

First Strong 2521

Chapter 2521 - Exploratory explosion

Those who fell down the green magic are basically the internal smashing of the smashing, that is, there is no immediate death, and there is no resistance.

There are a lot of bugs nearby, which are already stunned on the outside. Without resistance, it is easier to drill inside through the break.

So they are much faster, and the green devil, which is smashed by more scarabs, will soon have a skeleton left.

The tens of thousands of scarabs on the scene, and the same number of giant green demons, are still hurting each other.

The two sides are actually a bit asymmetrical, and the Green Devil is much more powerful than the Scarab. But the number of scarabs is more and the size is smaller. When the green devils are piled up together, they are far less effective than the scarabs.

And for the Green Devils, these worms are meat-free, and it should be smashed by those big ones.

For the scarab beetle, so many dense green demons are the best food. The two big men of the barbarian are protected by the sun waves and do not belong to their food range.

Therefore, the confrontation between them is a tie, the number of scarabs killed by the Green Devils is more, and the proportion of the Scarabs killing them is also quite a lot.

The key is that both sides are endless!

The Green Devil is constantly appearing out of thin air, while the Scarab is a targeted launch of Shen Lang, which has always maintained tens of thousands.

This is also the amount confirmed. If you put in more, he can still control it, but the size of the Scarab is not small, and the space of the Green Devil is limited.

There are more new experiences in the process of Shen Lang's manipulation of them.

For example, the high excitement of the scarabs, although many have been eliminated, but the complement is also so exciting, just as providing him with the power of faith.

And those scarabs that have squandered the Green Devils are obviously stronger and bigger!

There is no obvious enlargement in the specific physique. Under such a large number, it is not easy to distinguish, but Shen Lang can clearly know that the light point of consciousness control becomes a little bigger.

This has been verified before, and the much larger scarabs have a greater light spot, both in terms of attack power and intelligence.

Nowadays, these savage scarabs, after eating wildly, obviously have an evolution!

When they came out of the Green Devil's shin, they attacked other Green Devils, and their power was stronger than before.

And for these obvious gains, they also have a simple gratitude.

They don't know who to be grateful, just as there is a kind of gratitude to God, and Shen Lang controls them, and this beneficiary absorbs the energy of a stronger belief-like power.

After they have benefited, they are even more brave and want to smash more green demons.

After becoming stronger, the defense and endurance are also greater, and there are a lot of green devils around, so these smashed a round of scarabs, not only more experienced, but also more powerful.

With such cooperation in all aspects, Shen Lang's side clearly has the upper hand.

But for such a result, Shen Lang is not satisfied, because these green demons will continue to appear, even if the number of deaths and injuries is large, it can still make up for it.

In this case, even if the barbarian, the dog  and the scarab can eat a full, then what? Can't you always stay deadlocked like this?

Of course, it has just been verified that these scarabs can evolve rapidly as they eat. It can be bigger and eat more, so don't worry that they will eat too much.

But Shen Lang is not here to raise worms, he is directed at the fountain of eternal life.

Besides, with regard to the gold scarab, he will only use it, not knowing the specific reasons.

After these worms are used up, they must be sent back, and they cannot be left to breed.

It is not known what kind of world environment it is.

This time, I have raised fat, and all of them have become one big one. After I send them back, will they be the next one?

If not, then is it not meaningless? That is just to absorb the energy they produce.

So now he has to hurry to figure out the fountain of eternal life, what is the situation, where it will appear, and how these green demons should let them disappear.

This problem must be considered by all of them, but Shen Lang can't pin his hopes on others.

So while he was manipulating the scarabs, he continued to pay attention to the area where the green devil appeared.

Although the number is now large, and it continues to appear, there is no trace, it is out of thin air.

But there are still certain trajectories that can be found, and that is the scope of emergence.

This appears out of thin air, not randomly appearing in the entire ridiculous land, they will be crowded together, because all are in one place.

Before the old dragon would have no impression, because it was entangled by these green devils because of the general idea, it was difficult to break free, and then left the ridiculous land, not so much time to analyze.

Shen Lang is the only person on the scene who has not directly participated in the war. He has enough time to observe that there are tens of thousands of soldiers of the army of the beetles, helping to fill the space and allowing him to observe better.

A few of them plus the scarabs killed a lot of green demons, so that the re-emergence of the green devils from the crowded to the empty state, and further gave Shen Lang more information.

So now, Shen Lang has mastered a rough target range, and those Green Devils emerge from that area out of thin air.

But just knowing this, how the specific area is “running”, but still not very clear.

Just as he controls the appearance of the scarab, he doesn't know what it is.

But you can try it all together!

Shen Langyi raised his hand through the holy armor, facing the “entry”, released a missile!

If Shen Lang wants to try it, let's see if he can shoot the missile to the other side!

However, the goal has been very accurate, and there are green devils constantly appearing there. Once in the past, it will burst directly.

The shock wave of this missile is not enough for the damage of Shen Lang and others. He does not even need to warn in advance. But for these green demons, it is enough.

The effect of the outbreak is to destroy all the large pieces in the vicinity!

Not just the green devil that just popped up, the green demons that came out first, including many scarabs, were all destroyed!

The power of this attack is also a shock to Meng Jin, Fu Wei and others.

Because everyone's attack, after extending out, will quickly weaken, which is equivalent to a big discount. But the power of the last blow did not seem to be affected at all. Not only did they destroy a lot of Green Devils, but they also felt a huge impact.

Chapter 2522 - destroy

The result of this is also unexpected.

He originally wanted to see if he could take the missile to the other side. If the explosion occurred, the power disappeared from that one, indicating that it was on the other side.

Then he can go further and attack the nuclear bomb in the past.

The result now proves that there is no shuttle to the other side. But the other unexpected result was measured, that is, the power did not weaken so obvious!

That means that the limitation of this environment to everyone's attacks is mainly the restriction of the kind of vitality. For the technological products such as missiles, it is not obviously weakened.

This discovery can be considered to have a certain effect. When it is critical, it can be attacked by the Holy Grail.

Usually he does not use it very much, because the current strength is already very strong, and all the resources of the battle reserve system of the holy armor are the consumables of the reserve.

If you want to replenish, you have to go to the city of the river basin, the whole process will be more troublesome.

Just the wave of bombardment shocked everyone, and it was very shocking for the Green Devils.

They are not afraid of death, they can devour desperately, even if the dragons are not afraid.

But that is because the goal is living things, the more powerful living things, the more attractive they are to resist.

Just like the scarabs, they don't have much interest. They can only be disgusted defenses. For two flesh and blood, the barbarians are very attractive.

The old dragon last time, the attraction is naturally very large, and now there is a skeleton, there is no attraction.

To a certain extent, this kind of unstoppable attraction has overwhelmed the fear of death, the wisdom of wisdom, and so on.

But just after that wave, they did not see any creatures, but the effect of destruction was huge, and they directly felt the fear!

However, the Scarab does not have such an "idea."

Because the scarab is the weakest on the scene, it is the bottom of the food chain, and naturally there are a lot of it destroyed.

But some are far apart, many are crowded in the middle of the Green Devils, and some are entering the Green Devil's body.

In this case, it is equal to those Green Devils are the shield of the flesh.

In fact, there are still a lot of Green Devils who have not died. They have only suffered a certain degree of impact. It is also because the large green devil who died has a strong defensive power and offset a lot of shock waves.

Of course, the overall number is still a large number of scarabs.

But there are still tens of thousands of things left. These scarabs are not considered to be shocking, and all are attracted by the flesh and blood of the food in front of them.

They barely stopped for a moment and continued to lick the body of the Green Devil!

On the contrary, the Green Devil was shocked, causing many defenses to fall, giving many opportunities for the Scarab to break.

Gao Hanqiu is also the fastest reaction of the Shenlang camp. He was originally helping to cover other people. Anyone who is in danger can help immediately.

Naturally, it is also true to the situation on the field. At this moment, a large number of enemies suddenly disappeared, and they also let their own people come out. He immediately came to a powerful sword attack!

Before his sword air wave, it was an indiscriminate large-scale attack in the past, because the targets were piled up in groups.

But the result proves that it will quickly weaken, so he changed the way at this time, without a whole piece of sword air, but with a hundred thousand swords, continuous attack out!

The purpose of doing this is that he is constantly supporting the transmission of power and directly attacking these swords in front of the target.

Because of his support, it will soon weaken, and the persistence of this way now keeps the power consistent.

Ever since, this hundred thousand swords, like a substantial sword, quickly penetrated into the body of these green demons!

The attack of the sword air wave will attack all the scarabs together. These scarabs are weaker, but they are more likely to be killed by swords.

But now the sword, but it can directly cross most of the scarab, directly hit the target of the green demons!

Of course, because of the great power of these swords, each one will also kill a lot. When attacking the Green Devils, it will still kill many Scarabs.

But more importantly, Jianqi tore the defense of the Green Devils, some directly pierced their bodies, and some opened a large wound, and some knocked down the Green Devils, and many of them were directly headshot.

No matter what kind of injury, most of the Green Devils have suffered a blow from the cold autumn.

And part of this blow is to achieve the effect of lore, even if there is no direct lore, because of the wound, the scarabs have an excellent opportunity to quickly enter the wound and put their flesh Crazy stunned.

This kind of attack effect is not thought of by all the Green Devils, and it is also what Meng Jin and Fu Yu did not think of.

The dragon is also surprised.

Only Shen Lang is very indifferent, because he and Gao Hanqiu have such a tacit understanding!

He just counted as a surprise attack and achieved all the effects. Gao Hanqiu seized the opportunity and quickly completed a further lore for him.

After a wave of downswing, after just smashing a large piece, the Green Devil fell down again!

Shen Lang did not pay attention to it, not even counting the number of deaths and injuries. He believed in the strength of Gao Hanqiu and believed in the co-ordination of Gao Hanqiu.

So in addition to manipulating the scarab, the key is to continue to pay attention to that area.

His purpose is to send the missile to the but obviously has not achieved this effect, now it can be seen that it can continue to wave.

But he is ready, but in that area, it seems that there is no more Green Devils!

Could it be that the shock wave of the missile has destroyed that something similar to the organ?

Or the people behind these green devils, or other existences, have already felt the danger. They have realized that this has no effect, so they have not continued to release the green devil, and the self is closed?

Such a result is of course satisfactory.

Because Shen Lang is not going to die with these green demons, his purpose is the fountain of eternal life. These green demons are just some stumbling blocks. Some obstacles can be removed and must be removed. It is best to dissipate themselves.

And Meng Jin, Fu Wei, a few of them, also wake up and continue to hunt those other green demons!

Under the siege of their strong men, these remnants of the Green Devils will not be a hit, let alone the Scarabs have never stopped!

Chapter 2523 - Have a heart

Shen Lang is now handing over the entire battlefield to everyone. His own mind is still more in that space, while paying attention to the changes in the entire barren land.

According to his previous experience, if the obstacles are removed, the goal will be easy to appear.

Originally Meng Jin and Fu Wei, the dog god, they quickly kill the Green Devils, but because the Green Devils are constantly being added, the effect is effective.

Now, the first wave of Shen Langfei bombarded a wave, and then the cold and cold autumn again, this makes the Scarabs play better.

Then the three of them are now icing on the cake, and the natural effects are even more obvious. Originally formed a situation of almost confrontation, turned into a one-sided killing.

The Green Devils are also very wise. They can kill the Dragons. For thousands of years, they don't know how many creatures have been destroyed. They rely not only on the huge number and physical advantages, but also on the group attack tactics.

Now this state makes them desperate. Without the constant addition of partners, it is naturally impossible to escape.

But one of the worse problems is that their instincts drive the power!

Like the scarab, they are also very hungry and need to swallow everything. This is to clear the field and to satisfy their own food.

Among the creatures on the scene, the ones that are least interested in them are the dragons and the scarabs. The most interesting ones are undoubtedly the two big barbarians.

Originally, there were hundreds of green devils piled up together. Even if they were driven by instinct, the farther ones could only be squeezed in this direction, and they could not get close.

But now there are a lot of Green Devils destroyed and there are no new ones to add. As a result, the scene becomes more empty, and the attraction of those meats is even more magnified!

Ever since, their wisdom side, realizing that this is a very dangerous state, we must find a way to escape.

But the instinctive side is inevitable and still desperate to go to Meng Jin and Fu Yu!

I can't resist this responsibility and instinct, let them be smarter and more desperate!

Even if most of them go to both of them, it will not help.

I don't even need to be in the cold and autumn, but the old dragon's claws are pressed and pressed, and the dog * and Meng Jin and Fu Yu are three. It's a pleasure.

Especially the dog god, as the king of the emperor, which has evolved to an unprecedented level, its body is very huge, even if it is not worse than the magic dragon, far better than the two barbarians.

In addition, it combines with the poisonous grass seeds, so that it does not need to worry about whether it will be toxic or harmful. It can directly smash the songs in a crazy way. The speed and quantity of eating are much higher than the two barbarians.

Although it is known that the Scarab is manipulated by Shen Lang, the two quick actions of Fu, Meng and Jin are inevitable, and many are also trampled to death.

And the claws of the old dragon, but the scarabs that are killed by death are much less!

Because it is a squat state, although the claws are large, they are all big bones. If they are directly crushed, they are all those green cocks, small snail beetles, and the reaction speed is very fast, completely from the gap. escape.

The rest of the Green Devils, part of which is crazy to go to Mengjin, Fuxi, and part of it is suffering from the scarab beetle, and everyone is working together, it is simply the speed of the wind and clouds.

The Scarab is a “cleaning battlefield”. It is not just a glimpse of the light, but the blood that has fallen on the ground is finished, leaving bones.

Shen Lang roughly calculated that the annihilation of the Green Devil should reach thousands.

This is the result of everyone working together, plus tens of thousands of scarabs, and even tens of thousands of scarabs.

It is no wonder that the old dragon will be the end of the game. If it is encountered by a person, it will be a deep wave, and it will be scalp.

Limiting the transmission distance of power, even if it can kill a lot, it is estimated that it can only be exhausted.

And if you are not wary, they will be close to them when they come over, which is really dangerous.

After all the Green Devils were cleaned up, Shen Lang also used the Golden Scarab to completely withdraw the Scarabs who had been fattened for a round to the world.

When all the pressures of the holy beetle were quickly disappeared, Meng Jin and Fu Xi were also worried.

The terrible degree of these green demons, the dragon has already appeared, and they have seen it with their own eyes.

But these bugs are ten times more in number! And this ratio has been maintained, and after it has been eliminated, a lot of it has been filled in.

If these tens of thousands of bugs come to one of them...

It's more troublesome to think about it than to kill the Green Devil. If there is a slight problem, it's necessary to bite off their flesh, that is, it will be ruined from the inside out. The way the dragon is now.

Up to now, not to mention before leaving Shibuya, just met again in this day, they have been suppressed twice by Shen Lang.

But for the first time, they felt that it was a smashing fox, and borrowed the potential of the dragon.

It is also full of jealousy. I feel that if Shen Lang reads Meng Meng's memory, it will be that they first encounter the dragon and save the dragon and get such a huge boost.

The second time is in the mirror space.

It was a pleading for mercy, letting Shen Lang let them go, and then they saved them from the inside.

But even if you plead with it, you can't be convinced. Although they don't know how Shen Lang can go out, they still feel that this is a good luck, and this magic weapon is conquered.

Only at this moment, after experiencing the recent battles, they realized that the power of this young “owner of the sand country” far better than their imagination!

For example, this can summon tens of thousands of bugs, and can be constantly added to the big hand; for example, the powerful power of a large piece. And the power of his “sand man” (Golden Autumn) is so powerful.

If people want to play with them, then they don’t need dragons to shoot, they can let them die without a whole body, all become dead insects!

They finally understood that the dragons are high-ranking dragons. Even if they become shackles, they also have their proud dignity. How can they easily settle down under the sand people?

In addition to saving, it is because their strength is strong enough!

“The lord of the honorable country of sand, what should we do now?” Fu Yan lowered his eyebrows and asked for advice from Shen Lang.

This time, of course, it is also a low-profile expression of performance, but it is already a bow to the heart.

Meng Jin is also bowed to the respectful side, waiting to listen to the arrangement. They have already understood that they can only follow the soup when they are obedient, or they don’t know how to die.

Chapter 2524 - Dog god\\'s clue

With Fu Wei, everyone’s attention has come, and all wait for Shen Lang to announce the decision.

Shen Lang secretly smiled.

He also wants to know what to do next!

However, he has been paying attention to the scene, whether it is the space area where the Green Devil appears, or the entire ridiculous place, there is no change.

The Green Devil did not appear again, but there was nothing else on the scene.

There is no sign of the fountain of eternal life.

His gaze is to shift to look at the old dragon.

He already has the memory of the old dragon, but in the memory, there is no more detailed information, that is, to this ridiculous place.

Originally according to the memory of the old dragon, that is, after arriving here, find the spring of eternal life.

Their information is here!

But last time, it was just here, it was riddled by countless green devils, and then it was like that.

Now returning, it is actually observing everything around, can come here again, just under the auspices of Shen Lang, wiped out a large green devil.

For the old dragon, it is also a sigh of relief, reported that I do not know how many years of enmity.

But if you can't find the fountain of eternal life, it will still be a great regret, and even an unacceptable situation.

Because now it is already a form of embarrassment, and the desire for the fountain of eternal life is much stronger than before. This is the key to hope that the body can be resurrected.

But unfortunately, it just pays attention to it and has no gains.

"I didn't find any clues."

When it said this, it was a bit unwilling and a bit depressed.

This is the information of the dragon. It has been once again. There is no clue in the slightest. It is really impossible to say.

Shen Lang is a slight nod, the old dragon has no gains, this is normal, indicating that his memory is comprehensive, not hidden.

Dig the ground three feet, today also find this spring of eternal life!

This idea makes Shen Lang's heart move.

He still has the shovel magic weapon. If you really want to dig the ground here, let alone three feet, it is three feet, and it is very easy to do.

However, this thought is just a flash.

That is still too simple to think about, let alone the magical thing hidden in the depths of the magic forest, the fountain of eternal life, is the forbidden land in Shibuya, and it is not directly excavated.

At that time, Meng Hao took Shen Lang into the forbidden land and ate a little dog god. He also dug a large pit in the scene, but it did not play any role.

Shen Lang immediately transferred his thoughts to the first ancestor of the barbarian. The memory information of the dragons is not enough. The information on the barbarian side is not enough. Will there be any information that can be added?

At this time, the dog * spoke up.

“it's here!”

“what?”

Its opening, everyone's eyes have attracted the past.

The dog * followed the side of Shen Lang, and had always maintained the identity of a mount, very low-key. Regardless of the old dragon or the barbarian, the emphasis on it is insufficient.

It can be said that no matter which aspect is mentioned, it is the one with the lowest degree and the least sense of existence.

Now at this critical moment, the dragon has no clues, and there is no clue to Shen Lang. But can it have clues?

Therefore, this sentence “what” is full of doubts.

But because there is no clue, everyone has a mentality of a dead horse as a living horse doctor, no matter what, listen to it first, check it.

What if?

The dog * ignores other people, and it only pays attention to the waves.

At this moment, no matter whether everyone’s eyes came over or asked, it was just watching Shen Lang.

Its tail slammed, opened a long distance, and then quickly appeared a vine on the tail, and, in the surprise of everyone, extended directly to an open space.

The tail of the vine, drawn a circle in the air, although relatively rough, but in general it can be drawn that it is an area.

The vines are directly led by the way.

The dog * is still very smart, looking for the past in person to ensure accuracy. But taking into account security issues, there is no direct leap in the past.

If there is anything unexpected or dangerous, then it is a big deal that breaks a vine root and does not affect anything.

And now it is so close to point out the clear position.

Later, it did not say it directly, but directly communicated with Shen Lang.

“You know what I was burying in the Dragon Valley, it was entered by a poisonous grass seed, and then it was a refining and chemical integration.”

“So I have some different sensing capabilities now.”

“The area that I pointed out here has a certain attraction for me, which has attracted me to settle down here.”

“I think what we are looking for is very likely to be here!”

It is expressed in its way, and it is not too precise, but Shen Lang and it are also saved, and there have been a hundred years of retreat experience.

So in an instant, I learned about it without expressive content.

The dog * is now equal to the combination of animals and plants, so there is both an animal side and a plant side. The botanical side of this aspect does not belong to the level of its sacred behemoth.

It is just the most common way to grow vine-like roots at any time.

It may have been passive instinct perception, or it may be like a wave of them, but it is also darkly inductive.

As a result, under the condition that Shen Lang did not feel anything, it had obvious induction.

That is the ability of the plant side. The poisonous grass seed originally existed in the place where there is the essence of heaven and earth. Now it is obvious that it is a place that is very suitable for its growth. It is hoped to settle down here.

It is definitely not a general place to make this burial dragon valley mysterious poisonous grass seed feel great.

Everyone was originally in this ridiculous land. Before the whole day, there was no special feeling in the whole deserted land. There is a place that is now circled. It is not the relationship of the big environment That means that in this circle of vines, it is very likely that it is the place where the fountain of eternal life is!

This discovery made Shen Lang very excited, and he immediately responded.

“Are you sure there is no problem?”

The dog * groaned and thought about the meaning of Shen Lang.

After a while, it reacted.

Although it has long been one, it is completely integrated with the poisonous grass seed, which is the dominant annexation, but the poisonous grass seed is undoubtedly also affecting its body and mind.

Therefore, Shen Lang is worried that the poisonous grass seeds are not completely extinct. Will they want to take advantage of this opportunity, pit it, and regain the initiative.

In this place where the Lian people have no way, they have to be careful and step by step.

“No problem.” After the dog * confirmed it, he solemnly responded to Shen Lang, and it was certain that it controlled consciousness.

Chapter 2525 - Still you come first

The confirmation of the dog god, Shen Lang is only the last reinsurance question. They used to retreat in the space of heaven for a hundred years, so the long time should be enough to completely refine it.

After being confirmed, the shape of Shen Lang has drifted past, to the extent that the dog * refers to the poisonous grass.

No accident, this place is at the very center of this ridiculous land!

Shen Lang was also conjectured. This spring of eternal life is likely to be at the center of a piece. The absurdity here is probably the absorption of all the energy and the spread of concentric circles.

But he had just carefully sensed it, but there was no gain. Nothing was felt near the center.

Then he also felt that it would not be so simple, it should probably be the same as the forbidden land in Shibuya.

Now the discovery of the dog god, let him refocus on the most central one.

The key point of the dog * is to communicate with Shen Lang consciousness, but its guiding point is that everyone has seen it.

Now that Shen Lang is close to the past, Meng Jin, Fu Xi and Gao Hanqiu are also naturally following the past.

For the old dragon, it is easier to move the body. Because it is too big, it is not convenient to get close before it can be clarified. Only the faucets are kept at the same level as several of them.

The dog * also narrowed the body and went to the side of Shen Lang.

The two of them are the key, everyone dare not exceed them, and then pay attention to the front while watching the two.

Originally in this day, in the magic forest, the presence of the dog * is weak, and the new three are regarded as the mountable beast of Shen Lang, which is not taken seriously.

It's just that the dog * himself doesn't feel that there is anything wrong with it. Instead, it's being taken care of by everyone at the moment, making it a bit unaccustomed.

“I didn’t find any further discoveries.” It didn’t hang any appetite and promptly said what he had not found.

This sentence is said to Shen Lang, but also explained to everyone.

However, Shen Lang did not feel surprised. They could not feel the slightest, and the dog  naturally could not feel it.

The discovery just now is that this environment has inspired the instinct of the poisonous grass seeds that have become part of it.

From the time of coming, Shen Lang has refocused on this place, but until now, he personally did not find anything.

“Old dragon, let’s go!”

Shen Lang suddenly spoke, made a suggestion, or instructions.

Everyone is waiting for what he has discovered, no matter what he is going to do, he always needs a direction.

The same is true for the demon dragon. The result is to let it go first and let it be silent for a while.

“You are letting me... the area in front of the past?”

It repeats it again.

Just the dog  extended the vines, and then the stroke is also a rough range, they are not close now.

Just counting from the center of this ridiculous land, comparing the distance to them, the radius of the circular diffusion, let the dragons go in, can basically be able to cover.

However, it is obviously not a reaction to this reaction!

This mysterious place has already made it encounter the greatest embarrassment in life. It has become the embarrassing form of “the dragon is not like a dragon, the ghost is not like a ghost”, and it does not want the last soul to be gone.

However, the head of the scene is the largest, and the dragons are also high. If you are afraid of not being able to pass, this is very faceless.

So it's instinctive to ask a question, and then quickly think about whether there are any other good excuses.

“This place is probably the key place you are looking for, and you don't want to miss it?”

Shen Lang smiled and teased.

It is impossible for the two barbarians to get real trust, so at this point, they just know what to look for here, but what is specific, but it is not known.

Just after the words of Shen Lang, I still avoided the key words of the Fountain of Eternal Life, but the old dragon naturally understands.

And the last sentence, even more implied that the fountain of eternal life can make its body resurrected, this is what it does not want to miss!

This time, the dragon is very tangled!

It waited for such a long period of time, and finally had the opportunity to leave there. On the way, it was always considered.

But after all, it has been here once, and the results of that time were very miserable, so it didn't think too much before it was done.

Now it is true that all the green little monsters have been solved, and it is looking for this suspected key place.

When things are coming, it is difficult to make up their minds.

Because it is almost equivalent to dying once, and it is all the flesh and blood of the genus, which is really indescribable pain, and it is hard to forget to wait for death and despair.

It is precisely because of this that it will not be able to move for thousands of years.

I am afraid to die again!

This time, if Shen Lang has demonstrated the strength of a strong man, it will not be conquered and will not follow the adventure.

When I saw those little green monsters, even if it could kill a lot of claws, it still had psychological shadows.

Now let it go to the center of the unknown situation ahead, and it certainly hopes to get the fountain of eternal life and have the opportunity to recover its body.

But what if the current form of shackles is extinct?

This fountain of eternal life, until now they have only guessed such a place, there is no real clue, it is not felt.

This shows that it is very unusual, certainly not only the protection of the green little monster.

It should even be said that they just want to monopolize and not let others close, they may not really be able to own and master this fountain of eternal life.

Therefore, this is not a “just in case”, but a great opportunity, it will be dangerous!

It is a “just in case” to get the spring of eternal life smoothly.

But it can be dignified in front of them by the dragons ?

Fear can't be shown!

So at this time, the old dragon became very generous.

“You are our core decision-maker, leading us here, and it's just your key to getting rid of those abominable things...”

“So, I think the benefits should be taken first! I am willing to wait behind, how much you are willing to give me, how much.”

It took a flattering first, then immediately gave up the initiative, let Shen Lang advanced to get.

This is not because it is afraid, but because it has grace to let it out, it is reasonable.

Shen Lang actually didn't have any clues. Just just ridiculed it, let it pass, and there is no change in the estimate. It will definitely not be as simple as going straight.

I didn't expect this old dragon to pick it up, and let him come first with a humble attitude and the opportunity to coexist with this opportunity and risk.

Chapter 2526 - Shen Lang

A few people on the scene are old guys. The old dragon thinks that he is very decent, not to mention the cold autumn, but the dog * also understands the real meaning.

The Meng nationality and the Fushun of the barbarian, they immediately became a police officer.

They are very clear about their position, and others are worthy of their value.

When they are just green little monsters, they will help and protect them. It is because there is still room for them, and they also have value.

It is very likely that they will let them once again take the lead!

Before Meng and Meng, the tempering initiative took the initiative, and the result was to enter the mirror world, and finally forced to ask for mercy.

This time he decided to pretend to be dumb, unless Shen Lang did not name him to let him go, otherwise he would never take the initiative.

joke!

Where are the dragons afraid of them, what are they?

It is a more sleek symbol, this time there is no opening, as if nothing has been heard, even the eyes are not looking at the side of Shen Lang.

If this is the right eye, isn't it a trouble?

Therefore, he performed more realistically, his eyes fixed on the open space in front, as if he was pondering and observing, and it seemed that he would soon discover something.

For all of their reactions, Shen Lang is even more secretive.

Gao Hanqiu and the dog god, there is no fear, they are coming with Shen Lang!

What others know is that the three of them came together to the Tianmo Lin. Only they themselves knew that it was the Tianmo Lin. They came together from another world to the ancient cold.

Therefore, no matter where they are in danger, let them go together without any fear.

Even after the previous dispersal, it was hard to find in this world, but now it is not willing to separate.

Unity can leave safely in this world.

But at this time, they did not make their own suggestions, just waiting for the arrangement.

Because they are very clear, Shen Lang's thoughts are very mature and calm, and will inevitably be the best decision.

"Two of the barbarians..."

Shen Lang opened his mouth and looked over, so that Meng Jin and Fu Yu could not help but scalp.

They are very resistant in their hearts, but they dare not resist it!

Not to mention that the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand can summon countless worms, and now there are four people, and there are dragons, dare to resist?

"You...you...we also think that such a great opportunity should be the honor of the Lord of the Kingdom of Shah, and you will enjoy it first. We strongly agree with the advice of Lord Dragon, how much you are willing to give us..."

Even the symbols are stuttering.

Meng Jin even felt that Fu Yu said that it was not enough, and quickly added a sentence.

"Even if you feel that we are not worthy of something, we will never complain, because we have not made much effort."

After the last time, he learned to understand. It is a great price to pay a few words on the verbal.

The last time I was bowed down, and the baby who was attached to the plaque was taken out to take him out.

Now I don't want to be able to get a share of the benefits. As long as I don't kill them, leaving them a life is a great fortune.

At this moment, even the dragons are afraid to rush to the front of the open space, it is likely to be related to life.

Shen Lang is secretly funny.

He already knew their attitudes and didn't want to arrange them in the past. They didn't expect this opening, they scared them.

"Take you over, I am your partner. Now the opportunity is in front of me. I can't say that the benefits make me monopolize. I should give you the opportunity..."

"No, no, you only have to! We have nothing to do, there is no face to get this opportunity!"

Hearing that Shen Lang said so well, Fu is even more nervous.

This is definitely very dangerous!

Otherwise, the dragon and the owner of this sand country are shirking it!

Therefore, he resolutely pushed back.

"Well, since you are so polite, I will not say anything better."

Shen Lang nodded and then became serious.

"I will go first, no matter what happens to me, you will listen to the orders of this senior!"

He also did not know what the situation would be. He first handed over the command to the cold autumn here. Or do they have to rebel in case?

At this point, none of them had any objections, and they quickly agreed.

Isn't it a command, who is not your Sha nationals?

Besides, if there is any big situation, who will not be tempered?

Gao Hanqiu and the dog god, they frowned.

The meaning of Shen Lang's words is obviously to be alone in Longtan and leave them both here.

In this sentence, it is said that the commanding power allows the cold and autumn to be replaced. In fact, it is more important to use his prestige and give them two layers of protection to avoid these three moves.

But for both of them, that's secondary, the key is to take risks with Shen Lang.

"It's decided like this!"

The sentence of Shen Lang is to say to both of them, indicating that he has decided.

This is also for security reasons. If there is any danger, he will have more coping skills.

Even their level is a dangerous danger. It is definitely a very serious situation. If one is not protected, it may cause them to have an accident.

This is how he brought them to the world. Let's leave the friendship and say that it is the responsibility. The Shenlang can't let them go wrong.

So no matter how far and dangerous, he has to find a dog god. There is no clue, but also to find the cold autumn.

After the confession was over, Shen Lang jumped out directly, and the drop point was the middle of the place.

Through the sensory sense, combined with the area just pointed by the dog, basically the most central point can be determined.

Of course, to be precise, it must be limited, but probably there will be no mistakes.

When he slowly descended from the air to the center point, the old dragon, the two satisfied, and the cold autumn and the dog god, all concentrated, and secretly squeezed a sweat.

It is the two barbarians who have resentment This is also the expectation that the waves are safe and smooth.

At this moment, everyone is a community of interests. If the waves are dangerous, they may not be able to escape.

If Shen Lang succeeds in getting the benefits, they don't have to take risks.

However, under the concern of everyone, Shen Lang calmly fell to the original place, and there was no change at the scene!

Everyone is ready for danger, including the preparation of two barbarians to escape, the cold autumn and the dog * are ready to save the waves.

As a result, nothing happened, and there was no change in the dust.

It's not just what you see, it's the sense of God, and there's no change in the whole world!

This is naturally within the calculation of Shen Lang.

Originally, only the dog god, the poisonous grass seed, was sensed, and they did not have any induction. So how do you need to deal with it here? You can only rely on Meng, guess, and then try.

Chapter 2527 - Exploring the Fountain of Eternal Life

Since there is preparation, Shen Lang certainly has plans.

The most common way he has experienced various world conditions is to input energy to activate.

The input energy is usually vital, mental, and there are some inheritance things, often need blood to verify.

For example, the stone inscription found by Fuxi is sealed by the ancestors of the barbarian. Other people and races can't find anything. At most, some people can recognize the barbs of the barbarian and trade them to the barbarian.

If you really want to open the seal in the stone, you must be the blood of the barbarians. You can't open other bloodlines.

This kind of superficial blood drop is the verification of blood, and the essence is genetic authentication. Appearance, sound, etc., are the most easily disguised, that is, vitality, exercises, and even spiritual power, which can be imitated and copied.

But the blood gene is unique.

Of course, in the end, it is still a kind of shallow and plain precaution. Because it was caught and bled, it still achieved the same effect.

However, like the stone carvings of Fu Xi, other people can't verify it, and they won't know that there is a secret. I don't know if there is no blood to check out the barbarian.

Shen Lang is not a poisonous grass seed. There is no way to "plant" himself here, so after no change, he began the most common temptation.

He released some of the energy directly, mixed with the surrounding environment, and even infiltrated into the ground.

At the same time, I also scratched my finger and dripped some blood around.

The result is still no change.

The dragon and the barbarian were originally worried that there would be danger, so they dared not come forward.

If the sun goes up, it will go smoothly, and there is no danger. It will easily gain huge benefits, and naturally it will be filled with regrets.

Now the waves are not dangerous, but there is no gain, so they are also very balanced and calm.

Since there are various attempts, it is certainly more dangerous. They are of course happy to see Shen Lang himself to try.

At this time, they also thought about other methods. After the trial of Shen Lang, he proposed to let him try several times.

After Shen Lang completed the first wave, there was no accident and no effect.

He thought about starting the second wave.

The second wave is the temptation of spiritual power!

The temptation of mental power, at some point, is often a verification of the same frequency. For example, through mental power, you can verify that you are the same sect, the same race, and the like.

But now it is time to try to communicate with the Fountain of Eternal Life and find it out. And his spiritual strength is impossible to link with the Fountain of Eternal Life.

So the way that Shen Lang wants to use is the combination of heaven and man!

It is determined that the fountain of eternal life is in this piece, and no matter what form it is hidden, it is in this environment.

The unity of nature and man is one with the environment. When people and the environment are completely integrated, they can naturally sense everything in the environment.

But that is also a very dangerous state, because people are equal to the environment. If the environment is conscious and hostile, it may erode damage.

It's a very relaxing moment when someone around you, or something else, wants to attack.

This is why before the beginning of Shen Lang, the special ceremonial sentiment was given to Gao Hanqiu, which was to keep the barbarian and the old dragon.

They are not afraid of being in danger and they will run away, but they will be attacked when they are not in the right state!

The essence of heaven and earth is already spiritual, and sometimes it is necessary to “capture” rather than just pick it up.

This spring of eternal life, whether it is a class or not, must be more advanced than the essence of heaven and earth, and naturally it is not so good.

For the fusion, Shen Lang is not afraid that he will be encroached by the fountain of eternal life.

Because Leiyuan still lives in his palm, it is also a heaven and earth spirit, when it is critical, it should not sit idly by, after all, it will affect it.

There is now an uncertain factor about the spiritual level of this fountain of eternal life.

If you already have high wisdom, it is actually easy, and everyone can discuss it.

Just like the dragon, even if it has the pride of the dragon, it will negotiate with its actual state.

The most feared is that there is a little spirituality, but there is no wisdom, so it will be temperamental. It is impossible to predict the result. To be straightforward, it is very likely that it will be chaotic.

Shen Lang is prepared, and Gao Hanqiu has enough tacit understanding, no need to linger.

He quickly entered the state of harmony between man and nature!

The scope of this unity is a circle around this center.

In the eyes of everyone, he still stood still and his body was still physically, not really dissipating. But in the feeling of Shen Lang, the whole body consciousness has merged with the surrounding.

At this time, he is the earth under his feet, and the earth is it.

However, an embarrassing situation has emerged. At this moment, the integration of heaven and man is not a fake. If the fountain of eternal life is here, it cannot be hidden.

But Shen Lang still does not sense the existence of the Fountain of Eternal Life!

This is a common place.

Of course, this is not ordinary, but it is just like one of the whole ridiculous land. It is no different from other areas, and there is no special substance, no matter the size.

This made Shen Lang not help but a little bit comfortable. I also thought about how to defend it. As a result, there was no discovery at all.

If there is no way to do this, then it will be passive. It is impossible to wait here for a long time. Those green demons will only be temporarily closed. If they are reopened, they will inevitably increase the amount. level!

No matter whether it is scientific analysis or dig, it will not be effective.

Perhaps this is to enter another small world, and if you have any secrets, you can open it.

There is no more clue in the memory of the old dragon read by Shen Lang.

He had already searched the contents of the old dragon and barbarian stone inscriptions before, and did not have more detailed information before he personally tempted.

The way this wave is placed in high hopes has no effect.

Shen Lang feels that there is no need to try the third wave any more, just leave early and look for other gains.

Consumption here will only increase the “sunken cost”!

Just as Shen Lang was ready to leave and leave, he felt a change around him!

In an instant, not only the surrounding area, but the entire ridiculous land, seems to flow.

The above dragons, barbarians, and Gao Hanqiu still stand still, still staring at him, but it seems to be another world.

This feeling, as if he is the water inside the water tank, and they are separated by the glass above!

Chapter 2528 - This is the fountain of eternal life

When there was such a change, Shen Lang immediately calmed down.

What he is most worried about is that there are no changes, no changes, no matter any kind of change, noisy or gorgeous, and the change itself is very worth looking forward to.

What he is looking for is the fountain of eternal life. Now that I feel the flow, it feels like underwater. Is it echoing with the fountain of eternal life?

That is naturally the spring of eternal life that I have been looking for, and finally there are clues!

The calm waves calm down, so that you can observe the surroundings without any hindrance, so as not to let the other party be shocked, or mistakenly think that there is hostility.

Under such circumstances, he can feel that the other party should also observe him!

All the surrounding soil, the entire barren land is flowing, as if moving sand. The center of the rotation is here, and it is around him.

Countless dirt and dust, like countless eyes.

But does Shen Lang feel that anything is different, because he is now united with heaven and man, and like the flowing sediments, he is also paying attention to everything and can feel the perspective of the earth.

“You are very bold.”

This is not a sound, because they seem to be one, which is like a meaning that comes to mind in nature, but it is obviously not that Shen Lang himself rises, but is like talking to him.

“Yes.” He also made a conscious response.

“I can kill you now.”

“I know.”

This is not a threat of intimidation, but it can be true. Shen Lang is putting himself in a dangerous place, just like when he first contacted Lei Yuan.

“Greed, let you not kill your life.”

That consciousness is equal to the mind that appears in the deep waves, and he is one with the other, and it is impossible to anthropomorphize the imagination before there is any proof of contact.

Therefore, the general stream of consciousness in these conversations is purely an emotional exchange.

“It’s not greed, it’s yearning and taking risks, it makes me look down on life and death.”

In fact, the other party may not know to use words like “greed”, but there is such a meaning. After Shen Lang feels, the brain automatically translates into the most appropriate perception.

His response is the same.

At this time, the charm of language art is reflected.

They came here and said it was for treasure hunt. Who can not be greedy?

If you are not greedy, why not take a few million miles to come here to take risks?

But the same behavior, changed to “aspire” and “adventure”, it is much better.

Greed means that you are plundering; yearning means that you are admiring, and adventure is a manifestation of bravery.

Greed and not life, that is, “to ask for money and not to die”; risk and look down on life and death, is a fearless detachment.

The meaning of this layer, after a conversion of ideas, and the understanding of the other side, will certainly be greatly discounted. But the general meaning should still be conveyed.

After the modification of the language art discourse, the existence of the suspected fountain of eternal life seems to accept him. All the mud and sand around it, no longer flowing, and gradually become quiet.

It's not the effect that Shen Lang wants!

He beautified, he did not want to be hostile, but he did not want the other party to stop. If you can communicate, this is naturally the best way.

Can't communicate, there is no better entry point, how can we find the fountain of eternal life?

As a result, he was a little anxious, and when he did not express his meaning, he immediately felt the consciousness again.

“Whether you are greedy or yearning, what you have asked for, has given you a drop, it will only give you a drop.”

“...”

This makes Shen Lang know how to respond well.

What he asks, not to mention, is the fountain of eternal life.

Now he seems to be one with the other, and the Fountain of Eternal Life knows his ideas, not too much.

But just give a drop...

This is too little, right?

Since the dragons call it the “spring of eternal life”, it is not a source of spring water, it should be huge. It’s not a big deal to give a bucket.

Since you want to give it, why not be generous? Just a drop...a commemoration?

The Fountain of Eternal Life obviously knows his mind, so at this moment, the surrounding area changes immediately!

Suddenly, like the Tianhe River hanging upside down, like a waterfall confluence, countless waters rushing into the body of the sinking waves!

This is not an attack, because the “body” he now perceives is one with the surrounding environment, and he just feels that the entire ridiculous land is integrated.

Therefore, the waterfall is generally water source, as if it is gathered in this ridiculous place, it will not make him feel a huge impact.

Without waiting for his further feelings, the water of the waterfall that merged with the torrents quickly narrowed down and became a drop, falling in his palm.

This time, the palm of your hand is the real palm, not the “palm” of the whole environment.

In the next moment, Shen Lang’s consciousness has been dispelled, and no one can be united with one another. It is separated from that state. This is pushed away by the environment...

Shen Lang people are still awkward, and then looked at the palms, empty.

No one in his state feels that something is wrong, because he just seems to be so sluggish.

Everyone can also guess that he should be consciously searching for investigations, and he dare not disturb him.

Looking at the palm of your hand now, there is nothing in the palm of your hand, and naturally there is no gain.

But in fact, Shen Lang’s mind at the moment has a lot of information!

This information is not perfused, but the “Heaven and Man” is just sensed.

Just let my consciousness calm down as much as possible, and keep communication and absorb information. Now there is time for a specific analysis.

Everything is clear.

The Fountain of Eternal Life is this ridiculous land!

This ridiculous land within the scope of this day is the figurative form of the Fountain of Eternal Life!

Perhaps this is its original state the name of the “spring” of eternal life, just the name of the dragon, and the dragon also has limited information.

Perhaps it is really a liquid, this ridiculous place is just an illusion that it presents.

This is why after the combination of Shen Lang and Tian Ren, it will feel very ordinary. The whole center is part of the ridiculous land, and what is different from other areas, because the whole big absurd land is the fountain of eternal life.

The Green Devil is not controlled by it, it is not important anymore. Because it has entered this ridiculous land, it is equivalent to stepping onto it.

More importantly, the other party is not only spiritual, can be transformed, but also has high intelligence and can communicate.

Moreover, after seeing the meaning of Shen Lang, he did not choose the way to lose both, but chose to give him a gift, in exchange for their departure.

This is also the solution that Shen Lang expected before.

Just... a drop.

Chapter 2529 - 1 drop

A drop.

Of course, Shen Lang is too little. When the other party has just revealed this consciousness, he is less.

But the situation presented later made him have different ideas.

The scene of the river hanging upside down and the waterfall confluence seemed to be the spring of eternal life intended to show him, that is, to prove his worth.

And in the end, those scenes are gathered into a drop and fall into his palm.

Does that mean that although it is only a drop, but in fact it can be as much as a waterfall?

The fountain of eternal life is not a spring, but a whole ridiculous land. This has already surprised Shen Lang.

If the other party said that it is actually a gathering of waterfalls, it is also possible.

Now that drop is falling into the palm of Shen Lang, and then I am out of that state, and I can no longer communicate with each other.

Other questions, such as him, can only be his own to find the answer.

In the palm of my hand, naturally there is no drop of water, but he can feel it, as if it is in his palm, similar to the way of Leiyuan.

The appearance of Shen Lang looks like a god, and consciousness enters the drop of the fountain of eternal life.

In an instant, he once again felt the huge stream like a waterfall!

Dripping water to the sea.

This drop of the fountain of eternal life is only a drop for the fountain of eternal life. In fact, the direct feeling of Shen Lang is like a waterfall and a huge stream!

Although I don't know the spring of eternal life now, what effect is it, is it really eternal life, can it be brought back to life, but the quantity of light makes Sang Lang satisfied.

If the light receives a drop, he is really unwilling to leave like this, which is even more unwilling than not looking for the fountain of eternal life.

I can't find it completely. It's no luck, and I am disappointed.

But when I found it, I could only get one drop, just like entering a golden mountain, but only letting a small grain of gold be used, it is even more uncomfortable.

Now this problem is solved.

With such a large weight, he is already satisfied. Even if there is no other gain in Tianmo Lin, it is worthwhile.

However, it seems that this is only that he knows that no one else has felt it or that it is such a situation!

This means that he can take the harvest of this drop, not to go out publicly, and to enjoy it alone!

Shen Lang's mind was also quickly analyzed, and all kinds of conditions immediately had an exhibition.

Everyone is a team. All the way is from peers. It can be regarded as mutual assistance. Just like when dealing with the Green Devils, everyone is working hard together.

Therefore, this harvest, according to reason, should also be distributed to everyone.

When they just stood up, they all made a decisive first step. They took the initiative to say that they should let Shen Lang come, and how much they would give them.

Having said that, after the harvest, it is really necessary to give less, and there must be resentment.

If Shen Lang is now saying that he only harvested one drop, how can others believe it? Even if it is a "big drop," they won't believe it.

If Shen Lang only gives them a point out of it, they will feel that he must have swallowed more drops.

The lessons of the fall of the year, Shen Lang has always been remembered in the heart.

Even if the river is still in the same way, the old dragon who knows it soon, the barbarians who have had a grudge, will have no disagreement?

Therefore, to be open, it is only a conscience.

But publicity will bring more trouble, and may even be dangerous.

Shen Lang also has a cold autumn and a reliable dog, and is not afraid of danger. But let's say Meng Jin and Fu Wei, who want to steal and kill a few of them, what should I do?

The final result would have to kill the two barbarians.

The wages of avarice is death.

Without this wealth and food, everyone will maintain a state of "poor" without gaining anything, but instead can maintain a team that is now reluctant and harmonious.

As for the conscience, Shen Lang is not open and will not be uneasy.

Because I just let the dragons come out first, the old dragons don't do it themselves, the barbarians are even more, and they haven't finished talking yet, they have already preempted them.

Since he wants to let him try the danger, and he has just united with nature, he does have a great danger.

In the end, there is something to gain. He wants to be alone, and he is also comfortable.

All the analysis, in his mind, has an instant result.

The pros and cons have been very obvious, and of course he made the decision directly, choosing the most appropriate one – not open.

Shen Lang sighed and in the eyes of everyone, it was coming back.

He did not say anything, and jumped directly from the middle point and fell to their side.

“how about it?”

“Is there anything discovered?”

Whether it is the old dragon or the barbarian, they can't help but ask.

In fact, they just watched the whole process carefully. If anything was discovered or harvested, everyone naturally saw it.

But still asked with hope, hope that Shen Lang gave them a pleasant answer.

“You can try it. Take time, this place should not stay for a long time. I feel that if the green monsters appear again, it may be a big upgrade in terms of quantity and murder.”

Shen Lang's answer made them very disappointed.

He didn't say anything directly, but the meaning was already obvious, and nothing was discovered. Instead, he worried that there would be danger again soon!

Under this, Meng Jin and Fu Yu could not help but look at each other and exchanged a look.

The dragon has been thinking since the beginning.

In their view, Shen Lang has no gains.

Normally, the most sophisticated and most versatile ones are not harvested, and they should be impossible to harvest.

But who would feel that they are unique, just in case?

In case he does not have this chance, only I have this chance?

When the barbarian two have not made a decision, the old dragon has already stepped forward!

It also reached the middle, but it was so large that even if it was just a slap, the head and tail were almost out of the center.

Where it used to be naturally, in the way of the dragon, try to sense and communicate.

It's just the spring of eternal life. I have already dedicated myself to communicating with Shen Lang, and I have kicked Shen Lang out of the line. Now that it has passed, it is naturally impossible to "call" again.

After a while, I got nothing, and the old dragon came back.

This also makes the two barbarian hearts sink more, and one more is not harvested, which means that the opportunity is even smaller.

But they are still on!

The old dragons can all be on, they are not separated, and the two are squeezed together in the middle.

This is the safest way to fight together if they are in danger.

The results can be imagined, still nothing.

Gao Hanqiu and the dog god, they are directly saying that they will not try, if the Shenlang is not harvested, they do not need to try. This has already been verified in the Yungong Holy Land, the Funeral Valley and other places.

Chapter 2530 - Shadow Forest

In their view, Shen Lang has not been harvested, and then they have not harvested a few, naturally it is very psychologically balanced, there will be no unwillingness.

These emotions can be felt, the two barbarians are the most obvious, and the old dragon is more disappointed.

Feeling this, Shen Lang is also indifferent, regardless of them, there is nothing. Anyway, in terms of interests alone, they all have their own benefits.

The barbarian's Meng Jinfu two, just in the process of fighting the Green Devil, has swallowed a lot of Green Devils, it is also a good supply.

This piece is not from their clues, nor is it hurting them. The harvest is already worthy of their trip.

The old dragon is a beggar, and naturally there is no green devil, but it is also rewarding.

The last time it came here, it was smashed by a lot of green demons. Now this time, everyone is helping it together, killing thousands of green demons, and it is revenge and venting.

Since there is no new harvest here, the Green Devil may appear again, and everyone is naturally ready to leave.

This decision-making power is still here, so they all looked at him and waited for him to order.

Laolong was very disappointed, but after all, when he came over at the time of his own prosperity, he did not take advantage of it. He did not find any clues about the fountain of eternal life, but he could not blame Shen Lang for not continuing.

After all, safety is the first.

The barbarian is looking forward to leaving, and the old dragon has nothing to say.

At this time, the waves were ordered, and everyone was all removed.

Just now they have already reached the middle of this ridiculous land. At this moment, the withdrawal, there is no way to follow the road, but to find another direction.

When they left the ridiculous land, on the edge of the woods, they couldn't help but look back.

This land is too strange. In theory, there should be a fountain of eternal life. Otherwise, there will not be so many green demons, but no clues.

They think that this is too common, normal is not normal, naturally there is a problem. But there is no problem in finding the problem.

Shen Lang is another kind of feeling, as if there are countless eyes watching him behind!

After all, the whole ridiculous land is the fountain of eternal life.

This secret is said to be very surprising, especially the old dragon that has been there once.

Shen Lang can only know for himself now, and feels a little embarrassed.

However, he would rather enjoy his own secret than to share the fountain of eternal life.

Re-enter the Tianmo Lin, and soon saw a heavy fog.

At this moment, Shen Lang basically understood a general. On this day, the magic forest began to have fog from the edge. The deeper the depth, the more ridiculous it was, the lack of flowers and trees, and even the fog was far away. The energy of the fountain of eternal life!

He just didn't have the time and opportunity to study the role of this eternal spring, but he was quite anxious.

"Where are we going now?" Fu can't help but ask.

Just now everyone did not reap the harvest of the Fountain of Eternal Life. There is no unwillingness and injustice in this respect.

But the barbarians also have their own little ninety-nine. From their point of view, they feel that their gains are the smallest!

The dragon came here this time, and has killed so many green monsters, and has done a revenge on the damage he suffered here. That is a big gain in itself.

Although the two people in the Shaguo area did not gain anything, but the beast is a green devil who has eaten a lot, and those worms?

Although tens of thousands have died, there are also many who rely on the Green Devils, and their physical physique has become larger.

This worm is summoned by the Lord of the Sand Kingdom. It is equal to these green demons who have fattened the army of insects. This is a great harvest.

But they are barbarians, work together, bear the danger together, and there is nothing to gain from eating a little green devil.

The human mind cannot be always consistent.

When the dragon pressed them, Meng Jinfu's mentality was very low and he could live.

When trapped in the mirror world, only Shen Lang can be rescued, the mentality is lower, and he will not hesitate to further lay down his dignity and interests.

The back all the way is also maintaining a very low posture.

However, in the process of fighting the ridiculous land and the Green Devil, they felt the assistance and protection of the cold autumn, and felt that they were treated as partners.

This will naturally change, no longer be careful, but a little bit of yourself as a player.

Whether it is a partner or a team member, not a decision maker, as long as it is one of them, there is a power to make suggestions.

With the head of the barbarian, all the expressions are enlarged and close-up. The symbol is very smooth and sleek, but it is far from comparable to Shen Lang.

Shen Lang saw his mind at a glance.

Just as he did not have a specific goal now, he asked one.

“Do you have any target suggestions?”

When the dragon came here, it was this goal. Others could not be seen. Therefore, the goal of the Fountain of Eternal Life is gone. Its current goal is to follow Shen Lang and hope to restore the flesh.

This is also its only hope.

Shen Lang now lets Fu Yu speak, that is, he wants to hear what he thinks.

Fu Xi and Meng Jin, naturally followed the stone carving content, followed the information of their barbarian ancestors to explore. There are also plans and plans.

Those swells are known from the memory of Fu Yu, but this way follows them, especially after the ridiculous land, Fu Wei is certainly thinking about it constantly, there will be plans to change.

What is needed for Shen Lang is to refer to it.

“Go directly to the Shadow Forest!”

Fu Wei did not have any derogations, and the decisive opening said his suggestion.

Next to Meng Jin, I was a little surprised first. After thinking about it, I reacted.

Fu Wei’s move is to prove yourself!

Gao Hanqiu and the unconditional support and conviction of the dog * against Shen Lang are, in their view, the followers who have no opinion.

They are barbarians. If they are unhappy, it is impossible to be trusted. If you can only follow suit and be careful, then it is only a life of cannon ash.

It is possible to come up with constructive opinions and prove the ability to think and plan, so that the head of the country can realize that they are indispensable, so that they can gradually pull them back to a countertop.

Meng Jin can not forget, he is the first person in Shibuya, the patriarch of the barbarian!

It was supposed to be on the same level as the Lord of the Shah, not to bow down.

The opportunity for Shen Lang to give Fu Xi's opinion, in the eyes of both of them, is also because the ridiculous land has nothing to gain, which proves that the Lord of the Shah State has been poor, so they need to make suggestions.

“The Shadow Forest?”

Shen Lang immediately recalled the information about the forest of shadows.
