

First Strong 2461

Chapter 2461 - Barbarian

Then there is no need to search anymore. Meng Hao must have opened the institution and left directly!

Thinking of this, Shen Lang is calm.

He will come in, the key is to look for the cold autumn, Meng Meng seized this point to come into the flicker.

Now Meng Hao has ran out, but... is it running?

Shen Lang did not forget, just the moment he and Meng Hao entered, the dog * was directly attacked.

At that time, the dog * felt that he had encountered the trap of Meng Xi, and he had no time to explain it. He thought that after waiting to go out, no matter where the dog * was, no one would hurt it.

Now that he stays there, Meng Hao ran out, can the dog * spare him?

Therefore, he is not worried about Meng Hao running at all, naturally there will be a dog * waiting to pack him.

And he himself, there are three gates, not afraid to go out.

It has been confirmed that Meng Hao is flickering, and Meng Hao must be the first to go out, and he does not need to try to open it from inside.

In accordance with the normal direction, Meng Hao should have opened the institutional array, or that it is a close of a while, closing the blockade of the array, will allow a large amount of molten mud to flow in.

There have been no obvious changes, and it should be a big place, not coming.

The door of the Three Realms can definitely be sent out, and the speed will be very fast. He can wait for the melt to flood his feet and go.

Anyway, the cold autumn is not here, so take a look at Shibuya.

Originally, he didn't have any thoughts about Shibuya. He wouldn't be arrogant about their forbidden land. Now he is brought over by Meng Hao. What behavior does he have, and he can't blame him?

Shen Lang is coming back to the branch, thinking about whether or not to choose another channel to explore.

But I feel a little boring.

Because according to Meng Xi's memory, they are already familiar with it, and naturally it is impossible to leave anything good for him.

What the sun bead is, after waiting for this wave of magma to pass, they will come to it a few years later.

As for the energy here, it has no effect on him. Besides, time is limited, and no matter how strong it is, it can't absorb much.

Suddenly, he felt that he was still going straight out.

Just as Shen Lang was going to use the gates of the Three Realms to go out, one of the cave passages was moving quietly!

Is the melt coming over?

Shen Lang is not in a hurry, ready to see what effect this is. Could it be that from each channel, there is a large amount of molten spurt, and eventually all the space is filled?

Waiting for a while, his brow wrinkled.

Because the movement that was heard at the beginning was far from the passage, the gods could not find out.

But now it is sensed, it is human!

This is a person coming here!

How come there is a person here?

Shen Lang never thought that there would be people here, so he did not go to search for Meng Min's memory.

Now vaguely guessed a general, while thinking clearly, while thinking about memory.

I immediately understood what was going on.

Actually the patriarch of the barbarian!

The patriarch of the barbarian, Meng Jin, has been retreating in this forbidden land!

Shen Lang did not want to deal with the barbarian patriarch, so he did not think about his memory.

If you think of him, you can guess this by using the exclusion method. If the patriarch is not in the barbaric, it is closed in this forbidden place.

However, if Meng Xiu closed it here, he would use drench to drown him under the ground. Then he would not drown all of their patriarchs, so they never thought about it.

Now it is the person who senses it, and it corresponds to the image of Meng Jin. In Meng Xi's memory, Meng Jin is indeed retreating here.

Although he absorbs too much energy, he can't stand it, but it is difficult to get out of here because of the difficulty of riding a tiger.

Therefore, it is their journey to Hanze to seek the peace of the cold.

After discovering this, Shen Lang was a bit wrong.

Is it wrong to blame Meng?

Now the underground melt has not come out, the patriarch is still here, is it not that Meng Meng has not gone out, or is it looking for other barbarians and alpine autumn?

After all, he just didn't try to open the exit, nor did he verify that the agency could control it.

This is a bit of a mistake. If he tries to test it, if he can still open it, he will be sent out. That is to shut down Meng Xi, Meng Jin and possibly Gao Hanqiu.

If he went to try the agency, if he didn't start it, he would release the magma!

This situation has changed and changed, so that Shen Lang has a dim sum.

Meng Jin is here, Meng Hao should still be here, and he is ready to explain first, there is no need to conflict with Meng Jin.

It didn't take long for the barbarian patriarch Meng Meng to rush out. He was a little embarrassed.

When I saw Shen Lang, Meng Jinyi, I did not expect to meet outsiders here.

"The Lord of the Sand State?" He also recognized the golden mask of the sand country.

“The barbarian patriarch, don’t misunderstand, I am brought in by the elders of Meng Hao.”

Shen Lang first explained a simple sentence, so that the other party will not attack him, and the rest will be mentioned later.

And Meng Jin appeared here, Meng Hao should soon come over, and he does not need him to explain.

“Meng Hao! It really is him...”

Meng Jinsen sneered at it.

“What do you mean?” Shen Lang looked at him like this, it seems a bit wrong.

Meng Jin looked at Shen Lang again: “It seems that you think you are a guest, you are pitted!”

“Meng Meng brought you in. He has already ran himself, and he has made a big destruction here. It won’t take long for it to be swallowed up by all the melt!”

“Molten?”

Shen Lang frowned.

This point he just knew, just because he discovered the patriarch Meng Meng, he thought it was a misunderstanding of Meng Hao, he thought more.

Listening to this meaning, Meng Hao is ready to kill Meng and Jin together here!

“I am retreating deep inside If it is not the melt, why should I run out?”

Meng Jin gave a cold smile, then continued to smash out and ran out.

He just saw an outsider, or the owner of the sand country, and stopped unexpectedly.

But because it is already such a desperate situation, he is too lazy to pursue anything. Now he ignores the waves, but continues to see if he can still have a chance to go out.

Shen Lang also followed him out, and later saw Meng Jin arrived at the entrance, and then went to open the transmission array.

He also quickly flew to the side of Meng Jin.

Whether it is Meng Meng, Meng Meng, or Meng Jin, Meng Meng, he is always right.

The result is naturally a disappointing result...

That transmission array has been unable to open, which means that Meng Hao is not in the depth of a certain channel, but has really left.

Chapter 2462 - Black pot

For this result, both Meng Jin and Shen Lang have guessed, but they are all confirmed after verification.

Shen Lang is actually quite calm. He has accepted this result at the beginning and has no expectations for Meng Hao.

Meng Jin certainly understands this result, but he is even more difficult to accept this result. Because he is not an enemy, not an outsider, Meng Hao is going to kill him as a patriarch!

“Meng Biao will kill me here, but why wouldn’t you even care?”

Shen Lang asked a word, and then recalled the memory related to the patriarch Meng Jin.

In Meng Xi's memory, it's unnecessary to say that Meng Meng's envy and hatred. Before Shen Lang knew this, Meng Jin's talent is higher than him, and he gets more preferential treatment all the way. He is pressed from childhood to old. He has one end.

But no matter how envious, how do you want to replace it, and did not think about getting rid of it yourself.

Before the demise of Meng Jin, I needed to be able to spend the Pearl of Hanze. It is also an opportunity for Meng Hao, and he also thought about not saving.

But that is only indirect. It would be difficult to win the Pearl of Hanze, so if he does not get his best, he will be able to indirectly kill the patriarch, and no one will say anything about him, nor will he have a conscience. disturbed.

But I did not want to take the initiative to kill Mengjin.

These are the memories of Meng Xi, the past that has already happened, and they are not allowed to be faked. Explain that Meng Hao now wants to kill Meng and Jin together, it is only now.

However, this idea may not be just what it was.

Because Shen Lang reads the memory when it is in the cold, Meng Yu's arms are broken, and surely there will be big changes in his thoughts. One of the changes is the sacrifice of risk. He has already done this. He can't let the barbarians smash, and must do everything to save the patriarch.

He did do this before.

But it may also become more selfish!

A serious injury to the broken arm will make his strength greatly reduced. Not to mention competition with the patriarch, other elders will also be above him.

It is very unacceptable for the people who have been crushed by Meng Hao to be so strong.

But that kind of change will only happen in the future. In a short time, he can still maintain his prestige.

At this time, if there is a chance to kill the patriarch, then he is in danger. He can take advantage of the great elders' prestige and complete the high-handed rule over the barbarians.

And all the secrets of the barbarian, only he knows.

In that case, the elders who have the strength to surpass him can control; they can support others and cultivate loyalty. Even if he won't be the strongest one, he will still be the No. 1 character in Shibuya.

The crime of killing the patriarch, he can push it to the head of the king of the sand country. All the remaining dozens of people can testify. So many people are not opponents. The other party can destroy the patriarch and it is normal. .

And the head of the sand country followed the valley, if the goal is not the patriarch, what else? Looking for a person, will the sand country find someone to find Shibuya?

Shen Lang became his best smoke bomb!

Based on these analyses, Shen Lang thinks that Meng Hao should be back all the way, and his mentality will change. When the decision is finally made, it should be the moment at the entrance to Shibuya!

Shen Lang gave the information of Gao Hanqiu to them, and gave Meng Hao an excuse to make him feel that this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Once you miss it, there is no chance.

So I immediately turned around and stopped him. As for the specific introduction, it may be thought of, or it may be a rich strain along the way.

In a word, Meng Hao wants to kill him. It is a reason for revenge. It is entirely possible to kill the patriarch of Meng and Jin.

All these memories and analyses, Shen Lang was completed in an instant, and Meng Jin also responded to him.

“Hey! He wanted me to die!”

Meng Jin snorted and saw that his impression of Meng Hao was not very good.

This is actually not difficult to understand. Meng Hao has a superior ambition. Other people may not understand enough. Meng Jin is definitely the most direct one!

Because Meng Hao wants to be the first character of the target, isn't he?

After Meng and Jin have gone into flames, the attitude will definitely become more extreme. Now it's got stuck here, the melt has been released, and everything proves Meng's rebelliousness!

In particular, Meng Jin does not know everything Meng Meng has in Hanze. I don't know the pressure that Shen Lang has brought to them. Naturally, all the problems will be counted in the excuse that Meng Yu wants to use the owner of a sand country. Kill him!

At this point, Shen Lang also felt that the melt around the platform has risen a little.

Although there is no torrent of water flowing from the front channel, it is estimated to be a matter of time.

“Can't go! Hahaha, it's closed, there is no way to go out!”

Meng Jin laughed and then looked at Shen Lang.

“He has long wanted to harm me, just not sure about my state, afraid of being killed by me, afraid that I will not confess to you. This time, it is pulling you a ghost!”

“What interests did he use to attract you? Sun beads? Or what other treasures? Do you think that the forbidden land in Shibuya will be so easy for you to enter outside? Stupidly come in, you are the one he is looking for!”

He hasn't talked to people for a long time. Before that, most of them were Meng Hao, and he couldn't see it.

Now everyone is dead. Although this is an outsider, it is dead by the same person. It is also a pity.

So in the end, I am still interested in vomiting.

“He is not as good as me, prestige is not as good as me, killing me, can not be confessed! Now the tribe knows that I have a problem with cultivation, and with this outsider, the Lord of the Kingdom of Sha is also a leader. If I am dead, I can push it. On your head!”

“He has drowned the melt and drowned here. It can be said that he can’t beat you. I have to use this way to avenge me! You are dead, and you will be stared at the shame column Hahahahahaha...”

Shen Lang has a bottom in his heart, and he can listen to him calmly and patiently.

“You are a contemporary barbarian patriarch. He is a barbarian elder. I didn’t expect to have such a fight. If you have the chance to go out, would you retaliate against him?”

When he said this, Shen Lang suddenly felt that he was a bit sorrowful and sacred.

This is the first character of Shibuya, the patriarch of the barbarian, but because of the ignorance of the fire, now the state of the whole person is on the edge of the collapse, forced to suppress, can barely walk.

The Pearl of Hanze is just an attempt to kill a horse as a living horse doctor, and if it is not, it can only be a day after death, waiting for the burst of suppression.

At this time, the closest big brother under his command was taking the opportunity to kill him. This is much disappointing!

Before a dying, there is a stranger who can communicate. It is already his luck.

And Shen Lang himself can decide the life and death of the first person in Shibuya!

Chapter 2463 - Win-win transaction

In the words of Shen Lang, Meng Jin listened and couldn't help but laugh. All the barbarians in Shibuya, he is the most familiar with this, he has no way, of course, I don't believe that Shen Lang can have a solution.

This is also a hypothesis.

But now he can't do anything, and he can only complain about it. It is better to have someone to listen to him than to be here.

"If I can go out alive, I will let the whole people know his face, then expel him and let him fend for himself! I will not kill him!"

Meng's attitude toward Meng Hao, even if it is here, is still a bit high.

This also makes Shen Lang secretly nod, a slap in the face does not ring, just like Meng Xi's memory, from small to large, from young to old, Meng and Jin are all pressed, they are not looking at Meng Hao.

Even if Meng Xi's talent is not as good, with his own efforts, he eventually became a great elder, and he was looked down upon by Meng.

And this is the source of Meng Min's long-term desire to prove his heart.

However, there is nothing to say about this. Anyone has their own opinion. Shen Lang will not say anything about Meng Jin. Whether it is Meng Jin's dissatisfaction or not killing, it is the choice of others.

"I won't banish anything, I want to kill me. Generally I will kill him. I killed him. You won't have any opinions?"

Listening to the calm words of Meng Lang, Meng Jin could not help but laugh.

"Good! If you have the ability to go out and kill him, I call you uncle!"

He knows that there is no other way to go out. This is something that no one can do for generations.

If it were not for his cultivation, he would not be able to give Meng.

Normally, he came in and retired. He didn't go out, and Meng Hao couldn't get outside.

This is a problem. It is necessary for Meng Hao to bring in the beads of Hanze, so after he goes out, he will finish it, bring Meng Hao in, and then let Meng Hao go out, so that Meng Hao can be outside. Come in.

He used to think that he could live in Mengxi, and he thought that he couldn't see Meng Meng, and he was not courageous to harm him.

"Call my uncle? It doesn't matter. But..."

Shen Lang pointed to the surroundings. "The melt is beginning to rise. From the analysis of the situation before the patriarch, it is estimated that there is also a slurry in the depths. Perhaps it will take too long, and the melt will be completely filled."

"Do you know?"

Meng Jinyi looked at the idiots and looked at Shen Lang. They all understood this. They still thought about going out and killing Meng Hao?

Even he can only complain a few words like this.

"Let's make a deal. If you have anything of great value, I can take you safely out!"

After Shen Lang finished, he immediately added: "Of course, it is not necessarily valuable to you. It will be useful to me."

For the great value of their barbarians, the first thing that comes to mind is the sun bead.

For Shen Lang, some other things may work better.

“Just by you?” Meng Jin sneered.

“Just by me.”

Knowing that he can't trust, Shen Lang is then tempted.

“You stay here, it's also a death. Everything you have, will be buried here, melted by this ultra-high temperature magma. If you trade with me, there is at least one chance.”

“Even if you don't succeed, you are taking things that are destined to be smouldering. Before you die, you have a fun.”

Meng Jin naturally does not believe in Shen Lang, but the latter words also convinced him.

Stay here and everything will be swallowed up and disappeared. After a few years, what remains here is the sun beads contained in the underground melt.

“This is our treasure sun pearl in Shibuya. Is Meng Hao using this to attract you? Anyway, you are going to die, let you see it.”

Meng Jinyi spread his hand and appeared six sun beads.

He felt that the owner of this sand country should be so reluctant to die. He wanted to see the sun beads that had pitted him before he died.

Shen Lang nodded: “These are very precious. If you stay with your body, it will be swallowed up in the past. After a few years, it should be cheaper. Meng Hao. It is better to give it to me, I promise to take you out!”

Even before dying, Meng Jin did not want to, will not let the sun beads out.

However, Shen Lang's sentence was cheaper than Meng Hao, and he was another one who was unwilling.

Compared with the cheap Meng Hao, it is really not as good as the cheap brother. Although everyone is meeting for the first time, they will die together soon.

“I will give it to you! If you can’t take me out, I will fill you with melter later!”

Meng Jin’s tone is a bit uncomfortable, but this is not a disappointment for Shen Lang, but a disappointment for this situation.

Six sun beads, once in front of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang has already seen the Sun Beads. At that time, two of them changed into a pearl of coldness. He can be sure that there is no problem. It is a real sun bead.

If you don’t say anything else, you can at least use it to feed your heart.

“Although I lost a little, but I said it was done, you gave me this, I will take you out.”

If you are in the dark, let Meng Meng directly look at him.

The temperature is getting higher and higher, and Shen Lang is beginning to feel that there is molten slurry coming from a distant path along the cave.

“You haven’t gotten out of the air yet? Go ahead, what else can you get? I have the Pearl of Hanze. If you give me everything, I can give you a cold pearl to help you complete the reconciliation! ”

Shen Lang further talked about it.

Meng and Jin are not surprised. Meng Meng wants to swindle the head of the sand country. It must be true. If you don’t know that he is seriously injured in the fire, the Lord of Sand Kingdom dares to come over?

“It’s no use to keep it. If you really have the Pearl of the Cold, these are for you!”

Meng Jin presents a batch of materials, which are the strategic reserves of Shibuya.

Shen Lang looks at This is really worth a lot, including the essence of the world, there are some things that have not been seen. In terms of weight, it is far better than Meng Hao, far better than the Hanze patriarch.

When Shen Lang was trapped here, he did not think that the patriarch was here too, so now everything is a windfall.

According to his previous transactions with Meng Hao, the six sun beads are enough to change the three beads of cold, except for one need, people are not willing to change.

Now all of this adds up, and in a way, he is a big bargain.

Of course, life is unmeasurable, Meng and today can be saved, can solve the crux of the exercises, but also a big bargain.

After all, if there is a sinking wave here, his fate is drowned by the smelt, and there is no chance to turn over. All of it will be destroyed. The sun will not be replaced and the enemy will be left to Meng.

Therefore, Shen Lang does not have any embarrassment of profiteers, which is an excellent win-win for everyone.

“The deal! In order to give you peace of mind, I will give you a chill of the first.”

Chapter 2464 - Then go out.

In fact, Meng Jin actually did not expect to be able to go out, nor did he expect to be able to have a daring pearl.

Because he said that the head of the country of sand is not the leader of the Hanze.

It will be so refreshing to hand over all the things, it is entirely because of the words in front of Shen Lang, let him feel that it is also, anyway, if these are not beified, they will be cheaper.

It is just a game of rushing before the death, and the things that are valuable in these valleys are dealt with at will, to satisfy the final refreshment.

As a result, Shen Lang collected one by one, and he really gave him a cold pearl!

This is his turn to stop.

“How come you have a pearl of cold?”

“Of course, it was obtained in Hanze, and it was taken from the patriarch of the Hanze mermaid.”
Shen Lang smiled and told the truth.

Meng Jin naturally does not believe it.

In the Shaguo area, he is actually not very fascinating. He also thinks that it is impossible to compare with Hanze. How can he grab the chill of the cold from Hanze?

This is equivalent to saying that it is stealing the sun beads from his hand, which is almost impossible.

But the problem is... this feeling of starting, this makes him such a realm, feels compelling cold, even if he has not seen it, he can feel that this is probably the Pearl of Hanze!

“you.....”

Meng Jin Zhang opened his mouth and didn't know what to say. He began to look back at the sinking waves.

Shen Lang looked at him and said faintly: “I don't think your status is very good. After you don't go out, your people think that I am playing you. First absorb a little cold balance, I will take you out.”

“...”

Meng Jin is once again speechless.

It was a chill of the pearl and gave him an accident.

But this is going to die. It won't take long for the melt to be drowned. He can't possibly absorb the refining.

Going back 10,000 steps, even if he has no problems at all, he can't leave here.

But I don't know how, the calm voice of the Lord of the Sand State has made him involuntarily raise a glimmer of hope. It seems that it is really possible to leave here...

It's going to be dead anyway, and it's a little bit of time. It's not guilty.

However, after the start, the instinct absorbed a chill, and this extremely cold air, so that he had a violent yang state, there is a clear comfort, so that he could not help but continue to absorb.

As for the owner of this sand country, in the end is a  stick, or is there really a way, he is too lazy to pay attention to it, anyway, all the answers will come to light soon.

Shen Lang is of course ready to leave, he stays, just want to witness the wonders!

The species of the underground world in which the melt is submerged have not been seen by Shibuya, because it must be left first. What will eventually be, is estimated.

Now, he has the opportunity to witness it once.

Such a spectacle will not be possible to see it again in the future. Of course, you can't run without it.

Meng Hao has a dog  outside, no need to worry about him running, so the Shen Lang is very calm.

Meng Jin is constantly absorbing the coldness of the cold pearl. In a short time, for his current state, it is just a drop in the bucket, and it can't be immediately effective.

But this is indeed the Pearl of the Cold, indeed it can really bring him benefits, the direction of the previous guess is correct.

Although there is no successful experience to set, but as long as this time is extended to a few years, he still has information to figure out a rough, you can cross the river by feeling the stones.

Even if it is not perfect, it will not have the effect of one plus one and two, at least the problem is affirmative.

Shen Lang himself is simply waiting to see the spectacle. He also came to the inside of the mountain. He looked at the passages that went out in all directions, and the high-temperature melted water came out. The picture was really shocking.

He even wants to let the heart fire out, look at this thing, it can't eat...

"You are not saying that you have a way to take me out? You think of it!"

Meng Jin also came in. I saw that the flow rate was not very fast, but I was about to go to the molten pulp at the foot and could not help but ask for help.

He came in because the outside of the melt had risen and drowned the entrance. If they continued, they could only stick to the top.

Shen Lang has seen the most splendid scene, and then continue to force everyone to have no place to stand, and there is no immediate good-looking.

"Let's go out, you can do it when you are ready."

He has already prepared the door of the Three Realms. At this moment, after returning to Meng and today, he will send it away directly with Meng Jin, directly after the above.

Although Meng and Jin are the patriarchs of the barbarian, the strength is not comparable to that of Meng and Yi, but he is in a state of ignorance, and even escaping from his escape is awkward. Of course, he cannot resist the waves.

When he reacted, he has already entered the transmission. In the next change, the person has already arrived outside.

When it appeared outside, Shen Lang looked at the place where he and Meng Hao had settled before. It was completely unrecognizable and was dug a big deep pit.

At the moment, there is still a person who continues to dig in the pit, and the tool that this person digs is his feet!

This is Meng Xi, his arms are gone, he can only dig with his feet at this moment, and the whole person has been hard to see the original shape. It is undoubtedly ravaged by the dog god, and forced him to dig with his feet. !

The dog  is above the pit and acts as a supervisor.

Sensing the breath of the waves, making it very exciting, immediately roared!

It is also a situation that quickly took place, and told Shen Lang with his thoughts.

After it didn't catch up, it was madly digging and wanted to dig out the entrance. But digging a big hole has no result, which makes it realize that it can't be dug on such a surface.

Under anger, he immediately wanted to kill the barbarian!

But reason makes him understand Shenlang will not be killed so easily. Even if you enter the trap, will Shen Lang still be unable to do it?

When you think about it, settle down with it and wait patiently.

It didn't take long for Meng Hao to come out in a hurry!

At first glance, Meng Yu seems to have escaped, but Shen Lang is not there. What happened, of course, needless to say, with the wisdom of the dog god, can completely guess what is the situation.

It immediately seized him before Meng Hao did not respond, and then forced to ask what the situation was.

Meng Hao died biting that Gao Hanqiu and Shen Lang are all below. It is a natural crisis in the cold and cold autumn. Shen Lang is unwilling to give up his friends and insist on sharing together.

He was unable to help because of the injury. In order not to tiring everyone, he came out first. If the dog  does not believe, he can let the dog  go in.

Of course, the dog  does not believe it, but the dog  understands more. Under too complicated conditions, if it goes, it will most likely become a burden for the waves. Shen Lang himself can cope with all the difficulties!

Chapter 2465 - collapse

The dog  is absolutely convinced of Shen Lang, and he knows that he has a magic weapon like the door of the Three Realms. No matter what the situation, he can come out.

Therefore, the more Meng Meng said that he can let it in, the more it feels that this is a trap.

For this situation, it did not drag the hind legs, after preemptive control of Meng Yu, and then directly into the wound from his broken arm, into it!

Originally, the strength of the barbarian body, the poisonous grass to invade, it also needs a little difficulty. But now Meng Meng hastily came out and was controlled by the dog  in time, plus the broken arm wound, so that it can not resist.

As a result, the dog  began to do two things.

On the one hand, it is to inject venom in the past, so that you can better control the enemy.

On the other hand, it absorbs his blood, as if he is taking nutrients, further weakening the enemy.

Meng Meng soon collapsed.

He finally managed to kill the strong enemy of the king of the sand country in the forbidden land. By the way, even the patriarch was settled. The rest could be practiced by himself, and the pearl of the cold can be safer.

The sin was pushed to the head of the king of the sand king. He killed the lord of the country in order to save the patriarch. Such a justifiable succession can also be enjoyed by everyone.

Although the arm is broken, the future is still possible.

The dog * was not too much in his eyes. After thinking about it, he immediately summoned the barbarian to come over and work together to arrest it. The inner bones of the beasts and the blood of the beasts will become the major supplements for his healing.

I did not expect that I was controlled by others, and I became a tonic for this beast.

In order to save his life, he can only beg for mercy, and promise to take revenge with great profits, hoping to fool this beast.

As a result, the beast did not listen at all, but accelerated the speed of absorption.

The control of the venom to the whole body, together with the massive loss of blood, made this arm cut off the elders of Meng Pu who rushed back to escape, and the body was once again hit hard.

The dog * had to wait for Shen Lang to come back and let Shen Lang deal with him, so he did not kill him. The squeeze is almost the same, and the injection of venom can control him at any time.

Just stopped the absorption of his blood, but forced him to dig pit!

At that time, Meng Hao was also paralyzed. He had no arms, how to dig? Digging with your shoulders? There is no way to get the tools!

As a result, the dog * forced him to dig with his feet, and the tools were not allowed!

Meng Hao felt the tragic, this beast really is the same as the master, the same as the owner of the sand country.

He knows how to dig and doesn't work, plus it is really weak enough, and he uses his legs and feet to dig, quite a bit of work.

But the dog * suppressed him on it. If he didn't have to dig it, he would hit him with a big paw.

Meng Hao had just told other people to separate after they entered Shibuya, and they did not have to follow him.

It is said that he alone deals with the enemy and allows everyone to preserve their strength. Even if he is dead, there is still a passing fire.

In fact, it is because you don't want the tribe to discover the patriarch. As long as you don't see it, the story he tells is the only version. Even if there are loopholes, others are more willing to be bad things. The enemy is doing it, not the big one. The elders are doing.

But this order made it difficult for him to gather people now, and no one can help. Only he can fight alone, but can only be crushed by the dog god.

At the moment, after Shen Lang and Meng Jin came out, the empty space that had appeared appeared into a pit, and they all naturally fell to the side.

The following Meng Hao, also felt the above anomaly, looked up unconsciously.

This scene directly let him sit down on the ground!

The chief of the country of Sha, the patriarch, did not even be swallowed by the * in the forbidden land, and they all came out!

Those who can support him are the patriarch and the king of the sand country are trapped below. He digs holes here, and the longer he delays, the more he is completely engulfed by the melt.

And a little more time, he can also think of a way to deal with the beast.

Now they are all out!

The master of a sand country, that is, his peak state can not be beaten, let alone the current level, which is equivalent to annihilating all his hopes.

“You lied to me... you lied to me... you all lied to me... you all lied to me...”

Meng Hao, who collapsed and fell, muttered in his mouth.

He did not think of the sinking waves at all. He only thought that the patriarch came out with the waves. And Shen Lang must have used the Pearl of Hanze to impress the patriarch.

Naturally, the patriarch did not tell him all the secrets. The organ could not only be opened once, and it came out from inside, and it could be opened inside.

Then I thought that not only the patriarch, I heard from the previous generation of patriarchs in my early years, when I first entered life, I also knew this.

Doesn't that mean that everyone has opened him and cheated him for a long time and a long time ago?

Originally his belief was that diligence can make up for it. Even if the talent is not as good as Meng and Jin, through his hard work, there is a chance to catch up.

At this moment, I found that I may have been cheating on him for a long time. It is no wonder that Meng Jin can get more resources and opportunities to become a patriarch and to master all the resources.

This is not a problem that he can't do personally. It is totally unfair!

At this level, he has no way to turn over.

What did he do under the forbidden land, both of them understood that two people could not deal with him. Now that he is back, can he let him go?

“Meng Meng! You are a shame of the barbarian, I want to usurp the identity of your elder! I will expel you from Shibuya!”

When Meng Jin was inside, because it was before death, it was slightly lighter. Now it's really out, and then see Meng Hao, I can't help but erupt!

His dissatisfaction with Meng Hao is not a day or two, and now he has taken the opportunity to break out.

Meng Meng's words made Meng Meng, who had already collapsed, excited.

“You are a shame! You have always been favored. All the hard work is done by me. You have more time to practice, get more care, get more resources! Be famous and genius!”

“I am! You are a genius of fart! I have long seen that you are not used to it.”

“Since they have chosen you to replace the patriarch, I will not help you, and I will fully assist you! You are now abolished! I also traveled hundreds of thousands of miles to Hanze to rob you of the cold!”

“Do you still have a face saying that I am a shame? How many things are you doing in Shibuya? Without you, Shibuya can develop better under my leadership!”

This time, Meng Hao was the one that had been suppressed in the heart for many years. It broke out at one time. Although it was too ugly, it was already very heavy to say this to the patriarch in his capacity.

Chapter 2466 - Angry and angry

These are the emotions suppressed by Meng Xi's heart. I haven't thought about it before, so there is no memory in Shen Lang's memory.

Now listening to Meng Hao's resentment against Meng Jin, he did not immediately kill Meng Xi, but gave Meng Hao the last chance to vent.

When he came in all the way, he was very impressed with Meng Hao. If Gao Hanqiu is here, he may still give Meng Hao a little compensation. He can't let him grow his arms and he can alleviate some injuries.

However, Meng Xi was in the name of Gao Hanqiu, who cheated him and the dog * and wanted to kill him in the forbidden land. This could not be tolerated.

Now give him a last chance to break out the resentment of many years, it is already a matter of thought.

Meng Jin has never seen Meng Hao, this time Meng Meng wants to kill him. He originally wanted to behave in a more atmospheric way. It would be good to expel him.

Anyway, let the whole people know what he did, it is already very humiliating; then expelling from the settlements, it is very difficult to survive in the ancient cold world, which is actually more miserable than direct killing.

Now I saw Meng Xi, seeing that his arms are gone, and it is also very miserable. He is being crushed by a beast.

Meng Jin also just wants to reprimand. As long as Meng Biao asks him to save his life, he will still be short-sighted. At least in front of outsiders, don't guilty.

But now Meng Meng is in front of an outsider, and when he speaks in a difficult way, he can't keep his old face.

The head of the sand country in front of him, on the bright side is his equal status with him. In fact, this time it was only with the help of others, it was already weak.

This way, in the face of others, he is said to be jealous of him, of course, the face is lost!

“court death!”

Meng and I have a mouth, a flame vomited out, and the following is his Meng Meng, because of the heavy damage, there is no power defense, the big body is directly swallowed by the flame.

Meng Jin has been in the forbidden land to absorb energy cultivation. It is a super-high temperature to the yang energy is seriously exceeded, so it is difficult to control itself, but if it is only releasing energy, it is not affected.

Therefore, the fire that he spurted out was very powerful. If Meng Hao was in his heyday, he could defend or bear it, but now there is no resistance at all.

The dog  looked at the waves.

It keeps Meng Hao, and wants to leave it to Shen Lang.

Now that this patriarch has killed Meng Hao, isn't there a chance for Shen Lang to vent?

Therefore, he is also watching the face of Shen Lang. If there is any dissatisfaction with Shen Lang, it will save Meng Xi and leave it to Shen Lang to kill.

It's just that Shen Lang is wearing a golden mask, and it's impossible to see the face...

In fact, it can only wait for the instructions of Shen Lang, and if there is no instruction, it will not move.

Shen Lang did not move, nor did he let the dog move.

Meng Hao is supposed to kill. This is a matter of principle.

But whoever kills does not matter, it will do.

Originally, if he came to dispose of it, it might be that the dog  would eat it, or it would be inhaled in the tower of the tower, don't waste it.

But I have already seen it clearly. The dog  has already taken a considerable part of Meng Hao's strength, and there is no value left. Meng and Jin hands, it is up to him.

Under the "anger" of Mengjin, Meng Hao did not persist for a long time, and soon fell to the ground, and was not burned into powder, but it was already like coke.

Meng Jin is watching the time when Meng Xi was burned. The mood is also very complicated.

When it was inside, or when it was just out, all the contradictory focus was in Meng Hao.

That is the common enemy of him and Shen Lang.

Now that this common enemy has been eliminated, it is his turn to deal with his relationship with Shen Lang.

Everyone knows this for a while, regardless of the reason why Meng Hao is deceiving people. He certainly has no good feelings for the barbarians.

Just can save him, but also want him to pay for it.

He paid a great deal of interest, so that he did not have to feel guilty.

It was just that before it was dying, I felt that everything was worthless, so I would do everything.

Now that people are safe, everything is back on track. That will inevitably feel unwilling.

But the problem is that his own state has problems, the enemy can shuttle space, and there is a powerful beast next to it.

Even if he is not willing, he will not dare to make trouble again!

Not only do not dare to make trouble, but also have to consider how to send this away.

Otherwise, Shibuya is dangerous!

The common enemy has been eliminated, and the partner who has shared the same pains and sorrows has become a new enemy.

Meng Jin's big hand waved a few times, and a lot of mud that had been shaved by the dog * pressed into the pit and covered Meng Xi in the deep pit.

Although I didn't completely fill the pits and flatten it, I couldn't see the body and it felt better.

"The Lord of the Sand State, I would like to thank you this time. I have such a thief in the valley, I really have no face, I personally killed him in front of you, vent your anger!"

He spoke very skillfully and said thank you, but did not say the help of life, and pushed the responsibility.

Shen Lang has not said anything about it. Now, when he hears the words of the patriarch of Meng and Jin, he can't help but frown.

This old guy is really a bit sloppy!

It's just that you are angry and angry, you can't do it openly, kill people directly. But my name is venting my anger!

It is the dog * who can also hear that the other party is blocking their mouth first, so that they can no longer blame the barbarians. Since Meng Hao was provoked by them, then Meng Meng was killed, and it was already given a confession.

The dog * is watching the dark waves. If the waves are ordered, it does not mind turning over the patriarch of this barbarian.

Shen Lang does not have this meaning.

He was smashed in this time because of the cold autumn. Although there is no information about the cold autumn but also got a lot of benefits that have not been thought of, the culprit Meng Hao has also been killed.

He also has no idea to kill the barbarians, or continue to leave and go to the next stop.

“There is nothing to save, no thanks, you are trading with the sun beads.”

Although it will not be used by the barbarian, Shen Lang does not mind disgusting him.

Hearing the sun beads, Meng Jin could not help but have a heartache, six sun beads! There are other things, all of them are gone!

“You kill him for being angry with yourself. It has nothing to do with me. I can kill him to vent my anger. Without a big elder, there are others, and the patriarch is also self-sufficient.”

Meng Jin has just said a beautiful word by the way, shirking himself to kill Meng Hao is to sink the waves, the average person will also suffer, anyway, the result is like this.

The owner of this sand country, but he was angry and angry at the point of face, which made him inevitably a little angry and angry!

But he can only dare to speak out!

Chapter 2467 - 1 wave and 3 fold

Meng Jinxin is upset, but he also has to maintain a respectful appearance.

However, he is also very direct, and does not want to further express the meaning of enthusiasm, just waiting for Shen Lang to say goodbye.

Shen Lang looked at the front of the barbary, still no one.

Those who can live in the lower layers of the barren hills are the core backbones such as patriarchs and elders.

The last wave of Meng Meng went out with a lot of elites, but it was impossible to transfer all the cores of the family. Otherwise, there was nothing to deal with, or they did not respond, or they had an accident in Hanze. Unable to pass the fire.

Therefore, there are also elders sitting in the town.

But when they came over, they didn't have a figure. Then Meng Meng took Shen Langkeng to the forbidden place.

It's coming out now, and the whole time hasn't been too long, and of course there has been no change.

Meng Jin came out to pay attention to Mengzi here, and then went to Shenlang here. For his familiar Shibuya, he did not pay much attention.

Because in his opinion, as long as the Shen Lang is gone, Shibuya is safe; if not, Shibuya is full of danger.

So he didn't care about the other at all, and his attention was on the sinking waves, waiting for him to leave.

At this moment, seeing Shen Lang looking at the barbaric, a slight difference, the eyes naturally looked at the past, and then smashed.

He knows more about the situation of the barbarians. Now, this situation is naturally an abnormal state.

However, he still hasn't understood it, and it is not convenient to judge anything now. I can only wait until Shen Lang leaves, then come to understand the situation.

Then his gaze looked at Shen Lang again, gazing at the waves.

His reaction also fell in the eyes of Shen Lang.

However, this does not explain anything. For example, Meng Jin did not know that Meng Hao was really going to Hanze to get the Pearl of Hanze, and after the broken arm, he brought it back.

“gone.”

Shen Lang greeted him and jumped up.

The dog  immediately leapt to the past, and the conscious camel was on the waves.

It doesn't have Meng's memory, but after walking it, I know how to get out.

In Shibuya, you need to identify the direction, out of the valley, and a hundred miles away is a direction.

Meng Meng just absorbed some of the coldness of the cold pearl, although it has not yet reached the level of resolution, but also allows him to better suppress the situation in the body.

So even if you don't reach the peak state, you don't feel like you just saw Shen Lang.

He is still not at ease with the owner of this uninvited guest. Can't personally watch Shen Lang leave, he certainly is not at ease.

So their departure, Meng Jin is also followed, but did not open the door.

The dog  is still eye-catching, although I don't know what Shenlang thinks about Barbie, but Shen Lang pays attention to it here, or let it pay attention to it.

Therefore, it does not add up the speed now, but keeps the slower speed to bypass the barbaric, letting Shenlang feel close to the distance.

The barbaric is still quiet and empty, and there are no movements in the caves inside.

Shen Lang hesitated, thinking about whether to take out the green pebbles.

But just after they bypassed the barbaric, there was a change in the front!

Meng Jin is moving forward a little faster, staring at the front, but he immediately stopped, paying attention to the side of the waves.

Before Meng Meng entered the range of Shibuya, he could sense it very far. Shen Lang knew that this was not pretending, because it was in his memory.

Only Shen Lang can only know this, there is no body gene of the barbarian, and he has not cultivated the practice of the barbarian. He is not able to sense it.

The environment here is obviously very inhibited for outsiders like him.

Meng Jin is the patriarch of the barbarian. In this valley, he can undoubtedly sense a large range, far better than Shen Lang.

Just because his focus is here, it is not here to pay attention to the movements in the distance. It is not impossible.

But now this movement can be sensed, and of course he is more clear.

Shen Lang actually couldn't figure out the specific situation, but only sensed that there was a change.

However, looking at Meng Jing's movement, it can be confirmed that this situation should not be small.

He secretly keeps the dog * at a slow speed, not eager to leave, but he is more careful to sense the specific situation in front.

Soon, everything will be clear, and Shen Lang is also a surprise!

High cold autumn!

The change in the front is actually a cold autumn driving a group of barbarians!

Meng Qi, this guy, has done a lot of things.

Shen Lang read his memory, it is until the cold. Before he had such enthusiastic cooperation, Shen Bo did not read his memory again to determine the authenticity when he learned that there was a cold and cold autumn message.

So I first believed this, and later I wanted to kill him in the forbidden land. Naturally, I thought that Meng Hao was in the trap of the information of the cold autumn.

It is only a real confirmation until now, when Meng Hao should have really sensed the cold autumn!

It was only when they came back all the way, and when they went to the barn, Gao Hanqiu might have already ran the people here and chased them out.

Although there should be elders at the left, other elders are not as bold as Meng Hao, who dare not disturb the patriarchs of the retreat, and then avoid the destruction of the ruins.

Meng Hao must have known this on the road, but he did not directly tell Shen Lang, but hesitated, by the way, as an opportunity to kill the waves!

According to Meng Yu's memory, Shen Lang can infer a general way of thinking. Meng Hao should want to introduce Shen Lang to the forbidden land first, then trigger the organ to attract the underground melt.

But the melt is not so fast, and the waves will not be discovered so quickly.

So after he came out, could still have another wave, and the dog  was also plunged into it.

Then he can also find the cold autumn, with the waves and the dog  to attract the cold autumn.

As long as he is fast enough, he can introduce the cold autumn, and escape before the melt is covered.

If you take that step, you will kill Meng Meng, Shen Lang, Dog God, Gao Hanqiu... He and the four enemies of the whole Shibuya are killed.

At that time, he was the savior of Shibuya, the hero who avenged the patriarch, and he would receive a high degree of support.

It is not easy to do this, so he is very fast. He used to send the waves to the forbidden place. After the sinking into the waves, the layout left immediately.

The reason why Shen Lang entered after the formation of the law, it is because the latter two can pit, the pit can not be at least two pits.

If you wait until the dog  goes down and waits until the cold autumn, you may not have the opportunity to open it for him. It may not even be able to carry the last two pits down.

Chapter 2468 - Convergence

If you have just lost it, you will deal with Meng Hao first. If Meng Hao has been eaten by the dog god, Meng Jin will not stay in the guest, and he should have left.

Shen Lang has been able to sense the cold autumn, and it goes without saying that Gao Hanqiu can sense him, and he does not need to worry.

However, the dog  is also sensing the cold autumn!

They came from Hanze here, just to keep the information for the cold autumn. Since it has already hit, it will of course merge.

Especially when I saw that the cold autumn is now fighting a large group of barbarians, the dog  estimates that the waves will be anxious, and immediately rushed out after accelerating!

Meng Jin just felt that the movement was not small, the instinctive wanted to rush, but worried about the waves.

One enemy is nothing, and the two enemies are in trouble. It is best to get rid of the king of the country and the beast to concentrate on the enemy.

As a result, he still hasn't opened anything, and the beast has already rushed out!

Meng Jin also quickly chased it out.

Naturally, I have learned about the situation there, but if I rush out, there are two possibilities. One is to help the barbarians deal with the outsider; the other is to help outsiders deal with the barbarians.

Although theoretically there may be two, but with the toes you can think of it, the possibility of helping the barbarians is extremely small!

Looking at the appearance of the appearance, this is more like the people of Sha, which is very different from the barbarian.

Moreover, there may not be an outside visitor in Shibuya for ten or eight years. It is almost impossible to encounter two calls today.

There is only one conclusion, that is, that person must be with the king of the sand country, and also a sand country!

Then the beast and the lord of the country of the sand rushed over, naturally they would come together.

No wonder he looks at the barbarians!

Don't they leave in a hurry!

Meng Jin is very anxious now. It is the owner of this sand country. He is in this state, he is not sure that he can deal with it, let alone one more, and there is a beast.

In addition, the Sha nationality, who can drive a large group of barbarians to escape, has proved his power!

He must come up with a reliable method as soon as possible, and can persuade the other party to give up and then start.

However, the sun beads and other collections have already been sacrificed, and there is no way to give more.

The cold autumn drives away these barbarians, that is, to the direction of the barbarians.

And the dog  speeds up the past, on both sides, it is twice as fast.

“Lang brother! Emperor!”

Gao Hanqiu was very excited to greet him.

I can see that I can meet them again. He is also very happy and gratified.

The situation on both sides is different. Shen Lang and the dog  are figuring out what is going on, knowing that as long as there is enough time to leave some clues, the carpet search can also find the cold autumn.

But Gao Hanqiu did not know!

The cold autumn is transmitted to the world first, and it is impossible to sense their existence. I don't know if they have arrived, nor do they know if they have encountered enemies in the Dragon Valley.

Therefore, he can only find the way to go back in the same place. After no results, he can only find another way to go back.

It is naturally very gratifying to be able to meet here now, and I will understand it in a flash. It should be that everyone has sent it to a different place.

“What is your situation?”

Shen Lang with a golden mask, but the familiar atmosphere, the cold autumn is naturally felt at a glance.

For his inquiry, I noticed that Meng Jin, who had been chasing it, did not have a narrative in the words of Gao Hanqiu, but instead sent the memory to Shen Lang directly.

Similar to Shen Lang’s analysis, when I waited for a long time, I didn’t wait until Shen Lang and the dog * came out. Gao Hanqiu realized that something was wrong.

He quickly tried to find a way to go back, but there was no space crack around him, and he did not have such artifacts as the door of the Three Realms.

It was very tangled at the time, and there were no cracks around and could not be returned. But since it can be transmitted to the world, it should be reasonable to leave the world and find it elsewhere. It should be possible to find it.

But I was afraid that when they left, they would come out.

Because he doesn’t know if there will be any delay in time. For example, after the gold coffin has been sent once, does it take a long time to recover?

If that’s the case, it will still appear in the same place, but it will take a little longer.

But it is also possible that it will be the next transmission, it is to another place, not the same place.

Both of these possibilities are more likely to encounter enemies than in the place of the burial dragon valley.

In the process of waiting, he also understood the situation around him.

Later, I chose to believe that Shen Lang might be randomly sent to another place. It doesn’t make much sense to continue here. If you search for it, you may be able to touch it.

He and Shen Lang are very tacit understanding. Everyone has the same mode of thinking, and naturally they want to go together.

If there is randomness, then in such a peculiar environment, nature will not stay in a place where there is no target, but it will be a place where people, such as sects, city-states, etc., or at least landmarks can be found. Big river.

According to this line of thinking, Gao Hanqiu began to search for the road. He also thought about some methods, such as walking some places and leaving a mark.

He doesn't have a fixed point to mark, but he can mark himself in the direction of going forward!

In that case, no matter which sign point the Shenlang encounters, you can follow the direction, and you can skip the signs that have already passed in the opposite direction, without doing nothing.

The last road came to Shibuya.

Will come to Shibuya, but it is not entirely accidental.

It is the practice of Gao Hanqiu, which is similar to that of Shibuya. Therefore, naturally, in the big environment, he will search in such a direction.

It's like a camel in the desert can find the oasis water more accurately.

That is achieved by sensitive physiques and instruments based on temperature and humidity, climate differences, etc.

And here he is the difference through the aura.

It is precisely because this ancient cold world is a cold world, there are cold fires everywhere, so places like Hanze are the directions that the cold autumn does not like. The higher temperature Shibuya is the direction that attracts him.

Looking at the width of hundreds of thousands of miles, it is naturally impossible to sense Shibuya, so it is not complete, but there is also some contingency.

Just the choices along the way will tend to prefer the direction, which is reflected in a general guidance.

When approaching, Shibuya immediately gave him a strong interest and quickly accelerated.

He is actually marking the side of Shibuya. According to the mark, he can find Shibuya. It's just the direction he's going, and the barbarian's route to Hanze is not a direction.

Only when the edge of the valley is waiting for convergence.

But he felt that if Shen Lang saw the sign, he came here and naturally understood that he would stay here.

Chapter 2469 - Will it be so smart?

The time of Gao Hanqiu is not the same, the speed of the road, the distance to find Shibuya, etc. are different.

So this is actually the first settlement he came to, that is, they arrived earlier than Shen Lang.

When such an outsider came in, the barbarian naturally took him to the front, to the strength of the cold autumn, not to mention the ordinary barbarian, even their elders, are far from their opponents.

So he went straight all the way to the barbaric.

The elders who stayed in the barbaric, after seeing the face, realized that they were not opponents, and immediately implied that they quickly dispersed and fled, and he also took the lead.

When the cold autumn arrives in this environment, I feel very good and very suitable for his cultivation.

He used to find a large number of fire spar under the abyss of the back of the Jianlin Jianzong. The fire energy of the robotic kinetic energy of the killing warrior was also picked up by him.

Later, he was very adapted to the hot environment outside the Dragon Valley.

So he is ready to wait here for a while, maybe Shen Lang will find it here.

But this is a place, what is the general situation of the world, he needs to figure out. Before, I just ran the barbarian and didn't grab it and ask for it. I didn't read their memories.

Because those are just embarrassing, he can aim to see, that is, the elder.

The elders took the opportunity to act, running very fast, taking advantage of the advantages of the land, as far as possible to dodge.

Gao Hanqiu did not stay in the barn, but directly chased out.

This is the induction of Meng Xi.

So in terms of time, he is a little earlier than Shen Lang. If it is not here that the sensory induction is suppressed, when Shen Lang enters Shibuya for the first time, it can sense that the cold autumn is in the front dozens or hundreds of miles.

When they rushed to the barren hills, the cold autumn was full of chasing the barbarian.

The elder had just wanted to open himself alone, and later found out that he was coming to him. He was dangerously alone. Finally, he found that the group of elites that the elders Meng Meng brought out came back and called them to fight.

Those elite barbarians came back with them, and under the instructions of Meng Hao, they did not follow the past.

When I saw the cold autumn, they all found that this is the main person to find in Shaguo!

So immediately someone said to Gao Hanqiu, saying that they are not enemies, they have seen the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand, and the Lord of the Kingdom of Sha is looking for him, and he is here.

But the cold autumn ghost knows what the king of the country is, and naturally thinks that these red giants with green teeth are treating him as another human being.

He did not listen to their explanations and did not pay attention to anything.

This fell in the eyes of the barbarians, and I felt that the problem was serious. The Lord of the Sha State was not looking for people and friends in the sand country, but looking for enemies!

They used to know that Meng Hao led the Shen Lang to the barbaric. Whether it was a friend or an enemy, he would give this person to the Lord of the Kingdom of Sha, and let the Lord of the Sand State deal with it.

So they also ran to the side of the barbaric, to bring the cold autumn to come here.

In this process, Gao Hanqiu seized the elder and read the memory of the elder. He initially knew what it was, and what kind of world it was.

But the elder was left behind, did not appear in Hanze, he was rushed back when he came back, and he did not face Shenlang.

Therefore, in the memory of the elders, there is no memory of the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand.

Those barbarians who have just returned are regarded as jealous by Gao Hanqiu and disdain to understand their memories. Otherwise, even through the golden mask, through the body shape, through the dog god, you can know that this is the sinking wave.

However, all this happened in Shibuya. When it was just now, these barbarians ran so fast, and Shen Lang, Dog God and Meng Jin also came from behind.

It corresponds now.

Those barbarians, who were chased by the cold autumn, also led the cold autumn.

When I saw Shen Lang, I couldn't help but shouted.

"The Lord of Sand! The people you are looking for are here!"

"Quickly stop him!"

"This is the person you are looking for!"

"We found it for you!"

"You have to protect us!"

Meng Jin is coming soon, listening to his own people, asking for help from the Lord of the Shah, and letting his old face be embarrassed!

And he just heard the cold autumn and Shen Lang say hello, and then heard these people's words, and learned a rough.

This person is the main source of the sand country, they really are a group!

But it didn't come in together, which is a little more reassuring. Explain that it is not targeted to map the valley... and so on!

If they are a group, one person is here first, and the other one is looking for it, will it be so clever?

In the past ten years and eight years, there is no place for outsiders to visit. Will two people arrive at such a short time?

These two people are still divided into two batches and do not know each other. Is this possible?

It's just as good as the time when they came back with Meng Hao?

Everything shows that the three of them are going to invade Shibuya, it is a conspiracy!

Meng Jin was originally awkward because of his face, and it was hard to see the people, and he wanted to reprimand the people and pointed out the mulberry.

Now I have to warn myself to keep myself good, and don't give the other party an excuse to make trouble!

This Sha people chased so many people, but did not start killing, is deliberately waiting, want to create opportunities, as long as there is a tribe to do it, he will use the pretext of counterattack, you can occupy the moral high ground to attack the barbarian!

Meng Hao had just been killed by him personally. His own current state and strength had to be greatly reduced. These tribes did not have any fighting spirit at all. It seemed to be scary.

In this case, the home court is not an advantage, but a burden.

Meng Jin has attached great importance to it. This is the time when Shibuya has reached the end of life and death!

The enemies of these sand countries can't get rid of them, and now they can't even go in and hide. If you really want to do it, there are only two options for death and death!

"The Lord of Sand, is this your friend?"

Meng Jin tried to make himself smile. Try to show that he and Shen Lang are friendly, and then reprimanded.

"What kind of system do you have! Is this the way to hospitality? Give me back!"

The choice of Meng Jin is the same as that of the Hanze patriarch.

Since the tribes are not helping too much, they will let him vote for the guns, and at any time become the cannon fodder or hostage of the other party, then dispel them first.

“The patriarch!”

“The patriarch!”

The barbarian had just complained to the head of the sand country for the first time, and then he saw the patriarch.

Originally, they all knew that the patriarch’s condition was very bad. At this moment, when the patriarch appeared in good condition, he could not help but burst into tears.

“Family, patriarch... I, my sacred pearl, was robbed...”

Meng Hao entrusted the clan who kept the beads of Hanze, and when he saw the patriarch, he almost burst into tears!

Chapter 2470 - Hey

Shen Lang heard this sentence, and then recalled the memory of the small section of the cold autumn, it is really such a thing!

In the view of Shen Lang, the barbarians are almost the same, and it is difficult to distinguish without special attention.

Before Meng Meng gave the Hanze Pearl to another barbarian, I wanted to sacrifice everyone to stop him, so that the protection can send the beads of Hanze back.

Shen Lang just didn’t pay attention to it at first, but later found this and did not pay attention to it. I don’t care about the pearl of the cold, and I didn’t think about retaking it.

So no matter what happened halfway through the road, or at the entrance to Shibuya, he did not pay special attention to the barbarian.

In the memory of Gao Hanqiu, the first is to chase the elders, and the latter is to catch up with the elite barbarian who came back from this group. The main goal is still the elder, and there is no squatting hand that he regards as “喽啰” .

But when everyone is being chased, one of them is special. If you want to run out alone, it seems to be protecting something.

Gao Hanqiu took the items he was protecting, but he didn't know what it was and he didn't know it carefully. Shen Lang did not pay attention.

Now I know that the pearl of the cold is now in the hands of the cold autumn.

The patriarch has already had a daring pearl in his hand, which has a great effect on him. So even if you lose a lot, it is very painful, but the problem of life and trouble can be solved, or it is a little gratifying.

Now that I heard this, I realized that Meng Hao was brought back with the Pearl of Hanze!

His first reaction was not to think that Meng Hao was misunderstood, but that Meng Hao was damned!

Since I got the Pearl of Hanze, why did I hide it with other people, why not take it to him?

Don't give him the rim of the cold, but also kill him, then the pearl of the cold, that is, Meng Hao wants to leave it for himself!

The second reaction is unpleasant.

No matter what the situation is, it is a barbarian. What brings back is something of a barbarian.

Is it ok to rob the barbarian on the barbarian site?

Originally he dispelled all the tribes, but this time he also angered the tribe and felt that he was not protected.

So he recruited, left the tribe, and then signaled the others to leave.

Everyone of the barbarians, for the patriarch, is very revered. Not to be like God, at least the number one authority figure.

The patriarchs came out, they were all very confident, and they knew that they were left behind, and the patriarchs could certainly solve them, so they all withdrew.

The one who protected the defeat of the Pearl of Hanze was nervously flowing down. He also wanted to leave, but he did not dare to go.

“The Lord of the Shah, this is in our Shibuya, this is our Shibuya thing. Your friend, chasing our people, is a misunderstanding, but grab our things, should you come over?”

He said that he was justified and not humble.

“You can’t deceive too much.”

There are still the beads of chill in the hands of Shen Lang. It is not rare for this stuff, but it is conceivable that Meng Jin is eager to get another spare, because they have to go to Hanze to capture it. It is very difficult.

“What you are talking about is the truth on the one hand. On the other hand, if my friend is not good enough, then today he has already been caught and robbed by your people.”

“Moreover, he is a person, you are dozens of people, do you mean to say that he is chasing you?”

As soon as this was said, Meng Jin’s face was red.

is not that right?

There are dozens of ethnic groups on their own, which also include some scared to hide, including an elder. It’s really no face to blame others for chasing!

It is precisely because this shows the strength of the power, so that he will be so good and good.

“You mean that who is stronger, can you take advantage of it? If one day I go to the sand country, you are just not there, I do the same for other Sha people, do you think it is right?”

People are always easy to double-standard. If they are crushing their own posture, then of course they will talk about strength. Whoever has a bigger fist will have the final say.

But when you are in a weak position, you want to use a common rule to constrain each other.

“Are you the sand country to threaten me?”

Shen Lang wants to laugh, no matter Hanze or Barbarian, they are valued for the lives of the tribes. They will not look at their own tribes, which means that the whole incense is broken.

But he is not afraid, the identity of the owner of the sand country is simply fake. What kind of encounters will the Sha people do, it does not matter to him at all.

On the other hand, the owner of the sand country, known as the king of the world, left and disappeared for two or three thousand years, and the sand country was not destroyed, indicating that the sand country still has its own emboldened spirit.

“I am not threatening you, just comparing my heart.”

Meng Jin certainly wants to threaten, but now it is not in the sand country. He can't take the ordinary Sha people as a hostage. If you really have this thought, you will only let others take all the barbarians in Shibuya as hostages.

As soon as he bit his teeth, he directly squatted down!

“The Lord of the Sand State, I am as a barbarian patriarch, I beg you!”

Meng Jin wants to get back the pearl of the cold, and the Shen Lang is very clear. But I did not expect that he would use the way to kneel!

Hard to grab, threaten what, Shen Lang is not afraid, rules or something, will not care.

But the patriarch of the barbaric barbarian, a very hard-hearted person, suddenly knelt down and begged for mercy, which made him wonder how to respond.

Gao Hanqiu did not know much about all the conditions. When he first met, the patriarch came out with him. He also had something to say with Shen Lang. It is said that the head of the country of Sha is familiar.

Therefore, if you need to get rid of the things you just grab, he does not care.

However, there is a tacit understanding between Gao Hanqiu and Shenlang. If Shen Lang does not open his mouth and does not instigate it, it means that he will not move first, and not let it go out so easily.

He is still waiting for The result is that the patriarch of the barbarian has directly squatted down.

Both of them are facing each other, this is the No. 1 big man, so it's so embarrassing...

The dog  has no reaction, and it doesn't seem to be the same in it. It is waiting for the instructions of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang is able to understand it with a little thought. Meng Jin is only able to better suppress the state of the body because he just absorbed a little bit of the enchanting pearl, or else he will run.

In this state, let alone three of them, no one is an opponent. Once the hands-on, the consequences are light, then he is one, and the whole barbarian suffers!

And Meng and today are reluctant to let go of the pearl of the cold, and can only be surrendered under the rules and so on.

Anyway, there is no face today, and it is worthwhile to exchange a rim of the cold.

The barbarian, seeing that he had lost his protection, had to let the patriarch be humiliated and could not help but be angry!

“I am fighting with you!”
