Chapter 264 - Battle against Chu Xiangxiong

It is not only from the experience of the Chu family today, Shen Lang can see this from a high level!

Although the Chu Mofeng has already existed in the real world, will it be willing to support the death of the heavens? Of course I want to go further!

And when it comes to the real world, if you want to break through, ordinary resources, then it is a huge demand!

If it is a bitter repair, it may take decades.

The bigger possibility is to go out and look for a big chance!

Therefore, the actual family of the Chu family is Chu Xiangxiong, and he cannot keep at the Chu family every day.

Besides, the nameless * of a small place in Shenlang said that he would challenge Chu Mofeng, whoever is a joke! The Chu family also indicated that Chu Yunlong could pack him up. How could Chu Mofeng wait for him to come to the door, and he probably didn't know about it.

After that, he was trapped in the forest of death for a year and a half. Almost everyone died when he was dead. It was impossible for Chu Mofeng to wait for him to take revenge at Chu.

Because of these analyses, Shen Lang decided to treat Chu Xiangxiong as the strongest enemy of the Chu family. As soon as Chu Mo came back after the event, it was a follow-up and then faced.

If Chu Mofeng is now in Yunzhou... nonsense! In the words, he and the desolation should have been prisoners and even killed!

“Blood arrogance” is very overbearing. It directly changes the body at a visible speed. Now, Chu Xiangxiong has attacked behind him. Although there is no complete expansion effect, the ability of all aspects of Shen Lang is constantly Rapidly improve!

After secretly slamming the order, Shen Lang directly paused in the air, and the body used the “King Kong is not bad body power”!

He is prepared to directly attack Chu Xiangxiong’s attack!

When it was said that it was too late, just after Chu Yuxiong’s “dead!” word was introduced into everyone’s ears, the desolation of a sword pierced the Chu family in front! And Chu Yuxiong took a shot on the back of Shen Lang!

In the end, it is a super strong person who is still at the peak of the virtual world. Even if Shen Lang has improved a lot of strength by relying on “blood madness”, plus the “King Kong is not bad body”, the body still let him fly out. And “噗” spit out a big mouth of blood!

Chu Yuxiong did not look at the Shenlang, and went directly to the desolation attack!

Just now, Shen Lang didn’t dare to pick up the cockpit he had been slamming. In fact, there was already some temptation in the air. Even if he didn’t know the specifics and the experience, but the general strength, there is still an assessment.

So just this palm, if the sinking wave avoids it, since it is not avoided, it is not dead, it is also seriously injured!

He does not need to hurry to chase the sinking waves, but to kill this woman who dared to kill the Chu family in front of him, in order to vent their hatred!

“roll!”

It’s the first wave than the sound of the big drink!

The Shen Lang, who had just vomited blood and flew out, did not fall to the ground, but kicked on a tree. The body returned faster than flying out and blocked Chu Xiangxiong.

Chu Shixiong had a turning point and avoided the blow of Shen Lang, but he could no longer pursue the bleak.

After Shen Lang was evaded by him, he did not leave, and did not even borrow again. He came directly to the air and flew back to Chu Chuanxiong again!

“Give me death!”

Chu domain heroic sighed, not waiting for the sinking waves to approach, has been shot out of the air.

His palm is almost the trend of the sea, the surrounding trees are all

The madness swayed, and the water in the cloud lake next to it was also tumbling in this direction.

The deep waves of people in the air, but a change has taken place again. The people who had fallen backwards turned into a fast spin!

Just this powerful and incomparable one is basically a state that is strong and strong. If the frontal target is a big tree, it will be directly ruined, but if it is a thin line, it will only It is difficult to break with the flying.

Shen Lang is a big goal. The power of that palm is that he can shoot him out, but at that moment, he changed the way and let the body spin.

This is like a drill bit, the force of high-speed rotation, which would have been able to break the resistance in front and to spread the resistance to the side, so that the impact itself is much smaller.

Almost in an instant, watching the changes of Shen Lang, the same person in the air Chu Xiangxiong directly pursued!

The front is a hollow palm, but now he is the palm of the hand, directly shot to the hands of Shen Lang in front of the “drill”.

If you really continue this intersection, Shen Lang will undoubtedly suffer, and his hands will probably break from the wrist!

Just when the two were close to one foot, the hands of Shen Lang's palm suddenly changed a bit, and the fingers were collected and turned into a double fist and merged into the past!

Chu Yuxiong has just hollowed out a palm, although it has been partially resolved, but it still has a certain impact on Shen Lang. Coupled with a direct positive palm, he is confident that he will fly out again, and it is possible to vomit blood and break the arm.

But I didn't expect to keep the high-speed turning posture in the air, but I was able to change so fast that the scene exceeded his expectations.

Just a foot apart, he can only see, want to change again, it is too late, the fist and the palm directly hit together!

The body of Shen Lang once again flew out to the back!

It is also the palm of the peak of the virtual world, the strength of the power, or far exceeds the Shen Lang.

But at the same time, Chu's body also flew back a few meters!

This is obviously that Shen Lang is at a disadvantage, but Chu Yuxiong is suffering...

The intersection of boxing and palm, if the strength of two people is the same, then because of the relationship between the force point and the area of force, the fist will prevail.

But Chu Yuxiong's strength is stronger, just a fist, his palm can wrap around will not have any problems.

But just the deep wave is the two fists close together on his palm, although the force area is larger, let him successfully fly the Shen Lang, but one of the fists is almost hit his thumb One piece, almost tapped his thumb!

From being hit by him to counterattacking him, he can still make his fingers feel painful and uncomfortable. The performance of Shen Lang is almost stronger than once, so Chu Yuxiong frowned.

He didn't pause, just flew a few meters and immediately chased the past from the air. Be sure to kill the waves!

This time Shen Lang flew out farther than before, and the man directly returned to the Ferris wheel, and he also looked at the Ferris wheel.

At this moment, his body was dexterously leaping, avoiding a supporting steel arm, and when he passed, he reached out and hooked, and the man had stabilized and did not fly out.

Then I saw that his palms were fierce like a Ferris wheel!

Chu Yuxiong saw this scene, directly speechless, neuropathy! Does this still want to push the Ferris wheel to him?
