

First Strong 292

Chapter 292 - Unexpected invitation

Shen Lang did not do anything to the store manager, he already had his troubles.

Wu Bowen asked Shen Lang to get on the bus and take him to another place.

That is the headquarters office of Qingtian Medicine Bank in this city. It was originally a place of administrative management. Today, because the “Qingtian” branch of the whole city has been smashed, it has become an emergency headquarters.

Wu Lao is a big expert who is sitting here on the side of the town. He is generally responsible for technical problems in medicine, and administrative management and business planning will not be mixed.

The last time the store manager contacted him, he took him from here.

After Shen Lang was invited to his office, a secretary gave him the computer.

“Please look at it, the card, or the password. We have fixed the problem!”

Wu Bowen showed the picture on the computer to Shen Lang. It was the page for checking the balance of the webpage. Just in such a short time, he had made a decisive decision and let people transfer 5 million into the card!

“Wu old man...”

“No, no, don’t dare to be afraid, let me be old Wu.” Wu Bowen said with a pile of laughter.

Shen Lang stared at him: “Well, old Wu, do you think that I am doing things, just to blackmail you two million?”

Wu Bowen did not answer immediately, but looked at the eyes of Shen Lang and guessed what his intention was.

If there is no exaggeration, there are still 2.95 million inside, and they are equal to 2,500,000. Of course, there may not be such a thing at all, that is, it has sent five million.

“What do you mean...? I was responsible for the last transaction. We have had a very good cooperation. If something goes wrong, it should be handled by me.”

Wu Bowen said with a smile: “I am not the most core leader, but I can also say something. If you have any requirements for the little brother, let me know!”

“Do you want to give me the confession, that is, send money to send me? Who moved my money, don’t you need to call me to apologize?”

Shen Lang frowned and was not satisfied with Wu Bowen’s confession.

Wu Bo warm sighed: “Little brother, you have to give me time! Half an hour, I was not good at doing this, all I can do is to owe you first!”

Shen Lang believes that he does not lie. This is also true. He was not engaged in management. Now, when another group is in chaos, it is estimated that the five million is not personally taken out by him, but is also mandated by his identity.

“I think you are still a bit sincere. I can’t help Qingtian medicine.”

Shen Lang’s words just let Wu Bo warm a sigh of relief, and he saw him throwing the card on the table.

“You, you are... I will find out who I am, no matter who misappropriated, I will let him personally apologize to you!” Wu Bowen quickly packed the ticket, and also cleverly used the word “misappropriation”.

“My last transaction was to believe in your old man. Now I believe that it is not your intention.”

“Of course, of course, definitely not! Our Qingtian Pharmacy is a reputable old brand, how can we do such a thing?”

“I don’t take the card, the money you give this person, it is best to solve his problems.”

Shen Lang dropped the information of the hotel owner.

“He is...?” Wu Bowen was a bit puzzled.

He always thought that Shen Lang could not see five hundred

Ten thousand, after all, the opening was 10 million. I didn’t expect to give it to others, but there are still things to be flat.

“His hotel was in a fire, burning a few people, but the responsibility is not in him, he is innocent. It is estimated that the remaining property is not enough to pay, and some people will let him go to the black pot to die. You help me deal with it, do not want to deal with it, Give money to his family and let them find their own way.”

Shen Lang said a little.

Qingtian Medicine Bank should also have a special lawyer, and as long as it does not bite the Chu family, the hotel owner has money to compensate, I believe it will also compensate for the good things.

“Little brother Gao Yi!” Wu Bo warm awe, did not expect that Shen Lang is actually to save others.

Shen Lang ignored his praise: “I don’t pursue anyone who turns away my money. I remember the dozen stores that I have smashed because he is fine!”

Seeing that he is going to leave, Wu Bowen hastened to stay.

“The little brother is slow. Our drugstore has a high-end trade fair in this city. The time is right tonight. I don’t know if I have any interest? If you appreciate your face, I am very honored to invite you!”

Shen Lang looked at him strangely: “I am the enemy of your drugstore now. Are you sure to invite me? Or, don’t you think that opening it now will make me think this is a trap?”

Wu Bo warmed up and he really didn’t think much about it.

“That... it’s true. You’ve got a dozen or so stores, it won’t affect me. I didn’t move your money. It’s the responsibility of the relevant managers and the money. people.”

“The loss of the drugstore will not be much. The ginseng you traded last time, they will definitely find a way to sell a high price, and they will earn it back.”

“As for me! I just think that the little brothers are very simple, there should be good things!”

Shen Lang is speechless, it seems that this old man is obsessed with medicine. For other aspects, I really don’t care about it.

Qingtian Pharmacy lost more than a few million dollars, but it was the face of the smashing face! Do not blame it if you don’t find it.

However, Wu Bowen dare to do this. What is he afraid of?

“Of course I have good things, I don’t know your trade fairs, are there anything that can make me look good? If it’s all some garbage, then I won’t waste time.”

Upon hearing this, Wu Bowen was excited: “There must be! This transaction will be very high-end, and it will not be external. It is an invited guest. The things that will be traded are often unusual herbs. Our medicine The line is not only a middleman role, but also a basis for mutual trust.”

He immediately remembered the fact that Shen Lang didn’t want to reveal his identity before, and it was because of this that he had the trouble now. If he transferred it to him, it would be clear.

“You can rest assured! Considering privacy and easy trading, everyone will be anonymous trading with masks, which can be guaranteed by us or directly with each other!”

When Shen Lang thought about it, he agreed.

Many of the things he brought back from the dead forest, some of them can be directly tonic, and some have made the rain to compensate the ice palace, and there is still a little left.

Although it is not a bad thing to keep, if you can have something more suitable, it will not be a bad deal.

Just as Wu Bowen was excited to talk to Shen Lang about the details of the trade fair, Shen Lang looked at the door of the office.

“You are not enough prestige, someone is going to break in.”

Wu Bo warmed a glimpse, and then looked at the door, the door was kicked directly!
