

First Strong 2451

Chapter 2451 - Misunderstanding upgrade

I feel that Shen Lang is beyond the imagination and makes the dog  more confident.

And it was originally a lonely wilderness in the wilderness of the cold, the time is boring. Now there is a clear set of goals in front of them, and naturally it is different.

The barbarian is speeding up, and it is also accelerating!

So even the saws are not counted, just the dog gods are getting closer and closer.

A group of barbarians, on the other hand, can be more excited when they have goals, and they are clearly chased, which is much more stressful than the beginning.

It feels like the one person and the beast are getting closer, a little bit, and a little more, their heart is sinking and sinking.

Under the deployment of Meng Pu, the tribe who got his “too” was arched to the forefront. Although it has not yet sacrificed everyone’s situation, everyone has left the best escape seat for him.

Of course, the distance that can be gradually pulled back later, if not all of them stop and desperately block, then the partner in front will lead at most a few tenths of a second.

But as long as people have not yet reached a desperate situation, there will always be a little hope. If the enemy has not yet arrived, there will be no preparation for sacrificing themselves like Meng Hao.

When the distance is close to a few hundred miles, the pressure of the barbarian is the greatest.

When you get closer to the hundred miles, it is like a dying heart, but you have to settle a lot, and you will wait for your life.

The dog gods have no communication with them, and they have received the advance notice from Shen Lang. Don't conflict with them, just walk along the same path.

So when I was close, I didn't stop.

The barbarian looked at them so close, and did not mean to circumvent, and the last hop hope was gone, this is directed at them!

At this time, it is necessary to come up with the spirit of sacrifice. There are no mermaid patriarchs behind and say that you must let at least one escape!

In a moment, the barbarians who had been running wildly stopped all of them quickly, and then faced the dog  that rushed over.

Meng Hao wanted to let them stop, but the dog  felt that they stopped, and immediately sprinted and walked straight through the side.

Shen Lang does not need to deliberately avoid the detour. It refers to the whole big route. The specific details are the barbarians who walked through, nor will they be exactly the same as before.

The ground is not fixed on specific roads, they are a large group of barbarian red giants, running also occupy a large piece.

The dog  is so close, it will not be as close as tens of meters, so even if you follow them, you can now pass directly from the side.

But this action made Meng Xi and other barbarians surprised!

Because they all stopped, the one who wants to keep is going forward. Now that the other party has crossed them directly, isn't that about starting the race?

The other party can accurately track it here, and perhaps it can also sense that he has transferred the beads of Hanze. Even if you don't know this, when everyone stops, there is a special escape, which is the problem.

This is this specialization, but it is to give the tribe to the pit!

The dog * was originally swept by the side, but in their view, did not stop to face them, this is to continue to chase the people.

Time has not allowed them to think and ponder well, and even the opening is too late, let alone communication confirmation.

The tribe returned with the Pearl of Hanze, and the help of the patriarchs will be their last hope.

At this moment, everyone is rushing up, and directly began to flock to the side of the dog * to attack the past!

This time they are ready to make sacrifices. Everyone wants to do their best and try to compete for more escape opportunities for the tribes.

At least a few thousand miles before it will be caught up, it can be seen that the speed of this beast is much faster, so that the tribe can escape, but also must fight this beast, even if it can not kill it, but also let it hurt!

This is a consensus that everyone has, and does not need Meng Hao to command. And because the time is too urgent, it is impossible for them to consider so much, all with their blood and instinct.

Originally, everyone used to fight before. These barbarians are not the opponents of the dog gods, but the number is large, and many of them can still entangle the dog god.

Now the body of the dog * is not as big as the body, but more like a dog surrounded by them.

Coupled with the dog * and the sinking waves, they all think that there is no unnecessary conflict, and it is good to leave by the side. For them to stop, I thought I wanted to say hello.

I didn't expect these guys to attack not only, but each crazy, more crazy than before.

This made the dog  have to quickly jump out to the side!

It is not on the edge of Hanze, there is an irregular cold around, and the dog  can't change the body too much. And these barbarians are still dying to catch up!

"How do you do it?" The dog  directly asked about the meaning of Shen Lang.

Before Shen Lang was let go of them, but also received the benefits, so it will be inadvertently in advance to avoid conflict. Now, without the permission of Shen Lang, it is not good to start first.

Shen Lang is also a bit different, why are these barbarians going crazy?

Although he could sense the far-reaching range before, he knew the direction of the barbarian, and did not stare at them carefully.

Therefore, Meng Yu transferred the Pearl of Hanze, and let one of the ethnic groups rushed to the front, he did not pay attention at all.

This is the case of such chaos, the first reaction, that is, the barbarian decided to move his revenge, there is a timid thing to slip first he is not a barbarian, for the life and death of the barbarian patriarch There is no concern, and I have never thought of conflicting with them. Of course, everyone's ideas are different.

"You are looking for death!"

The body of Shen Lang floated up, and once he raised his hand, he had already controlled the surrounding field. In the way of the field of God, in the large space in front, an invisible wall was formed.

These swarmed over the two barbarians, and the front hit the invisible wall, and they immediately stopped it. Some of them wanted to force the past and become very slow.

Their Barbarian Red Giant body has a great strength advantage, but this is not the barbarian patriarch of Shibuya. How can these barbarians be more elite, and there is a big gap with Shenlang.

However, Shen Lang's shot, in the eyes of the barbarians, confirmed their guess!

Whether it is this "the king of the sand country" wants to recapture the beads of the cold, or bring the Hanze patriarchs here, it is always against them!

That is not to say calm, but more turbulent.

Chapter 2452 - Overhead posture

Their crazy reaction, of course, is a bit irritating.

I don't want to clash with you, I've got a dog * in advance, and I'm going straight from the side, what's going on? You went straight to death!

However, this anger is just a matter of Shen Lang.

After defeating the "upgraded" Hanze patriarch, and then watching the barbarian people, it is a bit like a chicken and a dog. Want to be irritated by them to affect the mood, is it not a grade?

Maintaining such a transcendental mentality, and then watching the crazy attacks of dozens of barbarians, Shen Lang will be indifferent.

"Meng Meng, are you crazy? Do you want me to destroy your barbarian?"

The words of Shen Lang are said to be because they can suppress them and do not need to express their meaning.

In the time of saying this sentence, his spiritual power tsunami generally swept the past, and instantly shocked dozens of barbarians in the scene!

All barbarians, including Meng Pu, felt that their brains were stinging, then roaring, and the unspeakable awkwardness was uncomfortable.

Then the words that Shen Lang said gently, just like the thunder bombs, they rang through their ears.

That's it, let all the barbarian red giants are sluggish, and even weakly almost stumbled.

This is the next Ma Wei of Shen Lang, and it is also a lesson for them.

But this way, Shen Lang himself felt a wonderful feeling!

He had had similar attacks before, whether with a single enemy or with a group of enemies, but there was no such feeling.

Perhaps because his strength was different before, the enemy's strength is not the same, resulting in his mentality and feelings are different.

At the moment he just felt, he felt the feeling of the spirit of the light before he suppressed him and the dog god!

This is a kind of posture that the superiors look down. It is a group of chickens and dogs that can crush you at any time. It is a pleasure to watch your struggles and beating!

This feeling makes Shen Lang secretly dark.

At that time, he tried his best and resisted the suppression of spiritual strength. It was not a test of the * of light. It was nothing more than a fun!

It's like adding a load to an ant and seeing how long it can hold it. If you can hold it, add a little more and wait until it reaches its limit.

Whether it is a few hours, a half-day, or a long-lasting feeling of a century, in others, it is just a little distracting leisure and fun.

Now his gap with the barbarians has not yet reached such a disparity, but just after that, the feelings and mentality have been similar.

In the past, he was able to analyze and guess the feelings and mentality of the light god, but now, it is his own personal experience, that is not the same.

“The Lord of the Sand State! Since we left, why bother to kill!”

Meng Hao issued a sorrow, he suddenly let himself give up resistance, and still have the spirit of Shen Lang to suppress.

This is a preparation for sacrifice. As long as one's own death, this Lord of the sand country can be a little guilty and can help the people.

Under the goal of giving up the resistance, with the spirit of the strong pressure of Shen Lang, it is entirely possible to directly collapse and smash him!

However, Shen Lang's current control ability is very good. He gave up the impact of the moment, and he has already controlled it.

Of course, the same is the strong pressure of Meng Hao, but only to the extent that he can withstand the state of resistance.

Since it is a bird's-eye view, of course, you can't let the other person sit on the same level.

“We passed by here, you attacked us like crazy, which made us kill and kill? Do you want to face the old face?”

Meng Hao was a little sluggish.

Just after they felt that the other party was chasing directly from their side to their own people, they only shot, but listening to this, the other party just passed by...

That is another possibility, and there is a Hanze patriarch who chased it over and brought it here. He wants to let them serve as prey, and feed the enemy first!

“The Lord of the Sand State, we are not attacking you, the one who has stopped you from attacking us who just left...”

Meng Meng tried to sense in the direction of Shen Lang, to see if there was a Hanze patriarch to catch up.

But he is now suppressed, and he can't do it if he wants to play it out.

“Is sick! You suspect that I will attack you, so you attack me first?”

Shen Lang was mad, this * logic!

If this is the case, I can also say that you suspect that your barbarians will attack me, so I will kill you all!

However, he is now maintaining the detachment mentality of the Light God, and has not been disturbed by this.

Combine this with the rationality and analyze it to an approximate.

If the barbarian is equal to their strength, or is even stronger, it is possible to use a hegemonic posture that is unwarranted to pre-emptive.

But even if the strength of their group is still very strong, but in front of the two Shen Lang, it is also prevailing.

Normally, it should not be suicidal like this.

The answer is obvious. The one who just left is not daring to run. It is the power of all of them. They are desperately trying to attack him and the dog * to delay the time and let the barbarian run!

According to Meng Xi's memory, according to the style of this world, there will be no special powers such as princes to cover.

In combination with their mission, it is natural to send the beads of Hanze back and heal the patriarch!

“If this is not the case, why should we chase us? Is there anyone behind you who can’t chase you?”

Meng Hao has already put his life out, and he is not afraid of that much, and directly tells his doubts.

“What are you chasing you? Will you feed me the beast? Or will you recapture the Pearl of the area?”

With a wave of Shen Lang, the field of God has already covered all of them, and instantly smashed dozens of barbarians out.

At that moment, his mental power had already suppressed them, and then they controlled through the field, so that they had no resistance.

This is because he is stronger and because he has taken the lead.

The dog  who used to be stalked by the barbarians once again admired it, and felt that Shen Lang was far better than it...

“Roll! Catch up with the people who ran away, you are going around the road, I am leaving this road!”

This is said to be very overbearing. This is a wilderness. There is no obvious road. As a result, it is very unreasonable to ask people to take the road.

But listening to Meng Hao’s ears, it is a very surprise!

It sounds like the Lord of the Sha State is very uncomfortable, and there is no such thing at all. If it is just a detour, what is it?

If they detour, as long as the other party does not follow, then there will be Hanze chiefs chasing and killing, and will not chase them.

“It seems that we misunderstood, very sorry!”

Meng Hao was also thrown out. He couldn't care for the wolverines. He immediately finished, and quickly informed everyone to gather and leave.

Shen Lang had to wait for them to catch up with the road, but also impatient, simply let the dog gods open them a few hundred miles, anyway, he also knows the route.

Chapter 2453 - Iriya

Shen Lang looked down on the gesture, disdaining as much as the barbarian nonsense, and did not think about killing them all, so the hard dog God ran a few hundred miles, it would not be much time.

What kind of detours the barbarian would be, he was too lazy to pay attention to it. After returning to the route to Shibuya, the dog * continued to run all the way.

They naturally return to Shibuya one step ahead of Meng Hao and others.

Just as the name of Hanze is related to the environment, Shibuya is really like a valley.

But this valley is a bit huge.

When along the memory of Meng Yu, through the wilderness, I came to the place where Shibuya was located. In the eyes, there are two towering mountains.

The mountains spread far and wide on both sides, and in the place where the route came, there was a valley to go in.

From a distance, it looks like a mountain has been disconnected from the middle.

When you get closer, you will find that the valley is very huge. It is just the point where they walk to the middle, and there are still far distances from the mountains on both sides.

I have seen the mountains that are off the mainland of the island. Any mountain valley is not enough to surprise Shen Lang.

However, after that, the memory he got from Meng Pu was familiar with what he saw and heard.

Just outside the valley, the surrounding temperature is still very low, but when it is near the valley and the mountains, the cold is less and less.

So at low temperatures it is getting higher and higher, but in this valley, it is a clear dividing line!

When Shen Lang entered the valley, it seemed as if a curtain was opened, and the feeling of entering the hot sun directly from the air-conditioned room!

But in fact, the temperature of the detection of the holy armor is actually not much high, just because the wilderness outside is extremely low. They are used to the low temperature of the ancient cold, and the huge temperature difference, even if the absolute temperature is not too high, it is also felt. It's warm.

There is no obvious institution here. The environment of light is a test!

Although not necessarily all live like a mermaid in the extremely cold, but everyone is used to the low temperature of the ancient cold world, entering this valley, will not be used to high temperatures.

There is no danger here, and because it is just just going to an entrance, and then going inside, the temperature will be higher!

Shen Lang has not been here, but because he has the memory of Meng Yu, he sees that everything is familiar, and the situation that has not been seen before is also understood.

He is still riding inside the Emperor.

The dog  does not know whether it is because of the change in temperature, or because there is no cold fire here, and the body has become a lot bigger and more powerful.

However, after arriving here, there is no need to smash the waves, it also slows down the speed and goes inside.

At the entrance stage of this Shibuya, there are more than a hundred miles, and on both sides are two rolling mountains. As they go deeper, Shen Lang also personally feels the temperature change.

In Meng Xi's memory, there is temperature change, but the feeling in memory is very light, because they were born here, and they are completely adapted to the environment. Instead, when you go outside, you will feel cold and it will be colder.

But Shen Lang and the dog  are another feeling.

Of course, with their current realm, they only want to feel it and experience the change of temperature, but the natural adjustment will not affect the body's discomfort.

After a hundred miles, it is the official Shibuya area, which will be the scope of the barbarian's activities, and continue to go deep into it.

But now Shen Lang is a bit hesitant.

Do you want to go in?

He came to Shibuya, and he was not hostile to Shibuya and Barbarian, and he had no idea. Just considering that the cold autumn may come here, leave a Peugeot here.

However, Meng Xi's memory, after arriving here, became more and more clear, and there was a feeling of going home, so that he did not consciously go deep into the dog god.

In fact, it has not entered the scope of hundreds of miles away. There is no specific distance in Meng Xi's memory. This is the distance that Shen Lang calculated based on the distance of dozens of miles away from now.

If you want to continue to go in, then you have to face the barbarians, and then there will be conflicts.

The barbarians here do not understand the confession that he and Meng Hao have ever dealt with, and they will be treated as foreign invaders.

“Let’s go, don’t go in, we don’t rob them, just be a simple visit.”

Shen Lang gestured to the dog to go back.

He has said that he has made a sign, from here to the general route of the sand country, and infused his own breath, as long as the cold autumn comes over a certain period of time, he can sense his breath, and then follow the clues to find past.

This stone sign should not be placed inside the valley. It should be in a place where there is no cold outside. Let the cold and autumn fall close to you, or you may come in if you come in.

When they arrived at this valley, they slowed down. When they first entered, they also observed everything around them.

The journey of dozens of miles was originally completed very quickly. Now it took a little time to go back, and there was no hurry.

As a result, when it came out to Shibuya, Shen Lang felt the movement of the barbarian in the distance!

This gave him a slight glimpse. The group of people who came here came back from outside. Needless to say, it was Meng Yi and their team.

But according to the truth, even if he did not use the golden mask’s bonus effect, even if he did not particularly wary, when a group of people are close, it should be able to sense.

The distance to go in is not too deep. It is reasonable to think that they are coming back in the valley.

How could it be that it is now out, and suddenly found that it is very close?

There is no relevant answer in Meng Xi's memory.

Shen Lang recalled his own feelings. Because of Meng Meng's memory, he knows what the road ahead will look like, and how far it will go, not to detect more, it is the naked eye. Visit.

For the latter, I didn't think about them.

But is it really purely because there is no subjective investigation?

Still entering the Shibuya, there is a limit?

When you think about it, the latter is more likely. Because in the sand country, the knowledge of God is severely compressed, only a few hundred meters can be detected, even as it is seen by the naked eye, but the scope of the sand country is not large.

In Hanze, too, enter the inside, as long as there is a range of cold waters, you can not find out, as if the lake below, has been isolated from the space above.

This Shibuya can stand for tens of thousands of years. Whether it is the mighty person who created the settlement, or the innate, there will definitely be some restrictions.

There is nothing too worth considering. The concern of Shen Lang is to lay down the Meng Meng in front of them. These guys won't go crazy again?

Chapter 2454 - Invited to be a guest

Meng Hao, they rushed back all the way, finally arrived in Shibuya, seeing their home is in front, they are relieved.

Homeland means safety. If you come back, even if you have a strong enemy, you can call for rescue, and you can have a geographical advantage.

But just at the entrance to this Shibuya, I saw Shen Lang and the dog  coming out from inside!

All the barbarians unconsciously accepted the momentum of the forward, but only slowed down, and there was no complete pause.

This gives them a little time to buffer considerations.

On the road to the blocking of the waves, do not need to summon the army of insects, do not need the beast to shoot, is so understatement, they turned them out, is just a drink order, they let their headaches burst.

Just that scene, they shocked them!

If you think about it afterwards, you will feel that it is a bit exaggerated. It may be a trick, and it is impossible to be so much stronger than them.

But the combination of Meng Xi's arms before the combination is a stark contrast. It can be confirmed that the owner of the sand country is not what they can compare. Perhaps only the patriarch of the heyday can fight.

At the moment, when I saw Shen Lang, the instinct slowed down, but I didn't know what to do.

The thing that has been done directly, the last time it has been done, has no effect, and it will no longer continue to be shameful.

So silent for a second, even if the speed is slowed down, everyone's distance is getting closer, and then someone can't hold back.

"The Lord of Sand Kingdom! You are not passing by! How come to our valley!"

Originally, everyone didn't know how to do it well. Normally, it was decided by Meng Hao, but when someone spoke, the herd effect immediately appeared.

"You are deliberately coming to our valley!"

“You are clearly trying to misbehave!”

“What have you done to our Shibuya?”

“How can you be so shameless about the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand?”

After the other people followed, the atmosphere at the scene was noisy.

Some did not call, did not know what to say, but also shouted cheers.

However, regardless of their emotions, when the distance is getting closer and closer, the speed is reduced, but it is natural to stop, and everyone has formed a confrontation.

After stopping, the barbarians naturally separated and let a road come to let Meng Hao be listed.

Meng Hao is the second person in Shibuya. He is a great elder. Even if he is broken, prestige is still there. Everyone still wants to listen to him.

“Stop! Everyone is not rude, the Lord of the Kingdom of the Sea is a guest, and it is a benefactor who has helped us!”

Meng Hao shouted and reprimanded the barbarians to express his attitude.

For this performance, Shen Lang secretly sneered.

“The lord of the honorable country of sand, you come from afar, is our VIP in Shibuya. In your capacity, will not be for no reason, there must be something to come over? Can you be lucky enough to invite you to Shibuya?”

Meng Hao has just been scorned, and everyone can still accept it. After all, in front of him, no one else can represent the barbarian group. It is rude to talk about it.

But now that this sentence is spoken, it has made the barbarians talk about it.

This is obviously hostile. Even if everyone's strength is not enough to drive him away, he should stop him and run on him. How can he invite him to take the initiative?

Shen Lang is able to understand once, Meng Meng is retreating.

I have already seen him from the inside, no matter what he is doing, he should not go in again, and he is invited to enter the guest, which is a good show, but does not need to pay anything.

In other words, these people now have already played a few times, and they are not opponents at all. It is invited to Shibuya. There are more barbarians together, and other kinds of things, it's really necessary to do it. Grasp.

It can be said that Meng Xi's words are words with a little wrist and strategy.

"I want to say that I am passing by here, or come here to do something, you will certainly not believe it. But I can clearly say that I just went in for a while and did not go deep into your valley."

Shen Lang said to Meng Hao, his eyes also glanced at all the barbarians.

These barbarian bodies are more than ten meters long, and the eyes have large bowls, but they are not dare to look at him when they look over the waves.

Although it was just a look, Shen Lang did not attack them any more, but they still had the shadow of being stabbed by the mental power.

Meng Hao could not help but secretly smile. When he spoke, it caused the noisy discussion of the tribes. However, when the waves were swept away, everyone was afraid to show up. This is majesty!

"Of course, we believe in you completely. I am in the capacity of the elders of Shibuya and sincerely invite you to be a guest."

He can only make further statements.

Shen Lang just discovered that when they came over, they had placed the stones on the ground outside the entrance to Shibuya.

It was just a stone, and under the attraction of both of them, the barbarian did not pay attention.

Now Shen Lang can leave, go to a few places, can find the cold autumn as early as possible, so as to avoid danger.

“I really want to promise you to be a guest, will you be happy?”

Shen Lang’s playful deliberately asked.

Meng Hao stopped.

This is not a guest! The more enthusiastic the guest, the more it shows no hostility.

“Of course, of course, happy, very happy.”

He can only have a stiff smile and be happy.

“Okay, I am serious. I don’t have any thoughts about you in Shibuya. I will come here and there is something wrong.”

Speaking of this, Shen Lang directly spread the image of Gao Hanqiu to the consciousness of all of them.

“I am looking for this person. If he comes here, don’t conflict with him. You can refer to the road and let them go to the sand country to find me. I am here to leave this mark!”

Shen Lang pointed to the stones he left.

Reach out and not smile.

Like when they met them on the road, they rushed over and they would be rude. If they come again, it is not impossible to destroy them.

But now Meng Meng has been smiling with sincerity and pretentiously pretending that he has not seen him out of Shibuya. This attitude is not easy even if it is installed.

After all, Shen Lang read his memory know that he has always been second, knowing that he wants to prove his wish, how much is intimate.

Therefore, under the attitude of Meng Yu, he is willing to continue the cause and leave the image of Gao Hanqiu.

This actually went back to the original point.

When I found them on the edge of Hanze, I wanted them to help spread and look for the cold autumn, but before I couldn't convince, I wouldn't listen to him calmly.

Now he said this, especially the one that was just sent over, and it was really a stone that made the barbarians grow a sigh of relief.

"Sure, sure! Then we will go back first."

Meng Hao also did not want to stay with Shen Lang, lest he have any changes, said to take the barbarian, from the side to go to the valley.

Shen Lang knows that they will still doubt him, and he sits on top of the dog god, ready to look for a recent settlement.

At this time, Meng Hao called back again!

Chapter 2455 - High cold autumn trail

Shen Lang really didn't want to take advantage of them. They didn't want to go inside and explore and explore. They just said it was open, and of course they couldn't stay here again.

The words just made are also to avoid conflicts between them and the cold autumn. If the cold autumn is detected at this entrance, it should not be used.

So he was riding a dog  and he was ready to leave.

I didn't leave immediately because I still need to prepare.

When I went to Hanze, it was because the positioning got the dog  in that direction, and finally disappeared there.

When I came to Shibuya, it was because of Meng's memory that it was a clear route.

Now to go to other places, you need to first screen a point closer to Shibuya, and then confirm the route.

Up to now, Shen Lang's understanding of the ancient cold world, the composition of the structure is not based on their own exploration, but contains the king of the king of the sand king, Hanze contemporary patriarch, Hanze ancestor Yuanshen, Hanze welcoming the Secretary of the wind and autumn The memory of five people of Gu Da elder Meng Meng.

These five people, including the ancients, at least three thousand years ago and contemporary, all the information combined, have greatly helped him to improve the understanding of the world.

It can be said that there is an understanding of the initial prototype.

However, the ancient cold world is not even a rare place. It is not necessarily a settlement in the long-term 100,000 miles. Everyone has very little daily communication.

Moreover, each settlement is a different ethnic group. Even if they are not hostile to each other, at least they should be wary of each other.

This makes his information, there are still many untenable, plus the distance is far away, lack of contacts, many have only a general direction and distance, and there is no mature route.

This is also the case, Shen Lang needs to consider.

Going closer, of course, the time to rush will be shorter, in theory, there will be no more detours, and you can run more guards in less time.

However, because the initial entry is random, it is not certain where the cold autumn is. If it is a similar area, the place that is naturally close will have a greater chance of hitting it.

If he is in a far-reaching place, it is a waste of time to follow a more recent settlement. Going directly to a far place can broaden another chance.

Originally, at the speed of the dog god, it will leave very far away. It is because of this discretion that Shen Lang has not left.

For the barbarians, they are still skeptical about Shen Lang's words, but they can bypass the other side and return to Shibuya, which is still a bit more secure.

So almost no need for Meng Hao to urge, all of them immediately went inside.

Meng Hao is also, his primary task is to bring the beads of Hanze back to the patriarch.

So no matter what Shen Lang is doing here, he must go back first.

At the moment of entering the outer valley of Shibuya, they had a guess based on the words of Shen Lang.

The owner of this sand country looks like he is looking for the human being everywhere. It is only a trace and a confession to come to Shibuya. Maybe it is based on the same reason!

This can be explained, why is it so coincidental that he met him in Hanze. Not for them, the owner of the sand country went out deliberately, even if they did not go to Hanze, the other party may come to Shibuya!

As for the battle that will follow, it should be the mermaid of Hanze, directly treating him as an enemy, and then causing misunderstanding.

They are the same thing, there is nothing to say about Hanze.

Now think about it, I found a good reason for my own comfort.

This is not awkward. There is no need for a hard battle. There is no need to misunderstand conflicts.

With such a mind, they are also concerned about whether the back of the wave has left, and they try to speed up and pull a little safe distance.

As a result, after they just entered, Meng Hao quickly stopped and then turned and stopped Shen Lang.

His reaction made the other barbarians shocked.

I have already been able to open it. Is it necessary for the elders to express their sincerity?

In the unlikely event that others are “difficult”, will they really come in?

Please God is easy to send God!

But when the elders were like this, and the elders were still seriously injured, they had no face to run first, and they all stopped.

But it doesn't include the one with the broth of the cold!

His mission is to send the beads of Hanze, which was confessed by Meng Hao. No matter what the circumstances, the beads of Hanze are the heaviest!

Before he ran, he was summoned and called by everyone, and it was protected by everyone.

On the way back, Meng Hao also had a further supplementary plan. When he was in danger, he would be divided into several elites who were completely uninjured, and together he would protect him from leaving.

When necessary, most of them are self-sacrificing, and the few barbarians who protect them are also prepared for sacrifice!

Now even if it is on the edge of Shibuya, but it has not really returned to home, everything is still possible.

So when Meng Hao stopped, the reaction of their team was different from everyone else.

They think that the elders may have discovered something, or they suspect that the other party is fake and let them leave, but in fact they may sneak behind.

The opening of the elders is to drag the enemy and create opportunities for them!

So they immediately implemented a contingency plan, and those few were completely uninjured, protecting the tribe and speeding up into the valley.

“You stop!”

Meng Hao was a little angry and ruined, and he had to talk to Shen Lang, and he had to talk to the people who had left.

However, the reactions of the tribes made other barbarians wake up and thought it was this factor, so they quickly formed a wall-like protection, separating the sinking waves at the entrance from the people behind them.

Meng Hao is very anxious at this timeWhat? Shen Lang looked at him.

Meng Hao said quickly: “The Lord of the Sha Country, please stay, please follow me inside, let us go and say!”

His reaction not only surprised Shen Lang, but also surprised other barbarians.

Is this the elder being manipulated? Just can be understood as deliberately expressing sincerity, to retreat, what is this operation now?

Surprisingly, Shen Lang immediately had a further analysis. With one direction, immediately, it immediately drove the dog * to turn around.

“The man, now in Shibuya?”

The conjecture he asked first, let the barbarians get a big surprise again.

The owner of this sand country is to find the human being. If you confirm that the human being is in Shibuya, you still don't know what is going on inside. If there is any conflict, it will inevitably lead to the Lord of Shah and everyone!

Chapter 2456 - Shibuya induction

“Correct!”

Although Meng Hao was a little surprised at the other side, he guessed it, but without any hesitation, he still decisively said the answer.

Since the situation is already obvious, and a decision has been made, do not drag any of them to avoid extra-budgeting.

His recognition made the barbarian people even more surprised.

And Shen Lang has left the dog * at this moment, and he is in front of him.

“say clearly.”

When I heard this answer, even when I guessed this answer, Shen Lang's mind had already analyzed it quickly.

I just went in for a few dozen miles, just a simple visit, and did not think much.

When they came back, they found that Meng Hao had come back close, only to realize that there was a certain limit on the sense of the face.

But because it has not been used, I don't know how much it is limited.

Just like the difference between the Hanze waters and the mermaids, the barbarians who lived here from a young age should have no restrictions. If they are not good, they will be like the addition of fish!

There is nothing special in Meng Min's memory, because they are used to it and have been used to it since childhood.

And this demarcation point should be the dividing point into the valley!

What they can feel is the change in temperature, but Meng Hao should be able to sense more.

Perhaps as soon as I entered, I would let Meng Hao feel the situation beyond the hundred miles, even in the depths of Shibuya, and discover the traces of the cold autumn!

This is what Shen Lang can't sense.

At this moment, Shen Lang is a bit lucky.

Just because Meng Hao's gesture is very low, the smiley face is sincere and good, let him explain it with a good temper, and gave the information of Gao Hanqiu.

It is because of this that Meng Hao knows what he is doing here, knowing what the cold autumn looks like.

Otherwise, even if he comes in and finds out that there is a situation inside, he will not be connected with Shen Lang.

This is a casual experience, but it directly forms a cause and effect.

Meng Hao told everyone to say while walking.

In order to make him more convenient, Shen Lang directly went to the big dog * and brought him.

When the mount is a mount, the dog * is willing, but when the monk is married, the dog * is certainly not happy.

However, Meng Xi's arms were cut off by Shen Lang. Even if it was eaten by it, it was considered to be a serious injury. Now it is not clear what is going on inside. If it is responsible for the road, it can save time.

So it didn't protest anything. It speeded up and ran inside. Anyway, it ran for dozens of miles, and there was no danger.

Now the speed of the dog * is just a lot faster than just entering, but not as fast as the road in the wilderness. Because Shen Lang still needs to know more information, perhaps be wary.

The other barbarians, who had stopped and stopped them, are now in a state where they don't know how to be good.

The elders have been brought, this is help, but it can be coercion!

They dare not neglect, and they rushed to run hard, don't be pulled down by this beast.

Poor team in front of the team...

They just mistakenly thought that the elders were stopping the owner of the sand country behind them, so they ran hard with the acceleration.

It is also the intention to pay attention to the situation behind, but also because of the preconceived, everything is different.

When I saw that Shen Lang took Meng Hao on the back of the dog god, and then quickly chased it over here, I thought that the elders were caught!

They are scared to know what to do!

Playing, it must be impossible to beat, so many people are not opponents, even a few of them are not.

Running, it is definitely not running, it can be caught up so far, and now it is only a little bit different.

Even if the assistants are ready to sacrifice themselves, it is useless. Can other people behind them not only catch up? People don't care at all!

The next moment, the dog * has already accelerated, flying over them!

Didn't catch that tribe?

Didn't eat them?

After a sigh of relief, their reason was restored.

If the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand really wants to come to the Pearl of Hanze, he will be able to stop them from entering the valley!

Although the entrance to the valley is huge, but where do they go around, and they can't get rid of each other's speed, and do they have to do more?

After a sigh of relief, they immediately had new concerns.

Since it is not for the Pearl of Hanze, then with the elders rushing inside, isn't it going to the valley? Is there a bigger plot?

Is it because you want to be bad for the patriarch?

At this time, other ethnic groups also caught up. They did not care about everything, and they continued to chase them out.

On the back of the dog god, in order to understand the situation more quickly, it is a direct communication with Meng Yu, avoiding the delay of oral narration.

Meng Hao is also clearly stated as soon as possible.

He did enter the valley and was able to use the energy of the Upper Valley to sense further conditions.

This is what the barbarians can do. His realm is better and he is older. He lived here longer, so other barbarians can't match him.

As soon as he came in, he directly sensed the situation inside.

Although he did not say anything, Shen Lang can also guess, because watching Shen Lang and the dog * come out from Shibuya, he will be anxious to sense the situation in the home, that is, they are afraid of two big shackles.

The result was another stranger!

Just because Shen Lang projected the image of Gao Hanqiu to their consciousness, it was confirmed what the foreign invader was.

Otherwise, he would not turn back and call Shenlang, but take everyone to hurry and help.

When Gao Qiuqiu came, what did he do inside, Meng Mu is certainly not clear, he can only be sure that the two sides have a conflict!

In this mysterious world, it is the settlements that are known to each other, such as Hanze, Shaguo, and Shibuya. When entering the scope of others, it is a simple courtesy.

If you don't know how to be interested, it will start fighting right away.

Gao Hanqiu, this stranger who made it clear to the origins Naturally, wherever he goes, he will be highly alert.

Shen Lang was defeated because he had a golden mask representing the king of the sand. Everyone thought that he was the king of the sand country, and he would be more polite.

Otherwise, his appearance will directly lead others to war.

Shen Lang is a bit helpless. He can only understand the situation indirectly through Meng Pu. He has tried his own intentions and cannot explore the situation hundreds of miles away.

Not to mention the bonus effect of the golden mask, it is his own knowledge that can now easily detect this distance.

It can be seen that the environment of this Shibuya is extremely restrictive for non-local barbarians. The barbarian has evolved to adapt to this because of life, practice, and so on.

The cold autumn should not be able to sense further conditions, so it will continue to go deep into the depths of Shibuya.

For the barbarians, the outsiders who did not report, did not lead, and ran directly into their homes, were naturally the enemies of the invasion.

Chapter 2457 - Dog god's suspicion

There are dog gods running, there are Meng Yu on the top, naturally not afraid of encountering obstacles, dangers and the like.

Everyone's speed is very fast, the outer valley of 100 kilometers has passed, and then it has entered the inner layer of the valley.

Shibuya is in the middle of two large mountains, as if it were disconnected, and the width is also very large. The whole hundred miles is a long passage.

Entering the inner layer of Shibuya, it has not become smaller, but more spacious, a bit like the feeling of a river entering a lake.

After coming in from Shibuya, the temperature is constantly getting higher. And when you enter the inner layer, you can immediately feel that the temperature has suddenly increased a lot.

This is the world in which the barbarians live.

The temperature here is a bit like a few thousand miles outside the funeral valley, but there is no flame coming out everywhere.

Because of Meng's memory, Shen Lang is generally familiar with the environment of Shibuya. This can't be described by the valley. It may not be as great as the Dragon Valley, but it is also a country.

There is only one city-sized sand country, which is incomparable with this place.

It is no wonder that when I first met, whether it was Meng Hao or other barbarians, after recognizing that he was the head of the sand country, there was no reason for being too awesome.

Fengqiu et al. are also the same factor.

In terms of scope and power, the sand country is a small settlement, and Shibuya is a larger settlement than Hanze.

Now he is concerned about the cold autumn.

Because he has played against Shaguo, Hanze and Shibuya, he knows that there are still some unfamiliar situations.

The strength of Gao Hanqiu is naturally no problem, higher than Shenlang, but there is no understanding of this side, or there may be various unexpected situations.

"Last left!"

Meng Hao should also send ideas to other ethnic groups. After they came in, they did not follow closely. He himself is directly speaking for the dog god.

Even if Shen Lang does not feel too far away here, but because of all the information in Shibuya in the memory, and all the way Meng Meng did not conceal the situation he found.

So now he also knows where to go.

After the dog gods quickly ran for a while in the valley of Shibuya, they came to the front of a mountain.

This mountain is a bit strange.

From a distance, it looks like a earthen tower. There are many door-to-door existences, and there should be a lot of space hollowed out inside.

Barbaric.

This is a very important place for barbarians.

The entire Shibuya is a settlement, but there are many subdivisions in it.

This barbaric hill is where the barbaric ancestors first settled here, which can be regarded as the land of the ancestral roots.

Here is the cave dwelling in the mountains. Because the barbarian is big, the activity space is bigger, and there are more generations in the future. You can't dig this infinitely.

Gradually there is a rule to divide this barbary into two parts, the upper one and the other, which are used to house the ancestors' remains.

With the exception of a few outstanding geniuses, elders and the like, most of them are the patriarchs of the dynasties.

Some have already been placed, and some space is reserved for later generations, so the upper layer of the barbarians is forbidden to develop.

According to the structure of the mountain, the size of the lower mountain is larger, but there are no people living too much.

This is the same as the “office” that contains the various departments of Shibuya, and then the place where patriarchs, elders and other dignitaries live.

In addition to these important tasks, it is part of the management of the officials, the young people who are mainly cultivated.

Other ethnic groups are scattered throughout.

Now where they come, it is the barbaric core of the barbarian.

Meng Meng had already said to Shen Lang before, and Gao Hanqiu had already reached their weight.

At this point, the knowledge of Shen Lang can already sense the specific situation.

However, he was surprised to find that there were no shadows of the cold autumn in the caves of the three bodies below the barren hills!

“Little high!”

Shen Lang’s opening called out, spreading the sound far away, and the idea spread out.

The dog  also followed a scorpion!

Its voice is big enough, the sound can be spread far away, and it can shake the barbarians, and Gao Hanqiu should be able to hear it.

Then Shen Shen’s knowledge goes to the top of the barren hill.

If the cold autumn directly kills the above, and the remains of the ancestors of the ancestors are taken and destroyed, it is really not a total hatred.

He does not want the barbarian to move high and cold autumn. If the barbarian wants to fight against the cold autumn, he naturally unconditionally stands on his own brother.

However, Meng's current attitude is extremely afraid of causing trouble, and it is very cooperative. Of course, he does not want to upgrade the situation. It is best to be able to resolve it peacefully.

“follow me!”

Meng Hao can no longer sit on the back of the dog god, and directly leapt down, dragging the wounded body and flying out.

Shen Lang also filled down from the dog god, followed by flying behind him.

At this time, the dog * is keeping a good reason.

Although the other party seems to be hostile, it is very cooperative. But what if it is a trap?

Shen Lang is worried about the safety of the cold autumn, cares for the chaos, and hears the information of the cold autumn, may believe directly!

It is not the same, it does not have such a deep relationship with the cold autumn, so on this road, it is also brains.

Although it knows that there are not so many waves, but through the reaction of Shen Lang, it is also known that Shen Lang did not sense the traces of the cold autumn.

This elder of Meng Hao, but was broken by Shen Lang, did he have a little hate?

After entering this inner layer, he dismissed other ethnic groups, maybe he didn't want those to become tired!

Now I will run ahead of myself, maybe I will communicate in advance, and arrange for people to ambush them!

Therefore, the Shenlang is very tight, and the dog  intentionally keeps a distance, and then maintains a high degree of alert around him. He does not trust Meng Hao at all.

Meng Hao is in front, with Shen Lang sweeping over the barbarians, going from the side to the back of the mountain. This mountain of the barbaric is not too big, the whole is the earthy pagoda in general, so no. It is difficult to go around behind the mountain.

“right here!”

Meng Hao’s speed is a little slower. I don’t know if it’s because I’m close, or I’m a little confused.

Shen Lang is following him and following him at the same time.

The place where they are now is an open space behind the barbaric.

Meng Hao fell on the ground, Shen Lang also fell there, and then the ground was suddenly opened, the body of both people fell rapidly!

“I knew you had a problem early!”

The dog  screamed and rushed over!

Its body is very large, but because it is kept away, it is not in the scope of falling. Now it rushes over, and the body is rapidly shrinking, so that its goal becomes less big, both to save the waves and to attack Meng. Hey.

Chapter 2458 - Forbidden land

The dog  is vigilant and keeps a distance in order to encounter any unexpected situation, and the two can have a care.

This moment confirms its suspicion, it is worried that the surrounding will also sink, so immediately reduced the body, reducing the scope of the pedaling, is also more dexterous.

It rushed past very fast, and in an instant it reached their two positions. What it does is attack Meng Meng. It feels that with the strength of Shen Lang, even if it encounters a trap, it will not be injured, and it does not need it to save.

But at that moment, everything was very fast. The dog  is fast, and it is also after seeing the situation, and the Meng and Shen Lang who landed, because of the sudden crack, directly fell down.

When the dog  approached, he realized that this should be regarded as an organ, not an ordinary ground crack. Otherwise, the speed of cracking will not be so fast, and the speed of falling will not be so fast.

And just as the moment it arrived, the ground was as fast as the opening!

When the dog  rushed over, it was attacking Meng Meng. Because when it saw it, they were falling rapidly. When it arrived, the claws should be the seats that could catch Meng Hao's head.

But now it is caught on the ground!

Quickly opened, quickly closed, the ground seems to have no trace of a crack, only a paw caught in the ground caused by a paw.

Shen Lang and Meng Hao, but it has disappeared!

The dog  is angry!

If it is unprepared, it is obviously a high alert. It is also a timely discovery of the other party's conspiracy, but it still has no time to stop it!

It immediately slammed a paw into the ground!

There was significant tremor on the nearby ground, but there was no sign of cracks on the ground just after the recombination.

Is this institution so sophisticated?

Then dig it up!

The body of the dog * quickly became bigger, and then the big claws caught on the ground.

Just like Shen Lang uses a small shovel, the ground is quickly dug up a big pit.

But this is a normal pit, the ground is still normal, and there are no traces of cracks!

The swell of the rapid fall is another situation.

He came with Meng Hao and his destination was Barbie. Because he cares about the information of the cold autumn, he naturally hopes that this information is correct and he does not want to doubt the authenticity.

But he is still vigilant, and he can even say that he is also highly alert.

Only what he showed was concern, and there was no suspicion.

The reason why it can be more calm is because he has the memory of Meng Xi, and many things can't be his.

Just like the place where the barbarians are, it is sacred and solemn in the memory of Meng Xi, and naturally it will not be the trap of temporary editing.

Just noticed that the cold autumn was not in the lower layer of the barren, Meng Hao has further pointed out that he took him around the barbarians and went to the area behind the mountain.

Shen Lang certainly knows this, which means that in the process of their rushing over, the people of Gao Hanqiu and Barbarian have already moved from the barbarians to here.

This place is a forbidden place in Shibuya. The average barbarian does not know much.

In the forbidden area, only the patriarchs and elders are eligible to enter, and others cannot be opened. To enter, they must also be carried by the patriarchs and elders.

As a great elder of the barbarians, Meng Biao is familiar with this and knows the law of opening.

This forbidden place seems to be deep underground, and it is actually a hidden space!

When Meng Hao arrived at Shen Lang, he opened the space and manipulated it. The effect was that when the two of them stepped on the ground, they let the ground crack and then fell quickly.

In fact, it is similar to the agency and space transfer, so it opens and disappears instantly. This speed will not be able to catch the dog god.

What the dog * saw was actually a picture presented by the entrance. In fact, there was no ground crack, and it was not directly buried in the ground.

So it hits the ground and digs the ground, and it has no effect.

But now the place where Shen Lang is located should indeed be in an underground environment, but the depth of this underground should be extremely deep, and it can not be dug up.

The place where Shen Lang Meng Xi's foot is like a cave, and except for the ones in which they can be called roads, there are rolling lava on both sides!

After arriving here, the temperature is once again high.

If you don't have Meng's memory, the situation that you just came in, plus the environment, will definitely feel that this is a trap of Meng Xi, the purpose is to trap him here.

"They came in here! I can't feel more clearly here, we can only find the past!"

Meng Hao said anxiously, then pointed to the direction in front.

His arms were cut off and he could only be pointed by the way he stretched his neck.

"it is good!"

Although Shen Lang did not sense it clearly, from the reaction of Meng Yu, the situation should be urgent. Otherwise, Meng Hao would not take him to the forbidden place in Shibuya.

Only in the place where you come and go, there is a hollow around, and there are lava below the two sides, but not far from this only one road, it is into the mountain.

Then go forward, there will be a lot of forks, or there are holes, or as a cave. On the ground and around, there may be vacancies at any timeThe following is the rolling lava. Once it falls down, if it is not good enough, it will be swallowed up by the lava.

In Meng Xi's memory, this is the ancestor of the barbarian, and under the ground of this valley, a cultivation place opened up!

These high-temperature lavas, with rich fire energy, are evenly distributed in this space. This is the accumulation of millions of years and is very rich.

Retreat here and practice, ten times more than the speed of cultivation above!

This kind of good environment, the reason why it is not open, does not let all the people come to enjoy, there are two aspects to consider.

On the one hand, energy is limited in the end, and it is very rich. It is the accumulation of lava in the earth that has accumulated for hundreds of millions of years. The speed and amount of this spill, they are unclear and undetectable.

If the amount of spillage is small and slow, then the energy here is a gift of time.

Just like filling a well with water, maintaining a balance between the amount used and the amount of water seepage, you can be long-lasting.

If all the people use the water of this well together, they will soon run out of the stored amount, and the speed of seepage will not keep up with the speed.

How to balance when?

It's hard to get into the luxury!

Therefore, from the very beginning, we have defined this as a resource that only a very small number of people are qualified to use, and it is better to maintain a balance.

Besides, if a group wants to maintain a stable rule, it must maintain a pyramid type. Everyone is very strong in cultivation. Who is the patriarch? Who is doing rough work?

Chapter 2459 - trap?

This is from the perspective of governance and sustainable development, and on the other hand, it is considered from a safety perspective.

It is not a matter for the general tribe to enter here, but how long it can stay is related to the realm of strength. At the earliest, of course, there were different tests.

For example, some young geniuses try to bring them inside to cultivate, but the result is early.

Therefore, from this aspect, we must also strictly control, only the patriarchs and elders are eligible to come in. Others, even if they are genius descendants, must bring in and practice, but they also need to lead and cannot let them enter and leave.

The progress of the cultivation here is so fast that it will make people unconsciously addicted. When it is discovered, it is already late.

Of course, the most important thing is the consideration of the former one. Otherwise, even if the strength of other people is not enough, it can be taken in batches. In a short period of time, there will be some benefits.

Now such a strategy will result in stronger strength, but as a leader, it will certainly give priority to stable governance and long-term development.

This is a simple history of forbidden land, and the layout inside, Shen Lang is also clear.

Because Meng Hao, a great elder, has also cultivated a lot of time here, and he has been clear about the situation of all parties.

This is a problem now!

Entering into the caves of the mountain, it is immediately accessible in all directions, and here is also suppressed for the knowledge of God, that is, Meng Hao can not sense the situation in the distance.

In this case, they have to search for the barbarian and the cold autumn, and they can only run in person. But there are many cave passages here, and there are many lava caves. The speed can't be too fast, it takes time to search for carpets.

Where they searched, they may turn back to the past in the cold autumn, which makes it a little harder.

However, this is only a little bit difficult. For the level of Shenlang, let alone the limited scope of this underground labyrinth, that is, the entire Shibuya is so big, it is not a big deal.

After all, compared with the ancient cold world, this is already a great narrowing of the search.

"There are too many routes here, we must find them as soon as possible, we are better to split up!" Meng Hao quickly made a suggestion.

Shen Lang glanced at him.

"You know, if you want to lie to me, the result will be very miserable."

I have been coming in all the time, and Shen Lang didn't doubt him too much, but now it is a suspicion.

Because this is really a good place to kill people!

Light is the lava everywhere, and if you accidentally fall into it, you may be finished. And the caves criss-cross, like a maze, it is easy to trap people here.

Meng Hao does not need to beat him, as long as he is trapped here, it is equal to win!

This is the same reason that the Hanze patriarch should trap the sinking waves in Xianbei.

As long as the enemy can't come out, it will die sooner or later!

This is not just the high temperature of the sense of the body, the raging fire energy, it is the barbarians who are not enough in the realm can not bear. Even the patriarch of the barbarian, who is practicing here, is a little bit mad.

It can be seen that the effect of this energy effect is strong, perhaps it is that the radiation of a certain kind of energy is more easily destroyed by an outsider who is not resistant.

“When is this all the time, I dare to lie to you!”

Meng Hao smiled bitterly: “You have just sensed that there are no people in the entire barren hills, and you have escaped to this forbidden place. And one of your friends is too strong, so I followed.”

“I am talking about the words of the heart, I don't want him to kill our people. You should not want him to be affected by the energy here. We only have to hurry!”

“Of course, if you think I might be slippery, then let's move together. I am like this...”

Meng Hao self-deprecating moved his shoulders and presented his broken arm.

What he meant is that I have been hurt by you like this, still running? You read my memory, what secret do I have?

It is also reasonable to think about Shen Lang.

What Meng Hao knows, he knows, including the method of opening and exiting, so even if Meng Hao wants to trick him in, there is no way to trap him here.

At his speed, it is not going to consume too much time to search through the cave maze completely.

Besides, he can also try other ways to suppress the knowledge of God. What about the voice?
Through the holy armor?

“Okay, split up.”

Where they are now, there are already channels in all directions. After Shen Lang finished, he directly chose a channel to go in.

He still has doubts about Meng Hao, but he feels that he can make it, and he is not afraid of the other party.

Moreover, if there is any arrangement for Meng Hao, it should also confirm the route first. Now he chooses the channel first, and it is completely randomly selected, which also disrupts the situation.

After the split, Shen Lang still pays attention to the front and back, watching Meng’s situation. At the foot is stepping on the “Phantom Meteor Step”, which is very quick and quick, and there are dangerous terrains that can easily be avoided.

With the turn of the cave passage and the entry of Meng Hao into another passage, he could not sense the situation of Meng Hao.

These are in the memory of Meng Xi, and now it is confirmed that Shen Lang while speeding up the manual search, while also trying to use the holy armor, using sonar and other technologies to spread the search, although not necessarily It can be accurately portrayed, but it can detect the target and narrow the scope of the search.

At the same time, his own mind is also thinking about the memory of the forbidden land.

His memory of Meng Xi has not been completely filtered, but it is related to it, it will be recalled.

For example, at the beginning, it was the route to Shibuya. It was the situation in Shibuya. It was just a memory of the barbarians and the forbidden land.

Now I am carefully thinking about all the details related to the lava forbidden land.

After all, he has gained the memory of others and is still different from himself.

At the same time, Shen Lang has carried out various aspects and immediately found some problems!

Even if the situation is complicated, he is fast under the “Phantom Meteor Step”. It has already gone deep into the channel, and through the sonar and other means, he has explored further, but he has not found any traces.

He regretted that he didn’t use the bluestone to restore it directly at the entrance. Now he feels more and more problematic.

Because in the memory of Meng Xi, this lava can be controlled!

The forbidden land of this underground is manually modified by the barbaric ancestors on a natural basis. It was the construction of the institutional array method that blocked the lava, so there was a lot of space.

Starting the switch will make all the lava quickly fill the entire underground space!

Chapter 2460 - Vulnerability

This institution, when Shen Lang came in, did not think that it was because this daily life would not be used.

In other words, in Meng Xi’s memory, it is more subtle. It was his life that he had never used before, but he only knew this as a great elder.

This is only the secret that the patriarch can manipulate and know, but in order to avoid it, the elder is a backup backup. When the patriarch has an accident, he will not let the secrets of the tribe be lost. He will sit on the patriarch or another patriarch and pass it on.

The reason why it was not sealed, but the establishment of such an organ, is the ancestor of the barbarian. After a long time, it is to be opened once.

It is also related to energy, absorbed a lot, may be diluted, scarce, and now such a part of the lava may not overflow.

So for a long time, it is necessary to put all the lava, fill the entire underground space once, refill it, and baptize everything.

This system of law is opened, and after a while it will automatically close. After shutting down the source, the full lava will gradually flow, and finally achieve the current balance.

The opening of this organ is not regular, it is determined according to the energy below. If you can always balance well, you don't need to re-wash it all over again.

It may be a few hundred years, the energy is weak, so come once. After opening, it may take several years for most of them to flow and regain space.

There is another factor, that is related to the sun beads!

The sun beads are obtained in this lava!

If it is normal, it is very difficult and dangerous to go deep into the lava to refine it. But after completely covering the scouring, wait until the lava slowly flows away, and some of the essence remains in the cave and other spaces.

Those things, they call them sun beads.

Meng Hao has not encountered this life, so this continues, and his life will not necessarily open.

But Shen Lang now remembers all the relevant details and knows this, which makes him more vigilant.

According to this backhand, Meng Hao is entirely likely to kill him in this underground magma!

Meng Hao can't beat him, and he knows that he knows how to go, but as long as he flicks into the area and looks for the cold autumn, he can open the institution and then escape first!

Shen Lang was a bit skeptical about him, and he hoped that Gao Hanqiu was here. It is now more and more skeptical that when he thought of this, he immediately began to think about where to open the agency.

The answer is at the entrance!

It's just right to think about it. When you open this institution, you will fill the ground with molten mud. This process is very fast, but it takes a little bit of time to fill it up.

That is the safe time to leave.

This underground maze is complicated, and if it is blocked, it may be delayed. Therefore, the position of this law institution is best at the entrance.

Normally, after opening the organization, leave it calmly, and then leave it alone. It is tens of seconds or a few minutes, tens of minutes, and it is waiting for it to be done.

Then wait a few years to come and lick the sun beads.

After understanding this, Shen Lang quickly went back.

I have already walked the road again, even if it is more complicated, I will be more familiar. Shen Lang not only remembers himself, but also has the help of the Holy Grail. The danger can remind the sign.

So this time he used the "Phantom Meteor Step" again, and it came out faster than when he went in.

When he returned to the entrance, everything was as old, and he did not see the surrounding lava rising, nor did he see the shadow of Meng Xi.

Meng Hao has left? Still suspected wrong, he is still in the cave?

Since there is no change here, there will be time for Shen Lang. He goes forward again, and then goes to the general position in the mountain, and then looks for the passage to Meng Hao.

Now it is not looking for them in the cold autumn, but looking for Meng Hao who has just passed over here, plus just back and forth twice, let him have more familiarity with the complicated road conditions here, and the speed can be faster.

The result was that after a long period of intifferece, I did not see the shadow of Meng Xi!

At this time, it can be said that Meng Hao is anxious to find the barbarian and the cold autumn, continue to go ahead, or in the previous place to branch to other routes.

But the doubts of Shen Lang are even stronger!

He decided to withdraw and say it first.

All of them are now Meng Meng said, he did not feel the breath of the cold autumn. It can only be said that it is caused by environmental factors in Shibuya, but now there are more and more doubts.

Regardless of how Meng Hao is, Shen Lang must first verify whether he can go out!

Because although he has Meng Xi's memory and knows the method of opening, there is a great possibility that it is necessary for the barbarian to open!

If that's the case, then he has to make another plan and use the door of the Three Realms to get out of here.

When I went back, Shen Lang also recalled the details about opening the organ, and then thought of a small detail that was easy to ignore...

The institutions here are single-shot!

That is to say is opened outside, after entering the inside, other people can not be opened again, can only wait for the inside to open before they can enter again.

On the contrary, if you have already started to go out, the person who stays inside can't get out. It is necessary to wait for the outside to reopen to follow.

This kind of setting is naturally not so convenient, but it is more secure. I won't be arbitrarily entered, and if I close the game, I will determine the time. It can be really "closed" in it, and it will not come out in time!

Because this is their daily life, whether it is the patriarch or Meng Hao or anyone else, they are used to it, familiar with such memories.

What I thought of before Shen Lang was to open the memory of entering and leaving. Now it's all about the details of this search, only to know this detail.

The answer is also coming out!

Since it has been opened, it is impossible to open it outside. Then Meng Hao can bring him in, just that the front is lying, and no barbaric elders bring people back here, and there is no high-cold autumn strength too strong to chase. Up.

At that time, Meng Hao created urgency, in order to avoid him having more thoughts, first to bring him in and say.

After he came in, he was even more generous from the heart of the lungs, that is, to attract Shen Lang and hurry to find the cold autumn, which gave him the opportunity to escape.

Because he can also know, as long as you give Shenlang a little more time to ponder, or have doubts about him, think about his memory, you can find this loophole!
