

First Strong 287

Chapter 287 - Traces of the year

Shen Lang can't be a good thing. At most, as he said, it should be a win-win situation.

The win-win situation of Qiushuijian is borrowed. And what about Jianling?

Highly remembered that the lord lost the Qiu Shui sword because of greed, so he put down his arrogant gesture.

"Mr. Shen, are you coming to Jianling, have you found what you have found?"

In fact, pride is a proud capital. Once you encounter a more powerful person, you will naturally bow.

Shen Lang is now superior in strength, but he has shown his understanding of the cold autumn, but they are not comparable to their own, so he has to bow.

"You can definitely see that my current strength, compared with Chu Mofeng, is hard to win. So I want to improve, this is the resource I want."

Shen Lang grabbed two Lingshi.

Although the high distance is a bit painful, it is already psychologically prepared, and the things left behind are the same. For them, the secret is the most precious.

If Shen Lang takes the secret of the exercises, it is the biggest loss!

I just didn't look at it when I saw it. I gave him the secret directly. I also said that I wanted Lingshi. He is not good to say anything, and it is also worth losing.

"Please! How much do you need, please take it!"

It's not a big deal, it's not as generous, let him take it casually!

"Really? Then I take it all away, don't you feel bad?" Shen Lang looked at him like a smile.

Gao is a bit embarrassed, can only say with a thick old face: "It is a fake resource to say no pain. After all, this is a huge resource for us. But this is the legacy of the cold autumn, we do not know how to open, you can help us, already It's a win-win situation. So...take it!"

"Although I am a bit unwilling, but at least you show it, or cooperate."

Shen Lang nodded with satisfaction: "If this is the case, of course I will not be excessive."

When Gao Gao wanted to see how much he took, Shen Lang threw the Lingshi back.

"I need to borrow Jianling to retreat for a while! Here, if I have to consume, I need to use Lingshi. This is spare. Besides, I won't take you one more!"

Shen Lang's serious words made Gao Gao a bit surprised.

I did not expect him to play this idea!

However, this is a top secret retreat. The Tianshan Jianzong is already hidden, and a layer of insurance is added here.

Although it is not convenient to let Shen Lang stay in the ban, it may be harmful. However, Gao is now relieved, because with the strength of Shen Lang, even if it is closed here for one year, it is estimated that it will not consume a few Lingshi!

He should be the person who said it was done, the most important figure is this environment, not their spiritual stone.

"Since Mr. Rest assured, Gao will not be responsible for it! Even if Chu Mofeng traces the Tianshan Mountains, it will never reveal a half point!" Gao Li took up the secret and arched his hand to Shen Lang: “But I also hope that Mr. promises I can’t disclose the retreat in my forbidden city!”

“Of course, absolutely not.” Shen Lang smiled and nodded. This is related to the dignity of others. Naturally, it is inconvenient to say it.

“Then I will not bother, do you have any other needs?” Gao Li asked: “How long does it take to send food and water?”

Shen Lang understands what he means. It seems to be a good intention to care. In fact, he wants to learn the secret of opening the Jianling formation!

“No need.” Shen Lang shakes

Head: “Actually, I am mainly injured. I am healing here. I want to break through the higher realm. It is not a matter of closed days, but I have no patience to wait for a year and a half to go out.”

Gao is a bit disappointed, but Shen Lang said so, he is also a little relieved. He is also afraid that it is easy for God to send his gods, and he will leave early, and if he is healed, he will not need much Lingshi.

Although I don’t know the specific method, at least I know the direction now, and I can continue to study.

And the most important things have already been obtained, and there is a secret forbidden land and the value of these spiritual stones.

Shen Lang accompanied Gao to leave, and then closed the Jianling forbidden land.

After returning to the depths of the depression, Shen Lang did not go to see the Lingshi, but came to the middle of the water.

These are of course not wet or rainy waters, just like in the caves of the dead forest, these are the springs!

Of course, it is not born here. In fact, it is the shape of the cave in the death forest that was later copied by Shen Lang. In the cave inside the mountain belly discovered by Gao Hanqiu, a gathering of the spirits was arranged to make the Lingquan.

It's just that it's too slow. After all, in the dead forest that is so full of aura, it's only a few hundred years.

After the initial setting, there was no effect after Gao Hanqiu, and Shen Lang was not clear. He did not see it himself.

As a forbidden place, it is to avoid the frequent entry of disciples, to break up the gathering of the spirits, and of course, a place for reserves, or even a place for refuge.

I just saw these Lingquan, and I saw that those things didn't move. Shen Lang knew that it had not been opened for hundreds of years.

Compared with Lingshi, the more absorbed Lingquan is his goal!

This is not as good as the high explanation, so he did not say it directly.

Lingquan is not like the secret of the handwriting of Gao Hanqiu. It was his own arrangement in the past, it is his trace, and there is no need to solicit opinions.

Before the arrival of Lingquan, Shen Lang did not immediately start to drink wildly, but pulled out the autumn water sword and soaked it directly inside!

Yes, he will "feed" the sword first!

The Qiushui Sword is a magic weapon, an artifact with a sword spirit, and of course it needs aura support. For centuries, they have been offered to the altar of the sword. In fact, it is also a gathering of spirits, which can be nourished by the aura.

Otherwise, the steel will rust and decay, and the magic weapon will lose its strength.

But this is not enough. Shen Lang is now directly letting it soak let it complete the absorption of Lingquan!

After the Qiushui sword was completely soaked, it quickly became shiny and strong. After a while, it became restrained again.

This is not made of wood. It is not the longer the soaking, the deeper the penetration, the just soaking, has achieved the effect.

Shen Lang will soon be sheathed and let it “digest” itself.

Then he began to swallow the Lingquan again!

The number here is a little more than that in the cave of the Dead Forest, but the purity is not as good. However, for Shen Lang’s current body, it is to absorb faster.

With Lingquan’s moisturizing of his body, Lingshi actually has little effect, so he can generously say that he will not use much of the reserves here.

The reserves of Lingquan here for hundreds of years are more than enough to restore the wounds. And all absorbed, Shen Lang is also the heart of the impact of the “Yin Yang Bo Ruozhen” fourth!

If he can break through the fourth weight, he has no good concerns about Chu Mofeng.
