

First Strong 289

Chapter 289 - Further battle

This time from the Tianshan Jianzong, Shen Lang's heart has been set a lot.

He decided to go directly to the Chu Mofeng!

Although there is still no absolute certainty, but with his rich experience in the past, the challenge limit of fighting death is also a breakthrough opportunity.

After the difference with the singer, Shen Lang directly used the sacred flight to reach the low-altitude area. I found a township with a certain population. After I went down, I found a hotel in the town and lived.

Although the mobile phone has been kept off, but it will be out of power for a long time, he needs to charge first, and also know the current situation and how to travel to Yunzhou.

The phone is hung up and charged, and the sinking wave waits for short messages.

A series of messages received after booting are spam messages such as advertisement pushes, and there is no bleak information.

This makes Shen Lang feel relieved. With the bleak experience and ability, no information means safety.

Then he logged in to the "exposure-only" account. Prepare to see how effective it is after a few days.

Similar to what he imagined, the group owner did not delete him, already believed in his identity.

Looking at the chat history, the exposure that night caused a sensation. Then all parties began to inquire and confirm whether the exposure of Shen Lang is true.

The Chu family died so many people, it was already spread, and it could not be concealed, including the Chu domain Haichu domain Wei and Chu Yunlong, which were broadcast live with them in the group.

However, Chu's identity is different. Chu's heart is concealed, and things have passed for almost a month, not so easy to know.

There are young people in the group, but there are also masters and grandchildren behind the young people.

Originally, the respect and belief of Chu Mofeng, the information published by Chu family, they will not doubt, now that Chu Chuanxiong has been killed by Shen Lang, everyone's gossip fire is also burning.

The elders behind the teacher, the identity level is enough, have a relationship with Chu Mofeng, or familiar with Chu Yuxiong, either directly or turn to the Chu family to inquire.

It was only a heated discussion that night, and it was only after the next day and the third day that the news of confirmation was heard.

Chu Yuxiong was killed by Shen Lang, and he was shocked by the eyeballs. In addition, Chu's concealment needs to be inquired, so the exposure of this wave has continued for several days.

Until yesterday, there are still people discussing. It is said that Chu Mo's anger is furious, and he threatened to smash the waves!

The last time Shen Lang was alone in picking up the Chu family, killing the individual and turning it over, and it was a live broadcast to them. It has already gained wide popularity in the younger generation. Many people have compared it to him either explicitly or implicitly.

Of course, not a lot of reluctance, but think about the level of others, directly killing a number of still in the late stage of the virtual, their strongest but also the same as Chu Yunlong in the middle of the virtual, unwilling to convinced.

After this wave of exposure, everyone knows that the original family of Chu, who was still in the virtual world, was killed.

This is not what the younger generation had to take, and it has already entered the eyes of their elders. It is the real battle to become famous!

For the older generation of the various factions, Shen Lang began to enter their eyes, but for these young people, although they did not say it, they have already had a certain worship on Shen Lang.

Chu Yunlong has been dead for almost a month. There are no Chu family members in this group. In addition to being very good with Chu Yunlong, they will support Shen Lang more or less.

After all, worshipping the strong is instinct, and for those who understand the difficulty of improvement, they are more admired by powerful people.

More powerful, the key Shenlang is the same as them, even smaller than their age

The young people, that is equal to one of their camps, is a sense of substitution.

Young people can provoke high-level authoritative powers, which are great incentives for them.

Now everyone has a suspense, can Shen Lang be able to cope with the chase of Chu Mofeng?

At the age of Shen Lang, this strength is to kill the masters of Chu Mofeng who have survived the real world. Almost no one has such crazy thoughts. It is very difficult to escape the chasing of Chu Mofeng.

There were no news in the past 20 days, and some people speculated that it had already been killed. I didn't expect him to be not only alive, but also to feel provocative, and to disclose the death of Chu Mofeng's death.

Now it's a few days away, they all guess where the Shen Lang is, what Chu Mofeng has done.

Among them, there are also well-informed ones. They talked about what they knew, and said where Chu Mofeng went to search for where the waves were unsuccessful.

Shen Lang looked at the group and it was calm again. I couldn't help but smile, and it was time for him to come out and stir up the storm!

He thought about it for a moment, then temporarily swore a rhyming word, and sent it to the group in a row.

The top of Yunzhou!

New Year's Eve!

Pingxi Shen Lang!

Kill the Chu Mofeng!

Originally, everyone in this group did not have a ride, not too much irrigation, and recently because of the relationship between Shen Lang, so that everyone will have more to look at, and no further shielding.

So when this information was just sent out, someone responded soon.

“My grass! Is this true or false? Shen Lang is coming out again!”

“Shen Lang brother, it seems that you are still alive, where is it now? If you are near, I can ask you to drink a drink!”

“Haha, you are not afraid to die, people are afraid of being harmed by you! This wine can not be drunk!”

“The top of Yunzhou, New Year's Eve... This means... Is it going to be at the noon on New Year's Eve, at the top of Yunzhou, about the master of Chu?”

After the bombing, the outcomings began to be heatedly discussed.

At this time, Shen Lang released the news, and it was a public battle. It is undoubtedly a provocation to the Chu Mofeng!

Although they do not believe that Shen Lang can kill Chu Mofeng, this time it is really a good eye, time and place are out.

After watching them discuss for a while, Shen Lang only spoke again.

“Yes! The top of Yunzhou, New Year’s Eve. If you are not afraid of the New Year, you are welcome to come onlookers. But Chu’s style has always liked to sneak out with the outside of the disk I still have inconvenient exposure “”

Thanks to the confirmation of Shen Lang, everyone was excited.

“Dry! Get it done!”

“To fight and fight! Men should take the initiative to play!”

“Tough enough, I like it!”

“Brother! I am not talking about you. As an irrelevant person who eats melons, I really advise you not to touch hard. You have proved to be a genius. Others dare not say that I am not as good as you in nature. But Chu Mo The master of the wind is the master of the real world, the gap... why bother?”

In addition to watching the excitement and not supporting the top of the support, but also have a good intention to persuade the Shen Lang, then the words can only be said to this.

“See you at that time! Welcome to prepare a good wine, and after you have killed Chu Mofeng, celebrate the New Year with you!”

“No problem! I will come with good wine!”

“Hey, hey! Are you going to go down? Let’s talk about it!”
