Chapter 321 - Father and son meet

Driving all the way, no more coincidentally encountered Dorothy's car.

The place where Zheng Yuqing lives is not in the bustling urban area, but in a suburb with a manor house. On the way to the road, Zheng Yumeng introduced the safety measures.

From the street lights on both sides, to the surrounding trees, there are cameras, the pictures of the speech are transmitted to the home, and very loyal people look at them. This is a warning in the distance. When it is near, it is from the walled courtyard door, and there are all kinds of advanced equipment.

When Zheng Jia moved overseas, it was relatively early. When it was still relatively desolate, all kinds of hooligans, if they had no words, they pulled out their guns, so they had security awareness since then.

Even in modern society, Asians are still relatively small, and Asians are mostly motivated and hardworking. Through the efforts of one generation and two generations, they will accumulate wealth and make future generations work better through investment in education. Higher income.

Some ethnic groups who are lazy and violent and have more criminals tend to target Asian Americans, including Chinese, because the risk of getting white ethnicity is greater, sometimes being arrested, and Asians are weaker and harder. Protected.

Of course, Zheng Jiahao is a self-cultivation family and will not be so easily bullied. However, security awareness has been passed down from generation to generation.

At present, there are fewer people practicing in Zhengjia, and they are doing well in the shopping malls, and they are very big. Of course, they pay more attention to safety. However, it can be seen that it relies on modern technology security equipment.

This is where Zheng Yuqing lives, so all aspects are equipped with advanced security and regular maintenance and updating of equipment.

Zheng Yuqing, who is a comprehension person, originally dismissed these things. However, he is not afraid of thieves, but also troubles thieves, such a big house will still have criminals to steal and rob. Some can be known in advance through security equipment, security processing, or alarm processing, it does not need him to personally.

However, since I knew the news that Shen Lang was confined by Chu, Zheng Yuqing immediately took a high alert and erased the traces of Zheng's family. He also made all Zheng family more careful to avoid being affected.

Later, in the identity of Zheng Yumeng, Desolation brought the parents of Shen Lang here, and of course relied on the operation of Zheng Yuqing.

After coming over, he made further adjustments to the security, including putting a lot of eyeliners and receiving more news.

Fortunately, Mo Qi was a small person, no one paid attention to him, and got the body to replace it, so that everyone believed that the Shennan couple had been buried in the sea of fire. After more than a year, the Chu family did not detect this. Come on.

For these advanced security equipment layouts, Shen Lang is undecided.

He is very clear, I believe that Zheng Yuqing should also be clear that this can only guard against ordinary thieves, or some self-cultivators with insufficient experience and strength. If you are a master of the real world, you can kill the manor when these are not working.

However, he did not say anything, and there is always better alert than nothing.

After they entered, someone was waiting in the yard.

“Grandpa, this is Shen Lang.” After Zheng Yumeng got off the bus, someone came over and drove the car away. She came over and introduced it.

“Shen Master, fortunately will be lucky!” Zheng Yuqing spirit, it seems that it is less than sixty.

This is about to be handed over, but it is found that Zheng Yuqing has been deeply bowed to him.

“You are this...”

“Shen Master, you are a benefactor, selflessly helping the dream. If it is not for you to find and help in time, I really made a big mistake and harmed this child!” Zheng Yuqing was very embarrassed.

He was grateful to Shen Lang for elevating Zheng Yumeng to his return to the Yuan Dynasty and imparting selfless teaching. But I am more grateful to help her to disperse her work and help her adjust her body. Otherwise, she will be at the age of twenty.

“You are welcome. Your Zheng family’s ancestors Zheng Man and I... have old teachers.” Shen Lang can only be his own junior.

The selfless help of Shen Lang is difficult for Zheng Yuqing to understand. After all, this society pays attention to the return, the so-called equivalent exchange. If he is a granddaughter, he still believes a little.

However, in that video call, Shen Lang could tell the secrets of the Zheng family’s secrets, and it already explained the origins of the Zheng family.

“That’s also your high sense! You have saved your dreams behind, and you can have a dream today, it’s all you have created.”

“Okay, you are not welcome. Transfer my parents and help them for so long, they have already paid back.”

Shen Lang said this, Zheng Yuqing understood the subtext, and immediately led him to see the Shennan couple.

As a result, they were not waiting in the villa, nor were they watching TV, but came to the back of the house. It was a large open space, it should have been a lawn, and now it is a vegetable patch.

It’s winter now, it’s a big shed on it, and someone is busy taking care of it.

“Let the order to be idle, and not accustomed to contact with foreigners, although we have some people, but it is boring for a long time. So they grow vegetables, get us to eat, huh, huh, I really call them!”

Zheng Yuqing introduced it, and explained it later in a joke.

This Shen Lang will not misunderstand. For Zheng, of course, there is no shortage of money to buy food. Moreover, the green space of the manor is turned into a greenhouse vegetable garden. It is really a nondescript style, and it is totally worth the loss for them. This is entirely for the sake of his parents.

“Thank you!”

There are vegetables in the busy place, so that parents can not afford to relax, can get some of the vegetables they planted, and let them slow down the feeling of being under the fence. Zheng Laotou, still very understanding of the world.

Entering the shed, Shennan Han Fengying and his wife immediately stopped and said hello: “Zheng Lao...” and then could not speak.

“Dad, mom!”

Shen Lang immediately went to their front. This voice was called out, so that he was also excited, his eyes were moist.

I haven't seen it for a year and a half. I just heard the bad news when I came back. It really hurts him a lot. Later I learned that they are still alive. It is really good news. Seeing it now, it's already like a world.

“You are coming... good, good...” Han Fengying grabbed his son's hand and went down with tears. He couldn't speak.

Shen Nan coughed a few times, concealing the tears of the man, and tried to smile: “The kid, more than a year has not seen, grow tall and grow strong...”

After such a long time, they gradually learned about their son's situation from Zheng Yuqing and Zheng Yumeng (Desolation) and knew that they couldn't tell them, so they didn't ask him what to do, where to go, just watch. The son is safe, even if he can't return home, even if he is staring at the dead man, they are still very excited and happy.

As long as the family is there, no matter where, it is home!

Chapter 322 - Sword to the beauty

Zheng Yuqing warmly hosted Shen Lang, and he did not greet other family members, including Zheng Yumeng's parents, but they knew each other.

After the excitement, Shen Lang alone with his parents, they still expressed their concerns, concerns about the safety of Shen Lang, concerns about the future.

Shen Lang is not used to being abroad, and he does not want to come over to see trouble later. So he has considered these things and will take them back to China.

Before the bleak transfer of them overseas, the main concern was the revenge of the Chu family. Now that the Chu family has been disabled, the Chu Mofeng has been killed, it is no longer a problem.

Just as you can give him a fake identity to go abroad, it is not difficult to change an identity. Going back to Licao County is definitely not going to work. It is an acquaintance society. If you meet a relative or show up on the street, you may be discovered and opened.

But if you want to stay in the city, especially in a big city, it is not a problem. In addition to the old neighborhoods that have lived for decades, whether it is rented houses in urban villages or high-end residential quarters, they are generally not familiar with neighbors.

Shen Lang needs time to deal with it. Of course, there is still a scruples of Xie Dao Ling. The problem of Xie's family has been solved, and he can safely pick up his parents.

Hearing that he had a way to take them back, Shennan and his wife were very pleased. Although they are delicious and delicious here, they are other people's homes and foreign countries.

They have lived here for more than a year, and they are not in a hurry to leave soon.

However, for his relationship with Zheng Yumeng, they are talking about it.

The previous contact with them was actually a bleak, and later it was Zheng Yumeng. But they can only see that her attitude toward Shen Lang is not general, but it is not clear what their specific relationship is.

It can also be seen from today that although Zheng Yuqing is very polite to Shen Lang, he is also out of Zheng Yumeng's relationship. They did not know it.

This makes them think that if they are lovers, what should they do before the rain? People are also very good for their sons. Millions of factories say they bought them and bought them. Finally, they burned people.

However, the son did not mention it, and they did not ask much. After so many experiences, they have realized that their son has grown up and has his own world.

When he returned to the room to rest, Zheng Yumeng knocked on the door to visit.

"It's you." Shen Lang immediately noticed it, and this time it was actually a bleak.

"Master, you are fine."

When Desolation last separated from Shen Lang, it was a battle in Yunhu Park. At that time, he was hit by the Chu domain and fell into the lake. He was suddenly rescued. After that, there was no news, and I waited for nearly a month before I got his message.

She can imagine that the days of the waves should be in the process of recuperation.

"I'm fine. I was rescued at the time. It is putting pressure on you. It's not easy to come back to you." Shen Lang is also a bit embarrassed.

That time, fighting side by side, and the battle of life and death, really made them build a deeper friendship.

"I'm fine. Right, I brought the sword back!"

Desolation put a long strip of box, which is to put the sword in the inside.

Shen Lang shook his head: "Leave it for you! It is called a sword, not a top sword, but the level is still good. I will use it for the time being, and I will find you a better sword later!"

People are the heroes of the sword, he is a sword to give beauty.

"This...but...it's your sword, how am I..."

Desolation is the sword fairy, since she loves the sword, the quality of the sword is not born, she is very understanding as a connoisseur. But now she can't touch any swords of the gods, and this one is already very good.

"Now it is yours." Shen Lang laughed again: "Follow me, I have to give you a handful of weapons to make your level play better. In the future will give you a better sword, of course, more The important thing is to find a magic weapon for you to carry it. It is easy to carry. Now the society is different. You can't go out with your sword. You have to worry about shipping by plane."

Desolation lifted her wrist and wore her string of blood crystal bracelets over her white wrist.

"This is my previous item. For more than a year, I have absorbed the above fascination. In addition to recovering better, I can open it. It is also a magic weapon with storage function."

Said that she showed it, and directly took the unsold sword.

"That is excellent!" Shen Lang praised, there is such a magic weapon in hand, many things are easy to hide.

It's hard to show a slight shy smile: "But... there is nothing left in it."

She also claimed to be a female sword fairy. As a result, Shen Lang accidentally found her relics, but there was nothing left. It was a bit chilly.

Shen Lang signaled that she took out the unborn sword and threw the beautiful box. It only took the sword and made it easy to fight. Then I took out some medium Lingshi and gave it to her.

“Master... I rely entirely on the resources you give, so it's not good, so delay your cultivation...”

Desperate and shook his head, Zheng family actually has a lot of knowledge, and now no one else has cultivated, Zheng Yuqing is fully cultivated granddaughter. However, their source is mainly the legacy of Zheng Man in the past, and it was helpful in the early stage.

However, Zheng Yumeng's body is one of the millions of women's pure yang. After Shenlang's conditioning and guidance, it is a rapid progress. It is the Lingshi given before Shenlang, and the supply of Zheng Yuqing is a bit stretched. .

“This is from the Chu Mofeng, you are not welcome.”

Shen Lang stuffed into her hand, he can now be generous, but also because of his hand. And it is not what he needs urgently!

For example, Zheng Man left one of his storage rings, which is what he needs, and will not send it out. The Qiushui Sword, which had to come back not long ago, is also a man who still needs to rely on it. He will not give it to the desolation for the time being.

He has broken through the fourth weight of “Yin and Yang Bo Ruozen” and can absorb the power of the stars, and the speed will be faster. Lingshi is of course helpful, but even if it is a medium-spirited stone, if you want to let him improve, the consumption will be relatively large, it would be better to give them a more bleak.

Shen Lang is afraid that she will push again, and immediately transferred the topic Speaking of getting another identity for the parents, picking up the city to go to the city to ask her advice.

Desolation was also received, and the gratitude was hidden in my heart.

Of course, she is also in favor of the arrangement of Shenlang's parents, and her suggestion is not as good as in Pingxi.

On the one hand, after all, it is still hometown, and the speech climate habits are the same, which is the difference between moving from township to town. On the other hand, it is also convenient for Shen Lang to go home. He is from Pingxi, and there are also friends such as Yue Zhennan. It is a very normal behavior to return to Pingxi.

Shen Lang thinks that it makes sense.

Then he gave him a question, how to resettle Zheng Yumeng?

Another sentence, 319 has been restored (the technology can't help, the last is to let me add a few words in the background to modify it, after doing this, re-synchronization is normal) before seeing the wrong brother can review (no Also deducted), sorry. It's a technical failure, haha, the author just wants money to be crazy, and will not update duplicate content.

Chapter 323 - The heroes list?

How to place Zheng Yumeng?

In fact, the meaning of desolate, she wants to follow Shen Lang in China, but the body is Zheng Yumeng after all, and here is her home.

Zheng Yumeng is also willing to follow the Shenlang back. She likes to stimulate adventure at this age, and she does not want to be quiet. But if you follow Shen Lang, you have to consider the issue of identity.

Is it a girlfriend, a disciple, or a friend?

She and Zheng Yumeng will not care any more, but the people of Zheng family care!

Even if Zheng Yuqing would not say it or protest, he would not want his granddaughter to follow Shen Lang without name.

This problem makes Shen Lang also slightly rich and embarrassed.

In normal times, he used to be alone, but like the last battle with the Chu family, Desolation is a big help, and a helper can really save a lot of worry.

Shen Lang still said that he would consider it again. He is not good at this. He does not know how to arrange it better.

Before the rest of the night, Shen Lang took another number and saw the information in the comprehension group.

Originally because of the relationship of the New Year, everyone will take a break, come out to send red envelopes, celebrate each other, or meet parties, and also the style of young people.

However, it was now detonated by another news. Some people exposed that Shen Lang had threatened Xie's family and wanted to thank her during the New Year!

The news was immediately confirmed. Some people who know Xie's family have said that Xie's family has already issued a ban. In the past few days, everyone should not go out casually. The general gatherings and the like are all suspended.

Although Xie Jiakuan was as deep as it was, once everyone launched the enthusiasm of gossip, many aspects of the information were summed up quickly, and a little bit of it was confirmed, which confirmed that Shen Lang must have threatened or challenged Xie.

Judging from the ending of his single-handedly Chu family, Xie's family, except Xie Daoling, estimates that no one else can compete, and it's no wonder that it will be an enemy.

Even if Xie Daoling, the result of the confrontation is difficult to say, after all, Shen Lang is now a person who has killed Chu Mofeng!

More than a month ago, the name Shen Lang was only known by a few people, and there was not much to remember. But now, there is quite a bit of a name for the world.

In these young people, it has become a high-frequency word.

It's probably a year of leisure and a good thing, and it's starting to rank. Initiated a ranking discussion about the youngest monks of the contemporary twenties who are the best.

Later, the standard was relaxed to young monks under the age of 30. This group is the core of the discussion. Everyone can also discuss with other friends, or seek the opinions of the elders. Finally, everyone will compare and score.

As a result, a “Top Ten Outstanding Young Monks” list was released!

This list, of course, is the self-entertainment of these young people, but these two days have already inspired everyone’s enthusiasm. I brushed up a lot of information, and everyone expressed their opinions, and put out the information that I knew, the opinions I had, and so on.

By the time Shen Lang saw it, the “Top Ten Outstanding Young Monks” list has already passed out the top ten candidates.

Shen Lang is certainly one of them, but there is no fixed seat yet.

For this, Shen Lang just smiled and did not participate in commenting.

However, since he came, of course, he can’t live up to everyone’s expectation of “exposing the little prince”, so I simply explained it, saying that he really sent a message to Xie Youfa.

The reason why it is not for Xie Dao Ling is not to fear him, but to have no contact with Xie Dao Ling. Xie You was the specific performer of Xie Chu who set up a bureau to deceive him. He cheated him to the Chu family and deceived the dead forest.

Originally, everyone just heard the truth, and all kinds of information came together. I dare not say that it is the truth, and there are always people who doubt it.

Now Shen Lang has come out again, and every time he reveals his own exposure, it has been confirmed to be the truth, so this time, of course, it is also a real hammer for this rumor.

Anyway, they are all watching the lively, there is no Chu family here, so everyone is excited, watching the fun is not too big.

“Shen Xiong! Happy New Year!”

“The last time I didn’t have a chance to drink, I don’t know when I will gather together! Most of the friends in our group still support you.”

“When did Lange start to work on Xie Jia? Can you give me a hint, I really want to be onlookers!”

“Hey, Biyunfeng I missed it in the first battle. I really want to see you show your power!”

“Shen’s brother still has to be careful, Xie’s family is still very deep, and they are ready now.”

Everyone said everything, Shen Lang did not reply to them, and looked away and quit. He does not deliberately maintain a high-cold posture, but is also in the same group relationship with these people. He usually does not chat, is not familiar with people, does not correspond to people, and naturally cannot talk to friends.

Naturally, it doesn’t take time to socialize, and it’s the balance of public entertainment.

If you are familiar, it is normal to chat with the familiar ones. If you have a similar relationship with you, if you reply to this and don’t reply to it, you may feel uncomfortable. You think that you are looking down on him and ignoring him. of.

So whoever ignores it and keeps it cold is the best choice.

After exiting, he looked at the personal micro signal of another card. This is always open, the river is grateful to him, Yue Zhennan asked him if he arrived safely, etc., all of them have been replied.

The rest is because of the lively group of the New Year, and in the group of students, these two days have also been heated up because of his big hand on the day. Some of them did not participate in the first party, and it was incredible after hearing about it.

However, some people took photos of those gold bars and took a respectful appearance of Manager Huang, proving that Shen Lang is really a big deal.

Later, some discussions came out. The news that Shen Lang came back came to their town. After the family members of the fire and wounded workers heard about it, the horse was uploaded and they were looking for Shen Lang. They asked him to apologize and come out to pay compensation. I even found the river home.

For these, Shen Lang is really a bit helpless.

First of all, he is really sorry and sympathetic to these innocent people. After knowing that my parents are not dead still killing the Chu family, is to avenge their innocent people.

Secondly, Yue Zhennan's message last year was confessed. At that time, Yue Gang was personally arrested. Together with the relevant local leaders, Yue Jia's contribution was made to help everyone, the treatment of the treatment, the funeral of the funeral, And everyone has received generous compensation.

Going back this time, Shen Lang also talked about this with Yue Gang, asking how much money is specific and paying the money back. He may not have as much cash, but this time he got a batch of gold.

Yue Gang also told him that because the incident was too big, Yao Houpu was shackled by the company, but before he was, he also fully presided over the aftermath. Pingxi City is also highly concerned, and Tian Luning will also suppress this, so all parties will put pressure on insurance companies to make quick claims.

At that time, Yue Jia came out and paid a total of tens of millions of humane compensation, which was the responsibility of Shen Langjia. But this time he did not want to pay back the money, because the assets that Shen Lang helped their Yue family to return to have reached one billion.

Therefore, I have done my best, because he is back, he has money, and he will come back for a claim. I really don't know what to say.

Chapter 324 - Ancient restricted area

Shen Lang did not participate in the group chat. When he was about to quit, he received a message from the Dorothy who came with the flight.

“Can I make a deal with you?”

Seeing the content of the information, Shen Lang slightly glimpsed, he always thought that this Dorothy approached him to have a picture, just because she was mistakenly helped by mistakes, and there was no bad heart, so there was no attack.

Hesitated at the moment, or returned: “What transaction?”

If she wants to be close to him, she will still find ways to find out. It is better to ask directly and understand what her attempt is, and she can solve the problem and solve it once.

“Thank God, you responded in time! I am really afraid that you will not see when you will see it, or if you don’t reply, then I don’t know if I have any chance to contact you.”

“What trade do you say?” It is not a face-to-face. Shen Lang does not like her politeness, and directly asks one more question.

If she says something that is not marginal, then he will ignore it.

“I want to ask you to do me a favor and save my life! Because this is too heavy, you and me are just one side, there is no reason to help me, so I am willing to trade with you and pay you.”

“Save your life? Did the people just catch up with you?” Although Shen Lang asked this way, there was no relationship or urgency.

He has nothing to do with Dorothy. These words don’t know a few sentences. He is just following the script.

“Not them...”

Shen Lang did not speak, waiting for her to go on. As for the previous superpowers, I believe she can do it herself.

“Your family, how can I save?” Shen Lang smiled.

“Hold on.....”

After Dorothy finished this article, she paused, and then sent a voice message, probably typing too hard and not fast enough to speak faster.

After listening to one after another, Shen Lang can hear that she is suppressing the voice of the speech, but she can still hear it clearly. She tried to make a long story short, but she also made the content clear.

Dorothy is not a single vampire, she is from a vampire family. This time she was called back and knew that there were important things to discuss.

Waiting for her at the airport, in fact, is also a group with her family, is an ally of her father.

After returning home to talk to her father, I learned what it was, and why there were outsiders who would force her to pick her up.

It turned out to be an old-fashioned A-class superman here and found a legendary old restricted area. This is a legend passed down by the indigenous people on the mainland. It is said that it is a road to heaven. If it is a holy person, it will lead to heaven, and an evil person will lead to hell.

Because it is unknown, and it is impossible to return, it is regarded as a restricted area left over from ancient times. The ancestors of the indigenous peoples were intended to warn the people and not to enter that area.

The civilizations of the indigenous people have long since dissipated, and the various ethnic groups have also been cleansed by the conquerors from the oceans. The legacy is also a small number of people who have been domesticated by "civilization." These legends are just indigenous stories that historians will examine.

This A-level powerhouse, after becoming a superpower, believes that this is not a legend, but there may be such a restricted area, and there may be such a road to heaven. He spent decades collecting a lot of information, and many villages and towns have traveled through many states.

Now he claims to have found this ancient restricted area, and claimed that the legendary road to heaven is not a paradise for spiritual aspirations, or a warning hell, and it is very likely to lead to a mysterious space that has never been developed!

If no one has ever returned, how can there be a legend of heaven and hell? It should have been in ancient times that someone had gone in. Some got big opportunities. When they came back, they claimed to be paradise. Some of them were in danger. When they came back, they said that it was hell.

There is nothing so strange about this. Shen Lang certainly understands that it is probably a small world like the Dead Forest.

For example, the famous Taohuayuan, it is very likely that a group of ancestors who have been escaping from war, entered a small world, lived in generations from now on, and did not understand the changes of the dynasty outside. "I don't know if there is a Han or Wei."

The Wuling fishing people, also by chance, met the entrance and went into experience. It was an accident that happened only for hundreds of years. When he went to look for it later, he could not find it.

On the other side of the mainland, there is such a small world like this entrance, which is not surprising.

But in the story of Dorothy, it is very strange that the indigenous people have spread the way to open the restricted area. To put it simply, it is to sacrifice a vampire, and it must be a woman!

Perhaps it is because of such rare conditions that these indigenous people have not taken it before, thinking that it is a legend.

But now this A-class superman knows that there really is a vampire. So after finding the restricted area, I found the father of Dorothy and conspired to develop together!

Dorothy's father is also a male. If he knows the address of the restricted area, he may have explored it himself. Now that the other party has an address, they have the "key to open" and they have to cooperate.

He found Dorothy back and discussed this with her. The A-class superman was afraid of variables, and arranged for people to pick up Dorothy.

After returning, Dorothy father and the disciples came out to discuss with her and asked her to make sacrifices.

The reason he gave is that they are vampires. Although immortality is only a legend, it is indeed much more vital and not so easy to die. This sacrifice is only a process and will not endanger her life.

And if it is turned on, then the road to heaven is really a magical space to one side, and it must bring huge gains! That will make their family very powerful.

Shen Lang feels very surprised after listening to it, tiger poison does not eat actually someone wants to sacrifice their daughter! Even if the vampire has confidence in his ability, it is too exaggerated.

It is not surprising to think about it again. For many people in power, as long as they can maximize their profits, it is nothing to sacrifice their children. In ancient times, a large number of princesses were kissed and kissed, saying that it was hard to hear. In fact, they were not able to beat the barbarians and win peace by sacrificing their daughters.

But is there an old vampire with a vampire family, is it so easy to be fooled? An A-level superman will be obsessed with myths and legends?

It must be that they all know or share more information about the restricted area. It is a big enough interest to let the old vampire sacrifice his daughter, but he has not said more than Dorothy.

Shen Lang has an interest in this ancient restricted area. However, the strong dragon does not press the head of the snake. He is unfamiliar with his life. Of course, it is not convenient to go to the tiger to eat.

Even if you want to save Dorothy, it is also a problem. She is the chosen sacrifice, and it is definitely the most suitable for screening and comparison. To save her is to offend a vampire family, and an influential old A-level powerhouse here – the equivalent of a master monk!

Chapter 325 - Reward, refuse

After estimating the time of Shen Lang listening to the voice, seeing that he did not reply, Dorothy couldn't hold it.

“I don't lie to you, I am really worried that I will lose my life. If you can save me from leaving, I am willing to treat myself as a reward!”

After that, she was afraid that Shen Lang had misunderstood, and quickly added another sentence.

“I said that I am not only willing to take my body as a reward, but also willing to take everything to me! I know that you do not lack women, but I can be your slaves in all aspects.”

Shen Lang looked very speechless, and it was a bit funny to think about it himself. Save the people to save the beauty to the side, Zheng Yumeng or his master, or to be his girlfriend. Bihaihuan, who was met by the dead forest, also called him Master. Desolation was originally a sacred god, but it was not to save her, but to destroy her, so she forcibly banned her soul.

Now this Dorothy word suggests that the taste is already very strong. “The slaves of all aspects”, with the strength of her vampire, can be a good hitter; and her hot physical condition, in that respect, will be more It is a very good slave.

But he didn't have the heart. He couldn't take the big risk for a female vampire servant.

This is not his alone, his parents are still here, Zheng Yuqing, Zheng Yumeng, they are still here. Launching a vampire family and a class A superpower, they can't escape.

“Sorry, it's not that you don't have charm and value, but I don't have the ability.”

Shen Lang replied to this sentence, but in fact, my heart is also dubious, even if the things she just said are not impossible, but I do not know if it is a trap.

In the last year, he was cheated by Xie You in a similar way!

But at the time he couldn't help, even if he guessed there might be a trap, he could only step on it and take risks. The death forest is also a great way for him to harvest.

Dorothy immediately sent a voice again, and it was difficult to disappoint: “You are a powerful superman in the East. I know that your strength is definitely strong. If you are willing to save me, you will be able to save me. How do I want to Do you want to change your mind?”

In terms of tone, she really does not seem to be loaded, but they are still unfamiliar after all, and Shen Lang has no heart.

“That way! If you can bring a mobile phone, after you go to the restricted area, give me a position, maybe I can save you from the altar. Because telling the truth, it is not a problem, but I can not One of you or other conditions to offend these two forces.”

Dorothy said eagerly: “But... you saved me, we can go back, to your country, your territory, they can't reach.”

Hearing this, Shen Lang understands that if she has no other traps, then this is probably the key to the plot!

What she hopes is to rescue her and bring it back to the other side of the earth, so that neither her family nor the A-class superpower can do anything.

This makes Shen Lang slightly sneer, why? That is to take a time bomb with her side, to protect her from being chased after her, and often find blood for her!

“I don't think I can do anything.”

After another rejection, Dorothy did not leave a message. If she is fake, she will give up if she can't lie. If she is true, it is impossible to bet on the foreigners who are begging her life. I will definitely think of other ways.

Shen Lang did not pay attention to it, and immediately quit the program to sleep. He has been practicing on the plane for more than ten hours. Adding time difference or something, although no ordinary person can't stand it, it is better to sleep.

Next, Shen Lang accompanied his parents around the neighborhood, including going to the city.

Originally, the Shennan couple was here to avoid the possibility of chasing the Chu family, so the Zheng family used to be very good to them, but they also showed less. Now that I know that the Chu family problem has been solved, and that Shen Lang is here, there is no scruples.

Of course, Zheng Yumeng followed them and played the role of a guide.

Play is just to let the Shennan couple relax, relieved a little more than a year of repression, but they are still eager to go home. Now if it is in the home, it is the time when the festive atmosphere is the strongest in a year.

Because family conditions are not very good, in the New Year's Eve, they are also a headache for visiting relatives and friends. Speaking of the harvest, there is no face, and buying a red envelope is also getting higher and higher.

But now that people are in a foreign country, they are especially missed.

Shen Lang also said his decision with Zheng Yuqing Zheng Yumeng, ready to find time to pick them up to Pingxi.

After listening to the analysis of Shen Lang, Zheng Yuqing also understood. The older the more the leaves fall back to the roots, even if the Zheng family has already come out, he now wants to go back to his hometown to see.

Zheng Yuqing said that Shen Lang should go back and arrange everything there. Others, whether it is identity information or going back, will fix it.

Shen Lang is not good at this, and he is not polite with him.

After a few days, he decided to go back first. Zheng Yuqing's help and care for his parents made Shen Lang also ready to express it.

I chatted with Zheng Yuqing alone, and the practice that Zheng Jia passed down was biased. I corrected it with him. It was also said that Zheng Yumeng's authentic Liuyang had no merits and could be cultivated for him. Although his room for improvement is limited due to his talent and age, he will still benefit from it.

Lingshi left a part to give a bleak, and no longer gave Zheng Yuqing. However, some of the medicinal herbs obtained at the Chu family chose something that was used and left it to Zheng Yuqing.

Going back or Zheng Yumeng driving to Shenlang to the airport.

Shen Lang has not thought about how to resettle her, she has already told Zheng Yuqing to follow Shen Lang back to see the world!

However, Shen Lang refused, let her continue to practice at home, and then she needs to * her parents to go back, which makes Zheng Yu Meng give up.

On the way to the airport, Shen Lang checked the WeChat information, and saw two unread messages from Dorothy. I opened it, one was a location, and the other was the SOS signal. .

Zheng Yumeng sneaked into “Dorothy” and ridiculed: “Lang Ge, the young master, has left contact information. It’s too rude to have no family for a few days. Is this the initiative to ask you? Or will I send you in the past? Well, the ticket can be changed.”

“She was cheated back Her father sacrificed her for the sake of her interest. She was close to me, she found out that it was wrong, then wanted me to save her and said that she would like to be my slave, I am rewarded.” Refused.”

“Slave? I see what she said about sex... slave?” Zheng Yumeng couldn’t help but lick his mouth.

For her concern, Shen Lang did not explain anything.

“Why refused? Blonde, chest and thighs long, men don’t like it? What’s more, obedient slaves!”

“I can’t offend the local forces for this. I can pat the * and leave, what about you?” Shen Lang said faintly.

Zheng Yumeng, I did not expect that Shen Lang considered them. But still groaning in his mouth: “So it’s not dislike, but the price is too big?”

Chapter 326 - SOS, blood

“Hey?” Zheng Yumeng suddenly thought of something, blinked his eyes and smiled and said: “Would you like to find me? Although it is not the same as the foreign girl, I can find me without risk, no need to pay any price. My grandfather is satisfied. Should the uncle and aunt be satisfied?”

“...” Shen Lang is speechless, but she has been like this since she first met, and she would not think of her as a flower idiot.

“You think about it! Now my body is not me alone, there is a desolation sister. Buy one get one free, more cost-effective! Think about it, when that... cough...”

Zheng Yumeng said with great enthusiasm, but now they are both in the car, and when she talks about the bones, she is still embarrassed to accept it.

Shen Lang certainly understood her thoughts. When she let the desolation temporarily live in her body, she thought of this problem. That is, if you are jealous of her, is it equal to the other one at the same time, this is the feeling that the two women are different at the same time.

“Don’t make trouble!” prevented her from continuing to joke, and Shen Lang shifted the topic: “It just happened that she sent a position and asked me to save her.”

Zheng Yumeng is also serious: “What do you mean? Go grab it?”

“On the night I arrived, she asked me for help. I hope that I will bring her back to China. But I refused, but I also said that if she can send me the address, I can try it. If she is not dead yet, I will save her.”

For Shen Lang, Zheng Yumeng is not very understanding, why refused to say that he wants to save.

“Sacrifice, not the sacrifice of happiness that you think of marriage, is really to sacrifice her life, treat her as a sacrifice. I can save, it is after the sacrifice, if she is not dead, Can be saved from the altar.” Shen Lang explained.

“Nervous disease!” Zheng Yumeng cried after listening: “What is this father! How can there be such a person, how can I go to the sacrifice of my daughter, metamorphosis!”

“She should be taken to the altar now. This is the last call for help. If she has other methods, she will not find me.” Shen Lang is also a bit embarrassed.

“Save!” Zheng Yumeng immediately made a decision: “Give me the address! Let’s save her now! Don’t say that you still have friends who have contacted you. Even if you are a stranger, you will be saved if you encounter such a pervert.” What are we comprehending for?”

She is not asking Shen Lang, but asking herself and answering herself: “The stronger the ability, the greater the responsibility! We have the power to do it.”

Shen Lang listened to her * words, a little dumbfounding.

What is it for comprehension? Of course, it is to constantly improve the individual’s ability, and eventually robbed into a fairy, and jumped away from life and death to break through the cycle!

Of course, it’s not impossible to do it, but it’s only a matter of hand, it’s not going to be a goal, and it’s not a waste of time.

Just like the rich, they all say that they are doing charity and doing charity, making happiness for all human beings and making the planet a better place. But that’s just a superficial set of words. When making a real decision, it’s all about making your business empire bigger and bigger!

Of course, this represents the majority, and some of them are really aimed at helping the world. It is rarely a sage or a sorghum.

“Is it wrong?” Seeing his expression, Zheng Yumeng asked.

Shen Lang smiled and nodded: “Yes, what you said makes sense.”

He can see it so thoroughly, everything is based on interests, and even a little selfish, because he has had a lifetime experience. But Zheng Yumeng is a girl who is not yet 20 years old. She still has blood and ideals.

So even if he didn’t take it for granted, he wouldn’t pour cold water on his old face and let her keep this heart that hasn’t cooled yet.

“Let’s go! Give me the address!”

“First change the flight and notify your home, lest we delay, and it is not convenient to answer the call and worry them.”

“Or if you want to be thoughtful, then cancel it first!”

The car she drove was the most advanced luxury car. The driverless technology was quite good. After looking at the road conditions, she switched to the automatic driving mode and then canceled the ticket with her mobile phone. Also gave her grandfather a message, saying that she took Shenlang to play.

It's good to have such a reason. You don't need to explain the specific time first. You can play for a while, and you can play for two days a day.

She grew up here and learned about the big direction. After Shen Lang sent her position to her, she checked the details and set up navigation.

The place was not nearby. Although Zheng Yumeng was driving very fast, there was no traffic jam, but it took more than an hour to reach the location.

After arriving at a specific place, I found that it was not that simple. There was a mountain nearby!

Dorothy didn't know what method was used to keep the phone, but it also had a chance to position before entering the mountain. It's been more than an hour now. If you drive, you can go far in this mountainous area.

“You ask her where she is now.”

Shen Lang is slightly white, this is not a meeting, she can signal, it is already a chance to find it, of course, it is impossible to keep in touch at any time.

“Stop the car and hand it over to me.”

“You? Hey... Lang Ge, little master, I don't have confidence in your strength. This is not a place you are familiar with. I can only know one thing. I don't know about this mountain.” I took a car and found a place to stop.

After getting out of the car, Shen Lang took out the magic boat of the gods, and together with Zheng Yumeng, flew up.

I thought that in the hundreds of thousands of square kilometers of the Tianshan Mountain, he could find out the Tianshan Jianzong, let alone this small mountain range?

Under the screams of Zheng Yumeng's excitement, Shen Lang flew the gods to a certain height and then began to move in the air. His own eyes are a bird's eye view, the target is the vehicle parked, and even the team!

The old vampire and the A-level superman will definitely bring their own people, and this ally may not be assured, add up to at least a few cars, so the target will be more conspicuous.

According to this search, when Zheng Yumeng has not recovered from the novelty, Shen Lang has locked the target, and then lowered the altitude and approached the past.

“This is... what high technology? No, this is a surreal black technology!”

Shen Lang did not answer her, indicating that she should not speak out, and then look at the following.

It is obviously not normal for a team to stop at a place where there is no road, but there are still a few people guarding it there. Obviously it is not the ultimate goal.

Shen Lang manipulated the magic weapon, added a layer of protective illusion, prevented the outside world from discovering, and then began to find someone lower. Not only the eyes, but also the gods to explore.

Soon, in an area covered with thick jungle and completely invisible, the gods sensed the sentinel!

Chapter 327 - Speedy restricted area

Just like finding a car, you can find people within a certain distance, find people who are out of the whistle, and naturally find a destination.

Shen Lang continued his in-depth investigation and found that in this jungle, there was a mountain that was excavated, showing a cave. These people who are out of the whistle are taking this as the core and guarding them apart from each other.

Basically, these sentinel people are also divided into two camps, one or two vampires, the others are superpowers, the overall strength will not rise, basically within the C level, perhaps one or two B The leader of the class.

Because it has to be dispersed, the scale is actually not too strict. However, they are not ordinary people. They are better than ordinary people in all aspects, and their reactions are faster. Once they find an enemy, they can quickly surround the past.

Shen Lang wants to use the knowledge of God to inspect the situation inside the cave, but it is not felt, as if it is empty.

They are here, and they have dug up such a place. The legendary old restricted area should be here. He did not say that he would come over, and the scene should not be a trap for him.

This also illustrates a problem, Dorothy has been sacrificed, perhaps with her blood and her life as a guide, combined with Lingshi energy, opened this transmission array method.

People have come over, and they have not seen Dorothy, nor can they save people. It is certainly unwilling to leave.

But if you go in, there may be Dorothy's body in the cave, and it may be transmitted directly!

Whether entering a small world will be heaven or hell, Shen Lang is not afraid, he is fully capable of surviving. The question is whether you can come back!

He spent a year and a half in the dead forest, but he suffered.

At least there is still a direction, as long as you find enough Lingshi, you can open the array to leave. There is really no way, as long as you save your life, you will be able to leave in Death Valley. After a few years, you still have a chance to leave.

But now it is on the other side of the earth. Their legends and research have regarded this as an ancient restricted area. Who knows where this is sent? In case you can't come back, or you can come back for many years...

When he hesitated, Zheng Yumeng pushed him and motioned him to do it. Although she doesn't know so much, she guesses it is below.

"It may be dangerous, I will send you to the car first..."

Shen Lang passed the voice to Zheng Yumeng's ear. Zheng Yumeng didn't understand the sound. He could only shake his head and use his firm eyes to express his desire to fight to the end.

She now feels empty and has no skill, but she has not used it. She did not play it out. The last time she helped Shen Lang's business, she still borrowed her body to complete it.

"You need to do a good job, no matter what, I will still come out after all. But if I am delayed, like last time, then you need to take care of everything outside!"

Shen Lang said seriously that he is really not sure about this.

"Or... we won't save..." Zheng Yumeng silently opened his mouth and expressed her meaning with his lips.

Shen Lang is crying and laughing. She said that she is going to be a singer. She is also a woman who wants to retreat. However, Zheng Yumeng should mainly worry about his safety. After all, she and Dorothy have nothing to do with it. It is purely a slap in the face.

After thinking about it, Shen Lang did not discuss with her so much. At this point, I must take out the gestures of Lange and Master.

He urged the gods to leave, and soon returned to where they parked and put her down.

"You are waiting here. If I have not returned for a long time, you will go back first."

Zheng Yumeng is a little anxious. She is not like a bleak, it is a decisive execution. “Would you like to let the desolation sister come? She is better than me, and I should be able to help you in the year.”

Shen Lang pointed to the car and signaled her to go up.

Zheng Yumeng has no choice but to say: “Then you should be careful, come out and contact me, I will wait here.”

Shen Lang is driving the boat, and this time he goes straight to the destination.

When it came to the jungle, Shen Lang saw the top of the excavated mountain, plus the protection status of the  boat, not found below.

Then he fell straight down, and instantly reached the cave, then flew straight into it.

When he fell, there were some recent discoveries that were not right, but when I looked closely, I didn't see anything wrong. It was only a wind.

I rushed into the cave that was dug up, and the waves were clear, and this should have been within the scope of a transmission array!

There was a large stone in it, which became a temporary altar. Dorothy's body lay flat on it, motionless.

Shen Lang's gods did not receive the boat, but narrowed it down, and then immediately went to her side, reaching out and grabbing her body. Can you save and no matter what, now take people out of here and say!

Just let Zheng Yumeng leave first, just afraid that he will be sent away as soon as he comes in. Since he has not reached this level, he will not explore because of the treasures in the ghee, and he can fly away from the ribbon.

Originally, this is perfect. As long as Dorothy is still not dead, people will be saved, and they will not conflict with the two parties, that is, they will disappear.

But I didn't expect to just be next to the big stone, and there was a change around. Although he shot very quickly, he still pulled Dorothy, but it was too late to fly out.

Familiar feeling – the transfer is starting!

It is already the situation. Shen Lang can't use the * boat to hit hard. Normal transmission can still come back. There is an error in the transmission, and I may not know how to die.

After a moment, suddenly, from the cave, to another place, a small world that does not know where it is.

Shen Lang immediately felt that there were two people guarding the exit of the transmission array. It should be both of them, a vampire and a superpower.

He now carries Dorothy's body, does not want to conflict with them, and does not want to kill them. So I drove directly to the gods, and when I came out, I went away.

The two guards just felt the change of the transmission array. When they were staring at it, they felt a gust of wind. No one saw it. They could only face each other and shrug each other. .

The place that came out was also a mountainous area, but because the speed of the boat was speeding up, it quickly flew out of the distance, and had already left the mountainous area. Because it was flying in the air, it looked out and could see far away.

Shen Lang let the speed of the gods go down, you must first clear the way back. He just left when he came out, but he had already inspected it with his knowledge, but now he has to fly far, and he still has to identify the specific point.

He came to save people. There is no way to send it. Of course, it is best to send it back quickly and leave the restricted area before the two of them return.

But before that, I have to check if Dorothy is dead.

Before inspecting Dorothy, after reading the direction of flying, Shen Lang's eyes glanced around and suddenly stunned!

God, this is what world has come!

Chapter 328 - 1 drop of blood

Shen Lang has entered many small worlds in the past, basically like the dead forest. It is a blessed hole that has not been developed by humans.

The forest of death may be named after the Death Valley. He entered from another place in his previous life and his name is different. Looking at it now, there may be some small worlds that are themselves, just because the territory is too big, limited to conditions can not be developed one by one, plus information is not smooth and confidential, there will be many different claims.

Like the Pacific Ocean, the entire Pacific Rim is so vast that so many countries link to the Pacific Ocean. In a time when the population is smaller and the country is smaller, it is even more different. Many countries feel that it is the endless ocean and the end of the world.

The practical experience of past lives, combined with the world view of modern civilization, is to make Shen Lang know more.

But the scene I saw now still surprised him!

Because it is seen in the eye, it is not an endless forest, or a vast desert, nor a Gobi and grassland. Instead, it is a city with skyscrapers!

A brief introduction of Dorothy, saying that this is an ancient restricted area, was previously passed down by the indigenous ancestors of this continent, and there is a saying of heaven and hell. And basically no one has explored success. This A-level superman also took decades to find, and also needs a vampire sacrifice.

According to these clues, Shen Lang thought it was a primitive, unexplored place. Heaven may be full of aura, exotic flowers, and * may have a variety of powerful beasts.

So I saw it, but it was a skyscraper, and this huge contrast made him surprised.

It now appears that this ancient restricted area is not a small world that is transmitted to another space, but to another place in the world.

If this is the case, it can be explained. For example, Marco Polo in the thirteenth century came to the East and saw the most prosperous capital in the world. It also felt like heaven.

Heaven is just a description, and the same is true of hell. When the indigenous people here were still drinking blood, if they were mistakenly dressed in the East, they would be easily arrested and hunted. When they were treated as savage monsters, they would feel that it was possible to reach hell.

Seeing what I saw, I also let Shen Lang feel relieved. Since it is traversing another country, it is easy to go back whether it is in the East or the West. When you look at the distance, you will go back to Zheng Yumeng, and if you are far away, you will return directly to the country.

Don't worry about getting out, Shen Lang just remembered it, and didn't go back to the transmission array. Then I went back to the foot of the mountain and fell down. I took the boat and checked the situation of Dorothy.

Although the situation was urgent just now, in fact, he still knows that Dorothy's abdomen was broken! Already put a lot of blood on the big rock. When he arrived, it was basically drained. No blood flowed out and it dried up.

I checked the life of Dorothy carefully and I felt that it was not optimistic. The blood has drained and the heart has stopped beating.

However, Shen Lang did not give up. He suggested that Dorothy sent out the altar position. It is considered that their vitality is stronger and may be saved before the real death.

If this situation is placed on ordinary people, of course, it is already dead and can no longer die. But on the special race of vampires, Shen Lang felt that there was still a chance.

Recalling that on the plane that day, Dorothy was very weak, sucking a little of his blood, and soon the state recovered a lot.

Shen Lang looked at her lips. If he injected his blood, I don't know if it has any effect. Or is it supposed to be injected into his blood vessels by means of blood transfusion?

He did not hesitate, took out the autumn water sword, gently scratched his finger, and put it in her mouth.

The reason for this time is to use a sword instead of biting your finger. It was because on the plane last time, it was inconvenient to take the sword out because of the environment. In addition, it was tried last time. It is not easy to bite your finger. It is very hard.

The blood squeezed a few drops in, but it still seemed to remain in her mouth, meaning no absorption.

This made Shen Lang frown. Since he ran this way, he wanted to save people. If you take a corpse back, don't say that Zheng Yumeng will be disappointed, he will feel unwilling.

Unfortunately, he has a limited understanding of the situation of vampires. If he can still save, Count Dracula should have a solution. It was a pity that when they were in the forest of death, Count Dracula had no idea how many years there had been guarding the golden giants, and there was no contact information such as smartphones.

What is left to him is a drop of blood. When it is necessary, it can save lives, but it costs a price. If it is difficult, you can burn it. Within a certain range, he can sense it and will rush to save a life.

This gift can not be said to be precious, even if the life-saving is a price – it is likely to become a vampire, but the first promise made by Count Dracula is very good.

Now that Dorothy is in this state, there is no other way for Shen Lang. Count Dracula is not connected, and the place where it is now is not clear in any country. If it is separated by thousands of miles, just at the other end of the earth, the burning is wasted, and the Count Dracula can't sense it. so far.

The rest is to use that drop of blood.

Shen Lang took it out and looked at the black and red blood. He was still hesitant.

He does not count on a drop of blood to save lives, or to summon Dracula, but the gifts of others are at least commemorative.

But just hesitating for a while, Dorothy, who is now to be saved, is also a vampire, and it can be regarded as helping his kind.

Without further ado, after Shen Lang's decision, there was no further delay. In the same way, the blood was stuffed into Dorothy's mouth.

It is strange to say that a drop of blood that had been condensed and not scattered into her mouth was dissipated and absorbed by her, and a few drops of blood from the previous waves were absorbed together.

The effect is also very good, but for a while, Dorothy's body has a little change. Shen Lang quickly touched the pulse, found that she began to have a weak heartbeat!

Of course, he wiped the wrist pulse, not the heart, the effect of the induction is not so direct.

This is a good start! If the blood of Count Dracula can't make her recover, he can't do anything about it. His fingers began to heal, no more bleeding, and no more blood for her.

At this time, there was a sound coming from the air, and Shen Lang looked up and couldn't help but widen his eyes.

It's a car. It looks a bit like a police car, but it's not coming from the ground, but flying over the air!

Which country is so developed? Shen Lang feels a little embarrassed, even if there is this technology, it is not enough to be able to equip to the general patrol!

Soon, the car had landed in front of him, and then quickly emerged from the inside of the two people, all wearing uniforms, with a shock-bar weapon in their hands.

"Stand up, let go of the victim!"

Chapter 329 - River basin

Let go of the victim?

Shen Lang was surprised that this was the place. When I heard this, I couldn't help but be surprised again. The other party thought of him as the murderer who killed Dorothy!

The Dorothy he is holding now, the blood on his body has already dried up, to say that he is not killed, then why do you hold the victim? Who is the murderer?

However, his focus is not on this. Now I only need to give Dorothy time. After the blood of Count Dracula, she can naturally prove innocence.

What he cares more now is, where is this?

“No problem, I will not hurt her, in fact, I want to save her.” Shen Lang put her down, and then stood up, keeping the appearance of no offense. “But I want to ask, where is this?”

The two people seemed to be a bit inexplicable, and the one who drove the car came over.

“This is the patrol guard of Talo City. You are suspected of killing a woman. You have been arrested. If anything, wait until you get to the Guards Department!”

After he finished, he raised his hand and motioned the two men to take the Shen Lang.

“Wait a minute!” Shen Lang told them not to come over: “Talo City? Patrol Guards? Guards?”

The repetition of his sentence made the “guard” behind him unhappy, which was deliberately looking for it!

“I mean... Which country do you belong to?” Shen Lang is a little helpless. Shouldn't it be called the police?

However, in his mind, a flash of thought suddenly flashed.

If this is still on earth, it may not be a time and space. If it is a few hundred years later, then the airspeed is nothing.

There is another possibility, that is...

“Country? What country?” The other side frowned.

The other two guards have already approached quickly, and the same thing as the electric shock stick pointed to the Shen Lang, indicating that he should not move.

It is a strange dialogue to the country!

Shen Lang remembered two people who met in the dead forest two months ago!

“Excuse me, is Tallo City a city that belongs to the river basin?” Shen Lang asked again.

“Tallo City is of course a river city. What kind of person are you? Don’t think that you can mix it with him! Take him down!”

River Valley City State!

After hearing this answer, Shen Lang was speechless.

That’s it!

This is no longer on the earth, and Bihaihuan shows them casually. It is black technology relative to the earth. It is not surprising that it will see cars coming in the air here.

“That’s good, the patrol guards of your Guards Department are not qualified to talk to me!”

Shen Lang raised his hand and banned the two guards in the air. He waved again and threw them back to the car. All he wanted was a hand and did not hurt them.

The one who just spoke, shocked.

“You, you are... the master of psionics?”

“What do you say? Do you want to verify it?” Shen Lang stretched his finger to him.

The man immediately raised his hands: “No, no, I can’t question you!”

Just two colleagues, have been verified, this time still can not move next to the car, does not reveal a horrified look.

“The psionic masters do things, we should not ask more, please forgive you!”

Shen Lang wants to know about the situation here, so I hooked my finger: “Come on, tell me about the situation in Tallo City, I don’t know much about it here.”

Originally, he said that the guards felt that they were playing tricks. Now, they are completely different, thinking that he only knows about Talo City.

“You can check... cough!” He wanted to say that he could get his own enquiry, but he didn’t dare to offend. He quickly changed his mouth and introduced it: “Tallo City is in the southwest of the city. We are not a big city. The psionic master is very Less, so I just offended, please don’t be surprised.”

Shen Lang is a bit speechless, this introduction is too simple, right? More is explained.

However, he still got a lot of information from the mouth of this guard. The first is the orientation. The city of Talo is in the southwest of the city, and this is just a small city. The city of the basin should have such a large city.

But what he is still not sure about is that the river city is a federal country or the name of this world?

The other information is that their technology is very developed, and it can be similar to the network’s query to specific information at any time. Instead, it is introduced in a verbal manner, which is not too detailed.

Another point is that the psionic masters in this world of the city can have absolute authority. It is like a police guard. It is estimated that they can kill them casually, which will make them so nervous!

“Okay, let’s go! My whereabouts... Do you know?”

“Understand, understand, we absolutely dare not disclose the news of the adults, and will immediately erase the relevant information.” The guard quickly agreed, and then returned to the car.

The two next to me found that they could move, and quickly got on the bus. Then the car flew straight up and flew backwards for a while before turning around, presumably to maintain respectful etiquette.

After discovering that the river city was coming, Shen Lang immediately thought of the holy armor, and that thing might be useful.

He immediately put on the sacred armor.

This stuff seems to have a super-smart computer, and thinking can be controlled. Before the Shen Lang groped, it was mainly the function of the aircraft, and the defense was also used. The other basically did not use him and did not have much control.

But now I realize that it is definitely not just that simple.

So he tried to associate with the information about the city-states, and immediately there was a lot of information coming out. Through the cover of the helmet, he quickly learned about it in an indoctrinating way.

This is really another world. There are no countries here, and some are city-states. The so-called city-state is similar to the federal state of the city. The river city is one of the largest city-states.

This river basin territory is also very vast, with many cities, this tower of skyscrapers is actually very large, but in the river basin, it is just a general city.

Just like the patrol guards, it is similar to the police, different names. Their duty is to protect the city, and the equipment is also very advanced.

So seeing that their car can fly doesn't mean it's something that everyone has. Of course, the G-3 is a higher-looking gadget than a car that can fly.

The blue sea sent him this pair, it is a very powerful super sacred armor.

Just when Shen Lang had just digested the information, the helmet had a message, and when he "looks" the past, he immediately reads it.

After reading, a realistic holographic image was projected on the front through the helmet.

"Teacher! You really came to the city of the river basin! I am so happy!" The appearance of Bihaihuan, she can also see the holographic image of the current Shenlang, so excitedly called.

Chapter 330 - A-class superman

Shen Lang is a little sweaty, I feel a bit bandit, just that should not be information, but a call notification similar to the phone!

"How do you know that I am coming?" He touched his nose and looked around.

Just those guards, there may be monitoring or what is discovered, but Bihaihuan will not be so smart just in Tallow City, the report did not inform her so soon.

"You came to the city-state and put on the sacred armor that I sent you. I immediately sensed it here. Wait a moment, I will position it now and pick you up right away!"

Bihaihuan said, then waved his farewell, saying that the call was terminated first.

The holographic image disappeared, and the waves were a little helpless.

He used to fly in the sacred armor, in the dead forest, and used it back. But nothing changed, it was because in different spaces, they could not connect to their networks and could not receive their signals.

Here is the city of the river basin, he just put on, perhaps there is already a positioning signal, and read the information, not to mention, so Bihaihuan immediately know.

However, such a signal, positioning what, should also be able to close, there should be an “anonymous stealth” state.

Now of course he does not need to close. Since he came here, Bi Haihuan also got in touch with him, so she will wait for her to come.

At this time, he felt a little change, and the gods flashed and immediately found someone coming from behind the mountains.

After a while, the two figures flew quickly and appeared in front of Shen Lang.

“Who are you? What is this place?” One of them forced a question from Shen Lang.

The other person, surprised to see Dorothy on the ground, came to her side: “Dorothy? Dorothy!”

“How is Dorothy here, who are you?” The man continued to ask.

Looking at the two of them, you can feel the power of both of them. The Shen Lang basically corresponds. The one who talks to him should be the A-level superman, the equivalent of the Western monk who lives in the real world!

The other one, perhaps the father of Dorothy, an old vampire!

The two of them will be together, not accidental, they must come in together, and there will not be many people who come in, leaving one to guard the transmission line.

Although it took more than an hour from the time when the waves reached the foot of the mountain, when Dorothy signaled it, it was under the mountain. They needed time to go up the mountain, then walked to the jungle and then dug the mountain. Expose the cave, then sacrifice, open the array...

So it is estimated that the actual time, they have not come in for a long time, and due to careful exploration, plus the possibility of mountain areas. The Shenlang was directly rushing over here, so they went to their heads.

“How are you doing her? What have you done to her?” Dorothy’s father asked.

Shen Lang is now wearing a tight-fitting gown. He was not a race with them, so it looks completely different. He simply did not respond, pretending to be a person on the side of the river city, watching them in vain.

In order to confuse him, he simply said a few words in the language of Licao County.

The A-class superman and the old vampire looked at each other and didn’t understand what it meant.

“It seems to be the indigenous people of this world!” The A-level superman whispered.

“Nothing! No matter how he got it, as long as Dorothy’s body was not taken away, we can still go back with it.”

After talking about the A-level powerhouse, I looked at the distant city: “But the world is a bit wrong, unlike the restricted area, it is very prosperous.”

“Is it going to cross the other side of the planet? Or is it another world?”

“Getting this Shantou Greensman and extracting his memories should be able to understand. As long as we understand this, we can truly win useful resources!”

The A-level super-powered person immediately said that he was ready to start.

“Okay, then you grab him! I brought Dorothy’s body, I feel a little abnormal, she seems to be alive...”

The two men immediately made a division of labor, all big men, never tempered at such a moment, the A-class superman immediately showed a smile, and then came to Shen Lang.

“We are friends, friends! We come for peace! Peace, do you understand?”

With a candid smile, he emphasized the words of peace.

Shen Lang is speechless, this is simply squinting and talking! However, he has nothing to despise, the other party deliberately confuses him, wants to make him yin, he pretends to be stunned, the same is to want to put the other two yin!

After all, it is an A-class superman who is equivalent to the real world, and this old vampire can sit on his side and believe that the strength will not be bad.

Shen Lang waited for him to come close, but his face was still incomprehensible, and he simply said a few words of meaningless Pingxi Li Cao.

“Yes! You understand! Peace, we are the messengers of peace! For peace for friendship...”

The A-level superman is only a few meters away from Shenlang. He decided not to install it, and he started it directly!

With his strength, he could have been shot even further, and he also had confidence. But just through the passage of the ancient restricted area, I came to a strange world. In the unlikely event that a young man is very powerful?

And he is not going to kill, he is going to catch a living.

So in order to be on the safe side, he is still approaching a little and then attacking!

Just when he was ready to take the shot, the “indigenous” in front suddenly screamed and screamed, and it became very dazzling!

Hands-on!

No matter what the glare is, he must do it right away!

But in this thought, and the moment of the shot, he felt that the glare of the light, there seems to be a light into his body!

When the reaction came over, the light was stirred in his chest and cut him directly into the chest from the chest!

The glare of the light directly led the old vampire who had just returned to Dorothy, instinctively covering the entire face with clothes, and quickly retreating to the back a distance until the light disappeared, he again What I saw was a companion's ally, a powerful super-power who reached the A-level, and was killed by alive!

He showed an incredible look, and then dared not stop, and quickly returned to the mountains, faster than the coming.

Not to mention the possession of the holy armor and the gods, even if relying on the "phantom meteor step", Shen Lang is sure to catch up with this fast vampire, but since he scared people away, he will not chase.

He was very satisfied with the effect just after that.

Originally, because of the scruples about the strength of the masters of the real world, he was also wary of the A-level superpowers here.

Just like the other side approaching a little to increase insurance, Shen Lang is also trying to let the sacred light shine, to cover the sword of the autumn water sword with the glare of sudden bursting!

And he also tested the effect, after breaking through the fourth weight, and then using the Qiushui sword to kill the master of the real world, it is much easier than before!
