

First Strong 2551

Chapter 2551 - Barbarian calculation

Shen Lang is very familiar with the cold autumn and the dog god, and everyone's relationship is different.

If there is great interest in the front, he asks who is advanced, they will hesitate and will let him go.

On the other hand, if there is a huge danger ahead, he asks, they will certainly not hesitate, willing to take risks themselves.

At this moment, the mysterious lake is not at this level, and everything is unknown.

Shen Lang didn't want them to go in and take the initiative to go in. The public questioning now is mainly to see what attitude the barbarian is.

If the barbarian is willing to go in, he agrees; if he does not want to go in, he will make another arrangement.

So he secretly stunned them and gave the decision to the barbarians first.

In fact, Shen Lang is really honest, and there is nothing to do, just like before let them choose not to go to the middle of the ridiculous land.

But they did not dare to go, but instead let him take advantage of it and get a fountain of eternal life.

They calculated more refinedly, and waited until they were sure that there was no danger, but they had nothing to gain.

Now this time, Shen Lang is still the case.

The two men of the barbarian, Meng Jin and Fu Yu, did not immediately agree or swear, but a rapid exchange of consciousness.

This is in the middle of the devil forest, but also a more mysterious shadow forest, the opportunity to come here again, any chance, is the only time in life.

Although there was no gain in the ridiculous land before, who knows if there will be gains here?

“Does he know something? Let us choose first, it is a pit!”

“He may know what it is, but there is no further information in the clues I get. Now he means letting us choose first, and for us, it is also a chance to gamble once!”

“Hey! Can he have any kindness? I don’t want us to take risks. If you really have something good inside, then if he doesn’t do it right away, he will let the other go first.”

Although Meng Jin has already surrendered to Shen Lang, even if he is convinced, it is only the strength of Shen Lang. For the “personality” of Shen Lang, he is unconvinced, this is the enemy.

The surface does not dare to reveal anything, but if you communicate with Fu Wei privately, there is not much scruples.

“Who knows? Maybe the last time he advanced, what benefits have been gained, and when we pass, we have nothing.”

Fu Wei is more cautious, although he also feels that this possibility is extremely small, and does not feel regretted, but there is still such a speculation.

“The last time he was counted, there was no danger, and there was no gain, so it would be generous for us to come. This time I guess it is the same!”

“There is this possibility, but the opportunity is rare. Even according to his information, there is nothing to gain here, it may just be his standard! For us, it may not be harvested.”

“But we can wait for the next time.”

“No! There is only one chance, the strength of the demon, you have seen it. After leaving here, maybe they will leave, and then we can only leave with it. Then there is no gain!”

Meng Jin originally wanted to bar, and I felt that Shen Lang had not harvested anything.

But if you think about it carefully, have you not recovered yet?

The first wave of harvest is a dragon!

The second wave of harvest is the information that comes from them, as well as the resources offered.

The third wave of harvest is the magic mirror of a strange and artifact.

The fourth wave of harvest is equal to “live catching” a demon.

What do you need to gain so much?

Come to this day, the magic forest, swaying once, is the harvest, not to dig a counter-medicine, or what baby, it is a harvest.

What is not harvested is the two of their barbarians, and others are actually full.

Only if they want to continue, others must go.

They can only be regarded as auxiliary forces. After the main force leaves, of course, they can only follow quickly, or else they will be lost in this shadow forest.

In this way, the Lord of the Kingdom of Sand is now taking the initiative to explore this newly discovered mysterious lake and let them choose first. It is really rare and very selfless.

Meng Jin feels awkward, but he has to admit that the Lord of Saudi Arabia is really very angry and very remarkable. This is what he can't do.

The exchange of their two barbarian consciousness is fast, but it is only a moment that they have completed consultations and considerations.

At this moment, Meng Jin once again took the initiative to ask!

“The lord of the honorable country of sand, we have not taken on many responsibilities, let me serve, first check if it is dangerous!”

There is no gain, it is a gamble.

To go, of course, there is a gain in gambling. But this can't be said, it seems greedy.

On the surface, of course, let him check if there is danger.

The meaning of Meng Jin is also very obvious. There are two barbarians. If he goes alone, even if there is an accident, Fu Wei can still go back to the overall situation.

He is not satisfied with his heart, but it is another matter, but the reason is that the patriarch is not worse than him.

So he took the lead and made a decision for their consultations.

But Fu Wei also has his thoughts!

Fu Yan's adventure experience is much more than Meng Jin. So he thinks this mysterious lake is probably the nest of the previous phantom demon.

There may not be more devils in the vicinity, so there should be great gains in it.

From the perspective of personal self-interest, he also wants the first wave to go in, to get more of it.

On the other hand, since it is the site of the Phantom Demon, it is impossible to be alone, for example, will there be... a small demon?

A weaker dependency? Guardian beast?

No matter what kind of situation It's just that Meng and I go alone, and I'm sure I can't cope.

If it is the head of the sand country, the people are strong and strong, and their personal abilities are extremely powerful. If the four go together, there is definitely no problem.

But the barbarians can't let Meng Jin alone take risks.

Because they are together, they are not strong enough. Once they are separated, they are even weaker.

So after Meng and Jin opened up, Fu Wei immediately said one.

"The Lord of the Great Sand State, let us the barbarians come first to fight. If there is any gain, we will definitely offer it. If there is danger, we can only hope that you will avenge us."

When he said it, he saw Meng Meng's eyes.

He added a sentence, which is also a response to Meng Jin.

"My experience is that it should still be quite risky, and it is difficult for a single person to cope. So I beg you to agree, let me go with the patriarch."

Chapter 2552 - The heart of the old dragon

In the case of Fu Yu, the words are very smooth, although Shen Lang has already let them decide first, but he still used "please your consent."

This kind of humbleness that puts itself in a very low profile is often to make the strong and pleasant, and to enjoy the high.

In this case, if you are in danger, you may be able to help them. Or don't intentionally pit them.

In this dangerous forest of shadows, Fu Xi must always be the first to survive, and he has already put his dignity back to Shibuya.

Although Shen Lang didn't know what they thought in their minds, they also saw that they had had discussions, and they reached a part of the tacit understanding, which was not completely unified.

But what is the specific situation, guess can also guess, he is only secretly funny.

Since the identity of the elders and ancestors of the previous generations of Shibuya, can they be so self-destructive, what bicycles do they need?

Shen Lang is also polite: "There is work."

Even if it was allowed by Shen Lang, Meng Jin did not fight with Fu Wei any more. If there is anything, wait until the lake first, after safety, look for opportunities to discuss.

At this time, they are immediately on high alert, so that their defenses are up to the maximum, and then they plunged into the front of the lake.

It is not clear how big the lake is, but they still try to fly forward before falling into the water.

If you can find an island or something like that, it will be another countermeasure.

After all, the barbarian is living in the hot Shibuya. For the lake, although not afraid, it is not fun. This is the opposite of Hanze's mermaid.

They are a few of them, just watching them behind.

Seeing that they flew directly above the mysterious lake, and then continued forward, there was no monster like the leaping out of the lake.

They also seem to have not been disturbed, so they continue to move forward.

Not long after, they have already crossed the distance of more than 100 meters and disappeared into the darkness!

“What to do?” Gao Hanqiu sent an idea to Shen Lang.

Shen Lang replied: “Everything depends on their creation. I don’t know what kind of state it is. There is no real power in this day.”

The system that he said is to let this day of the devil have no resistance, then you can get more specific information by reading the memory.

Whether it is for the barbarian or for the old dragon, it is the same way.

But the demon is only locked up in the mirror world, he can control the mirror, and he dare not rush into the war.

Otherwise, there is no need for a carpet search to get to the lake.

Since everyone is not clear, if you go inside, the opportunities and dangers are half and half.

But for Shen Lang, like the barbarian analysis, he has already gained a lot.

So he can’t make a risk for himself or the cold autumn for half of the opportunity.

It is not as good as a river, let two people of the barbarian enter. If they have any good harvests, don’t expect them to be offered, at least taboo them, or they will send a part of their filial piety.

As for if they are dangerous, it is their own choice, and this does not blame him.

Gao Hanqiu nodded slightly, and with his tacit understanding with Shen Lang, he simply understood everything.

The old dragon and the dog  are next to each other. Although they don't know the specifics, they all follow the arrangement of Shen Lang.

However, the dog  is more patient. After all, following the Shenlang, it is also seen in the big world, there will be no feeling of waiting.

The old dragon is different. It is difficult to know how many thousands of years. I don't know much about the situation here. Since there is no big danger, it is good to be able to go in and investigate.

It is extremely eager to restore the flesh. The eternal spring of the ridiculous land has no hope. The swell of the swell is also the last sustenance. Of course, I hope that there will be new adventures.

It's anxious to be in the mood, Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu can feel it, but they are still very calm, and will not go to the old dragon.

Shen Lang just wanted to put a tracker on the barbarians, but he finally gave up.

Not to mention the dark and dark isolation of these fogs, entering the lake waters, should also be isolated from the signal. There is no waste, and the rest is one less.

They waited for more than ten minutes, and the old dragon couldn't help it anymore.

“Do we want to pick them up? Their strength is weaker. If there is any danger, we will be sure that we will be together.”

“Although they are not yours, in the environment here, everyone is still a partner.”

As a dragon, as a way to persuade Shen Lang in such a way, it feels very awkward.

It is accustomed to direct dictation, and now even the recommendations must be careful, it is not comfortable.

However, Shen Lang is not moving at all. The two are the same, so that it has to be accompanied.

Shen Lang slightly slammed his feet: "Can't you wait?"

The three Shenlang are standing on the top of the faucet. The Dragon Ball soul of the dragon is the seal. There is a lame on it. There is a kind of beat on it.

"I can't wait, I certainly follow your arrangements. I believe your arrangement should be the best."

It has to compliment the Shen Lang sentence, in case he directly went home to return to the government? Then there is no chance!

It's a very long feeling that I'm staring at the news. The old dragon is more worried because of his urgency. It feels like he has been in it for a long time.

However, Shen Lang was very calm, because he was able to see the specifics for a few minutes, and he was completely in control of the situation.

At this moment, he did not discuss with Gao Hanqiu and made his own decision.

"Since the old dragon you want to go in and see, then let's go in together!"

"You have to be careful Your goal is too big. If there is any attack, the first thing is for you!"

After Shen Lang finished, he slammed his feet and indicated that the old dragon could enter.

This makes Laolong feel that he should be more vigilant, but he is still more excited.

It is more like a leap at this moment. Under its big body, it has crossed the 100-meter area faster than the barbarian.

In an instant, they have already reached the top of the mysterious lake.

The light of Shenlang shines around, and for a long time, they are like a boating lake in the night, they can't see the surrounding shore, only the light in front of them, and the surrounding lake is even more foggy.

“They should have gone from there!”

Just as Shen Lang observed the changes around him, the old dragon discovered what he was, and then quickly accelerated the past. Then he did not discuss with Shen Lang. He did not wait for the order of Shen Lang and went directly to a lake.

Chapter 2553 - Underwater world

The reaction of the old dragon is to make Shen Lang a little surprised.

At such a critical moment, he certainly would not care about the problem of the old dragon not applying or listening to the command, but immediately analyzing why it is.

Everyone’s relationship is average, and the old dragon can never be rushed because of the safety of the two barbarians.

To make it so anxious, it must have found something that appeals to it!

Think about it in a ridiculous place, it can still hold its breath, and now it will be so responsive, it shows that the things here are attracted to it, even bigger than the Fountain of Eternal Life!

These thoughts flashed quickly, and the speed of the old dragon was also very fast. It immediately sank into the mysterious lake.

In the moment before entering the water, Gao Hanqiu and the dog gods quickly added enough defense.

Gao Hanqiu is instinctively cautious. When you enter this environment that you don’t understand, you must be cautious and be careful to sail for thousands of years.

The dog  was previously smashed in Hanze, and the ultra-low temperature of the cold water makes it not dare to ignore it. What is the situation here is more incomprehensible, and naturally it is a high degree of defense.

Shen Lang is very indifferent, because the giant scorpion gave him the refuge of the water, so that he can naturally drain the water.

Meng Jin and Fu Yu did not go far. This is conceivable. Even if they want to leave his sight, but there is no light, it means more danger.

Now that they are coming by themselves, the conditions are much better. There are old dragons underneath, the target is obvious, and any attacks will be attracted first, they can pay more attention to the surrounding.

Moreover, there is a well-controlled light that can illuminate as much as possible around the place that you want to illuminate.

At the same time, the water is the same. The intensity and transparency of the light of the sacred armor still remain the same.

However, even after this, after entering the waters, it has been blocked and refracted by water, but the degree is still greatly reduced.

The three of them were still standing firmly on the faucet. The body of the old dragon continued to sink. The water pressure around it could be increased, and after a little further from the water surface, there was an urgent rush.

After the old dragon was launched, he did not communicate with Shenlang again, but the target went clearly in one direction. Look at this, even if there is no light, it can still be recognized.

Shen Lang did not bother it, just wait and see.

He can clearly sense that after entering the waters underground, although the visual range has been further shortened a lot, but the range that the gods can sense is a lot bigger!

I can't see it so far because of water barriers and light. And the knowledge of God can be sensed farther, there is only one possibility, that is because there are fewer fog components in this water!

This also gave him a way of thinking, underwater, underground, is there no fog?

What kind of situation is this underwater?

Think of the giant pythons in the bottom of the Tongtian River, to create a simple palace general existence, if this is the phantom demon's nest, naturally should be better?

So going down, it didn't take long for the old dragon to feel the shock of the ground.

The old dragon has already reached the bottom of the water, and there is no need to continue the lower layer. All the way down, the holy armor is also a natural statistics with a specific depth.

Shen Lang immediately let the holy armor adjust the light to be stronger and farther.

Before the range of about 100 meters radius was maintained, it was because of the fog and darkness, and it seemed to be weak at the bottom of the water.

Therefore, at the moment when Laolong stepped on the bottom of the water, the light of Shenlang also more than doubled.

"It's here!"

The old dragon is just a shackle now, and he is not afraid of flooding anything. Under this water, it is even more exciting.

This sentence is like talking to himself. Without reporting and discussing with Shen Lang, I went straight ahead and took a few steps.

At this bottom of the water, I can feel a more turbulent darkness. The huge body of the old dragon is even shocked.

Fortunately, the three people are very strong, or else they can't stand on this faucet, they will be washed away.

After a while, Shen Lang felt it. The old dragon crashed forward and was the most urgent part of the turbulence. It was quite a little whirlpool.

In the next moment, I immediately felt a huge impact, and in a moment they felt a huge impact!

This is not an esoteric undercurrent that can be described, giving the feeling of Shen Lang, as if the space impact is normal!

He is still maintaining a high degree of attention.

Immediately after the next moment, my eyes suddenly opened up!

Everyone was a little surprised when they saw it.

It is obviously not the light made by Shen Lang, but the body is in a bright world.

The world looks up and out, and you can see that a lot of water is separated. The space inside is large, empty but without other movements and creatures.

Obviously, this should be at the bottom of the water, where the whirlpool is supposed to be an entrance and enter the space below.

On the one hand, Shen Lang observes the surrounding environment, and on the other hand, concentrates on the old dragon.

How did it know?

When I was above the water, I felt it and I was able to find it accurately. At the same height, he is unaware.

Two barbarians?

There are no people here, and Shen Lang does not think that the barbarians can find them here. To say that they are here is more likely to be an excuse for the old dragon.

For this reason, let Shen Lang be able to follow here, or else to find out what is found here, it may be even more abrupt.

It's here now, and everything is about to be revealed.

What is the idea of the old dragon, and this is where it is, and the truth will soon be revealed.

In the heart of Shen Lang, does not want to see the old dragon has the meaning of "anti".

After all, he still pursues peace and harmony. Like the barbarians, if they are willing to cooperate, he will also give opportunities and protect them.

But don't say anything other than my family, its heart must be different, at least the heart of the victim can not be, the heart of the defense is indispensable.

The old dragons are dragons. They are used to being tall. If they are obeying a human being and acting as a mount, it will inevitably be an insult!

In the absence of a solution, it may be accommodating, but this kind of accommodating means that it can be more flexible.

Just like the two of the barbarians, the symbol is naturally more in need of caution than Meng.

So now, Shen Lang has a kind of worry, worrying that the old dragon is discovering what it knows and can use it.

What it cares most about is the reshaping of the flesh. If this step can be achieved here, the ridiculous land has already been gone, and there is no reason to take orders from Shen Lang.

Chapter 2554 - Dragon cave

The idea and intention of the old dragon, Shen Lang can only rely on speculation, after all, it still has its own independent soul.

But this is exactly where it is, but it is possible to know.

Because he has the memory of the old dragon!

Before I came down, I didn't know what it was like to attract the old dragon. There was no clue at all. Now that I have reached this underwater world, I have seen the concrete look.

You can follow these and search for related memories.

Just when Shen Lang wants to recall, I feel the following shake.

This is a shock to the old dragon, shaking them off the top bone. Although it is not very fierce, the meaning is obvious, it is to let them down.

Shen Lang, three of them, if you want to force the nails to stay on top, you can do it.

But for the time being, this is your own partner. It is acceptable to be on the road and when you are riding.

Now that I have reached my destination, I don't want them to continue on the head, they should also come down.

Normally speaking, when it comes to here, Shen Lang will also go down by himself, but he is just considering analyzing the old dragon, which is slightly slower.

It's uncomfortable to go down and be driven down.

However, the heart is more than heart, willing to take advantage of everyone, and being stepped on, the latter is also unhappy.

So when landing, there is nothing wrong with Shen Lang. Not even remembering, waiting for the old dragon to give himself a solid.

To be a partner, you should still be trusted.

“Do you know where this is?”

After they landed, the old dragon lowered his head and looked down at their height.

“Where?” Shen Lang asked with a sentence.

“This is a dragon cave!”

“Dragon Cave!”

Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu, the dog god, were taken aback.

In the depths of the magic forest in the depths of the magic forest, in the depths of the mysterious waters where the phantom demon is not willing to see, there is actually a dragon cave?

Shen Lang is waiting for the old dragon to explain himself. Now that he has already said the “Dragon Cave” keyword, it is equal to knowing the answer.

He recalls, that is, to understand the details.

At this moment, he directly recalled the memory of the old dragon associated with the Dragon Cave, and soon there was a general understanding.

“You know what the dragon cave is.”

The old dragon said this to Shen Lang, and then there was no further explanation, but a quick step forward to the front.

With its huge physique, and such a sudden rushing out, everyone did not stop, and then it was in the distance.

“Follow the past!”

Shen Lang sent the idea to them two, and then went along with the direction of the old dragon.

He already knows what the Dragon Cave is!

The dragon cave is white, that is, the dragon's lair.

A mountain is still not allowed to have two tigers, and the dragons are so proud of their races, of course, they will not be a large group. Although the areas in which they live will not be scattered everywhere, to specific points, they often have their own caves.

There are also some ethnic groups living in a large dragon cave because of the environment and conditions.

This underwater world, if it is a dragon cave, the simplest possibility is that once the dragons came here, they built such a settlement here.

This is already a long time before, and it is not known.

There are still no living dragons here, and it is not known.

Although the old dragon is now in a state of embarrassment, but in the end it is still a real dragon, and their willing way, this kind of connection, let it go beyond the line of sight, the gods and the like, beyond the blockade of darkness and fog, farther Accurately sensed here.

If you look at it again, then there is no dragon here, and there should be any relics left by the dragon, which can be used.

However, since it involves the remains of the dragons, the dragons will naturally be regarded as their own. If they are eager to get close, they will be regarded as having a heart, and then become an enemy!

Therefore, Shen Lang just let everyone keep up, and did not let everyone stop blocking.

After coming in here, everyone also felt that the fog and darkness were no longer, and their obstacles and influences disappeared.

But this special underwater world has another kind of pressure. I didn't understand it at the beginning, but now I can confirm that this is what comes from the dragon.

This is stressful for them, and there is no natural for the dragons, so the dragon is here very fast.

Of course, the pressure of this one is only a little discomfort, it will not affect them a lot, everyone's speed is not slow, and soon followed.

Shen Lang had a guess, this will not enter another small world, the size is difficult to say, it is possible that this area may be larger than the Tianmo Lin.

But knowing that this is a dragon cave, it is sure that it will not be big anymore. After all, it is artificially built.

However, at their speed, the distance from the old dragon is quite shocking.

Even if you haven't traveled yet, you can basically confirm that this is at least as big as the city of a small city.

When they catch up with the old dragon, they see that it is jumping into a pool that appears in front!

Its huge body, did not enter, but did not start the water.

On the contrary, the water inside the pool is quickly absorbed by its body!

"This should be some pure spirit!"

Gao Hanqiu whispered a sentence.

Shen Lang nodded. This pool is a volume of accumulation, and the water inside is actually a liquid aura energy.

He has seen many of these, although they are all liquid liquid spirits, but there are also high and low points.

For example, the highest level is the Shenshui and the essence of heaven and earth.

Seeing the level of these here, can not be directly determined to determine, but since it is a dragon cave, this is naturally what the dragons use to absorb the spirit of the spirit of the spirit, the grade is certainly not low.

Shen Lang has not spoken now, but is attracted by two aspects!

On the one hand, it is natural that these spirits, as well as the devil's state, can quickly absorb these spirits.

This reminds him of the magic dragon that he encountered in the Dragon Valley!

The resurrected dragon is attached to the essence of the heavens and earth, absorbing the energy of the essence of the heavens and earth, so that they do not decay, thousands of years, 10,000 years of time, but also begin to grow muscles.

The biggest expectation of this form of dragon is to reshape the flesh. Now it is here, it rushes into it, and absorbs these spirits similar to the essence of heaven and earth. It is very possible that you want to borrow these To achieve the purpose of reshaping the body!

On the other side that attracted him, this is an object above the pool, a familiar thing...

Chapter 2555 - Give you 3 times help

Above the pool, Shen Lang saw a familiar building – the pyramid!

Gao Hanqiu and the dog * are not familiar with the pyramid, but Shen Lang has had many similar views.

There are many such buildings on earth, and once was one of the most famous representatives of mysterious civilizations.

This time I came to the sand country, saw the pyramid-like buildings of the sand country, and the soul of the Lord of the sand country hidden in the golden mask, only to understand that it is a building that accumulates energy, and also a message that can transmit information over time. building.

In addition, the non-returned sea prison that appeared in the center of the Pacific Ocean was later discovered to be under the deep trench and there is an underwater world.

The self-proclaimed Haizu ethnic group also has a pyramid-shaped large building that is used to absorb the energy of the universe. It is precisely because of the energy absorbed for a long time that the sea people cannot consume and cannot bear it, and finally tear the space and appear a lot of space cracks.

Therefore, for the construction of the pyramid structure, Shen Lang is far more sensitive than the cold autumn.

The pyramid-shaped building seen here is actually a reversed one. It seems to be flat, and the tip is facing the pool.

The intention is clear at a glance, that is, the building absorbs the energy of the outer shadow forest and concentrates it into the pool. After thousands of years of accumulation, it will form a liquidified spirit liquid underneath.

Specifically, how to do it, and what dragons do, what eras are done, are not known, but basically this is an overview.

Just after the old dragon sensed that there was a dragon cave below, he rushed over here, and when they arrived, they opened them, and they rushed to the place and rushed to the pool.

With the large body of the old dragon, the spirit liquid in this pool can no longer cover it. This spirit liquid may be tempered by the dragon's usual way, perhaps there is something like the heart, so that it is almost visible speed. Absorbed.

However, this is not water, and the old dragon is in a state of paralysis. Therefore, even if the speed of absorption is very fast, it is impossible to absorb all of them when they are followed.

At this time, if Shen Lang wants to grab a point, it is still possible to get a part.

“I don’t care if you are the owner of the country of sand, or the waves, and have little to do with me. I have a chance to reshape the body and don’t need to be with you again!”

The sound of the old dragon sounded up.

Obviously, it is not so polite to Shen Lang, and in the next moment, the one that gave Shen Lang before will be automatically lifted!

Of course, it is not so innocent, or has its own mind. Even if you accept the soul mark of Shen Lang, it is still in the scope of its ability to unravel.

This state is still the case now, and if it is to reshape the flesh, it will be restored, not to mention.

In other words, the previous honest obedience and willingness to ride are all manifestations of its wish, in order to accommodate the sinking waves, in order to achieve its purpose of restoring the flesh.

Especially after the hopelessness of the Fountain of Eternal Life, it has pinned its hopes on Shen Lang.

But now, it unexpectedly discovered the Dragon Cave, which can inherit everything here, and this large amount of spiritual liquid has the opportunity to help it reshape the body.

Naturally, there is no need to bow to a human being in the district.

Regardless of the self-proclaimed swell of the waves, or the lord of the country of the barbarians, it is indifferent to the old dragons, but it is nothing but a small human race.

Just like a human being, looking at an ant, it doesn’t care what its name is and which ant colony it comes from.

It just released the mark directly, and it was not discussed with Shen Lang. It was a unilateral announcement!

It now has obvious meaning. It has already been the owner of this dragon cave. You can be a guest and you can expel you.

Under this change, Gao Hanqiu and the dog gods immediately maintained a high degree of defense.

Originally everyone was a group, it was returned to Shen Lang, especially behind the barbarians, to a certain extent, it is regarded as their own.

So both of them were a little disappointed at this moment, feeling that it was anti-water.

The body of the dog * is also inflated a little, but it is hidden, and if it is to fight, it will restore the body and will not illusory.

The old dragon did not care about them. Although it had no eyes, it still had a feeling of staring at the waves.

“The dragons are clearly blamed. You are not offended by me, you helped me to leave there, and go to the ridiculous land. Even if you don’t get the fountain of eternal life, you are looking for revenge for those little green monsters.”

“Plus, here is also because of your relationship. If I still owe you, I can help you three times, as a reward.”

The old dragon is savvy, the dragon’s pride, so that it does not want to owe a little bit of human feelings. When I shot, I ruined two barbarians. It also knew that there was a credit for helping the waves. I didn’t need it to do it, so I didn’t do it.

Help three times, that is, three people: give it the courage and opportunity to leave; re-examine the ridiculous land, kill many revenge of the Green Devil; and come to the forest of shadows, the carpet search has been here.

“Do you think... Are you dominating everything now?” Shen Lang faintly said back.

The old dragon’s tone is arrogant.

“You think about it. You should understand that I have not swelled. This is the Dragon Cave, this is the place of the Dragon!”

Shen Lang is very indifferent on the surface, and in fact maintains a high degree of alert.

This old dragon can easily remove the soul mark, apparently still hiding the strength, or underestimating. It’s going to be a bad fight if you really want to engage in them.

So he couldn’t distract him and remember so much. The moment he just came over, he searched back to remember the memory of the Dragon Cave faintly understood.

The Dragon Cave is a cave house. It is not only simple to shelter from the wind and rain. It can help to accelerate the evolution of cultivation. It can also defend the outside world. It is a lot of prohibition.

Like a commander, even if his personal strength is weak, but entering the control room of the fortress and fortress, the power he can control is not an order of magnitude.

It is an ordinary person. If you have the right to control automation, it is not a problem to easily control the elevator, lighting, central air conditioning, etc. of a building.

As the old dragon emphasized, this is the Dragon Cave, which is the site of the Dragon!

Perhaps there is no verification of the dragons. Others simply can’t get in here, but when they enter, it is even more integrated, and everything can be manipulated.

However, Shen Lang can also imagine that the old dragon has not turned his face yet, and he is willing to give back to him three times to help, indicating that it is still weak, even if it can rely on the environment of the dragon cave, it is still difficult to say who is dead, and it is still possible to lose both.

Therefore, there is already a chance to recuperate, and it does not want to fight at this time.

Chapter 2556 - bargain

The specific information of Shenlang Lianlong Grottoes is not distracting to search for memory and verifying. Naturally, it is very important to Laolong.

This kind of attention is also reflected in the degree of trust in it!

Even the soul mark, this can be cheated to, in the absence of a way, willing to put down the dragon's dignity as a mount, this kind of arrogance that can bend, can be more careful than the high.

The wave of soul imprint shows that it is only a matter of expediency. On that day, perhaps there is no desire to fight with them at all, or to use their power to return to the barren land.

In other words, the old dragons are willing to mount, in fact, they are afraid that they will not go to the ridiculous land, and in turn they want to use them as cannon fodder!

Let them deal with the Green Devils to attract the green devil's vitality, especially after the addition of two big barbarians, it is good news, it is big, big pieces of meat!

It is already awkward. In theory, it won't be plagued by the Green Devils. It is only the way of the past. After such a team, the danger on the road can be resisted together, and in the ridiculous land, you can go to the Green Devil.

At that time, it can calmly absorb the fountain of eternal life and let yourself reshape the flesh.

The result was not as expected, that is to retreat to the next, waiting for Shen Lang to repair it, anyway, it is still honest, and did not tear the face with Shen Lang.

Just now, it couldn't help but leave them and couldn't help but lift the mark. It was an instinctive reaction.

But it was just a re-adjustment of the identity gesture, still did not tear the face, and offered three help.

In simple terms, the promise of these three aids is that it has helped it three times, and it is a must-have report.

But with all the analysis of this, it's impossible to think about it.

This is clearly another expedient!

How can I help? What level of help?

Is it necessary to go to this dragon cave?

The extent to which Shen Lang needs help, is it now in a state of play?

The promise of the dragons sounds extraordinary, and the thought is equal to zero!

If Shen Lang is really the owner of the sand country, the other party is really convinced that it may be extended to the millennium, which is a blessing to future generations.

Now he doesn't need it, and the other party can't believe it. These three help is a bad check, and they don't start it now!

If it really restores the flesh and returns to its peak state in the future, will you recognize it?

Of course, even if there is such a day, it may be hundreds of years and thousands of years later.

Comprehensive consideration, seeing all this, let Shen Lang also have a response.

"Yes, this is the Dragon Cave, the site of the Dragon. It is supposed that you are here. If that is the case, then I don't need you to help three times. You send me three treasures!"

This time, it is the confrontation between the old dragon and the Shen Lang, the high cold autumn and the dog god, such a big shackle, has become a neglected existence.

In fact, the old dragon is also observing and trying to figure out the waves, or else it will not be from the “owner of the sand country” and “shenlang”, guessing that the identity may be different.

According to its conjecture, Shen Lang is a strong person. He always emphasizes his decision-making power. He should be dissatisfied with it, and he will stick with it. This requires a temporary means to prove his strength.

Unexpectedly, Shen Lang admitted that it was in the position of the Dragon Cave, but did not expect that Shen Lang would be the promise of three times to help it into three treasures.

Three times of help, that is a promise that can be slowly come, even if you don't want to shoot, it can be postponed rather than rejected. The life span of the human race is not consumed by the dragons.

But three treasures, that is now to be given, can not be consumed in the future.

Its hesitation, Shen Lang immediately added a sentence.

“This is a dragon cave. The dragons will not be so poor. Can't three babies get it?”

The old dragon is tangled with the bargaining of Shen Lang. This sentence makes it even more difficult to know how to pick it up.

With the pride of the dragons, of course, we cannot recognize poverty.

It just said that he is willing to give three times of help. If there is a baby, and he is not willing to give it, does he seem to have no sincerity?

Although it does not have any sincerity, it still has to be taken care of.

This makes it very annoying...

Because the feelings are broken, it's just a matter of seeing it. Isn't it good to follow a step? Well water does not make river water, and I have not said that I will kill you.

Now ask such a rude request, isn't it necessary to tear the face on the spot?

The problem is that, within the Dragon Cave, although it already has the temperament of the slogan, it does not have the strength to tear the face.

The light he has seen, there are three in front, there is a hidden giant, and countless worms.

If you really want to do it, then it can be suppressed, and eventually the dragon cave will be destroyed.

It needs time now!

Just proactively promised help, that is, to fight for time.

Now that the problem is coming, do you need to pay three pieces of baby in exchange for the departure of the other party, and strive for the smooth and recovery time of the Dragon Cave?

There is no suspense in the answer.

I don't know for thousands of years, tens of thousands of years, the whole cockroach has become a mountain, and that kind of taste is only the most clear.

Now that there is a chance to reshape the flesh, then you can fly to the sky and cross the sky.

What do you count after paying a few things?

Besides, isn't this a little human race? The dragons just have the same thing, even if they are baby!

"Of course, the dragons have distinct grievances, you have helped me, I will be willing to help you, I want to exchange goods, I am willing. What do you want?"

The words of the old dragon are still strategic.

The resentment of re-emphasizing is clear, and to some extent, a threat!

The grievances are clear, not only will you repay, but you will also complain!

At the same time, the concept of “treasure” is confused into “items”, and then asks what Shen Lang wants. This is the dragon cave, it only controls everything, the other party has not gone through the search one by one, can not know all the details. Therefore, this sentence is a question that is impossible for the other party to talk about.

In that case, what is it that it has the final say, anyway, as long as it is three.

“I am reshaping the flesh and I am counting on it, so these are not to be given.”

After the old dragon finished, he found that there was a loophole in his own words and quickly filled it up.

It refers to this pool of spirits, if the other party is to take this as one of the treasures, then it can only turn face.

It can be so dripping, and in a way that is good for itself, Shen Lang is also welcome.

The dragon family is not atmospheric, but what else do you need to be polite with it?

“I don’t know what you have. If you don’t mind, I want to search for it myself. After all, this is not your place. You shouldn’t be clear. If there is nothing that can be seen, I can’t. what.”

Chapter 2557 - Dragon Cave Treasure Hunt

The words of Shen Lang, the old dragon could not help but entangled.

It certainly minds!

However, Shen Langming said that he did not know what it was, and emphasized that this is not the place. It has the basis of search.

And the last sentence is even more obvious. If there is nothing that can be seen, don't!

What do you mean? The savings of the Lianlong people are not seen?

The old dragon and the symbol are a kind of old fritters. If it involves reshaping the flesh, it can give up the dragon's dignified face.

But only three items, you can't let go of the Dragon's dignity face because of this.

If you are in the dark, you have even found a reason for it – it is not built by you, even if you can inherit as a dragon, it is not yours.

It can only be comforted by me for this reason.

It is not that it accumulates anyway, and it is insignificant compared to the great cause of reshaping the flesh.

“Good! All the items in this dragon cave, you pick three. Anyway, I need to confirm that if it is really something that can't be given, it can only be replaced by something else.”

After the opening promised, the old dragon still left a hand.

Is it not possible to give, the right to explain is here.

Not long ago, this scorpion dragon was counted as one of the harvests by Shen Lang, and was also counted as one of his gains by the barbarians.

Now it is destined to fly, and the guy who is so capable and capable, is also a white-eyed wolf that is unfamiliar, and should not be carried around.

Then a huge shackle is not good! Got a ticket to the fossil exhibition?

Since this is not a harvest, it is a hidden danger. Shen Lang does not feel that it is a great loss. Now I can find a few items in this dragon cave, and it may be a better harvest.

Under such circumstances, it does not make sense to fight with the old dragon to kill you. Although it has the exclusive attraction of this dragon cave and robbing it Dragon Ball, the price may also be high and cold, and the dog * includes his own casualties.

“You are here to take a break, I will come and go!”

The sentence of Shen Lang is a confession of the cold autumn and the dog god.

Dog gods may not be clear, but Gao Hanqiu must understand clearly, this is to let them look at the old dragon!

This is the Dragon Cave, and the Dragon Dragon is likely to have various manipulations. If you don't look at it, maybe it will be badly broken.

He stayed here and asked the two of them to search. It is also unreliable. The dragon cave may have some bans. If you accidentally trigger an injury, you can't blame others.

The best arrangement is that they look at him and he personally searches.

This is not the confidence of the power of the fans, but because of his understanding of the dragon.

There was a burial dragon valley before, this time there is a memory of reading the old dragon.

But now I think about it, maybe the memory I read on that day is also concealed and maybe.

Even if the arrangements were made, the other party promised. In order to stay up all night long, Shen Lang did not go shopping as slowly as he chose.

His knowledge is spread out as much as possible, with the naked eye, the holy armor, and multi-level observation scan. At the same time, the body is also moving differently, try to search all the dragon caves all over again.

The old dragon is somewhat dissatisfied with the behavior of Shen Lang, but it has already been done, and there is no performance. Try to make yourself look a bit more atmospheric.

However, after a lap, Shen Lang discovered that this dragon cave was a little empty. Don't say anything can't be seen, there is nothing!

This made him a bit speechless, and it was very rare to get the opportunity to search for the Dragon Cave with Laolong, perhaps once in his life.

But there is no baby everywhere, but nothing is harvested, it is a waste of expression.

Judging from the reaction of Laolong before, Shen Lang estimated that there should be something in this dragon cave. If it is not searched, it may be hidden. Only the dragons can know.

Thinking of this, he began to quickly search for memories related to the Dragon Cave while he was walking.

Every dragon cave will not be the same, especially in the depths of the Shadow Forest, and it will be a special one.

However, in the interior layout of the Dragon Cave, there are still some common classic methods, which is where Shen Lang can start the investigation.

After combining this one's memories, Shen Lang searched for it, and it was no longer targeted.

And he is a combination of the spirit of many dragons, although that can not let him feel like the dragon, as early as the demon dragon, but with a specific point of prohibition, it is also very helpful to open.

The goal of Shen Lang is now in front of a stone-shaped square in the depths of this dragon cave.

When I arrived here, Shen Lang was distracted to pay attention to the old dragon. It is a shackle, and you can't have any expression if you can't sense it.

He also has no reaction to the old dragon, and directly injects mental power into the dragon.

In fact, there is no effect, he is also uncertain, because of the spirit of the dragon, he has long been through a hundred years of reconciliation for his own use, and now his spiritual strength can only say that there is a little dragon component.

After his continuous injection, this square platform has risen directly!

Originally, this is integrated with the entire dragon cave. Even if you know that there may be something here, you can't use the sword of the king to open it. Perhaps with brute force, it may not be able to open it.

Now it is really letting him open!

He vaguely knows that it is not necessarily the spiritual power of the dragon, but the spiritual strength needs to reach a certain degree, and then how long it is to continue to enter, that is a standard.

At that moment, he felt that the mood of the old dragon was not small!

now it's right.

The old dragon responded, indicating that it was the right place!

At this moment, the old dragon should be entangled in whether to stop him, or is already looking for an excuse to prove that something inside can not be given.

Shen Lang is of course the first to be strong!

After the square is suspended, is like opening a lid, and the underside reveals the existence of a storage grid.

Compared with the body of the dragon, this area is still a little small, and in the case of Shen Lang, it is as large as a dozen square rooms.

Originally, I felt that it was accurate. Shen Lang is expecting a lot of gains.

If this is a treasure box of the dragon family, there should be a lot of gains in it. As a result, it is clear that there is only a pile of thin, flapped things under the square.

“This can’t move!”

The idea of the old dragon passed quickly, with a trace of anger.

Shen Lang is still not sure what this is. It is necessary to search for the memory of the old dragon, but now the reaction of the old dragon is under the square of the treasure chest, it should be the treasure of the former owner of the dragon cave. .

Now that you have found it, there is nothing else. If you have this one, let’s take it first!

Chapter 2558 - Jin Longzhen

The speed of Shen Lang’s shot is very fast and the distance is close. It’s too late for the old dragon to stop it.

In fact, the old dragon just sent the idea to drink, and did not come in person.

Estimated because it is soaked in the pool of spirits, do not dare to leave, reshaping the flesh is its most important thing, in case of leaving, by the cold autumn and the dog * to collect those spirits, then do not know yet How long have you been waiting?

That’s going to be straightforward!

And it has just been said, if it can not be taken, it can be replaced by other. Perhaps this is the idea, and he may not think that Shen Lang can open the square.

Wait until it’s open, and it’s too late to stop it.

Shen Lang chooses to start, instead of directly ingesting into the storage space, is the “take” that wants to be bright.

If you receive it directly, it seems to be the same.

He is allowed, naturally does not need to grab, can be clearly received. Even if you can bargain, as the value is not worth it, you can recall what it is and what it is.

But what he never imagined was that when the thing started, a bunch of all went quickly into his body!

This thing seems to be a pile of tulle because it looks as thin as a flap, but now it seems to be spiritual, and all of it quickly poured into the body.

He can also clearly see that the thin, flap-like things that touched him were immediately transparent and poured into his hands, and continued and continued.

This makes him want to open this thing, it is too late, and what can be done is to stop them internally.

Before you know what it is, it is undoubtedly a very dangerous thing to flow into your body.

Especially not long ago, I also saw the Green Devils. Like the Scarab, they will tear them apart and throw them away from the body.

If these tulle-like things are similar creatures, they will be even more difficult to prevent!

Defence and prevention are too late, and Shen Lang can do a remedy to make the whole body into a highly prepared state. If this is really capable of attacking him, then it must be annihilated!

But at that moment, he did not feel that this thin, flap-like thing wanted to erode him, but rather a sign that was all attached to him and completely integrated with him.

This of course can not be underestimated, because the bigger the better the defense, the scarab is more difficult to defend than the Green Devil, and this thing is more difficult to defend, if it becomes the bone of the bones, it is even harder to clean up!

“Let you not move, you must move! This is Jinlongyu, a useful thing for the dragons. You have to swallow it. It will only make you unable to bear it. When you burst into the body, don’t blame me!”

The idea of the old dragon sounded again in the brain.

This sounds like a sneer that advises invalidity, but it is clearly fascinating!

Shen Lang can even feel it, maybe it just screamed and screamed, the real purpose is to let him hurry!

In other words, this clearly knows what it is, that is, wants to sneak into the waves.

Shen Lang ignored and responded to it, continued to maintain a high degree of alert state, and then distracted to think about the memory related to “Golden Dragonfly”.

This is the secret that the dragons know, and even a little legendary ingredient.

They are the dragons, and the ancient dragons on the mainland of China are a group of ones. They are descendants of the ancient dragons.

In their legends, through the cultivation and evolution, the dragon is finally able to complete the transformation of an incarnation of the Golden Dragon, and it has evolved to the level of the ancient real dragon.

In the legend, after reaching that state, the scales of the body will fall off, and then a layer of almost transparent dragon skin will be smashed. It is like taking off a child, and then growing the flesh and scales to become a real dragon.

This layer of thin, like a dragon’s skin, is the golden dragon.

Jinlongyu is a symbolic thing for the dragon, which is used to inspire other dragons. Generally placed, you can't move.

It is like the antiques used to see the museum.

There is some information about Jinlongyu. That is, it will be absorbed, and once contacted, it will be absorbed into the body.

Because this is the essence of the ancestors of the ancestors of the golden dragons, if other dragons touch the absorption, it will increase their own tires, will not hope to change, or double the difficulty.

So this thing is really very important to them, but what matters is the value of meaning. They themselves do not need to touch.

Now this situation is also clear, this dragon cave is once a powerful magic dragon came to this day magic forest, the shadow of the forest cultivation, and finally completed the Golden Dragon transformation, this is its trace.

And because it is too powerful, the general items have not been replenished, can not enter its vision, so there is no collection of more items.

After the discovery of Shen Lang, the old dragon may be really angry, because it can be extremely rare. This is something worthy of welcoming the dragons and accepting the worship of the dragons.

But when the sun wave hit, it gloated.

Don't you want to touch it? This is what the Dragons can't bear. How can a human race in your district be able to withstand the Golden Dragon? Directly let you explode and die!

After the information was made clear by Shen Lang, he was relieved with a secret sigh.

As long as it is not the backbone, it will be much easier.

Now that the nature of this golden dragonfly has entered his body, it is just a big overdose.

For this aspect, Shen Lang is still quite confident, especially if he has a space for heaven, and he will not be able to enter and retreat for a hundred years!

Look at the big storage box under the square. After the Golden Dragonfly, there is nothing else.

Shen Lang put the square down and then returned to the pool of spiritual liquid.

I have just searched for basically no other valuable items. Through the memory of Jin Longzhen, it can be inferred that the owner of this dragon cave was a very powerful dragon. This is where it flies and embodies the golden dragon. It is estimated that there are any good things, and they are also used as supplies.

“Are you okay?”

The old dragon saw the back of the waves, the whole person's state is still very good, and there is no way to explode and die, can not help but be surprised.

“District Jinlong, what is it? I am a person who has been served by Dragon Ball!”

Shen Lang responded to it with a smile and smiled. The gaze was staring at the dragon's seat in the dragon's bone.

The old dragon felt a pressure at a time.

It has been confirmed that this human being can use the dragon's way of doing sports, and it can only be opened, it should be in contact with the dragon.

As for the Dragon Ball, it is not believed or willing to believe.

It's just... now the other person's stare position, wouldn't it be that I want to get it?

Chapter 2559 - Dragon egg?

The old dragon felt the pressure and felt a bit of aggrieved.

The Tang Dynasty Dragons, this time they have to be threatened by the Terran!

I have been there once, and now I have to be threatened by the Dragon Cave. This taste is very uncomfortable.

“Since you have chosen the treasure, you can leave, I don’t have to go with you anymore.”

Lao Long reluctantly placed a euphemistic order.

Now what it needs most is quiet rest. This is a long process that takes a lot of time and can’t be won by fighting.

So it’s really hard to get along with the other side.

This is not good, wrong, and can only endure, in case the other side to join forces to win it Dragon Ball, this is a failure.

“But I only get one.”

Shen Lang spread his hands and showed his empty hands.

I only got one of the golden dragons, and I still absorbed it. Naturally I can’t see anything else.

“Then you can continue to search.”

The old dragon can only follow one sentence. It is now under great pressure. If you want to count it as one of the things in this dragon cave?

In order to prove that he has the strength of the board, and to prove that he does not want to cause trouble, it tried to let himself put down the pressure, and then waved his paws in the air.

For a moment, a box-shaped hollow stone appeared out of thin air.

How did this thing hide? Shen Lang just searched for nothing.

“There are not many things here. You know the origins of Jinlong, and naturally you know what it is.”

“Golden Dragonfly is the most precious thing. This is the other thing I can find that can be called a treasure.”

In this way, the old dragon proves that it is really in control of the Dragon Cave, and it can be integrated with this dragon cave.

This means that its ability is not only the level of the dragon, but also the design of all the organs in the dragon cave.

The worst result, it can also ruin the dragon cave, and they are with them!

Shows the control, and then gives up part of the benefits, it can be considered both soft and hard.

But in fact, it also makes sense. The former owner, who has already gone through the golden dragon, has not left much, and it is normal.

The hollowed-out stone box that Laolong is now releasing is not the only one. It is hard to say that it is always a part of the interest.

When Shen Lang looked at the past, the claws of the old dragon had already been put up, and the stone was directly grasped, completely broken, revealing the bowl-shaped hollow inside.

“I don’t know what this is. This is what I found in this dragon cave, in addition to the Golden Dragonfly, there is something else. I am willing to offer it to you. As for the others, it is really gone.”

Laolong tries to make himself perform well and not humble, but it is still a gesture of summation.

When Shen Lang fell in the stone box, he was already concerned. Not waiting for the stone to split, I have already noticed what is inside.

This thing looks like a bucket-sized egg.

But obviously it will not be the egg of the dragon, because the body of the dragon is not so small.

And if it is a dragon egg, even if it is the species of the old dragon, this is their ethnicity. They are extremely difficult to breed. They will definitely be precious and heavy, and they cannot be given to the human race.

“You sent me a dragon egg? I am afraid that after it was born, will you seize the inheritance right of this dragon cave?”

Shen Lang smiled and teased.

Lao Long immediately said seriously: “We will not sell dragon eggs! This is not a dragon egg, I don’t know what it is.”

At this time, the dog  suddenly extended out a vine, wrapped the egg-shaped object, and took it back in a moment.

Then gave Shen Lang a look.

It is verified that the surface is at least as dangerous as toxicity or corrosion.

Then it confessed to telling Shen Lang more layers of information: no signs of life!

Shen Langqi can’t see one thing. The old dragon said that it is not a dragon egg. It should not be a dragon egg.

Besides, if you send him a dragon egg, it is still a very good harvest.

Even if you want to hatch a baby dragon, it may be a long process, but it is hard to beat him. Put it in the space of heaven, let it slowly hatch.

The dragons who have received the service, even if they have the interest of reshaping the flesh, will not get the sincerity of the other party. But if you raise from the beginning of hatching, you may be able to develop an obedient dragon.

Anyway, certainly not just a stone.

Because this is just a request, it is not calculated in advance. It is impossible for the old dragon to make such a thing and flicker it in just a little while.

Shen Lang directly took the egg up and then looked at the old dragon.

“We used to be partners.”

The old dragon said with a sigh.

It has just reflected its control of the Dragon Cave, but if the other party really does not care, it can only be hard.

At this moment, this helpless sigh is also the last helpless begging for mercy.

Used to be a partner.

No matter what its mind is, at least there is no direct pit. Going to the ridiculous land is Shen Lang's willingness to go.

When encountering two of the barbarians, or fighting in the ridiculous land and the Green Devils, it is a conscious shot, and does not use the signs of the smashing of the waves.

When I was on the road, I was willing to be a mount when I was a dragon, and what about it?

Now in this dragon cave, although it is inflated, it also has a strong contact with the soul mark, but it does not directly turn its face.

To put it simply, it may have had other thoughts, but it is not sorry for their direct behavior.

Now I use this sentence to be a partner, and I hope that Shen Lang will open one side.

Of course, there may be regrets in its heart. If you come in, you will not be so eager to get stronger, and you may be better able to solve it.

Shen Lang can feel its helplessness, and he is hesitant in his heart.

Before the contract form of the old dragon, I thought it would be hard to solve it. It is also very good to be a hitter. When the mount is extremely windy.

Now the ridiculous land has also been visited, and I have come to this shadow forest, and I have found such a dragon cave.

Old dragon wants to regain freedom, do you want to let it go?

If you destroy it, don't say that there is nothing to take away from this dragon cave. At least one dragon ball is stable, and the keel can be used.

But think about it. In fact, he has already gained something in the ridiculous land. He has got a fountain of eternal life that everyone does not know. This is the relationship from the old dragon.

Here, I also got the Golden Dragonfly, and just the unknown egg, but also because of the old dragon. I really don't feel sorry for him, I don't want to kill it.

Besides, if you want to fight with the old dragon, it will cost a lot of money. It used to reshape the body, not the pressure.

Now let go, he does not need to pay the essence of the world to reshape the flesh, basically no cost, it is a win-win situation.

“Give us a go!”

Chapter 2560 - Back to the carbine

The old dragon is ready to sink, it will be difficult to get around, even planning to cut the meat again – it has no real meat to cut.

I didn't expect Shen Lang to agree so quickly, but let it be a bit skeptical whether there was any conspiracy.

If you don't respond, you can guess it when you are in the waves. This is definitely more thinking.

“You said, we used to be partners. So in the eyes of your dragons, other races don't deserve to be partners with you. In me, others don't take me first, I don't usually take the lead.”

Shen Lang does not care whether it can understand, whether to understand this concept, and continue to say it.

“You can have the opportunity to dominate your own life, and I am very pleased. The two of them, have not lost me, I still have to look after their life and death.”

This is the barbarian Meng Jin and Fu Yu.

The old dragon brought them to the place in the name of discovering them.

Now I hear that Shen Lang is going to look for the barbarian and also regard them as partners, which makes it a bit difficult to understand.

Shouldn't they be the relationship of mutual use?

But it doesn't want to understand so much. Since it is really wanting to leave, it is of course happy.

However, it still maintains its alert and maintains a singular connection with the Dragon Cave. If there is any problem, it will directly counterattack.

After waiting for the three of Shen Lang to be sent out of the Dragon Cave, it himself continued to be in the Dragon Cave. This is a real relief.

Only the dragons can come in the Dragon Cave. The most fear is that they control it and control the Dragon Cave. After they have been sent out, they will have peace of mind.

It can be in this dragon cave, and it will be no problem for thousands of years. It will wait until the body is completely restored before it can go out.

It has been nestled in the Tian Molin for countless years, and does not care to continue to nest.

But there is one left, and when I go to the spirit pool, there is no more feeling of desolate.

In the past, I didn't know how long it was. It was all lonely and motionless. The whole body was filled with dirt and grass and moss.

But these days, it was a group, followed by the waves, and everyone went forward together, entered the mirror world together, and was rescued.

I came to the ridiculous land together, and fought against the green little monster. Finally, I rushed to the shadow forest together and fought with the phantom demon.

All of this has never been seen before.

In the past, the concept of partners, that is, the companions of the dragons, this time with the Shen Lang, they are also the behavior of the virtual and the snake.

I used to be a partner, just playing emotional cards. But after they left, it was a new experience for the partners.

Originally followed by them, especially the barbarian has been flattering, asking, etc., so that it feels very noisy, now the dragon cave is quiet, but it is a bit unaccustomed.

However, the old dragon is only temporary, but it instantly dispels these thoughts.

It has been alive, half dead and inactive, and it is a long time. Now that there is this spirit, it will live for a long time. After reshaping the body, it will be re-regenerated.

Such a living body, other races are completely different from the Japanese, but the days of getting along with each other will soon disappear into memory, why do you need to care?

Before returning to the pool of spirits, the old dragon suddenly laughed and laughed. As its claws waved, the spirit liquid was repelled and separated, revealing the same objects under the pool.

This is a plant, but the height of one or two meters, compared with the dragon, is like the same grass.

Since this plant is planted in this pool and covered with spiritual fluid, there is no doubt that these spirits are the energy that nourishes it.

At the beginning, the owner of this place arranged such a pool of spirits to absorb a lot of aura. It is not always necessary to use it. Planting such a plant in it is also a matter of peace of mind.

It's like planting a fruit tree, don't need watering and worrying about it. It's a good thing to have fruit after a long time.

If it is to be used, the spiritual liquid will not be so much. It is the accumulation of the more and more spiritual plants after it has left.

Just as the old dragon was excited to observe this plant, there was a slight energy fluctuation around it.

Shen Lang is back!

“You, you... how come you are back? How can you come back?”

The old dragon was really taken aback, and the spirit liquid quickly covered it back and completely covered the plant.

But when Shen Lang appeared, I have already seen this scene.

“This is... Dragon Heart?”

According to the impact of seeing, Shen Lang searched for memories and immediately got a result.

The dragon heart grass is a kind of magical plant that is only found in the land of the dragon family. It is hard to match other treasures of heaven and earth.

Because of the small number of things, it is very difficult to grow plants, and the long process from planting to its final result to fruit ripening is a millennium.

So this thing is not recorded in other races, because even if someone sees it, it will feel like an ordinary spirit grass.

Unless you find it when the fruit is ripe, you will feel the fruit. But because the number is extremely rare, plus thousands of years, the probability of encountering is too embarrassing.

But the dragons have a much longer life, so this thing is still in the dragon's land, not much lost, but it is also nourished by care.

The dragons have a lot of things, and they can directly capture what they want, and they don't need to worry about time with the dragon.

The dragon's heart that I just saw is planted directly in this pool. Everyday is covered with spiritual liquid. It shows how nutritious and moisturizing it is.

More importantly, there is already a fruit on it, and it is obviously mature and even mature.

“This is the Dragon Cave, how can you come in?”

The old dragon couldn't help but ask another question is both anxious and wants to shift the topic.

Shen Lang smiled. "I was afraid of the energy here. It is not enough for you to reshape the body. If I am gone, I will not come back here. I will help you before I go. But... ... It seems that you have married us a lot."

The old dragon is awkward...

When it came here before, it entered the two spirit pools. In addition to being unable to absorb it, it was really discovered that the dragon heart grass was intentionally blocked by the body.

However, it still does not believe that Shen Lang is so kindly back!

"That is to give me three pieces, you only gave me two."

"This is what you didn't find." The old dragon reluctantly responded.

Now there is no inside, and the dragon's heart inside can be seen through the spirit liquid.

The gaze of Shen Lang makes the old dragon even more worried.
