

First Strong 2561

Chapter 2561 - Yongshengquan

Shen Lang's return to the carbine is really not to calculate it!

Since the old dragon is in charge of this dragon cave, he will naturally know more about what he does not know, but just the egg-shaped thing is released, it is equal to its one.

Although I don't know what it is, what effect it has, but it is also worthwhile to think about it.

Coupled with the Golden Dragonfly, Shen Lang is already satisfied, not necessarily to get three items.

But as he said, when he returned to the mysterious lake, he thought that he would not come back in the future. The old dragon is here, which may be a long process of thousands of years.

Just like the old dragon will have some feelings, Shen Lang is also reading the partner of these days, ready to help him again!

There is another reason for this, and that is the fountain of eternal life.

Going to the ridiculous land, searching for the fountain of eternal life, helping the old dragon to reshape the flesh, which he had promised before.

In the ridiculous land, he had contact with the Fountain of Eternal Life and received a gift of the Fountain of Eternal Life.

But this other person did not know that after the event, the barbarian and the old dragon had been there, and there was no gain.

Until now, this incident has not been told to anyone, including the cold autumn.

Therefore, this is equivalent to the harvest of the ridiculous land by Shen Lang!

It is true that he really wants to be swallowed up. He has no embarrassment. At that time, he was the most powerful and the only one who was recognized by the Fountain of Eternal Life. It does not have to be given to everyone.

But after all, Shen Lang is still soft!

The spirit liquid in the Dragon Cave, the principle of restoration, is basically similar to the essence of the heavens and earth. As for the spiritual liquid effect here, it is better to bury the Dragon Valley's essence of the heavens and earth, it is difficult to say.

The environment of the burial dragon valley is very special. Here is the dragon cave made by the dragons.

However, Shen Lang is still preparing to give it a little spring of eternal life, which is a chance for this.

He is letting Gao Hanqiu wait for them under the lake. It is also by the way to find out if there are other discoveries. They have already searched for two barbarians.

He himself used the door of the Three Realms and sent it back directly. Because it is not the Dragons who can't come in, even if he has served Dragon Ball, he has just absorbed Jinlong, but it is not a Dragon.

There is no ready-made door. Besides, it is not easy for the old dragon to send them away. The door will certainly not open.

So he came in directly, no matter what the reaction of the old dragon, he directly released a little spring of eternal life, joined the pool of spiritual liquid, and then left.

I didn't expect to come back, but I saw such a scene, so that he didn't know what to say.

This old guy is really a chicken thief!

Before it had been nestled in the pool, as if afraid of grabbing its spirits, I did not expect this to be the real purpose.

But think again, it is understandable.

The old dragon has followed him a little bit. He knows that these spirits will not let his heart move, unless they are all taken away, or they will not be part of it.

But the dragon heart grass is different, because there is only one fruit that is now formed!

“You can eat like this now?”

Shen Lang looked at its stupid figure and joked.

The old dragon did not respond, and a pair of “do not eat is mys” look!

Shen Lang didn’t want to do it with him. In this shadow forest, it was an unexpected surprise to find a dragon cave.

This is also discovered by the old dragon, and he also has two kinds of harvest, but also opened up a “burden” such as the old dragon, it is already very cost-effective.

Not everything has to be all alone.

To take a step back, if he doesn’t come back, he won’t know about it, and he won’t get the slightest heart.

So he quickly put down this silky mustard and then continued his own purpose.

“It doesn’t matter, I said it is coming back to help you, don’t think I will grab you.”

After that, Shen Lang retired a bit, lest the old dragon misunderstood him and started to him.

The fountain of eternal life is just a drop for his gift. But that drop is a drop of water in the sea, like a waterfall that runs endlessly.

So at this moment he just opened his hand, when even a large number of eternal springs sprang out and fell directly to the pool of spiritual liquids.

The old dragon is naturally on the entangled edge. If Shen Lang really wants to grab the dragon's heart, it is desperate to start.

Now only one of him!

However, the posture that Shen Lang made, and the meaning of no violation, made it a bit confusing.

When the unknown liquid rushed from the palm of the sinking wave into the pool of spirits, its claws still moved!

But it still resists, want to see what the Shen Lang is going to do.

Because this liquid, not water, is not polluted, it is injected with some other energy, it can still be solved.

But soon it was amazed!

With the liquid injected into the sinking wave, the pool of the spirit liquid is not polluted, but it is obviously improved!

To put it simply, the amount he injects is limited, far less than the spirit in the pool – this is a pool that allows the dragon to lie down, even if it doesn't cover it, it's a huge amount.

But with regard to this, it has already affected the spirit liquid and made the spirit liquid more pure.

This is incredible!

But the old dragon is completely convinced.

Because it has seen it before, I saw Shen Lang in front of it, and rebuilt a cockroach in the flesh – killing warriors.

It simply does not know that it is a completely different situation.

So seeing this effect at the moment, the instinct feels that this is the means of Shen Lang, which is the way that Shen Lang promised to help it.

Now I am leaving, seeing that it is personally repaired with Spirit Liquid, I feel a little bit invisible, so I will help you.

Shen Lang is actually not mentally aware of this. In addition to the necessary alert, attention is above the spirit.

After receiving the drop of the Fountain of Eternal Life, he did not have the opportunity to study and observe.

Now this is also the first time to use it, but it has only been released from the fountain of eternal life.

But what the effect will be in the end He is also unclear.

Just thinking about mixing with this spirit, there should be no problem, anyway, it is to be absorbed by the old dragon.

It turned out that this spring of eternal life directly changed the quality of these spirits and greatly increased them!

Assume that these spirits are originally B or C, and now they are quickly becoming A, and the gap is so obvious!

This discovery surprised Shen Lang, but also instinctively distressed, reluctant to give it too much. This is a consumable item. When it is used up, it will be gone. It will not be possible to come again. It will not be possible to get it again. If it is more, it will run out.

“Okay, this should help you a journey.”

After Shen Lang received it, he was ready to leave.

“And slow!” The old dragon immediately opened his voice.

Then it waved his claws again, separating the more pure spirits and revealing the dragon’s heart.

Chapter 2562 - Dragon fruit

Shen Lang was originally prepared to leave. Hearing it, he stopped, and then watched it separate the spirits, revealing the dragon’s heart.

“This dragon fruit, you take it!”

Shen Lang looked at it with a little surprise.

This is just now nestled inside, with the bones to cover the existence of the dragon heart grass, how can we generously let it out now?

Just because he was seen? He didn’t mean to grab it.

Now he is the only one who really wants to grab it. It should also be a fight.

“I don’t have any partners, you are one.”

“Since you really come back to help me, I am really willing to let you.”

The old dragon was originally a partner, and it was only a short time, and it was placed in its long life, which will soon be forgotten.

It feels the same for them. After leaving here, they will soon forget it. At most, they talk about the journey of Tianmo Lin and talk about it.

But it didn't expect Shen Lang to come back, and it was really just to help it, to fulfill the promise that it didn't need him to be responsible!

Of course, this change in the quality of the spirit liquid is also obvious to all, and it is able to feel its great value.

To put it simply, Shen Lang gave it something that is more needed. It is a resurgence of the dragon, and the fruit of the dragon heart that has not been used for a long time is returned to Shen Lang.

The dragon heart grass must keep the fruit ripe, it is a long process, even if the life of the dragon is a torment, it can only be left alone.

So when you see a ripe fruit, you naturally want to hold it.

But like Shen Lang's slap it, it's not in the flesh now, it's a bone, it's a dragon's heart, and it's impossible to take it.

I have to wait until I reshape the flesh, but I don't know how long it will take. At that time, the fruit may have been ripened for a long time, and then the collection will be long, and the efficacy will be greatly reduced.

Basically: Although I can't use it for the time being, it is of extraordinary value and I can't bear to give it to others.

Now, Shen Lang first gave it many benefits. The upgrade of these spirits can help it reshape the body faster and better.

There was only a little hope, and now I hope it is even bigger. It would have taken a long time, and now it can be greatly shortened.

At this point, it is not only about friendship, but also about human feelings.

“I picked the fruit?”

Shen Lang asked half a doubt.

If this thing is given to him, of course it is excellent. But if the old dragon is desperate, he will not be able to take the risk, and his gain is not small.

“Do you still want to move the dragon heart together?” The old dragon did not ask for a good breath.

This is one of the reasons why it can decide to give up the fruit so quickly.

The dragon heart grass is still here, still covered by the spirit liquid, and now the quality of the spirit liquid is greatly improved, which means that it does not take so long, and the fruit can be produced again.

At that time, perhaps it has the flesh to take.

In the past, if there were no dragons in the past tens of thousands of years, the fruit of the dragon's heart was not picked, and it fell into the pool and became a part of the spirit.

Therefore, it is an appropriate time to give Shen Lang now.

Shen Lang was originally suspicious, but listening to this meaning, Lao Long was really decided to give it to him, but also his help.

Then you are welcome, and then resign a few words, the other party will not give it, it will be embarrassed.

The old dragon separated the spirits and revealed the dragon's heart inside.

Now Shen Lang flew directly in the past, and then picked up the fruit from the air and directly income into the storage space.

The fruit of the dragon's heart is only fruitful and mature for at least several thousand years. In this dragon cave, on the one hand, it may be more long-term abundant time. On the other hand, the place of planting is also much better.

It is enough to show that its effect is far better than the general dragon fruit.

But the specific effect, Shen Lang is not clear, because he has only the memory of the old dragon, and the old dragon only knew this before, and did not take it directly.

“The chances of meeting later may not be there, take care!”

The fruit of the dragon heart was obtained, and Shen Lang was also solemnly sighed.

Before the old dragon was afraid that they would not leave, it was sent to the gods, and naturally there would be no parting taste.

Of course, now that you leave, it will not have much emotion. After all, everyone will get along for a few days.

Shen Lang did not wait for the old dragon to send out, but if he came in, he directly used the door of the Three Realms to send away.

Looking at his inexplicable coming in, and inexplicably leaving, completely unable to control, let the old dragon have a little worry.

This is the Dragon Cave. It should have been the place where it was controlled alone. If Shen Lang can come in at any time and leave at any time, there is no sense of security at all!

When it is immersed in the process of reshaping the body, suddenly come in, it is possible to open the skull directly and take the dragon ball away!

But what is it?

It can't be done to them now, and it can't catch up with them.

I can only think in the right direction. I hope that as he said, there is no chance to see you again.

After the fruit of the dragon heart was picked, the old dragon still had a dim sum, but the quality of the spirit liquid was so good that it made it more exciting, and quickly went to the bath to absorb it.

The place where Shen Lang's transmission appeared was still under the mysterious lake.

The time he had just left was not long. The dog * and Gao Hanqiu were searching nearby. Everyone kept in touch and did not leave the sensing range.

By the time he reappeared in the slight space fluctuations, they all gathered back immediately.

"Lang brother, found their trail!"

Gao Hanqiu went straight into the theme and immediately talked about the focus of Shen Lang's concern.

They entered the lake area, searching for the two barbarians that came one step ahead. I just didn't expect the old dragon to find a dragon cave hidden here for many thousand years.

Now that the old dragon is here to restore the flesh, they need to get back on track.

"go!"

Shen Lang has no nonsense Just now he went back to a dragon cave, how to help the old dragon and so on, but also do not need to tell them one by one, now get the dragon heart grass fruit, just with eternal life Like the spring, they did not tell them clearly.

The two of them are absolutely credible. When there is a need, Shen Lang will use it directly.

Gao Hanqiu said, of course, he first discovered that the dog * is going in another direction, there is no gain.

They are now under the water. There is no such thing as the old dragon. In fact, their heads are more flexible and their goals are not so obvious.

Naturally avoiding water around Shenlang, the cold autumn is to protect him and the dog * together, three together under the water, rushing in the direction of the front.

Soon, Shen Lang understood the traces of the cold autumn, in this direction, it is directly able to smell the barbarian atmosphere.

They are big and strong, but they are easily recognizable on land, but under the water, they are easy to dissipate and can be identified, indicating that it is not long after this time.

Chapter 2563 - Underwater city

You can feel the breath, and it is naturally very convenient to search.

But when I started to rush forward, Shen Lang three began to wonder.

Although they are on the road under the water, the speed has not been affected much, mainly to search for the barbarian atmosphere, so it needs to be careful to avoid over-heading and wrong direction.

But this way to catch up, but there is no sign of catching up!

This feeling, it is a bit like two cars with the same speed, the road is also maintained at a relatively fixed distance, how can not catch up with the front.

Speed up, of course, can be done, but under the water of the lake, it is impossible to distinguish the direction. Once it is too fast, it is very likely to overshoot, and then it will drift further and further.

But the speed that is maintained now is not lost, but it will not catch up.

What is wondering is not the status quo, but the conditions that make this situation.

Meng Jin, Fu Xi and two people are big barbarians, sinking into the bottom of the lake, can still maintain a stable and fast movement?

Or to put it another way, with their two minds, dare to go forward regardless of whether or not they are rushing forward?

There are some other details, such as their size, and after a while, the water wave impact will not be so fast.

But now they are on the road, mainly from the barbaric atmosphere, and did not feel more traces.

All of this combined, Shen Lang has a guess!

The two of them are probably already caught by the demon!

If the Devil captured two captives, it was already in a state of coma or inability to move, and of course they could not converge on their own breath, and the other party could maintain a very fast speed, because that was their site.

If it is the devil here, it should be sure that there will be no other traces.

“Be careful, there may be a situation!”

Shen Lang immediately passed on the idea to give them two, and smashed it.

“I will move forward, you will keep up!”

After that, Shen Lang went out even if he swiftly rushed forward.

Under the lake, the fog is much less, the restrictions are much more, and the extra water restrictions have no effect on Shen Lang.

That is, their gods can sense a greater range!

In this way, he goes forward first, that is, he can keep up with the cold autumn, the dog * constantly, and then through him to search forward.

Even if the search is wrong, you can come back to both of them here.

Although there is no result in tracking a paragraph, Shen Lang can make some data analysis through the Holy Grail.

For example, there is no more discovery, and there is no possibility that everyone will maintain a relative speed.

And by moving the trajectory, you can also find a general two directions.

Whether it is a straight line forward, or a curvature, as long as it is not a random turn, add a little speed, you will not miss it.

Now that he is rushing forward, he has really caught up with a lot!

After the next step, Shen Lang discovered the problem.

It's not that he just caught up, but he's got to the front.

In front of it is a palace-like building with a bottom of water, so standing in the water, there is no area in the surrounding.

And this underwater palace, which has a faint blue light, can be seen far and far.

Seeing this scene, Shen Lang naturally slowed down and kept watching the front.

Soon the cold autumn and the dog gods followed, and when they approached, they found the previous one.

The three slowly drifted away from the water.

The breath of the barbarian two went to the palace and disappeared.

According to the preliminary observation of the gods, Shen Lang found that only a part of his eyes were seen. There are more around and in the distance. This is not an underwater palace that can be described. It should be said that an underwater city!

Among the underwater pools, there are some very tall buildings that fit the height of the previous day and some small buildings.

Even if the speed is reduced, but the distance is not far, waiting for them to come close, the people inside have already discovered!

Soon, standing on a gated building, stood in a row of people, all staring at them.

Shen Lang is also watching them closely.

Through observation and data comparison, it is found that these people are also two or three meters high, similar to the barbarians in the ordinary state of the cloud palace.

The phantom demon that was encountered before was not inferior to Meng Jin and Fu Xi. Compared with it, it is a small witch, just like the difference between young and adult.

Originally everyone was full of confidence, the strongest phantom demon was done, afraid of other people?

It is said that there should be no second phantom demon so powerful.

“What are you guys?”

Looking at them coming close, a few people above the tall tower, there was an opening to ask.

This city gate seems to follow the head of the phantom demon, so the smaller ones are above the city gate, and it looks like a toy figure.

“Are you arresting two of us? Two big barbarians.”

Here, Shen Lang can still feel the barbaric atmosphere of Meng Jin and Fu Wei, and naturally can confirm that they are here.

With their two experiences and strengths, it is very difficult to find them by themselves, so the bigger possibility is to be caught.

“It seems that you are the foreigners who have entered. The king has gone out to search for you. If you are interested, you will be shackled and you will be able to let you live!”

People who look at the gates of the city naturally have their analysis and speculation. They can know that they are a group of gangsters, that is, they are associates with the barbarians, and they are definitely the target of the “king” search.

Wang, it should be the phantom demon before.

The just question can only be regarded as a routine sentence.

“Is the foreigner who broke into? Right, the king you said, which one is it? He?”

Shen Lang released the holographic projection through the sacred armor in front of This is a real lifelike realistic effect, and it is a perfect fusion with the surrounding, it looks like it really appears.

What is presented is the phantom demon who fought with them before, of course, it is the wolf side of it.

During the speech, Shen Lang three slowly leaned closer, paying close attention to their sinking waves, and even aware of the surprised side of their faces.

Steady! They said the king, the phantom demon that he had encountered before.

Then this is... phantom race? The Phantom Demon is the Devil?

“You will be curious, you will feel that your king will win us. But in fact we are here, so you can guess what the result is compared to you?”

Shen Lang installed a low-key.

Since they have already fought in the face, they have come here with nothing to do, and it is natural that they are the king!

Chapter 2564 - queen

A few people above the city gate, or can not be called people, are phantom races, phantom gods.

When they saw that the phantom demon was hit by a few waves and finally disappeared, the heart was already panicked.

That is their king. If there is no way for the devil, they have no way.

Because the tower is very tall, after they approached, they looked at it below, and they still had to look down. This would affect a little morale.

The dog * immediately let Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu reach its head, and then the body suddenly became huge.

In an instant, it has reached the same height as the tower, so that Shen Lang can look down on them.

And the dog * himself is now, his eyes are staring at them, very sultry, with its mouth size, it seems that with just one mouth, the whole city tower can be bitten.

The phantom demon family on the tower of the city, looking down at the scene of the “king of the attack” presented below, has already made them flustered. Now a behemoth bigger than their king appears in front of the tower and is even more nervous.

“You... what do you want to do?”

One of them asked nervously.

There was another one, but it was immediately reacted and made a request.

“Are you not looking for someone? We have indeed caught two big foreigners! Let us put the king, we can return the people to you!”

Shen Lang was a little surprised. This little demon, also knows about talking about conditions, talking about transactions, and directly getting the key points. The key is to exchange the phantom demon king.

“What qualifications do you have to talk to me about conditions?”

When Shen Lang spoke, he waved his hand slightly.

Others stood at the top of the dog god, this waved, immediately as if a big hand stretched out, directly suppressed to the tower!

The phantom demon family above the tower quickly evaded.

This hand is like a shadow, but it is so real, immediately crushed the tall tower and began to fall.

These few devils, really did not have the strength of their screaming with Shen Lang, this shot feels the gap.

They were flustered and nervous, and now it is also proof of this, there is no fighting spirit.

“You are going to be arrogant! Even if the king is not there, our queen is still there!”

queen?

Listening to this, Shen Lang is a little surprised.

The phantom demon of the giant before was the king of their demon race. But there is a scale of a submarine city. Naturally, it is not only a master of the demon king, but there are certainly other people who can live in the market.

Whether it is a different name such as a predecessor, an elder, a veteran or an ancestor, there is still a certain identity.

The ones that are encountered now are not the embarrassing, but also the captain level.

Shen Lang predicted that they still have stronger enemies, and they did not put a few of them in their eyes, just waiting to lead a stronger demon.

But I did not expect them to carry out the “Queen”!

The phantom demon that I have encountered before is the king of this demon. Then the queen is naturally paired with him. What level will it be?

Surprised, there is also a little more vigilance.

Because in nature, many races are matriarchal, that is, the human race is at different times, and many are also matriarchal societies.

For example, queen bees, queens, and so on, are the core of the entire racial community.

In other words, the queen does not mean it must be weaker than the king!

If this phantom demon race is completely reproduced by the queen, or the entire underwater city is controlled by the queen, then its strength will be stronger than the previous devil!

“Hand over the people, or else ruin you here!”

This sentence is said to be the cold autumn, when he speaks, the sword is swaying, and they are completely nailed to the ground in an instant!

Then some of the gods are dumbfounded.

There are three foreigners coming over, one turned into a behemoth, and they can be crushed directly. The other one crushed them as soon as they were shot, and now the last one is so powerful.

This lineup makes them completely devoid of resistance.

“Please... please let me pay for it, I am very fast... very soon...”

Everyone else was shocked, and one of them rushed to spare.

I have not dared to carry the king later, and I dare not say that I want to exchange.

“no need.”

When Shen Lang waved his hand, these Mozus were immediately unconscious.

He and Gao Hanqiu both looked at the front and felt it. There was a strong presence in front.

The dog * will be the body of the giant beast. What it wants is the momentum. At this moment, it shows its momentum. It moves forward and completely rushes the tower that has just been suppressed by the Shenlang fingerprints.

This underwater city, all buildings, seems to be protected by a certain kind of protection, and will not merge with water.

I felt that the tower that had just been crushed and collapsed had no protection from that layer. The collapsed and shattered buildings immediately mixed with the lake and made a large turbidity around.

The dog  continued to move forward, but he did not go fast, but he also crossed the turbidity behind him.

There are other buildings in front, which are still in good condition under the lake before they are broken by the impact.

The front can make them feel strong existence, and it has already appeared clearly.

In the middle of a lot of buildings in the middle of an empty water, there is a huge demon, surrounded by a different size of the demon.

The size of this demon is the same as that of the previous Phantom Demon, and it is significantly different from other Devils. Obviously it should be the queen they said.

And the surrounding demons around it, some like the two or three meters high, and some more than ten meters high.

From these perspectives, faintness can deduce some information: the external heads of these demons reflect the level of the realm! The stronger the evolution of cultivation, the greater the external physique.

This is similar to the law of the dog gods in their giant beast world All the phantom demon family have a common and distinctive feature, that is, the entire head face, there is no facial features, showing a blank shape.

This huge queen is the same, and there is no faceless state of five senses.

Everyone came in two directions, and when they came to the near future, they kept a distance from each other.

“You dare to go to the phantom family to make trouble, you are the first one.”

The words were made by the opposite faceless queen, and the other devils who came with them were all on alert and stared at them.

“No, no, dare to come here to make trouble, certainly not the first one, but it is only a long time, and some of you don’t remember not knowing.”

Shen Lang is not modest. Since there are dragon caves at the bottom of the lake, it is obvious that at least the dragons have been here before. And they did not find the dragon cave under the eyelids. It is obvious that the fault is too long to be separated.

“However, the one who can catch your king is definitely the first one.”

Chapter 2565 - Awkward hostage

The latter sentence is the embodiment of Shen Lang’s self-confidence.

In the past, the dragons came here, or the phantom demon family has not come, or directly drove them away, or killed, it is unlikely that the devil will be caught, this is not the style of the dragon.

So like him, the demon king of the Phantom Devil is caught, it should be the first one.

And he deliberately emphasized “live catching” and also gave the other party a signal.

Sure enough, the momentum of the queen was very strong, but after hearing the latter sentence, it was obviously a little gentle.

“You, what conditions are needed to put our king?”

When the queen opened her mouth, she did not see how she moved. The waters in front suddenly fluctuated, and then two people appeared.

It is the two barbarians who are very large, Meng Jin and Fu Yu.

After the two of them appeared, they were thrown to the ground, and the consciousness was very clear, but they could not move.

It's very shameful to be caught in such a way, but after entering the Tianmolin, their noble status is useless, and their dignity is repeatedly rubbed on the ground.

The skin that has been hit by Shen Lang has been a lot thicker, and it won't stand it.

But when they saw a few of them, they both were excited a few times.

When I was advanced, of course, I was thinking about hoping to get something first. Anyway, I have already ventured into this job.

As a result, nothing was clarified, and it was caught by the Tianmo family. Of course, all the hopes can only be pinned on Shen Lang.

If you can't leave from here, you may become the ingredients and supplements of the demon!

The two of them were obviously greatly restrained. In addition to allowing them to remain awake now, even the consciousness could not be transmitted. They could only use their eyes to ask for help.

The dog  is now a huge look, Fuxi is the first time I saw it. In the Tianmo Lin, when they saw it, it was already the mount of the dragon.

Meng Jin was seen before in Shibuya. After all, Meng Hao, who was killed by his anger, was first abused by the dog god.

However, he also felt that the appearance he had seen at the time was not as large as it is now. It seems that in addition to not being so long, tall and tall are not bad dragons.

The size of the two of them is not small, but it is the height of humans comparing the narrow waves and the cold autumn, or the narrowed dog god.

Now Shen Lang and Gao Hanqiu are standing on the head of the dog god. The two of them are kneeling on the ground, and they are looking up.

But because the neck can't move, even the eyelids are extremely difficult, and you can only transfer the information to the eyelids as much as possible.

“These two are your people. I can exchange them with you and hand over the king. You can take them away.”

The queen released them both, naturally in order to use them as a bargaining chip.

Shen Lang is a faint smile.

“Do you think the identity of both of them can be compared with the devil of your phantom demon?”

The words of Shen Lang, listening to the ears of the phantom demon family, feel that it is impossible.

What are these two foreigners? How can you compare with the king?

But they are inconvenient to say, in order to protect the face of their own and the king, they must be said to be inferior. But if you can't match it, you are not qualified to exchange the king. What should you do?

For the sake of profit, it should be said that it can be compared, but to say that it is comparable to directly demeaning the king.

They are not good at what they say. The Meng and the Fu of the barbarians are both cool and cool!

what's the situation? Phantom Devils?

Was it the devil of the Phantom Devil?

Does Shen Lang really catch the phantom demon, or just get away, they are not very clear.

But knowing that it is not an independent phantom demon, but the demon king of the phantom demon, let their hearts sink.

If this is the case, is the other party willing to exchange?

Is the Lord of Sand Kingdom willing to exchange?

They also expected to be able to get the rescue of Shen Lang as a partner.

But now the Phantom Devils put them on the stage and become a chip, it will be difficult.

“The identity of the two of them is naturally not comparable to our king. But are they two of you not? Are they worthless in your eyes? Or do you ignore their life and death?”

The queen counterattacked one sentence.

It can also be regarded as understanding the hearts of the people. On the one hand, it uses the radical method to stimulate Shen Lang to talk about loyalty. On the other hand, it is also a matter of separation between them.

One more, these foreigners will come here, isn't it just to search for these two?

“They have no value, and I don't care about their lives.”

Shen Lang sneered: “If you want to use their two lives to talk to me about conditions, you are wrong!”

In this sentence, let Meng Jin and Fu Wei sink their hearts, what can I do?

In this place, there is no other rescue, but they have ambushed and lost their resistance. If they are not willing to save, they can only wait for death.

but.....

Both of them noticed a message.

What about the dragon?

Compared with the shots that have been taken out of the road again and again, the old dragons, however, rely on the identity of the dragons, even if it is a form of shackles, they are also the first to give them a town.

So to a certain extent, their confidence in the dragon is greater than the waves.

At this moment, this phantom and the demon family confronted each other, only the two of them, and the one who turned into a huge beast.

The Dragons will certainly not be afraid of water, let alone the form of shackles. It is reasonable to follow them.

Not here, there is only one possibility: hide in the dark and wait for an attack!

At the thought of this, the two of them were relieved a lot.

The owner of the Sha country must be sure to save them. Otherwise, after discovering the enemy situation, they will be willing to come over for a while will not make such tactical arrangements.

That would be nice to say, just now, it is nothing more than trying to make the other party think that they have no value, and then let them go.

“Is it? Then I will kill one first!”

The queen obviously does not believe in the words of Shen Lang. It is directly prepared to take one to sacrifice the knife. Anyway, as a hostage piece, there is one.

The two barbarians, who had just breathed a sigh of relief, once again hung up.

Come to Tianmo Lin, is ready to die. But death must die so badly!

For example, if you fight with the devil of the phantom demon, or be killed by countless green monsters, it is a dignified death.

Now that I was arrested because of a sneak attack, it was such a direct killing of the number that I didn't give, and I really didn't have a face.

It is a pity that they can't move, including the sound, even if they want to surrender, and they want to rely on the enemy to deal with the waves, there is no such opportunity.

Chapter 2566 - Fair and unfair

Shen Lang did not speak.

The queen did not speak.

There is no face of the five senses, staring at the sinking waves, seems to want to see through the waves.

It seems that I can't think of the iron and the iron, and I really don't care about the life and death of both of them.

Of course, it does not really kill a barbarian. After all, in its current hand, there are only two hostages. If one kills one, it will anger the enemy on the one hand, and weaken the chip in his hand on the other hand.

After a while, the face began to appear in the face.

This time, even like the king, I also chose to use the five features of Shen Lang!

Once again, there is a giant who looks a bit like him and looks so weird, which makes Shen Lang a bit speechless.

Haven't you seen anyone?

Can't you change the look of the cold autumn?

However, before the king is illusory to him, if the queen turned into a cold autumn look, that picture... not as good as both!

“What do you want?”

“This sentence should I ask you, what do you want?”

Shen Lang's counter-question made the Queen a little dissatisfied.

“You are the outsiders who broke into our territory. You ask me?”

Shen Lang haha smiled: “It makes sense, although it was the trouble that your demon king came to us first, but it is really your territory... so!”

Admit that they are intruders and make the Queen feel better.

In the last sentence, it seems that I have to start to express my position for this matter. The Queen has remained quiet.

“Put them both first. Let me see your sincerity!”

This sentence is said to make the reaction of the Tianmo family a bit intense.

They also want to let Shen Lang first release their kings, and even want to let them put people first!

Meng Jin and Fu Yu are finally secretly relieved.

It seems that they have not misread, the Lord of the Sands has just deliberately said that they are worthless, rather than really do not care about their lives and deaths, or else they will not mention the conditions first.

With the attitude of Shen Lang, they are greatly relieved.

They also don't believe that the Devils will put them so obedient, but as long as they have this heart, they will naturally find a chance to save them.

The Queen was waiting for the conditions of Shen Lang to open up, and did not expect that it was such a prerequisite.

This is a bit difficult. The other party's request is to pass the chips in their hands, but they don't make any promises. If they let go, the other party will not do anything. It will only look like this. It is their sincerity.

"This is not fair to us."

Its wisdom is obviously much higher than other demons. At this time, it can control its emotions very well, and it is not excited by anger.

Not even roaring to undermine the atmosphere of negotiations, but to remain calm.

"There is nothing fair and unfair, we are stronger than you, and we are qualified to ask you to come up with sincerity. If you are stronger than us, you will not talk to me about qualifications and fairness, and directly arrest us!" "

Shen Lang pointed to the two barbarians below.

"They are two, there is no chance to shoot, they are being arrested by you. Is that fair to them?"

There are counts in Shen Lang's heart.

Just now they tracked all the way, Meng Jin and Fu Yu were dragged back without rebellion.

But this phantom demon family, the strongest should be the devil and the queen. The devil has been locked in the mirror world, and the queen is sitting here, it is impossible to run out and grab the spy.

And Meng Jin and Fu Wei, don't look at being crushed by them, in fact, because the dragon shots first shocked them, or their strength is very powerful.

They are able to cope with the devil of the devil, how can they be easily caught by these little devils?

Before facing the palm of the city building, it was also a temptation of Shen Lang, a test of their strength.

With their strengths, it is impossible to capture two barbarians so easily.

“What about you? Your strength can capture our king? Is it fair?”

The queen did not deny it, but instead slammed it.

Obviously, it is also very confident for their demon kings. I believe that even if they are  with them, they should be a fierce battle, and they should not be easily caught by people.

“So, there is no fairness and unfairness!”

“The problem now is, your king, in my hands, if I don't let it out, it will never have a chance to come back to you, and the consequences will be, you can guess. As for them, hehe...”

The queen was silent.

This is where the problem lies!

They said that it was king at the beginning, so let the other party decide on them, knowing that the king has different meanings and functions for them.

It is not known what the two hostages in their hands are.

Even if it can guess, and can be with them, if there is such strength, it will certainly not be worthless.

But the other party dares to kill it, but it does not dare to kill the king by the other side!

The identity of the hostages is different, and they are destined to be at a disadvantage in negotiating.

“I can put one to prove our sincerity.”

The Queen is a queen, and has the ability to lead.

In such a short period of time, it not only maintained absolute calmness, but also immediately found a way to compromise in the absence of a solution.

Moreover, it did not want to wait for Shen Lang to refuse, and after a wave of hand, Meng Meng flew out, squatting from the ground, and fell to the side of the dog god.

Because they are all under the water, with great buoyancy, plus his big body, they did not fall.

After the imprisonment for him disappeared, he immediately stabilized his figure.

“Thank you for the help of the Lord of the Kingdom of Shah! I hope that I will save the elders of the Fu!”

Meng Jin is of course also a brain. He is the leader of the Shibuya, the patriarch of the barbarian, knowing that this time can not be smashed, can not be open to the public, and so on, so just sent a thought to Shen wave.

This is to prove that you are not a white-eyed wolf, you will know how to be grateful, and you must also prove that you are loyal, and you will not be confused after you get out of trouble.

He also knew that Shen Lang had no time to be with him, so there was no more nonsense.

“This sincerity is not enough.”

Shen Lang shook his head.

“Don’t deceive too much!”

The Queen’s sentence was much harsher, and it did not wait for it to release more war. The other demons around it were immediately wary, and they waited for a word, and they were able to fight hard.

These Mozu probably don’t know how long they haven’t had a chance to actually fight. They’ve been screaming for a long time, and they’ll be able to do a lot of work. Where else can they see them?

Chapter 2567 - Prisoner

The queen is also a combination of soft and hard, the concession has already given in, the tough must be tough!

For this attitude, Shen Lang is secretly funny.

Because this is clearly guilty!

If they can really ignore the life and death of the devil, they will do it directly, and they will not be able to talk nonsense.

Willing to release a Mengjin, which means they have to bow their heads, then it is very normal to release a symbol.

Shen Lang pointed to another barbarian still on the ground.

“Let him! I want you to look at your king and let you talk.”

This is said to make the mood of the Mozu a little better.

Before putting a hostage, that was their concession. Now the other party is willing to let them look at the king's situation, and willing to let the king communicate with them is a concession.

The Mozu, who was originally wary, was waiting for the Queen's decision.

The face of the queen at the moment is the face of Shen Lang. All the expressions that are presented are actually intentionally and unintentionally following some expressions that Shen Lang has appeared.

But because it is illusory, and it does not collect enough for Shenlang's expression database, many are rigid and more strange.

It is already very clear, this time it is a strong enemy!

This is a hard and hard food, it is to adhere to his conditions, no wonder even the king will be planted in his hands.

In the absence of a better way, it is impossible to ask for the other party, only to follow the rhythm of the other party.

At this time, Shen Lang is equal to having given it and giving them an excuse – look at the situation of the king!

So psychologically, this is not another concession for them, just to see the helplessness of the king.

The queen is still very decisive. Since it has been decided, it is certain that it is difficult to overcome the slouch and there is no further tug.

As soon as it was, it waved the hand and put the symbol.

Fuxi was in the water and moved to the other side of the dog god.

Before the old dragons were riding in the waves, they were around the old dragon, and now they are around the dog god.

“Thank you for the Lord of the Kingdom of Sha, what do you have to say, we must die!”

What Meng and Jin can do, Fu Wei certainly did better, and did not interfere with Shen Lang at all, but quickly expressed his position.

“I have already let go!”

The Queen emphasized one sentence.

At this time, Shen Lang pointed to the waters next to it.

“You see for yourself, your king is here.”

He released the mirror.

The world in the mirror is changing. It used to be a small piece of the dark world. At this moment, it is a large number of waters that are seen, which is equivalent to copying an underwater city.

The demon who was originally inside was unable to escape, and could not understand the situation outside. At this moment, it was felt that the change outside was immediately reached the critical point.

It's just that it's inside, it can't come out, but you can see the outside situation when you are close.

When it was discovered that this was in their underwater city, including the space in which it was located, it became a submarine city, and it could not help but change its face.

“You are a queen, you should know the king. This is not your king, but you have to see it clearly. Also, you can try to communicate, don't say that I have illusion to lie to you.”

The magic mirror is controlled by Shen Lang. He can talk freely with the inside. He can also let the outside voice and influence open the authority to let him know inside. It can also make the sound inside like “hands-free” and let them know.

“king!”

The queen immediately fell down.

The other demons are completely squatting.

This is their king, even if they have become prisoners, they are still their king. The enemy can not give the face to the king, and they themselves must not give the face to the king.

The queen and the demons, everyone is a natural reaction, but when they are half-squatting, it secretly regrets.

Because they show that they pay more attention to Wang, they will make the hostage of Wang become more important in the hands of the enemy.

The benefits that the enemy will want to ask for will be more!

Before that phantom demon, in the place near the edge of the mirror world, you can also see this outside, and because Shen Lang released the authority, so that he can hear the sound outside.

Looking at it all, he could not help but be angry.

“What do you want to do! There is a kind of let me out! There is a kind of battle with me!”

The demon king of the Phantom Demon, when it first appeared, there was no five senses, and the moment was the five senses that turned the waves. With the queen outside, both of them look like dark waves.

It was kept in this place for a while, and naturally it was tried all kinds of possibilities and could not get out of it.

The picture that appears now is to go to its own nest, and let the mirror world inside change like the underwater city, making it even more amazing.

The gods of their family, called the phantom demon, are because they have a transcendental level in terms of illusion.

But this time, there are people outside the sky, just planted in the real fantasy of Shen Lang's magic pen, the changes in the world of the mirror, let it feel that this is also a fantasy.

If it happens once, it would be a coincidence, and again and again, it can only make it admit that Shen Lang is far better than it in phantom.

In fact, the real fantasy created by the pen is very powerful, but it can be used again and again. The key is the devil of the phantom demon.

The mirror world in the mirror is another situation.

“You are all my defeated, the prisoner of the ranks, what qualifications are there for me to fight?”

Shen Lang sneaked a sentence, then said to the Queen: “Have you heard? This is the voice of your king?”

During the speech, he secretly controlled and made the world in the mirror an isolation. The devil could hear the sound outside, but the sound it made inside could not be transmitted outside.

“You are a conspiracy! You can't fight one-on-one with me!”

“You let me go I can tear you apart!”

“This is my territory, you are all rubbish!”

The devil wants to stimulate the law to stimulate him to go out and fight again, but he finds that his voice has increased several times, and the outside seems to be ignorant.

The queens and the demons outside, watching the devil leaping like a thunder inside, could not hear what was said, and they were even more worried.

“How do you want to let the king go?” The queen made himself try to keep calm. “I have already put two of you first!”

It emphasizes that the two barbarians were released.

“You have repeatedly stressed that this is your territory, you have an advantage; just heard it, your king can’t wait to eat me, if I let it out...”

Shen Lang was a difficult one. Before he finished, he was interrupted by the Queen.

“I can promise you on behalf of the king. As long as you let the king out, we will not move you, let you leave safely!”

Chapter 2568 - Pearl of Shadow

Shen Lang has just been such an arrangement, showing the demon king, the purpose is to want to see this phantom demon family, in the end is the queen, or the demon king.

Now basically, the strength of this queen is naturally not bad, but it is still the world that the devil is in charge of.

It means that the strength of this queen is as expected, and it does not hide the strength far better than the devil.

“You just put them both, they have shown sincerity, I naturally believe in you, but I don’t believe in your king.”

“If your king is released, it must be fierce. In your personal commitment and obeying orders, it is natural to listen to the king’s command.”

“So, even if you really want to let it go, I should also go out of your territory and put it in a safe area.”

Shen Lang said these words, so that the Queen is not good at how to refute.

Just to prove their control, it really emphasizes that this is their territory, and after the king comes out, they really need to obey the command of the king.

But now they need to achieve the goal, not the discussion.

“Are you sure you have reached the safe area, will you put the king? I can send you out!”

“You are very strong, your king is also very strong. You send us out, you two join hands, we may not beat!”

The Queen had been holding hope, and when he heard this, he began to think that this was a dodge.

“Send you out and put it again. This is already our concession. It’s just that I am accompanied, and it is our concession. If you are not accompanied by me, how can you promise to keep your promise?”

There is a bottom here because of the environmental advantages, and a group of demons can fight together.

It’s just that it’s accompanied, it’s already a risk, and there’s still the possibility of being caught.

If you let it go, you will wait for the return of the king, without any grasp.

This queen is not so easy to be fooled.

Shen Lang nodded. “You also make sense. Although you can trust you because of your sincerity, you still don’t believe me. Everyone has not enough trust.”

The queen who grew up like Shen Lang, stared at him.

This is patient and does not break out, and the other demons are on the edge of the runaway!

Because they saw that the king had been violently thundering, but could not hear the voice of the king, this is a shame to the king!

Shame the king, is to humiliate all the phantom demon family!

They all want to replace the king for sin, and they want to turn these people over.

But now it is still being crushed by the queen, but the war is in vain, and there is no direct anger to drink out, it is already well controlled.

The queen did not appease other people, and deliberately let the mood of these demons to put pressure on the other side.

“Since everyone has no trust, it is better to talk about trading! You give something of value and redeem your king. I don’t care so much. I put the king here, so you can rest assured. “”

Shen Lang said a compromise, but listening to the Queen’s ears, but a bit wrong.

How do you feel... is this their real purpose?

No matter the two big guys, let the king come out to show it, and discuss so much, it seems to be the real purpose of paving the way.

At the thought of this, it became more and more likely.

Are these outsiders who come in, will they come over and play? Naturally, I want to get some treasures in this shadow forest!

Whether they catch the Devil or not, they will not be willing to quit before they get more benefits.

After realizing the real purpose, the queen has a clearer direction.

No matter what the aspect, the most difficult rule is that there are no clear rules!

The conditions for negotiations are even more demanding. As long as there are conditions, they can all be talked about. It is just how to talk and who will give in.

The most fearful thing is that there are no conditions and ambiguity. In that case, it is completely impossible to talk about.

The queen is now feeling like this. Just after the other party did not mention the specific conditions, the two people who had been arrested were only “expressing sincerity”, not to say no, but they did not let the king.

Now that I feel the intention, it is clear that there are more requirements and it is also valuable.

“The king is priceless. In order to welcome the king, it is at all costs!”

The Queen first emphasized its attitude to prove that it would not just pick up something to send. But this is to let Shen Lang understand that it will give, it is already the best, and no need to bargain!

The devil can hear the conversation outside.

It has been violently jumping like a thunder, and all kinds of spurts have not caused the concern of Shen Lang. I want to talk to the Queen and have no effect.

It was calm down to the back, and now I feel the true intention of Shen Lang, and I can't help but scream.

“Don't listen to him! Even if he accepts something, he won't let me go out! Let's do it together and kill them!”

It was meant to tell the Queen, but it was called louder and the Queen could not hear it.

It can't help but feel the heart. It is the king of this phantom demon family. Anything that is given is all of it. Even if it is to redeem its life, it can't stand it.

The queen looked at it like this and could only guess what it was intended.

But even if you understand its ideas, the Queen has no way.

Couldn't the king say that it will not be saved? Is it really not saved?

Wang said desperately, they can be desperate, but Wang is still in the other's hands!

They are desperate, the other party kills the king first?

The other party can not care about the lives of the two big men, they can not care about the king's life and death.

In this situation, the Queen knows that the Queen is also clear that the waves are clear, so it has no strong qualifications.

The queen who had long been a generality of Shen Lang's facial features This time it was restored to a flat face without facial features, and then this big face quickly separated a hole crack.

From this hole, there is a thing that floats in front of its head.

The hole immediately closed, and in a moment it re-appeared the appearance of the five senses.

"This is the most precious shadow pearl in the Shadow Forest. It will take tens of thousands of years to be condensed. You come to the shadow forest, it is directed at it. This is the shadow of our phantom demon family collection. Beads..."

When the queen said this, the expression was very solemn, and the other demons were also very wrong.

From these can be seen, this shadow of the pearl, should really be the same excellent thing. Perhaps it can be called the treasure of Zhenshan.

However, Shen Lang did not understand the Pearl of Shadows. They came to the Shadow Forest. They are completely active in this area. They are extremely mysterious areas in the Tianmo Forest. They don't know what the harvest is.

Will the Pearl of Shadow be a true treasure?

Chapter 2569 - Heaven and the Devil?

The current situation of Shen Lang is a bit embarrassing.

On the one hand, he can determine the shadow of the shadow through the side observations, including the queen and the demon, the reaction of the demon in the world of the mirror. It should be the treasure.

Can not be said to be the best in the Tianmo Lin, but it should be the best in the Shadow Forest, at least the treasure of this phantom demon family.

Of course, it will certainly not be the only one. Since it is the devil, the only treasure is impossible for the queen. But the value of one should be huge.

On the other hand, their information about the Shadow Forest is extremely limited, and they don't know what the Pearl of Shadow is!

Even if it is a treasure, you have to know how it is used and how it works.

For example, the Pearl of Hanze is a treasure for Hanze. It has no effect on other races. It is more likely to be restrained for barbarians. Mengjin is also used to suppress over-fire conditions.

The sun beads produced in Shibuya have the same effect. For the barbarians, it is the highest treasure, and for Hanze it is abandoning useless things.

This pearl of shadow, perhaps for the Phantom Devil, is a very good thing. For the other creatures in the Shadow Forest, it is a treasure, but it is not necessarily a good thing for the Terran.

If you get a chicken rib to the treasure, but you want to trade the demon king, then you lose money.

What is even more embarrassing is that he can't ask now!

The use of the enchanting beads and the use of the sun beads, Shen Lang is not directly asked, is known through the memory of mermaid and barbarian, this will not be fake.

Now this pearl of shadow, if he directly asks the queen, it reveals that he does not understand at all.

The queen wants to change other things, it is too late, but it can be deceived in terms of usage and efficacy!

There is a saying called “Abandoning the dose to talk about toxicity, all of which are hooligans.” If the weight is seriously exceeded, drinking white water will be fatal. If the weight is appropriate, arsenic can also be used as medicine.

This pearl of shadow, said to be beads, it is also relative to them, according to the head of the Terran, this is even bigger than the ball!

Heavy-duty tires are generally large “beads”, and the energy they contain is small at a glance. How do you use them? If the queen deliberately said that he was false, he would not use the energy in it, but he would be detonated and died.

So at this moment, Shen Lang is calm and self-confident, and the heart is quickly considering it.

The shadow pearl of the heavy truck tire is presented in front of the queen, but it does not immediately send things, this is the opening waiting for the waves.

Deliver the money in one hand!

Although this is not money, the devil is not a commodity.

“This is what you want. We have only one such thing. It is the treasure we treasure. I can’t give it directly to you just now!”

“I will not rudely ask you to come up with sincerity, but at least everyone must act together, you will release the king, I will give you the shadow of this shadow!”

The Queen’s words are skillful. It says that “we” has only one such. This “we” can refer to the whole shadow demon family, and can also refer to these demons on the scene.

It sounds like the former, actually the latter, and it can't be said that it lied.

So when it was said, it was a very frank gesture.

Shen Lang can hear it. The demon king just had a great mood when he saw the pearl of the shadow, but by this time he had already accepted his life and became much calmer.

Basically, it can be concluded that the devil is ready to wait for it to be released, and then give Shenlang a fatal blow!

As long as the Pearl of the Shadows is retaken back, it will not be lost.

Shen Lang is too late to discuss with Gao Hanqiu. Whether it is the memory of the barbarian or the old dragon, it is here. Gao Hanqiu has far less information than him, and can not give a better reference.

This matter is still his own decision.

The Pearl of Hanze took it, and the Sun Bead took it, and there is nothing to dare to take this Pearl of Shadow!

What is the effect of it, how to use it, anyway, the first thing to say.

When you are not lost, you will not come. If you miss this time, you may not get the shadow of the shadow.

Others can inquire more slowly, or try, and ask better than from the enemy.

Of course, if there is a chance to read the memory of this demon or queen, it is naturally better. There is no point in other ordinary demon.

“You don't have to ridicule me for being rude. I am the one who keeps the promise. You throw the beads over. I will release your king immediately. If I don't let go, you can take it back!”

If the words of Shen Lang, let the Queen listen, I think it makes sense.

It takes a little time for the beads to float from the water. If he does not let the king out, it can be recovered.

It immediately moved, the other Mozu were very eye-catching, and immediately prepared for the battle.

What they show is: If you want to take the shadow of the pearl and not let the king, then directly tear the face and fight!

But there is another layer of thought in the dark: once the king comes out, it will definitely bring you a battle!

Gao Hanqiu and the dog god, of course, do not need to ask for the waves, and naturally prepare for the preparations. And their master style does not need to be directly displayed.

Therefore, the other side is all looking at it, and the three people are calm and calm.

That shadow big ball... The shadow of the pearl, and not very fast, this is intentionally slowly drifting from the water.

When the pearl of the shadow floated to the middle, everyone on both sides tightened their nerves.

This is equivalent to a critical point. If the midline is over, Shen Lang has not released the devil, and the other party will regard him as a grab, so he has to do it directly.

Gao Hanqiu and the dog god, did not receive the notice of Shen Lang, they will not grab, but in the face of possible enemy attacks, they still have to prepare for counterattack.

Shen Lang came to the shadow forest. It is not to attack this phantom demon, the ghost knows that there is such an existence, it is encountered, in order to determine the nearby settlement.

The purpose of coming here is to make a fortune.

It is now confirmed that it is not a separate cave, but a racial tribe that is generally not a small settlement, so it is impossible to fight a fish and die.

It's just a matter of expediency to put the Phantom God in the world of magic mirrors, and there is no good way to deal with it.

Is it always keeping it inside, waiting for it to die?

For the function of the mirror, he himself has not enough time to study. There is a general control of God's perspective, but it is still impossible to kill the demon inside the mirror.

Besides, there is no value in killing. The best way is to revenue it by collecting it into the tower, but then you have to go in, or let the devil be released first, then the risk factor will be great.

Therefore, he really wants to trade, hesitate to hesitate, just because he does not understand the Pearl of Shadow.

Chapter 2570 - Bottom salary

But like saying that Shen Lang said before, everyone has no trust, he is willing to let the demon king come out, and this queen is willing to honestly give the shadow of the pearl!

After the demon king comes out, he will inevitably be unwilling, and will do it. Shen Lang must guarantee that he can get the pearl of the shadow.

But when he saw it, he couldn't wait any longer. When the Pearl of Shadows reached half, he immediately released the demon from the space of the mirror.

At the same time, he himself also sucked the pearl of the shadow directly.

When Shen Lang releases the demon king, he is ready to move it away from the shadow of the pearl. It is another matter to do things, and things must be obtained.

Although the other demons of the Queen are stunned, this does not affect the overall situation.

Because when the demon king came out, when they felt the devil's breath, the attention of all of them was naturally attracted to the past.

The Pearl of Shadows was immediately taken over by the waves.

The Pearl of Shadows reached the center line, released the devil, robbed the beads... and the reactions of others, all at that moment.

The demon who just released it is the grievance that has long since smashed a stomach!

I have been watching it all the time, I can't participate, no one can hear the opinions, and the pearl of the shadow is sent out, making it even more fierce.

But this is to save it, the fire can not be sent to the Queen, the enemy is still in front of us, of course, they burst into the waves!

"Kill them!"

So when it came out, an order was issued immediately!

It also thinks that Shen Lang will not let it close to the shadow of the pearl, it does not even need to be close to the shadow of the pearl, as long as it can lead the Mozu to destroy these outsiders, the pearl of the shadow naturally recovered.

Instead, this time to grab the shadow of the pearl, will delay its time, it is more willing to rush to grab the shadow of the pearl, then it can get a little more time for it.

The queen and all the other demons are waiting for the return of the king.

Before the downturn to Shen Lang, it was a last resort. As long as the king came back, they would not have to vote for the rat, and there was a king to lead, it was a complete counterattack!

Therefore, at this moment, their morale has soared, and all the devils have a life-long battle.

The queen is considered to be more comprehensive.

At the crucial time, it did not personally rush to attack the sinking waves, but let all the demons attack together.

It is personally at this time to assist the king.

For it, saving the devil is the first priority. In order to achieve this goal, you can put two barbarians, or you can put the pearl of the shadow.

This time it has really been released, but the enemy may not have no backhand!

Therefore, it must be prepared to deal with it, and save the king first.

As a result, the Mozu became three kinds of attacks, and the queen went to the demon king. The demon king attacked the Shenlang side, and the other demons attacked.

When Shen Lang was able to win the Pearl of Shadows, Gao Hanqiu and the dog * also broke out of their attacks.

This phantom demon, which has been seen before, has a very powerful attacking power, and the illusion of the devil is enough to match them.

There is still a queen of the same level, and there are more devils acting together. Instead, they have lost the fighting power of a dragon.

Therefore, neither of them has any mercy, and they directly broke out!

The two of the barbarians, of course, not to mention.

Before I visited this mysterious lake, I wanted to make a cheap one. I didn't expect it to be cheap, and I was accidentally counted.

They were arrested as hostages, and although they were fortunate enough to be rescued by Shen Lang, they were inhuman and owed.

Therefore, their hearts are full of fierce resentment.

These resentments are directed at the devils, and one can kill one!

The battle between the two sides, at the moment the demon king was released, has already ignited the fuse, and the time of the fuse is very small.

Seeing this is a big melee, but as one of the most critical swells, it is the calm and unrelenting collection of the Pearl of Shadows, which has not been affected by the outside.

For the attack of the Mozu, whether it is these ordinary Mozu or the attack of the Devil, he did not look at it. It was not the same thing, no dodge, no defense.

Even in the process of attacking, other people will be distracted to pay attention to the surrounding situation, so as not to be sneaked, or to help others if necessary.

The situation of Shen Lang, so that the cold autumn and the dog  are all sighed, they can not do this.

Two of the barbarians think that this kid is too arrogant. Is this time to force it?

If you want to force it, you have to wait until the enemy is crushed!

They have suffered too much, but they dare not underestimate the enemy. It was very shameful that I was thrown on the ground just now.

But just after that moment, they suddenly found their attacks, all lost!

In the next moment, they felt the fluctuation of the space!

They haven't figured out what the situation is and they have been sent away!

It's just that Shen Lang is not forced to force, but he does not want to fight with the Tianmo family!

The purpose of his coming is for the sake of interests and resources. Now that the purpose has been reached, why bother to kill the enemy with red eyes?

The devil fights for them, for the sake of revenge, for the sake of venting, has taken the shadow of the pearl back.

They can kill the demon, what can they get?

So he came directly to a bottom-up salary!

This is a chain. When Shen Lang uses the mirror to release the demon, it has already begun.

The key thing is of course the magic pen!

At that time, everyone's attention was on the shadow of the floating pearl. The speed was very slow, but it was a decisive thing. Once the cross-border has not released the demon king it will be done.

So everyone is paying attention to this fuse.

That gave Shen Lang the time to apply. He used the magic pen to create a real fantasy. When the demon king released it from the mirrored world, it was the moment when the real fantasy was fake.

When the demon king came out, its breath attracted all the demons, including the queen, to pay attention to the past.

They want to confirm whether the king has released it and rescued the king. This is the most important thing.

However, because they all kept fighting, the king ordered them and they could attack immediately.

It's just a slight time difference, and it's already made the real fantasy of the Shenlang God pen completely fake.

In other words, all the scenes they have seen and are concerned about are already fake!

For example, Shen Lang calmly accepts the shadow of the pearl, but they also saw Shen Lang calmly collect the pearl of the shadow, but it is not the same truth, he is real, they see the real fantasy!
