

First Strong 2481

Chapter 2481 - Deep discovery

Shenlang small shovel is used several times, which can better control the degree, but after all, it is a magic weapon, and it is a high-speed running state. If you eat it a little earlier, there will be no small error, and it can't be like the holy armor. Be precise.

Therefore, after coming out, he can't guarantee that it is just five cycles. Errors of tens of meters and hundreds of meters may be there.

Gao Hanqiu and the dog * don't understand the specifics, but they feel that since Shen Lang will come out at this time, there must be reasons. They also want to see if they are still within the scope of the mark.

After everyone's search, they looked at each other.

No!

Everyone did not sense the scratch marks made by the previous cold autumn.

The marks of scratches from one to nine are about a kilometer away from each other. If they are near the mark, it takes more care to sense the next one before and after, but it will be easy in the vicinity.

If they have reached the middle of the two marks because of the error, no matter which side is closer, a few hundred meters apart, it should be able to sense.

This is assuming that the front and back errors on the approximate line are also possible if the deviation is to the left and the right.

But the same, as long as it is within a few hundred meters of error, whether it is to the left or the right, the same can still sense those scratches.

Just after some searching, I didn't find any scratch marks around me, that is, two cases. One case is that the deviation is relatively large. When I get to the left or the right, I leave the range of more than one kilometer, so I can't feel it.

In another case, it is the twenty-mile range that has been cycled before.

Then they waited for the waves to express their opinions.

Shen Lang is also further verified by the Holy Grail.

"We have been under the ground just now, but according to my instrument records, our directions are straight, and there is not much error, and the distance is about a hundred miles."

This answer is similar to their guess.

Since it is a cycle of integers, and there is no obvious deviation, it is reasonable to have a big tree with a scratch mark around it.

Not finding the tree is another result: through the underground way, has left the cycle!

This result has made everyone excited.

Although it has been more than a hundred miles before, but there is no time for delay, but the result of the infinite loop is still a bit desperate.

"continue!"

Gao Hanqiu made a proposal and looked at the front.

Since everyone has been moving in one direction since they came in, even if there is a strange situation before and after the cycle, they still insist on one direction. In other directions, in case you go back...

"Still mark it!"

The holy armor is not wrong, and it is accurate enough, but the special circumstances of the environment have made him unable to rely on the holy armor.

Everyone continued to move forward, and then carved a mark on the tree.

The last time I suspected the loop, so it is a scratch, but now it may not. If you use scratches, it may be too much and cumbersome.

So it was changed to a simple digital notation, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5...

Still keep a mark of kilometers, so marked to one hundred, it is about two hundred miles.

In this case, even if the cycle of more than one hundred miles is not counted, they are also deep into the Tianmo Lin more than three hundred.

Marked a hundred, and did not meet again, at least to explain everyone's progress, has been on the right track.

The latter will not continue the one-on-one logo, but everyone will still have a more willingness to meet some of the more special circumstances encountered. If there are similar encounters, then they will respond carefully.

Behind it, everyone is moving faster, because it has been in the past for at least a few hundred miles, but there is no discovery at all. This is not in line with the name of Tianmo Lin.

“Attention!”

After probably moving forward to more than 500 miles, Shen Lang noticed that the fog in the forest was rich and rich!

This is not a sudden thickening, but a little bit of enrichment. When it comes to it, it is already a lot stronger.

The scope of the naked eye is only one or two hundred meters, and the sensory sense is up to five hundred meters.

This is half the distance that has been shortened when you first came in, which means that the fog is twice as thick.

The two of them naturally feel the same. The reminder of Shen Lang is also a confirmation of the approximate change.

However, the two of them are more excited, because entering the Tianmo Lin is so far, there is a slight change!

The environment has become more dangerous, and naturally there will be more dangers, and there will be more gains.

“Look there!”

Gao Hanqiu pointed to a place in front.

That is as they move forward and just appeared in the field of vision.

Because of the fog, the only thing that can be seen now is one or two hundred meters. This thing is not far from the front.

It is normal to have a pit, a depression, a basin, etc., but this place is still a bit special.

It is not a depression on the ground, but it is like a circle of curved walls, showing a space of more than 100 meters.

These walls generally exist and are covered with weeds, which are no longer visible. But the whole pattern is not like natural, but artificially built.

They came in all the way, everything in the forest was natural, but they did not find any treasures.

At this moment, there are people who are transforming buildings. Whether this “man-made” is a human race, a predecessor who is advancing, or a demon in the Tianmo Lin, it is a trace.

There are traces, indicating that there is life, and there may be some clues left.

The three of them naturally fell into the 100-meter crater and wanted to check it out to see if there were any specific findings.

“Do you think... is this a little familiar?”

When there is no clue around Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu observation Dog God is a rare speech.

“Familiar? Emperor, what do you think is familiar here?”

Shen Lang immediately asked a sentence.

It is not the dog nose, but the master of the behemoth world. Most of the time can be regarded as living directly in the mountains, even if there is a cave, and it is different from human architecture.

So on such an occasion, perhaps it will have more original feelings.

Gao Hanqiu also looked over.

The dog * was only a bit skeptical, but seeing both of them look over, there is no more discovery, let it come to the spirit, which shows that it is found earlier than Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu!

This is also the time to feel the presence of the brush.

“Do you feel like this here...”

Chapter 2482 - Decent food

The dog * does not intend to sell the offense, but it is also inaccurate, so it is not a positive tone.

When it was not finished, the surrounding area was moved by the earthquake!

“.....paw!”

The dog * warned and said its suspicions.

And with it saying “paws”, not only earthquakes, but the existence of tall walls, they are gathering together.

Normally, I will doubt that this is a change in the environment. There are organs, but the reminder of the dog * makes them feel that they can correspond.

Isn't this like a paw?

It's just that the claws are huge and reach a hundred meters wide. The tall walls that are erected are not artificial buildings, but the fingers of the claws!

Just because a lot of soil is covered, and it is covered with moss and weeds, it can't see the original look, then the big one will not think of the finger, it will be thought to be architecture.

The vibration just happened, not the earthquake in the depths of the earth, it is just the vibration around the rice. In fact, this claw is moving, in the pinch!

Further observation can be seen, it is not a paw, but two claws.

Then the claws should be pulled together, not pointing up, so it looks more like a building that is surrounded by defense.

Now where they are, this is the space of the closed claws, and this claw, now it is caught, to pinch them.

The claws are so huge, then the body of this creature, there is no need to say more, naturally it is a whole hill next to it!

Sure enough, with the vibration, a lot of rock and gravel fell behind the back and above.

“Roar!”

Since the dog * was the first to find something wrong, it is naturally the first to be prepared.

The other party wants to pinch them with big bullying, which makes it unreasonable, to bully it? Who is not afraid of it than the size?

It is that the body is getting bigger and bigger, and then the giant claws that have been pushed over are thrown over.

The dog * is transformed into a body, and the space around it is not enough.

Plus the other party wants to pin them as ants, and can't wait. Therefore, Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu, one left and one right, quickly flew upwards.

Shooting people first shoot the horse thief first to smash the king.

The dog gods deal with the claws that are directly pinched, and they attack the past “mountain”, which is the main body of this giant creature.

“How many years have passed! Finally, a little decent food has come! Hahahahahaha...”

The mountain hair made a loud noise, and a lot of rock and soil on it fell, but there was some adhesion, and some grasses were very vital, and they pulled the soil firmly and did not fly down.

So this looks very weird, even horrible.

What its body looks like, it can't be seen clearly now. It can only be said to be a monster with a lot of mud, mountains and weeds on its body and face.

And this time, it can be seen from the post-knowledge. There is no towering tree in this hill!

Naturally, because of the dirt and sand, it is used to camouflage the body. For a long time, there will be weeds. Because there is dirt, we can live weeds.

But those trees are small enough. The bigger you grow, the more you have to take root. This is not a real mountain, and there will be no chance of growing into a towering tree.

However, what kind of situation is there in the original forest? This small hill is just not the kind of towering trees that are obviously more than a thousand years old. Ordinary big trees are still there, and they have not caught their attention.

“If you want to treat others as food, are you afraid that others will treat you as food?”

When Gao Hanqiu spoke, he had already underreported the recycling, and the swords and swords were criss-crossed, and the entire hill was pressed back in the past with a fierce momentum.

At this moment, the claws underneath are pinched to a few tens of meters, and they have already encountered the resistance of the huge dog god.

The body of the dog * is still inflating, and its claws are also directly swaying to the two giant claws.

Whether it is physique, strength or speed, the dog * is very powerful, directly forced the two closed claws to retreat outward.

Even if it retreats, it is directly torn by the dog's claws, and the indirect wind blows off the dirt and weeds above, revealing the approximate appearance of the claws.

The hills pressed down above, under the attack of the sword of the cold autumn, first of all, also cut a large number of rock and stone that is not its body, showing the approximate appearance.

Even if there is some dirt in the place, there are some weeds covered, but basically what kind of shape, can still see a rough.

It was a giant cockroach!

The trick is to sit and squash together, let yourself squeeze together as much as possible, and the two claws in front are closed to the ground.

It maintains a state in which it is pretending to be a mountain, mobilizing and absorbing a large amount of soil to bury itself. Over time, the vegetation will naturally grow.

In just one sentence, it is also possible to ponder a lot of information.

“How many years have passed” proves that it has been disguised as a mountain in the past, and it has been a long time. This may be calculated in a hundred years. It should not be clear about itself.

“There is finally a little decent food coming over,” which means that it is disguised as a mountain, perhaps to avoid the enemy’s life, but it also needs food. Some creatures passing by, even snake worms, will be its food.

It’s just that you can’t look at it Today, three of them are considered “decent food”.

This sentence also shows that it can know the strength of Shen Lang three, at least can sense their power.

Knowing that they are very powerful, they will not be there if they miss the opportunity, so they will act as soon as they enter the claws.

Knowing that they are strong, but still dare to attack, it shows that it is also very confident. And confidence comes from strength!

Both the dog * and the cold autumn have started. Shen Lang is not in a hurry. He is also above, but he is thinking about this information and wants to know more.

As for the deal, he is actually quite experienced and will never give him a chance to go to heaven.

The first shot is to try to solve them as soon as possible. But now that the “food” has not been solved, it has been attacked to reveal its awkward side, which makes it angry!

The huge cockroach quickly changed. It was originally a mountain. Now it stretches out and looks like it, but it makes Shen Lang surprised!

Chapter 2483 - Long Yu

I thought it was a giant monster, because I couldn't see the truth, plus mud and grass.

Now with the body of its nest stretched out, this big movement also makes all the rocks and trees basically shake off, which reveals the true appearance.

Even if there is no flesh, it is completely in the form of a sacral bone, and it can be seen what it is.

Not only was Shen Lang surprised, but Gao Hanqiu was surprised.

Dragon!

This may not be the ancient dragons, but it is very similar to the ancient dragons that have been seen in the burial dragon valley.

Shen Lang's view of the world view of the universe is a process of continuous expansion.

In the previous life, I felt that Huaxia was the center of the world. The center of the world went out from the Central Plains. The farther away, the more remote the wilderness. Unless you reach Heaven!

In this world, according to the scientific concept, I feel that the small earth is the only miracle of life in countless galaxies. Human beings are the only wisdom of the universe.

The more you go to the world, the more you will not sit in the sky.

The universe in the eyes of the Earth's human beings is likely to be like the earth in the eyes of ants. Its own limitations have led to all cognitions, all of which are self-referential.

Life on earth is to survive in order to adapt to the global environment. Human beings are easy to reverse the cause and effect, and feel that such an environment can give birth to life.

This is like the primitive era, when people in the tropics feel that there is no place in the cold, and the tropical environment is a necessary condition for human existence, and vice versa. With true contact and exploration, the environment is found to be adaptable.

I have been to many worlds, and Shen Lang has become accustomed to biodiversity and biological commonality.

There are a lot of creatures, a long time ago, perhaps a common source, spread to different worlds and different planets.

For example, the dragons, in the ancient times of the mainland of the mainland, are dominated by the world. After disappearing, there are also suspected homologous variants of the dragon to dominate the world.

In the earth, there are also legends of dragons, and there are legends of similar and different dragons in different regions. Perhaps it was the existence of this race, perhaps the few individuals on Earth that occasionally came.

Dragons of different shapes and characteristics in different places may also be descendants of other races.

Therefore, the dragons will be met in the ancient cold world. Shen Lang is not surprised. What surprised him is that he encountered a dragon in this day.

Is it the so-called demon that can be eaten by people in Tianmo Lin?

In the funeral dragon valley, Shen Lang and the cold autumn, snow and snow have all fought with the magic dragon. The dog * was attacked by the poisonous grass seeds, and was absorbed by Shen Lang into the space of the heavenly book, and did not experience that one.

When the dragon dragon stretched out the body, its claws were also closed, and there was no direct connection with the dog god.

The body of the dog * has also recovered its body at the moment. It is very huge in the spirit of the Emperor, and with the continuous cultivation and evolution, now its realm is far better than the original beast world.

For their behemoths, the level of the realm will directly affect and be reflected in the physique.

Therefore, its current body size, like a hill, is bigger than before, and it is even worse than this giant dragon dragonfly!

Looking at this huge cockroach without flesh and blood, the dog * can smash it with a paw.

But it is also sensible. This thing can have such a large skeleton. It shows that it is a very powerful beast. It can be disguised as a mountain. I don't know how long I have lived, but I dare to challenge them three. Grasp.

This is by no means a specimen skeleton that can be smashed at will.

Their two big guys are squatting, and the cold autumn and the deep waves are still in the air, but between the dragon and the dog god, they are kept at the height of their eyes.

“You are not small, but can you really bully?”

When Shen Lang spoke, the super robot of the killing warrior was released.

Under his secret manipulation, the killing warrior robot quickly deformed, and the change also attracted everyone's attention, watching it grow from small to bigger!

Soon, it has become hundreds of meters tall, surpassing the dog * and the dragon, and they are looking down.

“This is not the size of its original, it is several times larger!”

Shen Lang continued to make the killing warriors bigger and become the height of the kilometer. Many of the big trees around them were crushed and crushed after being supported by the three giants.

The height of the kilometer, so that the dog  also feels a sense of oppression, I believe that the dragon is also there.

This thing has been seen in the cold autumn and the dog god.

In the early days of the mountain, it was directly from a huge mountain, and it was still sitting, standing up to two or three kilometers, surrounded by a blazing flame, powerful.

At that time, a few of the big fairy-levels like the Yunyun Fairy, in front of it, it was like taking mosquitoes and taking flies, only to share the desperately.

At that time, there was no way to sink the waves. It was a cold fall and a quick flight from a hundred miles away. A sword hits it and picks up its source of energy.

Later, Shen Lang discovered that it was a robot warrior. It was suspected to be the invention of the descendants of the river basin. After the upgrade, the Shengjia system had the highest authority and took over directly.

He also provided new energy for the killing fighters, but naturally it is not comparable to the original.

The original fire energy was taken by Gao Hanqiu, and later used in the retreat of Zhoushan. So now I see this robot, Gao Hanqiu is also a bit intimate.

The dog  also saw the killing warrior At that time in Baijiazhuang, the Baijiazhuang was deeply immersed in the underground guardian beast dragon elephant monster. At that time, Shen Lang released the killing warriors, and everyone worked together to solve the dragon elephant behemoth.

At that time, the dog  went to the mainland of the island, and the strongest encounter was in the realm of the great fairy. In front of it, it was like a chicken, and the dragon elephant was the first powerful.

After that defeat, the dragon elephant beast had eaten it, and it was also made up for it. Only then began to feel that there was meat in the waves.

The last time I played, Shen Lang was the assistant of the killing warrior. For the sake of safety, the size of the change was similar to that of the Emperor and the Dragon Elephant.

It has not yet recovered to its maximum state, but the height of the kilometer is already very shocking. It is that the towering trees in this forest have also passed directly.

Shen Lang did not let the killing fighters continue to rise to two or three kilometers. On the one hand, it felt that too much flexibility would not be enough, and the battle might not be dominant.

On the other hand, it is also because the forest is filled with thick fog. Now the sensitivity of the dense fog is only about 500 meters. If it is too tall, he will not be able to sense the above situation. If there is any problem, it is too late to control.

Chapter 2484 - Magic dragon

The dragon scorpion, originally had the same size as a hill, but it is shrinking, and when it stretches out, it is not only big but also very long.

For it, the body is a huge advantage. The light is exposed, it is very horrible, plus its dragon power, the general race, the beast, will be shivering, dare not move, just swallowed it. .

But this time it's awkward...

The opposite of a beast, not only the body is not smaller than it, and compared with the body and body fat, it is a real bone, it looks very cold.

The same one, like it, seems to be the awkwardness of the human race, but it is getting bigger and bigger, and finally it has to look up to the height.

This is by no means the height that the Terran can have, and it can also be sensed. This is not a change, but a real height.

Two big guys like Light are enough to hold it down, let alone two humans.

It originally thought that this was a good batch of food. I didn't expect these foods to be full of thorns. I couldn't break into my mouth if I wanted to eat.

"Do you still think about us as food?"

Shen Lang sneaked a sentence, while letting the killing warriors shrink their bodies, which is much smaller than the kilometer, but it also keeps a few tens of meters higher than the magic dragon, keeping a suppression on the momentum.

When he spoke, his body flashed away quickly, at the core of the killing warrior, and then put a sun bead into it.

Originally, Shen Lang didn't think about this usage. Just released the killing warrior, it also boasted an imposing manner, and did not want to rely on it to defeat the dragon.

But when it was released, I remembered the spectacular flames of the original, and then I thought that its fire energy was taken. Although there is no specific discussion with Gao Hanqiu, the guess is also a very strong fire energy.

After the source of the energy is lost, the strength of the killing warriors is greatly reduced, and even a little accumulation, in addition to showing the momentum, Shen Lang is less let it play.

What if you make up the fire energy?

This is the foundation of its energy and should be more than just a flame.

Now I have a lot of sun beads, obviously much stronger than the energy that I used to know for thousands of years.

So under the whimsy, Shen Lang used to put a sun bead and give energy to the killing warriors.

When this is done, a prompt is obtained through the contact: the energy supply reaches 100%.

In the next moment, the body of the killing warrior changed again!

Originally it looked like a giant cockroach. If you have a robot concept, you can see that it is the body of steel and a giant robot.

But now, at this moment, the energy supply has reached 100%, and it has begun to show significant changes.

It has a layer of bones that grows out quickly, and then the body forms a layer of fluid-like, generally smooth skin.

The speed of change is very fast, and the robot skeleton of the steel body becomes a bionic robot. In addition to seeing that it is a robot, everything is more like a person.

Moreover, there is no state of being in a fire, but the momentum that erupted out of the body is completely different.

Suddenly, Shen Lang has already understood.

When I saw it in Zhoushan, it broke out of the ground and was in a state of fire. It was already when the energy was insufficient. It could only supply a small part, causing many functions to close and shrink.

After the high cold autumn, the energy source was taken again. When the sun wave received it, and the Yuanling stone was used as the energy source, it had already made it very small, and only maintained the basic shape and combat power of a robot.

Now this giant bionic robot is the whole picture under its energy-complete state.

This change, the dog * and the cold autumn is invisible, but they have been in close contact with the killing warriors before, and the changes in this moment are clearly felt.

They can all feel that the energy contained in this guy is likely to be worse than them!

The magic dragon, although not seen the fighting power of the killing warrior, but when it first appeared, the light is far better than its huge physique, has already carried a great pressure.

After the change, the strength is far more than one realm. Let it feel like it's a state of shackles, it's the same change as it is alive.

On the size, the quantity of theory, and the power of theory, there is hardly a place where it can be dominant.

It seems that a single one can fight it. Now there are four, how can I do it?

I still wanted to make a big difference. The result was not officially started, and it was already suppressed.

“Several... Can I not wake up when you are here? You will continue to pass by here, and I will continue to nest in the mud.”

The magic dragon 骷髏 just shakes the prestige, immediately smashed, this contrast, so that Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu are a little bit dumbfounding.

When I was in the funeral dragon valley, the magic dragon they met, what a momentum!

Even if it only grows the flesh, it doesn't have a complete epidermis. It is also the majesty of the embarrassment. If you just hit it, you will fly the cold autumn and the snow.

At that time, they were three people working together. By relying on the sudden attack method of Shen Lang, it was the solution of the magic dragon.

Therefore, seeing the dragon again, Gao Hanqiu is a high degree of alert. Even if he has retired for a hundred years, he has broken through to the realm of the early immortal, and he dare not care.

Now this dragon is directly recognized...

Shen Lang is much lighter. After all, when he was buried in the Dragon Valley, he turned over the dragon, including the soul of the ancient strong and the dragon.

Now all three of them have a hundred years of retreat in the space of the book are far better than the original.

But at this moment, the attitude of the dragon, he has another feeling, will it be a deliberate demonstration of weakness, in fact, what trap?

The dragon is a race that once dominated the world. Even if it is now, there is still dignity. For Tianmo Lin, they understand very limited, and now can sense the range, but the radius is 500 meters!

In theory, five or six hundred meters away, there is another lurking dragon that lurks, they will not know. Or which other hills are also the camouflage of the dragon, it is difficult to distinguish!

Because from a certain point of view, its body is already dead, there is no flesh and blood, it lives in a scorpion form, the body is pressed with countless sediments, just like buried fossils, to be subdivided It's not that easy to come out.

"It's not impossible to let go of you, but what do you use to exchange? We are here to come to this day, it's not casual, there is not enough interest, how do you let us let you go? Don't forget, but we are not provoked first. You, you want to treat us as food, we have to eat us!"

Shen Lang directly said.

Chapter 2485 - How do you eat?

For the value of this dragon, in fact, Shen Lang also made an assessment in secret.

The last time I was buried in the Dragon Valley, the dragons were all treasures. Everyone couldn't take so much. They could only pick them up as much as possible.

But now this form of sputum is different, and the blood of the flesh is gone. Simple visual inspection, did not see the existence of Nedan Dragon Ball.

It can also survive in a sly form, which is equal to the fact that the body is dead, but the soul is still there, and the remnant is transformed into a scorpion form.

In this way, its most valuable is its soul, followed by a pair of keels.

It is precisely because of this, its strength is greatly reduced, it will be so decisive.

Its spirit is to be read, and it is not so difficult for the current Shenlang, because he is equal to the spirit of several dragons.

Even if the dragons here are different, there will still be some common.

But the keel is a bit sloppy for everyone. If you take it with it, it is too big to occupy the place. If you want to refine the medicine, you don't have the time and energy. It is left to the martial art, or it is used for trading.

There is also a benefit, that is, feeding the dog god.

Because of this, Shen Lang directly said, but he did not offer.

After hearing the words of Shen Lang, the dragon dragon was silent.

“Do you know who I am? I am friendly, you are when I am a bunch of bones?”

Its embarrassing words are unpleasant, and there is also a Longwei.

The subtext of this subtext is: Laozi's words are a step for everyone to stop. Did you really think that I couldn't believe it?

This attitude was revealed, and Shen Lang nodded secretly.

This is what the dragons should look like!

If it is so refreshing, it may be a kind of embarrassment, and there may be another conspiracy behind it.

“If I don’t admit it, you should be a dragon. On our side, you are more like a descendant of the ancient dragons. Of course, you may also be a true descendant of the ancient dragons.”

Shen Lang answered his words earnestly.

After listening to his words, the demon dragon was a little dumb.

“Since you know that I am a dragon, are you not afraid of me?” When he asked this sentence, he felt that there was a dim sum.

The appearance of the other party is obviously not afraid!

And the other side has four, it seems that it is not inferior to it, so strong and strong, why should you be afraid of it?

“What do you think? As you said, you are now...” Shen Lang shook his head and sighed: “It is a pile of dead bones.”

The demon dragon immediately became discouraged.

“Isn’t it? I have a bunch of bones left, or else I can be trapped in this bird place? Or else you in this area, dare to talk to me?”

It is both a complaint of dissatisfaction, but it also indirectly acknowledges that it is at a disadvantage.

I just found an excuse: If you are not the body of Laozi, you are a few, I am not easy to destroy?

“No matter how powerful you have been, you have been defeated by others and become like this. It is a fact that you can’t change, just as we are stronger now than you, and this is something you can’t change.”

Shen Lang once again emphasized its situation.

The demon dragon was depressed for a while.

It complained that it was dissatisfied because it used to have more powerful strength.

But the problem now is that others have admitted that it was once powerful, but it reminds us of its current dilemma and will not give it a face in the past!

The face is supported by strength. If it is strong enough, if it has multiple dragon partners here, it is to dominate the scene.

Now it is dominated by others, and it can only be surrendered. If you disagree, you can only fight. Both sides understand that it is impossible to beat.

“How do you want me? I have already been like this, how about wanting to take me?”

The sorcerer’s words are said to be grievances.

The Tang Dynasty Dragons are trapped here in the form of shackles, disguised as mountains, and stubbornly alive, which is already very dignified.

Actively weaken the recognition, the other party did not give face, but also to uncover its scars, so that it can not escape, it is too bad!

“Being poor, you attack us first, you want to treat us as food!”

If you are in the dark, let the dragon be speechless.

“And what you said... finally a little decent food came, indicating that there are more people, beasts and other races that have been eaten by you!”

“...”

“I don’t know what your time is like, but in the outside world, normally, everyone is in harmony with each other, people don’t commit me, I don’t commit crimes.”

“It is not reasonable to take the initiative to attack others; if it is countered by others, it should be deserved, and it should even be attacked!”

“Like you, hide here and eat all the creatures passing by as food. That is the evil sects and demons that are full of evil, and they are the targets of the world.”

The reprimanding of Shen Lang has made the Dragon Dragon dare not say anything.

It is definitely not recognized in the heart. The dragons are very powerful. The reason is that they are fixed. They are at the very top of the food chain. All other creatures are food. Whoever they want to eat will eat!

But that is based on the fact that they dominate the world and speak with strong power.

Now that it is the weaker side, it can only be justified, just like the weak card. However, in terms of reason, it is completely impossible to refute. The set of things that people say is completely reasonable.

“We should avenge all the creatures that have passed through here and eaten by you, and dismantle you into pieces to pay homage to everyone!”

Shen Lang’s words are so sinful, even if he knows that he is not likely to avenge creatures that he has never met before, and he does not know what it is, but he still feels that he is just!

Just when the dragon didn’t know what to say, Shen Lang added another knife.

“If you say you have a bunch of bones left, how do you eat? Do you have a stomach and a stomach?”

When talking, Shen Lang looked over into his awkward body.

The dragon has a shame that has been smashed by clothes...

“I don’t need their body and belly, but their spiritual consciousness, I can absorb it, and I can warm my skin!”

This is a private matter that belongs to it. It is not necessary to tell people, but when it is so ridiculous, it can’t help but directly say it.

This is to say that it is further recognition that many creatures have been swallowed up.

The spiritual power of those creatures is directly absorbed by it, which is one of the reasons why it can be stable and long-lasting.

Everything else is absorbed as nutrients. Although it is not directly swallowed into the abdomen, it completely absorbs their vitality.

It is this more vitality that allows it to survive in a sly form.

Chapter 2486 - 2 conditions

Referring to the resurrection dragon in the funeral dragon valley, there is enough aura energy, and it may be able to follow the bones and gradually grow out of the flesh and blood!

Of course, that would require an extremely long process and a lot of energy support. The two dragons in front of it were because of the large amount of liquid world essence.

This demon dragon can be unbeaten by swallowing some passing creatures. It is already good.

It resides in the form of a hill, and naturally it is impossible to go hunting in the distance. Perhaps it is because of the rare encounter with Shen Lang that they have such high-quality “food”, so they just can’t wait to come out.

“You see, you have admitted yourself, swallowed up a lot of creatures, then we want to kill you, it is a just move for the heavens! You want to live, not pretend that you can wake up without you, you We must give us a reason.”

“What reason?”

Devil Dragon wants to say that you are not a just move, just want to talk about interests!

“If you encounter a big demon like you, we must remove you if you have encountered it. Otherwise, you will not know how many souls will be destroyed by you!”

“If we let you go, it will make us uneasy, to make up for our conscience, you have to come up with enough benefits to exchange.”

“...”

Demon Dragon thinks this little human race seems to be shameless. It is obviously forcing it to extort, but it seems to be very wronged and very helpless.

At the moment they talked, the killing warriors completed further recovery!

It was originally transformed from a steel body into a bionic robot. The whole speed has been very fast. Now, at this time, it is a perfection of all aspects. It has just been formed, and now all aspects have become rounded.

Although it is obvious that it is a robot, all aspects are very delicate, especially the parts of the eye. After a layer of change, it has been as vivid as a human being, as if it is a soul.

And the momentum that it had soared was beginning to be restrained.

This feeling, like a strong human being, will be significantly stronger after breaking through a new realm. Then, after further stability, it will charge the domineering of the leak, but it will become more reserved and reserved. .

If not everyone sees it as a transformation of a robot, I really doubt that this is a special human.

“I have been trapped here for a long time, for a long time, and there is nothing valuable in itself. But you still want me to give benefits, then it can only be my understanding of this place.”

The dragon is not stupid, Shen Lang is willing to talk to it, it can also guess what it is for.

In a strange environment, from a certain perspective, information is the most valuable thing, which determines security, determines whether you can get more benefits, and so on.

To put it simply, Shen Lang wants to get its memories, and naturally understands everything it knows.

The reason why it is not hard is because its state is a bit special, the body is already awkward, and it is completely controlled by the spirit.

Even the skinny dragons are far better than the average beasts, even if they have the grasp of winning, they dare not care.

In the case of a heavy hand, if you are not careful, you may have smashed the dragon. Or the dragon can find that he has no way to live, and he can fly away from his own soul.

Under such a state, it is no longer a complete soul god, even if it can absorb part of the mental power, it can not get the memory.

So, if you launch an attack, you can quickly control it, so that it does not have the opportunity to swell. Either it needs its cooperation.

They came in so far, and they finally encountered a living thing, and the situation in the front was obviously twice as severe. Naturally, they did not want to let go of the opportunity to collect information.

Shen Lang gave the default, what is needed is its information.

“I can tell you all the information I know, but I have two conditions!”

When it came out, Shen Lang couldn't help but laugh.

“Do you have conditions? Still two?”

It is very good to be able to spare your life. I have to mention two conditions?

“You have the ability to kill me. I admit it, but I have the ability to get you no clues. It doesn't matter if I have all the bones.”

The dragon dragon is also very real. It is dead once. If you are not afraid of the smoke, then you can really blow it at any time.

Seeing that it has this preparation, Shen Lang slightly hesitated.

In fact, he is not afraid of danger. If he really wants to evacuate, with the strength of their three, and the greater danger, they can also delay the use of the gates of the Three Realms and directly transfer them to the Tianmo Forest.

But laboriously came here, I don't want to go back empty-handed, especially when I see the dragons are trapped here, and I want to know more about what this magic forest has.

“I take a step back, a condition, as long as you take me away, I can give you directions and tell you all the information.”

This scorpion dragon also knows the negotiation strategy. It has two conditions to open. It is difficult for others to accept it, and then returning to a condition, it should be easier to negotiate.

Shen Lang certainly does not want to bring it!

If you are not a pro, you should not only worry about it, but also be wary. Besides, the information it refers to is not necessarily correct. If it is not good, there is a trap.

“You don't have to bother to guide you personally. I just need to read a copy of your memory. I will never hurt you. You have to leave here and you will not interfere at all.”

This time, Shen Lang also directly stated his conditions.

“Ha ha ha...” The dragon dragon laughed wildly.

“Do you think it’s so simple? I gave you the memory that means that everything is valuable to you, you still don’t take me away, what benefits do I get?”

“You get us to spare your life, get us not to interfere with you and leave here.”

Shen Lang knew that he would not be so easy to accept, but also began to make other plans.

“I have been tired of this broken place, but I can’t leave without it. If you don’t take me away, you can’t get a little information from me!”

“If you want to get my memory, it is two conditions, take me away, and give me a body like it!”

It refers to the killing warrior.

It has no concept of robots. In its view, this is a giant, but just in front of it, this giant has quickly grown flesh and blood!

For it, it is a huge attraction. If you have the opportunity to restore the original dragon body, and then long bleeding fur, it can do anything!

Chapter 2487 - Powerful attraction

This point is completely unthinkable.

The change of the killing warrior, in fact, he is not clear, before accepting the robot, did not have too deep understanding. Just having this change, he is also an accident.

I didn’t expect to fall into the eyes of this dragon, but thought that he had the ability to make a living muscle. Just that speed, it’s just that it’s magical, it’s like a phantom.

If it can be revived again, it is really worth anything.

After understanding its true purpose, Shen Lang sneered.

“On your memory, is it worth both?”

Of course, he will not say that he can’t do it. If he severs the other person’s thoughts, he may not cooperate.

The dragon is not being held. “If you change a place, my memory may not be of such great value. But here, it is very valuable for you! Don’t say two conditions, ten conditions are worth!”

This is to grasp the point.

Its memory, in this day, there is an advantage in the magic forest. It is like a map in a maze. Without such information, it can’t even go out.

Seeing that they didn’t talk, the dragon was laughing.

“You can come here, have you been in front of a confused forest? Have you been away for a long time? Do you not understand how to get out? I have a way!”

Confused forest?

As soon as I heard this, they all understood that it refers to the forest belt in front of the infinite loop. Listening to the name of this confused forest, obviously there is a way to confuse people.

Perhaps the twenty-one-one cycle they have verified is not necessarily true!

In retrospect, after entering the forest, the faint mist has already affected the facial features and the gods, and then makes people feel very comfortable, and it is likely to have a deeper impact.

When I finally confuse Lin, I have been deeply affected by it, and even if I maintain a high level of alert, I may still be manipulated.

Finally, leaving from the ground, perhaps as they suspected, the above puzzle did not affect the underground.

There is another possibility, that is, completely control the small shovel and walk in the ground. There is no decision to participate in observation, such as eye and ear!

Seeing that it is very proud, Shen Lang faintly blocked him.

“Sorry, we are fascinated by the forest. We will come out soon. If there is something else in front of us, we may feel that we have passed through you and it has been hard to escape. In fact, hehe...”

The dragon dragon has no face to look at, otherwise it will become very ugly at this time!

Originally it was just an example. I didn't expect the other party to mention the example to it.

is not that right? Normally, you should feel that you can leave from it, and you will all survive, but in fact it is now being held by others.

Could it be that they really underestimated the forest?

Once again, the old dragon feels that the times have changed. This is not the era of their dragons. This human race looks small, but it has its incomprehensible ability.

After negotiating here, it was in a deadlock.

I thought that using the example of confusing Lin can make the other party feel that its value is greater, but I didn't expect it to be nothing!

“You don't pretend! You must feel that my memory has great value. Otherwise, you should just do it to me!”

骷髅 悻悻 悻悻,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,

It simply doesn't say much more, but with this, it can also clarify its own value.

"It's not impossible to take you away; it's not impossible to reshape your body..."

When the dragon was in the spirit, he quickly asked: "What are the conditions? In addition to my memory, what are the requirements? I can consider it."

"There is no denying that the dragons are very strong, even if you are left like this, it is still very strong."

The sentence of Shen Lang makes the dragon very comfortable!

This little human race, the mouth has been very mean, finally said a fair words in listening!

But in the comfort of it, it immediately became alert, and this person would kindly praise it? Must have a picture?

"Of course we are also very strong, and one can kill you."

The magic dragon snorted, it was not convinced by this sentence, but felt refuted powerless, simply showed disdain.

"But that is when we treat you as an enemy. If you want to take you away, then you are like our partner. We can't always guard against our partners. Then there is the danger of being attacked by you at any time!"

"I can....."

Shen Lang interrupted the guarantee it wanted to do.

"And if you reshape the dragon body, your strength will multiply! Ten times, dozens of times the power is possible, by then we may not add up to your opponent!"

Shen Lang has a heart-filling fascination soup to make it more imaginative.

In fact, what it was like at the peak, and now there are a few remaining strengths, it is the clearest. But whoever unknowingly beautifies his peak, especially at the bottom of the valley.

I am thinking that one day I will be able to return to the peak. It is a different kind of change.

The sentence of Shen Lang, let the dragon and the dragon almost boiled up, thinking about the change of the giant cockroach, as if you can instantly be dozens of times powerful, it is an irresistible attraction.

Yes, now they add up to four, it is not an opponent; when the peak is restored, it is a group of ants, just let them go!

“Can we make this scene appear?”

I was thinking about a few of them who were begging for a scene in front of him, and immediately ushered in a cold water.

is not that right?

Since the other party knows that this will be the result, knowing that it will be able to despise them, how can it give it this opportunity?

Just a round of negotiations have shown that its wisdom is not low, of course, there is no need to express it.

“So... If you want to take me away, to reshape my body, I have to make sure that I am controlled by you, right?”

Shen Lang nodded directly.

“Crap! Since you have recovered, you may have died at any time. I believe in your verbal assurance, or do you believe in the oath?”

“Before you reach that day, you will be very smooth and very cooperative. But what about success? Can we gamble with our own life on a dragon that has nothing to do with us?”

“...”

The dragon can't refute it, from the perspective of others. Even if it is itself, what is really swearing is to achieve the goal. It can't be from the heart, just as it is still thinking about revenge.

Negotiations, the dog  is not good at it, so it has not been interrupted, it is not much to say in the cold autumn.

At this moment, it is the chance that it will be played!

Chapter 2488 - I can't guarantee

“As a high-ranking dragon, you must have never seen my race. I am an ordinary beast, but because I followed my master, I was very obedient, very loyal, and offered my soul. Now my achievements, you also I saw it.”

The dog  suddenly appeared, said Shen Lang as its master, and counted all its achievements to Shen Lang.

The relationship between it and Shenlang has been upside down. At the beginning, it is far better than Shenlang. It can protect him. Later, it has more adventures with Shenlang. It has reached an unprecedented height. This is the nest. It has not been realized in the world of giant beasts for thousands of years.

Therefore, its feelings for Shen Lang have long been unusual. It is really necessary to be a master. It will not be rejected, just like a mount that is willing to be a sinking wave.

Just now, it was on the sidelines, and it also saw a general. It is not easy for this dragon to conquer, so it is necessary to waste your tongue, not directly.

Now that I have given a very attractive bone, I am waiting for the dragon to bite.

It stands up and shows up, that is, let the other party make up their minds – follow the benefits of Shen Lang!

The dragons continue to remain silent.

Just after the dog god, it will never believe in it, but it feels that even if it is exaggerated, it should be based.

Otherwise, there can be such a powerful behemoth, it can not be heard without any. And looking at its attitude towards this Terran is really like being to the owner.

In addition to it, there is the giant giant next to it.

This is done in front of it, not only the rapid growth of the flesh, but now it is still abundant, I believe that with a little more time, it will be completely restored!

It does not need to follow any evolution, and it is already satisfied if it can reshape the body.

But now that this should be said or not, it has already been shown, just wait for its decision.

“It turned out that this is your purpose...”

It sighed.

At first it firmly believes that its information is valuable, or why the other party does not force it to attack it? Isn't it just that there is no information that dispels any of its spirits?

It is now realized that this human being does not attack, not for its information value, but directly wants to conquer it!

It thinks that with the value of information, you can master the decision-making power, but now it has changed. There is still a decision, but it is decided whether or not to be included.

Even if it becomes a cockroach, it is still a dragon!

In this way, it becomes a slave to human beings, driven by human beings, how to have a face to live?

However, I have not known how many years have been here, and it is so hard to come to such a strong one. The next time I see such a powerful life passing by, I don't know how many hundred years and a thousand years.

The most important thing is that even if there is a strong passing next time, it will be swallowed up to become nutrients, and then continue to live.

It is still impossible to leave here. The dragons of the Tang Dynasty, leaving a pile of dead bones, disguised as a mountain, are covered with vegetation, does this have a face?

Not to mention the hope of restoring the flesh, even if this hope is not so easy to achieve, there is a chance. This is the possibility that it has long since given up.

All the hesitations and entanglements, in the consciousness of the demon dragon's spirit, is also a thousand times, and there have been many measurements hesitating.

The external presentation is just a moment of time.

"If I give in, you really won't marry me?"

When the dragon dragon asked this sentence, the willingness to directly represent it has been loosened, or it has already been decided.

Shen Lang beheaded and said seriously.

"To put it bluntly, I just need a guarantee. After all, your dragons are too strong, and once you recover, it will be a skyrocketing change."

"But in fact, for example, this gods and behemoths, we are all very respectful partners, everyone is brave, together with the enemy, share the benefits together. If you join us, I will not treat you as a slave, just like partner."

Of course, the demon dragon also understands that if the relationship is confirmed, it is the master servant, and it is a day of liberation to wait until this human being is dead.

It also understands that people say this well, that is, give it a step. This is also the best step. If people do not accept the name of their partners, they will only be in the name of slaves.

Although it will definitely be free after being controlled, it is also a rare situation to be able to give a little face in name.

This moment is the moment when it makes decisions that affect the future.

I am trapped here, I am not willing to die, but how to continue my life, but I will wait for a longer time to die, or one day the strong will come over and end it.

This kind of ending, it has long been enough, but not reconciled, there is no other way.

Now that the opportunity is in the face, you can leave, and even have the opportunity to reshape the flesh, can you agree?

Still need more hesitation?

It decisively yielded!

“Human, you can take me away and give me a heavy life. I am willing to offer my soul for you to drive. If you are jealous of me, he will fight for life, and he will die with you!”

Listening to its firm statement, Shen Lang waved his hand.

“Still forget it, whether it is taking you away or letting you grow up again, I can only do it, but I can’t guarantee success!”

“You play me!” When you listen to the words of Shen Lang, you can’t help but rush.

“Oh! When you are in the best state, aren’t you dozens of times stronger than us? Don’t you be beaten like this, you can’t walk here?”

“Are we going to be much stronger than you? Can you do things that you can’t do easily?”

This continuous questioning let the dragons have nothing to say.

is not that right? Are they stronger and stronger than they were then? How can I play this ticket?

“It doesn’t matter! The situation is definitely different from the time I was at the time, and if you just want to leave, there is still a chance. As long as... as long as you try your best, I will accept it.”

It is also a self-consolation. How is the situation now, how can it be known? Maybe better or worse!

“So, let’s make it clear in advance, whether it is taking you away or helping you recover, I will do it, but in the end it looks like, I can’t guarantee that everything will still be resigned. You can accept it, don’t say I lie to you.”

Shen Lang said this, let the cold autumn and the dog  secretly sigh!

This is a big flicker.

The two big baits released in the front, when the agreement is formally reached, they emphasize that they may not be realized, and they must be resigned. The key is that others have nothing to say, and it is perfectly reasonable.

Chapter 2489 - Conquer the dragon

The demon dragon also feels so, feeling that he is fooled.

But you can’t blame others for playing it, because everything is clear to it, and there is no bullying, even when it asks for a contract, to remind it.

The problems that may not be completed in the contract are pointed out in advance; without you signing the contract, the decision is still in your hands, and the contract is more transparent.

Already so honest, what do you want?

It feels that the swell of the waves has covered it, but the result of the rational analysis is that the other party is good for it. Finally, let it make its own decisions, and now you can still do it.

But can you do it?

Just everyone, you have come to me for some negotiations, is it boring?

The whole process is the process that affects it, and it is a process of convincing itself.

Now that it has been convinced, it has been confirmed that consent is the best choice. It is really boring to point out that it may not be completed at this time.

But what is the solution?

The result of the promise is that these two conditions may not be completed, but only possible.

But if you don't agree, these two conditions will definitely not be completed, and there is no hope at all!

If you don't agree, the best result is that it continues to be trapped here – of course, it is ok to be trapped in this area, and it is ok to change a place nearby.

The worst result is that the other party feels that it has not been surrendered. Let's work together and kill it on the spot.

Therefore, even if you feel that you are being played, after considering it, you can only choose to agree.

“Well, I have been careful to consider, as long as you have the heart to take me away, and restore my body for me, even if the most important, I have no complaints.”

When I said this sentence, it could not help but sigh.

Wrong! In this way, I signed a contract to sell, but I did not have any protection.

It has already prepared for the cooperation, waiting for Shen Lang to give it a soul contract.

At this time, Shen Lang slowly flew over the head of the dragon.

Just after getting along for a while, Shen Lang could not understand how it survived in a sly form, but it was observed that there was no other internal organs in its body and there was no Dragon Ball inside.

Therefore, its spirit is still in the head, it seems to be somewhere inside, but also its brain.

Seeing that this is about to begin, Gao Hanqiu and the dog  are all highly alert.

Even if they believe that the dragons are thinking clearly, it is necessary to be just in case, in case this is entirely for the sake of numbing the waves, take the opportunity to take the Shen Lang away?

It's not good to do it, and saving is hard to save.

The killing warriors, who were controlled by Shen Lang, were also eyeing the enemy and preparing for the attack.

The dragons who were guarded by the three parties did not dare to have any disagreement.

But at this time, it felt a familiar feeling and could not help but scream.

“You are this...!”

It actually feels the atmosphere of the dragon in this human race!

There is a dragon's breath on the body, and the spiritual consciousness also has the commonality of the dragon!

This discovery made it very surprising, and the thoughts flashed quickly in my mind.

This human race is the embodiment of the dragon? Not very likely, not at all, the breath is not to this extent.

Is that a distant descendant with a dragon's blood?

Although the dragons forked the human race, or the human race forked the dragon, the picture was too beautiful to imagine... but it is possible if there is an indirect blood, or other ways to inherit the inheritance.

I don't know the answer now, but no matter which answer, I have already made this demon dragon feel a lot better.

Because it was originally a succumb to human beings and promised to be a slave to mankind, it was a very shameful, very wrong thing.

But now this is not a pure human being. Whether it is a descendant of a dragon or a close relative, it can be regarded as a self-person, and it is better to accept more.

With this premise, it is even more optimistic, and feel that the other party has the ability to force it out, it is probably to save it!

Just because of his partner with him, and other human beings who are stronger than him, in order not to give people a handle, they can only use the pattern of the behemoth, take it as a slave, and save it by the curve.

No wonder he is so kind, will make all the results clear, let it make a decision, this is his own people!

Think of Shen Lang as his own dragon, and put down the last defense, letting Shen Lang invade its consciousness.

When the conscious touch touches, the scorpion dragon is more reassured, it is not a feeling of error, a sense of familiarity of the spirit, this can not be fake.

It is more cooperative, without any defense and closure, letting Shen Lang apply.

For it, this is of course a very dangerous decision, because the other party is entirely likely to take its sacred spirit.

However, Shen Lang's "self" did not disappoint it. In addition to leaving a mark on his soul, he read a memory and even withdrew.

After Shen Lang returned a little, the scorpion dragon was kneeling in front of him, and it was a big gift to prove that it was truly tamed.

"This is the ancestor of the high cold autumn high, this is the * of the behemoth, and everyone will call you the old dragon in the future!"

Shen Lang directly named it, no matter what name it has, since it has now been accepted, of course, it is necessary to make a name as the owner.

Accepting this one is a step closer to success.

"Yes!" The dragon dragon obeyed the promise.

Gao Hanqiu and the dog god, all of them nodded and said hello.

Then Shen Lang, it is to shrink the killing soldiers, and then collected.

"Everyone will take a break I need some time to digest the memory of the old dragon and find a safe way."

Everyone has no meaning. What is resting is actually not needed, just familiar with each other.

The dog * is still very happy. Just now he is willing to help Shen Lang as a slave, but Shen Lang introduced it as a great behemoth, and privately called it a dog god.

And for the dragon that is bigger than it, it is only called “old dragon”, so it can be seen.

Shen Lang really needs a little time, because this is the dragon!

Even if it is a demon dragon that has survived in the form, it has just given it a mark of the soul, and it is also consumed by him. And to read its memory, there is a lot of content inside.

The dragon has a long life. It has survived here for a long time. If you want to fully understand it, it is also a very brain-burning activity. Now it is also the current needs. First, let us know the situation inside the Tianmo Lin.

Especially in the immediate situation, this dragon will be trapped here, will not be random for no reason?

Chapter 2490 - Fountain of eternal life

When the magic dragon entered the Tianmo Lin in the years, it was impossible to calculate. It doesn't matter how long it takes to survive here in a sly form.

When it came in, it was of course a sound dragon. With the strength of the dragon, of course, it is a posture that cannot be alive.

At the beginning, it was not just a dragon that came in, but also a dragon dragon partner.

They are very fast, and when they enter the Tianmo forest, they quickly go deep into the inside, and any dangers and the like are not seen in their eyes.

Which inconspicuous dare to attack the dragons?

What natural dangers can harm the dragons?

With a domineering attitude, they don't need to be careful in choosing the direction, and they are directly rushing in.

The result flew for a long time, only to realize that there was a problem, and I have been flying in a similar environment, and I have never encountered any living creatures.

They came to the devil forest to find a fountain of eternal life.

It is said that the spring water in that place is unique to the heavens and the earth, can be brought back to life, and can live forever!

Dragons live far longer than other creatures, but they still die and grow old.

They also don't believe that this can really come back to life and not live forever. Just from this legend, I guess that is an excellent supply of spiritual things!

If all of their vitality can be rejuvenated, life can be continued, and there will be more time to cultivate and evolve.

When you cultivate to a higher level and evolve to a higher form, the functions will be different. Simply counting it is a longer life.

At that time, there was no name for Tianmo Lin, but it was already a mysterious forbidden place.

Their two dragons entered this foggy forest, and after the rampage, they found that they were trapped. This is what they call the "confusing forest."

They are not afraid of danger, they are fast, and they have tried more possibilities than Shenlang.

In addition to the loops in the foggy forest, they tried to fly above the sky, ready to fly over the forest from above, or at least see what the situation is.

As soon as the result flew to the top, I encountered an inexplicable rolling thunder!

It seems that it is a constraint of space law, so that it cannot leap from above.

The height of the kilometer of the killing warrior has actually reached the level of prohibition. It is because it is special, there is no soul life, and no thunder has been recruited, or it may be because it has not reached the critical point.

After nowhere in heaven, what they think of is also into the ground!

The dragon is so powerful that it drills under the ground and drills far from the bottom and then comes out again.

Basically, it is the same way as Shen Lang. Of course, it has successfully crossed the confusing forest.

According to their experience, this confusing forest should have such a circle around the outer layer of the forest. Whether you want to go in or want to go out, you must face this test.

If there is no way, then it will be trapped in the loop of this confused forest.

After the successful cracking, they were very underestimated at the time, and felt that this danger was no different.

Considering the breadth of the forest, and the fountain of eternal life does not have the slightest clue, to find it, it can only be a carpet search. In order to speed up, they choose to split into two.

After the split action, this old dragon is taking this road.

Just like their self-confidence, there are any creatures on the road, and they feel their dragons far away. They have long been scared to avoid them. It is too lazy to care for the spring of eternal life.

Many special springs, suspected of the fountain of eternal life, have come close to contact, confirming that it is not the fountain of eternal life.

Finally, in this forest, I found a strange place.

Because there is no development here, the aura is abundant, and there is no cold fire. It can be regarded as a huge oasis in the ancient cold world. There are all kinds of exotic flowers and trees and all kinds of trees have long-lasting life.

But that place is a ridiculous place in the forest!

In the middle of the green grassland and forest, there is a ridiculous land where grass is not born. This is obviously not normal. At that time, it was guessed, and the middle of it would be the location of the Fountain of Eternal Life!

Normally, the place where the Fountain of Eternal Life is located should be more abundant in the surrounding aura. The surrounding waters will be greatly helped. There will be crazy flowers and trees, which will be like a hundred years. Amazing.

But the old dragon was another idea at the time. It suspected that this fountain of eternal life actually engulfed the surrounding auras!

In that case, the closer you are, the more you have nothing, because the aura that comes together is just a diversion, and it is completely absorbed by the Fountain of Eternal Life. There is nothing wrong with it.

This is just an idea, but if you want to sense it, you can't sense what is in the ridiculous land. This makes it more and more guessing.

Then I rushed straight in.

The result has just arrived at the ridiculous land, and some inexplicable green monsters!

They seem to have emerged from the ground, as if they came out of nowhere, and they completely rushed to it.

The pride of the dragons, of course, will not put these little things in their eyes, and a dragon can already kill them.

But because of this light enemy, let it miss the opportunity.

These green monsters are not only not killed by the earthquake, but they are desperately drilling into the body! Start madly licking its body!

These things are not only a large number, but also can be drilled into the ground, can fly in the air, is a full range of coverage, that is, after the Dragons missed the best attack opportunity, they want to fight back and defense is too late.

At that time, it felt like just like a person who was full of ants, desperately shaking off and tapping, it was only a small part.

These green little monsters are very strong in life. They are counter-attacked by the dragons and may kill some of them. However, under the huge amount, they are still licking their bodies.

Worst of all, it wants to rush forward and confirm whether it is the fountain of eternal life, but the more monsters there are.

In the end, it can only be retreat, and the ridiculous land is withdrawn. The green monsters are not attacked by swarming, but a large number of green monsters already above and within their bodies cannot be removed!

The old dragon began to realize the trouble, and the dragons were so ruined by some little monsters who didn't know what the ghosts were, which is really unacceptable!

It can only retreat while asking for help, preparing to meet partners, and solving these problems. After rest and preparation, come back to this ridiculous place.

The result has not been converged to another partner, these things are like the bones of the bones, so that the old dragon white has a strength, but there is no room for any play.
