

First Strong 2541

Chapter 2541 - breakdown

Because there is such a problem, Shen Lang must rely on himself!

The center point where he is now is basically the limit that other people have sensed. The barbarian is leaning a little further, which is a little more distance, and that's it.

But everything he just did was to bring out the phantom demon, and of course he would not be afraid.

When he came over, he brought the light, and he was able to see and sense everything around him.

The arrangement just made is indeed beyond the expectations of the Phantom Devil, and at the moment it is surrounded by countless scarabs!

Of course, this phantom demon is also emboldened, will not fear the scarab, and will not fear the waves.

Otherwise, when the Scarab came over, it was not surrounded, it should be able to run away.

At least one thousand of the scarabs released this time, just at the moment when the Shenlang arrived, all turned into powder and shattered!

The last time the Scarab was lost, but it was consumed by a lot of Green Devils, and the loss was more valuable.

And this time it seems to be the one that was fed the bigger one last time. But nothing was done, it was all gray, and it made Shen Lang feel a bit distressed.

At this point, he will not use the scarab to deal with this phantom demon, but must rely on himself.

“Phantom Demon, is this your means? With a group of cockroaches, want to destroy us?”

When Shen Lang spoke, and the phantom demon, still kept a little distance, and did not go straight to desperate.

There is no phantom demon of the five senses. At this time, the flat face is beginning to change.

“As far as you are, are you qualified to let me do it myself?”

At the end of this sentence, its face has changed out of the five senses, and it is obvious that it is coming in the way of the waves!

And not just the face, after a while, his body shape, including clothes, is the same as Shen Lang!

These are of course changed, and this should be one of the special abilities of its “phantom” demon.

The effect is as if there is a giant version of Shen Lang in front of Shen Lang.

“I know your weaknesses... you are afraid of light!”

Shen Lang mysterious smile.

Suddenly, on his body, the sacred armor released a ray of light, very glaring light, directly to the phantom demon!

The light from his body still illuminates the range of 100 meters around him. The brilliance of this road is to illuminate the face of the Phantom Demon.

The Phantom Demon immediately sneered.

“Do you think this is my weakness? Ignorance!”

It is fearless, letting the glare of the light shine on its face. Its face is still very large, and the facial features above are the facial features of Shen Lang.

Because this book is illusory, not its own, so even if the eyes are glazed, it has no problems.

At this time, the Phantom Devil suddenly made a scream!

On the face of the drum, there is a hole in the hole!

But it has successfully protected the surrounding area and blocked all the light including the group.

“How did you do it!” After the phantom of the Phantom of the Devil, the anger was unreasonably questioned.

Just able to wear it with a big face, of course, not by the light of the armor, nor the ammunition shot, but the light!

The challenge that Shen Lang just deliberately exaggerated is that he wants to let the other party not defend, and through the glare of the glare, the other party is afraid of the light, all to paralyze the opponent.

Even if the Phantom Devil has doubts, it is only more careful.

But the light of that road is even a bit dazzling, and no one can hurt it, let it not care.

However, I did not expect that the spurred eyebrows gave off a radiance, mixed with the light of the sacred armor, and directly pierced its face.

However, the facial features on its face are all illusory, and the entire face cannot be considered in accordance with normal people.

Because the phantom demon is very powerful, even if it wears a hole in its head, it has not hurt the key, and it can maintain a normal state.

Only then, the illusion of the five senses is gone, showing the flat face of the previous drum, with a **** hole.

But this is the phantom demon, but only a little recovery for a moment, then once again illusion.

Soon, its face once again turned into a facial features of Shen Lang, and the blood hole that was pierced has disappeared, as if nothing had happened.

Shen Lang understands at a glance, this is a psychological tactic!

Because his attack has been successful and the wound is directly presented, it has been prompted that it has been hit.

This will encourage the momentum of Shen Lang and destroy its prestige.

But the re-transformation into a deep wave, even the wound is gone, it seems that it can instantly restore the wound. It will be a kind of pressure for the enemy, as if there is no point in hitting.

And it continues to use the face of Shen Lang, but also to continue to pressure Shen Lang!

“How do I do it is not important. Because...”

Shen Lang smiled and responded with a sentence, and later it was intentionally paused.

“Because what?”

Waiting to listen to the phantom demon who said the answer, seeing that he did not say the back, could not help but ask.

Shen Lang is waiting for its questioning. This kind of guidance is to hold the rhythm in his hand and let the other person follow his meaning.

“Because I successfully broke your head, because after I used it once, I won’t use it for the second time. Once again, I will use other ways that you didn’t think of.”

“...”

Upon hearing this answer, the Phantom Demon was even more irritated.

It just made a defense in time, so that Shen Lang could no longer attack it with Shenguang but the result told that after using it once, it will not be used again for the second time!

It doesn't believe there are other ways to hurt it, but you want the other person to use the same way, so that it can figure out what is going on and then hit it accurately.

It is the kind of mood that falls in one place and also gets up in the same place.

What do you mean by no longer using it? Did you win if you win?

However, it can't be attacked. The other party said this. Naturally, it will not verbally tell it what is going on. Do you want to ask the other party to shoot again?

“This is on your site. You are pierced by my head. There is no way to figure out what is going on, and it is really not giving you face. So, I will give you a chance, you will bring my head too. Break through, I don't defend, don't dodge.”

Shen Yao's face was covered with a mysterious smile and an “invitation” was issued.

The phantom demon who just upgraded with anger was prepared to take out his clothes. When he heard this, he did not dare to act rashly, but stared carefully.

Chapter 2542 - Phantom to phantom

It has just been watching the waves, and it still looks like the eyes of Shen Lang.

But the other party suddenly took the initiative to let it attack, so that it is full of doubts, there must be some traps!

However, the current situation is that other people are motionless and have not seen any conspiracy traps. This makes them actively attack it. If they dare not do it, it is very shameful and has no momentum.

“Come, I pierced your head and you came to wear my head.”

Shen Lang continued to send an invitation with a smile.

The more sincere, the more problematic it seems.

The Phantom Devil is now riding a tiger, but it made a decision in an instant!

“it is good!”

During the speech, one of its hands has been extended directly, pinching the neck of Shen Lang, while the other hand is halfway through the attack, ready to defend.

Whether it is a conspiracy or a trap. It just makes it a little hesitant, because in the face of absolute strength, it is all virtual!

It has enough confidence and confidence in its own strength. Therefore, I am not afraid of this human being's guilty conscience, and directly attacked the past.

Piercing your head? Screw your neck directly and crush your head!

In order not to overturn the ship in the gutter, it still maintains one-handed attack, another cover and defense, and self-coordination.

Let it happen unexpectedly, its hands did not really get a little attack, the other party really did not dodge!

Seeing its big hand is about to be pinched, with its hand, it can directly pinch the head and neck of Shen Lang.

“stop!”

A thought was directly transmitted to its mind, and it also noticed that another human being is coming over quickly!

This is the cold autumn.

When Shen Lang went to the front, Gao Hanqiu came close immediately and reached the top of the faucet.

Still have to have a role in the overall situation, because the team has only a few, one can not lose, who is dangerous, he must be rescued.

But this has a priority, the most important is Shen Lang.

He paid attention to the situation of Shen Lang, and saw that Shen Lang had found the deity of the phantom demon, and thousands of scarabs were instantly smouldering, showing the wall of strength.

However, when I talked over there, I was relieved of the cold winter.

Because once there is a chance for dialogue, the rhythm will most likely be taken away by the waves, so he also sent swords to help others.

The back of the head was worn by Shen Lang Shengguang, and it was also an accident for Gao Hanqiu. His confidence in Shen Lang was more than Shen Lang's own.

As a result, when he adjusted the center, he saw that Shen Lang bet generally let the other party attack, and the big hand of the phantom demon was directly pinched to the head of Shen Lang.

By that time, Shen Lang still did not move!

Gao Hanqiu couldn't help it, and he had to stop and stop. It was too late. It can only be a quick past, and at the same time, send the idea first, let the phantom demon stop.

His reaction made the Phantom Demon more reassuring. This is so realistic. It means that the human being in front of him should be really being smashed by it, and his partner will be so nervous.

It is only a matter of a moment, it will not stop, and there is no need to stop it. The cold autumn will come over here, first to cross the attack circle of the demon!

At this moment, there are a number of scorpions who are the first to block the defense and drag the cold autumn.

These are a lot on the one hand. On the other hand, they are lifeless and the scarabs do not eat. Nature is also something that is not afraid of death, not afraid of pain, and does not know how to be afraid.

Therefore, they can all be besieged. Even if the cold and cold autumn is fully exerted, it will not be difficult for them to delay for a while.

Also concerned about the situation here, including the old dragon, including the barbarians Meng Jin and Fu Yu. However, their speed is not faster than the cold autumn, and it is impossible to give Shen Lang timely rescue.

They are all super-exciting. These are the ones that can understand the results at a glance. They have not had a relationship with Shen Lang, so even if they sink in their hearts, they will step up their attacks on the front of the gods, but they will not help the waves.

The dog **** naturally will also disregard all the rescue waves.

But before the three of them were in the middle and the back, the dog **** was at the end of the dragon. With the scope of the fog here, let it be invisible and not able to sense the specific situation happening here!

It must deal with a large number of scorpions in the back, and because it has a cold autumn in the middle, and followed the Shenlang forward, so it is relatively reassuring.

As a result, it seems that only the cold autumn is desperately rescued, but it is dragged by the scorpion, and everyone else is on the sidelines.

In the eyes of the Phantom Devil, whether they don't want to come to the rescue, or if they don't have time to rescue, everything will not help!

Its hand has pinched the head of this human!

It won't really pinch it directly, it's too cheap, it must be a good abuse!

But at that moment, it regretted it and smelled a very dangerous breath!

When Gao Hanqiu's thoughts came over, his hand had already reached a few inches and went to Shenlang's head and neck. That is of course a very weak time, and it has been successfully completed.

But at the moment of pinching it, it was discovered that it was actually pinched!

If the other party is in a timely dodge and can leave at a distance of a few inches, it will be a terrible speed much faster than it.

But the real problem is that the human body is still there, and it has not disappeared, but the palm of the hand is empty!

It is a phantom demon!

This is what it is good at, and what is the difference? I fully understand it!

This human is also good at phantom, just a illusion of a virtual figure here, the real person has been hidden!

It is no wonder that he dares not to guard against it. It is no wonder that he dares to invite it to attack, because there is no danger at all, and only a false existence is attacked.

Realizing this point will further realize that the real body should be waiting around, the front figure is the bait, this is the trap that leads it to attack!

Therefore, it has no time to manage how the other party is illusory, how to escape the eyes of this expert. I don't need to pay attention to whether it is a virtual shadow in my hand, or a flaw.

What is needed now is to quickly resist the attack that must have been in front of you!

result.....

Once again, let it be surprised.

No matter whether it was released from the defense or the other hand that was originally in defense, there was no attack and no attack was made in front of the whole.

It will defend the front first, because it is just the state of confrontation, the other party has to leave, to circumvent, and so on, it should know.

But now there is no attack in front of it. Is the other party just playing hide and seek with it?

The attack will naturally be behind!

Chapter 2543 - a weapon that has been useless for a long time

All these thoughts are actually only a moment for the Phantom Devil.

With its level of intelligence, there is no need to deduce the analysis one by one. It is possible to understand everything at once, and naturally respond immediately.

but.....

Whether it's the induction, or the rapid attack to the back, to attack, there is no effect!

There was no one behind, and no one attacked it.

At this point, the Phantom Demon began to be a bit confused.

What exactly is going on?

It is absolutely impossible for this human being to take the initiative to let it die.

There is still fighting next to him. He has no intention of escaping from his attitude, so it is very unlikely that he will delay the time and run his own way.

Besides, this is in the forest of shadows, there are humans who want to run away from here, it can't be found.

Where did the man go?

Invisible!

This is the most likely answer.

Invisibility is not that great, it can be invisible in front of it, it is not terrible, it is a terrible place!

The Phantom Devil immediately kept himself on the alert.

There is naturally a corresponding analysis in its mind.

Just after it was in the pinch, it analyzed all kinds of things, and immediately responded. The other party set this trap and will definitely think of this layer!

That is to say, whether it is from the front, or from the back, or any direction and angle, at that moment, it is certainly impossible to attack it.

It will not only be intercepted by it, but will even be killed by it.

So that's not the best point of attack. The invisibility of the other side is to confuse it, paralyze it, and find another chance to attack it again!

After such a momentary change, as its hand left, the sinking head that had been pinched was restored to its original state.

After being blocked by the cold autumn, after seeing this momentary change, this is relieved, and no more rushing over, but making a desperate look with those scorpions.

"I attacked you once and pierced your head; you attacked me once and wanted to break my head, but it didn't work. Now it's my turn to attack you!"

Shen Lang's face is still smiling, and it's like a child's "You call me a little back" rule.

This smile is very embarrassing, and I started to make the Phantom Devil feel a bit cold!

This feeling, of course, does not mean that its flattened head is a ghost, but now, it does not know how the other side is doing, the deity is hidden in somewhere!

It is a phantom demon, this is the area in which it excels!

The only thing it can do is to pay attention to the slightest changes around it, try to analyze and search for a little clue.

The more the phantom in front of it speaks various words, doing all kinds of movements, the more you want to confuse it, the more true deity will be waiting for an opportunity.

"Good, come here!"

The phantom demon sneered a sneer and felt that he could not lose his momentum. It was also like Shen Lang's performance, a look that I did not dodge.

It feels that this time the shot is not in the eyes, it is used to cover the real shot of the deity.

What it needs to watch out for is the secret shot of the invisible deity.

But it is also a high degree of vigilance, even if this is obviously a false cover, even if it is not in the eyes, it is still important and defense!

It looked at the phantom in front of it, and when it was just waiting for it to attack, there was a whip in his hand, and at this moment the whip came straight to it!

It secretly sneers, whether it is true or illusion, it will not really let it hit its body!

Because it has already been hit once, it has already lost a face, and if it is pulled by the whip, even if it will not suffer any injuries, it is also a great shame.

This human will use a whip instead of other more dangerous weapons, and it is very likely that you want to humiliate it through this.

It just says “you come”, but there is no promise to “do not move or not pay back”!

Therefore, it maintains sufficient defense and is highly alert to the surroundings while directly reaching for the whip.

This human whip, in its eyes, is a small plaything that can be captured at any time.

It further feels that this human being must have counted that it will do this, that is, let it take the whip, and at the same time, the invisible deity will be the real attack!

It is now to be counted, no matter whether the whip is virtual or not, it can immediately respond to any other attack from any direction!

but.....

The reality once again gave it a painful lesson!

Although it takes the whip in terms of size and strength, it is like a toy that an adult takes a baby.

But the whip starts, but it is not imaginary. It is not the power to attack it, but the “material” of the whip itself.

Dead water whip.

Because it can't extend like the sword of the king, the scope of the attack is limited. As the realm of Shen Lang is stronger and less and less need to be close to the body, it is not necessary.

This dead water whip, which has been useless for a long time, is now used to swing to the Phantom Demon.

The devil is shooting a solid one, ready to take it.

Ever since, like an adult grabbing something in the hands of a child, the result is a soldering iron, which immediately eroded a palm of his hand!

Compared to its palm, the stagnant whip is not thick, but the larger its palm, the longer it will catch; the tighter it is, the deeper it will be!

Even if it touches it, it will be loosened if it is not right.

And this dead water whip is being manipulated by Shen Lang, and will it be so easy to let it go?

When it released its hand The stagnant water whip was under the control of Shenlang, and continued to stick to its hand, and quickly swayed, and the area of corrosion was greatly increased.

In front of this, no longer a phantom, it is real, this is the invisible deity!

“Go to death!”

Thinking of this, the Phantom Devil screamed, his face and face's facial features disappeared, and the flat large piece, all open, as if a ***** mouth.

No, the big mouth of the blood basin is far from enough to describe it. It is bigger than its original body. It directly covers the swells together with dozens of meters around him and engulfs them together!

It dares to do this, of course, it is also confident that even if the corrosive whip is swallowed, it will not have a big impact.

Finally, the result is to make it satisfied, that one of the figures together with the whip, all together are swallowed in!

It was a one-in-one, and immediately resumed its original state, and continued to illusion again with the five senses of Shen Lang.

Chapter 2544 - Virtual reality

Gao Hanqiu is one of the most worried about Shen Lang. When he was entangled and could not get close, he also discovered the tactics of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang is using the influence of words to make the phantom **** negligence, while using that magic pen to create a real fantasy.

Originally, I was confident in Shen Lang. Seeing that everything is under the control of Shen Lang, I will not continue to come over, so as not to disrupt the plan of Shen Lang.

In addition to the cold autumn, the old dragon also discovered this.

It doesn't understand how Shen Lang did it, but before it started on the barbarian, it was that Shen Lang helped it in that way.

It can also be certain that it will almost be deceived. It is perceived because it does not have the naked eye.

So after I noticed the situation of Shen Lang, it was also a lot of relief.

It is impossible to desperately save the waves, but it does not want to have an accident.

The dog **** still does not know the situation here, and the two of the barbarians are not accurate.

In this way, whether they understand or do not understand, they are dealing with those scorpions, and have not come forward to help, or interfere with the waves.

When Shen Lang used the stagnant water whip to once again hurt the Phantom Demon, Gao Hanqiu was more reassured.

The result is next to the next moment, the phantom demon under the wrath, the entire face is completely “open”, like a big mouth to swallow that circle!

This time it was not a shadow of a deep wave, and there was still a whip in the hand, and it was swallowed together!

This makes the cold autumn is also a dark heart.

Because what he saw is such a picture, just because the bottom of the heart, this is reassuring. But in front of this scene, he can't confirm it!

The old dragon is still keeping a wait and see.

Meng Jin and Fu Yu two, it is a panic!

Regardless of their emotions about Shen Lang, Shen Lang is the core of the entire team and is the decision maker. When they have problems, they can look at the waves.

The sky has fallen, and the Shenlang is also a tall man in front. But now the owner of this sand country has been swallowed directly!

Both of them are thinking about running fast!

How far is it to run!

As soon as I left the Shadow Forest, there is really no guarantee.

The Phantom Devil has just had that, but it is not completely bottomless. It does not know whether it is a fake phantom or a real person.

Therefore, it directly covers the range of tens of meters around, and if the other person's true body is invisible, it will be swallowed together.

After the swallowing, it regained its original appearance, or turned into the facial features of Shen Lang.

The Phantom Devil is fully concerned about the movements around him.

It always feels wrong, but it doesn't say what is wrong.

It is now aware of any traces, whether it is observation or induction.

But what I just swallowed didn't make it feel any sense. I can't be sure if I really swallowed this human.

However, the tingling of the palm, the trace of the corroded road is still ulcerating, which reminds it!

Just that person is holding this whip in his hand. The power of this whip is extraordinary. If you have just swallowed this human being, it is still possible to use this whip to continue attacking it. !

However, it did not feel the throat was corroded. After swallowing it, there was no discomfort.

That is to say... just swallowed in, including seeing the whip in that hand, all of them are phantoms!

This is a very blow to it. As a phantom demon, it has been turned around by a small human phantom in the district. This is really no face!

At this moment, it further understood what was wrong.

Illuminated by the battlefield, it is a flare that is still suspended in the air, whether it is understood as a magic weapon or something, it is visible.

On its side, the light is emitted from this human body!

In the course of its battle, the goal is on this human body. For the light source, it is already negligent.

And after a few times, I just swallowed the person. If that is the body of the deity, it should be swallowed directly by it. It is shining along its throat, and there should be a darkness nearby!

But what it sees now still has light, but it doesn't know where the light shines. This is where it just feels wrong.

“What did you finally find out?”

A voice rang in its mind, and it was Shen Lang who sent ideas to it.

Perceived by this sound, the phantom demon height is alert, and quickly observes and senses the slight changes around it, which cannot be sneaked again.

It can be done in one place, in the same place, three times in the same human attack, it is really no face.

“burst!”

This voice just sounded in its mind, it didn't understand what it meant, and then it felt...

Shen Lang just held the magic pen in his hand and constantly created a real fantasy. It is changing at any time. It is also a layer of one layer. Whether it is in the distance or in the vicinity, it is not the truth!

Even people can't see camouflage, because there are layers of camouflage.

Between the real and the false, he is like a flicker.

When the phantom demon is about to smash his head, the sham is the phantom, which is what it sees and touches.

What I saw again was the real swell of the waves, and the real stagnant water whip was in my hand, and it was really effective to damage the wounds at close range.

But just as Shenguang had worn his head and didn't let it die, now it's just a hand eroding a circle, and it won't hurt even if it hurts.

The continuous move will make it irritating, it should be enlarged immediately!

Ever since, Shen Lang is in the real fantasy, hiding himself, waiting for the phantom demon to swallow it, it is an illusion, including holding the stagnant water whip, are illusions.

Because he himself has been there, the natural light source is still there, but through the adjustment of the holy armor, integrated into the environment, seeing all the light, he himself is hidden and transparent.

As for the "explosion" he just said, it was just when he swallowed the real illusion, he sent a miniature missile through the traces of the sacred armor!

It was inside the body and it was the time to start detonating.

When the phantom demon has not figured out what the situation is, a huge shock wave broke out in its body!

As a demon, it is very powerful, and it can't make it die, but it is because the body is big and very strong. How strong can it be, and it is impossible to even have a stomach like a copper wall!

Just this miniature missile directly smashed its stomach!

Chapter 2545 - Siege

I have to admit that this phantom demon is still very powerful.

With the power of this miniature missile, it was normally bombarded from the outside. Almost everything on the scene could be accommodated, and it could be defended. At most, it was injured by the impact and would not cause death.

However, if it is swallowed into the abdomen and bursts from the inside to the outside, it is really dangerous. It is the strength of the dragon. If it cannot be extinguished in time, it will be a heavy blow until the explosion.

The phantom demon has just been expelled by the shock wave, completely smashing its stomach wall, and the shock wave has destroyed more internal organs.

But it did not fall down. On the one hand, its body quality is very strong. On the other hand, it is also very fast. The face is once again wide open, and a part of the shock wave is greatly vented.

With this in mind, it is also irritating to the extreme!

Just this time, almost killed it, this is unforgivable!

The extent of the internal injuries, how long it takes to recover, and whether they can be recovered are still unknown. This is unbearable.

As it screams, as if the entire shadow of the forest is shaking, all the darkness seems to be rushing into its body!

The scorpio demon who besieged the cold autumn, the old dragon and so on, all quickly blurred, and then gathered into its body.

Don't look at those who are just embarrassed, but the power is not the same, just like it is one by one. Under the number of dozens of times, it has been possible to delay the people such as Gao Hanqiu.

Just the process of Shen Lang's battle here, the other people did not have any idleness, and they all broke out with the strongest attack side.

The result is that one by one, the devil is killed!

Because that is presented, it is lifeless, and the scarab does not eat. It can only be killed one by one, not like the Green Devils, but also swallowed by the barbarians.

Everyone is killing very fast, but the time is too short, and it is only a third of the killing.

Now the Phantom Devil absorbs all the cockroaches back, which is about two-thirds of the amount recovered.

What are these cockroaches doing, and what kind of relationship with the phantom demon is not known to everyone.

But one thing is to be able to guess, that is the recycling of these cockroaches, which is of great benefit to the phantom demon!

Shen Lang is in front of me, and the feeling is very obvious. After it has just been exploded, even if there is no obvious surface, it can feel the kind of internal bruises.

But after all the cockroaches were taken back in an instant, there was a feeling of rapid recovery.

These embarrassing seems to be its avatars, each of which bears part of the avatar, and all together, it is like having one body.

Without the devil, from the old dragon to the dog god, they quickly rushed over here.

Gao Hanqiu is a quick and quick transfer of ideas to all of them, so that everyone can maintain a certain distance, do not affect the Shenlang.

In the front of the core battle zone, how many are real, how many are illusions, that is, the cold autumn that has been concerned about can not be distinguished!

Others have passed, and will inevitably interfere with the tactics of Shen Lang. Especially the size of the barbarian is so big that the body of the dragon is bigger.

And that kind of real illusion is that no one is against the enemy, the phantom demon will be affected, and they are affected as well.

I was afraid that at the time, on the one hand, they affected the play of Shen Lang, and on the other hand, they were greatly affected.

That is a kind of internal friction, so Gao Han Qiu Ning can restrain them from coming forward to help, and don't help.

For this piece of information, the Meng and Meng Fu of the barbarian are naturally secretly relieved. They are in this team, have no right to speak, have to go forward.

Can they not be jealous of this day? I have shown my loyalty, and I don't need to go forward, it is of course excellent.

Of course, the old dragon is also willing to watch, and it is still very interesting to observe how Shen Lang can do it and how far it can be achieved.

The flares haven't fallen yet, they are coming close, and they are under enough light.

And the phantom demon at this moment, did not pay attention to other people, attention is all on Shen Lang.

After the scorpion is retracted, it is a moment of fusion time, a healing and recovery, and also a time to prepare for an attack.

The bright light of Shenlang illuminates the range of two hundred meters in diameter, but the phantom demon seems to be absorbing the darkness, and the darkness passes over the light into its body, giving it great energy.

In the next moment, its body is once again separated!

But this time, it is no longer a virtual shadow, no longer a virtual reality, but as if it is a real share, it can feel the existence of flesh and blood!

The phantom demon that appeared this time became six, and it was quickly separated, and then moved around, and immediately surrounded the swell.

Seeing this scene, everyone could not help but secretly squeezed a cold sweat.

This phantom demon, released a group of lifeless cockroaches, has already caused headaches for everyone, and now these avatars are obviously more different.

The avatar, if unrestricted, is almost equivalent to the combat power of the deity.

There aren't a lot of cockroaches now, but there are five more phantom demon, everyone has to take one!

Just those who are embarrassed, it can be said that there is no direct comparison. But Shen Lang can be used as an indirect reference!

Shen Lang is, in their opinion, the most mysterious one, with all kinds of means, but in the face of this phantom demon, it has not been defeated yet.

In exchange for the words of all of them, one to one, definitely more difficult!

The problem now is The Phantom Devil has appeared six, and has not come to deal with them. It is a joint effort against Shen Lang.

Once the Shen Lang was strangled, the next goal is them.

At this moment, everyone's eyes are a little anxious to look at the cold autumn.

At this time, even if they can't help the big waves, let the main wave of Shen Lang squat, but they will deal with one of the five, will not be bad, right?

As long as you can join hands to kill one, and then come one by one, it is the real help to Shen Lang, and it is also the work of teamwork.

Gao Hanqiu is still a tribute to everyone, so that everyone should not act rashly, just keep the best alert, be ready to shoot at any time, but without his orders, do not allow private shots!

Before the Shen Lang, let the cold and cold autumn command, and he is not available at this time, everyone naturally has to listen to the cold autumn.

The phantom demon is not inferior to the barbarian's head. At this moment, the feeling of six around the waves is like a group of big men surrounded by a baby. Visual inspection is a one-sided force.

Chapter 2546 - Fighting

This phantom demon is still using the facial features of Shen Lang, so this picture looks even more strange, like a group of big waves, bullying a small sinking wave.

“dead!”

The Phantom Devil made a noise.

The six demons worked together to instantly annihilate a large piece of light around them and become the original darkness.

Gao Hanqiu is a quick way to let everyone back a bit.

This demon is living in the forest of shadows. It should be seen in the darkness, it will have no effect on it, but it will have the effect of bonus.

They are different. Even if they come here, they have gradually adapted, but the shine is still an instinctive expectation.

If you suddenly lose the light, it will be significantly affected.

Now the other party is completely controlling and annihilating the light around the sinking waves, but the side flares have not been extinguished and dropped, and they can continue to provide illumination for everyone.

The strategy of Gao Hanqiu is to keep other people first, and not let others drag the backs of the waves.

For the time being, I believe that Shen Lang can play freely, and if the confirmation is really dangerous, then he will be the first to rush to help.

When the darkness annihilated the light, they couldn't really see the scene, they could only maintain a high level of alert, and then wait for the play of the waves.

Shen Lang is now a situation, everyone is not clear. The only thing on the spot is that he is only himself!

It is the phantom demon, this time is also a high alert, has been recruited three times, it will never allow another fourth!

And once and for all upgrades, if the other party really has a chance for the fourth time, it is very likely to kill it.

Therefore, now it is also incomparable to completely kill this human being!

When the darkness annihilated the surrounding light, the phantom demon began to look like a fish. The six demons, together from all sides, manipulated the energy of the darkness and completely banned the surroundings.

This time, it will not be swallowed, but directly to kill this person. The dark energy around has completely changed the whole environment. Whether it is invisible or visible, no matter where it is hidden, there is nowhere to escape!

Of course, Shen Lang is still hiding by the magic of the pen.

When he observed that the Phantom Devil had five avatars out, he realized that it would be even harder, but he didn't pay attention to him.

When the dark energy that is attracted, the moment that completely annihilates the light emitted by the sacred armor, it is not the effect of the dark energy, but the extinguishing of the intentional cooperation of Shen Lang!

Although he can hide through the real fantasy of the pen, the light is emitted from his side, and even if it can be concealed, it is still possible to be discovered.

So he turned the light off directly.

He shines himself, and more importantly for others, otherwise his own words are not a problem at all.

Through the holy armor, infrared, thermal, sonar and many black technologies that have not been heard, you can clearly understand the surrounding situation! It can even simulate imaging that is not much different from reality.

This is the case now. The cold autumn has prevented others from coming in time. Under the light of the flares there, there is no problem for the time being.

So he even turned off the light even if it was matched, as if it was annihilated by the dark energy of the other side.

This is both to paralyze each other and to hide themselves in the dark.

Such darkness, the phantom gods are like water, and the waves are also strategizing.

The swelled wave that was encircled, of course, was also illusory. No matter whether it was Gao Hanqiu or other people, it was the same scene.

Shen Lang is very clear that the phantom demon who has already been in the past will definitely not be fooled again. It seems to be a siege and suppression. It will actually be a routine attack. More power will be placed in the surrounding space. .

He also knows that if there is another wave of attacks, the other party will certainly not have any mercy.

So there are not many opportunities left for him.

But since the deal can not find his hiding place, it is his chance!

Because he can't find where he is, the impact of his public appearance is the real representative.

Unless the phantom demon can put the following, it will not matter him, or else it will inevitably attack him.

The ray of annihilation is the state that the phantom demon wants.

At that moment, it arranged three avatars to attack the past!

This is obviously an illusion, but it is the most important situation. It is not necessary to be safe first. Therefore, it is ordered that the three demons will be dispatched together, and the degree of attention can be seen.

However, when the three waves of the demon attacked the swell of the waves, they disappeared together!

In this shadow forest, the Phantom Devil has a home advantage, how can it be defeated again? Shouldn't it be that he is playing right?

It is a little bit a little bit lost, I don't know how the three avatars are.

Immediately, his deity remained highly wary and began to try to search around.

It didn't feel the deaths of those avatars being eliminated, and it was impossible for someone to kill them so easily. But how did it suddenly disappear?

Although they do not feel destroyed and die, it is difficult to sense their specific conditions.

Uncertain information, without knowing the specific consequences, all of which make it more and more important.

And at this moment, it found that the human being was still laughing at it!

Into the dark state, this human being does not panic, does not escape, naturally is a false, but just three attacks have no effect, or is it fake?

It does not believe in evil!

This is the forest of shadows. It has the advantage of home court. Now, in this case, it is a shame to let it bind its feet.

Although it is already in the dark no one else will see the situation here, no longer lose face, but it still feels the same shame seen by others.

In an instant, he has attacked the shadow of Shen Lang with the remaining two avatars.

Whether it is true or not, you must destroy it!

No elimination, no suppression.

When it went all out to attack the past, it was like rushing into another place with the other two demons.

After entering, it immediately saw the three avatars that had just disappeared. They wondered why they would appear here and could not find the enemy.

Going back, it has been firmly sealed by the invisible wall. It is faintly able to see the situation outside, but it is not available if you want to go out.

Mirror!

Since Shen Lang knows that the other party will not believe it, he still has to insist on it. After all, he has tried the virtual reality. But that he is illusory, the real thing is to put the magic mirror artifact!

Chapter 2547 - Close to the mirror

The magic mirror can project the illusion of the mirror. In this dark environment, the look is almost the same, and the mirror is not so easy to detect.

More importantly, now this mirror is in the grasp of Shen Lang, is to control the targeted, as well as the cover of the gods.

So when the first three demons attacked the sinking waves, they were planted into the mirror world!

They are inside, you can see the outside of the mirror world, but if you want to see them three outside, you must have them in the closeness and the outside.

But this is no longer the hunting of the mirror. It is the use of magic mirrors as weapons. As the angle and distance are adjusted, it is even further. The phantom demon lord, and the other two avatars, take their attacks and put them into the mirror.

After completing this step, there was a big change in the scene.

The influence of the Phantom Demon on the surrounding dark control has disappeared, and the Shenlang has also taken out the real fantasy and re-opened the light.

It illuminates the light around a large circle, making everything seem clear.

All outside the dark circle are always on high alert, waiting to rescue the waves. The sudden darkness disappeared and the light appeared, so that they all paid attention to the situation on the spot.

It is obvious that the six gods are going to fight with Shen Lang and completely ignore them. It is necessary to kill the waves, which is almost a one-sided feeling.

However, Shen Lang is not vegetarian, and will have his own means to counterattack.

Therefore, the re-emergence of light may mean that Shen Lang began to counterattack, which is reflected in the light driving away from the darkness, but it must be only temporary, and he could not be crushed by six days.

The bright light that reappears in a short time is the moment when they need help, and the only chance that can be won!

Everyone is a top-ranking strongman. This kind of fighting opportunity is naturally understood. It doesn't need to be cold and autumn.

In fact, in such a short period of time, it is too late to send ideas in the cold autumn, and he can only do it himself.

However, at this time, even the barbarians who have resentment with Shen Lang are ready to shoot.

Because "one glory" they may not be able to "all honor", but "one loss" will inevitably "all damage"!

The Phantom Devil does not pay attention to them now, but only regards the Lord of the Shah State as the focus. After he has done it, it is the time to deal with them.

At this time, there is the support of the king of the sand country, plus everyone join forces to launch the strongest crit, there is still a great chance to pull back the situation.

When the Lord of the Sands is destroyed, they will be harder and will be eliminated one by one.

At the moment when the light appeared, everyone was ready to shoot, and even the figure began to move, and rushed over there.

But the scenes I saw were very surprised.

The darkness of the scene was gone, and the phantom demon was gone. Shen Lang was not injured. He stood there naturally and faintly, as if everything had been fixed.

“The devil...” Fuxi couldn’t help but mourn.

Without the blockade of the Phantom Devil, there was no embarrassment, and let them come without any hindrance, and they had already arrived around the waves.

In the moment of landing, they are still a little empty in their hearts.

Will this be a phantom made by the Phantom Devil?

Will Shen Lang be actually destroyed?

If it is to save effort, let them come from the net, then it is now in the middle of the net...

“The demon has been subdued by me.”

Shen Lang said in an understatement, in this quiet shadow forest, everyone is paying attention to the Shen Lang, and all of them are strong, not much loud, all have been heard.

But this fluttering sentence falls into everyone’s ears, and it is as shocking as a thunder!

How can it be? !

Not to mention Fu Xi and Meng Jin, it is the most understanding of the cold and cold autumn, it is also very incredible.

The realm of Shen Lang is not as high as he is. Even if he has all kinds of means and magic weapons, he can only win by means of intelligence and so on. He does not doubt this.

But that takes time!

Just a second before, strictly speaking, in a time that is less than a second, there are still six phantom demons who encircle him. He can use the real fantasy to confuse the enemy and achieve the purpose of self-protection. It is already very rare.

How could it be possible to subdue the devil in the next second?

That is a spike!

Everyone is incredibly watching the waves, and he feels that he is too exaggerated to boast.

But the question is... phantom demon?

If he is not subdued by him, then normally, no matter how he escaped, he still has to continue to face the battle, and he may not have the leisure to play.

“Can I lie to you?”

Shen Lang is a little bit angry, what is this expression! Can you have more trust?

“No, no, we... you certainly won't be biased towards us...”

Just after the opening of the symbol, Shen Lang answered him, so he had to speak at this moment.

But the words are spoken, and he does not believe it.

Others did not follow the appendage, but a slightly awkward expression, proving that there is such an idea.

Everyone has a limited understanding of the mirror, but they have all experienced it. They have entered a mirrored world. In that space, it is difficult to leave. They can see the real world outside, but after they have entered, they can no longer Easy to step out.

Especially Meng and Jin, I was even more impressed. I used to beg for mercy in the mirror.

Hearing the Shen Lang was actually the income of the six days of magic into the mirror is a little more to believe, but still a little doubt.

Six!

Just now they all played against the demon. A large number of defects that have no life are able to block them. These other avatars are bound to be different in strength.

Even if there is a sneak attack effect in the mirror world, you can at most one or two of the pits, and can you put all six into it?

But... if it were not for this result, I could not explain his current calmness.

“Don’t tell me to lie to you, and show you something more!”

Now the mirror is already under the control of Shen Lang, and it can be displayed at will.

So when they were facing them, they didn’t form a big interface, but just a small range like a mirror.

Everyone took a closer look, it was a darkness, and it was faintly seen that it was the effect of the previous phantom demon. In the darkness, it seems that there are a few small people struggling, it seems that the six phantom demon!

Chapter 2548 - Courtesy

They are all people who have entered the world of the mirror. They know that there is a world that is projected. It is not a big one. It is the range that shines, but it is not a compression.

Later, Shen Lang rescued them, and only Shen Lang saw them in the perspective of God and talked to them.

Now they look at the mirror, and in one space, they present a mirror size. Inside the phantom demon, as if several small dolls are struggling, there is a sense of absurdity.

In the eyes of the real God, will it be at the level that everyone can't understand, like watching the little dolls, or even watching the ants?

It will make everyone feel like this epiphany, because of this contrast.

Just the phantom demon, there is no difference in how to make a difference. If you get a bunch of scorpions, you can trap them.

Now this phantom demon is trapped in the mirror and the world cannot come out.

This gives them a feeling of guilty conscience.

Which one of their scenes is not a strong one?

Fu Yi, Meng Jin is the top existence of Shibuya, and even reached the rare height of the barbarian history.

The dog ***** was originally the master of the world of giant beasts. After following the waves and walking north and south, it evolved into a new realm, comparable to the level of thousands of years in the world of giant beasts.

Although the dragon is now in the form of a dragonfly, the dragon has always been high.

It is the cold autumn, the deep waves, but also the world that has lived through many worlds. It is the peak of humanity.

The contrast of the phantom demon at this moment gave them a small awe.

In fact, in the face of ordinary humans and animals, they have long been able to achieve such a godly existence. But after all, the difference is too far, and it will not be taken seriously and will not be taken care of.

Nowadays, the phantom demon who is not inferior to them and may even be much stronger than them can observe this way, so that they can understand a little God's perspective.

Will there be a god, at a level that everyone can't perceive, observe everyone from this angle?

"The Lord of the Great Sand State, please accept my highest respect!"

Fu Hao suddenly salutes Shen Lang.

Although Meng Jin is slower than half a beat, he does not need to speak, so he will follow the ceremony.

Everyone can feel that no matter how they say it orally, they are not sincere enough, but they are not as good as people.

But this time, I can't say very sincere, but it is also sincere.

It is also in the use of words, there are also changes in the details. Previously used is the "respected Lord of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia", now using the "great king of the country."

The change of Fu Xi this time is not simply a slap in the face, but it is really convinced by Shen Lang!

Before everyone entered the mirror world, found the mirror, and analyzed that it might be an artifact to hunt them, it is Shen Lang.

And if there is no way for everyone, it is that Shen Lang can go out. In the end, how to conquer the mirror, they do not know, in general, time is not too long.

But they don't think of any clues. If they want to do it, they may not spend a lot of time. So the sooner, the more the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand is!

If you didn't accept this magic mirror, it would be much harder to deal with this phantom demon.

Of course, in the course of the entire battle, they couldn't really see it. They just felt that the owner of this sand country was very powerful. They played the phantom demon several times, and they turned over in less than a second, and they made a strong attack. Six Phantom Devils are shut up.

All of this has fully proved that people's strength is far better than them.

They are the same as the minds of ordinary human beings. When they think that everyone is a level, they will be preoccupied.

You are the king of the sand country, I am the patriarch of the barbarian, everyone is the same level, my valley is more powerful than your sand country, why should I bow to you?

Had to bow, but also because of the dragon's shot, and all kinds of forced helplessness.

But if you accept that everyone is not a level, it will be much calmer.

For example, the dragons, even if they have not touched them, are also high-level races that make them fearful. Therefore, even the dragons who have seen the state of being in a state of shackles are the fears that make them shiver.

Nowadays, their position on Shen Lang, the "owner of the sand country", has changed a little bit. The subconscious no longer feels that they can sit on the same level as Shen Lang.

Positioning Shen Lang to the height that can be level with the dragon, so you can be convinced.

Their attitude changed, and they did not feel much about Shen Lang. He was not the owner of the sand country. He never used the patriarchs and elders of the barbarians as competitors.

Including Hanze, Shibuya, and even the sand country, they are just a kind of adventure-seeking settlement. They are friendly and best, and they can't get along with each other. It doesn't matter if you start a war.

"Two points! First, I am only a demon in this system. The dozens and hundreds of them that came out before are all awkward, there is no life, and the insects will not go to sin. The latter is stronger, but only It's a avatar!"

Shen Lang is serious, and everyone is listening hard and earnestly. This is a big deal.

“Secondly, strictly speaking, it is not subdued, nor is it that I have the strength to crush it, but the design shuts it down.”

Shen Lang directly tells these two points, and does not take the opportunity to brag about it, so that everyone is secretly admired, whoever changes it, will also make himself more cattle.

But at the same time, the heart sinks, because these two points mean how much risk.

The Shadow Forest, it is true that the devil is active, and the strength of this day magic is even stronger than everyone estimated!

Now I just met a demon. It is called the phantom demon, inferred that there must be other demon in this shadow forest, there are other types of demon!

Shen Lang is designed to be locked up in this way, and it may not be possible to do it next time. And in this mirror world, he can come out, others may not be able to come out!

This magic mirror is obtained from this day's magic forest!

In other words, if this phantom demon comes out of the mirror world, it will inevitably be a mad revenge. If they encounter another demon, there may be more unknowing risks.

When it comes to this part, it is to discuss whether to continue moving forward or to quit.

From a fair perspective, whether you leave or not, you need to make a statement.

The suggestion here comes from the barbarian Fu, although he still feels that there is more information about Shen Lang, but he is not willing to carry the black pot that drags everyone down.

“The Lord of the Great Sand State, you are the decision maker among us. It is up to you to make a decision. We are absolutely complete support!”

Chapter 2549 - The discovery of the old dragon

If you are a symbol, it means him and Meng Jin. Their barbarians don't dare to have any opinions. Otherwise, if they have serious consequences, they will blame them.

Now is not the time to give advice, but to make decisions, handed over to Shen Lang, which is also the best decision. If he has more information, he will definitely make a better decision.

Even if he really doesn't have more information, at least others and more strength, the decisions made can also serve the public.

After he made this statement, everyone else followed the proposal and waited for the decision of Shen Lang.

From all kinds of situations, everyone feels that Shen Lang is likely to choose to leave, because he himself got the magic mirror, this is a great harvest, and it is impossible to continue to risk his life in this shadow forest.

But I didn't expect Shen Lang to open his mouth and let them be surprised.

"The two points I mentioned earlier prove that this is very dangerous, and in turn it proves that there will be a lot of resources!"

"My hometown has a saying that it is called a mountain and cannot be a tiger. It is about the dominance of the mountain forest. It is simply the control of the resources of interest. Without enough resources, these demons will consume it!"

"Like if there are not a lot of advantages and benefits, you barbarians can't live in Shibuya for thousands of years."

Shen Lang will say this, basically convince the barbarians. The cold autumn and the dog god, and even the old dragon, will be completely obeying his arrangement.

As for the barbarians to be a little more solid, it is because he also found out that Fu and Meng Jin still know the overall situation. In this day, in the magic forest, they will put down their resentment and fight for the collective interests.

The most direct manifestation is the moment when the light has just returned, and the two of them rushed like the cold autumn!

This shows that in the face of the demon, they will not be afraid of danger to help him.

Gao Hanqiu is a good relationship with each other, and the other two are for the overall interests of the team.

Now Shen Lang will talk to them more clearly, but also for the overall interests of the team.

To be straightforward, it is to make them convinced and not to drop the chain at a critical moment.

His metaphor is who listened to the barbarians, but other people listened to it completely and understood it very reasonably.

This forest of shadows will certainly not be the only place in the Tianmo Lin where there is a demon, but the more active demons, the more the environment is better.

Otherwise, they themselves will kill and rob the land every day. After thousands of years, there will inevitably be countless deaths and injuries.

Or from an evolutionary point of view, they have already passed that stage. Afterwards, everyone can make a river without water, and each can occupy a “mountain”.

This of course means that the resources of the site and the hills are enough for the gods to live very moist and do not need war.

If you go further, you don't need to say it.

Now that you have encountered a phantom demon, it means that it has reached its site, perhaps already close to its resources.

If it is crushed by the Phantom Demon, it is the right choice to leave when you can't beat it. It is a dangerous state.

Now that the Phantom Devil has been locked up, not to mention the entire Shadow Forest, the entire Tianmo Lin, at least the danger in the vicinity is solved, that is the harvest time!

Shen Lang immediately announced to everyone, began to carry out a carpet search around!

This is actually a helpless move. The line of sight, the gods and the light, etc., can only be up to about 200 meters in diameter. It is not known that there is a Jinshan in the vicinity.

Can't explore further, it can only be searched a little bit.

The Phantom Demon is living in the forest of shadows. It can't be known how far it can be. The exhaustive method of carpet search only.

However, in this shadow forest, although the restrictions are more, they have not directly affected each of them. It's like not seeing the distance under the fog, but it won't affect you running far away.

For the sake of safety, everyone is not dispersed, or the state of unity has passed.

In combination with the words of Shen Lang, everyone is more reassured. After all, the danger has been lifted.

Of course, that is just a guess, it is also possible... There is a Tianhui settlement nearby, just the phantom demon is just a sentinel, it is terrible!

Carpet search is based on the rhythm of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang considers efficiency and uses a way that the concentric circles gradually outward.

Their range of sensory sensing, plus the range of light that can be illuminated, is probably about 100 meters from the center. The current movement is based on the diameter of two hundred meters, starting a layer of circular circles.

Whether it is assumed that the phantom demon's resources are nearby, or that it is coming from a distance, it is impossible to determine the specific orientation.

The only direction that can be confirmed is the direction of coming. It is not always possible to get out at any angle before, during, and at any angle. The bigger one may be to go further and further away.

It is the most stupid way to draw a circle of carpet search, but in the case that there is no better effect, it is the most feasible method.

In such a circle, on the fifth lap, the dragons stopped and sent ideas to stop everyone.

Originally everyone's speed is not fast, you need to search every detail, now it is a spirit.

Whether it is a danger or an opportunity, it is better to have clues than to have no clue.

Because I have already done a phantom demon, I have greatly increased my confidence.

At the same time that everyone stops, it sends another idea to let Shen Lang "light out."

Shen Lang can be controlled at will, not to extinguish the light at a time, but to quickly shrink and weaken from a radius of 100 meters.

This is to avoid other people's nervousness, the whole process takes a second, but for the big guys on the site is enough to adapt and prepare.

"It's in front! It's very likely that there is a demon!"

The dragon dragon once again said a little more detail.

Shen Lang did not actually feel anything, but he did not feel that the old dragon had a problem. Because everyone is different.

For example, the scope of the influence of the fog has always been based on his personal reference!

He is limited to a hundred meters, and the barbarian may be longer or shorter. It is the same cold autumn for human beings, and the gap is normal.

Because everyone's realm and strength are not exactly the same, it is Shen Lang himself, and it is different in different periods. If you go to chaotic space now, you may be able to sense further in the ground.

If you are weak, you may not be able to feel anything when you come in.

Although the old dragon is like this now, it is a dragon. Even if everyone feels almost the same, its faucet is in front, this is also a distance, and the things in front are also first noticed.

Chapter 2550 - Mysterious lake

The old dragon let Shen Lang "light out" because he found the situation. If the enemy has not found it, turn off the lights in time to avoid being discovered.

If the enemy has already discovered it, then the light is shining, and the enemy is dark and clear. The other party can show them all the time and want to deal with it more easily.

By turning off the light, you can avoid these problems.

But this is another problem that has been neglected. That is, in the depths of this shadow forest, Shen Lang extinguished the artificial light source, and everyone can't see it clearly!

It made the difficulty for the other side and made it difficult for myself.

Shen Lang listened to its suggestions, but also made adjustments. Before the light was extinguished, there was a one-second contraction and dim buffer.

Now the old dragon has made it clear that it is in front, and then there is no more information.

Shen Lang immediately made a trade-off, reopening the light, covering the largest possible range, and then flying over the faucet.

From “lights out” to re-opening “lights”, it actually takes a second or two, but everyone has already entered the state of preparation.

Whether it is the cold autumn or the Meng and the present, they instantly understand the meaning behind the extinction and restart of the light.

This is to let them see everything clearly and to play better.

But this will make everyone become the target of others’ attention, and need to be more careful!

There is nothing to say about the old dragon. When Shen Lang came over the leading bones, it also proceeded cautiously.

With its block, the place where the situation is found in the front is actually one or two moves, and the others are all following.

Under the ray of Shenlang, everyone saw it really.

Just in front of them, there is an inexplicable appearance of a lake!

It is a water pool or a lake. In fact, it cannot be located. Because now they are close to each other, they can sense the width of about two hundred meters.

However, although it cannot be directly observed, Shen Lang can still have a clear analysis.

They are a circle of search from the inside out, just did not find this. This means that one of the directions is basically the edge, but the other direction is not certain.

Looking to the front, you can’t see the head.

If you want to figure out the specific area, you can just move along the edge. When you circle it, you know how big it is and how it is.

However, combined with the advice of the old dragon, I feel that I can't make another round of it, but I can go directly to the lake to see it!

For a moment, everyone has already reached the edge of the lake, looking forward, the lake is very calm, the water is not happy.

Looking for the light, combined with the thick fog on the water, there is a feeling of rain and rain.

However, at this time, Shen Lang did not have a poetic and leisurely feeling, but maintained a high degree of vigilance.

He faintly felt that there might be something like a monster in this lake!

Or is this a phantom scene that the Phantom Devils arranged in advance?

In short, in this shadow and the like, no matter what the situation, can not wait for it.

"I will try it!"

When Meng Jinyi opened his mouth, everyone looked at it.

When I crossed the river before, it was his temptation, and the result was that everyone was substituted into the mirror world. Now he is taking the initiative to try...

Meng Jin certainly can feel the meaning of these eyes, which makes his face hot, but he pretends not to know.

He once overturned the ship, now is the time to prove himself!

Therefore, he did not rush to the past, but waved his hand, igniting a lot of sediment, and the branches and leaves of the trees, flying over the front surface.

In fact, his method of looking more cautious is also used by Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu.

Asking for the stone, this is the most basic routine for walking the rivers and lakes.

The sediments and foliage that he is now releasing are flying at different angles with different strengths. It is a multi-faceted test.

This time, not only himself, but other people, including Shen Lang, is also concerned about it.

Soon there was a result, and the sediments fell into the calm waters of the lake, sinking straight down, and the big ones stunned.

The branches and leaves, whether flying in the air or falling, have no abnormalities. There is no blockage in the air, and it falls on the water.

It seems that this is an ordinary lake in general.

Meng Jin's test is already a result. You don't need to look at him. He also looks at Shen Lang together and then looks at the old dragon.

"There is no feeling."

The old dragon is a little helpless.

Originally in the past, it also felt that there was a strange feeling here, and even felt that there was a demon.

But when I came closer, I didn't have any awareness.

The old dragon's position made everyone look at Shen Lang and wait for his decision.

“We spent a little time around, but in fact, from here to the place where the Devils played before, the straight line distance is not too far.”

Shen Lang first said, everyone actually understands that it is just as informative as he is.

“So, it is very likely that the place where the Phantom Devil lives. It is also possible that this is where it is guarded or where resources are protected.”

This sentence gives everyone a boost.

Come to the Tianmo Lin, come to the forest of shadows, is it for resources? Since this is the phantom demon guard, it must be an excellent thing.

“I just tried it. The lake should be a bit deep. I can only feel the tens of meters, but it is not.”

Meng Jin and Fu Yu could not help but exchange their eyes.

Since we can't sense the true appearance of the underwater world, and think that this is the key point, then the subtext is to go into the water to specifically investigate.

Who is going?

The size of the dragon is so large that it is impossible to go down. If Shen Lang does not go, he will not let his two people take risks.

In the end, it's still their barbarians to do this.

Whether it is Meng Jin or Fu Yi, they are all the same race, all together.

But the problem is... If Shen Lang wants to be advanced, it is possible to know more about it in advance. It is possible that you will get a profit first.

Like the magic mirror, it was first obtained by him. The phantom demon that was just received by the world of the mirror is also his prey.

Go to danger first.

Go first first.

Both of them are very entangled, not wanting to take risks first, and don't want to give them this opportunity.

"I don't order the way, it's a fair way. Who wants to go first?"

Shen Lang directly opened, but it secretly withstood the cold autumn and the dog god.
