just open because his level is not high enough to directly promise anything. When Shen Lang opened the conditions, he also reported it.

He "listens" to the conditions of the barbarian against the swell, but by observing the expressions of both sides, he can still guess a little.

The barbarian must have opened a very good condition immediately, so that Shen Lang would not care about him.

The attitude of the barbarian is already very obvious. If you want to win over the waves, it is entirely possible to use them as a bargaining chip!

This means that you don't need to pay any cost yourself, you can win a master.

Realizing this, the wind will immediately offer the second round.

“The Lord of Sand State, we were a little misunderstood before, but the patriarch and you are also reconciled. If you are willing to help us to kill these barbarians, we are willing to pay the same conditions!”

The wind was a bold decision.

He knew that the patriarch must have paid the price to let the other party withdraw the squad that had covered the sky and sent them away directly.

But he doesn't know the specifics, only knows that it will definitely touch the other side!

So as long as you pay the same conditions, I believe that you can move again.

As long as these dozens of barbarians can be annihilated, it will be worthwhile to relieve the crisis and gain a lot of money.

“Do you pay the same conditions? Do you know what conditions your patriarch gave me?”

“I don't know the specifics, but I can guarantee that as long as you promise, we can give another one!”

Although he felt a bit of a degrading attitude, he still insisted.

“Your patriarch gave me three beads of cold, what guarantee do you have?”

The water of the cold water that supported the wind, could not help but shake it. Although it was not obvious, it was also shown, which directly affected his state of mind.

Three beads of coldness!

Not to mention three, it is the pearl of the cold, it is something that the wind will not dare to think about.

That is the treasure of the mountain in Hanze, how can it be given?

His first reaction was to not believe that it was true. He suspected that Shen Lang had inquired about Hanze's situation and said that he was fooling him.

But when I think about the situation at the time, it seems that it is really like that.

At that time, faced with such a large army of insects, the patriarch was seen by both of them, there is no way to lead them, there is no way to help.

The patriarch was injured!

The final change is undoubtedly a condition of humiliation.

It was a condition of humiliation when he arrived, but he did not expect it to be so serious!

Now, not to mention that he can't decide, even if he has this permission, he will not decide to give three beads of cold!

Originally, he was going to overweight, and he was able to impress each other's chips directly. They had just had experience, which is an advantage that barbarians do not know.

Now it is direct despair, and the condition is too high, so that he has no idea what to change.

The leader of the barbarian also noticed their changes. Shen Lang did not respond to him. It must have been a new condition for Hanze!

He is now blaming others for anyway. Anyway, you don't need the barbarian to come up with something, and immediately continue to draw the pie!

"The sand country is also a fertile land. The owner of the sand country may not see this cold land. But we will take the cold together and do not need this broken place, but you can bring all the wealth accumulated by Hanze for thousands of years. !"

“Even if they don’t look at their wealth, they can take all the mermaid as slaves! What we barbarians want is just a little bit, everything else belongs to you!”

He added this to make Shen Lang look a bit stunned.

Don’t look at some barbarian red giants, still very careful, know the timely price, and not afraid of a lot of benefits go out!

This is courageous and courageous.

Of course, he himself will not believe the words of the barbarian leader, not because the wind will say that the barbarian is unreliable, but that everyone has no basis for trust!

Like the barbarians, Hanze is the same.

Both sides are now just trying to pull him as a hitter. As long as they achieve their goals, everything else can be said.

If he does not suffer a little injury at that time, or maintains an absolute strength, then the other party can naturally be rewarded. Anyway, the goal is achieved, and it is not lost.

If he is injured and injured, then I am embarrassed and want to pay? I will definitely give them both first!

Shen Lang is not a newcomer, of course, will not be fooled by such words.

He is completely neutral, and he can help anyone. It depends on who gives more benefits, but this must be the actual benefit of the first-hand, otherwise, of course, he is a fisherman, watching them fight.

“The two gave me promises to pay, but no one came up with a real thing, I have no choice but to help. You continue, we just pass by to see the excitement!”

Just now they talked about the condition of transmitting ideas, but now it is a direct opening so that everyone can hear his attitude.

This made the two sides a little disappointed, but it was a little relieved.

It is disappointing to not be able to win one side, but at least not to the enemy side.

However, now that he is such a third party to watch the fun here, they are both uncomfortable.

No one is stupid, Shen Lang can think of it, they can also think of it!

Look at the excitement here, if they lose both sides, then you can go straight out and get cheaper.

Just send the idea to Shen Lang, on the one hand for confidentiality, on the other hand, to avoid directly tearing the face.

The current situation is a bit subtle.

The leader couldn't help but look at the wind.

They have their problems, whether it is strong buy or sell, or other grievances are their two sides. Naturally, I don't want to do both to lose both of them.

And they haven't had a torn face before, and there is room for manoeuvre.

When two people look at the past, it is a kind of tacit understanding, and then naturally it is the exchange of consciousness.

The exchange of consciousness is very fast. Basically, they have had a lot of exchanges in the time of looking at their eyes, and they have reached some kind of agreement.

Then, their eyes were on the side of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang was speechless at once.

Originally prepared to fight for the fisherman's profit, I did not expect that they are also shrewd, first partner to kill him this fisherman!

I just said the benefits of the three beads of coldness to the wind. At the moment, in the eyes of both of them, it is a big fat sheep.

No matter what the barbarian wants to buy, it is for the benefit. It can be combined with Hanze to grab a big fat sheep. When the interests are divided, they will focus differently. Maybe their transactions will go smoothly.

Chapter 2409 - Yangmou

"It doesn't look good, they seem to want to start with us first."

Don't say that the waves are gone, it is the dog gods found out!

"Then we are welcome, kill them all!"

Shen Lang secretly sneered, he can guess that the wind will definitely reveal his information to the barbarian, let the barbarian covet.

But certainly did not say that he can summon the scarab, and did a lot of work in Hanze, the purpose is to want to kill by knife!

Borrow him with this knife and kill the barbarian!

At the same time, I also use the knife of the barbarian to kill him!

Hanze, who is represented by the wind, will definitely not do his best. He will want to make him and the barbarian lose both!

Everyone is not stupid. Everyone wants to be the best for themselves. I hope that the other two parties will lose both sides and they will be cheap.

The dog * is instructed to get the waves, and he is excited to try.

Before fighting with the patriarch, how long did it take to fight, let Shen Lang control the situation. When the mermaids came over, they still wanted to kill them. As a result, Shen Lang summoned countless worms.

There are two people here, and it has a chance to do it.

When the wind looked at the side of the wind, in the cold waters behind him, there was soon a mermaid.

These mermaids are big tails when they are in the water, and it seems that they can help them swim faster.

But when the body came out of the water, it closed the tail and became a pair of feet.

The number of these fish people is also fifty or sixty. It seems that they are specially assembled to deal with barbarians. They are all fish scales and have various weapons in their hands.

Although under the command of the Winds, everyone faced the Shenlang and regarded Shenlang as a hostile target.

However, because of the previous encounters, they still have a little psychological shadow. I don't know when Shen Lang will summon the army of insects.

However, before the condition of the temple, they all knew it, and they didn't need how the wind would move, and they were extremely hostile to Shen Lang.

Fifty-four of the barbarians have arrived at this shore. They used to face the wind, and naturally they are unequal allies.

But now Hanze mermaid show its strength, it is balanced.

If the two sides add up, there will be more than one hundred teams.

The mermaid family is also large and small, and the barbarian is a red giant with a height of more than ten meters. Such a hundred people are also pulling out a great momentum, quite a bit of a thousand horses.

Compared with the dog god, Shen Lang is very small.

“The Lord of the Sand State, not our Shibuya for you, we need to buy the Pearl of Hanze from Hanze, but the wind will say that the only remaining three cold pearls have been stolen by you!”

The leader of the barbarian spoke, and it caused Hanze to see all the mermaid.

“We have the necessary use. If you can give up, we are grateful to you, and the country will win the long-lasting friendship of our barbarians!”

Shen Lang pays attention to the expressions of all of them, and the face of the wind becomes very ugly. The other mermaid eyes are staring at the barbarian, then staring at him.

The news is naturally that the wind has just sent consciousness to the barbarians to know. What he wants is to attract the barbarians to deal with the waves.

But I did not expect the barbarian to speak out publicly!

As a result, other uninformed mermen are already aware of this.

Just as he was shocked and desperate to hear the news, it was a huge humiliation!

The enemy came to Hanze, ruined the ancestral temple of the mermaid family, and ruined the ancestor statue. Finally, the patriarch was not allowed to pay the treasure to the other party, in exchange for him to retreat the worms.

This is of course a very wrong thing.

Originally the patriarch was alone, the wind would know, and more than one person would bear.

This kind of humiliation and ugliness can certainly not be promoted. He will tell the barbarians that they want to take advantage of this.

If you can take back the Hanze Pearl, let this treasure lead to the defeat of the king of the country and the barbarians.

At that time he was a great credit!

As long as the barbarian and the king of the country of the country can be killed in the end, there will be no external ugliness.

Now, things haven't started yet, they have already spread. Let the dozens of people on the scene know the humiliating scene!

The barbarian leader is slightly proud.

The wind will want to use him, and he wants to let them fight with Shen Lang. He can certainly guess. But they were originally coming for the Pearl of Hanze, which is what Hanze refused to sell.

So no matter whether it is true or false, he can't ignore it.

The wind will be a private letter to let him know, but he will open it directly. This is a conspiracy.

If the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand really owns it and is obedient to the situation and is willing to let it out, it is naturally the best result.

If you don't want to, at least he can confirm whether he really owns it.

If it is really a big fight, it will be calculated again.

After this time, the atmosphere at the scene became more subtle.

The wind will be embarrassing at this moment. In the eyes of the fishermen, they are not aware of such important things. He is speaking to outsiders and even to the enemies who commit crimes. It is simply ugly!

In addition, the angry hatred of the fishermen against Shen Lang has once again been upgraded.

These fierce and savage barbarian red giants, while maintaining their momentum, are also rational.

The leader was breaking the news, and his eyes were on Shen Lang, and he did not put down the attention of the mermaid.

You don't have to wait for Shen Lang to admit, the embarrassment and dissatisfaction of the wind, and the anger of other fish people, gave him a definite answer!

Although he still does not understand the specifics, the owner of the sand country must have entered the cold and has had friction with Hanze.

No matter what way it is done, it is very likely that you have really got the Pearl of Hanze!

However, he did not believe that the only three enchanting beads of Hanze had the Lord of the Shah, and if so, the wind would not be so calm before.

Now that you have a certain confirmation, you can do it!

Naturally, they will not underestimate Shenlang Although the number is small, it is the owner of the sand country, and it will not be inferior to dozens of fish people.

The barbarian even thinks that they all together can not get it. At this time, it is necessary to unite Hanze.

Work together and use each other!

"It's not stealing, it's what they gave me to the Hanze patriarch!"

For his public conspiracy, Shen Lang can be denied. As long as the problem is deducted to the wind, it will make them suspicious.

But why should he deny it?

Isn't this a very good thing?

Before, the ancestor Yuanshen asked him to take care of a subordinate, so he did not burst out. Now that the mermaid himself broke out, he is certainly happy to show off his achievements!

Of course, the foundation of showing off is the strength that is strong enough. If you are sure that you can control the whole game, you will dare to show off, otherwise you will still have a low profile.

Chapter 2410 - Who do you think you are

The words of Shen Lang are said to be in vain!

Although it didn't really make a sound, it was basically such an effect.

More than 50 barbarians, listening to it is not convincing, incredible, the king of the country is stronger, and it is almost the same level as the patriarch of Hanze?

There are many restrictions in the place where you enter Hanze. And people are fighting at home, how can they be put on the treasure?

They have more than fifty barbarians, and they are a large team. They are elites of barbarians, but there are no contemporary patriarchs of barbarians.

So now facing the level of the wind, they can be fierce. If they meet the patriarch of Hanze, they will also fear three points.

The same is true for the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand. It is necessary to unite the strengths of both sides before it is possible to start. Otherwise, it is extremely risky.

He said that the Hanze patriarch took the initiative to offer three beads of coldness?

The mermaid people of Hanze, when they heard this, were very angry and hateful, and once again skyrocketed, almost to the edge of the explosion!

This is simply too deceiving!

It has just been heard from the barbarians that the wind will say that it is already an irresistible humiliation to be stolen by the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand. Now he actually said that the patriarch was offered to him!

This is the humiliation of the patriarch who ruined their temple statues and took them to the treasure. It is unbearable!

If there is no experience with the army of insects, they should directly follow the identity and Shen Lang.

I am still holding back, because I have to listen to the arrangement of the wind, and I have also looked at the wind and waited for his instructions.

It was already a very shameful thing on the island inside Hanze. Now, in front of outsiders, being humiliated is even more embarrassing.

The face of the wind will become more ugly at this time, he did not want to become like this!

“The Hanze patriarch gave it to you? It doesn’t sound too likely. Will it be cheated? Can you borrow it?” The barbarian leader immediately got together.

He said that it is impossible, but it is specifically emphasized once, which makes the face of the Hanze fisherman people hot!

At this moment, they are eager to kill both the Shen Lang and the barbarians in order to prevent the secret from leaking out.

Of course, everything depends on strength.

As for the strengths revealed before Shen Lang, relying on their dozens of fish people, they will not be opponents. Only when the barbarian first goes to the cannon fodder can he be able to take revenge.

“What are you doing? Are you qualified to let me show it to you? Let the patriarch of your barbarian come to me before he can speak!”

Shen Lang sneered, did not give this barbarian a little face.

This turned out to be the ugly face of this barbarian leader...

He has a very good tone of attitude, although he did not expect Shen Lang to really come out, but also want to try it, by the way, look at the reaction of Hanze people.

I did not expect Shen Lang to directly swear at him.

This is no problem in itself. From the status of status, the highest leader of the Saudi state is known as the king of the world in the sand country, and the outsider is called the king of the sand country. The highest one is the patriarch.

From another point of view, even if you are called the king of the world, it is also the nickname of your people. For outsiders, that is, the boss of the sand country, there is no direct relationship with me.

It is polite to call the Lord of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and maintain a respect. Being reprimanded like this, they are not happy.

Although the barbarians are calm and rational, they are like the momentum they show, and their temper is still relatively large.

The leader's face was ugly, but the barbarians of other people couldn't help it!

“What are you doing? Give the face a call to the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand. If you don't give face, you are a sand sculpture!”

“The area of the projectile sand, also dare to call the country? You sand country can not stand a blow in front of our barbarians, believe it or not, we will push that sand city directly to you!”

“Hand over the beads of the cold, we can spare you a life, or else, today Hanze is the place where you are broken!”

These barbarians screamed in a slap in the face, and some of them were not so flexible, they just made a roar!

Suddenly there was a roar of anger, and the momentum became even more crazy, but they still had some discipline. Without the permission of the leader, they did not directly start.

The wind will finally breathe a sigh of relief!

The barbarian publicly asked, and Shen Lang broke open publicly. This is the worst ending. It is the face of the Hanze people.

Now the arrogant posture of Shen Lang, successfully angered the barbarian, this is the result he wants!

Such a good opportunity, of course, he can not miss it. At this time, it will not add to the igniting of the wind, but when?

“The Lord of the Sand Kingdom! You are too arrogant! This is the strongest of Shibuya No. 2, the elder of the barbarian Meng Hao! You actually said that people are what? It is too much to put people in the eyes!”

The wind will now be the same as the former barbarian leader Meng Yu. It seems that the initiative to stand up for solidarity, in fact, is to take his name to emphasize it again.

Just the elders of Meng Hao have resisted the words of Shen Lang, but now they are stressed once again, they can't help it.

Now he not only represents the barbarian, but also hangs his personal name. If you can't go down with the waves, it is also a matter of losing face.

“Meng Mengda elders, barbarian friends, you don't have to worry! Since you came to Hanze, it is the guest of Hanze, our mermaid family will fight hard and will protect your thoughtfulness!”

The next slogan of the wind will ignite the fire!

“Roll! Who needs your mermaid?”

“Who are the barbarians afraid of!”

“Dry them!”

When even some barbarians clamored had entered the state of battle, but they still waited for the command of the leader of the elders.

“Let's go first!”

The Wind Festival shouted, and then waved, and immediately there was a large amount of water in the cold, and went in the direction of Shenlang.

He took the lead, just like the two sides of the confrontation had a gun fire, and immediately detonated!

Those barbarians, who were waiting for instructions, now have the wind and the mermaid to get ahead of it, and they are uncomfortable.

Their hands-on is tantamount to turning the just slogan into a fact. By then, it can be said that they have protected the barbarians.

These barbarians have not seen the mermaid family, how can they accept their asylum? That is a shameful joke!

When a lot of chills are pressing, the barbarian is also rushing out!

With one take the lead, others will follow up immediately, and the barbarian will attack Shen Lang and the dog  together!
