Chapter 276 - Secret of the year

Her words are spoken, and the purpose is very clear. It is only an excuse to inspect Shen Lang for the injury. It is the real purpose to understand his teacher's origins!

The river fell surprised and looked at the waves, and the hands did not loosen.

Shen Lang remained calm and did not say anything.

After a while, she sighed slightly: "I can only feel that you are practicing a very advanced practice, but you can't see through the Hemen He faction. Or ignorant!"

Under normal circumstances, as an elder, Shen Lang should take the initiative to report to the teacher.

But he didn't have any teacher to say that he was a big secret and could only pretend to be unresponsive.

"Xiao Xiao said that you were mutated last year, and it is suspected of being mysterious."

Shen Langxiao smiled, still did not say much.

As for the situation in which they will ask him about the rain, there is nothing to say. In the capacity of falling rain, there are ordinary students, but they cannot be closely related to the self-cultivators of unknown origin.

"It doesn't matter to Cao Xuan Yinjing. I am really curious. There is such a mysterious inheritance in the land of Pingxi." Luohe said with interest.

"Li Cao Xuanyin well?" Shen Lang is a bit puzzled, and also thinks a little.

“You don’t know?” Luohe Waner: “Xiaoyan does not have any relatives and friends in Li County, and there is no reason to find a relationship to transfer to you for three years. Do you not feel suspicious?”

“what do you mean.....”

“Ci County has a Xuanyin well. It used to be in a large family’s yard. Later, the compound was expanded, that is, your current middle school. Xiaoxuan used to study there because Xuan Yinjing was very helpful to her practice. – You should know that she is pure Yin.”

Shen Lang nodded. When he first talked about the comprehension, he shook hands with him and let him know that she was also a comprehension. At that time, she felt cold. This time she told about the situation after her, and said that Xue Lingguo would train her, also because of her pure Yin body.

This is one of the main reasons why her cultivation progresses so fast.

“It turns out that it is a mystery for us.” Shen Lang sighed, it is really a solution, but also the topic from his teacher’s history.

Li County has such a place, Shen Lang really does not know.

However, it is not surprising to think about it. After all, he was an ordinary person before. When he merged with the memory of his previous life and began to cultivate, the rain has been there for three years, and the Xuanyin gas accumulated by Xuanyijing has also been absorbed. Almost, it will not be noticed.

Falling into the river is also to see that Shen Lang has been avoiding talking about his teacher’s history, and she has not asked.

“Your injury has recovered very well. Although you have heard the situation before, I have been listening to it, but from now on, but for a week, you should be very hard.”

This swell wave does not need to be avoided: “I don’t want to be harassed here after all, of course, it is a practice around the clock, I hope to recover as soon as possible.”

Luohe nodded: “Small critics are just younger generations of the ice palace. But like the canoe, I personally guide. Her qualifications are special, now is the best time, so I will also have more. Leave her alone, there is not much chance to go out with you.”

Shen Lang listened a little embarrassed, although it was quite sloppy, but it was interpreted as a boyfriend who fell into the rain.

“Yes, I can get personal guidance from my predecessors. It is a blessing.”

Falling into the river and smiling nod, then

After looking at the door: “The boat and the invitation month are back.”

Shen Lang inconvenienced what he said. Originally he discovered that the river was unfathomable. After knowing her identity, she could almost be sure that she was the superpower of the real world. Of course, I dare not act rashly and dare not use God’s knowledge to investigate.

When the palace owner fell into a canoe and invited the moon back, he searched in the ice palace and wanted to see if Ke Ling came back.

“Come here, invite you to bring Ke Ling out.”

A gentle word from the river to the door, the horse uploaded to the ears of both of them, and will not alarm others.

Soon the palace owner and the invitation month came over.

Entering the main chamber of the palace, I saw that Ke Ling fell near the door and saw the waves and the river. They didn’t dare to say anything.

Luohe pointed to Ke Ling, invited the month to bow, and called “Yes, Master”, and then hurriedly took Ke Ling out.

The expression of the canoe is very complicated. Her skirt is smashed, can't be put on, or it is in her hand. Although there are clothes on the body, in front of Shen Lang, it seems to be taken off the general embarrassment.

"Master..." Even if she is now the owner of the palace, but in front of the river, it is also a trick.

She did not call her grandmother, but called Master. Before she saw it, she followed the river in the name of the apprentice. However, it makes sense. If you come from a granddaughter, it is not convenient to pass on the palace to her. Even if she has this strength, there will be other people on the senior level.

As an apprentice of Luohe, it is a common generation to invite the month, and the acceptance is easier.

"Shenlang has told me that you are too much." The faint sentence of the river, but it implies irresistible criticism.

"Master!" The canoe came to the side of the river and pulled the arm of the river. "You don't know him, he is a very abominable person. What happened to me when I put him a little blood? I won't ask for his life!"

"Do you still think it makes sense?"

"I... I also left him here to treat him with courtesy. Can't he just have a free meal? Keep him here, or accompany him."

Before Shen Lang thought that she was a middle-aged woman who was stationed in Yan, she had a bit of misunderstanding. Now she knows that she is a cousin who is in the rain, and twenty-seven is the real age. When I look closely, I realize that the skin is still very Tender.

Seeing her grievances and the likes of falling down, I also believe that her palace master is really short-lived, no wonder there will be such a willful decision.

"Shenlang is a friend of Xiaoyan Now I am also a guest at my ice palace. I want to get people to bleed, is your hospitality as a palace owner?" There is no fierce tone in the river, but Still with criticism.

“I.....”

In front of the falling canoe, is the grandmother who is the master or the predecessor of the palace, the three authority, so that she dare not complain about anything, can only endure. But it was to the side of the dark waves, a sly look, can not wait to see him with his eyes.

“Apologize to Shen Lang and  him back.” In the end, it was already the palace owner, and Luohe did not let her lose face again, directly speaking her decision.

“...” The canoe took a deep breath and said to Shen Lang: “I’m sorry! I am joking and overdone! Please!”

“Thank you for your predecessors. There will be opportunities in the future, come visit again!” Shen Lang held a fist at the river.

“You a stinky man smashed the ice palace, but also want to have a chance to swear again?” The raft was not angry, saying that this is a violation of the palace rules, if it is not in front of the Chu River, she will attack.

Luohe nodded, did not say anything, Shenlang did not say anything, go straight outside.
