

First Strong 25

Chapter 25 - Ancestral treasure?

In the face of Mr. Wang's enthusiasm, Shen Lang is a faint smile.

"If you are not stupid, you don't need to be seated. If you are stupid, then I am honestly describing it, not a swearing person."

Teacher Wang only thinks that there is a blood that has to be sprayed out...

"you you....."

This time all the teachers responded to the class teacher's achievements. After all, the spurt was so violent, but everyone knows that Shen Lang is very honest and has not noticed whether there is any cheating.

It is impossible to have evidence, let Shen Lang admit it, and now it is impossible to do it by his majesty.

"Is there something else?" Shen Lang asked quietly.

"If you don't make it clear, I will call your parents later, let your parents come to ask you!"
Teacher Wang said a threat.

Tell parents that it is a killer for children, and of course it is not so useful for high school students. But also to see who, like the honest students like Shen Lang, of course, do not want to let parents be shamed, it also has a threatening effect.

When Shen Lang heard this, his eyes immediately sharpened!

He can almost imagine that when the mother heard the phone, she must have come to the school with sincerity and fear.

"You threaten me?"

“Ha ha!”

Teacher Wang felt that she finally pulled back a little momentum, and he sneered to show the default.

“No problem, you can play!” Shen Lang sneered.

“Do you think I dare?” Teacher Wang also sneered.

Notifying parents that this is a small matter, and at this juncture, no parent dares to pay attention!

“I will go to the reporters of the newspapers and TV stations to let them interview the director of the Academic Affairs Office and the principal, and see what the leaders think about the class teacher’s forced progress to recognize cheating.”

After Shen Lang finished, he turned and walked away.

County-level newspapers and TV stations have no influence, no one is watching!

Leaders will not look at it, but as an important tool, the relevant staff will look at it and will screen the news happening locally to the leaders.

There is no college entrance examination in two months. If such news breaks out, no matter how the school leaders respond, let the county leaders pay attention to it. It is a big event. In the end, it must be him!

“You stand!” Teacher Wang quickly grabbed the sinking wave, fearing that he really ran away.

This kid was previously bullied and weakly recognized. Now he feels threatening him to be the head teacher. It is simply the opposite!

“Do you dare to threaten the teacher?” he couldn’t help but yell.

Shen Lang disdainfully said: “When you threaten students, I thought you were a teacher? I thought about how you would teach students how to learn?”

“ ... ”

Teacher Wang was blocked.

Yes, he is a teacher. They all use threatening tricks. What happened to students learning to threaten? It’s just... just a teacher calling a parent is a common thing, how can a student find a reporter?

“In fact, this is a threat. I am in a hurry, I will pass all the college entrance examinations, you will be good!” Shen Lang snorted.

Teacher Wang jumped in my heart!

For this important moment of the college entrance examination, even if you can’t answer it, the candidates will be one. The confession can only indicate that it is a boycott attitude. At that time, it may be directly investigated by the Education Bureau!

To take a step back, even if the Education Bureau does not pursue him, the school will pursue him. Zero points will directly lower the average score, and will form a bad reputation. In the future, he will dare to let him be the class teacher.

Compared with this consequence, or direct interest, Teacher Wang began to feel that he couldn’t stand the anger, nothing was wrong.

Got it! Instead, it’s not been two months. What do you do with him? It’s also a good idea to get cheated when you take the exam!

“I admit your achievements...” Reluctantly say this soft, so that Teacher Wang is not depressed!

“Oh!” Shen Lang sneered.

“But you remember, the next time I will tell all the teachers to focus on you!”

When he heard that Teacher Wang did not forget to let go of his words, Shen Lang could not help but shake his head.

“It’s weird! Other teachers are eager to learn that the higher the student’s score, the better. You can’t see my grades improve. I really doubt you are Dong Wenbin’s dog leg!”

“you.....”

Teacher Wang’s fists are tight.

Who can’t see you!

Who is Dong Wenbin’s dog leg!

If you are as arrogant as falling rain, I am whispering to you every day, can you do it? Is your history so successful?

The threat also threatened, and the blow was hit. Shen Lang showed that he is not a soft persimmon now, and he stayed away from the office and went straight.

Instead of going to the cafeteria, he left the school and found the teahouse near the school.

The teahouse is on the edge of the river. The place to drink tea is a pavilion that extends out of the river. You can enjoy the river and river views while drinking tea. After all, it is just drinking tea. The consumption level is not comparable to that of Huayue Yue Palace, but it is the most pressing place in the county.

If you come here to drink tea, it is basically an arty style with identity.

Shen Lang is of course familiar with the tea house and the pavilion, but they are all looking outside, or they are coming in for the first time.

Yue Gongzi directly wrapped the teahouse, so when he came, he did not need to ask, the waiter took him directly and went to the upper level of the pavilion.

“Shen, brother, you are here.”

On the upper floor of the pavilion, there is only one person in Yuezhen South on the Linjiang table, in addition to the soaked tea, there are also many dishes and snacks.

“I was sorry for not being able to say hello last night. Considering that you just finished class and delayed your lunch, I am ready in advance. Please!”

Explain a bit, Yue Zhennan invited Shen Lang to sit.

Shen Lang is also not polite, sit down and eat with chopsticks.

Seeing that he did not refuse, Yue Zhennan was relieved a lot, sitting slowly drinking tea opposite, not eager to say anything.

He can't worry now, first of all to do a good job and express enough sincerity.

Being able to eat things unkindly is a good start to repairing relationships compared to yesterday.

Shen Lang did not talk to eat, Yue Zhennan also stared at him carefully to observe. After not drinking a few mouthfuls of tea, his attention fell to the front of Shen Lang!

Shen Lang hangs a piece of jade in front of his chest, because of the relationship between the vegetables, swaying in front of him. At the beginning of Yue Zhennan, he did not care. With his family, he had never seen anything good.

However, because of careful observation, even this jade has paid more attention to it. It has been found that this jade does not seem simple, and it has an indescribable appeal to him!

“Shen Laodi, are you jade ancestral?” Shen Lang did not call him Nan Ge or something, he took the initiative to call his brother, close the relationship.

“This?” Shen Lang looked down and then slammed it. While eating, he said casually: “We are relying on the mountain. Someone used to dig a snake hole to dig up an ancient tomb. I am jealous.”

This is the reason he thought of last night. The reason for the “ancestral biography” is too common. His family is not a wealthy family, this is all inquired.

Yuezhen South was just a little curious. I wanted to hear what the magic of this jade was. I didn't expect to hear such a source.
