

First Strong 2591

Chapter 2591 - 3 Fanger

The devil came from the shadow forest, but it is still only in the range of the shadow forest, and it is a little distance from this edge.

Basically, it is about a hundred meters, and it is in another direction with the emptiness.

Of course, the Skyless Devil does not dare to approach the direction of the Shadow Forest.

Now that the devil of the Phantom Devil has come out, it directly affects the scene.

Originally, the two sides were confrontational. Through different cards, it proved that Shen Lang was stronger and took the initiative.

Now the appearance of the Phantom Demon makes everything full of variables.

Whether it's a phantom or nothing, nothing is a demon, just a different race inside the demon.

Just like humans have different races.

Even if they are both internal and uncomfortable, when they encounter foreign enemies, they may still be united and speak out first.

Therefore, the words of this phantom demon, Shen Lang does not believe at all.

This is also an old rival. Everyone has fought a round, and the second round is because they ran.

But now it has become a confrontation between the three parties, the situation is more complicated, and Shen Lang feels more interesting.

The enemy of the enemy can be a friend.

Regardless of whether they have this sentence, but this meaning is probably understood.

When the phantom demon king comes out, he wants to unite with Shen Lang, even if he can offer memories, as long as Shen Lang helps it to destroy the emptiness.

Isn't the Skyless Devil wanting the Pearl of Shadow?

Is the Pearl of Shadow not the one obtained from the Queen of the Phantom Demon?

This shows that the grievances of both sides are not so simple.

This is available.

"It turned out that the devil of the phantom demon came. Say hello to the queen to me, did it come?"

Shen Lang smiled and said hello, as if the old friend met.

This makes the devil a little silent and depressed.

Are they friends? of course not!

They are enemies!

The enemy who used to lock it up, and the enemy that was occupied and destroyed by the underwater city. Now, when I meet again, I will say hello to the Queen. What do you mean?

"Let's say it! I don't know what your grievances are, but now I can ventilate each other with you. The phantom demon, of course, my men will be defeated. Now you can catch up here, It's not easy, but you don't dare to come out of the Shadow Forest, you need it to protect you!"

"This is a emptiness, perhaps a demon. Of course, my men will be defeated. He is not only brutally wounded by me, but also has a very strong toxin, and it will not last long."

“So, do you want to play one game first? Don’t wait for me to shoot, kill either side, or kill you all, you have no chance to retaliate.”

The sinking of the waves is a boast, and it breaks the dilemma of both sides.

The Phantom Demon was previously locked into the mirror world, but it was not seriously injured, but it did not dare to come out. This is a great weakness.

The emptiness of the devil is the opposite. It does not enter the mirror world, but it has received a lot of injuries, and it does not dare to break into the shadow forest to pursue.

So both of them need such a middleman, or they need to draw an ally.

A few Shen Lang, of course, is not the best choice, but now they have hatred with both of them, but it is the most reliable ally.

As long as one party and Shen Lang are united, it is bound to kill the other party!

“I want it! As long as you kill it for me, I can offer my memory! My memory will not lose than it!”

The demon king quickly emphasized one side and did not mind expressing the desire to kill the emptiness.

There is no opening for this moment.

Because it understands a bit, it wants a virtual mirror and a pearl of shadow, how to exchange it?

“Remember it, I can’t offer it. I can count the things you just saw. But the condition is to kill it!”

The emptiness of the demon is on the side of the price, while the direct illusion of the illusion.

The two sides are so arrogant, but they directly alert Shen Lang. Will this be a tacit singer?

The imaginary demon who had resisted, now seeing the phantom demon, is willing to offer memories, is it that they both hate?

“Then I will collect the money and then do the work. Anyway, I will not eat this family. You and I, just choose an ally.”

Shen Lang said this, look at this, and look at that, meaning to bid.

The phantom demon and the imaginary demon, all understand, this ally is very unreliable, this time is waiting for the price and linger, in addition to memory, but also to see who is out of higher prices!

They all stare at each other, but there is no direct bid, they can't let the other party know their own cards, but they also have a bottom line, and then prepare to send the idea directly to Shen Lang.

“All that I have shown you before, all for you! As long as you help me kill the Phantom Demon, and the Mirror and Shadow Pearl must be. Others... There must be a lot of value in him, you can collect!”

The imaginary demon immediately sent the idea to Shen Lang. The previous show was for them to pick, but now it is upgraded to all sent!

Also treat everything in the Phantom Devil as a sucking chip to kill him.

At this time of Shen Lang, there is actually a calculation in the heart. These two demons are not reliable!

In order to kill another demon, they seem to be able to join him, but because both sides have their own taboos. One is afraid to come out of the shadow forest, one is afraid to go in.

But after all, they are all the devils in the Tianmo Lin, in case they have an agreement in private?

For example... The Phantom Devil does not dare to come out of the Shadow Forest, and the Skyless Devil does not dare to go to the Shadow Forest. This is just an analysis of Shen Lang.

What if the two sides deliberately showed it?

When he thinks that this is the case and cooperates with one of them, it is the failure of others to kill them!

Anyway, for the two devils, they will not care about their lives. What they want is the shadow of the pearl, and now with the mirror of the virtual mirror.

These can be regarded as the inner contradiction of the demon can completely put down the grudges, together with the extinction of the enemy, and then settle the account.

So at this moment, Shen Lang seems to want to be associated with one of them, in fact, one does not believe. And this meaning was given to the cold autumn and the dog god.

Just as they watched each other and prepared for the auction, Shen Lang felt a strong idea poured over!

“This is my memory, all for you, you helped me kill it!” The imaginary magic does not wait for him to take it, is to directly extract his memory!

“This is my memory, all for you, you helped me kill it!”

Almost at the same time, another strong idea from the Phantom Devil is also the memory extraction!

In this way, Shen Lang is like a spiritual bombardment of two gods!

Chapter 2592 - Joint attack

There are two possibilities for this situation. One is that both of them want to secretly reach an agreement with Shen Lang and actively transfer the memory, although it may be only a part.

Just because both are the same idea and the same action, a conflict has been reached.

Another possibility is that they actually negotiated in private, deliberately rushing in the same way at the same time, giving Shen Lang a strong impact.

Reading memory requires a process. If it is active reading, the other party is coordinated, and the whole process is a relatively gentle process.

Just like a computer reading a file, you can open it while downloading it.

The speed of downloading and opening depends on the computer and the speed of the network, that is, the level of personal and mental power.

When the file is large, even if you download it slowly, you can open it at one time, or you may get stuck. You need to buffer it for a while.

But if the performance of the computer is high, the speed of opening will naturally increase.

It is very difficult to read other people's memories before Shen Lang. It takes time to integrate these memories.

But now his realm is very high, his mental strength is super strong, and in theory it will be very fast.

But this has another problem. Now he needs to read the memory, such as the previous ones, or the old dragons, and now these devils, they are very powerful!

All aspects of the computer have been upgraded. The software and files that need to be opened have also become larger, and the corresponding time still takes a certain amount of time.

And just in their state, they are compressing the memory and transmitting it directly in the way of mind.

It's like passing a large file that has been downloaded directly, and letting the software open directly. Another two large files need to be opened at the same time.

This will naturally cause a short pause in the computer and require more time buffering.

The computer software opens the large file buffer for a few seconds, and generally does not mind, or even notice. Even if there are some that have to be stuck for dozens of seconds, you can do something else. Just come back and you'll be fine.

But for the current situation of Shen Lang, let alone a few seconds, even if there is a half-second Karton, it is enough to cause huge passive!

With their realm and speed, it is almost in microseconds.

So when two powerful ideas came in, Shen Lang suddenly felt like a two-pronged attack!

This is related to the problem of strategy. If you attack him directly with mental strength, no matter who he is, he will defend and resist, and will not let himself passive.

But just after the two of these ideas were sent, they were all in the first sentence, indicating that this was to pass on the memory to him, and naturally he dispelled his defense.

Moreover, these two ideas are not aggressive and aggressive, and will not trigger his instinctive defense.

Just like a computer receiving a file, if it is a virus, it will start the interception of the firewall and anti-virus software, but only send a normal file, it will not.

Now they are normal files, just bigger, let him open the file and it will be stuck.

At this moment, Shen Lang is useless even if it is highly vigilant. This is the devil of the two devils, and the “memory pack” that was sent at the same time, and it is very likely to be intentional, so that he has to take it first.

At this time, he would not be able to “reject”, and even if he refused, the time was delayed.

So at this moment, he can only work at a high level of mental strength, and receive and resolve them with the greatest energy.

But others have been delayed, and even if they want to be distracted, they can’t control their bodies to make more decisions.

The dark waves at this moment can only give the back to your brother!

The tacit understanding of Gao Hanqiu did not disappoint him!

Gao Hanqiu could not perceive the ideas he received, nor did he know the mental impact he was suffering now, but with their familiarity, Shen Lang had a slight change, and he was aware of it.

This is not the right thing, so that the cold autumn first responded!

Regardless of the specific situation, he first made a defense conservatively, and the sword of the king waved out, and a sword net was placed around them, like a protective cover.

The dog * is going to slow down a little bit, but after all, everyone has had a lot of experience in adventure, and has a hundred years of retreat experience. With its realm, the level of tacit understanding is still very strong.

Realizing that Shen Lang might have been attacked, it immediately emitted a lot of vines and formed a protective circle around the three people.

Shen Lang is their main heart. Before the battle with the emptiness, they are guided by Shen Lang. They only need to cooperate.

Now that they haven't figured out the situation, they are not asking for enthusiasm.

When it is said that it is too late, everything is happening at zero o'clock, which is tens of microseconds.

The two of them were aware of the wrongness of Shen Lang and then reacted very quickly.

The phantom demon and the emptiness of the devil, but also the mastery of the initiative, they do not need to detect and react to this time, after instilling the idea of Shen Lang, immediately made an action!

The Phantom Devil and the Voidless Demon, almost at the same time, attacked the three people together!

They are in different directions, but the Phantom Devil is not only in the Shadow Forest, it is coming out from inside!

The vain magic seems to have been greatly affected by the toxins, and this is also a direct rush.

The answer is obvious. They are a family, and there are contradictions and internal contradictions. Even if it is really possible to have the intention of joining forces with Shen Lang at the beginning, but find that Shen Lang is waiting for the price, everyone can't trust each other and immediately join hands.

The enemy of the enemy is a friend.

This is true of the relationship between the three parties.

The Phantom Devil and the Voidless Demon can unite the Shenlang, or you can destroy the enemy of Shenlang first.

Both of them are very resentful shadow beads and virtual mirrors, is also a great motivation. Even if they temporarily joined forces, they did not want things to fall into the hands of the other party, so they were passive.

Therefore, the imaginary demon and the phantom demon are really rushing to attack them.

Their offense also fully demonstrates their respective advantages.

However, the short distance of 100 meters, under their speed, the Phantom Devil still quickly separated a batch of cockroaches!

It was one when it was just moved, and it has become one in half!

The emptiness of the devil is just the opposite. When it was just moving, it was one. When it was halfway through, the whole person disappeared and disappeared!

Because they are starting, even if the cold and cold reaction and the shot is very fast, the sword net has just been woven, the enemy has arrived.

Those sorcerers who are not afraid of death and are not afraid of pain directly act as a death squad, act as consumables, and attack the sword net!

Chapter 2593 - Critical danger

When I rushed to half, there was a large scorpion demon, and I immediately encountered the protective cover of the sword net. At the same time, the emptiness of the other direction has disappeared.

This allowed them to be the main force of the attack, and then the phantom demon disappeared!

The sword net of the cold autumn is a state of attack as a defense. To break through the sword net is not to break through a wall, but to break through the sword of the king!

With the power of the sword of the king, the speed of the sword net is fast, and the impact of the devils is also a scar.

The illusion of the demon is very simple, is to use the scorpion to break through a mouth, cover the entry of its body!

When its body disappears, it may be transformed into other states, waiting for an opportunity to enter this defensive circle.

The effect is very obvious. Even if there is a sword of the king in the cold autumn, this protective cover is still mainly protective, for the whole, not enough power.

But these scorpions are very powerful, and they have been trapped by a group of people. At that time, there were two barbarians and old dragons.

Everything is now in the cold autumn, and naturally it cannot be completely protected.

In an instant, the cold autumn feels that although the demon gods are blocked, but the phantom demon and the imaginary demon, may come in!

What does the phantom demon become like, there is no time to explore and analyze, and the vain magic is invincible, and the scorio is opened like a breach, and it naturally comes in.

This situation is severe!

Gao Hanqiu This is the first line of defense. The role played is to delay the enemy and fight for a little more time.

The current situation is that in a very short time, it has been broken in half!

If he gives up the defense of the sword net, all the scorpions will come in madness, and it will be very troublesome.

If you don't give up, the phantom demon and the imaginary demon have already come in, and the second layer of protection of the dog  is impossible to stop!

These stingers of dog gods are not small, but they need clear goals. Phantom and nothingness of the two demon kings, it can not find, how to block?

These are the scorpions of the outer circle, and it is not good to block, because no matter whether they penetrate their bodies or inject toxins, these scorpions will not respond, which is tantamount.

This is equal to the strength of a dog god, but it does not have the space to play!

At this moment, there is only one way to Gao Hanqiu, that is to withdraw the defense of the sword net and narrow the defense to a circle around.

It is equal to a large protection circle, which is reduced to a smaller defensive circle.

In theory, the distance is shorter, the power he exerts will be greater, and the same speed can be rotated two more times.

But in reality, there is another problem.

To what extent is the Phantom Devil and the Void?

If you have already entered the defensive circle of the dog god, then the cold autumn will change, it is too late.

Everything is very fast, it is not a race against time, but a microsecond!

Gao Hanqiu also has no time to think about it in detail. It can only be a quick return to the sword, give up defense, and directly attack!

In this way, it is the stinger of the dog god, used to deal with the demon gods, although they can not kill and hurt them, but as long as they can prevent them from advancing, Gao Hanqiu can concentrate on searching and dealing with two demon kings.

With their two almost invisible characteristics, Gao Hanqiu wants to search for it, but he can do it. But it is still difficult to find a pre-judgment in advance and then strike it with precision.

If he is alone, it doesn't matter, at least he won't be hurt. If he can attack the extent of hurting him, he will certainly be able to kill it accurately.

Now the dog * has no problem with self-protection. Even if it is attacked, it is not so easy to die with its vitality.

But what is the state of Shen Lang? He is still unclear. If Shen Lang is affected and hurt, it is life-threatening!

Under such a situation, he has no time to consider and instinctively make the most optimal choice.

But at this time, Gao Hanqiu felt that the surrounding environment suddenly changed!

Originally on the edge of the Shadow Forest, it was surrounded by fog.

Now it is suddenly clear and there is no way around.

This familiar place is where they have been closed for centuries.

Heavenly book space.

Can enter the space of the heavenly book, needless to say, Shen Lang is also natural, and the dog  is also brought in.

Gao Hanqiu finally can breathe a sigh of relief.

He wants to turn over the emptiness, so that the previous failures can breathe a sigh of relief, but it will not be irritating. In the case of Shen Lang, it is still safe.

It's really safe to get to the book space this day.

In an instant, the attention of him and the dog  was placed on Shen Lang.

"I am fine."

Shen Lang shook his head and then briefly described what happened just now.

It was learned that he was only shocked by the sudden two memories, rather than being seriously attacked, and the two of them were relieved.

What Shen Bo just needs is only a little bit of time. If there is one second or even half a second, this time can be greatly alleviated.

But he was shocked and he was passive.

Has lost the opportunity, the back can only rely on the cold autumn and the dog  to protect.

By the time he can counterattack the situation is already at risk.

Even if Shen Lang didn't have time to maneuver, but everything on the spot, he was still at heart.

Therefore, he also knows the concerns of Gao Hanqiu. The phantom demon and the emptiness of the devil are close together. This is not only him, but even three people are very dangerous.

To this end, Shen Lang directly put them both, together with them into the space of heaven.

On the one hand, you can take a break and keep going to fight more calmly.

On the other hand, it is also possible to disrupt the situation in which the other party occupies an active position.

When they go out again, everyone is on a new starting line, and with Shen Lang, it is more likely to have the upper hand.

“You recall and ponder how to deal with them. Let me first understand the memories they have brought.”

There is a hundred times of time here, and Shen Lang can slowly manipulate it without hesitation.

Gao Hanqiu and the dog * two, do not need him to worry, no one is injured.

Shen Lang himself, just took the two “memory packs”, can only be regarded as the file just unpacked, opened, and did not have time to understand the content.

In the current relationship, the memory content given by the other party is actually quite true!

Because the incident was sudden, it was decided quickly, and it was too late to make up more fake memories.

Chapter 2594 - History of the devil

And according to the joint view of the two sides, this is to prepare him to break through, in order to delay him, and then have the opportunity to take the three together, kill, the real memory, will not leak.

However, even if this memory is true, it is estimated that there will still be a large amount of garbage memory, and some core key memories will still be defective.

But then again, the time is too short, it is too late to make fake memories, and it is too late to screen all the important memories.

In this case, if it is incomplete, it should be the most important one or two memories, and most of the others are true.

This is the memory of the demon kings of the two devils. The content is really quite a lot. It takes a little time to really integrate them all.

After completing this step, Shen Lang can only screen their main memory.

Among other things, the first thing to understand is the secret of this shadow forest!

The Shadow Forest includes the phantom demon inside, including the Pearl of Shadows, and their contradiction with the emptiness.

The clue of the Shadow Forest, Shen Lang is from the memory of Fu Xi, Fu Xi is from the content of the stone carvings of the barbarians.

But the specific aspects are few.

Now this is the place that Shen Lang needs to know most. The memory of the two gods can give him a complement and mutual verification effect.

As a result, it was only after memorizing that the forest of shadows was discovered, which was inseparable from the grievances of the phantom gods and the illusory gods!

It turned out that the name of the magic forest on this day was not taken from the outside settlements, but it was spread here.

Willingness is the settlement of the demon family.

It's just that this settlement is far better than a settlement like Shibuya.

It is equal to this ancient cold world, occupying a large area without the influence of the cold fire.

The strength of this day's demon family can be seen.

The history of this day's demon family can be seen.

Like the Terran and other races, the long-term must be divided and the long-term must be combined.

The demon was originally a group, and it has a huge presence in the ancient cold.

They have never ventured out to attack other settlements because the racial settlements of the races are like the mountains of the backcountry.

The environment of the settlements of all parties is almost the same as that of Tianmo Lin, and the scope of Tianmo Lin is so huge that there are more possibilities.

Why do you need to go through the wilderness of the cold to find other settlements?

A powerful dynasty with rich oils, why bother to find those little tribes in the bitter cold?

The name of Tianmo Lin can be spread out. It is also because there are outsiders who come here to explore, to be warned by the demon, to expel them, and let them spread this information out, so that outsiders will not come again.

But greed is always inevitable. Even if the contemporary people know that they are afraid, after a few hundred years, the descendants will not inherit the fear, but they will be worried about this infinite treasure.

In the long history of development that has been extended to 10,000 years and 100,000 years, the Tianmo family, who have a better environment and are more united, will also have a split.

Once the split is over, it is harder to reunite.

I don't know when it started, the demon family is divided into many branches.

Like the phantom demon, the emptiness of the devil, are named according to the skill characteristics of this branch.

From the beginning, it may be that some ancestors delved into some of the skills fascinated, or some people are like-minded, and finally formed a branch, they will inevitably have differences.

Perhaps at first it was only a disagreement on evolution and skill research, and it gradually developed into various aspects, and finally it was a conflict.

Later, it was to grab the site.

The devils of different branches, the leader slowly called the king. It is often the most powerful one, and then it breeds some small and powerful demons.

The Devil King will lead everyone to grab the ground and compete with each other. Even if the Tianmo Lin environment is very good and the resources are very rich, there is still a good and a better difference.

The fight has been much more clear, and the site has been clearly divided. If there is one country, there is a big sphere of influence.

However, because of the overall number of devils, even if there are more settlements than others, it is still not comparable to the human beings of the earth. In this huge range of the Tianmu Forest, it is still very small.

In addition, the demon will not wander around, so Shen Lang before they walked for a few days, may not be able to touch the devil.

The phantom demon and the illusory, these two branches are close together.

It will be so close, because they were originally the same ancestors. The phantom and the imaginary genie are originally together, and later subdivided.

In the memory of the emptiness of the devil, they are nothing but a better family, and they must eliminate the phantom family.

In the memory of the Phantom Devil, their history is that the emptiness is a rebellion that seeks to be a pilgrimage, and it is independent.

To put it simply, the imaginary family also knows the illusion, while the phantom family does not understand the vain.

Therefore, this imaginary family who can go out independently is naturally better, and it is only the illusion that the orthodox illusion cannot be confronted.

In the battle for orthodoxy and the territory, the Phantom family failed, and they could only retreat.

Finally, it was about to be annihilated by the emptiness, and had to retreat into the forest of shadows.

The Shadow Forest is not just

There is a piece of there are many such existences in the Tianmo Lin, that is, the demon is also regarded as a forbidden place, and there is no exploration and development.

The easiest thing is that when you enter the forest of shadows, the demon can't see or feel, and it's very dangerous.

The phantom family is a situation in which life is at risk and there is no way to do it. Between the genocide and the adventure, it has to be nested inside.

This is a bit like the choice of being forced to jump into the sea and jump off the cliff.

It has not been known how many generations and years have passed during the period. Anyway, the devil's ability to adapt is also very strong. Under the necessity of survival, they also stubbornly existed.

Just like the Akus do and the Longmen can survive the murderous land like the Dragon Valley.

Similarly, while adapting to the environment, they are also understanding and using the environment.

The construction of underwater city settlements means that they try to improve their environment. The discovery of the Pearl of Shadows has caused great shock!

Originally, the Devils did not develop the Shadow Forest, because they did not know what good things were there. There were enough good things in the Tianmo Forest, and there was no need to take risks.

When the Pearl of the Shadows was discovered, everyone turned their attention to the Shadow Forest.

However, people are adapting to life. If they do not reach that level, they will not achieve the same effect. Even if they have the heart to try, the effect is limited.

Chapter 2595 - Pearl of the gods

Not only is the Phantom Demon family entering the Shadow Forest, but also other Devils, entering the Shadow Forest of other areas.

In this piece of shadow forest, the most recent is the illusory.

Originally, both sides were feuding, and they were exiled to the inside by the emptiness, so the phantom demon family is very hateful for the emptiness.

Once there is a emptiness to enter the Shadow Forest, whether you want to find the Pearl of the Shadow, or simply want to exercise, you will encounter the full power of the Phantom Devil!

The Phantom Devil is absolutely not allowed to enter the virtual world. Once the virtual world adapts to the environment, even if the process is relatively long, it is a very big hidden danger to them.

The gods of other shadow forests are also the same mind. Everyone was forced to go in and it took a long time to get there today. All protect this unique barrier, use the dark Scorpio, all strangled for all the entered demons!

As for why it is against the demon, not for all races, this involves two aspects.

On the one hand, the Tian Moen is the same origin as the same ancestors, and they are sensitive to each other. Even if they are far apart, they can be perceived.

This provides great convenience for them in the dark. Even if they do not find that the demon sneaked in, they will soon be aware of it and wait for the opportunity to kill in the process of the other party's exploration.

On the other hand, it is also to maintain an ecology.

Although there are many resources in the Shadow Forest, it is still much worse than the outside world. If there are beasts, or other races, it is an excellent supplement for the Tianmo inside. It is a kind of encounter. Live water.

Because of this, Shen Lang, their team, there are demon dragons, barbarians, people, and beasts, which is a great harvest for the Phantom Devil.

Whether it is left to breed, research or how, it is a good complement to the Shadow Forest. They can get a lot of different things from this group of outsiders.

To counter the illusion, there is almost no way to rely on it. The one that can rely on it is the protection of the shadow forest, and then the pearl of the shadow that was later discovered.

But the stone of other mountains can be used to attack jade. If you can learn from the outsiders and other races, there are no secrets, and you may be able to fight back.

So before the Shenlang and his entourage, the devil of the phantom demon did not use the full force to strangle, but wanted to test contact and understand their details.

Can be dried up by the waves, there is this reason, not just because of the light enemy.

Of course, after the deep waves came to the underwater city, the devil was angered. This is their settlement. It can't be smashed by the emptiness, and naturally it can't be attacked by outsiders.

However, the sudden departure of Shen Lang, so that they do not have any tracking clues, in addition to Shen Lang, it is the cold autumn does not know where to go.

The devil of the phantom demon will come over here so quickly, and it is not the swaying of them, but the emptiness!

No matter how hidden before the emptiness of the demon, it is not only against them, but also against the phantom gods.

But just here, the crazy fight, the scene is not small, its life is threatened, and naturally can not hide their own magical atmosphere.

The demons sense each other in a certain range. The devils who live in the shadow forest, for the sake of security, have been trained and evolved from generation to generation, and are better than other demons.

Therefore, there is a demon close to the shadow forest, the magic king of the phantom demon can be aware of the defense in advance.

The devil of the emptiness of the devil is a convergent breath of heart, hiding himself in the weakest state, and it has not been discovered, but if it enters the forest of shadows, it cannot see everything, it needs to explore, explore and move, etc. Will leak more and be discovered.

Just now, because of the battle with Shen Lang, they have no time to take care of it. The breath of the explosion was discovered by the phantom demon, and of course it was coming over.

Originally, the phantom demon was awkward, and was prepared to be sent to this imaginary demon. I did not expect to find a group of people in Shenlang here, but also worked with the emptiness.

It was fun on the spot. The best decision was to wait for them to lose both, and then it came to a net, but did not hold back.

As for whether the two sides have negotiated well, whether it is decided to solve the outsiders first, and then to resolve the hatred between the demons, it is not known, the memory will come here.

Shen Lang estimates that the demon king of the Phantom Devil has found that the Devil of the Devil is in a bad condition and is not enough.

But they grabbed it for the first time, and slipped away from it for the second time, letting it be more taboo against Shen Lang, preferring to unite with the imaginary imaginary, first to fight the stronger enemy.

Of course, between them, they definitely want to use each other and cannot trust each other.

Understand the general history of the demon, understand the grievances of the phantom demon and the emptiness, and Shen Lang is more assured, at least they can be divided.

He just left and left, but also wants to let them both fight first. Once they have not been their third-party enemy, these two feuds will inevitably start.

And they can take advantage of the profits.

In addition to this, one of the other concerns of Shen Lang is the method and effect of the use of the Pearl of Shadow.

Originally, according to his understanding, this is an item that can enhance the strength, because it is unique in the shadow forest similar to the enchanting beads, sun beads, there is a certain “local characteristics” of.

So compared to the effect

More concerned about its application, characteristics and so on.

But now it combines the memory of two Devils, but it is amazed.

This pearl of shadow is a fetish!

And there is no characteristic distinction, it is versatile.

Without characteristics, it is not as clear as the Sun Beads and the Pearl of the Cold, but it is similar to the spirit of the Spirit, the essence of the heavens and the earth.

But the pearl of the shadow is comparable to the fetish, because it has no requirements at all, but it can help people to improve!

Spirits do not ask for their own requirements, but the stronger the aura, the stronger the realm is needed to receive and withstand.

Just like the spirit, this is the fight for the realm of the Great Immortal, but if you give the monk who just got started on the earth, it can't be absorbed and can't bear it.

This is also why the masters are looking for various resources, that is, they need a corresponding. Ordinary Lingshi, for the Great Immortal, the Great God, is not ineffective, but inefficient, it is impossible to use 100 million.

This shadow of the pearl, there is no such "correspondence", according to the memory of the demon king, even the weakest demon family, can also advance by leaps and bounds, continue to soar and evolve until the effect is completely exhausted.

And the level of the demon king, through it, can also be soaring strength, called the treasure of Zhenshan.

Chapter 2596 - Take a profit

In the underwater city below the mysterious lake, Shen Lang has seen the situation of the phantom demon family, and it is obvious that the green and yellow are not connected.

At that time, it was felt that the demon king and the queen were far ahead of other demons, which were caused by talent and ruling demand.

But in fact, they are taking the pearl of the shadow!

Because there are too few pearls in the shadows, in the phantom demon family, only the devil and the queen, or cultivated to take over, are eligible.

Ordinary demon, or normal resource supply and cultivation.

There is also a problem with the Pearl of Shadows, that is, to fully absorb it, it takes a long time.

But this is not because it is slow, but because the energy is too great.

However, for the demon, the year and month are not a problem. There is no relationship between one year and one hundred years. If you can make rapid progress, one hundred years is worthwhile.

This is the same as the Emperor's behemoth, their giant beast world, maybe a millennium can have a clear evolutionary mutation, followed by the time of the waves, it is really leaps and bounds.

From the memory of the phantom demon king, Shen Lang also knows a little, the contemporary phantom demon family, only two shadow beads. One is in the devil and the other is in the queen.

The one that the queen presented was the one he owned. It was very valuable to it, but it was still safe for the devil.

This has a problem, indicating that the shadow of this one, in fact, only a part of the energy, not the full state.

The demon and the human race are still different. Shen Lang does not know how much this can help him progress. At least he is okay at any time.

Now he has given him a clear goal. When the Phantom Devil is done, he must get the Shadow Pearl on him!

Since there is only a part, the shadow beads of the two parts will be together, and it should be better than one.

The emptiness of the devil is the collection that he presented before, but it is really no pearl of the shadow.

The purpose of it here is to see if there is a chance to get the shadow of the shadow from the forest of shadows.

After fully understanding the information, Shen Lang looked at the time.

He also made a time estimate for the battle of the two outer demons, and then converted it into the time in the space of the heavenly book.

The time to go out must be very precise.

If you go out too early, it is not a loss of both sides, just like the phantom demon king came out, and got himself into it.

If it is too late to go out, it may be a win, and if the benefits are gone, it will not be easy to search again.

Seeing that there is still time, Shen Lang will share the phantom demon and the magical magic of the illusionless magic to the cold autumn and the dog god!

For such a short period of time, even if you have the secret, it is impossible to learn and use it. But knowing all the conditions in all aspects, it is more convenient for them to fight again.

Knowing ourselves and knowing each other, there is no war. .

The dog * and the cold autumn, originally in accordance with Shen Lang's instructions, are studying and analyzing them, imagining the method of cracking.

Especially in the cold autumn, when I hit the imaginary demon several times, I was escaped. The taste was a bit uncomfortable.

Now they have a certain summary, coupled with the memory shared by Shen Lang, combined with the secrets of the secrets in memory, let them master the seven seven eight eight.

“The time is almost up, it is time for us to go out and clean up the mess!”

They have all been here, knowing the gap in this time, there are hundreds of times, and they have already rested enough and are ready.

At this moment, they are all in a state of flexing their hands. Listening to the orders of Shen Lang, they have long waited for their shots.

When Shen Lang took them out, they saw where they were before, a mess!

It's just a mess, it's totally different.

The land with a radius of 100 meters was originally lifted into the air by the phantom demon, and then smashed down. Now when they come out, they will see a big pit on the ground!

This pit is almost invisible, and the fog will pass through, and it will not be felt if it exceeds 100 meters.

But in light of the surrounding situation, it should be seen that the two demon kings are playing, this is a big pit they played!

Shen Lang three immediately flew directly.

Sure enough, the bottom of the next two hundred meters sensed the bottom of the pit, the phantom demon and the emptiness of the demon, all fell to the ground, fighting to the state of your life and death.

Let Shen Lang be a little bit sorrowful, the phantom demon king, still appearing his five senses; and the emptiness of the devil, but also his state of high and cold autumn.

It's just that the imaginary demon and the phantom demon hard battle are no longer the size of a person, and they are as big as the phantom demon.

At this moment, these two great devils are like a pit at the side.

It can be seen that both sides are exhausted, but they still maintain a confrontation.

Shen Lang has already known their feudal relationship from the memory of both of them. But in terms of strength, the emptiness of the devil is stronger.

However, the imaginary devil itself was injured, especially by the toxins, the power has been greatly reduced, so the weaker phantom demon, hit the level of both losses.

What kind of confrontation they were, Shen Lang was not known, but as soon as they descended from the sky, they immediately shifted the attention of the two demon kings.

“How come you are back!”

The phantom demon king couldn't help but scream.

Although it seems to be both bad, it is not poisoned, it is still energy-consuming, and it will still win.

As for the Shen Lang several, because it can not be traced, has gone far, it can only be a pity to give up.

However, it is a historic achievement for it to be able to kill the emptiness of the devil.

But this has not killed the other party, this group of people is back!

“Ha ha ha ha ha ha! I am going to die, you can't live!”

The emptiness of the demon king sent a smirk, and its current body, already visible outside, the toxin attack is very obvious.

They have reached this state already do not expect Shen Lang to unite with them, they are not the value of their own, that is, the time to die.

“What the * are you guys!”

The Phantom Devil is a little desperate.

Shen Lang is waiting to come to a net to play, of course, will not be so much nonsense with them. – He has not forgotten that the devils are very sensitive to each other!

This means that in the distance, there may be a closeness of the emptiness of the demon, and the phantom queen in the Shadow Forest is also likely to be killed.

So you must make a quick decision!

“kill!”

Waiting for him to order, Gao Hanqiu has been unable to hold back.

Although it is a little bit out of victory now, the strength of the two devils can not be underestimated.

After all, he was guilty of eating in the imaginary demon, so the sword of the king first smashed to the emptiness!

Chapter 2597 - Cut up

Shen Lang originally wanted to stop first, because he felt that the memory of receiving both of them before may not be comprehensive, not necessarily fake, but may lack part.

But the moment that Gao Hanqiu shot, he did not stop, because considering another situation, in case the demon king wants to blow himself to the same level.

Even if they are now self-destructive, they will not reach the level they are at the same time, but there may be shocks and injuries.

At that moment, Shen Lang was the whole spread of the realm of God, covering the entire bottom of the big pit.

He did not participate in the shots himself, but did a work of coordinating the overall situation. In case of any accident, he could respond in time.

When the dog * came out of the sword in the cold autumn, he immediately shot.

However, its goal is also the virtual king!

This is not because they all choose a weaker illusion after poisoning. The cold autumn is for venting, while the dog  is poisonous because of the emptiness, this state is suitable for it.

When it was halfway, both of them had already discovered this situation, but because the distance was short and the speed was very fast, it was too late to change.

Gao Hanqiu continued to maintain the fastest speed, even the body leaped over the past, with the sword of the king nailed the emptiness!

However, it is just such a sword. Originally, I wanted to slash it. After this sword, I have already had this sulking. Immediately as the body flashed, the sword of the king once again stabbed the other side of the phantom demon king.

At the same time, the dog  has arrived, its body explodes quickly, and the big mouth directly bites the vain demon king, ready to swallow this emptiness.

Just like the emptiness of the demon king, there is almost no resistance, and the continuous play of the toxin has greatly affected it.

But the phantom demon king is not the same, it still has spare capacity, it is to wait to see how the illusionless king died, enjoy this more process, also monitor it, do not give it the opportunity to escape.

The reason why the same very weak state is maintained is to confuse the enemy and let the imaginary demon king not know its true strength clearly.

When they came over a few times, it had secretly reacted and was ready to leave quickly.

Shen Lang and others are enough to make it very important. Otherwise, it will not cooperate with the emptiness.

Now it is also very depleted, and it is not at all confronted. The only thing that can be done is to hide into the forest of shadows and escape by the advantage of the land.

When the cold autumn and the dog gods first choose to attack the imaginary demon, the phantom demon king is actually a bit complicated.

This is of course a good thing, it will not let it bear the brunt, but the other side first attacked the emptiness of the demon king, is it not a side note, even if the emptiness of the evil spirits is so deep, in their eyes, it is still more threatening than it?

It is because the Phantom Devil is weaker than the Void, and both of them are in such a state that it makes it more sensitive.

But the devil, it is still very sensible.

The best option at this time is to have to leave the scene quickly, rather than arrogant.

Besides, the emptiness of the demon is considered to be stronger, and it attracts the firepower of the other party, just to cover it by life.

It has escaped by itself, and the feud has been killed. Is there anything better than this?

So when the two of them turned to the emptiness, the phantom demon realized that its opportunity came, and the only chance!

It still does not explode all the power, so that they still maintain a weak appearance, in order to paralyze them.

Wait until the opportunity comes, and immediately go up at the fastest speed!

Its initial goal is very simple, as long as it rushes from here, and then goes to the nearby shadow forest. On the whole, the distance is not far away, only a little time can be done.

But when it just rushed out, it immediately found out that it was forced to be pressed by an invisible force!

This is all-round, pressing on it, pulling around, making it like being trapped in a quagmire, it is difficult to pull out the body.

Of course, this is only a little bit of time. It is not impossible to break through this restriction in its realm, even if it is now wounded.

Just waiting for it to go up, even if it can still be done, but it is still being pulled, it is difficult to disappear from the front.

This is the ban in the field of Shen Lang!

He has just displayed it to understand the situation around him. Any change can be known in the first place and the best response.

As a result, the first one encountered a phantom demon who wanted to leave, and Shen Lang immediately re-adjusted the strategy.

Although the realm of the gods still blocks the entire undercut, it has already focused on suppressing the phantom demon king who wants to get out.

Just the reaction of the devil, let Shen Lang know that it still has the power to escape, of course, the key care of it, not let it have the opportunity to escape.

Under the key observations of the field of God, let alone the devil's expectation is getting looser and looser, that is, it has just broken through a bit, and now it has been crushed to death.

In the next moment, Gao Hanqiu has already hit the emptiness of the devil, and the reintegration of the sword comes to it.

This is also the phantom demon king can still see clearly, the actual situation on the scene, is almost a shadow.

“why!”

The phantom demon king, very unwilling to shout out.

It is mad! This alien human race is what is against the sky.

If you surpass it in terms of illusion, it is understandable, perhaps the pointer from the emptiness.

But why can it be hard pressed against it now? That is unfortunate.

Unfortunately, no matter what its current reaction is can not change the fact that the sword of the king of the cold autumn has been directly penetrated into its body!

“Get it’s energy!”

Shen Lang quickly smashed the sentence of Gao Hanqiu. This is the devil of the demon. If you can meet the top-ranking strongman who can’t ask for it, it will be too wasteful. Although there are less than a few percent left, you can’t waste it.

And himself, under the control of the realm of God, took all the collections of the Phantom Devil King.

There is also a pearl of shadow!

Since it is still desperate, it may still be on the body.

There is one Shen Lang, but it has been used, and now it has been used again. The combination of the two can further gain.

In this case, the two shadow beads must be used by himself, and there is no more to give to the cold autumn and the dog god.

The dog * is already swallowing the emptiness of the demon king, leaving the phantom demon king, so that the cold autumn absorbs all the energy, which is considered a distribution.

Chapter 2598 - Super retreat

The phantom demon king, has lost the opportunity, was pressed by the field of Shen Lang's god, and then hit by the high-cold autumn sword, immediately smashed, can not escape.

Shen Lang succeeded in taking the shadow of the shadow hidden in it.

When the dog * swallowed the imaginary demon, it also took the items from it. However, Shen Lang already has its memory, although the collections it remembers before are true.

But it is a guerrilla on the edge of the shadow of the pearl, naturally will not carry all the reserves. In case of an accident, all of them are given to others.

The phantom demon king, originally would not, but it is still on the edge of the Shadow Forest, plus the rush before, so did not hide the shadow of the beads.

The result is the sinking of the waves, the most precious, or the pearl of the shadow, the harvest of other emptiness, is limited.

The tacit understanding of Gao Hanqiu and Shen Lang, of course, understands what he means.

Originally, he did not account for anything. He gave him something and didn't give it to him. He didn't care.

But he also understands Shen Lang and will not treat any one himself.

Just like the essence of the heavens and earth that was obtained in the burial dragon valley, even if Snow and Snow did not take the initiative to assign it to him, he still gave them two reasons for the Dragon Ball.

Now, the same, since Shen Lang is ready to take the pearl of the shadow, he will not treat them badly. The energy of these two demon kings will not be swallowed again.

Therefore, the cold autumn is not polite, but also began to directly absorb the spirit and spiritual strength of this phantom demon.

When the Pearl of Shadows and Shadows arrives, there is a plan to retreat.

Bright God.

The frustration of that time was a big knot for him and for the dog god.

Of course, I dare not say revenge before I have the ability to challenge. In the past, a person's mind could be crushed, and the gap was huge.

Now the dog  is already comparable to the true fairy realm, and Shen Lang himself has reached the peak of the great god.

It was originally possible to try again, because the true fairy realm can also be used to crush the gods of the gods as the gods of light.

But what if the  of light is the true God?

Once again, I will still take my own insults.

Even if the Alpine Autumn Festival goes with them, it is still necessary to prepare more fully.

The wave of Shen Lang is now ready to let himself at least rise to the realm of real fairy. When the time comes together, there may be a big fight.

This pearl of shadow is one of the most important supplies.

After he thought about it, the dog  and Gao Hanqiu had both set the other side.

“This place should not be left for a long time.”

Although it is a state of great loss, but it is all absorbed, it still makes the spirit of the cold and autumn fall.

The dog  is in a state of further eating...

The two barbarian red giants have not yet digested, and this has eaten another emptiness demon king...

This is what Gao Hanqiu said. He doesn't need much explanation. Everyone knows.

Here at the edge of the Shadow Forest, the Phantom Devil can sense the demon information to come here, the same level of the queen can also be sensed.

Perhaps the Queen is still waiting for a group of demons in the Shadow Forest.

Just because they did not pay much, it is to kill each other's feuds, but if you come to the Queen and a bunch of demons, even if you can win, it will be very difficult.

After Shen Lang finished, he had already used the gates of the Three Realms to transmit the array. He first sent them away with them and went out to the Tianmo Lin.

Since there are more devils in the Tianmo Lin, it is still dangerous to keep.

Out of the air, watching the flow of the cold, everyone is a little embarrassed.

This time they went in three, and they came back to three, but there was a lot of twists and turns in the middle.

Shen Lang immediately said his retreat plan.

This time, I did not evade the light god, but directly told about the previous situation and his thoughts.

The cold autumn is naturally unconditional to support the Shen Lang.

The dog  is even more excited.

That was the biggest Waterloo it encountered, and it was completely the gap that was crushed. If you can't find this scene, it's really impossible to let go.

It is desperately cultivating, swallowing, and even blending with poisonous grass seeds, turning itself into a "combination of animals and plants", in order to re-play back one day!

The last time I was with them was Vatican, who was able to beat the apostles, but far from being the opponent of the Light God.

Now that there is a cold autumn, everyone has made great progress. If you close the long-term again, it really has the confidence to kill it!

They all support, there is no such thing as Shen Lang, and there is no need to go back to the mainland of China and directly enter the space of Tianshu.

In the space of Tianshu, Shen Lang took all the good things from the collection and put them together. Everyone can use them.

He is also not polite, two pearls of the shadow, the remaining dragon ball, and the fruit of the dragon heart, all ready to use!

The essence of heaven and earth, the essence of what is used by everyone, the best use of Shen Lang, has not been used, the dog * will not be polite.

And the sun beads in Shibuya, that hot energy, is actually a great help for the cold autumn!

He had retreated in the abyss at the end of the mountain after the Jianlin Jianzong, because there were a lot of fire spar below, to kill the warriors, but also to fire more energy.

And those, can not compare with the sun beads, see the killing soldiers get the sun beads and almost reborn.

Now these sun beads are the target of the cold autumn, and the Pearl of Hanze is also his backup target.

Shen Lang said the encounter between Meng and Jin, let him also understand that it is too blazing, and may not be able to hold back. At that time, the Pearl of Hanze is a good neutral effect. This is the experience that others have summed up.

After this, everyone began a hundred years of retreat at least ready to retreat in the Tianshu space for a hundred years.

For the outside world, that is, a district for only one year, there will be no impact and miss, for them, it will be another leaps and bounds!

Shen Lang knows the effect and usage of the Pearl of Shadow through the memory of their two demon kings.

And he has so many good things, and he doesn't dare to take it all at once.

Just take the pearl of the shadow one by one, the next step is the fruit of Dragon Ball and Dragon Heart.

Everyone is ready to refine and absorb for at least ten years, which is not a big problem.

The resources they possess are unimaginable from the outside world. Now they can be used casually and casually. Everyone is hungry.

The plan is a hundred years, but in fact, for the time, everyone forgets their specific existence and concentrates on cultivation. Of course, there is also a concern for each other. If anyone has a situation that can't be ruined or can't bear, you can help me.

Chapter 2599 - Dacheng

This time, the big retreat is very important for Shen Lang. He is preparing all the best resources he has to get.

The goal is basically one: at least catch up with the realm of the cold autumn and the dog god!

Usually, the high cold autumn and the dog  are respected by him. It is a good relationship and respect for him. Of course, it is also because he knows the most various situations and has the most various means.

To put it simply, the center of Shenlang relies on the best combination of exercises, magic, experience and wisdom.

In pure realm, he is going to be in a big realm.

This is also reflected in the strength, for example, he has a sword of the king, there is a great bonus. But if the sword of the king is in the hands of the cold autumn, the same bonus will make the high cold autumn more powerful!

Of course, in the three, the monk rebuilt by the monk, the cultivation time is the shortest, the dog  beast is calculated differently, and it is at least a few hundred years worse than the cold autumn. It can be only one step, it is already very powerful. .

Therefore, Shen Lang is not unsatisfied, nor does he want to compete with them.

But he wants to go to the light  again!

Then you must be prepared to be as full as possible, with their three current strengths, not necessarily enough.

If you have a good retreat for a hundred years, there are enough resources, high cold autumn and dog gods, there should be a chance to go further.

That will reach the peak of true fairy.

The purpose of Shen Lang is to be like them, equal to a greater realm than they are. If it is time for three true peaks, it will be awful.

If the gods of light are true realm, they can run over, even if they are true gods, they still have the power to fight.

With such a clear goal, plus time in the space of the sky, time is not a problem, Shen Lang will not pay attention to time.

He personally takes these top resources, and other resources allow them to use them casually.

In fact, it is also based on the distribution of their needs.

For example, the dog  directly swallowed up two barbarian scorpions, imaginary demon, that is a great harvest, can be slowly digested.

In the cold autumn, you can make good use of the sun beads, with the beads of the cold, to make a big breakthrough.

Plus all the things, mainly by Shen Lang, they naturally do not have any flaws.

Only in terms of specific cultivation, they are not going to be fast!

This is because even if the dog  understands the cultivation method, the key is to see the instinct's absorption of energy, and the quantity changes to the evolution of qualitative change.

That would take a lot of time. If it is in the world of giant beasts, and then, after a long period of years, there will be some advanced changes, which is normal.

The same is true of the cold autumn. His previous realm is the use of fire spar, and then retreat for hundreds of years.

After getting more energy, let him improve the advanced, to complete this process, but also because of the centuries of cultivation in the space of heaven.

As the realm is higher and you want to break through, you need more energy and more time.

However, the resources for replenishing energy, Shen Lang has already been prepared for everyone. Time is also ready for everyone.

It is not easy for Shen Lang to break through the goals, so they are not worried. In addition to paying attention to the situation of Shen Lang, it is patient cultivation.

In the process of specific cultivation, Shen Lang still underestimated the time required. I thought about refining one in a dozen or twenty years, and each time I needed was very long!

Do not say anything else, Dragon Ball, he used to take it before, refining and chemical also spent a lot of time, is the main process of the last 100 years of retreat.

According to the memory of the dragons, the result of the flowering of the dragon's heart is a very long process for them.

This dragon heart grass is in the dragon cave deep in the shadow forest lake. Except for the dragon family, no outsiders can enter. From the time point of view, it may be at least tens of thousands of years.

Originally, the surrounding aura can be gathered to assist its growth. Over a long period of time, it has accumulated countless spirits and completely immersed it in it.

Therefore, the fruit of this dragon heart is not only a very long year, but also the aura absorbed, far from being comparable under normal conditions.

The Pearl of Shadow is even more mysterious.

Even if you have the memory of two Devils, you only know about it. It is simple to know its origin, usage and effect. It is also the qualification of the top demon to be able to withstand it.

The two that Shen Lang got were possessed by the Demon King and the Queen, and they absorbed some of the effectiveness. But he is two, if you take it together, the effect is of course even more completely new.

Because there are too many good things, Shen Lang can't blast himself, so it is distributed according to the batch, and then absorbed one by one.

After all, wait for the refining of the Dragon Ball, the Dragon's Heart Fruit, the Pearl of the Shadow, and some of the best resources such as the essence of the world.

Before that, he also had the gods who absorbed the ancestors of Hanze, as well as Jinlongyu, and the Fountain of Eternal Life in the Divine Sea!

Everything has come down, it has been nearly three hundred years!

Because they are in the space of Tianshu, they can ignore the safety issue. Second, they don't have to think about time. What they need is to absorb and cultivate as much as possible, to mention their strength to be higher, and to make the repair more stable.

The cold autumn and the dog god, which had been retired for a hundred years, also made great progress in this nearly three times.

Since the ancient cold world, the dog  has eaten a lot of things, including the barbarian, Hanze mermaid patriarch, and a large number of green demons.

But the one that works the most, of course, is the two big men of the barbarian and the demon king. Don't look at all the way to death, the actual strength will not be bad, at least the level of the Great God.

And the two demon kings have at least the strength of the real world. Even after a serious injury, it was divided into one person in the cold autumn, and it was also a great harvest.

In the cold autumn, all the sun beads are refining and absorbing, and with the beads of Hanze, they have not let themselves out of the situation. Instead, they complement each other and become a new peak.

When they come together, the two things they absorb are in line with their characteristics, but they are still much worse than Shen Lang.

It's just that they are going to be high in the realm, and they need more time to break through.

So after all, everyone spends a lot of time, maybe it is a few years or more. For such a large-scale retreat, even if it is completed, it can continue to practice retreat, and the resources are enough.

When Shen Lang completes the customs clearance, the first-ever high-cold autumn and dog gods will wake up immediately.

“Congratulations to the brother!” Seeing the eyes of Shen Lang, Gao Hanqiu has sincerely hid.

The dog * is also following the excited road: “Great!”

Chapter 2600 - Come back to Guangmingshan

The temperament and demeanor of the whole person now show a completely different level.

Even if they are familiar with their cold autumn and dog gods, everyone has been retreating here for three hundred years, and they can't see how he is in the realm!

However, because this is a long time in the past three hundred years, every few decades, I can feel that he has improved, but he is not clear about the specific situation, or knows the huge improvement.

Gao Hanqiu and Shen Lang are very familiar. Looking at his eyes, I understand that Langge is a wave brother. After three hundred years, he is ahead of him again!

There is nothing wrong with him at this point. Shen Lang is his brother and his idol. When he was on earth, he was far ahead of him.

And when it came to the back, it even widened the distance. When he was still a lot worse, Shen Lang was robbed.

After the reunion, he can be stronger than Shen Lang, relying on hundreds of years of cultivation. The same gap of five hundred years or so, five years compared to five years, that is one hundred to one; a thousand years compared to five hundred years, it is two to one.

Therefore, with the long time of retreat, Shen Lang gradually narrowed the gap with him. It is not surprising that this time the three hundred years old is closed and he can catch up with him.

The dog * is exposed to the sinking waves, but it is another way.

With its life span of thousands of years, even after a few hundred years of retreat, time is still far ahead.

But when it just met Shen Lang, Shen Lang was in front of it, a human being who could not help but wind. It is because of knowing the origins of its ancestors, and being able to take it to different worlds to attract it to follow.

After a few years of work, Shen Lang has advanced by leaps and bounds, and it has also helped it to advance rapidly. This is deeply impressed by it.

Gao Hanqiu knows the height and potential of Shen Lang, and it knows the speed of Shen Lang's progress.

If you can catch it in a few years, how many years have passed it, isn't it normal?

Shen Lang looked at both of them and was happy to smile.

"It seems that everyone is making progress."

Before the retreat of Shen Lang, it was the level of the peak of the Great God, and now three hundred years down, directly crossed the true fairy and the true fairy peak, reaching the realm of true God!

Gao Hanqiu and the dog god, have already reached the realm of true fairy, this time also reached the peak of true fairy.

At their height, they want to go further. It has been very difficult. Maybe it will last for a lifetime. The dog  has been used for thousands of years and may not be evolved.

Under these harvests and resources, it has been very good to use three hundred years to break through to an unprecedented realm.

They broke through a realm, and Shen Lang broke through three realms!

Originally lower than them, now it is a higher realm.

Gao Hanqiu himself is very clear, this is not a talent, not a fight time, in fact, is a resource!

At the beginning of the Yungong Holy Land, in the mysterious space, absorbing mysterious energy, he is the only one that reaches seven days, far better than others.

The changes in energy that were made to him were not completed in one fell swoop, but continued.

This time, it is Jinlongyu, Longxincao fruit, Dragon Ball, Pearl of Shadow, Fountain of Eternal Life...

The Pearl of Shadow is the treasure that the Devil King breaks the mind to grab; the other are the Dragons to the Treasure, and the Fountain of Eternal Life is the good thing that the Demon Dragon did not get in his life.

These completely absorbed, the same, can help him to upgrade a level. Everything was used to complete the thorough absorption and refining, which allowed him to continue to improve for three hundred years and complete a three-step leap.

In terms of mental power, there is a large amount of liquid belief in the accumulation of light and the true gods.

Gao Hanqiu and the dog * are also very impressed by Shen Lang. Although they only rely on resources, they also enjoy the supreme resources. Those who are suitable for Shen Lang may not be suitable for them.

“Now, it’s time to go to the bright mountain.”

When Shen Lang said this sentence, it was very calm and calm.

I felt that the biggest shame, fear, and so on in my life have been treated calmly now. And this, when you reached the peak of the Great God, you can’t take it lightly.

It is the dog god, and now it is a lot dull. The improvement of the realm will affect the change of mood.

However, no matter how indifferent, this matter still has to be dealt with. If it is not handled, it will always be in the heart because it has become a obsession.

This is the thing of Shen Lang and the dog god, but they have nothing to do with the cold autumn, and the cold autumn is also very natural with them.

From the space of Tianshu, the outside is still the ancient cold world, and you can see a lot of cold fires. The outside world has not changed for three years.

Without much staying, Shen Lang directly used the gates of the Three Realms to transfer the three people to the distant Guangming Mountain, which is 100,000 miles away from Yaochi.

The last time I came because it was not clear, I followed the memory of God to search the past.

Now this time, Shen Lang will send it to Guangming Mountain, so there is no need to hurry, no need to go up the mountain, and go directly to the Bai Paradise Valley surrounded by Guangming Mountain.

And now there is no need to go to the apostles to care about, directly to the light temple in the center of the hundred paradise.

When they appeared at the door of the Temple of Light, Gao Hanqiu was the first time to come, curious to look around.

Shen Lang and the dog * are secretive.

This is two concepts, from the outside time concept, which was five years ago. Including the retreat of the Tianshu space, that is more than four hundred years ago.

The dog * is still longer than Shen Lang's retreat.

More important than time is the change in state.

The last time I came across here, I was attacked by the apostles and the apostles.

When I got here, the pressure was great, and then the waves went up the stairs and were directly suppressed by the light god.

The other party intentionally played him, pressed to the edge of the collapse, and quickly put a little bit, let him walk these steps for a long time before they went up.

The dog  is also is crushed and will collapse, and finally they use the door of the Three Realms to leave, with the strength of the other side, it is still too late to catch, it is not disdain to them.

At that time, I fled to the edge of Yaochi. It was also because of the relationship between the snow and the snow. I was sheltered by snow and snow, and there was a chance to heal.

Come back now, and then see the Temple of Light, but feel a lot shorter.

Of course, the building will not become short, but it will not be able to bring pressure to them. There is no sacred solemnity and it is dull.

“It turned out that you are back... Hey?”

When they appeared, the space fluctuation caused by the transmission of the gates of the Three Realms, let the light gods know simultaneously.

If you pay attention to it, you will recognize Shen Lang and the dog god. It has only been in the district for five years. Even if you do not search for them, you will remember it clearly.

He still has a look of God's look, but he is surprised when he hasn't finished talking.
